Court approves assist to children, elderly

Crockett County commissioners agreed to funding to aid children and the elderly when they met in regular session Monday. After hearing a request for financing from Helping Hands, Inc. head Kathy Reavis during the morning session and a lengthy afternoon debate, the court voted to provide $25,000.00 for the program. The money will give it a chance to "get off the ground," said Commissioner Sostenes DeHoyos.

$3,500.00 of that amount had already been allocated for food purchases for the first month the program resumed. The meals program, which was serving 70 individuals when it ended in November, began serving again February 10 with cooking being done temporarily in the Catholic Church kitchen.

Noon meals are available five days per week to those 60 or over. Those who can be asked to pay the $2.50 cost of the meal.

The $25,000.00 approved by the court will be disbursed in the amount of $3,500 per month while paperwork is being processed to apply for grants to assist the meals program. The grants, if received, will require matching funds from Crockett County, an estimated $1,500.00 per month.

"I'm not going to have it shut down again if I have to put my salary in it," said Mrs. Reavis, founder of the local program. She estimates a maximum of two months time before grant funds could be received.

Mrs. Glen Sutton, co-owner with her mother, Mrs. Maudie Couch, of property which has been leased to Helping Hands and is presently being renovated for use by the organization, accompanied Mrs. Reavis to the meeting.

Approval of the funding passed on a motion by DeHoyos which was seconded by Chuy Castro. DeHoyos, Castro and B. W. Stuart voted in favor of the funding. Commissioner Jack Williams voted against.

A follow-up on the January request by members of the Crockett County Child Welfare Board for county participation in a child abuse program solely for Crockett County was presented, and the court agreed to fund one-fourth of the program. Total budget for the program was presented at $34,536 in the January meeting with $17,268 to be provided by the state. The school district and county will each assume one-fourth of the cost.

Assistant Superintendent Ted Cotton, Primary Principal Walter Spiller, school nurse Lu Ingram, and board members Jeff Sutton, Hank Sellers, Joe Couch, Van Miller, George Ybarra, Gary Mitchell and Cecil Buckner were in court on behalf of the request.

The group was cautioned by Judge A. O. Fields that Crockett County could not provide office space for the caseworker for the program as had previously been proposed.

The measure passed on a motion by Chuy Castro seconded by Sostenes DeHoyos. Castro, DeHoyos and Stuart voted to participate in the child abuse program with Jack Williams voting against.

In a separate item, commissioners re-appointed Child Welfare board members. Unanimously approved on a motion by Castro seconded by DeHoyos, were current members Rev. Charles Huffman, Walter Spiller, Mrs. Ray Valadez, Mrs. Lu Ingram, Rev. Ken Harrison, Rev. Richard Altenbaugh and new members Gary Mitchell, Cecil Buckner, Joe Couch, Mrs. Elliott Barrera, Rev. Jim Gray and Chuy Castro.

Bob Bollier appeared before the court on behalf of the Border Patrol asking to lease approximately 220' x 248' of county property adjacent to the Department of Public Safety building for placement of an office. A modular building 16' x 68' is planned for the Border Patrol Station.

Lease of footage, with exact location on the property to be determined later, for five years at $1.00 per year with an additional five year option was unanimously approved on a motion by Stuart and seconded by Castro.

Commissioners decided to carry public liability and property damage insurance on all county vehicles and comprehensive on the big fire truck, two ambulances and Sheriff's Department vehicles after a review of insurance.

Bill Boswell reported to the court that a good payment response has resulted from turning hospital bills over for collection. Installation of the new heater/air conditioner at the Crockett County Care Center is not complete, said the interim hospital administrator.

Bids from four individuals were opened for various pieces of Road Department equipment. Awards were made to high bidders.

Gasoline and diesel bids will be re-bid because of incomplete bidding in some cases.

Chief Deputy Jim Wilson reported commissioners of plans and precautions for the Crockett County Sesquicentennial Trail Ride set for March. The ride is to leave Ozona on March 20 and travel to Barnhart along the old drover's lane.

In response to a court question, Wilson told the group that Fred Fierro has been promoted from jailer to deputy following the resignation last month of Gene Cooper. Applications to fill the jailer spot are being reviewed.

Commissioners voted to purchase a ditch-witch, electric winch and ice machine. Bids will be taken for a spreader for the road Department.

Purchase of three vehicles for the Sheriff's Department, an annual replacement, will be postponed until later in the year with "vehicles to be purchased as needed", commissioners decided. Revenue Sharing money, which is normally put toward the vehicle purchase will be fully funded at $29,000.00 for each of the first three quarters, said Auditor Dick Kirby. The amount will drop to $17,000.00 the last quarter of 1986 as the Revenue Sharing program ends.

Three applications were accepted out of 123 received for advertised jobs. Fidel Rios, Joe Lara and Angel Fierro were hired for the Parks Department.

In a late afternoon request, County Attorney Tom Cameron asked the court to hire a law firm to represent the county in a judgement suit which had been filed earlier in February.

Commissioner Stuart presented a written report from C. E. Thomson of Junction after his examination of the flooding area in the vicinity of the intersection of First Street and State Highway No. 163. Thomson, a registered public surveyor and civil engineer, examined the site twice and concluded his report by indicating that a detailed study of the entire watershed area and consultation with and the cooperation of several other entities including Crockett County, the Soil Conservation Service and the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation would be necessary. "At the very least, contour mapping of a large area east of Highway No. 163 and north of First Street would be necessary prior to recommendation of any possible solution to the immediate problem."

Brothers Brad (#14) and Bret Thompson put their basketball ability to work for the Lions.

Carson announces for Precinct 2

Billy Carson has announced his candidacy for the position of commissioner, Precinct 2, subject to the Democratic Primary in May.

Carson, a life-long resident of Crockett County, is a member of a pioneer ranching family. He graduated from Ozona High School in 1966 and attended North Texas State University. After two years active duty in the United States Army, he attended Sul Ross State University before returning to Ozona. The Viet Nam veteran is a life member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars organization.

A member of First Baptist Church, he is an active 4-H leader, a leader for the Methodist Youth Fellowship, and a supporter of the local school system.

Mr. Carson and his wife, Cathy, a fashion consultant for Doncaster, Inc., built their home in Precinct 2 in 1974. Their three children, Julie, 15, Haley, 12, and Amanda, 23 months, are Mr. Carson's most important reasons to seek the office of commissioner. He wishes to see Crockett County continue to grow and prosper in their life times through the attraction of new businesses and the maintenance of recreation facilities and county roads. Another major concern of his is to achieve the best possible flood control project for all the residents of Precinct 2 and the rest of Crockett County.

Mr. Carson wants the voters to feel free to call on him. He also urges them to remember when they vote in May that it has long been his goal to serve and work for the county that has given him so much through education, business opportunities and a wonderful place to live and raise a family.

8th grade girls have 27-0 record Undeclared season for three OJHS basketball teams

By Cynthia Harrell Hodges

Much hard work, a fierce sense of competition and excellent coaching have led three junior high basketball teams to an unblemished record. The Ozona Junior High 8th grade girls' team finished its second perfect season. Echoing the 8th grade teams' accomplishments was the 7th grade girls' basketball team. Renee Schultz, coach of the junior high team for the last four years, is justifiably proud of the teams and looks to the future with confidence.

Evangelist Bill Glass to First Baptist this weekend

Evangelist Bill Glass, who is remembered by many as an outstanding amateur and professional football player, will be in Ozona February 14-16 to speak at First Baptist Church. Times are 7:30 p.m. Friday, 6:30 p.m. Saturday and 11:00 a.m. Sunday.

Even while receiving laurels for his athletic prowess, Glass was winning his Christian ministry. He attended Southwestern Theological Seminary in off-seasons and received a bachelor of divinity degree in 1963. As the years passed, his ministry expanded until he was leading interdenominational area-wide crusades drawing thousands of people per night - sometimes to the football stadiums so reminiscent of his career with the Detroit Lions and Cleveland Browns.

His highly successful Prison Ministry began in 1972. This mission outreach has grown to become the largest evangelistic prison ministry in America.

Expanding his outreach, the Bill Glass Evangelistic Association has produced three television specials including the "Bill Glass Prison Special".

The entire community is invited to hear Glass during his ministry in Ozona.

Mama Lue's grand opening

When former Ohioan Lue Morrow came to Ozona to seek her fortune, she did not dream of ever owning her own business.

But, Saturday, as owner of Mama Lue's, she will celebrate the grand opening of her store. Free balloons, samples of meatballs and pizza burgers will be available during the store's grand opening hours.

The business is operated in the building with Donuts Etc. From 6:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m., the store is Donuts Etc. At 11:00 a.m., Mama Lue takes over to feed the lunch crowd and is open until 9:00 p.m. with a variety of sandwiches. She also sells pastries baked by Donuts Etc. during the hours the store is open as Mama Lue's.

Mama Lue's employs every member of the family at one time or another. Her sister, Sue Morrow, and her son and daughter-in-law, Brian and Donna Morrow, all provide a helping hand. "My younger son, Mike Morrow, assists at times, as does my husband, Tom, and youngest son, Shawn."

Mama Lue prefers to be her own boss. "I can fix things the way I like them," she said.

The Morrows moved to Ozona to escape unemployment in Elton, Ohio, two years ago. "My husband, Tom, works for the Crockett County School System, delivering food to all the school cafeterias.

The Morrows really enjoy living and working in Ozona. Having her sister, Sue, here has helped the family cope with home sickness during holidays. The two women, married to brothers, both enjoy cooking and working for themselves.

Mama Lue enjoys crocheting in her limited time away from work and family concerns, but her top fun time activity is cooking. That she is a good cook can be affirmed by her many regular customers.

A list of rules and regulations governing participation in the local wagon train from here to Barnhart was released to members attending the February 4 meeting of the Crockett County Texas Wagon Sesquicentennial Wagon Train Committee.

The local wagon train will leave from the rodeo grounds Thursday, March 20, chairperson of the committee, Betty Martin, reported. Participants will observe the official Texas State Sesquicentennial Wagon Train, which will camp in Barnhart March 22. "We will not join the train, because to do so would cost each member $25.00," Mrs. Martin said. A reduced rate of $15.00 is available for 4-H and Scout members.

Due to the denying of easement across some property, the local wagon train will go down the shipper's lane, Larry Williams reported. The camp on the 20th will be three miles west of Barnhart on the Williams Ranch. The group will leave Ozona about 9:00 a.m. following a breakfast.

Troy Williams and Lee Graves will present a historical program to the group. Plans also include evening vespers March 20 by Jim Kerr. Tina Moran will be in charge of medical services, and will have the wagon train's first aid kit. Ambulance personnel will be notified of the journey and will be alerted, should an emergency arise. The Ollie Sudduths will provide guitar entertainment for the group.

A discussion was held on the liability of children traveling on the train without their parents. Parents will have to sign a special release for their child (or children) to go on this train.

Brock Jones will serve as wagon master. He will be assisted by the following trail bosses who will enforce the rules of the wagon train: Rod Chalmers, Louise Bridges, Jeffrey Sutton, Billy Reagor, Jim Wilson, Ricky Krueger, Mike Ledoux, Larry Williams, Ed Martin and Betty Martin.

Persons interested in going on the wagon train may sign up at the Chamber of Commerce Office. A copy of the rules will be available at the Chamber Office during its regular business hours.

Those attending the February 4 meeting in the FFA Building at the high school included: Troy Williams, Rod Chalmers, Huey D. Ingram, Mike Ledoux, J. D. Kilgore, Larry K. Williams, Ollie Sudduth, Ed Martin, Jim Wilson, Joe Moran, Jennifer Eyans, Tina Moran, Stacey Grendahl, Betty Martin, Beverly Evans, Kathryn Mayfield, Karen Huffman, Louise Bridges and Cynthia Hodges.

The next meeting of the wagon train committee has been scheduled for 7:00 p.m. Tuesday, March 4, at the FFA Building. Any interested person is invited to attend the meeting.

GTE continues expansion program

A new computerized system which increases accuracy and speeds dispatch of telephone repair personnel - it's just one of the enhancements General Telephone has added in the past 12 months to benefit Concho Valley customers, including those in Ozona.

"We call it 'Trouble Administration System,'" said GTE General Manager E. O. Cambern. The new unit has replaced paper forms with an electronic record-keeping system, which means more convenience and speed for the customer who needs his telephone repaired.

Installation of new long distance equipment during 1985 in Ozona meant local customers could now dial 1 plus or 0 plus long-distance calls. International Direct Distance Dialing (IDDD) also became available. IDDD makes it possible to direct dial calls to many foreign countries. Consult the front pages of your phone directory for details.

At the onset of 1986, General Telephone was providing nearly 1,700 telephone access lines to businesses and residences in Ozona, as well as 25 public coin telephones.

GTE continues to offer the convenience of a local service agency at the House of Flowers. At this location, customers may initiate, expand, or discontinue telephone service, as well as pay telephone bills.

"Our goal is to continue to provide Ozona with the best possible service in 1986," concluded Cambern. "We look forward to continuing a good working relationship with our customers here."

Hospitalized Veterans Week proclaimed

County Judge A. O. Fields, in an official proclamation, declared the week of February 14 as Salute to Hospitalized Veterans Week Monday.

The proclamation reads:

"Whereas, many veterans of America's Armed Forces, who have served their country in war and peace, are now hospitalized and separated from families and friends. Let us not forget the sacrifice of these veterans who fought with full measure of their valor and loyalty to protect our country.

"I urge the citizens of Ozona, Texas to find appropriate ways to pay tribute to these men and women through community ceremonies, activities and visits to veterans hospitalized in VA medical centers, nursing homes and domiciliaries.

Our Nation is eternally grateful for the contributions our hospitalized veterans have made to the cause of world peace, and it is fitting and appropriate to pay special tribute and honor their sacrifices.

"THEREFORE, I, as Judge of Crockett County, do hereby designate the week of February 14, 1986 as Salute to Hospitalized Veterans Week in Ozona and urge appropriate recognition thereof.

"In testimony whereof, witness my hand and the Seal of the County of Crockett this the 10th day of February, 1986."

Livestock distribution for uniform grazing

By Reggie Quiett
Soil Conservation Service

One of the prime objectives of a range management program is to distribute livestock as well as possible over an entire pasture and obtain uniform grazing of the vegetation. The problem is that livestock prefer to graze the easy, more accessible areas close to water and on flatter slopes. Unless forced to do otherwise, they will continue to graze the preferred areas. Such grazing patterns, unless corrected, will result in portion of the pasture being overgrazed and portions being lightly grazed. The local Soil Conservation Service can offer assistance in helping ranchers obtain better livestock grazing distribution.

Several factors influence the way livestock graze a pasture. These include: water location, natural barriers, slope, prevailing wind direction, season of use and salt and mineral locations.

After the livestock distribution in a pasture is analyzed, there are several methods to consider when attempting to change the animal's grazing habits. Grazing systems have an effect by concentrating livestock into large herds, and rotating the herds through two or more pastures tends to improve grazing distribution. In large pastures where there are areas too far from water, the development of a new water supply may improve distribution. New fence construction to help control animal movement will help improve distribution. Small pastures generally improve distribution, and separating rugged terrain from gentle terrain will improve use on the steeper slopes. Moving salt and mineral blocks and feeding areas away from water to the back of a pasture will cause animals to increase grazing on lightly used areas of a pasture.

Keep in mind that anything you do in a pasture will have an impact on livestock distribution. The results should be analyzed before applying any range practice to ensure that it will produce a positive effect on grazing and will result in more plant and animal production. The local Soil Conservation Service working through the Crockett Soil and Water Conservation District can provide technical assistance to ranchers to help them improve their livestock grazing distribution.

America's first railroad timetable was advertised in Baltimore's newspaper "The American" in 1830 by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company. Trips were established between Baltimore and Ellicott's Mills, MD, a 26-mile journey that cost 75 cents. Passengers had to book round-trip passage because of a shortage of cars.

J V girls go out with win

By T. C. Tucker

The J.V. Lady Lions ended their season last Friday night, February 7. They lost against Crane, but defeated Colorado City on Friday.

Crane gained the upper hand in the first quarter last Tuesday. After holding Ozona to only three points the first quarter, Crane went on to lead 24-11 at halftime.

Ozona picked up a few more points in the third quarter, but Crane continued to sink their's as well. The bright spot of the J. V. girls was in the last quarter when they out-scored Crane 9-3. But Crane's earlier drive had given them the cushion they needed.

Lacy Miller led scorers with nine points. Cathy Moran and Kriss Corley followed with six points each. Moran and Corley led in rebounding with six rebounds each. They also led with five steals apiece.

After coming off a defeat at the hands of Crane, Ozona came storming back against Colorado City.

Corley led the way for Ozona with eight points, exactly the number they scored in the first quarter. Colorado City scored in the second quarter after a scoreless first. Ozona still retained the lead though, 14-7. Colorado City failed to add any more points to their score in the third quarter whereas Ozona soared to 24 points. They went on to win 28-13. Those following Corley as scoring leader included Miller and Regina Cervantez, both with four points.

Freshmen girls end season

By T. C. Tucker

The freshmen girls and boys traveled to Big Lake Thursday, February 6. For the girls, it was their last game of the season as a freshman team. The girls played one of their best games there, but still lost 57-30.

The girls stayed close to Big Lake in the first and second quarters and even the third. But Big Lake overpowered them in the fourth.

Adriane Wilson led Ozona in scoring, having ten points. Stacie Winkley followed with seven. Ozona was behind only by seven at the end of the first half and by 13 at the end of the third quarter. Big Lake's key

Cubettes enjoy undefeated status

By T. C. Tucker

Ozona should be proud of the 85/86 Cubettes as they went the entire season without losing a game. Both the 7th and 8th grade Cubettes dominated their opponents this year, winning most of their games by more than ten points.

In their final game of the season, the 7th grade Cubettes followed their same pattern as they won by 12 points, 27-15.

Christy Cotton and Letty Dominguez followed with eight.

Using the first quarter as a sort of warm-up, the Cubettes gained a 15-8 lead by halftime. Then they stretched the lead to ten points at the end of the third quarter.

"The girls should be very proud of themselves," said Coach Martha Sims, speaking of the girls' undefeated record of 15 wins and zero losses.

Paula Galan led in rebounds with 12, followed by Tammie Reagor and Cotton each with six rebounds. Tina Tambunga had seven steals.

"This team has really worked hard. Their teamwork was excellent as well as their attitude and ability to play." So speaks Coach Renee Schulze of her 8th grade Cubettes and their undefeated season.

In their last game of the year, the Cubettes simply out-played Big Lake, winning 30-19.

Leaders were those usually in the spotlight. Polly Villarreal led in scoring with 12 points. Tammy Arrott had 12 rebounds and Terel Seahorn had nine. Missy Bishop had five steals, and Judy Fierro had three assists.

"The five starters (Bishop, Fierro, Villarreal, Arrott and Kelly Williams) provided the team leadership," said Schulze. "I feel that the 8th grade girls will be an asset to the high school next year." Coach Schulze also thinks that the 7th graders will equal their predecessors.

Lions shoot for playoffs

By T. C. Tucker

As the Ozona Lions journey to Ballinger this Friday for their last game of the regular season, there is much speculation regarding the play-offs. The opportunity could depend on Friday's game.

Entering the second leg of the district season, the Lions played host to probable district winner, Crane. Those watching the game will comment that it was the best they have ever seen. Every time Ozona scored a point, the fans responded with a cheer or whatever came to their mind.

Ozona led at first, but Crane retook the lead and held it the rest of the game. They led by one at halftime, 17-16. They still led by one at the end of the third quarter.

Crane scored four points in the first few seconds of the final quarter. This helped them have a cushion for the rest of the period.

With 46 seconds left in the game, Ozona gained possession of the ball and called a time-out. They waited for the one last shot. Harvey Fierro, who had eight points, put up a shot. It bounced off the rim, then off Scott Denman's hands, almost going in. But the Lions were not granted a victory over Crane.

Steve Sanchez led scorers with 14 points. Denman had four rebounds in this very slow-paced game.

In Friday night's game, the Lions easily took care of Colorado City. The game was close until the third quarter when Ozona scored 15 points before Colorado City scored any. The Lions went on to win 66-39.

Sanchez had a tremendous night with 30 points. Fierro and Sam Hightower followed with 12 points.

The Lions are now 2-1 in the second half of district play. They will play their last game against Ballinger Friday night, February 14.

St. Valentine's Day reminds everyone, as in the above poem, to remember their loved ones.

The St. Valentine's Day festival on February 14 had its origins in 496 in Rome. A celebration called the Lupercalia Festival featured lovers exchanging small gifts as tokens of their esteem for each other.

The day that cupid zings arrows into our hearts is celebrated throughout the world. In parts of Great Britain, a lover would leave a basket of goodies on his sweetheart's doorstep.

Single Italian women get up before sunrise to peer out the window. According to legend, the first man who passes their doorstep becomes their husband.

J V Lions win two

By T. C. Tucker

The J. V. Lions had a great time last week, winning against Crane and Colorado City.

In their game Tuesday, February 4, Ozona strode out to a 16-6 lead at the end of the first quarter and thus was able to control the momentum of the game.

At halftime, Ozona still led by 12 and continued to do so at the end of the third quarter. However, Crane rallied in the final quarter, coming within seven at one time. But Ozona returned with four points of their own, and won 52-41.

Leaders for Ozona included Jim Etheridge with 20 points and nine rebounds. Danny Sanchez had ten points and three steals. Will Seahorn also had ten points.

The J.V. Lions had little trouble against Colorado City last Friday night, winning 62-45.

Three players for Ozona had double digit scoring. Etheridge had 16 points, Seahorn had 14, and Jeff Sanchez had 11. Seahorn also led in rebounds with 13. Danny Sanchez had five steals.

The J.V. Lions will play their last game this Friday night at Ballinger with games starting at 6:30.

Planning For The Impromptu

Nothing's more fun than going on an impromptu picnic — one where you can take advantage of a beautiful day, quickly gather your food items, and go.

According to home economists from Whirlpool Corporation, a spur-of-the-moment picnic can be arranged quite easily with the aid of your freezer and plenty of ice to fill the ice chest. If your freezer is a model that doesn't have an ice maker, the home economists suggest that you start saving your ice cubes. Empty several trays full into plastic bags and keep them stored in the freezer until picnic day comes along.

College is available to any student

By Cynthia Harrell Hodges

The myth of a student not being able to afford to go to college has been tossed aside by Ozona High School guidance counselor Jim Williams.

"If a student really wants to go to college, they can find the money," Williams said.

Student aid takes a variety of forms. Scholarships, based on a student's academic ability, as tested by I. O., SAT, ACT and National Merit tests, present the first alternative for students.

A second source for funding is awards or grants. These are awarded for specific reasons such as photography contest, science contest, or speech contest winners. Awards, grants and scholarships do not have to be repaid. April 1 is the deadline for application for most grants.

A third option available to students is the work study programs offered by many colleges and universities. Students work either on or off campus, and their wages are assigned directly to the college.

A fourth major source of income for college bound students is the educational loan. Banks, unions, foundations, as well as state and government agencies, all have loan programs. Though these loans must be repaid, they may be a necessity for many students and their parents.

One program that is available to students attending Angelo State University is the Robert Carr foundation scholarship, which makes available more than $1 million for students that need financial assistance. "Should a student be rejected by the Carr foundation and still be in the top 25 percent of their graduating class, they are still eligible for the Presidential scholarship. This entitles them to a $1,000 scholarship."

To qualify for most scholarship programs, a student must maintain a 3.0 or B average. "I advise students to look into all types of scholarships and all types of schools," said the 16 year Ozona resident.

The Pell Grant program, with grants ranging from $200-$1,900, also is available to students for as long as they go to school. Each school district regulates how much Pell Grant money is available to its students, Williams explained.

The earlier these scholarships, grants, loan and work applications are filled out, the better it is for the student. Another money saver for students is the early admission plan offered by some colleges. This affords a student a slight discount on tuition fees, and should be done sometime during a student's junior year.

Financial aid possibilities include: College Work/Study Program, Federally Insured Student Loan, Federal Nursing Scholarship Program, Future Teachers Loan Program, Guaranteed Student Loan Program, Hinson-Hazlewood College Student Loan, National Direct Student Loan, Nursing Student Scholarship, Nursing Student Loan Program, Pell Grants (BEOG).

Williams wears many hats in his role as high school guidance counselor. He administers tests at all grade levels, and enjoys "trying to find out what they, as students, want to do. Some are self-directed and don't need any help."

"Some students are not college bound, but enter into the job market immediately after high school. Some attend trade schools."

The Class of 1986 is representative of Ozona High School. There will be, according to Williams, 43 percent attending junior college or a four year university; 52 percent will attend trade schools; and two students will enter the work force.

The former coach has served as a guidance counselor at Ozona High School since 1978. "I love it. I still get to work with the students. Students nowadays, as compared to when I grew up, are more free wheeling. They do care, but it is nothing off their backs if they don't achieve their goal. When I grew up, very few went to college. Now, almost everyone has the opportunity to go to school."

The biggest problem facing high school teenagers is peer pressure. "Parents need to teach what is right, and what is wrong, and what the difference is between the two. Every child is different. You can't raise one like another."

It is hard for students to understand "how important education will be later in life. Only with maturity are they able to see past tomorrow," Williams said.

Williams and his family first moved to Ozona in 1969. After a brief time away, they returned to Ozona permanently in 1972. Williams, his wife, Charlotte, and their daughters, Kristal, a sophomore at Angelo State University; Kim, a senior at OHS; and Kelly, an active eighth grader, have all enriched the lives of many students and former students.

BEEF BELONGS IN SPECIAL DIETS

Many people whose doctors prescribe a low-calorie, low-fat or low cholesterol diet think they have to give up eating beef. But that isn't the case.

Lean beef can fit into special diets. The only restrictions are that the meat should be a lean cut, the visible fat should be trimmed from around the edges, and it should be cooked by broiling or grilling rather than frying.

When it comes to calories, lean beef compares favorably to the broiled chicken that is often recommended on special diets. For example, a three ounce serving of lean roast beef contains 169 calories and a similar serving of top loin (strip) steak contains 195 calories.

By comparison, three ounces of baked chicken without skin contains 174 calories, and the same serving of fried chicken with the skin contains 209 calories.

Beef also contains less fat than most people assume. Three ounces of cooked lean beef contains about nine grams of fat, and less than half of that is saturated.

It's true that fat consumption has been increasing, but that has been caused primarily by an increase in the use of vegetable fats and oils. Vegetable fats and oils now account for 43 percent of the fat in the food supply. And food consumption surveys show that much of our excess fat intake is from hidden sources in convenience foods.

How about cholesterol? Even here, beef compares favorably to other meats. Three ounces of cooked lean beef contain 73 milligrams of cholesterol. The same amount of roast chicken contains 76 mg; pork, 77 mg; shrimp, 130 mg; cheddar cheese, 90 mg.

Don't forget that the body needs cholesterol daily and will manufacture the difference between the amount consumed and the amount it requires.

A standard three ounce serving of beef provides about eight percent of the cholesterol the body needs.

Whether you're on a special diet or not, you can enjoy lean beef and know that you're getting a protein-rich food that provides the essential vitamins and minerals for good nutrition.

She is the daughter of Lonnie and Alice Lopez of Ozona.

Stretching leads to exercise success

A simple stretch may be the only thing standing between you and an exercise program you can live with over a long period of time.

Many people get started on an exercise, jogging or walking program and stop within a short time because they get sore. The soreness comes from strained muscles that weren't "warmed up" before beginning the activity.

Stretching is easy to do, but there is a right and a wrong way to do it. The right way is a relaxed, sustained stretch. The wrong way is to bounce up and down or stretch to the point of pain.

When you begin, spend 10-30 seconds in an easy stretch. Go to the point where you feel a mild tension and relax as you hold the stretch. This type of stretch reduces muscular tightness and helps the muscles get ready for the developmental stretch.

After an easy stretch, you can move slowly into a developmental stretch, where you move a fraction of an inch further until you again feel a mild tension and hold for 10-30 seconds. The developmental stretch fine-tunes the muscles and increases flexibility.

Remember, no bouncing on either type of stretch.

Don't hold your breath while stretching, either. Breathing should be slow and rhythmical. If you're bending forward to stretch, exhale, bend forward and then breathe slowly as you hold the stretch.

At first you'll want to silently count the seconds for each stretch so that you hold the proper tension for a long enough time. But later you will find it possible to stretch by the way it feels, rather than having to count.

Once you stretch, you'll be "warmed-up" and ready to do your exercise. And the next day you won't have the discomfort of sore muscles.

We welcome a new resident this week, Modena Coose. One of her favorite things to do is gardening.

Residents were busy designing hearts Monday morning for a recent crafts project, a valentine mobile. Those putting their talents to use on the project were: Pauline Clinton, Tomasa Ramos, Doris Robnet and Theo Burns. Yolanda Avila was their helpful volunteer.

Sweets and treats were passed out to all residents at Monday afternoon's monthly residents' birthday party honoring Elz Bishop and Charles Watson. The sweets consisted of cake and punch prepared and served by Girl Scout Troop #189, and the treats were handmade, personalized valentine cards filled with candy mints. Thank you Edna Olivera, Angie Marshall, Melisa Watson and leader Thelma Janes.

Charles Watson was the winner of the El Chato's gift certificate in Tuesday's bingo. A special game was played for a handmade beaded necklace donated by our own resident Alice Ross. The lucky winner of the necklace was Inez Biggs. Various other bingo prizes were won by Tomasa Ramos, Bertha Miller, Alice Ross, Minnie Karr, Leo Watson and Theo Burns.

Volunteers were Dorothy Doll, Nancy Forehand and Nancy's grandson, Arron Forehand, who handed out the bingo prizes.

Wednesday's ceramic workshop was attended by Pauline Clinton, Juana Hernandez, Moriana Perez, Theo Burns, Doris Robnet, Tomasa Ramos, Ola Mills and Edna Wallace. Volunteers assisting were Ruth Hester, Marie Pierson and Doris Karr. After ceramics, residents listened to the talents of Pattie Racher as she sang and played the guitar.

Thursday morning beauty shop volunteers were Vivian Hughes, JoAnn Williamson and Clara Byrd. An hour of entertainment followed the beauty shop, with Clara Byrd playing the piano and leading the residents in singing.

Hymns were played and sung by Glenda Henderson Thursday afternoon. Following the music came a large number of visitors attending Spanish Hour of Praise. Visitors were Paulita Leal, Carmen Vargas, Felipa Munoz, Norma Flores, Germana Onofre, Mariana Hernandez, Sulena Martinez and Cecelia Ramos.

Friday's bingo produced a large number of winners. Grace Cotter, Jesus Hernandez, Tomasa Ramos, Virginian Hoover, Pauline Clinton, Hilda Dysart and Minnie Karr were all winners. Ola Mills won the special prize of a gift certificate from Clayton's Village Drug. Popcorn was made by Anna Bell Patrick, and volunteers assisting during bingo were Dorothy Doll, Mattie Cooper and Marie Pierson. A birthday cake brought by Bill Watson honoring his father, Charles Watson, finished off Friday's activities.

Due to a large number of bingo winners, our bingo prizes are in short supply. Anyone wishing to help in this matter can contact Joanne Marshall at the Crockett County Care Center. All donations will be much appreciated.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help presented Sunday services. Scriptures were read by Father Richard Altenbaugh, and the choir sang hymns accompanied by guitar and tambourine music.

We would like to thank all the volunteers and visitors who helped brighten up our week.

team, too finished the season with a perfect 14-0 record. The 7th grade boys had a winning 12-2 season, and like the girls, have "an intense desire to win," fueled by junior high basketball coach, Don Payne.

"We measure our success by the success of the high school program. Our primary goal here is to develop varsity level athletes and help the students have some fun," Payne explained. "We have accomplished that goal, at least with the boys' team. The varsity this year has an 18-6 record, and the junior varsity has a 14-4 season so far."

Payne has completely turned the program around since his first year here in 1980. The first year, the junior high boys' 8th grade team had a 5-11 losing record. Payne now has an overall record of 67-24 during six seasons as junior high basketball coach.

"The boys have talent, desire and a competitive spirit, and this makes coaching easy and fun," Payne explained. Most of the players on the basketball teams participated in football.

The 8th grade team lost four members because of the no pass, no play ruling, but the team continued its winning ways, Payne noted. Leaders of the 8th grade basketball team were: Chris Denman, rebound leader; Lalo Rodriguez, scoring leader; George Ybarra, steals leader; Mark Fierro, assists leader; and Roger Martinez, best defensive player. Others contributing to the success of the season include: Phillip Munoz, Andy Stokes, Bruce Beasley, Tommy DeHoyos, Pipito Porras, Luis DeLaGarza, Pete Ramirez and Isaac Leal.

The 7th graders have enjoyed a winning season led by talented athletes. They include the following team leaders: Michael Ybarra, Ruben Borrego, Jason Vitella, Oscar Gutierrez, Mango Perez, Anthony Vasquez, Lonnie Martinez and Brad Bollier. These eight alternated starting positions. Others on the team included Shane Pridemore, Fleet Worthington, Cody Morris, Al Talamantez, Jay Haire, Carlos Robledo, Gilbert Rico, Jose Ramos, Lee Galan, Edward Chipman and Daun O'Neal.

The record of the 8th grade girls' basketball team is phenomenal, stretching back two seasons without a loss. "These girls looked good as 6th graders. The 16-0 record reflects much "hard work and a mental toughness," explained Miss Schultz.

"The girls want to do the best they can at all times. The whole team is motivated. If they are not playing, they go to watch others play. This attitude extends beyond the field of athletic competition. It is due mainly to the support they get from parents," Miss Schultz said.

Leaders of the 8th grade team include Kelly Williams, Judy Fierro, Tammy Arrott, Terry Vargas, Polly Villarreal, Missy Bishop and Brenda Rodriguez. Others making tremendous contributions to the team include: Mikki Ramirez, Terel Seahorn, Lanessa Porter, Amy Graham, Anna Borrego, Rebecca Babb, Rosario Ramos, and Michelle Ramirez, Elizabeth Watson, Estella Hernandez, Sarah Pullen, Stacie McDaniel, Janinna Carrizles, Michelle Williams, Tricia Ethridge and Stacy Berry.

"The girls have worked hard during workouts and after school. I have to shoot them off the basketball court." The perfect record was honored at the home of Richard and Cynthia Berry Monday night. "We have much good leadership, both on and off the court. The 8th grade girls help the 7th graders, and the 7th graders are now helping the 6th graders, who engage in intramural games."

The 7th grade girls are coached by Martha Sims and have alternated starting positions. Members of the 15-0 7th grade girls' basketball team are: Christy Cotton, Teena Tambunga, Misty Fowler, Stephanie Saunders, Jennifer Colin, Paula Galan, Kimberlee Coy, Selena Galindo, Elisa Coy and Dannette Robinson. Others on the team are: Margaret Jones, Janet King, Mary Turnley, Chris Haire, Emily Cervantez, Letty Dominguez, Valerie Flores, Kelley Porter, Tamie Reagor, Lisa Garza and Ann Trull.

"I am not a good loser. I expect the most from every member of the team," Miss Schultz said. "The 8th graders will be a big asset to the high school team next year."

"We now put an emphasis on the total season record, as opposed to the earlier emphasis on tournament play."

Kelly Williams was the 8th grade girls' points leader, with more than 100 points and 172 rebounds; Judy Fierro had more than 90 rebounds; Tammy Arrott had 80 points and 135 rebounds; and Polly Villarreal ended the season with more than 100 points.

The girls know when they have played well by looking at their stat sheets. They are "well mannered and considerate of the team members of our opponents. Three girls lost their eligibility due to the new no pass/no play rule. This just made the entire team work that much harder so they could maintain their record."

"Sports help make you ready for life later on - you have to fight and work for a position in life and on a team. The girls learn to discipline themselves to work hard for what they want," said the Junction native.

The 8th graders referee the 6th graders during intramural competition. They have the will and desire to win.

The young coach knows the meaning of hard work, having grown up on the ranch of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hilmer Schultz, in Kimble County.

Miss Schultz is not one to over emphasize the importance of athletics over academics, at least in her life. She received her bachelor's degree from Howard Payne University in Brownwood in 1977. Miss Schultz also has a master's degree in education and school administration from Angelo State University and is working toward her doctorate in curriculum and instruction at Texas A&M University.

The coaches are proud of the programs here, and are looking to the future - to the spring track season. With the winning attitude among students and coaches, who can bet that the upcoming season won't have as many winners as the basketball season has had.

Pandale Pannings

by Jonny Johnson

It is hard to believe we are almost into the middle of February and still there are things I had planned to do in January still undone.

The weather has been so unsettled I keep looking for it to snow.

Everyone I have talked to has been busy at one task or another, and drinking a lot of coffee.

We have begun gathering for shearing. In this rough country, the goats have a few tricks of their own. You start early in hopes that you out smart most of them before that shearing date.

Happy Valentine's to everyone.

West art exhibit at library

The Crockett County Public Library is starting a series of art exhibitions of area artists sponsored by the Friends of the Crockett County Public Library. These exhibits will present to the public a wide range of artists and art mediums.

The Friends are proud to present the first exhibit featuring the work of Celia West beginning Monday, February 10, and lasting throughout the month.

The highlight of this show is a series of charcoals. Mrs. West studied for six years in Spain at the Escuela de Artes y Oficios Artisticos de la Corona. She specialized in artistic drawing under a famous Spanish artist, Camila Diaz Vd. de Blanco, and graduated Sobresaliente (better than A+) before coming to the U.S. These classic pictures are done with charcoal and white chalk and are the trademark of Mrs. West.

She has also studied acrylic painting from a local teacher, Mrs. Susie Schneider of Sonora. Mrs. West has done extensive work in acrylics and pastels and a sample of these will also be shown in the library.
