Shooting Scene

THIS WHITE HOUSE located a mile and one half north of Interstate 20 in the Lasky Town Community was the scene of the first killing in a 15-hour horror-filled drama that ended Tuesday morning. Carlos Perez shot and killed Mario Valdez in the residence pictured about 4:30 p.m. Monday.

FORREST SMITH STILL CRITICAL

Shooting Incidents Leave Three Dead, Two Injured

By JAMES ANDERSON
Record News Editor

It looked just like thousands of other spots found in the West Texas countryside. Away from bustling interstate highway and down the narrow dirt road fenced in on both sides by walls of tall sorghum and knee-high cotton.

An occasional frame house appearing like an island in the sea of green plants dotted the landscape whose peaceful existence is usually only broken by the exhaust of a big tractor or the muffled sounds coming from the highway over a mile distant.

Most of the houses are in need of repair, but many not worth repairing. The old outbuildings are there and maybe a vintage auto with chickens roosting in it. A familiar scene to most West Texans.

Monday afternoon, in just such a setting, began a tale of horror ending in the death of three men and leaving another critically wounded fighting for life.

It started in just such a white frame house, the paint peeling from its sides, with a large front porch. A storm cellar, long since used, rested beside the house. Its roof caved in baring the rotting brown wood once comprising its ceiling.

Four shining chrome hubcaps lay askew on the porch beside a ripped piece of striped bed ticking.

To the right of the porch, flies buzzed around the stiff body of a slain dog lying beside a scrubby cedar tree.

About 4 p.m., in the aftermath of a quarrel, Monday one of the three occupants of the house ran outside and into the adjacent field. Behind him came Carlos Perez, brandishing a .22 cal. bolt action rifle that he fired at his fleeing brother, Panfilo.

Carlos Perez, described as a very "quiet" person by his employer, then returned inside the house and sent a bullet crashing between the eyes of Mario Valdez, the third occupant. Following the slaying of Valdez, Carlos Perez again came outside the house and turned his deadly fire upon the big, brown dog.

For the next three hours Panfilo Perez crawled and hid through cotton fields before reaching the home of Pete Valdez (Mario's father), and telling him of the earlier trouble after a quarrel at the Perez house.

The pair then went to the home of Warren Anderson, Valdez' employer, where they first contacted Colorado City Police Department at 9:05 p.m. Monday night and the body of Mario Valdez was found an hour later.

Perez car was located at an old garage some mile or two from the site of the original shooting. Inside officers found a bedspread, where Perez had apparently rested following the first incident, and a partially-filled bottle of wine.

Officers then began the long quest for Perez that continued on through the night on the roads and in the fields of the area.

Shortly after daylight, Deputy Sheriff Forrest Smith and Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger found fresh tracks leading into the cane field across the road from the Perez house.

All attention was then centered on the suspected hiding area by the some 15 to 20 officers on hand.

Stalking the killer over the tall growth and muddy ground for some hour and a half, Smith and Hertenberger unsuspectingly passed nearby Perez who fired his rifle striking the deputy sheriff first in the head and again in the back.

Hertenberger fired into the dense growth in hopes of stopping Perez deadly fire.

Hearing the shooting, Lake Patrolman Mardell Sheppard and Scurry County Deputy Sheriff Jess Minton rushed to aid the other officers when they were met by another volley of gunfire from Perez. Sheppard was struck in the arm

Minton was fatally wounded in the neck. The deputy from Snyder, however, managed to get to his feet again and fire the fatal shot into the body of Perez.

It all ended there, only a few hundred yards from where it started some 15 hours earlier, with three men dead, one critically shot and one with a flesh wound and a reminder of how close death was.

Deputy Sheriff Forrest Smith remains in critical condition and in the intensive care ward of Hendricks Memorial Hospital in Abilene at 3 p.m. Wednesday.

Searcher Tells Tale Of Horror

"Just like a wildness."

In those words Mardell Sheppard described the terrain conditions in the maize field where he and other officers searched for Carlos Perez for some 11 hours.

Sheppard sought the wanted man through the muddy field with his partner in the search Jess Minton, who was later to become victim number two to Perez and his deadly .22 cal. bolt action rifle.

Minton and Sheppard entered the maize patch following news that Deputy Sheriff Forrest Smith and Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger had found fresh tracks leading into the area.

Upon hearing the shooting in which Smith was critically wounded, Sheppard and Minton went running across the field to give assistance.

Sheppard related the ensuing action this way:

"I was walking crossways through the rows and was about halfway up a terrace when I glanced to the right. He (Perez) was crouched behind some careless some eight or ten feet from me."

"I jumped back just as he (Perez) shot and nicked my arm."

Sheppard was hit in the pard was struck in the arm Minton was fatally wounded in the neck. The deputy from Snyder, however, managed to get to his feet again and fire the fatal shot into the body of Perez.

Activities Are Scheduled Friday, Saturday At CHS

Parade Begins At 4:30 Friday

Activities, featuring a "Homecoming and a Coming-home Queen" and the Colorado City - Merkel grid tilt, for Colorado High School's 1965 Homecoming begin at 4:30 p.m. Friday with a gala parade. Junior and Colorado High bands will be on hand for the parade through the city plus seven floats built by high school organizations competing for $80 in prize money offered.

The parade contest is being held under the sponsorship of the Student Council who will have an unofficial entry in the event.

At 8 p.m. Friday night in Wolf Stadium the Colorado High Wolves with Coach Truman Nix at the helm will do battle with the Merkel Badgers in the athletic highlight of the homecoming agenda. Halftime of the Wolf-Badger tilt will see the crowning of the Homecoming Queen for 1965.

CHS students selected the queen from six nominees in voting at the school Tuesday morning. However, the identity of the winner will not be made public until halftime Friday night.

The nominees for this year's queen are Maxine Rogers, Sharon Nuekolls, Lucille Owens, Freda McCabe, Kathy Anderson and Karen Nuekolls. The queen and her court will circle the Wolf Stadium gridiron during halftime activities.

Mrs. Andy Prather, the homecoming queen at CHS before her graduation in 1955, will also be on hand for the festivities as the "Coming-home Queen" for 1965.

Mrs. Prather is the former Beth Newell who was a cheerleader at Colorado High during her school career.

An after-the-game social and business meeting at the Civic House is on tap for members of the ExStudents Association whose president is Mrs. John Morgan.

High school gym will be the scene of the homecoming dance set for 8 p.m. Saturday with live music provided by an Abilene band.

Admission to the dance is $1 per person and is under the joint sponsorship of four churches including First Methodist, All Saints Episcopal, First Christian and First Presbyterian.

Colorado High ex-students and current students are invited to attend the Saturday night dance.

Services Set For Infant

Graveside rites for Cody Wayne Harrison, two day old son of Mr. and Mrs. Freddy Harrison of Lubbock will be conducted at 10 a.m. today in Colorado City Cemetery with Rev. Neil Rogers, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church officiating.

He was born Sept. 17 in Lubbock and died in the Reese AFB Hospital there Monday.

Survivors in addition to the parents are the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harrison of Colorado City and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Beauchamp of Lubbock; and the great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harrison and Mrs. Tom Keeling, all of Colorado City.

County Oil Venture Due By E. G. Rice

Mitchell County is due an oil venture in the Sharon Ridge (1,700 Foot) Field.

E. G. Rice of Eastland will drill No. 3 D. P. McPhaul on a location 15 miles northwest of Colorado City on a 50 acre lease.

Location is 990 feet from the south and west lines of Section 82, Block 97, H&TC Survey.

Proposed depth is 1,800 feet with cable tools.

In Coke County Block 1-A, H&TC Survey, 16 miles northwest of Robert Lee, a former Strawn reef producer from 6,204 to 6,419 feet was plugged back and recompleted as a Strawn Sand discovery.

Discovery is Sun Oil Co. No. 3 J. S. Walker, 2,088 feet from the south and 250 feet from the east lines of Section 459.

Suggested name is the Jame son, Southeast (Strawn) Field.

Strike had a daily potential of 151.50 barrels of 43.7 gravity oil.

Flow was through a 11-64 inch choke with packer set on the casing and 1,225 pounds tubing pressure. It is producing from perforations in the interval at 5,736-92 and at 5,809-58 feet.

Cowboys Ride Again

The Cowboys from Dallas finally came into their own Sunday afternoon in the Cotton Bowl walloping the NY Giants 31-2 behind the flawless play of a tremendous offense and a tough defense.

Sticky fingers were certainly not the Giants' downfall Sunday as the Gotham crew lost two fumbles, had two aerials intercepted and dropped passes all afternoon long. Gary Cartwright, sports columnist for the DALLAS MORNING NEWS, summed up the outcome of the contest saying, "... a record regular season crowd of 59,366 came out to boo Don Meredith and went home talking about golden new days in Dallas football fortunes."

Bullet Bob Hayes, the Cowboys fleet 1964 Olympic dash champion, hauled in a pair of Meredith passes for 81 yards and also ripped off a 45-yard touchdown run against the left-behind Giant defense.

In the two-weeks old issue of Sports Illustrated writer Tex Maule made the Cowboys second in his pre-season pick for the NFL. After seeing the Dallas crew wilt the Giants on Teevee Sunday, Maule may have made a somewhat better forecast than many times comes from the weather bureau.

1965 may well be the year of the Cowboys in Big D.

Bill McGuire, former CHS grid star, now plying his trade for the East Texas State had starting berths on offense and defense in their narrow 21-20 win over Aulene Christian this past weekend in the Key City.

The 5-11 215 lb. guard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. "Bob" McGuire of Colorado City.

After winning all-district and all-area honors at Colorado High, McGuire accepted a scholarship from the University of Texas, but later transferred to the Commerce school.

According to information from ET sources, McGuire is being counted on for starting duties throughout the season.

A near-capacity crowd is expected in Austin Saturday night for the Texas Tech clash in Memorial Stadium. Both teams are fresh from opening victories, Texas whipping hapless Tulane 31-0 while the Raiders whacked the Kansas Jayhawks 20-7 in the rain-shortened game in Lubbock.

A report to this desk from a veteran sportswriter and observer in Lubbock says the Raider running attack is the best ever at the school. Could be the long down-trodden Raiders might rise up and knock out the charges of one Darrell Royal. Without a doubt the Raiders are due. After five years of hearing J. T. King say, "wait till next year," the time has finally maybe arrived. Old JT's neck may be on the line this year after only one anything like decent season which was 5-5 in 1964.

College coaching is a pretty cutthroat business built on a win or get fired proposition. But then nobody knows better of its cruel ways than those who yearly sign up for one more season and step into the firing line the coaches themselves.

Anyway it would be nice to see the Raiders, at least once, thrash the Longhorns of Royal who weekly laments, "I don't see how we'll win the next one."

Lubbock Sets Pro Cage Tilt

Sports fans who journey to Lubbock on Oct. 2 will have a rare opportunity to see both a Heisman Trophy candidate and basketball's top scorer in action.

The unusual grid-cage combination finds Texas Tech's Red Raiders entertaining the Texas Aggies in a Southwest Conference football game at 7:30 p.m. in Jones Stadium. Leading the Tech crew into the fracas will be all-American Halfback Donny Anderson, rated by many observers as the nation's outstanding collegiate runner.

Preceding the Tech-Aggie clash will be a 3 p.m. professional basketball tilt between the St. Louis Hawks and Philadelphia 76ers in Lubbock Municipal Coliseum.

The big gun for the 76ers, of course, is Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, who has led all NBA scorers for each of his six seasons in the circuit. During that time, "The Big Dipper" has averaged a remarkable 40.6 points per game — a full 10 points better than his closest rival. The 7-foot-1 Philadelphia pivot holds virtually all NBA scoring marks, including a single-game high of 100 points against the New York Knicks.

The pro basketball game will feature many other top cage stars. Joining Chamberlain in the 76er lineup will be such aces as Lucious Jackson, John Kerr, Hal Greer, Chet Walker and Al Bianchi.

St. Louis will counter with a fast-break attack led by Player-Coach Richie Guerin. Other Hawk standouts include Cliff Hagan, Zelmo Beaty, Len Wilkens and Bill Bridges.

Tickets for the pro basketball contest, priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00, may be ordered by mailing a check in the proper amount to Pro Basketball, P. O. Box 5002, Lubbock, Texas.

Wolves Prepared For Badger Battle

Colorado City's win-hungry Wolves clash with the Merkel Badgers in Wolf Stadium at 8 p.m. Friday in the annual homecoming tilt.

A large crowd sprinkled with ex-students is expected to be on hand for the final game before the Wolves begin district warfare against Haskell next week.

The Badgers are expected to offer some stiff opposition to the Pack, but if the local team lives up to expectations, C-City should emerge victorious.

In its two previous encounters Merkel lost its opener to Clyde 24-6, but came back to slaughter Baird 38-8.

Wolf halfback Donnie Higginbotham is still slowed by a bad ankle, but Coach Nix hopefully thinks the CHS regular will at least be ready for offensive duties.

Merkel fullback Nick Davis is also hampered by an ankle injury, but Badger Coach Bob Byerly said he is expected to start.

Byerly, in an interview with the COLORADO RECORD, said he was expecting "a tough one" from the Wolves. The Badgers will field a light, but dangerous team against the Wolves. Both starting quarterback Bob Tate and alternate Ray Davis have impressed C-City scouts with their throwing.

The Wolves are looking for an aerial barrage from the Badgers who against Clyde only attempted six running plays out of 48 during the game.

The Badgers run a variation of the "Notre Dame I Formation" using a split end that is especially suited for passing. Defensively, Merkel will run a five-man front.

Coach Nix announced the return this week of center Bill Magee who suffered a knee injury in early pre-season drills and has been sidelined.

New starters on offense for the Wolves include Robert Mathers at left guard, in the line and three new faces in the backfield namely Wayne Snowden, quarterback; Bubba Kennedy, right halfback; and Maccah Findley at fullback.

On defense Ronnie Lamb moves into the right line-backer slot and Randy Phillips will replace Higginbotham at safety.

On defense for the Wolves will be:

Record Book Contest Winners Announced

The Mitchell County 4-H Club Record Book Contest sponsored by Co-op's in Mitchell County has been held.

Boys top record book belonged to Woody Anderson. Girls top record book belonged to Jess Compton.

A 4-H Club record book contains a complete resume of the 4-H Club members history during their tenure in 4-H. This includes copies of their personal news clippings, snapshots of their 4-H club demonstrations or project and the various activities they may have participated in. It also contains a standard report form which give concise statements and summarized information pertinent to the 4-H club members program. A summary of total accomplishments is included as well as a story of the subject: "What I have done and learned in 4-H club work". This information plus the financial records on the 4-H club members demonstrations are included.

Judges for the Co-op's Record Contest were Tommy Marricle, Farm Bureau Manager, Mrs. Emmett Banks and Mrs. Henry Burton, of the Mitchell Co. Tax-Assessor-Collectors office. Basis for the judging was:

Neatness and Arrangement of record book, 25.

The Development of the 4-H Club member since this is the primary aim of club work, 30.

Accomplishments by the club member in light of his own situation, 28.

Participation in County activities and their work with younger 4-H club members, 20.

Letters To Editor

"What are the qualifications of an old-time Colorado City?" asks Leonard Simon, president-manager of the Union Bus Terminal of Dallas, Inc.

In a letter to the editor, Simon, a native of Colorado City, answers his own question. Because of its interest to early-settler families still here the Record publishes here with his letter in full. —EDITOR.

The friends Dr. and Mrs. Maxwell Thomas had in their home for a dinner party Friday, September 3, 1965, in University Park in Dallas, would not admit they are old timers. But perhaps most of the people living in Colorado City now would think that the seven families the Thomases had as guests would be qualified for that title.

All eight families (including the host) lived in Colorado City and within a radius of about two blocks of each other over fifty years ago. Guests were: Dr. and Mrs. Brooks Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Beal, Frank Ball Root, John Shaw, and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Simon.

Oldtimers to these people would be their fathers and grandfathers and relatives who settled in the early days of Colorado City. Brooks Bell's father was a member of the firm of Burns and Bell, leading merchants of the West. Charles Pierce's father worked for Burns and Bell in his youth and formed a partnership with Doug Burns, son of F. M. Burns, and established a store in Plainview. Fred Brown's father was the banker of Lorraine, Brown married Elvora Dulaney, daughter of the longtime Colorado City dentist, Dr. B. F. Dulaney.

Leonard Simon is the grandson of Col. J. T. Harness, one of Colorado City's first mayors, and in whose administration Colorado City's first water works was installed. Frank Ball Root is the daughter of George Ball Root, the pioneer whose actual stories of the Wild West of the Colorado City area should have been written and published. John Shaw, actually a Dallas boy, spent his summers with his relatives, Sheriff Dellinger and Judge C. H. Earnest. Sheriff Dellinger was Colorado City's first sheriff.

Jimmy Beal is the grandson of H. C. (Guff) Beal, first owner in the early day of the White Elephant Ranch. The host, Dr. Maxwell Thomas, who had the idea of getting the group together had as his father, the head of the Colorado National Bank after the J. H. Smoot, Sr. and Sug Robertson regime. His grandfather was the fine old Colorado City physician, Dr. P. C. Coleman, often called affectionately the Father of Texas Tech.

When the word "old timer" comes up in Colorado City, I suppose you will have to realize that everything in this world is relative.

Anyway, we talked of old timers such as Charlie Adams, D. H. and Marcus Snyder, Harry Landers, F. M. Burns, Brooks Bell, Sr., Cal J. T. Harness, Sug Robertson, Max Thomas, Sr., J. H. Smoot, Sr., C. H. Laskey, T. C. Ratliff, W. A. Crowder, D. N. Arnett, H. C. Beal, Joe Merritt, Andrew Cooksey, W. L. and John L. Doss, J. P. Majors, Judge W. R. Smith, Judge C. H. Earnest, Alpine Fox, C. King, George Smith.

Mrs. Mary Mullins, Robert Terrell, Fred McKenzie, Tom Smith, Smokey Beal, W. H. Stoneham, T. C. Brennan, W. H. Mosser, Tom Morrison, J. C. Prude, Jake Maurer, C. A. Arbuthnot, Fred Meyer, Jim Smith, C. C. Bailey, J. D. O'Keefe, J. T. Johnson, R. A. Jeffreys, Tom Plaster, Ben Plaster, R. N. Gary, J. D. Wulfigen, John Lane, Ed Dupree, J. M. Sherwin, J. S. McColl, Mose Carter and many others.

All in attendance agreed that Colorado City has come a long way in the last fifty years, and while the younger generation may not realize what a fine town and great country they live in, Colorado

City is a rich and vigorous community, and the credit in large measure is due to the foundation laid by the above old timers. The fact is, I sometimes think that Colorado City does not know its own strength.

Needless to say, this got together was a most pleasurable and memorable one. Leonard G. Simon, Dallas, Texas.

Dear Editor, City Fathers,

To Whom It May Concern, You have heard the old saying, "I could have dug a hole, jumped in it, and pulled the top in after me?" I would have done just that recently if I had a shovel, Kiker and Ralph with me. I went to the cemetery — The Congo jungle would be mild in comparison.

Our lot is 16 x 30, covered in gravel. We did this in the early spring, hoping to avoid three trips a week to keep the lot watered and mowed. I took two boys out to hoe the strip, which is four feet wide, around the outside of the curb. These boys worked two hours just hoeing! I raked the weeds into a pile nearby as large as a bale of cotton. The grass burrs are a foot high. This is all over the cemetery, except lots that are kept by individuals.

Lots on either side of ours are owned by people who have not lived here in years. Years ago one of them had two boards with names burned on them. They have been gone for years. What chance do we have with such lots next to ours with no up keep?

Where does the money go that is paid for lots? Couldn't it be used for up keep? Has perpetual care been considered or investigated?

Many times, while on a trip, I have noticed well kept, pretty cemeteries in so many towns. I always think nice town, someone cares!

Thank God, and I mean this reverently, there is a fence around our cemetery on the highway side. Strangers, new comers, industrial teams, etc., can't see through that fence!

Please let's do something about this disgraceful place where our loved ones were laid to rest.

Sincerely, Mary Lee Moore, 421 Walnut

P.S. If you should go out for an inspection, be sure to keep your tongue in cheek. If your mouth is open when you hit a gully, which is in every street you might bite it off!

CONVERSATION CORNER

FALL BEGINS today. Right here on the calendar it says so. First day of fall, September 23, 1965.

Everything's coming up autumn. Always have preferred the more alliterate word "autumn" for this season. "Fall" has always been used in so many other ways — usually to denote a catastrophe of sorts.

People talk of the fall of man in the Garden . . . read of the fall of the Roman Empire. People are always winding up in the hospital "suffering from a fall." And it used to be considered more delicate to refer to some people as "a fallen woman."

DO boys and girls still "fall" for each other? They used to. Last week they were saying "He turns me on" for the same symptoms. But by now, that phrasing, too, may be passe.

ANYHOW, "fall" means everything from "to come down by force of gravity" to a term in wrestling and "to be captured or conquered."

It also can mean "something which has fallen" as in "the fall of leaves." Which is likely how the word fall got mixed up with this season in the first place.

Autumn is more exact in its meaning. By first and preferred definition it means the season which comes between summer and winter. That's nice. And its high time, too.

Everything's coming up autumn. It's a mellow season. Even the weather shows signs of learning to control that hot-tempered streak.

NOW is the time for all good wives to start checking on the blanket supply. It's autumn.

Now is the season when straw hats start looking a little funny — specially when the wind whips Bunky Girvin's straw sombrero off his head and sails it like a kite down Walnut Street.

Now is when country sausage starts smelling best for Sunday breakfast . . . when Mexican food is tempting . . . baked yams come into their own . . . and homemade vegetable soup, gingerbread and apple pie spike the air.

Now is the season when darkness starts getting in shape for the race against the hours . . . when boys put up baseballs and start kicking footballs until dusk, up and down the little residential streets of town.

NOW that autumn is here it's time for splashy colors on field and tree . . . and all pretty ladies.

It's time for the annual sweater hunt . . . pep rallies . . . and you have to make a mid-morning detour around Chestnut St. because the Wolf Band is practicing musical marching, all around the school.

Now that autumn is here again it's time for homeloving hearts to hurry home . . . to light the light, late in the day . . . and to be glad.

For autumn has charms to bless all the senses . . . the sound of rain, the feel of wind, the smell of 'mums and late blooming roses, the taste of tamales . . . and the sight of all those . . . all those and new clothes too.

SEEN LATELYS were Dr. Dave and Emily Bridgford and their tall son Dr. Bill Bridgford in a lunch hour threesome.

Saw a bridge luncheon group enroute to one of the Baker party rooms . . . Ruth Latham, Josie Randle, Maude McCord . . . Mrs. Lester Mannering, Mrs. R. J. Wallace and Mrs. E. M. Owen, among them.

The T. D. Wimers, Jr. were spied in their daily dinner duet . . . Don Benson was office visiting. Ditto Ross Hargrove.

Mary Womack (Mrs. John) was in with news of the Franklin reunion . . . and Mrs. Perry Barber with announcement of wedding plans for her younger son, James, attorney in Washington D. C.

VICKIE MOORE (Mrs. Lindy) dropped by to show pictures of her August vacation spot. She and her husband spent their holiday time on Mackinac Island, fabulous spot off the Michigan peninsula, where no vehicles with motors (or even bikes) can go. Horses, horse-drawn buses to the Grand Hotel, and the surrey with the fringe on top are the only modes of transportation in the scenic retreat.

A Day of Fun . . .

Kiwanis Club National Kids Day is coming up this Saturday for the children of our community.

And the schedule of events lives up to the title of really being a day for the kids.

First treat on day's menu of events comes at 10 a.m. Saturday morning with a free movie at the Palace Theater followed by free ice cream from Gandy's.

At one o'clock that afternoon preparations will be made for the parade which starts at 2 p.m. with the entries including bicycles, tricycles, wagons and assorted pets. Prizes go to the best entries.

Following the parade a big watermelon feed gratis to the kids from Dewey Turner on the Courthouse lawn.

So come on out Saturday kids. It's a day just for you.

HONORING PRESIDENT

Mrs. Reed Is Hostess For Self Culture Dinner

Six o'clock dinner Friday evening in the home of Mrs. R. M. Reed, 723 Locust St., ushered in the fall program season for members of Self Culture Study Club.

Salad supper was served buffet style from a table centered with an arrangement of summer flowers in a mixed bouquet accented pink, in keeping with club colors, pink and white.

Small vases of pink flowers also marked the quartet tables. New club yearbooks were place favors. Mrs. L. B. Elliott said the invocation.

Mrs. Reed directed the program for the evening. She opened by reading "The Rules for Happiness," by Cora Johnson, then reviewing the club's constitution and by-laws. Mrs. Reed climaxed her introductory remarks by reading "Friendship," poem by Cora Johnson.

Mrs. Earl Brown, Self Culture president, reviewed the 1964-65 club year, expressing pleasure at club accomplishments and progress. She also gave a preview of programs and projects planned for the 1965-66 year.

During a short business session members set the date of their pot plant sale project for Saturday, Oct. 2. Members sent a greeting card to Mrs. Erwin Whitmore, member who is convalescing.

Present at the President's Dinner party were Mrs. Earl Brown, Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Elliott, Mrs. Wilfred Fox, Mrs. C. P. Gary, Mrs. A. A. Herrington, Mrs. Leslie A. Keith, Mrs. J. L. Strain, Mrs. E. L. Tiller, Mrs. LeRoy Gressett, Mrs. Paul Beeman, Mrs. Mabel Erwin, Mrs. Sam Armstrong, Miss Ruth Hightower, and the hostess Mrs. Reed.

Self Culture members will meet again Friday, Oct. 1, with Mrs. L. A. Strain as hostess, Mrs. Gary as director. Club theme for the season, "Behold the Beautiful" will be highlighted in a program studying "Eleanor Roosevelt," with Mrs. Fox as speaker, and "George Washington Carver," to be discussed by Mrs. Whitmore.

Club officers this year are: Mrs. Earl Brown, president; Mrs. Tiller and Mrs. A. H. Jackson, vice-presidents; Mrs. Keith, secretary; Mrs. J. L. Strain, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Herrington, treasurer; Mrs. Whitmore, historian; Mrs. C. C. Berry, Federation counselor; Mrs. L. A. Strain, parliamentarian.

Members present were Mmes. Gressett, Hendrix, C. W. Newton, John Hawkins, A. L. Young, Frank Oglesby, L. R. Messimer, Bill Rees and S. M. Bean.

The group will continue with study of "The Christian's Calling" next Monday.

Recent guests in the Price Hendrix home were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Morgan and children of Snyder.

NEW CLUB YEAR

Hesperian Study Club's First Meet Held Friday

Miss Mabel Smith was hostess for the first 1965-66 season's meeting of the Hesperian Study Club when members reconvened Friday afternoon in Villa Inn party room.

Club members will take club officers with their annual "President's Luncheon," Saturday, Oct. 2, in the Terrace Room at Baker Hotel, at one o'clock.

Mrs. Charles C. Thompson will be master of ceremonies. Special music will be presented by Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Graham. Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mrs. J. E. Hale, and Mrs. Edgar M. Majors. Mrs. Perry Barber will say the invocation. Speakers will be the out-going president Mrs. J. W. Watson, and the new president Mrs. Bennett Scott.

Re-assembly session, Friday, featured Mrs. Witt Hines in the reading of the club history. Organized in 1892, Hesperian Study Club was federated in 1897. Mrs. Watson was program leader, Friday. Members answered roll call with "Vacation Reports."

Mrs. O. L. Simpson conducted the installation of officers for the current club year. Installed, in addition to the president Mrs. Scott, were Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Sr., first vice-president; Mrs. Simpson, second vice-president; Mrs. Lynn Halbert, recording secretary; Mrs. Graham, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hale, treasurer; Mrs. E. H. Winn, Federation counselor; Miss Smith, historian; Mrs. Hines, publicity.

Student loan co-chairmen are Mrs. F. N. Thomas and Mrs. Majors. Mrs. Charles C. Thompson and Mrs. Barber are membership co-chairmen. Mrs. Sam Thompson and Mrs. M. E. Miller head the telephone committee.

The hostess served refreshment to Mrs. Sam Wulfsen, Mrs. R. J. Wallace, and to Mrs. Barber, Graham, Halbert, Hale, Hines, Majors, Sadler, Scott, Simpson, Thomas, Sam Thompson, Watson, and Winn.

Club theme for the new club year will be "The Great U.S.A." Programs will include studies of American universities and colleges; institutions of research for better health; advancement in communicative media, birthplaces of great writers, great museums of fine arts, natural wonders of the U.S.A., garden pilgrimages, recreation areas, scenes of Texas history-making events, United Nations and Washington D.C., federation headquarters in Austin and in Washington.

Dr. Graham will be guest speaker for the Christmas

Local Grad Holds Role In Drama

Betty Buckner of Colorado City portrays the part of Elizabeth Proctor when Hardin Simpson University drama students present Arthur Miller's "The Crucible," a two-act play, Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the HSU Theater.

The play is a historical account of witchcraft trials in early America.

Miller's play is set in Salem during the infamous witchcraft trials and the playwright seems to be more concerned with the motivations behind the persecution than in the trials themselves.

The theater will open nightly at 7:30, with curtain time at 8 p.m., according to Dr. Darrel Baergen, director. Cost will be $1.50 for adults, $1 for non-HSU students, high school students and under, .80.

Reservations may be made by calling OR 4-7281, Ext. 520 during the afternoon of Sept. 20-25.

The style of the play is Epic, formulated by Bertolt Brecht and Erwin Piscator between the years of 1919 and 1932. Epic theater is presentational, actors face the audience much of the time, and they accept the presence of the audience and play to it, said Dr. Baergen.

"Anything that will put over an idea is usable," he said, "staying gimmick at all." The director, in the Epic theater, the play is believed to be a "historical document with relevance to today's living," said the director.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hall of Stanton.

Mogfords Home From West Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Mogford the family party were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Levine of Monticello, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Mogford family reunion, held in Alamosa, Calif., at the home of their daughter, Mrs. James Kalana and Mr. Kalana.

They were joined, enroute, by their son A2C George W. Mogford of Biggs Air Force Base, El Paso. In Alamosa for son, five daughters and their husbands, and 22 grandchildren have all been together. After the reunion, the Mogfords, Belveals and Maes drove to Leadville for a visit of several days in the Witt home.

Mrs. Mildred Willis and family of Grand Prairie visited Mr. and Mrs. Arlis Cotton and family.

3 C-Citians Pre-register

Three Colorado City students have enrolled at Clisco Burton. The three were among more than 600 students to pre-register for the fall classes at the school. Fall enrollment at the Clisco school is expected to set a new record of 650 students.

B&PW CLUB CONFERENCE

Nelda Garrett to be District 7 Director

Among the 75 Business & Professional Women Club members who registered at the Saturday-Sunday District 7 Conference in Haskell were Colorado City B&PW members.

Miss Nelda Garrett was elected as a new District 7 director during the closing business meeting, Sunday morning. Miss Garrett will follow Miss Arta May Burkett of Haskell, 1964-65 director.

Miss Garrett, local club president, Mrs. Margaret Oyler, Mrs. Lena Porter, Mrs. Ross Dixon Sr., and Mrs. Ann Moss, Sunday morning, Miss Mary Morgan represented Colorado City's B&PW Club.

Meetings were held in Haskell National Bank's Community Room. Principal speaker, Mrs. Geraldine R. Edison of Ft. Worth, introduced by Mrs. Porter, who is a member of the Texas State B&PW finance committee. Mrs. Edison is state treasurer and finance committee chairman for Texas B&PW.

Her address stressed the National B&PW theme for the year, "Say yes, youth, education and service." Her subject for the Saturday evening banquet program was "Plan for Progress."

Also on the District Conference program was a Saturday afternoon tea hour, a Sunday morning breakfast, Sunday workshops and the business session in which Miss Garrett was elected District 7 director for 1966-67.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

We have newer and finer schools than ever before. This is one of the marks of progress.

But another is that we have more and faster automobiles than ever before. So we guard each "school zone" with signs and safety patrols and policemen and volunteers. We do this to protect our children from the dangers of progress, while they are enjoying the fruits of progress.

The dangers of progress are not always physical. Many are moral. They threaten the character and faith of a rising generation, caught in the erratic tempo of modern life.

Happily, in every community of our land, PARENTS and CHURCHES are joining hands to promote the spiritual development of youth... to protect the souls of our children.

Mrs. W. E. Smith, Jr., Darlene Lankford and Maritha Oden made a trip to San Marcos Friday where they visited San Marcos State Teachers College.

Residents To Get Extra SS Envelope

Sometime during the last two weeks of September, Colorado City residents who get monthly social security benefits will receive an extra special envelope in the mail, according to Evelyn Fisher, social security district manager in Big Spring.

This envelope will contain a special social security benefit check, representing a 7 percent increase in cash benefits for the months of January 1965 through August. The monthly benefit increase is part of the 1965 amendments to the Social Security Act, which recently became law, Fisher continued.

Early in October, beneficiaries will receive their first regular check at the increased rate. This will be the social security benefit for September. Each month thereafter, the check will be in the new amount.

Fisher stressed that there is no need for a beneficiary to get in touch with the district office when the special check arrives. The amount of the check will be for the difference between the old and the new rate for the period January through August, and will not be in the same amount as their regular monthly check.

Rev. & Mrs. Rogers Parents of New Son

Rev. and Mrs. Neil Rogers became parents of a baby boy, their third son, born to them at 9:10 a.m. Tuesday, Sept. 21, in Root Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Rogers and the baby, who weighed 9 lbs. 2 ozs. at birth, were reported to be "fine." Rev. Rogers is pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Colorado City.
