"Country Roads . . . Take Me Home . . ."

This hit, pop tune extols the joy of returning. Wednesday, hundreds returned to Kokomo, and to them and to any seeing it for the first time, it was a sight to behold.

It is a picture-book community, and for a nation raised on Currier and Ives prints you don't have to go further than Kokomo to see America the Beautiful.

The occasion was the Kokomo Improvement State Tour, and the folks who still call it home put their best face forward to visitors and judges who will pick the number one most-improved community in the state. Kokomo and three others are being judged this week and if this Eastland County community isn't picked first it will be because the competition is stiff.

It's the first time for Kokomo people to enter and they've won already against tremendous odds, to gain the "one of the top four" spots.

Eastland Jaycee flags flew from every mailbox, the Gorman high school band played and visitors gathered at the community center on the perfectly clear, cool Spring morning, to let Kokomo be host.

An auto caravan of judges, press people, visitors and well wishers made a long tour of the rural wonderland, to see CLEAN fence rows and barrow ditches, beautiful country homes, and fields lacking only in natural moisture.

The other three communities must be fine to have been picked along with Kokomo, but if there ever was a spot that says "We care about brightening our corner" it's got to be Kokomo, right in the middle of Texas, and in our opinion — the perfect example of what the contest is all about.

"MOSCOW" — That's what Mayor James Reid expects to be asking, as it suddenly dawns on him that yes, in fact, he will, before summer ends, visit the U.S.S.R. captiol. He will be a member of a delegation which will leave Aug. 1 to spend two days in Paris, one day in Stockholm and a day in Moscow, where they will make an appeal for the release of American prisoners in North Vietnam. Co-Publisher Virgil Moore of Breckenridge will also make the trip.

All leaders and helpers of the Girl Scouts Day Camp set for June 14-15, received On-Site training, Tuesday May 11, at the Campsite. Instruction leader from Brownwood, left, is Ruthelle Allen. Three of the ladies who received training are Tonie Reed, Le Juan Rollins and Dolores Tankersley of Eastland.

The Eastland Chamber of Commerce and local citizens are joining in an appeal to the Texas Railroad Commission to have a voice in the railroad proposal to terminate freight service here and dismantling of the old historic depot.

The way it stands right now, the Railroad Commission will hear Missious-Pacific R. R.'s requests at a hearing in Austin on June 1 to terminate freight service in Eastland and permission to demolish the depot.

Two years ago Eastland folk joined with neighbors and appeared at a hearing in Strawn to oppose the termination of service. That effort was successful and the railroad's request was denied by the commission. No official notice has been made here of the June 1 Commission hearing early this week.

President Jeff Glazner reports that the Chamber of Commerce has sent the following telegram to the Commission:

"We respectfully request your consideration in postponing the hearing relating to Docket No. 3064-RO, scheduled for June 1, 1971 and rescheduling this hearing in Eastland so the people of our Community will not be inconvenienced in having to travel to Austin to protect their interest."

Eastland native Cyrus Frost spoke passionately at the Strawn hearing and had agreed to speak up here if the meeting can be rescheduled here, as have others who are concerned with the loss of freight service and the destruction of the building.

Degrees Tonight

Eastland Lodge No. 457, A. F. & A. M. will confer two Fellowcraft degrees Thursday night, May 20th.

Registration for Girl Scout Day Camp has been extended to June 1st. All girl Scouts interested in attending the Day Camp, June 14-18 at the old Leon Plant please send your registration form and $25.00 to Mrs. Warren Chapman.

The Site is a beautiful place to have a camp and the leaders and workers met last week and learned to lash tables and prepare a trench fire so they can teach the Girl Scouts at camp.

AT SBA MEETING HERE

A six hour meeting for 48 business and community leaders in this area was attended in Eastland at the White Elephant restaurant recently. Pecan Insect Control Field Day At Gorman Pecan insect control will be the feature topic at the spring pecan field day for the pecan growers of Eastland County Friday, May 21 in Gorman. The field day will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the Fire Hall in Gorman. He invites growers from surrounding counties as well as those in Eastland County to attend.

County Agent De Gordon said other topics to be discussed will be pecan disease control, training of young trees, weed control, and mechanical of orchards for mechanical harvesting. These subjects will be discussed by Dr. J. W. Worthington, Extension Horticulturist; Dr. Clifford Hoelscher, Extension Entomologist; and Tom Denman, Horticulturist at the Texas A&M Tarleton Experiment Station.

The field day will continue at Charlie Underwood's orchard after lunch. The insect situation will be examined in the orchard.

Audrey 2nd in State, 1st in Eastland

By TERESA HERRIDGE

Miss Audrey England, a sophomore at Eastland High School, recently took second in the 880 at the girls' State track meet in Abilene. The first place time was 2:23.8 and Audrey's time was 2:26.

Audrey set a record at eliminations for the 880 in the State track meet last year. She took seventh in the final race. This year she won first in the 880 at both district and region track meets.

The success of this young lady may be attributed to her great amount of enthusiasm and dedication. Audrey started preparing for the State meet last year. When the football players and basketball girls started their work outs she began her race for success. Outside of the time set aside for practice, Audrey could be seen walking to her destinations. She never rode when it was possible to walk or run.

In state, she is second of some 600 girls. In Eastland, she's No. One in a million.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill England.

Audrey is very active in other phases of community, church, and school life. She is in the Eastland High School Beta Club which requires study time to maintain the grade point average of this honor group.

She is a member of the First Baptist Church and to all the young people who know her, she is always cheerful and inspiring.

To the city of Eastland, Audrey has brought great honor, and Eastland is proud of her.

and the height of achievement she has reached. In years to come we hope to see

AUDREY ENGLAND

CLEAN WATER O.K. IN VOTE HERE, STATE

A sprinkling of Eastland County voters turned out Tuesday to help the state pass the "Clean Water" amendment, and veto the other three issues on the special election.

Only 1,019 voters took the time to go to the eight polling places in the county. There were no absentee votes.

Two boxes in the county, Desdemona and Rising Star turned thumbs down on all four issues and Carbon voted against three and tied on the fourth.

Olden voted for all but the first (ethics and pay raise).

The county voting went like this:

	1	2	3	4
Eastland	A	A	F	F
Olden	A	F	F	F
Ranger	A	A	F	A
Desdemona	A	A	A	A
Gorman	A	A	F	F
Carbon	A	A	A	T
Rising Star	A	A	A	F

Jon Tate to Take Helm at Hale Center

Jon Tate, resigning Baird school superintendent, was among the honored at the annual Baird FFA Awards meeting in Baird Tuesday night.

The Baird chapter presented Tate a plaque, recognizing his cooperation and work with chapter projects during the three years he has been at Baird.

He will be superintendent at Hale Center for the 1971-72 school year.

He is married to the former Joann Durham. They have one son.

Her mother, Mrs. J. C. Durham, lives in Eastland. Jon formerly taught in Eastland.

City Okays Paving Help for 68-Unit Apartment Here

The Eastland City Commission gave rapid approval Monday evening to a request for about $1,000 worth of street paving to provide entrance for a new apartment complex here.

A 68-unit facility with service features, swimming pool and other attractions is being mapped for South Eastland, south of Sadosa St., and laying generally at what is now the end of S. Connelley St. The developers will provide curbing and guttering and the city will provide paving.

The developers were unable to have their plan at the Monday night city meeting at City Hall, but tentative approval was voted.

The commissioners narrowed to two the number of proposals for a tractor to be used in the sanitary land fill project here. Treanor Equipment (Carpenter) and Plains Machinery (International), both of Abilene are low bidders, and commissioners are continuing their review of these two pieces and plan to make arrangements for demonstrations of the equipment.

Eastland High School Coach Shirley Frazier was given approval to continue his Summer Recreation Program, which he has managed for several years, at a cost in salary of $200 per month for the three summer months. In the program he provides supervision for various recreational and athletic programs for Eastland youngsters.

The Commission also gave approval to Carbon City officials for that city to use Eastland refuse disposal services at nominal costs to be worked out. They will be permitted to dump into the present Eastland City Dump and will be permitted to use the Land Fill Disposal System when it becomes operational later this summer. Mayor Brittain of Carbon had requested permission, stating that Carbon had been forced to close its dump grounds because of excessive use.

Commissioners toyed with the idea of a summer water rate but did not elect to go into the program, although they did agree to reconsider the matter at the June meeting.

Mayor James Reid presided and present were Commissioners Dale Bakker, H. V. O'Brien and W. Q. Verner.

Guests included Mrs. James Dabney and Cliff Wilson.

Coach Frazier will not manage the swimming pool this year by his own request, it was reported. Manager Tiner said that he felt that he could secure someone to operate it, and Splash Day and the pool opening will be the weekend following the end of the school term.

It was announced that the city's new Ford police car is in service. The vehicle previously used as a patrol car has been assigned to Manager Tiner for his city use and the old Ford will be used as a stand-by patrol car.

The new apartment complex will offer one, two and three bedroom facilities.

Your Problems are our Business—

... or at least some of them are. For example, we Americans can't get along without the automobile. As a consequence, we have problems some of which may be very grave and expensive. So we look to insurance—which is strictly American—for what relief it will afford. It can't solve all of our troubles, but over the years, it has saved our customers an untold amount of money by simply having the kind of insurance that paid off when needed. Are you adequately insured?

Maples-Frost Vows Said in San Antonio

In a Saturday ceremony, Miss Claudia Vernelle Marple and David Earl Frost exchanged wedding vows before Rev. William M. Harris in Jefferson United Methodist Church of San Antonio, Texas.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Marple and Li Col and Mrs. Don C. Frost of San Antonio, former residents of Eastland. The groom is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas C. Frost of Eastland.

The bride wore a formal gown of English cotton lace over taffeta accented with seclipped lace and pearls at the neckline. Her cathedral manilla of illusion was edged in Venetian lace and seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of white daisies, yellow roses, and baby's breath.

The bride maids wore yellow linen empire dresses. The peasant necklines and puffed sleeves were trimmed in white cotton, crocheted lace. White horsehair braid garden hats with white velvet ribbon were worn. A yellow velvet ribbon with a daisy pendant was worn at each girl's neck. Nosegays of daisies were carried by all.

Matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. David P. Hutzler. Also attending the bride were Misses Patricia Puck of San Antonio, Martha Cook of Arlington, Virginia, Susan Smiley of Long Island, New York, Mrs. William E. Bradford of San Antonio, and Mrs. Lee Jones of Dallas. Flower girls were Jamie and Jill Chism of San Antonio. Best man was Morris K.

Patterson of Lampasas, and Steven K. Weap of Travis AFB, California. Groomsmen were Glenn R. Marple Jr., brother to the bride from San Antonio, Robert A. Lewis and Joseph E. Settlemeyer of San Antonio, and W. Russell III of Wildcat, Texas, AFB, Ohio, and Lt. Robert E. Payne III of Pensacola, Florida.

The bride's sister, Claudia, and Randy, Mrs. R. C. Foster of Abilene, Carolyn Foster of Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brown and Kriss, Mr. and Mrs. Euell Allison and Alice Ann of Gorman and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lovell of Carbon attended the commencement program at Tarleton State College Sunday afternoon May 15. Farmers Union Frowns On Rural Aid Through Revenue Sharing

The board of Directors of Texas Farmers Union strongly censured the Nixon Administration's recommendations for rural development through revenue sharing with the states and the reorganization of the Department of Agriculture at its meeting in Sherman, April 24. The governing board of the statewide farm organization questioned the sincerity of Secretary Hardin's visit to Texas and referred to the drought relief promised as a "sham".

In a resolution adopted by the 35 county Farmers Union presidents attending the Sherman meeting, the farm group stated that the "rural development program as proposed by the Nixon administration to be financed through revenue sharing would be more of a rural dismantling program than one of development."

The resolution stated, "Since there is no new money recommended in the proposal and all proposed fundings for important rural programs are below that which was appropriated by Congress for fiscal year 1971, it is evident that several federal-state grant-in-aid programs would be eliminated. These include the rural water and sewer system program, the rural environmental assistance program, and the agricultural extension service program. The states, hard pressed for funds, would simply take the federal funds and use them to make up what otherwise would be the state contributions to the important programs."

The resolution on the reorganization of the Department of Agriculture stated that "The Texas Farmers Union is unalterably opposed to the Nixon Administration's proposal to reorganize the Department of Agriculture." The resolution went on to state that if this recommendation were implemented many important programs of the Department of Agriculture would be submerged into a morass of bureaucratic red tape. "It would mean the complete loss of identity of agriculture in the higher echelons of government."

A resolution on the drought relief program promised by Secretary of Agriculture Hardin on his visit to Texas stated that Secretary Hardin is misleading Texas farmers and ranchers in the drought areas by leading them to believe that they will have access to supplies of low-cost grain and hay to preserve their foundation breeding livestock herd. The resolution stated, "No self-respecting farmer or rancher would take advantage of the grain and hay program as it is presently constituted, because of the requirement of a financial disclosure and poverty oath that is intended to discourage those who need assistance from taking advantage of it."

"The Secretary of Agriculture apparently considers the drought relief program which is badly needed in some areas in Texas in spite of the recent rains, as a poverty program rather than one which is intended to relieve the hardship to the rural communities that are hard hit by the drought disaster. It is apparent that the Secretary of Agriculture is more interested in the political impact of his trip to Texas and his announcement than in doing anything that will materially benefit the farmers and ranchers of the state who are faced with economic disaster because of the persistent drought," the resolution stated.

The Texas Farmers Union Board approved the location of the 1971 convention in San Antonio and set the dates December 6, 7, and 8. Fort Worth was approved for the 1972 state meeting.

Texas Farmers Union president Jay Naman reported a 20 percent increase of membership over 1970.

W. H. St. Clair Visits Witnesses

C. Henslee, local presiding overseer of Jehovah's Witnesses, has announced the visit of a special representative of Jehovah's Witnesses who will be in Eastland May 11-16. W. H. St. Clair is a travelling minister from the world Headquarters of the group in New York City.

While in Eastland, he will aid the local Witnesses in their house to house ministry which is carried on world wide. St. Clair said, "Many persons today are seeking Bible answers to modern day questions. For this reason we call at the homes of our neighbors and friends to share with them what the Bible as God's Word has to say on today's problems."

Also during his tenure here he will give special Bible lectures at the local Kingdom Hall, located at 204 N. Dixie St. This will begin Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. Then on Saturday evening at 8 p. m. a program is provided which is designed to aid all in attendance to increase their understanding of Bible prophecies. Sunday at 9 a. m. will come the climax of St. Clair's visit with the Bible lecture entitled "Proclaiming Good News In All The Earth."

Asked if the public was invited, St. Clair said, "They are not only invited but Jehovah's Witnesses would like to extend a warm, cordial invitation to all who wish to be in attendance not only this week, but at anytime." There is no charge, or collection taken.

No other subject in all the world is so interesting and fascinating to women young and old as styles. Fashion magazines have held sway for these many years. And ready to wear Shops are meeting places for all ages.

Fashion magazines of 1895 were numerous and much sought after. At the head of such magazines was The McDowell Journal of Fashion, filled with practical information on latest styles, notes on leading fabrics, trimmings and colors. On each page were pictured ultra styles in suits, dresses and coats. These were all of the very latest design. There was the La Mode de Paris and The Paris Album of Fashion. Either magazine could be had for 350 per year or 35 cents per single copy. The French Dressmaker was another favored monthly fashion magazine at $3.00 per year and 30 cents per copy.

Madame La Mode displayed a tendency in 1895 to revive the Louis XIV fashions. These creations appeared in the cut away fronts to show a vest of flowered fabric. Old fashioned Fischus and wide brimmed hats carried out the fabrics copied from the epoch. All varieties of Louis XIV Coats appeared made of Satin Silk, Velvet and Lace.

Costumes of white alpaca were worn during the mid-summer at the seashore and mountains.

Evening silks with Pompadour colors were exceedingly popular and for afternoon dresses figured lawns and India Mulls trimmed with insets of yellow lace and decorated with chiffon Boas and fancy silk girdles of ribbon and flowers.

Wash costumes were more popular than they had ever been before. Beautiful morning dresses were the vogue made of French gingham, fancy linen duck and pique in pastel shades of baby blue, shell pink and buttercup yellow.

The large collar over the shoulder was seen every where. Collars were evident on "Tailor" gowns and Outing gresses, on fancy silk dresses and on the outside of heavy cloth jackets.

Varied materials were used for collars—ranging from tulle and lace to grass cloth, duck silk and velvet.

Many of the new skirts were box pleated and all the sleeves were voluminous and lavishly trimmed with lace ribbon hands.

Yellow lace was used on almost every thing. No matter the color or style of the costume. It trimmed yokes, sleeves, collars, Fischus and in some cases the wide skirts.

Bustles were very fashionable as were high collars held up with stiff boning. Close fitting basques, also heavily boned, were the top in fashion. Skirts swept the floor in length and were daintily held up on one side by the wearer. Numbers of swishy taffeta petticoats were worn under skirts of taffeta, worsted and alpaca.

Ladies hats were trimmed with silk flowers, birds feathers and plumes and yards of stiff silk ribbons and fancy be-jeweled hat pins. Veils were very evident.

Black lisle hose and high top black kid shoes with pointed toes, either the lace up kind or button up shoes with high spindle heels, complemented the smartest costumes.

Pocket books were in all sizes shapes and colors. Ranging from dainty briefs of soft leather to satchel size of heavier, coarse leather. The larger sizes were handy to biscuit or perhaps a teacake to church for a lunch for hungry little ones. They were also convenient for extra baby diapers and a change of clothes for a young child.

Every sophisticated lady carried a lacy fragile handkerchief with the delicate scent of Hoyts cologne emanating from it each time it was used.

No well dressed lady would have dreamed of being in company without gloves or mittens, these were always black no matter what color the suit or dress.

Black silk umbrellas were the height of fashion and completed an up-to-date costume. All through the ages women have followed styles of the day. They were created to do just that.
