MEXICAN RELATIONS GOOD, SAYS COOLIDGE

PRESIDENT FINDS NEIGHBORLY FEELING GREATLY IMPROVED

CONFERS WITH SHEFFIELD; ISSUES HOPEFUL STATEMENT

IS VERY FRIENDLY MINIMIZES THE ACTS OF BANDITRY IN SOUTHERN REPUBLIC

By United News. PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Sept. 8.—Relations between the United States and Mexico are considered by the United States administration to be more hopeful than at any time since Diaz was overthrown 13 years ago.

After a conference with James R. Sheffield, ambassador to Mexico, President Coolidge made known through his spokesman Wednesday that he sees great improvement in conditions in Mexico.

That such an opinion came directly after a conference with Sheffield is considered significant because the ambassador has been classed a die hard. It is a long swing from the belligerent statement which followed his visit with Secretary of State Kellogg a year ago when Kellogg warned Mexico that she was on trial before the world and threatened withdrawal of American recognition until violation of American rights stopped.

RISEN FROM DEFEAT, SHE STANDS WITH OTHER NATIONS

48 NATIONS VOTE CHORUS OF 'YES' GREET'S ADMISSION

BY HENRY WOOD. United News Staff Correspondent. GENEVA, Sept. 8.—Germany stands today shoulder to shoulder with the great powers of the world, on a party with those states comprising the league of nations who seek to secure international peace.

Risen from the trough of abject defeat by her remarkable economic and political recovery, the reich Wednesday was admitted to the league.

This, the biggest event in the league's history, was accomplished in an incredibly short time—five minutes. After that the well oiled machinery of the international body rolled with uninterrupted efficiency.

The roll call of the 48 nations was swift indeed.

Twelve nations, responding to the questions as to whether Germany should be admitted, answered: "Yes." The accredited delegates of 36 other nations said, in a matter of tone: "Oui."

This, 12 years after the turning point of the greatest battle of history, the battle of the Marne, the power which in 1916 suddenly realized that its armies could be defeated and that its march to Paris was only a dream, was again embraced as a brother and a friend.

A permanent council seat was also granted Germany. Simultaneously with this action, the assembly created three new non-permanent seats, increasing the council membership from 10 to 14.

LA FOLLETTE MAN WINS IN WISCONSIN ELECTION AFTER ALL

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 8.—With but a single upset to shake the solidarity of their political control in this state, the La Follette-Blaine group of republican progressives have won the state's primary in Wisconsin's long history of turbulent elections.

Save for the defeat of Herman Ekern, their candidate for governor, the new order of progressives have put their candidates in nomination for every important office that is within their power of the voters to fill.

Governor John J. Blaine, protégé of the late Senator Robert M. La Follette, Sr., close ally of Senator La Follette, Jr., was swept into the republican nomination for senator on a platform for beer, no world court, and immediate relief for the farmers. His victory over Senator Irvine L. Lenroot, the regular Coolidge republican, who led the senate fight for the world court in the senate, was the most brilliant the Wisconsin progressives have scored in many years.

Tabulations from 2,141 of the state's 2,729 precincts show Blaine leading 183,114 to 166,379.

A progressive victory over Lenroot was an achievement which "Fighting Bob" La Follette had long hoped would be his. But it remained for "Young Bob" the late senator's son, and political heir, to accomplish.

TRIAL OF DAUGHERTY AND MILLER GETS UNDER WAY

By United News. NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—The shadow of a pointing hand which for months has hovered near Harry M. Daugherty, President Harding's attorney general, and Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, has taken active form and aimed direct accusations against the two men charged with conspiracy to defraud the government they were appointed to serve.

Miller found himself the principal target of the prosecution as the trial of the two Harding administration leaders actually began Wednesday, with the government's introduction of its first testimony.

This testimony led to the point where Richard Merton, German industrialist, had been taken in charge by Jesse Smith and John T. King and finally introduced to Miller.

Merton is alleged to have obtained by bribes the return of $7,000,000 in seized German owned securities held by this government. He had come to this country to engineer the return of the metal firm's assets.

Brought back by a promise of immunity, Merton took the stand Wednesday as the government's star witness.

Smith, the former confidant and "man Friday" of Daugherty who figured prominently in the senate investigation that led to the latter's dismissal from the Coolidge cabinet, and who is actually alleged to have received the $20,000 bribe, is dead—a suicide.

King, former republican national committeeman from Connecticut also is dead, having succeeded a week after his indictment with Daugherty and Miller several months ago.

DEMOS SCORED BY JIM FOR FAILURE TO NAME KU KLUX

DAN BRAVER THAN REST OF CONVENTION, HE SAYS

ISSUES STATEMENT IS NOT SATISFIED WITH CONDEMNATION OF "SECRET ORDERS"

AUSTIN, Sept. 8.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson, down trodden in Texas politics, today condemned the state democratic convention for not having "nerve enough to name the Ku Klux Klan" outright in its platform but commended his former opponent, Dan Moody, democratic nominee for governor, because he was braver than the convention.

Ferguson, after looking over the morning papers which reported the convention yesterday at San Antonio, wrote a statement entitled "That awful state convention."

Neither Governor Miriam A. Ferguson or her husband attended the convention although they are members of the democratic party. The convention adopted in its platform a resolution condemning secret political organizations.

Ferguson said the convention had dealt "our ethalic friends the first slap in the face," but added that Moody was now "against the Klan."

"The platform denounced secret organizations in politics but did not have nerve enough to call the Klan by name," Ferguson said. "Even Moody was braver than the convention and said what they were doing in state politics. Though too late, I commended Moody for turning against the organization which plans to control his administration."

Ferguson mentioned Moody's campaign in which he referred to the Klan as a last year's bird's nest.

"The democratic state executive committee consists of a collection of 31 members of the Klan," according to Ferguson's statement, "notably J. W. Sullivan of Denton, and W. L. Tornton of Dallas."

18 Ounces Now Weight of Modern Damsel's Clothes

HOW much does the average girl wear?

As little as possible, is the answer. She evidently doesn't have much to burden her conscience or figure either, if figures are to be taken at their face value.

Eighteen ounces all in all, is the weight of the modern damsel's clothes. To prove the fact Dorothy Sebastian, featured player for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, has tried it out by weighing her complete outfit.

One lone "teddy" and a silk under-skirt, reserved for special occasions, constitute the tout ensemble of the "undies." Add to this a slight sports dress, rolled hose, and shoes—behold, mildity is arrayed.

"Excess baggage is a back number with the 1926 edition of flapperhood," says Miss Sebastian. "Minimum of clothes and maximum of health," is my motto. Extra clothes have been relegated to the attic, along with triple petticoats, bustles and corsets.

FASHION NOTES

Attention of the well dressed woman is becoming more and more directed to underthings. Correct corseting is a necessity in these days of expensive simplicity.

The underthings come without buttons or fastenings. They slip over the head and fit the wearer. Pleated ruffles inset over the hips are used a great deal on the chemises.

Materials for underthings are rayon, georgette, crepes, and printed pique silk is having a tremendous vogue.

THE MOTHER OF CHARLES E. HUGHES

Most commentators on the life of Charles Evans Hughes, former Secretary of State, and one of the distinguished of living Americans, agree that his most outstanding traits are his character and his education, and that both of these he owes to his parents.

Mr. Hughes was a peculiar boy. At the age of twelve he wrote essays on such subjects as, for example, "The Limitations of the Human Mind," and "The Evil of Light Literature"; on rainy days at an even earlier age, he climbed to the attic and for diversion, took out a big map and studied geography; at the age of seven he wrote articles on religious topics which he discussed with his father, who was a Baptist minister.

Such a boy needed careful upbringing and both his mother and father devoted their best attention to him. Sent to school at the age of five, he came home one day and told his parents he did not think he should attend school anymore. The "scholars" he said, were too slow in understanding their lessons and the teacher had to go over the same things many times. Consequently, he was wasting much time there. A better plan, he thought, would be to study at home.

Other parents might perhaps have given this precious lad a good scolding and sent him back to the classroom; but not so Mr. and Mrs. Hughes. They agreed to the plan of this boy of five, recognizing that he showed an independence of thought and action and should be encouraged.

His father then taught him Greek and Latin and to his mother fell the task of providing him with the useful branches of scholastic education, such as mathematics and English. So his boyhood passed under the influence of these good and understanding parents and in their hands developed that man who was to play such an important part in the government of his country.

Married Longer Than Any West Texas Couple

Perhaps the oldest and the longest married couple in West Texas are now visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jim Ralback and family some ten miles east of Lubbock. This aged couple is Dave Bancroft and wife, whose home is near San Angelo, Texas. They have been visiting another daughter, Mrs. Ruf Cowdrey and family of Garza County, who have also been visiting Mr. Cowdrey's two brothers and Mr. Ralback and family of Lubbock vicinity. Uncle Dave is 89 and his wife 88 and they are nearing their 66th marriage anniversary, both in fairly good health and fair prospects for other anniversaries.

Uncle Dave and wife were here about a year ago and were also here at the big Tech celebration in 1923. Of course Uncle Dave is an old "Johnny cake" ex-republican.

Congratulations and best wishes to this grand old couple and hoping that they may be able to pay us more visits and pass their 70th marriage anniversary.

T. J. ESTES.

They came from Marion County, Arkansas, to the big county of Tom Green about forty years ago, where they settled and still reside. Uncle Dave and his crew threshed my wheat on my little homestead in Marion County, Ark. in the 80's with an old horse power shaker thrasher. I was then just starting in married life with one of the best women Alabama ever produced.

Uncle Dave and wife were here about a year ago and were also here at the big Tech celebration in 1923. Of course Uncle Dave is an old "Johnny cake" ex-republican.

Congratulations and best wishes to this grand old couple and hoping that they may be able to pay us more visits and pass their 70th marriage anniversary.

Sports Frock for Young Girls

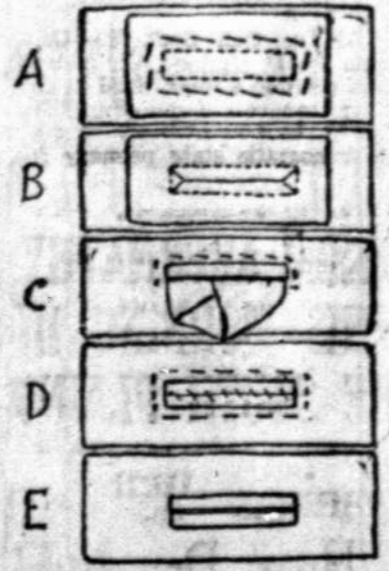

Model Easy to Reproduce

Dress the young sportswoman attractively and add to her zest for the game. This dress, carried out in silk, cotton or linen, is simple and chic.

One of the very smart things about this little frock is its method of adjustment. It opens straight down the front, being fastened with bound buttonholes, sewed on with thread to harmonize with the applique patches about the sleeves and lower edge of the skirt.

The bound buttonhole is always effective on garments of severe type. Not only does it serve as a trimming, but it gives splendid service. To make this type of buttonhole, first prepare the edge of at-least two thicknesses of material. Baste the front fold on the upper piece, then baste over this a cross-wise piece of material, using diagonal bastings. Then mark with crayon the exact length of the buttonhole. Through one thickness of the material, stitch on each side of the marking, exactly as for a welt pocket. Cut a diagonal slash to the corners and pull through the material to the wrong side, basting the edge back carefully. The welt edges are then brought together and overcast. (A) These bastings remain until the buttonhole is completed. Trim away the turned-in buttonhole edge and sew to the interfacing. Now cut the slash directly under the buttonhole in the underfacing piece and fold down the raw edges. Press carefully, remove all basting stitches, then press again to make the buttonhole smooth and smart in appearance.

The little applique patches put on between the rows of hemstitching may be omitted, or they may be replaced by braid or some other trimming, requiring less time to make.

Girls' Dress No. 285, cut in sizes 6 to 14 years, will be mailed promptly upon receipt of 15 cents. Be sure to give correct number and size of pattern desired when ordering. Write name and address plainly. Send orders to Pattern Editor, this newspaper.

SUIT FOR FURS RECALLS SLAUGHTER

BLOODY MASSACRE BY MAD BARON GETS ON RECORD OF FRISCO COURT

By JOHN F. RYAN (United News Staff Correspondent)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Out of the bloodiest massacre of a century, wherein the "living God of Mongolia" backed by Russia's "mad baron" sent ten thousand starving men against the holy city of Urga, a civil suit has come to the circuit court of appeals here.

The suit was concluded Tuesday, the lower court was affirmed and the dispute, which was over a stock of furs, was definitely ended. But the international upheaval caused by the massacre in which the very "soul of Buddha" was declared to have led the slaughtering hosts, still disturbs the number of diplomats.

Late in February, 1921, Urga's warehouses were piled high with furs and silver fox, and primitive Mongolian banks bulged with American and European silver to pay for them. Exchange of the silver for furs awaited only moderation of the temperature, 40 degrees below zero.

A few miles to the north, Baron Ungern Sternberg, of a famous family but insane, was fleeing with his ragged, hungry remnant of a czarist division to escape Red Russian troops against whom he had warred. Furs and silver would revive the troops and Urga would make an excellent base.

Sending spies into the city, the "mad baron" kidnapped the "living God" in whom the soul of Buddha was supposed to repose. Then under threat of death the "living God" was compelled to order his Mongolian horde to join the Russian ranks and sack his own beloved city. Five thousand men were slain in battle or butchered in the following pogrom and 15,000 defending Chinese soldiers were driven into the desert to freeze.

The silver fell to Baron Ungern. The "living God" returned to his palace, where he later died, and the furs went to New York.

The furs which caused some of the history of the bloody conflict to be recorded in court papers were in possession of Matevi Nostkoff, agent for the British-owned fur and wool company and were worth $150,000. While tattered herds ran amuck in the "holy city" one Sepaloff, Cossack Baron sterns commandant murdered Nostkoff, says the original complaint, and stole the furs which later came into possession of Anderson, Meyer and Company, an American and Danish concern incorporated in the Philippines.

The British firm sued Anderson, Meyer and Company for an accounting in the United States court in Shanghai. The original owners were awarded $67,319 and Anderson, Meyer and Company, which handled the furs, was awarded $8,376 for handling them.

Sitting in San Francisco, the circuit court heard the appeal, affirmed the judgment and ended the controversy.

The living Buddha died of senility and the "mad baron" was captured and executed by the soviets.

County Club Fair This Year Will Be a Big Affair

LAMESA, Sept. 8.—The annual Dawson county club fair has been set for Friday, September 24. The affair will be held in Lamesa and all the members of the women's and girls, home demonstration clubs and the boys of the farm project organizations will take part in the exhibits. There will be a department for the poultry show in which every poultry club member will be asked to enter a pen of the breed of poultry they are raising.

The women and girls will have a textile exhibit in which the required work of the clubs and other things will be shown. All the club girls of this county entering the state clothing contest will exhibit their work in the fair, but the county winners in the state contest will not be eligible for the prize awards, Miss Ezra Grimes, county demonstration agent says.

The members of the garden clubs will exhibit tomatoes in the fair. Each community will have a booth in which different kinds of project work will be shown. There will also be a general exhibit for canned goods and textiles for both women and girls. All contests and exhibits will be judged to the regulations of the State Fair catalogue.

The boys club will show dairy cattle, hogs, grain sorghum and cotton. A large premium list is being arranged and there will be something to interest the winner of every place in the fair, the county agent says.

Specialists on various phases of club work in connection with the extension department will be here and will make addresses during the day. This fair will give the people of this section an opportunity to see the actual results of the work being done here by the extension service workers.

COOLIDGE FINDS PRO LAW STAYS

PRESIDENT QUESTIONS VISITORS TO FIND HOW COUNTY STANDS ON BOOZE

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
PAUL SMITH'S, N. Y., Sept. 8.—As he questions prominent visitors, who comes here, President Coolidge finds confirmation of his judgment that statutory prohibition is here to stay, whatever its merits.

This view is impressed on him from all sides, by politicians, business men, civic leaders, and those in a position to detect undercurrents of sentiment. This view is held so strongly that the question of modification scarcely enters into consideration at all. All attentions is being focused on the problems of enforcement.

Attorney General Sargent arrived at White Pine camp Tuesday for an indefinite stay. Of the many questions to be discussed between the President and Sargent, prohibition will be one of the most prominent. Sargent has refused to consider any alternative to rigorous enforcement. It is probable that the President's discussions with Sargent will result in his including in his next message to congress an endorsement of the Goff enforcement bill which would centralize all enforcement machinery in the hands of Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, Incoln C. Andrews, and eliminate the divided authority, now shared by Commissioner of Internal Revenue Blair. Andrews has intimated that enactment of this bill was essential to his remaining in office through the coming winter.

Andrews is vacationing at Lake Champlain, a short distance from here. Whether he will be invited to visit Paul Smith's is doubtful as the President desires to keep discussion of prohibition in the background until after the election, so as not to embarrass Republican candidates who are wet or are trying to skip over this ice.

GAINES WILD CAT DOWN 2450 FEET
MIDLAND, Sept. 8.—The wildest test of Mahon & Johnson in the Cedar Lake area of Gaines county, their No. 1 Lindsey, found a 60 foot thickness of lime topped at 2,220 feet. It is now drilling at 2,450. The owners believe that the finding of this lime indicates that the log is running high.

The location was made in the hope of finding a subsurface ridge running westward into New Mexico from the Mitchell county area and roughly paralleling a hypothetical high running in an approximately parallel direction from the Reagan county field.

Fall Round-ups Start Near Alpine

ALPINE, Texas, Sept. 8.—The Fall roundup on the Harmon & Jackson ranches in the Big Bend got off to a good start the first of September, and branding is progressing nicely. On the Harmon & Jackson ranches the round up will continue for a month or more. Branding and rounding up the cattle on other Big Bend Davis Mountain ranches will continue throughout the fall months, finishing the branding of highland herds about Christmas time.

Rains have been falling as if ordered by the highland cattle men and range conditions are the best. All live stock is in the finest condition possible to begin the winter. The following livestock deals have been closed here recently: George Benson purchased the Walter Matthews herd of cattle, 440 of which have been delivered. The balance will be received later.

W. H. Terry shipped a car of cows and calves to Fort Worth, which he sold for $1040. The cows weighed on an average of 917 pounds and the calves averaged 257 pounds.

Harmon & Jackson bought a bunch of mares from local parties and are ranging them in the Glass Mountains. C. B. Denman, a St. Louis buyer is in Alpine to buy ten thousand calves, and Mr. Temple, of Wichita, Kans., is here looking for five or six thousand calves. California buyers are also in the field. Among them are Messrs. Coper and Bill Connelley, representing the Cudahay people.

It is expected that several important transactions will be made in the next few days.

YOU CAN'T BE LOYAL TO TWO COUNTRIES

The Good Book says that one cannot serve two masters. By the same token one cannot hold sincere allegiance to two countries—he cannot hold aloft two flags and be loyal to both at the same time. One or the other must ride at the top of the mast. Loyalty is an attribute akin to godliness. Treason is the outward expression of gratitude.

President Coolidge says that the greatest danger to our Government today, lies among those who are here, but who are unassimilated in heart and spirit, and whose greater love is still for the foreign lands they left to better their condition in the United States. It is not unnatural nor even cause for criticism, that a person coming to the United States from some foreign country, should retain a certain degree of love for the land of his birth. All citizens of the United States descended from foreign lands, and there is no disrespect in this. We love to trace our ancestry back to the Pilgrim Fathers, and even beyond. But there is a limit to ancestral boastfulness. Marital vows remove a young man or a young woman from the paternal home, and a new home is chosen. This does not mean that love and respect for the old home should be obliterated; but it does mean that a new altar has been erected—a new hearthstone built and dedicated to a new life, and this is the altar and this is the hearthstone that demands loyalty above all others. So it is with the country of one's adoption. No man ever came to the United States of America except of his own volition, urged by a desire to obtain greater temporal blessings. The highways of the seas are never closed against his return, if he finds himself unhappy under the laws and under the Constitution of this country.

Loyalty to God, to country, to home and to one's self commands confidence of others and bestows good citizenship.

"OMIT" PRESENTS

Following closely upon the heels of the obituary words, "No Flowers," comes the wedding invitation with the words, "No Presents," engraved in the corner, and announcing thus to the world at large that it is presence and not presents.

Thus begins the emancipation of civilization from two customs which have enslaved it for centuries, perhaps ages. Many persons have refrained from being married with relatives and friends around them and have stolen off alone to a justice of the peace simply to avoid the heaping up of useless, though expensive, gifts which were only so many promissory notes to be repaid in kind at some future and probably inconvenient time.

Federal flowers have even less to recommend them than have wedding presents, for the men for whom they are sent has already passed beyond the sphere of their enjoyment.

The members of two socially prominent families having had the courage to announce that wedding presents would be an inconvenience and an embarrassment, others may be emboldened to do likewise, and we may eventually eliminate a practice that has been a source of real hardship that has not been possible of avoidance heretofore without giving offense.

PUBLIC OPINION NOT INFALLIBLE

Prof. George H. Blakelee, of Clark University, recently made some very intelligent observations on public opinion, and we think they should be passed along, especially to those devotees of the vox-populi vox dei theory. Prof. Blakelee said that public opinion was not always peaceful or wise. He pointed out that public opinion was affecting the policies of democratic governments more and more, and as a constructive suggestion he offered the words of Elihu Root, who said, "If democracy is going to control foreign affairs as it is, democracy should know something about the subject." Now, this is what we call common sense. Continuing, and dealing with international affairs Prof. Blakelee made a plea for the "international mind"—not "the mind of the internationalist, but a mind which will lead to the sympathetic understanding of the point of view, the culture and the sensibilities of other peoples." If the world is to have peace it is quite necessary that the average voter in a country which permits the people to dominate foreign affairs acquire what Prof. Blakelee calls an "understanding of the point of view, the culture and the sensibilities of other people." It is for this reason that in our columns we often treat of foreign affairs because in the United States the pressure of public opinion will inevitably direct our foreign relations. Because it is vital for our readers to understand international affairs of other nations as well as our own. Any citizen who wishes to be honest in his attitude toward public and international affairs will want to see something of both sides to all questions. As we conceive the functions of a newspaper the duty of affording readers that opportunity rests upon the press, and particularly, the editors of the country.

CHICAGO INVADES ABYSSINIA

More exploring. An American expedition, representing the Field Museum of Natural History in Chicago, is going to Abyssinia to see what natural curiosities it can find in that remote, lofty and mysterious tableland which rises like a vast island out of the African plain. It may have luck. For the first time, the ruler of Abyssinia has given his consent and help to a scientific invasion. Many wonders may be revealed in the great mountains, gorges, jungles and fastness of that ancient land, over which the Queen of Sheba once reigned and which was defeated against Islam long afterward by the Christian king, Prester John. The mysterious Mountains of the Moon will be explored. The rare animals in particular will be sought for the Chicago museum. They are the smooth-skinned rhinoceros, which presumably never got any crumbs under its hide like the rhino in Kipling's story; an ibex larger and rarer than the Marco Polo sheep that the Roosevelt boys shot in Central Asia; and a superb beast called the guala, otherwise known as the Queen of Sheba's antelope. There may be archeological discoveries, too. The explorers say there is a walled city there never entered by foreigners. If they penetrate to that city and its secret temples, will they find the lost Ark of the Covenant which, according to the sacred books of Abyssinia, was brought from Solomon's Temple, and which tradition says has been preserved by the Abyssinian priesthood ever since? That would be a find indeed.

WHERE WOMEN RULE

An American college professor, returning from South Africa, reports a "feminine paradise" he discovered there. It is in northern Rhodesia among a native tribe called Lambas. The tribe is "matriarchy," one of the most ancient forms of tribal organizations known, which is still found in some branches of the Tibetan race in the Himalayas. The mother is head of her family and village, and absolute ruler, except for such powers as are exercised by the mother-in-law. The men hang around and obey orders. They have no authority over the children. The women arrange all the marriages. The right of succession, in property as well as rulership, is always in the feminine line. No doubt the women are happy and contented there. Or at least as contented as it is in the nature of women to be. Nothing is more conducive to feminine peace of mind than bossing the menfolk around. Yet, on the whole, are those blessed African females such a lot better off than American women, who boss things pretty much the same, except that they do it here under the kindly camouflage of letting the men imagine they're the bosses?

THE MISER

Poor little old Matilda Ries, a laundress by lay and a pencil vendor by night, was taken by the New York police for soliciting alms in the subway and was subsequently sent to the insane asylum. She had $1,800 in bills sewed into her clothing, and under her bed in the hotel where she lived was half a ton of small coins worth nearly $10,000. She had toiled and hoarded and reveled in her treasure and sought ever more eagerly to add to it until the treasure possessed her. She wore herself out, body and mind, and looked to be 63 instead of 43, and finally lost all count of dollars and cents, it got to be so hard to add up her savings, with pencil and paper, that she couldn't sleep any more. And then, the responsibility of safeguarding it! At every step on the stairs she would start up and cry, "Are you coming to rob me?" Of course that has nothing to do with any of the rest of us. Yet there is more than one kind of useless hoarding. And many are the people "denuded with the mania of owning things," who clutter up and wear out their lives taking care of useless possessions instead of living.

SCHOOL IS NEAR

Christmas comes but once a year, and so does the middle of August. Each gets a children's ditorial. This is the one thing about getting the children's eyes and teeth and such fractions of the anatomy ready for school. No matter how peppy and "hard as nails" the young people seem, let the family doctor have one good look at them. If they need anything special, he will advise it, and it is a great deal better to get these affairs attended to now than after school begins. The school nurse has trouble enough with the children of parents who are not sensible. Why add to her labors the things you know enough to do for yourselves? Many a child who is habitually behind in his work and who hates school and gets into mischief need only a properly fitted pair of glasses to be him at the head of his class. Some children are only half the teacher says. If there is anything he matters with heart or lungs, now is the time to find it out. If the child is in fine shape, it is his doctor's fee to have him say so. If anything is wrong, it is infinitely easier to take care of it while he is difficult and the children both are all.

THE RUSSIAN REVOLT

Is the Russian Revolt a midsummer myth? It is a special investigator sent there by the New York Herald Tribune reports that there is no revolt; because the theories of Bolshevism have been tempered with practicality until the remnants of the interior are now supporters of the regime.

It has become a favorite device of the newspapers on dull days to stage another "Russian Revolution." So far they do not materialize and we must assume that Russians like the kind of government they are getting.

THEY NEVER DO THIS BUT ONCE

So Think We

We think Jim is dead wrong when he says Ma is a good sport, for the good sports nearly always pay their election bets.

We think that possibly the fear of becoming an old maid may be the cause of many a divorce. Some of the old maids will tell you that it is not so terrific after all, to bear that distinction, and so far as we are concerned, there is more honor in being an old maid than having a divorce suit.

We think the old theory of supply and demand controlling the price must have been knocked cold in Pennsylvania. A few weeks ago at the primary election, there were more voters voted than ever before, still the cost of votes was much higher.

We think unless we are going to stand squarely behind the enforcement officers of the laws of this country and Lubbock that we might just as well not have any officers, and let crime run rampant.

We think that the old saying that one half of the world does not know what the other half is doing, may be true, and possibly that is as it should be.

We think this is a wonderful country anyway. Just about the time we get to the point where we cannot blame anything else on the war, we find that prohibition has been the cause of the downfall of the nation.

We think that if there are as many detours in the air as there are on the ground, we can't see much advantage of getting up in the air.

We think one of the very greatest examples of optimism might be credited to the bald-headed man, who bought a bottle of hair restorer from a local druggist a few days ago and with it requested a comb and brush.

We think that Lubbock did not just happen, but it was built by men of wide vision and determination and those fellows are still here, and Lubbock is still building. If you do not believe it, just drive over the town.

We think unless we are ready at all times for the unexpected we will hardly succeed in this great big wide world.

We think it is the worst thing an earth some folks can receive as a prize.

We think that happiness will keep the wrinkles away better than all of the facial creams that mortal man ever made.

That the government says there will be more than fifteen million bales of cotton in the United States this year. The worms and insects, however, are doing their parts to keep the production down.

We think that the educators are taking a great interest in health condition, but they are the child's mind and the general not stressing the importance of good, clean play. This, we believe, is very essential.

We think a good stiff gasoline tax is better than a tax on cars, regardless of how much they run. It will build better roads and more roads.

We think Lubbock streets have been wonderfully improved within the past few months, but there are still a few more that should be paved an dwe believe the people will want them fixed up in good style.

We think that work is not profitable without play, and play is not enjoyed without a certain amount of work. It takes the combination to make a go.

It Is Reported

That the Symphony Orchestra made quite a hit with the people of this city in their program at the Tech Pavilion last night.

That the Rotary baseball team has developed quite a reputation (we will not say what kind) and will play the peddlers when they come to Lubbock for their annual frolic.

That the Slaton Rotarians are all fixed up to pour it on the Lubbock Rotarians, when they meet the mon the Slaton diamond, to exchange courtesies with them for the visit that they made us some time ago.

That the boys who go prairie chicken hunting in the counties to the southwest claim that they are unable to connect up with many of them.

That Sweetwater has struck oil. There may be a specific use for that section of West Texas yet.

That some of the fellows, even no further away than Snyder, seem to think that the sun gets so hot in this country (the South Plains) in the summer that people go around with their tongues out and fanning themselves to sleep at night, and in the winter the weather is cold enough to freeze horns off the heads of the cattle. It's funny that people who are supposed to be reasonably sensible should act that way.

That the Lamesa baseball team will return home tomorrow and the old home town is going to give them a royal reception. Why not? They did well and brought back honors that only one other team in the tournament excelled.

That the cotton is opening up very fast South of Lubbock county, and all that is on the stalks will mature thoroughly before any danger of frost, which means a big crop.

That the South Plains expects to have a large increase in hogs next year. We hope they won't be road hogs.

That the traveling salesmen are looking forward with a great deal of interest to the jubilee they are to have here the 16th.

To All Who Live In Lubbock

In the United States there are many towns but only one home town. That is your town!
In your home town there are many people but only one really important person. That is you!
What a combination—you and your home town!

The other people in this town count little. What you think of what they do counts less, but what they think of you is what your home town thinks of you, and that is important.
Your home town can't read your mind. The ideas that move your brain and the acrobatic feeling that stir your heart, are not known in your home town unless you make the more than thought or emotion. Nobody else can show your town what you are unless you do the work yourself. It is your job.

What have you ever done, in the way of demonstrating yourself? Why should anybody in this town have an idea that you are other than a selfish man, looking off for your own pocket, and caring little about the future of the coming citizens of this town?

Have you done anything to show our people that you are their friend? Is your time, or your money available for the common good? Does your life here represent to others the brotherly feeling in your heart?

WASHINGTON NOTES

Reservations
The nations adhering to the World Court are now in session to consider the reservations proposed by the United States before it would sign the "Statute." These are, first, that it will involve no relation to the League of Nations or any obligation under the Treaty of Versailles; second, for the United States to participate in the election of judges; third, for the United States to pay a fair share of the expenses; fourth, for withdrawal at any time and against any amendment to the Protocol without consent of America; and, fifth, that the Court shall not entertain requests for any advisory opinion touching any dispute or question in which the United States claims an interest without the consent of the United States. This last reservation is the only one which may cause some delay in agreement.

Coming In
July was the first month of the new fiscal year and immigration allotment to the various countries began. The examination of prospective immigrants from Great Britain, Ireland, Germany, Luxembourg, Denmark and Norway are now made by American public health officials before they depart, and as a result of this, these immigrants do not have to land at Ellis Island. The largest number of immigrants in July came from Germany, which sent 4,811, while 3,578 came from Ireland and 2,058 from Britain.

Tobacco
The tobacco tax of the United States government brought in $32,123,060.69 in July 1926, which was a decrease of more than a million dollars over the figures of July, in 1925. Eight billion cigarettes, lack a few million, were produced in the month, which was about 350,000,000 more than produced in the same month a year earlier. The manufacture of cigars, large and small, showed a decrease for the same comparative periods.

Pretty
It costs money to look our best. During the year 1925, 141,488,000 worth of toilet articles were manufactured and all excepting ten million dollars worth was consumed in the United States. Facial creams and ranges to the value of more than thirty-four million dollars, talcum and other powders worth more than twenty-one millions, perfume and toilet waters in value over twenty millions and other toilet necessities, such as tonics, dyes, dentifrices and the like make up the balance of the bill.

Importer
In Japan practically one-half of the total manufactured goods imported represent purchase by the Imperial government, which operates the railways, the tobacco and camphor monopolies, numerous factories, and requires many things for the army and navy. Few other governments engage in the importing business to such an extent.

Bronze
Bronze will replace brass, gold, gilt or gilded metals now used for buttons, insignias and ornaments in the United States Army because it has been found that bronze has a lower visibility and at the same time would be more economical.

RULES FOR CHILDREN

- Advice about raising children is plentiful, and H. C. Hines in Scribner's Magazine offers nine rules:
1. Let the child know definitely what is expected of him.
 2. Do not threaten with punishment unless you are willing to administer it should it be needed.
 3. Make the "punishment fit the crime," by making it meet the needs of the particular child insofar as these may be determined.
 4. Act immediately after the misdemeanor has been committed, but never in anger.
 5. See that the child understands why he is being corrected.
 6. Impress upon the child that the presence of low standards in others does not justify their imitation.
 7. If a misdemeanor once corrected has been repeated be consistent in repetition of correction.
 8. Formulate rules that must be obeyed in order that the child may take his rightful place in the social world about him.
 9. Insist on obedience; persist in securing it.

THE MIRACLE OF TIME

There is in grief a sweetness past compare,
A lovely beauty pleasure never finds,
When first it strikes the blow is hard to bear,
We drape the door and draw the window blinds,
So deep the hurt, so cruel is the pain
We wonder shall we ever smile again.
Men have no magic that can soothe the blow,
Those, who have suffered bid us to be brave,
They whisper that it may be better so!
Better to put your loved one in a grave?
Even the strong in faith that argument
In sorrow's hour will bitterly resent,
Yet as the days and weeks and months slip by
Time heals the wound and with a lovely touch
Softens the light of sadness in the eye,
And bids us talk of her we loved so much,
We have such sweet remembrances of her,
We find our lives are richer than they were.
We can not say just why this should be so,
We who have suffered tell you now in tears
That as the dreary, lonely months shall go
Surely the pain of grieving disappears,
In time you'll find the anguish of despair
Is freighted with a sweetness, past compare.

CLASS B FOOTBALL COACHES NAME EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN

NEW RULING OF STATE INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE CALLS FOR DISTRICT CHAIRMAN IN FOOTBALL FOR DIST. TO SETTLE ROWS

C. L. SONE, SUPT. SLATON SCHOOLS, WAS CHOSEN BY LUBBOCK DISTRICT COACHES AS THE FOOTBALL CHAIRMAN OF INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

Yesterday afternoon the coaches of the Lubbock interscholastic league district of the class B schools met at the Texas Tech pavilion to instigate the new ruling made by the executive committee of state interscholastic league. That is to elect a permanent chairman of the district and also to name an executive committee in the district to settle all controversies and disputes that arise in their respective districts. By doing this it will eliminate much time and confusion on the part of the entire league and thereby give the teams a more perfect and smooth schedule to abide by.

Supt. C. L. Sone of the Slaton city schools was elected by the coaches present as the chairman of the football activities for the Lubbock district of class B schools. It was then suggested and passed upon that the Lubbock district be divided into four sub-districts and a representative of each sub-district be a member of the executive committee and act on all matters that might arise for settlement in connection with the chairman.

Spt. J. C. Wester of the Floydada city schools was named as committee chairman of district No. 1, composed of Dickens, Floyd, Hale and Lamb counties. Supt. W. E. Patty of the Falls city schools, was named committee chairman of district 2, composed of Crosby, Lubbock, Hookley and Cochran counties. Supt. Baze of the Post city school was appointed committee chairman of district 3, composed of Garza, Lynn, Terry and Gaines counties. Supt. Rogers of Lamesa city schools was named committee chairman of district 4, composed of Scurry, Dawson and Andrews counties.

The chairman shall act as a member of the committee, and has a vote in the settlement of all controversies. Immediately following the selection of the executive chairman and committee the discussion of the schedule games among the class B coaches was taken into consideration and a final agreement made, in which it was decided that the schools of the same rank and there about should play among themselves thereby creating a more even and better matched game.

Teams that were selected in the first group as to be matched were clubs of Falls, Spur, Littlefield, Floydada, Post, Lamesa, Tahoka, Slaton, Lockney, Snyder. Teams that should be matched in group two were Brownfield, Levelland, Eudon, Amherst, Otton, Hale Center, Lorenson, Crosby, Dickens, Southland, Mileshee, Idaho.

The manner of decision on the championship will be decided as to the teams' percentage standing for the entire season. It was pointed out that the class B schools were allowed to meet with class A schools without effecting their percentage standing.

A hard schedule has been arranged by Coach Wester and with many of them away from home. The schedule was announced by Wester today was:

THIRTY REPORT TO COACH VON TUNGLER AND FRNKA FOR FIRST WORKOUT IN THE HIGH SCHOOL WESTERNER CAMP WED.

Big! Over! Up! Roll! Crawl! Hands! Up! Hands down! Best! un-... That was the conversation and commands roared out to the recruits of the high school Westerners in their opening training camp yesterday afternoon when some thirty reported to coaches Von Tungen and Frank at the high school scrimmage grounds.

The Westerners have had one week's preparation with training at Silver Falls near Crosbyton. At this encampment Von Tungen had in training some thirty men who are praiseworthy members of the Westerners squad.

Brighter prospects for the season are looming as the training starts and it is very likely that the Westerners will be strong contenders for the Class A championship this year.

According to Coach Von Tungen arrangements are being made where by the games schedule for this year will be played on the Matador Gridiron.

An incomplete schedule was announced yesterday afternoon by Coach Von Tungen as follows:
Oct. 1, Post at Lubbock during South Plains fair.
Oct. 8 Lamesa at Lamesa (tentative).
Oct. 22 Lubbock at Plainview.
Oct. 29, Amarillo at Lubbock.
Nov. 5, Littlefield at Lubbock.
Nov. 1, Roswell New Mexico at Roswell, (tentative).

WILMINGTON, Del.—George E. Jones, accidentally killed his own son, when the boy, unseen by his father, ran in front of a truck load of peaches drive by Jones. He was so badly hurt that he died in the Mildred hospital.

LAMESA SANDSTORMERS ARE UNDER DIRECTION OF FORMER A. C. C. STAR

LAMESA, Sept. 8.—Under the direction of Stevens, formerly of the A. C. C. Wildcat aggregation, a recently appointed coach of the Lamesa Sandstormers much is to be expected of the local eleven in the class B football realm of the Lubbock district.

Stevens comes to Lamesa as an all around athlete having been a member of "Bugs" Morris' eleven at A. C. C. for the past two years and with the Wildcat Coaches, the Wildcat baseball club. He was a three letter man at the Christian college and has a remarkable record in that institution.

The new mentor announces his car for the gridiron session as follows:
Sept. 24, Snyder at Lamesa.
Oct. 8, Lubbock at Lamesa (tentative).
Oct. 15, Slaton at Lamesa.
Oct. 22, Lamesa at Tahoka.
Oct. 29, Post at Lamesa.

Stevens has correspondence out at the present time for game to fill in his schedule for the year. He hopes to have a complete schedule.

TO REBUILD HOUSE
FREDERICK, Md.—A company has been formed to restore the home of Barbara Fritchie, Whittier's war heroine. The company has purchased the site of the Fritchie home and after razing the building now on the site, a copy of the little home, including the attic window from which she is said to have waved the flag, will be erected.

Fifty years ago Dan O'Leary was the long distance walking champion of the world. Today the old veteran is still giving exhibitions in ball parks at the age of 86. O'Leary's remarkable career was started in 1863 when he won the championship of Ireland. In annexing the Galic crown, he completed over a fifty mile course against six opponents. In 1874 he came to America and engaged Wilson Reade in a twenty mile contest at Barnum's Hippodrome. He won the championship of the United States in 1875 and took the world's title from twenty Englishmen in 1878. In winning the crown, O'Leary covered 520-1/2 miles in six days and six nights, finishing 20 miles ahead of the second man. In 1880 at San Francisco, O'Leary defeated Edward Payson Weston, famous American walker and at one time title holder. Dan O'Leary celebrated his 85th birthday in Cincinnati by walking 100 miles in 24 consecutive hours.

Since starting his phenomenal career, the grand old man has hiked in 3,000 cities all over the world and estimates a mileage of 289,000 miles.

O'Leary is a professional. As much as he loves the sport, he thought that walking hundreds of miles should have its reward. We are inclined to agree with him, considering the fact that most of us hire taxis to go a few blocks.

Much interest is being manifested over the game and a large crowd of Lubbock rooters will accompany the team. The Rotary club will also meet the Peddler's base ball team here during the Jubilee next Saturday.

Articles found in the stomach of a cow butchered in Kansas City included shotgun and pistol cartridge shells, wire nails and scraps of brass, iron and steel.

TUNNEY LOAFING AND SWAPPING YARNS CONFIDENT OF VICTORY: WILL BE REAL FIGHT, NOT PINK TEA, SAYS MARINE

BY FRANK GETTY
United News Staff Correspondent
STROUDSBURG, Pa., Sept. 8.—

Loafing gracefully on a rubbing table in the front parlor of the little country club which has been converted into his training quarters, Gene Tunney, who in another fortnight will shoot at a million dollars worth of fistic fame and fortune, passed a long lazy afternoon talking about the forthcoming heavy-weight championship fight.

As he talked, one gathered an impression of quiet confidence. When he moved, the muscles of his big, well trained body rippled beneath the simple khaki costume, bespeaking ready power. There is no doubt that the erudite marine is by far the most impressive of any of the men who have met Jack Dempsey in quest of the title. Wednesday was a day of rest for the challenger, but his headquarters on the little green hillside overlooking the rolling golf course were surrounded by a curious throng—villagers, tourists, summer vacationists, content just to sit in the shade and wait for an opportunity to catch a glimpse of Gene.

So Gene, perforce, stayed in the parlors with blinds down, for the autograph hunters have given him writers' champ and the amateur photographers have taxed his patience to its obliging limit. An excellent opportunity thus was furnished to study the challenger, weigh him in the balance with the drawn-faced, Indian-brown, nervously energetic champion, who also is resting, but in vastly different surroundings at Atlantic City.

There is this big difference—Tunney can relax; Dempsey can't. A day off for Dempsey means 24 hours of nervous fidgeting and worry until the time for action comes again. Gene swaps stories and laughs as though he had a care in the world. But the challenger knows he is in for a battle.

"What the hell! Its going to be a fight, not a pink tea," Gene said, apropos of some chance remark about Dempsey's partiality to the rabbit punch. The remark was made in precisely the tone of voice in which Tunney and his fellows "leathernecks" might have remarked upon an engagement in the Argentine.

Gene does not figure, however, upon engaging Dempsey in any such rough and tumble affair as the champion and Luis Angel Firpo indulged in at the polo grounds three years ago.

"No suging match," said Tunney, a trifle scornfully, "while I figure on fighting Dempsey and not just boxing him, it won't be another Firpo affair. I saw the fight and Dempsey looked all right, but you couldn't get a good line on him because they both were slugging so furiously."

It seems that has made up his mind that he is in for the fight of his life, and is not boasting about the probable outcome. His conversation evinces a cultured scorn for the champions mental attributes, but a sincere respect for Dempsey's fists.

Rotary Nine Will Play in Slaton
The Lubbock Rotary Club will journey to Slaton tomorrow and engage in a fast ball game with the Slaton Rotarians. The Rotarians have conquered every civic team in town and are now out for more conquests. Manager Chas. Guy announced yesterday that he would take his strongest aggregation down to the neighbor city. The following men will be ready for action: Sted Allen, pitcher; Bennie Hilburn, catcher; Byron Dickinson, 1st base; Charlie Guy 2nd base; Guy McFee, 3rd base; Judge Raley short stop; and Oscar Sensabaugh, Edgar Ingram, Joe Griffith, Homer Grant and Will Jackson fielders.

Much interest is being manifested over the game and a large crowd of Lubbock rooters will accompany the team. The Rotary club will also meet the Peddler's base ball team here during the Jubilee next Saturday.

Tailors Even Score With T. U.

The R. O. Tailors evened the count one all yesterday in the "Little World" series by downing the Utilities 6 to 3. Craver who twirled with Dillard for a day Tuesday was touched for six safeties, one a homer and the other a double. Smith for the Tailors allowed only four safeties and only on run was earned.

The Utilities played good ball with the exception of four errors which cost them three runs. In the third, Tatum hit to center and the fielders got mixed up as to who's ball it was and it fell safe. Sides followed with a grounder to Ater who let it by and both men were safe. Bob Huie then won the honors of the day by lifting one squarely in the nose for four bases. The ball went over center field wall.

The Utilities scored in the fourth when Brock singled by second and Smyre followed with a crashing double to left. Tatum misjudged C. Brock's long liner to center on the next play and Smyre scored. In the fifth, Ater drew a walk and stole second, scoring when E. Brock singled over second. The two teams will play the third game of the series at Morrill Park this afternoon at six o'clock.

PIRATES JOIN REDS ON SECOND RUNG

Refusing to be counted out of the National league pennant chase, the world's champion Pirates administered a knockout blow to the Reds Wednesday, taking both ends of the header and moving to within a point of second place.

As a result of the double victory, Pittsburgh now is three and a half games from the league leading Cardinals, who did not play, while Cincinnati is three games behind the leaders.

Good pitching spelled defeat for Hendricks crew in both games. The bespectacled Lee Meadows allowed his opponents nine hits in the opener, the Pirates winning 6 to 1, while the recruit Hill gave only as many in the second game, the final score being 11 to 0.

Both the Yanks and Cleveland lost in the American league, the Hugmen thereby retaining their seven game advantage and making it more difficult for the Indians to catch them. After losing 17 games straight, the Red Sox reared up on their toes and beat the Yanks 5 to 2. Meanwhile Detroit beat Cleveland in

The best of workers get out of work when the liver fails to act. They feel languid, half-sick, "blue" and discouraged and think they are getting lazy. PALMER WILL GO TO SCOUT MEETING

SOUTH PLAINS EXECUTIVE TO NATIONAL CONFERENCE AT HOT SPRINGS

The South Plains and Lubbock will be represented in the fourth biennial conference of the scout executives of the United States which will be held at Hot Springs, Arkansas, September 20 to 27. H. B. Palmer, executive for this section will attend the conference and tell of the possibilities of this great South Plains. He will carry with him his biennial report of this area and will present one of the best ever in the history of South Plains scouts. A larger enrollment, more scout masters, a new camp and other things will be included in the report.

Scout executives from all over the United States will attend the conference and several are expected from foreign countries. Palmer will go from here to the Ozark mountains where he will attend a short training camp of the executives of the 9th region. From there he will go on to the conference. One of the features of the conference will be the presence of a large number of eagle scouts.

In making out his report and the camp report, Palmer needs pictures of all the local scouts and troops. He wants action pictures and any picture that will be of interest in the report. The pictures or negatives may be sent to the scout office in the city hall. He is out on the South Plains now making a tour of O'Donnell, Tahoka, Lamesa and Post in direction and organization of several units of the work.

West Texas Fair Urges Improved Grain Growing

The West Texas Fair Association is trying to encourage the farmers throughout West Texas to plant a better strain of maize seeds. With that object in view, this organization is offering unusually liberal premiums to the farmers who exhibit the best ten heads of maize at the coming air. As you know, if we in this territory plant better seeds, the movement becomes contagious and extends to other sections. Any worthy development in one section is calculated to effect the whole area of West Texas. For that reason, we are asking you to kindly give publicity to the following information.

"The West Texas Fair Association to be held from September 20th to 25th will award the lump sum of $100 to the exhibitor of the best ten heads of maize. Competition is open to the world and either white or red maize will be acceptable. Farmers, especially, are urged to enter ten heads for this premium.

"This Association will also award $100 to boy and girl club members who are working with a county of home demonstration agent for the exhibitors of the best ten heads of maize, to be divided as follows: 1st, $25; 2nd $20; 3rd $10; 4th $9; 5th $8; 6th $7; 7th $6; 8th $5; 9th $4; 10th $3; 11th $2; 12th $1.

"Boy or girl club members may compete for both the lump sum of $100 prize and also for these club specials by entering 20 heads of maize.

"This Association will also award $10, $5 and $2.50 to exhibitors of the best bunch of sweet clover three inches in diameter. Entries are open to the world.

WOULD FACILITATE SHEEP SHIPMENTS

C. O. C. STARTS MOVEMENT FOR FOOD AND TRANSIT

A movement was started yesterday by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce to obtain feed in transit rates here for sheep. This fall there will be a number of sheep owners of the southern part of the state who will ship car loads of sheep here to feed, thence on to market. By getting the feed and transit rate, they will be able to ship here and unload and then load for market later with very little more expense than the rates straight through.

A. B. Davis, secretary, stated yesterday that there were a number of buyers who planned to feed sheep on the South Plains and then ship them on to market. The sheep will come from San Angelo, San Antonio, and other points in that section. With the feed and transit rate on the South Plains line, owners and buyers will likely make this section a regular feeding place each shipping season.

The matter is being taken up with T. B. Gallagher, general passenger and freight agent of the Santa Fe and action will probably be taken on the matter in a short time.

The Texas railroad commission refused to act upon a complaint of a woman who asked that men be prohibited from removing their shoes on trains in that state.

EATON URGES FORM ENTRIES IN THE FAIR

SHOW WINDOW OF PLAINS WILL SOON BE READY FOR OPENING

Fair time is near and every exhibitor who will show at the Panhandle-South Plains Fair is getting ready for the fair which will be held September 29-30, October 1-2. The majority of agricultural crops are ready to be gathered according to D. F. Eaton, superintendent of the agricultural department.

Exhibitors are getting milo maize, kafir, higar, feterita, millet, all varieties of cane, darrow and other crops. The exhibitors will be getting some of their vegetables ready for the fair in the next few days.

"The Show Window of the Plains" will not be complete without all the best specimens on display, Eaton stated yesterday, and everyone who has exceptionally good products of any nature should show them at the fair.

The best products from Lubbock county farms will be selected from the fair here and used in the Lubbock County Exhibit which will be shipped later to the Dallas Fair.

The catalogs are off the press and anyone who has not received one can get one by calling by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce or by writing the Panhandle-South Plains Fair Association.

Harley Sadler is Coming Monday

Harley Sadler and his Own Company will open a weeks engagement in Lubbock next Monday night, September 13th. The opening play will be "The Awakening of John Slater" or "When Toby Hits New York." This play was given by this same Company a year ago, but owing to heavy rain only a small crowd was in attendance. It is one of the funniest Toby plays ever written and Mr. Sadler has more requests for it than any other of his plays. For the rest of the week the plays will all be new. Eddie See's famous band and orchestra will have new and novel features, and a complete change of specialties between the acts.

USE RATS IN TEST OF DIET IN JAIL

NEBRASKANS WOULD PROVIDE BREAD AND WATER INSUFFICIENT

By United Press
TEKAMAH, Neb., Sept. 8.—Two Nebraska scofflaws and 12 Nebraska rats begin serving 40 day jail sentences on diets of bread and water tonight—the scofflaws for violating the prohibition law and the rats for an experiment in dietetics.

The rats are to be examined daily by Creighton university scientists eager to determine how they react physically and nervously to the restricted feeding.

The scofflaws—Thomas Nelson and Ray Carson—are to be denied this attention; Nebraska justice will be satisfied if they come out of it determined never to break the dry law again.

Thus Tekamah, a quiet little farm village, is getting almost as much publicity as Dayton, Tenn., and Clarence Darrow says the notoriety is of the same kind. But Tekamah doesn't see it that way. Leading citizens are glad to have the nation know it is dealing harshly with its bootleggers.

County Judge Orville Chatt, who imposes the bread and water sentences, was not in town when Sheriff W. D. Smith locked Carson and Nelson in their cell with two loaves of bread and a bucket of spring water. He was on his vacation in Minnesota.

The rat experiment at Creighton university in Omaha is being conducted by Dr. Victor E. Levin at the request of a group of Nebraskans who hold that the bread and water sentences are too drastic. Dr. Levine says a man can not live for 40 days on nothing but bread and water without seriously impairing his health. The doctor hopes to prove this with the 12 rats.

Poultry Industry is Gaining at Alpine

Special to The Avalanche
ALPINE, Tex., Sept. 8.—Alpine will become probably the largest poultry center in this part of the State, for the reason that the location and climatic conditions are ideal for poultry raising. The Chamber of Commerce here will aid in organizing a Poultry Association next Monday, following a talk by County Agent R. S. Miller. A goal of 50,000 laying hens in the vicinity of Alpine has been set as the initial step to make of Alpine the poultry center of the West. Already a number of people around and in Alpine are introducing pure bred poultry, and are going into poultry raising as a business.

FORT SCOTT, Kans., Sept. 8.—Gay "Paree" will be the mecca in 1927 for the former doughboys, now legionnaires, in the belief of "veterans" gathered here for the Kansas American legion convention. There has been some talk that, on account of the unfriendly attitude of the French people toward American tourists, the convention might not be held there as planned.

Dr. Judd Tells of Modern Schooling

The Lubbock Rotary club heard a modern educator tell of "Our Business," speaking from the standpoint of a teacher who strives to keep up with the times, as Dr. C. H. Judd of the University of Chicago talked to them yesterday in their regular luncheon in the Lubbock Hotel. Dr. Judd presented modern methods of educating children as compared with modern methods of securing new and modern business.

He told of how the profession of school teaching had to be studied and improved daily just the same as any other profession. Many illustrations and interesting facts were included in his address. The meeting was attended by a large number of the members.

West Texas at Sesqui-Centennial On Exhibition

STAMFORD, Texas, Sept. 8.—Responding to calls sent out from the West Texas Chamber of Commerce here, cities in the Panhandle and on the South Plains district of Texas are sending in literature concerning their opportunities and advantages offered to be distributed among the visitors to the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition being held in Philadelphia. The literature is being distributed from the West Texas Agricultural Exhibit, put on display by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, which is being shown throughout the entire Exposition. Persons from all parts of the United States, as well as from several foreign countries, call for bulletins and booklets from cities in West Texas. The towns which send in this literature will thus be advertised in many sections of the country, with very little effort, on their part.

Cities in the Panhandle-Plains district that have already sent in bulletins are: Tean, Happy, Amarillo, Wellington, Spur, and Spearman. Other sections of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce territory are also answering this call sent out from Philadelphia.

According to John W. Whiteker, who is in charge of the West Texas exhibit, this display of products, taken from all sections of the country, is one of the most favored in the agricultural hall, and hundreds of questions are asked daily concerning the production of grains, cotton, fruits, and the like. The visitors are also interested in the dairying, poultry raising, and ranching industries. Many of these questions can be answered by the distribution of such literature as has been sent in. Homer D. Wade, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, is urging every city sponsored by the organization to comply with this demand for literature, which will not only aid their city in advertising campaigns, but will boost West Texas as a unit.

LEVELLAND, Sept. 8.—The Levelland school will open Monday, September 13th. It is expected that more than 600 pupils will be enrolled the first week.

The 1924 school closed with 43 pupils, and the 1925 term will close with more than 1000. The school will open with fourteen teachers, but will close with not less than 20.

TRAINER DIES FOR KANGAROOS

FIRE TRAPS AGED MAN IN EFFORT TO RESCUE HIS PETS

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Year after year, performance after performance, Thomas Collins had boxed and hugged, clinched and parried with his trained kangaroos. They were pals of his, friendly combatants. More than that they were his meal ticket.

Collins, at 60, had become a close friend and an expert judge of the awkward animals from Australia. Fire today sent flames and panic sweeping through the animal boarding house which the kangaroos called home. When rescuers cleared their way through the ruins, they found the trainer's charred body beside those of the kangaroos. The man and his pets had died together in a position suggesting the clinch they had simulated so often in the mock prize ring that witnessed their incongruous boxing bouts.

Other masters of the furried and feathered vaudeville stars who screamed inside the blazing building fought desperately with the police and firemen in attempts to enter the furnace on perilous errands of rescue.

Albert A. Friend, who was sleeping on the third floor, found that the flames had cut him off from the top floor, where his ten dogs were quartered.

Leaping into the elevator shaft he grasped the steel cable and pulled himself to the floor above. He was unable to enter the room that held his barking pets and finally, in a daze, was himself rescued by a patrolman who entered through the roof.

The patrolman actually had to club Friend before he could drag him to a window and to safety. Regaining consciousness, Friend fought again to enter the buildin. He was treated for severe cuts on the hands, caused by clambering up the elevator cable.

Yellow Morse, a negro in charge of two Russian bears, dashed through flames on the fourth to his charges. He was burned and suffered from inhaling smoke.

Only one animal survived the fire, which caused damage of $600,000 conservatively figuring. Friend estimated that "he wouldn't have taken $150,000 for those dogs."

The survivor was Cleopatra, a small white cat owned by Mrs. Adelaide Herman, widow of "the great Herman," a famous magician.

GAS LINES BUILDING TO WELLINGTON

SWEETWATER, Sept. 8.—Bids for the construction of Sweetwater's new $175,000 high school building and its municipal auditorium and city hall and two fire stations to cost $160,000 will be opened here for the letting of contracts Sept. 27 and 28.

Cotton Picking and Ginning Are Under Way in Big Bend

Special to The Avalanche

ALPINE, Tex., Sept. 8.—Tri-County Agent, Richard S. Miller, agent for Brewster, Presidio and Jeff Davis counties, reports that picking and ginning is well under way in the Big Bend counties. There is considerable leaf worm infestation, which has resulted in some damage to the top crop during the past week of rainy weather but it is believed that the Big Bend production will still be an average of a bale to the acre. Mr. Miller says that several holes have been gathered and ginned in the southern part of Brewster county, and more than a hundred bales have been ginned in Presidio county. He says that by the end of this week it is expected that the Big Bend gins will be running both day and night. The cotton is opening rapidly and in some of the fields, stalks are putting on squares, opening and blooming at the same time. The outlook continues to be the best in years. There are plenty of Mexican laborers here to gather the entire crop.

Crosbyton no doubt has the distinction of giving the largest premium of any city in Texas this year.

DAILY MARKETS

New York Finance

By United News NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Fears of a higher rediscount rate were reared again in today's market and specialties as well as industrials, which had been going ahead rather aggressively during the early trading, gave ground sharply. General Motors which had been bid up to 222 in the earlier trading dropped back to 217. Steel lost one point to 150 after selling to 152-3/4 and this action was paralleled along the line in the general market.

In the first hour the market was forced to meet some selling based on the expansion of more than $144,000,000 in brokers' loans over the month of August, according to the stock exchange report while the federal reserve report for the week ended September 1 showed an appreciation of $27,000,000.

This brought the credit situation into relief again and while the selling was rather easily absorbed, it paved the way for the uncertainty later when rumors of a pending advance in the Boston reserve rate were set afloat.

This threat from Boston is not entirely empty as it is generally considered as likely to be made in the near future from the four per cent basis will be made in the Massachusetts area, probably followed by Philadelphia or Cleveland.

Offerings were fairly well taken even during the worst of the selling and so far as surface indications can be accepted as guides, the more powerful interests which have been backing the current upswing, are not worried over the outlook, nor are they hampered by any lack of funds.

Here and there in the market an interesting cross current hinted rather broadly at special developments. One case in point was the similarity in market movement of the Postum and California packing issues. Earlier in the year merger plans between these two companies were considered as having been actually settled and the street was only waiting for confirmation of the terms. Suddenly the whole deal was called off, apparently in response to a very broad hint from Washington that the deal would not pass muster.

The street is looking for a continuation of the negotiations now and it seems that the like actions of the two issues is surface proof that such negotiations are at least being considered.

KANSAS CITY LIVESTOCK KANSAS CITY, Sept. 8.—Cattle supplies today were only fair and there was a scarcity of good steers and yearlings. On the better kinds of beef trade was active with prices strong to 25 cents higher. Western and southern rangers furnished the bulk of the sales. Most steers sold around $18 to $19.50 with yearlings up to $11.

The five western markets received a liberal supply of hogs and trade at most points was slow with prices steady to lower. Here the general market was steady to ten cents lower. Top fat hogs brought $13.75. Hogs receipts 6,000; market uneven, mostly steady; 250 to 350 pounds $11.00@13.15; 350 to 450 pounds $12.75@13.75; 450 to 500 pounds $13.10@13.50; 500 to 550 pounds $13.00@13.75; 550 to 600 pounds $12.50@13.50; packing sows $9@10.85.

Cattle receipts 13,000; market 15 to 30c higher; beef steers $6.20@10.50; light yearling steers and heifers $9@10.75; beef cows $4.25@5.75; low cutter and cutter cows $3.65@4.35; weaners $8.50@12.50; heavy calves $5.50@8; bulk stock and feeder steers $6.50@8.

Sheep receipts 12,000; market lambs steady; top fat lambs $14.25; bulk fat lambs $13.50@14.25; bulk cut lambs $8.50; bulk fat ewes $6@6.50.

POSTAL RECEIPTS ON INCREASE AT LEVELLAND LEVELLAND, Sept. 8.—The post office receipts at Levelland has made a 0 per cent increase in volume of business during the month of August over July, due to the fact that the city has made a wonderful increase in population, yet the increase is not so great as it will be from month to month from this date on.

WOMAN CIVIL OFFICIALS DOUBLED IN SWEDEN STOCCHOLM, Sept. 8.—Women now hold more than twice as many positions in the civil services of Sweden as they did in 1913, the latest official statistics show.

Before the war they numbered 8,838. Now they are 17,177. At the same time the number of men employees of the government has gone down from 83,275 to 83,156.

Educational statistics also show that in the entrance examinations for the Swedish Universities the percentage of failures is lower for girls than boys. Whilst in the past five years 86.2 percent of the girls have been admitted, only 80.2 percent of the boys have passed.

REPORT REVEALS 200 OPERATIONS AT MANILA RELIEF STATION WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—A report to the United States Public Health Service by its relief station at Manila, P. I., discloses that more than 200 operations were performed during the fiscal year 1926, it was announced on August 31.

Surgeon H. F. Smith, in charge of one station, also reported that more than 100 X-rays were made during the fiscal year, chiefly dental, bone and joint pictures.

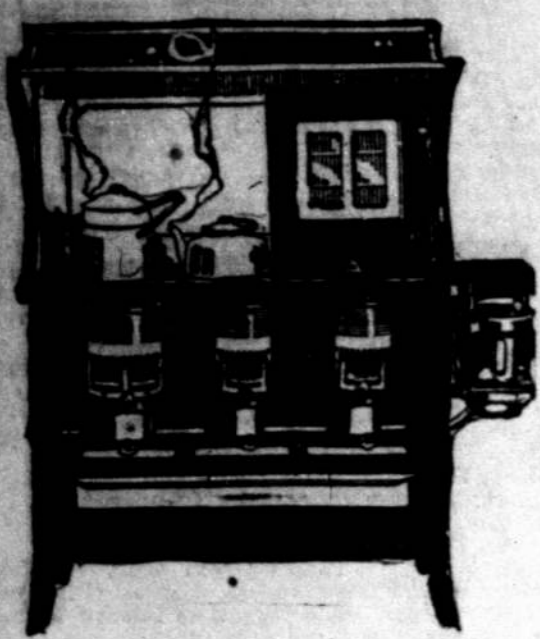

Finding that a man he had held up had only 60 cents, a Youngstown, Ohio, bandit told him to keep it and move on.

A MEATLESS MEAL, "FIT FOR COMPANY"

(Ed. Note: This is one of a special series of articles contributed by 6 Famous Cooks. Their recipes are "different." Cut them out and paste them in your cook book.)

At the Battle Creek College of Home Economics they specialize in planning and preparing well-balanced meals which are both attractive to the eye and nutritious to eat.

Miss Margaret Allen Hall, dietitian and nutrition expert of the college, has prepared for our readers a "company" menu which is particularly palatable, even though it is absolutely meatless. Proportions are given for the serving of ten.

MARGARET ALLEN HALL

Eggs a la King
Glased Sweet Potatoes
Ritz Tomatoes
Fruit Salad a la Creme
Butterscotch Pie

Directions for each dish follow.

Eggs a la King
8 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons minced sweet pepper
4 cups (one quart) milk
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups mushrooms (fresh or canned)
12 hard boiled eggs, cut in pieces
2 teaspoons salt

Melt butter, add pepper and mushrooms, and cook until soft. Stir in flour and add milk. Stir until thickened. Add seasoning and eggs. Heat very hot and serve on squares of toast; or pour into a baking dish, sprinkle with buttered crumbs and brown in a quick oven.

Glased Sweet Potatoes
12 medium-sized sweet potatoes
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 cup water
2 tablespoons butter
Boil the sweet potatoes in salted water for ten minutes, remove the top and cut in halves lengthwise, serve in a buttered pan and add sugar and butter for three minutes. Add the hard-boiled potatoes with syrup. Boil until brown, heating with a quick oven. Serve in a hot oven.

Ritz Tomatoes
Slice bread in usual manner, shape with three-inch biscuit cutter and toast. Slice ripe tomatoes, place a slice on toast, sprinkle with salt, grated cheese or cottage cheese and onion, and finely chopped pepper. Bake in hot oven until tomatoes are cooked and slightly browned.

Fruit Salad a la Creme
2 large bananas
1 pint sliced pineapple
1 pound Tokay or Malaga grapes
1 cup Cream Salad Dressing
Drain the pineapple and cut into small pieces. Peel the grapes, cut into halves and remove the seeds. Peel the bananas, scrape and slice. Mix with the Cream Salad Dressing and serve on a plate garnished with lettuce, or place a spoonful of fruit on the lettuce leaf with a smaller spoonful of the dressing.

Cream Salad Dressing:
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup cream
1 cup lemon juice
1 egg yolk
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1 cup whipped cream
Melt the butter in a double boiler, stir in the flour and the cream (sour milk being preferable). Stir until it begins to thicken. Beat the egg yolk, add to them the salt, sugar and lemon juice, and turn into the thickened cream. Cook in a double boiler about five minutes, or until the eggs begin to thicken. Cool, and fold in the whipped cream.

Butterscotch Pie
Plain Pastry:
2 cups flour
1/2 cup fat
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup water
Mix salt with flour. Cut fat into flour with two knives. Add just enough ice water to hold mixture together without it being sticky. Roll lightly from center outward. This is sufficient pastry for double crusts of one large pie, or two pastry shells.

Butterscotch Filling (for two pies)
4 egg yolks
4 cups dark brown sugar
1 cup milk
1 cup flour
1 cup butter
2 teaspoons vanilla extract
Beat yolks of eggs in inside of double boiler, add milk and butter. Mix flour with sugar, and add to milk mixture. Cook until thickened. Remove from fire and cool. Fill cooked pastry shells. Cover with whipped cream or meringue.

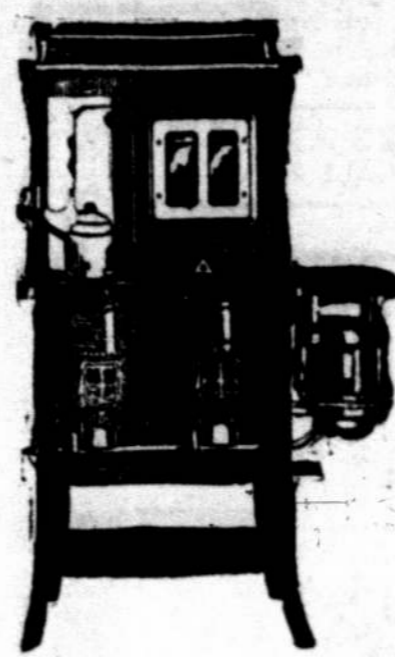

Make a meringue with the four egg whites beaten until stiff, fold in four tablespoons powdered sugar, pile irregularly on top of the pie and bake in moderate oven until brown.

A meatless meal, yes. But who would ever miss the meat?

Why Long Chimneys?

Many women wonder why oil stoves with long chimneys are superior to those with short ones. It is because the long chimneys insure perfect combustion. In other words, every drop of oil is completely burned before the heat reaches the cooking. There is no chance for soot to enter.

Tested and Approved by Experts

The New Perfection Oil stoves have been thoroughly tested and proven efficient in every manner for you. Why experiment?

A FAMOUS SOUTHERN COOK

Says

if all oil stoves sold on their working merits the Perfection oil stove would be in most every kitchen
Rosa Michaelis

Southern domestic science specialist tells her experience in a recent national cooking test. Every woman who cooks will be interested in it.

THEY know how to cook in New Orleans. And that is where Miss Rosa Michaelis learned. This famous southern cook tried out the Perfection in her own kitchen. She is one of the six famous cooks who recently made a nation-wide test of this stove. Each gave it a rigorous trial. Each baked, broiled, fried and boiled—not one but a number of meals. They all agreed on the merits of the Perfection. Read what Miss Michaelis said.

Quickness is Remarkable

"I never fried a veal steak more beautifully. It retained all the juices and was a lovely, rich brown after frying only ten minutes," said Miss Michaelis. "The quickness and intensity of the heat in the long Perfection chimneys is remarkable. It's clean, too. After frying pancakes and boiling rice, the bottoms of the utensils showed no signs of soot."

Like a Gas Stove

"Everything I cooked was uniformly successful. I found the Perfection just about the same as a gas stove to work with. In some respects it was better. I prefer it to broil steak, for instance. I liked the way the top and bottom browned at the same time in the Perfection broiler."

No Delay In Refilling

"It's an absolutely safe stove. The oil tank may be refilled while burners are lighted. Once when my supply of oil ran low, my rice went right on cooking. I substituted a filled reservoir and my hands never touched the kerosene."

Roomy Cooking Surface

"The oven is large and the cooking surface is roomy. I stored a number of utensils on the handy base shelf. I could see my fuel in the glass reservoir and watch my baking through the glass oven door. The flame is easy to start, easy to regulate, easy to extinguish," she concluded.

"I used this flame for frying veal steak," says Miss Michaelis. "It has yellow tips, 1/8 inches high above the blue flame."
