Gunfight Climaxes Hunt for Robbers When Posse Finds Suspects in Mud-Stalled Car; Escape in Stolen Truck

FRANKSTON, Dec. 10. — Two men believed to have been members of the bearded band of four who robbed the Frankston First State bank of $11,236.90 this afternoon lay wounded in an open fleeing truck somewhere in this section early tonight while a pair of officers, who had engaged them in a gun fight, likewise bore wounds. A third officer was in pursuit of the truck.

Deputies Sheriff Charles Curry of Frankston and Charles Emmer son of Popper, and Constable Charles Slaughter of Frankston met four men, whom they believed to be their quarry, in a mud-stalled automobile near the Jack Miller ranch some 12 miles from here. Both groups Slaughter reported after he was brought back here, began firing and two of the suspected bandits were shot as was Emmerman, who got a bullet through the chest and Slaughter, himself, who was wounded in the hand.

The two suspects unscathed by bullets added their wounded companions in a dash through the roadside brush that brought them out, shortly on the road again. Here they stole a truck from a passing driver named Hilson, placed their wounded in it and sped away to the west toward Wild Fence ferry on the Trinity river and the town of Fairfield, Slaughter was quoted as saying.

Curry, seeing that his fellow officers had been taken in charge by a passing motorist, recruited a negro farm hand who chanced by and, entering the officers' machine, gave chase to the truck. The bank was robbed just after noon. Four men entered together. Chasler Ray Perry said, but two remained at the front while their companions walked back, held pris-

Membership Drive Of Legion Friday

The annual membership drive of Allen Brothers post, No. 148, of the American Legion, will begin Friday morning, it was announced late Wednesday by Tom Carter, chairman of the post's membership committee, and general director of the campaign.

Final plans for the campaign will be outlined tonight at the bi-weekly meeting of the post at the Legion home. Carter will appoint 10 men to work with the membership committee in soliciting memberships, and each of the chosen 10 will be expected to select one or two legionnaires to aid him.

Membership quota of Allen Brothers post for 1931 is 250, although the quota heretofore has been 200, according to Carter. Paid memberships in the Legion here this year totaled 230, Carter said.

Legionnaires composing the membership committee, in addition to Chairman Carter, are: Tom Baber, Glen Burson, J. B. Jones, J. O. Gribman, J. C. Dunkin, W. G. Doss, C. M. Hoff, L. A. Howard and Hamp Spiller.

No Damages in Bracken Suit

Instructed Verdict Favors Defendant in $50,000 Case Against Garza Sheriff for Shooting of Prisoner

An attempt by Mrs. E. L. Bracken and others to obtain $50,000 damages, as a result of the fatal shooting of Mrs. Bracken's husband by Sheriff Garza county jail at Post, failed in United States district court here Wednesday when Judge William H. Atwell instructed a verdict favoring the defendant—W. F. Cato, Garza county sheriff, and his surety, American Surety company.

Mrs. Bracken asked damages for herself and her five minor children, and a married daughter, Mrs. Dana Morgan, and her husband's so-called damages.

J. H. Ramsey, deputy sheriff and jailer, shot and killed Bracken the morning of Oct. 13, 1928. Bracken was in jail awaiting arrival of an officer to take him to the state penitentiary to serve a two-year sentence for assault with intent to murder.

The shooting was reported to have occurred during an altercation between Ramsey and two unruly prisoners whose attempt to break jail previously had been frustrated by the deputy sheriff. Bracken was not involved in the attempted jail break.

Whitcomb sentenced. A sentence of 90 days in jail and a fine of $500 was meted out Wednesday morning to C. C. Whitcomb, whom a jury late Tuesday had found guilty of theft of an interstate shipment of potatoes. Federal court will continue today. No other criminal trials are expected before Friday.

AIRPLANE BURNED

Ship En Route to Lubbock Is Destroyed at Perryton

PERRYTON, Dec. 10. (P)—An airplane owned by H. W. Rathbun, of Detroit Lake, Minn., burned at the landing field here this morning. Rathbun was en route to Lubbock and spent Tuesday night here. He was checking the motor, giving it a "half-turn," when the plane suddenly burst into flames. The ignition switch was turned off and no cause for the fire could be given.

Third of Goal Of Community Chest Pledged

Lubbock Climbs First Rung Toward Success Wednesday When Workers Report that $9,802 Subscribed to Fund To Continue Today

Lubbock climbed the first rung toward success in the second annual Community Chest drive Wednesday when first reports of the 34 welfare teams indicated that $9,802.14 had been subscribed and $3,776.14 collected toward the goal of $25,750.

The campaign began Wednesday morning with an early-bird breakfast at the Hilton hotel and will continue through Friday. A group of about 150 men and women members of the canvassing corps attended the breakfast.

Results of the first morning of campaigning were reported at the weekly luncheon meetings of the Rotary club at the Hilton. Today's Kiwanis club luncheon at the Hilton also will be attended by Chest campaigners, who will report progress made.

Work in Mornings Total pledged by Wednesday night was not expected to show a material increase over that first reported as soliciting is being confined principally to meetings. Campaign workers Wednesday night were dubious of the possibility of achieving the goal of $25,750 in the three days set aside for the campaign, although more than a third of the amount was pledged Wednesday.

The men's division, of which O. W. McLeod is colonel, was credited with obtaining pledges amounting to $2,206.30 and collecting $3,449.30. Pledges amounting to $395.81 were reported by the women's team, of which Mrs. R. A. Mills, is colonel.

Ruth Nichols Makes Record

Society Aviatix Beats All Women's Marks and Takes Place Among Best of Men Fliers Across Nation

(By The Associated Press) NEW YORK, Dec. 10. — Ruth Nichols flew her fleet monoplane "The New Cincinnati" past all the transcontinental records of her own sex and took her place right up among the best of the masculine fliers today by completing a two day, one-stop flight from coast to coast in 13 hours, 21 minutes and 43 seconds.

In a borrowed ship, a stock model from the Lehigh-Vega factory located at her trip by a radio company of Cincinnati, she came in from Wichita, Kas., in six hours, 21 minutes and 43 seconds, which was believed to be the fastest journey of its length ever made by man or woman in unbroken flight. The distance is 1,200 miles.

Her actual flying time bettered the previous marks of Charles A. Lindbergh and Captain Roscoe Turner by upward of an hour, although her elapsed time was greater by virtue of an overnight stop in Wichita to rest. The only faster flying time on record tonight for the 2,300 mile coast to coast journey was that of Captain Frank Hawks.

City Comes to Support of Local Schools in Drive For Industrial Gas Rate

A former United States narcotics agent who opened fire when officers approached was fatally wounded Monday afternoon while he stood in the front of a Pickwick motor bus which he had boarded in St. Louis. Bob Barnett, Randall county deputy sheriff pictured at the right, fired the fatal shots. The man shot to death was identified as Brunson McCarter. He continued to fire after falling from the motor coach, fatally wounded.

City Comes to Support of Local Schools in Drive For Industrial Gas Rate

Another chapter is being written in the rate controversy between the Lubbock school board and the West Texas Gas company, a chapter which may write "fims" to three years of negotiations between the two groups.

Late yesterday Mayor J. J. Clements threw the weight of the administration to support of the school board when he began investigating the matter. Mayor Clements' action followed on the heels of information received Tuesday and Wednesday to the effect that in at least two West Texas cities public school buildings were being served with gas under the "one meter" system. The "one meter" system has been requested by the school board here but after three years of negotiation the gas company has remained adamant.

Want Low Rate. The school board proposes to use gas in the heating of all buildings, provided the results of each month's reading from the various meters are added together and the bill paid upon the basis that the gas used has been run through a single meter. The board also takes the stand that the schools of Lubbock make up an industry and that the industrial rate, lowest charged by the company, be applied upon the bills burned in the schools.

Col. Ernest O. Thomp, a mayor of Amarillo, reported to Mayor Clements yesterday by telephone that last month the "one meter" system was installed in the schools system there. Amarillo receives gas service from the Amarillo Gas company, controlled by the same organization which controls the

WARNING IS ISSUED

Display of 1931 Auto Tags Before Jan. 1 Violation

Display of 1931 license plates on automobiles and other motor vehicles before January 1 is a violation of state law and those guilty of the practice are subject of a fine of from $1 to $200.

The lowest assessment meted out to a person found guilty of displaying 1931 license plates before arrival of the year is $15.14, or $1 fine and $12.14 costs. Justice Pease G. R. Scott explained in issuing the warning.

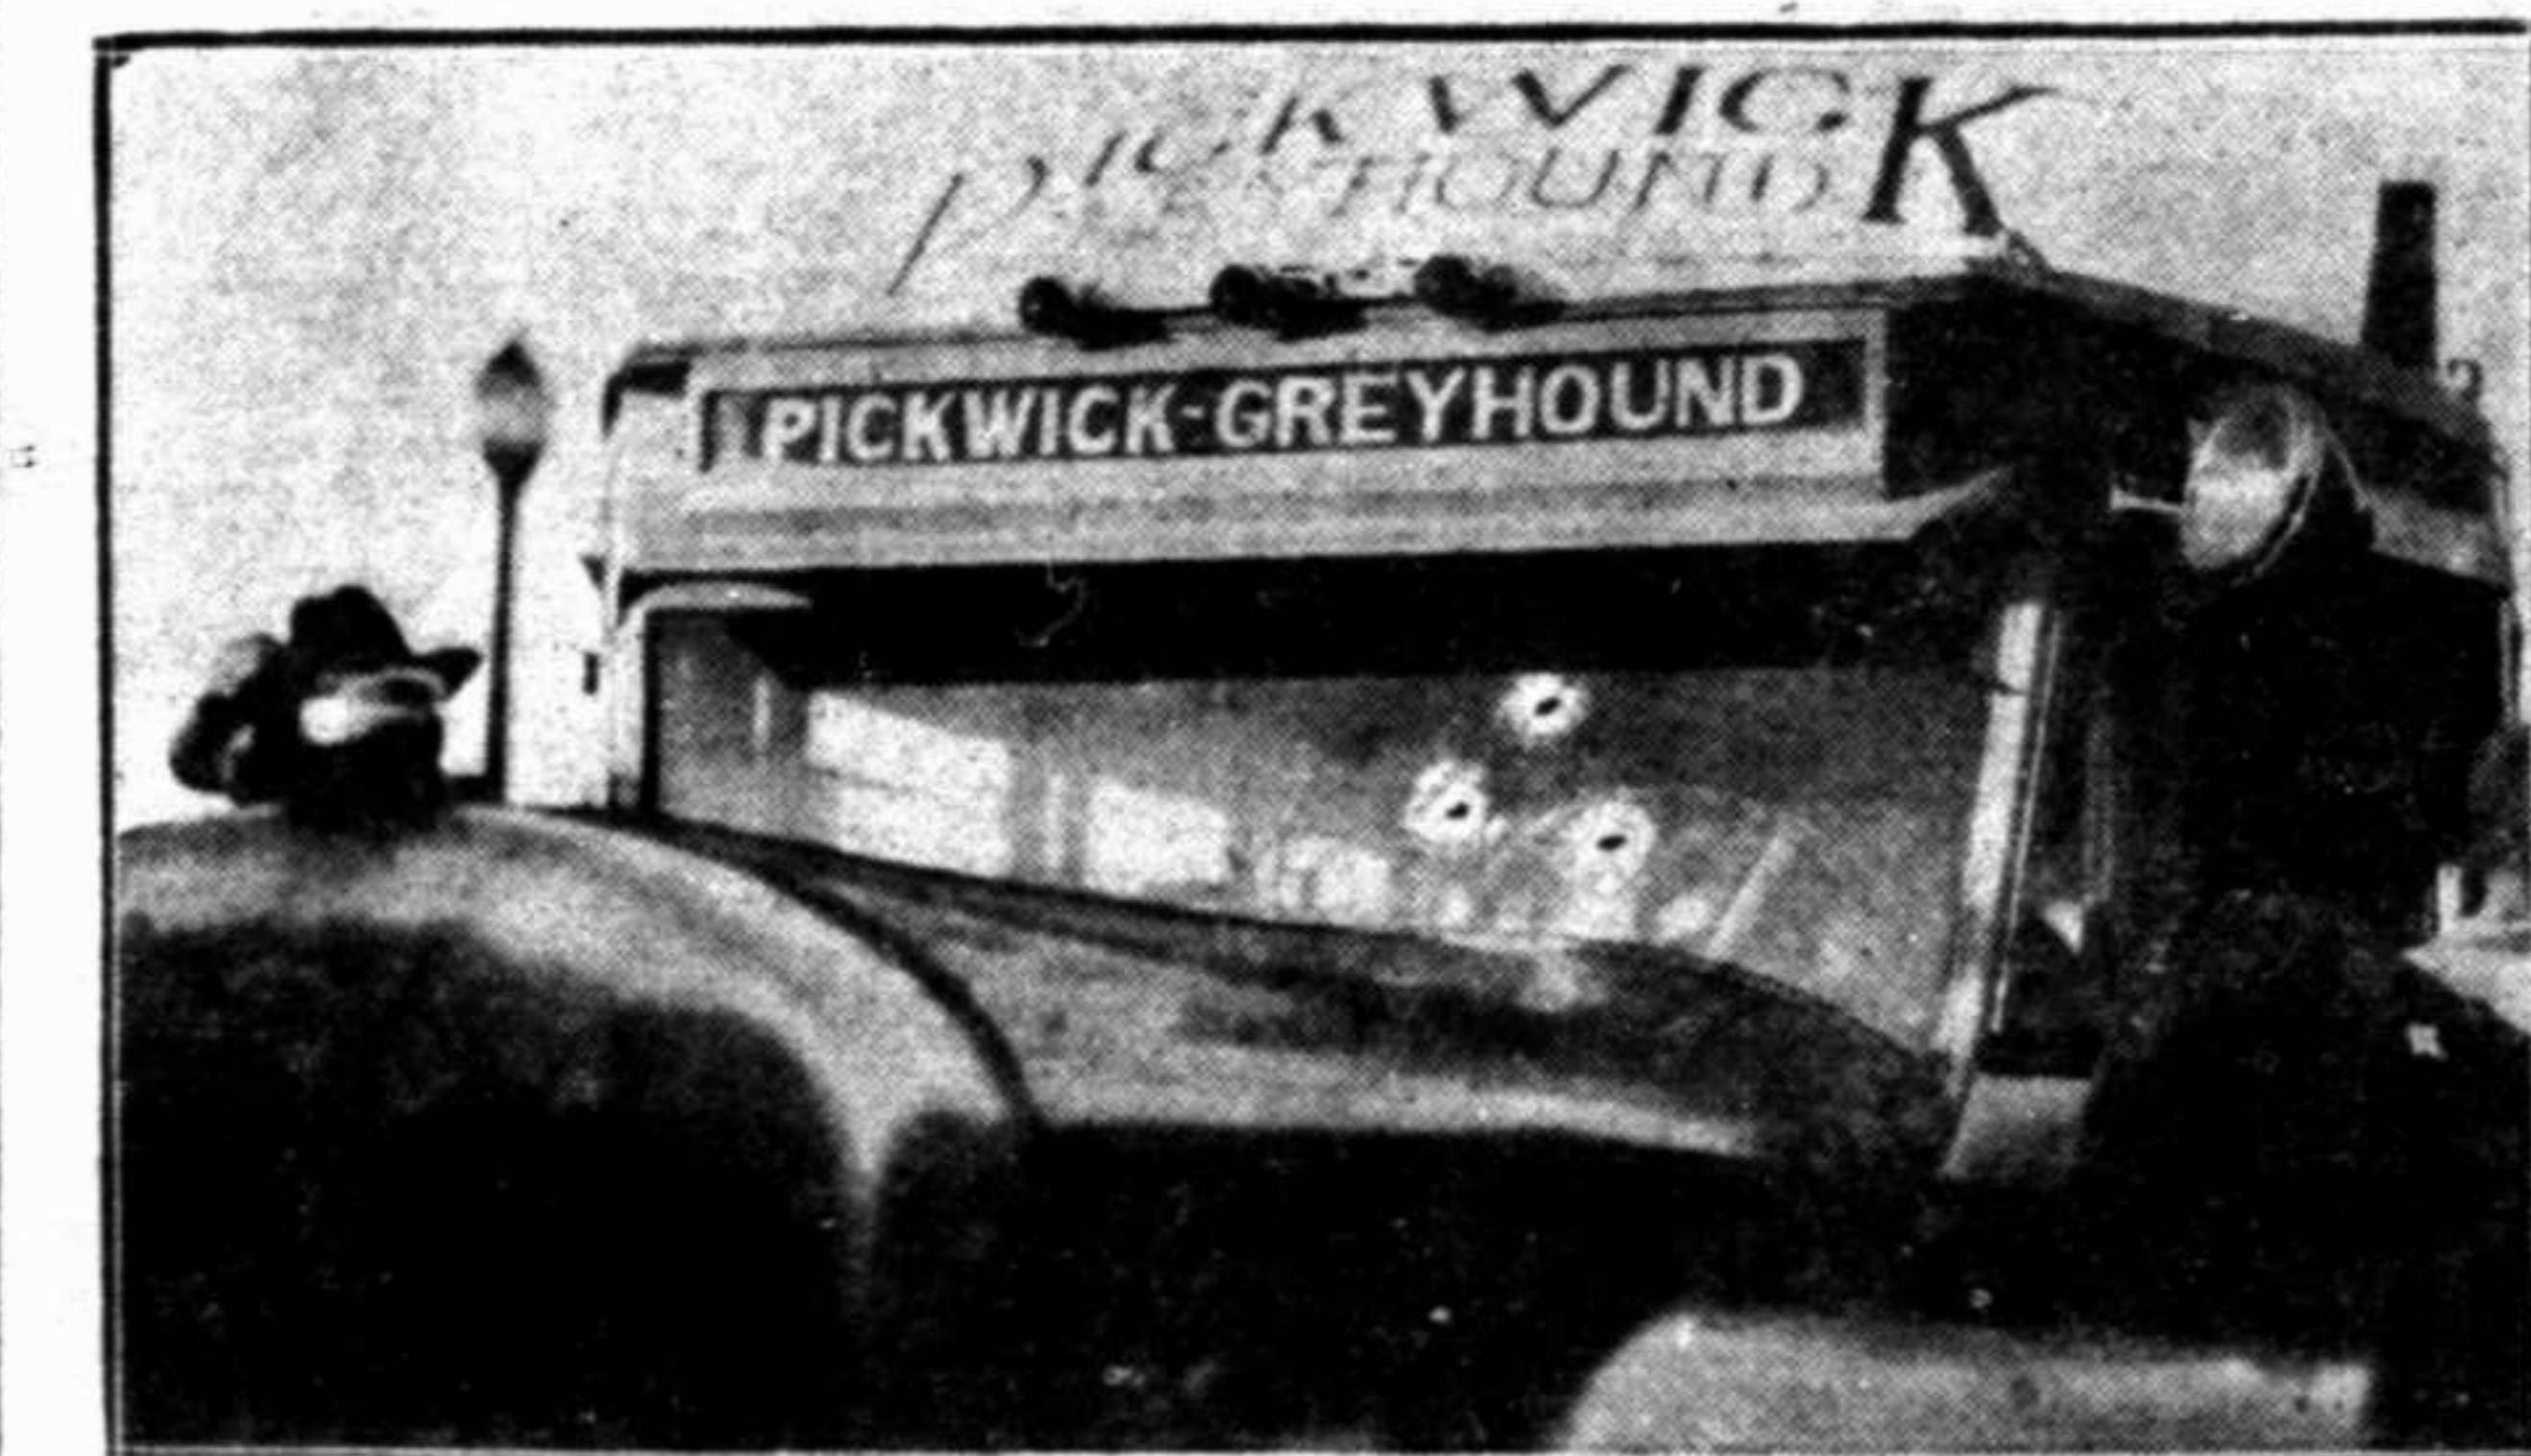

"The state highway police have received orders from Austin to file complaints against all persons violating the law and we are warning them—already today I have warned two such violators," said Justice Scott.

License plates for the current year must be displayed from February 1 to December 31 and from January 1 to February 1 plates displayed must be for the current year or the next preceding calendar year, according to Texas highway law.

Solidarity of Parties Asked In Senate Row

Senator Robinson Says Hoover Lost Temper in Statement to Solons; World Court Protocols Submitted

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10. Climaxing two days of the spoken exchange between the White House and the senate, there came an appeal today for inter-party solidarity in facing the problems of the economic depression.

Its author was Senator Robinson of Arkansas, one of the original signers of the Democratic party's election cooperation pledge. Before voting it, he struck back rudely at President Hoover for the latter's statement of yesterday that some members were playing politics "at the expense of humanity."

The senate was so deeply engrossed in its differences with the president that it left unnoticed for more than an hour, a message from Mr. Hoover transmitting the world court protocols, whose effect on procedure is uncertain to the point of being made the basis for prediction of an extra session.

The Democratic leader advocated distributing the surplus wheat held by the farm board as food to the unemployed, the extension of road building and the continuance of agricultural relief work.

He preferred the cost be met with a bond issue, but said he was willing to increase taxes "rather than refuse our primary duty to relieve our own people in such a time of danger and emergency."

Meanwhile, the house bill to provide $110,000,000 as an emergency unemployment fund to be expended for public construction was before the senate. A vote was deferred until tomorrow.

The house was occupied with post office legislation, passing a bill to give postal clerks a 44-hour week.

T.-P. Traffic Head on Stand For Railroad

J. B. Payne, of Dallas, Says Common Point Rate Would Apply to Points Along Proposed West Texas Line

Would Aid Markets

Witness Not Cross-Examined by Three Opposing Lines; Counsel Asks for Time to Study Statistics

Associated Press Staff Writer PAYNE asserted today that construction of the Texas & Pacific Northern railroad from Big Spring north to the Amarillo territory were stressed for the first time today in the hearing on the application of the T. and P. N. to build.

J. B. Payne, of Dallas, vice-president of the Texas and Pacific, in charge of traffic, said the common point rate would apply to stations along its proposed subsidiary, the T. and P. N.

At the present time the territory generally between the Santa Fe north of Sweetwater and the New Mexico state line, which the new road would serve, has to pay an added differential rate, Payne testified. The maximum differential is about 20 per cent of the common point rate.

Payne was not cross-examined on his rate figures because attorneys for the Santa Fe, the Fort Worth and Denver and the Rock Island, the roads opposing the application, asked and were granted added time in which to study the witness' exhibits.

Opposing counsel asked that cross-examination of the witness be postponed until another hearing but Haskell C. Davis, interstate commerce commission examiner, turned them down. He said cross-examination would be held Friday morning.

H. C. Pipkin, of Amarillo, attorney for the Santa Fe, brought out from another witness that differentials were fixed by the commission.

Payne's exhibits showed rate savings to a large number of points, particularly markets in Texas, the southeast and California. For instance the rate on petroleum products from Houston to Dimmitt, on the T. and P. N. would be lowered from 41 cents a hundred pounds to 39 1-2 cents. Livestock rates from Lamesa to Fort Worth would be lowered as follows: Cattle, 36 to 34 cents, sheep and goats, 49 to 43 cents, hogs, 45 to 39 1-2 cents. The livestock rate from Lamesa to Kansas City would be the same as at present.

Would Increase Privileges Payne stated stopper privileges in transit would be increased. He mentioned that farm implements originating at St. Louis might be stopped at Dallas, Sweetwater and Fort Worth or partially unloaded there before proceeding to points on the T. and P. N.

He pointed out that grain from this territory had to be stored for milling or reforwarding, and stated there were storage facilities at such points as Fort Worth, Sherman, Paris, Marshall, Dallas and Shreveport.

Prohibition Director Woodcock Speaks at Meeting of Majority of Nation's Dry Organizations Wednesday

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—A picture of prohibition successfully enforced was unfolded today by Prohibition Director Woodcock before representatives of a majority of the nation's dry organizations, meeting in executive session. Coming before the national association of organizations supporting the Eighteenth amendment after the dry leaders had approved his request for 500 additional dry agents, he commended the new non-potencies alcohol denaturant and urged the need of prohibition prosecutions. Woodcock, answered the questions heaped upon him for more than an hour.

Asks Cooperation "I told them," he said as he emerged, "that our efforts will be successful against the commercial violations of the national prohibition act, and asked them to cooperate in meeting the non-commercial violations through education."

"We propose to use the courts and the lag against commercial violators and education for the non-commercial breakings of the law."

Among questions with which the dry advocates pled the prohibition director were those concerning actual enforcement measures in various parts of the country and the attitude of the bureau toward the sale of grape concentrates.

Of the latter Woodcock said the question hinged upon "intent" to violate, and that if this was proved against grape concentrate manufacturers they would be prosecuted.

Girl Held in Murder Plot

Jean Dayle Admits Planning to Rob Jewelry Auctioneer but Denies Striking Blow Which Caused His Death

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 10. (AP)—Miss Jean Dayle, 21, was arrested here today and confessed, officers said, that she had planned the robbery of Sam Frank, 63-year-old Memphis, Tenn., jewelry salesman, who was found slain in his room here last week, but denied she struck the blow which killed him.

Miss Dayle was arrested at a residence here and admitted, police said, that she had planned the robbery of Frank for about two weeks prior to the time of his death. She said she placed a drug in his whiskey last Friday night and after the drug began to work on him, entered the hall of the hotel to "see if the coast was clear," but two men overpowered her, struck Frank on the head with a bottle, looted his clothing of money and jewelry and escaped.

Licensing of Every Driver Recommended

Hearing of Texas American Automobile Association Is Held at Houston; Width of Trucks Discussed

HOUSTON, Dec. 10. (AP)—Licensing of all motor car drivers was unanimously endorsed today at a hearing of the Texas American Automobile Association.

The hearing, held before W. G. Jones and R. C. Wilcox, two of the three members of the Texas A. A. legislative committee, was attended by about 25 persons, mainly motor truckmen. Representatives of the Missouri Pacific and the Southern Pacific railroads also were here, along with J. C. Carrington, of Austin, manager of Texas Bus Owners' Association.

Discussions held

There was a round table discussion of the whole field, with such questions as the width of trucks, length, fleet movements, lights, permits and other phases being debated.

"We are not trying to eliminate busses or trucks," said H. F. Cohen, a director of the motor league of South Texas. "We are trying to make them welcome to everyone."

Mrs. E. K. Mitchner started the safety discussion when she said:

"I have found that the trucks are too wide. I have found that the roads are not quiet wide enough and that the truck drivers could be a little more careful."

She mentioned cotton trucks especially and Mr. Carrington asked her if the offending trucks she had noticed had railroad commission licenses.

"Some have not had," she replied. "You are right," said Mr. Carrington. "We have made investigations and we have found that fifty per cent of the cotton trucks are absolutely unregulated."

Law Is Cited

The law provides, it was brought out, that trucks must not be more than 96 inches over all in width.

"If this is the law," remarked F. R. Dalsell, traffic manager of the Houston cotton exchange, "the blame then clearly falls on the negligence of enforcing officers. There is no need to run to the legislature for more laws. Enforce those we have."

The suggestion was made that all trailers should have lights not only in front and rear, but also on each side for safety in passing.

"What about fleet movements?" some one asked.

Mr. Jones said it was his idea that trucks traveling in such formation should be required by law to remain 500 feet or more apart at all times, "for their own safety as well as that of all on the highway."

T. L. Waugh, Houston truck man, pointed out that there were times when large and heavy loads were necessary.

"When this is true I believe special permits should solve the problem," he said.

The painting of "Frederick and the Cardinal," reported to be by Van Dyck, which was stolen from Lord Clarendon's Hampstead, England, residence after a garden party, has been found by the police in a trunk in a bedroom of a house at Stamford Hill.

RHEUMATISM PUT TO ROUT

Employee of Fort Worth Public Schools Relates Experience with Konjola

MRS. DAISY DAWKINS

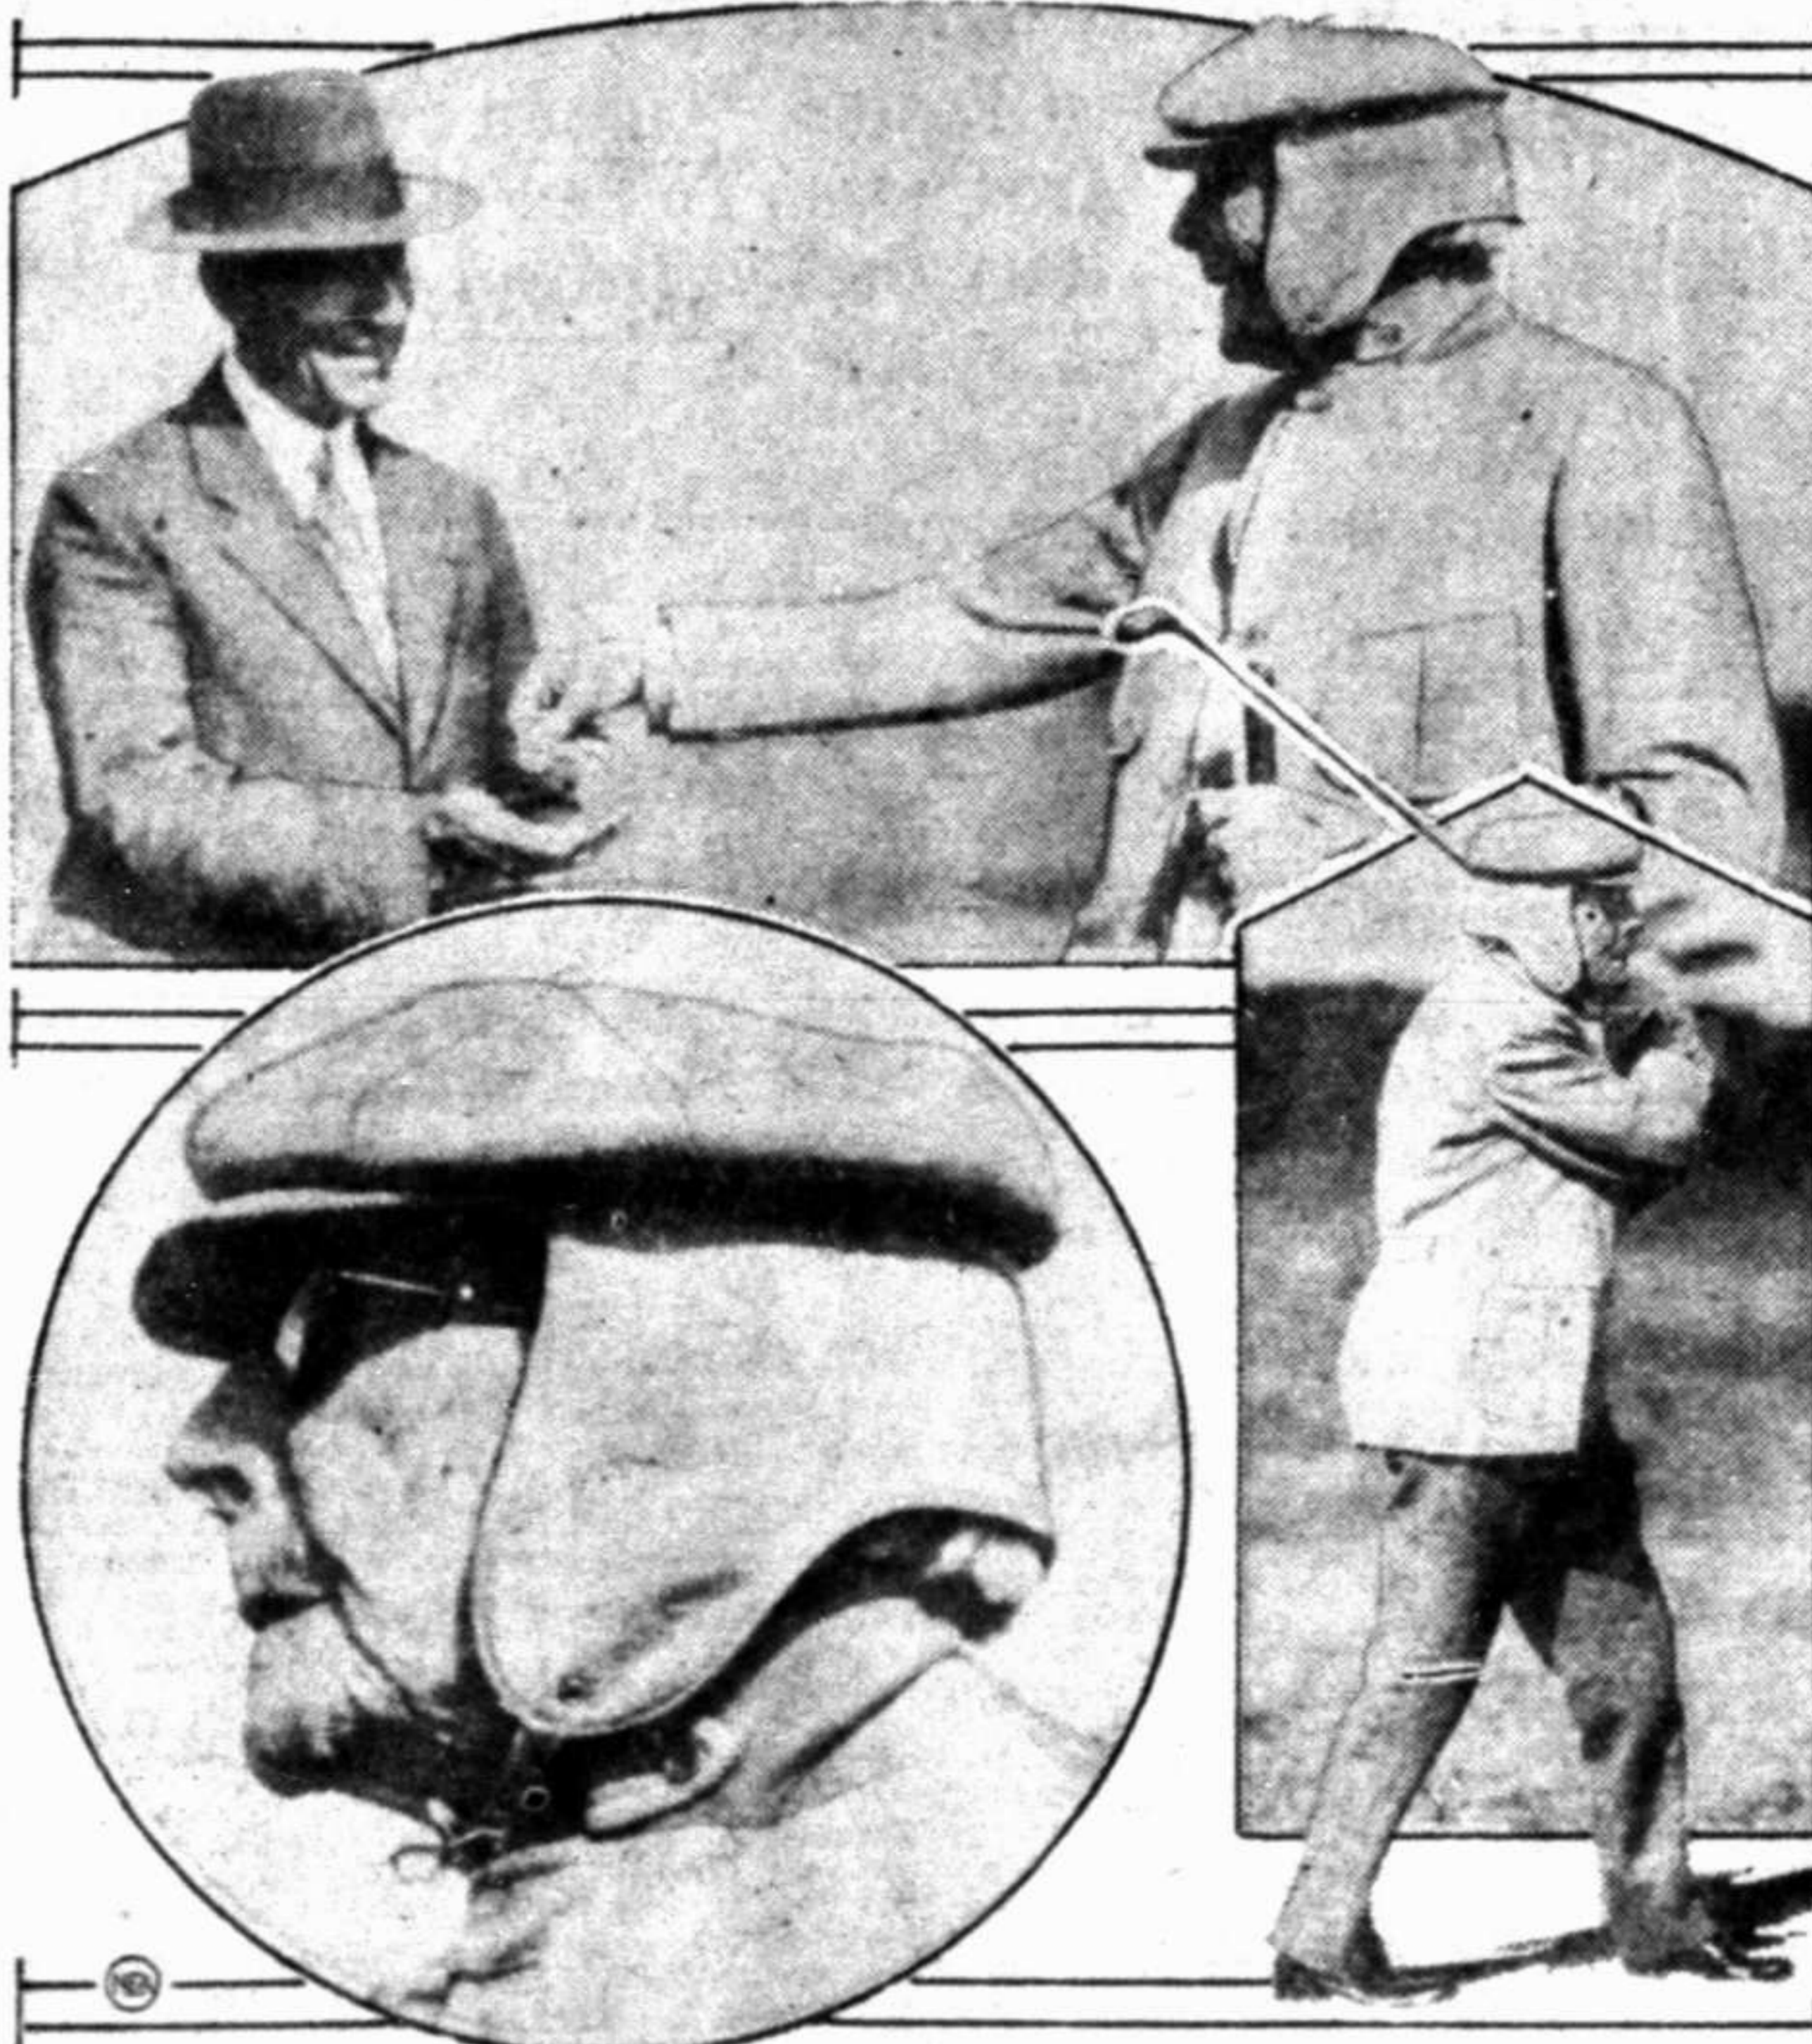

"The sharp constant pains of rheumatism in my limbs were so severe I could scarcely bear them," said Mrs. Daisy Dawkins, cafeteria employe in the Fort Worth Public Schools residing at 1711 Washington avenue, Fort Worth. "I suffered in this manner for eight years. My knees and ankles were stiff, sore and swollen, and I became very nervous. Indigestion, too, caused me much misery and distress."

"Konjola certainly made a remarkable change in my condition. Rheumatism vanished entirely and my limbs are much more flexible than they have been for years. My nerves are calm and indigestion no longer bothers me. I feel better in every respect and am glad of this opportunity to tell what Konjola has done for me."

Konjola is free from alcohol or nerve-damaging drugs.

Konjola is sold in Lubbock, Texas, at Bowen's drug store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout the entire section.

John D. Saves a Nickel While—He and Son Give a Million

"Money is scarce," said John D. Rockefeller—and in the picture at the top the 91-year-old magnate is shown giving a bright new nickel instead of his customary dime to the Rev. G. D. Owen, Ormond Beach, Fla., pastor. But the next day Mr. Rockefeller and his son, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., contributed $1,000,000 to a campaign to provide employment for jobless heads of New York families. Below are other remarkable pictures of the aged multi-millionaire—the first taken since his arrival at his winter home in Florida—showing him as he appeared on the golf course. Note the unusual cap designed to protect his head from undue exposure to the sun's rays.

Achievement Day Program Saturday

The annual Achievement Day program of Lubbock county four-H clubs will be given here Saturday and final plans for the rally are being made. Miss Ruth Stockton, county home demonstration agent, said Wednesday.

A general meeting of four-H club members at the court house at 10 o'clock Saturday morning will be followed by a luncheon, which will continue until late afternoon.

C. officers, awarding of prizes and premiums, and a pep rally are included in scheduled affairs of the day. A luncheon will be served at noon in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

Only club members who have finished their year's work and submitted record books and histories of their accomplishments will attend the luncheon, Miss Stockton said.

"I Did It Because He Tantalized Me," Woman Tearfully Tells Officers; Shot When Youth Defied Orders

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 10. (AP)—Tearfully admitting she killed her 13-year-old son, Thomas, at their home in Medusa today, Mrs. William Donohue, 34, told county officers she did it "because he tantalized me."

"I only did it to scare him," the mother told the officers, summoned by neighbors. Then she related how the boy had refused to do a household chore this morning, finally running out of the house.

She said she seized a .22 calibre rifle, pointed at him as he ran across a lot beside the Donohue home, and shouted "Tommy, come

Robbers Should Have Divided

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—When the Simon Cohens got home this morning they found three men in their Brooklyn apartment, bent on robbery.

There wasn't any answer to that.

However the thieves took a $1,300 diamond ring from Mrs. Cohen's finger.

Film Actor Is Being Held as Master Robber

Hazell Roxen Sanders Charged with Stealing Hundreds of Thousands Dollars Worth of Furnishings from Homes

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 10. (AP)—Hazell Roxen Sanders, 30, described by police as alternately film actor, importer and master burglar, was charged today having stolen hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of furnishings from Los Angeles, Hollywood and Beverly Hills homes.

Police in recovering more than $100,000 in loot, plundered during two years of operations, connected Sanders, alias Al White, with the burglaries through fingerprints on window ledges of imposing residences.

Accomplice Held
With Sanders in jail was an alleged accomplice, Peter Ryan, alias Paul Hackley, 28, also charged with robbery. Sanders and his aide, whose methods of operation were described by police as unique as they were startling, were said to have looted scores of homes, hauling away to a cache valuable rugs, radios, silverware and jewelry.

In the role of importer, police said, Sanders sold oriental rugs to many persons of prominence, including motion picture stars, after stealing them in daring daylight coups. The suspected actor-burglar and his accomplice also are said to have played the role of electric refrigerator service men and milk delivery men for the purpose of reconnoitering before robberies.

Authorities asserted Sanders and his confederate would drive a truck or moving van to the home of some wealthy person whom they knew to be absent and would drive away boldly with valuable articles, giving the impression they were acting with the knowledge and consent of the owner.

Police said they found a chamois bag containing $20,000 in loose diamonds strapped to Sanders' knee. A pistol was found in his pocket, they said.

Sidelights of Rail Hearing

PARRISH LOOKS IN

Senator Pink L. Parrish looked in on the hearing yesterday for the first time. The senator only spent a short time in the hearing room but talked to some friends outside.

ENGINEER ARRIVES

W. W. Kelley, chief engineer of the Santa Fe at Amarillo, dropped in yesterday. Mr. Kelley is a new man in this territory, only having been head of the engineering work of the western lines for a little over a year. He is an old time employe, however and has had his hands full making up plans for the big construction program north of Amarillo. There some 300 miles of railroad are being constructed.

KEEPS CLOSE TOUCH

W. T. Long, transportation superintendent of the T-P, keeps in touch with his Dallas office regularly. Each afternoon his secretary makes up a digest of the previous day's activities and sends it by special delivery. Mr. Long gets the letter the next day and thus gets first hand information on train operations and the like. "When I'm out over the road, I keep in touch with the office by wire, company wires, but out here I get letters," Mr. Long explained.

NO NIGHT SESSION

Last night's session was postponed. Some of the boys, so the story goes, felt the need of a little diversion and desired to trip the light fantastic. They persuaded enough to want to do it so that the session was postponed. However, the lawyers went to work on their cases to line up their "fences" in anticipation of a big day.

TRANSCRIPT MADE

First transcript of the hearing was to have been made yesterday. Reporter Huff said, "I sent the first records of the case to my Oklahoma City office Monday night and they should have started to transcribe it with the knowledge and consent of the owner."

Police said they found a chamois bag containing $20,000 in loose diamonds strapped to Sanders' knee. A pistol was found in his pocket, they said.

LIQUOR STILL FOUND

No Arrests Made in Eastland County Raid Wednesday

ABILENE, Dec. 10. (AP)—A liquor raid in Eastland county, eight miles southwest of Cisco, early today netted 250-gallon copper still unit and 2,400 gallons of mash, ready to be run.

Although the still was warm when found, no arrests were made and no whiskey discovered. The setup and mash, which would have produced 400 gallons of whiskey worth $10 a gallon at bootleg prices, were destroyed.

The raiding party was led by a federal prohibition operative stationed here.

Head of Utilities Tells C.C. That Courage and Character Will End Depression; Test Being Made, He Says

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 10. (AP)—Samuel Insull, head of the Insull Utilities, told the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce today that "brighter days will come again because courage and character will make them come."

The occasion of his address was the chamber's annual centenary luncheon in honor of the 105 Philadelphia firms which have been in business for 100 years or more.

"We are in the midst of a test of both courage and character today," Mr. Insull said, "and these 105 institutions of yours ought to be an example to us. What has a business depression or even a panic meant in the history of such an institution? Only an incident which did not even leave a scar."

"But there is one thing," Insull said, "that we must take to heart. Our good times will not come as a gift of government or a gift of providence, but as an effort of the people."

Believe Belgian Fog Contaminated

BRUSSELS, Dec. 10. (AP)—An emphatic declaration that the fog in the Meuse valley which took 67 lives last week could not have killed anyone if it had uncontaminated was made today by Professor Nolf, president of the Belgian Red Cross, at the opening of an official inquiry into the disaster.

His statement aroused lively interest, for it gave some support to a belief that noxious fumes from industrial plants in the Engis district were responsible for the deaths.

It was expected the sessions of the investigating commission would be protracted, for it probably will be necessary to conduct a series of laboratory experiments.

Dr. Felix Bertyn, of the Royal Meteorological Institute, and Professor Bordet, noted bacteriologist, agreed with Professor Nolf, that the fog alone could not have caused all the deaths.

CHARLES BARRETT DIES
WILMINGTON, Del., Dec. 10. (AP)—Charles C. Barrett, 78, grandfather of Estelle Taylor, motion picture actress and wife of Jack Dempsey, died today. The granddaughter arrived at the family home yesterday from Los Angeles and was at the bedside. Mr. Barrett was a native of Northeast, Md.

Sen. Robinson Gives Answer To President

Democratic Leader Says He Is Willing to Accept the Oidium if Drouth Bill Is "Raid on Treasury"

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10. (P)—Replying to President Hoover, Senator Robinson, the democratic leader, today said he is willing to accept the odium which will attach to such a transaction.

Senator Robinson was one of the signers of the democratic pledge of cooperation with the republicans to alleviate present difficulties.

Robinson said President Hoover's own drouth relief committee had urged $20,000,000 for drouth relief, its recommendations were before the senate at the time he and Senator McNary, republican, Oregon, introduced bills for $60,000,000.

Calling attention to the later recommendation of the budget bureau for a $25,000,000 limitation upon drouth relief, Robinson said "there were no figures nor basis for such a limitation."

"In my judgment, the budget bureau merely decided to pursue an economical course."

"I direct my remarks now to the president, to members of the press who have been disposed to criticize my course and to my associates, he continued. 'If this be a raid on the treasury of the United States I am willing to accept the odium that attaches to such a transaction on the part of public officials.'

The $10,000,000 public works bill was approaching a vote in the senate.

Robinson said in spite of the best spirit on all sides there may be discord and disagreement as to the best program for relief.

"We may not be able to cooperate," he said, "but we ought to do it if we can."

A special Christmas program is being planned for Sunday evening at 8 o'clock at the college gym. Words of the carols to be sung will be flashed on a screen, according to Prof. Washburn.

Shoot to Kill Orders Issued To Policemen

Col. E. O. Thompson, Mayor of Amarillo, Launches Crime Prevention Campaign; 500 Men Placed in Reserve

AMARILLO, Dec. 10. (P)—"Shoot to kill" is the order issued to members of the Amarillo police department, who will be supported by an organized reserve composed of 500 men selected from the ranks of the American Legion, in carrying out an elaborate crime prevention campaign inaugurated Wednesday by Col. Ernest O. Thompson, mayor.

"It is time positive action be taken to stop this outlawry," declared the mayor. "Our property must be made secure, our citizens lives must be made safe. Liberty is a mockery when murderers and hijackers can roam the streets unopposed."

To insure ability to carry out the "shoot to kill" order every member of the police department will be required to qualify in marksmanship. Daily target practice with regulation police firearms has been ordered.

In addition to issuing reserve police commissions to 500 legionnaires chosen from the older members of the organization every possible co-operation from citizens will be

Another woman stole my husband

—do I deserve pity.... or blame?

So... it had happened to her, too. Deserted by her husband, for another woman. She, the ideal wife! She, the woman who had loved and struggled and sacrificed! She, who had stood at the altar with her husband's love.

And now... this. Cast aside. An object of pity and scorn. Deserted by the man whom even now, she still loved.

Stephen had been a good husband. Kind, generous, ambitious. What strange madness had suddenly possessed him? How could he have been so cruel to his wife and his two adoring children?

Bitterly she thought of his last scornful words. "I'm through," he had cried. "I hope to heaven I never see you again!" And he had stormed out of the room—leaving her trembling, white-faced, abandoned...

Was it possible that she was to blame? She was still young, beautiful. No wife could have been truer to her husband. "He had no cause—no right—to leave me," she sobbed. But—perhaps she had made the one fatal mistake that has driven countless husbands into other women's arms.

Imagine receiving $5,000.00 for a single true story of perhaps 5000 words—one dollar for each word! Yet that very thing may happen to YOU if you enter the new True Story Magazine prize contest.

For beginning with the calendar month of January, True Story Magazine will actually DOUBLE the prize money paid each month for stories representing an experience that took place in your life or in the life of an acquaintance.

$10,000.00 in cash, ranging from $5,000.00 to $250.00, will be awarded every month for stories that you yourself can write. Probably you have thought of a story that you would like to write. Why not put it on paper and send it in? Full particulars in the latest issue of the magazine.

Murder a Bridge

A clever author... a clever murderer... a clever detective—these ingredients have been mixed into one of the most fascinating mystery novels ever written. It is called "Murder a Bridge."

Two perfect crimes—if it had not been for the fact that an engaging young detective, Bonnie Dundee, was on the job—form the background for this story. With diabolical cunning, the criminal struck down his victims while they played bridge.

The author is Anne Austin, who wrote "The Black Pigeon" and gave the public a new type of sleuth in "The Avenging Parrot" and "Murder Backstairs." Be sure to read the new serial.

Frigidaire in her Christmas stocking

A brand-new gift idea for men who don't hold back at Christmas time

Frigidaire has created a beautiful sterling silver medallion, or "Medal of Honor," that we're putting on all Christmas gift Frigidaires at no extra cost. This medallion is engraved with the name of the fortunate one who gets the Frigidaire, or with both her name and yours.

We'll engrave one of these medallions for you and tuck it away in a handsome velvet case. Then you wrap it up with all the Christmas trimmings and slip it into the slim chiffon stocking that she's hung beside the fireplace. The result will be a surprise that is a surprise. Carnegie Foundation Reports May Have Nothing on Those of Major Griffith Today; Has Inspected Southwest

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.

DALLAS, Dec. 10.—(Special.)—The Carnegie Foundation reports that it has nothing on those of Major Griffith today. The foundation has inspected the Southwest Conference and the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Officials of the three organizations voted a year ago to retain Major Griffith for the purpose of his being reported to have done a thorough job.

No Idea Of Results

There has been no inkling of the nature of the report to be made by the visiting sleuth, but there have been rumors that he would make several important recommendations for the future guidance of business managers and coaches. Few observers believe Major Griffith will make and sensational disclosures; but there is a chance that he will. Hence the consuming interest in his appearance before the athletic fathers tomorrow.

Report On Dixie Classic

While the Griffith report stands out as the most important feature of the annual gathering, which will attract delegates from a thousand-mile radius, there is a deal of interest attached to a decision on the part of the faculty committee of the Southwest Conference. The committee will, in effect, either sanction the annual Dixie Classic here January 1 between all-stars of the Southwest and Mid-west or hand it to the jolting blow.

Last year the ruling body voted, 4 to 3, to bar seniors from participating in post-season football bouts on pain of being ineligible for other sports the remainder of the term. President Joe Ulay of the Dixie Classic has conducted a vigorous campaign toward having the rule rescinded and has assured it will be brought to another vote tomorrow. He has further assurance that the University of Texas, which favored the edict last year, will switch to the other side this time. Only one vote is needed to abolish the rule and assure the future success of the charity game.

Several Will Be Ineligible

Unless the rule is erased, several of the southwest's outstanding athletes will be ineligible for basketball, football and track. They already have accepted invitations to play in the east-west tilt at San Francisco, and others have voiced intention of taking in the Dixie Classic regardless.

Meet At Athletic Club

Two floors of the Dallas Athletic Club will be given over to the various phases of tomorrow's sports convention. There will be separate meetings of business managers and directors, football and basketball coaches, and football and basketball officials. In addition to the regular sessions of the three conferences, basketball and baseball schedules will be completed and a good start made on 1931 football programs. And there will be the customary array of booths, where anyone interested can see the very latest in sports paraphernalia. The meeting is, without quite an event.

Benefit Grid Game Here Set For Wednesday

Middies Look Good In Drill Sessions

(By The Associated Press) ANNAPOLIS, Md., Dec. 10.—Believing their coaches' pessimistic outlook, the Navy regulars were off consistent gains against the "B" squad equipped with Army formations today in the final hard scrimmage session in preparation for the charity meeting with the cadets in New York Saturday.

Bill Ingram, Navy coach, professed to hold little hope for a Middle victory against the big Army team, but went ahead with his preparations in the 45-minute scrimmage session and laid plans for the final workout tomorrow.

Ex-Westerners Working Daily On Park Field

The Spur-Lubbock benefit football game will be played on Wednesday, December 17, instead of on Thursday of next week as previously announced. The change was made yesterday when M. H. Duncan, superintendent of Lubbock public schools, informed the local chapter of American Business club, sponsors of the post-season affair, that final examination, beginning next Thursday, would interfere with the plans.

Game Moved Up One Day for Examinations at School; Tech Gridsters Compose Big Part of Squad

Every afternoon the Fair Park field is the scene of important practice sessions, participated in by some 40 or 50 former Lubbock high school gridsters. The Lubbock team will be composed of ex-Westerners who have played under the high school colors during the past five years, or since Henry Frnka has been coach.

Frnka Is Coaching

Coach Frnka has volunteered his services to put the team in shape for the game, and spends two hours daily with the large squad on the practice field. Interest in the pending game grows each day, and it is a lively bunch of gridsters who romp about the Fair Park field.

Many of the candidates for the team which will meet the 1930 Spur High School Bulldogs on the Tech field next Wednesday are present. Texas Tech varsity and freshman gridsters. It appears that the team Coach Frnka will use will be composed largely of Tech linemen and high school backs, though there will be frequent substitutions and changes and shifts before the opening gun.

Tech Line Western Backfield

Present indications are that the line to start against Spur will consist of Bill Teal and Jimmy Whitesides, regular Tech players, at the end positions; Osborne and Barton, varsity and freshman tackles, respectively, on the Tech team, at tackle; Allen, regular Tech guard at one guard, and McGeeffe, regular high school guard, at the other guard post, and Joe Leaverton or Bob Crawford at center.

Leaverton was a reserve center on the 1930 Tech Pioneer squad and Crawford was regular center on the high school team.

The backfield very likely will consist of Dub Lawson, Mina Watkins and Moody Smith, all members of the 1930 high school team, and Yancy Price, regular center on the recent Tech freshman team. Price has been shifted to the backfield and will do considerable ball carrying.

Spur Points To Game

Reports from Spur are to the effect that the Bulldogs are training regularly and pointing to the game. A large delegation of Spur fans are expected to come to the game. Jimmy Mahn and Brode Puckett, outstanding Class B backfield stars of this section, will be in the Spur lineup.

Cy Not Coming

It was hoped that Cy Leland, once a Lubbock high school gridder, now a popular athlete at Texas Christian university, would be here to play with the Lubbock team, but in a telephone conversation between Leland and a local man yesterday afternoon, Cy said he very likely could not come for the game, since he is training for the track season at present.

MACON, Mo., Dec. 10. (Special.)—Albert Layman, of Blackwell, Okla., today was acquitted of a 41-year-old charge of assault with intent to kill Thomas J. Billings, of La Plata, Mo. The charge grew out of an assault with an axe handle in 1889 in which Billings was severely injured.

American materials are being used in the construction of the new library and school buildings in Canton, China.

Returning Notre Dame Ramblers Given Wild Ovation At Chicago, South Bend

BY PAUL MCKELSON Associated Press Sports Writer. SOUTH BEND, Ind., Dec. 10.—Knute Rockne and his famous Notre Dame troupe of raiders came back to their home stamping ground again today to receive probably the loudest double barreled ovation ever boomed for an athletic team.

Fan Lines The Toughest

It was as the tired Rockne remarked when it was all over: "We thought we had been through some great lines on the football field this year, but the lines we saw the police had to fight today had 'em all beat."

Few Ovals As Biz

Notre Dame and Chicago have held ovation for explorers, celebrities of every sort and for mighty teams of yesterday, but few compared with the one given the "fighting Irish" today.

Carried Plays Possum

It resembled somewhat the foray and tumult which greeted the army of the world war. Hundreds of police were powerless to stop the surging throngs, fighting to get to the team that forged its nineteenth straight victory in two years at the University of Southern California's expense Saturday.

Tech Officers Meet with Big League Today

Commonly Believed That All Members Texas Conference Will Be Favorable When Tech Makes Application

The belief that Texas Tech would be a member of the Texas conference after this year was expressed yesterday by officials of the local college and by Coach Pete Carthon, who left early yesterday morning for Dallas where the executive conferences of the three leading conferences of the southwest, the Southwest Conference, the Texas Conference and the T. L. A. A. meet in annual business session today.

Schools Believed Favorable

Associated Press reports from Abilene stated that Simmons university had instructed its representatives at the meeting to vote favorably toward Tech's application should it be presented, and the belief was general that Tech would be received as a member. Only two adverse votes are necessary to keep the institution out of the league, but it was thought that there would be unanimous support.

To Make Cage Schedule

W. L. Golightly, basketball coach at Tech, and Russel T. Smith, freshman coach and athletic business manager, accompanied Coach Carthon and Mr. Stangel to Dallas yesterday. Coach Golightly will sit with the schedule committee today and assist in making out the basketball schedules for the current season. If the local college becomes aligned with the Texas Conference, the 1930-31 Matador cagers will enter the basketball championship race. It is thought.

Cawthon To Preside

P. W. Cawthon, head coach of Tech, veteran catcher, has been signed by the Detroit Tigers, it was learned today at the major league baseball meeting.

Wallie Schang Is Signed By Tigers

SCHANG, a veteran of 17 years in big league baseball, was a free agent, having been released unconditionally by the Athletics whom he played with all last season. Schang broke in with the Athletics in 1913 and later served with the Red Sox, Yankees and Browns.

Heart Hungry

Barney blurted out. "They've lost Jordan." Barney blurted out. "What?"

Barney nodded. "I've just come from the office. I'm mentioning the detective headquarters. The fellow who's been shadowing Jordan came in half an hour ago and admitted he'd lost him."

A violent oath burst from Mitchell's lips. Shields joined sympathetically in the discussion which followed. The father was moved to put the whole matter before the police authorities.

"Maybe that's the thing to do," Shields said cautiously, "but unless we get something more to work on I don't see how it will help. If I could only guess what was in Celia's mind—"

"We won't know that until we find her. Good God, Shields, I tell you I can't stand this any longer!"

They talked for several minutes and then Edward arrived a second time to announce that dinner was prepared.

For two days Barney Shields had been making the Mitchell residence his home. Not once in that time had Mitchell gone to his office. He seemed to cling to the young man as the one supporter of his sorrow. Together they had interviewed detectives, reconstructed again and again events preceding Celia's disappearance and sought to untangle the mystery.

Dinner conversation centered on the subject which interested either of the two men. Practically nothing new in the search had been reported.

Again Shields broached the subject of Celia's motive for leaving Mrs. Parson's home.

"I wish I knew how much she really cares for Jordan. Somehow I can't get over the feeling that she went away to marry him. You know what the doorman said—"

"The maid denied there was a man there. Besides, Shields, I told you Celia said you were the man she cared for."

"Well, it's true. No—it's some devilry of Evelyn Parson's that drove the girl off. That's what did it. Oh, if there were only some way of dealing with that woman!"

John Mitchell's eyes snapped as he spoke. The butler removed the plates and brought dessert. The two at the table were silent for some time and then Shields addressed his companion.

"There's one thing I've been thinking about," he said slowly. "Mr. Mitchell, don't you think if Celia's mother were here she could help us?"

"I wish I knew any way to get her here."

"How don't you mean that she won't come? Oh, I know she couldn't refuse!"

"I don't know where she is either. I've had detectives searching for 10 days."

"Then maybe they're together."

Mitchell shook his head. "I don't think it's possible," he said. "Celia didn't know where her mother was. It was a great grief to the girl. To what extent it may have influenced her in going away I don't know. Margaret's disappearance is just as mysterious as Celia's."

They were considering this phase of the problem when Edward entered the dining room.

"There's a gentleman in the hall, Mr. Mitchell, who wishes to see you. Do you know his name?"

Edward handed Mitchell a card bearing the name of a representative of the detective bureau.

"Show him into the drawing room. Tell him I'll be there immediately. As the butler turned to go Mitchell pushed back his chair and roared. "Come along," he said to the young man, "Mr. McNeil. He must have learned something."

McNeil was the stocky built detective who had relieved Barney Shields from his all-night watch of Jordan's apartment. He was standing before the fireplace with his back toward the door when Mitchell and Shields stepped into the drawing room at the sound he heard.

"Good evening, Mr. Mitchell. Good evening, Shields. I've just picked up a little information I thought would interest you."

"What is it?" Mitchell demanded.

"Mind if I sit down? Thanks." McNeil settled himself comfortably and looked up at his host who was still standing. "You know Morrison was trailing Jordan this afternoon and lost him, but we'll soon find him again. Yes, sir; I picked up information an hour ago that Jordan has booked passage for Havana and is sailing tonight."

"Sailing tonight?"

McNeil nodded, pleased with himself. "At 10 p. m.," he said. "I'm having the boat watched and as soon as he gets on board we'll know it. Once the ship puts to sea, you can rest assured that your man won't be mixing in any place where he's not wanted. I guess probably he's got wind of the fact that he's been watched and decided to blow."

"You're positive he's sailing tonight?"

"No—no really positive. Only why did he book passage this morning if he didn't intend to make the trip? We keep close watch of ship arrivals and departures in this business. You know, I got wind that Jordan had paid for his passage and found out he did it some time before noon. Thought you'd be pleased to hear about it!"

Mitchell turned toward Barney Shields.

"What do you think it means?" he asked.

Shields shook his head. "Hard to say," he said. "Of course it's possible he's worried and wants to play it safe. I don't know—seems doubtful to have more of an idea if we knew where Jordan was this afternoon."

McNeil glanced at a wrist watch. "The boat sails at 10," he said. "I'll be right here with you."

whether or not Jordan has walked up that gangplank. Personally, I think your troubles are over so far as that bum is concerned."

John Mitchell had halted and was staring at the detective. A strange look had come over the man's face.

"Did you—see the full passenger list?" he asked.

McNeil nodded his head emphatically.

"I know what you're thinking!" he said. "I read the full list. There's no girl by the name of Mitchell among those sailing."

Mitchell wiped his forehead. "You're sure of that?"

"No such name listed!" McNeil said stubbornly. "Well—I'll be getting along now. I'm off duty. We'll have this thing cleared up for you in a day or two, Mr. Mitchell."

"I sincerely hope so."

McNeil was shown out and the butler arrived with coffee. Shields declined the beverage but Mitchell was drinking his third cup when a telephone rang loudly.

"It's for you," Barney said, handing over the telephone.

"Is this Mr. Mitchell?" the voice demanded. "Celia Mitchell's father?"

"No, but I'll call him."

Barney turned. The older man was beside him.

"It's for you," Barney said, handing over the telephone.

"The voice at the other end of the wire was excited and high pitched. Shields, standing near Mitchell, could hear every word.

"This is List Duncan," the voice said. "Mr. Mitchell, I wanted to tell you that Celia's gone."

"What do you mean?"

"I mean she's gone!" the voice insisted hotly. "She's been staying here with me but this afternoon she went for a drive with Tom Jordan and they haven't come back. It was nearly four hours ago and I've been so worried. I'm afraid something's happened!"

TRY this milder "counter-irritant." Good old Mustrale, made milder for babies and small children. So pleasant to use and so reliable—apply Children's Mustrale freely to the affected area once every hour for five hours. That's the safe, sure treatment that millions of mothers and leading doctors and nurses recognize and endorse.

Mustrale gets action because it is a "counter-irritant"—not just a salve—it penetrates and stimulates blood circulation, helps to draw out infection and pain.

That's why this famous blend of oil of eucalyptus, camphor, menthol and other helpful ingredients brings relief naturally. Keep full strength Mustrale on hand for adults and Children's Mustrale for the little ones.

DO YOU HAVE EMPLOYMENT FOR SOMEONE?

Whether it be only two hours work, or a permanent position. Any kind of odd jobs about your home—perhaps the yard needs cleaning, the roof needs repairing, or the house needs repainting. Give the other fellow a job.

Every dollar that is expended in wages between now and January 1st will not only tend to increase the volume of retail buying but will greatly assist many Lubbock families in the procurement of actual necessities.

During November, the AVALANCHE-JOURNAL WANT-AD DEPARTMENT will strive to obtain 1,000 days of employment for the unemployed. If you have a job for one day or thirty, phone the AVALANCHE-JOURNAL WANT-AD DEPARTMENT.

13 or 14

Give details and your ad will be inserted FREE OF CHARGE, in both morning and evening editions, for two days, providing the ad is not over three lines (count six words to line).

Veterans of World War Now Seeking Place of Government Soldiers' Homes

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10 (AP)—Increasing numbers they come each year, men who call for help from the government for which they dared death 12 years ago.

Younger now are the men who seek the haven of the soldiers' homes, than the veterans of other wars who asked help.

The contrast of the changing age was uncovered today by the bureau of national records which show the steadily mounting total of World War veterans, unable to gain a livelihood, who knock at the doors of the homes.

Psychology Changed A peculiar note of public psychology was wrapped in this change, said Colonel C. W. Wadsworth, the director. Once, a man who became such a ward was ranked a pauper; his family kept his whereabouts secret.

Today, there is an eagerness evident in the attitude of the veterans, and in the attitude of their relatives, Colonel Wadsworth explained.

"Welfare organizations and charitable groups have the same viewpoint," he continued. "They think they are doing a great piece of work if they can get these former soldiers into a government institution. 'You belong there,' they tell them."

From 1921 to 1927, the total population of the 11 branches of the national home averaged throughout the year from 12,500 to 14,000. In the fiscal year ending last July, it had leaped to 19,518, and on November 30, this year, there were 29,419 inmates, with 4,489 on leave, a total of 28,908.

The bureau has 22,220 beds. For this reason, said Colonel Wadsworth, the men are less anxious to obtain leave—they fear their bed will be gone.

Until 1925, he said, the majority within the homes were Civil War veterans. The next year, the Spanish-American war veterans and the Civil War class were equal. In 1927, the World War veterans jumped in to the lead—averaging in age around 38.

TO START AIR SERVICE CHICAGO, Dec. 10 (AP)—Air passenger service between Chicago and Kansas City will be started by National Air Transport January 2, and within a few weeks will be extended to Tulsa, Fort Worth and Dallas. N. A. T. began operating mail and express planes over the Chicago-Dallas route May 12, 1928, and its ships have flown more than 9,000,000 miles over the Southwestern and Chicago-New York lines.

TO SUSPEND BUSINESS CALRO, Egypt, Dec. 10 (AP)—The government cotton commission today announced it would suspend all jobbers business at Alexandria for 15 days beginning tomorrow. On the Alexandria cotton market yesterday's closing prices were the lowest on record. The decision to close the futures market temporarily was said to have resulted from a belief that a fall of prices was due to bear operations.

More than 80 Bombay cotton mills are planning a gigantic merger to secure a loan of $60,000,000.

Art Works Shown At Tech College

Works of students competing in the Paris prize competitions are on display in the auditorium of the engineering building at Texas Technological college and Professor F. A. Klein Schmidt, head of the architectural department in the college states that all town people are invited to view the art works.

Each year the Beaux-Arts Institute of New York sponsors a contest in which the winner is awarded a three year scholarship in the Beaux-Arts school in Paris. The school is one of the most noted in the world and recognizes the value of the Paris prize competition contests in that all students winning scholarships to the school are admitted without the usual examination.

From the group submitted, judges in the contest choose 15 of the best works and from the 15 select the best five works. The winner chosen from the last five in awarded the scholarship in the school. The best five works in the 1930 contest are on display at the college.

Olton Is Waging Fight For Rails

A delegation from Olton, county seat of Lamb county, has attended the interstate commerce commission railway hearing each day this week and is waging a determined fight to have the proposed Texas and Pacific Northern rail line routed via Olton.

Tom Garrard, attorney of Lubbock, was employed to represent Olton at the hearing. Personnel of the delegation, which expects to remain here through the hearing, changes from day to day.

Mayor C. E. Bicy and H. P. Webb, superintendent of schools, have attended all sessions, however. Others here Wednesday from Olton were J. F. Wiles, postmaster, and Harland Phillips, farmer.

R. E. Dennis, Horace Walker, Fred Schreier, L. S. Kennedy and J. W. Richardson have been included in the Olton representation at the hearing.

COMMUNIST SLAIN HAMBURG, Germany, Dec. 10 (AP)—A communist was killed when rioting broke out on the waterfront here this afternoon. Another rioter was wounded. The mob began throwing stones at the police whereupon the latter fired.

Lubbock Praised By Marshall Man

"Lubbock is a splendid city," said Frank Davis, mill and elevator owner of Marshall, who is attending the interstate commerce commission railway hearing as one of the largest shippers of grain in that section of the state.

"I like your town and your way of doing things," continued Mr. Davis.

"You have a great grain producing area around Lubbock. I did not realize how great it was. I am going to see more of this section and I'm coming out here for more business."

Mr. Davis is said to be one of the largest, if not the largest, single grain shippers on the Texas and Pacific. He is associated with the Shreveport Grain Exchange and the Marshall Mill and Elevator company as well as handling his own business of buying grain.

Besides his business connections, Mr. Davis is a member of the Rotary club and was chosen last summer as the district governor of District 48 of International Rotary.
