Barney Oldfield To Be At Tri-State Fair

AMARILLO, Texas, Sept. 14.—Attractions already signed up for the tenth annual Tri-State Fair, which will be held here Sept. 23 to 30, indicate it to be the outstanding exposition of its history.

One of the main attractions will be Barney Oldfield, above, old maestro of the race track—clear and all, who will appear September 30 at the race track behind the wheel of his "plow horse" which has turned "race horse."

This tractor, driven by Oldfield, recently set a world's record at the Wisconsin State Fair.

There are so many other attractions it is impossible to mention them all.

Another main feature will be the horses, with legalized betting. There will be five days of racing, six races daily and purses of more than $5,000. Race horses from eight states have entered.

Two nights of the huge exposition, September 28 and 29, the annual Fine Horse Show will be held. Levers of beautiful horses will find two nights of perfect contentment.

Championship prize fights will be held on the nights of Sept. 23 and 30. The most expert of the pugilistic art will be brought here.

A really new feature will be the Donkey Baseball Games, the nights of September 25, 26 and 27 before the grandstand.

C. E. BOYD DIES HERE TUESDAY

On Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock C. E. Boyd dropped dead on the court house lawn.

Mr. Boyd has been in Portales several weeks and was camped near the stock pens, coming here from Ponca, Okla., with his wife and 18-year-old daughter, for work in the valley.

Mr. Boyd has been suffering from locked bowels for some time. He has been working in the valley off and on for four or five years. He was 41 years of age.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Wheeler-Johnson mortuary, Miss Shirley conducting the services.

Causey Schools Starting Off Well

Argie Jones who is principal of the Causey school states the school is starting out with the largest enrollment that it has had since he has been at the head of that educational institution.

The pupils seem to be enthusiastic for a good school this year. There are 98 enrolled.

Coyotes Raiding Turkey Flocks

Complaints are coming in where coyotes are raiding the turkey flocks of the farmers of the county. This means a serious loss to the farmers of the county, and some method should be found to eradicate them.

The Biological Survey should start a poisoning campaign. Turkeys form a great part of the farmers income of the county, and unless this loss is reduced, it means considerable curtailment of the farmers income.

Leaf Worms Are Damaging Cotton

The leaf worms are threatening to damage the cotton crops of Roosevelt county. Several of the farmers are poisoning this week.

One farmer stated that the first crop of the worms was not enough to damage his crop seriously. He is hoping that the next crop will not be any worse.

Other farmers are not taking any chances. They are getting the material for poisoning and getting on the job this week. It seems that the worms are thicker in some localities than in others.

Most of the farmers that have been interviewed are using arsenic of lead in a solution of water and using the solution as a spray.

The sprays can be placed on a wagon and several rows sprayed at one time. The small crops can be saved by hand sprays.

Clifton Bankston is leaving today, Thursday, to enter school in Texas Tech at Lubbock, Texas this winter. He is a sophomore in school this year.

GOOD RAINS

It is reported that .96 inches of rain fell in Portales Tuesday night. Bethel reports one and a half inches.

bow. The blues and greens and so into the reds, blending them into the golden shades.

All coming from the good brown earth. And as we find much solace there, We who have laid away our dead. To know, to feel with faith sublime. They too, shall rise into beauty. Far surpassed by earthly flowers.

Woman's Club Holds First Meeting of Their New Year

The Portales Woman's Club enjoyed a most delicious three-course luncheon served at 12 o'clock Wednesday. Enjoying the hospitality of the Social Committee with the members, were: Mrs. Grace McDonald Phillips, editor of the "Club Woman," with her mother, Mrs. McDonald, of Roswell and Mrs. R. C. Reid, the president of the Third District of Dexter. Each made short talks to the club.

Messrs. J. C. Sparks and E. N. Wheeler gave talks on the wonderful work the Red Cross and Federal Relief Committee were doing. The club has been asked for their whole hearted cooperation for the 1933 Red Cross roll call.

Mrs. C. W. Carr, in a few words expressed the club's appreciation of the instructive talks of the gentlemen speakers.

After the club song, Mrs. Steiner read the collect.

The club adjourned after a business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. J. C. Greaves during which each chairman gave full reports of work done and plans for our new club year.

The Club House was beautifully decorated with autumn flowers and much credit is due the chairman, Mrs. H. H. Buchanan for a most enjoyable first meeting.

Rev. Lorts Honored In California Meet

Rev. Claude A. Lorts, minister of the local Christian Church, was singularly honored by the convention of the church in Los Angeles when he was asked and delivered the sermon of the convention on Sunday morning.

Rev. and Mrs. Lorts, Miss Agnes Foreman and Durwood Wright returned Friday night from attending the S. W. Christian convention at Los Angeles. They report a most interesting trip as well as one of spiritual refreshment.

This was the fourth meeting of the Southwest convention and had the largest attendance.

There were 57 ministers present, representing 56 cities and 68 congregations. Christian churches. Twenty-six ministers took part on the program.

The Eugene Bible School and Pacific Bible Seminary were well represented with ministerial students. In a young people's banquet there were 144 in attendance.

The next convention will be held in Clovis, August 28 to September 2, 1934 with Portales as joint hosts.

Some of the places visited by the Portales delegates on the trip were Coolidge Dam, Grand Canyon, Petrified Forest, Painted Desert and Meteor Lake. Rev. Lorts says the biggest sight of all was the Pacific ocean.

They were gone some two weeks on the trip.

Birds Damaging Sorghum Grains

Another menace to the sorghum grains this season is damage that is being done by the birds. Several of the farmers are complaining about the amount of grain the birds are wasting and eating.

One farmer states that some of his early mace is visited every day by great flocks of birds. It seems that the like the grain best when it is in the downy stage.

The bird pecks a grain and perhaps only gets a small bit on the end and drops the grain on the ground. It then pecks out another grain. The ground is covered in spots with the wasted grain.

Another farmer remarked that the importation of the English sparrow to get rid of the insects was a wise plan in some respects; however, the sparrows are getting their share of his grain crop.

It seems that the spotted wing mace bird is doing as much damage as any other kind of a bird. Some of the farmers make it a rule not to kill the hawks.

The hawk will catch a chicken now and then, but the number of rabbits caught and the amount of grain saved by keeping the birds scared off is worth far more than the chickens caught.

ton will go on to Perryton to visit their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Perry.

Mrs. R. C. Reed of Dexter, president of the third district of Federated Clubs came Tuesday to attend the opening meeting of the club and also to attend the flower show. She will perhaps be here a week and is staying in the home of Mrs. T. E. Mears.

A. E. Jeter who lives about six miles southwest of Portales states that he has some worms in his cotton. However, he plan to wait until the next crop shows up before he starts poisoning, hoping that that crop will not be serious either.

C. C. Lott of the Hilway community states that his crop this year is as good as ever. He thinks that the drought was pretty hard on the crops in general; however, the heavy rain of late are making the crops look fine in his community.

Portales Woman's Club President Speaks at Texico-Farwell Meeting

Farm Holiday Assn. Met on Saturday

The Roosevelt County Farm Holiday met last Saturday afternoon in the court house. Meeting was called to order by county chairman.

Among the business matters attended to was the election of Mrs. Ed Miller, county secretary and Paul Enlinger county vice-chairman.

It was voted that each member of Roosevelt county pay ten cents per month as dues in order to be in good standing. It was made clear in the meeting that some money must be had to keep the organization going.

After the business session, state chairman Cameron was introduced and spoke on some of the problems that the farmers are having to face.

He stated that the Farm Holiday stands for its members paying their honest debts; but, at the same time, the farmers must have a chance to pay their honest debts.

The state chairman warned the members that they are facing a sales tax. He stated that he was not advising the members how to vote on the amendments to the New Mexico constitution. However, he advised them to read the amendments carefully, and think them through before voting.

He urged the members to cooperate with the NRA program.

Fire At Thomas Home on Friday

Friday night about 11:00 o'clock fire was discovered in the home of Chas. Thomas on Nevada Street. The fire had gained considerable headway when the fire department arrived, but it was soon under control.

The fire started in a clothes closet in the bath room and spread to be from rats gnawing matches. The household contents were almost a total loss, practically all of the clothing of the family being a total loss.

The building is owned by Jack Pipkin, and is close to the residence of Bert Rawlins.

Had the fire not been brought under control, there was the possibility of several buildings on the block being destroyed.

The Woman's Club building is in this block.

The Fire boys did excellent work.

Farmers Delaying Cotton Checks

Slowness of farmers coming in and signing affidavits of their cotton acreage is delaying the payment of checks.

All affidavits for this county must go in in one batch, and those who have failed to come in and attend to this are not only delaying payment of their claims, but are depriving their neighbors of their checks also.

If you have plowed up your allotment come in and sign your papers at once.

SUCCESS OF NRA TO CONSUMER

The success of the NRA depends entirely upon the consumers.

The employers are doing their part all over the nation in complying with the president's request.

It is true that there are chisselers, who are trying to take advantage of this move for their personal gain, but if the consumers patronize the Blue Eagle firms all together, it will soon result in prosperity to all classes.

This move is to put men back to work at a wage that will supply a decent living.

While at this time in many instances the employer may be compelled to pay the minimum wage, as conditions improve, merit will be recognized and the employee who is worthy will receive increased wages.

But if the consumers do not enter into the spirit of the movement and patronize those who are bearing the blunt of the burden, it will be a failure, and labor will be out of employment, farm products will again reach the low level of the past year.

With the man power of the nation at work at fair wages, they will have sufficient buying power to take up the slack in business and all will profit thereby.

Every loyal American, regardless of politics, should get behind this movement 100 per cent and bring the nation back to a normal business condition.

Buy from the Blue Eagle firms at all times, and you will share in the returning prosperity.

MARCHING TO WORK

Strangers in Portales are impressed by the large number of women marching to work each day. Their destiny is the canning factory where they are employed in preparing beans and tomatoes for canning.

During the eight years that the canning factory has operated in Portales, employment has been given to 100 or more each year.

Portales canned products are of excellent quality, and the markets for these products are increasing each season.

This factory has had much to do with the development of the growing of tomatoes and string beans, and many car loads of fresh products are marketed annually in addition to the many car loads of canned goods.

Every day using the bean and tomato season, trucks will be seen loading out for such points as Houston, Ft. Worth, Oklahoma City, Wichita Falls and other points, truck shipments being made as far as Kansas City.

TIMES AINT HARD

(George McKee in Bandera, Tex., New Era)

Don't talk to me about hard times. I was born eight miles from a railroad five miles from a schoolhouse, nine miles from a church, 885 miles from New York, 200 yards from a washhole, and 15 feet from a cornfield.

Our nearest neighbors lived two miles away and they couldn't read or write. I never saw a suit of underwear until I was 17 years old, and that revelation didn't belong to anybody in our family. The only books in the house were a Bible and a catalog.

There were 12 members in our family, but, you see, we had three rooms to live in, including a dining room, which was also the kitchen. Everybody worked at our house. We thought everybody else in the world had gravy and bread for breakfast, liver and cracklin' hockeak for dinner, butter-milk and corn pone for supper, 'cause that's what we had.

Some of us wore brogan shoes occasionally in the winter-time. We had nice white shirts for summertime use. We slept on straw ticks, and pillows were not thought of or required. I didn't know that money would rattle until I was nearly grown. Father got hold of two half-dollars at the same time, and let us hear them rattle. Taxes were no higher, but harder to pay.

We owned two kerosene lamps, neither of which had a chimney. Our house wasn't ceiled, but two of our rooms had lofts in them. We had a glass window in our "company" room. Our nicest piece of furniture was a homemade rocking chair. Our beds were of the slat or tightrope variety.

We went to school two or three months in the year, but not in a bus. We attended church once a month, but not in a car; we used a two-mule wagon. We dressed up on Sundays, but not in silks or satins.

We sopped our own molasses; we ate our own meat; we considered rice a delicacy for only the preachers to eat; we had heard of cheese, but never saw any; we knew of some store-bought clothes, but never hoped to wear any; we got a stick of candy and three raisins for Christmas and were happy; we loved Pa and Ma and were never hungry; enjoyed going naked, didn't want much expected nothing and that's why our so-called hard times ain't hard on me.

READ THE ELECTION PROCLAMATION

The election proclamation and the constitutional amendments are in this issue of the News. Read them carefully so that you will be able to cast an intelligent vote on Tuesday of next week.

The News will not attempt to advise you how to vote, but calls your attention to these amendments.

Without a close study of them, you will be voting in the dark, and may seriously injure your interests by your vote.

PREPARING FOR TRI-STATE FAIR EXHIBIT

While there will be no fair at Portales this year, preparations are being made for a good exhibit of farm products at the Tri-State Fair at Amarillo, which opens on the 23rd of this month.

In spite of the drouth and the late starting of crops, Roosevelt County and the Portales valley will be able to make a creditable exhibit.

These exhibits are viewed by crowds for many states, and as a result many worth while farmers are attracted to this section.

Farmers having products worthy of exhibits should arrange to place them with the Roosevelt county exhibit.

BETTER EXAMINE YOUR DEEDS

When the editor of the News worked in Portales in 1910, he recalls printing a number of deeds, bearing a clause prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors on the property.

Just how many of these deeds were used in Portales is not known, but if the 18th amendment is appealed and you are planning opening a booze joint, you had better look up your deed, and see if it carries this clause.

This matter is now facing the Tri-State Fair Commission at Amarillo, as the fair grounds were originally sold with this provision in the deeds, so it looks as if fair visitors will not be able to quench their thirst at the fair grounds.

Here is where the abstractors may develop some new business.

A HIGH-POWERED PRAYER

The Pathfinder tells of Parson Telfair, the pastor of the First Afro-American church, who was warming up for his Sunday morning sermon with a short prayer. This is what he said:

"Oh, Lawd give thy servant this maw'nin' the eyes of the eagle and the wisdom of the owl; connect his soul with the gospel telephone in the central skies; luminate his brow with the sun of heaven! pizen his mind with the love for the people; turpentine his 'magination, grease his lips with 'possum oil, loosen his tongue with the sledge hammer of thy power, 'lectrify his brain with the lightning' of the world, put 'petual motion in his arms, fill him plum full of the dynamite of thy glory, 'noint him all over with the kerosene oil of thy salvation, and set him on fire. Amen! Hallelooyah!"

SOCIAL ANNEX
By THE BOSS

MAN OF MANY FACES

The News editor will soon become known as the man of many faces.

Several years ago, he was mistaken for Rev. Thurston, the Methodist pastor.

Later he was addressed as Rev. Joe Grizzle the Baptist pastor.

Again last spring while attending the fish fry at Eagle Nest lake he was introduced as senator, the "inducer" stating that he had served several terms with him.

But the dirtiest dig of all was one day last week, when he went to the grade school to see how the cafe was feeding the children, and a small girl addressed him as Prof. Brown.

If he looks like a Methodist, a Baptist preacher, a New Mexico state senator and a school teacher, it is time for him to have his face lifted.

He pleads not guilty to every count, and requests any one that mistakes him for some one else to pick better lookers than either of those birds.

Jack Walker says that when the fire whistle blows that Bert Ray-lins reaches his hand out to feel the wall and if it is cool that he goes back to sleep, but on Friday night he felt the wall and turned out.

The way the ladies have been dressing for summer makes work for the eye doctor.

The male eyesight simply cannot stand the strain.

However, with the coming of cold weather there will be a rest for the eyes.

If you see a man with a bunged up eye or an arm in the sling, you will know that some gentleman has been trying to convince his wife that he is on NRA hours where housework is concerned.

On Tuesday of next week you will have the opportunity to vote on "High Ball." Soft ball is becoming popular over the nation, and if "high ball" carries, it may affect the game.

If the county and state goes wet on next Tuesday, business will increase for the undertakers.

An ambulance stationed at convenient points on all highways will find plenty of business.

Ninety-nine per cent of accidents are caused by the "nut" at the steering wheel. A soused "nut" will soon rid the highway of many of the "nut" drivers.

If the 18th amendment is repealed it will increase the necessity of a hospital in Portales.

AN APPEAL TO ADVERTISERS

The News appeals to its advertisers for more cooperation. Working under restricted hours to comply with the NRA, it is necessary to get advertising copy in earlier in the week.

Copy coming in on Wednesday increases the burden and expenses of the News, and makes it impossible to give the best of service.

Let every NRA member cooperate in this matter and help the News get out a better paper, for both advertisers and the readers.

We Thank You,
Portales Valley News.

CONOCO
GERM PROCESSED
PARAFFIN BASE
MOTOR OIL

You may at times forget to add a needed quart. This slip of memory may be forgiven, if you use Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil, for the 'Hidden Quart' extends its protection to cover the lapse, and gives extra miles to safely reach the next Red Triangle Station.

This exceptional lubrication is brought about by the Germ Process — exclusively Conoco's patented formula. By adding extra oiliness and penetrativeness to the very highest quality motor oil, complete protection is achieved.

With all these qualities, the total cost of this oil is low . . . five miles for a penny.

"Proud and glad to do our part"

WITH President Roosevelt's acceptance of the NRA Automobile Code, Chevrolet, the world's largest builder of motor cars, officially begins operations in accordance with the administration's recovery program.

Although the official code was signed only a few days ago, it will be of interest to Chevrolet's many friends to learn that the Chevrolet Motor Company started to carry out the spirit of today's recovery program over three years ago!

At that time, we put into operation a "share-the-work" plan, whereby our workmen cooperated in spreading the work to give more men jobs. By means of this plan, as well as by regulating hours of work per week to meet retail demand, and by building up parts stocks in lean seasons, it was possible to carry 33,000 men on our payroll through the depression. For eleven months of each year since 1929, we have kept our employment within 10 per cent of this average. We are justly proud of that record. We are also proud to say that Chevrolet workmen did not, at any time during the depression, become a burden on public welfare departments.

On August 1st of this year, Chevrolet announced a blanket wage increase as well as the adoption of a 7½-hour, 5-day week and the employment of 12,000 additional men. This wage increase was the second in the last 4 months, Chevrolet having been among the first to put a blanket wage increase into effect.

We feel that the President's recovery program deserves the whole-hearted support of every citizen and manufacturer in America. It is a bold, swift, courageous plan to start the ball rolling toward economic recovery. Its sincerity is unquestioned. Its objectives are admirable. And the direct, forceful steps the President and his associates are taking to make it a success, should stir the pride and admiration of every American.

We are proud and glad to do our part. And we are deeply grateful to the American people for the patronage that has enabled us to anticipate the present recovery program and to play our part today. After all, the immense number of men employed by Chevrolet is a direct result of the continued preference America has shown for Chevrolet.

SAVING THE SURPLUS

"It isn't so much what you earn as what you save," my grandfather used to argue. I am more or less sold to the idea. Bro't up on it, you know.

In years past, I have been pained to see bushels of perfectly good muskmelons lying around in gardens and fields, going to waste. Why not make an applebutter substitute of the surplus? The thought of a cooked muskmelon seems to be a brand new idea, to many people.

Over ripe fruit can always be converted into preserves and butters. Cook the product till it is positively mushy. Mash it with a long stirring spoon. Put it thru the colander, if you choose. Watch carefully, to prevent scorching.

Use any good applebutter or preserve recipe. The flavor is improved, if some favorite extract is added. Ground cinnamon or cloves change the color and give a good tang. Many people like lemon peel as a flavoring medium. Never sit around and wish for something you don't have. Use the thing at hand. Necessity makes many mothers of invention. My great-grandmother Cookingham used to say. She was English and ought to know. Your own intelligence will suggest many combinations.

If equal parts of sugar and fruit are used, the butter may be placed in crocks in the cellar, and will keep indefinitely. It will keep in a cool place, for a long time if only half the volume in sugar is used. If Mason sealed, only a small amount of sugar is required, for muskmelons are naturally very sweet. Each cook will use her own taste and ingenuity. For winter spreads, when fruit has become scarce, the family will like these concoctions. They will greatly reduce the grocery bill in sweets.—Sarah D. Ulmer.

Senior Class Organization

Tuesday afternoon the Senior class met to elect officers to the coming year.

Miss Barbara Johnson was elected as class sponsor. Miss Johnson is the Home Economics teacher. She is a graduate of New Mexico State College, and comes to us directly from Las Cruces where her home is also located.

Jimmy Risher was elected as class president. Jimmy has served as president of his class for the past three years. He is also the secretary of the Aggie Club this year.

Everett Givens was elected as vice-president. Everett served as vice-president of his class last year. He is president of the Aggie Club this year.

Miss Tennie Alexander was elected as secretary. This is Tennie's first year at Rogers. She comes to us from Richland where she was a very popular member of high school.

The class chose as their colors blue and white, class flower is rose, and the motto is Be Square.

The senior rings were contracted for last year. The order was sent off Saturday morning, Sept. 9, and the seniors are expecting the rings to be here within the next two weeks.

This class has increased in enrollment this year, and others are expected to add to the enrollment list soon. Those enrolled now are: Patsy Thetford, Jimmie Risher, Lynne Judah, Glenn Jones, Lyle Grant, Mayme Frazee, Herman Clark, Tennie Alexander, Ola Mae Adams, Laura Ellen Givens, Everett Givens, Lee Richards, Thurston Tollett, Winnie Couch, Willie Couch and John Depperman.

Hubert Hall and Leo Terrill are expected to enter school within the next week. These boys were members of the basketball squad last year and it is with interest that we look forward to their enrollment.

Junior Class

Cecil Dobbs, popular student of Rogers, formerly of Dora, was elected president of the junior class in an election held last Tuesday afternoon.

Glyde Greathouse was voted in as vice-president. Odell Smith was chosen secretary and treasurer. Vernon Watson was elected as sergeant at arms.

Colors chosen for the class were purple and gold; the class flower is pink rose.

Mr. Lee Burt was chosen as their sponsor.

Mr. Dobbs is a new student of Rogers, and is proving very popular with every one. He was a sophomore of Dora last year.

The junior class was very lucky to get Mr. Burt as their sponsor. He was coach last year and has proved to be an asset to the Rogers school.

The opening social functions of the juniors will be held next Friday night at the home of their sponsor, Mr. Burt.

Freshman Class

The freshman class met Tuesday for organization and election of class officers for the coming year. The officers chosen are:

Sponsor, Mr. Carl Radcliff; President, Hollis Fullerton; vice president, Maurine Givens; secretary, Wilma Depperman. They also chose sweet pea for their class flower, green and white was chosen for class colors. Their motto is: Green but Growing.

The enrollment of this class has increased considerably this year. There are 15 members of the class this year.

Prospects for 1933-34 Basketball Team of Rogers High

Rogers high school is looking forward to a strong basketball team this season. Due to the fact that last year's team only lost two games, outside of tournaments, one to Floyd on their court, the other one to Clovis on our court. We have five of the lettermen back this year. Including Leo Terrill (captain-elect) and Hubert Hall, who are expected to enroll soon. Others are Odell Smith, Herman Clark and Everett Givens. Three men were lost in graduation. Bass Preston (captain), Willard Howl, and Dale Greathouse. Although there are other prospects to fill their absence, Lee Richards, Lester Clark, Cecil Dobbs, Lynne Judah and probably others.

As basketball is the major sport of Rogers, practice will begin early under the direction of Coach Carl Radcliff, formerly of Dora.

Coach Radcliff states he is very hopeful over prospects of team for this year.

Prospects for the Rogers Stock-Judging Team.

The Vocational Agriculture class at Rogers is looking forward to a successful year in the stock-judging contests.

There are 19 boys in the class this year, which is the largest since agriculture has been taught at Rogers. Two of the boys in the class this year took part in the state contest at Las Cruces last year. These two boys are Herman Clark who judged poultry and meat cutting and Thurston Tollett, who judged poultry and dairy. The class also has planned to equip a shop which will give them a better chance to compete in the contests. A wide scope of judging is planned so as to give the team quite a bit of experience before the contests.

The future farmers of America, the vocational agriculture club, called a meeting and elected the officers for the 1933-34 school year. Everett Givens, president; Herman Clark, vice president; Jimmie Richards, secretary; Thurston Tollett,

REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY

In The District Court of Roosevelt County, New Mexico

To the Honorable Harry L. Patton, Judge of the Ninth Judicial District of New Mexico, Sitting Within and for Roosevelt County:

We, the Grand Jury, regularly empaneled, sworn and charged at the present Term of Court, beg leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully investigated all alleged violations of law which were brought to our attention, and of which we had knowledge. We have investigated thirty-one alleged violations of law, and have examined seventy-six witnesses. As a result of our labors, twelve true bills and 13 no bills are herewith returned into open Court.

Through our Foreman and committees appointed by him, we have examined the county offices and property belonging to the county. We find that the respective county officers are performing their duties in an efficient manner, and that the records of the county are being neatly kept and cared for. We find that some of the records in the Clerk's office are old and of no apparent value, and that they take up space which is badly needed for current records. If possible, we would recommend to the County Commissioners that some safe storage place be found for such records in order to relieve the congested condition in the Clerk's office. We further find that in some of the offices in the courthouse the linoleum floor covering need to be stripped in order to protect the edges, and that chairs are needed in the Sheriff's office, and a table needed in the Treasurer's office. We believe, in accordance with a suggestion made by the Treasurer, that his office might be more efficiently arranged at a small cost, and recommend that this be done, if possible.

We find that the prisoners are being well fed and properly cared for. The jail building needs some repairs, which were noted as follows: The plumbing in the building needs repairs, and hot water connections should be made where not now available in the lavatories. The roof should be repaired against leaks, and loose window frames in the jail building should be repaired; also cement blocks in the building, which are loose, should be cemented in, and a lock provided for the inner entrance door to the men's cell. If possible, we recommend that the repairs herein specified, be made.

We desire to thank the Court and the officials for their advice and assistance during our deliberations.

Thus, having been in session for two days, and having completed the business now before us, we respectfully await the further order

Federal Work
In New Mexico

SANTA FE, Sept. 13.—Request by the NRA that the federal employment program be rushed in New Mexico cost the federal government just $300,000.

Governor Arthur Seligman, who has been wondering where the money is coming from to pay for locating engineers, project engineers, surveys and drafting room work on proposed federal aid projects, wired the government asking that it advance $500,000 as a revolving fund to meet these expenses, since it wished to rush employment.

The government responded by advancing $300,000. The state before has had to bear this expense originally. With the $300,000 federal funds the state can now push through its preliminary work on proposed highway projects which have not already been surveyed.

This situation demonstrates the need for the state to obtain authority to issue highway debentures. The debenture bill, granting this authority has been temporarily suspended through referendum action. To expedite all preliminary work connected with highway construction the state needs $500,000 or $200,000 above the amount advanced by the government.

Governor Seligman, in his message to the 1933 legislature stressed the need for farmer to market roads. The federal aid funds so far advanced will allow only $1,500,000 at most for this purpose.

Issuance of highway debentures is imperative if an appreciable amount of progress is to be made on this class of highways. There is no way of determining what the next congress will require, of the states in matching federal road funds. The government has already insisted that the state make its maximum levy for indigent purposes before further federal grants would be advanced for direct relief.

It may require that the state match federal highway funds on the old basis of $1 state money to $2 federal. If this happens, New Mexico wants to be able to issue highway debentures to insure receiving her portion of federal money.

Clay Dyer of Milensand was in town on business Saturday.

Mrs. De Paul Oliviera of Tucuman visited friends in Portales from Wednesday until Sunday.

Bankers' Kick
On Insurance
Gets Nowhere

The nation's bankers were told Thursday, that deposit insurance was for their own good and for the good of the public—and were given to understand by the administration that their opposition would be of no avail.

J. F. T. O'Connor, comptroller of the currency and one of the men who will direct the deposit insurance plan, listed before the American Bankers association replies by President Roosevelt to all their many objections to deposits guaranty.

Injustice to None
"Injustice to none," O'Connor said, "is the first aim of the national banking act of 1933, which provides for guaranty of deposits of $2,500 or less. The act becomes effective in part next January 1."

He declared "vicious, unwarranted and untruthful propaganda" had been distributed to the effect that small banks and independent banks would be eliminated under the act.

O'Connor stated: (1) The public made a loud demand for deposit insurance, as reflected in passage of the law with huge majorities in congress; (2) the law makes a fact of the theory that depositors have a right to their money; (3) deposit insurance will banish bank runs by giving assurance of absolute safety; (4) it will obviate the necessity of the postal savings bank and return to the banks more than a billion dollars in deposits; (5) the act will extend credit and modify cash reserves; (6) it will save banks millions of dollars by eliminating interest on demand deposits; (7) the expense and work in setting up the machinery is not prohibitive.

Association Objects
The association previously adopted a resolution demanding that initiation of deposit insurance be postponed and charging that rigid requirements for banks to obtain deposit guaranty would result in the closing of thousands of them.

The comptroller announced Walter J. Cummings of Chicago and E. G. Bennett of Ogden, Utah, whom he described as "sound bankers and not politicians," would serve with him as directors of the federal deposit corporation to administer the deposits guaranty. Bennett is a republican, Cummings a democrat, as provided by law.

The recent growth of deposits in the postal savings bank, O'Connor said, was "interesting if not alarming." He placed the present total at $1,104,943,200. He put at $1,630,000,000 the peak load of bank withdrawals last March 4.

$2,500 to $10,000
The guaranty plan would put all bank deposits of $2,500 and less under guarantee January 1. When the act becomes fully operative next July 1, deposits not exceeding $10,000 would be guaranteed 100 per cent, and those above $10,000 to 50 per cent. He then quoted figures showing 96.76 per cent of deposits in American banks amounted to less than $2,500 each. To capitalize the federal deposit corporation, large sums would be contributed by the federal government and the federal reserve, and each bank would pay to the corporation an amount equal to one-half of one per cent of its total deposits.

Counties Ask
Indigent Fund

SANTA FE, Sept. 13.—Twenty-three counties had replied Monday to a wire sent out by Governor Arthur Seligman asking that the indigent fund levy in their budget be raised to the maximum of half a mill. All replies agreed to the increase.

Governor Seligman has fought for economy since his administration took office, but he has never placed economy above human needs. It has been his motto that no deserving person should go hungry in New Mexico and that no deserving person should go cold. The move to increase the indigent fund levy in county budgets to a half mill came after the federal government had made it clear that unless the state made a serious effort to provide for its own needy, it could expect no further federal relief.

Between the period Oct. 31, 1932 to July 31, 1933, the state spent $405,114 of federal funds for relief work in the state. This money was applied to direct relief. Expenditures were as follows: Food $226,818, household supplies $15,680, clothing $4,022, shelter $7,658, medicines, medical supplies, medical care $21,740 and fuel $19,067.

Several weeks ago the government served notice that this relief would stop unless the state made provision to help care for its own needy. The governor suggested that counties levy the full half mill allowed for the indigent fund. Only a few responded.

After the budgets were all in, he saw that adequate provision had not been made to insure government relief. His wire asking that all counties levy the full half mill followed, and the response was instant. Replies came in by wire and mail. The governor is convinced that all counties will authorize the increase, and join in this humanitarian effort to see that no deserving citizen goes hungry, cold or without medical care during the winter months.

T. A. Boone of Fairfield, was in town on business Friday of last week. Mr. Boone says that the crops in the Fairfield district are good, and that they will produce heavy this fall.

Saturday's Crowd Not As Large

Last Saturday the usual crowd of farmers in Portales was not so large as usual.

This indicates that the farmers were busy in their crops doing the last minute work on laying by the late crops.

During the past twelve years, Portales has become famed as a Saturday town, farmers coming from the four corners of the county by the thousands.

Superintendent F. R. McKinley of the Elida Schools was in town on business Saturday. Mr. McKinley says that the Elida schools are starting off with a good enrollment.

Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Redmon and her daughter, Miss Jane Abbott, left Tuesday for Abilene, Texas where Miss Jane will enroll in McMurray College as a sophomore.

Miss Evelyn McNutt of Delphos is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Poindexter.

WE ARE OPPOSED TO CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NO. 4, (20 mill levy) because—*VOTERS BEWARE!

1. It is an attempt to shift still heavier tax burdens from the hands of the wealthy to the already overburdened backs of the poor.
2. It would enable the state to take half the total levy, leaving only ten mills for schools and local units of government.
3. This would close free schools, since nothing would be left until other provisions could be made for them after the state and county functions were provided for as fixed by law.
4. It could result in increased property valuations for taxation purposes, on such classes of property as are held by the small property owner, out of all proportion to increase of valuation in corporate property. Ch. 86, laws of-33, prepared the way by defining valuations for purposes of taxation at actual market value. Increases in valuation above those set by the County Commissioners have already been ordered by the State Tax Commission.
5. The next step could be to double such valuations just as soon as the breakdown in such functions of local government as free schools forced the common people who love their children to endure it.
6. The next step could be passage of oppressive sales taxes on the necessities of life, thus exempting corporate property of still greater sums in taxes.

FINALLY: WE OPPOSE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NO. 4, because we believe both men and corporations should pay in proportion to their ability to pay to insure the common protection of law and order and to preserve for our children a common training and preparation for citizenship.

IT'S FOR LAMP DEALERS ONLY ---

LAMP DEALERS...

About this time of the year we used to put on an "Empty Socket" Campaign which was to fill up the empty lamp sockets. Our men went from house to house and talked with folks and told them about the new lamps. When they needed lamps for the long dark fall and winter nights, they sold them. The men made a small profit, we made a profit on the lamps and the customer made an investment in good lighting from which he gained a profit. We don't sell lamps now, but there is a big market here for them. Folks appreciate someone's taking the trouble to come around and ask if they need lamps—we all do, you need some in your home right now and your store too probably.

Why not go around to your customers and our customers and see that they have the new lamps they need?

CHINESE-AMERICAN BOY WINS

$1,000 AWARD FOR PAINTING

Youth From Oregon Gets First Place In Annual

American Magazine Youth Forum

New York, July 00 — An 18-year-old Chinese American boy, Fred Gong of Portland, Ore., today (Wed.) was announced by The American Magazine as winner of the $1,000 first award in the art division of the annual American Youth Forum competition, in which 655,898 high school students participated.

Young Gong, who at the age of four attracted the attention of several art teachers with his drawings on the sidewalk in front of his father's barber shop, was the unanimous choice of the judges. The second award of $500 goes to Roy Chamlee, 16, of Atlanta, Ga., and the $50 third award to Charlotte Margolis, 18, of Dayton, Ohio. Twenty-five $10 awards, 100 $5 awards and 500 honorable mentions also are announced in the magazine.

Gong's winning painting, a charcoal drawing with thin layers of oil, captures with remarkable vigor the spirit of the American Northwest and its contributions to the national destiny. The subject assigned for the competition was "What my community contributes to the nation."

"This 1941 testament of youth," the magazine states in referring to the entries as a whole, "is a tribute to the power of democracy to inspire the unity and self-dedication demanded by these critical times. The dictators boast of the devotion of their youth to the state-controlled institutions. This new edition of the American Youth Forum proves that none can surpass the young men and women of America in their determination to defend for future generations their free traditions and institutions. American youth today has no patience with defeatism or any other aim except Americanism."
