Rebels In Training

By FENTON WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

HAVANA AP) — Fidel Castro's government is giving revolutionary training to scores of leftist students from abroad at a special institute tucked away in the hills of Pinar Del Rio Province.

The majority of the students are French. There are aso more than 70 Swees reported enrolled, two or three from the United States and a scattering from Vietnam, England, Norway, Denmakr and West Germany.

The students deny reports from France that they are being taught guerrilla tactics for use in the cities.

"We are studying the Cuban revolution and working to help the campesinos (peasants)," said a French student.

"I guess you could describe the seminars as political training," said a Dane.

From conversations with some of the students and others who have visited the institute, those attending apparently agree with Cuba's advocacy of armed struggle to make social revolution. And most apparently intend to try to carry out such a policy when they return home.

The students put in half of their working day on special agricultural projects and attend seminars the other half. About 400 took part in the six-week course which just ended. About a hundred new students are expected next week, but some of the old ones are staying on for a second course.

The institute is called the Fifth of May Camp, honoring the birth date of Karl Marx. It is near the village of Cayajobos, about 45 miles southwest of Havana.

MARTIN LUTHER KING'S DEATH

James Ray Returned To Face Murder Charge

By BILL JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — James Earl Ray, handcuffed and wearing what appeared to be a bullet - proof vest, was whisked into the Shelby County jail before dawn today to await trial on a charge of murdering Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Ray was placed in his cell at the jail at 4:34 a.m. CDT, 46 minutes after he arrived at the nearby Memphis Naval Air Station aboard a U.S. Air Force Boeing jet transport from London. He had left London about midnight—6 p.m. CDT—so that the entire trip took about 10½ hours.

From the Navy base, a blue-and-white prison van, surrounded by a half-dozen police cars and an equal number of motorcycles, roared into the parking lot behind the jail building at 4:29 a.m. CDT.

No newsman was allowed to see Ray, but Sheriff William Morris distributed photographs of the prisoner showing him dressed in what the sheriff told a news conference was "protective gear." He appeared to be dressed in a bullet-proof vest and he was handcuffed to a heavy leather belt.

"We took custody of Mr. Ray at 3:48 a.m. aboard a Boeing 707 at Millington," the sheriff said, referring to the Navy base at suburban Millington. "He arrived at the jail at 4:29 a.m. and was in his cell at 4:34."

The sheriff said Criminal Court Judge W. Preston Battle has been chosen to hear the murder trial, but "no courtroom has been selected for the trial yet." He added that no date for arraignment on the murder indictment has been set.

There was speculation that Ray may be tried in a basement courtroom at the jail-courthouse building, so that he would never have to leave the jail.

Judge Battle already has issued his first order in the case, the sheriff said. This forbids cameras, tape recorders or other similar devices from the courthouse-jail building, its grounds or sidewalk surrounding the structure—and forbids anyone connected with the case from giving interviews or otherwise discussing the case outside the courthouse or with anyone but lawyers connected with the case.

As photographers took Morris' picture during the news conference, the sheriff went on to explain that the "no publicity" order would go into effect immediately after the news conference.

The van carrying Ray to the jail was preceded by another police car loaded with officers who immediately jumped out and joined a security guard of deputies who had taken up stations across the parking lot driveway 11 minutes before the prisoner arrived.

One other car, carrying Criminal Court Judge John Coulton, had driven into the parking lot a short time earlier. There was no indication why Coulton came to the jail.

Ray's departure from London's Wandsworth jail was as shrounded in secrecy as was his arrival in Memphis. It could not be determined where he boarded the jet in England, nor who accompanied him.

Throughout the night in Memphis, deputies and city policemen had guarded the jail and court complex. Then, at 4:15 a.m., a large bus was backed across a driveway, blocking the view of the jail entrance.

Three minutes later, 10 sheriff's deputies carrying riot guns marched out of the building and blocked the entrance. Four deputies sealed off the other side of the parking lot.

In Washington, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said the international transfer of Ray was accomplished "without incident."

Ray's American lawyer, Arthur J. Hanes of Birmingham, Ala., was refused permission to speak to Ray once he was turned over to U.S. Authorities in London. Hanes' request to accompany Ray on the flight was denied.

US Boat Held By Cambodia

SAIGON (AP) — The Cambodian navy was reported today to have seized an American patrol boat in the Mekong Delta and arrested 11 Americans and one South Vietnamese aboard.

U.S. military authorities in Saigon confirmed that a Navy landing craft was missing in the delta but said it had 10 Americans aboard. There was no mention of any South Vietnamese passenger. It was assumed to be the boat which a newspaper in Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital, said was seized a mile inside Cambodian river waters.

American authorities said the missing landing craft left Dong Tam, a base near the delta city of My Tho, on July 15 and headed up river for Binh Thuy, another base just up river from Can Tho, the delta's largest city. The trip up the Mekong and Bassac rivers and across a major canal should have taken two days, but the boat did not arrive on the night of July 17.

U.S. headquarters said a search for the past two days had failed to produce any trace of the boat.

It was assumed that the United States would send Cambodia a request for return of the boat and its crew, using the Australian Embassy in Phnom Penh as the channel. Australia has represented U.S. interests in Cambodia since Prince Norodom Sihanouk, Cambodia's chief of state, broke relations with Washington in 1965.

In the course of the Vietnam war, several small American craft have been seized by the Cambodians after straying across the border in the delta. All the crews have been returned, although the Cambodians have reportedly kept one small landing boat.

Reed Rites To Be Held Saturday

Floyd Estle Reed, 60, of Arah Route, died at 8:30 p.m. Thursday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital. He had been a resident of Scurry County since 1939, and was a farmer and rancher.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Union Baptist Church. Bro. James Williams will officiate, assisted by Bro. Jim Mosely, pastor of the church. Burial will be in the Roscoe Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

Pallbearers will be Larry Schwarz, Herman Crockett, Earl Critz, Alton Reed, Bobby Reed, and Bernice Critz.

Mr. Reed was born on Oct. 7, 1907, in Glen Rose, Texas. He married Ora Inez Denman on July 4, 1925, in Sweetwater. She survives.

Other survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Raymond Schwarz of Inadale; one son, Jerrie Reed of Roscoe; two sisters; Mrs. G. W. Critz of Sweetwater and Mrs. Cora Critz of Irving; one brother, Carl Reed of Sweetwater; and 3 grandchildren.

RODEO'S SECOND NIGHT

Topnotch Cowhands Compete

Contestants at the second night performance of the 32nd annual Scurry County Rodeo Thursday discovered what the participants on opening night already knew: the bronc and bulls are spirited, ornery critters.

Only one cowboy was able to stay aboard his mount in the bareback bronc riding event with Curtis Coomes of Manderson, South Dakota riding Blue Jay for a 47 score. Most of the brone riders were sent tumbling into the turf by the high-kicking broncs, but a few of them simply had bad luck. Phil Lyne of George West, a straddle Mack, made a good ride on a turning, twisting animal. Just when it appeared he would stay on till the buzzer, the rigging came loose.

Pat Chapman of Sturgis, South Dakota clung to Wild Annie with tenacity, but he didn't score due to an infraction of the rules.

Chapman and Coomes both had bad luck in the matched saddle bronc riding — a special event pitting a team of cowhands from South Dakota against a team from Texas. Coomes' horse fell in the chute, and Chapman failed to score on his first mount. However, both cowboys were slated to get re-rides late Thursday night.

Johnny Holloway of Eagle Butte rode Tiney Tim all the way and posted the top score in the matched event — at 51. Teammate Bud Day of Dupree scored 42 aboard Pecos Bill.

Only two of the Texas team members scored. Sammy Groves of New Deal registered a 38 on Dipsy Doodle, and Tom Stovall recorded a 34 on Weasel. Johnny Gas of Lubbock didn't score on Apache Kid, but Gene Maynard of Hungerford received a reride when his mount, Rastus, jumped the chute.

The bulls were just as ferocious as they were on opening night. Only two contestants scored — Charles Thompson of Lubbock drew applause for a long ride on Outcast for a 68 — tops of the evening — while Alford Hill of Austin posted a 62 on Cream Puff. There was nothing soft about Cream Puff either.

Lynn Heath had a narrow escape when he was thrown under a big, mean bull named Speedy.

That wild mare race was something else with only one team able to saddle its animal and cross the finish line. First prize went to the team of Gary Jones. Jack Gosser was in the saddle when the mare crossed the line.

Jessie Rollins won first place in the goat sacking contest, and Kenny Kornegay was runner-up.

Jail Inmates Prove Grand Jury Wrong

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — The grand jury reported Thursday it had inspected the jail and found "all bars and doors were secure and in good working order so as to make it a good, safe jail."

During the night, five inmates escaped by pulling up a piece of rusted steel flooring and prying apart bars in their cell, Sheriff Tommy Huff said.

FIND VAST NEW OILFIELD

Alaska's Money Woes Ease

By THAD POULSON
Associated Press Writer

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — Gov. Walter J. Hickel sees the discovery of oil in Alaska's Arctic region as a key unlocking the state's vast potential and a stabilizer of its economy.

"It's tremendous," the governor kept saying Thursday after hearing that reserves estimated by oil experts at 5 to 10 billion barrels had been found in the Prudhoe Bay area along Alaska's Arctic coast.

The Arctic Slope is an expanse of endless tundra inhabited only by caribou, wolves and an occasional roving band of Eskimo hunters.

The area, some 390 miles north of Fairbanks, is a region long eyed with anticipation by petroleum geologists.

The U.S. Navy's Petroleum Reserve No. 4 lies to the west of the Atlantic Richfield-Humble discovery, in an area where the temperature merely toys with the freezing point—even during the long summer days when the Arctic sun never gets below the horizon.

Degolyer and MacNaughton, a Dallas oil consulting firm, said the new discovery has the potential of developing into one of the world's largest fields.

Located on a 90,000-acre block of federally-leased land, the new discovery apparently confirms what petroleum geologists have long thought, that the Arctic Slope is a vast storehouse of oil and gas.

Gov. Hickel feels the oil income from the huge federal holdings on the north slope could be used to meet native demands for $500 million to drop claims blocking the state's efforts to select the 103 million acres promised by the statehood act.

He also sees it as possibly leading to the elimination of state income taxes, which brought in $3 million in the last fiscal year.

Alaska, which ranks 10th among the 32 oil producing states, received direct income from oil and gas production taxes, lease bonuses, royalties and rentals of over $40 million for the fiscal year ending June 30. The state's general fund budget for the year was $104 million.

The governor listed as his first priority the extension of the federally owned Alaska railroad from its northern terminus at Fairbanks the remaining 400 miles to the north coast.

Besides relieving the oil industry of the immediate need of building a $400 million pipeline to get the oil to ice-free tide-water, the railroad, he said, would open up thousands of square miles of unexplored wilderness.

"We haven't even begun to top the mineral potential up there," Hickel said.

Foreign Aid Bill Slashed By House

By ROBERT A. HUNT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, ignoring a plea by President Johnson, has slashed another $370-million-plus from the foreign aid authorization bill, leaving $1.994 billion for the program.

It was the first time the authorization has fallen blow $2 billion and despite the deep cuts and the possibility of more trimming when the money is actually appropriated, supporters were considered lucky that the bill survived at all.

There had been moves in the House to clamp a moratorium on all foreign aid.

The $1.994-billion bill for the fiscal year which started last July 1 was approved by 228-184 Thursday night and sent to the Senate.

The 44-vote margin was a far cry from the eight votes by which a $2.67 billion authorization was approved last year when Congress actually appropriated $2.2 billion.

Johnson had appealed to Congress not to cut any more from the bill which was slashed nearly $600 million by the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Johnson originally asked Congress for $2.92 billion.

A small group of Republicans, lead by Rep. E. Ross Adair of Indiana, had set their sights on cutting another $400 million on the House floor. They almost made it, reducing the total by some $370.8 million, as a late 267-150 roll call overturned earlier defeats for some cuts.

The House also wrote in a directive for the President to negotiate with Israel for the sale of 50 F4 Phantom Jet fighters which backers claimed is necessary for peace in the Middle East. They pointed to the Soviet Union's supplying jet fighters and bombers to Egypt.

By top-heavy margins the House insisted that no funds under the military assistance program be given to less developed countries for the purchase of such sophisticated weapons as jet planes or missiles. If these nations buy the systems with their own fund, the President is directed to withhold economic aid in a like amount.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is married to a man who has her completely buffaloed. He doesn't let her see any of the bank statements. They are all sent to his office. She has complete faith in him and believes everything he tells her.

He spends money extravagantly but he keeps her spending to a minimum. He handles all the finances while she is kept entirely in the dark.

Since there are no children, can I fix my will so I can leave everything to my daughter, and her husband cannot get his hands on any of it? If this cannot be done, I shall leave everything to charity. I must make some decisions soon as I am getting along in years.

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: If you leave "everything" to your daughter, "Everything" could end up in her husband's hands. Explore with your lawyer a trust of some kind, from which your daughter alone can draw the proceeds. That way she would be provided for in the event that "Big Spender" moves on or passes out.

DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a young man steadily for 4 months. I am 23 and he is 27. During this time he told me he loved me and wanted to marry me. I told him I thought I loved him, but I wasn't sure I wanted to marry him.

Last weekend, after much thought, I decided I did not love him enough to marry him, and therefore we should quit dating.

He was very hurt and asked me to continue dating him in order to give him a chance to "fall out of love" with me. I have positively made up my mind not to see him anymore as I know how these dates will end up, and want to discontinue our relationship.

He is persistent. I don't want to hurt him further. How should I handle it?

KATHY

DEAR KATHY: Be even more persistent than he. Tell the young man that it's more painful to cut off a puppy dog's tail an inch at a time. Better to do it with one clean whack. And don't accept any more dates with him.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I wouldn't miss your column for the world. It's better than the comic strips.

But Abby, I am getting a little weary of those idiots who write to you and ask, "How can I tell my friends and neighbors not to just drop in to visit me at odd hours when I want to nap, or do something around the house, or just be alone?"

I will tell you what I do. I hang a sign outside my door which reads: "I am napping. Please do not ring or knock unless it's an emergency. Come back at 4 p.m." Then I go about my business, reading, napping, painting, or doing whatever I want to do in privacy.

Officer Hurt In Hippieland Violence

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A man was shot and a policeman injured as violence flared for the third straight night in the Haight-Ashbury hippie district.

Michael Moore, 20, suffered a gunshot wound in an arm. Police said it was not determined who fired the shot.

The Thursday night outbreak followed the pattern of previous disturbances. False alarms attracted fire trucks, which were pelted with rocks and bottles.

Patrolman Frank Rath was treated for a back injury received while grappling with young men.

Police were targets of firebombs and debris when they were called in to assist. None was injured.

Officers made 43 arrests, bringing the three-day total to more than 100.

Several stores were looted for the second time and broken glass again littered Haight Street, once the domain of "flower children" but now inhabited by what police called a tougher breed.

Sniper fire was reported for the first time in the series of disturbances and small bands, directed by comrades stationed on rooftops with walkie-talkies, occupied intersections after police had left them, police said.

Pair Feared Drowned

BONHAM, Tex. (AP) — Two youths who apparently went for a quick swim on a hot afternoon were reported missing and presumed drowned in the Red River today.

After searching in vain, relatives and friends notified Bonham authorities about 2 a.m. that Bradley Morris and Jerry Don Smith, both 18, had failed to return to their homes in the Ector community, 4 miles west of here.

As others joined in the hunt, the car of young Smith was found 14 miles northwest of Bonham and about the same distance downstream from the dam impounding Lake Texoma.

Deputy Sheriff Bobby Madison said the clothing, billfolds and other effects of both youths were inside the car. He and others theorized the two peeled off to go swimming Thursday.

Boats were being used in the search. The river is unusually wide and known for treacherous deep holes along that stretch.

Guilty Plea Heard

Harold Dean Hazlewood pleaded guilty in County Court this morning to a charge of illegal sale of intoxicating beverages in a dry area. A judgment was entered providing for a 60-day jail term plus court costs. He is to return in 10 days for final sentencing. Bond was set at $500. The offense occurred Thursday, and he was arrested by Sheriff's Authorities.

Sister-In-Law Of Snyderite Dies

Mrs. J. A. (Doris) Buchanan, 51, of Odessa, died in a Big Spring hospital Thursday morning after a brief illness. She was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Sam Houston of Snyder.

Funeral services are scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday in the Nalley - Pickle Funeral Home Chapel in Big Spring. Burial will be in City Cemetery.

Survivors include her husband, J. A. Buchanan, of Odessa; three sons, Cliff of Arlington, Jimmy and John Robert, both of Odessa; one sister Mrs. Ruby Anderson of Fort Pierce, Fla.; three brothers, Felton Smith of Lubbock, Ladd Smith of Dallas and Howard Smith of Big Spring; her mother, Mrs. Felton Smith of Big Spring; and two grandchildren.

East Side C-C

Bill Minick will be the speaker at the services at East Side Sunday. He will also be the speaker on the 8:15 a.m. radio program, "Give Me, the Bible." For the 10:25 a.m. worship service he has chosen for his subject, "What Price Peace of Mind?" — Psa. 27: 1-8. At the 6 p.m. worship service his subject will be, "On Preaching Christ" — 1 Cor. 2: 1-5.

Bible classes for all ages are held each Sunday morning at 9:30. Mid - week worship services are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. Visitors are always welcome.

Missing Nuclear Sub Located?

NEW YORK (AP) — A Westinghouse Broadcasting correspondent in Washington said today the Navy reportedly knows where the wreckage of the missing nuclear submarine Scorpion is located deep in the Atlantic Ocean.

Science specialist William Hines said in a broadcast that the wreckage is in such deep waters "that there is no possibility that anyone could have survived the initial disaster."

Hines said although there is no official confirmation of the report from the Navy itself the Washington source was "too well informed to be mistaken about such things."

According to Hines, the site of the disaster is known within a mile or two and an announcement from the Navy may be imminent.

The Navy is said to have surface vessels on the scene using special automatic cameras on the ocean floor to take pictures of the wreckage.

"It is expected that as soon as the Navy has a picture it can release without giving away submarine construction secrets an official announcement of the Scorpion's whereabouts will be made. That could be any day now," Hines said.

The Scorpion with 99 men aboard, disappeared last May while en route from the Mediterranean to Norfolk, Va.

Brown Asks New Hearing

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Black power advocate Rap Brown has brought at least part of his legal troubles back to Virginia, where he is asking a federal court to reconsider a $10,000 bond forfeiture imposed on him earlier this year.

In a motion filed Thursday, he contended that the violation of bond terms was committed with "mistaken concurrence of counsel."

U.S. Dist. Judge Robert Merhige imposed the bond in September, 1967 with the condition that Brown confine himself to the Southern District of New York, except for court appearances.

Merhige ruled in February that the $10,000 bond be forfeited because of Brown's travels to California. His order was upheld by the 4th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Brown was unsuccessful in his long and complicated legal battle to avoid extradition from Virginia to Maryland where he faces charges of inciting to riot and arson.

Halt In Bombing May Be Studied

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

HONOLULU (AP) — President Johnson and South Vietnam's President Nguyen Van Thieu formal talks apparently will embrace possible direct Saigon-Viet Cong negotiations and a total bombing halt in the North.

In advance of today's first formal meeting at the hilltop headquarters of the U.S. Pacific Command, Secretary of Defense Clark Clifford said he avoided those two topics during his Saigon visit earlier in the week "in order to leave that up to Thieu and President Johnson."

Clifford talked to newsmen Thursday at Hickam Field as he waited with Johnson to greet Thieu's chartered airliner.

Johnson, in welcoming the South Vietnamese leader, touched on the peace search under way in Paris and offered these words of reassurance to his visitor:

"Mr. President, our pledge to help your people defeat aggression stands firm against all obstacles and against any deception."

Thieu, dwarfed by the U.S. chief executive, responded by saying he looked forward to discussions of "accomplishments as well as problems that lie before us." He said he hoped for "steps toward peace and freedom for Vietnam and Southeast Asia."

Only a few score uniformed military personnel and dependants, plus a small costumed delegation from Honolulu's Vietnamese colony, were allowed to witness the arrival ceremony. Authorities obviously had taken pains to avoid any antiwar demonstration.

Both Johnson and Thieu were doing most of their traveling around the island of Oahu by helicopter.

The American President was quartered at a luxury seaside home built by the late industrialist Henry J. Kaiser. It was sealed off from the curious. Thieu was staying at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Waikiki beach.

After Johnson's arrival in Hawaii Thursday afternoon, White House officials learned about a published report from Saigon that Clifford, while there, had persuaded Thieu to make two major "concessions" — to go along with a total bombing halt in the North and to agree to direct talks with Viet Cong representatives at broadened peace negotiations to be proposed at some point in the future.

Tom Johnson, assistant White House press secretary, quickly quoted Clifford as saying, "The report is wholly inaccurate."

Besides Clifford, Johnson's party included Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Director Richard Helms of the Central Intelligence Agency, Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and Ellsworth Bunker, ambassador to South Vietnam.

Czechs Slate Talks To Defend Policy

By PETER REHAK
Associated Press Writer

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's liberal Communist regime will hold talks with leaders of other European Communist parties Saturday, the official news agency CTK reported today. It did not identify the parties, but the meetings would presumably allow the Czechoslovaks to make a face-to-face defense of their reform program.

The announcement came as the Soviet Union was pledging help to Czechoslovak hard-liners, including the 35,000 man People's Militia, an armed force that has backed Antonin Novotny, the ousted Stalinist ruler. Liberals here have demanded the militia's dissolution.

It also coincided with an East German exhortation to Czechoslovak old-liners to "Boldly counterattack the revisionist and anti Socialist forces."

The brief CTK dispatch was the first word on such a meeting following rumors that party chief Alexander Dubcek would meet with the Soviet party's secretary-general, Leonid I. Brezhnev, in the near future. President Tito of Yugoslavia also was expected for a visit here, presumably following the Dubcek-Brezhnev meeting.

The announcement came shortly after the Czechoslovak party's Central Committee went into session to discuss a decision by the Dubcek leadership to defend to the end the nation's liberalization process. Prague has rejected the Soviet idea of holding a summit conference on Czechoslovakia, but voiced readiness to discuss its new course in bilateral talks.

The French, Italian, British, Belgian and Austrian Communists have joined the regimes of Romania and Yugoslavia in expressions of confidence in the new Czechoslovak course.

Ropers in the yearling tie-down and in the stockholder's event had a tough time getting their animals on the ground. The best time in the yearling tie down was turned in by Joe Templeton of Abilene. He had a 17.5. Runnerup was Jack Long of Colorado City with a 19.6, while Keith Hackfield of Lorraine posted a 23.7. Tommy Burris of Abilene went to his yearling like a duck on a June bug and registered a fast 14.8 clocking, but he got out off the chute too soon and had to settle for a 10-second penalty.

The Stockholders also were roping yearling, and Joe Rollins set the pace in this event with a time of 19.6. Rufus Hart had a 36.5 which included the 10-second penalty, and Jerry Springer turned in a 40.5. All times and scores given are unofficial.

Competition in the barrel race was close again with Judy Bledsoe of Olney posting an 18.3 for tops for the night. Runnerup was Donna Davis of Wichita Falls with a 18.4. Molly Williams of Hungerford and Donna Cox of Gail shared third spot honors with times of 18.7.

The weather again cooperated with rodeo fans, providing a cool but comfortable and rain-free atmosphere. Clowns Bo Bland and Ralph Fisher kept the fans entertained between acts, and the pavilion again proved to be a popular gathering place after the show with Hoyle Nix and his West Texas Cowboys providing entertainment.

Calf roping and barrel racing events also were held after the show. Contestants are competing for over $5,000 in prize money in addition to the $1,000 purse in the matched bronc riding event.

Rodeo performances also are on tap for tonight and Saturday night. The show gets underway with a grand entry at 8 p.m.

WESKIT SUIT — One of the top fashion message for this year is the sleeveless jacket costume with its emphasis on the important long-sleeved shirt look. A masterpiece in all-American double-knit wool in three parts — a diagonally striped weskit, with solid color shirt skirt. The pliant, rich-bodied double-knit wool defines every detail of the meticulous tailoring in a fabric that holds it for keeps.

Italian Designers Are Neutral

By NADEANE WALKER
AP Fashion Writer

ROME (AP) —As far as Italian designers are concerned, the hemline next fall and winter stays about two inches above the knee and the slim-waisted flared redingote will be queen of the fashion scene.

In the showings of their new collections that ended Thursday night, the Italians largely abandoned their penchant for vivid colors and turned to black and white and neutral shades for daytime. But, they let themselves go with plenty of lame and rhinestone sparkle and multicolor jeweled embroidery to enliven the evening.

Many designers harked back to the 1940s, and only a few [illegible] Valentino was the undisputed star of the season, Italy's most valuable asset in couture export.

It looked like a cold winter ahead with furs and fur trimmings galore. The big fox shako hat was seen everywhere. Trouser suits, thigh-high boots and capes were high in the popularity stakes.

Even the bride wore thigh boots, a woolen dress bordered with white fox and a halo of the same fur at Daniele in the last show of the season.

A few maxicoats, often over pants, turned up at many houses, but only Tita Rossi went all out for long skirts.

Long scarves were part of the '40s kick, but only De Barentzen brought back snoods. Shoe heels were higher and thicker, and stockings were fanciful with clocks of anything from climbing vines to white elephants, or simply naughty in sheer black.

Galitzine even put a seam stripe down the front, if these catch on, we may have to put up with being told that we've put our stockings on backwards.

Mrs. Schattel Hostess To Plainview H-D

Plainview Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Leo Schattel recently with 12 members and one visitor.

Roll call was answered by giving description of wedding dresses and an exchange of favorite recipes. Miss Butts gave the program on yard planning.

Mrs. Schattel was nominated as delegate to the State Convention in Sept. in McAllen. Mrs. J. N. Eicke was lucky lady.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Carl Williams, Gertrude Murphree, Raymond Hill, Bert O'Neal, Oren Sturdivant, Julia Rosson, Clarence Moore, K. G. Blalock, J. N. Eicke, W. E. McMillan and Randy, and Miss Butts.

The next meeting will be Aug. 20 at the Northeast community center with a family ice cream supper. All members are urged to attend.

While professional wood finishers apply lacquer with spraying equipment, a good finish can be obtained with a brush if the fast - drying qualities of this excellent material are properly respected.

Because it begins to dry almost the second it is applied, lacquer must be flowed on quickly and surely in the direction of the grain. There must be no brushing back and forth, no returning to an area because it didn't look just right.

The application of lacquer is facilitated by applying it in thin coats. It should be mixed with lacquer thinner. A 50-50 mixture is recommended for the beginner. Later, as you become familiar with the application of the product, you can experiment with other percentages.

While it's quick - drying properties are something of a nuisance during the application of the lacquer, they provide a decided advantage in another respect.

There is very little opportunity for dust to settle on the wet finish. Nevertheless, as with all finishes, lacquer should be applied in as dust - free an atmosphere as possible. Work of this kind should never be done in a room or area where members of the family are likely to pass through while the finish is hardening.

And there should be ample ventilation, since lacquer fumes are both volatile and toxic. (Andy Lang's helpful booklet on various types of wood finishing is available by sending 25 cents and a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope to Know-How, P. O. Box 477, Huntington, N. Y. 11743, and specifying "Wood Finishing in the Home.")

A very light sanding between coats will help to smooth out any imperfections. Use a fine grade of sandpaper and don't press heavily. Generally, each succeeding coat of lacquer will intensify the luster. But different kinds of wood absorb finishing materials differently. Therefore, it is impossible to tell exactly how many coats will be needed. You can be your own judge, deciding when you have achieved the desired gloss.

Lacquer thinner acts as a solvent on most types of finishes. You are thus taking a chance if you apply a lacquer mixture over another kind of finish, such as varnish or paint. Sometimes it will have an immediate effect, loosening or causing the old finish to bubble at once. Sometimes, everything will appear to be all right at the start, with the trouble occurring days, weeks or months later.

Should you like to try your hand at applying lacquer, practice on scrap wood until you get the hang of it. Once you do, the rewards will be satisfying.

QUESTION: I have been told that I must fill a few hollow spots on the ground next to the foundation of my house in order for rain water to drain off properly. What kind of dirt should be used? I plan to grow grass there.

ANSWER: Ordinarily, you could use any kind of earth, but since you plan to grow grass, you will need some top soil. You can purchase this in any quantity desired, remembering that you will need about four inches of it to fill the hollows. However, if the ground in the low areas is fertile, remove some of it, fill the hole with ordinary dirt and then put back the top soil. Remember that, whichever way you do it, the ground must slope away from the foundation to permit drainage.

QUESTION: How can I remove old wax and polish from a bureau that has a dingy finish that otherwise is in good condition?

ANSWER: Wipe with a clean cloth saturated in turpentine or use one of the commercial wax removers. You then will have to determine whether a new finish is necessary.

* * *

QUESTION: I heard somewhere that dents in a wooden table top could be removed by pressing with a hot iron. I tried it on a small indentation and, while it worked, it ruined the finish. What can I do about it?

ANSWER: You have no choice but to remove the old finish and apply a new one. Pressing out dents is tricky at best; but even when tried, it should be done only on raw wood or when the finish has been removed.

QUESTION: I've made a wooden kitchen cabinet to be attached to the wall over a refrigerator. The back panel is plywood. I plan to attach the cabinet through the back panel into studs in the wall, using long, heavy screws. Will this be sufficient?

ANSWER: It might be, if the back panel is attached securely and the cabinet is solidly made with no chance of coming apart when heavy items are placed in it. Better be sure and provide additional support, such as a 1 by 3 strip under the cabinet. The strip should also be attached to the wall via the studding.

Beet-Horseradish

1 can (1 pound) julienne beets
Water
1 package (3 ounces) lemon-flavor gelatin dessert
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
2 tablespoons bottled white horseradish, undrained

Into a strainer set over a pint measure turn the beets, allow to drain thoroughly. Add enough water to the beet juice to make 1 2-3 cups; pour into a saucepan and heat until almost boiling. Add to gelatin; stir until dissolved; chill until slightly thickened. Fold in beets and horseradish. Turn into a 1-quart mold or into individual molds. Chill until set. Unmold. Garnish with salad greens and serve with commercial sour cream. Makes 8 servings.

Meat Turnovers

2 cups unsifted regular flour
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ pound (1 stick) butter
1 container (½ pint) commercial sour cream
Beef Filling (see below)
1 egg yolk lightly beaten with 1 tablespoon water

In medium mixing bowl stir together flour and salt. With pastry blender, cut in butter until size of small peas. With fork, gradually work in sour cream. Shape into a square. On prepared pastry cloth with prepared stockinet - covered rolling pin, roll out to an exact 12-inch square; cut into nine 4-inch squares. Add Beef Filling (about 1 tablespoon) off center to each square; fold over into triangle shape. Press edges together with fork tines. Place, a few inches apart, on ungreased cookie sheet. Brush with egg yolk mixture. Bake in preheated 375 - degree oven until browned — about 20 minutes. Serve hot.

Meat Filling: In an 8 inch skillet, crumbling with a fork, cook ½ pound ground lean beef in 2 tablespoons butter. Add ¼ cup finely chopped onion, 1 chopped hard-cooked egg, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1-16 teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon flour and ¼ cup cold water. Cook lightly, stirring: cool.

DUNN NEWS

By MRS. JAMES STEWART

Decendants of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Chandler met July 12-18th, for a family reunion at the Dunn community center. Mr. and Mrs. Chandler were early settlers of the Dunn Community, having moved there in 1907, from Cherokee. Mr. Chandler operated a drug store for the town, also bought pasture land from A. W. Crawford, where he farmed for a number of years. He later moved to Snyder, where he owned and operated a grocery store and service station on Twenty - fifth Street.

Beside the surviving children, Mrs. Vera Blackard, Mrs. Bertha Ellis, Mrs. Maggie Humphrey, Mrs. Mary McClure, Mrs. Lovilla Holladay, Mrs. Opal Boyd and Mrs. Blanche Graham, others attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuhm, Carrizo Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Blackard and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. Reyn Rossington, Crystal City; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Blackard, Verna Jane, Glenn and Vernon Jr., Gainesville; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scoggin, Ginger Charlene and Gregory Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Speer, Jim, Ronny and Jeffrey, Uvalde; Mr. and Mrs. Boody Rossington and Boody Jr., Victoria; Mrs. Leo Canion, Joyce and Lori, Sinton; Carol Ann Ellis, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Holladay, Ricky and Macky, Ira; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamer, Debbie, Danna, Darla, De Ann, and Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Ather Ellis, Marilyn, Bill and Jackie, Mr. Buck Ellis, Colorado City; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ellis and Regina, Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. Othal Ellis, Ray, Cheryl, and Connie Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fox, Ellis Don and Allen Dan, and Mr. Jackson Ellis of Dunn.

Beside the many friends from Dunn to visit the family out of town visitors were Mike Cook, Crystal City; Janet Braswel, Steve Kennedy, Colorado City; Mr. and Mrs. Pascal Nail, Hillsboro; and Mrs. E. J. Richardson, Snyder.

Mrs. Maggie Humphrey will be hostess for the reunion next year at Crystal City. Her sisters will meet in her home a few days prior to meeting other relatives and friends.

Computer Helps Control Floods

FORT WORTH (AP) — The Department of Agriculture says it has turned to a desk-sized computer for help in controlling damaging floods in the 11 southern states, Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

The Soil Conservation Service has installed an IBM computing system in its office here to help plan watershed and river basis structures built to control water run-off in areas of chronic flooding.

The system currently is helping plan and design a major flood prevention project in the Big Sandy watershed extending from Bowie to Fort Worth.

"A few hours of computer time has saved us many man-years of skilled technical time," said Jack W. Adair, head of the service's engineering and watershed planning unit.

Churches - Taxes Question Undergoing Reexamination

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Some Americans were shocked this week by an Italian proposal to tax investment dividends earned by the Vatican, seemingly unaware that rather similar suggestions are now widely discussed in the United States.

Although the dialogue seldom reaches the mass circulation periodicals, religious publications frequently probe the question. Surprisingly, the discussions often are opened by the churches themselves.

An Episcopal bookstore here, for example, sells "A Report On Churches and Taxation," published by the Guild of St. Ives, a group of clergymen and lawyers, that concludes:

"The undersigned believe that real and personal property owned by religious institutions should be subject to taxation to the extent that it is used for business purposes in either actual or potential competition with secular persons. . ."

It isn't too often, in America or elsewhere, that any group advocates more taxes be levied upon its institutions.

Two converging factors are causing the re-examination in the United States:

1. Governmental units are finding it more difficult each year to finance public services with the present tax base. The needs of local government, in particular, are growing.

2. Organized religion's assets, which generally are untaxed, grow larger each year.

This has placed very little strain so far on relations between the clergy and the tax collectors. Each maintains the civilities, although each suspects the other might be muttering under his breath. An open fight could ensue.

In the United States, traditionally, each has left the other alone, the separation of church and state being based in the Constitution and exercised in the American creed.

The advocates of church taxation argue, however, that any tax exemption for a religious organization means that the First Amendment—"Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion. . ."—is violated.

In rebuttal, those who wish to preserve the status quo state that a tax exemption is a long way from establishment of a church by a state or federal government.

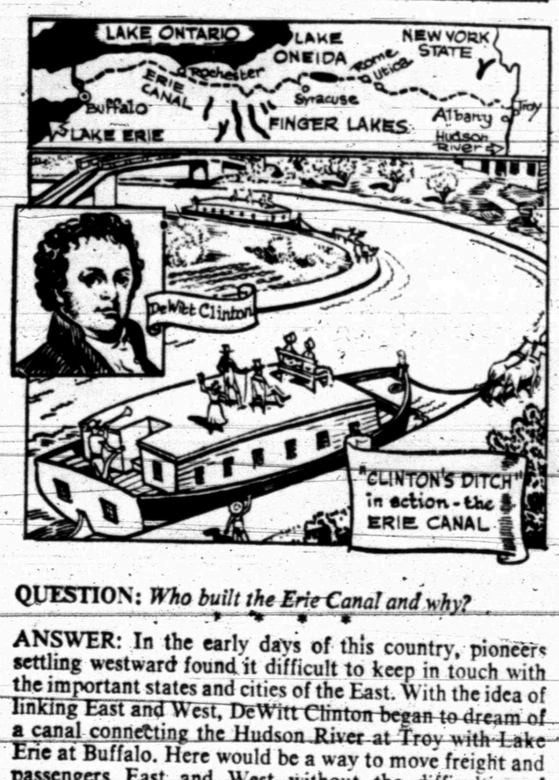

In any event, they say, why should the tax collector, a government man, be permitted to intrude into the demilitarized zone between church and state when the clergy would be denied the same right?

And, they caution, the taxes of nonbelievers very likely would be higher than they are now if exemptions were denied the churches. In effect, they say, churches relieve government of a burden, rather than vice versa.

The many billions of dollars churches have invested in hospitals, schools, universities, homes and other charities support this argument. And certain intangible benefits to society reinforce it.

Thereafter the arguments are less clear. Little is known about church income, mainly because churches are exempt even from filing informational reports, as is required of charitable and educational groups.

Junior Editors Quiz on ERIE CANAL

QUESTION: Who built the Erie Canal and why?

ANSWER: In the early days of this country, pioneers settling westward found it difficult to keep in touch with the important states and cities of the East. With the idea of linking East and West, DeWitt Clinton began to dream of a canal connecting the Hudson River at Troy with Lake Erie at Buffalo. Here would be a way to move freight and passengers East and West without the difficulties of wilderness travel. Becoming governor of New York in 1817, Clinton succeeded in his plan of persuading his state to finance the building of the canal, which was completed in 1820. Our picture gives an idea of how the Erie Canal once operated. It was 363 miles long, 42 feet wide and 4 feet deep. 80-foot canal boats were pulled by horses at 1½ miles an hour. The canal was enlarged in 1835 and later. By 1918, it had been combined with others to form the New York State Barge Canal, which is still operating. Large steamships can use it, for it is now 12 feet deep or over. Once disrespectfully called "Clinton's ditch," the Erie Canal has been a great success.

Remarks That Doctors Tire Of

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks that doctors get tired of hearing —or overhearing:

'I can't come to your office today, doc. I don't feel so good."

'Is it true that doctors have secret medicines that they save for themselves, because they get sick?"

'If you're not sure exactly whats wrong with me, why dont I just wait while you look it up in a book?"

'Don't doctors ever practice what they preach? You tell me I ought to take off 10 pounds, but unless I miss my guess you ought to take off at least 20 yourself."

'Can't you prescribe something for me that comes in a pink capsule? I always seem to get well quicker when I take pink-colored medicines."

How can you tell if a doctor has a good bedside manner any more? You can't get them to come to your bedside."

'No, Im not really a patient. I'm from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. However, after we finish our little chat about your 1965 income tax return, I would appreciate it if youd take a quick look at my throat. It's been a bit scre for several days."

"What are my symptoms? You name any symptom on your list, Doc, and I'll lay you 3 to 1 that I've got it."

"Instead of diagnosing it as gastritis from too much beer, Doc, couldn't you just give me a little rest for my boss saying it's a potential ulcer from too much work and worry? That'll get me a lot more sympathy at the office."

'I can remember when his grandfather used to come to our house in his horse and buggy, even to treat a headache, and he only charged $2."

'Which patient do you want to see next, Doctor, the gabby old lady with the kidney or that fat Mr. Suffed Shirt with the blood pressure? Better him maybe. He's getting pretty red in the face. He says he's been waiting 15 minutes already and that his time is as valuable to him as yours is to you."

"I'm getting married next week to the sweetest girl on earth, Doctor, and I just wanted to know if you had any—uh—medical advice or—uh—philosophy about life that would be helpful to me on our honeymoon."

'This your limousine in the no-parking zone, Doc? Afraid I'll have to write you out a ticket. Dont hand me that stuff about making a house call—because I just saw you coming out of that movie."

'I know I shouldn't ask you about professional matters while we're dancing at a party, Doctor, but could you tell me what are the first signs of gall bladder trouble in a girl who is —let us say, for example—on the shady side of 40?"

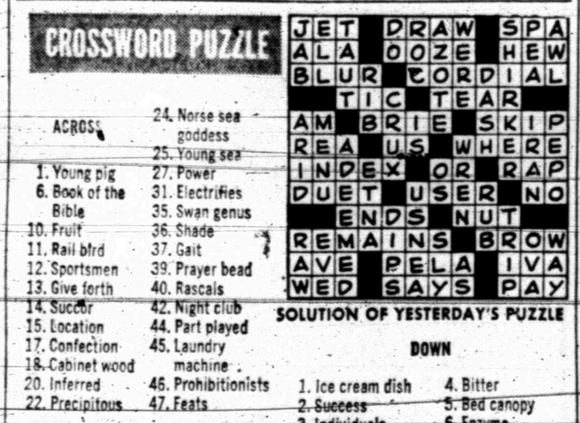

'I was reading one of the magazines in your anteroom, Doc, and according to that issue it looks like Tom Dewey is a candidate for the presidency."

'Let the patients wait, Doctor. What kind of a nurse would I be if I didn't tell you when it was time for you to take your own medicine. Now, don't be a big baby about it. Open! Swallow! There!—that wasn't so bad, was it?"

Dodgers, Rebs Rip Junior League Foes

The Dodgers smashed the Braves 11-1 and the Rebels rapped the Bullets 5-2 in two exciting Junior Teenage League tussles, held Thursday night in Towle Park.

Scotty Sullivan fired a 1-hitter at the Braves, giving up only a single to Paul Watkins in the 4th. His hit produced the only run for the Braves with Bill Branson scoring after getting on on an error.

Dodger hitters came through with four safeties, led by Albert Hernandez, who smashed two for three, including a double in the 4th that brought in three runs. They also scored five more runs in the same frame, aided by four errors.

The first two Dodger runs occurred in the 1st with Hernandez singling in Bobby Weaver and Larry Braziel. Bobby reached first on a walk while Larry rapped a single. The last run — in the 5th — resulted from three walks and a stray ball. Charles Cain also singled for the victors. Jackie Murray and Bill Branson were touched for only four hits, but a shaky fielding effort did a lot of damage.

Jimmy Dyess of the Rebs and Bruce Almond of the Bullets hooked up in a tight pitching duel with Dyess getting the decision on a 2-hitter. Almond gave way to Marvin McClanahan in relief in the 6th.

The Bullets got both of their hits — singles by Ricky Freeman and Eddie Bain — in the 6th. Combined with an error, they produced their only two runs.

Gary Harless and Jessie Speer singled in the 1st as the Rebs took an early 3-0 lead. Speer doubled in two more runs in the 5th. The other Reb hit was a single by Jerry Beard in the 3rd.

Wilt Gives His Version Of Trade

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain, gone from the Philadelphia basketball scene, took time out Thursday to polish his image.

The 7-foot-1 center, in a telephone interview from New York, said he wanted to give his version of why he was traded to the Los Angeles Lakers in one of the biggest deals in the history of the National Basketball Association.

Chamberlain said the Philadelphia 76ers' side of the story is "slightly tainted."

"I understand it made me look ungrateful," Chamberlain said. "My side of the story is deserving to be heard."

Chamberlain subsequently claimed:

—The 76ers asked for his suggestion on a replacement for resigned Coach Alex Hannum and later offered him the job as player-coach.

—He didn't price himself out and force the 76ers to trade him because he never asked for a specific figure.

—Owner Irv Kosloff's proposal for a contract came out to less money than Chamberlain made last year.

—Kosloff led him to believe he didn't want to negotiate. Chamberlain also agreed with the theory that Kosloff "gave up" after two meetings during a 19-day period before the 76ers dealt Chamberlain to the Lakers for Archie Clark, Darrall Imhoff and Jerry Chambers.

The 76ers had said Chamberlain, the game's greatest offensive player, was dealt because he asked for too much in contract negotiations. The superstar was said to have wanted a three-year million dollar contract, plus part-ownership of the team.

Bass Club Tournament Is Planned

The Snyder Bass Club is sponsoring a Scurry County Bass Tournament to be held Saturday and Sunday, July 27 and 28, at Lake J. B. Thomas.

Headquarters for the tournament will be at Lake Thomas Lodge on the south end of the dam.

All fish must be 12-inches in length or longer, and only black bass will qualify for a prize. Fishing hours will be between 6 a.m. and 5 p.m. daily with weigh - in time from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. only.

Entry fee of $2 must be paid prior to 8 a.m. daily and before angling begins. All fish must be caught on artificial bait by casting. No trolling or live bait will be allowed, but contestants may fish from a boat, tube, or wade or fish from the bank.

All state, federal and local laws must be obeyed. Only one cash prize will be won by any one fisherman each day.

ON THE ROPES — Argentina's Juan Rivero hangs on the ropes near the end of the fifth round of a scheduled ten-round light-heavyweight bout in Madison Square Garden in New York. Referee John Colon pulls Frank De Paula of Jersey City back from the downed Rivero who was saved by the bell before the count could be completed. Colon stopped the fight 16 seconds into the sixth round and gave De Paula a victory by a technical knockout. (AP Wirephoto)

One Player Quits; Another Returns, In Pro Football

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Richie Petitbon, a one-time all-pro defensive back, suddenly retired. And John McCormick, a one-time starting quarterback in the American Football League, just as suddenly unretired.

"I guess I just got the itch," said McCormick, Denver's No. 1 signal-caller in 1965 and 1966. He retired at the end of the 1966 season to go into the insurance business.

"I miss football and I'll be glad to get back," said the 31-year-old veteran, who joined the Broncos in 1963 after a year with Minnesota as a backup quarterback and punter. "I just hope I can be of help."

Petitbon, who went to the Chicago Bears from Tulane in 1959, said Thursday he decided to quit the game and devote full time to his insurance and real estate business in New Orleans.

"Due to increased business pressure," he wrote the Bears, "I will be unable to leave New Orleans this season. It was probably the hardest decision I've ever made, but I must look to the future. I felt the time had come to decide where I wanted to make my home and raise my children."

Petitbon denied later today that he was retiring but he did hint, however, that he would quit if he couldn't play for the New Orleans Saints.

When reached at his home in New Orleans, Petitbon told a telephone interviewer, "I'd rather not discuss it. But I have made no secret that I wanted to play for the Saints. Mr. Halas wouldn't trade me. We have reached a stalemate.

Petitbon was not the only one to retire. Three Minnesota Viking veterans announced their retirement. Linebackers Don Hansen and Paul Faust and defensive end Arnold Simkus said they have quit football because of other job opportunities. They did not elaborate.

In Green Bay, the champion Packers had their first scrimmage; with the defense crushing the offense.

Coach Phil Bengtson said the poor show by the offense was expected for two reasons, the offense had more new faces and it was primarily a running game with the defense knowing what to expect.

In Fullerton, Calif., two rookie quarterbacks for the Dallas Cowboys were outstanding in a controlled scrimmage with Los Angeles Rams rookies. The Dallas rookies were on offense, the Rams on defense.

Roger Staubach, who won't be discharged from the Navy until next year, and Bill Creedon combined to complete 19 of 28 passes for 293 yards and three touchdowns.

Heat exhaustion plagued the Washington Redskins at Carlisle, Pa., where the temperature hit 98. Flanker Jerry Smith and tackle Joe Rutgens, stricken Wednesday when the temperature went to 100, were released from the hospital but kept on the sidelines.

Running back Steve Thurlow was added to the hospital list Thursday. Rookie tackle Dennis Crane underwent treatment but was not hospitalized.

Greg Brezina, last of the Atlanta Falcons holdouts, came to terms in Johnson City, Tenn. Terms of the contract were not announced.

New York Jet quarterback Mike Taliaferro, who has spent most of his four seasons playing behind Joe Namath, asked to be traded.

"I want to go somewhere I'll have a chance to play," he said.

Fleckman Takes 1st Round Lead In PGA

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Marty Fleckman is leading the PGA golf championship through the coaching of Byron Nelson—but his tutor has picked another man.

"I wouldn't be a bit surprised if Lee Trevino went all the way to win this one," Nelson, a two-time PGA titlist, said before the tournament started Thursday.

Trevino backed up the prediction by opening with a 69, but the U.S. Open champion's start wasn't fast enough to hold the lead.

Fleckman, a dark, handsome 24-year-old, rode a hot-putter to a four-under-par 66 on the maligned Pecan Valley course, taking a two-stroke edge over tour veteran Frank Beard.

Fleckman gave full credit to Nelson, once one of golf's most polished players.

"I try to corner him every chance I get," said Fleckman, who turned pro only a year ago after leading the 1967 U.S. Open for three rounds as an amateur.

"Byron got me back on the track after the U.S. Open this year when I missed the cut," Fleckman said. "I spent a whole day working with him then, and I've been in the money the last five or six weeks."

Fleckman, who won the Cajun Classic in his first start as a pro, said he thinks he is playing better now because he is starting to feel at home on the tour.

Beard, who missed a chance to share the lead when he bogeyed the last two holes, replied "no comment" when asked what he thought of the layout. Arnold Palmer, who opened with a 71, called the 18th hole "ridiculous" because only Jack Nicklaus was able to drive over the creek.

Nicklaus shot a 71, two strokes back of Trevino, Mason Rudolph and young Don Bies. Deadlocked at 70 were Dan Sikes, Charles Coody, Miller Barber, Johnny Pott, former PGA titlist Al Geiberger, Frank Boynton and Laurie Hammer.

Bill Casper, one of the pre-tournament favorites, slipped to a 74. Tom Weiskopf, another contender, soared to a 77. Dave Stockton, who won two titles and $62,000 in his last two starts on the tour, had 75 on the 7,096-yard course.

Defending champion Don January shot a 78, which left him in danger of missing the cut today when the field will be trimmed to the low 70 scorers and ties after the second round.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — First round scores in graded order Thursday in the PGA Golf Championship over the par 35-35—70 Pecan Valley course:

Marty Fleckman	33-33—66
Frank Beard	33-35—68
Mason Rudolph	35-34—69
Don Bies	33-33—69
Lee Trevino	32-37—69

Ballinger Stops Nationals 6-1

Displaying a talented defensive club with superior pitching, the Ballinger All-Stars eliminated the Snyder National All-Stars from the Little League playoffs here Thursday night with a 6-1 verdict.

The visitors were never behind as they took a 1-0 lead in the first frame on an error, a fielder's choice, a hit batsman and a single by Fredrick Snell. They boosted the margin to 4-0 in the top of the 5th. An error and two successive fielder's choices left runners on first and third with two away. Then Fredrick Snell delivered a booming double that brought in two runs. He scored himself on a single by Dennis Dunnam.

Snyder cut the margin to 4-1 in the bottom half of the frame. With one out, Ralph Lewis doubled in Richard Gorman ahead of him. Richard had rapped a single to get on first. Lewis made it to third but a popout and a strikeout ended the threat.

Ballinger collected its final two runs in the 6th on two errors, a fielder's choice and a double by Earnest Quirino.

The Nationals put runners on third in 1st, 3rd, 4th and 6th frames, but right - handed Mike Rodriguez was equal to the occasion every time, putting out the fire. He fanned the last two men in the 4th and 6th frames to get out of those jams. He sent the last batter in the 3rd down swinging after getting plenty of help from the infielders. With two men on and nobody out in the 1st, he fanned two, then caused the last batter to ground out, third to first.

Rodriguez gave up just five hits. Two singles by John Boren and another 1-bagger by Dennis Young failed to produce any runs for the Nationals.

Larry Beard, although he was the loser, turned in a creditable mound performance, giving up only six hits. Snell paced the Ballinger attack, getting two for four, including a double.

A lack of firepower and the defensive ability of the visitors was the difference in the game.

Spurs Dig In, 3-2

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain postponed half of Thursday night's Texas League schedule but Dallas-Fort Worth took advantage of good weather and a two-out single by Jim Monin to end a six-game losing streak.

Monin's game-winning blast was preceded by a triple by Hal King that caused an outfield collision. King came home on Monin's hit, giving the Spurs a 3-2 victory over San Antonio.

The Arkansas Travelers decked Albuquerque 4-1 in the only other league game. Amarillo at Shreveport and El Paso at Memphis both were rained out.

The Spurs got single runs in the fifth and sixth innings on Paul Doyle's bunt and three Mission errors. San Antonio tied it in the eighth on a single by Tom Krawczyk, a double by Randy Bobb and a triple by Jim Qualls.

Arkansas Bobby Dews put the Travelers in front for good with a sacrifice in the seventh inning. Singles by Billy Wolff, Jerry Davanon and John Sipin netted two more Traveler runs in the eighth.

NL ROUNDUP

Franks Says He Will Quit If Giants Aren't Champions

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Juan Marichal has finally caught up to the St. Louis Cardinals. If the rest of the San Francisco Giants can't say the same come Sept. 29 they'll be playing for a new manager next spring.

Just before Marichal blanked the Cards 3-0 Thursday night and evened his lifetime record against them at 15-15, Herman Franks confirmed reports that he would retire as manager of the Giants if they don't win the National League pennant.

Owner Horace Stoneham shouldn't have long to wait before applications start pouring in since the Giants still are in fourth place, 13 games behind St. Louis, after ending the Cards' winning streak at six games.

Elsewhere, Atlanta walloped Houston 7-1 and the New York Mets downed Pittsburgh 3-0. Los Angeles was rained out at Cincinnati and the Philadelphia Phillies and Chicago Cubs were not scheduled.

In the American League, Detroit topped Oakland 3-1, the Chicago White Sox nipped Baltimore 2 - 1, Minnesota defeated Boston 7 - 2 and the New York Yankees turned back Washington 4-1.

"Four years is enough," Franks said. "Change is good for everybody. I just made the statement that if we couldn't win the pennant this year, then I would resign. It's that simple."

Franks qualified the announcement by adding that "more than likely" he would return if the Giants did pull out a pennant. He said he mentioned his views to Stoneham about a month ago, but added, "We won't talk about it until after the season."

Marichal, the NL's top winner, ran his record to 17-4 with a four-hitter and even drove in a run with a second-inning single. He retired 17 batters in order over one stretch until Lou Brock singled to open the ninth.

The Giants scored twice off Steve Carlton in the second on singles by Willie Mays, Jim Hart, Hal Lanier and Marichal. They added a run in the eighth when Mays walked, stole second and scored on a single by Jesus Alou.

The Cardinals saw their league lead chopped to nine games when second-place Atlanta beat Houston behind the hitting of Tommie Aaron and Pat Jarvis' two-hit pitching.

Aaron broke a 1-1 tie with a bases-loaded triple in the third inning off Dave Giusti and knocked in another run with a single in the eighth. Not to be outdone, big brother Hank singled home a run in the ninth.

Jarvis, 10-6, has never lost to the Astros and beat them for the fifth time. He allowed singles by Hector Torres in the first and Doug Rader in the seventh.

Seaver tied a club record with his fourth shutout of the season as the Mets hopped back over Los Angeles and Pittsburgh into seventh place. Al Jackson did it in 1962, Carl Willey in 1963 and Jerry Koosman has already done it this year.

The Mets nicked Al McBean for all their runs in the sixth inning on Bud Harrelson's single, a walk, Art Shamsky's bunt hit, a force play and singles by Jerry Grote and Phil Linz.

Refuge Is Planned North Of Paris

PARIS, Tex. (AP) — Plans are being developed for a 10,000-acre wildlife refuge and game management area on Par Mayse Reservoir north of Paris in the old Camp Maxey area.

A bill submitted by Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex. would clear the final hurdle for the refuge, asking approval for purchase by the Corps of Engineers for 75p acres of privately-owned land needed to complete the area.

The land is now in four separate blocks inside the more than 9,000 acres of land already owned by the government in the Camp Maxey area.

Cost of acquiring the private acreage is estimated at $120,000. Once the refuge and game management area is formed, it will be turned over to the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Viet Resolution To Be Debated

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD
Associated Press Writer

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — The World Council of Churches winds up its Fourth Assembly today with debate on a resolution in effect condemning U.S. intervention in Vietnam and calling for a cease-fire in the war.

"The appalling situation of Southeast Asia and strengthen the Vietnamese people today offers an example of the tragedy to which unilateral intervention of a great power can lead," said the resolution hammered out in committee.

Moreover, such intervention creates rather than solves political, social and economic problems.

The resolution calls on both sides at the Paris negotiations "take risks for peace." It appeals to the United States to stop bombing Vietnam and using weapons of mass destruction and urges both sides to stop fighting.

It also asks all governments to "learn the bitter lesson of the political authority and spiritual strength of the United Nations."

A report from the committee on inter-church aid, refugees and world service was to be presented for approval. It urged high priority for development aid.

The aid division, with $13 million a year to distribute, each year makes more than 600 social, development and refugee projects in about 80 countries.

The report suggested that a revolving fund contributed by donor agencies be set up for quick financing of development projects.

"By the mechanism of a revolving loan fund, administered by the division, many more projects could be helped over the years and each given the added advantage of contributing more both to its own self-support and to other enterprises. This may well be one of the main future developments of the division's work."

It recommended planning for postwar programs in Vietnam and Nigeria.

On the Middle East, it called for increased financial support from governments for the United Nations Relief and works agency for Palestine refugees.

The churches Ministry to the Homeless also must be intensified, the report said.

It said there is no evidence of church people suffering from "compassion fatigue." On the contrary, the urge to serve and give sacrificially appears to be more widespread than at any time in history, it said.

Jaycees Have Unwanted Member

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Jaycees would like for one of its members to resign.

The reason is that the unwanted member is a woman. The bylaws of the Jaycees says the membership is limited to males.

Mrs. Joan Lockman, mother of three children, had been on the chapter's mailing list for some time. Apparently her name plate accidentally was switched to the membership list.

When she was billed for $25 dues last week she promptly paid. Then the chapter realized it had a woman member.

"We're not sure what to do," said Ron Cobb, president of the chapter which is the largest in the nation. "Mrs. Lockman would be an asset to any organization but it's against the rules."

The age limit is 35 but apparently no member has the nerve to find out if Mrs. Lockman could be mustered out for this reason.

A suggestion that Mrs. Lockman be made a sustaining member was ruled out by the new member herself.

"I might resign gracefully if they would make me a special member," she said, adding that she might even consider running for president of the chapter.

Several gold and jewelled boxes filled with dried roses still giving off rose fragrance after 3,000 years were found when the ancient tomb of the Egyptian Pharaoh, Tutankhamen, was opened.

Be still

"If my step hath turned out of the way." Job 31:7.
We talk of practicing what we preach.
Of living the concepts that we teach.
Of being all wool and a yard wide.
Kindly in countenance, noble inside.
All this perfection we may not attain.
Yet a step that way is never in vain.

Sentenced In Income Tax Case

DALLAS (AP) — Samuel B. Haynes, 42, who pleaded guilty to violating income tax laws and forging a government check, was sentenced Thursday to 18 months in federal prison.

Haynes, brother of pro football player Abner Haynes, was operator of his own bookkeeping, tax and real estate service in South Dallas.

He admitted preparing a fraudulent income tax return for his brother which claimed a tax refund, making a false claim against the government for a tax refund, and forging a refund check payable to one of his clients.

You have called a man to become your minister; you have chosen him with calm deliberation... with great care. That means that you desire a spiritual church in the service and worship of God.

The minister is your prophet, even as he is also the prophet of the Most High. It follows that you have promised to harken to the message which that "preacher-prophet" is to bring. Else, why did you make him your minister? He expects, through prayer and meditation, to find the will of God for himself and for you and for our world. Listen then to what the divine purpose for you may be!

The preacher is the leader of his people, under the Spirit of God. How necessary that there shall be women and men to follow where he marks out the path of Christian living! That likely means regular attendance at the services of prayer in your church. It means also an eager listening to the Scriptural exposition, in which men find what God has for them to be and to do, as well as the blessed aid of His Spirit in all one's efforts.

The Church is a fellowship of women and men, inspired by the example and the teaching of the Master, united about the Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ, and committed with Him to the coming of the Kingdom of God upon the earth. It takes us all together to create and to maintain such a healing and strengthening and comforting fellowship. You and I need the divine comradeship which the church affords. Let's do our part to make a good church in our community; God will do His part, we may be sure. As much so as does the Preacher, we have a ministry to carry out. "Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it..." Attend your church.
