LUNCHEON CLUB

LONELLE GABEL DIES LAST THURSDAY MORNING

Several teachers have been attending institutes and summer schools in East Texas and will be given credit, but a majority is expected to go to Lubbock.

The teachers of the Lamesa schools are not required to attend this institute.

Lamesa has two more games in the Sand Belt schedule; Colorado here, and Midland at Midland.

AMERICAN LEGION TO HAVE PROGRAM SEPT. 2

There will be a small admission charge of 10c and 20c. Ladies admitted free with one paid ticket.

LONELLE GABEL DIES LAST THURSDAY MORNING

Mrs. Gabel was at the bedside of her mother, who was seriously ill in Swenson, when Lonelle was taken ill and the doctors advised Mrs. Gabel to bring her home. They arrived here Wednesday night.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Church of Christ with Rev. H. P. Cooper officiating. Interment was in the Lamesa cemetery.

Flower gifts were Mary Francis Wilkerson, Billy Jim Lott, Mildred Wilson, Fred Ella Herndon, Maxine McMahan, and Betty Jean White.

Honorary Pall Bearers were Stanley Wilkes, James Smith, Agnes Wages, Travis Simpson and Pall Bearers were: Jack Phinizy, Frank Jones, Sam Delmont, Roscoe Holton, M. Hatch, Grover Wilkes, F. T. McCollum, and V. Z. Rogers.

Out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Norris and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Norris and children and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Norris and children, all of Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith and family of Abilene and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thompson of Snyder.

CAUTION ABOUT PAYING
POST OFFICE MONEY ORDERS

During recent months there have been a great many blank money order forms stolen from various offices in Texas and other states which are being forged and passed in considerable numbers, according to Postmaster J. D. Dyer. The scheme generally used is to make a small purchase, usually at a drug store or grocery store at hours when the post office is not open, then present the forged order in payment and receive the difference in cash from the clerk. Three forged orders were cashed at Big Spring just a few days back in this way. Mr. Dyer states that business men cashing orders should have positive identification as to the genuineness of the order as well as of the person to whom they are making payment.

STATE HIGHWAY PATROL
WARNS ABOUT CAR LIGHT

In one week Reaves and his partner, E. C. Dorris, checked 582 cars with defective lighting systems. Light cars and trucks cause more trouble than other classes of vehicles, the officer said.

TEN DOLLARS IN GOLD WILL BE GIV-EN TO LUCKY WOMAN

man will stand behind one peg and pitch at the other, "ringers" will count 5 points, leaners 3 points, and the closest shoe to the peg will count at 10:00 and 11:00 a. m. and at 1:00

2:00 and 3: 00 p. m., with the finals at 4:00 o'clock.

In case of a tie, the judges will arrange to have the tying contestants pitch off the tie for first place. So remember ladies, this is a contest of skill, and now is the time for you to gather up your horse shoes and get busy pitching them at a stob, a fraction of an inch may mean the winning or losing the gold prize.

In accordance with the low, special prices, the merchants of Lamesa are offering to the people, the Courier is offering 25 cents for horse shoes brought to our office, if they are applied on subscriptions, accompanied by 25 cents. If you are already getting the Courier, perhaps there is someone in your family who would like to get it, or a neighbor, or friends. If there is anyone in Dawson or Gaines counties that you know of who is not getting the Courier, bring in a horse shoe and 25 cents, we will then send the Courier for one year, providing the one to receive it lives in Dawson or Gaines counties.

Due to the early indications, there will be hundreds of women here on Monday, September 5th, to enter the horse shoe pitching contest, and in order to make it possible for all women to enter, it is necessary to put an age limit on contestants, to keep down the number of entries, therefore, only women sixteen years of age and over are eligible to enter this contest. Remember the date, and come to Iamea, and enjoy the sports of the day.

RODEO AT ABILENE ON LABOR DAY

An automobile equipped with all kinds of radio gadgets such as amplifiers and loudspeakers and receiving sets was the center of attraction for a short time here Monday afternoon, its main purpose being to advertise, and invite attendance for a rodeo to be held at Abilene Monday, September 5th.

The rodeo is to be part of the Labor Day celebration under the direction of the Abilene American-Lexington post and the labor union. A number of cash prizes are being offered, and princesses from the various towns will be royally entertained.

Though O'Donnell does not plan to send a princess, a number of local people who have friends or relatives there are making plans to attend the festivities.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Melton New ust 30.

Mrs. J. W. Paterson and daughter Ruth and Faye, of San Angelo, visited Mrs. A. G. Barnard a few days this week. Mary Francis Barnard accompanied them to Plainview Wednesday for a visit.

Bread And Butter Pickles
25 large cucumbers
12 onions (white medium)
¼ cup salt
1 pt. cider vinegar

2 cups sugar
2 T mustard seed white
2 T ginger
2 T tumeric powder

Let unpeeled cucumbers stand in water over night. Then slice cucumbers and onions and place in pan with the salt (no water). Let stand one hour, then rinse off salt, add vinegar, sugar, mustard seed, ginger and tumeric powder. Boil all ingredients until peel turns yellow (about 40 minutes). Pack pickles solid in sterilized jars and allow to stand 10 days before using. Use small glass jars 1 pint or ½ pints for pickles.

Mock Olives

Mock Olives may be made from unripened plums. The plums when just beginning to ripen, but still green should be pickled in a brine made with 1 pound of salt and 1 gallon of water. Pour this, hot over the fruit and allow it to stand for 36 hours. It should then be poured off. Place the fruit in a new brine and boil for one minute. Drain the plums, place into jars, cover with hot brine. Seal and process pint jars for thirty minutes in a water bath.

MAGNOLIA ANNOUNCES NEW "CLIMATIC CONTROL" GAS

"Climatic Control" is being made available for the first time to local motorists with the introduction of "Mobilgas" by the Magnolia Petroleum Company, according to Bernie Holt, Magnolia Agent, at his station on North First Street.

This new motor fuel, Mr. Holt said, provides an entirely new quality in gasoline which has been designated as "Climate Control", descriptive of the fact that Mobilgas manufacturing specifications have been preadjusted to meet variations in climatic and driving conditions.

Every car owner has observed how sensitive the engine in his automobile is to changes in the weather conditions. We have all experienced difficulty in starting on cold mornings, or loss of power from a "starved" motor in hot weather, Mr. Holt explained. These symptoms indicate that the gasoline used is not adapted to the climatic conditions in which the car is being operated.

Climatic conditions cannot be controlled, but Magnolia has succeeded through preadjustment of manufacturing specifications to produce a gasoline under all driving conditions and changes in the weather. This is being done at Magnolia refineries in the manufacture of Mobilgas.

DESCRIPTION OF CHRIST

The following epistle is said to have been taken by Napoleon from the records of Rome when he deprived that city of so many valuable manuscripts. It was written at the time and on the spot where Jesus commenced his ministry, by Publius Lentius, Governor of Judea, to the senate of Rome, Caesar, emperor. It was the custom in those days for the governor to write home any events that transpired while he held office.

Conscript Fathers: In these our days appeared a man named Jesus Christ, who is yet living among us, and of the Gentiles is accepted as a prophet of great truth but his own disciples call him the Son of God. He hath raised the dead and cured all manner of diseases. He is a man of stature somewhat tall and comely, with a ruddy countenance such as the beholder may both love and fear. His hair is the color of a filbert ripe, plain to his ear, whence downward it is more of orient color, curling and waving on his shoulders; in the middle seam of long hair, after the manner of Nazarites. His forehead is plain and delicate; the face without spot or wrinkle, beautiful with a comely red; his nose and mouth are exactly formed; his beard is the color of his hair and thick, not of any length but forked.

In reproving he is terrible; in admonishing, courteous; in speaking, very modest and wise; in proportion of body, well shaped. None have seen him laugh, many have seen him weep. A man for his surpassing beauty excelling the children of men.

No other fame can be compared with that of Jesus. He has a place in the human heart that no one who ever lived has in any measure revealed. No name is pronounced with a tone of such love and veneration. All other laurels wither before His. His are ever kept fresh with tears of gratitude.

GUILD AWARDS 4 SCHOLARSHIPS

Dan Beard and Noted Educators Attend Climax of Coach-Building Competition

DETROIT, Mich., August 26—One hundred and seven boy craftsmen are en route to their widely-scattered homes today, after nearly a week of festivity at the second annual convention of the Fisher Body Craftsmen's Guild here. The climax of the convention was the announcement of the four winners of $5,000 university scholarships of four years each.

These winners, Frans Ibsch, of Columbus, Wis., Fred Friedrich, of Rochester, N. Y., Raymond Smith, of Lawton, Okla., and Gordon Drummond, of Washington, D. C., had the unusual experience, during the award dinner, of greeting their mothers and fathers, over a nationwide radio hook-up, the man to introduce them to the radio audience being none other than Floyd Gibbons himself.

An official welcome from Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of General Motors, messages of congratulation from W. A. Fisher, president of the Guild, and from R. S. McLaughlin, president of the Canadian Guild organization, in tribute to the 82-year-old leader of boys, whose presence distinguished the convention, the entire banquet audience rose and gave loud applause. The convention program combined education and recreation, giving the boys a chance to shine in fields other than craftsmanship, for a change. They visited the Ford Greenfield Village which houses Thomas Edison's reconstructed shops, the General Motors Proving Ground, and many other spots of special interest. Announcement was made that the Guild's third year would open in September, and all boys between 12 and 20 were invited to enter the competition.

Mrs. M. O. Grant of Amarillo is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wright Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stout and son, have returned to their home in McKinney after a visit here with Mrs. Stout's mother, Mrs. Will Lamb, and other relatives.

FINEST IN THE FIELD

a Terror to the Weeds

CLEAN fields, free of weeds, give the young corn plants the right start—so necessary for rapid and healthy growth and large yields. There's no finer machine for this job than the Case 2-Row Lister Cultivator. Its wide range of easy-to-make adjustments saves time and effort—insures the cleanest work under all conditions. Operating levers are right handy, yet never in the way. Pivoting seat bar arms permit accurate following of non-parallel rows. Extra long shields, (exclusive Case feature) hold back excessive dirt; prevent covering of the small corn. Keeps clods off the row. Wide arc of adjustment for shovel beams. Be sure to see this crop-booster; also, the Case 3-Row Lister Cultivator.

BIG ANNUAL REUNION

The Emfinger home in the Klondike community was the scene of enjoyable barbecue dinner, an annual affair in honoring the mother of the Emfinger sons and daughters and their children.

"Search the proud annals of proud Rome and Greece, The tombs of war, the chronicles of peace, Ransack the old and modern rolls of fame, To fit the brightest splendor on a name—"

The name above all names is Mother. The experience of the ages have taught us that the greatest word is God; the deepest word is soul; the longest word is eternity; the swiftest word is time; the nearest word is now; the darkest word is sin; the meanest word is hypocrisy; the broadest word is truth; the strongest word is right; the tenderest word is love; the sweetest word is home; and the dearest word is Mother.

Let me tell you a story, its setting clustering around the tenderest not on the keyboard of the human heart—Mother.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Emfinger, some miles in the country south of Lamesa, out in the Klondike section, on Thursday, August 4th, there was a notable gathering, almost a hundred people, sons and daughters, and grandsons and granddaughters, and a great grandson and many great granddaughters, a great family reunion to do honor and reverence to the mother of the Emfinger generation, Mrs. W. J. Emfinger, of Mary Neal, Nolan County, Texas. This old mother is sixty-nine years of age not old as we count age, but by reason of physical affliction is a "shut-in".

As I talked with this good old mother, the words of the Wise Man, "She openeth her mouth with wisdom, and in her tongue is the law of kindness," came to me, and as I fourth generation, assembled to do looked on her descendants to the her honor, remembered that Solomon also said, "Her children rise up and call her blessed."

Those present in addition to the local Emfinger family, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Emfinger, the host and hostess and their two children, were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cook and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Elvie Emfinger and their two children; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Emfinger and daughter, of the Klondike community.

From a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Childers and three children, from Monument, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Woodie Childers and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Yewell Childers, and daughter of Hobbs, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Reeves and baby of Lovington, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Emfinger of Littlefield, Texas; Mrs. Frank Smith and five children of Eunice, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Hayhurst and four children of Mary Neal, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wetzel and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wetzel and four children of Ackerly, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Flowers of Lamesa, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Morris and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Childers and two children of Wynate, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Coates, and four children of Waco, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Martin and baby of Mary Neal, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Emfinger and four children of Cuthbert, Texas; Mrs. Roy Dillon and three children of Sweetwater, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Emfinger of Midland, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Doss, of Sudan, Texas.

In addition to the above, there were present, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Tuckness, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Crawford and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Helm, Mr. and Mrs. George Holley and Joe H. Foster from the Klondike community, Mr. O. M. Murphy of the Wilson community, Mr. Davis, a merchant from Lamesa, and Buster Kinder of Dayton, Texas.

At one o'clock, a barbecue dinner, with bread, cakes, pies, pickles, jellies, relishes, and a sixty-three gallon barrel of iced tea, and coffee in a great quantity, were served to those who gathered around the festal board—it was a busy scene for an hour, and the more one saw of the motions of that eating crowd, the less one saw of the viands that graced the table. And of the fragments there was enough left to feed two more hungry crowds as large, and then some would be left.

The host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Emfinger proved themselves entertainers of no mean merit and their guests all were loud in praise of their abundant hospitality.

A special feature of the occasion was a religious service in the afternoon, conducted by Mr. J. W. Emfinger, an elder of a congregation in the Church of Christ at Littlefield, Texas, who used as the basis of his talk the third chapter of Colossians, emphasizing especially the thought of the seventeenth verse:—"And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord, Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him."

Editor's Note—The above account of the Emfinger family reunion was contributed by the Courier's good friend, Joe H. Foster, whose address is box 221, Route A, Lamesa, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Nibblett entertained the people of this community with a dance Saturday night of last week.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

(By REV. P. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago)
(© 1932, Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for September 4

EVILS OF INTEMPERANCE

GOLDEN TEXT—Do not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, nor thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations.

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 5.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Evil of Drunkenness.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Wise Man Gives a Warning.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Why Obey the Law?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Observing and Enforcing Law.

I. Israel, the Favored Nation (vv. 1-7).

This nation's unique relation to God is presented under the figure of a vineyard. Observe:

1. God's peculiar favor (vv. 1, 2). God did for this nation what He did for no other nation in the history of the world. He fenced it when He assigned the boundaries of Israel's inheritance. (Num. 34:1-13.) He gathered out the stones when the Canaanites were exterminated. The choicest vine planted therein was the Israelitish nation which had gone through the disciplinary process in Egyptian bondage. He built a tower in it when under David Jerusalem was made its capital city.

2. The obligation of the nation (v. 2). The purpose of a vineyard is to bring forth grapes. The purpose of God in selecting and blessing the Israelitish nation was that it might bring forth fruit to His glory.

3. It bore only wild grapes (v. 4). Instead of sweet, luscious grapes, they bore grapes of a sour and unwholesome kind. How aptly this symbolizes Israel's life!

4. The desolation of the vineyard (vv. 5-7). Since all efforts had been wasted, the owner of the vineyard now resolved to abandon it. He purposed to take away the fences and leave it exposed to wild beasts, to be wasted and devoured by them.

II. The Sins Which Brought Ruin to Israel (vv. 8-23).

The causes of this destruction are presented under six woes, each woe pronounced against a particular sin:

1. Monopoly and oppression of the poor (vv. 8-10). The crime against which the first woe is directed is that of avaricious grasping after property which leads to the accumulation of wealth in the hands of the few. "Joining house to house and laying field to field" means the sin of the greedy monopolist who buys up the land on every side and ejects the small land holder. In the agricultural district it takes the form of the "land grabber." In the commercial centers it takes the form of the big man crushing out the small ones. This state of affairs met God's judgment in Judea, as seen in vv. 9 and 10, and one day it shall do likewise in America.

2. Dissipation (vv. 11-17). The sin here denounced is drunkenness. Several features are connected with this one sin:

a. Drinking made the life business of some (v. 11). They got up early and continued until late at night.

b. The effort to give their wicked business a show of refinement (v. 12). This is why pleasing music is heard in dens of infamy over our land.

c. Blindness to God's warnings and judgments (v. 12). Their drinking and dissipation rendered them insensible to the dealings of Providence.

d. God's judgments for such sin (vv. 13-17). They went into captivity. The immediate cause assigned was ignorance, but it was a willful ignorance for which they were held responsible. There was a great mortality among those who drank (v. 14). "Hell hath enlarged herself." The records everywhere show a much higher death rate among drinking men. Drinking degrades all classes (v. 15).

3. Unbelief (vv. 18, 19). This woe is directed against the sinner who presumptuously plunges into vice. He persists in iniquity and scoffs at judgment. This is peculiarly common among those who go about wine-drinking as a business.

4. Moral confusion (v. 20). This woe is pronounced against those who try to adjust moral conditions to suit their sinful appetites.

5. Conceit (v. 21). The fifth woe is pronounced against the sin of self-conceit, which holds a false estimate of human wisdom and acts without reference to God.

6. Perversion of justice (vv. 22, 23). The sixth woe is pronounced against unjust judges.

III. God's Treatment of Israel for Their Sins (vv. 24-30).

1. He stretched out his hand in anger against them (vv. 24, 25).

2. Chastised by the nations (vv. 26-30). God gave the signal and issued the call for the nations to chastise Israel.

WOMEN OF INDIA

(As told by Capt. H. W. MacDonald)

Dogs are common in India but not one of them has a home. They are objects of scorn to the populace—they are tolerated only as scavengers. The Indians believe that for certain crimes committed on earth, punishment will be reincarnated as a cur.

If a child strikes even so low an animal as a dog, it is doomed to become one in a future existence. If a son laughs when his father prays—the Indians bathe daily and while doing this prays, then it is the son's fate to be recreated after death as a blind serpent. But for really serious crimes such as treason or a murder a man is doomed to become a woman. A woman can never enter heaven as a woman in India. She has to be incarnated as a man, after many of these incarnations she becomes a woman to them and enters heaven.

This explains rather aptly the status of the women in India. She has standing in the household only if she continues to produce male heirs—that is supposed to be her main duty on earth. Woe betide the woman whose first children are girls! One is bad, but two are disgraceful. It is her fault, of course, if no son is born.

To the father a son is a jewel with out price and he dies happy if he knows he has a direct male descendant to carry on his business or profession and perform the three obligations of every dutiful son.

The first is to carry the father's name. The second is to light the fire which cremates his father's corpse. In India the dead or never buried—a regular cremation ceremony takes the place of our funeral, and is followed by cremation.

It was once the custom of the wife or wives of a dead man to be consumed by the flames that burned her lord and master, but this custom of suttee, as it is called has been abolished by the British government. It is almost obsolete, except in remote and inaccessible regions, and there the practice is a secret one.

The third duty of the son may seem ridiculous to Anglo-Saxons, but one who did not carry out this ritual would be considered a profligate in India. It is their belief that a man in the neither region is tormented horribly by thirst, which can be allayed only by the performance of a son on earth.

On the anniversary of his death, at the completion of the daily bath, which is a part of the Indian's religion, a dutiful son must very carefully wring out the water from the single lock of hair on his shaved head to the ground. From thence it will descend to the tongue of his father and relieve his thirst.

A woman could never perform these duties, and in the rare case that a man dies leaving no son, his nearest male relative must endeavor to carry out these three obligations as best he is able.

A woman is married in India at an early age, three years old is the minimum, and eight is the maximum. A woman reaching maturity, about 12 years, with out attaining marriage is a disgrace to her entire household.

Marriages are arranged by the parents, and it is customary for the grooms father to open negotiations. If the girl is married at a very early age she lives with her parents until she is about twelve, and then goes to her husband's home, which is usually with his parents. Newlyweds lead rather hard lives in India, for they must be respectful and obedient to the heads of the houses, who are not always very considerate.

If a man who has been allied with a child dies—that child, no matter how young she may be, is considered a widow. Since women in that country seem to be the scapegoat for most affairs, it seems only natural that she should be blamed in a case like this. Some heinous crime she committed in former life is supposed to be responsible for her husband's death. She must go to her husband's house to live and she is deprived of all her wedding finery. Remarriage for a woman is unheard of so she spends the rest of her days doing the most menial tasks and taking orders from any member of the household.

Women do not lead an easy life in India. Even when first born they are objects of scorn and the father has the privilege of abandoning his daughter by some wayside or throwing her in the Ganges, Branshapootra, Cassi, or Cabo rivers. These rivers are known as the rivers of the Gods, and they believe when they throw a child in one of them they go back to where they came from. Of late years this privilege is not considered so much as formerly, but the native populace does not consider it a disgraceful act, even now.

To those of us who have read Lawrence Hone's "Love Lovers of India," and Kipling's "Kim," the above seems a sad disillusion. It is to be remembered, however, that even with such conditions existing much of imagination still remains in the hearts of the daughters of India.

Pepper Relish

Take one dozen sweet green peppers and one dozen sweet red peppers and add three large onions, chopped fine. Cover with boiling water and let stand ten minutes, drain, cover again with hot water, and let come to a boil. Then let stand a spoonfuls of salt, two pints of vinegar, and two cups of granulated sugar. Cook fifteen minutes and pack hot in jars, and process as for Dixie Relish. Seal.

Corn Relish

1 dozen ears of corn
1 head of cabbage
3 sweet red peppers
3 sweet green peppers
1 quart of cider vinegar
1 cup sugar
2 T mustard
1 T salt
1 T celery seed
Cook the corn for three minutes in boiling water to set the milk. Cool and cut from the cob. Cook all together for 20 minutes. Pack into clean, hot jars, seal and process.

Uncooked Tomato Relish

1/2 peck ripe tomatoes
1 qt. cider vinegar
6 green peppers
6 sweet red peppers
4 medium-sized onions
1 cup finely chopped cabbage
2 T celery seed
1/2 T red pepper
1 T ground cloves
4 T mustard (yellow)
5 T salt
1 cup sugar
Scald and peel tomatoes, chop all ingredients fine, add seasonings, mix well. Add the vinegar and allow to stand over night. Next morning pack cold into small clean hot jars, seal and process.

Chow-Chow

2 cups onions (small white)
2 cups cauliflower, small sections
4 cups string beans, cut
12 green peppers, (medium size)
1 red pepper
5 T celery seed
4 T mustard seed
6 T horseradish
Heat the spices, vinegar, and sugar to simmering. Cover and allow to infuse for about one hour, then mix with the vegetables. Stir until well blended and let stand over night. In the morning stir well and pack in sterilized jars. Seal and store in a cool place. If processing is done to seal the filled jars be careful not to raise the temperature of the water bath above simmering and hold at this temperature for about 10 to 15 minutes. This processing will help to keep the pickles and seal the jars, but will soften the texture somewhat.

1 cup sugar
2 cups cider vinegar
The vegetables for chow-chow are better if first cured in brine and freshened by standing in cold water to cover from 12 to 24 hours, depending upon the amount of salt extracted. Some salt must be allowed to remain in the vegetables. After they are freshened, they should be drain, well mixed, and chopped to vinegar, heat mixture to the boiling point. Pack in jars and seal.

N'IMPORT RELISH

1 pt. radish pulp
1 cup ground onions
1/2 T salt
1-1/2 cup vinegar
1 cup sugar
1/2 T tumeric
1/2 T grated nutmeg
1/2 T white mustard seed

Wash radishes well, cut off tips, grind peel and pulp, and to one pint of ground pulp add one-half pint of ground onion. Mix well. Over this sprinkle salt. Let stand on hour. Squeeze dry, place in preserving kettle. Add vinegar, sugar, tumeric, nutmeg, and white mustard seed. Simmer for 10 minutes. Pack in clean hot jars, seal, process, for five minutes.

MRS. PRATT ATTENDED CURRY SCHOOL OF EXPRESSION

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Pratt returned last week from Denver, Colorado where Mrs. Pratt was enrolled in the Curry School of Expression for the summer session.

Mrs. Pratt is working toward her Artistic diploma in the Curry School of Expression of Boston, Massachusetts, which has just closed its sixth summer session in Denver, with Mrs. Eliza Josephine Howard, M. A., as director. For thirty-seven years

Mrs. Howard has been connected with the school and is one of the few surviving teacher who taught with Dr. Curry, the founder of that institution.

Mrs. Pratt is opening her sixth term of expression in Lamesa with her studio in the high school building. Special attention is given to harmonic body training for the development of poise, freedom, and grace.

Jack McLaughlin made a business trip to Amarillo Tuesday.

TWO-YEAR JERSEY HEIFERS MAKE GOOD SHOWING

E. W. Hester, Jersey breeder and farmer, made a report Tuesday on results of tests and records on milk and butter fat production of two Jersey heifers in his dairy herd.

The two are daughters of Buttercup, and each freshened at about two years of age. The testing period extended over the month from July 23 to August 23. Pansy produced 1174 pounds of milk during the time, with a fraction more than 47 pounds of butterfat. Rosebud produced 904 pounds of milk during the same time, with a little better than 45 pounds of butterfat.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Benson and daughter Francis have returned from a visit in Texon.

Miss Evelyn Burnside is spending this week visiting Miss Francis Burns in Lubbock.

Miss Roberta Lee Hanson is visiting her grandmother in Big Spring this week.

V. R. Dockery of Lubbock visited friends here last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Webb and daughters spent a few days this week visiting relatives in Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Ross and children left Tuesday for Crosbyton where they will make their home.

Miss Ruth Gullidge of Big Spring is visiting Mrs. J. F. Barkhurst this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gaines, Mrs. Ervin Bailey, Mrs. Lige Salser and Jake Salser attended the "Old Settlers" reunion at Matador last week. Mr. Gaines was a pioneer ranchman of that section.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Carlock and daughters of Lubbock have moved to Lamesa this week to make their home. Mr. Carlock will buy cotton here this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Lacey and son of Wichita Falls are here visiting Mrs. Lacey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Holly Woods, and other relatives.

Mrs. Murry McWhorter visited her parents in Levelland last week.

Mrs. J. D. Scott, formerly of Lamesa but for the past year of Amarillo, was a visitor among her friends here during this past week. Mr. Scott was formerly with the Santa Fe Company here and was promoted and transferred to Amarillo in 1924.

Ned Barrett, manager of Stone Department Store, is visiting his family in Kaufman, Texas.

TROOP 22 HOLDS MEETING

Friday night, August 26, was the Pirate Patrol's time to give the program at the regular meeting of Troop 22, but instead of having a regular meeting, that patrol furnished transportation for a two day hike at the Mullins Ranch. That night at a council fire Jack Keisling, Herman Heffernan, Kenneth King, Clovis Johnson and Joe Spikes gave an Indian dance and Herman Heffernan told a story.

Saturday night at another council fire members of the Pine Tree Patrol, Zack Davis, Richard Crawley, Louis Morris, and Durward Schmidt gave an Indian Ceremony. Immediately after this several of the boys returned to town.

During the camp much hiking and swimming was enjoyed, and several boys passed fire building and cooking tests.

Those that went on the hike were: Guy Ranson, Durward Schmidt, Richard Crawley, Thomas and Edgar Crow, Jack Keisling, Kenneth King, Joe McAllister, Zac Davis, Dwight Morris, Allen, and Edwin McClain, Frank Veasey, Louis Morris, Herman Heffernan, Willard McSpadden, Clovis Johnson and Joe Spikes.

Mrs. J. W. McDonald is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stokes in Slaton this week.

Miss Mildred Marr of Abilene is a guest in the W. L. Marr home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McCauley are visiting friends and relatives in Center, Texas.
