Plans For Uranium School Made After Lease Announced

Plans for a class in "Uranium Prospecting" were announced this week in Hereford following the disclosure that more than a thousand acres of land had been leased at $2 an acre for uranium prospecting in Castro County, about 20 miles Southeast of here. The course, to be offered by Amarillo College, will be held one night a week for four weeks if enough interest is shown. W. E. Soule, of the college, said 30 would have to enroll to make the class possible.

Soule said cost of the course would be $5 a person. W. H. Fitzgerald, formerly with the Atomic Energy Commission, would be one of the instructors. Anyone interested can call The Brand and leave their name.

Soule said such courses had already been successfully conducted in other area towns.

Land leased, totalling 1120 acres, is owned by E. W. Kinney of Amarillo. It was leased by W. G. Weatherford of Corsicana, an oil man and geologist. In announcing the lease, Kinney said he also has an override royalty if uranium is produced in commercial quantities. The acreage is located 10 miles south and 10 miles east of Hereford.

The contract calls for core drilling the 1120 acres in the next 12 months. Leo Witkowski has the land under lease from Kinney at the present time.

THAR'S URANIUM UNDER THEM THAR DRILLS — The photographer, who was impressed by this unusual line-up of 11 wheat drills in a row on the Leo Witkowski farm in the Arney neighborhood, southeast of Hereford, little suspected that in a short time the land farmed by Witowski would be under lease for uranium. It appears now that wheat may have to share the spotlight. (Staff Photo)

Citizens Get Civic Lesson At Breakfast

County officials gave listeners at the Community Breakfast a one-hour course in government Wednesday morning as each explained the workings of his office.

Appearing on the panel were County Judge Homer Henslee, District Clerk Lucille Posey, Treasurer Volma Bridges, County Clerk Ralph Smith, Justice of the Peace E. W. Solomon, County Attorney J. Edward Line, County Surveyor Alex Thompson, Band Inspector Hopson and Otto Massey, M. T.

Rutter, J. T. Guinn and Donald Hicks, commissioners.

Also on the panel was Mrs. Joe Smith, county welfare worker, who explained the workings of her office.

No questions were put forth from the floor. Some of the interesting facts brought out were that divorces are on the increase and that child support payments are on the upward trend. These two points were mentioned by Mrs. Posey. Justice Solomon explained the workings on the small claims court saying it kept him a lot busier than did his other civil and criminal cases.

Alex Thompson added humor to the affair by saying that his name always appeared at the bottom on the ballot. "You vote for me and don't even know it," he said. He also pointed out that he is the only unpaid county office holder, having held the post since 1925.

Mrs. Smith urged citizens to turn over their welfare cases to her office for investigation rather than trying to help people by themselves. She said her office might call on a club or organization for help—but only after a complete check.

Judge Henslee served as spokesman for the group and introduced each speaker.

Courthouse Lawn To Be Scene Of Pioneer Dinner

Plans for Pioneer Day, to be held May 27, were made at a joint meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Pioneer Day committee and a group of old timers recently.

Between 450-500 old timers are expected to attend the annual event. This year, the Jim Hill Hotel ballroom will be the center of events. The occasion will be mainly an opportunity for old timers to get together and talk over old times.

One of the highlights of the day will be a basket lunch to be served on the courthouse lawn at noon. The C-C will serve refreshments all day to the pioneers in the hotel ball room. Registration will be under the direction of the Business and Professional Women's Club. The C-C committee requested merchants to decorate their windows for the occasion with old time scenes. The rodeo also begins that day.

One of the features of the get together will be the tape recordings of stories told by old timers. They will be kept as permanent records. Radio Station KGAN is making the recordings available.

Seven Cases Due Hearings Tuesday In County Court

Seven cases have been called for next Tuesday in County Court and 20 jurors have been summoned for duty.

Four driving while intoxicated cases are due for hearing, two are due trial on charges of possession of intoxicants in a dry area and one for passing a worthless check. DWI charges are against Simon B. Gonzales, Johnnie Jay Senat, R. W. Scoggins and Acie Darro Harkins. Possession charges are faced by Gonzales and George Haas. Elmer Jones is charged with passing a worthless check.

Jurors called are Archie Scott, J. B. Sowell, Mrs. J. B. Noland, Vincent Meyers, Chas. Schlab, O. R. Sanders, Urlin Streu, Tom Robinson, George Suggs, W. J. Mesnick, Mrs. N. E. Millburn, Delmar Sigle, Mrs. Gaylord Newell, Geo. H. Shaw, Marvin Southward, Charley Shipley, Roy Sheppard, Earl Stagner, C. C. Stewart and Mrs. Floyd E. Walton.

Harris Heads WT Exes Association

Will Harris was elected president of the Hereford West Texas State College Ex-Student Association at a meeting held recently.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Henry Sears, vice president; and Mrs. Merlin Kaul, secretary-treasurer.

Approximately 50 ex-students attended the meeting, held in the Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church.

Members of the Girls Ensemble of WT, including Lotus Root of Hereford, sang several numbers. They were introduced by Nancy Patterson.

Milton Morris, secretary and general manager of the Association, outlined changes in the organization and spoke on progress made by the group.

Punch and cookies were served.

Rites Held For Granado Infant

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the San Jose Mission, for the four month old Louise Granado, son of Mr. and Mrs. Santiago Granado. Father Raymond Gillis conducted the service.

The child died Wednesday morning in Deaf Smith County Hospital following an illness of two days.

Born Dec. 28, 1954 in Littlefield, he is survived by his parents and five brothers.

Interment was made at St. Anthony's Cemetery.

Around Town

Cecil Massey was pointing out to folks Around Town earlier this week that today would be quite a special day. Massey, who is quite a figurer, was explaining that Thursday would be the fifth day of the fifth month of the year 1955. That makes for a lot of five writing for those who have to do a lot of dating in this order: 5-5-55. And it doesn't happen very often. We must admit. Next time you will be writing a similar date will be the 6-6-66—eleven years from now. A little figuring on our own came up with the startling information that some day folks will be writing 2-2-2222. Or was it 2-22-2222?

Vandals were at work again Tuesday night. The shine stand just off Main Street had several windows broken out.

There will be softball tonight and Friday night at Veteran's Park. The Jim Hill team will meet Ruthers in the first game tonight, beginning at 8:30 and the Popular Store team will play Piggly Wiggly in the second game. Friday night Ruthersford will meet the Knights of Columbus team and Summerfield will play Piggly Wiggly.

A representative of the Amarillo Social Security Administration office will be in Hereford Wednesday, May 13 at 9:30 a.m. at the courthouse.

A. J. Peters of Hereford recently sold nine purebred Aberdeen-Angus cows to H. H. Cannon of Summerfield.

Lions and Rotarians will both be holding Ladies Night tonight.

The Presbyterian Women are having a bake sale Saturday at Piggly Wiggly's. The proceeds of the sale will go toward the construction of a Student Religious Center at West Texas College, which is sponsored jointly by the Presbyterian and Christian Churches in this area.

Mrs. Louie LeGrand returned from Ft. Worth where she greeted a new granddaughter, Nancy Dehila, born April 18. Parents of the child are Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Young and brother Mike. Other grandparents of the new baby are Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Young.

Postal Receipts Continue Rise

Postal receipts continued their upward climb here during April, showing an increase of $498.68 over the same month in 1954.

Postmaster, Jim Lipscomb revealed that April receipts totaled $4,916.49 this year as compared to only $4,416.81 a year ago. April fell behind March totals, however. March's receipts totaled $5,686.73.

Total receipts for the first four months of this year are $20,760.93, which is well ahead of receipts during the first four months of 1954.

TWENTY-TWO ARE ISSUED

March Building Permits Soar To $172,325 Mark

Building permits issued during the month of April totaled 22 including 11 residences. Other construction included storage space, additions, houses moved in, a workshop and an office. Records show $172,325 was the total cost of construction during the month.

Six permits were issued during April of 1954 for residences costing $76,000, $96,325 less than 1955. For the month of March, there were 18 permits, 12 additions and six residences, costing $64,613 less than the month of April.

Listed permits are the following: Fred Kroll, residence, $17,000, April 1; W. W. Angel, residence, $16,000, April 5; R. B. Miller, residence, $9,000, April 7; R. B. Miller, residence, $15,000, April 7; Ernest McGee, move and construct barracks, $3,000, April 7; Howard

Cancer Crusade Goal Exceeded

Deaf Smith County has gone over the top in its 1955 Cancer Crusade fund drive, it was announced today.

With a quota of $1500, the county has turned over a check totalling $2484.99 to the Crusade—or roughly 166 percent of its quota.

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority was in charge of the drive.

County Records Second Fatality

Deaf Smith County's second traffic fatality of the year was recorded Monday when Travis Vernon Barton Jr., of Amarillo died in the Deaf Smith County Hospital of injuries suffered in a one-car crash April 26.

Barton, 29, was critically injured when he lost control of his late model car 31 miles west of Hereford on Harrison Highway.

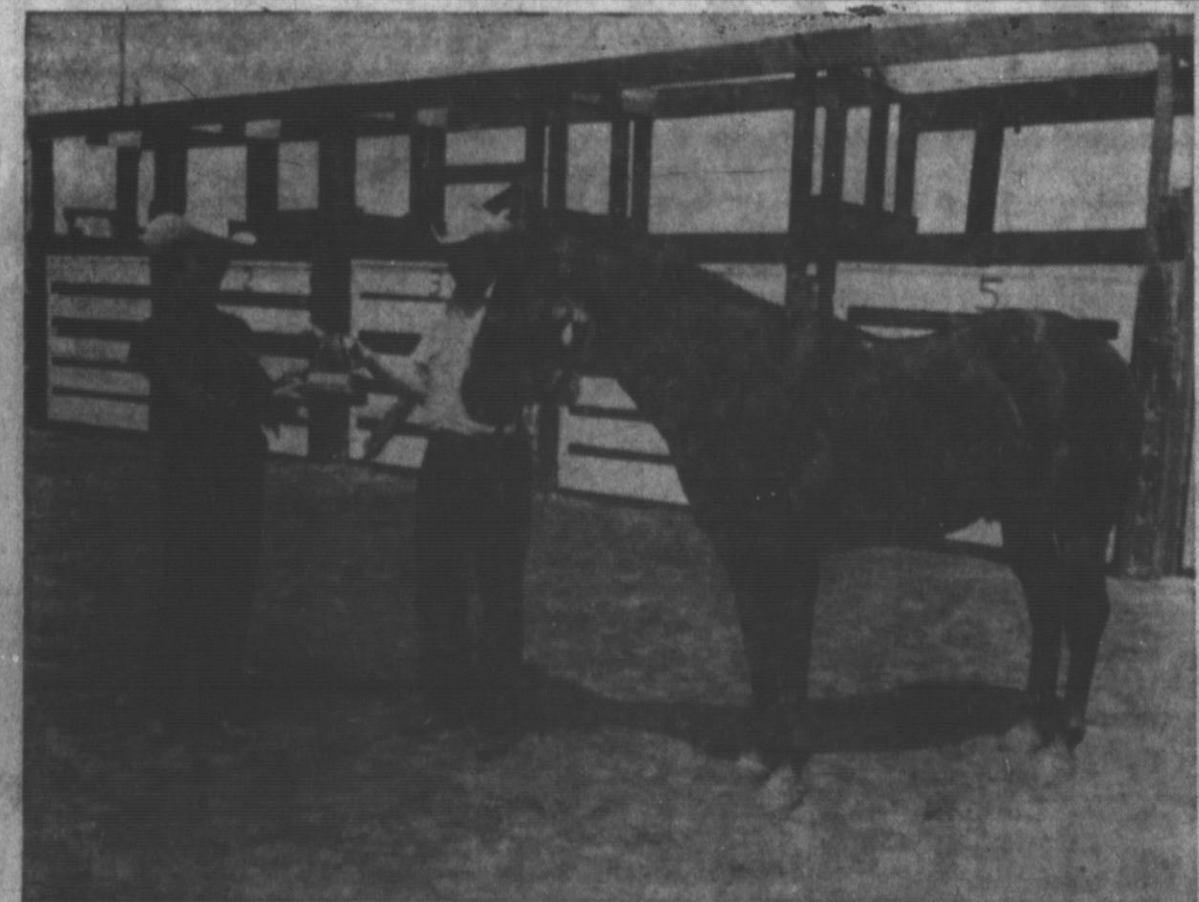

Funeral services were held in Amarillo earlier this week with burial in an Amarillo cemetery.

Barton, a paper salesman, was born Nov. 28, 1925. He married the former Flora Jane Fowlkes in 1947. Survivors include his wife; a son, William R. Barton; his mother, Mrs. W. W. Lucas of Oklahoma City; and two sisters, Mrs. R. M. Steel of Lawrence, Kans., and Mrs. Marvin Foley of Oklahoma City.

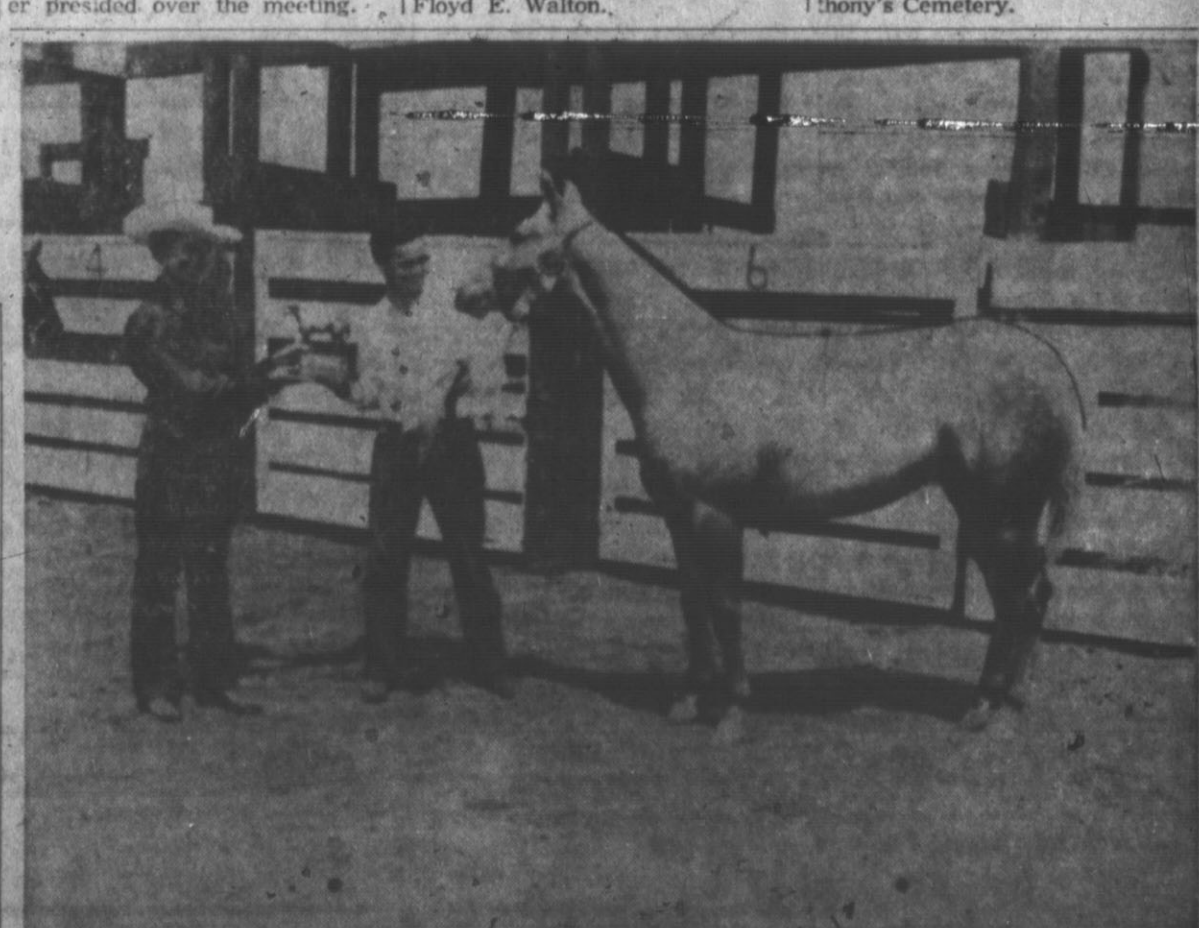

Motorist, Firemen Save Truck Loss

Alertness on the part of a passing motorist and quick action by the Hereford Fire Department possibly saved a truck and a load of maize Monday night.

The truck, which was being driven to Crosbyton, with a load of maize, had a blowout and friction from the tire caused the fire. An unidentified motorist saw the condition of the truck and rushed to Hereford to alert firemen. When local firemen reached the scene the truck was already blazing, but they were in time to halt serious damages. The truck was slightly damaged, but the load of maize was undamaged.

GEORGE JURY

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is an item which may be of interest to former teachers, friends and neighbors.

George Jury, former student in the Hereford schools, will graduate from the Stockton High School, Stockton, Mo., on May 12, 1955.

While in high school, George has received many honors. He has served his class as president the past year, has been reporter and president of the Stockton chapter of Future Farmers of America and president of the Dramatics Club.

Besides lettering in football for three years and maintaining a 3.85 grade average, he has won many honors in the State Vocational Agriculture judging contests, has won gold medals in crops, poultry, and dairy products judging and was high individual in both the crops and poultry contests.

He was a member of the winning state poultry judging team in 1954 which also won the national contest for FFA in Kansas City last fall.

He served as representative from Cedar County at Missouri Boys State, 1954, sponsored by the American Legion and Lions Club.

George has made many friends in Missouri and is very popular among his schoolmates. After graduation he plans to attend the University of Missouri the fall.

A former Hereford resident,

Mrs. A. E. Jury

J. B. Wills To Attend Red Cross Swimming School

Word was received this week by the local Red Cross office that J. B. Wills, son of Dr. R. R. Wills, has been accepted for the Water Safety School to be conducted in June at Palestine. Hilton H. Gilliam of St. Louis, Midwestern Red Cross headquarters, will act as instructor for the school.

According to Charles Skelton, water safety chairman, this is J. B.'s second summer to attend the school to further his training as an instructor in Red Cross Water Safety. This year he expects to become a first aid instructor, as he has the two required prerequisites. He took standard first aid in high school and the advanced course last summer while at Denton for his Water Safety course.

Wills will then hold a record for being the youngest person ever to hold both these instructor's authorizations in this chapter. And, as is second to hold both, the other

Construction Of New Boys' Ranch School Underway

Construction on a modern, ranch style school building has begun at America's First Boys' Ranch, Amarillo, in place of the old frame, two story building which has long been inadequate for the growing needs of the Ranch. At the present, time classes are being held in five different places at the Ranch.

The new school will include class rooms and vocational school for the 500 boys that the Ranch hopes to be able to take care of within the next few years. The old building was a remodeled army barracks moved in from Dalhart several years ago.

The boys will do the majority of the construction on the new school under the supervision of a competent director. Two-hundred and sixty five tons of Colorado red stone have already been brought to the Ranch from Longmont, Colo. It is being brought to the Ranch by the Denver-Amarillo Express without charge. The building will be of the same stone and style as the housing unit completed by the boys 2 1/2 years ago.

The Peace Officers of America have formed an organization for the purpose of helping the Ranch to build the new school and it will be called the Peace Officers of America School. The citizens of Plainview and Tulia, are building two classrooms to be known as the Plainview and Tulia rooms and a group of business men in Houston, have formed a Shirt Tail Club in order to build another class room. Their idea came from the Boys' Ranch, slogan, "Furnishing Boys A Shirt Tail to Hang Onto."

It is necessary that Boys' Ranch have its own school because it is not a public school and the majority of the boys have been out of school from one to three years when the Ranch takes them. The teachers live right at the Ranch and work with the boys to give them extra time and help.

The total cost for the building will be $200,000 fully equipped and although all funds have not been raised, the Ranch will build as far as possible and is hoping that it can be completed by the fall term of next year.

Heavy Bats Feature First Night In Softball League

By BILL KNOX

Piggly Wiggly and Summerfield both took opening-night victories of the Hereford Softball League Tuesday night. Piggly Wiggly had no trouble at all in completely demolishing young Cooper's team 20-1 in five innings, while Summerfield lumbered past the Knights of Columbus 11-2 in the second game.

Piggly Wiggly, top-seeded in the league, started like a "house of fire," and continued to manhandle Coopers, allowing them only one run in the third inning. Summerfield had a much harder, but still not too hard, time stopping the KC's. The Farmers unleashed a terrific home run barrage, blasting out five. The KC's also connected for two, making all their runs due to homers.

In the first game Piggly Wiggly capitalized on Leroy Morrison and Terry Hale's wildness to run up 14 runs in their big first inning. Morrison walked three straight to lead off the game, then gave up a double to Ken Brock and a home run to powerful Raymond Dement, the league's home run leader last year. He hit another wild spell, walking three more, then Don Morgan tagged him for a triple. McNeese and Kyle Parker both got safe blows, and Ken Brock blasted another home run. Dement and Lueb got a triple and a double, and Wilson and Pickens singled. Batting for the third time in the inning, Homer Hershey made the final out.

Don Morgan, Piggly Wiggly pitcher, struck out the first three men to face him, and Piggly Wiggly resumed the slaughter, picking up three more in the second. Strangely enough, the first two men were retired, but Dement, Lueb, and Wilson got three straight doubles for the runs.

Believe it or not, Piggly Wiggly went scoreless in the third, but Coopers picked up their only run in this inning. After two were out, Jim Burkett got on first with a walk and went all the way around on Bob Wilson's single.

Piggly Wiggly evened out their total with three in the fourth. Three walks and a double by Taylor Sims were responsible. Winning pitcher Don Morgan struck out eight and walked only three. Losing pitcher for Coopers is Leroy Morrison, the starter. Morgan gave up only three hits.

The second game started off much the same way but tapered off to a mild pitcher's duel between Horace Baize and Kenny Walterscheid.

Summerfield started, booming immediately, lead-off hitter Gerald McCathern clouting a home run. With the exception of Roy Botkin, who struck out, the next four batters all got hits and another walked to send in four more tallies.

The KC's were blanked for the first two innings, but the Farmers tallied three more in the second. All three of these runs came on bases empty homers by McCathern, Duane Baize, and Jamie Clearman. McCathern's was hit second.

The KC's held Summerfield scoreless and broke the ice with one run for themselves in the third. Bud Stengel's lead-off homer was responsible. Ken Walterscheid who had relieved youthful, but promising, Larry Walterscheid, also blanked Summerfield again in the fourth when the KC's scored their final run. Ken Walterscheid helped his own cause with a home-run for the tally.

Summerfield finished out scoring with three in the fifth. After Lookingbill had walked and Campbell singled, Elton Davis brought both of them and himself in with their fifth homer of the day.

Winning pitcher was Horace Baize who went all the way. Larry Walterscheid was the loser.

Probably the sorriest lot in all the world is that of a weather prophet. You can't win. When you are wrong everyone crams your words down your throat. When you are right nobody, but nobody, remembers your forecast. What's more, if you remind folks how good you are they say you are bragging.

Predicting the weather offers no riches or glories. It will bring you nothing but grief and trouble but, next to real estate men, there are probably more people who prophesy the weather than any other avocation practiced in Deaf Smith County. One thing, though, there will never be a weather forecaster's union. Not in this country, anyhow. I don't know of any other single thing that will create half as many differences of opinion.

Despite all of these things, however, Jim Lipscomb and I do figure that we merit a little extra consideration. We really did hit this rain right on the nose. My wife says she wouldn't admit it outside the house, but she still thinks it was sheer luck on my part. I asked her why she thought I hadn't predicted before in 1955—and she said I was just too busy. Like I said, you can't win. I don't know, but I'll bet Susie is giving Jim the same old stuff.

Furthermore, Jim is giving me some extra trouble within our own ranks. He says I misquoted him. He says that I quoted him as saying that the "wet cycle" is about to begin. He says that there was never anything less true. He further adds that the "wet cycle" will not really begin until 1963. The real truth of the matter is that he hit the weather just one time—and let his success go to his bald head. To tell the truth, I think that he was reading over my shoulder when he made his prediction. Besides, I think my wife is right: "Don't ever trust a guy who predicts the weather."

Anyway, here's the dope. More rains in May. They will come along from time to time. Jim says the vegetable men will be begging and yelling for relief from the veritable deluge in May—but he is wrong—again. The rains will be better than average, yes! But, they will be well distributed. Not more than one gully-washer, which is what I predicted all of the time. Remember? However, the one last week went to the north, hitting Adrian and Vega. Maybe we won't have any at all.

This will all work out. If they will just keep putting off the shooting of that atom bomb at Las Vegas. If the bomb had gone off on schedule, we probably wouldn't even have had the last rain.

J. C. McCracken was wanting to know the "real poop" on Ezra Benson. I had a hard time convincing him that my article last Sunday was genuine. He seemed to think that I was holding back. I wasn't, however. This "freedom of the press" even includes Mr. Benson. Maybe I was wrong but, if so, it was my fault. Not that of anyone else.

Mike Tom Moore, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jake Moore, is a boy after my own heart. If he will come by I will personally buy him an ice cream soda and a comic book (censored type). One day last week a little girl came into Miss Velma Cook's first grade room at Shirley with some beautiful lilacs, which were placed in a vase. Then along comes another youngster with some spirea, which was also placed in the vase. Miss Cook backed off, took a good look and commented, "Well, children, that is a very poor flower arrangement."

"No! No!" piped up Mike Tom. "It looks good. It reminds me of that picture of the 'Hereford Bull'."

However, I can't say so much for the Cub Scouts. I went to a pack meeting the other night where Joe Reinauer and John Gilliland were entertaining with some magic feats—and they pointed me out and said, "Mr. McAllen, will you please come up and put a dime on this card?"

Needless to say, in addition to being publicly slandered, I also had quite a bit of trouble in getting back my dime. Everybody makes mistakes, but how in the world could anyone get me confused with a baldheaded guy like Mac?

Burl Elliston is at it again. This time on a state-wide level. He was in Austin last week and they introduced "Senate Resolution No. 277" which officially recognized and welcomed J. B. (Burl) Elliston as a visitor in the Senate. This automatically entitled Burl to wander around with the senators and do just about what he pleased. I saw the framed certificate. It was signed by Ben Ramsey, president of the Senate, and by Loyce M. Bell, secretary.

And to think that we voted to raise those guys to $25 a day. The Amarillo College called down this week and wanted to know if the folks around here would take a special night course in "Uranium Prospecting." They said they have a course which they will be glad to bring down here, provided 30 or more people will register. It would be 10 hours in all with two and one-half hours one night each week for a four-week period. They will also have a former Atomic Energy Commissioner on the lecture platform. Some of the things folks learn is how to operate Geiger counters, scintillators and other gadgets.

Personally, I can think of lots more pleasant ways to toss off five bucks. On the other hand, maybe I would be pretty sore if Abe Martin or Ike Crosthwait discovered a uranium deposit in my back yard. Come to think of it, I believe I will just sign up if they get enough to take the course.

From what I keep hearing just about everybody must have been out at Buffalo Lake Sunday. A lot of people are getting the boat fever. Otis Hall and Bill Decker are among the latest enthusiasts. Neil Cooper is likewise about to take the plunge. And this is just part of the new crop. It's a funny thing how these old dry-land boys go in for boating. Take George Jewell, for instance. He just had to have a portable boat. Finally, he got one and, according to his wife, has never yet unzipped it and taken a good look—much less installed it on the boat.

A. J. Schroeter was by ringing bells about national Motel Week. This, according to Major, is an event of some general concern. He says the first motel was opened in 1913 and that 52,000 motels today have more than 1 million guest rooms. Anyway, it is a complete new industry for America, and contributes quite a bit to the various towns and cities over the nation.

If you don't think so, just look at it from this angle. National Motel Week is from May 2-8, inclusive, whereas Mother's Day is May 8. The motels get a whole week, while Mom gets only one day. That should prove something. If you're still not convinced, ask Major.

Mrs. A. L. Manjeot was in Abilene recently to attend the opening of a new club-house. The luncheon program was sponsored by the Abilene Garden Club with Mrs. Manjeot holding a corsage clinic. She also attended a meeting recently of the Abilene Garden Club, giving a lecture on gladioli.

Band Returns With Top Rating

Hereford High School and Stanton Junior High School bands brought back honors from the Inter-scholastic League contests held last week in Canyon.

The high school band, which went Wednesday, received a first rating in both marching and sight reading. In concert playing they received a second.

Twirlers from the high school band and their ratings were: Solos, Bonnie Lewis, first; Ella Marie Williams, first; Barbara Damron, first; Barbara Sue Rogers, first; Barbara Kimbrough, second; Joan Brown, second; Sylvia McCracken, third; Glenna Gault, third; Martha Bookout, third.

Ensembles: Joan Brown and Barbara Sue Rogers, first; Wanda Kimbrough and Ella Marie Williams, first; Barbara Damron and Bonnie Lewis, second.

The junior high band went Thursday and received third in concert.

Twirlers ratings were: Lovella Finley, fourth; Sheila Williams, fourth; Betty Paetzold, fourth; Jeannette Rayburn, third; Wilma Burkett, second.

Mrs. Jim Ashlock of Concord, Calif., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joe Curtsinger, and other relatives here.

Bruce Wiggins, who has been stationed at Long Beach, Calif., with the Navy, is home on a three-week furlough. He will return to California, where he will be stationed at San Francisco, accompanied by Mrs. Wiggins and children.

CAKE TOPPING SUCCESS STORY

OCALA, Fla. —A brother and sister are making an idea for packaged cake decorations pay off. Mrs. Louise Crawford and her brother Bobby Jones, who had been in the bakery business, developed the idea and she took it to New York.

"Within 24 hours it was sold to one of the nation's largest variety store chains, but the trouble was we were suddenly in business with an order for 510 dozen packages of something we didn't have, weren't set up to produce and actually had no idea how to start making."

Things were pretty frantic for a while but they finally worked out the production and a year later moved out of the kitchen into a plant downtown.

Production now is around 600 dozen packages a week. Each petal and leaf is handmade and attached to a piece of cardboard. It is easily removable for transfer to a cake.

BABY TALK BATTLE

BOSTON —It's okay to use an occasional "itsy bitsy coo" on your baby, says Dr. James Marvin Bat-sy, professor of pediatrics at Tufts College Medical School and chief physician at Boston Floating Hospital.

A little motherly clucking, the doctor says, is good for the mental and emotional well being of infants despite austere practices recommended by some authorities.

WHISTLE BAIT

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. — Few, if any girls draw as many whistles as "the girl in the window."

Most Boston & Main trains passing the home of crippled Lorraine Tatro sound their whistles as a salute to the girl who has been an invalid since birth.

She was given a special ovation on her 9th birthday, when all trains blew a few blasts as she sat at her window.

Her days are brightened by waving to train crews to whom she has become known as "the girl in the window."

Fern Rowan of Carlsbad is visiting for a few days in the J. D. Story home. She is the sister of Mrs. Story.

White Says Dust Bowl Not Fault Of Area Farmers

By JOHN WHITE

One of the great injustices against Texas farmers is the widespread theory that present "dust bowl" conditions on the Plains is the result of poor farming practices.

In a few cases, this is true. But during my recent tour of West Texas, I found that only a small proportion of the land was blowing due to deliberate or unthinking misuse.

Some of the plains country should never have been touched by the plow. Eventually this land must be put back to pastureland. Even land which has had the best of care is bound to suffer some damage from wind erosion during prolonged dry spells. Yet most of the soil is shifting in West Texas because the farmer doesn't have enough money to practice those measures which would prevent it.

One of the immediate steps the federal and state governments should take in the Texas drought disaster area is the setting up of a realistic long-term loan program. It takes money to practice soil conservation. It also takes plenty of money to survive four to five consecutive years of almost complete crop failure. Unintentional neglect of the land is bound to result.

The federal government does have a loan program in operation under the F.H.A. But farmers everywhere tell the same story. The requirements are so strict that few can qualify. Those few—about one in a hundred—who do qualify for an emergency loan program at all. There is little difference, if any, between what is offered by the government and what can be had at the local bank.

The emergency loan program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture was originally set up to offer money at a low interest rate of 3 percent. Three months ago—with-out making it a matter of public record—the government increased the interest to 5 percent, completely disqualifying the program as an emergency measure.

Our Texas banks have performed a real service to drought stricken farmers. But banks can carry the load only so far—and many of them have already reached those limits.

In my discussions with Texas farmers, the feeling is that a government loan is needed to clear up 2-month notes at the bank. It is a matter of record, from 20 years experience in F.H.A. loans, that the government cannot make a better investment than lending to farmers. These loans are paid back with interest.

When the time comes that a government loan means the difference between staying on the land or starving the farmer out, then these loans are an investment in the future security of our farm economy. That time is now!!!

Damages Minor In Two Car Crash

An accident occurring Sunday afternoon caused an estimated $100 damages when two cars collided at the intersection of Fifth Street and Schley.

A 1951 Chevrolet driven by Jack Parker hit the right front door of a 1953 Plymouth driven by Gwynn Marshall Lovel when the Chevrolet going west on Fifth Street, failed to stop for the Plymouth, which was going north on Schley.

Jack Parker was charged with failure to grant the right-of-way.

Your Congressman Reports

By WALTER ROGERS

Let no one be misled about the effects of the farm situation on the general economy. The plight of the farmer is beginning to be felt in many other segments of American life. In our particular section of the country the farmer has been fighting drought conditions for four years. In many instances it is a miracle he has survived. Yet, with full knowledge of the plight of the people, in the drought area, the Department of Agriculture has placed three additional heavy burdens on his back:

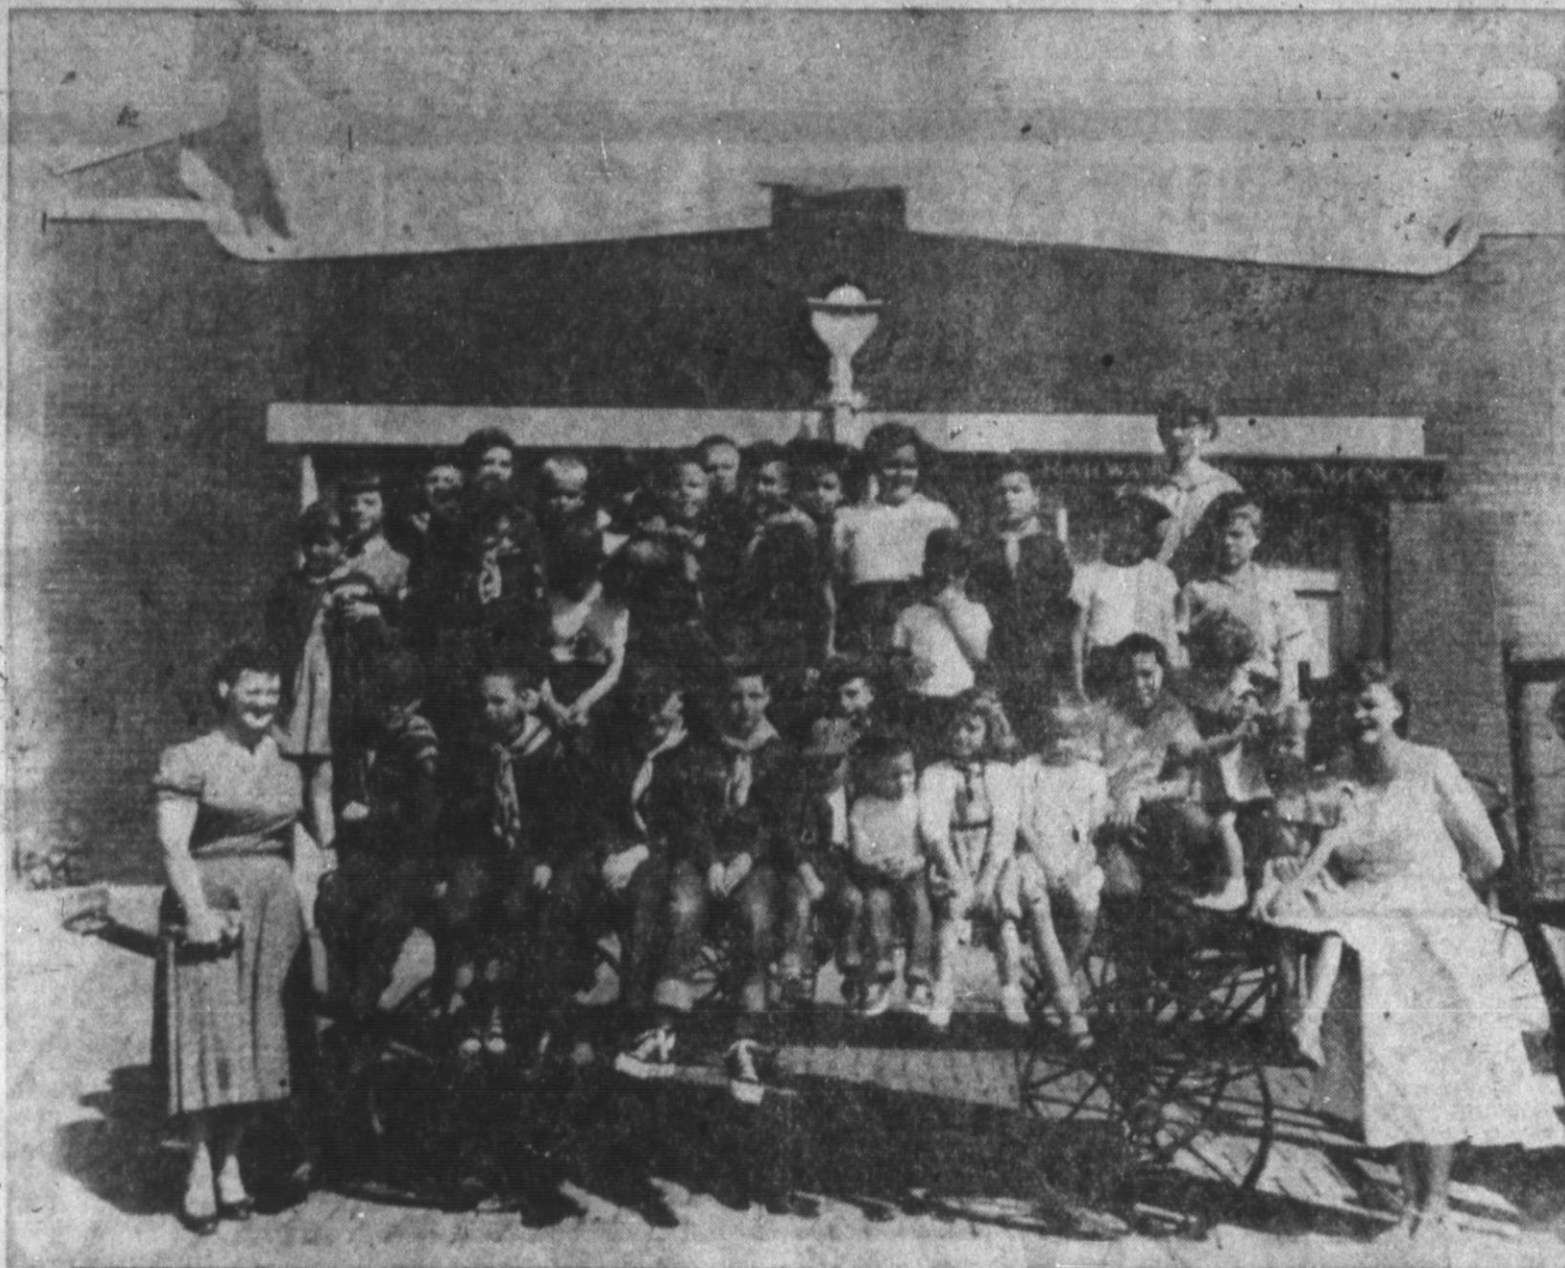

FIRST: The man was jerked out from under him when the grain price supports were reduced by 15 percent, the greatest reduction ever visited upon these people. Grain sorghum has been the cash crop of the Panhandle.

and in addition has kept much of the land from blowing.

SECOND: The interest rates of particular government loans were increased from 3 percent to 5 percent. These were interest rates on money that was being borrowed by farmers to keep their operations going, to keep their children fed and housed, and to remain on the farm where they were raised. It might be noted that many big businesses are being allowed to finance themselves through the government at considerably less than 5 percent. I ask why a man in distress should be further distressed by such an unconscionable policy.

THIRD: The Farmers Home Administration is being "re-organized." Many here in Washington feel that this is a shoddy political action done for the purpose of creating jobs for party faithfuls and kicking out present employees. It certainly is not being done for economy as was reported by some in the Department. The cost of operation in Texas alone will be an additional $30,000 a year, according to a conservative estimate by an official of the Farmers Home Administration. Men who have been with that department in the field for a long time and who are in position to expedite the administration of the loans are being down-graded, both in position and salary. There are several other ways to make a man quit in some departments, one being to move him to Alaska; that is, give him his choice of going to Alaska or quitting. The opinion has been voiced here that the so-called "re-organization" is a sordid attempt to gain economic control of many of the small farmers for political reasons. My mail indicates that the farmers generally are very much upset about the situation.

SCOUTS TAKE TRAINRIDE -- Fifty cub scouts from Dens 1 and 5 and their leaders, Mrs. Paul Hoff and Mrs. Carl Stapp, left on the train Saturday morning for a trip to Clovis. While in Clovis, they visited the round house of the Santa Fe Railroad. They took along a sack lunch which they ate in the park. Parents and friends of the scouts will drive them back in private cars. (Staff Photo)

And to add to these blights, nature again punishes us for misuse of the soil by visiting dust storms upon us. These are problems that cannot be answered by funny pictures of a man with an umbrella leaving Washington for the drought area. The situation has ceased to be humorous, and it is time that the farmers of this section received more beneficial action and less talk.

THE GAS HEARINGS

The gas hearings are drawing a close this week and will be history when you receive this letter. They have been most enlightening from many standpoints, especially as to separating the sheep from the goats on the question of free enterprise. As I said in a former newsletter, I was completely astounded at some of the groups of individuals who appeared before our committee and supported federal bureaucratic control. In most instances, it came out that the position of these people was being prompted by the feeling that their particular situation or business would be better protected if federal bureaucratic control was invoked. I certainly respect the sincerity of these people, but I, of course, question their judgment, because it is a good example of the reason for the old saying: "It all depends on whose ox is being gored." Whether it is the gas business, the peanut business, or any other business, from a hamburger stand to a giant corporation, the basic price of federal bureaucratic control and price fixing for protection, real or fictitious, is a complete capitulation to policies of socialism, and, in my opinion, cannot be otherwise construed.

As serious as these hearings have been, there have been many humorous situations. One witness was pointing up the fact that our state of confusion had actually come from a commingling of interstate (federal jurisdiction) transactions with intra-state (state jurisdiction) transactions. He was arguing that the federal government was trying to take over everything by simply referring to each transaction as an interstate transaction. He said that it had gotten to the place where regardless of a man's business, if he took a drink of water in New York and spit in West Virginia, he was in interstate commerce. Another witness who appeared in behalf of a large city for federal control was being questioned at length by me as to his conclusions. He finally said that he didn't want to argue the point but did want to say if I had come from the same city he had, I would probably be making the same statement he was making. Which proves that we all try to represent our own people and our philosophies as best we can.

Flower Show Held By Garden Beautiful Club

Members of the Garden Beautiful Club staged a private flower show Friday afternoon at a meeting of the club held in the home of Mrs. Frances Houston. Mrs. Lisle Woodford was co-hostess.

The show consisted of arrangements made by members of the club and brought to the club for judging. Mesdames W. J. Stanford and Lisle Woodford were in charge of the show.

During the business session plans were made for the closing luncheon which will be held on May 6 in the home of Mrs. Robert Veigel. A graduation gift was presented to Miss Jean Chapman, English exchange student who will graduate this month from Hereford High School, who entertained for the club recently.

Those attending the meeting were Mesdames Ansel McDowell, Ray Cowser, George Graham, J. B. Harlin, E. W. Harrison, V. O. Hennen, E. W. Hobson, Charles Hood, Harold Kaestner, D. C. Kinsey, Dick Miller, Helen Pipkin, D. B. Roberson, Mary Seigler, E. W. Solomon, W. J. Stanford, Robert Veigel, Lisle Woodford, N. D. Bartlett Jr., and the hostess.

Punch-line to the year's hottest power story—

Chevrolet "Turbo-Fire V8"!

This is the engine that's writing a whole new chapter in the book of automobile performance records. This is the engine that has stock car timers doing a "double take" at their stopwatches whenever experts gather to compare the abilities of the 1955 cars.

For example, in the recent NASCAR stock car competition at Daytona Beach, Florida, Chevrolet literally ran away from every other car in its class—and a raft of others besides. In the one-mile straightaway run for low-priced cars, the first two places—and six of the first ten—went to Chevrolets. And in acceleration runs from a standing start against all comers, the Motorama Chevrolet beat all other low-priced cars—and every high-priced car except one!

What's behind this blazing performance? A compact honey of a V8 that only the world's leading producer of valve-in-head engines can build. Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8".

It puts a new kind of fun in your driving life. You're in charge of 162 high-spirited horsepower—or if you're looking for even more excitement, the new "Super Turbo-Fire V8" (optional at extra cost) puts 180 h.p. under your foot! Pick the one you'd rather have fun with, then come in and get behind the wheel. You'll see why the Motorama Chevrolet is showing its heels to everyone else on the road!

*National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing.

Combine your new Chevrolet purchase with your vacation plans!

Order a new Chevrolet through us, then pick it up at the plant in Flint, Michigan, see Chevrolets built, if you like, and drive your home. Chances are, you'll save a substantial share of your vacation travel costs!

Study Of Gardening Is Continued By HD Clubs

"Gardening According to Texas Food Standards," subject for demonstrations given Home Demonstration Club women by Argen Draper, county home demonstration agent, during the month of April has done much to make housewives more vitamin conscious in meal preparation as shown in reports.

Clubs reporting late April meetings are:

Ford
Mrs. Carl Straffuss was hostess for members of the Ford Home Demonstration Club April 20.

Argen Draper, CHDA, told those attending that night blindness is caused from a lack of vitamin A which is found in apricots, egg yolks, cheese, yellow squash, sweet potatoes, carrots, lettuce, cabbage, radishes, bananas and in butter and cream.

All of the vegetables mentioned may be grown in the home garden she pointed out.

Mrs. Draper also emphasized the importance of vitamin C, which cannot be stored in the body. "Results of a deficiency in vitamin C are responsible for tooth decay, gum sores, weak blood vessels, wounds that heal slowly and excessive bleeding," she said.

Vegetables listed as high in vitamin C content are tomatoes, rhubarb, strawberries, melons, boysenberries, broccoli, peas, greens, and potatoes.

Mrs. Frank Knabe was a visitor. Members attending were: Mesdames L. J. Straffuss, Ben Kelly, Willa Williamson, Leftoy Williamson, W. A. Bunch, Dwayne Walker, Elmer Ayres, S. T. Wiseman, H. M. Harrison, Earl Dyer, Henry Browning, Hardy Benson, C. D. Corley, Tom Draper, J. L. Pite and the hostess.

West Hereford
Mrs. N. W. Livesay introduced Mrs. Pat Sullivan who gave the program on "Food Production" for members of the West Hereford H. D. Club which met in the home of Mrs. M. C. King April 26.

Following the demonstration given by Mrs. Sullivan, assistant H. D. agent, Mrs. Vern Witherspoon led a general discussion on food problems.

Mrs. Lee Conklin was a visitor and Mrs. H. L. Witherspoon was welcomed as a new member.

Members present were: Mesdames P. H. Luck, Evelyn Bell, Carl Schroeder, N. W. Livesay, Ida May Vaughn, Nettie Boyd, W. H. Autrey, Roy Boyd, A. E. Douglas, John Jacobsen Sr., Carlos Vaughn, R. L. Calhoun, Alice Cox, W. A. Waters and the hostess Mrs. King.

"The shape of a person's face determines what hair style should be worn," said Mrs. Bob Howard in introducing the program on "Restyling and Shampooing Hair" given to members of the Messenger H. D. Club who met with Mrs. N. A. Brown on April 22.

Mrs. Elred Brown told the group that the scalp should always be massaged in a circular motion with the fingertips before shampooing. Mrs. Floyd Brown used Mrs. S. N. Thweatt and Mrs. John McCullar as models for a demonstration on shampooing and setting.

Mrs. Bob Howard received both the game and the recreation prize. Mrs. Johnny Northcutt received a gift from her secret pal.

Visitors were Mrs. Elred Brown and Gayle and Betty Potts. Members attending were: Mesdames Ernest Brown, Elmer Northcutt, S. N. Thweatt, John McCullar, Floyd Brown, Johnny Northcutt, J. E. Rouse, Bruce Coleman, Bob Howard, L. W. Campbell and the

Scott Puts Waste Water To Good Use With Own System

By Roberta Campbell

Not the largest irrigation system in the county, but one that serves its purpose well, is the homemade pump which Jesse Scott has built recently to lift the waste water from the ditch in front of his home southeast of Hereford. The water will be used to irrigate his lawn, his garden and more than an acre of alfalfa with a nurse crop of oats sowed along with it this spring.

Scott says he possibly spent as much as $12 in cash to assemble the pump and equip the small one and one-half horse power motor for butane which eliminated the necessity of refueling often.

The pump is operated by a V-type belt running from the motor to the pulley attached to a section from a combine auger which lifts the water from the ditch. The auger works inside a four inch pipe about four and one-half feet long. A lead pipe the same size has been welded to the top and the outlet flows a full pipe.

To install the pump, Scott dug back into the bank to allow the water the flow in underneath the pump from the ditch. The water is held back to the proper level by a gate. The pump may be moved and reset easily.

Enough waste water has come down the ditch in the last few days to water the lawn and garden

A CLOSE-UP of the pump and motor which furnishes the power to rotate the auger from an old combine placed inside a four inch pipe and connected to a pulley operated by one and a half horse power motor which uses butane for fuel is shown. The whole set-up is portable and is easily moved to different locations along the ditch for convenience. (Staff Photo)

Two 4-H girls sold light bulbs at the annual meeting of the Deaf Smith County Electric Corp. Sandra Wester and Maxie Wiseman really did work to sell about 66 packages. They send their thanks to the young ladies who cooperated with them—Adeline Vance, Dorothy Hund, Patsy Hampton, Roxy Hulsey and Jo Click. Also, to every one else who helped. Mrs. Ira Ott was on the job working to make the best better as was Mrs. Jimmie Thomas and Mrs. Clarence Saulcy. Mrs. Saulcy is not a leader now, but she still helps with our projects.

Please, please don't sell Tom Draper any more light bulbs—he has enough now to do a long time. He is still wondering who had the bright idea to give him change in light bulbs for a $10 bill when he bought—or thought he was buying one sack of bulbs. Wilburn Axe, Bill Ellis and Leo Forrest all denied it.

Judging the Rural Neighborhood Contest in Castro, Armstrong and Ochiltree Counties was a real pleasure to me. In each community the entire community had worked to improve the place where they lived. And almost all of them said they wanted to make their home communities attractive to the young families who were ready to choose a home. Some of the people in this county have mentioned the same type program and it does seem that community programs similar to this would be fine for a rural neighborhood. The Extension Service cooperates with the Farmer-Stockman to sponsor this type program. Extension Service has two specialists in planning programs to benefit all families and all members of the families. It is another phase of adult education.

County 4-H Club Girls Are Winners In District Meet

Two first places and one second place went to 4-H Girls from Deaf Smith County competing in the District Elimination held on the Campus of WTSC at Canyon on April 30.

Ann Dyer and Peggy Browning from the Jolly Girls 4-H Club were placed first in the electric team demonstration.

Martha Logan and Pat Dawson from the Happy Homes Club also placed first in the Team Demonstration on vegetables.

Royce Lee Pruitt and Margaret Burrus from the Walcott Club rated second in the team contest on farm and home safety.

Carlyn Williams, also from the Happy Homes Club, entered the individual demonstrations on Dairy Foods.

One hundred and twenty five girls from 26 counties entered the Demonstrations.

Girls winning the first place awards will receive an expense paid trip to College Station to the State Round-Up on June 8-10.

Adults accompanying the girls were: Mrs. Roy Pruitt, leader for the Jolly Girls; Mrs. Ira Ott, leader for the Happy Homes Club; and Mrs. J. E. Dyer, leader for the Walcott Club. Others making the trip were Mrs. Pat Sullivan, assistant H. D. agent; Mrs. Henry Browning, Mrs. Carl Williams, Cella Burrus and Merry Kay Pruitt.

A LIST OF ITEMS to be included in the home First Aid Kit is being shown in a demonstration given at the District Elimination Contest held recently in Canyon, by Margaret Burrus and Peggy Browning from the Walcott 4-H Club. The girls placed second in the contest. (Staff Photo)

ANN DYER AND PEGGY BROWNING were the first place winners in a team demonstration given at the District Examination held on the Campus of West Texas State College in Canyon last Saturday. They are both members of the Jolly Girls Club and the demonstration they gave was on Use of Electricity on the farm and in the home. (Staff Photo)

Friona Spoils Hereford Semi-Pros' Home Opener

By BILL KNOX

Friona spoiled Hereford's home opener here Sunday by delving them a 15-8 setback behind the hitting and pitching of veteran Stan Barrett. Barrett smashed a home run and two doubles and pitched the last three innings, giving up only one run.

Friona took an early lead, but Hereford fought back, capturing a lead which they held until the seventh inning. The Hereford semi-pros tangled out eight safe blows while Friona connected for 15 base hits, six for extra bases.

Two pitchers toiled for both teams. Francis Boyd started for Hereford, and gave away to Homer Hershey after being unable to get anybody out in the sixth. Boyd was responsible for seven runs, of which all except one were earned. Homer Hershey relieved him in the sixth and was tagged with the loss. He gave up eight runs, but only one of these was earned.

Starter for Friona was Lindley Davis, freshman student at West Texas State. Davis pitched six innings and gave up seven runs. Stan Barrett, who followed him on the mound, surrendered only one run and was credited with the win.

Hereford's fielding looked good until the seventh inning when they blew up and made three miscues.

In the ninth inning, the Hereford team made the stupendously large total of six errors. Friona was charged with five errors.

Friona started scoring with three runs in the first, hitting Francis Boyd at will. Johnny Deakly led off with a single and was sacrificed to second by Jimmy Oliver. and then Stan Barrett parked Francis Boyd's first pitch to send two runs across the plate. John Renner, Doc Patterson, and Shirley Cook all got successive singles to tally the other run.

However, Hereford took over in the second, scoring five tallies. Kyle Parker drew life on Beazly's error to lead off the inning. Suttle grounded to second, but Boyd walked. McNeese grounded to third, putting runners on second and third then Jack Burrus scored them both with a single. Burrus scored on Ken Carmichael's double, and after Lueb had walked and both runners advanced on a wild pitch, Charlie Duvall drove them in with a single.

Neither team scored again until the top of the fifth when Friona tied the score with two runs. Beazly again led off with a single, but Oliver was called out when he kicked his own bunt. Beazly scored on Barrett's double who came around on a single by John Renner. Friona took a brief lead in the top of the sixth by scoring two runs without getting a hit, but Hereford knotted the count in the last of the sixth. Suttle reached first on Barrett's error, but Hershey fanned, and Suttle was picked off second. McNeese walked and scored on Burrus' double, and Kenneth Carmichael scored him with his third hit of the day. The seventh and ninth innings were disastrous for Hereford. Friona scored eight runs in these two innings, putting the game on ice. Hereford scored a lone run in the last of the ninth to make the final score 15-8.

Walcott News

By MRS. T. L. COLLINS

A happy group of seventh and eighth grade children from Walcott School, left for Amarillo by bus for a skating party last Tuesday at 5 p.m. Their teacher, T. L. Collins, accompanied the group along with S. O. Perkins, who drove the bus.

They ate supper together in a cafe in Amarillo. Their party was scheduled in the Roller Palace of Amarillo. Much real fun was had by all, mostly trying to learn the art of skating. After many falls and plenty of successful rounds, a tired group left the skating floor. Again an eating stop was made before coming home.

Those in the party were: Royce Lee Pruitt, Janell Weaver, Mary Dufur, Margo Rubison, Margaret Burrus, Carol Lynn McClure, Mary Sue Patton, Gary Guseman, Bobby Lewis, George Lockhart, Wayne Johnson and Wayne Bomar. Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and children received word Sunday morning of her brother being in serious condition following a car wreck. They soon left for Free-stone, to be with him. We have had no further word.

Carl Myers was able to return to school this week for the first time since breaking his right arm two weeks ago.

Margaret Burrus and Royce Lee Pruitt gave their 4-H demonstration on a "first aid kit" in Hereford on Saturday, April 23. They go to Canyon to give their 4-H demonstration this Saturday, April 30.

The old saying, "one never misses the water until the well runs dry," is really true. Walcott School's electric pump burned out due to faulty wiring Friday afternoon. No more water until Sunday evening, when the motor was replaced. To have water again was nice, we were thankful that this breakdown didn't cause us to miss having school.

Clothing Expert Presents Program To 4-H Leaders

The Deaf-Smith County 4-H leaders met in called session Monday, April 25 at 2 p.m. at the REA. Miss Nena Roberson, state clothing specialist from College Station, trained 4-H leaders for their May and June clothing programs. In May leaders will give, "Laying, Cutting and Marking A Pattern." In June, the program will be "Appreciation and care of the Sewing Machine." Miss Roberson stressed the importance of cutting accurately with sharp shears, laying the pattern so that it is grain perfect. She suggested dress-makers carbon and a tracing wheel for transferring pattern markings to material. She demonstrated the proper way to handle the sewing machine for smooth, even sewing and longer wear.

The following leaders attended the meeting: Mrs. C. F. Homfeld, Caprock; Mrs. Ira Ott, Happy Homes; Mrs. J. E. Dyer, Jolly Girls; Mrs. T. J. Parsons, Merry Maidens; Mrs. M. H. Wiseman,

The next meeting will be with Mrs. J. E. Rouse May 13 for a program on yeast rolls.

Bippus
Bippus Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. Elmo Hall on April 27.

Those present were Mrs. Tom Traper, Mrs. J. G. Fortenberry, C. F. Homfeld, N. E. Tyler, Harry Harris, Christine Fortenberry and the hostess.

The Rance Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Troy Raye on April 26 with members of the Sunshine Club as guests.

The visiting club presented a skit in Safety entitled "There's No Place Like Home," written by one of the members.

The skit, which included two acts, first of which took place in the family on a return trip from the Tri-State Fair. The second act was in the kitchen of the home.

Several contest games were led by the Rance Club and piano selections were given by Mrs. Raye.

Refreshments were served to: Mesdames Robert Duke, Noble Howard, Ray Axtell, Wayne Powers, Cecil, Curtis from the Sunshine Club and Mesdames H. G. Behrends, E. J. Hodges, Jack Streun, Geo. DeLozier, Clarence Behrends, L. J. Counselman and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Burrus were active on the scene of the accident Tuesday night, when Travis Barton was critically injured in his 1954 Mercury which overturned on Highway 1058 near the Guseman's home.

We are pleased to report that good showers of rain fell at Walcott Friday night. It seems the grass looks greener already.

County Wide; Mrs. Roy Pruitt, Walcott; Mrs. Glenn Burrus, Walcott and Mrs. T. B. Thomas, Sadie Lee Oliver.

Mrs. T. J. Parsons, Chairman of Baked Show Committee, reported that the County Bake Show will be held May 27 at 9 a.m. The place is to be announced later. Baked products to be entered will be:

- (1) Chocolate Brownies
 - (2) Swedish Tea Ring
 - (3) Two-layer Iced Butter Cake
- The meeting adjourned at 4 p.m.

4-H Club Girls Make Plans For Spring Bake Show

Foods continue to hold the interest of 4-H Club girls who are preparing for their Spring Bake Show late this month.

Clubs reporting recent meetings are:

Merry Maidens
The Merry Maidens met in the home of Sue Minor in April. The meeting was called to order by Nancy Parsons, president. Business was discussed.

The demonstration on the preparation of "Swedish Tea Rings" was given by Loyce Sullivan, assistant agent.

LaNell Short was a visitor. Members present were: Nancy Parsons, Donna Lovel, DeLores Buck, Emily Pavlicek, LaNell Short, Polly Monroe, Mrs. T. J. Parsons, leader for the group, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Minor.

The next meeting will be in the home of DeLores Buck.

Jolly Girls
The Jolly Girls met April 28 in the home of Fern Coursey.

The meeting was called to order by Peggy Browning, president. Roll was called by Ann Dyer and answered with "Why I Eat Salads."

Peggy and Ann gave an electrical demonstration which will be used in district competition.

Ann and Fern gave a demonstration on tossed salads.

Refreshments were served to: Wynona Roberts, Joy Pickens, Arlene Cupell, Linda Cupell, Nancy Browning, Peggy Browning, Ann Dyer, Mrs. J. E. Dyer, leader, Mrs. R. W. Coursey and the hostesses.

The next meeting will be May 12 with Arlene and Linda Cupell.

Evelyn Hacker Is In Recital

PORTALES -- (Special)—Eight Eastern New Mexico University students were presented in a recital Monday evening in the Student Union Building ballroom. The sponsor of the program was the School of Music.

A trumpet selection -- "Finale" from "Concerto for Trumpet," Haydn--by Delores Winfrey, Liberal, Kans., opened the recital. Ethel Lynn Phillips, Capitah, played a piano number, "Sonata Op. 27, No. 1," Beethoven.

Other instrumental selections were "Sonatina in C Major," Mozart - Platagorsky, by Choe Ann Garten, Portales, Viola; "Suite of two pieces," A. O. Haugland, and "En Irlande," E. Bozza, by Harold Van Winkle, Alamogordo, French horn; and "Scenes from Childhood, Op. 15," Schumann, and "Ballad Op. 47," Chopin, by Evelyn Hacker, Hereford, piano.

Vocal numbers were presented by Jeff Floyd, Captain; Gail Poch Atlantic, Iowa; and Gary Blair, Artesia.

Floyd, a tenor, sang "Verborgenheit," Wolf, and "The Hills of Kerry," arranged by Dougherty. A baritone selection by Poch was "The Celestial Weaver," Bantock. "Three Salt-water Ballads," was presented by Blair, bass.

Annual Spring Style Show presented by the Homemaking Department at High School Saturday sure missed a treat. There were about 50 girls in the Revue and some very pretty and attractive dresses. They did a fine job of modeling and the script was clever. Congratulations to Mrs. Frank Prowell, Mrs. J. J. Durham and Mrs. LeGrand Morton: Mrs. Morton has done student teaching at the high school this semester; she is a senior student at West Texas and will get a degree in Home Economics in August.

Mrs. Prowell says she has received an invitation to come to the National 4-H Club Camp at Washington D. C. this summer. This is the Silver Anniversary and all 4-H'ers who have attended in that 25 years are invited to come back. She attended from New Mexico when she was a 4-H member. This is a leadership and community service recognition contest.

Go see the displays and exhibits in the local store windows. This is in celebration of National Home Demonstration Club Week. Deaf Smith County has 12 Home Demonstration Clubs with about 300 club women; seven 4-H Clubs with approximately 120 girls enrolled.

RELATED STORM VICTIM

STUTTGART, Ark. —The tornado that cut through Arkansas in 1952 and took 116 lives claimed another victim two years later. James Leon Woodward, 9, who suffered a head injury in the storm, fell into an irrigation ditch and drowned. His father said the boy had frequent, sudden fainting spells since the tornado, and officers said evidence indicates that the boy fainted and fell into the water.

Since World War II, more than 23,000 new houses have been built in Honolulu.

Every hour of every day...and night...consciously or subconsciously... we draw upon Mother's strength and love. It is a meager tribute that we should pause once a year and dedicate one day to Mother.

Mother is what makes the wheels go round. Home isn't home without Mother. The countless details, the careful planning, the constant loving care... that takes Mother every time. Children won't tick without Mother. Form the start, Mother is our warm meal when we are hungry, our extra blanket on a cold night, our light in a dark room. Little minds and hearts reach out for MOTHER. Baby-sitters aren't the same. Servants are insufficient. Even Daddy isn't quite enough. A well child runs on eager feet to tell MOTHER of his joys; a sick child calls constantly for MOTHER to soothe away his pains. There's something special, something extra, that comes only from Mother.

Who else can kiss a hurt and make it well? Who else can give us lovely memories of a happy childhood, rich with fun and friends? And who, but Mother, can lead us from our earliest days to find Him as our Refuge and Strength, a very present Help in time of trouble?

Life brings floods of uncertainties, disappointments, failures. Mother is the rock that stands fast. Her faith is sure, her spirit never wavering, her love never failing. Life, too, brings joy, achievement, success. There is no heart is happier even than our own. Mother is then the soaring cloud of radiant rapture, lifting us to new attempts.

As long as Mother lives, we shall not lack for care or love or prayers. When separation comes, as come it must, "death is swallowed up in victory." Life will not change Mother's love; death will not conquer it. Mother's spirit will walk ever beside us; her love will wrap us close. Her gentle hand will guide us; her sweet voice will echo in our ears. Again we'll feel that extra blanket slipped quietly over us, in the coldness of our night! Mother is and will be forever more our guardian angel. In this world or in the next, we know that we may draw eternally upon the strength and the love that is MOTHER'S LOVE TO YOUR CHURCH this Mother's Day.

HEREFORD HOME -- This three bedroom home is located at 413 Star Street and is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur

Dean. The Deans have lived only a few months in their new home, which is made of dark brown bricks. (Staff Photo)

Long Time Ago

Forty-five Years Ago

Always in the lead, Hereford has the privilege of announcing a new enterprise for the Panhandle. Seven women with progressive ideas of their own have purchased 321 acres of rich Hereford land and will open a farm at once. The farm is located about four miles south of town and is a smooth piece of property. The ladies who made the purchase through J. A. McElaney are Misses Emma F. Mason, Emma K. Doster, Emma Geib, Anna Biederman, Katherine Morrissey and Madames Laura Hawley and Anna McElheney of Illinois.

These ladies have plans which they will carry out regardless of the fixed notions of the men farmers, and they are to be congratulated on their departure from the usual avocations of the fairer sex.

If you rise early enough, get up about 4 o'clock, take your stand on the east porch, look straight east and climb the sky with your eye and if you are not near sighted, you can see the comet, "Halley's." It is only 100,000,000 miles off but it is coming right toward the earth at the rate of 7,000,000 miles per day. It will slow up a little each day, however, and the earth will just pass the spot where the comet crosses the path of the earth some 15 days earlier and will be 20,000,000 miles out of the way. But not soon enough to avoid plunging through the tail of the heavenly wonder. Yes, we will all have to shut our eyes and scream on May 8, for the tail will strike the earth at a speed of 10,000,000 miles per day. But it won't hurt.

Twenty-five Years Ago

The population of Hereford is now 2,460, according to the 1920 decennial count which has just been completed. The census report covered only the inhabitants within the incorporated limits, and all the really Hereford people outside the political lines have been counted as citizens of the county. A conservative estimate of this population will total 500 making Hereford in the 3,000 class.

One state interscholastic record fell and another was tied at Austin Saturday when Babe Russell, winged mercury of the Hereford High School and the speediest trackman of the Plains, showed his heels to Texas' best, dashed the 100 yards in 9.8 seconds and flashed over the 220 yards in 21.5 seconds. Russell not only won personal honors for himself and his school but he crashed the first and sport pages of newspapers everywhere, bringing valuable publicity to his home town. He will also take part in the national meet at high schools in Chicago.

Dory Detton, former world's light heavyweight wrestling champion and one of the most colorful and efficient grapplers ever to toil in this part of the country, comes out of semi-retirement Saturday night to team with his younger brother, Gene, in a tag match to feature the Hereford mat card.

The Detton Brothers go against popular Jim LaRock of Ithica, N. Y., and Mighty Zuma, a whirling dervish from the Argentine, in the feature at the Bull Barn.

The match is scheduled for two best falls of three or one hour. Both teams will warm up for the main go in a pair of preliminary jousts, Dory Detton against LaRock, and Gene Detton versus Zuma. Each is for one fall or 15 minutes.

Dory Detton, who took this part

Letter To The Editor

After reading your article on the 1955 valedictorian and salutatorian, and noticing that you believe the average Miss Brock made might be the highest ever made, I decided to look up some old clippings to see if it were.

I remembered that Mr. Knox Kinard stated to our class in 1945 that he had searched all previous records of valedictorian records and Lonidene Martin Edmonson's average was the highest ever made. In my clipping on the class of 1945's graduating exercise, Lonidene had an average of 96.25 and Marcella Blue Brady, who was salutatorian, had a 93.01 average. Evidently Lonidene's average is still the highest ever made and Miss Brock's is second. Oddly enough, this was 10 years ago, only one year farther back than you had records.

Very truly yours of the country by storm back in the middle thirties when he was a young and very agile middleweight, holds down two responsible jobs connected with wrestling in addition to taking active part in ring warfare maybe three or four times a year. He is promoter of wrestling at Amarillo and managing director of Southwest States Enterprises, the booking agency which provides mat talent for some 18 cities in West Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma.

It promises to be a crowd-pleasing card, what with a lot of action of the flying type. Zuma, junior heavyweight champion of Argentina when he left there nearly two years ago, spends nearly half his time in the air, featuring flying scissors, drop-kicks and other aerial antics.

This type of wrestling also was Dory Detton's forte, and he can still give lessons in the art.

Now...Mercury Montclair "Dream Car" styling in America's lowest-silhouette 4-door sedan

The same beauty that has made the Mercury Montclair hardtop Coupe one of the year's hottest cars is now available in a 4-door model.

The Montclair hardtop Coupe has been called America's most beautiful car. Many bought it on sight. Many others wanted to buy it. But they had big families. They wanted the beauty of the Montclair but needed convenience of a four-door model.

Now these people can have their cake and eat it too. For this popular Montclair is now also available as a distinctive 4-door sedan. And not one single inch of the original Mercury Montclair beauty has been sacrificed in this new model.

The new 4-door model still has that low, ultra-smart silhouette—only 58 3/4 inches high. The lines are long and clean—uncluttered by bric-a-brac. It's styling that is exclusive with Mercury—shared by no other car on the road.

And there's new performance to match. For under the hood there's a 198-horsepower SUPER-TORQUE V-8 engine. New features like dual exhausts and high-compression spark plugs put more of Mercury's high horsepower to work for your everyday driving. You don't need a superhighway to use it.

But place your order soon if you want early delivery. This new Montclair 4-door is going to be in big demand. Remember, too, that there are 10 more models in 3 series to choose from. A Mercury for every need and budget. We invite you to come in and see, try, and price the Mercury that suits you best.

"CHIEF CRAZY HORSE"

"All of the kids and a good majority of the grown-ups like to see the Red Men emerge victorious as they will see them in Universal International's Technicolor "Chief Crazy Horse," showing Friday and Saturday at the Star Theatre.

Filmed in CinemaScope, Victor Mature, Susan Ball and John Lund are co-starred in the action-movie filmed on location near Rapid City, South Dak.

Chief Crazy Horse, the great Sioux Chief, was admired by his people and respected by the United States Military men. He fought for the rights of his people against those who exploited the Indians and broke promises to them. Director Seaman claims that "Chief Crazy Horse" is a faithful depiction of Crazy Horse's life.

"BROKEN LANCE"

Mother's Day, a flower for every Mother present and a box of chocolates for the first 10, is the opening day of the Twentieth Century Fox CinemaScope drama, "Broken Lance," starring Spencer Tracy, Robert Wagner, Jean Peters, and Richard Widmark, at the Star Theatre.

Filmed in color by DeLuxe, it boasts Mexico's most highly paid movie star, Katy Jurado, who plays the role of Tracy's Indian wife.

Drama and melodrama, in the quarrel between the cattle ranchers and the encroaching copper mine owners as well as the scenes of cattle rustlers give the story its violent action. The picture also has an exceptional story of character and romance both primitive and tender.

Spencer Tracy has the role of a hard-driving, rugged and dominating father, a wholly new type of characterization for him. Robert Wagner, seen as Tracy's son by his Indian wife and Miss Peters, daughter of the governor, give warmth and emotional flavor to the story. In contrast to the fiery love of the younger players there is the tenderness and devotion between Tracy and his wife.

Tower Drive-In Theatre

Showing Thursday and Friday nights at the Drive-In, is "Duel in the Jungle" starring Jeanne Crain and Dana Andrews. Saturday night is "Pony Express" with Charlton Heston and Rhonda Fleming.

AUSTIN — All eyes are on the clock now as Legislators vie for position at the Speaker's post, to "run" with their favorite bills.

Time is swiftly bringing the Legislative "race" to a close.

Hundreds of bills will die on the calendar and never reach the finish line.

But, hundreds have passed. The House members took a quick look at a long, untested bill calendar, then passed 64 measures on to the Senate in two days.

Senators are now considering these bills and scrambling to get the House-passed tax bill under the wire before adjournment on or about May 10.

Subject to Senate approval is a two-cent gasoline tax increase, a one-cent-per-pack increase in cigarette taxes, plus a tax on cigars, snuff and packaged tobacco. Also in the omnibus tax bill is a levy on trading stamps and uranium ore. A hike in beer dealers' license fees is imminent. Contemplated too is freezing of the present natural gas production tax at 8 percent—originally due to drop to 7 percent in 1956.

It is estimated that the tax bill, as written, will produce $25,000,000 a year in additional revenue for the general fund. That is $5,000,000 short of the appropriation bill. So, there will have to be more levies, or the appropriation bill cut.

Veterans Land Bill

Both houses voted to submit a constitutional amendment to the people, in November of 1956, calling for an additional $100,000,000 for the veterans land program. Replacement of the Governor and Attorney General as members of the Veterans Land Board, by two appointed members, is specified in the bill.

Governor Allan Shivers and Attorney General John P. Sheppard repudiated the minutes of the board as compiled by Bascom Giles, former Land Commissioner, and the board ordered the minutes corrected.

Senator Jimmy Phillips, member of the Senate investigating committee immediately seized, for photostating, all the old minute books. Phillips said he did this, under committee subpoena, "to make certain that there is a permanent record of the minutes as they were originally entered."

Labor Legislation

Three bills by Sen. George Parkhouse, all fought by organized labor, moved ahead in the House.

The "Ford Motor Bill" was softened, then passed subject to Senate concurrence. It prohibits unemployment compensation benefits to workmen idled by a strike in other plants owned by their employer. It exempts the workman who makes a good-faith offer to return to his job.

Modified by the House labor committee, and reported favorably was Parkhouse's bill to eliminate "Port Arthur" strike situations. It would stop unions from picketing plants where the majority of the workers were non-union.

Another Parkhouse bill authorizes suits for injunctions and damages.

Workmen's Benefits

Benefits for workmen are destined to improve.

Passed by the House was a bill by Rep. Garth Bates, increasing the workmen's compensation rate from $25 to $35 a week.

A Senate bill by Parkhouse increases benefits under unemployment compensation from $20 to $25 a week, while restricting those who may receive jobless pay.

Governor Crawford Martin

You can call him Governor Martin now.

Sen. Crawford C. Martin of Hillsboro became governor for a day. As President-Pro-Tem of the Senate, he became acting Governor when Governor Shivers went to Washington and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey conveniently absented himself across the Sabine River for a day.

Friends of the Hillsboro Senator organized a "junior inaugural" in his honor.

Shivers Has 1,000 Guests

Governor and Mrs. Shivers were hosts to some 1,000 guests at a formal reception at the Mansion.

The biennial affair, given for legislative members, state officials and their wives, was the big party of the week in Austin.

Appointments Confirmed

Twenty-nine appointments made by Governor Shivers were approved by the Senate. These included: PRESIDING JUDGES: Judge V. L. Jack Thornton of Dallas, first administrative judicial district; Judge Howard P. Green of Cuero, fourth district; and Judge Floyd Jones of Breckenridge, eighth district.

BOARD OF REGENTS (State Teachers Colleges):

H. L. Mills of Houston, Miss Elizabeth Koch of San Antonio, and Henry Sears of Hereford.

VETERANS AFFAIRS COMMISSION: Marcus Weems of West Columbia.

Dust Storm Disaster

Alarmed by dust storms, John C. White, Agriculture Commissioner, says "Much of the land in West Texas is in far worse shape now than at any time in history, including the dust bowl era of the 1930s."

Following a tour of West Texas, White made recommendations to the State and Federal governments that steps be taken to remedy the drought situation.

SHORT SNORTS: The Legislature made permanent 39 temporary district courts and created four more. . . Congressional and judicial redistricting bills died in the session's log-jam. . . A constitutional amendment to let the state make retribution to persons who serve time in prison for crimes they don't commit passed both houses and will be voted on at the general election next year.

Two House bills to tighten enforcement of narcotics laws passed the House and were favorably approved by the Senate criminal jurisprudence committee.

HOT CRASH

CLINTON, S. C. — Truck driver Alfred Payne was in front of the fire station when his truck caught fire. The blaze was extinguished quickly.

While he was inside the fire station telephoning home, the truck rolled down a grade, knocking down a mail box and a fire hydrant and crashing into an oak tree.

The town was without water for six hours while the hydrant was repaired.

Beginning Fisherman Gets Advice From Expert Angler

By DION HENDERSON

Here is a word to encourage the beginning fisherman: Fear not for lack of skill or practice. The worm does most of the work.

And the worm works just as hard whether the new Walton is a weary executive or a bright-eyed sprout. Later on, sport fishermen may graduate to plug casting, to spinning tackle or the cult of the fly-rod. But even then some may hide an angler's worm, like a secret vice, for those special days when fish are deep or feeding slow.

Even the best of the fancy tackle anglers like to recall how they started—usually barefoot in a hammock with a willow pole and a bent pin and an uncommonly active worm.

There is much to be said for this simple beginning.

First of all, let the beginner cut himself a limber wand, of willow if possible, but most anything will do. There is more to the willow than either economy or tradition too. A good willow, in its brief green prime, beats the stuffing out of anything up to a good flyrod for sporty play of pan-fish. And sport is what you're after. Find one seven or eight feet long and not bigger than a man's thumb at the base.

The line should be only slightly longer than the pole, unless you're going to fish deep in a lake. Tie it back along the tin with several knots a foot or so apart, for support. Discard such things as corks and bobbers. The young in heart consider these as the sure sign of a fisherman who intends to sleep rather than fish. In practice, you'll either let the bait drift, or fish it just off the bottom anyway.

As to hooks, you don't really have to go as far as the bent pin. That rightly belongs with the barbed hook, which in turn is part of the upper level of skilled flyrod fishing rather than beginning.

And now for the really talented member of your initial fishing partnership: The worm. Try turning over a spadeful or two of moist shady loam, and move right smartly. The best worms are hardest to catch. For the eager youngster, or the fellow with a spark of sporting blood who can put his dignity aside, catching the worms is sort of a preliminary feat.

And if you want to do a superb job in preparing a menu for pan-fish, bullhead or such, try for the notably husky variety of earthworm called nightcrawlers because that's what they do.

The pursuit of nightcrawlers with a flashlight, in the wet grass of the lawn, starts off your first fishing expedition with a study of wildlife in miniature. A nightcrawler, grain for grain, is as wild as any grizzly in the bear business.

Put your worms in a tin can, just like Huck Finn did, with some moist soil beneath and some moist grass above to keep them cool and lively. Where you're at the brook—or pond, or lake—take that long shanked hook (a small one, maybe No. 8) and hook the worm through the belt of muscle around his middle.

Then toss out the bait, and let the worm take over.

TV Beauty Wows Bullfight Fans In Old Mexico Arena

By JACK RUTLEDGE

MEXICO CITY—In a few short months Bette Ford, a petite Broadway brunette who looks like Elizabeth Taylor, has become Mexico's leading woman bullfighter.

"It wasn't easy," she said after a recent fight in Acapulco. "But I am going to keep on as long as God loves me."

She had had a close call that afternoon. A particularly vicious bull had tossed her and, as she said, "danced the cha-cha-cha on me" before aides lured it away from her prostrate form.

"I wasn't particularly frightened," she said. "It made me angry. My first reaction was 'how dare you!'"

And she got up from the arena of sand and blood to put on one of her greatest performances—one that won her two ears and a tail, about the highest tribute a bullfighter ever gets.

Since her opening fight July 4, 1954, she has won so many ears and tails that she has one complete wall of her apartment here adorned with them.

Other American girls have been attracted to the bullring. Patricia McCormick of El Paso was a leading fighter until she was gored badly last September. Pat has just resumed fighting.

Julia Burnett of El Paso; Colleen Davis, Phoenix, Ariz.; Ruth Massey, Anaheim, Calif.; Georgina Knowles, Tucson, are a few who are trying to crash the difficult and dangerous gate to fame in the bullring.

But Bette is the year's greatest success, and makes 'em in from harder to harder. In Panama she is a top favorite.

Bette was born in McKeen, Pa., 24 years ago. She went to New York and became a successful model for a bathing suit making. Later she appeared in radio shows and on television with such stars as Jimmy Durante, and in such shows as Texaco Star Theater and Ford Theater and others. Her future as an actress was bright.

But she saw a bullfight in Bogota, Colombia, while on a South American modeling tour, and fell in love with the sport. She turned down a moving picture contract to take up the art of killing bulls.

For two long years she trained. It meant early rising, daily practice, long hours in the open—and no night life.

Last July she felt confident she had mastered at least the elementary phases of her chosen profession, and made her debut in June of July 4.

Since then she has fought almost every week, expects to appear about 30 times this season. She is usually the highest paid matador on the card, and has been invited to fight in the Plaza Mexico, the world's largest.

"But I'm not quite ready for that," she says. "Next year, maybe."

Her biggest success to date was in Panama early this year. And it led to a new record for women bullfighters—three appearances in eight days.

Her greatest thrill is when the crowd roars "torera"—which means in effect "you're a real bullfighter." One of her most amusing incidents was when she was dancing gracefully away from a bull and fell flat on the seat of her tight gray pants.

"I sat there and looked at the bull with my mouth open, and he was so surprised he slid to a stop and looked back at me," she said.

Her beauty, her ballet-like gracefulness, and her shy smile wow the Latinos. And what is her ultimate ambition?

"God willing, I'm going back to New York and the theater. But that will be years from now."

Lt. Manjeot Is Participating In Army Exercise

FORT LEE, Va. — First Lt. Lloyd H. Manjeot, 28, son of Arthur L. Manjeot, 122 Avenue E, Hereford, is participating in LOG-EX-55, an Army-wide logistical exercise, at Fort Lee, Va., May 2-7.

He is serving as an umpire for the exercise, which is designed to train 5,000 officers and enlisted personnel in supplying combat troops for modern warfare.

Lieutenant Manjeot, whose wife, Rosemarie, is with him at Fort Lee, entered the Army in 1951 after graduating from Texas A&M College.

The slopes of the Great Smoky Mountains are drained by more than 600 miles of streams.

The two-year Buddhist council in Rangoon, Burma, is scheduled to end in May, 1956.

Miner's Son Finds Nursing One Way To Become Doctor

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—A nurse's paychecks are paving the way into medical school for Stephen J. Prevostnik, 25, and Prevostnik himself is the nurse.

He'll get a premedical degree at Notre Dame in June. For four years he has worked the 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. shift 40 hours a week in local hospitals. His present assignment is the orthopedic ward. "Sometimes those youngsters really keep you on the move," he says.

He hopes to continue working as a nurse, at least part time, when he moves on to the University of Pennsylvania medical school. But there is nothing part time about his present job.

He carries a full schedule of classes. In the afternoon and evening he studies and sleeps. At 11 o'clock he goes back to his 26 to 50 patients in the ward. Besides, he's president of the hospital nursing staff, chairman of Notre Dame Red Cross activities and a member of the university honor society.

His father is a miner in Bedford, Pa. It was there, in high school, that he decided nursing might be the answer to lack of money for a medical education. He trained for three years with a predominantly female class of nurses in Philadelphia and moved on to Notre Dame. The plan was suggested by a physician when Prevostnik's sister was sick and he was helping to take care of her.

His father will see the Notre Dame campus for the first time at the June graduation, but the entire family is looking forward five years to the time when Stephen will trade his R.N. for an M.D.
