MAXIMUM SENTENCE ASSESSED ATHIST

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 15 (AP). The maximum sentence—a fine of $100 and 90 days on the county farm—was given Charles Smith, president of the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism, when he was convicted in municipal court today of a charge of violating an old English law against blasphemy. Smith appealed and was released under $1,000 bond.

REVEREND M. E. FOSTER, FAMOUS EDITORIALIST, GIVES HIS VIEWS ON HOOVER'S TEXAS VICTORY

I reduced it to 50,000 and even then I was far from right as the result has shown.

Probably it was this faith that was the downfall of the party. Only during the latter part of the campaign was there any concerted action taken to stem the Hoover tide. Then it was done in an intolerant manner to rebuke alleged intolerance.

There was more denouncing and more threatening than there was arguing and pleading. Democrats here and there anathematized the bolters. They were called traitors to the party and in some sections democratic chairmen threatened to bar so-called Hoover-Democrats from future primaries.

Democrats are supposed to convert republicans wherever they can, but in this state they showed no consideration for those who had suddenly switched to republicanism. They were given no credit for being conscientious. "Hypocrites," "bigots," "psalm-singers," were favorite words flung at them.

It is true religious intolerance did influence many voters in favor of Hoover, for in this state there are perhaps 100,000 who hate and fear the Roman Catholic church.

Prohibition also had its influence, for in Texas many were thought of interfering with the Volstead act arouses the women, the preachers and many others to action. Smith was paraded as one who was striving to thrust aside the prohibition enactment and that had its effect.

The cry of Tammany Hall had its influence. Then in the cities of Texas there are many republicans who came here from other states. They were for Hoover because they believe in their party the same as native Texans are supposed to believe in democracy.

Then the rain which fell throughout Texas on election day caused many of the rural voters to stay at home. They were the boys who were supposed to overcome the Hoover vote in the cities.

The lack of democratic organization in the state was most noticeable. The other side had the advantage of a big campaign fund and 500 or more Protestant preachers who took the stump to denounce the Demon Rum and the terrible Al Smith. Smith was painted as the incarnation of evil; and Hoover was described as the man

CONGRESS COMMITTEE COMING TO TEXAS TO INVESTIGATE

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The house campaign funds committee will leave for Texas Friday, Nov. 22, to investigate campaign expenditures in the southern part of the state, particularly in the 15th congressional district which has been represented in the house for twenty years by John Garner, a democratic stalwart.

The committee, in making its decision by unanimous vote, also mentioned the county of Hidalgo, Texas, as one of the sections in which it would inquire into campaign activities.

The motions that the committee visit Texas was made by Representative Nelson, republican, Maine, by a party vote of 3 to 1. The committee also adopted a resolution to request the house to extend its authority to investigate until March 1 next. This proposal was supported by Chairman Lehbach of New Jersey; Chubbomb, Illinois, and Nelson, all republicans. Representative Black, democrat, New York, voted no while the other democratic member, Representative Ragon of Arkansas was absent.

The committee will go to Texas by way of St. Louis.

Lava Pours Out Of Volcano Vesuvius

NAPLES, Nov. 15 (AP)—As the outpouring of molten lava from Mount Etna continued to diminish today, Mount Vesuvius became active. Incandescent matter was thrown out from an orifice at the base of the central cone from which it spouted last August. The eruptive activity was on the northwest side almost under the station of the cable railway running toward the summit.

Lava was pouring from the fissures of the main crater which sent out tongues of flames into the valley of the Inferno last August. The spectacle was interesting to tourists and scientists but the population of the vicinity was not enthusiastic.

LAD AND DAD PARTY FIXED

ADVANCE SALE MAKES BACKERS FORECAST BIG ATTENDANCE

Announcement was made today in all of the local public schools of the Father and Son Jamboree to be held at the Tech college gymnasium next Tuesday, November 20.

Indications from the advance sale of tickets point to an attendance overshadowing any event of this kind ever held in West Texas.

An acquaintance committee, consisting of J. C. Dean, Bob Masley, T. L. Lincoln, has begun a thorough canvass of the city for fatherless boys. It is expected that the fatherless boys of the city get in touch with one of the committee who will arrange to have the youth brought to the celebration by some father who does not have a son.

All Committees Function.

The Rev. L. G. H. Williams, chairman of the celebrations, announced that with all of the various committees functioning and with all of the final plans being rounded into shape, the celebrations promise to exceed previous expectations.

Tickets are on sale by committee and a number of local firms. Price for the occasion is only 25 cents, and Alex McDonald, chairman of the cats committee, states that food galore will be ready when the crowd gathers Tuesday night.

Between 1,000 and 2,000 fathers and sons are expected to attend the Jamboree.

Federal Men Will Consider Buildings

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—In preparation for recommendations to be made to congress for a new public building bill, Carl T. Schuneman, assistant secretary of treasury, and John H. Their first work will be to look over the situation in St. Louis.

From St. Louis the representatives of the treasury and postoffice departments will go into Oklahoma and Texas to investigate conditions at Oklahoma City where a new federal building is in prospect, and Tulsa, Ponca City and Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and in Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston and Galveston, Texas.

MINISTER, AS MAYOR, ADVISES ALL CHURCHMEN TO HOLD PUBLIC JOBS

BY ROBERTA RADCLIFFE
Staff Writer for Central Press and The Journal

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Nov. 14.—More churchmen in the church. That is the conclusion that the mayor of Mount Vernon, N. Y., has arrived at after attending a meeting of his synod. A mayor attending a synod meeting, you say? This mayor does, for he is also a Lutheran minister. The first mayor to occupy Mount Vernon's new million-dollar city hall.

From the pulpit to the city hall is a wide step, one would think. How did the Rev. James Berg happen to become mayor or enter politics?

"I have always been a man's man," he said. "The people of Mt. Vernon felt that a crisis had been reached in politics. They wanted someone to represent them in whom they had confidence. A committee of 30, all races, creeds and color, called upon me and asked whether I would serve as alderman. I agreed, and was elected in 1907, serving for six years, four of which I acted as president of the board of aldermen. During this time, of course, I was also pastor of the Lutheran church of the Good Shepherd.

Synod. This entails the purchase of lands, having charge of all missions in that territory, the building of churches, the placing of pastors and many other details. "There is never a day," he says, "that I do not have conferences of correspondents with half a dozen missions."

"I have often been asked whether I didn't feel a great difference between preacher and politician," Mayor Berg ruminates. "There is no difference between them. Both run on promises. A preacher, though, is not found out until after death. A politician has to make

Heaven First Time

"In 1913, after the split in the Republican party, the people induced me to run for mayor. I ran on a straight Republican ticket. There were three nominees against me, the Progressive party had also nominated a man, and I was beaten by 500 votes. Two years later I was elected city controller, and after six years in this office became city supervisor.

"In 1927 I was again nominated as mayor, and elected by the biggest vote any man has ever received who has run for this office in Mount Vernon."

Mayor Berg is indeed a self-made man. He does not come from a line of politicians or ministers but as he remarked, from "hard-working people." Born in Reading, Pa., 53 years ago, it seemed, he said, that "I was bound to enter politics, for it is quoted that a man born in Pennsylvania is either born a politician or becomes one."

"I attended Muhlenberg college and the Theological seminary of Philadelphia, receiving a degree of Master of Arts. In 1902 I became pastor of the Lutheran church of the Good Shepherd and served my people for fifteen years."

Active In Church Affairs

Mayor Berg still is active in the United Lutheran church, being superintendent of the Home Missions of the New York and New England good the first time—he has to fully fill his promise.

"I do not find it inconsistent to be mayor and minister, I never was too good to lose my good standing among politicians nor too bad to lose my standing with the people. To my mind, no one is more qualified for mayor than a man who has been a faithful, conscientious pastor."

CHICAGO POLICE SOLVE SLAYINGS AND JAIL FOUR

CHICAGO, Nov. 15 (AP)—Three murders were solved and four accused slayers were under arrest today after a night of action by Chicago police.

Two of the alleged killers were cornered and captured within 15 minutes after they were blamed for slaying a spectator during a similar roundup last Sunday.

The trio of negroes shot it out with police when cornered in their flat but surrendered after their ammunition was exhausted. Their victim was Peter Lucas, druggist. They gave their names as Morgan Swan, Napoleon Glover and Van Yedder Doreux and admitted killing Charles Metlock in another druggists roundup last Sunday.

The third murderer cleared up followed the capture of Michael Quirk, seized when he attempted to visit his home in Forest park after having been a fugitive for a year for the slaying of Roy A. Flynn, in a West Side slaying.

ARMY PROBES FATAL CRASH

SIX MEN ARE KILLED IN PLANE WRECK IN SAN ANTONIO

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 15.—The Army investigated today the crash of a plane which yesterday killed six enlisted men who volunteered to go up for the "flying time" while commission officers scheduled to make the flight watched a football game.

Two other occupants of the plane, the pilot, saved themselves with parachutes, which the six could not use because of the tremendous falling speed and the construction of the big transport which dropped like a stone after its tailpiece suddenly was riddled and its right wing had broken off.

The wreckage of plane and men fell at Brooks field, army air school, where the victims were being sought.

Accident Described

Lieutenant Harvey T. Dyer, Jr., and Staff Sergeant Frank J. Spencer, in the cockpit with Dyer, described the accident. The sergeant was injured slightly in the parachute descent but Dyer came down unhurt.

Had the transport had a false bottom, which opens in the event of trouble and allows the occupants of a ship to drop out, the men, presumably hurried to the fore of the ship might have been able to get free to use their parachutes.

The dead are: Arthur W. Hardesty, 24, son of Mrs. J. W. Howard, Lebanon Junction, Ky.; Nicoford Wilberal, 29, son of Mrs. Virginia Wilberal, Pampa, Cochabamba, Bolivia; Carl W. Harris, son of Mrs. Minnie Hargis, Winnboro, Texas; Harry W. Cauldin, 26, son of Mrs. C. C. Cauldin, Callander, Va.; Thomas T. McCluskey, 19, son of Mrs. Martha McCluskey, Placid, Tenn.; Travis Self, 23, son of Mrs. Paul Self, Victor, Texas.

Agreement Reached In Suit On Crash

Agreement was formally reached yesterday in the $20,000 damage suit of J. L. Denton and wife against J. H. Jenkins estate and the Perkins Dry Goods company of Dallas on trial in 72nd district court with the receipt of a check for $2,000 from the defendants.

This suit grew out of the accidental death of Agnes Adell Denton, daughter of the plaintiffs. It is alleged that the little seven-year old girl was struck by a car driven by Jenkins, a representative of a dry goods company. The accident occurred March 10 near 2nd street on Avenue H, according to the petition.

HOOVER PLANS HIS SPEECHES

PRESIDENT-ELECT WILL EXPLAIN HIS BELIEFS TO NEIGHBORS

BY JAMES I. WEST
Associated Press Staff Writer
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Nov. 15 (AP)—Going to Latin-America as a plenipotentiary of peace and good will, Herbert Hoover will interpret the character of his mission in addresses which he will deliver in each of the republics he will visit on his two months' tour.

The President-elect already is outlining some of these speeches, the first of which may be made at Corinto, Nicaragua, now tentatively fixed as the first port of call after the Battleship Maryland leaves San Pedro next Monday. He would be welcomed to Corinto by President Diaz.

A speech in this Central-American republic would afford an opportunity for the President-elect of the United States to indicate the policy his administration would pursue in dealing with situations such as arose in Nicaragua and resulted in the landing of marines to police the country.

With Corinto as the first port on the tentative schedule for the west coast voyage, the others are Balboa, Canal Zone; Callao, Peru, and Valparaiso, Chile. Others may be added, however, as Colombia, Ecuador, and Bolivia are urging upon the state department that they be included in the call.

With the possible exception of Santiago, Chile, Mr. Hoover plans to spend only 24 hours in each of the capitals where he will call. The schedules probably will be so arranged that he will arrive in each early in the day and leave late at night.

The President-elect is to be accompanied on his tour by Mrs. Hoover and their son, Allan. The other in the official party will be Henry

SEVENTEEN BRITISHERS ARE SWEEPED TO DEATH IN HEAVY SEAS IN EFFORT TO LEND HELP TO STEAMER IN DISTRESS

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Press association publishes a graphic account of the drowning of the seventeen members of the crew of a lifeboat sent out by the Rye, Sussex, station in a tempestuous sea at Jersey's gap when the boat overturned while attempting to assist a small steamer in distress today.

An eye witness was quoted as giving the following description of the tragedy which took place within sight of relatives when the lifeboat was returning to harbor after the crew of the wrecked steamer had been rescued by the German steamship Smyrna.

Seas Ran High
"It was at 7.30 a. m. today that a group of people including many women who had been anxiously waiting saw the lifeboat returning to the harbor. The seas were mountainous and they were coming in the teeth of a southwesterly gale. Every fresh wave threatened to overturn the boat and many of the waiting relatives began to pray aloud in terror.

"When the lifeboat was within a half mile of the harbor, the end of the crew's struggle against odds came. A gigantic wave overwhelmed and capsized the little craft and the crew was drowned within sight of the screaming and sobbing men and women waiting at the harbor side. They could see the men struggling in the waves and yet were powerless to do anything. It was some hours later before bodies began to float ashore at Jersey's gap, a desolate spot on the sands several miles from Rye."

Scared Heavy Seas
The lifeboat went out at 5 o'clock this morning in spite of heavy seas in response to a call for help from the small steamer Alice, of Rye, which was in distress near Dungeness.

A Lloyd's dispatch from Dungeness says the Rye lifeboat caused two miles west of Jersey's gap but makes no mention of the fate of the crew.

The crowds on the strand including many grief-stricken mothers, wives and sisters of the crew rushed along the beach when they saw in what direction the tide was running, and a tragic scene was enacted as the great breakers brought in the bodies of the gallant lifeboat men who had gone out in the face of death to succor others.

Broken hearted relatives identified the bodies as they were washed ashore with each big wave. Finally the lifeboat itself was washed in and two more bodies were found underneath it.

There was hardly a person in the little village of Rye who had not lost either husband, father or some relative.

PONCA CITY, Okla., Nov. 15 (AP)—Resignation of Chester H. Westfall, president of the Marland Oil company of Mexico and director of public and industrial relations for all Marland companies, is impending. It was learned here today. Although the date of Westfall's retirement has not been announced, it is known he expects to establish a business of his own.

"Chesterfield—!"
of course!"

Mild enough for anybody
... and yet they Satisfy

*MILDNESS is not the whole story of a fine cigarette. Chesterfields are genuinely mild but they are something more. They stand out as the cigarettes that satisfy because they are made of high quality tobaccos; because they are blended and cross-blended in a way that can't be copied—and that blending produces a satisfying taste and fragrance. They are "the mild cigarettes that satisfy."

Needle Society In Meet Wednesday

A chicken dinner was served yesterday when members of the Local Needle Society club met in all-day session with Mrs. C. A. Paulger at 2210 10th street. The afternoon was spent in needle work, chatting and discussion of club activities. Light refreshments were served in the afternoon.

Cut flowers were attractive in rooms of the house for the party. Club members attending were Mesdames F. B. Malone, J. C. Riffe, W. A. Childers, J. M. Bishop, W. E. Holder, E. B. Ater, D. H. Stansel, Fred A. Owens, Minnie Nichols, W. R. Fickas, John R. Hall, H. F. Clem, R. V. Mills, R. E. Swain and J. R. Barrier. Guests were Mrs. L. R. Dolahite and Mrs. C. E. Renfro.

Committees Named In S. S. Class

Resignations of three officers were accepted, committees were appointed and other business transacted Monday evening when a monthly meeting of the First Baptist Business and Professional Women's class was held with Miss Mary Lou Robertson at 1904 Main street.

Resignations accepted were the following: Miss Oma Wright as second vice president, Miss Ruby Jackson as third vice president and Miss Myra Stanley as reporter.

A nominating committee was appointed as follows: Gladys and Sybil Tyson and Ruby Gregory. Two other committees to see about class activities consist of Misses Virginia Forbes, Mabel Allison and Lillie McKinney and Misses Dorothy and Nell Wilbanks, Gregory and Forbes.

Those who attended the meeting were Mrs. J. F. Hankins and Misses Robertson, Jones, Ethel Rivers, Fay Wells, Myrtle Sanson, Myra Stanley, Sybil Tyson, Gladys Tyson, Nell Wilbanks, Dorothy Wilbanks, Edith Stanley, Frances Straley, Bessie Sanderfer, Eufalia Wise, Odella Anderson, Virginia Forbes, Vesta Fremmons, Kate Gautins and Bessie Neal.

Endeavor Group To Attend Banquet

Fourteen members of the First Presbyterian intermediate Christian Endeavor are to attend a fall party at Plainview Friday evening. Plans for the group to go were made last evening when a monthly business meeting was conducted with the spouses, Mrs. N. L. Peters at 2421 13th street. The group will leave the local church at 5 o'clock Friday evening and will be accompanied by Mrs. Peters, Mrs. E. L. Reed and Rev. Jack M. Lewis.

Jack Huppertz, field secretary for Christian Endeavor, is to be a speaker at the Plainview banquet.

After business had been dispensed with last evening, there was a social hour during which Mrs. Peters served hot punch and wafers to Mary Ledigh, Ruth Reed, Katherine Robinson, Elizabeth Moore, Flossie Adkinson, Marguerite Horton, Katherine Ledigh, Clarence Woods, Louisa Adkinson, Mary Hopper, C. J. Henson and Miss Virginia McLean.

Ruth Reed is at the head of a committee to plan a stunt to be presented in Plainview.

Two Couples Honored On Anniversaries

A surprise party was given on Tuesday evening honoring Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sims and Mr. and Mrs. Walker Jackson on their wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Sims, parents of Mr. Jackson and Fred Sims, were hosts at their home, 992 Avenue Q.

Colors of yellow and pink were used in appointments and individual cakes with a refreshment course were embossed with the names of the guests.

Games of forty-two were played during the early evening after which there were some games for the anniversary occasion and the honor guests were presented with wooden gifts.

Those attending were Messrs and Mesdames Fred Rinea, Walker Jackson, Joe Stanton, Pat Haves, Stanton Rhea, Bill Spikes, Joe Harris, Misses Flora and Edna Sims, H. W. Sims and Laverne Almack.

Baptist Classes Have Party On Tuesday

A party was given Tuesday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cloninger, 2011 8th street, by girls in the Pure Gold Sunday school class of the First Baptist church. Members of the Plainsmen class were guests.

During the evening games were played and refreshments of pumpkin pie, sandwiches, hot chocolate and candies were served to Ruby Seale, Homer Hall, Edgar R. Fuller, Moore Finck, Inez Law, Sam Henry, S. M. Wilson, Ronald Douthett, Mattie Lou Woudard, Thelma Brynum, Elsie Clark, Mrs. J. D. Carnett, Olivia Brock, Carroll McCasland, Jaynes Cloninger, Edgar Bright, Mavourine Dunn, Cherry Foster, Thelma Bright, E. Y. Lee, Verna Mae Cloninger, A. C. Sanders and Iris Cloninger.

Matching Or Contrasting Gowns Is Proving Popular

New evening models are graceful, luxurious and very feminine. Left to right, a chartreuse green velvet coat with gold satin scarf collar tops a dinner gown of gold satin. The new evening cap of pink tulle swishes the head becoming-tail. A formal ensemble is of light blue moire shirt with silver, the velvet gown graced originally with silver threads and jewels, the coat collared in white fox.

FOR NEA SERVICE

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—With the approach of the formal winter social season, party clothes are uppermost in the minds of many.

The great variety of functions for which costumes are needed should be taken into consideration before shopping is started. Balls, dinner dances, bridge parties, the opera and other events should be considered and party clothes chosen that will best suit them all.

In contemplating the winter mode the evening ensemble is one's first consideration. It is perfectly natural that the ensemble idea should at last gain the ball room, such vogue has it had everywhere else.

WHAT VICE COULD HUBBY HAVE IF YOU COULD MAKE A CHOICE?

You can't marry a perfect man, girl. A man is bound to have some faults. The trouble is, that no matter what friend husband's pet vice may be, his wife feels that she could better overlook any other. To the wife of the man who is addicted to idle dalliance with "girl friends" this is the worst possible fault, while the life partner of the unattractive man wishes she had a handsome husband. The woman whose husband is so immersed in business that he never can give her a minute of his time, thinks that if she had a "home body" for a mate she would be perfectly happy, while the woman who has such a husband yearns for a man who is big in the business world—one she can be "proud of" as she puts it. The tragedy of one marriage is the drinking man, while of another it is the stingy penny-pinching kind.

And so it goes. The writer of the following letter undoubtedly thinks she could condone any fault more easily than the one she speaks of.

MISS RIEGEL TO SPEAK AT P. T. A. MEET

"Dear Mrs. Lee: I am a constant reader of your column. Now, Mrs. Lee, I derive a great deal from them, and I am writing you my problem. Please print in the paper so other erring husbands may read and maybe change their way of doing. My husband has been corresponding with a girl. I have asked him not to do so, and he said he didn't write to her. Now, Mrs. Lee, I am in receipt of a perfect love letter written by her to him, and containing her photo. Do you think after a husband does these things he is worthy of your love? I have lost confidence in him and can not rely on anything he says. We have two children. Must I leave him?"

Home Is Bombed In Mill Strike Fuss

KENOSHA, Wis., Nov. 15 (AP)—The bombing of Roger Kimball's summer home at Lake Geneva last night has added another chapter of violence to the Allen A. Mills labor difficulties.

The $15,000 home of Mr. Kimball, vice-president and general manager of the company, was the twenty first target of bombs which police attribute to the strike, or lockout, in force at the mills here.

Mr. Kimball's home, bordered by other summer residences in the fashionable lake colony, was seriously damaged by fire which followed the explosion.

Actress Is Victim Of "Prop" Pistol

ABLENE, Nov. 15 (AP)—A "prop" pistol which members of the troupe thought was unloaded claimed the life of Mrs. Gene Gladstone, 42, actress, in a theatre at Rochester, near here, last night.

The woman was standing in the wings of the stage with the pistol in her hand when she apparently tripped and fell. The bullet pierced her heart and she died almost instantly.

Her home was at Fullerton, Calif.

Four Matrons Are Hostesses Tuesday With Luncheon in Meador Residence

The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Meador, 1621 Main street, was the scene of a lovely luncheon Wednesday at 1 p. m. when four matrons of the city entertained. The hostesses were Mrs. Meador, Mrs. W. A. Bacon, Mrs. R. D. Benson and Mrs. S. C. Arnett.

Covers were laid for the following and a three course luncheon was served to Mesdames A. B. Conley, Earl Spores, O. L. Slaton, R. A. Mills, H. T. Kimbro, Kenneth I. Kimbro, Estlin Wolfarth, W. H. ONE KILLED IN IOWA TORNADO

COUNTRY-SIDE PUT TO RUIN; SEVERAL ARE HURT

(By Associated Press)
 VINTON, Iowa, Nov. 15.—Tornadoes dropped out of black skies in three separate localities of north-eastern Iowa yesterday causing at least one death, injuries to six, and property damage that will run into many thousands of dollars.

Two twisters struck, one sweeping down about five miles south of Vinton, in Benton county, cutting a path 40 rods wide for 11 miles, then bounding to drop on the farming community called Silver Creek, 20 miles northeast. The other tornado, at about the same hour, struck at Chester, 90 miles northwest of Silver Creek.

Barn is Crushed
 When the first twister took its last dive at Silver Creek it caused the death of Mrs. Alpha Hawkins, 30, when it crushed the barn in which she was milking. That was the only casualty reported there, but two farmsteads were completely demolished, and about a score others damaged, much livestock was killed and trees and telephone poles were laid flat. Damage in that vicinity was estimated at $75,000 or more.

On its earlier journey, the twister had caused injuries to at least four persons and had wrecked ten farmsteads, in addition to damaging many others. Near the start of its course south of here, it turned toward the William Herman home, causing severe cuts to Mrs. Herman and her two children. They had taken refuge in the cellar, but when fire broke out they were driven from their haven.

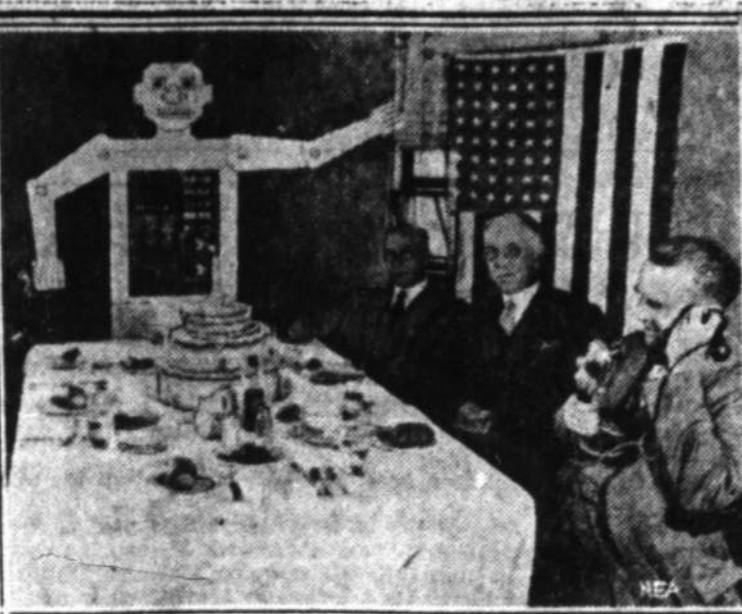

Next the tornado destroyed the house and barn on the John Fry farm, where one man was injured.

Scout Men Confer On Problems Here

In interest of Scouting in the southern part of the South Plains area council of the Boy Scouts, Dr. A. E. Arnfield, of Lamesa, deputy Scout commissioner for that district, was in the city yesterday for a conference with Warren P. Knox, Scout executive.

Dr. Arnfield is in charge of Scouting activities in Gaines, Dawson, Borden, Lynn, and Terry counties. He reports an increasing interest in Scouting in that section.

'REBELLION' EXPECTED TO BE RE-DIRECTED AT GOVERNOR

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 15.—Leaders of the administration today announced that they looked on a banquet to be held here Dec. 28, anniversary of the adjournment of the attempted special impeachment session of the 11th legislature, as a move by anti-administration leaders to fan again into flame the impeachment spark.

The new legislature, with several additional republicans in house seats, and with a large number of house and senate members who participated in the abortive impeachment session of last winter, back in their chairs, will convene January 4, a few days after the planned banquet is held.

Fideler Announces Plan
 Plans for the banquet were announced by Senator W. C. Fideler, of Oklahoma City, re-elected on a campaign against the administration policies, to observe the anniversary of the close of what he

MAN CAN'T ATTEND VICTIM'S FUNERAL

DALLAS, Nov. 15 (AP)—A request by Louis Carter, charged with the fatal shooting of Craig J. Gladden Sunday night, that he be permitted to attend the latter's funeral here was denied by the sheriff's department.

The murder charge was filed against Carter after detectives had spent two days investigating Gladden's death. Before he died Gladden said he had been shot accidentally by Carter.

A charge of robbery was filed against Carter today, the offense allegedly having been committed, officers said shortly before Gladden was shot.

Governor Henry S. Johnston refused to comment publicly on the proposed plans. However, those close to him say it is a plan to get another movement under way for impeachment of the Governor at the regular session of the 12th legislature.

Tech Faculty Man Will Give Lecture

"The Modern Drama" will be the subject of the lecture at 7 o'clock this evening of Dr. A. L. Carter, head of the English department of Texas Tech. The lecture will be given in room 207 of the administration building, and will be concluded before the beginning of the Sousa band concert at the college gymnasium.

The lecture tonight is the second of a series of twelve in a drama study course, which is open to anyone interested in the work. A fee of $10 will be charged and it may be taken by credit or non-credit students and as graduate or undergraduate work.

Another Schooner Is In Woe At Sea

NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—The Radio Marine corporation this morning picked up a message from the Coast Guard vessel Yamacraw saying that the Schooner Anna R. Heidritter first reported in distress Tuesday night, was still flying distress signals today.

The message read: "U. S. C. G. Yamacraw, 4 a. m. Schooner Anna R. Heidritter flying signals of distress. Latitude 31.58 north, longitude 75.08 west."

COLLEGE TO BE HOST TO HIGH SCHOOL GRIDSTERS

High school coaches and football players from 89 schools over West Texas have been invited to be guests of members of the Tech Chamber of Commerce Saturday when the college organization entertains the visitors throughout the day, with a barbecue at noon and football game in the afternoon as the feature attractions.

Between two and three hundred coaches and high school gridsters are expected here for the get-together Saturday. Beginning at noon the guests will meet in the grounds of the administration building and assemble in the stock judging pavilion for a duck barbecue. A snappy program has been arranged for the visitors. Athletic officials, members of the football team and chamber of commerce officers will speak.

To Attend Grid Clash
The feature entertainment of the day will be the Tech-Simmons football game at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon at which time the high school visitors will be guests of honor. Members of the college chamber of commerce will escort them to the game.

While in Lubbock the visiting players and coaches will be shown through the buildings of the college, over the campus and through the residence section of the city. J. M. Teague, Jr., is president of the newly organized chamber of commerce at the college. B. F. Conroy and H. C. Pender are the faculty sponsors.

BIG TEN FLAG WINNER IS NOT SUCH A CINCH

MICHIGAN, MINNESOTA, MAY FOOL IOWA AND WISCONSIN

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The race for Big Ten championship honors won't be ended by the Iowa-Wisconsin game Saturday if Minnesota and Michigan succeed in their ambitions to scramble the conference standings.

Only a victory Saturday and another November 24 can insure either Iowa or Wisconsin a clear claim to the championship. A defeat for either or both would allow Ohio and Illinois a chance to tie for the title.

Stumbling Blocks Seen
Whether Iowa or Wisconsin wins, they face later stumbling blocks in Michigan and Minnesota. Iowa must meet Michigan's up and coming eleven, November 24, while Wisconsin faces a final game with its traditional rival, Minnesota, the same day.

With non-conference opponents lined up for the Minnesota-Michigan and Michigan-Iowa championship contenders—Iowa and Wisconsin—and are working overtime for next week's games, Minnesota, especially, looks dangerous for its game against Wisconsin.

Harriers Will Run At Rice-Aggie Tilt
COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 15.—As an added feature of the Texas-Aggie-Rice Owl grid tilt at Kyle field Saturday the Texas Aggie cross country runners of Coach Frank Anderson will engage the Owl harriers in a dual meet, starting during the second quarter of the grid game and finishing between halves directly in front of the football stands.

Last year in their dual meet the Aggies were winners by a margin of one point and the owls were runners-up in the conference meet at Dallas in which the Aggies won the Southern championship. This year the Aggies have run in only one competition, having defeated the Texas Longhorn at Austin last week. The Owls overwhelmingly defeated the Longhorns early in the season and are also accredited with a victory over the S. M. U. Mustangs.

Slaton Will Clash With Paducah Team
SLATON, Nov. 15.—After administering a crushing defeat, 33 to 14, to Lamesa Tornados in a game played Monday at Lamesa, the Slaton high school Tigers will face the Paducah high school team in Slaton on Friday of this week. Both teams have been defeated this season, but each is considered a strong aggregation, and a hard fought battle is expected. Paducah is likely to bring a large delegation of fans here to back their eleven, it is predicted.

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to The Journal

MERRYVILLE, La., Nov. 15.—Out of this quiet, little southwestern Louisiana town has come the greatest football sensation of the year. He is Christian Keener Cagle, the Red Thunderbolt of West Point, called the finest star the Army has had since the days of Elmer Oilphant.

Red Cagle has everything that it takes to make a mighty man of the gridiron. He has a flashing, lightning speed, a keen quick brain and the ability to literally fade from an opponent's grasp. He is a hard, sure tackler, a superb broken field runner and a tremendous line plunger.

Red Cagle has made splendid use of these talents. Last year he broke the heart of Notre Dame, blasted Navy hopes and ruined the records of other football squads. This season he has glittered in a succession of Army victories. His greatest feat occurred on the sunny afternoon when he destroyed Yale, until then a favorite for a national championship. Twice he ran through a great Blue team that ran for 52 yards and once for 73.

Already football writers compare him with Jim Thorpe, George Gipp, Eddie Mahan, Ted Coy and other football immortals, but down here in Merryville he is Chris Cagle, T. J. Cagle's boy.

It was in the summer of 1922 that Chris Cagle's football destiny was decided. He made up his mind that he wanted to attend Southwestern Louisiana Institute, though his parents wanted him to attend Texas A. and M.

At Southwestern Cagle fell under the eye of Coach Ray Mobley, who saw the boy's possibilities and developed him into a star. At Southwestern he scored 42 touchdowns and two field goals. In his last two years of play at Southwestern, Cagle averaged over 12 yards every time he picked up the ball. He was a Southwestern basketball star as well as starting in track and field sports.

Despite his great playing Cagle entered West Point in June, 1928, virtually unknown. The Army then was extolling the merits of Light Horse Harry Wilson, Tiny Hewitt, the great Harding and others and didn't notice the quiet red-headed Louisiana lad.

Cagle is one of eight children, having five brothers and two sisters. A younger brother, Norris "Bugs" Cagle is now a freshman at Southwestern Louisiana Institute, hopeful of following in his brother's footsteps on the gridiron.

Christian Keener Cagle was named after an uncle who in turn was named after the late Bishop Christian Keener, of the Methodist church.

Red Cagle was born in Merryville on May 1, 1905—a date that has become an epic one in Army football annals.

SIMMONS TILT HONORS COACH VICTOR PAYNE

FRESHMEN WILL MEET ROSWELL CADETS ON FOREIGN FIELD

Matadors of Texas Tech are preparing this week for their last home stand Saturday when they meet the Simmons University Cowboys in the third annual clash between the two schools. Fans of Lubbock will be given their last opportunity to see the Scarlet and Black aggregation in action when the gates of Tech Stadium swing open shortly before 3 o'clock. Many wearers of the crimson will be playing their last game on the Tech gridiron.

Grimly determined to make an improved showing against the invaders this week, the Matadors are putting in full time in their practice sessions, drilling on offensive which was so sadly lacking in last week's game.

Payne from Simmons
Having dedicated the game Saturday to Assistant Coach Victor Payne, the Bull Egghers have an even greater incentive to win over the Rancheros. As a former coach at Simmons, Payne is especially anxious for a Tech victory. With this in mind, the Matadors are going in there against the Friday outfit Saturday with blood in their eyes to win or die.

While the varsity gridgers are playing on the home gridiron, the freshman eleven will have a battle on their own hands out at Roswell N. M., where they tangle up with the Cadets of the New Mexico Military Institute.

Having conquered the University of New Mexico, the New Mexico Aggies and Montezuma College, the Soldiers are considered as contenders for the state championship of the "Sunshine State."

Fresh In Shape
Coaches Higginbotham and Ingerton of the freshman aggregation report that their charges are in fine fettle for the contest Saturday.

"We know that we're up against a powerful team, one that clicks off plays with clock-like precision. But our fish are anxious for action, and we will 'shoot both barrels' if it's necessary to win," Coach Ingerton was optimistic last night when he spoke of the game Saturday.

The Fresh leave tomorrow for their week-end encounter. Coaches Higginbotham and Ingerton as well as the entire group of Lubbock fans will accompany the team.

INDIANS AND SENATORS BOTH LIKE PRODUCTS OF COLLEGES IN DIXIE

By NEA Service
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Cleveland Indians, if Manager Peckinpaugh wishes, can start the 1929 pennant campaign with a southern college product at every post in the infield. Likewise, the Washington Senators could do just about the same thing.

During the last days of the 1928 season, an infield used often at Cleveland had Bolton at first, Lind at second, Burnett at shortstop and Joe Sewell at third. Sewell attended Alabama, Lind was at Tulane, Burnett at Florida and Bolton at Mississippi A. and M.

Of this quartet, Bolton is given the least chance to hold down a regular job next fall. If he fails, the Indians could give Eddie Morgan, a Tulane product, a chance at the job again.

Washington has Bobby Reeves of Georgia Tech at shortstop and thinks Jack Hayes of Alabama, will take care of Harris' old job at second base. Mule Shirley, who attended a North Carolina college, is on hand in case Joe Judge slips at first and Grant Gillis, another Alabama product, will be ready to take care of third if Oase Bluge doesn't go well.

It looks as if the Indians and the Senators are getting just about all their infield material from southern colleges.

Princeton Looks Best
Princeton has a somewhat better record with four victories and two ties. Yale has been beaten by army and Maryland. The season's record can be tossed into the discard when these two fight it out as they never count anything but what happens on the field in their own game.

Another series which dates back into the early days of football will be resumed at Philadelphia between Pennsylvania and Columbia. They first met in 1873, playing a scoreless tie. Penn. after its smashing triumph over Harvard last week, is favored to add to its record of 14 victories in the remaining 17 games of the series.

ANCIENT FOOTBALL PRIME FORCE FOR SATURDAY

PRINCETON-YALE AND PENN-COLUMBIA ARE TOP-NOTCHERS

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)
NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The games backed by age and tradition will have the call over those with nothing but the records of the present season behind them in the minds of eastern football fans this week.

The Yale-Princeton encounter holds the center of the spotlight as the oldest of the traditional games. The series started in 1873 and Saturday's game will be the 52nd meeting. Yale has won 27 games against 15 for Princeton.

MIGHT HAVE BEEN WORSE

"It might have been worse," said several passengers of the Vestris, in remembering their ship sank in the Gulf stream, which is several degrees warmer than other parts of the North Atlantic. The water was much to be preferred to the air, they said. Several of them hung over the side of the lifeboats to escape the cold rain and winds.

An Item

What is the important news of the day, anyway? Perhaps the little item from Washington ought to qualify.

THE CHILDREN'S BUREAU of the department of labor announces that a baby born in 1928 has just twice the chance of living his first year out and attaining a normal, healthy childhood than had the baby of 1912.

The spread of medical care to people that formerly had to go without... is a fact of great importance.

THE PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says experience may be a good teacher but it never seems to teach some folks to mind their own business.

The roads on the campus of Texas Technological college, badly cut by bad weather and heavy traffic, are in dire need of some grading.

The college, suffering from growing pains and always cramped for cash, is unable to pay for the grading work at the present time and it occurs to The Plainsman that the city grading equipment might be sent out some time to kinda fix things up.

Of course the city equipment is essentially for use on the city streets but the Tech campus is about as much a part of the city in fact, if not in theory, as any thoroughfare this writer knows about.

Speaking of the college reminds The Plainsman that Lieut. Commander John Philip Sousa and his world famous band are in Lubbock today and tonight, presenting concerts at the college gymnasium both afternoon and night.

There is no doubt about John Philip Sousa being the best in his line. There is no arguing that being here is a big event.

Texas Technological college should be commended for bringing Sousa here. The Plainsman, for one, is dog-gone glad of the opportunity to hear him.

'Old Wealth' Wins Battle of Bankrolls In Presidential Election Is Opinion Of Correspondent Charles Stewart

Washington Correspondent for Central Press and The Journal WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Two tremendous financial groups fought the late presidential campaign, but though both were huge, one was far richer, stronger and abler than the other.

Inside circles in Washington accept this theory in explanation of the amazing violence of the election day cataclysm. A Hoover victory was expected. A landslide was considered quite likely.

The politicians agree that such issues as religion and prohibition might easily have beaten Smith. They doubt if they could so completely have exterminated him if there had not been something else back of them.

They believe that this something else was the influence of a vast financial power which discerned a challenge to itself in the New Yorker's candidacy.

The biggest kind of big business in the country had made up its mind to back Hoover. A secondary group took up Al Smith—a group worth millions, but nevertheless, in the piker class in comparison with the first group.

It was deemed desirable to do it very thoroughly because it was a dangerous rebellion. And assuredly it was done thoroughly.

One of Mr. Hoover's first troubles as president promises to be over the issue of Russian recognition. This would be to the advantage of enormous business interests and is sure to be urged immediately after the retirement of President Coolidge and Secretary Kellogg, who always have balked at it.

The new president's chief difficulty will be in the fact that the fund for their upkeep. Get a map, Mr. Voter, and register a vote against this Slaton road system and see that our county as a whole gets a square deal.

The World And All

BY CHARLES B. DRISCOLL

I AM ENCOURAGED

Georgia Leonard, of Berkeley, California, writes: "I thank you very much for your special article on criminals and how they are spoiled by popular notions about their heroism and their supposed noble qualities.

Now this surprises me. I really didn't expect any favorable comments on the article mentioned. It was a disagreeable business, and I am sure that I have known them, and I did not picture them at all romantically. I expected this discussion to be received everywhere with a little resentment, because I believe most people like to cling to their illusions about crime, especially noble qualities of rogues, criminals and thugs.

But I am encouraged, even by one honest letter of approval. I find at least one responsive soul in my audience. So I shall say some more about criminals.

Most sympathy expended upon criminals is worse than criminal in itself. Millions of honest citizens are made sad by the sight of strong girls with armed guards pacing in and down upon them every other day I passed by the grim walls of the prison at Auburn, New York.

There was a time when the slight would have made me sick with misplaced sympathy.

Oscar Wilde wrote a sentiment poem called "The Ballad of Reading Gaol" and that poem has done more to foster unjustified sympathy for and for murderers and other criminals than any other piece of literature. It has influenced thousands of jurors to turn their backs upon the world to kill and rob hard working citizens.

I rejoice when I see tall prison walls, well tended by straight-shooting guards. For within those walls, at least, criminals are without power to interfere with the lives of law-abiding Americans. When someone is unjustly imprisoned, that is another matter. There all my sympathy is enlisted, and my indignation is aroused. I am horrified by the usual feeble beating of unconvicted citizens, most of whom are innocent of crime, by American policemen.

But I will shed no tears for Himman and his ilk. I will lose no sleep over the fact that thousands of bank robbers and burglars are sleeping behind strong walls, listening to good radio programs in small rooms with steel doors. That's where they belong.

Justice is not always done under our laws, and sometimes the innocent suffer, and often the guilty escape. But when murderers and robbers are penned up for life where they can not harm honest folks, thank God for government.

A German inventor has invented an alarm clock that bites the sleeper. All those who have tried to sleep on Sunday morning with a fly buzzing here and there know what an infernal machine it is.

ORIENT HEADS GIVE UP JOBS

SANTA FE MEN GIVEN POSTS ON ORIENT DIRECTORATE

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANGELO, Nov. 15.—Four former officials of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railroad have severed their last connections with that road, subsequent to its recent purchase by the Santa Fe.

The officials were W. E. Kemper, formerly receiver and later president; Clifford Histed, formerly solicitor general; F. H. Hall, all of Kansas City, and E. H. Shaulffer of Wichita, Kans., formerly general manager. All four resigned as directors.

C. O. Harris, San Angelo attorney for the Santa Fe, was elected to the directorate, and M. L. Meritt of San Angelo was retained on the board.

Santa Fe Men Visit
These changes were incident to a visit here by Santa Fe officials, who are making their first inspection of their new property, and were required in the transfer.

Kemper and Histed had been with the Orient for fifteen years, and with their associates, kept the line operating through a receivership and considerable litigation.

The Santa Fe officials will continue their inspection of the line from Alpine to Presidio on the Rio Grande, thence over sections of the Orient in operation in Mexico from opposite Presidio to beyond Chihuahua City, and from Topolampazo, deep water Pacific port, northwest toward Chihuahua city. Closing of these gaps would make the Orient a trans-continental line.

E. J. Hezel, vice president of the Santa Fe, said he had no announcements to make relative to possible extensions, operation or relocation of headquarters, explaining that findings on the inspection trip must be presented to W. B. Story before any action can be taken.

MINERAL WELLS, Nov. 15 (AP)—After electing officers in the opening session last night and hearing the convention keynote sermon by Dr. W. R. White, Lubbock delegates attending the Texas Baptist general convention prepared today to consider financial problems facing denominational schools, especially Baylor university.

The highlight of the day's program was a report of D. K. Martin, San Antonio, chairman of the Greater Baylor campaign committee, appointed several months ago after a special convention decided not to relocate the institution in Dallas.

Convention officers elected last night were Pat M. Neff, Waco, president and Dr. J. B. Grandall, Dallas; Dr. John A. Heid, Mexia, and Rev. B. H. Head Big Spring, vice presidents. Rev. D. B. South, San Antonio, and J. L. Truett, White-

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

"Ah, we are quite a happy four," sang Scouty. "Cause we're free once more. We're sailing on the ocean blue, and having lots of fun. We've left the big boat far behind because the captain wasn't kind. Then Cobby broke right in and said, 'Oh, think what we have done. I do not like to make a fuss, but what will children think of us for sneaking off with this small boat? It isn't ours, you know. I'm almost sorry that we left, 'cause we can be accused of theft. I think back to the great big ship is where we ought to go.'"

"Oh, pol!" cried Scouty. "You are wrong! We leave all things where they belong, except when we have paid for them. So there's no need to fret. Today our captain friend will find that I left several bills behind. I paid more for this little boat than he'd expect to get."

"Hurray! Hurray!" one Tiny said. "We must admit you used your head. And now that everything's all right, I think I'll take a snooze. If one of us will sit and row, the other three can safely go to sleep. Good rest is one thing that we really shouldn't lose."

They all look turns, and through the night the little boat moved on all right. Then morning came and everyone was shortly wide awake. "Oh, look!" cried Carpy. "Here's a treat. I've found some canvas beneath this seat. If it is plenty big enough, I shall we ought to make it."

They spread it out and Cobby said, "It's big enough. Let's go ahead. An oar will answer as a mast. The oar was set up straight. And then the canvas fastened tight made them a sail that seemed just right. So shortly they were sailing on at quite a speedy gait."

(The Tinymites are lifted into the air in the next story.)

Death Sentence Is Commutd By Court

HOUSTON, Nov. 15 (AP)—The life the law attempted to take from Clifford Frank and which he once sought with his own hands were spared here yesterday when a jury in district court assessed Frank life imprisonment for killing his wife Gladys, in March, 1927.

Frank in a previous trial had been convicted and sentenced to die in the electric chair. The court of Criminal Appeals reversed the case on the ground that his insanity plea had been disregarded.

Before the first trial, Frank attempted to shoot himself, but the bullet inflicted only a flesh wound and his fate was left in the hands of the court.

RIGHTS ARE RESTORED

AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP)—Jim Gardner and J. Gould Wilson, University of Texas students, and Q. A. Ellis of Texas and George N. Bradley of San Patricio county have had their hunting rights restored by Governor Moody. They had been convicted of game law violation.

ESCAPE FATAL FOR PRISONER

AMARILLO MAN KILLED BY GUARD WHEN HE TRIES TO FLEE

(By Associated Press)
HUNTSVILLE, Nov. 15.—An attempt by two convicts to escape from guards at Goree prison farm near here yesterday resulted in the death of W. C. Polson, under five sentence from Amarillo for a filling station robbery.

Polson died almost instantly when shot twice by Gus Grey, dog sergeant at the Goree farm.

Command Disregarded
Grey fired after he had ordered Polson to halt and the man shouted: "I don't have to stop. Go ahead and shoot."

When shot Polson was walking toward Gus Grey, dog sergeant at the Goree farm. He was carrying tobacco, which, guards said, he probably had intended to throw in Grey's eyes.

A few moments before the attempt which cost him his life, Polson and another convict, Jack Turnipseed, serving four years from

'GOP VICTORY' HOOVER WON'T TAKE PERSONAL CREDIT

BALTIMORE, Nov. 15 (AP)—Herbert Hoover regards the large number of votes cast for him in the South as a victory for his party rather than a personal tribute.

Writing to R. H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers Record, Mr. Hoover said that with one third of the nation's land area, with about three fifths of its sea frontage, with vast resources in soil, climate and minerals, no limit can be set upon the continued progress and ever increasing prosperity of the whole South. His letter was in response to a request for his view of this section.

He is Appreciative
The president-elect declared that he was "profoundly appreciative of the extremely heavy vote cast throughout the South" for himself and the vice president-elect—Curtis.

"I accept this vote," he said, "not as a personal tribute, but as an expression of a developing sentiment."

Grayson county for assault, had made a dash for freedom but was headed off by a guard on horseback.

throughout the South on behalf of the things for which the republican party has stood in this campaign." He added that it was his firm belief that the time had come when voters throughout the country should cast their ballots on their convictions as to conditions and not make "things of a former generation" the basis of their vote.

Giving assurance that his administration would "know no difference between North, South, East and West," but "seek to deal with absolute fairness to every section of our common country," Mr. Hoover pledged his co-operation in the development of flood control projects, an interoceanic canal system and hydro-electric power. The canal system, he said, should extend eventually from Boston to "the end of Texas."

GORDON'S Stops Digestive Troubles

The greatest obstacle to permanent relief from indigestion and its attendant ill-effects, gas, excess acid, bloating, heartburn, sour stomach, that "stirred feeling," constipation, bad breath, sick headache, irritability, etc., is fermentation (souring of food matter in the stomach and bowels) which inflames and irritates these organs and produces gas that causes much distress. Fermentation can be stopped only with an antiseptic.

Gordon's (named for its discoverer) being an internal antiseptic combined with the most effective digestants, goes right to the seat of digestive troubles. It stops fermentation, soothes and heals any irritated or inflamed condition, drives out the poisons and quickly stimulates the stomach and bowels to their normal functions. A few doses will convince you. A large 8-ounce bottle, $1.50—less than 3 cents a dose. At druggists.

I wish to announce that I have now returned to active practice in Lubbock.

Branded Diavolo Coals

—positively last longer!

The Women Know Coal!

AFTER all, it is the housewife who has to meet much of the coal problem. To be everlastingly firing and dusting is one of the things that wears a woman out.

And it is all so unnecessary! For the women CAN have clean coal—and thousands of them have it. DIAVOLO Coals are clean. They require far less watching, firing and dusting. They are long-burning, quick to ignite and hot, singularly free from soot.

DIAVOLO Domestic Coals give the housewife genuine heating comfort with less work. They cut the labor of going over the house with a dustcloth, time after time, and not getting anywhere. That is why countless women KNOW Diavolo Coals and prefer them.

Why not enjoy these advantages? Use DIAVOLO Coals for warmth, cleanliness, economy. The time and work they save can be used in far more congenial ways. You really ENJOY Diavolo Coals!

CHRYSLER

New Grace, New Style, New Beauty

Greater Value

Chrysler's new style is so original that imitation even in the least detail must plainly indicate the source of inspiration. Its pleasing grace more than ever obsoletes the bulky and cumbersome. The new Chrysler differs from all other motor cars in their utterly new treatment of slender-profile radiator, air-wing fenders, arched windows—to mention only a few of a host of style features—added to a performance which out-Chrysler even Chrysler.

The simple fact that thousands of people now realize that not even a thousand dollars more will buy style, performance, comfort, safety, dependability and long life equal to the new Chrysler, is arousing a demand that Chrysler's largest production is taxed to the limit to satisfy.

New Chrysler "75"—(with 6-ply full-balloon tires)—Nine body styles, priced from $1535 to $2345, wire wheels extra. New Chrysler "65"—Six body styles priced from $1040 to $1145, wire wheels extra. All prices f. o. b. Detroit. Immediate deliveries.

HIDALGO ASKS NATION'S HELP

PROBE INTO ELECTION BRINGS ACTION FROM TEXAS COUNTY
McALLEN, Tex., Nov. 15.—Several thousand members of the Citizens-Republican party in mass meeting here last night adopted a resolution urging the election committee at Washington to postpone its hearing on alleged election irregularities in Hidalgo county until those who had asked for the investigation had had time to collect evidence and send a representative to Washington to present their side of the case.
Mayor F. B. Freeland of McAllen, told the audience he had overheard a telephone conversation between Hidalgo county and Washington in which it was stated the investigation would be heard Thursday. A telegram immediately was dispatched to the capital asking that the hearing be set for a later date.
Kirgan Makes Talk
D. E. Kirgan, leader of the Independents faction, told the crowd the meeting was called "in answer to statement why the present administration that there are only a few disgruntled people in the county who wish to take hold of county affairs."
Kirgan declared he and the other party leaders never would quit the fight until they had "cleansed politics and forever rid the county of its shameful political."
The crowd evinced bitterness toward Governor Moody when H. L. Leonard quoted a newspaper item in which it was said the Governor had left the Rangers in Hidalgo county to assemble evidence of conduct at election boxes and then recalled that the state executive, when asked for aid in conducting the campaign, had replied he had jurisdiction to send rangers only to preserve peace and prevent riots.

PERMIT IS GIVEN
AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP).—By a vote of 2 to 1, the state board of water engineers today granted a permit to the Texas Gulf Sulphur company of Matagorda county to divert 30,000 acre feet of water a year from the San Bernard river to aid in sulphur mining and supply the water works of Newburg in Wharton county.
The permit includes provision for a pumping plant and a dam five feet high and 75 to 100 feet long.

PECANS INCREASE
AUSTIN, Nov. 15 (AP).—Texas pecan shipments this year will double the amount of last year, although only 56 per cent of a full crop is estimated, H. H. Schultz, federal crop and livestock statistician said here in a summary of reports from correspondents throughout the state.

AS PLANE TOOK OFF FOR BERMUDA

Heading down the Atlantic coast line of the United States, three American aviators are snapped just before setting out from Atlantic City, N. J., in a seaplane, for a non-stop flight to Bermuda. Above are the flyers, left to right, Capt. W. M. Lancaster, George Palmer Putnam and Harry W. Lyons. Below is the seaplane as it took off on the flight.

New Orleans and did not wish to delay her passage. Of the 87 only eight were passengers, the others being members of the crew.

Most Keep Silence
Most of the passengers were silent concerning Captain Carey's delay of an S O S message but members of the crew were outspoken in their criticism of their skipper. The S O S should have been sent out hours before it finally was transmitted, they agreed.

Two Are Reticent
Dr. J. Sears, of the Long Island College hospital, the ship's surgeon, declined to talk of the disaster at all, and A. Patterson, of Edmondson, Ala., was almost as reticent. Patterson said he would start again Saturday on the Lamport and Holt liner Voltaire.

Water Is Ankle Deep
When he went off duty at eight o'clock, he said, the water was ankle deep in the fire room, and when he returned at four in the afternoon it had already put out the fires under the starboard boiler and was coming in fast.

Bodies Of Dead Are Brought To Port
NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—Reclaimed from the sea, 22 bodies of the Vestris dead today were being returned to grieving relatives and friends.

England May Also Probe Sinking
LONDON, Nov. 15 (AP)—Board of Trade officials in London today were understood to be considering whether an inquiry should be held into the sinking of the liner Vestris.

All But Nine Of Survivors Home
NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—All but nine of the known survivors of the Vestris were in New York today, the last 87 being brought ashore in Brooklyn this morning from the French tanker Myriam.

Negro Fireman Is Heard On Tragedy
NEW YORK, Nov. 15 (AP)—Evan Hampden, negro fireman of the wrecked Vestris landed by the tanker Myriam today, voiced on behalf of the 23 firemen of the party the belief that an S O S should have been broadcast by the Vestris at 8 o'clock Sunday night, when he said the ship was listing at 15 degrees and water in the fire room was hip deep.

Water Is Ankle Deep
When he went off duty at eight o'clock, he said, the water was ankle deep in the fire room, and when he returned at four in the afternoon it had already put out the fires under the starboard boiler and was coming in fast.

Chief Engineer Avard Adams
helped the pumps, but the water entered so fast that a life line was rigged between the coal bunker and the furnace door to help the firemen keep their feet. Then it became so bad that two men supported the shovels to keep them from going down into hip deep water or lunging into the open fire-boxes.

Up to this time, Hampden said, no S O S had been sent out, although men had made the perilous journey from boiler room to bridge, after telephone communications went out to keep Captain Carey informed of the situation.

Among the bodies aboard the Shaw were those of Major Yasuo Inouye, Japanese consul at Buenos Aires, whose wife was rescued by the Battleship Wyoming; Carl Franke, representative of a German firm, and his 22-year-old daughter, Ingeborg.

Of the four bodies brought by the Tucker only two were identified. Brass tags worn about the necks identified one as that of Jose Gonzalez Rus of New Bedford, Mass., and the other as that of Raymond Garcia Peal of New York.

Rua, who had sailed with his wife and two-year-old son, had $7,800 in his pockets when found. His wife was rescued by the Wyoming, but no trace of the son was found.

The two other bodies were those of a negro woman and a white man, apparently a member of the crew.

Aboard the Acushnet were the bodies of Ralph P. Whitehead, of Woodstock, N. Y., and Tom Jones, barman of the Vestris. The identity of the other two was not known.

The body brought back by the Berlin was that of a white man who was not identified.

The destroyers landed the bodies at Stapleton, Staten Island, where they were met by a representative of the Lamport and Holt line, the owners of the Vestris, and an undertaker.

Husband Is Hero
Her husband gave up his place in the lifeboat assigned to them to make room for two other women, Mrs. Slaughter said, and the boat was lowered with difficulty only after some tangled lines were cut away from the davits with axes. It was launched just before the Vestris went down.

Mrs. Slaughter said she fell out of the boat and was pulled under the water by the suction from the liner as it sank.

"It seemed as though I was under a long time," she said, "and when I finally bobbed up I saw my husband paddling a few yards away. Both of us were nearly exhausted. Near them approached another

Do you enjoy your food?

If you do not enjoy your food it is a true sign that you are losing your appetite. And when your appetite is "gone" it means you haven't the resistance to ward off disease. Loss of appetite is only a symptom. General weakness pervades the entire body. There is no desire to work or play.

Rich, red, blood builds and sustains

Your physician will tell you that lowered vitality is the result of an insufficient supply of red blood cells—those vitalizing elements in the blood that nourish and sustain the body.

When you get your red blood cells back up to normal, that sluggish, let-down feeling, loss of appetite, rheumatism, boils, pimples, and skin troubles disappear. You get hungry again; sleep soundly; solid flesh takes the place of that which was once flabby. You feel strong; and your nerves become steady.
