ANSWERLINE

Q. How much money of the lottery proceeds will go to help support school finance?

A. A representative of the Comptroller's Office said Tuesday they did not know the exact figure but said "since the lottery revenue went into the general revenue fund and education accounts for 41% of that fund then 41% of the lottery revenue went to education." In talking to a couple of Hutchinson Elementary students, they said to tell the Comptroller's office to multiply .41 X lottery revenue and they would have an answer. They said don't forget to move your decimal point over two places!

Title ready to be transferred to TDCJ at Tuesday meeting

The land for the prison to be built here will be formally deeded to the Texas Department of Criminal Justice in Colorado City at a joint meeting of the Kiwanis and Lions Club Tuesday noon at the Civic Center.

The public is cordially invited to the event as members of the Economic Development Board, County Commissioners and the City Council will be in attendance as well as Rep. Rob Junell and representatives of the TDCJ. Among those from Huntsville will be Jim Balzaretti, Director, Land and Mineral Program.

The public is cordially invited to the lunch and those wanting to attend are asked to call 728-2072 at the Civic Center for reservations. The cost is $5.75 per ticket.

The winning bidders for the water and sewer line met with Gary Harris of Parkhill, Smith and Cooper at a pre-construction hearing Wednesday and they are just waiting for the signing before starting construction.

Bids on the construction of the prison are expected to be let in January with construction to start in March if everything proceeds as scheduled.

Vol. 87 No. 99 Pub. No. 122800

City expected to act on day care

People for Progress' proposal to open a day care center and Head Start program in the building that housed both programs until they were shut down on Nov. 15 got a couple of boosts Thursday.

An exit conference in Coleman by the monitoring team that has been on a routine inspection of PPI and the programs here told the gathering "there are no Head Start funds missing, stolen or unspent."

And four city council members from Colorado City toured the facilities in Sweetwater Thursday. Gary Redwine, Bob Reilly, Brian Bassham and Sammy Contreras toured the facility along with the executive director, Gladys Gerst.

Redwine said Friday that "the tour was very favorable and I was very impressed with her operation and we would be extremely fortunate to have her running our facility here based on what I saw in Sweetwater."

Other council members echoed Redwine's sentiments.

The council is scheduled to meet Monday at 5:15 p.m. to discuss the disposition of the Day Care Center Building. It is possible Gerst's non-profit corporation may either purchase the building or it has been suggested by some the City give PPI the building "and get out of the day care business."

PPI operates on a budget of around $15 million dollars and employs some 65 people. Mrs. Gerst has said the day care center and Head Start program here could employ as many as 20 individuals and they would make every effort to hire from Mitchell County.

Besides the Head Start and day care programs in Sweetwater, PPI is involved in commodity distribution, an emergency food pantry, child care management services in 19 counties, transportation, weatherization, emergency crisis intervention and emergency home shelters.

Other programs include senior citizen's nutrition program, adult day care, W.I.C., food coop, a business innovation center and a legal clinic plus other services.

Playhouse hosts Christmas shows

The Colorado City Playhouse will host its first Christmas show this year called "Opera House Christmas."

The first performances of the show which is destined to become an annual event in Colorado City, will be December 18 and 19 with show time being 8 p.m. each night.

The box office will be open beginning Monday and will remain open all week from 1 p.m. till show time. Call 728-3491 for reservations.

The show is written and directed by Marsha Moore and Tandy Curlee and will feature over 25 local people in the cast singing your favorite Christmas carols and hymns.

Admission is just $3 and refreshments will be served back stage after each performance for the cast and audience.

CHS Band schedules concert today

The Colorado High School band will be having their annual Christmas Concert this Sunday afternoon at the High School auditorium.

Band director Alex Martinez said the concert would start at 4 p.m. and would feature many favorite Christmas songs.

Songs included are "Christmas Magic", Let It Snow, "Winter Holiday", "I'll Be Home For Christmas", and "White Christmas".

Commissioners to meet Monday

The Commissioners' Court met briefly Friday morning to consider the utility easements at the prison site but tabled any action on them until their regularly scheduled meeting Monday afternoon when they will consider any other final details on the prison land transfer.

Other items the Court is to consider Monday are the risk management program offered through the Texas Association of Counties, a prisoner custody agreement and some budget amendments.

They are also expected to go into executive session to discuss pending or contemplated litigation.

CHARLOTTE NORTHUTT AND ONE OF HER PAINTINGS: Charlotte Northcutt will have an exhibit of her Southwestern Art on display at the Heart of West Texas Museum in a premiere showing this Sunday, Dec. 13 from 1 to 4 p.m. Her work will be on display during regular museum hours until the end of the year.

Northcutt to display works at Museum

Mitchell County residents will have a special holiday treat this month as Charlotte Northcutt will have a showing of her Southwestern Art at the Heart of West Texas Museum beginning with a premiere showing this Sunday, Dec. 13 from 1-4 p.m.

Her work will be on display during regular Museum hours from December 15 thru the 31st.

"I love to portray in my work the humanistic characteristics of my subjects and the way they were," said Mrs. Northcutt.

And most of her subjects are the Taos Pueblo Indians.

On canvas, they are as real as they were several hundred years ago and if you allow yourself to pause quietly and view the work, one can almost feel the shuffle of the moccasins or feel the stare of the Kiva guard.

She has studios in Taos, N.M. and on the Spade Ranch near Colorado City and she graduated from high school here. She was raised near Silver on a sheep ranch and her parents are Wayne and Sitter McCabe.

Charlotte and her husband Bob live on the Spade Ranch near Colorado City and she graduated from high school here. She was raised near Silver on a sheep ranch and her parents are Wayne and Sitter McCabe.

Dockrey going off board

ASCS election held

The Community ASCS Committee election of the local administrative area 3 was held recently and the results were announced on Dec. 9 by Don Stewart of the ASCS office.

Eddie Strain was elected chairman and Kirk Morris vice-chairman. Bruce Rich was elected to the committee and Sue Guelker is first alternate and Abel Alvarez is second alternate.

The elected LAA Committee will meet Dec. 15 along with members from areas 2 and 3 to choose a county committee member from LAA-1. The new member elected will serve a three year term beginning January 1, 1993.

Jim Dockrey has served three consecutive three-year terms which is all that is allowed without a break of at least one year. Stewart said Dockrey was an outstanding committeeman and will be missed by both producers and ASCS employees.

LAA-2 members are Tony Turner, Lynn Bradbury and Henry Mitchell and LAA-3 members are Curtis Shaw, Robert Cox and Larry Don Watlington.

CISD agenda

The regular monthly meeting of the Colorado Independent board of trustees will be Monday night at 7 p.m. at the board room at 534 E. 11th.

Included on the agenda will be two executive sessions-one will be with attorney Tom Rees on the Barber vs. CISD law suit and the other is the yearly evaluation of superintendent, Don Nimmo.

Other items include career ladder placement for 1991-92, the audit report from Joe Morren, CPA, and bid approval for the painting of the Administration Building, the CMS greenhouse and the CHS language lab.

BY MITCHELL COUNTY
GAME WARDEN, RANDY BULLARD

He's probably the most sought after game animal in the state. He is one of a population that numbers 4 million and he is the one that makes hunters go wild and do the craziest things. He is ODOCOILEUS VIRGINIANUS - the whitetail deer and to be more specific - the whitetail buck.

He comes in many variations of weights, from 100 pounds in the hill country to 200 pounds in other areas of the State (including Mitchell County), but it's what grows out of that deer's head that will make most men claim temporary insanity for a couple of months of the year. I'm talking about antlers...not horns. Antlers are shed each year...horns are not. Antlers are what makes a deer a "buck" (regardless of the sex of that animal).

Antlers. They grow in countless variations of sizes and points. Everything from the perfect Typical, symmetrically mirrored racks to the Non-Typical oddities that produce a cluster of tines and points jutting out in all directions.

Every hunter fantasizes about his favorite rack. Some like them wide enough to sit in, tall enough to decorate as a Christmas tree or with enough points to run out of fingers and toes counten em'. Just thinking about those double drop tines, 6" dog catchers, 10" main tines and beams thick enough to use as an axe handle will make palms sweaty, drool drip and "stomach butterflies" do the promenade. (That's right ladies...just when you thought this look means your husband is having loving romantic thoughts of you - he may be dreaming of "Ole Muy Grande").

And the things he'll do to get that "dream buck"! Everything from crawling through ice cold muck and mud to sitting motionless in a rickety tree stand for countless hours. From emptying his pocketbook on top notch guns, buck busting ammo, stands, camping gear, camo clothing, face paints, scents, grunts, calls and every other available gizmo necessary for the quest.

But every now and then a "dream buck" is harvested without much ado.

Such was the case last weekend. While checking hunters, I noticed an old ford pickup bouncing towards me on an old hunting road. The driver was just tall enough to peer over the steering wheel and when I got closer he pulled off the road and anxiously hopped out of the cab. The young hunter was heavily bundled in clothes and had a smile on his face like the wave on a slop bucket! I could tell from his excitement that he had killed something, but I still gave him my best "Ya'll had any luck?" He nodded his head and ran to the back of the truck where his dad was now standing...glowing with pride. The kid blurted "I killed my first deer and it's a real nice buck!" I looked-and sure enough there was the nicest fattest "spike buck" I'd seen. He then recounted his entire hunting story to me about how he had bagged it. I hung on his every word and shared in his enthusiasm; for you see, in his young eyes his first deer was his "muy grande" and he deserved my full attention and recognition.

I congratulated him again and as I drove away I felt about two inches taller in the saddle. I can remember my first deer and that indescribable feeling of excitement and accomplishment.

Sometimes, we adults need to slow down a little and put hunting back into perspective. We all know how exciting and challenging it is to go after a Big Buck, but this kid made me realize that there's a lot more to it than just that.

It's not always about high dollar, super advanced equipment or excruciating methods used in the hunt.

It's not always about having to kill a "superbuck" or any buck at all.

It's about seeing a kids smile on his first hunt. It's about simply enjoying Mother Nature and what she has to offer. It's about the basic thrill of a "one on one" hunter against prey and whether or not you win the game...you've played the game!

HOWARD COLLEGE RECRUITERS: Howard College recruiters of Big Spring visited with several CHS seniors Tuesday in a program organized by Ray Pope, guidance counselor at the High School. Shown with Margaret Trevino and Esther Lopez of the college are CHS students Michelle Molina, Joey Arispe and Crescent Ross. Students at the program were treated to a noon meal by the recruiters from Howard College and Western Texas College.

New career guidance program initiated

Colorado High School seniors are taking advantage of a new career guidance program initiated by Ray Pope, guidance counselor.

In speaking to the senior class, Pope found that almost two out of three of them wanted to attend informational sessions from nearby junior or community colleges, the armed forces and Texas State Technical College. He has established three sessions to give the students a more in-depth look at post-graduation alternatives. He said the emphasis in career guidance today is on employability for high-school graduates. He added "today's job market demands the completion of additional courses after a student graduates from high school."

He has invited recruiters from Western Texas, Howard College, the armed forces and T.S.T.C. to make additional visits to Colorado High School this school year.

On the campus Tuesday was Darla Doty of W.T.C. and Margaret Trevino and Esther Lopez of Howard College.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

One of the first priorities of any state government should be to protect the property of its citizens.

In May of 1992, without my permission, a part of my property, owned by me, was chemically sprayed, killing the mesquites on a section 450 ft. x 75 ft. wide.

I feel that I should have been asked for permission to enter this property. It matters not, to me, whether the chemical was applied by hand or destroyed by a motor driven vehicle or equipment.

Dear Editor:

Thanks to Sue Lowrance and everybody who helped in any way with the Christmas parade and for each person who participated in the parade.

It was very good and so well organized. We enjoyed watching it very much!

PTL Sunday school class of FBC hold Christmas party

The PTL Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church held its Christmas party December 10th at the home of the teacher, Bonnie Brown. There were seven present: Ruby Moore (guest), Ruth Eaton, Linda Rhodes, Catherine Bell, Louise Valdez, Lucy Magill, and Bonnie Brown.

The meeting was opened by class outreach leader Linda Rhodes, followed by a prayer by guest Ruby Moore. Class Secretary/Treasurer Lucy Magill gave a financial report and presented the devotional on the Christmas story of Christ being born in a manger in Bethlehem. There was some discussion of what this place looks like today, with a bright electric star shining in a bed of straw arranged in a dark, subterranean room adjacent to the church marking the location of the former manager.

Gifts were exchanged and refreshments served.

This small class is a part of the Church's Adult VI Department. The PTL stands for "Praise the Lord".

COUNTY OIL & GAS NEWS

Two new oil producers with combined ability to yield 33 barrels of oil per day have been brought on line in the East Howard-Iatan Field, Mitchell County, by Parker and Parsley Development Co.

The wells include the No. 266 and No. 269 Mary Foster, both located about nine miles southwest of Westbrook.

The wells will produce from Clear Fork Formation perforations ranging from 2,480 to 3,242 feet into the wellbore. The No. 266 made 18 BOPD plus 562 barrels of brine, while the No. 269 produced 15 POPD plus 161 barrels of brine.

Operating out of Mattoon, Ill., Dedic Energy Inc. has staked location for a 3,500-ft. developmental well in Mitchell County's Westbrook Field. Drillsite will be about seven miles north of the Westbrook townsite. Designated as the No. 2 Erwin "D," the well is in a lease in the T&PRR Survey Section 6 Block 27.

Five sisters Virgie Hicks, Norene Wheeler and Lillian Galloway of Harrison, Arkansas; Pearl Nonnier of Bellefonte, Arkansas, Ruby Gilmore of Lory, Mo. Fifteen grandchildren.

Everett Lane Stagner

Services for Everett Lane Stagner, 86, of Colorado City were held at 3:00 p.m. Wednesday at Kiker-Seale Funeral Home, Inc., with Rev. Ted Spear officiating.

Burial was in Colorado City Cemetery. Mr. Stagner died December 8, 1992 at Mitchell County Hospital. He was born July 26, 1906 in Bisbee, Arizona. He married Naomi Lucille Rogers December 24, 1926 in Colorado City. She died in 1980.

Mr. Stagner had lived in Colorado City since 1924 and was a member of the 1st Baptist Church. Everett was retired from the Col-Tex refinery.

Survivors include one niece, Sandra Davis of Snyder; one sister-in-law, Mary Mogford of Carrizo Springs, Texas; two nephews from California.

Date now set for acreage reduction program signup

Secretary of Agriculture Edward Madigan has announced that the 1993 acreage reduction program signup for feed grains, wheat, rice and upland and extra-long staple cotton will be March 1 through April 30.

On September 29, the secretary announced 1993 ARP percentages of 10 percent for corn and 5 percent for grain sorghum. The ARP for barley, oats and wheat were set at zero percent.

A preliminary announcement of an ARP of 7.5 percent was made November 2 for upland cotton. The 1993 ARP percentages for rice and ELS cotton will be announced later.

B&PW Club meet at Civic Center Dec. 8

Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club met for its monthly business meeting and Christmas Party on Tuesday, December 8, 1992 at 7:00 p.m. in the Civic Center with the Young Careerist Committee in charge of the program. Priscilla Martin, Chairman of the committee led the pledge to the American flag and committee member Christine Cooley led in Club Collect.

A delicious turkey dinner with all the trimmings was served to twenty four and one guest.

After a brief recess, Pauline Light club president, called the meeting to order. Phyllis Lane presented gifts to those having birthdays: Margaret Oylar, Shirley DeLaney and Eddie Barclay.

Molly Bruce, chairman of committee to select our BPW club woman of the year then introduced her assistant Margaret Ann Conaway, who in turn introduced the members our BPW woman of the year, Pauline Light.

After this Andrea Helms was introduced by Priscilla Martin. Andrea then gave us a concert of beautiful christmas songs. She also played for singing by the members. It was a delightful rendition of our beloved carols. Thank you, Andrea.

Gifts were then exchanged in a very unusual way after which they were opened and enjoyed by all.

Those present were: Andrea Helms, guest and the following members: Margaret Oylar, Velma Moseley, Eddie Barclay, Faye Spring, Molly Bruce, Sharon Truelove, Earline Selliers, Anna Staats, Priscilla Martin, Phyllis Lane, Margaret Ann Conaway, Louise Logsdon, Mildred Free, Wilma Womack, Erdine Morgan, Shirley Bradley, Pauline Light, Donna Laurens, Nancy Crow, Christine Cooley, Juanita Schafer, Virginia Dearen, Shirley DeLaney and Lovess Curlee.

These girls from J&J Gymnastics in Colorado City recently competed in a meet in Sweetwater. All the girls won medals and ribbons for their gymnastic skills on the balance beam, uneven bars, vault, and floor exercise. They also all advanced to the next level of competition for the upcoming meets. The team includes: Jennifer Callaway; Jennifer Alexander; Amanda Guerra; KayLee Stubblefield; Lacy Watson; Erin Stuckey; Stef Dickard.

Loraine homemakers meet

The regular monthly meeting of the North Loraine Extension Homemakers Club was held on November 19 at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Eva Wells.

Vice President, Elaine McMichael called the meeting to order, with the group prayer. Elaine presented an uplifting story of things to make a true Southern Belle for recreation. Roll call was answered by, if you were going back to school, what class would you take?, with 10 members present.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was given. Report was given on the Tasting Tea held on November 3, which was a success.

For unfinished business, the Co-Wide Christmas luncheon was discussed with final details being made. A meeting was scheduled for the group to meet and make name tags.

It was announced that a Holiday Evening workshop would be held on December 10th at the CC Thompson room from 5-8 p.m. Volunteer hours are needed by November 23 deadline.

A very interesting program was presented by Jimmie Jacks on her trip to England and Ireland. Her points of interest she had visited were a pleasing interest to the group.

Members present for the meeting were: Jimmie Jacks, Mildred Rose, Veida Gage, Billie Ruth Abernathy, Billie Schroeder, Eva Wells, Elaine McMichael, Nina Meadows, Wanza Graham and Pat Carter.

News from....

LORAIN SENIOR CITIZENS CENTER

In November the center decorations included colorful collages and cut-outs of harvest food items. Overlooking all of this bounty was a Mr. and Mrs. Pilgrim and Mrs. Pilgrim seemed to be looking long and hard at a nearby fat turkey gobbler. We can imagine that when everyone went home and the center was empty. Mrs. Pilgrim got the Mr. involved with a chopping block and a turkey neck. We think after cleaning the bird she sent the pilgrim kids out to grind some Indian corn, gather nuts and berries so she could make the first stuffing. It could be, that's the way the first Thanksgiving dinner tradition was started. Maybe!

November 11th Extension Agent Mary McMullin came to give us a helpful nutritional program that stressed guidelines for a healthy diet and the latest data on required food groups for modern living. Less protein is needed; and always strive for less fatty meals, and more fruits and vegetables eaten every day along with less dairy and more carbohydrate food items.

We observed Veterans day on the 11th with a sing-a-long of patriotic soup. Jay Dickenson played piano for us and Marilyn Tartt led the singing. Gus Armstrong led the pledge of allegiance. We payed respect to all the Veterans in attendance that included Tommy Gwinn, Jackie Walker, Bobby Graham, Jasper Doyle, Jack Richey, Gus Armstrong, Wayne Dubois, Mol Miles, Presley Powell, Ray Spivey and Forrest Faulkenberry. Also recognized were World War I widows Ida Baird and Nannie Lou Miles. Iva Armstrong and Everett Stagner served as defence workers in World War II. And it was noted that Dr. Bruce Johnson played an important role by staying in the community to care for the homefolks. This observance brought back memories of how those who were left at home during any war time dealt with constant worry, loneliness, rationing, trying to read between the lines of loved ones censored letters. (Hoping to get a clue as to where they were stationed) and finally the heart wrenching telegrams listing the missing and killed in action.

Gladys Payne was given recognition by fellow members for fifteen years of Volunteer service at the drinks table. Thanks Gladys!

Visitors to the center in November were Forrest and Hester Faulkenberry, Peggy Harmon, Helen Nevis, Chester Hart, Don and Francis Richburg, Jerry Richburg, Ed Perry, Jon Boz, Jo Dell Perry, Neva and Tommy Gwinn, Florence Jones, Ethelene Walker, Jo & Ethelene Whirley, Allene Baird and Francis Bell.

We had a first time visitor to the Center is early November who created quite a stir. He was truly handsome, dressed in high fashion, smelled wonderful and had a calm laid back manner about him and all the women sorta went ga-ga over him.

His name is Tyler Wayne Plagens and he weighs about 7 1/2 lbs. He was accompanied by his mother Sheila Plagens and grandmother Agnes Haney. Maybe we can make him an honorary member. He was indeed so laid back that he slept all during his visit. We look forward to his next trip to the center.

We are saddened by the loss of several of our good friends and members recently. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the families of Roy Beighits, Latrice Henderson, John White, Pete Valdez and Sue Crowder.

It was great to see Ham and Blondie Hamilton back at the center after a long absence, and we're certainly glad to hear that their daughter Charla is now in better health.

This story is about three very poor aged housemates somewhat depressed about the meager meal they would share on Thanksgiving day. To lift their spirits they decided on a contest to see which of the three could come up with the nicest Holiday menu with the food on hand. The items on hand were flour, sugar, 1/4 bottle of vinegar, salt, baking powder, crisco, 6 eggs and 1 quart of milk. Housemate no 1 said all she could plan would be biscuits, scrambled eggs and three large glasses of milk. Housemate no 2 feeling snug wrote down, biscuits, gravy, an egg custard and 3 small glasses of milk. Housemate No 3 won the contest with her elegant menu of hot light fluffy biscuits, cream gravy, 3 deviled eggs, a vinegar pie, and three small glasses of milk poured over ice cubes. So the old maxim still holds true. It's what you do with what you have that really counts.

Members having birthdays in November were Ruth Richburg, Era Cornutt, Ralph Lankford, Olen Lee, Veida Gage, Christine Mearse, Herbert Mearse, Marilyn Tartt, Lela Bowlin, Wanza Graham, Irene Kidd, Blondie Hamilton and Jo Ann Long. Winnie Richburg made the special cake. Ninety two members and honorees signed the attendance sheet and enjoyed Turkey, dressing, English peas, fruit salad, hot rolls and pumpkin pie. While we enjoyed our meal Rev. and Mrs. James McLeod and Tiffany honored us with some beautiful music and singing. We appreciate their thoughtfulness and their talents and we feel fortunate to have them in our community.

During this Thanksgiving season we seniors are reminded that we have a lot of things to be thankful for, our faith, living in America, friends and family just to name a few. Each one of us puts priorities on different things for which we are most thankful. Somewhere down the list lets not forget the blessings of the center that encompasses this small community and surrounding areas. It benefits the seniors enormously, and younger guests are always welcome.

Take good care and see you at the center.
