An urgent request for Eastland residents to furnish cars for band members' transportation to the Rising Star annual fair Saturday morning was issued by H. J. Tanner, secretary-manager of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

Tanner asked that all Eastland citizens who can to call his office and notify him of their intention to aid in the transportation of band members to Rising Star.

The band will participate in a parade Saturday morning at 10:30 at the fair. Saturday will be the final day of the fair which begins Thursday, said Tanner.

Rising Star, too, will cooperate in Eastland's fair next week.

The band will meet at the Chamber of Commerce at 8:30 a. m., before leaving.

Sufficient interest to warrant organization of extension classes was shown Wednesday night at a meeting attended by 35 teachers in the office of County Supt. T. C. Williams.

Present at the session were R. A. Collins and C. Q. Campbell, members of the faculty at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, who will teach the classes.

The classes will be held each Monday night at Eastland High School. Other teachers who wish to attend or are interested should contact Supt. Williams for information.

Subjects to be offered at the present time are education 363, extra curriculum, and English 483-Browning. The classes will be held for the duration of the school year.

Rank Of Page Is Awarded Eastland

The rank of page was conferred on George Davison, Jr., at a meeting of the Knights of Pythias Tuesday night at the Castle Hall in Eastland.

At the meeting the Eastland lodge issued a challenge for Gorman and Breckenridge lodges to participate in a meeting contest for the remainder of this year.

Herbert Reed will issue the challenge to the Breckenridge lodge Monday night. The lodge with the lowest net gain in membership will face the other two lodges, according to rules of the contest.

Notices On Beer
Vote Are Posted

Notices on the county-wide beer election set for Oct. 7 were being posted today by the sheriff's department. The notices were prepared by County Clerk R. V. Galoway.

The election was called this week by commissioners court in response to a petition signed by 800 persons. Only 238 signatures were necessary.

Queen Entry

CLARA MAE MATHIS
DE LEON, Sept. 21. — Miss Clara Mae Mathis, popular De Leon girl, who was elected to be Queen of the 1939 Melon-Peach Festival in De Leon in August, will come to Eastland to represent DeLeon at the coming Peanut Festival.

Miss Mathis will also represent the DeLeon Chamber of Commerce at the Abilene Fair and in the Queen of Queens contest being sponsored by the State Fair of Texas at Dallas next month. Miss Mathis, graduate of Comyn High School near DeLeon, is a daughter of W. W. Mathis, one of the largest producers of watermelons in Comanche county.

Since the DeLeon Fair is based upon the products of the farm, her selection by the Chamber of Commerce proved a most popular one.

WPA RELIEF PROBLEM IS MORE ACUTE

Eastland county's relief problem is becoming increasingly acute, it was disclosed Monday in a talk with county officials.

Members of commissioners court, it was stated, have contacted Congressman Clyde L. Garrett and asked his assistance in moving WPA officials to give this county's needy more work.

At the present time, only approximately 600 persons are being given employment by the WPA, said A. N. Sneyly and Henry Davenport, county commissioners. At one time this year 1,600 were being given employment by the WPA in the county.

Special dispensations as to the number allowed work in the county have previously been made by the WPA but this year conditions not being favorable in counties in this district as previously it has been necessary to cut down on the number of WPA workers in Eastland county, it was stated.

Commissioners Court seeks an emergency appropriation to aid the relief situation in the county. It is estimated that there are approximately 18 WPA projects, county road work, housekeeping, aid, sewing room projects, etc., in progress.

On the bright side however is the belief of some that industrial employment pickups in the north and east will absorb 75 per cent of those on WPA rolls in those sections which might result in more being given WPA work in this section.

Work to Prepare
Exhibit Space at Fair Is Initiated

Work of preparing grounds and the old Pickering Lumber Company building into suitable exhibit space for use at the Eastland County Fair and Southwestern Peanut Festival Sept. 28-30 was in progress Tuesday.

The work was being executed under direction of Ed T. Cox, Sr., and fair officials.

On Monday morning Cox was accompanied to the grounds by fair officials who discussed work to be done. Among those at the grounds were County Agent Elmo V. Cook, Mrs. Milton Lawrence, chairman of a committee in charge of the women's department; T. E. Richardson, Eastland Chamber of Commerce president; Sam E. Rosenberg, assistant county agent; H. J. Tanner, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and others.

Should U. S. Repeal Embargo On Munitions, to War-Torn Europe

EDITOR'S NOTE—The question of revision of the neutrality laws, which comes up before the special session of congress, opening today, being one of the most vital questions of the day, articles were prepared for this paper by two of the outstanding opponents of the question. The first, favoring the cash and carry plan of selling munitions to Europe, was written by Sen. Elbert D. Thomas, of Idaho. The second, and last, of this series, taking the opposite viewpoint, was written by Sen. Gerald P. Nye of North Dakota. Sen. Nye's arguments against the plan follow:

NO! 'IT'S EASTERN ROAD TO WESTERN FRONT,' WARNS SENATOR NYE

BY GERALD P. NYE, U. S. Senator From North Dakota
Written Exclusively for NEA Service and This Paper

REPEAL of the arms embargo is nothing more, nothing less, than the Eastern path to the Western Front. If only people would learn and know and remember the lessons of the last 25 years, there would be immediate readiness to understand why there should be violent opposition to any move looking to the repeal of the arms embargo in the present neutrality act.

People are asking: What possible danger can there be in letting war supplies be sold to a nation at war so long as those who buy pay their cash for it and come and get it and carry it away at their own risk? Is there not as great security for the United States in a cash and carry plan as there is in an outright embargo against the exportation of war supplies? What is the difference, if any?

There is an answer to the question that the record of past experience will substantiate. The answer is this:

The difference is the difference between peace and war for the United States.

The coming of the World War found the United States fortifying its determination to stay out of it through a publicly pronounced neutrality policy laid down by President Wilson.

That policy in about so many words declared that while it would not be considered neutral for Americans to sell munitions to belligerents so long as we sold to both sides alike, it would be considered neutral for Americans to loan money to nations at war. What happened to and under this policy? Look to the record of known facts:

France and England found it difficult to finance their growing purchases in the United States. Their purchases were affording us a war boom that we came to rely on. Any threat of the loss of this trade because of serious concern to us, England and France knew it.

Through their American representatives, J. P. Morgan & Co., France and England pleaded for American credit. The Morgans said American bankers were prepared to underwrite these credit needs.

Arrangements On
Carnival at Fair
Being Completed

J. E. Ruckman, advance man for the Regal United Shows, is in Eastland, making final arrangements for bringing his show to the Eastland County Fair next week.

He states he finds a great interest being taken toward the success of this year's fair, and that the prospect for a bigger and better event is very favorable.

The Regal United Shows will open Monday night, Sept. 25, on North Seaman street.

There will be six riding devices, about thirty clean concessions, and six high class shows, said Ruckman. One of the main features will be the two free acts presented by "Dare-Devil Frazier" daily.

At 9 p. m. a special free act, for the kiddies is given, consisting of an animal performance. Then at 11 p. m. Frazier presents his "breath-taking" high pole balancing and trapeze show.

County Agents at Ballinger Session

Ruth Ramey and Margaret Blount, county home agent and assistant home agent, Monday were at Ballinger to attend a district extension service meeting. Matress making was to be the subject of a demonstration.

$802 Judgment Is Rendered by Court

Judgment of $802 has been rendered for Martha Wendle, plaintiff in a case against E. J. Wendle, it was shown Monday in a judgment by 88th district court filed with District Clerk John White.

At once the foreign agents, aided considerably by our own officials, went to work on Wilson again.

Again under pressure the President was made to give ground and, while cautioning his cabinet officers against putting it in writing, he did authorize him orally to convey to the interested bankers the information that if they floated Allied bond issues in the United States nothing would be done about it.

ECONOMIC BIG STICK WIELDED BY BRITISH

The truth is that we let our American economic system become dependent upon the war trade which the Allies would give us. This dependence permitted England and France to very definitely dictate our American policies.

Overnight we went to war, assuredly not for the purpose of holding our trade advantage, but for the purpose of saving democracy and ending war for all time. Incidentally, the first job we did as an ally was to finance the show.

England and France have not forgotten this experience, though they may have forgotten to pay what they borrowed from us. They know that if they can get us into their eternal war in a business way, we can easily be brought the rest of the way soon enough.

If Americans have forgotten all this, surely they haven't forgotten that only a few weeks back the main complaint of President Roosevelt over failure of Congress to repeal the arms embargo was to the effect that the failure had prevented a nice business boom.

SEES ROAD TO MORE WAR LOANS

And now comes the President with an urgent appeal in what he has declared to be a "limited emergency" to abandon the arms embargo and make arms available for export on a cash and carry basis. At one and the same time we are given to understand that of course we're going to stay out of Europe's war.

A very few weeks of the cash and carry plan will find the nation confronted with the need of waiving the "cash" feature if we are to continue enjoying the war boom trade which England and France are throwing our way. And there will be Americans ready to furnish the cash up to their ability. Then how many weeks will it be before we go the rest of the route?

If we are challenged, if we do have a stake in the European mess, let's be honest with ourselves and declare ourselves in, way in. But if we think we can be half in and half out, we only deceive ourselves.

Alameda H. D. Club Meets on Friday

The Alameda Home Demonstration club met Friday, Sept. 15, at 2:30 p. m. in the home of Mrs. B. E. Thomas.

After a short business session, Miss Ruth Ramey, county home demonstration agent, gave a demonstration on ginger bread.

Recipe for ginger bread: 1 cup of fat (lard or butter), 1 cup brown sugar, 2 eggs, 2 1-2 cups flour, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1-2 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 teaspoons ginger, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 cup molasses, 1 cup sour milk, (or 1 cup of sweet milk and 2 teaspoons baking powder can be used instead of the sour milk and soda).

Cream fat and sugar, add eggs well beaten, stir remaining flour and dry ingredients and add alternately with milk and molasses to creamed mixture. Pour into well greased shallow pan. Bake from 35 to 55 minutes.

Mrs. Thomas served the ginger bread with iced tea and orange bread to visitors. Mmes. Lena Thomas, Willis Weekes, and Miss Ruth Ramey, Edith Weekes, Wanda Myrick, and club members, Mmes. W. E. Calvert, W. O. Weekes, G. H. King, S. E. Rodgers, John Love, Melva Love, Matie Walton, R. H. Myrick, A. H. Dean and Mrs. Thomas, the hostess.

The catalogs were prepared in the Eastland Daily Telegram's job printing department under the supervision of J. T. Starkey.

A feature of the fair this year will be the first annual Texas Peanut Festival.

The catalogs, because they weigh more than two ounces, require a three-cent postage stamp for the mailing of each copy.

Eastland Girl Is Chosen As Member Of J.T.A.C. Band

Margaret Gibson, of Eastland has been selected as a member of the all-girls band at Jahn Tarleton College. Unusual in the respect that there are few similar bands in the country, this organization is likewise unique in that it serves also as a social organization.

Organized last year by Harold J. Blum, professor of music at Tarleton, the band was accepted enthusiastically by the girls. Though Blum had to teach many girls to play instruments they had never handled before, the band played a number of concerts before the year was over. On one occasion they gave a program over radio station WBAP. It is planned, this year, for this band to make several trips, giving concerts in many towns of West Texas.

Sense of Balance and Humor as Propaganda Defense

The United States is in for a stronger dose of propaganda from Europe than it swallowed in 1914-1918. This is nothing at all to become indignant about. It is perfectly natural for each side in a war to try to persuade everybody that it is in the right. We would do the same; in fact, we have.

The right to propagandize is so tightly woven in with freedom of the spoken and the written word that it is difficult to try to protect people from exposure to propaganda. The people can, however, learn to estimate it, to discount it, to weigh it.

All the tricks of World War propaganda are already being repeated. Polish radio stations are already telling their hearers that German airplanes are dropping gay balloons filled with mustard gas designed to kill innocent Polish children, and also strewn poisoned candy for the children to pick up. Because these are old stories told during the World War and proved untrue, it seems very unlikely that there is any truth in them this time.

Similarly, Germans escort an American correspondent through a ruined village, show him the bodies of mutilated passants. Germans, the Germans tell him, killed by the Poles. The correspondent reports what he saw, what the Germans told him. That was his job.

But as to whether what the Germans told him was true, he expressed no opinion, nor do we need to form one on such slender evidence. What we do know is that these pitiful murdered people were victims of war—and that is about all.

The American newspaper correspondents in Europe are an unusually well-trained, responsible group, anxious to get the truth and tell it to you without distortion. That is their reputation among those who know journalism. Foreign visitors to the United States have observed that the American public is better informed on foreign events than the public of any other country.

But even these crack correspondents can only report to you what they are able to learn, and what the countries involved will allow them to transmit. Sometimes, what with censorship and thousand restrictions, that isn't much.

For instance, when the German government in Berlin announces that it has taken Warsaw, the correspondent usually sends a dispatch stating that it has made such an announcement. Whether or not it is true must remain for time and cross-checking to discover.

Time works for truth. Of all reports from Europe, nothing is lost by waiting. If they are true, they will stand up with time. If not, time will eventually knock them down.

Take it easy, read with discretion, weigh each dispatch against the source and the probable interest of that source, balance report against report, and arrive at your own version of the truth. It will probably be as accurate as any other.

Big Show Restyled to Astound Crowds

The Big Show—Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey—moving on your long railroad trains and carrying 1600 people, 50 elephants, 1000 menagerie animals, hundreds of horses and Gargantua the Great, world's largest and most ferocious captive gorilla, now displayed for close-up views in the menagerie, will exhibit in Abilene Wednesday, Sept. 27, with its huge big top air conditioned and restyled in rainbow hues.

Performances will be given at 2:15 and 8:15 P. M., the doors opening at 1 and 7 P. M.

Twenty-two air conditioning units, installed at intervals around the circumference of the world's largest tent, make it comfortable for the thousands who attend the big show. Drapes and gold tassels, gold and silver poles make the interior something new under the circus sun.

The new inaugural spectacle, produced by Charles Le Maire, former designer for the Ziegfeld Follies, is a streamlined pageant of almost unbelievable splendor. It is titled: "The World Comes to the World's Fair," and 2000 people and animals take part in its enactment.

Terrell Jacobs, renowned trainer, presents the largest group of performing wild animals ever assembled in America—50 lions and tigers in an amazing display.

Dorothy Herbert, madcap rider of rearing and fire hurdling horses, back from European triumphs, leads a number with 70 girl riders on 70 Kentucky high school horses, all four-year-olds.

Under a blue big top ceiling, lighted as is a big New York musical show, the displays of The Greatest Show on Earth surpass all the massed attractions of former years.

There is a heavier contingent of stellar European features with the circus than ever before, for John Ringling North, its president, secured the Continent with an open purse last winter. The more important newly imported attractions are:

the Great Arturo, breath-taking daredevil and comic of the high wire; the Pilades, sensational leapers over elephants and camels; the Zerbis, the Ottans and Faludy, Europe's greatest teeterboard somersaulting acrobats; Albert Powell, contortionist star of the flying trapeze; the Alcardis, jugglers de luxe; the Iwanows, thrillers on the aerial bars; Hubert Castle, England's wonder comic of the tight wire; the famous European clown Albertino, and Lulu, most famous of woman clowns.

The horse numbers of the show are extraordinarily appealing, with William Heyer and Tamara Heyer featured in new and sensational numbers. Tex Elmlundt again scores with new liberty horse acts.

The world famous Riding Christians, bareback thrillers, with Lucio and Belmonte starring; the two Flying Concello troupes and the Flying Comets, with Antoinette Concello, only girl triple somersaulter, the Walkmirs, aerial perch marvels; the Torrence Dolores, flying perch wonders; the Pallenbergs and their performing bears; the Rooneys, stellar double trapeze artists—these are some of the other outstanding features.

A great new horse fair tent adjoined the mammoth menagerie is open to patrons before the main performance commences.

Answers to FOOD PROBLEMS

Since Hitler has marched, the price of many commodities entering into our store for the consumption of our many customers, have risen with a tendency to soar. We think this is unwarranted, certainly at present. We wish to resist it by any means available. Still we feel sure that the people of this community whom we serve can readily see that any single concern serving the people cannot definitely cope against a hysterical mass movement.

Therefore, we would like to impress upon our good friends and customers that although we would be loath to do so, yet present prices are as low as our usual policy of 'SAVE AT PIGGY WIGGLY' can make them, we may be compelled to increase them when repurchasing from the manufacturer.

At a time like this when all the world is keyed to a high pitch of expectancy, it is no time to suggest hoarding, yet the average needs of any family can rightfully be protected. With this in mind we extend our sincere cooperation by giving you values today that may seem like tremendous savings to you tomorrow. Our present excitement as to commodity prices has only been agitated and incited by what all of you are familiar with through the columns of your newspapers and radio announcers. PIPKIN'S PIGGY WIGGLY WILL ALWAYS HAVE IN MIND THE BEST INTERESTS OF OUR CUSTOMERS WHO HAVE MADE OUR BUSINESS SUCCESSFUL AND ASSURE YOU THAT WE WILL NOT CONDUCT OUR BUSINESS ON A SPECULATIVE BASIS AT THE EXPENSE OF OUR VALUED CUSTOMERS.

BING CROSBY SHINES IN "THE STAR MAKER"

A BRIGHT, melodious host of grand old songs, known to oldsters and youngsters alike because they have become increasingly popular through the years, and four new songs, destined to rank in the hit class, will be sung and danced to in the great new Bing Crosby comedy drama, "The Star Maker" which Paramount will present on Sunday - Monday at the Lyric Theatre.

The old songs are the work of Gus Edwards, the famous showman whose amazing career suggested the story of the picture. Bing will be heard singing such tuneful Edwards' numbers as "School Days," "In My Merry Oldsmobile," "Look Out for Jimmy Valentine," "If I Was a Millionaire," "I Can't Tell Why I Love You But I Do," "I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now," "Tummy" and many others. In several of the numbers, he will be accompanied by outstanding groups of child singers, assembled especially for the picture.

The new songs which Bing will sing in the picture are the work of Johnny Burke and James V. Monaco, ace song writing team. Entitled "Still the Bluebird Sings," "An Apple for the Teacher," "Go Fly a Kite" and "A Man and His Dreams," they already rank in the old songs, Bing will have child singers furnishing vocal background.

New Singer and New Song
Incidentally, it is in the singing of one of these numbers—"An Apple for the Teacher"—that Linda Ware, who is a discovery of Charles R. Rogers, producer of the picture, too—numbers ranging from the catchy "Darktown Strutters' Ball" to Tchaikowsky's "Waltz of the Flowers." According to all reports, her voice has tremendous range, rare quality, and great power, marking it as one of the most exceptional voices to be heard in years.

Lovers of classical music will not be disappointed in "The Star Maker," for Walter Damrosch, the "grand old man" of American music, will be heard conducting The Philharmonic Orchestra of Los Angeles in Beethoven's Symphony. The orchestra, under Damrosch's direction, also accompanies Miss Ware in several of her numbers.

"The Star Maker," which is directed by Roy Del Ruth, tells how Bing, a tin-pan alley song writer and small time hooper, rises to the top in the entertainment world by making stars out of talented children. The cast of the picture also includes Louise Campbell, Ned Sparks, Laura Hope Crews, and Janet Waldo. The screenplay was written by Frank Butler, Don Hartman and Arthur Caesar. It was based on a story by Arthur Caesar and William A. Pierce, suggested by the career of Gus Edwards.

Above are scenes from "The Star Maker," a Paramount picture with Bing Crosby, Louise Campbell, Linda Ware, Hollywood's youngest child singing star, Ned Sparks and 99 kid stars of tomorrow. In this production we see Bing in a grand human role as a small time hooper who leads these youngsters into the big time. "The Star Maker" starts a two day engagement at the Lyric theatre, Sunday and Monday.

"Dust Be My Destiny," second of the big hit shows of the Lyric's fall film season, will open on Friday, with John Garfield and Priscilla Lane in the co-starring roles. This team, which proved so popular in "Four Daughters" and

"Daughters Courageous," is supported by a large cast of players, headed by Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, Billy Halop, Bobby Jordan, Charley Grapewin, Henry Armetta, Stanley Ridger, John Lital, Moroni Olsen and Victor Kilian.

"Good Girls" Captivating Laugh - Fest

Comedy in the continental manner, smart and sophisticated, Columbia's "Good Girls Go to Paris" is, paradoxically, the most original and completely American laugh-fest of the year. The new film which opened yesterday at the Lyric Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, co-stars Melvyn Douglas and Joan Blondell, the brilliant principals of the sensational "There's Always a Woman."

"Good Girls Go to Paris" finds its major entertainment values in the affairs of a young Englishman, professor of Greek at a midwestern university, who finds in the many perplexities he encounters in American life; and in the escapades of a pert, blonde waitress who has every intention of going to Paris but whose conscience prevents her from going via the "gold-digger" route. "Good Girls Go to Paris" is the story of a crochety multi-millionaire whose hypochondriac tendencies are vanquished when the waitress comes to the rescue with a flannel stocking; it is the story of a spoiled young woman, the Englishman's fiancée, who loves the butler's son. It is the story of a spoiled young man, and of a gigolo, and of a gangster. It is, in effect, the story which fits its cast like the proverbial glove.
