The Shrine Circus is coming to Snyder next Wednesday for the first time in more than a decade, and its appearance here means that Snyder will be the destination for a group of young ladies who have been guests of a Snyder resident several times for the circus performances. They are residents of Girlstown, U.S.A., which has facilities at White Face and near Borger.

Elmer Spears of Snyder, a Shriner, has sent Girlstown a block of tickets to the Shrine Circus on previous occasions when the show was being presented in West Texas. This time, the tickets are for the performance in the Scurry County Coliseum in Snyder.

Mr. and Mrs. Spears have maintained a keen interest in Girlstown for some time and they are impressed by the work that is being done there by Marshall Cooper, the executive director.

"Oma (Mrs. Spears) and I have had some of these girls visit in our home, and believe me they are young ladies," Spears said.

Girlstown, U.S.A., is 20 years old. It was founded in 1949 at Buffalo Gap and later moved to its present installation at White Face. An extension unit was opened at Borger in 1967.

Among other local residents who are particularly interested in girlstown are Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Bynum. They contribute to the support of a 13-year-old resident of Girlstown, Miss Deloris Higgins, and consequently have become well-acquainted with Girlstown.

Bynum said it was a rewarding experience to be associated personally and actively with the work there. The Bynums hope to sit with the girls from Girlstown in their specially-reserved seats at the Shrine Circus next week.

Mickey Nunley, Snyder's new Chamber of Commerce Manager, already has learned that there are days when you can't win.

"I thought I got off to a good start by getting in a good rain my first day on the job," said Nunley. "But George Patterson (city manager) reminded me that the rain knocked the city out of a lot of water sales this week."

Upon further reflection, both Nunley and Patterson agreed that they would take the rain, given a choice. — WACIL McNAIR.

HO CHI MINH

BY TREASURY SECRETARY KENNEDY

Tax Reform Bill Hailed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury David M. Kennedy hailed the House-passed tax reform bill today as "a milestone in tax legislation" but said it contained too much relief for individual income tax payers.

Appearing as the opening witness before the Senate Finance Committee on the legislation, Kennedy urged that the net tax relief in the measure be reduced from the $2.4 billion granted by the House to $1.5 billion. At the same time, he recommended that the tax increase for corporations be trimmed back.

The secretary urged the Senate to act promptly on the bill but made many suggestions for changes in the House version which are certain to be controversial in the finance panel.

These changes would be in the areas of taxation of the oil and gas industry; financial institutions including banks and savings and loan associations; capital gains; foundations; state and local bonds, and many others.

The Treasury proposal, spelled out in an 81-page statement prepared by Assistant Secretary Edwin S. Cohen, would after 1971 trim the House reductions for individuals by $2.5 billion a year and slice the tax increases for corporations by $1.4 billion.

Overall, the proposal would bring in $1.07 billion a year more than the tax bill approved overwhelmingly by the House on Aug. 7. The House bill would cost $2.4 billion a year by 1972, a figure Kennedy said he wanted to cut to $1.3 billion.

Both proposals, however, would cut individual taxes for all but the highest income brackets below what they are now and raise net corporation taxes, although the administration would like to lower the corporate rate 2 per cent over two years.

Treasury approved of the income tax rate reduction for individuals, but asked that the standard deduction be raised only to 12 per cent, with a ceiling of $1,400, instead of 15 per cent with a $2,000 ceiling, as the House voted. It is now 10 per cent, with a maximum of $1,000.

The new deduction still would allow four million taxpayers to switch from itemizing their deductions to the standard deduction, Kennedy said. This combined with the new rates and the low income allowance would reduce taxes for 63 million taxpayers and remove six million people from the tax rolls entirely, he said.

Treasury's deduction plan would cost an estimated $770 million a year compared to $1.34 billion for the House bill.

Kennedy emphasized cutting the cost of the bill, a subject of great concern to the inflation-conscious administration. This year and next—the period the government thinks is critical in curbing rising prices—the Treasury's bill would bring in considerably more than it gives back in tax breaks.

Only in 1972 would it begin to cause a loss. By then the government hopes inflation will be under control.

Heart Attack Fatal To Ho Chi Minh

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnam began a week of mourning today for Ho Chi Minh and planned a state funeral for the father of Vietnamese independence.

The 79-year-old president of North Vietnam died Wednesday after "a grave and sudden heart attack," Radio Hanoi reported.

The announcement said Ho died at 9:47 a.m. Hanoi time, which was 9:47 p.m. Tuesday EDT. But word of his death was witheld for nearly 21 hours, until about 6:40 p.m. EDT Wednesday. In the interim Hanoi Radio prepared the North Vietnamese people for word of the death with periodic reports that his condition was getting worse.

"Everyone tried their utmost and gave of their best to save him at any price," Hanoi Radio said, "but because of his advanced age and serious illness of the sudden severe heart attack, President Ho has left us forever."

The broadcast said "the most solemn ceremonial state funeral of our nation" would be organized but it did not say when the rites would be held.

The North Vietnamese delegation in Paris asked for a postponement of today's weekly session of the peace talks but said it would be ready to resume the talks next Thursday.

There was no indication whether North Vietnam and the Viet Cong would call a cease-fire during the mourning period.

In San Clemente, Calif., a spokesman said President Nixon would make no comment on Ho's death. U.S. military and diplomatic authorities in Saigon also did not comment.

After eulogizing Ho, the Hanoi broadcast appealed to "the entire party, the entire army and the entire people" to "contribute both their minds and their force to the great task of defeating the U.S. aggressors" and "liberating South Vietnam."

North Vietnam's top political and constitutional bodies appealed to "our party, armed forces and people to translate sorrow into revolutionary acts" to achieve the "lofty aspiration cherished by President Ho Chi Minh—the building of a peaceful, unified, independent, democratic, prosperous and powerful Vietnam."

Informed sources in Saigon said it was unlikely the North Vietnamese leader's death would result in any important changes in Hanoi's war policy.

South Vietnamese and American officials in Saigon expect a triumvirate leadership to emerge in the next few months, made up of Le Duan, the pro-Moscow first secretary of the North Vietnamese Communist party; Truong Chinh, the pro-Peking chairman of the National Assembly, and Premier Pham Van Duong.

Cutback Details Expected Today

By FRANCES LEWINE
Associated Press Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon meets with his Cabinet today and may then announce details of projected big cutbacks in federally financed construction projects as an anti-inflation measure.

Over-all, the scope of the cutback may differ from the 75 per cent figure Vice President Spiro T. Agnew gave to the National Governors' Conference in executive session Tuesday. There may be some other changes, too.

Presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler has cautioned against further speculation until the President has final discussions with the Cabinet on the plan.

Announcement on the cutback could come today or "sometime this week," Ziegler said.

One official of Cabinet rank, presidential counsellor Arthur Burns, returned from the governors' meeting in Colorado Springs, Colo., saying he strongly opposed any delay until April 1 in the withdrawal of federal aid funds for state projects such as highway building. Burns said he thinks federal and federally funded projects should be cut at the same time—immediately.

The plan Agnew outlined called for cutting off new federal construction projects now and delaying action until April 1 on the federally alded state projects.

Western White House sources have said the plan envisioned cutbacks of 75 per cent of the funds for both types of projects. No dollar figure was given, but there were estimates that it might involve as much as $2 billion.

The Cabinet also was to discuss legislation pending in Congress.

A likely topic, too, was the death of North Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh and its possible effect on the Vietnam war.

It was the President's second meeting with his Cabinet since he established his vacation White House here Aug. 9.

Major Break At Episcopal Meet

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — A major break has occurred in the solid front previously maintained by American white protestantism against dealing with a reparations-demanding black organization.

The Episcopal Church Wednesday became the first major denomination to recognize the controversial group, the Black Economic Development Conference, and to allot funds intended, implicitly, to go to it.

The action could have a wide impact on other religious bodies, many of which have faced harassing demonstrations in behalf of the group's demands for large scale funds for black economic projects.

A meeting on the matter by the policy making board of the National Council of Churches, including most leading Protestant and Orthodox denominations, is scheduled next week in Indianapolis.

Bishop Stephen Baine said he felt the church's decision here would be "a move towards the healing of alienation" of blacks from whites and "the re-establishment of lost confidence and trust" between them.

However, the action stirred sharp opposition and prolonged back-and-forth revision before finally being approved by the 3.6-million-member church's bicameral legislature, its House of Deputies and House of Bishops.

Criticism also came afterward from the Rev. Frederick B. Williams, president of a black Episcopal unit, which had urged direct funding of B.E.D.C. instead of the round-about method approved.

It was "a cop out," he said. "It's dishonest, it's immoral, it's deceitful."

But he said the action did represent "a small beginning, a little hope."

Grid Tickets Are Ready

Football fans who have purchased season tickets to home football games of the Snyder High School Tigers may pick up their tickets at any time during business hours at the school administration building.

E. D. Flynn, school business manager, said that some 650 season tickets have been sold, about the same number as last year. Season tickets still may be purchased by the general public at the administration building.

First home game is set for Sept. 12 when the Tigers will host Lamesa.

Francelia Begins Breaking Up

MIAMI (AP) — Hurricane Francelia smashed into the hills of Guatemala today and began breaking up after inflicting heavy damage to property and crops in a sweep across southern British Honduras.

The National Hurricane Center in Miami forecast rainfall up to 20 inches. High tides threatened to inundate coastal villages along the triangle formed by the Gulf of Honduras.

Francelia went ashore Wednesday just north of Punta Gorda, one of several fishing communities that dot the coastal areas, with winds estimated at 110 miles an hour.

IN SURPRISE MOVE

House Avoids Tax Vote

AUSTIN (AP) In a surprise move, the House avoided an immediate vote on a $357.9 million Senate tax package today by asking senators to recall their bill for correction of what were called errors.

The vote on the resolution was 135-7. The next move is up to the Senate, which could simply ignore the House request.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes said the Senate would go along with the House's wishes.

Speaker Gus Mutscher's floor team could have moved for an immediate vote on whether to accept the Senate bill or send it to a conference committee for negotiations between the two chambers.

But Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria, who offered the resolution, said Mutscher had been informed there were errors in the bill and desired "that those who wanted to vote for the bill be allowed to vote for a bill that was constitutionally correct."

Sen. Preston Smith worked to win House acceptance of the bill.

Among the errors, Cory said, was a discrepancy in the effective dates in a sales tax section and a major grammatical mistake that mixed up the meaning of a provision putting a $1 a ticket tax on sexy movies.

Barnes said the only reason he could see for the House action was to gain time for Mutscher's forces to collect enough votes to send the measure to conference. A Mutscher aide said, however, that the votes already were there.

Mutscher said Wednesday night he thought the final bill should be written by a conference committee.

Senators voted 22-8 Wednesday afternoon for a measure by Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall that would raise the sales tax from 3 to 3.25 per cent, effective Oct. 1 and put alcoholic beverages under the sales tax.

Coincidentally, Hall was the author of last summer's compromise that raised the state sales tax from 2 to 3 per cent, effective Oct. 2, 1968. Hall is an announced candidate for lieutenant governor if Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes decides not to run for re-election.

The Hall bill would:

—Increase the natural gas tax from 7 to 7.5 per cent of the value of gas produced.

—Raise the cigarette tax from 11 to 16 cents per pack.

—Impose a nickel a drink "serve tax" on private club members and guests.

—Boost the corporate franchise tax from $2.75 to $3.75 per $1,000 of assets.

—Include in the franchise tax formula all sales where property is delivered to a customer in

Dirksen's Tumor Was Cancerous

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen was said to be resting well after the removal of a cancerous lung tumor, but his aides could not estimate when he would be able to return to his GOP leadership duties.

Dirksen staff members said they had been told the senator would remain in Walter Reed Army Hospital for up to six weeks.

Meanwhile, Republican Senate Whip Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania was filling in for 73-year-old senior senator from Illinois.

Doctors said the tumor—four-fifths of an inch in diameter—cut from the right upper lobe of Dirksen's right lung was malignant but had not spread. Also, they said, there was no sign further surgery or treatment would be necessary.

Dirksen's son-in-law, Sen. Howard H. Baker Jr., R-Tenn., said Wednesday he visited the senator, and found him "bright cheerful and alert . . . I was most encouraged."

A breathing apparatus—later removed—allowed Dirksen only to nod as Baker talked with him.

Dirksen, long a heavy cigarette smoker, has had a lengthy history of serious illness.

He left politics temporarily in 1948 after 16 years in the House because of rapidly failing eyesight. But he was elected to the Senate two years later.

Dirksen has emphysema, a progressive condition which causes the lungs to lose their elasticity and which may impair the action of the heart.

He broke his hip three years ago, returning to the Senate on crutches.

Each movie coming into Texas would be classified by the labor commissioner. Integration Delay Is Requested

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the first time since the Supreme Court 15 years ago declared school desegregation illegal, the U.S. government has asked it to delay a request for integration.

In a memorandum to Justice Hugo L. Black, Solicitor Gen. Erwin N. Griswold Wednesday asked the Supreme Court to give 14 Mississippi school districts more time to put desegregation plans into effect.

His request came after the NAACP's legal defense fund asked Black to overrule a decision by the Justice Department and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to let the Mississippi schools go beyond their deadline for desegregation.

Griswold's memorandum said a three-month delay in integrating the school systems is needed because "recalcitrant and reluctant public officials in Mississippi failed to lay the proper groundwork.

Secretary of Health Education and Welfare Robert H. Finch earlier had advised the three-month delay to avoid an "extremely disruptive" situation in the schools.

The 5th Circuit Court of Appeals, on the basis of a suit filed by the NAACP, had ordered 33 Mississippi districts to desegregate by this fall.

But the Justice Department, after Finch had urged the delay, [illegible] the deadline back three months. The NAACP then appealed to the Supreme Court, arguing against delay in at least the 14 district named in its original suit.

Producers Like Present Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Producer spokesmen representing cotton, wheat and livestock feed grains told the Nixon administration at a meeting here Tuesday and Wednesday they preferred continuing present basic commodity programs without any limitation on government payments.

Agriculture Department officials said the session was informal and that no commitments were made by the administration regarding new farm program recommendations.

Producer spokesmen representing various commodities expressed "fear of going too far" in proposals for a massive land-retirement plan designed to phase out present crop programs administered on an annual basis.

The present programs, provided under the Food and Agriculture Act of 1965, are due to expire at the end of 1970.

Agriculture Secretary Clifford M. Hardin is expected to testify Sept. 24 at the House Agriculture Committee which currently is conducting hearings on a general farm program.

Charms Bring Good Fortune

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Lucky pieces tucked in their swimsuits and shoes brought good fortune to Miss New Mexico and Miss Ohio winners of the first night of competition at the Miss America Pageant.

Patricia Jo Brummett of Hobbs, N.M., impressed the judges and 5,400 spectators in Convention Hall Wednesday night, singing a selection from the opera, "Rigoletto" to win the talent division.

Kathy Lynn Baumann of Independence, Ohio, dazzled their eyes with her hour-glass figure of 36-23-36 to win the swimsuit competition.

Patricia, a 21-year-old senior at Oklahoma Baptist University, moaned backstage: "My feet hurt." It was then she produced a sixpence and lucky penny from her shoes. The sixpence was a gift from her boyfriend and the penny from her state chaperone.

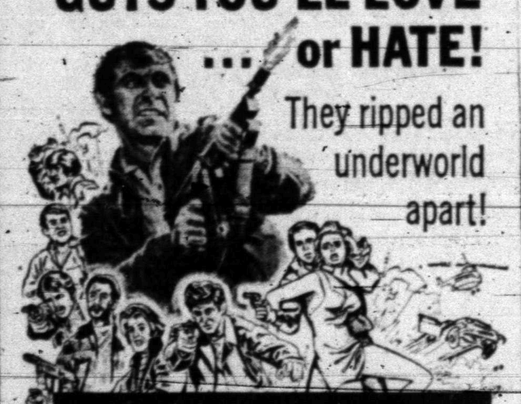

Miss Ohio tucked a threepence and a family heirloom, a Sacred Heart medal, in her pinkish red bathing suit. The threepence was a gift from a friend in Bowling Green.

Kathy is a 19-year-old junior at Bowling Green State University.

The 50 girls hoping to succeed Judi Anne Ford as Miss America also competed in evening gowns, but the results are never disclosed, to maintain suspense.

The girls are divided into three groups and perform in each division for three nights until the finalists are chosen for Saturday night's crowning of Miss America 1970.

Sorority Resumes Activities

Lambda Kappa Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met Tuesday evening at Snyder Savings & Loan community room for their first regular meeting of the new year.

President Patsy Elliott opened the meeting by leading the opening rituals. Betty Palmer read the minutes of the last meeting held in May.

The chapter voted to renew its insurance policy. Carolyn Limmer read the chapter by-laws and Barbara Bills reported on the service projects for the coming year, and reported the group will be sending a Christmas box to patients at Big Spring State Hospital. It will include items donated by chapter members.

Betty Clayton, ways and means chairman, revealed a garage sale to be held in September, a caramel apple booth at the Fair in Oct., a Valentine dance in February and a bake sale in May.

The sorority voted to adopt a girl in Girls Town this year. The history of the nine-year-old girl was passed around for members to read and items the girl will need were sent. This will be the chapter state project.

President Patsy Elliott led the closing ritual.

Refreshments were served by Barbara Bills and Nelda Baze. Betty Clayton gave an interesting program on "Happiness", having each member give their own definition of the word.

If a fresh fruit pie looks as though it would run over in the oven, place a piece of foil on a shelf well below the one holding the pie. Cut the foil about an inch larger all around than the pie pan and turn up the edges of the foil. The foil will catch the drip without interfering too much with the browning of the bottom crust.

Borden County Coyotes To Compete In Tough 2-B Loop

GAIL — Borden County High School Coach Bob Dyess, in his first season at the Coyote helm, has his work cut out for him, although he has a solid nucleus of lettermen around which to build this year's team.

Most of Coach Dyess' problems stem from the fact that the Red, White and Blue are in District 2-B, perhaps the strongest Eight-Man league in the state. Sterling City, Garden City, Dawson, Wellman, Klondike and Loop are numbered among his foes, and all have a reputation for hard-nose football.

Dyess, however, is no stranger to coaching. The former Eastern New Mexico University athlete has coached at Southland on the Plains for the past seven years. He also is no stranger to solving problems. The ranks at Southland have been pretty thin in years past. Dyess replaces Jack Aldridge who moved to Lamarque. Bob also will have an assistant this season — Ben Jarrett, who has taught several years in the Borden School, but is in his first year as an assistant coach.

Heading the list of returnees is All-District end Jimmy Hodge a 160-pound junior, who was a regular on both offense and defense in '68. Jimmy is an excellent receiver. The only other returning starters are offensive guard Ted Yadon, a 135-pound senior and offensive center Joe Pat Harding, a 174-pound. junior. Yadon, Hodge and Harding are tri-captains and can provide the Coyotes with good leadership.

Harding is slated for offensive duty this time around as a halfback. He also knows how to catch the ball and will handle the team's punting and extra point kicking.

Hodge and Harding will be the chief targets of Rick Hendley, a 135-pound junior quarterback who has an accurate arm. Another one of his targets will be letterman end Freddy Hagins, a 140-pound senior. Other returning numeral winners are sophomores Ken Don Jones and Mike McHenry. Ken is a 140-pound guard and Mike is a 150-pound center.

Others who will be depended on for valuable help are Robert Sorrells, 135 - pound defensive halfback; Virgie Whitaker, 145-pound junior center; Geary Williams, a 120-pound defensive halfback; and Charles Billeck, a 140-pound sophomore halfback. Billeck and another soph — Ross Sharp (150)— are the two fastest boys on the squad. Another good replacement slated for considerable duty is Randall Crittendon, a 140 - pound halfback who is a better than average runner, although he's only a freshman.

The squad also includes seniors Darrell Taylor (145), Xavier Benavidez (135), juniors Jimmy Hagins (107) and Hubert Sorrells (125), sophomores Mike Toombs (170), and Beno Hendricks (150), and freshmen Randy Hensley (110), Steve McMeans (120) and Bill Benavidez (110).

Taylor is a guard, Hendricks is a center and Xavier Benavidez and Hensley are quarterbacks. The others are halfbacks.

Overall team speed and size aren't anything to rave about, but Coach Dyess feels defense will be his strong point.

"We looked pretty good defensively against Whitharral in a scrimmage last Friday," he pointed out. On the other hand, the Coyote offense has not jelled yet. The same two teams scrimmage again at 7 p.m. Friday in Gail.

Dyess said much work remains to be done on offensive blocking before the Gail-based crew can begin to live up to its potential.

It would take an all-out effort to improve on last year's 4-6 record considering the caliber of the opposition. However, with a relatively large squad, Gail may find the talent to pull off a few surprises.

The roster:

SENIORS

Darrell Taylor, 145, guard; Ted Yadon, 135, guard; Robert Sorrells, 135, halfback; Xavier Benavidez, 135, quarterback; and, Freddy Hagins, 140, end.

JUNIORS

Pokes Host World Champs

By SHELIA MORAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Kansas City Chiefs have more at stake than just another scalp when they invade Atlanta Saturday night in the American Football League's exhibition wrapup weekend.

The unbeaten Chiefs, already co-owners of one preseason record, are seeking sole possession of another. There hasn't been an unbeaten AFL team since 1966 when both the Chiefs and the New York Jets each whacked four AFL opponents.

The Chiefs already have strung out the scalps of Oakland, Detroit, Cincinnati, Los Angeles and St. Louis as the AFL's only undefeated team and are favored to add Atlanta, 2-2, to the list.

Atlanta will unleash its running trio to Jim Butler, rookie Paul Gipson and Junior Coffey against the likes of the Chiefs' Robert Holmes and Mike Garrett. In last week's 31-21 victory over St. Louis, Holmes carried eight times for 75 yards and Garrett 15 for 51.

Chiefs' quarterback Len Dawson has thrown six touchdown passes in the past two games—four against Los Angeles and two against St. Louis—and hasn't been trapped in either. Bob Berry is expected to start at quarterback for the Falcons.

While the Chiefs go for one for the book, the Dallas Cowboys, 3-1, say they're ready for the world champion Jets 3-2 at the Cotton Bowl. The game has been sold out for two weeks—the earliest sellout in Cowboy history.

"I think we can beat them," Cowboys' Coach Tom Landry said. "But it will be a tough football game. I don't anticipate a lot of scoring because our offense hasn't jelled yet. We've been playing good defense though.

"Joe Namath is one of the best and quickest throwing quarterbacks I've ever seen. He's a lot like Johnny Unitas. They're both quick in getting rid of the ball. And boy is that Namath accurate."

Both teams enter the game minus some familiar faces. The Cowboys placed halfback Dan Reeves and safetyman Mike Gaechter on the walved injury list, waived flanker Bobby Joe Conrad to the taxi squad and cut Bill Saul, former Pittsburgh linebacker. Saul was claimed by two National Football League clubs who were not immediately identified.

The Jets, unable to obtain waivers on defensive tackle Karl Henke, recalled him and then traded him to Boston for a future draft choice. Henke was one of six Jets placed on waivers Monday.

The Minnesota Vikings, who host the winless New York Giants in a national telvised game Saturday, have aquired quarterback John Huarte and kicker Rick Duncan from the Philadelphia Eagles in a draft choice.

Huarte, All-American at Notre Dame in 1964, was on the Eagles' roster part of last season and completed seven of 15 passes for 110 yards and one touchdown. Duncan, Philadelphia's reserve punter last season, averaged 45.6 yards on five punts.

In other games Saturday, the Buffalo Bills and O. J. Simpson, 1-4, tackle the Rams 2-2, at Los Angeles; Houston, 2-2, is at New Orleans, 2-2; Cleveland, 2-1-1 plays the Redskins at Washington; Detroit, 3-1, and Philadelphia, 2-1, tangle at Raleigh, N.C.; Pittsburgh, 1-2, is at Green Bay, 2-2; Miami 0-5, faces Boston, 2-2 at Birmingham, Ala., and Cincinnati, 2-2, entertains Denver 1-3.

St. Louis, 2-2, is at San Francisco, 0-4, in the only game Sunday.

Quarry Smashes London In 2nd

OAKLAND (AP) — The things happened when Jerry Quarry hit Brian London with a jolting right hand to the head at 2:30 of the second round in their scheduled 10-round fight Wednesday night.

London the No. 2-rated British boxer from Blackpool, England, thudded forward on his face, finished for the night.

Quarry, who at 24 already has fought twice for the heavyweight title and lost, then decided to give up boxing—so he said.

"When I hit him," Quarry said, "I felt a twinge in my right hand. It's still hurting. That's when I decided to quit." The hand, once broken, has troubled him throughout his career, Quarry said.

Quarry had called it quits after a loss to Joe Frazier in a title bout but then he would quit after the London fight. He also has said he wanted to fight Frazier again before retiring.

Fifteen minutes after he declared flatly, "this is it," the Bellflower, Calif., slugger was reminding newsmen that "I'm only 24. I know I can fight. If I just have to, I can come back to it."

London, 35, stung Quarry several times in the first round with left jabs as Quarry took it easy.

But in a weird second round, Quarry came back like a tiger, jarring London with left hooks, one of them folding London's knees as Quarry counterpunched with his back to the ropes.

London sank to the canvas and the referee made him take an eight count as the bell rang. London was sent to his corner but was pushed out again as officials decided a minute was left in the round.

The elderly timekeeper, Joe Leopold said, "I just made a mistake. It was the first time in 40 years."

Leopold said he was marking down the minutes and looked up at the lights. His eyes were blurred and he said he saw "two marks instead of one."

Quarry then jarred London with a left hook again and hit him with the right. London took a 10-count on his stomach.

Quarry, who has done a little acting, said he will enter the University of Southern California in February to study mechanical engineering.

After his victory, Quarry refused to talk to newsmen until he watched his 18-year-old brother, Mike, win a decision over George Thomas of Oakland in an eight-round heavyweight windup.

Rain Hits SWC Camps

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Synthetic footing saved valuable practices for Texas and Arkansas Wednesday in Southwest Conference football camps, but the Baylor Bears were driven indoors by heavy rain.

Coach Frank Broyles of Arkansas said, "We were saved by the AstroTurf. We went ahead and practiced as if it hadn't rained."

A 90-minute rain swept Fayetteville during the practice.

Broyles said his players were sore and leg weary.

"It will be a while before they show any improvement," Broyles said. "This is just part of the training required so the body can stand the rigors of the season."

Texas worked out an hour during and after a heavy rain on its AstroTurf practice field.

Coach Darrell Royal of Texas evaluated Tuesday's scrimmage and said, "It wasn't bad for a rainy scrimmage."

Royal was impressed with the blocking of sophomore halfback Jim Bertelsen of Hudson, Wis.

Davis, Dodgers Tip Mets

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Willie Davis, the Los Angeles Dodgers outfielder, should write novels during the baseball off season. He has a flair for the dramatic.

He kept alive the longest consecutive game hitting streak in more than 20 years in the major leagues with dramatic suddenness Wednesday night.

Thwarted in four previous times at bat in an effort to hit in his 31st consecutive game, he came up in the ninth inning and socked the first pitch for a double that scored Maury Wills from second to beat the New York Mets 5-4.

The hit to left field, which was first scored as a single, was in direct contrast to Davis' ninth inning appearance Tuesday night against the Mets.

He came up then with the tying run on third and the Dodgers behind 3-4. He struck out to end the game.

First base was open, with one out and Wills on second, when Davis came to the plate to face relief pitcher Jack DiLauro Wednesday night.

Gil Hodges, the Mets' manager, said he considered walking Davis, but decided to pitch to him in view of his four futile tries to extend his streak.

Davis said he got the pitch he thought he would. "It was a sidearm curve and when I saw it I said to myself here it comes and I smacked it."

The victory kept the Dodgers one game back of San Francisco in the NL West, mad scramble and one-half game ahead of the Cincinnati Reds.

San Francisco shaded Montreal 2-1, Cincinnati blanked the Chicago Cubs 2-0, Atlanta trounced Pittsburgh 8-1 and Philadelphia romped over San Diego 9-1 in other NL games. Houston and St. Louis were idle.

Minnesota tripped Clevland 7-1, Detroit defeated Kansas City 4-2, and Oakland split a morning-afternoon double-header with Boston in the only American League games scheduled.

Oakland beat the Red Sox 7-4 in the morning game. Boston won the second 5-1.

Claude Osteen, seeking his 19th victory, was breezing along with a 4-0 lead over Jerry Koosman and the Mets until the eighth.

Then two-run homers by Tommie Agee and Donn Clendenon tied the score and set the stage for Davis' dramatic game-ending swat. Davis was mobbed by spectators swirling around him at third base as he left the field.

Pete Mikkelsen was the winning pitcher in relief for the Dodgers. DiLauro took the loss for the Mets.

The Mets stayed five games back of Chicago in the NL East since the Cubs absorbed a two-hit shutout from the Reds' Jim Maloney.

The Cubs' two hits, both singles, were made by Don Kessinger in the third and by losing pitcher Bill Hands in the sixth.

The Giants made only two hits against Montreal, but one was a three-run blast loaded double, single by Jim Davenport with the bases full in the second inning. They drove in both of the Giants' runs.

Losing pitcher Mike Wegener of the Expos had loaded the sacks on three bases on balls before Davenport came up. The Giants' other hit was another single by Ron Hunt in the fourth.

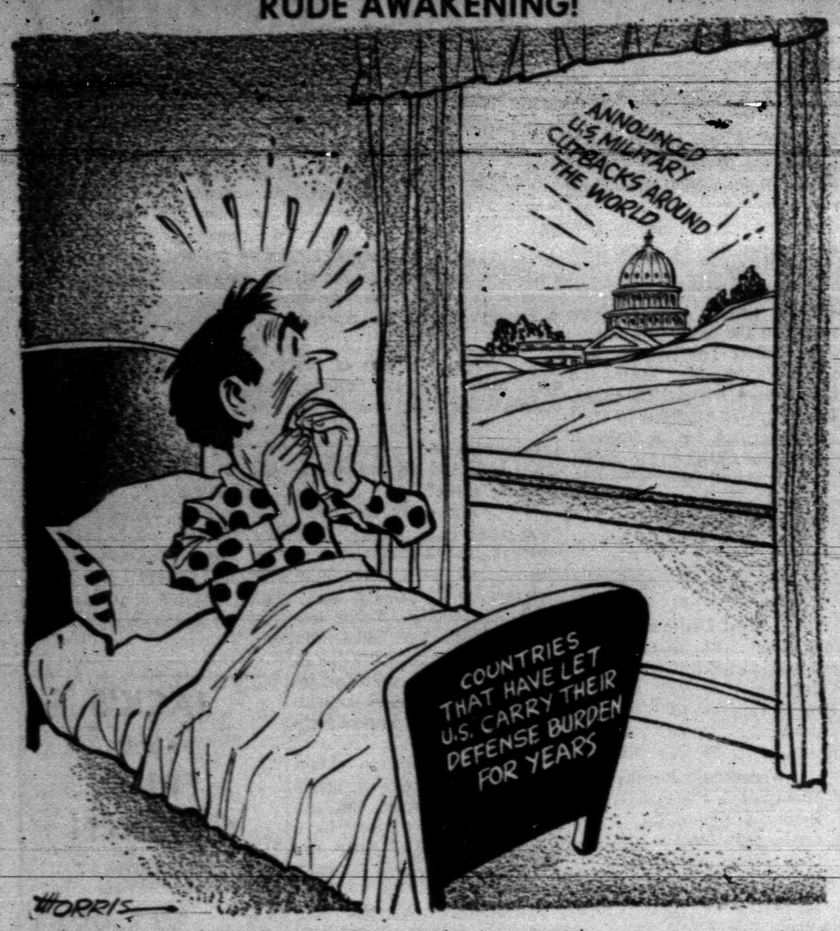

Juan Marichal, who chalked up his 17th victory, had to bear down with all his skill in the ninth when Montreal put the tying run on third with none out on Mack Jones' triple.

"I was worried," Marichal said afterwards. "I wanted to strike out the next three batters, but didn't think I could. I hope they would hit a ground ball to someone."

That's what happened. Coco Laboy grounded out to Davenport at third. So did Ron Brand. Second baseman Hunt threw out Jim Fairey to end the game.

Atlanta exploded for eight runs in the sixth against th Pirates to snap a six-game losing streak. Pinchhitter Rico Carty capped the outburst with a three-run triple and a five-hitter by Woody Fryman made it easy for the Phillies over the Padres. Fryman lost a shutout in the seventh when the Philadelphia infield committed three errors after a single by Ivan Murrell.

Wall Street Brokers May Sell Shares To Investors

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Sometime soon, perhaps by the end of the year, Wall Street may be practicing what it preaches and a lot of investors and brokers will be saying it's about time.

Lest the statement appear too broad in its implications, a limited meaning is quickly offered: Wall Street brokerage houses are considering going public; they are planning to sell their shares to investors.

Brokers always have made their money by investing in corporations or in advising others to do so. But never have they permitted anyone but very close associates to share in a piece of their own action. That was forbidden.

The situation now has come to a head. Brokers need money badly to continue with expansion plans, among other things, and the only way to get that money is to tap the reservoirs of funds owned by millions of investors.

These are some of the problems that led to stock exchange approval of the concept:

—Brokers never have had a secure, permanent capital base. The funds they use come from owner-members of the firm. And when one of these departs he sometimes takes the money with him.

—The growth of investor institutions, such as mutual funds, means multimillion dollar orders. These demand great sums of capital. It is all but impossible to handle such orders effectively without a large capital base.

—The need to modernize has required heavy expenditures of existing capital, especially to purchase electronic computers and to modernize operational or back room, procedures.

The need for capital was recognized years ago, and late in 1967 the New York Stock Exchange endorsed the idea of brokerage houses selling their debt securities to the public. This meant approval to borrow from outsiders.

Later this month a special exchange committee plans to present detailed proposals for making public ownership possible. After that a maze of complications must be cleared.

First, the matter must be discussed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, which not only regulates the securities business but could destroy the entire plan should it not meet its criteria.

The SEC is going to be especially interested in provisions for assuring that the exchange and the SEC retain their regulatory controls. It is expected that strict limitations will be made on who can and cannot own stock.

After that the issues must be submitted to member firms of the NYSE. There are 1,366 of them and many are oldline firms which don't completely approve of every newfangled idea, this one included.

A majority of these members must vote for a quorum to be reached. And then a majority of the quorum must be for the issue before it can go forward. It could be cleared within a few weeks. It could take months. It could fail.

Junior Editors Quiz on MUSICAL NOTES

QUESTION: Where did musical notes come from?

* * *

ANSWER: The Greeks wrote down musical sounds by using letters of the alphabet. But these were not notes as we know them. Notes came because, in the churches, singers chanted the services according to a system called plain song. In (1) we see, above the letters in an ancient script, odd little characters called neumes. These were also not true notes. They only showed whether the general chanting was to go up or down. With (2) we have true notes, placed on three staff lines. Since the staff lines have definite musical tone meanings, so do the notes which are placed on them. The monk Guido d'Arezzo is said to have been the first to put notes on staff lines in about 1000 A.D. In (3) we look down on a piano keyboard. Notice the first white key to the left of the groups of two black keys; this, in the soprano clef, is the position of the note c. You will find c in two places on the modern five-line staff. Start with the lower c and play the six white notes leading up to the next c; check the names of these notes from our picture. It's a neat system! Why not go on from there and learn to play the piano?

Secret Of Hubby's Stay Is Zipper

By JOE STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite some current predictions, I'm sure marriage will never go out of style as long as dresses with back zippers stay in style.

While husbands like to think they are indispensable for financial support, companionship and a few other contributions to a happy home, the real secret of their tenure is their availability as instant zipper-uppers.

Although numerous gadgets have been designed by ingenious inventors to cope with this early morning problem, none is as efficient as a sleepy spouse with a good right arm.

An informal survey indicates that most husbands are willing to give the zipper a healthy yank if they can open their eyes wide enough to spot the pull tab. But at that point their helpfulness halts.

To a man they balk at finding the tiny loop at the neck of the dress that theoretically accepts the small hook on the other side. To achieve this feat takes complete dedication to the challenge, 20-20 vision, a long history of sobriety, a willingness to miss the 7:38 commuter train and a wife who is able to stand motionless for extended periods with her head bent forward at a 45-degree angle.

Since most of the time the wispy bits of thread originally destined to accept the hook are no longer in existence, the whole business becomes an exercise in futility. The operation puts a severe strain on the husband's eyes, his temper and the marital bonds.

This is not the only area in which fashion fouls up the blissful boy-girl relationship. The new identical unisex styles are exposing a wide compatibility gap between otherwise loving couples.

It is somewhat simple to arrive at a compromise on whether the pants should be striped or plaid, straight or bell-bottom. The trouble starts when the two have to agree on whether the shirt should have ruffles or a pleated front, if it should be printed silk or crisp cotton.

Even after having completed the selection of the matching outfits there's still one more problem—the new look-alike wigs for him and her.

Will love find a way, when she prefers a short hairdo but he insists they purchase the longer type wig that curls softly about the neck?

Charges Filed On Bank President

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Robert F. Lockhart, former president of the State National Bank in El Paso, was indicted Wednesday on new charges of embezzlement and making false entries.

The federal grand jury returned the indictment, charging embezzlements as far back as 1965 in amounts ranging from $1,475 to $4,750.

Lockhart is scheduled to stand trial Monday on an indictment stemming from his arrest in a Lordsburg, N.M., motel with more than $50,000.

He was recently released on bond after being held in a federal mental hospital for examination.

Sen. V. E. Berry, San Antonio, was absent because of illness.

Minh's Death May Have Impact On Vietnam Events

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

In the long run, Ho Ch Minh's departure from the stage can have a decided impact on events in Vietnam and South east Asia.

Ho's passing can prove a strong blow to North Vietnamese and Liberation Front morale. Particularly in his later years, Ho was not the stereotyped figure of a Communist strong-man ruler, but rather a symbol, a father figure, a personality who cannot be replaced.

It was in the name of "Uncle Ho" that appeals went from Hanoi to the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong, exhorting them to pursue protracted war to the finish, even if it should take 20 years. It was in Ho's name that slogans were fashioned for the unification of Vietnam. It was Ho whose name a dozen years ago was considered so powerful to keep others from squabbling among themselves for power.

Until about five years ago there were strong signs of division in the Politburo along pro-Chinese and pro-Soviet lines. Much in the future depends upon the progress of Soviet-Chinese hostility.

It is probable that North Vietnam's future rests in the hands of four top men—Le Duan, the party's first secretary; Truong Chinh, chairman of the National Assembly; Premier Pham Van Dong and Marshal Vo Nguyen Giap.

Chinh has the reputation of being strongly pro-Chinese. His name is an alias, dating from the days when he was with Mao Tse-tung in Yenan at the time of the historic "long march." Truong Chinh means "long march," a token of his admiration for Mao. He was formerly known as Dang Xuan Khu.

A revolutionist since his youth in the 1920s, Chinh helped Ho and Pham found the Indochinese Communist party and was its propaganda director. He was its secretary general, operating out of China, in 1941, and again in the 1950s. Under Ho's Hanoi regime, Chinh slipped and was demoted for the failure of agriculture in the North. He bounced back, possibly through Peking's then strong influence in Hanoi.

Le Duan, now 62, once was considered pro-Chinese. He seemed to shift in the 1960s, after becoming the party's first secretary. Duan is believed to have a strong machine in the party membership. He was one of Ho's leading commanders in the South when the Vietminh were fighting the French. He is an expert on relations with other Communist parties and has traveled both to Moscow and Peking.

Premier Pham Van Dong, now 62, an early Ho associate, is considered pro-Moscow. He began serving Ho's cause in 1925 when he set up the main revolutionary base in South Vietnam. Since partition in 1954, he has been premier and at one time served simultaneously as foreign minister.

Giap, the defense minister who was architect of the 1954 Dienbienphu victory over the French, is primarily a military man. It is doubtful that he has vaulting political ambitions, but he could have army support in the arena. In any case, he would likely have a strong voice in the outcome of any power realignment.

Scientists Digging Hole Into Past

By RALPH DIGHTON
AP Science Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Half a block off busy Wilshire Boulevard scientists are digging a hole into history.

Just behind the Los Angeles County Museum of Art are several fenced-off pools of bubbling tar, welling up from a huge oil dome 150 feet below the surface.

The bones of countless animals—prehistoric saber-tooth cats, giant sloths, dire wolves and at least one human being—were hauled from these tar pits in random excavations half a century ago.

Now a new "dig" has been started, aimed for the first time at recreating in full detail this part of the world as it existed during the Ice Age, a three-million-year epoch which ended about 10,000 years ago.

The excavation is on a site where the tar, exposed to air and dust, has congealed into a cap strong enough to hold the weight of diggers employed by the County Museum of Natural History.

As they slowly scrape their way down inch by inch, the hardened muck is hauled away in buckets, sifted and washed with solvent. When the solvent drains away, workers find the bones of hundreds of birds and animals that met death in the once-sticky goo.

These fossils are carefully cataloged by numbers showing the exact depth at which they were found. The deeper the workers dig, the farther back into earth's history they go.

In this way Dr. Theodore Downs, chief of earth sciences at the museum, hopes to open a wide window onto the past.

"Earlier excavators apparently were interested primarily in the bones of large animals—the giant California lion, the saber-tooth cat, the giant ground sloth," said Downs.

"This time we are studying everything that comes out of the pit, not only large bones but microfossils, the bones of rats, birds, squirrels, to help us reconstruct the whole ecology of this area at various periods of time."

New Dam Dedication Set Monday

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) —Next Monday afternoon the presidents of the United States and Mexico will meet in the center of the Armistad Dam on the Rio Grande to dedicate the new lake.

Full military honors and dedication speeches are planned for the event.

The ceremonies, as detailed Wednesday by the Western White House, are scheduld for about 1:45 p.m. local time on the Texas-Mexican border near the town of Del Rio, Tex. Afterward, the two presidents will drive to El Mirador, a construction town adjacent to the dam on the Mexican side, for a dedication luncheon given by the Mexican government and then for conferences between the two leaders.

Nixon will make the stop for the dedication on his way back to Washington, ending a month-long vacation at his oceanfront home in San Clemente.

A tentative schedule calls for Nixon's departure aboard Air Force One from El Toro Marine Air Station near San Clemente at 8:45 a.m. PDT, arriving at Laughlin Air Force Base at Del Rio about 12:55 p.m. local time. He is to helicopter to the dam site for the dedication ceremonies.

Nixon is scheduled to depart Del Rio from Laughlin AFB at 5:30 p.m. local time en route to Andrews Air Force Base near Washington where he will arrive about 9:30 p.m. EDT.

Gov. Preston Smith is scheduled to arrive in Del Rio on a State Department plane about 12:30 p.m. local time, accompanied in a second plane by members of the press.

Casualties Show Drop Last Week

SAIGON (AP) — Casualties in the Vietnam War dropped slightly on both sides last week, and South Vietnamese headquarters said the trend resulted from a marked decrease in enemy activity.

The U.S. Command said 185 Americans were killed in action and 1,057 were wounded, compared with 190 killed and 1,367 wounded in the previous week.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported government casualties last week of 354 killed and 966 wounded. The week before, 398 killed and 928 wounded were reported.

The two commands reported 2,493 enemy were killed last week, compared with a revised figure of 2,724 a week earlier.

The South Vietnamese command said enemy activity last week "decreased 34 per cent compared to that of the preious week," but that government forces "strongly maintained offensive efforts throughout the country to destroy enemy units."

Most of the heaving fighting involving U. S. troops took place in areas south of Da Nang. This included action near the refugee settlement at Hiep Duc and the Que Son Valley.

The latest casualty figures raised to 38,313 the number of Americans reported killed in the Vietnam war since Jan. 1, 1961. The number of wounded in that period rose to 248,153, and another 1,348 Americans are listed as missing or captured.

The number of enemy reported killed by allied forces since Jan. 1, 1961, was put by the U.S. Command at 546,804.

Aransas Pass Bank May Open Monday

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) —The former First State Bank of Aransas Pass has sold its assets and passed on its liabilities to the Corpus Christi State Bank & Trust, James T. Denton, president and chief executive officer of the Corpus Christi bank said Wednesday.

Denton said an application will be filed in Austin Friday for a charter for a new bank. "We hope to open Monday morning with full banking services," he said.

Corpus Christi Bank & Trust took control of the former bank on a bid of $1,374,000. Nine bids from banking interests over the southern half of the state were submitted to Dist. Judge John H. Miller.

A spokesman for the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. said deposits of the former bank exceeding the insured limit of $15,000 came to $1.4 million, but that no depositor would lose any money.

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I suppose a 29-year-old girl should know better than to get herself in a fix like this, but its too late now.

Billy got me in a family way. (He is 42.) He said he would marry me right after harvest time. He didn't have any cash on hand so I bought myself a set of rings and started right off wearing the wedding band because I was starting to show. I paid 30 dollars down on the rings and 2 dollars a week. Then I had a miscarriage. Billy says there is no sense in marrying me now. So now I am stuck with no husband, no baby, and a set of rings. What should I do?

LULU

DEAR LULU: I think you're well rid of a man who might not have gotten around to marrying you at all. I don't know how long you've had the rings, but perhaps the jeweler will take them back if you agree to stand some loss. Under the circumstances I think you came out ahead. And by the way, next time, use yours.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I know a man who insists that there is no such thing between a man and a woman as a "platonic" friendship. He says that given the time and opportunity they will form a physical relationship. What do you think?

MITZIE

DEAR MITZIE: I think anyone who would subscribe to such a theory is admitting that he is incapable of holding the interest of a member of the oppostie sex without a physical relationship.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Near where I live is a creek, which naturally is a big attraction to the adventuresome little neighborhood boys.

One day I was surprised to hear the father of one of the boys tell the whole bunch that there were monsters in the creek, and if they played near it, the monsters would catch them.

I disapproved of this "scare technique" from the start, but I just kept my mouth shut.

It's true that the boys don't play near the creek any more, but I think more harm than good was done by that monster story. Today I had a sobbing bunch of kids in my living room. They were afraid to leave because "the monsters are out there." (This was in broad daylight. I wonder what they dream about?)

I also wonder what will happen when Junior finds out that Daddy lied to him.

Personally I think it is wrong to lie to children to make them behave. Good old fashioned (and honest) discipline builds better characters in the long run.

As it says in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

What do you say, Abby?

TRUTHFUL RANGER

DEAR RANGER: I'm with Proverbs.

* * *

DEA ABBY: Ask the man who owns the mute parakeet if he knows whether he has a male or female bird. If he has a female, he had better forget about trying to get it to talk because only the males talk.

And by the way, Abby, do YOU know how to tell the difference between a male and female parakeet? And don't tell me that it matters only to another parakeet.

PARAKEET OWNER

DEAR OWNER: The male parakeet has a bluish brownish stripe across his beak. The female beak is clear. Ha!.

Mathews Is Appointed

AUSTIN (AP) Charles D. Mathews, a Dallas freight executive and veteran state attorney, has been appointed to the three-man Texas Insurance Board.

He may take his seat on the board in time to vote on a proposed 11.4 per cent average rate increase in family car insurance.

Mathews, 56, is president of Red Ball Motor Freight. Gov. Preston Smith recently named him to a four-year term as a director of Texas Tech, a position he must resign if his appointment is confirmed by the Senate.

It is possible Smith will designate Mathews as board chairman, but the governor said he would make a decision on the chairmanship at a later date.

The board's chairmanship has been vacant since George Cowden resigned Dec. 31. Smith appointed former Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo to the board, but his nomination was blocked in the Senate.

Mathews graduated from the University of Texas Law School with highest honors in 1937 and was president of his class.

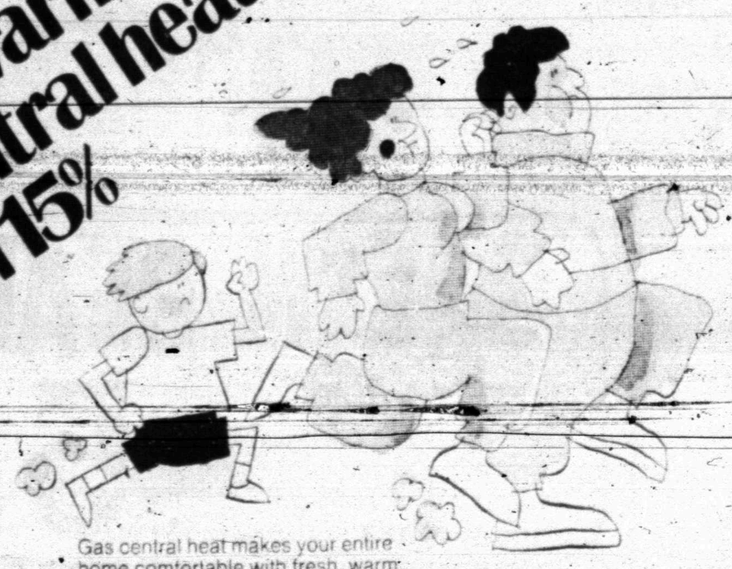

He served with the Railroad Commission and the attorney general's department, and was first assistant attorney general under Price Daniel.

Vietnam War Claims One More Texan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Seventeen servicemen killed in action in Vietnam were identified Wednesday by the Defense Department.

They included one Texan: Army Pfc. Monte D. Dykes, son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Dykes, 809 North Ross St., Sherman.
