Pampa Ministerial Alliance Is Sponsoring 'Wheat for Holland' Movement

Thanksgiving Service Will Conclude Drive

A countywide "wheat for Holland" movement, sponsored by the Pampa Ministerial Alliance, will begin in Gray county tomorrow, the Rev. Russell G. West, chairman of the committee named to handle the campaign, announced yesterday afternoon.

Donation of good wheat will be accepted between now and Thanksgiving, when a community-wide service will be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 21, at the First Baptist church here.

SITUATION DESPERATE

The committee planning and promoting the drive to raise at least one carload of wheat for the starving people of Holland are, in addition to West, Edgar W. Henshaw, R. Q. Harvey, and A. L. James. E. O. Wedgeworth, chamber of commerce manager, was at the first meeting Friday and helped in drawing up plans.

"So desperate are conditions in Holland," Chairman West said, "there are no babies living under six months of age. As the cold winter moves in on these people, they face inevitable starvation."

While all Pampa elevators are cooperating in the drive, all donations of wheat must be taken to the same one. Therefore, it was said.

Natives Taught Jap Propaganda At University

TOKYO, Nov. 10—(AP)—The Japanese trained hundreds of asiatics to foment strife in their homelands and explosions from "intellectual land mines" are going off now, particularly in the Dutch East Indies, Brig. Gen. Elliot R. Thorpe said today.

General MacArthur's chief of counter-intelligence told a news conference the Americans had uncovered a propaganda school at American-built St. Paul"s university in Tokyo where the Japanese during the wart rained Javanese and other asiatics "in discontent."

The Japanese thus prepared the day when the Allies returned to the lands and the empire conquered early in the war. The general said similar explosions of Japanese-fostered asiatic nationalism likely would continue "for some time to come."

Thorpe declared the so-called "school for greater East Asia culture" had for its pupils Malayans, Chinese, Koreans, Burmans and other nationalities besides Javanese.

Hea dded the Japanese also tried to cultivate the Indonesian nationalist leader Soekarno, and Subhas Chandra Bose, Indian nationalist who was killed in an airplane crash more than a year ago.

Thorpe said the Japanese Pan-Asiatic propaganda never got to first base in the Philippines.

Among the Japanese people, on the other hand, government propaganda fostered subservience rather than discontent.

To transform this surservience into indepence will be a long job, Thorpe predicted,—"anything short of a 20-year occupation would be futile."

Thorpe announced another list of Japanese war criminal suspects would be issued soon, but declined to say when or to give details.

Indonesians Ignore Surrender Ultimatum; Reds in Manchuria

CHUNGKING, Nov. 10—(AP)—Artillery and mortars thundered today along the coastal end of China's great wall, where the Chinese communists' best divisions blocked the path of thousands of nationalist troops into industrially-rich Manchuria.

The booming of heavy weapons first was heard during the night in the U. S. marine-guarded port of Chinwangtao, Associated Press Correspondent Richard Bergholz reported, signalling the first heavy fighting in the undeclared civil war.

The action began near Shanhaikwan, coastal anchor of the wall north of Chinwangtao where the reds" crack eight route army is solidly entrenched.

PLATOON ANNIHILATED

The wounded had been trickling in from the front even before the big guns opened fire.

Intensified fighting was reported far inland, and also flared south of Chinwangtao along the railroad to Tientsin.

An unconfirmed Chinese reported said one nationalist platoon was annihilated near a first-air station set up to care for wounded at nationalist-held Pehtaiho junction, 15 miles south of Chinwangtao.

Although almost encircled by the fighting which—until today—has been sporadic, U. S. marines had been involved in no new incidents, Bergholz said.

YANKS TO LEAVE CHINA

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, commander of American forces in China, said today in his first Chungking news conference since his return from Washington that all American forces will be out of China by early spring, leaving only a 6,000-man military mission.

They will not, he emphasized, help the nationalists reach vital Manchuria, from which the Russians are withdrawing and in which the Chinese reds hope to build a vast, militarily and industrially powerful "base area."

COMPLAINTS REITERATED

Wedemeyer said mairnes would remain "non-partisan," and would not make any further landings in north China or move to any other points from their present stations at Peiping, Tientsin, Tangko (near Tientsin), Chinwangtao and Tsingtao.

Communists in Chungking, where peace talks have thus far been fruitless, reiterated complaints against American "intervention." One red spokesman protested against any American financial, as well as military aid, declaring that any loan to the nationalist government "would

Demos and GOPs Continue Battle On Pearl Harbor

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10—(AP)—A republican and a democrat traded verbal punches today over the congressional Pearl Harbor investigation.

There were the developments:

Senator Homer Ferguson (R-Mich) revealed that he had asked that former Uunder Secretary of State Grew be called as a witness and that Grew supply official memoranda he made as ambassador to Japan before the Japanese attack.

Senator Scott Lucas (D-Ill) described Ferguson's demand for committee perusal of the diary of former war secretary Stimson as an attempt to look at "personal papers."

Lucas expressed the opinion that republicans will be "greatly surprised" when they see the files of correspondence between the late President Roosevelt and former Prime Minister Churchill.

Ferguson and Senator Brewster (R-ME) have said they asked for these files to see if anything in them bore on the possibility of this country's entry into the war about the time the Atlantic charter was publicized.

Lucas told a reporter the republican members seemed to indicate in senate debate yesterday that a senate-house inquiry committee can't be trusted to make a thorough investigation. Democrats outnumber republicans six to four on the group.

"The only mistake the committee seems to have made," the Illinois senator declared, "is that it didn't BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 10.—(AP)—British warplanes and artillery blasted at Soerabaja and Indian troops attacked toward the heart of the great naval base today in battle against Indonesians who rejected a British ultimatum for surrender of their weapons.

A nationalist spokesman declared British naval guns were bombarding the city of 500,000 inhabitants, that many were killed, and that families were fleeing and carrying out scorched earth policy.

Strong Indonesian forces were reported marching on Soerabaja from island Jogjakarta, nationalist stronghold 175 miles to the southwest.

RESISTANCE IS LIGHT

British declared their initial advance met only light sniping and machinegun fire. An official statement said the shelling and bombing were ordered because Indian troops had suffered casualties from stiffened Indonesian resistance, and "stronger measures were necessary."

House Committee Against Proposed Atom Commission

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Nine members of the house military committee declared today that establishment of a permanent federal atomic energy commission as now proposed "would undermine the very foundation upon which our national life is built."

Legislation setting up the commission to control the use and development of nuclear energy already has been approved by a majority of the committee. It is xpected to reach the floor soon.

The nine dissnters including one democrat and eight republicans, issued a sharply critical report urging that:

1. The house send the bill back for further study and revision.

2. The measure should be of "interim character," and provide only for a temporary agency.

3. Powers of the agency should be greatly reduced, particularly to allow congressional control and supervision.

On an earlier report, the committee majority had recommended speedy action to set up a nine-member, part-time commission with authority over atomic energy.

The dissenting report filed today was signed by Rep. John E. Sheridan (D-Pa.) and the following republicans: Rep. Short (Mo.), Arends (Ill.), Clason (Mass.), Shafer (Mich.), Elston (Ohio), and Harness (Ind.), Fenton (Pa.), and Clare Boothe Luce (Conn.).

Games Needed For Teen Canteen

A need for ping-pong balls, which cannot be bought here now according to the teen canteen sponsors, has been issued for Pampa's new youth entertainment center at the American Legion building.

Harold Wright, chairman of the VFW-American Legion teen canteen committee, said yesterday if there are those who have extra ping-pong balls, they could be used at the canteen.

After a week of operation, the canteen has proved to be a "drawing card" with an average of 200 youths visiting it each of the weekday operating nights, Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. A much larger crowd was reported for Friday night's entertainment.

More games are needed. Contributions will be accepted, it was said.

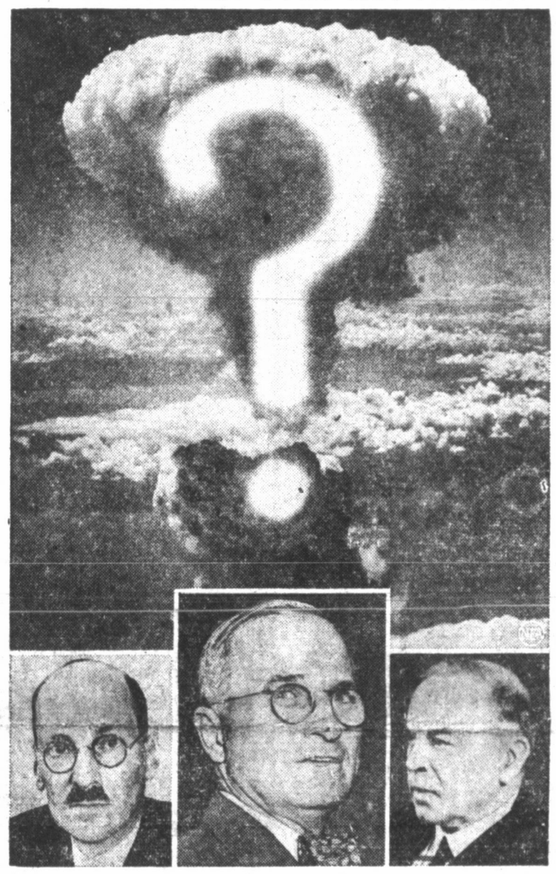

HUNGRY

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 10 —(AP)—The man came into a cafe early in the morning, sat down and ordered a hearty breakfast of sausage and eggs. He ate leisurely, picked up his check, walked to the cashier and produced a nickel plated revolver instead of 55 cents.

He walked out with $100 of the restaurant's money, with nine customers, two waitresses and the cook unaware of the holdup, police reported.

"Hot potato" among international questions is what to do with the atom bomb. Heads of the three nations that share the secret are meeting in Washington in an effort to try to thresh it out. "We have the money," said Judge Stennis. "We have much more on deposit in the banks now than we did before the first bond drive. We have measured up to what we were asked to do every time in the past. "We cannot afford to fail this time."

"Servicemen have done their part in winning this war," Judge Stennis emphasized. "Many of them paid with their lives, more of them are crippled, all of them have given up years of their lives in the service while we enjoyed most of the comforts of life and all enjoyed perfect safety."

There will be a meeting of the Pampa committeemen 5 p.m. Monday in the district court room of the court house.

Members are Vernon L. Hobbs, Charlie Thut, Luther Pierson, E. J. Lewis, Jr., W. F. Dean, C. P. Pursley, Mitchell Hill, Fred Radcliff, L. N. Atchinson, Doyle F. Osborne, Crasford Atkinson, Bob Thompson.

Stalin's Health Being Discussed

MOSCOW, Nov. 10—(AP)—A foreign diplomatic source said today a high soviet official had indicated that Generalissimo Stalin was expected to return to active duty about the middle of November.

He said that when he inquired why Stalin did not appear at the red square parade on the 28th anniversary of the Russian revolution of Nov. 7 he was told that it would have been very risky for anyone coming from the warm climate of the south, where the generalissimo spent his recent vacation, expose himself several hours to the frigid temperatures of Moscow's streets.

The whereabouts of Stalin are still a subject of considerable speculation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10—(AP)—The British radio quoted the Stockholm correspondent of the London Daily Mail today as reporting that Andrei Zhadnov, chairman of the Leningrad soviet, had been named by Joseph Stalin as his successor in case "the illness from which the generalissimo is said to be suffering continues." CBS recorded the broadcast.

There was no confirmation of the report.

INTRUDER

WALLACE, Ida., Nov. 10 —(AP)—City Policeman Hugh Marconi bagged his elk for the season but it proved too old and tough to eat.

Marconi brought the animal down in the streets of Wallace with three revolver shots after it had wandered about town for five hours, disturbing the peace by such acts as poking its head through the glass of a window at the home of Anton Swanson, rearing menacingly on its hind legs as Swanson tried to drive it away, and displaying considerable temper when Officer Marconi caught up with it.

British, Canadian, U. S. Chiefs Meet

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10—(AP)—While Russian leaders watched from afar, President Truman and Prime Ministers Attlee of Britain and Mackenzie King of Canada pulled up easy chairs in the White House this afternoon and began discussing what to do about the atomic bomb.

This presented a speed-up in the schedule. As late as last night it had called for the talks to start Sunday.

ATTLEE ARRIVES BY PLANE

But Attlee arrived early this morning by plane from London, Mackenzie King came in from the same capital by ship and train and the decision was made to start the conference at once.

Diplomatic officials were inclined to agree, in private talks to reporters, with a Russian newspaper assertion that relations between the western powers and Russia would be under serious test until the Russians find out (1) Anglo-American plans for international handling of the bomb, and (2) what part—if any—Russia has in them.

TO CONSIDER PROPOSALS

Mr. Truman has called for "outlawing" the bomb and Attlee has talked about putting it in the custody of the United Nations. But neither has outlined yet a specific course.

Diplomats here speculated that the President and Prime Ministers would consider seriously proposals to share the knowledge with other countries, provided all agree to submit to United Nations inspection to keep bomb manufacture under control.

RUSSIA INVOLVED

This immediately raised a question whether Russia, with her tight system of secrecy, would agree to any inspection or to any extension of the authority of the United Nations over member countries.

Russia was not invited to the present conference because she did not share in the development of the atomic bomb. Her attitude has been stated pointedly by Molotov. He said a few days ago that the Soviet Union would get atomic energy and that it could not be kept secret.

The Pampa Public Library is all set for Book Week, November 11 through the 17th, said Mrs. Evelyn L. Todd, librarian, yesterday.

Growth of the library has been rapid, Mrs. Todd reported. Many books are needed. Gifts of books to the library during Book Week will be greatly appreciated.

County Holds Man Connection With Loveless Shooting

County officers are holding a man who gave his name as William G. Eller in connection with the fatal shooting Friday of William E. Loveless, about 80, who was found shot to death in his home Friday.

Loveless, who lived alone at 200 S. Purviance, was found sitting on a lighted gas stove Friday evening. Sheriff G. H. Kyle said that the people who found Loveless were delivering laundry to the aged man and saw the light in the house.

Dr. Roy A. Webb, who examind the body, said the bullet, a steel ball inserted in a .12 gauge shotgun shell, entered Loveless' head and passed entirely through.

Kyle, upon his arrival at the scene, found the ball in the yard outside the house. Kyle said that the bullet had been fired through a window.

Eller was arrested at his home late Friday evening on charges of suspicion of murder and a coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdit of "death at the hands of persons unknown."

Kyle said Eller, when arrested, had a shotgun in his possession.

Loveless has no known relatives living in Pampa at the present time. A son, Clarence, formerly operated a shoe repair shop here but friends of the family said they did not know where he is now. Another son is serving with the navy and another is believed to be in East Texas.

Eller is being held in county jail and Sheriff Kyle said that he has made no formal statement. Eller resides at 106 S. Purviance, one block north of the Loveless home.

The scout troops of Randall county now have a meeting place to call their own, the Rotary club having leased the second floor of the Samuelson building at Canyon.

First week of the Victory Loan campaign in Carson county resulted in sales of $83,531 or 31 percent of the $285,000 quota.

E. L. Pitts, chief justice of the Seventh Court of Civil Appeals, Amarillo, will speak on the United Nations Charter at the Panhandle Rotary club luncheon Friday noon.

Three wrecks in Collingsworth county within less than a week left one man dead, one critically injured, and three with lesser injuries. Two of them occurred with a few hours Wednesday, Oct. 31, and within a few hundred feet of each other. The third occurred Monday afternoon.

Pfc. T. J. Blackshear, died when his car overturned at the northeast corner of the Wellington town section. M. D. Lattimer of Hedley is in a hospital suffering from a broken neck received when the car in which he and his son Rudell Lattimer and Walter H. Mill Iron's annual sale of registered Hereford bulls held at the Cottonwood headquarters Nov. 1 attracted buyers from five neighboring states. The bulls offered for sale proved to be the best and the most uniform offered in any of the Mill Iron sales.

How high the bulls rated in the opinion of experienced cattlemen is shown by the purchase of five bulls by Orville Burtis of Manhattan, Kansas, who was offered $2,200 for two of them, which he refused.

Harvesting of Collingsworth county peanuts has just started. During the first few days the crop was moving approximately a car and a half was bought in Wellington.

Plans have been completed for observance of Armistice Day in Shamrock. Legionnaires will stage a downtown parade today. Most of the business houses will be closed on Monday.

Ochiltree county residents are digging down in their jeans this week in what appears will be a successful effort to provide a smashing climax to the end of the war in the Seventh Victory Loan.

Approximately 36 percent of the county's quota of $265,000 has been purchased.

Members of all local churches, Legionnaires, Auxiliary members, ex-servicemen and community residents of Perryton will join together today at the First Baptist church to hear the Rev. Ward H. N. Gregg, pastor of the First Christian church, deliver a special Armistice Day sermon.

Immediately following the sermon a basket dinner will be served at the Legion hall by Auxiliary members.

The development of Grade "A" dairying in Donley county from a start two years ago with two dairies and approximately 30 cows to 15 dairies with approximately 750 producing cows gives promise of dairying as a major industry with far reaching potentialities.

Getting more farmers interested in dairying as a business rather than a hit-or-miss sideline will contribute more to their financial well being and to the general prosperity of Wheeler county than any other one thing, in the opinion of speakers and milk producers attending the Top o' Texas Dairy Assn. meeting held at Wheeler last week.

To honor the memory of Wheeler heroes who gave their lives in world war II members of the Wheeler West Post No. 138 of the American Legion has voted to change the name of the post to West-Passons Post.

Legionnaires selected the name of Lt. James Passons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Passons, as typifying the gallant young manhood sacrificed in the war.

He wears four campaign stars.

Attorney Osborne will continue as a partner of Judge S. D. Stennis.

AWARDED AIR MEDAL

1st Lt. Clarence Bednorz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bednorz, of White Deer, stationed on Okinawa, was awarded the Air-Medal on Sept. 29. The citation reads in part:

"—" for meritorius achievement while participating in sustained aerial operations against the enemy between March 18, 1945, to August 12, 1945. During this period 1st Lt. Bednorz, as a member of a heavy bombardment by airplane, participated in numerous missions against heavily defended enemy held bases involving long overwater flights to and from the target.

"Throughout these operations which were accomplished with distinction above and beyond that normally expected, Lt. Bednorz displayed high skill and courage, inflicting severe damage to enemy air bases and shipping."

The majority of Lt. Bednorz's missions were against Japanese air bases and the enemy fleet at Kne and Nagasaki. One night mission, a "snooper", took him to Fusan, Korea, to ascertain enemy radar, anti-aircraft and search light equipment.

His ship, a B-24 "Thar-She-Blows," was the first Far Eastern air force craft to go to Korea. Lt. Bednorz has flown her over 35,000 miles over Pacific waters. He is a member of the 7th air force.

Three brothers are also in the service. CPO Leonard Bednorz is on the USS Antietam in Tokyo bay; Lt. Clifford Bednorz with the engineers corps Frankfurt, Germany and Pfc. Chester Bednorz, stationed at Fresno, Calif.

THIS, we reasoned, is no time to offer folks a car that stops with artful face-lifting.

It has been nearly four years since our last new Buick was built—it wouldn't be shooting square now to give you less than our honor-bright best.

So we overhauled our whole factory to advantage it with the latest in war-developed machines and processes.

We scoured the country for the stoutest metals anyone can buy today.

We set ourselves precisions that in some cases exceed those of aircraft engine production.

And we eagle-eyed every one of this Buick's 12,000 parts to see if it could be bettered in any way, big or little.

The result is that through every stunning inch of this bright new honey runs solid, dependable Buick character, honest and uncompromised.

It's in swift clean lines. In seats that are three-persons wide. In stout, time-defying frames and underpinning. Above all — in the lift and life of a Fireball straight-eight that's even livelier than in 1942.

THEIR 'RING' IS THE U. S. CONGRESS

Such young American as Bill Mauldin, the war-famous cartoonist, has brought forth a line of thought that should bring some of us Americans to our feet and do a little thinking—with our heads.

In a recent cogent speech at the New York Herald Tribune Forum on Current Problems, a speech, though nostalgic in tone, yet free of cynicism, he said:

". . . I feel that as long as there are still the Bilbos who depend upon appealing to the beast in men to get power, the Rankins who preach distrust of the rest of the world to protect their own selfish interests, and the Gerald L. K. Smiths whose profession is preaching hate against fellow American citizens because of their color or creed, then the war is not won."

This comes from a young man who has seen all the horrors of war, a man who has learned on the field of battle the results of living in a world with such men as Hitler and Mussolini. He learned his lesson well. He learned how they nurthe selfishness in men's hearts, the narrowness and prejudice udice in their minds.

The voters of the sovereign state of Mississippi would do well to read his speech, search their consciences and determine whether Bilbo and Rankin are serving the true cause of Mississippi. We believe the state and the nation have suffered verily for having those men in th nation's capitol.

As for Gerald L. K. Smith and his Ham 'n' Egg speeches . . .

We were impressed by a description of him and his work, written last June by Rodney L. Brink for the Christian Science Monitor. We liked it so well we filed it. Digging it out, we find some very interesting phrases describing a Smith speech-making event in Los Angeles. (He's out there now, spreading the same poison.) Here are some lines from Brink's article: The parentheses are ours.)

"Gerald L. K. Smith starts off slowly with an audience, but warms up rapidly. Sarcasm, bitterness and hatred fairly drip. (Sounds like Hitler in 1933-39.) Mr. Smith keeps his audience bobbing up and down from its seats, giving people or his statements 'big hands,' yelling 'Aye' at the very tops of their voices in support of any declaration he makes which seems to him to call for audience affirmation." (Could have been the Sportspalast, Berlin, back in 1938.)

Yes, this "preacher"-leader of "America First" has a line. His line, as Mr. Brink says, "plays on the impressionable ones in his audience after the manner of Hitler and Mussolini."

As Brink says: 'It would be a good 'show,' much as some of the old Ku Klux Klan rallies were good shows, if it were not for the terrible implications; if it were not for the fact that the U. S. is working its hardest to prove that it can get along with the allies who fought aggressive enemies so valiantly . . . The saddest part of it all is the use made of Christianity and its symbol, the Cross. Just for trappings. Props, for a one-man drama of fear and hate."

That fits Bilbo and Rankin—except their 'ring' is the congress of the United States of America, the year of our Lord, 1945.

IN MAVERICK'S BAILIWICK

(The Daily Oklahoman)

When somebody wired the SWPC asking if hydrocloric acid could be used safely to clean a certain kind of boiler tube, the bureau wired in reply, "Uncertainties of reactive processes make use of hydrocloric acid undesirable where alkalinity is involved." Whereupon the inquirer wrote to the bureau thanking it for its information and stating that he would use the acid. Immediately, the bureau wired back: "Regrettable decision involved uncertainties. Hydrochloric acid will produce submuriate invalidating reactions." Again the inquirer wrote his thanks and repeating that he would use the acid Then the bureau wired, "Hydrochloric acid will eat hell out of your tube." And the patient inquirer has been wondering ever since why the bureau didn't tell him that in the first place.

For many months Maury Maverick has been conducting a one-man crusade against the use of polovsyllabic "gobbledy-gook" by the federal bureaus. It is interesting to note that the bureau which wrestled so long with the hydrochloric acid query is the bureau over which Mr. Maverick presides.

PARING DOWN BRITAIN'S LOAN

(Colorado Springs Gazette)

Administration officials discussing a loan to Britain are reported to be revising their position. British agents came to this country seeking from three to six billions. Washington hit upon five billion as a handy sum. This is now being scaled down to around four billion as representing the amount which Congress might be expected to approve without too great opposition. The five billion, it seems, would provide a margin of money that the British might never need, and members of Congress were pointedly calling attention to the fact.

The course of the negotiations as thus revealed is not particularly encouraging, nor can the country find much satisfaction in the argument advanced in behalf of the administration's easy attitude on foreign financing; namely, that it is desirable in order to stimulate American business. We came out of the last war clinging to the fallacious theory that in order to re-establish trade we had to finance our customers. Trade was brisk so long as our money held out. It would have been equally brisk and more advantageous had it been domestic in character and similarly financed.

We lived to learn that the loans were little more than gifts and that inter-governmental loans in themselves are a source of never-ending friction. There are good reasons for lending financial assistance to Britain but they do not concern direct American profit, and the arrangements should take account of prudent fiscal practices.

Battle Axers Hit Hardest in Trap

By NEA Service.

The 65th (Batle Ax) infantry division was forged in August, 1943, and tempered for nearly two years. It was not until March 7, 1945, that it was unsheathed.

The 65th moved into its first action on the Third army front in Europe, relieving the 26th division in the Saar river sector around Sauerlautern. The Battle Ax outfit swung around the flank of Saarbrucken and, late in the month, chopped up the German pockets south and west of that city.

Moving east, the 65th added Hohenfahls and Struth to tis bag. It was here, near Dorna, that 11 65th doughs, hopelessly surrounded, terrifically outnumbered, won themselves a place in the division's history by capturing 150 Germans and killing another 25.

Just before V-E Day, the Battle Axers claimed the distinction of having made the farthest penetration of enemy territory of any infantry unit on the Western Front—a 65th patrol crossed the Ems river and proceeded as far as Unterwinden and Haag, in Austria.

Up to them, the aBttle Ax had been swinging with vigor. The 65th had crossed the Danube at Kelheim, and joined in the assault on Regensberg. When the garrison at that city finally called it a day, it surrendered to the 65th. The division then slashed on into the Bavarian Redoubt and took Passau and Neumarkt. It was on the afternoon of V-E Day, fittingly enough, that the Battle Axers joined up with the Russians.

I think we ought to recognize courage when we see it, no matter by whom it is displayed. And the bravest man in the world is undoubtedly a certain elderly German carpenter. He actually wrote Adolf Hitler a letter and asked the fuehrer what his intentions were concerning his daughter, Eva Braun.

Gracie

Braun never got an answer. He thinks Hitler never received the letter. It's quite possible he didn't, if Braun is still around to tell the the story in persons. Still, I notice Hitler finally did become his son-in-law, even if it was for only about twenty minutes.

It seems to be that 1945 was a little late for any German to ask Hitler what his intensions were. If someone had thought of that in 1933 most Germans would be sleeping a lot better now. At least the moon wouldn't be shining in their faces all night through where the roofs used to be.

Now That The Rain's Over—

News Behind the News

The National Whirligig

WASHINGTON
By RAY TUCKER

PAINS — A violent wave of isolationism is sweeping through the house and senate in the wake of postwar disagreements involving the White House, 10 Downing street, the Kremlin and Chungking. Veteran observers on Capitol Hill compare the present reaction to the bitterness and disappointment which prompted the congress to play havoc with Woodrow Wilson's League of Nations and Versailles Treaty twenty-five years ago.

The unanimous house vote for a navy equaling the oceaning strength of the next two strongest powers—Britain and Russia—reveals the basic sentiment of members of the congress. So does the prevailing viewpoint that the secret of manufacturing the atomic bomb should be kept from other powers until such time as a bona fide United Nations organization swings into operation. Another evidence of international pains on Capitol Hill is the growing support for the Truman-Marshall demand for universal military service.

* * *

FUSE — The 1945 brand of isolationism differs in many significant ways from that which manifested itself in 1919. The leaders of the famous Battalion of Death—Senators Borah of Idaho, Johnson of California, Moses of New Hampshire, Reed of Missouri and Brandegee of Connecticut—hated and suspected John Bull. Russia was not then a factor because of the bolshevik revolution. They also detested Wilson, and took a sadistic pleasure in plaguing him.

Today, however, there are no such first-class haters in congress for most of the British Lion's tail twisters were defeated last fall. Today's attitude can best be described as pro-American rather than anti-British or anti-Russian.

In Britain's postwar weakness and Rusisa's recalcitrancy the isolationists think that they detect a definite threat to the honor and security of the United States. In short, although nobody dares to mention it publicly, they entertain the dread thought that the victorious powers are laying the fuse for World War III.

* * *

VITAL — Britain will eventually become the beneficiary and Russia the vistim of the current variety of isolationism. The explanation for that prospect is that congress believes the United States will some day need England to serve as a buffer between America and the Soviet Union as the "tight little isle" stood like a rock against Hitler, thus giving us time to prepare.

It should be explained here that the men who express these sentiments privately are not warmongers. They hoped that the horrors of the recent conflict would have taught a lesson to the nations of the world. But, largely as a result of their inspection trips to Europe and elsewhere, and their interviews with U. S. diplomats and military commanders abroad, they returned to Washington in pessimistic mood.

The British empire, in their opinion, is washed up unless the United States rehabilitates it with money, food, commercial agreements and support of London's demand for retention of all its territories. England's far-flung bases in Australia, New Zealand, Egypt, India and the Orient may be vital to American security in the event of another conflict.

* * *

TERMS — This belief is the reason for so few congressional protests over the use of lend-lease weapons by Chiang Kai-shek's troops against Chinese communists, by the British in saving the Dutch East Indies for Queen Wilhelmina and in preserving Indo-China for the de Gaulle government.

It also underlies the certainty that congress will approve a generous loan to the Attlee government at a low rate of interest, even though this debt may not be repaid any more than the obligations hanging over from World War I were discharged.

In short, the American congress will go all out to bolster Britain solely because of its suspicion of Russia's aims in central Europe, in the Balkans and in the Far East. The M. C.s hope that President Truman and Secretary Byrnes can bring "Uncle Joe" Stalin to terms, but they are keeping their fingers crossed until the knuckles hurt.

* * *

SLAP — The enactment of the Dircksen-Brown-Herter amendment to the recent $500,000,000-odd appropriation for UNRRA reflects congressional bitterness toward Moscow, although the significance of the affirmative vote was generally missed. It was put over through a combination of republicans and democratic conservatives.

Messrs. Dirksen of Illinois and Brown of Ohio, who are two of the top G. O. P. leaders, insisted that American contributions to UNRRA could not be disbursed in countries —chiefly Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia and two Russian provinces—where American newspaper correspondents were not permitted to check on how the money was spent. It was designed as a distinct slap at Russia, although opponents argued that its only effect would be to keep food from the "shrunken bellies" of starving children.

* * *

ATTITUDE — G. O. P.-ers admitted privately that the amendment was a time-serving proposition. It cannot become effective unless all the other members of the international relief organization accept it, and that they will not do. It will simply add fuel to the flames of our other controversies with Stalin.

Moreover, a nation's press policy, regrettable as it may be, is that nation's own affair. The U. S. has no more right to say how Moscow shall deal with domestic or foreign correspondents than Russia has to dictate the policies of our press associations or of an individual newspaper like The New York Times. The realistic thing would have been to require that UNRRA ascertain the facts and report back to congress.

The majority backing the amendment knew that; they acknowledged it in corridor conversations. But they wanted to register their suspicion, their dissatisfaction and their hostility to the soviet's recent behavior. And they did.

Like it or not—and the attitude does not augur well for an improvement in international relationships—that is how congress feels about the disturbing world situation as of today.

POTPOURRI OF NEWS FROM WASHINGTON

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Louisiana Senator John H. Overton and his subcomittee on irrigation have turned to rewriting Shakespeare. After listing 12 reasons why they did not believe a Missouri Valley Authority should be created, they turned up as reason 13, this nifty:

S. 555 is an act that blurs the grace of constitutional government.

Calls it hypocrite, takes off the rose

From the fair brow of the Golden West

And sets a blister there, makes the pledge of congress to the west

As false as dicers' oaths; O, such an act

As from the body politic of our nation plucks

The very soul and makes of representative government

A mere rhapsody of words.

Question most frequently asked of army's atomic bomb experts is, "Who were your key men?"

"It's hard to answer because there were so many," says Maj.-Gen. L. R. Groves. For instance, one expert on ceramics worked on the atomic bomb project only six days, but the whole thing would have flopped without his advice. For another example, one of the problems in microscopic chemistry was so complicated that the oldest man on the scientific staff who could work it was only 29.

82 PER CENT OF BONDS STILL UNCASHED

Secretary of Treasury Fred M. Vinson's Victory Bond Drive will reverse the trend, but for the first time in any month since Pearl Harbor, war bonds cashed-in during October were greater than sales—and by 22 million dollars. Sales during the month were 578 million while redemptions over 600 millions. Thend of cashing-in has been steadily upward over the past year, when redemptions were less than half of what they are now. But the encouraging sign is that of the 57 billion dollars worth of bonds sold up to Nov. 1, only 10 billion dollars worth have been turned in for cash. In other words, 82 per cent of the bonds are still being held in their owners which is the smart thing to do.

Delay in naming membership of the President's Nov. 5 labor-management conference was caused by difficulty in finding a chairman and in getting the representative for management. A strong effort was made to get Dr. James Bryant Conant, president of Harvard, chairman of the national defense research committee and co-author of the Baruch report on rubber, to preside. But the committee on arrangements finally decided they wanted a judge. Hence the naming of Walter P. Stacy of Wilmington N. C., who has been presiding over labor conferences ever since the days of President Coolidge. Next catch was in getting representatives of management to sit in. The real policy makers, chairmen of the boards of big corporations were wanted, but they all fought shy and the management panel at the conference therefore was made of mere corporation presidents and the vice presdents in charge of labor relations.

FOUR WEEKS TRAVEL TIME TO NEW JOB

Average time taken by an ex-war worker is moving to a new peacetime job is now four weeks, according to unemployment compensation reports from the states. But as the job market tightens up, the time is expected to increase to a six-week average.

* * *

In appraising labor situation since V-J Day and on the eve of labor-management conference opening, most emphasis has been placed on strike situation, in which as many as half a million workers have been idle. That is bad side of the picstory. More encouraging factor is that in first three weeks of October in three three weeks of October, 274 strikes were settled, putting nearly 300,000 workers back on the job and reducing the number of workers on strike to less than 250,000. Also, from mid-September to mid-October U. S. employment increased by 62,000 to make the total number employed nearly 52 million, according to Director of Census J. C. Capt. Real thing to worry about may not be the quarter of million not working today because of labor disturbances, but the 1,520,000 unemployed, as reported in the census survey. For every worker out on strike, there are over five workers who haven't yet found jobs, and that number will grow.

David Lawrence

DAY-BY-DAY COUNT ON WASHINGTON'S ACTIVITIES GIVEN

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Although every conference where there are conflicting interests involves a certain amount of jocekeying for position, the labor-management conference has back of it such a feeling of urgency from the public as a whole that individual or group politics must inevitably become secondary.

Lawrence

The demand from the nation that labor and management prescribe a formula for the conduct of good labor relation is sweeping in from all sides. Seldom has a conference had as strong a public mandate. For the truth is the American people are about ready to listen to drastic proposals from congress if the labor-management groups should fail to perceive that only by an objective approach can legislation of an extreme sort be avoided.

The labor group has already endeavored to get attention for the wage problem, which is motivating most of the unrest among the workers today. Some tendency to rule out the wage question from this conference has already appeared and it is being asserted that the meeting here is not a national collective bargaining conference.

But, on the other hand, unless the leaders of labor and management can recognize the vitality of the present wage dispute and prescribe a method of settling such questions, there will be difficulty in focusing the attention of the labor union representatives on the other parts of the agenda.

The conference has proceeded thus far with an earnestness and efficiency that augurs well for the future. It has created a committee to see that independent unions not connected with the CIO or AFL are given a chance to be heard. As to the handling of the wage question and particularly the 30 percent demand, this is something which offers a splendid opportunity for constructive statesmanship by both labor and management.

Obviously the question is one for collective bargaining, either at the industry or local level, but when a problem of this sort arises can the services of the national government assist a settlement? Plainly there is need for fact-finding and an honest appraisal of the facts by impartial tribunals.

The present conference could easily decide upon the method by which such an economic commission or series of fact-finding commissions can be set up. There is, for instance, a dispute in the auto industry. The CIO marshals certain facts. The industry denies that these are the facts. Who is right? If there were an impartial investigating commission which could come up with the verified facts, there would be less chance for misunderstanding at the collective bargaining table.

So it would appear that one of the main adjuncts of the collective bargaining process is an effective means of getting enocomic facts. Interpretations may differe when once the facts are made available, but certainly there is a big need for this fundamental material so that the country also can do a little interpreting.

The CIO has been anxious to create a favorable publicity for the wage increases. The AFL has taken the position that the wage issue need not be taken up at this conference. A compromise appears possible by endeavoring to find out what tribunals or commissions can assist in settling wage issues as they arise in collective bargaining.

The labor-management conference could easily go off on the tangents of publicity for this or that interests. The public will be quick to recognize such manuevers and tactics. The responsibility imposed on the delegates to the conference is more than to represent their respective organizations. Precisely because these delegates cannot commit businesses or unions back home, it is even more important that the findings or recommendations be of such a nature as to command universal support.

The most important thing for the conference to attain is an atmosphere of true conciliation. This can come only if the delegates realize they are trustees of the public interest and not just partisan or prejudiced representatives of group interests.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The London Press reported yesterday that it was likely there would be another meeting of the Big Three chiefs of state after the conference in Washington this weekend of President Truman, British Premier Attlee and Canadian Prime Minister MacKenzie King.

There not only is no confirmation of this report, but a spokesman for Mr. Attlee in London said that "as far as we know there is nothing in that report at all." Still, even if the story has no foundation I think it's of great importance. It's important because it registers a general public desire—a belief that a meeting of the Big Three would ease the numerous crisis which are bedeveling Eufope and Asia.

Mr. Attlee himself, speaking just before setting out for America, made a declaration which is the key to public sentiment in this matter. He said it was his view that people must look to the United Nations and their close unity of purpose, "especially that between Britain, the United States and Russia", as a foundation of peace.

That's what the public believes, too, and to the man-in-the-street these three paramount powers are personified by Messrs. Truman, Stalin and Attlee. The little man-in-the-street believes this trio of great executives possesses the magic to pull the world out of its tail spin. He believes in the old adage that too many cooks spoil the broth. He things that the three heads of state by themselves can achieve what could't be accomplised by a dozen assistants who have to keep referring questions back to headquarters, and can't bargain on their own responsibility.

The biggest allied decisions of the war were made in conferences of the Big Three.

The Big Three had their differences then.

Naturally the exigencies of war made speedy coooperation vital delays might spell disaster, today this urgency may not be so apparent—but it's there just the same. In Europe and in Asia there are development dangers every bit as bad as many of those in the actual battle-field.

The worst of it is that the Big Three themselves recently have developed severe differences of view. They lie mainly between Russia on the one hand and the American-British allies on the other.

That's why what may be wishful thinking causes reports that Stalin, Truman and Attlee are goinig to meet. And that's why the man-in-the street anxiously hopes that the reports are true. Speed is esential in dealing with the many crisis.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD. — They don't award Oscars for off-the-screen performances.

But if they did, a Hollywood showgirl named Claudia Cauldwell certainly could qualify for one.

When Claudia isn't showing her legs at Earl Carroll's night club, she is a professional radio contestant. She has more faces than the late Lon Chaney and more accents than there were at the San Francisco conference.

Just this season Claudia has been a red-head and a platinum blonde, a gray-haired old woman and a black-haired, drawlin' school teacher from Albany, a war worker on crutches from San Francisco and a flip New York model.

She has been doing all right financially, too, she says—winning an average of $75 a week at the quiz shows.

* * *

SHE FOOLS 'EM

Claudia was wearing braces on her teeth and a brunet wig when we caught up with her between contests. She was due somewhere to qualify for $300, so she said she didn't have much time. She took off the braces and the wig but we are not going to tell you what she looks like because, as she said, that would spoil everything.

"I have to keep 'em fooled," Claudia said. "That's the secret of a professional contestant. To average $75 a week I have to keep going back to the same shows. I can't let 'em recognize me. I have to use different names and different disguises. It's a good thing I once acted on the Broadway stage. I have to give a performance every time I win any money."

Claudia seemed to be perfectly normal in every other way. But she's absolutely nuts when it comes to those radio quiz shows. (Maybe at $75 a week she isn't so crazy. And she does have to be smart enough to answer the questions after getting on the stage.)

Sunday, Claudia said, is her big day. She starts at 11 o'clock in the morning, rushing from one show to another until 8 p. m., when she has to report at Earl Carroll's for the first show. She carries wigs and horn-rimmed glasses and different clothes in her automobile and does her quick-changing in ladies' rooms.

* * *

NEVER CAUGHT

None of the quiz masters has caught up with her yet, but she keeps her fingers crossed whenever she walks up to a mike.

Her rules for being picked out of the audience as a contestant are simple.

"Never," she says, "sit in the front row. Sit near the back or on the side. But always get an aisle seat. And then act bashful. Hide under a big hat. You'll get picked every time."

However, Claudia admitted that she always went to a show once before getting picked as a contestant. "I can figure out how to impress a quiz master just by watching him operate. Then I put on an act and go home with the money."

Claudia put her teeth braces and brunet wig back on and said she had to run.

"I've got a date," she said "with a jackpot."

ESME OF PARIS by Esmé Davis

A NEW LIFE

XXXII

AMONG my old Russian acquaintances in Paris had been the Ourasoff princesses and a very intelligent, charming woman, Madame Loury. They were making quite a good thing out of the Manioulieff perfume formulas, which they had come by through his widow. Manioulieff had been one of the greatest perfumers the last century had known in Europe.

Neither of the partners in the business had any idea of putting the perfumes on the market in a commercial way, but when I met them I began studying their methods and formulas, spending hours watching Madame Loury blend her fragrances. I mentally registered an intention to take it up seriously on a commercial basis at some future date.

Now after a summer of fair dates in 1939, I was quite ill for some weeks and had to undergo an operation for complications resulting from my last fall. While recuperating I began thinking again of perfumes and the possibility of putting into practice in the United States my plans about them. Curiously, the same week I was giving serious study to the idea, a letter arrived from my Russian friends, saying they were leaving for Switzerland and had an opportunity to send me the formulas through friends coming to New York. There was, Madame Loury wrote, a marvelous opportunity to make money in America now that the European perfumes were rapidly becoming a thing of the past.

I promptly took advice on the subject of such a venture from perfume experts and essential oil houses and found the information of Monsieur de la Vigne, of Maison Roure-Dupont et Cie of France, of the greatest assistance in deciding the first steps necessary to the formation of my project. Through his practical guidance and kind interest, I was able to obtain a reserve of necessary oils and fixatives required for the formulas when they arrived. Chemists and expert blenders went through long tests and research, growing more enthusiastic daily after translating some of the old formulas with solidified ingredients into the more modern liquid preparations.

* * *

WITH these we chose some of the more exquisite fragrances and timidly launched them on the New York market. Their success was astonishing, especially since at that time, 1940, French scents were still procurable, many of them being manufactured in America. Of course we made the usual mistakes, having no idea how to start a business, plunging into too many perfumes and too many expensive packages at the same time—but we learned, and a year later were on our way toward making a go of a delightful and absorbing business. I never attempted handling anything but the artistic side of the affair (in its way just another branch of show business), such as the creating of titles, packaging for the perfumes, advertising, promotion, and all the mise en scene indispensable to presenting them.

Perhaps some of my happiest perfume titles of recent months have been thought up during long hours spent driving for the American Women's Voluntary Services' Motor Transport Corps—the group of volunteer women who give their time and cars to the services of the Armed Forces.

The financial details of our project were left entirely in the hands of my husband, whose business sense developed with surprising rapidity and whose personality has done much to build our clientele. As our little venture grew, we gradually built an office in the penthouse we found on a hotel rooftop, then a showroom, and then we rented a plant and warehouse downtown, with salesmen and employes. We also bought five dogs—three Bostons and two toy poodles.

* * *

WHEN our real good fortune began to establish itself firmly (although it had cost much hard work and sacrifice), it sometimes frightened me. I had become so accustomed to earning my living by intense physical effort and the domination of all self-pity or fear that the comparative ease with which our business grew did not seem real at times. I would wonder if it were only a dream and would suddenly end one morning when once more I would rise to take my rigging to some high tent or theater and look my old friend Death in the face again for eight long minutes.

I still practice nearly every day, for the feeling of the free air rushing against my body and the thrill of a high swing, would be too hard to give up. So I keep my rigging on the roof garden, and often on summer evenings I steal out and climb high above the lights of the city to dream a while.

High above the city it is very quiet, and the roar of traffic is almost inaudible. Here it is easier to think and reminisce for the throbbing life of the streets seems very far away.

There are fat gray pigeons that come from Central Park, looking for the rice they know I will give them—to the great annoyance of my dogs. They strut and preen themselves, perching on the rigging of my trapeze, which hangs between two slender white poles with dangling ropes against the sky. And that reminds me of a ship and a voyage through summer seas. For there is a feeling of expectancy about this place, and perhaps a promise, just enough to set gypsy wits a-wandering, that when the waiting is at an end, there will once more be ships and travelers and the old familiar places that beckon like a shrine.

Colmar Blood, Fire Gave 63rd Its Test

By NEA Service.

Easily the most awesome of divisional nicknames is that of the 63rd infantry division, which goes by the name of "Blood and Fire." The nickname was lifted from the text of the resolution of the Allies at the Casablanca conference to make their enemies "bleed and burn in expiation fo their crimes against humanity." The shoulder patch of the 63rd features flames and a blood-dipped dagger.

The men of the 63rd had their first chance at the Germans in the closing weeks of 1944. One regiment —the 254th—made a particularly auspicious debut. Attached to the Third infantry division during the savage fight for the Colman bridgehead, the outfit received a unit citation for outstanding performance of duty, helping to cut off Colmar from the Rhine in what has been described as "one of the hardest and bloodiest campaigns of the war."

In February, the reassembled division crossed the Saar north of Saarguemines, and led the Seventh army back onto German soil, from which it had been forced to withdraw. A few weeks later, it smashed into the Siegfried line. Early in April, the 63rd destroyed the 17th SS division, crossed the Neckar river, and pushed the enemy back south of the Kocher river.

The 63rd followed relentlessly after the retreating Germans. The division chased the nazis through Wurttemberg and Bavaria down to the Danube, crossed the river and moved down to Landsberg, at the edge of the Bavarian Alps.

At the end of March, the 63rd made a distinctive haul—the great university city of Heidelberg.

Kibitzer, Victim Haul Each Other Into Court

AP Newsfeatures

NEW YORK—When a barber and a neighbor charged each other with assault, the barber testified in Flatbush court:

"He makes nasty remarks to my customers when they come into my shop, and he bothers me while I'm cutting their hair or shaving them, and he tells them they got terrible haircuts when they leave.

"Besides, he is always putting his face up against the window and making faces. It makes me and my customers nervous."

The judge advised the men to "abide by the Golden Rule and try to respect the rights of each other," and suggested that the kibitzer move his sidewalk chair away from the barber shop, eliminating the temptation to carp.

Said one defendant, leaving court:

"You keep your chair away from my shop—and no more funny remarks!"

Said the other:

"I'll put that chair where I like, and you can't stop me!"

Said a court attendant:

"They'll be back soon."

Navy To Release Ohio Refineries

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 —(AP)— The navy announced Friday it would relinquish control of three Ohio oil refineries seized by the government as the result of strikes, effective at 12:01 a. m. Saturday.

The refineries involved are the Standard Oil Co. of Ohio at Lima; the Canton Refining division of the Central Pipe Line Co., Canton, and the Sun Oil Co., Toledo.

Under presidential order, the navy took over these three refineries and 50 others on Oct. 5 after CIO oil workers struck in a demand for higher pay.

The three companies petitioned the navy to release the plants on the grounds that there was no labor dispute at the present time.

Texas Oil Officials Will Oppose Treaty

DALLAS, Nov. 10—(AP)—Directors of the Independent Petroleum association of Texas have voted opposition to ratification of the proposed Anglo-American petroleum agreement by the United States.

The group indorsed a stand taken against the proposed treaty by Olin Culberson, chairman of the Texas railroad commission and by Bascom Giles, land commissioner. The treaty was referred to the senate last week by President Truman with the request that it be ratified.

"There is no real need for any such treaty," the petroleum association said in telegrams to Senators Connally and O'Daniel of Texas. "It is a long step toward internationalism of the petroleum industry of America."

Total Crude Oil Production Down From 1944 Figure

(By The Associated Press)

The stock market broke out with a series of 2,000,000 share days this week and prices forged ahead to the highest levels since early 1937 before settling down.

Crude oil production averaged 4,318,350 barrels daily, against 4,273,0000 in the previous week and 4,719,900 a year ago.

Freight car loadings dropped to 851,350 from 854,779 in the previous week and compared with 893,069 last year.

A 1945 cotton crop of 9,368,000 bales, the lowest since 1921 was forecast by the government.

A spectacular jump in civilian tire production was indicated by a forecast by the civilian production administration that 66,060,000 would be made in 1946, more than double the expected 1945 output.

The Webster Tobacco Co. upped the price of five brands of cigars from one to two cents apiece.

High-grade corporation bonds figured prominently in the bullish scene and there was a succession of new peaks in the average price of 35 commodities.

Real estate continued to boom throughout the country.

Retail sales in the week were 7 to 11 percent ahead of last year.

Satisfactory progress was reported in the government's victory loan drive.

A New York stock exchange membership sold at $93,000, highest since July 20, 1937.

Engineering construction awards totaled $45,828,000, an icnrease of 20 percent over the 1944 week.

Steel operations rebounded to 77 percent of capacity from 72.9 percent in the preceding week and compared with 96.3 percent last year.

The life insurance companies in America said total accumulated savings of all the people from Pearl Harbor to V-J was estimated at 132,000,000,000.

It's official now: President Truman signed the bill to reduce taxes, the first such measure in 16 years.

Patents Returned To Standard Oil

NEW YORK, Nov. 10—The alien property custodian has been ordered by Federal Judge Charles E. Wyzanski, Jr., to return to the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey all patents the company bought prior to 1939 from the I. G. Farbenindustrie, the German chemical trust, which were seized by the government and retained by it since March, 1942. The seizure was made under the provisions of the trading with the enemy act.

In a 92-page decision sent from Boston and filed here in the United States district court, Judge Wyzanski ruled that the government could retain title only to those licenses and patents that Standard obtained from the German trust after the start in Europe of World War II.

Judge Wyzanski held that contracts made at the Hague between Standard and I. G. officials were in effect not bona fide. Under these contracts Standard acquired patents for the manufacture of Buna rubber, the acetylene arc and paraffin oxidation processes. The patents that the government has been ordered to return to Standard cover the manufacture of high octane gasoline.

The trail challenging the right of the government to seize and retain the patents, began here last May and ended the latter part of June.

Estimated Crude Oil Demand Down

AUSTIN, Nov. 10—(AP)—The U. S. bureau of minest oday notified the Texas railroad commission that estimated market demand for Texas crude in December will be 1,900,000 barrels daily.

This was 50,000 barrels under the bureau's estimate for November, commenting on this, railroad commission chairman Olin Culberson said:

"The actual demand is just as strong as it ever was. I would say this drop in estimated market demand comes because of imports, but there is nothing in the bureau's telegram to indicate this."

The railroad commission will hear testimony at a hearing Wednesday on which to base its December oil order. Current daily allowable in Texas is 2,026,572 barrels.

Exploration Requires Permit; but There's None To Issue Permit

AUSTIN, Nov. 10—(AP)—Seismographic exploration of rays along the gulf coast for oil is not legal without a permit, but who has the authority to issue a permit has not been established, the attorney general ruled today.

Replying to a letter from the state board of education, the opinion said this board did not have the power, adding that the school land board is given authority by law to lease the bays for mineral production, and the game, fish and oyster commission has jurisdiction in conservation of wildlife. Seismographic oil exploration involves the setting off of explosives, and it is a penal offense to set off explosives in the waters of the state.

BRADFORD, Pa., Nov. 10—(AP)—William J. Sloan, 64, prominent oil man and a director of the Independent Oil Producers association of America, died of a heart attack yesterday in the office of Sloan and Zook Co., of which he was vice-president.

In partnership with Ralph T. Zook, also a well known figure in the oil world, Sloan had bought oil lands, drilled wells and operated refineries in western Pennsylvania since 1917.

In recent years, they extended their holdings to include oil properties in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana.

Sloan was an officer in Pennzoil Co., and a half dozen other oil firms and business enterprises.

School Head Will Protest Treaty

AUSTIN, Nov. 10—(AP)— State school superintendent L. A. Woods has added his voice to the protests against ratification of the British-American oil treaty now before the U. S. senate.

Dr. Woods said he thought the ultimate purpose of the treaty is the formation of a gigantic cartel to control the oil industry, and that such control would "hamper the public schools and deny the people of Texas the right to govern themselves."

Valley Area Crude Oil Hearing Set

AUSTIN, Nov. 9.—(AP)—The railroad commission announced today it would hear an application Jan. 2 to determine whether or not rules and regulations should be adopted for the area surrounding the La Salle Vieja area in Willacy county.

The application for the hearing was filed by the Magnolia petroleum company and the J. S. Abercrombie company.

Gas Hearing Time, Place Is Changed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—(AP)—A hearing in the natural gas investigation of the federal power commission, set for Dec. 10 in Dallas, has been changed to be held in Houston Jan. 28, 1946.

Harvesters Remain Unbeaten In District 1-AA Competition

By SCOTT RAFFERTY
News Sports Editor

A stout defense that has held four consecutive opponents scoreless again paid off in dividends Friday as the Pampa Harvesters eked out a 4-1 penetration win over the Lubbock Westerners after the two teams had fought to a scoreless tie at Lubbock.

It was an inspired Westerner eleven that took the field against the heavily-favored Harvesters and edged them in every department except penetrations.

Under interscholastic league rules, should two teams tie in a conference game, the eleven that penetrates the other's 20-yard line the greatest number of times is declared the winner. The rules, however, does not apply to non-conference affairs.

A drizzling rain that fell in Lubbock just before the game started, began again in the early part of the fourth period and stopped a possible Westerner scoring threat.

Lubbock's bullet-passing attack kept the Harvesters in hot water during the first three periods but the threat was eliminated when the ball began to get slippery.

Outstanding offensive play of the game was a 33-yard dash by Bill Washington, 155-pound Pampa fullback, who had to be taken out of the game immediately after the run because of an old knee injury.

Washington's gallop was made possible by excellent blocking on the part of his teammates.

Superior line play was turned in by Lonnie Williams, end, and Jim Terrell, tackle, of the Harvesters and also by Gerald Davis and Dick Schmidt, Westerner ends.

In the backfield, Washington, Randall Clay, Russell Neef and George Johnson started for Pampa and all played excellent ball, with Johnson's four punts averaging 40 yards each. Clay, although slightly bottled up by the Westnerers, played his usual good game, being thrown for only one loss. Neef played heads-up ball and was especially alert on defense.

George Brewer made most of the yards for Lubbock, but the real Westnerer backfield, but the real Noel Sikes who was a constant threat with his running and passing. John Paul Jones, quarterback, excelled on short passes straight across the line of scrimmage.

First Quarter

Clay picked off for Pampa. Brewer took it in the end zone and ran to the 28. Sikes made eight yards and Brewer picked up founr more and a first down on the 40. Brewer made one and Lubbock was penalized on the next play for backfield in motion, setting the Westnerers back to the 36. Brewer made five, Sikes made four and Brewer then punted to the Pampa 25.

Pampa was penalized back to the 10 for clipping on the next play. Clay made four yards on two tries and then Johnson punted to the Lubbock 35 where Lonnie Williams tore into Brewer and stopped him when he caught the ball.

Brewer and Rampy picked up four yards and Brewer then punted to Johnson on the 35. Johnson returned it to the 45 before he was nailed.

Neff went for four yards, Washington made 11 and a first down, Clay made five, Washington two more, Clay lost three and then Johnson passed to Williams for 12 yards and a first down on the Lubbock 31.

Washington made seven yards and a Lubbock offside penalty on the next play set the ball down to the 18 for Pampa's first penetration. Washington made four yards for a first down, Clay made two, Washington one and Johnson passed incomplete to give Lubbock the ball on downs on the 11-yard line.

Brewer made one yards through the line as the quarter ended.

Second Quarter

Brewer made two, Sikes failed to gain and Brewer got off a kick to Johnson on the 50, who ran it back to the 37 in Lubbock's territory.

Washington lost three, made it back on the next play and then Johnson passed to Williams for seven yards and a first down. Clay went 12 yards for another first down and a penetration. Pampa was in motion on the next play and was penalized back to the 25. The Harvesters were offside on the next play and were set back to the 30. Brewer then intercepted Johnson's pass to the Lubbock nine and raced back to the 25.

Brewer made three yards on two tries and the Jones passed to Schmidt for 14 yards a first down on the 42r Brewer passed to Scmidt for seven yards and then personally picked up four for a first down. Rampy then raced through for 14 yards and another first on the Pampa 41. Jones passed to Davis for nine yards and then Brewer made five for the first down on the 25. Jones attempted to pass that was incomplete, Brewer made one yard and then Jones passed to Schmidt for a penetration on the Pampa 18. Brewer failed to gain and Pampa took over on downs.

Clay made one yard, Johnson made four and Clay made two more but Johnson was forced to punt. Brewer took it on the Lubbock 42 and was stopped cold by a flock of Pampa linemen.

Brewer made three, Rampy made eight and a first down, Brewer picked up eight more for a first down on the Pampa 39, Jones passed incomplete, and Brewer passed to Sikes for seven but the play was called back and Lubbock penalized five yards. Brewer made it up by passing to Sikes for nine yards but Clay stopped the attack when he intercepted Brewer's next pass on the 30 and ran to the 37. Washington picked up eight yards as the half ended with the score still 0-0.

Third Quarter

Clay kicked off for Pampa to Rampy on the 18, who returned it to his own 30. Brewer made six yards, Sikes three, and Brewer went for a first down on the 40. Sikes failed to gaina nd then tried again but was thrown for a seven-yard loss. Johnson then intercepted Jones' pass on the Lubbock 45 but was immediately tackled.

Pampa was offside and was penalized to the 50 on the next play. Brewer then intercepted Johnson's pass on the 21 to give Lubbock the ball.

Sikes made one, Brewer failed to

Middies Show 'Old Time' Form In Trouncing Michigan 33 to 7

By BUS HAM

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10 — (AP) — Navy's remarkable opportunist answered some of their critics today by crushing Michigan's spirited Wolverines 33 to 7.

Thus the Middies surpassed mighty Army's 28-7 victory over Michigan by a margins of five points.

Again the Middies capitalized on the opposition's mistakes, but there was nothing indecisive in the way they went after scores on almost every opportunity.

They ran more like a big league club than in any previous game. Made few mistakes and wasted no time in going over for each of their five touchdowns.

Still alertly hawking the ball, as they have all season, the Middies went on their scoring sprees after picking up a wild Michigan lateral. Blocking one punt and causing another to be kicked only eight yards, intercepting a pass and picking up a fumble.

For a half, Michigan made a close game of it, holding Navy to a 13-7 advantage, but the Middies broke things wide open in the third period by scoring twice in the last three minutes.

A mistake by Michigan put the Middies in position to drive home well along in the opening period. Henry Fonde made a wild pitch to Pete Elliott on an attempted lateral on Michigan's 21. Navy's Dick Duden touching the ball just before it went out of bounds.

Tony Minisi, hero of the Penn and Notre Dame games for Navy, caught Michigan's defense flat-footed with a left handed pass to Leon Bramlett for the score.

Again Navy took to the air with Bruce Smith throwing to Duden for 16 yards and then tossing to Clyde Scott from the 11 for the touchdown on the first play of the second period.

Michigan made its bid during the remainder of that quarter, pulling up to a 7-13 status and failing on two additional scoring chances.

The fleet Fonde ran a punt back 25 yards to Navy's 13, then took a 9-yard pass from Elliott to set up the Wolverines' only score with Weisenburger smashing over from the 2.

Mike Prashaw blocked a punt on Navy's 30 and the Wolverines pushed to the 16 before the big Middie line rose up and took charge of the situation.

Newbold Smith blocked Weisenburger's punt on Michigan's 13 late in the third period. Minisi immediately scampered all the way on the old Statue of Liberty play to score.

Joe Bartos ran 24 yards through tackle after a pass interception and Smith passed to "Pistol Pete" Williams from eight yards out for the last two scores.

A crowd of 59,114 witnessed the game.

Tech's Defeat Of Frogs Tops SWC Grid Day

AUSTIN, Nov. 10—(AP)—Held in check during the first half and forced to come from behind twice, the Texas Longhorns came surging back for two quick third-period touchdowns to eke out a thrilling 21-14 victory over Baylor's heavy Bears before 30,000 fans here today.

Baylor's burly line, which had shackled its opponents on the ground all season, was out played by the hard-charging Texas forward wall and yielded 149 yards rushing—but the Longhorns still had to hely on Bobby Lane's passes to set up their scores. Even then, Baylor outgained the Steers 181 yards to 88 through the air with big Jack Price doing most of the tossing.

The Bears struck for their first tally when the game was only five minutes old, Bobby Griffin passing 38 yards to end Stuart Gordon. Louis Leal converted. Texas tied the score in the second quarter when end Dale Schwartzkopf blocked Price's punt on the Baylor 9 and Layne passed over the goal line to all-America Hubert Bechtol. Layne converted, and the score was 7-7 at half time.

Baylor went ahead again early in the third period when Price shot a 45-yard pass to the speedy Stoney Cotten, who took the ball on the 10 and raced over untouched. Leaf converted.

Texas immediately drove 74 yards for a touchdown, with Layne passing and running to the Baylor 4 and George Graham plunging over. Layne's conversion deadlocked the count again at 14-14.

Baylor fumbled on the next kick off and Texas recovered on the 31. A penalty set the Bears back to their 16, and after Baylor had held twice for three downs, Graham finally drove across from the 5 and Layne kicked goal.

The Longhorns spent most of the fourth quarter staving off Baylor's long passes.

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 10—(AP)—Chunky John Ballentine, whose service with the Texas Aggies is measured in minutes this season, got in for just 30 seconds today but it was enough to bring A. and M. a 3-0 victory over Southern Methodist in a glittering southwest conference gridiron duel.

From the SMU 24-yard line, Ballentine, 20-year-old married freshman, plunked the ball through the goal posts in the first play of the second period and that was the ball game although the Methodists virtually camped on the cadet goal line throughout the second half.

His day's work done, Ballentine trotted to the sidelines and a rugged battle raged between two fighting teams the rest of the way. Ballentine, 185-pounder from Ysleta, Texas, hasn't played more than three minutes all season.

LUBBOCK, Nov. 10—(AP)—Texas Tech's fighting Red Raiders, after soundly outplaying a favored Texas Christian squad for three quarters, counted twice in the fourth period here this afternoon to chalk up a stunning 12-0 upset over the Frogs before a home-coming crowd of 10,000 screaming fans.

The raiders, with big Walt Schlinkman, Tech's all-American fullback candidate carrying the burden of the day's chores, played the favored southwest conference gridders to a standstill and only four times let the frogs pass the midfield stripe.

The fighting Raiders turned TCU's big threat. Leon Joslin's aerial wizadry, into the Froggies downfall. Little Bennie Tidwell, 140-pound left half, intercepted one of Leon Joslin's heaves on his own 30 early in the fourth frame and raced down the sidelines for the first Tech touchdown.

Five minutes later a punt exchange left the Frogs in another hole. Tech set up a scoring opportunity when big Otis Turner, Tech center, intercepted one of Joslin's passes on the TCU 35. Turner rambled down to the Frog 20 before he was roped in.

With Schlinkman running roughshod over the Frog secondary after the Tech line mowed down the TCU forwards, the Raiders moved down to the Frog four in three plays, Schlinkman picking up all the yardage.

On second down and with goal to go Schlinkman battered his way over the Frog left guard, carrying several TCU players with him.

HOUSTON, Nov. 10—(AP)—The Rice Owls, frazile as a new-born babe in the early days of the season, came to full maturity at their homecoming celebration today, defeating Arkansas 26-7 with an ease which should sound the tocsin for its remaining southwest conference opponents.

Paced by a skinny 17-year-old freshman from Mount Pleasant, Texas, — Huey Keeney — the feathered flock rolled along in unbeatable fashion.

Despite the fact it was heavily favored to flatten the Razorbacks, who have been wallowing all season, Rice demonstrated a crushing ground game. It showed no startling passing offense, because it didn't need to.

The Owls rolled up 346 yards along the ground, compared with a modest 31 by air. The Hogs garnered 128 yards with their ground offence, which occasionally showed flashes of power, but their passing attack, famed in the past, fizzled to a total of 13 yards.

Young Keeney burst through the Arkansas line twice for touchdown runs, had a 58-yard touchdown run called back, set up a score with a 54-yard quick-kick, and otherwise comported himself with an ability belying his tender age and lank figure.

Milby Captures 13-AA Title in Beating Austin

By The Associated Press

Milby of Houston is the first district champion of Texas schoolboy football. The Buffs crushed Austin (Houston) 39-6 last night to clinch honors in District 13 and now await determination of the title of District 14 to know their opponents in the state play-off first round.

Paris took over undisputed first place in District 5, Highland Park (Dallas) did the same in District 6, Marshall went out in front in District 11 and Brownsville rolled into top spot in District 16 in other games last night.

Paris beat Denison 26-6, Highland Park downed Denton 31-0, Marshall swept over Texarkana 38-7 and Brownsville swept over Texarkana 38-7 and Brownsville beat Edinburg 28-7.

The undefeated, untied list in the state was cut to seven as Pampa was held to a scoreless tie by Lubbock. This left Plainview, Odessa, Paris, Brownwood, Lufkin, Milby and Brownsville with perfect records but Plainview plays Amarillo today (Saturday) while Monday Odessa clashes with Sweetwater and Brownwood tackles Breckenridge Monday.

Pampa, although deadlocked by Lubbock, won the game on penetrations and it counted a victory in the District 1 race, thus the Harvesters still are tied with Amarillo and Plainview for the lead.

Notre Dame Misses Chance To Tally As Gompers Loses Ball

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK, Nov. 10—(AP)—Army touchdown twins, Glenn Davis and Felix (Doc) Blanchard, ran wild for five touchdowns between them as the Cadets' great eleven overpowered Notre Dame, 48 to 0, for its 16th consecutive victory today.

It was the first time in their gridiron rivalry that army won two straight games from the fighting Irish. The score might have mounted higher than last year's 59 to 0 had not both Blanchard and Davis been yanked midway of the third period and the second and third Cadet teams been permitted to play out the contest.

Davis, wing-footed halfback of the Cadets, reeled off three touchdowns on beautiful runs and Blanchard, pile-driving fullback, bounced across for a pair before coach Earl Blaik decided the throng of 76,000 had seen enough of his twin beauties.

The army seconds wobbled across for two more scores in the final quarter, the last one in the closing seconds of play. Blanchard and Davis each ran his total touchdowns for the season to 13.

Notre Dame's scrapping youngsters lost their one great chance to score on a fumble late in the third quarter after they had marched 58 yards down to the Cadets' one yard line. Bill Gompers, trying desperately to dive that final yard, let the ball pop from his grasp into the waiting arms of Bob Stuart, who ran it out to the 27.

Army's great first team forward wall wound up its seventh game of the year without having yielded a touchdown by rushing, though the Irish made them take a couple of times out in the first period today to talk matters over as 76,000 watched in Yankee stadium.

The Cadets, as usual, chilled their adversaries right at the start, and left no doubt in anyone's mind that they were the bosses. On the second play from scrimmage after they had recovered a fumble deep in Irish ground, Davis broke to his left, cut back and raced 26 yards for his first score. Dick Walterhouse place-kicked the first of his six extra points, and Notre Dame headed for its first defeat since the Cadets turned the trick a year ago.

Army out-statisticked the Irish by a wide margin, gaining a total of 441 yards by rushing to the losers' 184 and piling up 19 first downs to Notre Dames 16. Two Irish first downs resulted from penalties against the Cadets, who dropped 125 yards because of infractions.

Amarillo Wins

PLAINVIEW, Nov. 10—Amarillo's powerful Sandies scored in the first period and fought off a stubborn attack the rest of the way to knock the Plainview Bulldogs from the unbeaten class 7-0 here today. A capacity crowd of over 8,000 witnessed the match. The victory left Amarillo on top of District I-AA with three wins and no losses. Plainview fell to third behind Pampa, who has two wins and no losses.

Wheat for Holland

the donations will be accepted at the Jess Pool Grain company elevator, across from the Schneider hotel. The elevator will load the wheat free of charge. The only cost in getting the wheat to the destitute people of Holland will be the cost of transportation from Pampa to that country. That expense will be met by the Netherlands government.

CAN GIVE MONEY

Those persons who wish to give money are requested to make deposits at either of the banks, payable to the "Gray County Holland Wheat Fund," or it may be mailed in checsk or cash to Rev. R. Q. Harvey, 513 E. Francis, Pampa, Texas. He will deposit the money and mail the donor a receipt.

Promotional organizations are to be set up at Lefors and McLean. A drive, under the direction of Amos Harris, is under way at Kingsmill for at least a carload of wheat. Wheat in that vicinity is to be taken to the E. F. Tubbs Grain company.

No house-to-house campaign for wheat contributions will be made in Pampa, it was said. Radio Station KPDN and the Pampa Daily News and the chamber of commerce are the media through which the drive will be conducted.

Many other communities in this and other states are gathering food of various kinds to be sent to that little country.

"This is an appeal," said Chairman West. "Everyone who has wheat to spare, please see that it gets to the elevators designated in this story—so that it can be sent as soon as possible to a land where people are dying daily from a lack of sufficient food. The wheat must be strictly first class for milling and human consumption. If you have wheat that is not up to standard, it is suggested that you sell it and turn in the money. The wheat we send must be representative of the good people of Texas, so let us give accordingly."

A sailor has written Mrs. W. K. Krautter of Marshall that he believes a Bible she gave him back in 1942 saved his life.

He said a company of sailors stopped in Marshall in October of that year. They were given Bibles, candy, and other things.

"The Bible had your name and address in it," wrote G/M 3/C W. K. Christensen, "so I am writing to tell you that though I went through hell and high water, I still have it and always will. It's a funny thing, but when I was in danger I thought of what you wrote in my Bible, 'Read a verse each day for food for your soul'.

"There were only three of our company that came back."

He's a mascot of the Belton fire department, as well as mascot of the Fireman's association. He goes on all the runs with the firemen.

On his seventh birthday, there were four fire alarms in Belton—and he went on all of them.

The birthday party that filled in between fires was attended by 24 guests.

Some Soldiers on Leave Released

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 —(AP)— The army has decided to release this month enlisted men with 50 or more discharge points who are on furlough and enlisted men on temporary duty in the United States.

Most of the men affected, the war department explained, were in units from Europe whose scheduled redeployment to the Pacific was cancelled after Japan surrendered. It did not estimate the number affected.

The present general discharge score is 60 points.

The army also has laid down exemptions from overseas duty which will affect about 125,000 officers and enlisted men.

Except for graduates of the military intelligence language school, regular army enlisted men and volunteers for foreign duty, no enlisted man with 21 months or more honorable service since Sept. 16, 1940, will be assigned overseas for permanent duty.

Officers with 33 months or more honorable service, or with 30 months if medical department officers, are exempt unless they are reserve officers who choose to remain on active duty, regular army officers, scarce specialists or are graduates of the military intelligence school with fewer than 39 months service and not eligible for discharge.

Army nurses with 12 points or 30 years of age are exempt and no WAC officers are being sent across on permanent assignment.

Civil War

"prolong this civil war."

In the north-China inland province of Shansi and in Suiyuan province of inner Mongolia fighting raged in what a semi-official dispatch called "bloody, sea-saw battles."

One dispatch reported recapture by the nationalists of the important railway junction of Shihkiachwang in Hopeh province—although the government never had previously acknowledged its loss. It is a strategic point on the north-south Peiping-Hankow railroad.

An official dispatch also recorded the arrival of "large numbers" of nationalist troops at Patow, western terminus of the Peiping-Suiyuan railroad west of Kweisui, besieged Suiyuan capital.

All the inland action involved the few transportation routes which nationalists would tage to reach north China, inner Mongolia and Manchuria.

Trustworthy reports here indicated the communists were trying to establish, in inner Mongolia and Manchuria north of the great wall, a "base area" to provide them with supplies and troops for a long war—hoping thus to obtain far greater concessions in any negotiations with Chungking.

There were no immediate estimates of casualties on either side.

'FIGHT FOR FREEDOM'

Advices from Jogjakarta, where 100,000 armed Indonians are reported concentrated, declared hotheaded Indonesian youths were already marching toward Soerabaja shouting "fight for freedom!"

Indonesian 'President' Soekarno had gone to Jogjakarta to address a youth rally, which broke up when news of the British attack was received. Soekarno was expected to return to Batavia tomorrow.

There were no indications yet that the Soerabaja battle had set off any widespread outbreaks throughout Java, as Indonesian leaders had predicted might result.

ALLIES USE MORTARS

Late tonight allied troops used mortars in a short but severe clash with Indonesians in the Kramat sector of Batavia.

A British statement asserted that the arms in possession of the Indonesians belonged originally to the Japanese troops and sailors 20,000 of whom were still to be rounded up in the Soerabaja area.

In a series of orders and statements before the attack, the British maintained they were only carrying out the mandate of the United Nations in rescuing prisoners of war, and internees, and in rounding up the defeated Japanese.

British Commander Maj. Gen. E. C. Mansergh had issued stringent instructions that the Indonesian police and the T. K. R. (army) regulars could retain only rifles and 10 rounds of ammunition per man.

He warned that if fighting started, any Indonesian crowds collecting in the streets or squares would be strafed by British planes.

Broadcasts over the Indonesian controlled radio in Soerabaja urged the Indonesians not to surrender their arms, but cautioned them against starting hostilities.

"It apparently is his view that no other committee member, the general counsel, no one in the war or navy departments and none of those who have charge of the late President Roosevelt's files can be trusted."

Ferguson charged in the senate yesterday that as a result of President Truman's order permitting government employes to volunteer information but barring individual members from looking at the files, the departments apparently were going to be allowed to "investigate themselves."

PRISONER'S HEAVEN

WELLSVILLE, Kans., Nov. 10—(AP) — Everybody in town knows "Bus" Bell—Pvt. Francis E. Bell, 31-year-old liberated prisoner of war. And one of the things they remember about him is that Bus likes to eat.

He had slim pickings for three years in a Tokyo prison camp, and he's due back home tomorrow. The folks in Wellsville are all going to turn out to greet him with a special sort of celebration. Everybody in town will bring home cooking to a big basket dinner at the city hall—and Bus will be the first one in line.

Don Cossack Chorus To Open Second Pampa Community Concert Season

To open the second season of the Pampa Community Concert association, Tuesday, Nov. 20, the General Platoff Don Cossack chorus will appear in the Junior high school auditorium.

Admission to all concerts is by membership card only, and these were mailed to members this week. The membership is composed not only of local persons but also includes members in Wheeler, Miami, Lefors, Borger, Phillips, White Deer, Skellytown, Kingsmill, Groom, Texhoma, Okla., and Wichita, Kans.

Servicemen in uniform or discharged servicemen presenting discharge papers at the door, may purchase single admissions the night of the concert. This is being done primarily to enable returned servicemen to enjoy the concert season with members of their families who have purchased cards.

Directors of the concert association are: F. Winston Savage, president; Mrs. C. P. Buckler, Mrs. Mel Davis, Mrs. George F. Friauf, Mrs. J. W. Garman, Jr., Mrs. Raymond Harrah, F. E. Imel, Joe F. Key, Mrs. Roy E. McKernan, Dr. Douglas E. Nelson, Farris Oden, Ray Robbins, Mrs. A. A. Schuneman, Rev. William J. Stack, Aubrey Steele, E. O. Wedgeworth, Mrs. Harold C. Weidler and Mrs. Carl J. Wright.

The 27 members of the Don Cossack chorus are described as men who can take it, when it comes to trouping.

The reputation of this band of Russian singers, who are sometimes picturesquely known as "the singing horsemen of the Steppes," has preceded them wherever they have traveled—and they have traveled far in their perregrinations. In the years since their organization in 1926, they have given over 4,500 concerts throughout the world.

Under the leadership of their brilliant director, Nicholas Kostrukoof, the chorus has built up a repertoire, that covers the field of Russian song—the beautiful liturgical music of the Russian-Orthodox church, the exquisite haunting folk-melodies, to which they add the wild Cossack songs with their exciting mixtures of interperses shouts and whistling.

The chorus is named after a famous Cossack general of a century ago, who played a hero's role in routing Napoleon in his march on Moscow. The men come from the region bordering on the River Don which flows through western Russia down to the sea of Azov. They were the finest soldiers of Imperial Russia, which at the time of World War I counted some two millions in the Czar's armies. They are skilled horsemen—lusty, self-sufficient, daring and brave.

The perfectly matched solo voices in the chorus cover the range from high soprano to the lowest bass, while the chorus itself is capable of producing the most stunning massed tone that roars forth in booming sonority at times—at others, subsides to a whisper of inconceivable softness. In fact, the chorus is like a mighty organ, their leader the organist, who controls the voices as the organist does the organ stops before him.

Shirley Temple, Jerome Courtland, Walter Abel Star in 'Kiss and Tell'

Shirley Temple starts the tongues awaggin' when she's caught kissing Jerome Courtland in this scene from Columbia's "Kiss And Tell."

By SCOTT KAFFERTY

We always like to review pictures that we have seen, instead of just telling what we have heard about them, and in this case, we'll toss a few bouquets to the producers of "Kiss and Tell," opening at the LaNora today.

Because it's one of the best comedies we have seen in a long time. It's OK for the whole family to see this one.

Shirley Temple and Jerome Courtland are outstading as the two leading juveniles but, as far as we're concerned, Walter Abel walks away with the whole thing.

We won't tell you the plot—but see it from the first or you'll never get the "drift".

At the Rex Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, United Artists brings the story of the careless stork, or "3 Is a Family", starring Marjorie Reynolds, Charles Ruggles, Fay Painter, Arthur "Dagwood" Lake, Hattie McDaniel, Jeff Donnell; and the sweethearts of "Stage Door Canteen", Cheryl Walker, William Terry, Fred Brady and Margaret Early.

The title implies the fun and we're sure you'll be pleased with "3 Is a Family".

Dynamite set to music comes to the Crown Sunday and Monday in the form of "Nob Hill", Fox's Technicolor triumph starring George Raft (a swell guy), Joan Bennett, Vivian Blaine (State Fair) Blaine and Peggy Ann (Junior Miss) Garner.

In the excellent supporting cast are Alan (Falstaff Openshaw) Reed, Emil Coleman and Edgar (Phantom of the Opera) Barrier.

Now, we want to devote a little time to the job the motion picture has done, and is doing, to promote the cause of victory and peace.

Locally, the LaNora will feature a bond premier Friday, November 23, and admission to this premier will be only by the purchase of Victory bonds.

All over the nation, theatres are getting into the swing of the victory loan campaign. Studios are putting top flight stars into two-reelers, backing the cause of peace. Let's get behind them.

1946 Pontiac Is Now on Display

Motorists of this area are among the first in the nation to see the 1946 Pontiac models with the receiving of the first shipment by the Coffee Pontiac Co., located on the corner of Somerville and Francis streets.

On display at the Coffey Pontiac Co., is a 1946 blue sedan coupe which arrived Thursday, the first since 1942.

"This area always has been a 'prestige point' in Pontiac merchandising plans," D. U. Bathrick, general sales manager of Pontiac Motor division, declared in announcing the shipment. "That is why we are gratified in being able to show production-built models of our 1946 line here before the rest of the country gets a chance to see them."

Each dealer in this area has received one car. This policy is being carried out throughout the rest of the country by Pontiac in the interest of fairness. More cars will be shipped as soon as each of the approximately 3,000 Pontiac dealers has a 1946 model to display.

A preview look at the new Pontiac now on display reveals advanced styling which emphasizes a road-hugging appearance and plane-like contours. Dominated by the famed Silver Streak, the frontal appearance commands attention with its massive, flowing beauty, enhanced by a newly designed grille, relocated parking lamps and heavier bumpers extended in a sweeping curve to protect front fender skirts.

Our ancestors were different from the refugees of the present time. They came to this country with the pioneer spirit, but those who come to this country now come with outstretched hand. — Mrs. Julius Y. Talmadge, president - general, Daughters of the American Revolution.

Until we get a budgetary balance, it will not be good sense to make further and very substantial reductions in taxes.—Gastonia, N. C., Gazette.

OUR WAR'S OVER—BUT THEIRS ISN'T!

BUY EXTRA BONDS!

There's nothing but Peace, glorious Peace ahead for us.

But not for these men.

For them, now comes the Battle of Aching Nerve, the Battle of Despair, the Battle of Fear.

It is a fight we can help them win.

We can help them back to health. We can help them forget their fears. We can help them learn to walk. We can help them learn a trade . . . or help them start their own business.

And we can take care of the widows and orphans of their friends.

We can do all these things with our purchase of extra Bonds in this, the last Loan.

And, ironically enough, at the same time we're saying thanks to them for the way they fought for us, we can put money into our own pockets . . . for every dollar we put into Series "E" Victory Bonds brings back a quarter of a dollar interest when they mature.

Let's help these men. They deserve everything we can do for them after what they went through.

For this one last time,* let's really outdo ourselves to say, "Thanks,"— and to protect our own family's future.

* Following the Victory Loan, the sale of E, F, and G U. S. Savings Bonds will continue through regular authorization agencies and through the Payroll Savings Plan.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Nov. 10—(AP)—Speculative demand for a low-quoted utilities some of which came out in blocks running to 30,000 shares at peaks for almost nine years, again high-lighted today's stock market and lended to obscure declining tendencies displayed by many pivotals.

Optimism over tax relief and reported plans of some companies to seek amendments to recapitalization programs which would benefit holders of common stocks still served as a spur for the "penny" performers in the power group.

Registering in th e"new high" section were Commonwealth & Southern, once more the fastest mover; American Water Works, American Power Light, United Corp.; Republic Aviation and Childs Co. Support was accorded Standard Gas $4 preferred, American Telephone, Electric Power & Light and Santa Fe.

Bonds were narrow.

To all my friends and customers, I am changing the name of my studio from Pampa Studio to Qualls Pampa Studio. The reason for this change is many of my former customers have been mislead by a name similarity and have not been aware that I am operating the Pampa Studio.

I formerly operated the Pampa Studio for nine years in the Duncan building and then moved to West Foster Street where I am now doing business.

Shall the Ward Worker Boss Your Doctor?

MOST PEOPLE BELIEVE that the extension of Social Security benefits to more people is justified.

Under existing law, Employment Offices are maintained—under Federal and State control—to find jobs for the unemployed. Provisions are made for aid to the needy aged, the blind and for dependent children. Payments are made in cash.

To beneficiaries under the Social Security Act, compensation is paid during periods of unemployment. Payments are made in cash. Retirement benefits, death benefits for surviving relatives, monthly allotments for widows and dependent children, are provided. The payments are made in cash.

NEW CONCEPT IN SOCIAL SECURITY

The new Wagner-Murray-Dingell Bill would place in the hands of the Federal Government responsibility for providing medical care and hospitalization for all Social Security beneficiaries and their dependents. Authority is to be given a single political office holder to hire doctors and establish rates of pay; to control and operate hospitals and actually dispense medical care to 110,000,000 people. No cash payments are involved. In effect, the Federal Government would establish 100,000 retail establishments, man them and conduct the business of providing doctor, hospital and nursing services for the people.

Such procedure would involve making the doctor subordinate to the bureaucrat. It would mean the regimentation of the medical profession—if it worked. Actually, no laws could regiment the doctors. They could refuse to serve under conditions which would result in mechanical and ineffectual service—personal subserviency and professional deterioration.

However, consummation of the plans inevitably would result in absolute regimentation of the people as far as medical care is concerned. They would be forced by law, to accept such medical care as could be provided by the politically appointed bureaucrat.

Such a development could be a fatal step toward complete totalitarian control over the lives and destinies of all men.

DOCTOR REGIMENTATION MEANS LESS EFFECTIVE SERVICE

There are some people who really believe that in bureaucracy's vast pool of master minds there are individuals fully qualified to tell farmers what and how much they can sow and when and how to reap; other individuals competent to tell the oil wildcatter the size of the pipe and depth to which he is permitted to drill; and yet others with capacity to tell the newspaper editor what he can print and how he shall treat and headline his dispatches. It may be true.

No sane person can believe that any bureaucrat can direct the rendering of medical care without actual suicidal deterioration in the quality and effectiveness of the service that is provided. It is the ultimate in absurdities.

Unemployment benefits, Old Age benefits, protection for widows and orphans should be provided for all workers. But this is far different from having all people dependent on ward workers to select a doctor to treat a sick child. Such a condition is unthinkable.

Harvesters and Westerners Fight To 0-0 Tie in Lubbock

By BURKE MORDY

A powerful Lubbock Westerner eleven held the unbeaten Pampa Harvesters to a scoreless tie Friday afternoon at Tech stadium in a district 1AA conference game.

The Pampans, kept their record intact, however, by gaining a win through penetrations 4-1. The Westerner's strength was far superior in this game than pre-game dope indicated.

Pampa kicked off to Brewer who returned to the Lubbock 26. Brewer who was one of the finest backs the Harvesters have met this season, was constantly dangerous throughout the game. After an exchange of punts, Washington skirted left end for 12 yards to Lubbock's 40. A pass from Johnson was good for 10 several plays later to place the ball on the 26.

After being penalized to the 31 Washington again squirmed around end for a first down to the 15. A pass to Dunham was then incomplete. On the Lubbock 4. The Westerners took over after 3 more unsuccessful tries for a score.

Brewer continually picked up short gains during the second quarter and his interception of Johnson's pass from the Westerner 20 broke up another Harvester thrust. In the middle of the second period two straight passes, Brewer to Schmidt moved the ball to Lubbock 45. After Rampy had gone to Pampa's 36 Brewer hit Davis with a bullet throw to the Harvester 30. Another pass to Schmidt put the ball on the 18 for Lubbock's only penetration of the game. The Harvesters held then and took over on their own 16 four plays later. The half ended with Lubbock still threatening.

The third quarter began sluggishly with both teams intercepting several passes. Pampa failed to capitalize on one break when Johnson returned a poor punt to Lubbock's 48. On the next play spectacular down field blocking by Clay and the hipper-dipper type running by Washington moved the ball to the 20. Washington's leg was injured on this play and he was taken from the game after an afternoon of brilliant playing.

The fourth period began with a light drizzle. Clay and Neef powered to the 11. Two attempts from there failed for a first down and Lubbock took over. After a punt and a series of plays Wilson sneaked through for 10 and a first down on the 20. The Lubbock stalwarts again held and the game ended with both teams playing defensive ball.

Gorillas Trample Buffs Thursday

A fast, hard fighting Pampa Gorilla eleven downed the West Texas State High school Buffs 34-0 Thursday afternoon at 3:30 p. m. at Harvester Park.

The Gorillas attack was paced by the brilliant passing and running of Charles Laffoon and the hard running of Wayne Davidson. Carter and Russell for the opposing eleven showed up greatly with their long runs and plunges.

The ball game started with Earl Davis, for Pampa, kicking off, West Texas High ran for several good gains by Jennings, Russell and Carter but lost the ball on a pass interception by Lively. Laffoon and Davidson set the ball up for a touchdown from the one yard line when Davidson plunged over after two unsuccessful attempts. The rest of the quarter found neither team making any serious penetrations. . .

During the second quarter neither team was able to score with punts and short gains all that they could do. West Texas High kicked off after the half. Pampa gained another six points on a pass from Laffoon to Davis with the conversion being good. After several running plays of which neither eleven did much, Laffoon entercepted a pass and on the next play Warren Jones ran 50 yards to the Buffs' 10. A pass to Davis in the end zone from Laffoon made the third talley of the day. The extra point by Davis was wide.

The final period marked two more touchdowns for the Gorilla squad, both gained on running plays. Warren Jones ran 10 yards for the first six points of the last quarter with a pass from Laffoon to Lawrence Baines good for the extra point. Wayne Davidson gained the other on a long run. The extra point was run over.

'Steaming-Up' Rally Held On Football Field

Mr. Sherman White and District Attorney Walter Rogers were guest speakers at the "steaming-up" rally held Thursday afternoon at Harvester park in preparation for the Lubbock game.

The Gorillas were recognized and a yell given for their game with West Texas Demonstration school held Thursday.

The climax of the rally was the snake dance led by senior yell leader Erma Lee Kennedy, followed by a "Beat Lubbock" yell and the school song.

Borger Bulldogs Next Pampa Foe

The Borger Bulldogs are to be the Harvesters' third conference opponents Friday night in Borger.

The Bulldogs have improved a great deal over last year's team and the fans believe they make up the finest team Borger has ever had.

The Borger stadium, which has always fitted past needs, has been overflowing at every game this year so far. This shows that the Bulldogs' fans are behind the team with every ounce of their support.

The Bulldogs are fortunate to have one of the finest passers in this district—Price. He is the boy that had a lot to do with the Bulldogs handing a defeat to the Lubbock Westerners earlier in the season.

The Plainview team had to pass their way out of many holes to win over the rugged Borger defense Nov. 3. Amarillo was held earlier to a 21-0 score, one of their lowest this season. The Bulldogs have weight speed, good pass receivers, good kickers, and experience to back up their vaunted passing attack.

Many people will go to Borger this year with the feeling that the Bulldogs will be a pushover for the Harvesters, but it will be a rough game. Until the whistle blows at the end of it, the game will not be won.

Junior Red Cross Drive In Progress

Students of Pampa High last week responded to the Junior Red Cross drive with $48.15. The goal, to be met by Nov. 15, is 10 cents per student or 100 per cent participation.

In connection with the work of the Red Cross, the students of Pampa and Lefors recently prepared 200 gift boxes. These boxes were sent to the needy children overseas. The preparation of these boxes in Pampa High was under the supervision of Mrs. E. O. Stroup.

Plans were made in a recent meeting of the local chapter of the Junior Red Cross, under the chairmanship of Mrs. H. A. Yoder, to make gifts for veteran hospitals. Some of these plans are holiday menus, duffel bags and tables.

The menus will be prepared by the art classes of junior high and the home rooms in the ward schools. The first of these cards will be for Christmas.

The homemaking classes will make the duffel bags, while the shops will make the tables. Priorities can be obtained for the needed materials for these projects.

The money which will be donated by the students is put into a children's fund. This money is to be used in connection with children in war torn countries.

Miss Roy Riley is the Pampa head of production of these projects, while Mrs. Russell West is in charge of packing and shipping them. Mrs. J. B. White is the head of the local American Red Cross office.

New equipment for the stage of PHS will be discussed at a school board meeting Monday, Knox Kinard, superintendent, announced last week.

Y OFFICERS—Ramona Matheny, who was recently elected president of Tri-Hi-Y and Dick McCune, who heads the Hi-Y.

Homeroom Made Up Of Three Classes

The machine shop home room, taught by Mr. W. Adams, consists of 18 boys from all classes except freshman.

Sometimes, because it is in another building, the boys feel like the forgotten class. They often miss announcements and are surprised when they see other students doing something they haven't heard of.

Jimmy Crownover is president; Don Elson, vice president; and Aldis Bettis is secretary.

The boys are planning a skating party which is to be held Nov. 16 in the gym.

When Neal Webb, class member, was asked how he liked the room, he replied, "I like being in this room better than I would like being in the building. Everyone else out here feels the same way I do."

All the boys are in one of the two shop classes; one lasting three hours in the morning and the other three hours in the afternoon. They make backstops for the girls and all the signs which go around the building. They also make the signs and street signs that go around the building.

Last Armistice Failed

On November 11, 1918, the world started on what it thought was the road to lasting peace. Today we are having to retrace our steps.

The way is being cluttered already, however, by dissatisfaction. Men are still fighting in some parts of the world. Racial problems are becoming serious. Industries are closing down because of strikes.

Let's make sure that this time there is no mistake by promoting tolerance and friendliness, and by taking a vital interest in world affairs.

—J. H.

Give To the Victory Loan

Now that the war is over students are asking, "Why should I give my money and time to a victory loan drive? The war is over and it won't be needed."

The need is more urgent now than ever before, as it takes millions of dollars to get the boys home and the occupation troops distributed. One of the main objectives is to get all the many wounded men well and home. The best doctors in the world are being used toward this end.

Relief for the conquered countries and the families whose homes and businesses have been destroyed is another use for these funds.

Thus the question is answered. Let's all do our part to back the Victory Bond Drive, and also become members of the Junior Red Cross.

PHS Band Is High in Contest

The Harvester band made the highest grade at the marching contest held by the Texas Music Educators association at Canyon last week.

Out of a possible 100 points, the green and gold band made a nearly perfect 99.8. The only other class A entry was the Amarillo high school band, which made a grade of 96. Other bands were entered from Perryton, Amarillo junior high, Tucumcari, Clarendon, Canyon Drum and Bugle Corps, Hereford, Kellerville, White Deer, Canyon, Phillips, and Dalhart.

The contest was held in connection with the annual Homecoming Day celebration at West Texas, when the Buffalo football team won over the Dalhart AAF 21-0.

The band won 35 points on playing, 15 points on general effect, 10 points on inspection, 10 points on cadence, and five points on discipline, carriage, alignment, required movement and special maneuver.

Mr. Ray Robbins is the director of the organization.

Judges for the contest were D. O. Wiley, Texas Tech, Lubbock; Major Ed Chennette, Shamrock; and Cpl. Fred Rattan, Amarillo Army air field, Amarillo.

Guard Presents Program, Speaker

Jimmy Crouch was the victim of a simulated outburst of fire in assembly Wednesday and was promptly swathed in bandages by Don Larkin, Neal Keyes, Phillip Connor, Cecil Link, John Wells, John Hall, and Bill Buchanon, medics of the State Guard.

Following the medics show of efficiency in bandaging and transporting their patient, Lt. Charles Maderia of the Guard spoke to the student body about Texas and the importance of the State Guard units.

"Texas will be more active in the next twenty years than it has ever been. This means plenty of jobs; so let me advise you to prepare well for the future that will soon be yours," he said. "We must be prepared against race riots, hurricanes, cyclones and other disasters because tragedy occurs where it is least expected."

Maderia also praised the work of the Guard and stressed the need of more members in the Pampa unit.

Billy Russell, Guard member, acted as master of ceremonies.

Skating parties seem to be the most popular type of entertainment in PHS. Two groups gave such parties last week and three will be given this week.

Last Wednesday and Thursday the choir and room 105 had skating parties and next Monday, Thursday and Friday room 104, the Spanish Club and the Machine Shop will have their parties.

Special Assembly To Be Featured November 16 In Pampa High 'B' Day

November 16 has been designated as Bond Day in Pampa high school. Our quota is $8,000.

A contest will be held between the home rooms with the winning room being treated to ice cream on the stage before the whole student body.

Ten teachers will be stationed on the stage to take the names and money of the applicants. Bonds of all sizes and numbers can be bought with emphasis on the E bonds.

After the first period, students will go to their home rooms where a solicitor will take care of all stamp sales. When the bell rings, everyone is to go to assembly where bond sales will be taken. Bonds will not be delivered until Monday morning, as the applications must be filled out at the Post Office.

Entertainment for the morning will be under the leadership of Frank Green and Jack Dunham.

Personal solicitation is the only thing that will put our sale over the top. Let's everyone do our part to help reach our goal.

Qualifications For National Honor Society Explained

In order that PHS students may be aware of the standards of the National Honor Society, the following qualifications have been listed by the organization.

Membership is based on character, scholarship, service, and leadership. Candidates eligible for membership must rank in the first third of their respective classes in scholarship. The student must have spent at least one year in Pampa high school. Not more than fifteen per cent of the senior class nor more than five per cent of the junior class may be chosen as members.

The purpose of the Honor Society is to hold up the objectives before the school as goals, toward which all should shrive.

Character is the ability to decide correctly whether a question is right or wrong. It is the sum of your thoughts, deeds and words.

Scholarship is learning the love of knowledge. Students attitude toward his work counts more than his grades. Scholarship is the power of the mind to dispel ignorance by searching for the truth.

Service comes from using the qualities of character, scholarship and leadership. Service should be rendered willingly. Service is the beginning and end of education.

Leadership requires a person willing to assume responsibilities. A leader must express his own ideas and carry out those of others. Leadership is that magnetic power of personality which influence individuals or groups to act in their own interest.

Any student that does his best to carry out the above standards will be eligible for membership in the National Honor Society.

New members will be selected by the faculty in the spring.

November 19 Last Day For Pictures

Students! Teachers! We just heard what happened in a school in New Mexico. Since we don't want it to happen to us, we decided to pass it on to you.

Some students in New Mexico wouldn't have their pictures for the annual made; so the editor got an artist student to draw most unflattering pictures of them and they were put in the annual. When Erma Lee Kennedy and Alberta Williams, editors of the Harvester, heard this story, they began to get that "devilish gleam" in their eyes. So have your pictures made!

The freshman schedule is Rankin, Monday, Nov 12; Rusk, Tuesday Nov. 13; Stroup, Wednesday Nov. 14; Davis, Thursday, Nov.15; George, Friday, Nov. 16; and Howell, Monday, Nov. 19.

Saturdays will be make-up days. November 19 is absolutely the last day any pictures can be made.

R. H. Saunders, Lubbock representative of the Steck Co., was here Wednesday to check with the editors on the annual's progress.

Most Feature Stories Start With Laughs

When a class laughs there is usually a story connected with it, a fact which the following incidents prove.

In the Latin class, Mrs. Owen said that Latin was supposed to be a dead language. One bright boy remarked, "Is that why we're so close to the graveyard?"

Mr. B. G. Gordon came to the rescue when a mouse nearly devoured Mrs Sanford, home economics teacher, recently. She opened a drawer and out popped a little mouse. Mrs. Sanford ran screaming out the door and was stopped by Mr. Gordon.

Dr. Lorraine Bruce, after explaining a solid geometry problem to the largest solid class ever enrolled in PHS, had just about given up because so many people had been asking questions.

Then Virgil Fish, large Harvester football tackle, who likes to know the "whys" and "wherefores" said, "Well, that question is so hard I can't even think of a good question to ask."

Candler Elected Senior Treasurer Wednesday

Beverly Candler was elected treasurer of the senior class in a meeting held Wednesday.

Don Rowe, social chairman, selected Jack Dunham, Erma Lee Kennedy and Martha Kelley as members of his committee.

Jack Dunham picked Jack Hood for the chairman of the assembly committee with Randall Clay, Frances Mathieu and Pat Miller as his assistants. The senior class program will be presented Dec. 12.

Poems for Anthology To Be Sent By Jones

Miss Anna Louise Jones has announced that students may submit manuscripts to be sent to the "Anthology of High School Poetry," an annual booklet for the best poetry by high schools over the United States.

If a student is interested in writing a poem for submission, he must obey the following rules: Put the following statement on each entry: 'The verse entitled '_____' is my own personal effort." On the next line, he must sign his name and following that, the name of the high school. Each entry must be on a separate page. He must also list his home address. Miss Jones will take the entries in room 102.

Last year there were three winning poems from our school. They were "Imposters" by John Robert Lane which appeared in the state book and later in the national book; Jean Paxson's "Girl's Reply to Robert Herrick" was a humorous poem which appeared in the state book; and Aurenia White's "Magic Artist" also appeared in the state book.

The closing date for entries is Dec. 5.

Speech Class Learns Phonetic Sounds

Notes in queer writing resembling code seen in PHS are not related to subversive activities, but are the phonetic symbols being used by Miss Ruth Stapleton's speech class.

Since phonetics are universal, a Russian, Frenchman, or German could write sentences in this form which could be translated by the speech students. Phonetics are used by war correspondents to enable news commentators to pronounce otherwise unreadable foreign names.

Movie actors and actresses use these symbols to secure a Cockney, French, Spanish, or English accent.

There is a move on at present to change our spelling to the symbol system. It is impossible to misspell words in phonetics since the person writes only the syllables which he hears.

Girls' Mental Capacity Greatest Vacuum Ever

By GENE CUMMINS

(Ed. Note—This essay was written in answer to an anonymous essay, "The Boy," which Mrs Torvie read to her junior English classes.)

A girl is a creature whose mental capacities are either the greatest vacuum ever discovered or one whose feeble facilities are constantly under going a stage of reconversion.

Webster says (whether it was Noah or Daniel or neither is disputed) that a woman is a bundle of procrastination and vanity easily recognized by flamboyancy, acrobatic eyebrows, and technicolor faces; they may at one time or another possess tendencies of all three.

These wily feline creatures have since the beginning of time succeeded in convincing the vulnerable male that two can live as cheaply as one; which is true (two men can live as cheaply as one woman); yet we frequently speak of them as the weaker sex.

Woman takes oath on her betrothal to "love, honor and cherish through sickness till death do us part" though it usually culminates with her getting sick and tired of the "old man" and parting—his skull in the middle.

These Amazons with the inflated ego so delight in emoting on illnesses and operations that I firmly believe, were it not for that much respected member of their species—Emily Post—they would invite the public to their opening.

Men call them a variety of names —some of which are so filled with emotion that I decline to write them for fear of the possibility of their melting the paper and obscuring what is already written.

Sagebrush-- by the Sage

Going steady seems to be the rage these days. Some of the newest steadies are: Gene Sidwell and Margaret Price, Jack Dunham and June Cummins, Charlie Riggin and Mildred Groves, Jim Wilson and Marion Wenger, Billy Washington and Barbara Coonrod and Jimmy Cox and Virginia McNaughton.

Who is the cowboy June Myatt has been raving over these past few weeks?

Max Hukill and Angela Duncan have been seen going down the halls together.

Ivan Marlin is trying to keep his desire to go with Doris Flood under his hat, but Sage and his buddies know all, see all, and tell all!

Ramona Matheny has a dream boy she won't reveal. He happens to be a senior in PHS.

Mr. Carter, our newest addition to the faculty, has already established a reputation as being strictly Navy along with having wit and more wit. Because he thinks Virgil Fish should run for senator Virgil's new name is "Senator."

While looking through some old Pampa News, the following article was found written by Max Hukill to Santa Claus on Dec. 18, 1939.

"I want a football suit. The pants are size 28. The helmet, I want a red and black one. I want the shoulder pads, too. I want the two pieced ones. I want a shirt too. A white and blue one."

Yours truly,
Max Hukill

Harold Anderson and Betty Barrett really look cute together. Since everyone would like to see more of them, what are you waiting on Harold?

It seems that someone had a misunderstanding about the peace treaty of Anita Lane and Jean Pruett. As yet, neither Jean nor Anita have given up.

At the beginning of the physics test Monday morning, Miss Bruce said she surely did feel sorry for Dick McCune because he had such a terrible cold. Dick, answering in a husky voice, said, "Well, I just hope you feel sorry when you grade this test!"

"Porky" Parkinson says that he he is deeply in love with some dream girl. Wonder who it is?

Miss Bruce seems to have a number of brilliant and witty students, for Tiny Hobart, a member of the sixth period plane geometry class asks, "Miss Bruce, how do you know parallel lines are parallel lines? No one's gonna stretch them all the way around the world to see if they're gonna meet."

Jo Ann Codlin seems to have no trouble getting over Bob Keller. Now her heart throb is Richard Schieg. Richard seems to have no objections.

Have you noticed the wolfish gleam in Erma Lee Kennedy's eye since she has been going with Buddy Price?

Two members of the student council will visit other high schools each month to determine how their schools and activities are conducted, council members decided Tuesday.

The representitives will report to the council on their trips. This project is being undertaken by the council to find new ideas for the school. Members to go will be elected by the council.

The schools that will be visited are Highland Park and Sunset in Dallas; Riverside, Carter and Northside in Fort Worth; Classen and Central in Oklahoma City.

Jackie Dunham, student council vice president, was elected to serve as November Junior Rotarian by council members Tuesday.

Jack is active in all school functions. He has represented his home rooms in the student council for three years and is serving as vice president and assembly chairman this year. He served as president of the junior class and also the A Cappella choir last year.

Jack will meet with the members of the Rotary Club during the month of November. During the first meeting, Jack will speak to the Rotarians on some phase of life in PHS.

Arlene Proctor and Dick McCune were appointed to work with the public relations and assembly committees in supporting the Victory Loan Drive in PHS to be held this month.

A bonfire and all-school social preceding the Amarillo game is being planned by the council members.

Boys, How About Italy For Life of Ease, Rest

By WANDA COBB

Boys, if you desire a life of ease, how about going to Italy—the land where the women work and the men watch. GI's returning from the Italian theater have brought back tales of the southern European customs. The field work of this country is left up to the women, and they carry everything upon their heads.

However, the men are considerate. After a woman fills a sack full of corn from the fields, a man will place it upon her head and follow along behind carrying nothing.

Women also walk the long distances necessary to secure water. The kettle or bottle holds about five gallons and a girl or woman can carry these full up and down steep, rough streets balanced on their heads and still carry an armload of other things. It is nothing unusual to see a woman carrying a sewing machine or fifty-gallon metal barrel on her head, the returned soldier says.

In the days of shoe rationing it might be a good idea to live in Italy. The women wear no shoes or shoes with wooden soles while having only a few straps to hold them on.

The richer class, of course has everything much different. It holds all of the jobs and so it can afford the luxuries the peasants lack.

Italy far exceeds the United States in the beauty of its churches, our soldiers state. Even though she walks barefoot, carries water on her head, and works in the field, the Italian women can point with pride at the architecture and grandeur of her cathedrals.

New Pledges Briefed In Tri-Hi-Y Meeting

Briefing new pledges and electing Elva Jean Anderson program chairman constituted the business session at Tri-Hi-Y Monday night.

An assembly program and party are to be given by the pledges in the near future.

Members and pledges attending were: Ramona Matheny, Erma Lee Kennedy, Reba Bain, Marjie Taylor, Beverly Baker, Bunnie Shelton, Jean Pratt, Edith Mae Morrow, Patsy Fierson, Anita Lane, Alverna Miller, Jeannine Conyers, Marjorie Lawrence, Betty Barrett, Margaret Price, Bertha Mae Killion, and Marjorie Dixon.

Lost and Found Full Of Interesting Relics

Have you lost anything since Sept. 6? From the looks of the lost and found drawer in Mrs. Lou Robert's office, many of you would like to regain possession of those "long lost valuables."

Keys rank first on the "lost list." The drawer includes twelve door keys and one car key, six locks, eight coin purses, six bill folds, six fountain pens, five eversharps, and numerous pencils.

Girls, from your dressing tables do you miss lipsticks, compacts, hair ribbons, combs, or rouge? These articles are in large quantities in the lost and found.

Perhaps your jewelry box misses rings, bracelets, necklesses, ear rings or beads. These are the things every girl regrets losing. Don't you know where to look for them?

A girl's rain coat, gloves, ear muffs head scarfs and other things which will be needed this winter can also be found there.

If you have lost any things, go to the lost and found. The trouble is worth the satisfaction.

1—Card of Thanks

CARD OF THANKS

We stand ofttimes in the deep shadows of grief, longing for comfort, yearning for love while Christ is close beside us, closer than any human friend can be. If only we will dry our tears, and look up into His face, believing, our soul shall be flooded with His wonderful love and our sorrows shall be swallowed up in the fullness of joy. There is never the least doubt about the presence of Christ in our times of trouble; it is only because we remain unaware of the presence that we are not comforted.

The Eternal God is thy refuge and underneath are the everlasting arms. Deuteronomy 33:27.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our many dear friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness extended us in the recent loss of our beloved husband and father. For the beautiful floral offerings and words of comfort which did so much to help us bear our grief. May God's richest blessings be with each of you.

Few Government Conirols Placed On Automobiles

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10 —(AP)— Are you going to wait your turn and pay only the regular ceiling price on a new car?

Or—because they won't be rationed and so many people want them—will you try to slip the dealer something extra to sell you one?

There'll be no government controls except for the ceiling prices which OPA will announce in a few days.

Evasion of the ceilings are a violation of the law. They're punishable by fines or imprisonment.

Assuming that the majority of dealers will play fair, this story will speak of those who might not.

Ceilings can be evaded with the connivance of a customer or by a dealer taking advantage of a customer's desire for a new car. It would work like this:

1. By side payments or bonuses. In addition to the regular ceiling price, the customers would pay the dealer for the privilege of getting a new car.

2. Unreasonable trade-in allowance. A dealer could give a customer far too little on a used car traded in for a new one and then sell the used car at a big profit.

3. Upgrading. A dealer could charge a more expensive car price for a cheaper car. For instance: by calling a coupe a cabriolet and charging a cabriolet price.

4. By selling a place in line. For instance: A dealer tells Jones, 87th on the list for a new car, that maybe Smith, 3rd in line, will let him take his place because Smith doesn't want a new car now. But Smith charges Jones $100 for letting him take his place. Yet all the time Smith is in cahoots with the dealer.

Already a lot of people have made down payments on the new cars which haven't reached the dealers yet.

Harvey Diamond, chief of OPA's automotive enforcement branch, says it is useless before sales are completed to try to learn whether these down-payments are really side-payments or bonuses.

But Diamond says OPA will move in when the sales start and begin checking on dealers.

The gondolas of Venice are required by law to be black. Before this law was enacted (1562) they were of many colors and often had gold embroideries on their awnings.

Pampa Minister Speaks at Miami

MIAMI, Nov. 10—Rev. Edgar W. Henshaw, of Pampa, was guest speaker for the Men's Service Club Tuesday evening in Fellowship Hall of the Methodist church.

"Preparedness" was the speaker's subject, particularly in reference to universal military training which he advocated as a means to prevent future wars for our country.

Guests present were Mark Arrington, Rev. J. M. Smith, Mrs. Henshaw and Mrs. R. B. Haynes, and Mr. Pennington, and Leland Ethel. Group singing was participated in before the meal with Miss Juanita Haynes at the piano, and two special solos were given by Leland Ethel.

A report from the USO drive committee was made showing we had gone over the top as usual.

About thirty were present.

A steak supper and all the trimmings was served.

As many as 291 different items or pieces of materials are used in making a single pair of leather shoes.
