Local man is charged with felony assult

An Iowa Park man has been charged with aggravated assault on a 17-year-old girl following an alleged early-morning attack Saturday.

Chad Fielding, 19, was arraigned on the charge Saturday afternoon after turning himself in at the Iowa Park police station. His bond was set at $10,000.

According to police, Fielding entered the home of Kelly Ann Dwier at 902 E. Highway where an argument ensued and he began choking her.

Miss Dwier was on the telephone when he arrived, and the man on the other end of the line heard what was happening and went to the Dwier house. He reportedly saw Fielding leaving.

The girl was unconscious, and was taken to a Wichita Falls hospital by her father, where she recovered.

Fielding reportedly talked with his family and then an attorney, who recommended he turn himself over to police at 3 p.m.

Police were notified of the incident at 4:22 a.m., according to the police blotter.

Fielding, who was graduated in May from Iowa Park High School, was also sought for outstanding traffic warrants locally and by the Department of Public Safety.

Chief Alan Sheffield said the case is still under investigation.

Also still under investigation is the burglary of Louis Jewelry, which apparently took place sometime during last Wednesday night.

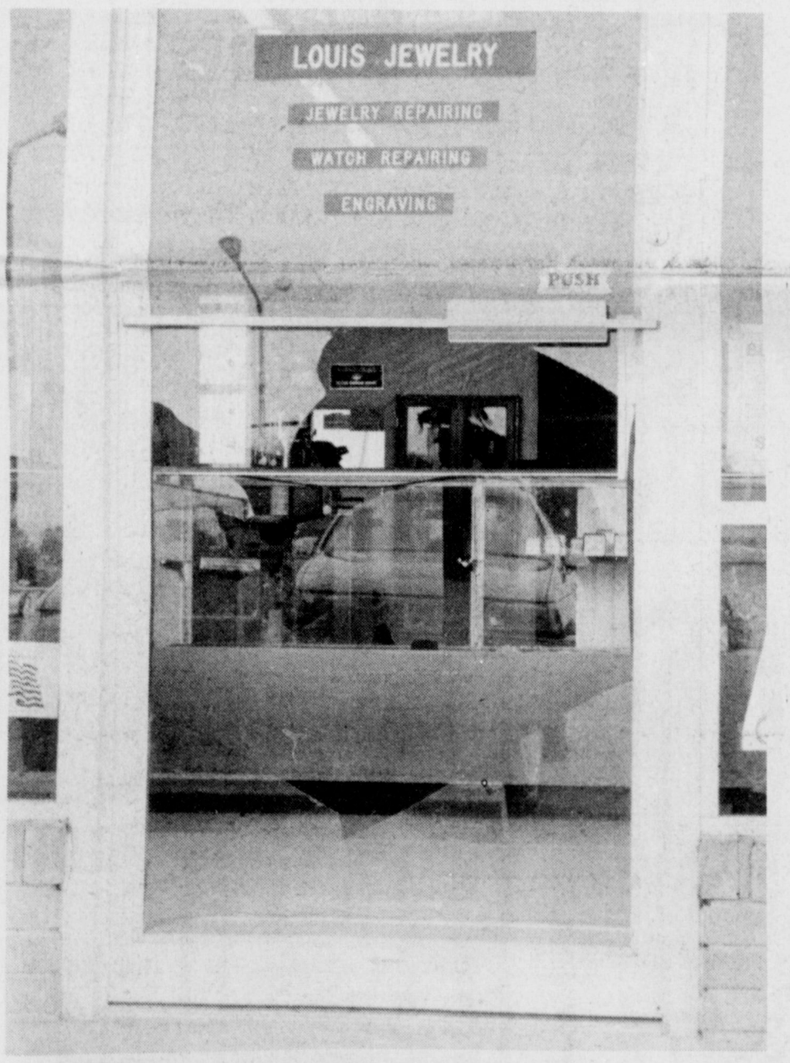

Louis Sefcik told police at 8:59 a.m. Thursday he had found a portion of his front door knocked out and more than $3,000 worth of jewelry taken from a front case, which had also been shattered.

Among the items listed as having been taken were two expensive wrist watches and a necklace.

Sheffield said some blood, apparently left after being cut on the case's shattered glass siding, had been found and the investigators have a suspect.

Also on the week's blotter were

School trustees to meet Tuesday

Iowa Park school trustees will hear reports from the the principals of each campus in the district when they meet at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building.

Principals each year are asked to give reports following the first of school on enrollment, personnel and other topics of interest and needs.

Trustees will be asked to act on requests for student field trips and fund-raising activities. All such topics are supposed to be proposed at one time, rather than being spread out over the year.

Reports will also be given to trustees on enrollment, taxes, transportation, cafeteria and by Supt. Glen Mitchell.

VOICE OF THE HAWKS - Robert Wilcox will begin his 41st year tomorrow night as public address announcer for Iowa Park Hawk football games. Wilcox, a postal service employee and farmer, took over the duty the second game of the 1948 season, when he was a senior. "The good Lord willing, I'll still be here in '98, and maybe 2008," he said. His pressbox cohart for more than 20 years, Carlton Hicks, is having to withdraw from his duties as keeper of the scoreboard clock, however, because of health reasons. In his place will be Norm Hodges.

Hobbling Hawks home Friday hosting Wylie

Iowa Park's battered Hawks, still licking their wounds from last week's season-opening loss to Burkburnett, will play their first game of 1988 in Hawk Stadium Friday as hosts to Abilene Wylie.

Coach Len Williams said Tuesday afternoon the hitting had been ferocious Monday, because the players realized they had not played up to their capabilities and wanted to improve.

But the players' efforts may have been their undoing, because the Head Hawk said "We finished Monday's workout without a single linebacker walking."

Among those wounded linebackers is the starting offensive fullback and punter Gary Tatum, who suffered a hyperextended elbow and will be questionable tomorrow.

Starting defensive nose guard Chuck Brown reinjured his knee at Burkburnett and is expected to be out of play two to three weeks. His appearance against the Bulldogs was the first in about that same period of time.

But, other than the injuries, Williams said Monday morning's practice was good. The weather was cool, and the players responded well to drills designed to improve intensity.

About Friday's 12-25 loss to Burkburnett, Williams said the team's kicking game and coverage was "pathetic." They'll be working on those phases of the game all this week.

The coach said reserve quarterback Dan Fannin, who played the entire last half and some of the first, is also questionable tomorrow, having pulled a leg muscle.

Fannin threw for a touchdown, but was twice intercepted. Duggins connected on two of five aerials and also had one intercepted.

While the Hawks were losing at Burkburnett, Wylie was taking advantage of five Breckenridge turnovers to earn a 21-13 victory.

The Bulldogs, described as possibly the tallest team Iowa Park will face this year on a football field, claimed three Buckaroo fumbles and picked off a pair of passes to boot.

Wylie likes to use deception, if Friday's win is any indication.

Sophomore Eddie Parker scored once on a deceptive play. It was a punt return where a player took the ball and raced to the sideline on his left, handing off to Parker and the 155-pounder scampered 96 yards to the end zone. His other score was a 35-yard reverse on third down.

Parker also took his team to the Buckaroo 30 yard line on a 35-yard, third-town reverse play.

The Bulldogs are keyed by four seniors: quarterback David Blackburn, 6-0, 180; center Tres Burke, 6-3, 201; guard Rod Gregg, 5-7, 180, and linebacker Horace McMahon, 5-10, 185.

Council to set tax budget Monday night

Iowa Park city council will set its 1988-89 budget and tax rate when aldermen meet at 7 p.m. Monday in council chambers.

A tax increase of slightly less than three and one half cents will be required to meet a budget which is some $140,000 higher than last year, according to Administrator James Barrington.

The meeting agenda calls for action on an ordinance which increases the tax rate from .80557 to .84 per $100 valuation.

The new budget to be acted on is $2,607,000, up from $2,468,000.

Broken down, the budget includes $1,650,000 for the general operating fund and $957,000 for the water and sewer fund.

The current year's budget, which ends Sept. 20, is for $1,538,000 in the general fund and $930,000 in the water and sewer fund.

Most of the increases in the general operating fund expenditures next year are for public works, Barrington explained, which include streets and alleys.

A public hearing, the second of three required hearings prior to the city's demolition of privately-owned property that does not meet codes, will be held.

A "show cause" hearing will be held on property owned by John Paul Jones, at 610 E. Bank. The property was posted some 45 days ago, and the owner is given an opportunity to "show cause" why the property should not be demolished.

An ordinance on which the city will act will be the final requirement for annexing a 28-acre tract of land into the city. Owned by Gene Wigley, the land is on the west side of the road leading from US 287 to Lake Iowa Park.

The council will be asked to consider authorizing the administrator to advertise for bids to purchase two new cars for the police department; for bids to upgrade the police computer program, and to purchase a trash truck.

The fourth bid action would authorize the administrator to enter into insurance contracts for the city, for the coverage of everything except health.

Also on the agenda, Barrington is to make a report of a master plan for Block 31, Texas Addition, which is the vacant property between Third and Fourth Streets; to ask authority to have repairs made to the water plant roof, and ask travel expenses to attend the Texas Municipal League conference in Dallas.

More students in school

As administrators had predicted, enrollment in Iowa Park schools is well above last year, both on first-day count and this week following the Labor Day holiday.

Twenty eight more students enrolled the first day of classes Thursday than the first day in 1987, as principals reported 1,854.

As of Wednesday morning, the total enrollment had swelled to 1,872, according to Supt. Glen Mitchell.

Greatest first-day gain was at Bradford Elementary, which picked up 34 more students on the first day than Principal Kenneth Davis counted last year.

Bradford had 446 students Thursday, and yesterday's count was 452. The campus only had 412 on the first day of classes last year.

The junior high also had a marked increase over last year's first-day count, 415-397. One more student enrolled this week.

Kidwell Elementary had 17 fewer first-day students enrolled, 455-472, but gained eight more this week.

Gerry Thurlo asked for volunteers to bake cakes for the Wichita Falls State Hospital during Sept., Oct. and Nov., and said other needs of the institution include magazines, books, records, wall hangings, luggage, radios, hair accessories, plants, frisbees, crossword puzzles and musical instruments.

Jerry Waters gave the devotional from an advertisement in a newpaper entitled, "Wanted, slightly used church pew!" Her focus on the topic was, "How many pews in your church are for sale?."

The Bertha McDonald Circle will meet with Hilda Thompson, and the Jessie Mae Owens Circle with Marcella Childers next week. Program leaders will be Gerry Thurlo and Ruth Thompson, respectively.

After the meeting was adjourned, a luncheon was served by the Bertha McDonald Circle members.

Twenty-two were present, including re-activated member, Rita Cogdell and honorary member, Pearle Pace.

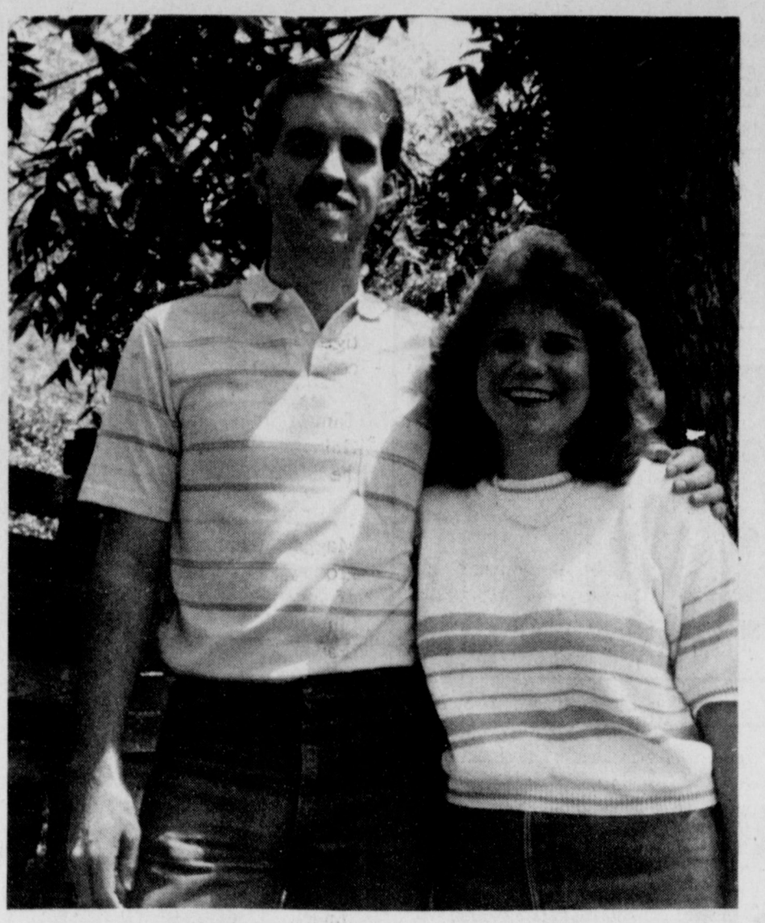

Annual Farm Bureau meeting set Saturday

Annual membership meeting of the Wichita County Farm Bureau will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 17, in the Iowa Park High School cafeteria, according to Fred Dwyer, president.

McEnturff, Fowler exchange vows in candlelight ceremony

In a double-ring ceremony marked with sentiment and tradition, Penny Leann McEnturff became the bride of Charles Scott Fowler August 20 at the Lakeview Church of God. Ole Olds, pastor, officiated.

Miss McEnturff is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McEnturff Jr. of DeSoto, and Fowler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fowler of Iowa Park.

The couple exchanged vows before an impressive candlelight background. The altar area featured fan-shaped candelabras flanked by two-seven-branched candelabras and two spiral candelabras, each covered in boxwood greenery with an arrangement of white gladiolas, peach carnations, dusty blue mums, roses and rose-colored, freesia, and holding burning tapers. A unity candle used during the ceremony was decorated with a smaller flower arrangement similar to those on the candelabras.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was radiant on her wedding day in the wedding gown that her mother wore at her own wedding 21 years ago.

The gown was made of candlelight slipper satin and featured a princess scooped neckline trimmed with wide lace, sequins and pearls. Long tapered sleeves went to points at the fingertips. The fitted waist was accented with a large bow at the back, giving a bustle effect, from which flowed a cathedral-length train bordered with lace, pearls and sequins. A crown headpiece, adorned with pearls and sequins, secured the veil of bridal illusion that flowed from a pouf of net to complete her bridal attire.

She carried a magnificent bouquet created of five large ivory roses, accented with shoots of pearls, small peach and ivory rose buds and greenery throughout. A large bow with peach and ivory lace completed the bouquet.

In keeping with bridal tradition, the bride wore her gown as "something old;" pearl cluster earrings, a gift from her father, as "something new;" a lace handerkerchief from her grandmother for "something borrowed," and the "something blue" garter.

Mrs. Sonya Saffle of Forth Worth, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dusty blue tea-length gown made with a princess neckline and full skirt. the back of the gown was cut in a V-shape to a large bow, designed to match the bow on the bridal gown. She carried a single ivory rose wrapped in satin, complemented with an ivory and peach lace bow.

Misses Shantelle Brown and Nancy Cole, both of Wichita Falls, served as bridemaids. Each wore a gown and carried a rose identical to that of the matron of honor.

MRS. SCOTT FOWLER

Prelude selections were provided by Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brandenburg, and Don Unwin provided the organ music to "Trumpet Voluntary in D Major," for the bride's walk to the altar.

During the ceremony, the groom provided his own accompaniment on the piano as he sang "All My Life," a song he had written especially for the bride.

David Fowler of Iowa Park, brother of the groom, was best man. Bryan Fowler, brother of the groom, and Kelvin Hamilton, both of Iowa Park, were groomsmen, and Eric Olds of Iowa Park and Trey McEnturff, brother of the bride, of DeSoto, assumed ushering duties.

The groom was attired in a black tuxedo with tails, a pleated shirt, black bow tie and cummerbund. He wore a boutonniere formed of two ivory roses surrounded by baby's breath.

Male participants in the wedding party each wore a black tuxedo with a regular coat, a white shirt, black bow tie and cummerbund. The father of the bride wore a black tuxedo with tails, a black bow tie and cummerbund. Each wore a boutonniere made of a single ivory rose accented with baby's breath.

As the bride entered the sanctuary, she presented her mother with a single ivory rose, and the groom's mother with a red rose upon leaving.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McEnturff wore a tea-length sheer navy and grey paisley organza crepe dress. The mother of the groom chose a powder blue princess crepe dress with a lace overlay on the bodice.

Both mothers wore corsages made of gardenias, and accented with pearl shoots and babies breath to complement their dresses.

A small candelabra decorated with rings of peach, rose and blue colored flowers, and holding burning tapers, stood at the center of the table.

The bride's table, covered with a lace tablecloth belonging to the bride's grandmother, was skirted with ivory taffeta and had an English ivy garland swagged at each corner with a large ivory magnolia blossom.

The table held the bride's four-tiered cake, iced in ivory and decorated with pastel peach and rose-colored roses. The confection was topped by a "Precious Moments" bride and groom standing under a gold-trimmed crystal arch.

The centerpiece of the table was a cascade of magnolia blossoms. A brass candleabra with four burning tapers and an arrangement of ivroy magnolia blossoms, peach gladiolas, roses, dusty blue mums and blue tiger lillies, and brass appointments completed the table setting.

The groom's table, presided by Maggie Fowler, sister-in-law of the groom, and Jamie Ridlehuber, both of Iowa Park, was covered with a blue cloth with a lace overlay and draped with English ivy garland.

The table held a red velvet cake donning the groom's signature at the top. The centerpiece was a hurricane lamp with an arrangement of roses, blue mums and peach honeysuckle. A brass coffee service and mint dishes, and ivory napkins completed the setting.

A catered buffet-style rehearsal dinner, hosted by the groom's parents, was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church the evening before the wedding. The round tables were covered with peach cloths and held candelabras encircled with spring-rye, with burning peach, rose and blue tapers.

Candelabras holding tapers in the bride's chosen colors were appointed on the serving and dessert tables.

When the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip to San Antonio, the new Mrs. Fowler wore a knee-length candlelight silk dress that her maternal grandmother had worn at the bride's mother's wedding. The dress was fashioned of sequins and pearls at the neckline and complement with a corsage made of gardenias. The groom wore white trousers and a plaid shirt to complement the bride's costume.

The bride was graduated from DeSoto High School and is a senior at Midwestern State Univ. Fowler is a graduate of Iowa Park High School, attended Texas Christian Univ., and is a senior at MSU. He is employed at Cryovac.

The couple will reside in Iowa Park.

Out of town guests include James and Alpha McEnturff of Lancaster and Charles and Alene Atlin of Irving, all grandparents of the bride; Keith and Debra Everly of Arlington; Randy and Sonya Saffle of Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace and family, Gerald Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Lee McMurtre, all of DeSoto.

As I See It... By BOB HAMILTON

I experienced a resurrection with one of my earliest loves about two weeks ago.

No, it wasn't an old girl friend. I became reacquainted with barbershop quartet singing, an activity with which I fell in love some 40 years ago, and has been virtually absent 30 years.

It all came about in an unusual way. At the last Summer in the Park program a couple of weeks ago, I listened to former IPHS choir director Derrell Dick and a couple of other men sing, and went over to compliment their program.

During the discussion, for some reason I mentioned barbershopping, and they said they had just organized a chapter in Wichita Falls, inviting me to the meeting.

Meetings are held at 2 p.m. each Sunday at the St. Stephens Episcopal church, across the street south from Rider High. The group didn't meet last week because it was a holiday weekend.

The second man I saw in the meeting room as I entered was another Iowa Parkan, Dr. James Edwards. Dick wasn't there that meeting, however.

There were only about a dozen men there, but we had a very interesting and entertaining two-hour singing session. And I plan to return for each meeting in the future.

Other barbershop choruses have organized in Wichita Falls over the years, but I never attended because the meetings were on week nights, and there's no way I can pledge my attendance because of obligations to cover the news here.

Singing barbershop music has been a highlight of my life over the years, both personally and socially.

There are some who say jazz is the only purely American music, but four-part barbershop music originated in the United States and should also be similarly recognized.

A young, new teacher moved to Hereford back in the fall of 1948, and he introduced me to barbershopping. He, another young man and another fellow high school student and I formed a quartet.

It was important that we attend a barbershop chorus practice session, to become better acquainted with the music and so we did. We traveled all the way down to Lubbock one night each week for a couple of months, and it was a life-long love that developed.

Because we each had our personal lives to live, often our practice sessions as a quartet were after hours. That is, after ball games, or dates, or work, one of us would begin gathering the others. Our practices other than in a car were at one of the local churches which had a piano, to assist the acappello problems we sometimes had.

Barbershopping opened doors to me few young men in the service had when we were away from home.

When I went into the Air Force, I learned of a chorus in Denver, my second station assignment. Again in Tacoma, Wash., I joined a chorus. To have an activity both entertaining and gaining exposure to local residents was very important to me as a young man away from home.

After the service, while I was attending Amarillo Junior College, I joined the "chapter" there. Four of us students organized a quartet and we were heartily welcomed by the "older" men in the chapter.

It was through barbershopping that I got my first job in newspapering, which further shows the benefits singing four-part harmony has brought to my life.

A group of men from Dumas attended our meeting in Amarillo, explaining they were planning to organize a chapter in that town.

Through conversation, one of the men, Gene Alford, learned that I was studying journalism. We hit it off well, and he offered me a job when I graduated that spring.

Those two years in Dumas were great, working on a good newspaper and singing barbershop music, both with the chorus and a quartet.

There weren't any chapters in the towns where we lived after leaving Dumas, so I've been away from one of my major loves all these years.

But now, with a new and young chapter forming in Wichita Falls, on a day in the week that I can attend, I'm hooked again.

Maybe some of you would like to sit in, just to see if you'd like to participate. If so, let me know. We'll get together Sunday and make some fine chords.

reports of four cases of criminal mischief, a burglary of a coin operated machine, and theft of a bicycle.

Three of the criminal mischief cases involve broken windows, one in a home in the 400 block of W. Clara, and the others vehicles: a car in the 500 block of W. Alameda and a rear pickup window in the 900 block of Van Horn.

Police investigated a report of a coin machine burglary Wednesday of last week at the laundry at 309 E. Bank.

RAC directors to be honored

The Iowa Park Recreational Activities Center board of directors will host a reception 6:30-7:30 Monday at the RAC to honor their retiring and new directors.

Betty Merriman has retired as director of the facility, and is being replaced by Pam Johnson.

Letter to the Editor

Mr. Hamilton,

I would like to publicly thank all of the members of the Iowa Park Optimist Club for providing the funds and balls for the free tennis lessons given to Iowa Park school children this summer. The kids had a great time, plus children enjoyed learning to play tennis or improving their game. Thanks also for budgeting money for free lessons again next summer. Special thanks go to K&K Quick Stop for providing free ice and water and to Beverly Bohannon and Scheack for their court time help on those hot days.

Sincerely,
Jenny Bowerman

A Service of Iowa Park Friendly Door

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of ten women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small • even before it can be felt. Appointments may be made by calling 592-9311 or 592-4932 after 3.

The Mobile Breast Cancer Detection Unit will be in Iowa Park, on Tuesday, July 26.

The American Cancer Society has established guidelines for mammography in asymptomatic women. (Women who have no symptons of disease). Those guidelines have been adopted by the American Academy of Family Physicians, American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, and The American College of Radiology. Those guidelines are:

1. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
2. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
3. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
4. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.
5. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A femal technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $50.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

Bulldogs dump Hawks in opener

To say the Hawks failed to play up to their capabilities in Friday night's 12-25 season opener at Burkburnett would be an understatement.

The players themselves admitted they played one of the worst games in their young careers, and they said the following day during a team meeting that they were disappointed.

The disappointment wasn't only among the players, as fans mumbled to themselves as they stalked out of Burk's stadium.

But possibly the greatest disappointment was that of Len Williams, who made his debut Friday as head coach of the Hawks.

Twice during the game, Iowa Park pulled to within striking distance of the host Bulldogs, and it appeared late in the game that the Mean Green was once more going to at least make a closer game of it.

But mistakes, in the form of three interceptions and a fumble, as well as missed tackles and blocking assignments, proved to be the undoing of the young Hawks.

The Bulldogs lit up the scoreboard on their first possession, marching 56 yards in only eight plays, to score on a seven-yard pass.

But before the end of the initial period, Iowa Park had pulled to within one point, when tailback Marc Cruz scampered 17 yards into the end zone, thanks to a key block at the five yard line by Bruce Palmer, with 22 seconds remaining on the clock.

Burkburnett scored twice more in the second quarter, and went to the dressing room at halftime with a 19-6 lead.

But late in the third period, reserve quarterback Dan Fannin lofted a perfect pass downfield into the arms of Palmer, who took the ball without breaking stride and raced into the end zone. The play covered 45 yards to cap a drive that had begun on the Hawk 20 yard line, and 3:15 still remained in the third quarter.

Both Iowa Park tries for extra points failed. Kicker Kelly McClure's try after the first TD was ruled wide left, and fullback Gary Tatum's run off right tackle was a yard short following the second.

The Hawks marched to the Burk 13 yard line, on a drive highlighted by a 19-yard pass from Fannin to end Michael Johnson. But on a third-and-10 situation, Fannin's pass attempt to McClure was intercepted in the end zone.

The turnover appeared to have taken the win out of the Hawks' sails, as Burkburnett scored again, requiring only six plays to cover 80 yards and make the score 25-12.

Iowa Park was forced to punt after picking up one first down on its initial possession of the ball. But on Burk's second play, Cruz intercepted a pass and returned it to the Bulldog 43 yard line.

After three plays picked up eight yards, and Burk was penalized for being offsides to give the Hawks a first down on the 30, starting quarterback Jimmy Duggins' pass was picked off in the end zone, killing the drive.

The host 'Dogs couldn't pick up a first, however, and punted. The punter shanked the ball out of bounds at the 'Dog 26, however. Tatum bulled his way 12 yards for a first. Then Cruz appared to have lost a couple, but Burk was penalized five yards. Tatum appeared to have a yard, but the Hawks drew a 10-yard holding penalty. Then Cruz swept left end and scored.

Burk's second touchdown, a three-yarder over right guard, capped an 82-year drive that was highlighted by a 45-yard Michael Ivory run. Then, two plays after the kickoff, the handoff between Duggins and Cruz was muffed, and Burk had the ball on the Hawk 30. Two plays later, Ivory skirted his left end 29 yards to score.

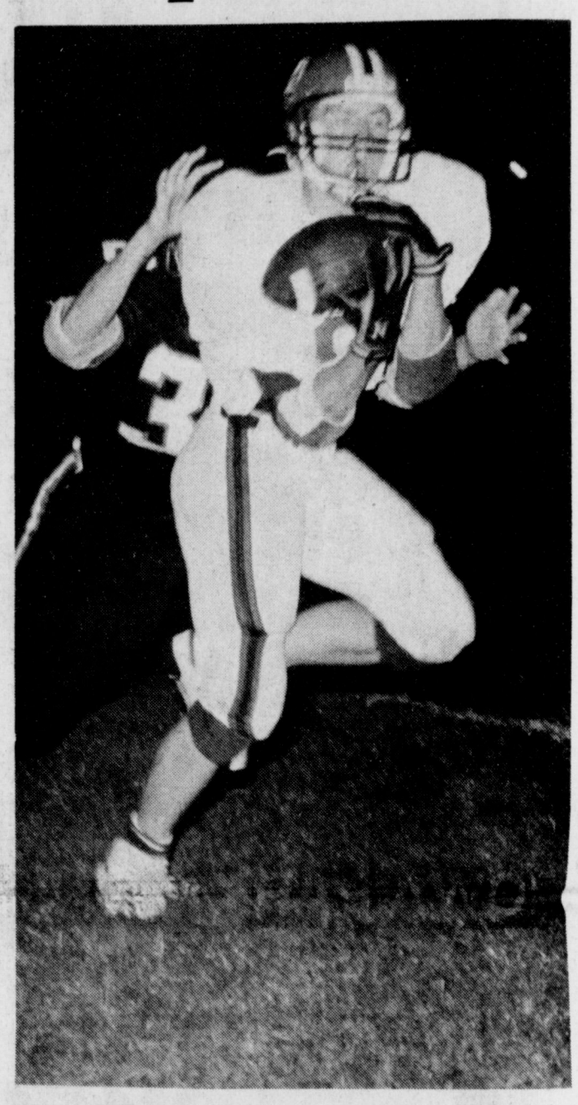

The Bulldogs kicked the extra point after their second TD, but a pass attempt for a two-pointer following the second was clocked by Duggins and Vance Edwards in the end zone.

Iowa Park appeared to be mounting one last scoring drive after Burk's final touchdown, when Fannin again hit Palmer, this time on a 34-yarder, that took the Hawks to the Bulldog 48. But Fannin suffered his second interception on the next play.

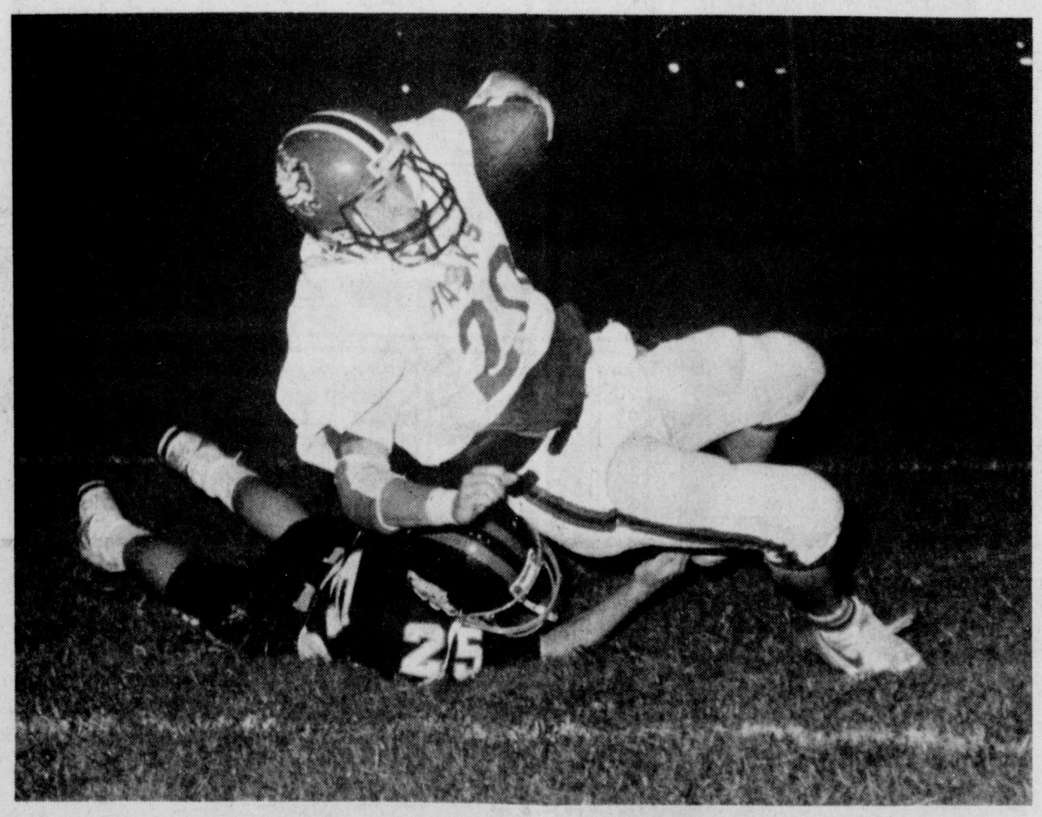

Tatum, who carried the ball 21 times, finished the game as Iowa Park's leading carrier with 57 yards. Cruz had 43 yards on 11 carries, and Fannin scrambled four times for 32 yards.

Duggins completed two of five pass attempts for 17 yards, and had one interception. Fannin attempted 10 passes, completed four for 104 yards and a touchdown, but suffered two interceptions.

Though he didn't start Saturday's football season opener, the first in 32 years, between Midwestern State Univ. and Howard Payne, former Hawk standout James Beebe carried the ball from his fullback position 13 times for 112 yards and a touchdown, to lead the Indians in their 23-7 victory. Also from Iowa Park, Bobby Whisnand and Randy Boutwell saw limited action on specialty teams, but Jim Cummings and Jimmy Kirkhart spent the night on the sidelines. Next home game for MSU is Sept. 17, against Sul Ross State.

For his efforts Saturday, Beebe was recognized by the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association as the offensive player of the week. He averaged 8.6 yards per carry in the game, which was above the 5.7 average (195 carries for 1,110 yards) he maintained through 1984, his senior year at Iowa Park High. KAUZ-TV also named him its first player of the week.

Another former Hawk, Charles Perry, started in Texas Tech's 24-29 opener loss Saturday against North Texas. The big defensive tackle was credited with four unassisted tackles, two assists and a quarterback sack, as well as two big plays and one quarterback pressure. Electra's Charley Lott started at tight end, but wasn't on the receiving end of any of QB Billy Joe Tolliver's 17 pass receptions. Tech goes on the road this week to take on the Arizona Wildcats, 24-13 winners over Oregon State.

Hawk football fans wishing to purchase reserved seat ticket books must do so before 3:30 p.m. Friday, according to Richard Davis, principal of Iowa Park High School. Fans who held reserved seats last year will have the opportunity to claim those same seats if they wish. A book of five tickets is $20, and are available at the principal's office. No reserved seats are sold at the ticket booth, where all general admission tickets are $4. General admission tickets purchased the day of the game at the principal's office are $3 for adults and $2 for students.

Iowa Park Junior High's first football game of the season has been changed to Thursday, Sept. 15, according to Len Williams, athletic director. It had been scheduled for Tuesday. The Junior Hawks will host Wichita Falls McNeil at the IPJH stadium.

The Iowa Park Tennis Booster Club will meet at 7 p.m. Monday in the TU Electric Reddy Room. Parents of students in the tennis program, grades seven through 12, are invited to attend. Plans for this school year will be discussed.

JV ties, Frosh lose with Burk

Iowa Park's junior varsity and freshman football teams will be trying to get on the winning side of the young season ledger here tonight, but it will be against their second consecutive Class AAAA teams.

Hirschi teams will be in Hawk Stadium to meet Iowa Park, with the freshman game kicking off at 5:30 p.m., followed about 7:30 by the JV clash.

The freshmen were bombed 27-12 last week, and the JV tied 6-6 in their season openers here against strong Burkburnett teams.

In the freshman game, Burk built up a 27-0 lead early in the final quarter after leading 17-0 at the half.

But the young Hawks fought back to score twice in the final three minutes, with the last TD chalked up with only 10 seconds remaining in the game.

Burk led in all statistics of the game: 14-13 first downs; 172-58 yards rushing; and 102-31 yards passing.

Despite earning a strong edge in statistics during the first half, Burkburnett still trailed at the half of the freshman game, 6-0. Iowa Park posted its only touchdown of the game 32 seconds before the midway rest stop on a 28-yard pass.

The visitors led 10-8 in first downs and 232-176 total yards at that point.

But Burk totally dominated the second half, racking up 151 net yards total offense to only 17 for the hosts, eventhough the visitors were able to score only once, on a 22-yard pass play with 4:02 remaining in the third quarter.

For the game, Burk held the edge in all statistics: 10-8 first downs; 158-120 yards rushing; 74-56 yards passing, and 232-176 total yards gained.

Boosters name 'game coaches'

The Iowa Park Booster Club has come up with an innovative idea designed to attract more attendance at its regular Monday evening meetings, and it's working.

Persons attending the meetings have their names put in a pot from which a drawing is held.

The two winners are named "Booster Coaches of the Week," and have the privilege of sitting in on the pregame team meeting as well as being allowed to stand with the players on the sidelines that Friday night.

This week's "Coaches" are Anita Childs and Don Lewis.

The Boosters meet at 7 p.m. each Monday in the football fieldhouse, where the previous game film is viewed and comments by Coach Len Williams are made.

Steve Stewart is graduated

Steve Scott Stewart of Iowa Park was among candidates for graduation during summer commencement at Stephen F. Austin State Univ., Nacogdoches.

Stewart was a candidate for the BSED degree in physical education.

READY FOR GAME, despite the drizzle that continued right up to Friday night's season-opener football game at Burkburnett are the cheerleaders and devoted Hawk fans. The rains died out, however, as the players went through their warmups, and the game was played in reasonably dry conditions.

Permission required to film varisty play

Individuals may not film or videotape a football game under the rules laid down by the University Interscholastic League, without the permission of the schools involved.

Iowa Park Athletic Director and Head Coach Len Williams said this week, there is no problem in receiving permission, but the rule must be observed.

Williams said he noted a number of videofilm cameras on the home side at Burkburnett Friday night, when his Hawks played their season opener, and he didn't know who the people were.

The rule requires the permission of both schools involved in the contest, before filming is allowed.

Forms of written permission are being drafted by Coach Williams, for those who want to film games, even by the parents of a player on the field.

Besides Williams' permission, the visiting coach or a representative of that school, must also give their permission, Williams said.

The UIL rule book states: "Any individual taping or filming must have permission from the schools involved in the contest and may not obstruct the view of other spectators of the contest."

In the past two editions, the Leader has incorrectly reported the "tardy" time for students attending Kidwell Elementary. The correct time is 8:05 a.m., according to Ron Woods, principal.

Missions are topic

Mrs. Riley Thompson directed a program on "Skills For Service" for the Night BW of First Baptist Church at a meeting held Monday at the church.

The program emphasized the training of the Woman's Missionary Union that takes women beyond basic understanding to the laboratory of a needy world.

Mrs. S.B. Reaves and Mrs. Elmer Singleton gave a dialogue that showed the importance of training to introduce the program. Mrs. H.E. Cummings told how, at the turn of the century, women were concerned at the lack of theological training for their gender.

Mrs. Terrel Silvers and Mrs. Bill Curry told how the concern led to establishing the WMU Training School and how it had qualified women to become involved in missionary work at home and abroad.

Mrs. V.I. Woodfin was in charge of business and Mrs. E.T. Patterson led the prayer period for missionaries on the birthday calendar for the day.

A salad supper preceded the program. Sixteen members and one guest, Mrs. Dorothy Morris of Waco, were present.

What is Wrong with this idea?

The church belongs to Christ, the Saviour, and should wear His name (Acts 4:12). Saints are married to Christ and must bear His name (Romans 7:4).

Members of His church must wear the name Christian as in apostolic time (Acts 11:26; 1 Peter 4:16).

To become a child of God, one must hear and believe the gospel, and be baptized. "Many of the Corinthians hearing believed, and were bapized." (Acts 18:8). We can emulate their faith today!

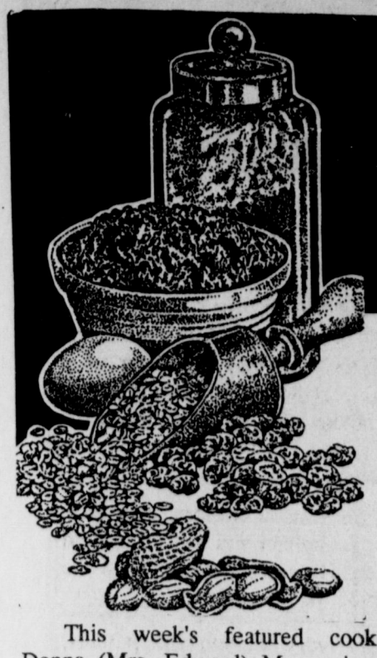

Baptism into Christ is a burial in water and a resurrection to a new life as was His (Romans 6:3-6; Acts 8:36-39) and is for forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38).

Christians meet on the first day of the week to eat the Lord's Supper (Acts 2:42; 20:7; Hebrews 10:25). In their worship they teach, sing, pray, and give to the support of His cause (Eph. 5:19,20; 1 Thes. 5:17; 1 Cor. 16: 1,2). All the while they are guided by the words: "Whatsoever ye do in word of deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him (Col. 3:17).

Christians are to be faithful to God in their daily living and in devoted service all their lives, if they would go to heaven (Rev. 2:10)!

Cook of the Week

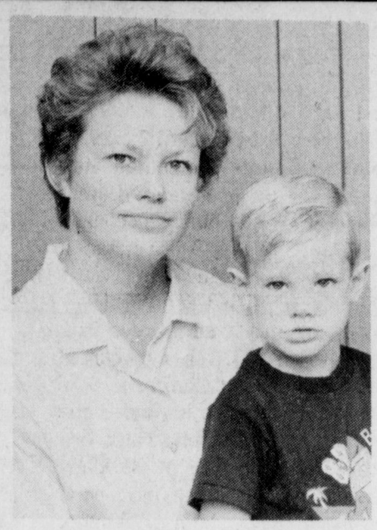

This week's featured cook, Donna (Mrs. Edward) Myers, is a busy homemaker and mother of three who knows her way around the kitchen and has given several recipes that are sure to please any appetite.

No mother of young children is without a good cookie recipe, and Donna is no exception. She submitted a recipe for The Best Peanut Butter Cookies, sure to be a hit with any peanut butter-loving child.

Other recipes she has given, Homemade Chili and Beefy Mexican Cornbread to name two, promise to satisfy hearty appetites during fall and winter mealtimes.

Donna and her husband, Edward, have been married 17 years, and have three children, Clint, nine; Kaycie, six, and Codi, four. Edward works for 4-M Trucking, a family-owned business, and farms as well.

Mrs. Edward Myers and Codi

They reside in the Kamay area where the couple have lived most of their lives.

The former Donna Ferguson was raised in the country, and attended Valley View Schools until her senior year in high school, when she attended Iowa Park High School and graduated there.

One of Mrs. Myer's pleasures is raising a garden, where she says she gets plenty of help from her children. The produce she receives from her efforts in the garden, which she says is most anything that can be grown, is canned by her during the summer and enjoyed by her family the rest of the year.

Post office to resume regular Wednesday hours

Iowa Park will join all the other post offices of the Dallas division in resuming opening its service window on Wednesday mornings next week, according to Ken Turman, postmaster.

The closings were requirements of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of December 1987.

Postmaster General (PMG) Anthony M. Frank stated that the Postal Service was able to restore window service because of the success in accumulating savings from cutbacks in other areas, such as administrative personnel cost, travel, training, supplies, reevaluation and adjustments in transportation and several other operational areas.

The statement was made in a formal Postal Service news release.

The exact amount of savings will not be known until the end of the year; however, the PMG's best estimate is close to the $160-million required, the release stated.

Turman estimated the local office saved two work hours per Wednesday during the period service window closings on Wednesdays were required.

United Way campaign gets kicked off here

Iowa Park's goal of donations to be raised for the 1988 Greater Wichita Falls United Way campaign is $63,705.

The goal was announced, during this year's campaign kickoff held Wednesday morning at the Lions Club Building, by co-chairmen James Barrington and Harold Smith.

The overall goal is $1,036,000, according to Warren Silver, drive chairman, who also spoke at the breakfast meeting along with Dick Waggoner, United Way president.

Members of the local UW cabinet were announced by Barrington. They include, Richard Davis, public service; Charles Hensley and Marc Hayworth, special gifts; Rev. John Mollett, professional; John Rains, enterprise, and Leon Stevenson, business and industry.

Executive directors of the two local entities which receive funding from United Way were introduced: Myrna Robinson, Friendly Door, and Pam Johnson, Recreational Activities Center.

Among the 46,000 persons who benefitted last year from UF funding, according to Waggoner, was Friendly Door member Pauline Singleton, who spoke to the group.

She told of the activities members participate in, and said others had told her "I don't know how I would have gotten along without the Friendly Door."

Mrs. Singleton said she joined the Friendly Door in February 1979.
