So This Is Texas

G. O. P. Tax Too High—
Garner Wants Out—
Cal Plays Politics—
Texas Solons Leading.

By H. N. Fitzgerald

REP. JOHN M. GARNER of Texas is the minority leader of his party in the lower house, and he would have been speaker if the Democrats had captured the 70th congress.

* * *

GARNER is perhaps the best equipped of southern Democrats when it comes to mastering taxation matters and he knows the needs of the people as well as any man who figures on the national stage of legislative action.

* * *

IN 1926 the Coolidge administration drew out of the pockets of the American people, $300,000,000 more than was necessary for government use.

Now the president and the very adroit Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon wish to return the $300,000,000 to the people.

They are agreed that it should be so arranged that it will make good campaign material for the Republicans in presidential election year or in 1928 to be more emphatic.

* * *

"DO it now," is the demand of Garner.

"Do it now," is the demand of the insurgent Republicans if they stand hitched.

"Do it now," is the slogan of men regardless of party who pay taxes to their government.

* * *

MARTIN B. MADDEN of Illinois, an old guard leader, and the congressman who represents the black belt in the city of Chicago, is working in harmony with the president and the secretary.

Madden wouldn't do it now.

He would do it in 1928 or earlier if it could be so arranged that it would make good campaign fodder for the campaign of 1928.

* * *

IT may be that the Democrats and the progressive Republicans will write the tax legislation and the president and his secretary and advisers will be compelled to accept the measure drafted by the combination.

* * *

REPRESENTATIVE GARNER favors reducing the corporation tax from 13 to 12 per cent.

He would repeal the automobile tax.

He would repeal the remainder of the nuisance taxes.

* * *

THEY call the plan of Coolidge and Mellon a piece-meal plan.

Garner and his fellow Democrats are opposed to the piece-meal mode of procedure.

They know there is $300,000,000 in the treasury that should have been left in the pockets of the people.

They are ready to go all the road.

* * *

SENATOR F. M. SIMMONS of North Carolina, an important member of the senate committee, is committed to the Garner plan.

Hence Garner will make his fight in the house.

If he should be defeated in the house, the Garner bill will be presented to the senate by the North Carolina leader and will have the backing of the Democrats and the insurgent Republicans in that body.

* * *

AN extra session may be forced by the Democrats and insurgents.

They control the senate on matters of legislation.

* * *

THERE are seven or eight Republican insurgents from the west and northwest.

They never follow the lead of the old guard of the administration when it comes to tariff or taxation policies.

* * *

THERE are shadows darkening the Coolidge pathway.

The Coolidge pathway is the eastern pathway wherein walks the high priest of Republican tariff laws for the protection of the manufacturer and the skilled worker and very little relief for the millions who produce the farm products of America.

* * *

AN extra session would make taxation a paramount issue in 1928 and Garner of Texas, wise as to the ways and tricks of the political oligarchy of the east realizes that President Coolidge and the men close to him are going to do their best to avoid a special session of the new congress.

* * *

WOODROW WILSON invited an extra session and all on account of the League of Nations.

This was just before the presidential campaign of 1920.

That extra session made the League of Nations the issue and buried the Democratic party for the time being.

* * *

THE eyes of the west are upon President Coolidge and the big business leaders of the north and the east.

Just now the grain growers of the west and the cotton growers of the south are laying the mud sills for an aliance.

* * *

THERE is a man from Illinois who is all prominent in the movement.

He is a Republican and he thinks he was cheated out of a presidential nomination in 1920.

This winter in the city of Washington, the Republican and the Democratic leaders will devote most of their time to mixing medicine, and the medicine that will be life giving to one will be poison to the other.

* * *

THERE is going to be a readjustment in the United States, and there is no reason why the national law-makers of Texas should not play a prominent part in the proceeding.

They call him "Jack" Garner down in the Magic Valley.

He is on the firing line on the banks of the Potomac.

Big Saving for Local Shippers In New Railroads for West Texas By Reduction of Mileage to Panhandle

A saving of 32 cents a hundred pounds on first class freight rates between Wichita Falls and Plainview will be effected for local shippers when the proposed new extension of the Fort Worth and Denver South Plains railroad is completed. A saving of 25 1-2 cents per 100 pounds will be effected on first class shipments between this city and Lubbock, while savings correspondingly lower will be possible for shippers from Fort Worth, Dallas and Oklahoma City.

Considerable Saving

The dollars and cents effect of the extention on local shipping has been figured out in some detail by the transportation department of the chamber of commerce and reveals some startling statistics. A Wichita Falls druggists, for example, now ships 100 pounds of drugs first class to Plainview, for which he pays $1.53 in freight charges and sends his goods a total of 296.3 miles. When the new extension is complete he can make the same shipment for $1.20 and send it 203.9 miles or 92.4 miles less than under the present arrangement.

Using the same illustration for Lubbock, the shipper saves 60 miles and 25 1-2 cents on 100 pounds, first class.

Wichita Profits Most

That the city profits more than either Fort Worth, Dallas or Oklahoma City is apparent by figures which show that the saving from Fort Worth to Plainview will be 20 cents per 100; from Dallas to Plainview 19 cents per 100; and from Oklahoma City to Plainview 4 1-2 cents per 100 pounds. A schedule in which the ratio of saving is approximately the same will be effective on classes two, three and four between this city, Fort Worth, Dallas and Oklahoma City to Lubbock.

FUGITIVE HAS WOMAN'S HELP

Man Under 99-Year Sentence Escapes With Help Of Girl Friend

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 22.(AP)—Search today is being centered for the woman who is known to have aided Dave Weatherford, under a 99-year sentence for slaying, in his escape from the Brown county jail here Sunday morning.

Weatherford filed the bars of the jail with a shoe spring and dropped 35 feet to the ground on a rope made of bed clothes, Sheriff Bert Wise here declared.

In the mud on the ground the prints of a woman's shoe as well as Weatherford's could be plainly seen. This trail led to the road where they ended, revealing the pair got in a car and fled.

Sheriff Wise says he believes he knows who the woman was and through her it is hoped to pick up the escaped prisoner's trail.

Weatherford was convicted for the slaying of Joe Griffin at Santa Anna two years ago and was under sentence of 99 years at the time of his escape. He was being held in jail here pending appeal to a higher court.

TEXAS TO GAIN BY NEW LINES IN PANHANDLE

Business Formerly Sent To St. Louis and Kansas To Stay at Home

PROGRESSIVE ORDER

Bureaucracy Gets Walloping When I. C. C. Permits Construction

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD

And it came to pass that the palsied hand of bureaucracy was brushed aside by the Interstate Commerce Commission and permits issued for the building of new rail lines which are certain to be vast developers of all West Texas. Of course, the palsied hand of bureaucracy may not disappear at this time but a victory has been won by rail magnates and empire builders who demanded the right to go ahead and furnish modern transportation facilities to the wealth producers and shippers of a vast and fast growing section of Texas. This action was taken by the I. C. C.

Two Lines Denied.

Texas Panhandle and Gulf construction between Fort Worth and Tucumcari, N. M., a distance of 303 miles, denied that is, the promoters of a new line from Fort Worth to New Mexico were overwhelmed by the palsied hand.

SHRINERS WILL LEAD NOVICES ON "HOT SANDS"

Large Class of Candidates To Be Put Under Initiation

MANY STUNTS PLANNED

Colorful Ceremonial to Be Held by Maskat Temple Nobility

Red fezzed Shriners, as is their wont, will rule with more or less despotic sway today when Mascat Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., puts on its annual fall ceremonial with a considerable portion of the populace helping out. Most of Wichita Falls and a considerable sprinkling of out-of-town visitors will be on hand to take part in portions or all of the festivities.

Wichita Falls by this time has become inured to the unexpected happenings of the day that brings the scarlet fez and gaudy oriental costuming of Shrinedom in full glory to the streets.

Once Natives Gasped.

Time was when the natives gasped in astonishment as they watched a ring candidate, garbed in his youngest daughter's pajamas, climb a lamp post and sell peanuts from a garbage can. But the march of progress has corrected this and now such mild demonstrations scarcely get an audience.

The spring and fall ceremonials have always taken their places as colorful spots in the city's civic calendar. They are, of course, confined mainly to those with Masonic affiliations, but the public has never failed to get a kick out of the parades, the foolishness of the ring candidates and the general spirit of revelry that the brethern of the Shrine bring to town.

Big Novice Class.

A large class of candidates is ready for those ceremonies attendant on induction of the novice to those pathways that wind with devious meanderings across the desert's blistering sands. No novice ever "take" the Shrine. His brothers "give" it to him.

Today's program begins at 9 o'clock when the novices register at the recorder's office in Maskat headquarters on Scott avenue. This continues until 1 o'clock. At 11 a. m. a business meeting will be held and at 1 p. m. the novices report in Faith lodge rooms. The big street parade starts at 4 p. m. and at 5 p. m., sections one and three start their torrid explanations. Section two goes on at 7 p. m. The day's festivities close at 9 p. m. when a dance for Nobles and their ladies starts at the Country club.

Shepherd at Head.

Potentate R. E. Shepherd last night issued the usual order that all Nobles must wear their fezzes today and appear in the parade. Dire consequences await offenders and a strong arm squad has been appointed to do constabulary duty.

Three ring candidates were getting in their deadly work yesterday with promises of horrendous displays today. Pop Greer, George Holt and T. M. Davey were being groomed by their campaign committees for a high-powered appearance today. The most popular wins the handsome Shrine diamond ring given away at each ceremonial.

PROTEST FILED TO COURT'S ACT BY DEFENDANTS

Guard Order Called Unfair Insinuation Against Defense Ethics

GOVERNMENT REPLIES

Attention Called to Pending Charge of Bribery Against Doheny

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.(AP)—A strict guard over the jury empanelled today for the trial of the first of the criminal cases growing out of the senate's celebrated oil investigation was ordered by Justice Adolphus Hoehling in the District of Columbia supreme court.

A motion that the jury remain in custody of deputy marshals except when actually in the court was made by government counsel and was vigorously resisted by counsel for Albert B. Fall, former interior secretary, and Edward L. Doheny, multi-millionaire oil man of Los Angeles who are charged with conspiracy in connection with the leasing of the Elk Hills naval oil reserve in California.

Defense Incensed.

Lawyers for the defendants called attention that this was an unusual procedure and asserted that the government's motion was a reflection on themselves as well as their clients as it carried an imputation that efforts might be made to reach some of the jurors during the trial. This was denied by government counsel, but they called attention that one of the counts in the indictment charged with bribery of Fall by Doheny.

Only a little more than three hours was required to select the 12 men who will sit during the weeks the long delayed case is expected to continue.

Twenty-seven veniremen were examined in all and in the course of their questioning, Frank J. Hogan, counsel for Doheny asked a number of them whether members of their families had been approached for information as to the political and religious affiliations of the veniremen. In several cases an affirmative answer was given.

Jury of Young Men.

The jury selected is one of the youngest empanelled in such an important case here in years, the oldest member being 43; the youngest 23, and the average age of the 12, 33. Six of the jurors are 30 or younger.

SEAT SALE FOR VICTOR ARTISTS

Good Responses Reported Coming Concert Of Noted Singers

Seat sales are coming along nicely, said F. E. McConnell, yesterday in regard to the eight popular Victor artists who are to appear in person at the Junior college November 30.

Henry Burr, one of the Victor eight, has only one grievance, and that is against those who persuaded him to use the name by which he is so well known. He began making records about 20 years ago when the talking machine was pretty much at the toy stage. At that time he was tenor soloist at the Church of the Incarnation in New York, a position he had won after years of hard study with John Dennis Mehan, one of New York's best teachers. Burr was warned that it would ruin his musical reputation to make records under his own name, which is Harry McClaskey, so he assumed the recording name of Henry Burr, and as Henry Burr he has become famous and is known to all except his personal friends.

The other artists who will appear with Burr are Billy Murray, tenor-comedian; Monroe Silver, the "Cohen" story-teller; Sam Herman, xylophonist; Carl Mathieu, tenor; James Stanley and Stanley Baughman, baritones and Frank Banta, pianist. The members of the famous Peerless quartet are among those mentioned, and this well-known singing organization will have several numbers of the program.

The concert was arranged by McConnell as a service feature to the public, and current comment indicates hearty approval.

Eighteen Men Bag Eighteen Deer On Jaunt Into N. Mexico Mountains

"The most remarkable and successful hunting expedition ever to go into the mountains of New Mexico," is the way one member of a party of hunters from Wichita Falls and other cities described a journey into the Mongollan mountains which ended Sunday.

Eighteen men went into the deer infested country and returned with 18 deer. Ten Wichita county men were in the party which went to Silver City, New Mex., on the expedition. Headquarters during the the hunt were established at the X S X ranch, 75 miles west of Silver City. The first 50 miles to the ranch were negotiated by automobile and the remaining stretch was made on a pack train consisting of 26 horses and 14 mules.

Two snow storms and freezing weather every night left the impressions on the faces of the Texans who are left somewhat ruddy faced by the outdoor life. The best of hunting conditions prevailed throughout the trip and deer plentiful as it is attested by each man returning with one trophy. No other variety of big game was shot.

Those who made the trip were Doc Prince, Jack Prince, John Galey of Electra; Geo. Ray, John Galey, F. W. Suggett, Bud Marriott, Ben Bell, Brit Cranfill, H. A. Holstein, Doc Massie of Wichita Falls; Bill Lourcey of Fort Worth; Lew Stogner of Amarillo; Ed McFarland of Tulsa; W. A. Allman of Vernon; "Big Boy" Ware of Bartlett, Texas; and a citizen of Silver City.

A. & M. College Sends Cards To Local Farmers For Diversification

County Agent Guy R. Jones has received several hundred cards from the Extension Department of A. & M. College, which is designed to outline a plan of work for the average farmer of the state, with a view to encouraging a greater degree of diversification. The card is entitled "Safe Farming," and outlines the following program:

Prosperity among southern farmers will be widespread and permanent, and contentment abound, only when safe farming methods, so long known and advocated, become general throughout the South. They are:

Grow ample food to supply the family.

Have a good summer and winter garden.

Grow all the pork needed for home use.

Keep enough cows to supply all family needs.

Raise all the poultry and eggs that the family can use and have some to sell.

Grow cane or sorghum for syrup when practicable.

Grow All The Feed Needed.

Make the purchase of feed for the work stock, poultry, hogs and cows unnecessary—a penny saved is worth two earned.

Keep Up The Fertility of The Soil.

Grow cowpeas, vetch, soy beans or other legumes to plow under.

Sow rye, wheat or oats in corn and cotton fields for pasture and to prevent winter washing and leaching.

Plant High Yielding Quality Cotton and Care For It Well.

Co-operate in reducing the number of varieties grown and in the orderly marketing of the crop. One-fourth less cotton acreage in 1927, with average yields and present surplus would more than supply average requirements. Why plant more?

The farmer who follows the above plan will have a good living, keep out of debt, and have something left over at the end of each year. To aid you in the "Safe Farming" program you have your:

County agricultural agent, home demonstration agent, state agricultural college, United States Department of Agriculture, marketing and other farm organizations. Write them. Use them.

Three-Story Wooden Structure At Los Angeles Burns Down.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22.(AP)—Three persons were burned to death, 19 others were injured, two seriously, and a Japanese house boy is missing in a fire which early today destroyed the Rangley apartments, a three-story wooden structure at 723 West Third street.

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED

A. V. Millikin, Under Death Sentence, Denied New Hearing.

LOCKHART, Nov. 22. (AP)—A. V. Millikin, who was given the death penalty earlier in the month for the murder of Mrs. Virginia Petty, San Antonio real estate woman, has been denied a new trial by Judge M. C. Jeffrey of the twenty-second district court.

Ferguson Okehs Pardon After Five Minutes Consideration of Appeal

AUSTIN, Nov. 22. (AP)—After five minutes consideration, James E. Ferguson, husband of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson, told him that Pat Clowers would be granted a conditional pardon, and wrote a notation to that effect on the back of the application, Earl Calloway, Amarillo oil man, Monday testified before the house investigating committee.

Clowers was under a two-year sentence from Camp county for automobile theft, and was in poor health, Calloway said. He stated that a few days before he talked to Ferguson, the board of pardons had turned down Clowers' application. Calloway said he was asked to interest himself in the case by H. G. Brown, his (Calloway's) brother-in-law, who is a Mount Pleasant attorney.

"I want to say I regard Clowers' conditional pardon as an act of mercy, and Mr. Ferguson, when he took favorable action on the application, knew I was bitterly opposed to him politically," Calloway said.

Retainers Offered

Carl Phinney, assistant secretary of the committee, testified that in the papers filed with the secretary of state relating to a full pardon granted G. C. Hanna he found letters addressed to James E. Ferguson and offering retainers to serve as his attorney in getting a pardon. These letters were read into the record.

There was no indication of any sort that Ferguson agreed to serve.

The first letter dated January 18, 1926, offered Ferguson $500; and the second letter, dated February 22, 1926, offered $1,000 and said no reply had been received from the first. Each letter represented the author to be 65 years old, and in poor health. The pardon was granted in October, 1926.

The record of the Clowers pardon was shown Calloway and he notified a notation as one Ferguson had written. This notation read: 3-3-26 conditional upon recommendation of various officials who tried the case and other good people who know the facts. Ferguson."

"I went in to see Mr. Ferguson at 5 o'clock and came out at 5:05 o'clock," Calloway related. "After reading some of the letters accompanying the application, he made the notation and told me to give the papers to Glent Sanderford, the governor's secretary, who would wire the sheriff to release Clowers. It is my understanding Clowers was released."

Signature Seen Often

Phinney identified the signature "Ferguson" on the Clowers record as the same signature "which appears on approximately 85 per cent of the 1,600 pardon records examined by me."

Phinney said that only eight of the 1,600 were notations signed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

"A few of the restorations of citizenship application were signed by Ghent Sanderford. But approximately 85 per cent of the proclamations, subsequently signed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson were drawn by employes of the secretary of state on authority of pencil notations on some sort of the record setting forth the degree of clemency, and signed by "Ferguson."

Texas To Gain

struction between Estelline and Dimmitt, by way of Plainview, distance of 133 miles; between Lockney and Lubbock, distance of 50 miles, and between Lockney and Silverton, distance of 19 miles, all granted. In this instance the palsied hand was brushed aside for the time being.

Quanah, Acme and Pacific construction between McBain and Floydada, distance of 28 miles, granted. Sam Lazarus built the latter line. He had been a cowboy in his early youth. He became a cattle king, a rail builder and a financier before he transferred his citizenship from Texas to Missouri, where he played like a millionaire and backed Senator James A. Reed, first and last and all the time. And then Lazarus died. He was close to Hale Holden, the master mind of the Burlington system and the Holden program of railway construction will be a reality in the not distant future.

230 Miles of Rail.

It is said that the granted applications will permit the building of 230 miles of new line by the Denver and the Quanah road, to cost a total of $7,307,817. Furthermore, it is said that all will be spent by the Denver save $1,032,245, which is to be the cost of the Quanah extension between McBain to Floydada. Frank G. Clarity is the vice-president and general manager of the Fort Worth and Denver lines. He is a young man, as years go, but rich in experience. He was trained in the James J. Hill school of rail roading and had won his spurs before that famous empire builder had passed on to his reward.

Construction will begin without delay. All the surveys have been made, all the material ordered, all the money placed in the strong boxes of the rail builders. From "Denver to the Gulf" will be a realty before the coming of springtime if weather conditions are favorable, and from the Gulf to the Pacific will be the story told when the entire job has been completed.

Vice-President Frank Clarity says the Denver extensions will be 202 miles long, will cost $6,800,000 and it will take from 18 months to two years to complete the job. Of course, the Frisco controls the Quanah, Acme and Pacific, and those who operate the old Lazarus road are in close touch at all times with the Frisco management.

It was a great day for the Panhandle section.

Great Day For Plains.

It was a great day for the Plains section.

It was a great day for the ambitious cities and towns in all these sections.

More important than all, the trade of a vast section that has gone to Kansas City and St. Louis will fall into the laps of Texas' manufacturers, Texas' wholesalers and Texas jobbers after these extensions have been made.

"Lest we forget," the palsied hand of Bureauocracy should be made to disappear forever. There are other sections of Texas where the people demand transportation facilities and as they have the money and the right of way their petitions should not be denied. Indeed, it should not be necessary to go to Washington every time a bunch of builders make up their minds to construct additional railway mileage under the skies of Texas.

SEAT SALE FOR VICTOR ARTISTS

Good Responses Reported Coming Concert Of Noted Singers

Seat sales are coming along nicely, said F. E. McConnell, yesterday in regard to the eight popular Victor artists who are to appear in person at the Junior college November 30.

Henry Burr, one of the Victor eight, has only one grievance, and that is against those who persuaded him to use the name by which he is so well known. He began making records about 20 years ago when the talking machine was pretty much at the toy stage. At that time he was tenor soloist at the Church of the Incarnation in New York, a position he had won after years of hard study with John Dennis Mehan, one of New York's best teachers. Burr was warned that it would ruin his musical reputation to make records under his own name, which is Harry McClaskey, so he assumed the recording name of Henry Burr, and as Henry Burr he has become famous and is known to all except his personal friends.

The other artists who will appear with Burr are Billy Murray, tenor-comedian; Monroe Silver, the "Cohen" story-teller; Sam Herman, xylophonist; Carl Mathieu, tenor; James Stanley and Stanley Baughman, baritones and Frank Banta, pianist. The members of the famous Peerless quartet are among those mentioned, and this well-known singing organization will have several numbers of the program.

The concert was arranged by McConnell as a service feature to the public, and current comment indicates hearty approval.

Eighteen Men Bag Eighteen Deer On Jaunt Into N. Mexico Mountains

"The most remarkable and successful hunting expedition ever to go into the mountains of New Mexico," is the way one member of a party of hunters from Wichita Falls and other cities described a journey into the Mongollan mountains which ended Sunday.

Eighteen men went into the deer infested country and returned with 18 deer. Ten Wichita county men were in the party which went to Silver City, New Mex., on the expedition. Headquarters during the the hunt were established at the X S X ranch, 75 miles west of Silver City. The first 50 miles to the ranch were negotiated by automobile and the remaining stretch was made on a pack train consisting of 26 horses and 14 mules.

Two snow storms and freezing weather every night left the impressions on the faces of the Texans who are left somewhat ruddy faced by the outdoor life. The best of hunting conditions prevailed throughout the trip and deer plentiful as it is attested by each man returning with one trophy. No other variety of big game was shot.

Those who made the trip were Doc Prince, Jack Prince, John Galey of Electra; Geo. Ray, John Galey, F. W. Suggett, Bud Marriott, Ben Bell, Brit Cranfill, H. A. Holstein, Doc Massie of Wichita Falls; Bill Lourcey of Fort Worth; Lew Stogner of Amarillo; Ed McFarland of Tulsa; W. A. "Help us help you. This is your highway—keep it safe. Speed limit 35 miles. Are your headlights tested and approved? Are your brakes dependable? Do you practice the Golden Rule? Information cheerfully given and service rendered. Courtesy is our motto."

The above is the motto on the cards presented to motorists on the new concrete highway in Clay county by Clyde Bentley, Clay county traffic oficer, as he patrols the highway. The new road will be opened probably by December 1, according to information given yesterday. The concrete highway is now complete with the exception of strips totaling about eight miles although not all of that finished has been opened to traffic.

THREE DIE IN FIRE

Three-Story Wooden Structure At Los Angeles Burns Down.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22.(AP)—Three persons were burned to death, 19 others were injured, two seriously, and a Japanese house boy is missing in a fire which early today destroyed the Rangley apartments, a three-story wooden structure at 723 West Third street.

NEW TRIAL IS DENIED

A. V. Millikin, Under Death Sentence, Denied New Hearing.

LOCKHART, Nov. 22. (AP)—A. V. Millikin, who was given the death penalty earlier in the month for the murder of Mrs. Virginia Petty, San Antonio real estate woman, has been denied a new trial by Judge M. C. Jeffrey of the twenty-second district court.

Ferguson Okehs Pardon After Five Minutes Consideration of Appeal

AUSTIN, Nov. 22. (AP)—After five minutes consideration, James E. Ferguson, husband of Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson, told him that Pat Clowers would be granted a conditional pardon, and wrote a notation to that effect on the back of the application, Earl Calloway, Amarillo oil man, Monday testified before the house investigating committee.

Clowers was under a two-year sentence from Camp county for automobile theft, ahd was in poor health, Calloway said. He stated that a few days before he talked to Ferguson, the board of pardons had turned down Clowers' application. Calloway said he was asked to interest himself in the case by H. G. Brown, his (Calloway's) brother-in-law, who is a Mount Pleasant attorney.

"I want to say I regard Clowers' conditional pardon as an act of mercy, and Mr. Ferguson, when he took favorable action on the application, knew I was bitterly opposed to him politically," Calloway said.

Retainers Offered

Carl Phinney, assistant secretary of the committee, testified that in the papers filed with the secretary of state relating to a full pardon granted G. C. Hanna he found letters addressed to James E. Ferguson and offering retainers to serve as his attorney in getting a pardon. These letters were read into the record.

There was no indication of any sort that Ferguson agreed to serve.

The first letter dated January 18, 1926, offered Ferguson $500; and the second letter, dated February 22, 1926, offered $1,000 and said no reply had been received from the first. Each letter represented the author to be 65 years old, and in poor health. The pardon was granted in October, 1926.

The record of the Clowers pardon was shown Calloway and he notified a notation as one Ferguson had written. This notation read: 3-3-26 conditional upon recommendation of various officials who tried the case and other good people who know the facts. Ferguson."

"I went in to see Mr. Ferguson at 5 o'clock and came out at 5:05 o'clock," Calloway related. "After reading some of the letters accompanying the application, he made the notation and told me to give the papers to Glent Sanderford, the governor's secretary, who would wire the sheriff to release Clowers. It is my understanding Clowers was released."

Signature Seen Often

Phinney identified the signature "Ferguson" on the Clowers record as the same signature "which appears on approximately 85 per cent of the 1,600 pardon records examined by me."

Phinney said that only eight of the 1,600 more notations signed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

"A few of the restorations of citizenship application were signed by Ghent Sanderford. But approximately 85 per cent of the proclamations, subsequently signed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson were drawn by employes of the secretary of state on authority of pencil notations on some sort of the record setting forth the degree of clemency, and signed by "Ferguson."

struction between Estelline and Dimmitt, by way of Plainview, distance of 133 miles; between Lockney and Lubbock, distance of 50 miles, and between Lockney and Silverton, distance of 19 miles, all granted. In this instance the palsied hand was brushed aside for the time being.

Quanah, Acme and Pacific construction between McBain and Floydada, distance of 28 miles, granted. Sam Lazarus built the latter line. He had been a cowboy in his early youth. He became a cattle king, a rail builder and a financier before he transferred his citizenship from Texas to Missouri, where he played like a millionaire and backed Senator James A. Reed, first and last and all the time. And then Lazarus died. He was close to Hale Holden, the master mind of the Burlington system and the Holden program of railway construction will be a reality in the not distant future.

230 Miles of Rail.

It is said that the granted applications will permit the building of 230 miles of new line by the Denver and the Quanah road, to cost a total of $7,307,817. Furthermore, it is said that all will be spent by the Denver save $1,032,245, which is to be the cost of the Quanah extension between McBain to Floydada. Frank G. Clarity is the vice-president and general manager of the Fort Worth and Denver lines. He is a young man, as years go, but rich in experience. He was trained in the James J. Hill school of rail roading and had won his spurs before that famous empire builder had passed on to his reward.

Construction will begin without delay. All the surveys have been made, all the material ordered, all the money placed in the strong boxes of the rail builders. From "Denver to the Gulf" will be a realty before the coming of springtime if weather conditions are favorable, and from the Gulf to the Pacific will be the story told when the entire job has been completed.

Vice-President Frank Clarity says the Denver extensions will be 202 miles long, will cost $6,800,000 and it will take from 18 months to two years to complete the job. Of course, the Frisco controls the Quanah, Acme and Pacific, and those who operate the old Lazarus road are in close touch at all times with the Frisco management.

It was a great day for the Panhandle section.

Great Day For Plains.

It was a great day for the Plains section.

It was a great day for the ambitious cities and towns in all these sections.

More important than all, the trade of a vast section that has gone to Kansas City and St. Louis will fall into the laps of Texas' manufacturers, Texas' wholesalers and Texas jobbers after these extensions have been made.

"Lest we forget," the palsied hand of Bureauocracy should be made to disappear forever. There are other sections of Texas where the people demand transportation facilities and as they have the money and the right of way their petitions should not be denied. Indeed, it should not be necessary to go to Washington every time a bunch of builders make up their minds to construct additional railway mileage under the skies of Texas.

Willis Bridal Party In Monday Night Dinner

Complimenting Miss Janie McCallister, whose marriage to Ely DeWitt Willis, is an event today at the First Methodist church, Mrs. W. T. Willis, mother of the bridegroom-elect, entertained the bridal party at a lovely dinner at her home on Tenth street Monday evening.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion in plume chrysanthemums, autumn leaves and vines, and the table was especially attractive with flowers, leaves and lighted candles in crystal holders. Places were marked with hand-painted cards of miniature brides and grooms.

Covers were laid for the honoree and Mr. Willis, Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McCallister, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. John Willis of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Akin Jr., Misses Helen Knotts and Helen Snider, and Messrs. Don Dale, Temple Shell, Darrell Kahn and Walter Nelson.

Miss Snider Hostess.

One of the most delightful affairs of those given complimenting Miss McCallister, was at noon Monday, when Miss Helen Snider entertained at luncheon at her home. The table appointments were beautiful with a Florentine china statuary forming the center from the base of which dainty gold and white pieces were filled with sprays of flowers in the autumn shades, giving the effect of a fountain. Smaller statues surrounded the center banked around with flowers.

Covers were laid for Miss McCallster, Mrs. W. J. McCallster, Mrs. Myron Lyle, Mrs. W. T. Willis, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. John Willis of Pampa; Mrs. H. A. Willis of San Antonio; Mrs. Roe Davidson of Altus, Okla.; Misses Suda, Iva and Alma Willis, Helen Knotts, Virginia Miller, Edna and Olive Kay, Georgia B. Leath and Elva Killingsworth.

In Defense of Meat

Meat-eating has come in for its share of condemnation along with the growth of the popularity of the vegetable as an essential part of the vegetable as an esential part of the daily diet. Dr. E. V. McCullum of Johns Hopkins, while maintaining that the healthiest nations are the onse which concentrate on vegetables, has a kind word to say in regards to meat.

To be of the greatest value, meat must be supplemented by the protective foods, namely, milk and green vegetables. Meat is valuable in the diet, though, because it contains much muscle building material, it helps to build blood, it improves the value of cereals and it increases the palatibility of the diet as a whole. Liver, sweetbread and kidney are more complete food because they contain growth material, vitamine A.

How to Gain 5 Pounds in 30 Days

If You Don't Do It, Get Your Money Back

Ask any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets. They cost but little, are sugar coated and as pleasant to take as candy.

It's the new pleasant way to take nasty Cod Liver Oil and will not upset the most delicate stomach.

Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good, healthy, solid flesh, and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take on 5 pounds or more in 30 days. As a matter of fact Smith and Renfro's drug stores and all druggists are authorized to return your money if you don't take on 5 pounds in 30 days.

KIDNEYS NEED LOT OF WATER

Drink Freely and Often, Also Take Salts If Your Back Hurts

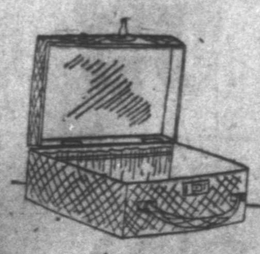

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. Drink lots of soft water.—Adv.

Net Star Now a Banker

From banker to golfer—that has become a common enough occurence among our bigrest business men; in fact, most bankers are golfers over the week-end. Now we have one of our very brightest tennis stars, in the person of Eleanor Goss of New York City, so totally taken up with the business of banking that she has no time at all for play.

From winning her share of the doubles championship, Miss Goss is beginning the conquest of the financial world single-handed. She has entered Wall street by way of the United States Mortgage and Trust company and she says that the same vim, vigorous attack and consistent defense which she employed with Elizabeth Ryan in their championship game will be more necessary than ever with her match against the business world.

Miss Goss proved her ability to reach the height of her ambition by becoming amateur tennis champion at the same time that she was serving Mrs. Whitelaw Reid as secretary. She does not believe in spoiling the sport intennis by making it a means of a livlihood, although she has the opportunity of doing so. She has always been interested in going into the banking business, and, she says, is willing to sacrifice her tennis game to attain that end.

Dining Room Decoration

If there is one room in your house which should be accorded special attention, it is the dining room. A formal dining room is all right, but a gloomy or uninteresting room is inexcusable. The necessary placement of the furniture in the center o fthe room tends to give the dining room a formal aspect, and the clever woman counteracts this with the use of draperies and any permissible ornaments. In a house with white woodwork and large windows the popular wall paper of large design may often be used to advantage.

If you use a flowing design of this sort, say in soft orange and blue and green coloring, the furniture may be carried out in soft greens with a soft orange and blue in the curtains bringing the rest of the room into harmony. Of course, these colors must be just right, and must blend, otherwise a distinct clash will be the result. Remember that whether formal, or informal, the dining room needs color.

Woman Pioncers in Mining

The only woman student in the College of Mines at the University of Washington is Helen Antonora, a Russian, who is continuing her third year of work toward a degree in mining engineering.

The story of her coming dates back to the time when, as a child in an obscure village in southeastern Siberia, she watched the crude mining methods in operation. When her rmeaining year is up at the university, she is returning to Siberia and to Russia.

Thus another has become a pioneer in a profession for women, with the idea of being of service in eliminating the ancient system of engineering in her native land.

THE NO-WOMAN MAN

All women who came his way—
He wanted none of them.
Somewhere in the dim, distant past—in schooldays,
A young thing had played havoc with his heart.
Nevermore did he see good in her sex.
Only listened to tales against, rather than for
And he traveled much.
Great stone walls surrounded his fortress—his home.
And the sign above the gate said,
"Ye who enter here leave all womankind behind."
Here he tilled his land, and worked and played,
And time crept on.
And more and more he set himself against the "female of species."
In a nearby village came a pestilance,
And a call for help.
Manlike, he stretched forth his helping hand
Working night and day.
He saw men of strength laid low, and children.
But that over which he marvelled much
Was the work of woman.
No task too great—no hardship too severe—
Standing the strain as no man can,
Bearing and forbearing.
And one among them
Frail, and flowerlike,
But with the strength of ten.
Side by side with her
He ministered unto the weak, and wan, and the weary.
And when all was over, he returned home
But to no purpose.
For constantly before him
Was the clasp of a sympathetic hand
The voice that reassured.
For something came within
That always comes to man—
Since the world began,
And no longer he hated, but loved.
For he learned
There can be no life satisfying
Without the touch of a woman's hand.

Red Velvet Gown Has Woolen Vest

BY MME. LISBETH.

A knitted woolen vest in a velvet frock does sound a bit bizarre, does it not? Yet this is the combination featured in this chic fall walking costume. The material employed is ruby red velvet while the inset vest and collar are of gray knitted wool.

The styling of this frock is simple, along tailored lines, a tie of self material finishes the deeply cut V which exposes the gray vest. A small hat in the same shade as the dress with a wide banding of gray adds to the distinction of the costume.

The two-piece dress frequently combines two fabrics such as velveteen and cloth, a strking example of this being a model with a short bloused jumper belted at a line just below the normal waist and made of checked velveteen in wine red and black and worn with a very short, tight, straight skirt of red cloth.

Many silk dresses are worn with cloth coats matching in color—these being more conspicuous than the dark cloth dress though those appeared in several chic models.

STYLE WHIMSIES

Long sleeved evening dresses will doubtless call for dance hats to accompany them.

Women are choosing embroidered, jeweled and beaded hats for wear with their fur coats.

Imitation ruby and jade pins are newer for hat trims than the crystal or rhinestones we have been wearing.

SUGGESTIONS.

Leafy Vegetables Should Be Eaten Because:—

They are sources of bone and tooth building material.

They contain vitamines essential to growth and health.

They supply the body with bulky material and water necessary for normal elimination.

They help to balance a diet which contains meat, fish, eggs, cheese, peas, beans and cereals.

They contain valuable minerals.

There is no substitute for the unique value of leafy vegetables, therefore a satisfactory diet must include a quart of milk each day and two leafy vegetables, one of which should be served as a salad.

TODAY'S RECIPES.

Stuffed Flank Steak.—Select and wipe steak clean with a damp cloth; remove the skin and fat and lay flat on table or board to spread with mixture made from bread crumbs wet with water, salt, dash of pepper, grated onion and parsley chopped fine. Roll and tie up well. Cut an onion, carrot and turnip in small pieces and lay in the pan; on top lay the meat and pour in enough water to cover the bottom of the pan one inch and place in a slow oven three hours or longer.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

The thirtieth anniversary is the pearl wedding. Jewelry set with pearls, pearl handled knives and forks and toilet articles are all appropriate gifts, as well as books which might be labeled "pearls of thought." Pretty favors might consist of little pearl shells with the guests names written on them.

Fruit Salad.—Three oranges, one small can of sliced pineapple, apple, if desired, and walnuts. Dice fruit, pour over golden dressing.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, cresote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the cresote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist.—Adv.

Household Hints

Flank steak, included in the following dinner menu, is one of the cheaper cuts of meat that is made appetizing by the seasoning and thorough cooking. If your family will not take their spinach cooked give it to them raw in salads. Wash very thoroughly and cut up with cabbage, lettuce or even in Waldorf salad with celery, apples or other fruit and nuts, or use it for garnish that must be eaten.

Stuffed Flank Steak
Browned Potatoes
Stewed Tomatoes
Whole Wheat Bread and Butter
Fruit Salad Cheese Crackers
Coffee or Substitute.

Golden Dressing. — One-fourth cup of pineapple juice, one-quarter cup lemon juice, one egg, one-third cup sugar. Beat egg and add liquids and sugar. Cook in double boiler until thick. Serve with lettuce and raw spinach.

Black Your Registers.

Liquid stove polish will keep the flour registers black and looking as if freshly painted. It is applied to the registers with a small brush and all cracks and corners are easily reached.

Try Serving Beets This Way.

After beets are cooked until tender drop in cold water, remove skins and slice small. Add one and one-half tablespoons sugar, one-third cup vinegar, two-thirds cup water, return to fire and add salt and thicken with a little cornstarch. These are called Harvard beets.

Improving the Flavor.

In boiling corned beef add a small onion, a pinch of ginger and a bay leaf. This improves the flavor of the beef.

SHOULD HUSBANDS DO HOUSE WORK?

How Mrs. Dyer Solved the Problem.

Mrs. Mildred Dyer was lucky. She had a good-natured husband who helped her with much of her housework. Because she was in ill health for five years, it was often necessary for him to do this. But it bothered Mrs. Dyer. She felt that he had to work hard enough anyway. The time he spent in doing her work was needed for his own. She determined to find the road to better health.

She writes: "I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is simply wonderful. My health is better than it has ever been. I am getting stronger and gaining in weight."

The Dyers live at Redlands, Calif., Route A, Box 183.

How often does your husband have to do your housework? No matter how willing he is, no woman feels comfortable about it. Perhaps you, too, will find better health through the faithful use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEMANDS OF BUSINESS MEN

BUSINESS men have made their demands upon the president. They demand legislation from banking to railroad consolidation. These business men speak through the United States chamber of cotton commerce. Now if the cotton growers of America had a United States Chamber of Commerce, they could make demands and back their legislative proposals. John W. O'Leary is the chief executive of the chamber of commerce. He paid a personal visit to the president of the American people, and the president of the American people was asked to make known in his annual message to the congress of the American people, the recommendations of American business men. Well, among their demands are the following:

Enactment of the McFadden-Pepper banking bill with provision for the rechartering of the reserve banks.

Approval of the senate of the French debt agreement.

Reductions of the corporation income tax, elimination of exercise taxes and of estate taxes.

Reconsideration of agriculture legislation as a problem involving component product, each of which should be separately treated. This demand is as vague as the face of a wooden Indian is intelligible. No doubt the big business men of the United States favor special legislation carried by special bills for the wheat grower, the cotton grower, the corn grower and those engaged in the livestock industry.

Expansion of the foreign commerce service of the department of commerce, along the lines recommended by Herbert Hoover, just now the crown prince of the Coolidge dynasty.

Adjustment of postal rates.

Radio control legislation.

Approval of the Lausanne treaty.

Enactment of legislation for railroad consolidations to be approved in the discretion of the I. C. C. Not a word about the Mayfield bill, which permits the builders of a community or a state to construct railroads, or feeders, to meet the demands of the hour and to afford transportation facilities to the shipper in a comparatively new and rapidly growing section of the republic.

Big business is organized.

Big banking is organized.

Big skilled labor is organized.

Why not the men and women who produce the food products of the world and the wool and the cotton of the world? It must be true "that man was made to mourn," or rather that vast army of the human family who till the soil, "was made to mourn" because it refuses to get out of the old ruts made by the ancient tillers when the world was young.

TRUITT ON THE FIRING LINE

TEXAS Baptists have an indebtedness hanging over their institutions approximating $6,144,624. Texas' Baptists resolved at San Antonio to pay off their debts, and they elected George W. Truitt to lead a state-wide campaign. Dr. Truitt is the most eloquent of preachers in the Baptist fold, the most successful exhorter when money is needed and the most popular pleader of his denomination. He will go out and get the $6,000,000. In summer time he preaches to cowmen and cowboys. Now these rugged sons of the range may not be deeply religious, but they are strong for this preacher who has been named to lead the state-wide drive for millions.

TOWN TALK—By H. F. J.

WHY THE BRUISES?

"Why?" someone asked the other day, "are those youngsters so anxious to pile in there, get their eyes blacked, their ankles cracked and their jawbones smashed?"

He was on the Junior college campus watching the Coyotes in regular work out. It was just one of those afternoons of practice—just a regular part of the annual football diet, yet it included some terrific tackles, some hard thumps, scratches, bruises and everything that goes with a first class football mix-up.

It was a foolish question.

The all-sufficing answer, of course, would be "because they like it."

Certainly they like it—but why?

The glory attached to a position on the team? That's one reason.

The love of battling for their school? That's another.

The traditional urge to engage in physical combat—an urge that is pronounced to more or less degree in every one? Perhaps that has something to do with it.

But are all those factors sufficient to "make them like" the pain and danger of it all?

Of course they are. Sufficient and then some. But if those factors did not enter into it all, football is now so firmly intrenched as a part of every scholastic undertaking that it would continue to draw its crusaders under any condition. Strip it of the glamor of competitive fight that exists as a rivalry of long standing between schools; strip from it the prestige that goes to the adolescent hero who wins a berth as a regular; strip it of all the coloring and brilliance that now attaches to the big games—and it still would be a popular thing for "these youngsters" who find in it an inviting outlet for the emotions that court danger and suffering and that offer opportunity to measure brain and brawn against one of their kind.

Sound Philosophy—Expert Advice On Perplexing Problems

The Unnatural Mother Who Claims That Her Son's Marriage Will Kill Her—Is the Love of a Mother for Her Child Greater Than the Love Between Husband and Wife?—Why Pacifists Win Out in Matrimonial Warfare.

DEAR MISS DIX.—I am engaged to be married to a man whose mother is a widow. My fiance has been a very devoted son, and his mother says that if he marries it will kill her. She is a middle-aged woman, healthy and strong, but every time the subject is mentioned to her she goes into hysterics and tells her son that if he marries she will not survive it. And her other children, who are all married, also warn my sweetheart that he will kill their dear mother if he leaves her. It seems that she wept and wailed over the marriage of each of her other children, but was not so desperately opposed to their marrying as she is to my fiance's.

My sweetheart naturally does not want to be the death of his mother, but he doesn't want to give me up, either, so what shall we do?

—WORRIED.

Answer: Say nothing more to the mother about it. Do not confide in the other brothers or sisters. But go quietly out and get married without further ado about it. You need not be under the slightest apprehension about killing the mother. It will not hurt her.

She is simply a mean, selfish old woman, who is taking advantage of her son's fear of doing her an injury to carry her own point.

And the brothers and sisters who are so afraid of hurting dear mother are anxious to keep your sweetheart from marrying because in that way he is the goat who is offered up to mother, instead of their making their share of the sacrifice.

Any woman who tries to keep her son from marrying a nice girl and making a home for himself and living a normal life, has no real affection for him. She only loves herself, and she is willing to ruin his life in order to gratify her monopolistic desire to have him to herself. This is not fair nor right, and any man is weak and foolish who gives in to such an unnatural mother.

She has lived her life. She left her mother for the sake of the man she loved. She set up her own home. She knew the joy of having little children's arms about her neck. And if she had one spark of generosity in her soul, she would want her son to have the same full, happy life, instead of denying it to him.

Every parent is bound to know that while their children may fill their lives, they do not fill the children's lives. Older people are interested in youth, and all that youth does, because youth is hope and progress and high spirits and gayety. But age bores youth because it is dull, dead, a thrashing over of old straw, a retelling of twice-told tales.

Many women hold the threat of their death like a hangman's whip over their children, to keep them from doing the things they don't want them to do. I know one woman who has kept her family terrorized into abject slavery for thirty years with her "poor heart," and she is still going strong. I know of another family where no one in it can do anything they want to do because of mother's "poor nerves."

These women are simply hold-up artists of the meaner sort. For nothing could be crueler, or playing it lower down, than to trade on the affection of those about one, and their fear of doing one an injury. What their families should do is to call their bluff.

They wouldn't die. And if they did, they would leave very reconciled mourners behind them.

—DOROTHY DIX.

DEAR MISS DIX.—In an argument with a friend the other evening I contended that the greatest and strongest love of all was the love a mother has for her child, but he thought that the greatest love is that which exists between husbands and wives. What do you think. —SALLY.

Answer: I agree with you that there is no love so great as that of a mother for her child. It endures all things and forgives all things.

Jealousy parts husband and wives. They cannot endure to see the ones they love love some one else better than they do themselves. Little love between men and women survives absence, coldness, disgrace, unworthiness.

But a mother loves a child so much better than she does herself that she gladly gives him or her to the wife or husband who will take the first place in the child's heart.

Every day we see mothers pouring out their devotion unstintedly on selfish sons and daughters, who do not give them a word of appreciation or thanks. We see mothers going shabby that their children may have finery. We see old women working to support trifling sons and daughters. We see mothers waiting and watching through the years for the return of the prodigal and folding them in their arms when they come back, no matter how foul and sin-stained they are.

They will tell you at every penitentiary that few wives wait at the gate to welcome the prisoner who has served his sentence, but that there are long lines of mothers standing there patiently watching for the child whose disgrace makes no difference in their love.

The French have a proverb that says that some women are all mother and other women are all wife. Doubtless there are individual women who love their husband better than they do their children, but these are rare.

The greatest love in the world is mother love.

KELLYGRAMS . . . . . By Fred C. Kelly

I can remember when phrenologists used to travel over the country showing charts of people's heads, all mapped off into little spaces, like townships, in which were supposed to be located different kinds of traits. Love of home was all in one spot about an inch and a half wide, while a space or two beyond was, maybe, combativeness or perseverence.

The "professor" would read the heads and interpret the characters of men, women and children from the stage, while the rest of us marvelled at the depth of his knowledge.

Today everybody knows that phrenology is not dependable. Scientists have shown us that the shape of a skull does not necessarily indicate the kind or shape of the brain within and that quality of brain is more important than size.

But many shrewd employment managers and others who would laugh at phrenology are still attempting to read the faces of applicants for jobs. According to competent scientists, the truth seems to be that there is barely enough in face-reading to lead one to expect too much. In a current scientific journal, Glen U. Cleeton, of the Carnegie Institute of Technology, declares, after making a long series of experiments, that "there are no fixed anatomical characteristics of the head or face by which character or personality traits may be estimated with a degree of accuracy such as is demanded by science or in reality by practical needs in everyday life."

Come to think of it, I doubt if anybody who didn't know him could accurately judge Henry Ford by his face. Would anybody pick him for a manufacturing genius? Surely it is encouraging to know that one's face doesn't accurately indicate character. I've grown so accustomed to my own face that I don't mind it much, but I should shrink from having a total stranger take it too seriously.

If both skulls and faces were counted out, we still have people's behavior to go by. Many even try to read character by handwriting. While this hasn't gained scientific sanction, yet some of the deductions seem moderately plausible.

If a man doesn't properly fasten his letters together in script writing and puts too many needless flourishes on his capitals, maybe he's careless and impractical. But then again, maybe he isn't. People's traits are not always uniform.

The woman manager of the woman's floor in a big New York hotel once told me that the neatest looking women often have the most slovenly rooms—as if they didn't have enough neatness to take care of both their room and their clothes.

In short, you can't always tell. But, anyhow, it's a relief to know that we aren't always as bad as our faces.

NATIONAL POLITICS . . . . . By F. W. Wile

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Senate and house are scheduled to lock horns over the question of the chairmanship of conference committees. The house claims the right, as the "popular" branch of congress, to head committees of conferees, especially with regard to revenue legislation. The senate, which has hitherto taken practically all chairmanships by unwritten law, is loathe to surrender the tradition. One hand-to-hand clash on the subject, unbeknown to the general public, has already taken place, leaving the house victor and the senate vanquished. Now that it has "tasted blood," the lower branch of congress is in a mood to press the advantage it secured and establish the prerogative for all time.

The house is "one up" on the senate through Representative William R. Green's chairmanship of the "joint committee on taxation." That committee was created last spring when the revenue bill was passed. Its purpose is to study exhaustively the workings of the new taxation laws and report to congress some time next year. Mainly at the instigation of Rep. J. N. Garner of Texas, ranking Democratic member of the ways and means committee, the house demanded the chairmanship of the joint committee. The senate finance committee, which habitually confers with the ways and means committee on revenue subjects, objected. The objections originated mainly with Senator Reed Smoot, chairman of the finance committee. He held the house's demand to be so serious a menace to senate prerogative and tradition that an executive session of the senate was hurriedly called to consider it.

Meanwhile, the house stood pat. When the revenue conferees came together to elect a chairman of the joint committee on taxation, house members nominated Rep. Green, and senate conferees nominated Senator Smoot. Neither Green nor Smoot voted. But two Democratic senators supported Green, on the ground that, as revenue legislation must originate in the lower branch, a joint tax committee chairmanship naturally should go to that quarter. Representative Green's election then ensued.

There matters for the moment stand. But in neither house nor senate do leaders fancy that they'll be allowed indefinitely to rest there. Too much legislation of major importance, requiring conference, is coming up to leave uncompromising advocates of senate prerogatives, like Smoot, or "Jim" Watson, of Indiana, content with the idea of house "supremacy."

On the other hand, the house is coming more and more to insist, not only on past prerogative (as in revenue business), but in other legislative matters, as well. The house is constantly on its guard against senate encroachment. A year or so ago the senate attempted to initiate a revision of the postal rates. The house said that was "revenue business," and objected. On another occasion the senate proposed changes in the revenue laws. Again the house filed a demurrer. When the British debt settlement ratification came up before congress in 1923, there was a suggestion that as it was a foreign affair, the senate had the right of way. But the house stubbornly and successfully protested. Thereupon, not only the British, but all subsequent foreign debt settlements were considered first by the house and then by the senate.

In the last analysis, each house of congress adopts or rejects a conference committee report, which is, therefore, of no binding effect on legislation. But in the hands of a chairman of conferees rests an important power to direct activities along lines that are frequently of decisive influence.

"I'M THE GINK"

I'm the ginkette who goes in for interior decorating. I subscribe to magazines on the subject. I clutter up the house with a lot of bric-a-brac. I purchase cans of lacquer and shellac. I put on a smock and smear paint about. Of course none of the stuff is of any use, but I must take you about and show you the beautiful new things I've "done." I expect you to restrain your smile and murmur how beautiful they are. I am always talking about artistic decorations of homes. Of course I bore you to death, but I think I sound aesthetic and all that. Secretly I think I'm clever and I expect you to think so too.

Lyrics of Life

By Douglas Malloch.

OUR YESTERDAYS

The days roll on, the years roll on,
The suns across the sky;
A dawn is here, a day is gone,
Another day is night—
And then we say,
"Where did it go,
Our yesterday,
I'd like to know?"

Our yesterdays, the yesterdays
Of all the yesteryears,
Are with us still a thousand ways,
With all their smiles and tears,
The thoughts to please,
The things to praise,
Are memories
Of other days.

The loving kiss, the friendly smile,
We never shall forget;
We had them but a little while,
And yet we have them yet.
Old joys will last,
Forever ours,
Although they passed
Like Summer flow'rs.

The days of youth, the days of old,
Are still the days to bless,
For we have gathered all their gold
Their riches still possess.
Our future ways
Are ways unknown—
Our yesterdays
Are all we own.

FOR Acid Stomach

PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this sour-ing waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

TRY A 25c BOTTLE.

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessors Charles H. Phillips since 1875.—Adv.

IT'S HARD TO "CATCH" COLD IF YOU TAKE KLOK-LAX

"Show me a person who catches cold easily—and I will show you one whose intestines are clogged with poisonous wastes," says a noted authority.

He is right! Simply keep your bowels thoroughly cleaned out and your system purified by taking Klok-Lax regularly—chances are you will never catch a cold.

Klok-Lax is the new treatment that completely cleans out all the clogged wastes in your 28-foot canal. When you do this a cold hasn't much chance of taking hold.

But if you do feel a cold coming on, take Klok-Lak at the first sign. Get your system cleaned of all the clogged wastes with this wonderful constipation treatment—then see how quickly you feel all right again.

Klok-Lax is the new, improved treatment. Everybody is taking it now. It is so pleasant—no nausea—no griping—and yet you are thoroughly cleaned out and feel fine.

Get Klok-Lax at any good druggist—Adv

Archer City Makes Great Strides As Oil Development Brings In Cash

An area studded with producing wells makes Archer county, Archer City, and oil practically synonymous terms to West Texas familiar with the region. Almost the entire western half of Archer county is oil district, with production averaging about 3,500 barrels daily. Initial flow of drilled wells is as high as 1,500 barrels, with the average between 600 and 1,000. This rate falls to about 50 to 100 as the well settles down. Depths of the famous Archer county producers vary from 1,000 to 1,500 feet, with gravity from 36 to 41.

The noted Furbeville pool, located about seven miles from Archer City, has 50 wells making 8,040 barrels at a depth of 1,500 feet and with 41 gravity oil. Drilling is still taking place in the six months' old pool, and no dry holes have been struck yet.

Many Oil Companies.

Concurrent with the oil discovery in Archer county has been the establishment of oil companies headquarters in that region. The Magnolia Petroleum company has a warehouse and offices in Archer City. A big supply house furnished oil drilling implements and materials to operating organizations. Oil seems to be in the very atmosphere of the town and country.

Archer City is located on the Wichita Falls and Southern line, 26 miles from Wichita, and about 90 miles from Breckenridge. It has an altitude of 1,067 feet. The town was named for Branch T. Archer, famous in the official history of the early Texas republic. The population is about 2,500 with a scholastic enrollment of 500. The school building is a new three-story brick structure. The system is affiliated and has good athletic interest.

Civic Improvement.

Much improvement has been carried on in Archer City recently, and civic pride is strong. The Archer county courthouse, recently remodeled, is valued at $100,000. Contract has been let for concrete paving of the square which the fine courthouse centers, and for paving a block each way from the plaza. A $60,000 sewerage system has just been installed, and an adequate supply of pure, soft water is furnished the town from a 70-acre lake. Ample light is supplied through a high power line from Wichita Falls. Plans are now being made for a county-wide issue to the extent of $1,500,000 for Archer county roads. This will be voted on early in 1927.

Ship Many Cattle.

Though oil occupies the major interest in the Archer county section, Archer City is a big cattle shipping point. Recently 750 head of pure bred white faces were bought for distribution on 15 ranches in the section. Attention directed toward development in an agricultural way point out that there are undeveloped possibilities in the poultry industry for that region. One man netted $1.25 per day on a small home flock of 30 pullets last year. The town ships in its eggs, but movement is being made for greater use of Archer county products. Several modern dairies in the county are proving quite profitable. One man has cleared $5,000 from his milk sales.

Archer City needs a creamery, a photographer, a hotel and roads, and its ever-active citizenry is already pushing efforts toward securing these.

DOMESTIC TRIBE REGISTERS GREAT CONDITION FOR FIGHT AGAINST DECATUR'S INDIANS

Wichita Falls Well Heeled With Punters In Stephenson And Burks, Who Boot 'Em Far

BY R. O. JONAS

Two more days of intensive training are on the map for the Junior college gridders before the Thanksgiving engagement with the Decatur Baptists on Spudder gridiron. The Indians came out of the Tarleton scrap with no more serious injuries than the usual bruises and bumps received in a hard game such as the Tarleton battle proved.

Followers of the team were generally satisfied that the club had done as well as it did against the formidable Plowboy aggregation. Coach Ludgate followed his plan announced before the game of giving all his men a chance regardless of the score and of trying out new plays and formations to see how they worked. Instructions went to his men before the game to take care of themselves for the big Turkey day performance before the home folks, when the Maroon and Gold jerseyed lads are expecting to put into the contest everything they have. Ludgate said that the full regular team held the Tarleton outfit scoreless in the first period and that tactical errors permitted the two scores in the second quarter when the subs went in. Again in the fourth quarter, even though there was a full new Tarleton team in the fray, the Indians held the Plowboys scoreless.

Subs Perform Well.

Substitutes sent into the game performed pretty well considering the opposition, according to Ludgate, especially gains through the powerful Aggie line. Rugeley seemed somewhat off form, something which is to be expected as he came out so late in the season. He has developed lately until he is being counted on to be one of the backfield mainstays against Decatur.

Punting for the Indians was little short of sensational in the Tarleton battle, Stephenson frequently placing long boots out of bounds on the Tarleton sidelines just off the goal line. When Steve was not in the line-up Burks performed nobly with his toe, doing the best kicking of his career and coming up pretty well to his captain's example. Two good punters on hand should mean much in the severe skirmish with the Baptists Thursday when it may frequently be necessary to put distance between the ball and the goal.

Decatur Beat Meridian.

The Baptists are expected to have a team as hard as the Tarleton aggregation. They have not met defeat from junior colleges this year, having won over a number of strong elevens in junior college circles. They defeated Meridian, according to Ludgate, and Meridian will be remembered as defeating Tarleton earlier in the season. Hence these Indians, for they, too, are Redskins, should give the local Tribe plenty to figure about and the spectators Thursday plenty to thrill over.

Most of the attention the next few days will be put on fundamentals and perfecting plays. Punting and passing practice will be worked on steadily. Scrimmage, however, will be absent as no chances can be afforded with such a small squad.

Everybody Wins A Fall But Alec

Fox Thinks He's Fall Guy So Count That as Fall For Him

Chief Wow Wow, Chief Hodgins, Chief Yaqui Joe, Referee Liepold and Charley Grip each captured a fall during last night's wrestling show at the Majestic theater. 'Twould have been unanimous if Cyclone Fox and Promoter A. Ross had earned one also, but somehow or other they were left out in the cold and it was quite cold last night, too.

Minus Meanness.

Working under Police Gazette rules, Grip defeated Yaqui in a gruelling match sans roughness, the usual athletic dish served up to the city's mat fans. The Indian copped initial honors but the match was squared when the referee disqualified him and awarded the second fall to Grip because of infraction of the rules, Joe displaying a tendency to resort to jiu jitsu and boxing tactics. Grip won the third fall.

Wow Wow grabbed the lead in his match with Cyclone Fox of Dallas who subbed for Jack Woods, by taking the first fall but Hodgins won the second and final fall, halting the match because the boys became too boisterous.

Yaqui Loses.

Now that that's all straightened out, on with the account of the wrestling as it was minus the unexpected features. Yaqui started like a house afire and fared far better than expected considering the use of his fists and jiu jitsu was barred. He scored the initial fall in 44 minutes with a step-over toe hold and hammer lock. He was disqualified 10 minutes after the return for using wrestling methods foreign to the Gazette edicts. He succumbed to the near-vertebra cracking force of a crab hold in 31 minutes to lose the match.

Wow Wow Wins.

Wow Wow put it on Fox with a body slam in 15 minutes' work. On the comeback, the referee awarded Wow Wow a pin fall, but after the breakaway Fox came up with a series of objections, so the gentlemen went to it again. But the engagement was quashed by Chief Hodgins because of unusual rudeness displayed by both wrestling persons while the crowd looked on aghast at such a debacle of impoliteness.

STAGE DOOR

Jack Slagle, Joe Prendergast and Dan Caulkins, backfield stars of the Princeton eleven, are now tripping lightly in the gym every night for the chorus for the annual Princeton Triangle show. Slagle has been a member of the triangle chorus for three years and is noted for clogging. Prendergast and Caulkins are making their first appearance in theatricals.

BROWN HURLS WAY TO FAME

Colgate Now Only Barrier Before Doughty Iron Men

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—Brown has forward-passed its way to football fame this season in a campaign which has seen most of the aerial attacks repulsed and the field goal called upon to decide an increasing number of college gridiron conflicts.

The Brown passing combination of Mishel to Randall has stood out as the main offensive weapon of the Bruins, playing as conspicuous a part in their triumphs over Dartmouth, Yale and Harvard as have the "iron-man" qualities of the eleven regulars.

"Mischel to Randall"

Colgate alone stands in the way of an unbeaten season for Brown and a claim to eastern as well as national championship honors. If the New York State eleven can stop the Mischel-Randal combination in the Thanksgiving day game at Providence it may break up Brown's victorious march. If on the other hand the aerial antics of the Bears are successful "Mishel to Randall" will deserve a place in football annals along with such other famous passing pairs as Wyman-Baston of Minnesota, Prichard-Merrilat of West Point, Oberlander-Tully of Dartmouth and Friedman-Ossterbaan of Michigan.

Other Title Tilts

Brown is only one of several major teams whose title hopes are at stake in concluding games this week. On Saturday the Navy stakes its hopes of an eastern championship as well as service honors in the battle with the Army at Chicago while Notre Dame faces an unexpectedly tough assignment against Carnegie at Pittsburgh. Boston college, its slate marred only by a tie comes to gripe at the same time with its old rival, Holy Cross, at Boston.

The Thanksgiving day spotlight, in addition to the Brown-Colgate fray is directed at games of such traditional interest as Cornell-Pennsylvania, Syracuse-Columbia, Penn State-Pittsburgh and West Virginia-Washington and Jefferson.

Bonner Wins All-City Crown

Golding Loses Hard-Fought Links Battle on Last Hole

J. H. S. Bonner rules the roost in the city golf coop by virtue of a victory over Dudley Golding in the finals of the first flight, all-city golf tournament played over the Muny club course.

Bonner struggled through a 1 up advantage in a hotly contested links battle that was not cooled in the least bit by a bitterly cold, driving wind.

Jack Hale defeated I. R. Sheldon in the first flight consolation final, 5 and 3.

Rabbit Gordon downed J. C. Thompson, 5 and 3, in the final round of the regular fourth flight and Dan Rubsam defeated M. P. Rogers, 3 and 2, in the second flight final.

The fourth flight consolation title went to W. E. Lindley who beat C. J. Pate, 3 and 1.

Penn State Sophomore Runs Six Miles In 30 Minutes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—William J. Cox, Penn State sophomore and member of the 1924 Olympic team, Monday captured the intercollegiate varsity cross country championship and broke the record for the six-mile Van Cortlandt park course. His time was 30 minutes, four seconds.

Cox set the pace from the start and finished about 40 yards in front of M. L. Smith of Yale, 1924 individual champion. Third place went to James Loucker, Syracuse star. Cox's time was 30 seconds faster than the previous record for the new intercollegiate course, set last year by Willard Tibbetts of Harvard.

KNEE BENDER

Flanagan, of Notre Dame, is one of those quick-starting, hard-running types who seems to throw his knees in five or six directions and who, when tackled, is very hard to stop. In his headlong run of 63 yards in the Army game, no one had a chance to tackle him because he was up and on his way before they realized it.

Nocona Hooks Up With Bowie

Tribe Under Dog in Annual Clash With Powerful Invader

Nocona is rated the underdogs of the annual football classic to be played here on Thanksgiving day between the Bowie Jackrabbits and the Nocona Indians, but for the last ten days the war whoop has been heard on the Indian gridiron as the warriors are being prepared for the coming battle. Coaches Stone and McPherson are losing no time in trying to iron out the weak places on the line and in the back field that have been made by recent injuries.

Bowie won the Turkey day game last year on its own field, the first time that it had had the honor in four years and it is coming over to Nocona to try to put over a win on the local's field, something that they failed to do in four years. Bowie is planning to bring at least 500 fans over for the conflict.

According to dope the Jackrabbits are due to win, but due to the traditional rivalry that exists between the schools a good game can always be expected. This game marks the beginning of a new two-year contract between the schools to continue the annual affair. Next year Nocona goes to Bowie.

Motion pictures will be made of the game. At least 1,500 followers of the teams are due to watch the game if the weather will permit. This game ends the present football season for both teams.

DECRY PASS RULE

Big Ten Mentors Against Overhead Penalty Edict.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—A majority of the western conference coaches Monday expressed vigorous dissent with the new football rule in effect this year inflicting five-year penalties for successive incompleted forward passes after the first try.

A season's experience with the restriction has convinced most of them, they said, that it had failed to achieve the rules committee's object of cutting down indiscriminate passes.

The suggestion that the shift play be abolished, however, found opinion about evenly divided and one coach, Wilce of Ohio, is a vigorous advocate of the abolishment of the point kick after touchdown. Ohio lost its chance for a tie with Michigan this year through a one-point defeat, but won from Illinois to take second place by the same one point.

Wildcat Monte, the speedy Wichita Falls junior welterweight, will appear on the National guard fight card Wednesday night at the Majestic in a special six-round event, said Matchmaker Don Wofford yesterday.

Wofford announced that he has had wires out the past several days seeking a suitable opponent for Monte and expects to have everything lined up by this morning.

SEVENTH GRID MEETING.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Nov. 22 (AP)—When the Razorback football squad engages in combat with Tulsa university at Tulsa Thanksgiving day it will mark the seventh meeting between the rival elevens since the intermittent series began in 1902. UNBEATEN ON GRID, MEMPHIS LOSES IN COMMITTEE ROOM, SO DONATES TITLE AND QUITS

MEMPHIS, Nov. 22.—The Memphis High school football team has withdrawn from the interscholastic league race in district one, class B, is the information given out today by S. C. Miles, superintendent of Memphis High school. The withdrawal is the culmination of a protest against the eligibility of Henderson, Cyclone quarter, who was ruled ineligible last week by the district committee and the game between Wellington and Memphis played here, November 5, and won by Memphis, 41-0, was ordered annulled. This disposition was satisfactory to all committeemen, according to Mr. Miles. The case was reopened upon protest of Superintendent Morgan of Clarendon High school, he contending that Memphis must forfeit the game to Wellington. His contention was upheld by the committee at a meeting in Clarendon Saturday and Memphis was ordered to play Clarendon here Thanksgiving and in the event they were winners were to play Wellington the following Tuesday, then the winner of the Canyon-Hereford game the following week.

In a statement today Mr. Miles said:

"We feel that since Clarendon has assumed such an attitude toward Memphis as they have we should not attempt to play a game of football with that team, inasmuch as it would be impossible to conduct a friendly contest, it is the desire of Memphis to stimulate clean, friendly athletics and promote a friendly relationship between our neighboring cities. We feel that it would hardly be worth while for us to strive for further football honors. We therefore have expressed our desire to withdraw from the district the remainder of the season."

Memphis has not been defeated in a conference game this year and has lost but three games, one to Clarendon college, 19-0, Wichita Falls Junior college, 13-7, Vernon, class A high school, 12-6. They have defeated Wellington, 41-0; Miami, 56-0, and Childress, 13-7; Quanah, 47-0; Burkburnett, 20-0; Claude forfeited.

SPORT a la CARTE

BY ROY GROVE

If you should walk right up to Tad Jones and ask him what is the matter with Yale, he will tell you, "Nothing at all. You see the game from the stands and not from the long and weary hours of practice and worry over the condition of the men."

Yale has been quoted as somewhat of a mystery team so far this season. The expert dopester starts out with comparative scores and ends up with the defeat of Maryland, where Tad let his team stay down and, as they say, could have avoided the score if he had put in the men on the bench to head Maryland off.

But—Tad Jones was coaching the team that day.

He also coached the team that all but beat the mighty Princeton. He could have beaten Princeton. Right now he could beat Princeton three games out of five.

When Yale took the field there was little hope; these hopes rose when the ball was on the 10-yard line many times during the contest. That's something.

What's the matter with Yale, Jones and his mystery team?

Nothing.

* * *

Jones has turned out some great teams at Yale and no one can say he didn't know what he was doing for the season of 1926 when his men were out with injuries from the early beginning. Yale and Jones were handicapped—that's all—any other coach in the east would have done far less than Tad Jones.

Yale has turned out the greatest football teams in the history of the gridiron. Can anyone forget the squad of 1892—the team beat every thing that came in front of them, including Harvard and Princeton, and also ran up 435 points without allowing one point scored against them?

There was another team from Yale, but that's far, far back in 1888, rather mythical for us today, but a great team that piled up 698 points without being scored on. That's a hard one for anyone to figure. There is probably only one man left who can tell you much about the squad and that's Stagg at Chicago; he played left end for that great combination, although 19 of the original squad are still alive.

So why worry about Tad Jones. He will, in time, turn out a team to beat any of the east if fate will let all his men stay on the ground and run around without limping.

* * *

Sitting in discussion with a group of the greatest coaches in football recently, the subject of kicking came up. Today the are seems to have been lost, that is, after a certain fashion.

How often do you hear of a punt and spiral and placement traveling from the kick-off? Everything seems to be a placing, rather a science, and to where and to whom the ball should be kicked nowadays.

In the past, the old pigskin got a terrific socking from the center of the field and she traveled all the way. The first guy down stopped his man.

I have seen in many games of the modern style, at the kickoff, a player deliberately kick a football 25 yards at the start of the game and seemingly try, at the some time, to get down with the ball for the tackle.

Two recent Spudders and one who is back with us again must have got their sights clogged up or mis-calculated their trajectories quite a bit last summer in the American league. Fitzgerald during his short stay with Boston batted .258 in 31 games, Metzler hit .242 in 20 games with Philadelphia. Jenkins, including his early season service with Boston and late sally with Philadelphia, poled .179 in 27 games. Tut weighs several pounds more than that when in shape.

FLOYD TREXLER

Floyd Trexler, the phantom Virginia league outfielder, drafted from the Wilson club by the Spudders at the close of the 1925 season, but who did not report last spring, will join Carl Williams' charges for the 1927 foray.

* * *

Trexler hails from a family of railroaders. It had been annual custom of his to obtain a summer leave of absence from his locomotive and devote the warm months to baseball pastiming. But last year following a roundhouse accident, in which Trexler figured, the southern railroad for which he works, refused to grant him his usual furlough with retention of his seniority. So Trex stuck to his knitting and sidetracked baseball, or rather professional ball, for the 1926 season. However, it is said, he kept in fine condition by indulging in amateur play with fair regularity.

* * *

The impending season Trexler is to receive his leave of absence and report to the Spudders. Johnny Nee declares him to be the classiest outer gardener who has cavorted in the class B Virginia loop the past several years.

Ought to Slam 'Em Here

Trexler topped the league in 1925 with the bludgeon. He pelted virgin territory at a .345 clip. A right-hander and a natural hitter, he is expected to show at advantage. Spudder park's comparatively short left field fence which is enhanced for the starboard swingers by a breeze that usually wafts its way in a home plate-to-port direction.

* * *

Trexler connected for 34 two-baggers in 1925, slammed five triples and 27 home runs. He may develop into a much better hitter than the average long range sharpshooter with that advantageous left pasture wall. Trexler's speed a-foot and quick thinking on the bases is illustrated by the fact he pilfered 26 hassocks in 1925.

OLD TEAM MATES

Several Southern association clubs have endeavored to purchase Trexler this winter, Spudder Secretary Guy Airey divulges. But Prez Gardner has refused to let go. Herb Cobb, the pitcher, it will be recalled, was drafted this fall from Trexler's club.

Anent recent rumors that Lyman Lamb, Spuds' flaxen-domed right gardner, will be sold this winter. It is known at least a brace of Texas league clubs and two Southern association teams have made overtures to the Wichita Falls office for his services, all of which have been turned down. Lucy will be with us another season, apparently, all of which spikes a seemingly unnecessary rumor.

FROGS LOSE STARS

12 Players in Last College Football Game Thursday.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 22.(AP)—The Thanksgiving day clash between the Texas Christian University Horned Frogs and Southern Methodist University Mustangs in Dallas Thursday will mark the close, as far as football is concerned, of several brilliant individual athletic careers.

Among the 12 members of the Frog varsity playing their last game of college football Thursday, are three or four outstanding performers, with records both in high school and college.

Harry "Hypo" Taylor, Frog halfback, and former star at Polytechnic high school, probably is the best example of this kind of consistent performance.

Another Frog halfback to end his career this year is Harold "Hobo" Carson of San Angelo. Carson is the last of the three famous Carson brothers, Kit, Hizzie and Hobo, who have made their mark in several forms of athletics at T. C. U.

The other "last game men" are Herman Clark and John Washmon. Clark has been all-southwestern selection for quarterback for two years and Washmon last year was unanimous selection for all-conference center.

Horace Brewster, 220-pound Frog tackle from Mineral Wells, was all-conference tackle last year.

"OFFICIAL" NOTICE TAKEN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 22. The committee will report at the next meeting of the board.

WHETHER WINNERS ON FIELD OR LOSERS ON TECHNICALITY COMES UP FOR AIRING TODAY

Cantwell Tells Committee Wichita Falls Is "Fair, Just And Above Board In Every Respect"

Whether the Wichita Falls Coyotes are to be champions on the football field or whether the Vernon Lions are to be champions on a technicality is to be decided this afternoon at Quanah in session of team representatives from the seven high schools of district one, University of Texas interscholastic league.

Representatives will gather in Quanah at 2 o'clock from Wichita Falls, Vernon, Electra, Amarillo, Plainview, Lubbock and Quanah, class A members of the district, in re-hearing of the Vernon-Wichita Falls football controversy, it was announced Monday afternoon.

The meeting is result of a Wichita Falls petition following majority vote last week-end by the district football executive committee to disqualify Wichita Falls from the Texas high school championship football race on a charge entered by Vernon officials that Wichita Falls has violated the league coaching edicts by accepting the services of Brown McCallum as line coach and assistant to Head Coach A. Y. McCallum.

Wichita Falls defeated Electra, Quanah and Vernon in drive for the title of the district's eastern half. The Coyotes were to have played Lubbock, champion of the western half, for the district crown this week.

In compiling the Wichita Falls petition for rehearing of the case, J. W. Cantwell, superintendent of schools, set forth Wichita Falls' defense arguments.

The petition follows.

Honorable Members of District Executive Committee,
Interscholastic League, District 1,
Supt. C. H. Davis, Chairman,
Gentlemen:

Wichita Falls is asking for a reconsideration of the matter of excluding Wichita Falls from the contest for football championship of this district which was considered at a meeting held at Quanah, November 19, on the following grounds:

First: It is believed that the committee was forced to act hastily in the matter owing to the shortness of time given for securing information:

Second: Members of the district not present and voting on meagre information might have a different view upon reconsideration.

We beg to submit the following facts for consideration:

First: The charges made by Vernon that Brown McCallum did assist his brother, A. Y. McCallum, is admitted.

Second: It is denied that Brown McCallum was in any sense a recognized coach either by the board of education or any of the school officials. A. Y. McCallum has been and is the only coach recognized in any way, financially or paid any remuneration, and was promised none, directly or indirectly.

Shot Square From Start.

Third: In order that Wichita Falls might not violate section 1 of the 1926 football plan, the state director was asked in the opening of the season to render an opinion which was received on or about October 4, and filed with chairman of our district, Superintendent Davis.

Fourth: Inquiry from the superintendent of Vernon schools sent to the same authority, was received by Vernon and was to the same general effect, viz: that the rule applied to the recognized coach and not to others who might be helping.

Fifth: Section 14 on protests requires that protests be made within 24 hours, except in cases of alleged ineligibility of players. Vernon's protest came in some 10 or 15 days late—at the close, we might say, of the contest which, whatever, Vernon failed to make under the rule should be barred. As Vernon's letter to Director Henderson shows, Vernon had all information necessary for making the protest on any grounds whatever, be it ineligibility or other grounds. By any construction protest in time, and thereby lost any rights she might have had under said rule.

State Backs Henderson.

Sixth: The same question has been raised in other districts. Austin, for example, and it has been the opinion of the state committee given in other cases that such assistance could be rendered without prejudice, and finally, the state committee is filing with the chairman of this district, Supt. C. E. Davis, the opinion of the state committee to reinforce the opinion of Director Henderson, already given.

On these grounds and others that could be given, as for example the rule barring coaching seems to apply to the state championship games and not district championship games, in which the state board would have entire jurisdiction and Vernon's complaint in that case should have gone to the state board and not to the district board.

We claim that Wichita Falls has been fair and just and above board in every respect, and that it would be unjust, if not outrageous, to exclude its team from further participation.

Respectfully submitted.
J. W. CANTWELL,
Superintendent, Wichita Falls City Schools.

ANOTHER CHAMP?

Saint Clair Believes Mustangs Will Capture Cage Crown.

DALLAS, Nov. 22. (AP)—Prospects for a 1926-27 basketball championship at Southern Methodist university are exceedingly bright at this time, Coach J. W. Saint Clair said here Saturday.

Six letter men from last year's squad, which finished second in the Southwestern conference race, are back to carry the Mustangs color this year and a wealth of new material is expected to report at the end of the football season. The lettermen are Stanley Dawson, star end of the championship football squad; Weldon Woolridge, Druill Speer, Walter Allison, Ted Lindsey and J. D. Mann.

Dawson was last year's captain while Mann will lead the Mustang court artists this year.

Since only one of the six letter men, Dawson, was on the grid machine, the Mustangs have been getting in much pre-season practice, and, according to Coach St. Clair, are in excellent shape now.

PACK PLODS RIGHT ALONG

Brown McCallum Sends In For Pass Scrimmage With Tribe

Wichita Falls' "Outlaws" don't seem to be worried.

The Coyotes raced through a sharp work session yesterday on the Junior college practice field just as if they were sure of taking Lubbock to a cleaning this week-end instead of facing a bleak season the remainder of the way, outcome of last week's expulsion from the league scramble.

Lubbock, you know, is champion of the western half of District One and should Wichita Falls be re-instated this afternoon in district pow wow at Quanah will be the Coyotes' next opponent with the district crown at stake.

Should the Pack be allowed to return to the race a flip of a coin will serve as the process to decide where the game will be played. If Lubbock should win, the game probably will be played in the Panhandle city Thanksgiving day. A lucky toss for Wichita Falls and the game will be played at Spudder park Saturday, in all probability.

Signal drill, running, bucking and fundamental exercises along with a forward pass scrimmage against the Indians sufficed the Coyotes for Monday afternoon's workout. Brown McCallum, the bone of contention in the district eligibility squabble, had charge of the squad. His brother, Bud, the head coach, did a bit of traveling over the district urging a re-hearing of the Coyote cause, it was understood.

In event there is a Wichita Falls-Lubbock engagement, Romey and Powell will start at tackle and guard instead of Downnig and Dobson. Ineligibility since made up by the latter pair causes them under a rule of the school to be held from starting their next conference game, if any. Both lads were kept on the sidelines in the Sherman melee.

Melvin McKinney may work at a wing position. Dickey has been shifted to quarter. Rayzer, regular quarterback, is out with injuries.

Almost Ready For Dog Races

South's Speediest Canines To Run Here Turkey Day

Plans are about completed for the Thanksgiving day races of the Wichita Falls Coursing association. This is to be a 24-dog stake, with N. J. Montgomery, one of the Electra directors reporting that 24 of the fastest dogs of the south have been entered.

Two dogs, who won the natural futurity sweepstakes at Garnet, Kan., last spring will be present. Another undefeated champion will be entered from Elk City, this being Oklahoma Bird, who has never been "led to a rabbit." Two dogs, Princess Meadow and Royal Meadow, owned by F. H. Jester will also be in the race, these dogs being from Elk City, Okla.

Another new dog who has never been entered in the coursing in the district wil lbe Ruth Ray recently purchased from the Alford Kenels of Fort Worth, and owned by W. O. Murrell of the city.

Some of the dogs that won in the all-state meet at San Angelo Armistice day are among the entrants.

Scotty Whitelip and Morgorie Marie, owned by Sol Webster of Altus, Okla., and trained by N. J. Montgomer of Electra will be in the races.

Dogs from the towns to be present are, Tipton, Altus, Frederick, Grandfield, Elk City, Wichita Falls, Electra, Olney, McKinney, Brandon and Lucas, Texas.

BELLMONT DENIES

Athletic Director Says Varsity Not After Aggie Coaches.

AUSTIN, Nov. 22. (AP)—L. Theo Bellmont, Texas university athletic director, Monday emphatically denied a statement in a Bryan newspaper that university authorities have approached Claude Rothgeb and Johnny Bender of the Texas A. and M. college coaching staff with the idea of making them university football coaches.

The contract of "Doc" Stewart, head football and basketball coach of Texas Longhorns, expires this school season.

"Texas university has a football coach, and is loyal to him," Mr. Bellmont told the Associated Press. "At the proper time the renewal of his contract will be considered by the proper university authority, the athletic council.

NEW SPORTS

At the close of the football season at Fordham, two sports will hold sway—boxing and swimming. The 1925 swimming team, organized in 1925, has been admitted to the Intercollegiate Swimming association. There are many on the football squad who have reputations as boxers.

COYOTES DUE TO WIN PLEA

Evidence Too Powerful For Committee To Vote Single Nay

BY BLONDY CROSS

It is hardly conceivable that Wichita Falls' stalwart football array will NOT be re-instated in the championship trials this afternoon in district grid court session at Quanah.

'Twould be difficult to convince the writer beforehand that principals and superintendents of schools, who will be there to cast their votes, after having been—in fact, already have been, made acquainted with full details in the controversy, will utter 'a single "nay" to Wichita Falls' plea that its football team be returned its laurels earned on the field of battle, but shorn of in the same district court room a few short days ago.

Can't Go Wrong.

Confronted by the overwhelming evidence that has been pronounced, it is exceeding the furthermost boundaries of imagination even to hint belief these men, officials in seven educational institutions of North Texas and the Panhandle, will strike one dissenting note when Wichita Falls' plea is placed before them. It is beyond conception that there will be even one negative vote launched by these officials, men to whom the last word is looked for in the intricate as well as interesting study of logic, the bane of many a college under-graduate's existence—men who surely through their many years of schooling have become well-versed in the powers of inductive and deductive reasoning, men who, figuratively, can make a major premise rear up on its after extremities and build a syllogism ordaining light in dark, a cat is a dog, and football games are won on the gridiron and not through the mail or by long distance telephone; all that if need be.

It is not necessary to go further in comment on the meeting of the football literati this afternoon. The question has been threshed pro and con the past several days in these columns, on the street corners, in the barber shops, in the restaurants, in the homes and in the school rooms. Any reader who may not be acquainted with all details in the matter need travel no further than one column to the left and peruse Superintendent Cantwell's letter to the district executive committee. Therein are set down in condensed form both sides of the issue.

In the face of the evidence advanced should Wichita Falls be debarred from further participation in the championship drive not only will a stigma be smeared over the Wichita Falls school escutcheon but over the shield of the entire North Texas school district, for every class A division school member in the state has been made cognizant of the flimsy charges brought against the tactics of Wichita Falls school officials in the athletic field, and has been informed of Wichita Falls' conclusive defense.

H. Hustead, J. W. B. Tucker, J. W. Rowley, T. Frank Hines, Robert C. Evans, William Carter, H. C. McClelland, George H. Weber, the Fort Steubin Oil Company, a joint stock association, and DuLux Oil Company, a joint stock association, all of whose residences are unknown, are defendants, and said petition alleging:

That the plaintiff resides in Wichita County, Texas, and that the residences of the defendants are unknown; that on or about the 14th day of September, 1925, plaintiff was lawfully seized and possessed of the oil and gas leases and leaseholds, carrying therewith 7-8 of the oil and gas produced and saved therefrom, on and covering the following described land in Wichita County, Texas, to-wit:

FIRST TRACT: Five-acres in the Northeast corner of Block 55, Kemp's Wichita Valley Farm Lands Subdivision, and being the East 5-acres of the North 15 acres of a 110-acre tract out of said Block, said 110-acre tract being all of said Block save and except the 50 acres in the form of a square in the Northwest corner of said Block.

SECOND TRACT: 21-acres out of Block 1, Meade's Subdivision of the West 1-2 of the Margaret Ramsey Survey, described as follows:

Beginning at the Northeast corner of said Block No. 1, thence West with its North line 691 feet to a stake: Thence South 1,275 feet to a stake: Thence East 691 feet to the East line of said block: Thence North 1,275 feet to the place of beginning.

That on or about said date the defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected the plaintiff therefrom, and unlawfully withholds from him the possession thereof to his damage in the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars.

Plaintiff prays for citation and for judgment for the title and possession of said premises, oil and gas leases and leaseholds, for his rents and damages, costs of suit and general relief.

Further complaining of said defendants he alleges that they executed the assignments of said leases hereinafter mentioned, under which plaintiff holds, and which assignments through mutual mistake erroneously or inaccurately rescribed the property assigned to-wit: (a) Assignment from W. G. Burton to J. Y. McQuigg, Jr., dated December 16, 1918, recorded in Vol. 109, page 467, Deed Records of said County, covering the first tract mentioned; (b) Assignment from Lon C. McCrory and A. L. Steel to C. M. Beeler and J. B. Dunn, dated March 27, 1919, recorded in Vol. 125, page 230, of said records, covering first tract mentioned; (c) Assignment from J. B. Dunn and C. M. Beeler to PuLox Oil Company, dated May 10, 1919, recorded in Vol. 131, page 257, Deed Records of Wichita County, covering the first tract above mentioned; (d) Assignment from PuLox Oil Company to G. W. Wentz, dated December 23, 1919, recorded in Vol. 153, page 290, of said records, covering the first tract above described; (e) Assignment from G. W. Wents to Fort Steubin Oil Company, dated May 1st, 1920, recorded in Vol. 158, page 307, of said deed records, covering the first tract above mentioned. Plaintiff also alleges that by reason of the mutual mistake and inadvertence the following named instruments do not correctly described the property assigned to be affected, which property was the two tracts above mentioned, and which instruments are also muniments of his title; (a) Judgment of the 89th District Court of Wichita County, Texas, of date October 17, 1921, in Cause No. 11707-C, styled A. E. Davidson et al vs. Fort Steubin Oil Company; (b) Order of sale issued out of said cause on November 5, 1921; (c) Return of Fred K. Smith, Sheriff of Wichita County, Texas, on said order of sale; (d) Sheriff's deed of the 6th day of December, 1921, from Fred K. Smith to W. E. Wilson, recorded in Vol. 183, page 594, of the deed records of said County.

Plaintiff prays for judgment reforming all of said instruments so that they will speak the true intent of the parties and the court executing the same, and so that they will correctly describe the two tracts of land as above described.

Plaintiff also alleges that defendants, George W. Hustead, A. H. Hustead, R. H. Hustead, and J. W. B. Herein fail not but have before said Court at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and the Seal of said Court at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this the 1st day of November, A. D., 1926.

COTTON MARKET STEADY IN FACE OF BIG U. S. CROP ESTIMATE

CLOSE OF DAY'S TRADING FINDS PRICES STRONG

Decline at Final Hour Not Over Two Points At New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22. (AP) The cotton market was mainly influenced today by the government crop report of 18,399,000 bales and ginning to November 14, had totalled 12,953,708 bales. The crop forecast was much larger than expected but the ginnings total was smaller than looked for. The effect on the market was comparatively slight, despite the record crop forecast. Prices which had advanced 12 to 16 points in the pre-bureau trading eased off only nine to 16 points, following the resumption of business after the totals were known. Later prices lost ground gradually on selling until they showed losses of 22 to 25 points from the pre-bureau levels. In the afternoon prices rallied again and recovered 14 to 16 points. The close was steady at net losses for the day of only one to two points.

The market opened four to six points up in sympathy with better Liverpool cables than due and the unfavorable weather in the belt. There was a recession of eight to 11 points soon after the start on belated liquidation but the market soon rallied on the bad weather until December traded at 12.72, January 12.78 and March 12.89, or 12 to 15 points above the previous close. Prices eased off four to seven points just before the government report was issued. As a result of the bureau report prices immediately eased off nine to 16 points and later declined to 12.43 for December, 12.48 for January and 12.62 for March. During the afternoon December rallied to 12.57, January to 12.64 and March to 12.76. The close showed only a nominal net loss.

Exports for the day totalled 59,699 bales.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—The government crop report indicating 18,399,000 bales, was above general expectations and caused reactions from an early advance in the cotton market today. January contracts sold off from 12.79 to 12.47, a net decline of 13 points, but offerings were absorbed by trade buying or covering around the 12¾ cent level and losses partly recovered. January closed at 12.59, the general market closing steady, net one point higher to two points lower.

The market opened at unchanged prices to an advance of three points in response to fairly steady Liverpool cables, and worked up to 12.72 for December and 12.98 for March in early trading. These prices represented net advances of about 16 to 19 points on active positions, the market showing a little more activity late in the first hour when there was a spurt of covering in preparation for the government report.

The larger crop figures than looked for, brought in considerable liquidation or re-selling when trading was resumed after publication of the report. December declining to 12.41 and March to 12.67, or 12 to 13 points net lower. Trade and investment interests were active buyers on the decline, however, while there was nothing to indicate any increase of selling pressure in the south, or particular volume of hedging, and the market steadied up during the afternoon.

The census report showing 12,953,708 bales ginned prior to November 14, was under the forecasts, and may have had a tendency to offset the influence of the crop figures. Compared with the estimated yield, the ginnings suggested that there was still a great deal of cotton in the field susceptible by damage by unfavorable weather and a question as to whether it would all be picked may have helped to steady the afternoon market. The factor chiefly discussed, however, was the persistent trade or investment buying on the declines.

Exports today 59,550, making 2,622,456 so far this season. Port receipts 96,916; United States port stocks 2,729,887.

Financial

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—High priced industrial shares led an upward movement in today's market, although trading was largely professional in character. The buying in several groups, particularly sugars, textiles, tobaccos and chemicals, appeared to be a reflection of improved trade conditions, but in a few issues the rapid marking up of quotations suggested a drive against an over-crowded short interest. Sales were only moderate in volume.

There was no change in rates on call or time money or commercial paper with plenty of funds available at the renewal rate of 4½ per cent. The weekly statement of brokers' loans issued by the New York Federal Reserve bank showed an increase of slightly more than $6,000,000.

Cotton futures broke $1 to $1.50 a bale, following the publication of the latest government report indicating a crop of 18,399,000 bales, a new high record, but there was good trade buying on the decline, and the early losses were recovered. Raw sugar futures were marked up to new high levels for the season in further reflection of the recent restriction of the Cuban crop.

Baldwin was run up over four points to 160½, the highest price in over five years during the morning, but lost practically all its gain on selling presumably inspired by another official denial by President Vauclain that the company's Philadelphia real estate had been sold. U. S. Steel common was one of the most active issues on the board, crossing 146 for a net gain of 3¾ points on the day. General Motors also was actively traded in, closing 1¾ higher at 139.

Nearly a score issues attained new peak prices for the year, the list including American Sugar Refining, Commercial Solvents "B," Consolidated Cigar, Consolidated Textile, Federal Light and Traction, Philadelphia Company and Universal Pipe preferred. Renewal of selling pressure against Electric Refrigeration, which was associated with the recent announcement of a new bond issue forced that stock down over four points to another new 1926 low at 34¾.

Railroad shares, with few exceptions, failed to participate in the advance, speculative enthusiasm for those issues being chilled, temporarily, by the unexpected decline in the net operating income of the Kansas City Southern railroad, the first to report for that month. Atlantic Coast Line recovered half of an early loss of two points on selling induced by the announcement of new stock financing, the "rights" to purchase the additional stock being quoted around 37.

A sharp break of over ten points in French francs to around the 3¼ cent level, half of which was later recovered, featured the irregular foreign exchange market. Demand sterling rallied ¼ cent lower around $4.84⅝, but most of the continental rates gained ground.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE.

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Better export bids at the Gulf of Mexico helped give an upturn to wheat prices today at the last. Crop damage reports from Argentina were also current and there was 1,068,000 bushels falling off in the domestic wheat visible supply total. Closing quotations on wheat were strong 1 to 2c net higher, with corn ⅝ to ¾c off, oats ⅝ to 1c down, and provisions unchanged to a setback of 37c.

Selling of corn against buying of wheat tended to depress the corn market. Besides, the corn visible supply increased 830,000 bushels, an amount less than expected, but lifting the total of 20,130,000 bushels, compared with 1,512,000 bushels last year. Oats followed corn.

Provisions lacked support, despite steadiness of the hog market.

"HONEY LOU" By Beatrice Burton

AUTHOR OF "LOVE BOUND," "HER MAN," ETC.

READ THIS FIRST:

HONEY LOU HUNTLEY is private secretary to old "GRUMPY" WALLACK, head of the Wallack Fabric Mills. Honey Lou likes everyone at the mills except JOE MEADOWS, the shipping clerk, who makes love to her against her will.

JACK WALLACK, who comes to his father's mills to learn the business, falls in love with Honey Lou the minute he sees her. Brought up by an old-fashioned mother, Honey Lou is a mixture of flapper and clinging vine.

ANGELA ALLEN pretends to be a friend of Honey Lou and tells her not to take Jack seriously. Jack is very jealous of DR. STEVE MAYHEW, a friend of MARGRET, Honey Lou's sister.

Honey Lou goes to work with Margret in the office of Holy Cross hospital. One day she goes to tea with the wily Angelia and meets Jack's mother, whom Jack calls The Head, because she manages everything at home. She tells Honey Lou that "Grumpy" is not satisfied with his new secretary, ANN LUDLOW, the office vamp. Jack asks Honey Lou to work for his father, who is at home sick with lumbago, and Honey Lou promises that she will.

Honey Lou meets Angela, who tells her that Jack Wallack is taking her out to dance that evening. Honey Lou calls up TIM DONEGAL, determined to have him take her to the same place.

Honey Lou goes with Tim to the restaurant and he has been drinking. The place is raided by dry agents and Honey Lou escapes with Jack Wallack. Jack tells Honey Lou that he thought she was tricking him and ends by telling her that he loves her and wants her to marry him.

Honey Lou tells her mother that she is to marry Jack Wallack the next day but her mother asks her to wait and have a wedding. Honey Lou's engagement is announced and plans are made for the wedding.

She meets Angela downtown and she persuades her to open a charge account under the name of Mrs. Jack Wallack, Jr., and to put the shoes she is buying, along with some lingerie, on the account. But at home with Margret, who sees through Angela, she decides to take back the lingerie and Margret pays for the shoes for a wedding gift.

Jack and Honey Lou have a quiet home wedding and spend their honeymoon camping at Lake Tamay. In the meantime Steve visits the flat and breaks under the realization that Honey Lou is lost to him now.

Jack and Honey Lou return from their honeymoon and stay with the Wallacks while looking for a flat for themselves. Honey Lou tells Angela that they are anxious to start housekeeping. They find a seven-room flat on the next street to the Wallacks and The Head says Angela told her Honey Lou could not wait to get away from them. This angers Honey Lou and she cannot understand why Jack's mother is so cool toward her. Honey Lou starts shopping for furniture. She stops at the Wallack Mills office to see Ann Ludlow.

Ann tells Honey Lou why she sent for her. Honey Lou sees Joe Meadows and tells him he must marry Ann Ludlow at once and he agrees to do so.

Honey Lou and Jack settle down in their own flat with Mary Delaney, the cook. Margret comes home with Honey Lou for dinner and Steve Mayhew calls to take her home.

Angela comes over to help Honey Lou prepare dinner on Mary's night out. Jack phones he will not be home and Angela says she will call Tim Donegal and ask him to play cards with them, much against Honey Lou's wishes.

Angela has her way and Tim comes over. Later they meet at Sabine's, but Honey Lou refuses his invitation to tea. On the way over to spend the evening with The Head, Honey Lou stops to see Angela. Angela asks her if she told Jack about seeing Donegal. The Head sends Jack upstairs to see his father and tells Honey Lou she wants to talk to her.

The Head shows Honey Lou the bill for the shoes and lingerie she charged to Mrs. Jack Wallack Jr., before her marriage. She scolds Honey Lou for the money she has spent furnishing her house. Honey Lou makes up her

NEW SOCIAL SERVICE BOARD FORMED WITH HUCKINS CHAIRMAN

FAMILY RELIEF TO BE UNIT'S MAIN OBJECT

Thorough Investigation Will Be Made of Calls For Charity Aid

A new unit for the promulgation of social service work for the city came into being Monday afternoon when welfare workers and a special investigating committee recently appointed by Mayor R. E. Shepherd held a meeting at the chamber of commerce and organized the "executive board for family relief" for the city of Wichita Falls.

This executive board is organized to more thoroughly investigate and care for restitute and needy families in the city. The Salvation Army will continue its work of taking care of transient cases, but the new institution will look after the permanent citizens of this community.

Huckins Chairman.

Joe Huckins, III, was elected chairman; Mrs. C. H. Hartsook, vice-chairman, and J. L. Jackson Jr., secretary-treasurer. These with J. F. O'Donohue and Mrs. C. E. Bailey will comprise the executive committee.

A budget for this work was also drawn up at the meeting and a committee appointed to present the budget to the chest committee.

It is also planned to employ the services of a trained case worker to administer relief and work out problems of families, carrying out a rehabilitation program which will enable families to become self supporting wherever possible.

Mayor Shepherd, who presided at the meeting, expressed himself as well pleased with the plans made. He introduced W. B. Hamilton, who made a short but instructive address along the subject under discussion.

Hamilton Speaks.

Mr. Hamilton has had a great deal of experience in family relief work, having been adviser for the United Charities of Dallas and was chairman of the case work committee there. Hamilton also made a social service survey of Austin while attending the university there and his thesis on this subject is in the university library.

The bulk of his talk dealt with various phases of relief work and contained many useful suggestions as to how the work should be done. He gave a thorough outline of methods found to be successful and insisted that this city should care for its unfortunate citizenship as well as it possibly could.

First Ripples of Christmas Mail Floods Being Felt At Postoffice

Wichita Falls' postal authorities, casting dubious eyes at a calendar with only 32 spots before Christmas, heaved sighs of resignation yesterday as they settled into the opening throes of the rush that will not close until Santa Claus has made his annual pilgrimage.

In other words, the first ripples of the flood of Christmas mailing that soon will descend have been noted at the post office here. Waiting lines in front of the parcel post and stamp windows were a little longer; outgoing parcels were a little heavier; sorted stacks of letters and packages were a little higher.

The big rush, of course, is still some way off. It will not break in full fury until two weeks before Christmas day; but it's on the way and the postal clerks are wishing it was over.

'Big Hearted Tom' Says He'll Win In Walk In Race for Shrine Ring Today

Thomas Nicholas Davy, better known as "Big Hearted Tom" is announcing to the world at large today that he is the favorite son in the big race for the Shrine Ring today.

Davy, who will be one of the features in today's Shrine parade, declares that he will win the ring and will win in a walk. "I stand for the 'Pageant of Progress'—and every candidate in every recent political race who stood for that won his race," said Mr. Davy yesterday.

"My platform is the most promising of all. In fact I will promise everything that is necessary to secure the needed votes. I have always been known as 'Big Hearted Tom' because I have never turned anything or anyone down. To show my big-heartedness and to help out the farmer I am going to pass out samples of cotton to my friends and my opponents today. There is nothing small about 'Big Hearted Tom.'"

"I, like the famous Andy Gump, wear no man's collar and I declare myself for the people. If my opponents make any promises, I want the public to know that I'll go them one better on most anything."

Davy has for his campaign committee the following, James Bernard, D. O. Johnson, Henry Streit and W. B. Richardson. The ceremonial parade will start at 1 p. m. today.

Wichitans To Meet At Chicago Game

Army-Navy Battle Saturday To Be Witnessed By Local Quartet

At least four Wichitans—two of who have more or less vital interest in the fortunes of the United States Army and Navy—will sit in next Saturday at Chicago when the two service football teams clash in their annual football struggle. The event, staged this year for the first time west of the Alleghaney mountains, promises to be one of the classic grid games of the year.

Mrs. D. M. Perkins and Miss Annette Caulfield leave Tuesday for Chicago where they will attend the big game Saturday. While there they will meet David Perkins, now a cadet at the U. S. military academy, West Point; and Carroll Johnson, now a midshipman at the U. S. Naval academy, Annapolis.

Incidentally, the city's only two representatives in the nation's service training schools live within a stone's throw of each other. Young Perkins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Perkins, 2414 Eighth street, and Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Johnson, 2408 Eighth street.
