FATAL SHOOTING

Parties Involved Once Resided in Dublin and are Well Known.

Bonds Have Been Made.

A shooting occurred at Carney, a small town in Haskell county, last Friday night in which Robert Walker of the firm of Walker & McCullough, was fatally wounded in the back and for which W. Lester Powers and Jake McKinney, both well known in Dublin, were arrested, a short time after. Immediately after the shooting the wounded man was taken to a small town about four miles distant for medical attention, but he died before the place was reached. Powers and McKinney were held for bond of $5,000 each in connection with the shooting and the early part of this week Mayor Spencer of Dublin, who has lumber interests at Carney and happened to be out there at the time, and H. S. Abbott of Cisco, brother-in-law to Mr. Powers, made the bond for Powers and he was released from custody. We undertsand that since then McKinney has also made bond and will probably return to Dublin Sunday.

The particulars of the shooting, as far as we are able to learn is that Powers, who is publishing a newspaper there and who was being assisted in his work by McKinney, both went to a nearby restaurant for lunch about dark Thursday evening, accompanied by the wife of Mr. Powers. While in the restaurant a number, of men entered who were drinking and with them was Walker. The men used some unbecoming language and Powers naturally took offense and a quarrel ensued. Later the men, some six in number, went to where Powers was rooming and called he and McKinney out on the pretext of making friends, but soon opened fire upon them with pistols. Powers and McKinney returned the fire and a general fusilade ensued. The attacking party all ran but Walker and it is stated that some of his companions must have fired the shot which struck him in the back and caused his death. Something more than a hundred shots is said to have been fired.

It is claimed that Walker tried all along to pacify the party with him and prevent trouble, though when the shooting began he took part in it with the above stated results.

Baby Took Blue Ribbon at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brame and little son, Arden Howe of Sherman, came in last evening to visit the family of Dug Warren, not having learned of their removal to Bluff Dale last Thursday, but on learning of Mr. Warren's whereabouts, left this morning for that place to spend some two weeks visiting Mrs. Warren, who is a sister of Mrs. Brame.

Master Arden Howe is one of the most remarkable little fellows in the United States, having taken the blue ribbon at the baby show at the Lewis and Clarke exposition at Portland. He was born in the sanitarium at Sherman seven months ago, weighs twenty-seven pounds, and since last April has traveled over fourteen states, two territories and a large portion of Mexico, and has never been sick a day, having escaped all the contagious diseases a baby usually comes in contact with when traveling. He is an unusually pretty child and very bright, having the appearance of a twelve month-old child.—Hillsboro Mirror.

Bureau Report Advances Cotton.

A total of 4,490,788 bales of cotton ginned in the United States up to Oct. 18th., is the statement announced in a bulletin issued by the census bureau at Washington at 2 p. m. Wednesday. In this calculation round bales are counted as half bales and the figures given in the bulletin are based on reports made by the bureau's special agents in the field. The ginners' product for the present year to date is as follows: Alabama, 641,133 bales; Arkansas, 117,511; Florida, 38,007; Georgia, 1,058,167; Indian Territory, 79,222; Kentucky, 177; Louisiana, 141,780; Mississippi, 311,472; Missouri, 8,575; North Carolina, 325,298; Oklahoma 95,288; South Carolina, 639,974; Tennesse, 62,625; Texas, 1,417,456; Virgina, 74,051.

No estimate is made of the total crop for the year, but figures are given out concerning crops of former years.

These figures show that up to this date in 1904 the producing gins had reported a total of 6,417,894 bales out of a total of 13,693,279 bales for the year. In 1903 the total production was 10,045,615 bales and the ginning output up to Oct. 25th was 3,706,248; in 1902 the total was 10,827,168 and the output to Oct. 25th was 5,683,006. Wednesday's report covered 26,364 ginneries and the statements upon which it was prepared were supplied by telegraph by 702 special agents in the field, most of them representing one county each.

The fact that the bulletin was issued from one to two hours after the usual time caused some complaint from different brokers in different cities and some of these reached the bureau befcre the document was given to the public and were of a sensational character.

Cotton was gradually going down Wednesday when the government report was received and was somewhat below ten cents. The market immediately rose nearly half a cent a pound when the report was received and placed the price again above ten cents. A large quantity of cotton was on the streets holding for the report and many bales were sold on the advance.

The rice market is said to be quite active. At Beaumont ten thousand sacks sold on competitive bidding at from $2.60 to $3.50 a sack.

Transfer Will Occur Wednesday

Mr. Stitchler, secretary and general manager for the Dallas Securities Co., who recently purchased the water and light plant in Dublin, was here this week looking over the property and arranging for the transfer on next Wednesday. The new water company will be capitalized at $50,000 in order to provide for a large amount of improvements and additions to the plant and in view of this enlargment of the capital stock. Mr. St. Clair will retain shares in the company to the extent of ten thousand dollars.

DIFFERENTIAL OR NO DIFFERENTIAL.

Every farmer in Texas has heard of the arbitrary differential of six cents per one hundred pounds on cotton, averaging thirty cents a bale, which the railroad commission makes higher to Galveston than to Houston. But the question is, does the farmer realize how this special rate to Galveston injures him?

It is positively not a fight between Houston and Galveston. We look at this matter from a broad standpoint of the entire state. The United States government has spent over $12,000,000 in making a first class harbor to Galveston to benefit the commerce of Texas. Texas farmers and shippers should be allowed to reach the ocean ships at Galveston with their products without being held up at Houston and assessed extra charges. We do not care whether it improves one or injures the other of these cities. Lose sight of both of them, and consider the matter as concerns the cotton crop. So long as they have thirty feet of water at Galveston and a place for ocean vessels, Texas cotton will move to that port. The farmers should not be required to pay an arbitrary higher rate to Galveston and thereby lose immense sums every year just to build up Houston and keep local conditions alive there.

The railroad commission takes hard earned money from the farmers when they make this differential to Galveston. Last year it cost the farmers $700,000 or $800,000 giving the railroads and Houston that much more. This came out of the price of cotton to the farmer. It is not right.

The commission makes a rate of forty-eight cents for distances over 160 miles in the state, except to Galveston, where about eighty-five per cent of Texas cotton goes. They say the maximum rate must stop at Houston and a higher rate added to Galveston.

They make a rate of forty-nine cents per one hundred pounds for four hundred miles to Houston, while it is fifty-five cents for two hundred miles to Galveston. Is there anything fair about that?

The farmers of Texas certainly want no arbitrary differential to Galveston. The present railroad commission should remove it or the people should elect another commission that will do so.—Mexia Evening News.

JUST SUPPOSE

Abilene Journal.

Taking it for granted that by this time every reader of The Journal thoroughly understands that the price of cotton is simply the southern farmer's wages, just the same as one dollar a day or two dollars or three dollars a day, is the price of the city wage earner's labor, let us look at the situation as it would be if the wage earners were disposing of their labor in the same way as the farmers are disposing of their cotton.

Let us suppose that the carpenters, the bricklayers, the shop and factory operatives—in short, all wage labor—should insist on putting twelve month's labor on the market in three or four months' time. Just imagine such a thing! And yet it is exactly what the farmers have always been doing.

In such a case we would see the labor market during these three or four months actually broke down under the weight of the "offering" every laboring man seeking to sell his labor in competition with his fellow laborer, and the buyers of labor absolute masters of the situation.

Then during the long interval of eight or nine months the wage earner would live on credit, by the grace of other classes who live by extending "accommodations," each individual wage earner promising to "pay when the labor market opens up." The creditors could name their own prices, and the empty handed working men would have to buy at the creditors' prices. And when the time came—the three or four months—in which to market their labor, there would be, for the time being, an enormous surplus of labor which the buyers of labor would get at their own prices. So the wage earners would get skinned when they went to buy, and skinned when they went to sell—skinned going and coming—just like the farmers.

But city wage labor has seen the utter folly of doing that way, and has quit it. The wage earners have quit competing against one another in the labor market, and have gone to co-operating with one another in the matter of prices, and they flatly refuse to earn anything for you unless you come to their prices.

And that—simply that—is what the farmers must do.

MINEOLA COURIERS.

Keep fresh water always in a convenient shady place for your chickens.

Push the hogs, give them plenty to eat and the reward will come in lots of pork at a high price this winter.

Millions of dollars will be saved by taking care of the plows and other farm implements.

The mortgaged man and the free man are two separate and distinct persons. Quit giving mortgages and be free.

The truck business got knocked out badly this year but we must never give up. Let's come again greater and stronger.

FARMERS JOURNALS.

Address all of the state officers of the Farmers Union at Dallas, Texas, 250 Elm street.

The agent who collects the government gin reports in Lamar county has found several ginners this fall, who positively refuse to give him any information.

In cotton operations the man who holds the futures is at the mercy of the man who holds the fiber. but the man who holds the fiber doesn't seem to know it.

Lavaca county commissioners, having failed to get the banks of their county to bid for the county deposits, are about to make a deal with a bank in an adjoining county at 3½ per cent.

Reports from a great many sources show that since the Waco state meeting the Farmers Union is taking on new life and strength, and lining up for work as never before.

The cotton mill at Bonham is doing business, turning out sixteen thousand yards of cloth per day, and behind with orders. The mill is now working on a order for two hundred and forty thousand yards of cloth for a Chinese merchant, and the shipment will be made direct from Bonham to Shanghai.

When some of the newspapers of the south get through telling the farmers how to raise less cotton, they fill out the rest of their space telling the farmers how to raise more cotton. And some men take the advice first given and raise less cotton and proceed to stow it away for a profitable price, while other men take the second brand of advice, raise more cotton, shove it on to the market, run the prices down and make it "mighty awful hard" for the men who take the advice first given. But in any event the aforesaid newspapers work off their surplus advice, get paid for it and are happy.

The Whitney Messenger issued an edition of twenty pages last week and came out on time. The issue was made possible by two double page, two full page, four half page and five quarter page advertisements of the enterprising merchants of that enterprising little city, to say nothing of a large number of ads smaller than a quarter page. The feat of getting such an issue out in a weekly office on time is only possible when advertisers bring in their copy early.

The Better Way

The tissues of the throat are inflamed and irritated; you cough, and there is more irritation—more coughing. You take a cough mixture and it eases the irritation—for a while. You take and it cures the cold. That's what is necessary. It soothes the throat because it reduces the irritation; cures the cold because it drives out the inflammation; builds up the weakened tissues because it nourishes them back to their natural strength. SIMPSON IS DEAD

Celebrated Figure in Kansas Politics Expires at Wichita After Brave Struggle for Life.

A dispatch from Wichita, Kansas, under date of Oct. 23rd says:

Jerry Simpson is dead. His long battle against what he knew to be a fatal illness ended in a hospital here at 6:05 o clock this morning. Death was due to aneurism of the heart. For the past several days physicians said there was no hope.

The death of Simpson, once famed as "Sockless Jerry," removed a man who was once one of the most picturesque figures in the United States congress.

Of late years he has not been active in politics, living on a ranch near Roswell, N. M. His last years have been devoted to cattle raising. He was brought to Wichita several weeks ago in a hope that his life might be prolonged by treatment at a hospital here. Previous to that he had partly recovered from a critical illness at Roswell.

Throughout his entire sickness he maintained a cherry disposition and even joked of the battle he was waging against death.

Simpson, dubbed familiarly "The Sockless," back in the '80s and early '90s as a populist, was telling the people corporations were getting too big, were corrupting the republic, were sapping its life blood, and should be curbed. Simpson, two decades ago, with all his power, urged government ownership or control of railways, suggested federal supervision of life insurance companies, shot his biting shafts into packers' combinations and harvester monopolies. Simpson, in days when senators were considered above reproach, spoke pointedly of senatorial graft. Simpson, before Bryan was known outside his county, was talking of the "crime of '73," and advocating the issue which drew six million votes for the Nebraskan in a presidential contest.

Carrie Nation got her start in the town Simpson made famous, Medicine Lodge. He reached there in 1878 and became a stock raiser in Barber county, and helped convert the virgin prairie into what is now one of the richest wheat sections in the country. Thrice defeated for congress he tried again and the populist cyclone swept him into office over Colonel Jim Hallowell of Wichita, one of the most popular republicans in Kansas. Simpson was reelected, despite the opposition of Chester I. Long, and finally was defeated by the latter, who now is United States senator. Simpson dropped out of public life and went to the Pecos valley some years ago, settling near Roswell, N. M. Born in New Brunswick in 1842, Simpson was taken by his parents to Oneida county, New York, and at fourteen became a sailor on the great lakes. For twenty-three years he was a sailor. He was commander of the barge J. H. Rutter of Toledo when on Oct. 31st, 1878, it anchored off Ludington, leaking badly and foundered. The crew and cargo were saved, but Simpson quit marine life then and there.

An original abolitionist, Simpson cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln. He was a republican until 1873, and then became a greenbacker, and in due course of evolution a farmers' alliance and a people's party man.

Despite the hardships of his youth he acquired considerable education, and his native wit did the rest. When Simpson was first elected to congress his clothes and rustic appearance, backed up a Wichita "pipe story" that he did not wear socks. In Washington he became a bicycle fiend and donned the white vest, Prince Albert coats, patent leather shoes and stovepipe hats of his colleagues. His change in attire helped materially in his political downfall. Seventh district farmers thought Jerry was putting on too much style and voted for Chester Long, always a sartorial dreamer, as a rebuke.

Simpson was always one of "the plain peepul." His heart always went out to the poor man. He was always sincere. He never forgot a friend and never failed to forgive an enemy.

FENNESSY AT AUSTIN.

All Efforts Are to Be Applied to County Printing.

Austin, Oct. 25.—T. D. Fennessy of Los Angeles, national organizer of the International Typographical union, and William L. Hoefgen of the San Antonio Typographical union, were here for the purpose of looking into the awarding of a contract for county printing in Terrell county to one of the highest bidders.

There is a strong intimation that they are here for the purpose of consulting with the attorney general with a view of looking into the legal aspect of such a condition of regulating bids, and the disposal of county business to large concerns at the sacrifice of the independent plant.

Organizer Fennessy says that while the printers of Texas are anxious to organize a co-operative printing company, that they want it understood that they have no desire to enter the field of state printing, and will apply all their efforts to county printing, in the event that they finally desire to organize a plant of their own, which at present is not definitely decided upon.

TUCKER DIES.

Chaplain of Lower House of Texas Legislature Is No More.

Gilmer, Tex., Oct. 25.—Rev. L. L. chaplain of the lower house of the Texas legislature for the last two terms, died at his home, six miles east of Gilmer, of jaundice. He was a Baptist minister, and was generally known as Blind Tucker, having lost his eyesight several years ago. He leaves a widow and several children.

SUIT FOR TITLE.

Beaumont Man Claims He Filed Application For Patent.

Beaumont, Oct. 25.—P. H. Votaw of this city filed suit in Hardin county for title to the entire proven Dayton oil field. He also asks an injunction enjoining further operations by companies developing the field. The hearing has been set for Nov. 13. He claims the land was the property of the state, for which he has filed an application for a patent.

JUMPED TRACK.

Locomotive Turns Over on Side and Engineer Is Injured.

Beaumont, Oct. 25.—As a Southern Pacific freight train on the Dallas branch was entering the yards the engine jumped the track and turned over on its side. The engineer, William B .Rabb, sustained a fractured hip and Fireman York escaped unhurt. The damage will not exceed $5000.

BULLET ENTERS MOUTH.

Ranges Upward, Pierces Brain and Little Boy Is Dead.

Sherman, Oct. 25.—At Tioga, Grayson county, a number of little boys were playing in a barn when by the accidental discharge of a 22-caliber target rifle, Arthur, the five-year-old son of G. W. Smiley, was instantly killed. The bullet entered the little fellow's mouth and ranging upward pierced the brain.

LATIMER EXPIRES.

President of Ennis National Bank and a Confederate Soldier.

Ennis, Tex., Oct. 25.—Captain Mark Latimer, president of the Ennis National bank, died Tuesday, aged sixty-eight years. His death is believed to be primarily due to a bullet wound through his body received in the battle at Chickamauga in 1864. Captain Latimer was the pioneer in banking in Ennis.

Good Woman Passes Away.

Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 25.—Sister Merchtilde of the Blessed Sacrament, mother assistant at the convent here, died Tuesday after a lingering illness. She had lived here many years and was much admired for her splendid Christian character.

STORE AT HOUSTON.

Cotton Growers of Greer County, Oklahoma, Will Do This.

Guthrie, Oct. 25.—Through the efforts of the Oklahoma-Indian Territory Farmers' union, which now has 1600 suborganizations, the cotton planters of Greer county—the biggest growers of cotton in Oklahoma—have authorized the entire crop to be stored at Houston, Tex. They will hold it for 11 cents. Comanche county union will do likewise.

LONG HONEYMOON TRIP.

Came All the Way From the Klondike After Bride.

Guthrie, Oct. 25.—Lman Savage, a former Beaver county cattleman, was married Tuesday at Liberal, Kan., to Miss Josephine Hitch, a Beaver county girl, for whom he returned the entire distance from the Klondike, where he is in business. The honeymoon will include several weeks' sojourn at Tacoma and Seattle, awaiting the freezing of the trail, so they may make their homeward trip by dog sledge to Fairbanks, where he lives.

BROKE HIS NECK.

Injured Man Lived About Two Hours After the Accident.

Lake Charles, La., Oct. 25.—David Robedeaux, a laborer, was fatally injured while working on a Southern Pacific grading gang near Echo, La. He was working on the spreader when the cable broke. The loose end struck him on the left side of the neck, broke it, severed the jugular vein and knocked the man about fifteen feet in the air. Robedeaux lived about two hours.

FOUR ITALIANS INJURED.

Patrick McGrath Managed to "Liven Up Things a Bit."

Chicago, Oct. 25.—The efforts of Patrick McGrath, a farmer of Chesterton, Ind., to "liven things up a bit," proved a success in that town Tuesday. He is now in jail, and four Italians, who were injured as the result of his efforts, are in the hospital. McGrath noticed an engine standing on the tracks of the Lake Shore road and announced that he would bet anybody 25 cents that he would awaken up the town inside of ten minutes. The wager was taken, and McGrath, finding that the train crew was absent, climbed aboard the engine. He investigated the machinery for a few minute and finally pulled out the throttle to the last notch. The engine darted down the track and tore into a train of freight cars in which a number of Italians were eating their dinners. Four of the cars and the engine were smashed and four of the Italians seriously, but not fatally hurt. McGrath escaped with but a few injuries.

TAKEN DOWN BARS.

About Half of the Louisiana Parishes Have Pursued This Course.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—Fully one-half of the parishes in Louisiana have taken down the quarantine bars. There is great rejoicing along the Mississippi coast and families, the members of whom have been separated for months, are holding reunions.

Reports from country districts of Louisiana show the fever prevails now at very few points. In this city there are less than sixty cases under treatment.

Up to noon Wednesday there were two yellow fever cases and one death.

KIDNAPS HER CHILD.

Mother Outwits Little One's Grandmother and Leaves Louisiana.

Shreveport, Oct. 25.—Regardless of a legal contract making her mother-in-law the guardian of her child since infancy, Willie Wyatt drove to the home of her husband's mother and securing the child drove rapidly away with it, successfully resisting any attempts to retake the child. Mother and child boarded a train and were out of the state by the time the affair had been reported to the police.

STARVED HIMSELF.

For Three Days Before Dying Barnes Refused Food and Drink.

Butte, Mont., Oct. 25.—James F. Barnes, awaiting trial for murder of Patrick Hanley in this city Sept. 3, died in the county jail Tuesday night apparently from self-imposed starvation. Barnes for the previous three days refused to touch a morsel of food or drink, bemoaninig his fate and expressing terror lest a mob should again make an attempt to lynch him

J. H. Briley of Selden, now fifty-ix years old, says he can pick more otton than any man in the county f his age. When he was fifty-two ears old he gathered 416 pounds in day. He now has a boy twelve ears old who picks two hundred ounds a day without any special ffort.

W. J. Rivers of the Corinth comunity ginned on the 16th inst. fifeen hundred pounds of seed cotton rown from strictly pure Harvill seed hat made 651 pounds of lint cotton. This brought upwards of $58. He old the seed at once at $1.50 per ushel, carrying home over $75 from he proceeds of 1,504 pounds of seed otton.

At the teacher's institute recently eld in this city Prof. Tummins of Bunyan was made president, E. D. Jennings of Huckabay vice president; Miss Pearl Ponder secretary, W. O. Wright treasurer. The central institute is to meet the fourth Friday night and Saturday following each month. Program committee: Profs. Hartgraves, Sandefer and Jennings.

Monday Deputy Sheriff Cox arrested two men in the Duffau country whom, it is alleged, visited a cotton field and carried off on horseback about six hundred pounds of seed cotton. The product of the raid was dumped into a wagon on the farm of the parties charged with the crime. The officers tracked the thieves from the field to where the cotton was dumped and Will and George Rucker were arrested, charged with the crime. Both made bond in the sum of $250 each.

Oct. 13th.—Walton Hyatt has been elected cashier of the Tolar National bank.

Marion Moore's bees this year will net him about four hundred pounds of splendid honey.

Lee Young went to Comanche this week to hold court in some cases in which Judge Lindsey was disqualified.

Jasper Lee is still suffering from his wounded foot, which is yet considerably swollen. He stepped on a rusty nail.

J. B. Jenkins has closed a deal whereby he sells his interest in the Stephenville Plow and Buggy Factory to O. H. Barker, formerly of Fort Worth.

J. H. Hooks sold his farm three miles from Lingleville to P. A. Hughey of Lamar county. There were sixty-seven acres in the place, and the consideration was $1,900.

W. W. Head and O. G. Head shipped two cars of mixed cattle and A. W. Houk of Alexander shipped one car of mixed cattle from the Frisco depot at Stephenville to the packing house at Fort Worth Wednesday night. O. G. Head and A. W. Houk accompanied the cattle.

Judge Lee Young moved his residence this week to the upper portion of his lot. A traction engine was used to pull the large structure. The parties who did the work were well prepared for it, having all kinds of necessary tools. On the old site Judge Young will erect a beautiful new structure to cost about $9,000.

W. M. Carter, who lives down the Bosque a few miles from the city, discovered a thief at his sorghum barrels the other night and fired two loads of bird shot at him. Mr. Carter requests the man's friends to return the shot to him when they get them picked out as he may again have use for them.

Jim Crane, the city marshal, arrested a young man from the country Saturday for being drunk. The boy resisted arrest and he had to be thrown down until help arrived. With the assistance of Mr. Cunningham he was locked up in the city calaboose, and a day later he handed over to the offended goddess of justice $13.70.

Henry Lang plead guilty this week before County Judge Thompson to writing a letter to a young lady, and the fine and costs were recorded against him. There was no special harm in writing to the young woman, but the language used was not as chaste as it should have been, hence this is what made this one little missive so costly.

At Fort Worth last week Bill Thompson, Steve and Henry Robertson appeared before the federal court and were admitted to bail as follows: Bill Thompson $500, Steve Robertson $500, Henry Robertson $300. They are bound over to the federal grand jury and if that body returns bills of indictment then the cases will be tried in the federal court. These young men mutilated rural mail boxes a few weeks ago in the Selden country in their night raid through that country, during which time numerous petty crimes it is alleged were committed, much to the annoyance and vexation of the good people of that section.

Fun loving boys visited the homes of Dave Bost and F. M. Reaves last week and erected dummy men in their yards, hallowed "hello" until the families were aroused and then skipped. Dave opened his door and tried to carry on a conversation with his man, and, as it wouldn't work, he told him to go to Alaska, and went back to bed. The dummy was still there the next morning. It is said Mr. Reaves went out to shake hands with his man. A peculiar flutter of the dummy's clothes perhaps made Mr. Reaves think him an unearthly visitor, and the neighbors say he rushed back, got his gun and shot the stranger, and then set the dogs on him. As this failed to make the supposed man talk or move on Mr. Reaves barred himself in and waited for morning. He found his dummy friend had for a backbone a fair sized rail, with cross-sticks for arms.

There are two classes of individuals on earth—pessimists and optimists, says an exchange. These classes are illustrated in the story of the old well sweep to which were attached two buckets. They had been going up and down the well all day long, and on the last trip the bucket going down said to the one going up: "What a dreary life this is; I am glad it is night; no matter how full I go up I always come down empty." The outcry voice of the up going bucket said: "What a glorious life this is! I am sorry the night has come, for no matter how empty I go down, I always come up full." There is something radically wrong with the person who is forever looking on the dark side. There are beauties everywhere. Life is full of glories if we only open our eyes to behold them.

WORK A PLEASURE

"Postum Food Coffee has done more for me in two years," writes a Wisconsin young lady student, "than all the medicines and treatments I had employed to overcome the effects of the coffee poisoning that was killing me by degrees.

"I had all the familiar symptoms and suffered all the well-known tortures. My stomach was wrecked and I could not eat, my head ached almost continually, I became the nervous victim of insomnia, and the capacity for study deserted me. Of course this came on gradually, and without suspicion for a long time, as to the cause.

"Two years ago a friend enthusiastically urged me to quit using the old kind of coffee and to drink Postum Food Coffee. I have never regretted acting upon the advice. As soon as the coffee poison was eliminated, the strengthening and nourishing properties of Postum began to build me up.

"Each day I gained a little, the color crept back to my cheeks, my limbs rounded out with flesh, my complexion grew fair and clear again, my digestion improved, and now I can eat anything at any time, the nervous insomnia has left me and I sleep soundly at night and wake up refreshed. I have no more headaches and mental work has become a pleasure to me."

From The Empire

Oct. 20th.—The reports of the two cotton yards show that a little over four thousand bales of cotton have been received in Stephenville to date. It is coming in pretty rapidly now and the crop will be out early.

Roy Hatchett, who has been for several months in Panama, is in very poor health and will return to Texas. We understand that he will go to Austin for medical treatment. His brother-in-law, J. W. Winters, left last night for New York to meet him.

W. C. Johnson, who lives west of town, states that the hail last Monday night beat out about a bale and a half of his cotton, but he has been gathering it up as best he could. In some places near him the the crops were entirely destroyed.

The first mail on Stephenville rural free delivery route number six went out Monday morning. The route traverses the communities of Jennings, Corinth, Harmony, Shelby and Pigeon. S. B. Smith is serving as carrier temporarily. Leonard Roberts was appointed to the place but resigned.

The Duffau High School opened Oct. 16th with sixty-one students. The trustees and a large number of the patrons were present to show their interest in the school work. Several of these responded with encouraging talks to teachers and students. The faculty of the Duffau school this year is composed of Prof. Dewitt Bramlett, Miss Lena McClure and Miss Blanche Williams.

Jim Mayberry and Elbie Williamson, two colored county convicts who are working out fines on the county poor farm, escaped from that place on last Tuesday. Williamson was apprehended at the home of one of his colored friends and returned to the farm. Mayberry is still at large.

Oct. 13th.—John Gage was successfully operated upon Tuesday for appendicitis.

H. Johnson had an examining trial Monday on charge of embezzlement and was discharged.

Oct. 20th.—Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Evans of Dublin were here last Friday visiting Miss Ellen Moore.

Mrs. J. D. Waring and Mrs. D. B. Hill left Monday for Mineral Wells to be absent several weeks.

J. F. Young informs us that he has sold a 320 acre farm in Donley county which cost him $3,200 last fall, to a Corsicana man for $5,500.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Fletcher Wood and Miss Lena Hopper, C. M. Carraway and Miss C. A. Floyd, John Bell and Miss Iona Scoggins.

B. L. Herrington and family of Edna, Erath county, have moved to Comanche. Mr. Herrington has bought the City Wagon Yard from J. A. Egbert and will operate same. He is a very pleasant gentleman and we are glad that he has moved to Comanche.

T. J. Hanson of near Proctor was in town Monday with six small hogs, which he sold for $60. He says there is more clear money in a load of hogs than in a load of cotton. He is one of the most industrious and level headed farmers in the county—as his broad acres on the Leon abundantly prove.

Tragedy in Hood County

From Granbury Democrat, Oct. 14th.

Saturday, word was received here that Bradford Mitchell had shot and killed Pete Williams, his brother-in in-law, near the home of Harrison Baker, while they were returning home from Tolar. Sheriff Sandlin and Deputy Sheriff Swofford at once started for the scene of the tragedy, but Mitchell had started to Granbury to surrender and they failed to find him, he having come over a different road. Mitchell reached town and not finding the officers, is said to have remarked: "They need not try to get away, for I will find them anyway," and then he went to Constable Britt at the jail and gave up and was incarcerated.

As near as we can get particulars, they are substantially as follows: Bradford Mitchell, Pete Williams and Telford Belt went to Tolar Saturday morning, where they procured a gallon of "Storm King" whiskey at the express office and it seems the whole crowd was drinking on their way home. Mitchell was riding horseback, the other three in a buggy, Pete Williams occupying the center of the seat. Mitchell and Williams were fussing along the way, and when they reached the fork of the road near Harrison Baker's residence, Mitchell opened fire on Williams, shooting him through the body three times, which resulted in death in a short time. It is said that Mitchell and his brother-in-law, Pete Williams had bought a mule together but had not taken it home, and could not agree as to who should work the animal first, and out of this the trouble grew. This rumor, however, is not confirmed. Many think there were other causes for the awful tragedy that has not been developed. The grand jury has had the case under investigation this week.

PROCTOR.

From Comanche Exponent.

Oct. 12th.—The recent rains interferred very much with gathering the cotton, but the gins are again running as before.

Dr. G. W. Johnson has sold his residence to Dr. Callan, formerly of Hasse but late of Terrell. He sold his drug store to a Mr. Frizzel and will move to Ballinger, where he will engage in the drug business and practice his profession.

Mr. Harper and Hogan Stevenson left Monday for the rice fields. They left with three wagons and a buggy and twelve head of good mules and horses.

The ladies of the Baptist church had an ice cream supper at the tabernacle last night. Our blind friend, Tom Ewing, furnished entertainment with his phonograph.

A. M. Bettis contemplates putting in a gasoline engine to facilitate his shop work and run a small electric light plant of sufficient capacity to furnish our little city with light.

Bob Lee is here collecting taxes, but he don't seem to be very hard pressed with business.

M. R. Carnes has sold his place that he bought from W. C. Moreland three miles northeast of town, for $5,000 to a man from Georgia by the name of Stewart, who will occupy it December 1st. Mr. Carnes and his brother-in-law from Gainesville have bought out Dr. Johnson's drug store at Proctor and are to take possession the first of November. Dr. Johnson is going to move to Ballinger. Mr. Carnes is a successful trader in land.

"Uncle" Cape Switzer, one of our most esteemed citizens, infirm from old age, was driving leisurely along the street just past the northwest corner of the square, Tuesday afternoon, when a man ran into him with a wagon, overturning his buggy and throwing him heavily to the ground. The driver of the wagon did not stop to inquire whether the venerable man was dead or seriously hurt, but drove off. "Uncle" Cape's shoulder was bruised pretty badly, otherwise he escaped serious injury. It is not known who the driver of the wagon was.

THE SECRET OL YOUTH

De Soto looked for the secret of youth in a spring of gushing, lifegiving waters, which he was sure he would find in the New World. Alchemists and sages (thousands of them,) have spent their lives in quest of it, but it is only found by those happy people who can digest and assimilate the right food which keeps the physical body perfect, that peace and comfort are the sure results.

A remarkable man of ninety-four says: "For many long years I suffered more or less with chronic costiveness and painful indigestion. This condition made life a great burden to me as you may well imagine.

"Two years ago I began to use Grape-Nuts as food, and am thankful that I did. It has been a blessing to me in every way. I first noticed that it had restored my digestion. This was a great gain but was nothing to compare in importance with the fact that in a short time my bowels were restored to free and normal action.

"The cure seemed to be complete; for two years I have had none of the old trouble. I use the Grape-Nuts food every morning for breakfast and frequently eat nothing else. The use has made me comfortable and happy, although I will be ninety-four years old next fall, I have become strong and supple again, erect in figure and can walk with anybody and enjoy it."

From the Round-Up.

Oct. 20th.—Mr. Ashton of Dublin is now operator at the Texas Central depot.

The city council met Friday night and unanimously elected Frank Meadows as city marshal.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Mulloy and children of Dublin are visiting Mrs. Mulloy's mother, Mrs. J. J. Holcomb.

The heaviest hail for many years visited Cisco Monday and was accompanied by almost a waterspout, which overflowed the gutters and flooded some of the stores. The hail did considerable damage in the north half of Eastland county.

How to Cure Corns and Bunions.

First, soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it; then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequaled. For sale by Overton Drug Co.

Romans and Railroads.

The ancient Romans made the standard guage of our present railways. The width of the wheel base of the most up-to-date dining car is what it is because it was originally that of the chariots which rolled along the Roman roads in Britian. A recent speaker upon the subject in Newcastle has put the matter beyond theory. He said that many years ago he had known an old gentleman who, in his youth, had been associated with Stephenson. This old gentleman had told him that he had asked the great engineer why he had adopted the still existing guage and Stephenson had explained that he found it was the width between the ruts in the roads along the Roman wall, and that he thought that if a world power like Rome had found that guage the most effective, he could not do better than to adopt it also.—Pearson's Weekly.

When you meet a woman driving a buggy, take to the brush, if possible. While the law says each should turn to the right, neither you, she or the good Lord himself has the remotest idea which way she will turn until the vehicles have either passed or locked up against each other. As a rule, when she draws near she will give the horse a cut across the back with the whip or lines, saw his head from side to side like a fiddle bow, and if she don't hit your wheel she will dash by in a flash and then slow up into a slow walk. If any woman will prove these are not facts (using reliable men witnesses,) I will apologize and present her with a year's subscription to the Harpoon. Mr. Sheriff call the first witness.—K. It takes some people a long time to get acquainted. Then the surprising thing is as soon as they know each other well they are ready to scrap at the drop of the hat.

"If marriage is a lottery, why don't they arrest the preacher?" asks a paper. And the county clerks who sell the tickets for the drawing brother. Jail the whole guilty caboodle!

The casual advertiser is like the hare that sleeps by the wayside while the tortoise keeps steadily at it to the post. Constant advertising, like dropping water, makes is own mark.

The son of one of the life insurance presidents claims that he worked twelve years for $1,050,267. Poor boy he must have started from the bottom of the ladder of finance and been shot up.

A Massachusetts paper says that the newspaper is the Bible of many an American home. If this be true the mothers should be careful to select the right papers. Some of the red and blue score sheets are a long way from being Biblical tracts.

As a matter of fact a "cold" is not a cold, nor is it caused by cold. When the so called cold begins to develop it is a fever in its incipient stage. Like consumption, it is a house disease. It can neither attack or exist unless there is a lack of fresh air in the lungs, and the skin is abnormal.

The rumor current last week that the Texas Central would soon extend from Stamford to a point seventy-five miles west, probably to make a terminus in Garza county, has been confirmed by Col. Hamilton, who has just returned from a two months' absence from the state. Col. Hamilton, vice-president and general manager, says an engineering corps has already been placed in the field to survey the route, which will ultimately extend into New Mexico.—Cisco Round-Up.

An Honest Boy.

The other day a ragged and hungry urchin, aged some fifteen or sixteen years, was sitting on the Antlers lawn at Colorado Springs, wondering how he could satisfy his awful appetite of two days standing. A lady passed by, stopped a few moments, searching in the grass for something she had dropped. After she had passed on the lad, thinking that a small coin might have dropped from the lady's pocketbook, went to the spot and was thunderstruck to find, not a silver coin, but a collection of diamond rings of great value.

Hunger was gnawing at the young man's vitals; the rags on his back were playing with the mountain breezes, and the tempter, the devil, kept whispering something in the tramp's ear, but taking no heed, he sat there for two hours waiting for the lady to return so he might have the pleasure and satisfaction of returning to her his valuable find.

He was finally rewarded. A lady in silks and satins, apparently in distress, came to the spot and renewed the search. The boy went to her, and removing his hat, extended his hand with the treasure. The lady was completely overcome with delight, and producing a bill from her well filled purse offered to reward him. This the young man indignantly refused, explaining that he did not want to be paid for being honest, but said that he would accept fifty cents to buy him a square meal, that was all he could conscientiously take. The lady crumpled a ten dollar bill in the lad's hand and hastily walked away.

Later in the day the lady met a merchant of the city and related the circumstance to him and the next morning there appeared an ad in the Gazette that read something like this: "If the young man who found the diamonds in the Antlers park will call at a certain number he will be given employment." He said he could use all such boys in his business.

Prickly Ash Bitters cures diseases of the kidneys, cleanses and srengthens the liver, stomach and bowels. Overton Drug Co., special agents.

A mercantile company pasted a large poster on a bridge. The wind caused it to flutter and scare a team. This tipped the wagon over, broke two dozen eggs, a hame strap, the driver's leg, and an axle tree. They then ran away and ran through a garden, tipping a bee hive over, the bee stung the young lady of the house until her lips swelled to such proportions that her best fellow left her and went to the Philippines. The driver sued the firm for damages; one hundred witnesses were called and when asked what was on the poster none of them could tell. Moral: Paste your advertisement on the pages of the home paper and keep it alive—not the paper, but the ad.—Abilene Reporter.

Dr. J. J. Mulloy, practice limited to the diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat. Office over the Grange Store, Dublin, Texas.

The newspaper is a wide field and full of roses and thorns. When you roast the ungodly the preacher smiles. If you roast the saloon man the teetotler smiles; when you roast the teetotler the saloon man sets 'em up. If you swear, you are a wicked man, and if you pray you are a hypocrit. If you have an opinion you are cussed, and if you don't you are a nonenity. The preacher knows one thing, the saloon man another, but the journalist is expected to know everything. He is the best and the meanest man in the community.—Stephenville Empire.

LAME EVERY MORNING

A Bad Back is Always Worse in the Morning. Dublin People are Finding Relief.

A back that aches all day and causes discomfort at night is usually worse in the morning. Makes you feel as if you hadn't slept at all.

Can't cure a bad back until you cure the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys—make you feel better, work better, rest better and sleep better.

Permanent cures in Dublin prove the merit of Doan's John R. Brown, retired, living in the western part of Dublin, Texas, says: "For more than three years I have been afflicted with weakness of the kidneys. Often times my back would feel so lame and sore that I could hardly get out of bed. The kidney secretions were irregular in action and contained a sediment after standing over night. I tried a number of different remedies but nothing seemed to do me any good. I finally read about Doan's Kidney Pills and went to the Overton Drug Co's. store and procured a box. They helped me from the first and in a short time the kidney trouble disappeared and the backache left me. Up to date there has been no recurrence."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Alum baking powders are detrimental to health.

Many consumers use alum baking powders in perfect ignorance. They are allured to the danger by the cry of cheapness, and the false and flippant advertisements in the newspapers. Alum baking powders do not make a "pure, wholesome and delicious food" any more than two and two make ten. Their manufacturers are deceiving the public.

If you wish to avoid this danger to your food, and decline to buy or use any baking powder that is not plainly designated as a cream of tartar powder.

LOOK UPON THE LABEL

Sandy Land Potatoes.

The Brownwood Bulletin reports W. B. Brannon of Clio was in that city Wednesday with a few bushels of sweet potatoes grown on his sandy land farm. A specimen he brought to the Bulletin weighs eight and a half pounds and it was raised without irrigation. Mr. Brannon says there is money in sweet potatoes and that he expects to plant more of them next year. The big potato brought in by him was grown on new ground. He says if there's a better one grown anywhere without irrigation he would like to hear about it.

Needy HillCounty Veteran Asks Alms

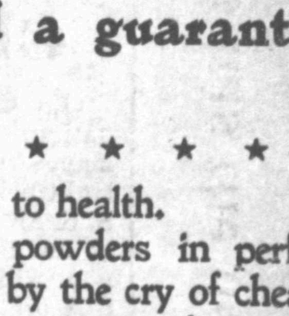

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Stevens of Hillsboro were in the city yesterday and to an Enterprise man Mr. Stevens told a sorrowful tale. He is an old citizen of Hillsboro and is in indigent circumstances by reason of having the savings of his life time stolen from his pocket. He had just sold his farm home for $4,025 and had the money in his pocket when he attended the funeral of the late lamented Attorney General T. S. Smith at Hillsboro, and the money, according to his story, was taken from his pocket while at the church where the funeral was being conducted. Since that time he and his wife have subsisted on the charity of the confederate camps and humanitarian friends all over the county. He is seventy-two years of age and is barred even from the confederate pension list on account of having not lived in Texas in 1880, which time of residence is necessary under the pension law. He is also barred from the home on account of no provision being made for wives of the old veterans there. He is calling on the camps and the public for aid and will appreciate any assistance.

In conversation with Mr. Stevens and from letters he bears, it is learned he was a member of Co. A., First Mississippi cavalry, and was a good soldier for four years. He has a son who is a missionary preacher in Louisiana, but unable to assist him; another son was a victim of the great Galveston storm, to the sufferers of which Mr. Stevens himself while in affluence donated $300. His credentials show him worthy, and any aid extended him will be most welcome.—Cleburne Enterprise.

The Italy News-Herald very fittingly remarks: If there is anything more important than starting your children to school it is to keep them going to school. The day has come when an education is a necessity. It used to be a luxury that the rich alone could afford. But now, thanks to the wisdom of the immortal men who founded our free school system, every child, no matter how poor, is entitled to and can obtain a fair education; if he doesn't it is often the parent's fault, or more often so than the child's. The parent that lets a few paltry, pitiful dollars that a boy can earn keep him away from the school room a single day, is doing that boy a wrong that can never be extenuated.

The Sam Cole murder case was called in district court at Comanche last Monday morning and went to trial Tuesday. This case originated in Brown county and was transferred to Comanche on change of venue.

ECONOMY

ECONOMY isn't so much a matter of how much money you spend, it's the manner in which you spend it. For instance, the boy has got to wear clothes of some kind this winter, and you might continue to make that light summer suit answer, but the health may be endangered by doing so—that's poor economy. We can fit them out in a good warm suit or over coat that will protect them from the chilling blasts of winter, garments that are made of strong, firm, warm material, cut on stylish lines and "made right at the right price." To buy them is true economy. Be economical—come and bring or send your boy here to get his winter outfit.

Prices range from 50c to $10.00. Boys' caps, all styles, at 25c and 50c. Boys' hats, all shapes, 25c, 50c, 75c and $1.00.

CLOTHING

OVER COATS AND RAIN COATS

Our stock of over coats and rain coats has no equal in this part of the state. We have by far the swellest line ever carried in Dublin.

We have the box over coat, the swellest thing for this season, in gray and light tan with green plaid, single or double breasted, made by H. S. & M., price.....25.00

One lot of the blue black Melton cloth, well made, extra nice mercerized black satteen lining, medium length, well worth $15.00, our special price...12.50

Rain coats $12.50, $15.00 and.....18.00

A nice blue black coat, nice satteen lining, medium length, $7.50 and.....5.00

We haven't space to give the prices on all of them, but have them from $25.00 to.....5.00

And all it will take to convince you that we have the right goods at the right price is just to come in and let us show them to you.

Success in business can be secured only by selling reliable merchandise. Our clothing department exemplifies this fact. We sell garments, the product of reputable makers, that are unexcelled in fit, finish, fabric and fashion, and they are designed to meet the wants of men who know and wear good clothes. They are "Made right at the right price." You will never be disappointed or displeased with any suit you buy from us. If you haven't seen the new fall styles come in and take a look. Try one on. It is to your interest as well as ours to give us a look before you buy. "We are here with the goods."

J. H. Lee, who resides two miles south of Lingleville, was exhibiting a pear in Dublin Wednesday that was pronounced by everyone who saw it as the largest specimen they had ever known. The pear is known as the "Triumph" and was grown on a tree only two years old. It weighed exactly two pounds and was the largest of about six or eight pears grown on the tree this year. All the others were also very large, the next one in size having tipped the scales two ounces less than two pounds.

Joseph B. Shaughnessy left on the east bound Central Wednesday for Cleburne to pay a visit to his father, who is engaged there as section foreman for the Trinity & Brazos Valley railroad. Young Shaughnessy expects, while on his visit, to take a trip over the company's line in a new electric motor car as the guest of his uncle, Capt. P. A. Gorman, who is vice-president and general manager of the road.

Messrs. J. W. and H. P. Albin of near Fleming were here Wednesday on their way to Stamford in response to telegraphic information of the very serious illness of their brother, J. F., who resides near Stamford. The sick man has lived near Stamford some fifteen years and is well known in Dublin, having resided near here for some time previous to his removal to Stamford.

Mrs. E. R. Snead received information by wire Wednesday of the dangerous illness of her brother, Mr. Luke McDerment, at his home in Guntersville, Alabama. On account of her own ill health Mrs. Snead was unable to go to the bedside of her brother. Mr. McDerment spent a month in Dublin some six or seven years ago and at the time made many friends here.

C. W. Day was here a day or two the first of the week to see his family and look after business interests. Mr. Day has been at Loraine on the Texas & Pacific road for three weeks past installing a lumber yard for the Higginbotham-Harris Co. of this city. It is probable that he may remain there for some time to come as manager of the yard.

J. K. P. Cline has disposed of his farm of ninety-nine acres two miles north of Dublin to his son-in-law, G. Newton, at a consideration of $3,500, possession of the place to be given on or before January first. Mr. Cline is anticipating a move to the west in the event he is able to purchase land at what he considers a right price.

Photographer J. F. Edmonds will leave next Wednesday morning for Dallas to attend the state meeting of the photographers of Texas and familiarize himself with the latest improvements in photography. He will not return until Monday and in the meantime his studio will be closed.

Happy comedy and lots of it is to be found in the newest drama "Uncle Josh Perkins." The play is by Lew B. Parker, whose name is to be found attached to many successful productions that have pleased our theatre goers for the past several seasons. At Dublin next Wednesday.

Ed Brown, who has for some time been breaking on the M. K & T. railroad with headquarters at Austin, has been transferred to Belton and now has a run between that point and Temple, a trip that he makes three times each day.

Sam Weatherford has purchased a blacksmith shop from Bolivar Higginbotham at De Leon and Tuesday went up there to take charge of the business. He will move his family to his new home within the next week or ten days.

R. H. McCampbell has this week sold his residence property in north Dublin to Mrs. McDade at a price of $1,150 and will next week remove to the C. S. Oates old place, which he purchased last winter.

This elegant tent is built egg shape and has no center poles in front of the stage, therefore giving every one a good view of the performance. The stage is lighted with Acetylene gas, which can be lowered and raised to give the proper effect as desired. Lightning and thunder is made by an electric storage battery. The scenery for each and every act is new and painted especially for this elegant production. Mr. Eiler prides himself in having the swellest outfit in the country and delights in having people come and see his pavillion theatre before the perfcmance. They appear at Dublin Monday, Nov. 6th.

The Right Reverend J. A. Schauf, Catholic minister in charge of the diocese which includes Dublin, was here Wednesday and celebrated mass early Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Drucke. Rev. Schauf will visit Dublin again on November 11th and hold divine service at that time.

Today is circus day and as was to be expected the people are here from all quarters to see the big show of Forepaugh & Sells Bros. The small boy is in evidence as only a circus can cause them to be. The big street parade will take place at 10 o'clock this morning and the two performances will occur at 2 p. m. and 8 p .m.

H. J. George of near Desdemona was in Dublin the first of this week and called to renew his subscription to the Progress and to tell us that the Progress is the best county weekly he ever read. Mr. George lived four miles north of Dublin before locating in the Desdemona country three years ago. He is now contemplating a sale of his property near Desdemona and the purchase of land once again in Erath and near Dublin, which he says is the market he wants to reach with his products.

Dave Deaton of Dublin has about succumbed to the solicitation of friends from all sections of the county who have for some months been insisting that he must make the race for sheriff next year. Mr. Deaton has not fully decided to become an aspirant but in all probability he will so decide and if he does it is freely predicted that he will make the race and interesting one. Mr. Deaton has had large experience as a peace officer and he is particularly gifted in this line.

Prof. Jno. W. Hopkins of Austin, visitor to the public schools of the state on behalf of the state university, spent the day in Dublin yesterday inspecting our schools. Yesterday afternoon he made a very pleasant call on the Progress and expressed himself as very highly pleased with the Dublin schools, the faculty and the appearance of the pupils. Prof. Hopkins has been indentified with the state university for a number of years in various capacities, but this is his first trip to this setion of Texas. He brings good report of the progress of the three Dublin representatives in the university. Messrs. Willie Clay and James Jackson and Miss Lorene Higginbotham.

Our farmer friends, J. R Smoot and J. R. Caudle of near Purves, returned Wednesday from a trip to Cisco, where they went last Monday for a brief prospecting trip with a view of buying land and finally locating. They both returned better satisfied with Erath and will very likely remain here, which we hope to see them do. They are both first class and prosperous farmers of the kind that are valuable to any section in which they reside. Mr. Smoot was not here first but he came early enough to be counted a pioneer, having located in Erath in 1876. From that time until this he says he has bought but two sacks of corn and he was forced to do this at one time on account of the weevils getting the best of his home product. He always raises plenty of everything to do him and generally some to spare and his constant success is largely due to this live at home policy.

Messrs. C. B. Long and J. J. Barrett spent the first of the week in Hillsboro as witnesses in the cases against R. J. Hunt of near this place and Joe Hunt of Breckenridge. The charge against the Messrs. Hunt is for assault to murder, the incident being the attack upon conductor Ernest Clark of the Texas Central road while on an excursion to Waco some time since. The trouble occurred on the train in Hill county and hence the case is in the courts there. The parties charged received a continuation of the case to the next term of district court for Hill county. R. J. Hunt returned to Dublin Monday night and his brother passed through Dublin on the same train en route home to Breckenridge, where he was married on September 24th to Miss Lela Weatherly of that place.

S. Frank of Stephenville has for some time been mentioned as a probable candidate for representative from the Erath county district next year and while he was here last week on a brief visit to his daughter, Mrs. L. F. Sensabaugh, a reporter sought an interview with him on the subject. Mr. Frank did not deny the report and in fact said that he had fully decided to enter the race and would formally announce through the columns of the Progress at the proper time. Mr. Frank thinks that the time is ripe for the election of a legislature composed of successful business men who will bring to the affairs of state the business ability that has succeeded in private life and in this manner overcome the heavy deficits which have been a direct result of a lack of business methods on the part of the law making body.

The Spooner Dramatic Company have been playing an engagement in Dublin each night this week, which will continue tonight, tomorrow afternoon matinee and tomorrow night. The company had been billed for Ballinger this week but another attraction had made a date for the same time and Mr. Spooner therefore decided to put in the week in Dublin. His coming was unannounced except for a day or two but he is playing to good audiences each night, a condition that is normal for the Spooner people whereever they are known.

Do not miss the next number of the lyceum course. Miss Surface in "The Pretty Sister of Jose." Seats on sale at Overton's.

The postal star route from Dublin to Lamkin by way of Purves and Wilson will be discontinued on the 14th of next month, at which time a new rural route to be known as number eight, will start out of Dublin. Purves and Wilson will be supplied out of Dublin by closed pouches to be carried by the rural route carrier on number eight and on the same day route number one out of Wilson will be started. The carrier on the route out of Wilson will take a closed pouch to Lamkin each day, thus supplying that office, the mail to be forwarded to Wilson from Dublin.

Hear free band concert by Eiler's "Rip Van Winkle" at noonday Monday, Nov. 6th.

The Ada, I. T., News has the following to say of Miss Surface, who will be in Dublin on next Friday, Nov. 3rd. "Miss Surface gave an evening in Oklahoma City this spring and the receipts were over three hundred dollars and she returns again this season. In New Orleans the total receipts from one date were six hundred and ten dollars. These places recognize her ability and the papers said many nice things about these engagements."

Instantly relieves and permanently cures all throat and lung diseases; prevents grip and pneumonia. At Overton Drug Co.; guaranteed; 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Halcyon Club.

The beautiful home of Mrs. D. L. Harris was thrown open to the Halcyon club on last Wednesday afternoon. Five tables participated in the game of forty-two and played several enthusiastic games. Mesdames Baker and Bramlette and Misses Rawls and Higginbotham tied for high score. The guests were then served with lovely nut cream and cake. Those present were Mesdames Farmer, Akard, Baker, Abbey, Bramlette, Miller, Utterback, Neil, Ray, Brewer, Key, Brown, Lyles, Valliant, and Jackson and Misses Weiser, Wiley, Higginbotham, McKee, Herndon and Rawls.

The club will be entertained at Mrs. H. K. Brewer's next Wednesday afternoon at 4:15.

A Judicious Inquiry.

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know that there is no danger from it and it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it and for coughs, colds and croup it is unsurpassed. For sale by Overton Drug Co.

Mr. McQueen on New Orleans Future.

The Brownwood Bulletin of Tuesday has the following notice of E. C. McQueen, who was for many years a citizen of Dublin:

"E. C. McQueen of New Orleans, is in the city on a visit to his family. Since the yellow fever epidemic at New Orleans he has been traveling in North Texas for the firm he has been representing in the south for quite a time, Frederick Stearns & Co., manufacturing pharmacists, Detroit. Mr. McQueen thinks that the yellow fever at New Orleans will result in great ultimate good to that city, which he expects to take on renewed growth as soon as the scare is over. Health conditions will be improved until New Orleans becomes the cleansest city on the continent, in his opinion, for the city will not care to risk another such epidemic, which has resulted in complete stagnation the past few months. After spending a few more weeks in Texas Mr. McQueen will resume his work in the southern states."

Mrs Mary Blackford died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jessie Howard, in Ft. Worth last Sunday evening, after an illness of several months. "Aunt" Mary, as she was known and loved by the people of Dublin, was a sister to the late Col. Bishop at Clairette and was the mother of M. C. Gillett of Dallas and Ed B. Gillett of Comanche. For many years she resided in Dublin and educated her daughter, now Mrs. Arthur Howard, in the schools at this place and later for several years prior to her marriage to Mr. Howard, Mrs. Howard held a position as a member of the faculty of the Dublin schools. The deceased was about seventy-one years of age, a noble woman with all the virtues that go to make this grandest of God's handiwork. She was buried in Fort Worth at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

T. W. Hall has purchased from Monroe Carroll a farm of seventy acres located five miles south of Dublin and adjoining the home place of Mr. Carroll. The consideraton of the purchase was thirty dollars an acre. Mr. Hall has recently returned from a month's visit in Oklahoma where he once resided for seven years, but he says he does not wish any more experience in that drouth and cyclone stricken country.

Child Badly Burned.

Adrian, the little two year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Davis was seriously burned late yesterday evening by backing against and sitting down in a bucket of boiling water. The child was terribly burned and for a time it was thought that it could not live. It is not entirely out of danger this morning.

L. F. Sensabaugh this week purchased the Dallam old place of 650 acres two miles west of town from A. C. Morgan. The terms of the sale are private but they figure up into several thousand as the property ought easily to be worth fifty dollars an acre or more.

Where he will be prepared to examine and adivce all afflicted with Catarrh or diseases of eye, ear, nose and throat. Every case brought to him is given a thorough examination and test, with the most modern and precise instruments. You can obtain the professional advise of one who has over twenty-five years experience in the study and treatment of all eye diseases.

When we consider the absolute necessity of perfect vision and know that improperly prescribed glasses do more harm than good. It is strange that so many intelligent persons will purchase glasses from peddlers, department stores and unskilled opticians. I have found by actual long experience that more total blindness is caused by neglect and imperfect glasses than from any other cause. I have found that ninety per cent of deafness is caused from catarrh. I have found that diseases of the nose, throat and lungs is caused from neglected catarrh. My advice to all is to remember that your eyesight and hearing are your most valuable gifts. Do not neglect them!

I say, without fear of successful contradiction that my system and remedies have helped and cured more sufferers from catarrh and diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat than any other system that has been placed before the medical profession. My system and discoveries are due to life long study of conditions and ailments that lead to blindness, deafness and catarrh in all its forms. My knowledge has been acquired by long years of study and my system of home treatment improved as time progressed, until it has been perfected and is endorsed by the most eminent physicians. I will continue to devote my life to the work that I know has relieved thousands of sufferers and offer to all those afflicted a system of home cure for Catarrh, Deafness and all diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat without the use of the knife, cauteries, cocaine or detention from business.

It is a well known fact that a jack of all trades is a master of none, the highest type of ability comes with concentration, and those who devote their time to a special branch of study command the highest remuneration. I have been located in Waco for over twenty-five years and my special work is well known throughout Texas. My branch offices are for the special purpose of elevating my system of Home Cure and to teach the afflicted a system for curing themselves at home, thereby saving them the expense of a trip to Waco. My course of instructions are scientific and my system cures to stay cured, all afflictions caused from catarrh, where directions are followed.

As I was unable to meet all those who called on me on my previous date I would suggest that those wishing to consult me call early. Old patrons are especially requested to call for re-examination of the eyes, as a change of glasses may be necessary. No charge for change of lenses, as I guarantee all spectacles and eye-glasses for five years. Artificial human eye inserted to appear natural in size and color. Lenses ground to order, and frames made to fit the face. Help for total deafness by the latest improved artificial drums and ear trumpets.

I carefully investigate impaired vision and deafness, and all catarrhal conditions of the nose and throat, and give my candid opinion free of charge. Where appliances or glasses are needed I only charge a reasonable price for same. Will insert lenses in your old frames or put your old lenses in new frames.

POLICY HOLDERS

Author of Frenzied Finance Proposes to Take Hand in Purging Insurance Companies.

By Thos. W. Lawson, Boston.

At the beginning of my story nearly a year and a half ago, I made certain accusations against the management of the three big life insurance companies.

I knew, when I began my story, that the big life insurance companies were in the hands of grafters and thieves, just as are the great banks, trust companies, railroad companies and big corporations and trusts.

This I knew and, in plain language said it.

The big insurance companies, through their officers and trustees, replied by declaring: "He's an unmitigated liar."

I kept at my knitting, for I knew the crimes of these insurance grafters were such that, sooner or later, the world would have an opportunity to judge fairly who were the unmitigated liars and thieves.

The opportunity is at hand. Today the press of the world is devoting its space, news and editorial, to a recital of the contemptible and heinous crimes of the New York Life and the Mutual Life Insurance companies—not as I relate them, but as their own officers and trustees publicly confess them.

In the July installment of my story I called upon policy holders to sign a coupon blank inserted in Everybodys magazine, and send same to me that I might speak for them in a plan to further their interests.

In response to my call I have received up to today, October 4th, 16,307 answers, representing $55,165,916.

I think my readers, when they understand that these coupons have come to me from every part of the world and take into consideration the character ofthe senders, many of whom are men of the highest standing—bishops, ministers, governors, mayors, judges, senators, members of congress, railroad, bank, and trust company presidents—will agree with me that it is the most remarkable collection ever made by one interest since life insurance began.

As soon as I received a number of signatures sufficiently large to warrant it, I quietly began operations.

The first direct result is the investigation now being held. This investigation has proceeded far enough to put before the public absolute proof of all the crimes I have charged, and three to thirty times as many more.

It is now evident to all that:

1st. The policy holders in the great companies have yearly paid into their company scores of millions more than necessary.

2nd. The policy holders have been robbed of scores of millions.

3rd. The vast funds now on hand have been habitually used by the grafters now in control of them in the rankest kind of stock gambling.

4th. These funds have been used to corrupt the ballot box and the law makers of the country.

I repeat, absolute proof of all this has been made public.

It should now be evident to all that:

1st. The funds now on hand are in actual jeopardy, because they are in the absolute control of unprincipled scoundrels.

2nd. Unless something is done, and done at once, by the policy holders, each and every one of the largest companies may become insolvent; that is, they may not be able to meet the engagements of their policies, because of waste of funds, tremendous falling off of new business, tremendous cost of new business, and the nature of the new business—so called "graveyard business;" for I am credibly informed that they are now seeking to insure those who formerly have been refused insurance because of physical infirmities.

It should also be plainly evident that, if the policy holders move, and move quickly, they can be absolutely assured that:

1st. The funds as they are today will remain intact.

2nd. They will be added to by the restitution of from $75,000,000 to $150,000,000.

3rd. A score of the thieves who have plundered policy holders in the past will be sent to prison.

4th. The future payments of policy holders will be largely cut down.

5th The present swollen surpluses will be returned in large part to policy holders.

6th In the future policy holders will actually run the company.

7th. All policy holders can be assured that in the future they will receive the actual worth of their policy at surrender.

All this being so, it is most eminently desirable for policy holders to act, and at once.

The time will never again be so opportune, for if nothing definite is done now, policy holders will be discouraged for all time.

I have given the subject the closest and most earnest study, assisted by the best insurance experts and lawyers procurable, and guided by the suggestions of over one hundred thousand policy holders, for in addition to the sixteen thousand mentioned I have received over ninety thousand letters. I have come to the conclusion that the one thing for policy holders to do now is:

To authorize some one in whom they have confidence to select a committee to take their proxies and at once seize possession of the two great mutual companies, the New York Life and the Mutual.

I omit the Equitable at this stage, because litigation may be necessary before the Equitable, being a stock company, can come into the policyholders hands. But in the other two no obstacles can be placed in the way of the policy-holders' taking control.

To empower this committee to bring action at once to compel full restitution and enforce full punishment, and then to change the present method of conducting the insurance business.

The vital question is: Whom can the policy holders trust to do this?

The "Big Three" are at present spending vast sums of the policy holders money to prevent some such action as this, in the following ways:

First, by molding public opinion through paid news and editorial items; next, by the collection of proxies; and third by the inauguration of different moves and dummy suits and investigations.

There are already three of these affairs under way. Almost any way the policy holders turn for relief they are confronted with traps which, if they fall into them, will make relief and rescue impossible.

Any man or body of men who go to the great expense necessary to collect proxies must have some hidden scheme for reimbursing themselves, or they must be working in the interests of the thieves now in control.

I therefore make bold to say: I am the natural one to make this move.

Just a minute before you pass judgment. Let us see if I am:

1st. I have already spent in my work over a million dollars of my own money.

2nd. I am willing to spend, if necessary, two millions more.

3rd. I will absolutely prove I want nothing in return.

4th. I will absolutely prove on the face of my plans that I cannot in any way benefit beyond the satisfaction I shall derive from putting another spike in the "System's" coffin.

I ask of the policy holders simply this:

Fill out the following form of proxy; sign and seal it, and send it to me. Quick action is most desirable in view of contingencies.

FORM OF PROXY.

Know all Men by these Presents, That I,..... of.....County of....State of.... do hereby constitute and appoint Thomas W. Lawson my attorney and agent for me and in my name, place and stead to vote as my proxy as a policy holder or as a member of the corporation at any meeting of..... corporation, and at any election of trustees or of directors, or of other officers for whom policy holders have the right to vote, and for such other business as may come before the meeting, and any adjournment thereof, and to act at such meeting as fully as I could do if personally present, with full power of substitution and revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my said attorney and agent, or his substitute, shall lawfully do by virtue hereof. Unless sooner revoked, this proxy shall continue in force for one year from the date hereof. I hereby revoke all proxies heretofore given by me for any of the above purposes. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this..... day of.....in the year..... ..... [seal.]

Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of .....

Owner of policy Nos.....

Amount, $.....

In accepting the above proxy, said Thomas W. Lawson agrees that:

1. It will only be voted for a set of men who shall be nominated as trustees by a committee to be selected; said committee to consist of representative governors of different states, representative labor leaders, and representative clergymen. That when this committee has selected the men in its opinion best fitted to serve as trustees, and they have accepted, their names shall be announced to the policy holders.

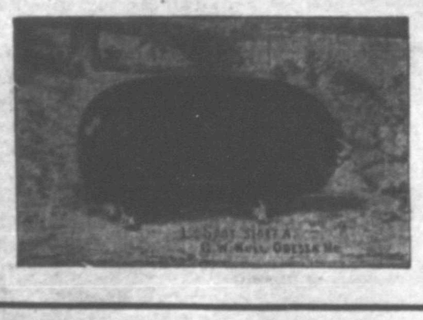

2. Said Lawson, in accepting this proxy, agrees he will not use same until ten days after he has announced to said policy holders the names of the trustees selected, and so given said policy holders opportunity of revoking same.

3. Said Lawson agrees that, in accepting said proxy, he will not use same to elect any one a director of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, the New York Life Insurance Company, or any other insurance company who will not first agree to do all in his power after he is elected to exact full restitution of all moneys filched from these corporations, and enforce punishment of officers, directors, agents or employees who have been in any way guilty of wrong doing.

Tax Collector's Notice.

You are hereby notified that I will be at the following places on the dates given below for the purpose of collecting state and county taxes and poll tax for the year 1905:

Duffau, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 3rd and 4th.

Bluff Dale, Tuesday November 7th.

Dublin, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 9th, 10th and 11th.

TO POLL TAX PAYERS:

"Section 12. The poll tax required by the constitution and laws in force shall be collected from every male person petween the ages of twenty-one and sixty, who resided in this state on the first day of January preceding its levy; Indians not taxed; persons insane, blind deaf or dumb and those who have lost a hand or foot, or are permanently disabled excepted; which tax shall be collected and accounted for by the tax collector each year and appropriated as required by law. It shall be paid at any time between the first day of October and the first day of February following, and the person when he pays it shall be entitled to his poll tax receipt, even if his other taxes are unpaid."

Poll taxes are collectable as other taxes. So don't be led to believe that you do not have to pay your poll tax unless you want to vote; for such is not the law.

Poll tax must be paid in person by the payer or by an agent in person with written order. Blank orders for payment of poll taxes can be found at the different voting boxes throughout the county. Poll taxes must be paid before or at the time other taxes are paid, so don't send other tax money until poll tax is paid. If you do your money will be returned. Neither the tax collector nor his deputies can act as agent for the payment of poll tax. Meet me while in your vicinity and pay your poll tax and save the trouble of a trip to Stephenville or of sending an order by an agent. Respectfully yours.—R. T. Roberts, tax collector.

The Lewis and Clarke exposition at Portland, Oregon, closed Sunday of last week with a total attendance of 2,547,508. The stockholders will receive a dividend of from thirty to forty per cent, which is the largest dividend ever received by stockholders in such exposition.

DUNLAP TO BE TRIED IN DECEMBER.

Tuesday of last week Judge Oxford, sitting in district court for Hood county upon his own motion, ordered a change of venue to Erath county in the case of the State vs. T. R. Dunlap, charged with arson in connection with the burning of Jarvis college at Thorp Springs last winter. Judge Oxford took the position that the facts in the case had been too generally known and discussed all over the county and such strong combinations in favor of and against the defendant had been formed that he thought it impossible to secure a fair and impartial trial, and one that would be satisfactory tc the court or that would do justice to the state or the defendant. The case is set for trial at Stephenville on December 11th.

The facts in this case were published in the Progress at the time of the burning of the college in which Prof. Dunlap was one of the teachers.

HOOD COUNTY DISTRICT COURT.

The grand jury for Hood county district court adjourned for the term Wednesday of last week after returning seven indictments for felonies and forty-one for misdemeanors.

Petit jury third week, Oct. 23rd.—S. C. Colvin, H. Ator, D. C. Pope, Geo. Perkins, Sam Knight, Bob Peters, Wes Tankersley, John Allison, Gray Gardner, Joe Cherry, B. W. Camp, W. E. Baugh, Jno. Dent, W. A. Black, Jno. Underwood, Jno. Goodlett Leroy Cul, Jno. Fleming, Dolph Ridgeway, W. H. Cash, Clay Johnson, O. C. Dilahunty, Tom Codgell, F. A. McBrayer, R. W. Bowden, Harve Davis, Harrison Baker, Geo. Followell, J. N. Vandergriff, K. U. Chadwick, Joe H. Hamilton, Ben Reynolds, Ben Self, Sam Elliott, Will Thomason, Sill Brewer.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED.

Judge Coffee refused this morning to grant the motions for new trial in Cad Bennett and John Martin cases, and the defendants took an appeal. Bennett was convicted in county court for violating the local option law. Martin was convicted of exhibiting a gaming table. Bonds in the sum of $500 each were furnished by the defendants.—Brownwood Bulletin, Oct. 20th.

TURNBOW ARRESTED AT BROWNWOOD.

Walter Turnbow, a well known foot racer in West Texas, was arrested here this morning by Officer and Constable J. C. Kirk of Hamilton on a capias pro fine from Hamilton county.

The story of the arrest is as follows: Turnbow was in Hamilton for a misdemeanor and after working out five days of his fine on the county farm, made his escape. Later he was arrested at Dublin by officers who followed him there. While they were en route with him to Hico he jumped from the train near Alexander and escaped a second time. Officer Kirk then took the trail and followed what he thought to be Turnbow's trail out to Angelo, but he missed his man. He returned to Brownwood last night and accidentally learned that some foot racers were here for the purpose of pulling off a race this afternoon. He hung around for a while and finally located Turnbow and effected his arrest. He was placed in jail for safe keeping until tonight when he will be taken back to Hamilton.—Brownwood Bulletin, Oct. 20th.

COMANCHE DISTRICT COURT.

District court for Comanche county convened Monday of last week with Judge Lindsey presiding and J. H. Arnold of Gatesville, district attorney present.

Following gentlemen compose the grand jury for the term: W. R. Slider, foreman; W. C. Lanford, J. B. Burton, Bur Franks, Charlie W. Ewel, Jesse Purves, J. E. Durham, S. A. Bryan, Sam B. Allen, W. C. Weaver, J. F. Beatty, J. C. Hensley. T. H. Holcomb was selected as walking bailiff and George Sullivan of Comanche, Fred Tate of Beattie, John Odell of Gustine. Up to Friday of last week the grand jury returned the following indictments: Jim Nunley, murder; Manuel Martines, murder; Romy Hudson, seduction and rape, two counts. The following cases were disposed of up to Friday last:

Exparte C. H. Wagner, minor, disabilities removed.

W. T. Roberson vs. J. H. Eubanks et al, suit for foreclosure on land, judgment for intervener W. F. Durham, by default.

Exparte Gould Whaley, minor, disabilities removed.

The criminal docket was taken up last Monday. There are three murder cases on the docket for the present term of court.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. For sale by Overton Drug Co.

Attempted Jail Delivery at Baird.

The sixty prisoners in the Baird jail came near breaking out Tuesday morning of last week. They broke the legs off the bath tub and with them broke off the inner steel door of the run-around. Using this door as a lever, they then prized up and bent the steel grating high enough to crawl under. This let them into the room outside the cells, where they proceeded to make a hole in the brick wall. They had about succeeded, and liberty was in sight, when they were surprised by the sudden appearance of the jailer, J. H. Harris, who confined them again. This daring attempt was almost a success, and Mr. Harris did not arrive a moment too soon to frustrate it.—Abilene News.

Lived in Three Centuries.

An old negro lives at Greenville named Joe Daniels, who claims to be 120 years old. He was born in 1785 in South Carolina and was taken by his master, Colonel Joseph Daniels, to Florida when a boy while that country still belonged to Spain, and thinks he was the first negro in Florida. He was captured by the Seminoles and kept three years, when he escaped. He came to Texas before the war, when there were no houses where Greenville is now. He rode an Indian pony, which died last week, aged forty-two years, as is attested by white men here, and it almost broke old Joe's heart.

Four years ago young Mrs. Daniels went to visit Joe and gave him a paper certifying that he was 116 years old then.

Joe and his pony have been at Greenville for the past forty years. Joe is in good health and bids fair to live several years yet.

A Boy's Essay on Girls.

Girls are sisters of boys and has long hare, wares dresses an' powder. Fust girl was called Christmas Eve, though I never could tell why. Most every family has one girl and some of 'em that is in hard luck has two or three. We have a girl in ourn who is my sister. Girls can grow older and get younger. My sister has been twenty-five for three years and some day we may be twins. Girls play the pinaner and talk about each other. Fat girls want to be thin, and thin girls want to be fat and all of 'em want to marry doods. Why the Lord made girls nobody nos' but I think it were to go to church and eat ice cream. There is three kinds of girls, blond girls, brunet girls and them that has money. Girls are afraid of bugs and mice which makes it fun to put 'em down their backs.—Olney Times.

Express Office Raided at Iredell.

Tuesday night an entrance was effected into the express office and the Texas Central freight depot and three cases of whiskey stolen. Officers Belcher and Hall found all but one bottle of the whiskey in a trunk belonging to Barry Yates, a young man about seventeen years old. The young man was arrested and placed in the county jail.—Sentinel.

"Please Smile AND Look Pleasant."

When a woman says "I am racked with pain," the word "racked" recalls the days when they stretched the tender bodies of women on the rack with rope and pulley until the very joints cracked.

Fancy an attendant saying to the tortured woman, "Please smile and look pleasant."

And yet the woman "racked with pain," is expected to smile through her agony and to make home happy. She can't do it. It is against Nature. Generally speaking, the racking pains of ill-health such as headache, backache and "bearing-down pains" are related to derangements or disorders of the organs distinctly feminine. When this condition is removed the general health is restored, and with health comes back the smile of happiness.

Any woman may regain her health at home without offensive questionings or examinations by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Sick women may consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free of charge. Such letters are treated as sacredly confidential.

"It affords me pleasure to relate the wonderful merits of your great medicines, especially your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mr. J. Wesley Rhine, of Woodbury, N. Jersey, L. Box 202. "My wife has been using it for some time past, having suffered severely with bearing-down pains, aching in back, and many other complaints peculiar to women. She was very weak, could not do any heavy work or washing but can do all kinds of work now. She is soon to become a mother but we do not fear the result (as heretofore), all due to your wonder-worker, 'Favorite Prescription.'"

"Your 'Pleasant Pellets' are also worth many times their price. I have used them for biliousness and stomach trouble, and have found them to be all that you claim. They are my constant companions—once used, always kept."

Given away. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book contains 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations and several colored plates. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. While visiting foreign countries Miss Alice Roosevelt has been presented with many costly gifts. On her return the gifts will be dutiable and the duties will be quite heavy. The president says they must be paid, but inasmuch as she is not bringing them home of her own volition, a movement is being started to exempt them from duty.

George Cunliff, the employe who robbed the Adams Express company at Pittsburg of one hundred thousand dollars has been arrested at Bridgeport Conn., and says he is ready to return the money. He states that he was sorry he did it within five minutes after the deed was done, and has kept the money intact for the purpose of returning it.

President Roosevelt has issued an order giving himself and the cabinet power to summarily dismiss without a hearing any employee in the classified service charged with inefficiency. This grew out of a temper into which the president fell because his carriage was stopped by a chaffeur in the service, who insisted on passing the president while he was out driving, it is said, not knowing that the president occupied the carriage.

A widow in Paris recently lost her entire savings of of $823 in the destruction of her home by fire at Paris. Though paying rent on the house in which she lived, the woman had by hard work and economy for several years saved up this sum and was about to buy herself a home. She had kept the money hidden in a safe in her kitchen, and the fire fiend destroyed it with all her household goods. This is one of many incidents constantly occurring which speak eloquently of the good judgment of those who deposit their surplus money in the banks where it is not only safe but is also constantly in circulation and is thus benefitting others without injury to the owner.

The State of Texas.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Erath County—Greeting:

Oath therefor having been made as required by law, you are hereby commanded that, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in said county once a week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day thereof, you summon the unknown heirs of Felix G. Franklin, G. Franklin, deceased, and their unknown heirs, Andrew Mers, Isaac Tullis and wife Charity Tullis, deceased, and their unknown heirs, the Lessings, Lyons Solomons & Co. and their unknown heirs and, the legal representatives of all the above named defendants and heirs, to be and appear before the district court to be holden in and for the aforesaid county of Erath at the court house thereof, in Stephenville on the first Monday in December 1905, then and there to answer the petition of I. L. Mullino, plaintiff, filed in said court on the 10th day of October, 1905, and numbered on the docket of said court No 2851, against the said unknown heirs of Felix G. Franklin, deceased, and their unknown heirs, Andrew Mers, Isaac Tullis and wife Charity Tullis, deceased, and their unknown heirs, the Lessings Lyons Solomons & Co. and their unknown heirs and the legal representatives of all the above named defendants and heirs, and alleging in substance as follows: Plaintiff complains first, that the residence of the above named defendants, and all of them are wholly unknown to the plaintiff, except that of Isaac Tullis who is a resident of Hood county, Texas.

That heretofore to wit: on the first day of October 1905, plaintiff was, and now is, the legal and equitable owner of the lands hereafter described, holding the same in fee simple and that he was on said day in possession of said premises. That thereafter, on to-wit: the second day of October 1905, the defendants and each of them unlawfully entered upon said premises and dispossessed plaintiff therefrom and now and ever since unlawfully withholds from him the possession thereof, to plaintiff's damage $3,000. That the premises so unlawfully entered upon and unlawfully withheld from the plaintiff by the defendant are described as follows: All that certain tract or parcel of land described as follows: first, 77 9-10 acres of land, more or less out of the W. H. Miller 1476 acre survey, in Erath county, Texas. Beginning at the west fork of Duffau creek at the N E corner of a tract out of said survey owned by Wm. Lovelace, at the mouth of a branch known as Spring branch for the S E corner of the tract. Thence S 42 W 477 vrs. Thence S 67 W 210 vrs. Thence S 66 W 395 vrs. Thence N 4 W 165 vrs. Thence N 60 E 75 vrs Thence N 30 W 455 vrs. Thence N 60 E 554 vrs. to the N E corner in center of the creek. Thence down center of creek to place of beginning. Second tract: twenty acres out of same survey beginning at the N W corner of the tract of 33 3-4 acres that A. Geisecke owned in 1885 for the N E corner of this. Thence S 60 W 429 1-2 vrs. Thence S 30 W 272 vrs. Thence N 60 E 300 vrs. Thence N 4 1-2 W 302 vrs. to the place of beginning. Plaintiff alleges that he and those whose estate he has claiming the same under deed duly recorded have had peaceable, continuous, exclusive and adverse possession of the lands and tenements herein described, cultivating and using the same and paying taxes thereon for a period of more than five years after defendants cause of action accrued, and prior to the second day of October 1905, when defendants dispossessed plaintiff of said premises. Plaintiff further alleges that he and those whose estate he has under deeds which have been registered have had peaceable and continuous, exclusive adverse possession of the lands and tenements herein described, paying the taxes thereon during all of said time, cultivating, using and enjoying the same for a period of more than ten years, after the defendants cause of action accrued and prior to the second day of October 1905, when defendants dispossessed plaintiff of said premises. Plaintiff also further alleges that the exact nature of the claim of the defendants and each of them, if any they have, is unknown to the plaintiff and such claim if any ever existed, is by reason of the plaintiff's possession as above set out long since destroyed and completely barred.

Wherefore plaintiff prays for judgment for recovery of the title and possession of said premises against each and all of said defendants for a writ of possession.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, but have you then and there before said court, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Issued this the 11th day of Oct., A. D. 1905.

WITNESS: John W. Gray, clerk of the district court of Erath county.

Given under my hand and seal of court, at office, this 11th day of October, A. D. 1905.

ATTEST: Jno. W. Gray, clerk district court Erath county.

The Secret of Good

Even the best housekeepers cannot make coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers offer counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, rich

LION COFFEE, the leader of all pure the coffee that for over a quarter of a century welcomed in millions of homes—and you will for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use "a tablespoonful extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water, enough to add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow

1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water minutes to settle. Serve promptly.

2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold minutes it's ready to serve.

DON'TS { Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes Don't use water that has been boiled

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.

1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing COFFEE before boiling.

2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE and prepare it according to this recipe and you will use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.)

(Lion-head on every package.)

(Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

Regular Correspondence.

Oct. 25th.—We had a nice shower yesterday and have a right cool norther this morning.

"Grandma" Shaw, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Fine, left yesterday for her home in Haskell county.

Mr. Sheats and one of his children are having chills.

Our trustees called a meeting of the patrons of the school last Monday night to decide when to begin school. We haven't learned what conclusions were arrived at.

Earle Douglas has gone to Hamilton county, where he expects to move. While there he will build a corn crib on his place.

Sid Fine and Mr. Brandon returned Friday from the Leon, where they had gone fishing and hunting. They report having been in a small cyclone there on Thursday night, which was quite exciting, they being encamped in the bottom among the big timbers which blew down considerably around them.

Regular Correspondence.

Oct. 25th.—Mrs. W. L. Perry of Waco is temporary station agent at this place.

Newt Miller has sold his market business to Messrs. Maness and Todd.

Dr. Rogers attended the Erath County Medical society at Stephenville last week.

The Baptist people have called as their pastor for the ensuing year Rev. J. W. Staton of Brownwood. Rev. Staton is a man of great power, having the happy faculty of being able to interest all who attend his services.

The Sharp Shooter Medicine Co. has come and gone. While their coming was a pleasure to those who had witnessed their former efforts, their going was still a greater pleasure and was marked by a rapid diminution in the number of stale eggs in our town.

Don't Borrow Trouble.

It is a bad habit to borrow anything, but the worst thing you can possibly borrow is trouble. When sick, sore, heavy, weary and worn out by the pains and poisons of dyspepsia, biliousness, Bright's disease and similar internal disorders, don't sit down and brood over your symptoms, but fly for relief to Electric Bitters. Here you will find the sure and permanent forgetfulness of all your troubles and your body will not be burdened by a load of debt disease. At Overton Drug Co. Price 50c. Guaranteed.

POINT LOOKOUT.

Regular Correspondence.

Oct. 24th.—Cotton picking is at a standstill owing to the showery, damp weather. The crop is about all open and with two more weeks of dry sunshiney weather the crop will be finished up.

R. K. Glanton is reported sick this week.

Willie R. O'Neal is having a well drilled.

Mrs. Nancy O'Neal has recovered from her illness.

Mrs. Bell O'Neal visited Mrs. Floyd Stephen Sunday.

Mrs. Maude Stephen visited Mrs. Nancy O'Neal Sunday.

Mr. McMurty made a brief visit to the county capital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Stephen made a shopping trip to Dublin Monday.

Forepaugh and Sells Bros. are liable to be sued for obstructing the public highways with their advertisments. We noticed a man on the road Monday who was not in a very pious mood. He had lost his hat and one of his buggy wheels. He was working a mule which became frightened at the advertisements, and ran into a wire fence, throwing out the driver and breaking off a wheel of his buggy. The public roads in this community have thousands of these posters strewn along the road which is enough to scare any team, causing runaways, and perhaps injuring some one for life.

VICTOR.

Regular Correspondence.

Oct. 25th.—The local Woodmen met Saturday night with a good attendance. Several of the Rucker members were present and one new member initiated.

Our jolly friend, Tood Keith, says he is going to the Indian Territory soon.

Marvin Carr, who has been sick with typhoid fever is able to be about again.

John Smith and family have returned from Granbury, where they have been visiting relatives.

E. S. Merrick, our gin man, made a business trip to Gorman Monday. Mr. Merrick will be principal of our school this winter. He is an experienced teacher and we think Victor has made a wise choice in selecting him as principal.

Spurgeon Mahan was with us Monday for the first time since his illness. He has a position with his father-in-law T. J. Nabors, a well known merchant of De Leon.

Prof. O. H. Moore spent Sunday with his parents, returning Monday to Gorman, where he has a position. Prof. Moore has the contract for teaching the Triangle school next term.

The Workers Meeting of the Round Grove association will be held with Victor church, beginning Thursday night and continuing till Sunday. A good program has been prepared and a good attendance is expected.

HARBIN.

Regular Correspondence.

Oct. 24th.—The weather for the past week has been very unfavorable for the gathering of cotton. The crop is very late as well as short and unless the weather is favorable for the next two months a part of the little that has been made will be lost in the field. The Jackson farm last year made 123 bales and this year will not make more than eighty.

Rev. R. W. Bowman is suffering from the effects of a spider bite.

H. M. Courtney is plowing his hay field with a view of planting it in wheat this fall.

J. A. McLeod of Goldthwaite was here this week visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. Y. Welch.

New Cure for Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Report of what C. E. Societies are doing for missions.—Corresponding Secretary.

Statement by leader of the names of the mission boards of our church. Where are the offices located? When were the societies founded?

Some of the Places Where Our Foreign Board Works and Name of Workers.—Miss Isla Cathey.

A Few Words About Some of the Great Missionaries Our Church Has Sent Out.—Alex Bateman.

Who Is Your Favorite Missionary.—Endeavorers.

The real Christian is the man or woman who has been made alive, and who lives by the Holy Spirit through our Lord Jesus Christ according to the will of God. Every appeal made to these men and women is based upon something as distinct and separate from that which animates and moves the worldling as light is from darkness. "Present yourselves to God as alive from the dead." The quotation indicates a life responsive to appeals that appear to and are treated by unregenerated and unspiritual men as foolishness. There is nothing in them that gives a glad response to that which comes in the name of Jesus, the Son of God.—Pacific Baptist.

Negro Youth a Lightning Calculator.

The Mirror states that Hillsboro has a mathematical prodigy in the person of a negro boy raised there, one who has attended school during only four terms and whose education in other branches is very limited. The negro is Dennis Simpson, a son of Bob Simpson, and he works in various capacities as a daily laborer. His remarkable faculty is especially ready in multiplication and he can state the product of any two numbers submitted to him containing two figures each as quickly as the average student can state that of two multiplied by two, the operation being altogether mental. A Mirror reporter saw him tested with such examples of multiplying 90 by 27, 19 by 23, 25 by 15, 33 by 19, etc., and the correct answers, which it required his interrogators from two to five minutes to prove by figuring them out on paper, were given almost before the questions were finished. Several examples were given him in which the factors contained three figures each and while not quite so ready in answering these, he did it in far less time than it required his questioners to figure out the results on paper, and did it entirely by mental process. The boy is, himself, unable to account for his unusual gift and states that at school he gave no more time to the study of mathematics than to that of any other branch.

Fresh home made candies at McCampbell & Herndon's.

An Irishman on returning to his native land gave vent to his joyful feelings by exclaiming repeatedly: "Hurrah for Ireland! Hurrah for Ireland! much to the amusement of the passengers, but very much to the disgust of an Englishman on board, who finally retaliated with these words: "Hurrah for Hell." "That's right," answered Pat, every man for his own country."

ALABAMA ADMIRATION

CITIES ARE CROWDED

Montgomery Is Thronged, While at Birmingham Never Before Did That City Contain Such a Gathering.

Birmingham, Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt's trip through Alabama Tuesday was in the nature of a triumphal march. At Montgomery, Tuskegee and Birmingham the receptions have been spontaneous and genuine. At many place along the route, where the train did not even stop, great crowds had gathered at the stations, and in one or two instances military companies were drawn up in line and saluted as the train sped by.

Excursions had been run from all over north Alabama and in addition to the local military companies, which acted as an honorary escort for the distinguished visitor, numerous companies from various points in the state came to the city and participated in the welcome. It is conservatively estimated that there were at least 100,000 visitors in the city to pay their respects to the chief man of the nation.

The president's train arrived promptly at 4:45 o'clock, according to schedule. Maoyr Ward, surrounded by a reception committee, consistinf of the most prominent men in Birmingham, at the union station delivered the formal address of welcome to the city. Immediately afterward the party entered carriages and began the march to Capitol park, eight squares distant. The parade was along North Twentieth street and the entire line of march was packed with a struggling mass of humanity, anxious to catch a glimpse of the city's guest. Every window of the big office buildings along the line was crowded and many of the roofs of structures were covered with people. Rows of incandescent lights the full length of the street made the scene all the more brilliant. The ovation to the president was continuous and he stood in his carriage the whole way, acknowledging the outbursts of enthusiasm. A pretty incident at the close of the march was when the president asked the name ow the lady riding at the side of his carriage. Miss Sallie Harris was sponsor ofr the troops in one of the local cavalry. The president as introduced to her by Mayor Ward, and as he reached over to shake her hand he crowded the mayor. Excusing himself, he said: "I would run over a man any time to shake hands with a lady."

At the corner of Fifth avenue and Twentieth street an intoxicated man dropped a pistol from his pocket. The president saw the incident, and called the attention of the officers to the man, who was arrested.

At Capitol park, under the glamour of thousands of electric lights, the party entered the speaker's stand and after Major Anderson, chairman of the committee on arranements, had succeeded in engaging the attention of the throng which crowded the whole park, and all streets leading up to it, General Rufus N. Rhoades, editor of the Birmingham News, welcomed the president on behalf of the citizens of Birmingham.

Great applause greeted Mr. Roosevelt when be arose to speak. He praised Alabama and Birmingham.

A Confederate badge was presented chief executive by Miss Sophie Wittichen, a grand niece of Admiral Semmes.

The party then went to the Alabama State Fair grounds, where Mr. Roosevelt made another address.

The president congratulated Alabama on the wonderful progress made in the past few years, along both industrial and agricultural lines. He praised the men who wore the grey and the men who wore the blue. In conclusion he said:

"During the time I have been president I have gone across the country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and from Canada to the Gulf. I have met our people by the hundreds of thousands, and the thing that has impressed me most in the audiences that I have addressed, has been the essential likeness of our people. The difference is slight and superficial. The likeness is fundamental and I feel that the average American is a progressive man."

CONFEDERATE CAPITAL.

Chief Executive Given a Warm Welcome at City of Montgomery.

Montgomery, Oct. 25.—Amidst the booming of cannon, blowing of whistles and the cheering of many thousands of people, President Roosevelt arrived promptly at noon Tuesday from Tuskegee, and then become the guest of the people of the first capital of the Confederacy. After a few preliminaries the parade began to move. He was welcomed on behalf of the city by Congressman Wiley, and for the state by Governor Jelks. The president made a brief speech. He stood but a few feet from where Hon. Jefferson Davis was inaugurated president of the Confederacy. He was presented with a bale of cotton and took a drive over the city.

Five Years For Harroun.

St. Joseph, Mo., Oct. 25.—W. H. Harroun, charged with having forged $700,000 worth of bills of lading and obtaining money on them, was found guilty and given five years in the penitentiary.

Synod in Session.

San Antonio, Oct. 25.—The Texas state synod of Presbyterian churches assembled in this in annual session, Rev. J. E. Freeman of Galveston, the retiring moderator, presiding.

[illegible] HONORED.

Member of Executive Committee Interstate National Guard Association.

Austin, Oct. 25.—Adjutant General Hulen received a telegram from General Dick, United States senator from Ohio and author of the "Dick bill," advising him that he (General Hulen) was on the executive committee of the Interstate National Guard association. This is considered quite an honor.

District Attorney Moore filed suit in the Twenty-sixth district court in the name of the state against the Texas company, one of the big oil companies at Beaumont, for taxes and penalties under the Kennedy bill, aggregating $30,000. The suit was filed without consent or authority of the attorney general.

The Southwestern Telegraph and Telephone company paid its taxes to the comptroller under the Kennedy bill. The total tax for the quarter ending Sept. 30 was $9560, but the company only paid in money $5881, having ben allowed credit on former law. Gross receipts for the quarter were $588,573. The company did not protest.

Chairman Storey of the railroad commission stated that the commission contemplated going after different roads in the state for failure to run passenger trains on schedule time. After the hearing is held an order will be issued the same as in the case of the International and Great Northern.

SENSATIONAL CHARGES.

Smith County Official Resigns and Makes Serious Allegations.

Tyler, Tex., Oct. 25.—County Attorney Hanson of Smith county has tendered to the county commissioners his resignation, filing a sensational document with the county clerk. He says he does not feel he can afford to run with certain officials in the enforcement of law. He charges that one certain official is "only for himself and not for the enforcement of law;" is willing to do anything for his own political interests. Alleges that the party in question disregards the rights of citizens in enforcement of law. He further alleges he cannot maintain his honor by carrying out his oath of office and enforcing the laws under said official.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Negro Grabs Telephone Wire Higher Up and Loses Own Life.

Tyler, Tex., Oct. 25.—A white man unknown came in contact with a telephone wire that had fallen across an electrice light one. The telephone wire became charged with 1050 volts of electricit. The white man's shouts brought Ed James, a negro, to him. The latter touched the wire further up and thus took the majority of the charge, releasing the white man, who ran away. Aneb Beall, another white man, grabbed James by the foot as the latter fell dead and was knocked down but not seriously hurt.

STABBED TO DEATH.

Deputy Marshal of Mount Calm Is Nearly Cut to Pieces.

Mount Calm, Tex., Oct. 25.—Deputy City Marshal Calloway was stabbed to death while trying to arrest Harmon Horne and Jake Early. Horne escapted and Early was jailed. Calloway, who was nearly cut to pieces, leaves a wife and three children.

HORRIBLE DEATH.

Boy Could Neither Eat Nor Drink and Had Terrible Convulsions.

Paris, Tex., Oct. 25.—A boy by the name of McCleskey died Wednesday morning of hydrophobia. He was bitten by a mad dog eight months ago. Just before his death he could neither eat nor drink, had terrible convulsions and one side of his body became totally numb.

TWENTIETH CHILD.

Oldest Is Twenty-One Years Old, the Youngest Has Just Arrived.

Owosso, Mich., Oct. 25.—Strenuous opponents of race suicide are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heise, whose twentieth child was born Tuesday. All the score of youngsters, from Fred, Jr., who is twenty-one, and the oldest, down to the last little girl, who has just opened her eyes on the world, are healthy and happy.

Heise has the contract for coaling Grand Trunk railway engines here, and is a respected German citizen.

BLOODY CONFLICTS.

Two of Them Take Place and Many Students Are Injured.

Ekaternoslav, Russia, Oct. 25.—Two bloody conflicts occurred here Wednesday between troops and demonstrators. The first took place opposite the municipal buildings and the second near Pushinki monument. Numbers were killed or wounded in both instances by volleys fired by soldiers. The demonstrators near the municipal buildings refused to disperse when ordered and erected barricades.

Meetings of students of schools who are on strike were dispersed by police, who made free use of their whips. Many students were injured.

TEN MILLION BALES.

National Ginners Estimate Total Cotton Output at These Figures.

Dallas, Oct. 25.—National Cotton Ginners' association states that up to Oct. 18 between 4,400,000 and 4,500,000 bales of cotton had been ginned. The total crop is estimated for the season at 10,000,000 bales.

Will Soon Run Trains.

Enid, Okla., Oct. 25.—Work is progressing rapidly on the denver, Enid and Gulf railway and in a few days trains will be running to Cherokee, the connection with the Orient.

VISITS LITTLE ROCK.

Capital City of Arkansas Has Mr. Roosevelt as Guest.

STREETS THRONGED

Chief Executive Has as Escort Men Wearing the Gray and Those Arrayed in Blue During the Days of Sixties.

Little Rock, Oct. 25.—President Roosevelt and party arrived at Argenta, a northern suburb, promptly on schedule time this morning.

Despite the threatening attitude of the elements a large crowd was present to welcome the president, the only untoward feature of the day's exercises was fear that a downpour of rain would occur at any moment. Rain had fallen continuously all Tuesday and Tuesday night. At 8 o'clock, however, the precipitation ceased and the streets immediately took on a lively appearance. The city was filled with visitors from all parts of the state. Excursion train had been run on all lines and it was early apparent the president's welcome would be lively during his stay here.

When the president's train arrived at Argenta over the Rock Island line a reception committee, headed by United States Senators Berry and Clarke, Governor Davis and Federal Judge Treiber, entered the chief magistrate's car and warmly welcomed him to Arkansas. The president did not alight frofm his car at Argenta, but the train proceeded to Big Rock, the nearest point to Fort Logan H. Roots. Here the president and party alighted and a visit was made to the fort, the party arriving there at 9:30 o'clock. After a brief reception the president inspected the barracks and grounds and expressed satisfaction at the excellent arrangement for the comfort of the troops. Nearly the entire early morning was taken up at Fort Roots and the start for the city was not made until 11 o'clock. When the carriages were drawn up a mounted escort took places beside the president. This escort, which was known as the "Blue and the Gray," consisted of twenty-four civil war veterans, twelve Union soldiers and twelve former Confederates and particularly pleased the president. It was announced this escort would precede the president's carriage throughout the entire day and act as his body guard.

The president, headed by the escort of honor and accompanied by the reception committee, reached the city shortly before noon. The streets were jammed with people. The president was loudly cheered as he passed along toward the City park. He seemed pleased with the cordiality of his reception. The party traversed Tenth street to the City park, which was reached at noon. The meeting was presided over by George W. Rogers, president of the Little Rock Board of Trade. When the president stepped forward to speak he was again greeted warmly.

President's speech was loudly applauded.

STRIKE SPREADS.

St. Petersburg Is Likely to Be Cut Off From Outside World.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 25.—Over half of European Russia is in the grip of striking railroad men and the strike continues to spread rapidly in all directions. The roads in the Volga region are at a standstill and a general strike has been proclaimed on the two remaining lines running out of St. Petersburg. It was thought Wednesday the capital would be cut off from the outside world by way of the continent. This, it was said, would also involve suspension of postal communication. League of Leagues seized the opportunity to come to the support of railroad men and adopted a resolution in favor of a general strike of all professions. Telegraph operators are joining in the movement, and suspension of railroad traffic, it is feared, will be followed by a complete suspension of communication between interior points.

The situation is critical and pregnant with all sorts of dire possibilities. Factories in affected districts have been forced to shut down for lack of fuel, and Moscow especially faces not only a food but water famine. Fortunately St. Petersburg will have an opening through Finland.

British Ambassador Hardinge, who bade farewell to Emperor Nicholas Tuesday previous to leaving St. Petersburg on mission of connection with proposed Anglo-Russian understanding, was unable to start for England Wednesday morning because no trainis were running.

Telegraphic communication between St. Petersburg and Kharkoff is broken. Workmen of Putiloff, Koijkoino, Alexandrovski and Nevesky works struck.

Social Democrats believe they have the government at their mercy since the railroads have stopped and authorities are powerless to transport troops. This is all the more serious as bloody collisions have already been reported at various places and a dangerous agrarian movement have again broken out in the government of Samaria.

Anarchy Reigns.

Copenhagen, Oct. 25.—Anarchy prevails at Riga, Russia, according to a dispatch from here by the Politiken. Conflicts are frequent. Many persons have been killed or wounded and government shops have been looted and destroyed. Polytechnic schools have been closed.

Leaf Tobacco Growers.

Houston, Oct. 25.—Texas Leaf Tobacco Growers' association meets here Nov. 14.

The fourth quarterly Methodist conference of the Bluff Dale circuit will convene at Post Oak charge next Saturday and Sunday, the 28th and 29th. Rev. Turner, the pastor, reports collections all pretty well up and the circuit in good condition both financially and spiritually. Presiding Elder Bailey will preside.

It is quite probable that a bank will be put in at this place in the near future. Mr. H. H. Hall of Hillsboro is here this week figuring with the business men and others relative to installing one and indications point very favorably to the end that we will soon have that convenience.

Rev. R. M. Ballentine was called to Morgan Mill Wednesday to officiate at the marriage of Mr. Neb Foster and Miss Gaither, two of that little burg's most prominent society people.

Mrs. R. E. Hall and Miss Lillie Glenn were in Stephenville Monday.

Quite a number of friends of our townsman, J. A. Duckett, are urging him to announce as candidate for the office of sheriff. Erath county produces no better timber for that office than Mr. Duckett, and if he decides to make the race he will surely win his share of the votes.

Up to Wednesday night the following record has been made by the local gins: Gordon & Balletine 754, Bluff Dale Gin Co. 365, A. P. Gordon 178.

"Uncle Josh Perkins."

"Uncle Josh Perkins" is the title of a play that has scored a success this season unprecedented in recent years. It is to be given here in all its entirety by the original company which first carried it on to prosperity and popularity. It will be produced here next Wednesday, Nov. 1st, at the city hall and it is certain to play to a packed house. Uncle Josh Perkins is a comedy drama; there is a touch of tragic nature that excites to an intense pitch the emotions of the spectators but all ends happily. The play is also livened up by the excellent comedy and when the spectators are not in tears over the misfortune of the beautiful young heroine and the shadows that appear to threaten her future, they are laughing and applauding uproariously at the funny antics of the comedians. Some new and exceedingly clever songs and specialties are also introduced at appropriate stages of the play, a vast amount of new and magnificent scenery is used for the impressive stage pictures presented in each of the four acts of the piece.

A Kansas man away from home received a dispatch from his wife saying, "come to see me at once. I am dying." He took the train immediately and reached home eight hours later. His wife received him joyfully. When he was able to speak, he asked her what she meant by sending him such a message. "I wanted to say that I was dying to see you," the woman explained, "but the man would only let me send ten words for a quarter."

Waco is jubilant over the fact that $75,000 is available for immediate work on navigating the Brazos river. Waco will now attempt to have the work begun near that city.

While rehearsing for the Fort Worth Amateur Circus, Henry Beck, cashier for the Fort Worth Light and Power company, had his foot crushed by his horse falling on him.
