

Masters Cited On Skill In Water System Operation For Rotan

Austin (Special to Advance)--State health authorities have awarded R. L. Masters of Rotan a Grade C "certificate of competency" in recognition of his skill and knowledge of water plant operation.

The certificate was awarded under Texas' general sanitation law that water plants furnishing the public must be under the supervision of an operator who has proved his talent for the job in a written examination and has been certified by the Texas State Department of Health.

Masters' newly won certificate will be valid for three years. After meeting certain requirements of experience and training, he will be eligible to try for higher certification.

The examination for Grade C certification covers fundamental knowledge in quality requirements for a public water supply, interpretation of bacteriological analysis, selection of pumps, well or surface supply sanitation, distribution system sanitation and procedures involved in pipe laying and maintenance.

Grade C certification requires a minimum of one year of experience plus 40 "credits" earned by attendance at annual district and state water works short schools sponsored by the Texas State Department of Health, the engineering extension service to Texas A&M College, and the Texas Water and Sewage Works Association.

Singley Advises On Farm Trailers

Farmers do not have to comply with a new state law requiring title certification on trailers of 4,000 pounds gross weight or more when the trailers are used for hauling their own farm produce to market.

This reminder was given local farmers this week by L. D. Singley, president of Fisher County Farm Bureau, who said many farmers are not aware that the law exempts carriers of farm produce.

The law, which was passed by the 56th Legislature during its regular session this year, requires issuance of certificates of title on all trailers having an unloaded weight in excess of 4,000 pounds and semi-trailers with a gross weight in excess of 4,000 pounds. The Texas Farm Bureau was successful in getting an amendment to the law exempting vehicles used by their owners for transporting their own farm produce to market, the County FB leader explained. He said the exemption does not apply when such products are being transported for hire.

The Farm Bureau president said the local county organization has information on the new law and others passed by the 56th Legislature, in its file copies of the Austin Newsletter, a weekly publication issued by the Texas Farm Bureau legislative department while the Legislature was in session and also in a Legislative Report prepared by the TFB legislative department following the close of the 56th Legislature, regular session.

Jack McCain In Race For State Legislature

JACK MCCAIN

Jack McCain, a lifelong resident of Nolan and Fisher counties, has authorized this paper to announce that he is a candidate for State Representative of the 91st Legislative district.

Jack McCain was born 44 years ago in the south part of Fisher county. He was in the automobile business in Sweetwater for 15 years with a 2 year volunteer enlistment in the Air Corps. For the past 10 years he has been Ford dealer in Roby, operating the business. He has farmed and ranched in Fisher county all his adult life and still owns and operates a 1,000 acre stock farm in Fisher county.

In announcing his candidacy McCain makes the following statement:

"It is my desire to announce that I will be a candidate for the Legislature from the 91st District, composed of Nolan, Fisher and Mitchell counties.

"My decision to enter this race was reached after talking with many citizens in all three counties of the district. It is my profound conviction that the voters of this district want, and have a right to expect broader and more effective representation in Austin.

The imposing problems which will face the 57th Legislature will require sound, mature, and dedicated thought and action by each member, and I sincerely believe a change is necessary if this District is to receive proper representation.

I greatly appreciate the interest already shown by people all over the District, and I will endeavor to visit with as many voters as possible between now and the Democratic Primary on May 7th.

Within the next few weeks I will formally announce my platform, and, in the meantime I will appreciate hearing from the interested voters of the district."

New License Plates Went On Sale Monday

Austin, Feb. 1--New license plates for 1960 went on sale at all county courthouses Monday morning, State Highway Engineer D. C. Green announced today. The plates have white letters and numerals on a black background.

Greer stated that 4.7 million motor vehicle registrations were bought by Texans in 1959, and predicted that 1960 registrations would approach the five million mark.

Greer stressed the importance of registering early.

The registration deadline is midnight, April 1.

Greer stressed the importance of registering all automobiles and trucks in the home county of the vehicle owner.

"Take your certificate of title and your last years registration receipt to the tax collector in your home county. Penalty for improper registration of a vehicle can be as much as $200. Don't risk an illegal registration. Remember too, that a portion of all registration fees stays in your home county to benefit your local community," Greer said.

Advance Late On Birthday

Due to mechanical trouble the Advance was late this week. During the course of trouble we discovered this issue started the 54th year of continuous operation in Rotan. Also this is the first time in 37 years the Advance has failed to make the mail on time, which we think is a fair record. From the number of telephone calls in 24's failed to get their paper Thursday morning, we have reason to believe the Advance is appreciated. We only hope that it is another 37 years before the Advance misses a deadline.

In the delay caused by the trouble the most important story of the week was omitted, the current building trend in Rotan. Plans will be announced next week. Also the school board ordered a bond election at their Monday night meeting on $425,000 bond issue for new high school. They were presented petitions asking for the election. Date was set for Feb. 20.

FROM MY FRONT PORCH
Watch the World Go By
by CARL HELM

Measured against Conshohocken, Pa., Pleasant Prairie, Kan., Kokomo, Ind., or any other of a thousand hometowns, New York isn't America. It's just about everything but!

Its ethnic conglomerate, its high rewards for the best brains and talent from all the continents, its seat of the United Nations, make New York a world city — the world's capital, really, of money and materialism. As one of many consequences, there are the ever increasing, ever higher soaring skyscrapers which are making of New York's principal borough of Manhattan one vast office-building complex.

Fifth and Park Avenues, for generations symbols of elegance and fashion, are becoming canyons of slab-sided glass and metal structures, 40, 50, 60 stories high; the old brownstone mansions vanish. It's bigness at its biggest: bedazzling, expensive — New York.

The evidence accumulates that the average American, however, is becoming less bedazzled by bigness. The continuing success, for instance, of the smaller, unadorned but trim and economical Lark by Studebaker is proving this among the motoring public in every hometown in our land.

With all its glamor and glitter, its sophistication and its showiness, New York is a city that every American should see at least once. It is exciting and stimulating, a continuous World's Fair. It is, as many an out-of-towner has observed, "a wonderful place to visit — but I wouldn't live there if you gave it to me!"

Sparks-Murphree Wedding Rites Jan. 22

Double ring rite, read in the Baptist Church Sunday, January 22, 6:00 p. m. united in marriage Brenda Sparks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oral Sparks and Pat Daniel Murphree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Murphree.

Officiating was Rev. Carl Underhill of Lamesa, former pastor of Calvary Baptist Church.

Candles were lighted by Billy and Bobby Sparks, brothers of the bride. Ushers were Markie Browning and Laurence Wayne Sparks, a cousin of the bride. Wedding music was by Marguerite Snapp, organist.

The couple was attended by Jerry Etheredge and Mrs. Laurence Wayne Sparks. She wore a street length frock of sky blue brocade cotton and satin with a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white arganza over taffeta, styled with fitted waist and full skirt. Her shoulder length veil of illusion was fastened to a bandeau of seed pearls. She carried an orchid in a nest of satin and lace, showered with lily of the valley.

A reception was hosted in the home of the bride's parents following the wedding. Presiding were Mrs. Bobby Sparks, Mrs. Billy Sparks and Mrs. Harold Roberts, a sister of the bride. Another sister, Debbie Sparks, registered guests.

The couple is living in Rotan, where the bride is a senior in Rotan high school. Murphree is employed in Abilene.

Letter From Rev. E. L. Redden

Rotan, Feb. 2, 1960.

Dear Christians:
It is about time to vote, be sure and pray about this matter, and be sure to try to put good men in office. A man that does not know the Lord cannot lead in the right direction. For God's sake find out who you vote for and what he does for the Lord. The man should be the right kind, a man that is too busy in the world needs to turn alone and let God use him. We sure do appreciate what you good people have done for us in every way. We are still going on in the new church at Roby and God is still on the throne and he hears and answers prayers.

Pray for us,
E. L. Redden and wife

Women Play Key Role In 'Dimes' Research

Growing a killer virus in a laboratory test tube to see what makes it tick may not seem like an ideal pastime for women. Yet in recent years an increasing number of women have attained top-rank recognition as medical research scientists, many of them under grants supplied by The National Foundation with New March of Dimes funds.

The researches of these women have enlarged the body of new medical information and helped solve a wide variety of health problems. Not least among these was the conquest of a virus that killed and crippled its victims in wave after wave of epidemics—polio.

Pioneer in Protection

Dr. Isabel Morgan Mountain is one of the most famous of these women scientists. As a member of the Johns Hopkins research group some years ago, she won medical recognition for demonstrating that animals could be protected against polio by a vaccine. This was a giant step toward the development of the Salk vaccine for humans, which—like Dr. Mountain's work—was done under grants financed by the March of Dimes.

Dr. Mountain's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunt Morgan, were both well-known geneticists. Her father won a Nobel Prize in 1933 as the originator of the gene theory of heredity. Dr. Mountain, who is married to a prominent surgeon in New York, is included in the Polio Hall of Fame at the Georgia Warm Springs Foundation.

Until recently Dr. Mountain

has been collaborating with two other well-known women research scientists at Columbia University's College of Physicians and Surgeons. They are Dr. Hattie Alexander and Dr. Katherine Sprunt, both notable for their work in contagious childhood diseases. The March of Dimes-supported grant under which Dr. Alexander and Dr. Sprunt work calls for studies in the possible control of the hereditary factors of polioviruses. The findings of this team have added new knowledge to the whole field of virus research.

At Yale University, Dr. Dorothy Horstmann has won fame for her researches in polio-virus, in epidemiology (the science of epidemic diseases) and in the newer viruses only recently discovered. She is on the research team of Dr. John Paul under a National Foundation grant.

Nun Studies Proteins

At St. Louis University, Sister Mary Celeste of the Order of the Immaculate Heart of Mary and a doctor of medicine, is involved in studying the role proteins may play in virus reproduction. Her research project, headed by Dr. Norman E. Melechen, one of the most advanced scientists in the virus field, is also financed by New March of Dimes funds.

Another woman scientist who can be found hard at work in a laboratory is Dr. Matilda Melnick, at Baylor University Medical School, Houston, Tex. She and her famous scientist husband, Dr. Joseph L. Melnick, are conducting experimental studies in the Sabin live-virus anti-polio vaccine which, like the Salk vaccine, was developed under March of Dimes funds.

These projects are aimed primarily against three major crippling diseases: birth defects, arthritis and polio. But every new discovery made by these women and other scientists with New March of Dimes support adds to the great body of our medical knowledge and contributes to man's health and well-being.

MOTHERS' DOOR COUNT TOPS MARCH OF DIMES

The 1960 New March of Dimes campaign for funds to support research, patient aid and the training of experts in the three health areas of birth defects, arthritis and polio is climaxed by a Mothers' March of two million volunteers. The Marching Mothers are also conducting a nationwide "door count" at some 30 million homes to collect facts concerning the problems of crippling diseases in their communities. The local New March of Dimes office has also appealed to all donors who have not already done so to send in their contributions in the "mailer appeal" envelopes distributed at the beginning of the year.

NOTICE TO ALL STOCKHOLDERS OF HOBBS COOPERATIVE GIN, RT. TWO, ROTAN:

Your directors have voted to declare all stock certificates previously issued VOID and CANCELLED. I will here give a few of the many reasons:

Records have been lost on part of certificates issued. A number of stockholders have ceased to be producers. To be eligible for federal income tax exemption and to be eligible to borrow from The Bank for Cooperatives, all common stock or voting rights must be producers, with common stock holders allowed only one (1) vote. All producers will be issued one (1) common stock, or one (1) voting right ($5.00). Balance will be preferred stock. A producer is one now engaged in farming or producing cotton, landlord or tenant. Non-producers will be issued all preferred stock or credit. Should the Co-Op cease to serve as a Co-Op, the preferred stock would be paid first ahead of the common stock.

All holders of common stock will receive a stock statement showing they have a common stock and a right to one (1) vote. The common stockholder will be issued a ballot in person to be voted in person at the annual meeting, March 28th, 1960.

Should you fail to receive a statement and you are eligible to hold common stock, please call or come to the gin BEFORE March 28th. We do not wish to discriminate against anyone.

To pay the profit to the patrons, we must stay within the law with the individual patron filing their profit for income tax. Otherwise, it will take all the profit from income tax.

Please cooperate to keep our Co-Op a true Cooperative in good standing with the Government and The Bank for Cooperatives.

Yours very truly,

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways Chevrolet has been thoughtful:

Supple Full Coil suspension—Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can. Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road.

Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one.

Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.

Wide choice of power teams—Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.

Jimmy Waddell Buys Roby Ford Dealership

Jack McCain, a 44 year resident of Fisher and Nolan counties, has sold his interest in the Jack McCain Motor Company to Jimmy Waddell in Roby.

Jack McCain was born and reared in the Capitola community in southern Fisher County. He graduated from Roby High School in 1932. In 1936 he was married to Reba Alston of Sweetwater. They have one son, Jack Douglas. From 1936 till 1949 he was in the automobile business in Sweetwater, with time out from '42 to '45 in the Air Corps. He volunteered as an airplane specialist, because he was a licensed pilot. Was discharged as a Sergeant. In January 1949 he sold his holdings in Sweetwater and bought the Ford dealership in Roby. When he took over this dealership it had only 3 employees and was selling 20 to 30 cars annually. During the next 10 years he sold over 2,000 new cars and over 3000 used cars. In 1947 he sold 415 new vehicles. During these 10 years as a Ford dealer Jack McCain Motor Co., 3 years ran over a million dollar gross sales, and for 5 years has employed 10 people full time. During his 10 years in Roby has also actively operated a 1,000 acre stock farm, which he still owns.

Mr. McCain is a member of the Church of Christ, a twenty year member of Lions International, a 20 year member of the Benevolent and protective Order of Elks, a Mason and Shriner. He just this week resigned as Mayor of Roby so that he could devote his full time promoting his candidacy for State Legislature of this district.

Mrs. Ray Ashton, Mary Lou and Billy visited Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Brinegar in Mineral Wells last weekend.

All things were made by Him; and without Him was not any thing made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. —(St. John 1: 3, 4.)

Some of us achieve fame or wealth, power or prominence; some of us live out our lives in obscurity. We are born white, or brown, or yellow—and God is Father of us all; His light burns equally bright in every one of us.

Recent Bride Honored With Gift Tea Saturday Afternoon

A gift tea, hosted in the home of Mrs. Ira Branch, honored Mrs. Joe Dominey of Austin, the former Sandy Morrow, Saturday, January 30th from 3 to 5 p. m.

The couple was married January 10 in Austin, where both are attending Texas University.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Justin M. Morrow and Dr. and Mrs. Joe Dominey of Long Beach, California.

Hostesses with Mrs. Branch were: Mmes. Dave Posey, Talmadge McDonald, George McDonald, Glenn Gabel, Wilbourne Porter, Ross Burnes, Curtis Acker, Vernon Frazier, Bob Land, Morris Watson, Roger Smith, Roy Roberson and Jess Stinson.

For the complimentary affair, Mrs. Dominey was gowned in turquoise blue silk organza over taffeta; her mother, Mrs. Morrow, wore a gown of nubbed weave, bone silk. Both wore corsages of orchids, which were flown to Rotan from Long Beach, California. The orchids were sent by the bride-grooms mother, Mrs. Dominey, from her garden in Long Beach.

Mrs. Branch greeted guests as they arrived, and presented the receiving group. Receiving with the honoree was her mother, Mrs. Morrow; her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ab Aaron; and her maternal great grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Counts, all of Rotan. Her paternal grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Morow, was ill in the hospital. An aunt, Miss Myrtle Counts, was also in the house party.

Pat Land and Relna Branch registered guests. Judith Morrow, cousin of the honoree, and an aunt, Mrs. Abner Aaron of Dallas, were at the tea services.

Tea table was laid with cloth of imported, cut-work linen, with appointments in silver. White carnations in a silver bowl centered the table, complemented by lighted turquoise blue tapers in slender silver holders. Other arrangements of white carnations and greenery were in the entertaining rooms and gift display rooms.

Music during calling hours was by Deanna McDonald and Jan Aaron of Dallas.

We are requested to announce the Rotan Home Demonstration Club will meet with Mrs. C. C. Roach Friday at 2:30.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Burk visited relatives in Breckenridge Sunday.

THANK YOU-THANK YOU-THANK YOU. YOU GOOD PEOPLE OF FISHER COUNTY

I wish to thank you from the bottom of my heart and in the humblest way I know for 10 of the most enjoyable years of my life. These 10 years in Fisher County have not only been very profitable to me financially, but I have profited immensely by having your friendship, your business, and above all, your goodwill towards me and my family.

As of January 1st I have sold my entire interest in the Jack McCain Motor Company to Mr. Jimmy Waddell. Jimmy was my employee for 8 years and for the past two years my partner. It is my sincere wish that you will continue to patronize Jimmy in the future as you have us in the past. I will personally assure you that he will truly appreciate your business and will try hard to merit it. I personally recommend Jimmy Waddell to you—go see him often.

We are moving to Sweetwater as soon as school is out, but we still hold extensive property in Fisher County, so we won't be very far from you, our best friends.

Again I say Thanks A Million. Come to see us often.

Sincerely,

Jack McCain

About Your HEALTH

A weekly public service feature from the Texas State Department of Health. HENRY A. HOLLE, M.D., Commissioner of Health.

Almost 17,000 handicapped youngsters—suffering with disabling conditions ranging from mild deformities to being born without arm or legs—were on the State Health Department's "active" register when the fiscal year ended last June 30.

Of the names on the active register, 5,986 received services in the form of hospitalization, braces and similar necessities during the year. The others had been cared for previously but still required follow-up attention.

The Department's division of crippled children's services paid for 50,658 days of hospitalization for 3,650 medically indigent children, all under 21 years of age, whose handicapping condition legally qualified them for service. Cases required an average of 14 days of hospital confinement.

To be eligible for service, state law requires that a patient be under 21 years of age, have normal mentality, and have an impairment involving either muscle, bone or joint. And, according to law, there must be reasonable expectation that the patient can be benefited by treatment.

Each year the active register grows longer, with some 200 names being added each month. After acceptance, a child is removed from the active files only by moving out of state, death, reaching 21 years of age, being discharged by his physician or a change in financial status.

The last session of the Texas Legislature granted an increase in operating funds for crippled children's services, which will permit expansion of the program during 1960-61.

Consistent increases have been noted for all handicapping conditions. Between 1956 and 1958, the number of children receiving care and treatment for birth defects alone increased by 538 cases—from 1125 cases in 1956 to 1663 in 1958.

For the same period children treated for crippling bone and joint diseases, increased by 225 cases; for cerebral palsy by 156 cases; for polio by 68 cases; and for other diseases or handicapping conditions by 97 cases.

The record shows that 413 cases of cleft palate were corrected under the program in 1956, and 537 in 1958—an increase of 124 cases. Second and third degree burn cases reached 262 in 1956, compared with 319 in 1958.

In another phase of the crippled children's program last year, 204 children were helped to overcome heart birth defects. Forty-one of these involved open heart surgery.

WSCS Studying Book of St. Luke

The WSCS met Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the Church Sanctuary. During the business session conducted by Mrs. Clarence Huckaby, plans were discussed for members to attend the all-day Sub-District meeting in Hamlin Wednesday.

Mrs. O. R. Nowlin read the 6th chapter of St. Luke for the devotional and Mrs. Huckaby gave the prayer.

The study of St. Luke was then continued by Mrs. R. T. Williams. Mrs. Phil J. Malouf gave the closing prayer.

Stephen McCall, 9-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCall fell from his pony recently and broke his left arm, just above the wrist.

'As It Looks From Here'

Omar Burleson, M. C.
17th District, Texas

Washington, D. C.—At exactly 1 o'clock on Tuesday of last week, January 26, Senator Lyndon Johnson and I were able to announce the selection of Dyess Air Force Base as the center for a complex of ATLAS intercontinental ballistic missiles.

Although Senator Johnson and I had been aware for a considerable period of time that the only missile base in Texas was to be located around Dyess, the information was highly confidential and we could not discuss it.

As the great scientific advances take place, manned bombers will eventually be obsolete in an all-out war. The installation of the ATLAS ICBM assures the continuation of Dyess Air Force Base for years in the future.

Regardless of scientific advances, the manned bomber such as is operated by the Strategic Air Command from Dyess Air Force Base will remain important and indispensable for several years. Even as our Nation becomes strong in missile development, the manned bomber will remain a part of our defense because of so-called "limited wars". No scientific gadget will ever entirely take the place of the human bomber pilot.

The missile complex for Dyess Air Force Base in Abilene will be composed of nine launching sites, located in a semi-circle approximately 20 to 35 miles distance from the Base. Each site will occupy approximately three or four acres of land. The exact location of the launching sites depends a great deal on the condition of the soil, since great shafts and underground installation is required to accommodate the huge 82 1-2 foot tall missile. About 700 men will man the nine sites 24 hours a day.

The initial cost is estimated to be just under $50 million and will require two years to construct.

It is perhaps difficult at the moment for us to realize the significance of the ATLAS missile base being located in and around Abilene. It now becomes one of the principal armed areas of the United States. Unlike Cape Canaveral, Florida and Edwards Air Force Base in California, where missiles are tested only, this missile base located in almost the center of the 17th Congressional District will be operational; and should a nuclear war be launched against our Nation, the ATLAS missile would be launched in a matter of minutes against the enemy. As has already been reported in the press, the ATLAS missile is capable of traveling 6,300 miles at a speed in excess of 16,000 miles per hour. In other words, it can carry a nuclear warhead from Abilene to Moscow, in the heart of Russia, traveling northward over the Polar Regions. In the near future we shall see many things strange to us. In the vicinity of the launching sites there will be tight security. We will wonder what is doing on inside, but of this we can be sure: The men who will be constantly on duty will be watching over the destiny of our Country. At the instant of an attack, calculated to be a 15 minute period, they will be ready to unleash the most powerful weapon in the arsenal of America.

Dyess Air Force Base at the present time is valued at about $350 million. The missile facilities, when finally operational, will add approximately another $140 to $150 million.
