

Remodeling on 3 Buildings Starts

Throughout the nation, small towns as well as cities complain they are dying in their downtown areas.

In Wellington it's different. Three major remodeling jobs are under way, either on or just off the west side of the square.

When these are completed, they will boost construction figures in Wellington for the past 12 months to a quarter of a million dollars or more.

Sandy Parsons, Jr., announced that construction started Monday morning, Aug. 2 on remodeling the LeDerer building and he will move Parsons Drug to that location when work is completed around Oct. 1.

Parsons is completing remodeling the building at the corner of Amarillo and 9th Streets, formerly occupied by Lora's Beauty Shop, into an office building, and the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service will move into it as soon as the interior work is finished. The move is due over this week end.

James Doneghy is remodeling the building at the southwest corner of the square, originally known as the Rock Lowry building.

This also will be an office building.

Added to this is approximately $225,000 in residential construction in Wellington in the last 12 months period, which includes both new homes and remodeling, according to building permits issued by the City of Wellington.

Around $150,000 in construction has come since the first of the year. A majority of the homes built during the period have been in the $15,000 to $22,500 class.

The three business buildings on which remodeling has started have been vacant.

The LeDerer building which Parsons has started remodeling is the only 50-foot front store on the west side of the square. He said Monday the building will be remodeled throughout, although detailed plans have not been completed.

The second story will be removed. A new front will be put in which will include large areas of glass. New floor, ceiling and roof will be installed.

Parsons said the building in which the drug store is now located, which he owns, will be rented. He bought the LeDerer building recently from members of the Saied family.

This downtown construction continues a trend that began several years ago which has brought the remodeling of a number of store fronts and interiors and a general sprucing up of the courthouse square section.

In line with this updating, the Builders Club earlier this year installed colorful temporary wooden fronts in two buildings which were empty.

Throughout this period of updating, Wellington has caught the attention of out-of-town visitors and business men for the attractive and prosperous appearance of its downtown section.

Gospel Singing Set for Sunday

The regular second Sunday gospel singing convention will be held at Trinity Methodist Church Sunday, Aug. 8, according to Mrs. R. H. Isbell. The meeting will be held in the sanctuary of the church from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

People will attend from Collingsworth and surrounding counties. "We expect lots of out of town people," Mrs. Isbell said. "All who enjoy good gospel singing are invited to attend."

Miss Grain Sorghum

Dianne Moseley to Represent County

Miss Dianne Moseley, 18-year-old Quail Beauty, will represent the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce in the Miss Grain Sorghum of the Nation Contest at Dimmitt Saturday, August 7 and she will also be the representative at the Wheatheart of the Nation Contest later this month.

Miss Moseley replaces Miss Karen Childress, the 1964-65 Collingsworth County Fair Queen, who traditionally would have been the representative. Miss Childress is being married this month and is therefore ineligible for participation in the two contests. N. M. Higdon, Chamber of Commerce manager, explained.

Miss Moseley was a runner-up in the Collingsworth County Fair Queen Contest in September 1964.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Moseley of Quail and was graduated from Quail high school this spring. This summer she is a student in Clarendon Junior College, and in September she will en-

The annual reunion of residents and former residents of the Loco and Arlie communities will be held Sunday, Aug. 8 at the community building in Wellington.

This will be an all-day affair.

Visitors will begin gathering before lunch, and a basket dinner will be served at noon. Altogether, a crowd of approximately 100 is expected.

Hosts this year are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harbin, who live in the Loco community, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Masten of Wellington. Mrs. John Bevers is the secretary.

Invitations went out earlier to all former residents whose addresses were known. No invitations were sent those still living here, and all who are interested are invited to come, bringing their dinner if they expect to be here for the noon meal.

A short program, which will consist principally of group singing, will be held in the afternoon.

There still live in this area a number of men and women who grew up in these communities, and whose memories of

Boll Weevil Count Up, Helmerts Tells Growers

Boll weevil counts taken by the county agent's office and the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers insect survey team show a marked increase this week, Sammy Helmerts told The Wellington Leader Thursday, Aug. 5.

One field on Buck Creek increased from 6% boll weevil punctures for each 100 squares to 40% punctures from July 22 to July 29. This shows how fast the infestation may grow, Helmerts pointed out.

He has spot-checked several fields over the county and says that most show only light weevil infestation. The field on Buck Creek is the only disturbing infestation seen this week, he added. The highest infestations have been found along creeks and shelterbelts. This does not eliminate the possibility of a buildup in other areas, Helmerts warned.

Boll worm infestations are generally light with an average of 2 or 3 eggs and/or small bolls damaged per 100 terminals checked.

"The beneficial insect count has been high. We still have

Ex-Student Reunion Opens Friday Evening

More than 200 former students of the Wellington schools will gather for their 15th annual Homecoming Friday and Saturday, Aug. 6 and 7. The festivities open with a watermelon supper at Ellison Park at 7:30 p.m. Friday and close with the Ex-Students Dance Saturday night. Events are scheduled throughout Saturday.

Donald Curry, president of the Wellington Ex-Students Association during most of its existence, has announced late plans.

The traditional "Welcome to Wellington" street decorations went up over the week end, with Bobo Castleberry in charge of the work.

The spotlight this year turns to open house for the various classes, which is being resumed after a lapse of several years. These will follow the business session and crowning of the Homecoming Queen Saturday afternoon.

Louise Cox Mabery is in charge of open house for the classes from 1910 through 1924. She has announced that these will meet jointly in the Greenbelt Rural Electric building, across the street from the community building. Three couples will be asked to serve as hosts.

The interests of this group spans more than one class, and too, these were small classes, Mrs. Mabery reminded. Because of this, members of the classes through 1924 will meet together.

Open house plans for the classes from 1925 through 1934 are being made by Dora Fern Durley Warrick; 1935 through 1944, by C. A. Crawford; 1945 through 1954 by Gay Reeves McAlister; and 1955 through 1965 by Louis Graham. The homes in which these will be held will be given at the time of registration, Curry said.

One open house already has been posted, for the classes of 1954 and 1956, which will be in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Bartlett at 1507 Fifteenth Street. The hostesses will be Genevieve Bartlett Patterson, Delores Ward Patterson and Lahonda Mayhugh.

Registration will start at 7 p.m. at Ellison Park and continue through the evening. The free watermelon supper will start at 7:30 p.m., under the direction of Velma Warrick.

Saturday morning will be given over to visiting at the community building, which will be registration headquarters throughout the day, beginning at 10 a.m.

Dora E. McClaskey Smith is in charge of registration, and those helping her will be Jimmie Wilkins, Larlu Hays, Noma Cristy Clement, Dorothy Baird McGill, Aleta Owens, Beverly Singley, Doris Wilhite Wynona Jones, Jan Glenn, Joyce Holton, Rosemary Jones Langford, Evelyn Ball King, and Rachel Rainer Campbell. Kay Carter Feemster and Margie Robertson Maddox are caring for advance registration.

The 1965 Homecoming Queen will be crowned during the afternoon session, which starts at 2:30 p.m. in the community building. The five candidates are Alma Alexander Crawley, class of 1914; Thelma Masten Curry, 1928; Evelyn Conner Hartford, 1929; of Oklahoma City; Argen Hix Draper, 1930, of Hereford; and Dora Elizabeth Smith, 1938.

Ineva Cudd Bowen is directing the Queen contest. Patsy Harper Mitchell is head of the hospitality committee.

The barbecue, with more visiting, will start at 6:30 p.m. in Ellison Park Saturday evening. Calvin A. Hurst is in charge of the barbecuing.

A former Wellington student, Charles Roberts will bring his band here to play for the ex-students dance, which begins at 9 p.m. in the community building. Jake Leach is chairman.

Burial at Quail

Susan Gilbreth Dies In Lakeview Crash

Susan Kay Gilbreth, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gilbreth of Lakeview, formerly of Quail, died at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, July 28 in a Memphis Hospital of injuries received in a one-car accident an hour earlier.

The family moved to Lakeview two years ago when Mr. Gilbreth became principal of the high school. He was elementary school principal and coach at Quail.

According to information received here, the accident occurred near Lakeview as Susan and three other girls were in a pickup en route from the home of one to change irrigation pipe on another farm. The driver lost control of the vehicle, which overturned, pinning Susan beneath it.

Her brother, Richard, 13, was with several boys in a pickup a short distance ahead and the group witnessed the accident, according to reports.

Susan Kay was born June 7, 1953 at Hereford. She attended school at Quail four years and would have been a 7th grade student at Lakeview this year.

Funeral services were conducted Friday at 3 p.m. at the Methodist Church in Lakeview with the Rev. Claude Nixon, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Quail Cemetery under the direction of Kelson Funeral Home.

Survivors include the parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gilbreth of Lakeview; a sister and two brothers, Mary Ann, James Richard and Johnny Zane of Lakeview; and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Gilbreth of Hedley and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Lockhart of Clifton.

Mrs. Gladney Breaks Leg

Mrs. J. L. Gladney received a broken right leg in a fall at her home about 3 a.m. Wednesday, July 28 when she got out of bed without her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ozro Bartlett, being aware of it.

The bone was broken just below her hip, a granddaughter, Mrs. Joe Bartlett, said.

She was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital and her condition was regarded so critical that members of her family were called to her bedside during the week end. Those coming were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kummerfeld of Moorcraft, Wyoming; Mrs. Oleta Bentley of Kansas City, Missouri; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Gladney and their son, John Lloyd Gladney of Amarillo. Orientation Set August 9 for New Students

An orientation period and pre-registration has been set for Monday, Aug. 9 at 1 p.m. for all students who will attend Wellington high school for the first time during the 1965-66 year. E. W. Clement, high school principal, announced.

This will include students of Booker T. Washington high school and all high school students who have moved into the Wellington Independent School District during the summer months.

At this time they will meet Mr. Clement and confer with Louis Graham, high school counselor. The group will meet in the high school auditorium.

The meeting was also set up so that administrators will know how many classes will be needed for the school year and how these are to be arranged, Clement pointed out.

"This is an important meeting and all parents of children who will be new in the high school are urged to have them here for the meeting," the principal said.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER TWO ON THE BALLOT

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO BE VOTED ON AT AN ELECTION TO BE HELD ON NOVEMBER 2, 1965. HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 5 proposing an Amendment to Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas so as to authorize an increase in the total amount of bonds or obligations that may be issued by the Veterans' Land Board to Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000); providing for the issuance of said bonds or obligations and the conditions relating thereto and the use of the Veterans' Land Fund; and providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 49-b, Article III of the Constitution of Texas, be amended so that the same will hereafter read as follows:

"Section 49-b. By virtue of prior Amendments to this Constitution, there has been created a governmental agency of the State of Texas performing governmental duties which have been designated the Veterans' Land Board. Said Board shall continue to function for the purposes specified in all of the prior Constitutional Amendments except as modified herein. Said Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of the General Land Office and two (2) citizens of the State of Texas, one (1) of whom shall be well versed in veterans' affairs and one (1) of whom shall be well versed in finances. One (1) such citizen member shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be appointed biennially by the Governor to serve for a term of four (4) years; but the members serving on said Board on the date of adoption hereof shall complete the terms to which they were appointed. In the event of the resignation or death of any such citizen member, the Governor shall appoint a replacement to serve for the unexpired portion of the term to which the deceased or resigning member had been appointed. The compensation for said citizen members shall be as is now or may hereafter be fixed by the Legislature; and each shall make bond in such amount as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Legislature."

"The Commissioner of the General Land Office shall act as Chairman of said Board and shall be the administrator of the Veterans' Land Program under such terms and restrictions as are now or may hereafter be provided by law. In the absence or illness of said Commissioner, the Chief Clerk of the General Land Office shall be the Acting Chairman of said Board with the same duties and powers that said Commissioner would have if present."

"The Veterans' Land Board may provide for, issue and sell not to exceed Four Hundred Million Dollars ($400,000,000) in bonds or obligations of the State of Texas for the purpose of creating a fund to be known as the Veterans' Land Fund, Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) of which have heretofore been issued and sold. Such bonds or obligations shall be sold for not less than par value and accrued interest; shall be issued in such forms, denominations, and upon such terms as may now or may hereafter be provided by law; shall be issued and sold at such times, at such places, and in such installments as may be determined by said Board; and shall bear a rate or rates of interest that may be fixed by said Board but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of said bonds shall not exceed four and one-half per cent (4½%). All bonds or obligations issued and sold hereunder shall, after execution by the Board, approval by the Attorney General of Texas, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchaser or purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas; and all bonds heretofore issued and sold by said Board are hereby null and void, and are hereby declared to be general obligations of the State of Texas. In order to prevent default in the payment of principal or interest on any such bonds, the Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient amount to pay the same.

"In the sale of any such bonds or obligations, a preference shall be given to the administrators of the various Teacher Retirement Funds, the Permanent University Funds, and the Permanent School Funds.

"Said Veterans' Land Fund shall consist of any lands heretofore or hereafter purchased by said Board, until the sale price thereof, together with any interest and penalties due, have been received by said Board (although nothing herein shall be construed to prevent said Board from accepting full payment for a portion of any tract), and of the moneys attributable to any bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board which moneys so attributable shall include but shall not be limited to the proceeds from the issuance and sale of such bonds; the moneys received from the sale or resale of any lands, or rights therein, purchased with other moneys attributable to such bonds; the interest and penalties received from the sale or resale of such lands, or rights therein; the bonuses, income, rents, royalties, and any other pecuniary benefit received by said Board from any such lands; sums received by way of indemnity or forfeiture for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any such bond to comply with his bid and accept and pay for such bonds or for the failure of any bidder for the purchase of any lands comprising a part of said Fund to comply with his bid and accept and pay for any such lands; and interest received from investments of any such moneys. The principal and interest on the bonds heretofore and hereafter issued by said Board shall be paid out of the moneys of said Fund in conformance with the Constitutional provisions authorizing such bonds; but the moneys of said Fund which are not immediately committed to the payment of principal and interest on such bonds, the purchase of lands as herein provided, or the payment of expenses as herein provided may be invested in bonds or obligations of the United States until such funds are needed for such purposes.

"All moneys comprising a part of said Fund and not expended for the purposes herein provided shall be a part of said Fund until there are sufficient moneys therein to retire fully all of the bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board, at which time all such moneys remaining in said Fund, except such portion thereof as may be necessary to retire all such bonds which portion shall be set aside and retained in said Fund for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, shall be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund to be appropriated to such purposes as may be prescribed by law. All moneys becoming a part of said Fund thereafter shall likewise be deposited to the credit of the General Revenue Fund."

"When a Division of said Fund (each Division consisting of the moneys attributable to the bonds issued and sold pursuant to a single Constitutional authorization and the lands purchased thereunder) contains sufficient moneys to retire all of the bonds secured by such Division which portion shall be set aside and remain a part of such Division for the purpose of retiring all such bonds, such moneys may be used for the purpose of paying the principal and the interest thereon, together with the expenses herein authorized, of any other bonds heretofore or hereafter issued and sold by said Board. Such use shall be a matter for the discretion and direction of said Board; but there may be no such use of any such moneys contrary to the rights of any holder of any of the bonds issued and sold by said Board or violation of any contract to which said Board is a party.

If you've heard that GAS central air is out of your reach, don't believe it!

Get the facts. Call Lone Star Gas for a free estimate!

Don't be fooled by "horseback estimates" on costs! Get a bona fide air conditioning price from Lone Star Gas and compare with the price of the same size electric unit. You'll find the little extra per month to buy a gas unit buys you a lot more air conditioning over the years.

There are two types of gas systems for homes: a combination cooling and heating system and an add-on cooling system.

LOW DOWN PAYMENT, AS LITTLE AS $25/MO. FOR 2.8-TON UNIT

This new gas unit for medium-size homes both cools and heats... puts the world's finest year-around air conditioning in reach of everyone.

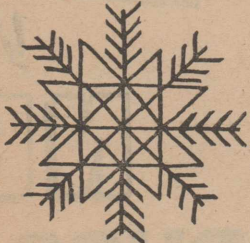

WHY GAS UNITS OUTLAST ELECTRIC COMPRESSOR TYPES

Gas cooling for homes has no compressor. A simple gas flame is the heart of the cooling cycle... with few moving parts to wear or need repair. No wonder you can expect gas air conditioning to outlast electric!

SPECIAL SUMMER GAS AIR CONDITIONING RATES

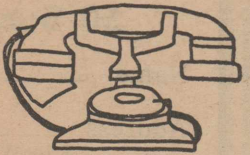

Owners of gas air conditioners get reduced gas rates for cooling during the hot summer months. This makes for even more economy from an efficient gas unit!

GAS ECONOMY PAYS OFF YEAR AFTER YEAR

You save in operating efficiency, low maintenance, amazingly long service. Combined heating and cooling costs with gas are substantially lower than for electric heating and cooling. Add to that the savings in maintenance and electric compressor replacements and you'll see why gas is your best home air conditioning investment.

"Who can be a member? Anyone who is interested in a better family, better community and better country for our beloved families," she continued.

Officers installed were Mrs. Bentley, president; Mrs. Myers, vice president; Mrs. James Martindale, secretary; Mrs. Jim Ray, treasurer; and Mrs. Marvin Knoll, reporter and historian.

FIRST TIME OUT

Three times a week, the youngest set takes to the water, with more or less splashing, to learn how to stay on top and propel themselves across Marian Airpark Pool. While she encourages the children to try it alone,

Mrs. James Larson lets them hold on if it will make them more secure. Here young Verna Beth Derryberry finds that closing her eyes tight helped, too.

Land Family Holds Annual Reunion at Permanent Site on Buck Creek

The annual Land family reunion was held over the week end of July 31 and Aug. 1 at the permanent reunion grounds on Buck Creek, west of Wellington.

This was the tenth reunion, and the eighth held at the present location. Over the years, permanent tables and benches were built, water was installed, and even showers keep the reunion visitors comfortable on the hot mid-summer days.

A highlight this year was the Saturday night fish fry. Providing them were the Fisher family of Glendora, Calif., who caught them from the Salton Sea, California.

Sunday was spent visiting, and a barbecue dinner was served at noon.

Those who come each year are the children and other relatives of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Land, who came to Collingsworth County from Tell in 1916. About two years later they moved to Hedley. A son, Roscoe Land, returned to buy his farm and since then it has been the location of the reunion.

Attending this year were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Land of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Zebbie

Land, Ricky, Randy, Reggie and Mrs. Ellen Richardson of Pampa; Mrs. Hazel South of Lawton, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Driskill, Sara and June, Miss Doris Cathey and Patti Whizenant of Abilene; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Fisher and Madonna of Glendora, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Etter, Kinny, Bobby Jo and Mrs. Lea Williams of Grand Junction, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Land, Steve and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Land of Clarendon; Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs Land and Genia, and Miss Ellen Faye Land of Perryton;

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Britten over the week end were their parents and his brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brittain and Larry of Reed, and Mr. and Mrs. Othel Britten and boys of Grants, N.M.; and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Weaver of Mangum.

Arnett in "Head Start"

Almost 20 youngsters from the Arnett School District are participating in Operation Head Start this summer, and the program will be continued through the regular school term, said Supt. Bob Copeland this week.

The children are attending classes at Hollis now, but beginning in September the work will be set up in their own school.

Copeland explained that this is part of the President's Poverty Program, designed to help those children who have lacked advantages and social situations for one reason or another.

For some, this is learning to play with other children, or participating in other forms of social development. They learn about cleanliness and work for other elementary knowledge which a child should have by the time he starts to school, it was explained. The youngsters return to their homes immediately after lunch.

Copeland said the cost of Operation Head Start is shared, with the federal government providing 85 percent and the school 15 percent.

What's so different about the tomato?

It's just about the only thing in the kitchen garden that still needs to be canned with the old-fashioned hot pack, cold pack drudgery. Most other fruits and vegetables can be put up by easy pack—simply washed and frozen. An electric freezer will keep summer freshness and flavor on your table the year 'round.

An electric freezer means economy (stock up when things are in season) . . . convenience (less trips to the store) . . . variety (ice cream and other treats can be served anytime).

See your appliance dealer soon. Put up the modern, electric freezer way.

Many Distinguished Men and Women Are Among Ex-Students

This week end, Wellington again welcomes the ex-students of its schools. Pleasure and fun are the keynote of these reunions that do so much to keep contact between our town and its sons and daughters.

There is not a week but that news of some of these men and women goes across the desk of The Wellington Leader, and over the months, one fact is outstanding — the great number of outstanding men and women who began their education in the Wellington schools.

It is true we have not had those who captured the national headlines, but often this kind of recognition is fleeting. It is doubtful that any community of our size has sent out as many of its young men and women who have provided leadership in their professions, who have distinguished themselves by the outstanding quality of their lives and their work.

The roll is long, but it encompasses such fields as medicine, law, newspapers, religion, merchandising, the many branches of government service, the military, education, and the list goes on.

We pay tribute to each of them. Much of their accomplishment came from their own hard work . . . but their background they gained here among us.

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where a Swiss professor by the name of Bovet, who is a Nobel Medicine Prize winner, says smoking stimulates the intelligence and the memory.

My charred-brain neighbor says this explains why many officials want scare labels on cigarettes, and are all the time trying to get citizens to quit smoking.

Says they're afraid if smoking continues, the people will get so intelligent and their memories so long that they may change their voting habits.

It is reported that the cigarette and prosperity fumes are getting so thick in the cities that the people may have to learn to live without breathing.

My country-cultured neighbor says he feels sorry for these folks, but they brought it on themselves by taking up with modern togetherness and all of them trying to live in the same place at the same time.

He says the primitive urge to cook in the backyard may save mankind from air pollution, though, because the smoke from cremated steaks will eventually put a charcoal filter in everybody's nose.

My sub-aged neighbor says he notes that the feds are going to pay some of his medical expense now, if he is just smart enough to wait until he is 65 to get sick.

But he's worried. He is overweight, which is reputed to be a health hazard. So he expects Washington will compulse all of its Medicare subjects to take off extra fat, so as to keep expenses down.

He reckons it will take a new Bureau of Belly Checkers to swarm over the country with tape measures to see that people conform to an official girth guideline.

My old sod-buster neighbor is happy that Congress has now granted him the privilege of helping pay the rent on, and the building costs of fancier houses for some of his fellow citizens.

Says it will be wonderful to watch the overall IQ of the people soar, as more and more of them get moved into two-bathroom houses.

He was born in a dugout himself, and he knows now that he never amounted to anything on account of feeling disadvantaged because the rich folks in the next canyon had a split-level dugout and two out-houses.

"Section 17. In lieu of the state ad valorem tax on property of Seven Cents (7¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation heretofore permitted to be levied by Section 51 of Article III, as amended, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Two Cents (2¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the continuing payment of Confederate pensions as provided under Section 51, Article III, and for the establishment and continued maintenance of a State Building Fund, as provided in Section 51b, Article III, of the Constitution.

"Also, there is hereby levied, in addition to all other taxes permitted by the Constitution of Texas, a state ad valorem tax on property of Ten Cents (10¢) on the One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) valuation for the purpose of creating a special fund for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping buildings or other permanent improvements at the designated institutions of higher learning provided that none of the proceeds of this tax shall be used for auxiliary enterprises; and the governing board of each such institution of higher learning is fully authorized to pledge all or any part of said funds allotted to such institution as hereinafter provided, to secure bonds or notes issued for the purpose of acquiring, constructing and initially equipping such buildings or other permanent improvements at said respective institutions. (2) Ten per cent (10%) of the funds allocated on June 1, 1966 shall be allocated to certain of the eligible state institutions based on the number of additional square feet needed in educational and general facilities by such eligible state institution to meet the average square feet per full time equivalent student of all state senior institutions (currently numbering twenty-two).

All funds designated institutions of higher learning shall not thereafter receive any general revenue funds for the acquiring or constructing of buildings or other permanent improvements for which said Ten Cent (10¢) ad valorem tax is herein provided, except in case of fire, flood, storm, or earthquake occurring at any such institution, in which case an appropriation in an amount sufficient to replace the uninsured loss so incurred may be made by the Legislature out of any General Revenue Funds. The State Comptroller of Public Accounts shall draw all necessary and authorized warrants upon the State Treasury in order to carry out the purpose of this Amendment, and the State Treasurer shall pay warrants so issued out of the special fund hereby created for said purpose. This Amendment shall be self-enacting. It shall become operative or effective upon its adoption, to supersede and repeal the former provisions of this Section; provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed as impairing the obligation incurred by any outstanding notes or bonds heretofore issued by any state institution of higher learning under this Section prior to the adoption of this Amendment but such notes or bonds shall be paid, both as to principal and interest, from the fund as allocated to any such institution.

Commissioners of classes (i) and (ii) above shall be chosen by the Supreme Court with advice and consent of the Senate, those of class (iii) by the Board of Directors of the State Bar under regulations to be prescribed by the Supreme Court with the consent of the Senate, and those of class (iv) by appointment of the Governor with advice and consent of the Senate.

(3) The regular term of office of Commissioners shall be six (6) years; but the initial members of each of classes (i), (ii) and (iii) shall respectively be chosen for terms of four (4) and six (6) years, and the initial members of class (iv) for respective terms of two (2), four (4) and six (6) years. Interim vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies due to expiration of a full term, but only those unexpired portions of the term in succession. Commissioners may succeed themselves in office only if having served less than three (3) consecutive years. (4) Commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services as such. The Legislature shall provide for the payment of the necessary expense for the operation of the Commission. (5) The Commission may hold its meetings, hearings and other proceedings at such times and places as it shall determine but shall meet at Austin at least once each year. It shall annually select one of its members as Chairman. A quorum shall consist of five (5) members. Proceedings shall be by majority vote of those present, except that recommendations for retirement or removal of Justices or Judges shall be by affirmative vote of at least five (5) members. (6) Any Justice or Judge within the scope of this Section 1-a may, subject to the other provisions hereof, be removed from office for willful or negligent conduct, which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his said duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or administration of justice; or any such Justice or Judge may be involuntarily retired for disability seriously interfering with the performance of his duties, which is, or is likely to become, permanent in nature. (7) The Commission shall keep itself informed as fully as may be of circumstances relating to misconduct or disability of parties to its Affairs, or Judges, receive complaints or reports, formal or informal, from any source in this behalf and make such preliminary investigations as it may determine. Its orders for the attendance or testimony of witnesses or for the production of documents, hearing or investigation shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the District Court. (8) The Commission may, after such investigation as it deems necessary, order a hearing to be held before it concerning the removal or retirement of a Justice or Judge or it may in its discretion request the Supreme Court to appoint an active or retired District Judge or Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals as a Master to hear and take evidence in any such matter, and to report thereon to the Commission. If, after hearing or after considering the record and report of a Master, the Commission finds good cause therefore, it shall recommend to the Supreme Court the removal or retirement, as the case may be, of the Justice or Judge in question and shall thereupon file with the Clerk of the Supreme Court the entire record before the Commission. (9) The Supreme Court shall review the record of the proceedings on the law and facts and in its discretion may, for good cause shown, permit the introduction of additional evidence and shall order removal or retirement, as it finds just and proper, or wholly reject the recommendation. Upon an order for involuntary retirement for disability or an order for removal, the office in question shall become vacant. The rights of an incumbent so retired to retirement benefits shall be the same as if his retirement had been voluntary. (10) All papers filed with and proceedings before the Commission or a Master shall be confidential and the filing of papers with, and the giving of testimony before, the Commission, Master or the Supreme Court shall be privileged; provided that upon being filed in the Supreme Court the record loses its confidential character. (11) The Supreme Court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court. Such rule shall afford to any judge against whom a proceeding is instituted to cause his retirement due process of law for the procedure before the Commission, Masters and the Supreme Court in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy in an adjudicatory proceeding is entitled to due process of law, regardless of whether or not the interest of the judge in remaining in active status is considered to be a right or a privilege. Due process shall include the right to notice, counsel, hearing, confrontation of his accusers, and all such other incidents of due process as are ordinarily available in proceedings whether or not misfeasance is charged, upon proof of which a penalty may be imposed. (12) No Justice or Judge shall, as a member of the Commission or Supreme Court in any proceeding involving his own retirement or removal. (13) This Section 1-a is alternative to, and cumulative of, the methods of removal of Justices and Judges provided elsewhere in this Constitution. Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1965, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon the following: "FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability. 'AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the automatic retirement of District and Appellate Judges for old age, creating the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, defining its functions; and empowering the Supreme Court, upon recommendation of said Commission, to remove District and Appellate Judges for misconduct and to retire such judges in cases of disability.'"

Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for the election, and this Amendment shall be published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

Cotton Traffic Patterns Studied

COLLEGE STATION.— Mills in the Cotton Belt's Southeastern region account for 90 percent of the U.S. domestic cotton consumption, but the region produces only 13 percent of the crop. Other regions supply the needed cotton, and Fred C. Elliott, Extension specialist at Texas A&M University, the Southwest region — Texas and Oklahoma — supply the smallest percentage.

He says a U.S. Department of Agriculture study of destinations and types of transportation used to move raw cotton during the 1961-62 season showed that 47 percent of the total season movement was to Southeastern mills. Also that 29 percent went to ports for export or reconcentration, 13 percent moved in intrastate traffic, 4 percent was shipped to interior concentration points, 3 percent went to Canada and 1.5 percent to northern consuming centers.

Practically all cotton produced in the Southeastern region moved to mills within the region. Nearly three-fourths of that from the South Central region moved to Southeastern mills with about 10 percent going to New Orleans for export. —Almost half of the Western region crop went to Southeastern mills and most of the remainder was exported from California and Texas ports. Japan received about half of the region's exports.

The Southwestern region moved 55 percent of its raw cotton to Texas ports with Ja-

Fawn Production Good This Year

Fawn production being current nowadays, the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department pertinently reports that 1.45 fawns per doe deer were born in a test tract in the Trinity-Brazos Management Area in 1964. The counties checked were Robertson, Brazos, Freestone, Coryell and Bell.

pan the leading export destination. Only about 30 percent of the crop went to Southeastern mills.

Elliott says this study further emphasizes the importance of foreign markets as major outlets for Texas and Oklahoma produced cotton. Also that staple length is an important quality consideration.

TEXAS AUTO INSURANCE IS STILL A NATIONAL BARGAIN

Even though the rates have been increased (effective August 1, 1965), your Texas automobile insurance is still one of the best buys in the United States. And, WELLINGTON AREA RATES HAVE INCREASED LEAST OF ALL OTHER AREAS!

TEXAS RANKS . . .

- 1st in miles of highways
- 3rd in number of automobiles
- 5th in population
- 6th in number of licensed drivers

BUT ONLY . . .

36th in average cost of auto insurance

What's more, while the nation's highest rates is 101% higher than Texas', the nation's lowest is only 34% lower than Texas'.

Price increases of any kind are never popular; but your Independent Insurance Agents ask you to remember three things:

- 1 • People and their driving performance actually set auto insurance rates. When there are more accidents, more people killed and injured, higher repair costs, and increased medical expenses, it is inevitable that rates must go up.
- 2 • You still pay less for your protection than do most American drivers, and
- 3 • For the best insurance and service, see your INDEPENDENT INSURANCE AGENT.

FRANK KING POST, AMERICAN LEGION OFFICERS

Grant Hanna of Hereford, District 18 commander of the American Legion, is seen as he installed new officers of the Frank King Post 249 Thursday night, July 29, at Ellison Park. Hanna, left, congratulates the new commander, Mack Bush. Other officers, reading toward the right are Grant Woodriddle, first vice commander; John Coleman, adjutant; and Riley Dunson, historian and finance officer. Other officers not present for the installation were Cliff Hartman, second vice commander; John Forbis, chaplain, and Wade Welch, sergeant at arms.

High Concentrate Rations Give Good Results

COLLEGE STATION. — "In addition to a reduction in daily feed consumption, extremely high concentrate cattle rations increase feed efficiency, dressing percentage, grade, and lower shipping shrinkage," said B. E. Conrad, animal husbandman and E. M. Neal, superintendent of the Coastal Bend Experiment Station at Beeville.

Conrad and Neal based their conclusions on results obtained from a feeding experiment they conducted at the station. The experiment consisted of feeding different groups of Bradford steers different rations containing different concentrate levels. Thirty steers of approximately the same size and quality were obtained and divided into three groups of ten each.

The steers were fed for 129 days on rations averaging 62 percent, 67 percent and 83 percent concentrates. Ground meal were the concentrates used, and cottonseed hulls constituted the roughage portion of the test rations.

After the 129-day feeding period, the three groups of steers were shipped to San Antonio and sold on the open market. Individual weights, hot carcass weights and cold carcass grades were obtained.

Results of the experiment showed that the group which was fed 67 percent concentrates had the highest gains, while the group fed 83 percent ration had the highest feed efficiency, lowest shipping shrinkage and best dressing percentage of the three groups.

"When marketed, the live value of the two groups fed 67 and 83 percent concentrates were nearly equal; however, carcass value indicated a definite advantage for the group fed 83 percent concentrates," Conrad and Neal revealed. The grader commented that the texture of the meat was good and the packer stated that the carcasses were well suited for his trade.

"Even though the concentrate level reached 95 percent before termination of the experiment, there were no indications of digestive disturbances or evidence of steers going off feed," Conrad added.

Neal explained that the experiment was conducted as a pilot study pertaining to the rapidity of reaching full feed and maximum concentrate level favorable to economic returns and animal performance. "This type information is particularly applicable in feeding light weight cattle for relatively short periods of time with mechanized feed handling and shortages of low cost dry roughages," he added.

Night Trapping of Waterfowl Studied

An airboat equipped with a 1200 watt generator provides the mobility and illumination for experimental night-lighting waterfowl trapping and branding in coastal marshes by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department biologists. The technique was found to favor success in capturing diving ducks. Cannon net gear effects the actual trapping.

Hot Weather Hard on Hogs

COLLEGE STATION.—Hogs, like humans, are affected by high temperatures. With the thermometer climbing toward summer levels, it is time to consider plans for keeping all classes of hogs cool and comfortable, says Donald Osbourn, assistant Extension animal husbandman, Texas A&M University.

He suggests the use of half-inch plastic pipe strung either on posts or through trees four feet above the ground. After the pipe has been placed, a small hole should be punched in the underside of the pipe with a straight pin at four to five feet intervals. Under pressure, these holes will produce a fine mist and will do a good job of cooling, he says.

Generally, he adds, the small amount of water required will not result in mud holes being formed. However, if mud becomes a problem, Osbourn suggests moving the pipe to another location. Moving, he adds, can be done with little trouble.

The cost of the plastic pipe system is small compared with the benefits. The loss of one animal will usually more than pay for the needed pipe to say nothing of the increased efficiency in the feedlot or of the breeding herd, Osbourn says.

During her visit they all toured the state of Florida. They first visited Jacksonville and Daytona Beach where they enjoyed swimming at the beaches and trying out famous eating places.

Their next stop was at Cocoa Beach which is the heart of the citrus fruit area where Indian River fruit is grown. They also passed by the entrance to Cape Kennedy.

Other stops were made at West Palm Beach, Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale and Miami where they visited the famous Seagrass and other tourist attractions, then on to the west coast of Florida.

The rain prevented them from seeing the famous Everglades Wonder Gardens. They returned to Georgia by way of Sarasota and Ocala where they drove for miles and miles in citrus country.

Deck's DIDACTICS

by Deskins Wells

It says here that Sen. Ralph Yarborough is provoked at Governor John Connally for what Yarborough calls Connally's action in holding up the anti-poverty program in Texas. Yarborough is the sponsor of a bill in Congress that would remove the power of the Governor to veto such projects.

On the other hand, Gov. Connally says he has no apologies to make over his handling of the program—he wants the program to aid whom it is supposed to help, "the poor people of Texas." The Governor undoubtedly has a very clear picture of the mess in San Marcos. That is the camp where five Negroes from Chicago were located and who shot two military policemen when the servicemen resisted armed robbery. In another statement Gov. Connally described the poverty program as a prospective boondoggle fraught with the possibilities of scandal. The Governor is so right.

The improvement that is being made on the old Lowrie building by James Doneghy and that which will be made on the old Lederer building by Sandy Parsons will give West Avenue a bright and shining look from 8th street to 10th street. The only remaining improvement that needs to be done in the entire two blocks will be the front of The Wellington Leader. All the other places of business have been refurbished, remodeled or made more modern. These old buildings have a sturdiness of construction that is not matched by any of the structures that have been erected in the last 25 years.

We need rain just as we always do at this time of the year; but most of the crops are holding up remarkably well and we could make another excellent crop. Right now many thoughtful farmers are far more concerned over what kind of a farm bill Congress may pass than they are over the condition of the growing crops. It has not passed yet but if the proposed bill passes in its present form we are going to be up against something we have not encountered before.

It seems like the summer has just started; but the facts are that another school year is at our doorstep. It is hard to realize; but it is time for the merchants to start displaying their back-to-school merchandise.

Here is a clipping from Harold Hudson's column in the Ochiltree County Herald at Perryton:
We have always been awed by people with a scientific turn of mind, and those friends of ours who could work algebra problems easily and quickly while we struggled with them always were a marvel to us. But there is no getting around the fact that this is a scientific age and a mechanical age and an age when mathematics is in demand. Even so, we were startled the other day to read about one field where a new college graduate, with only a bachelor's degree, can step into a job paying $30,000 a year. This field is the field of astronomy, the study of the stars, a scientific field not to be confused with astrology, which is the study of horoscopes and just one step removed from humbuggery.

But astronomy is a rapidly growing field of science, accelerated by the boom in space travel. A fellow named Dr. Donald Howard Menzel, astro physicist and head of the astronomy department at Harvard University said in a speech recently that the top graduates in astronomy this year took jobs paying $30,000 a year and that the low man on the totem pole in the 1965 graduating class has a starting salary of $18,000 a year. These salaries are for graduates with only bachelor's degrees. A man with a Ph.D. in astronomy can write his own ticket.

I presume it is too late to start trying to train James Sullivan for one of these high paying jobs and besides I am afraid he would be no good at such an occupation even if he had started in time. Last June I wrote about it being a good time to get out under the stars and observe such constellations as the Great Bear. James did sit out one evening until past midnight and he claims that all he could see was the Big Dipper.

If you like to watch the stars, and who doesn't even if they don't know their names, August is a good time to observe the Herdman, Northern Crown, Lyre, Swan, Hercules, and Little Fox. And August 11 is about the time to look for the Perseids—the shooting stars that come in August each year.

I regret that we will not be here for the reunion of the ex-students of Wellington High School; but we will be on our way back to Houston by then. This time we will get to see a baseball game in the Dome.

STANDING BIG AMONG THE FORDS

The biggest tractor of the entire line is Ford's 6000, displayed here during the grand opening at Shira Ford Tractor Company Friday and Saturday, July 30 and 31. The size of the tractor can be measured by the men beside it. Kneeling is Guy Lindley and next is Gabe Wright. The two operate Shira Ford Tractor Company here. At right is Erve Lauche, district manager for Ford Tractor division, with headquarters in Amarillo.

Shira Tractor Names Winners

Approximately 150 friends from the Wellington trade area visited the Shira Ford Tractor Company on its grand opening Friday and Saturday, July 30 and 31.

On display were Ford tractors in a variety of sizes, ranging from the big 6000 line to the small 2000 series. And those around Shira Ford Tractor Company jokingly remarked that they had one even smaller—the toy tractor that is a faithful copy of its real-life brother.

Four door prizes were awarded. The first prize was a table radio that went to David Phipps; second, a portable food mixer, won by Marvin Knoll; a transistor radio that went to Jerry Scott; and a toy tractor won by Mrs. Ralph Owens of Dozier.

Greeting the guests were Erve Lauch of Amarillo, district representative for Ford's tractor division, Guy Lindley and Gabe Wright, who operate the Wellington business. They explained the Ford tractors on display and showed a film that told even more about the line.

Unable to attend the grand opening of their own business were Ellwood and Lora Shira of Wheeler, the owners. Mrs. Shira underwent surgery in an Amarillo hospital only a few days earlier.

"A number of Wellington business men helped us with the opening, and we appreciate every bit of this neighborliness," said Lindley.

Elberts Visit States West

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Elbert returned home Monday after a two weeks vacation spent in three states.

They first went to Denver, Colo., where her brother, Al Glenn, joined them. They spent a week with him at his cabin near Central City, Colo. While there they went sightseeing every day.

After leaving Colorado the Elberts went to Dallas to visit their daughter, Linda Kay. The next stop on their trip was Abernathy, where they visited his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Elbert.

From Abernathy Mr. and Mrs. Elbert went to Lovington, N.M., where they were guests of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Elbert for several days.

Scout Executive Tex McCoy Goes To Houston

An announcement was made this week by John Brewer, scout executive of the Adobe Walls Council, Boy Scouts of America, of the transfer of Lewis R. "Tex" McCoy to Houston.

McCoy has been a member of the Adobe Walls Council staff nearly four years, serving the Comanche District Donley, Hall, Collingsworth and Wheeler counties. In addition to his district responsibilities, McCoy was camp director of Camp Kiowa for three years.

The McCoys lived in Pampa where Mrs. McCoy was a teacher in the Horace Mann Elementary School. They were active in the First Presbyterian Church, and Tex was a member of the Shamrock Lions Club.

The new assignment will be an advancement, serving a district in a metropolitan area with a staff of 41 professional Scouters. McCoy will assume his new duties on Sept. 1 in Houston.

Before reporting to his new assignment the McCoys will attend the Region 9-Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico—regional training conference at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque. There will be over 500 professional Scouters and their wives attending this conference the last week in August.

SKYROCKETS

THE SKYROCKETS—25 YEARS AGO

These were the Skyrockets 25 years ago, the 1940 team coached by John Williams and Lwood Dow. The pictures came to light recently when James Doneghy bought the old Rock Lowrie building at the southwest corner of the square and had it cleaned out for remodeling. The late Elroy Cooper presumably made the pictures, for he had a photographic studio in the building for a number of years. In this section, from left, are Coach Dow, whose present address is not known here; the Wallace twins, Meryl of Huntington, W. Va., and Evnyl of Phoenix, Ariz; Robert Baumgardner of Brownfield and Junior Melton of Panhandle. There were other members of the Skyrockets, but these are the only pictures in the group found.

MORE ROCKETS

The Skyrockets of 25 years ago seem almost scantily clad when they are compared to the present team, heavily padded and equipped with protectors. In the top row, from left, are James Driskill of the Long Beach, Calif., area, and Windell Brewer of Kansas City; center, Olen Goodner, left, who was killed in action during World War II, and Leo Thompson of Del Rio. Bottom, L. E. Gribble, left, of Newport Beach, Calif., and James Williams of Pasadena, Texas.

Bible School Opens Monday at City Church

A Bible School will begin at Fundamental Baptist Church, 9th and Floydada Streets, Monday, Aug. 9, the Rev. J. E. Young, pastor, announced.

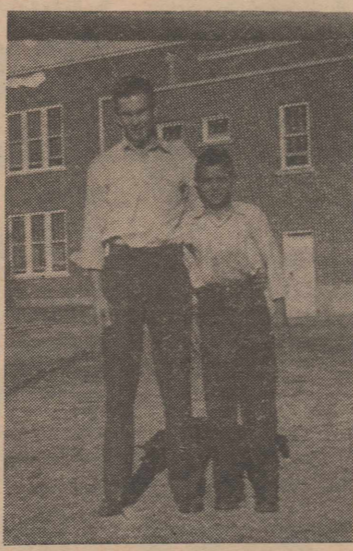

It will continue through Friday, Aug. 13 with classes from 9 to 11 a.m. each day.

The children will engage in Bible study and handwork. All children of the area are invited to attend.

Enrollment will be held at the church Saturday, Aug. 7, from 3 to 4 p.m., and a picnic for all children will be on the closing day, Friday.

This Bible School was originally scheduled early in the summer but was postponed after Rev. Young was injured in an accident.

Arnett School Opens Term August 27

The Arnett school will open the 1965-66 term on Friday, Aug. 27, Supt. Bob Copeland announced this week.

With one exception, the facility is complete and Copeland said he is still hunting an English teacher.

New to the system this year is Larry Palmore, who will be principal and junior high coach. Palmore grew up at Vinson but he has been teaching in Colorado. He was graduated from Southwestern State College, Weatherford, Okla.

The Rev. Maurice Moore, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene in Dodson, was added to the faculty to teach music.

Other teachers are Larry Powers, high school coach and social studies instructor; Jimmy Downey, commerce; Mrs. Edith Carter, fifth and sixth DOUBLE EXPOSURE—Meet Joan and Jane Ryba, hostesses of National Parachuting Championships in Las Vegas this June.

Hunt Sings in Wayland Choir

PLAINVIEW. — Glenn Ray Hunt, son of Mrs. Floyd Teutsch, Dodson, has been again selected for membership in Wayland Baptist College's International Choir, according to an announcement from James D. Cram, director.

Hunt, a senior English and biology major, sings tenor with the widely-traveled group. Membership is based on highly competitive auditions.

A 1962 graduate of Dodson high school, Hunt holds membership in Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national honorary music fraternity for men, and Alpha Psi Omega, national honorary dramatics fraternity. He appeared in two campus dramatic works during the last year, "The Fantasticks" and "Julius Caesar."

Stock Disease Spares Deer

SAN ANGELO. — Five years research in the Texas Panhandle failed to disclose any evidence of brucellosis in the 615 antelope, barbary sheep and white-tailed deer checked for the disease, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife department biologists.

Leptospirosis, an abortive disease occurring throughout Texas, has long been suspected in Panhandle antelope herds but 40 kidneys collected afield and analyzed at Texas A&M University's veterinarian school gave a clean bill of health to the antelope herd.

Tentative plans for the 1965-66 school year includes an appearance by the Choir at the New Mexico Baptist Convention, a four-day tour to the Dallas-Fort Worth area, and a week's tour to points in New Mexico and Colorado.

County Gets $1,302,928

ASC Committees Will Be Chosen Sept. 8

Slates of nominees for membership on ASC community committees soon will be established at the ASCS county office. The present ASC committee is making a special effort to encourage the greatest possible participation of eligible voters in the election. Any local resident who is eligible to take part in an ASCS farm program may vote and may hold office as a committeeman regardless of race, color, creed or national origin, said W. C. Harwell, county chairman.

The election will be held by mail. Ballots must be post-marked or returned in person not later than 5 p.m. on Sept. 8, 1965 to the ASCS office in order to be counted.

Each community election will choose three community committeemen and two alternates. The chairman, vice chairman and third regular member of the elected ASC community committee will also serve as delegates — and the alternate committeemn will serve as alternate delegates — to the county convention to be held soon thereafter. The ASC county committee will be chosen at the convention.

Harwell said today that farmers who are eligible to vote in the committee elections also have the right to nominate as candidates for committee membership any farmer who is eligible and willing to serve. Such petitions, each one nominating one farmer and signed by six or more eligible voters, may be filed at the county office any time before Aug. 18. Eligible voters may sign as many petitions as they wish.

Additional nominations may be made by the incumbent ASC community and county committees.

"We want the best men available to serve on our ASC committees," Chairman Harwell declared, "because the committee system is the backbone of farm programs — those dealing with conservation of soil and water, as well as the price support activities for various commodities. In the last few years, the farmer-elected committee system — unique in the history of agriculture — has been studied intensively by a committee of farm and public administration experts especially appointed by the Secretary of Agriculture for that purpose. The system not only has been retained, but has been greatly strengthened."

Here in Collingsworth County, Harwell points out, 85% of the farmers took part last year in one or more programs administered by the ASC committee. Funds disbursed under the committee's supervision last year amounted to $1,302,928.51. Of this amount, $10,308.31 was for price support loans aimed at increasing market returns above what farmers would receive on an unsupported market. Included in the price support program in this county are such major commodity programs as wheat, grain sorghum, and others.

Last year also, 24,564 acres of farmland were improved under the Agricultural Conservation Program cost-sharing arrangement. This cost $69,188.54 with about half coming from the participating farmer, the balance from ACP.

"So you can see that ASC committeemen in Collingsworth

Good News for Texas Pecans and Peanuts

Well, they're "squeezing" the peanut to make it sell better in Texas. And they've developed another new pecan variety that produces large, attractive nuts of high quality.

Both of these scientific strides are good news for pecan and peanut growers whose crops are worth about $28 million annually to Texas' farm economy. The new pecan variety has

County are in effect board members of a big business," the chairman continued. "This points up the urgency in getting out the greatest possible cross-section of farmers in the community elections."

"A farmer eligible to vote in the committee elections," according to the chairman, "is generally a farmer who is eligible to take part in one or more of the national farm programs which the ASC committee helps to administer. A person eligible to hold office as a committeeman is a local resident who is eligible to vote in the election and who meets other qualifications. Further information on these and other qualifications may be obtained from the ASCS county office. In general, these rule out employees of the Department of Agriculture, holders of elective office, and persons who have been dishonorably discharged from a military service or removed from office for cause."

been named "Mohawk," developed by plant breeder L. D. Romberg, a USDA researcher stationed at Brownwood, Texas. The Mohawk is exceptionally early maturing for a variety that produces large nuts. At Brownwood, the shucks begin to open about Oct. 1. Parents of the new pecan tree are the Success and Mahan varieties which are adapted to most of the pecan belt.

Mohawk may be a significant addition to the many varieties of pecans grown in the state which average a production worth about $8 million a year.

Information on sources of budwood may be obtained by writing to Mr. Romberg at the U.S. Pecan Field Station, P. O. Box 538, Brownwood.

THE WELLINGTON (TEXAS) LEADER
Thursday, August 5, 1965

U.S. Pecan Field Station, P. O. Box 538, Brownwood.

The Peanut—which is a larger cash crop for Texas farmers—may get a boost in sales by a process which makes them more nearly "non-fattening." The "new look" in peanuts is a processed product which has 80% less oil and only three-fourths of the calories of the old fashioned kind.

Although the peanut crop in Texas is worth something like $20 million each year, we are still producing them faster than people want to eat them. The "low fat" peanut may be the answer.

The processing procedure is simple—and still retains the original good flavor and high protein content. Shelled nuts are brought to proper moisture content and pressed in a hydraulic press to remove most of the oil, which constitutes about 50% of the peanuts' weight. The pressed kernels are flat and misshapen but they return to their original shape and size when soaked in water. Salt, sugar, spices or other flavorings can be added during this "reconstitution" period.

Agriculture Commissioner J. C. White said both products would be a part of his department's new marketing program set for this fall.

University to Expand American Studies Program

The University of Texas in September will expand its American Studies Program. Dr. William Goetzmann, director, has announced. Students in the program will take seminars on "America as a Civilization," "America's Cultural Heritage," "The American Character," "The Individual and the Culture" and a senior research seminar. Each will also have a concentration of courses in anthropology, art, English, economics, geography, government, history, philosophy, psychology or sociology.

Holtons Will Hold 5-Day Festival to Introduce New Brand Symbol

Tuesday, August 10 is opening day of the big 5-day Festival open house at Homer & Howard Holton's. "We're going all out to show folks how they can enjoy the convenience of modern LP-gas living — no matter where they live," according to Howard Holton.

The Festival idea was sparked by the new LP-gas brand name—Gulfgas. A new brand-name symbol will be introduced during the Festival.

The Holtons plan to entertain hundreds of town and farm families during the five-day period. Each homemaker will receive a set of shatter-proof tumblers. In addition, there will be a drawing for attractive gifts—including a 50-piece set of stainless flatware, Powerhouse drill, set of bathroom scales, and Teflon cookie sheet.

"The doors will be wide open to everyone in the community," according to Homer Holton. "We'd like to have everybody drop in."

UP, UP AND AWAY—New Yorker Barry Rowars seems to be reaching for the top of the Woolworth building during a trampoline demonstration.

Second Pedigree for Breeding Cattle Used

COLLEGE STATION—Buyers at breeder beef cattle sales will soon be studying two pedigrees instead of the usual one.

A growing trend in Texas and other states is to supplement the standard family tree information with a production or performance pedigree that more accurately describes the animal's real breeding value. Such pedigrees are production records based on actual performance.

L. A. Maddox, Extension Service animal husbandman in the Texas A&M University Animal Science Department, looks for the practice to become common in the near future.

"Ten years from now, very few breeder sales will operate without this information for the buyers," he predicted. "With this kind of data, the buyer can come nearer evaluating what a young bull, for example, is capable of than ever before. It's better than relying on an ancestor pedigree."

Several major sales in Texas have used the system in the past few years, the most notable recent one being the Ninear Santa Gertrudis Sale at Comstock, Texas, in 1963. Thirty head averaged $18,210, with the top bull going to the King Ranch at $58,000. Maddox said the usual information in a production pedigree includes weaning weights of sire, dam and calves; gaining ability of sire and calves, complete fertility data on dams and carcass information from a random sample of a bull's calves.

He added that breeders can gather such records on their herds in several basic ways:

(1) All major breed associations have their own performance testing programs.

(2) The Performance Registry International of Denver,

Colo. This is the oldest organization which has accumulated production records for breeders. It was established in Texas in 1954 at a time when breed associations were hesitant about value of production records.

(3) The Texas Agricultural Extension Service offers help through local county agents. Agents have been working with breeders for the past 12 years.

(4) Some private consulting firms offer the service.

Paw Swoons Over Pore Insect Swap

TYLER.—Some anxious moments about discovery in deep East Texas of a vinegaroon, far West Texas grandpappy of the ordinary scorpion, was aptly explained by a 16-year-old. He explained to his shaken father that he got the Texas-size insect in a trade for a chameleon with a far West Texas pen pal.

The ornery looking insect traveled first class in a match box, thanks to the postal folks. The man told the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department when he chided his son about releasing the super-pincher in the house, the lad picked it up and stuffed it in his shirt pocket.

BONHAM.—Mary Tingle, Malicia Juno, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Templeton, all of Wellington, visited the Sam Rayburn Library in Bonham recently.

They saw the books, papers and historical mementoes collected by the late Speaker Sam Rayburn during his more than fifty years of service to his country.

The library also contains a replica of the office Mr. Rayburn occupied in the Capitol during the time he served more than twice as long as any other man as Speaker of the House.

There is no admission charge to the library. It is open to the public Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; on Saturday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.; and on Sunday from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m.

LOOKING AHEAD

by Dr. George S. Benson

ON BEING RIGHT—SOMETIMES

The American Presidency, a complex enough position in the domestic and world power structure, requires continuous study and explanation. Add a complicated, many-sided personality of near-genius stature in some respects, like that of Lyndon Johnson, and you soon have material for more analysis than can be accomplished in a score of books.

Whatever it is that makes LBJ run, those matters are of prime interest today to every American, for all of us hope and pray that the most powerful figure in today's world of big decisions will have at least some of the right answers.

The British statesmen showed sympathy who recently observed that no matter what President Johnson does in sending or not sending Marines to preserve peace in such places as the Dominican Republic, he is always wrong.

This implies there may be a wide variance in what people think is the proper course, but surely the right course of action is not to be determined by whether it is a majority view, a minority view, or even whether anyone accepts it.

Everyone, for that matter, might be wrong. It is a whopping task to seek principle, but seek it he must.

One way to be sometimes right is to frequently change your position. The President has done this aplenty. If he seems to have no conclusive position of his own, it may be that he looks to future elections when voters also may have views that bear little resemblance to their present ones.

Suppose the President really wants to reduce "conflict in our national labor policy" by repealing the right-to-work laws. After nearly 20 years of Congressional activity for them he now goes on record against them.

The answer: he will require union backing in 1968 and such a need will not allow this pragmatic compromiser the convenience of his own beliefs.

There seems to be some political virtue in taking turns at pleasing various segments, then subtly changing or diluting the original direction so as to please opposing elements. In his Dominican policy, the President at first showed a strong anti-communist position. Soon, however, this resolution appeared to be softened as his top foreign policy aide tried to develop coalitions that would bring into the government various radicals and doubtful elements, thus diluting the victory sought by the anti-communists who originally, seemingly, had the same goals as the U.S. Marines.

Another way to be right only occasionally is to advocate sound policies based on true principles, but only for limited applications to special sectors.

The President told the steel industry, for example, that only non-inflationary wage increases would help keep the economy in a sound condition.

Nothing is said about following non-inflationary policies elsewhere, for either the federal government or the nation as a whole. Instead, Congress is encouraged to go ahead and spend more and more, without apparently caring for the future stability of the economy.

Then, a president can pay political debts only to regret them, even if it means later changing what was wrong in the first place. Why top labor officials wanted to ban the braceros is mystifying in the first place. But it brought near disaster both to the braceros and the farmers, and then gave a taste to consumers when prices of vegetables zoomed.

The emergence of a Johnson who is always right would, considering the nature of man's fallibility, be expecting too much. Neither would we urge this politician's politician (nor any president) to sit in his rocking chair and wait in a state of suspended animation for the outcome of the opinion polls.

What most of us would like of an American President, and even of the majority party whose banner he carries, is the greatest possible measure of disregard for popularity and for pleasing everybody, along with a greater devotion to those basic principles that require no alteration to fit exigencies.

The ready abandonment of political advantage, the preference of being right over being elected, is what stands out so large in a Patrick Henry or a Henry Clay.

PECK OF FUN—Here's one dance that seems sure to catch on. It's the Letkis. Dancer Bonnie Hamilton and actor Gene Barry demonstrate.

4-H Enrollment Up; As Farms Decrease

It seems paradoxical that the number of 4-H youth engaged in agricultural endeavors is increasing although the number of U.S. farms is diminishing.

The agricultural program has the second highest enrollment nationally of some 40 project areas offered to 4-H Club members.

If the current upward trend continues, 1965 enrollment could well top the 950,000 mark. This prediction is based on last year's figures of nearly 893,000 members reported by the Co-operative Extension Service.

Among the reasons for the upswing, 4-H leaders believe, is recent emphasis on science in 4-H projects and a quickening of interest in working close to nature. The realization that 9 out of 10 farm youths will seek employment elsewhere is another factor.

NEWS LETTER from Congressman WALTER ROGERS

FOR LABELS ON IMPORTED MEAT

At last, the Department of Agriculture is moving another step toward a goal I have been advocating for many years—a goal of protecting producers of this nation against excessive imports.

The Department also is taking another worthy step to provide further protection to Americans who purchase imported meat and meat products.

While most products processed for sale within the United States must bear "establishment numbers" identifying specific plants in which they were prepared, no such requirement has been in effect for imported products.

Now, under its authority granted by the Congress in laws governing meat inspection, the Department will require this kind of identification on imported products so that they may be readily identified as to source.

In addition, the proposed new regulations will require that the "principal display panel" of the product bear IN ENGLISH the true name of the product and the name of the country of origin. Designations in English are not now required.

Last year and again this year I introduced in the House a bill proposing a Federal law to require that imported meat and meat food products bear a label showing the country from which it originated. I am certainly pleased that the Department of Agriculture is strengthening its own position in this regard.

However, the Department's regulations affect meat and meat products as they reach ports of entry—not as they reach grocers' shelves—for the majority of meat imports. It is estimated by officials of the Department of Agriculture and men acquainted with the meat processing industry that while country of origin labeling regulations affect 75 to 90 percent of imported meat as it reaches this country, the labels identifying exporting countries remain on no more than 20 percent of these imported products on supermarket shelves.

The reason is that substantial quantities of the imports consist of manufacturing types of meat—meat combined with U.S. meat in the manufacture of frankfurters, boloney, soup and the like.

Meanwhile, I am going to continue my efforts to obtain enactment of a responsible and effective Federal labeling law, one whose provisions would apply uniformly across the United States. I think it is proper that consumers be fully protected as to quality of food products, with standards of inspection and identification applied equally to imported and domestic products. In addition, I believe it to be proper for imported products to be fully identified as to countries of origin.

Years ago, U.S. labor organizations took the lead in urging the government to establish standards by which foreign goods being imported to compete with U.S. manufactured products could be identified. It was the position of these organizations that American consumers would be deceived if, unknowingly, they purchased imported articles, thinking they were made in this country.

The law has supported this view that all things being equal, American consumers prefer American-made products and the Federal Trade Commission enforces, on a case-by-case basis, the right of American manufacturers to challenge importers of competitive foreign goods not identified as to country of origin.

It is my conviction that the same theory should be applied to meat and meat products. The housewife in the supermarket is able now to tell from the label whether certain canned hams and meats come from the United States or abroad, but most meat products are not so identified.

In the bill I have proposed, labels identifying the importing country would be required on all meat products consisting of more than half, by weight, of meat from abroad. This would remove the doubts shoppers now face as they inspect the selections at supermarket meat counters.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Estes during the week end were her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Messenger of Clovis, N.M.

Gretchen Gribble, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gribble has returned to her home in Newport Beach, Calif., after visiting with Mrs. Luther Gribble here and with other relatives in Texas.

Vickie, Warren, Carol and David Kendrick of Perryton are visiting this week with Mickey Ann Kendrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Britten attended the Halford reunion held Sunday at Plainview, Oklahoma, 15 miles north of Reed.

Cotton Picked From Ground

One of the few complaints of machine harvesting cotton is of the lint that is left on the ground. Now a Wellington man is engaged in a service that eliminates this.

U. S. Bolton is operating a fleet of three machines that pick up cotton left by the mechanical pickers, a member of his family said.

He and Mrs. Bolton departed late last week for the Rio Grande Valley to begin operations.

Bolton had one machine last year, which he operated in south Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi. The manufacturers of the machine are watching his operation closely to determine their success. He will operate during the entire harvesting season, relatives said.

Mrs. Faye Smith and daughter, Michelle Scott and baby recently moved to Dallas where Michelle is attending an IBM school.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Wildman, David and Phillip of Dallas spent the past week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Riggs. Other visitors in the Riggs home are Mrs. Dorothy Holman and daughters, Beverly, Patricia and Rebecca of Lawrence, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Beam and children, Leigh Ann and Brent of Amarillo were week end visitors in the homes of her grandparents and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Emory Hunter.
