The bank, taken in this morning's raid of the University bank here, shortly centered in the hills after a discovery late today that there was an abandoned section in which the robbers crept, gaining a 15 minute start on officers. A freight train crew tipped officers to location of the car and reported to suggest that two or three men had been successful in attempting to board the train.

The Morning Avalanche Menu for the Day

BREAKFAST—Baked apples, cereal, cream, crisp toast, codded eggs, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON—Vegetable chowchow, tomato slices, stuffed celery, caramel custard, milk, tea.

DINNER—Twice cooked lamb chops with lima beans, beet and cabbage salad, green peas, pie, whole wheat rolls, milk, coffee.

One cup of boiling water is allowed for every egg to be "cooled." The water should be boiling and the eggs carefully put into it without breaking the shells. As soon as the boiling point is again reached cover pan and remove from fire. Let stand five minutes. Remove from water and serve as usual. Eggs cooked this way are "jellied" through. The white will not be part liquid and part firm with the yolk heated up in the average three-minute egg.

Twice Cooked Lamb Chops—Six or eight lamb chops, 1 medium sized onion, 1-4 pound fresh mushrooms, 5 tablespoons butter, 1 cup chicken or veal stock, 1-2 cup flour, 1 cup milk and water, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 2 egg yolks, 1 cup cracker crumbs, 2 cups cooked buttered lima beans.

Heat onion, cover with cold water and bring to boiling point. Cook for 15 minutes. Drain and dry between towels, slice and simmer in 2 tablespoons butter until butter is absorbed. Do not let onion brown. Add stock and cook over a low fire until onion is tender. Rub through a sieve. Mix four tablespoons butter and salt in flour. Cook, stirring constantly until mixture bubbles. Add onion puree, milk and water and bring to the boiling point stirring constantly. Add mushrooms, which, chopped and simmer for three minutes in 2 tablespoons butter. Cook and stir until mixture boils again. Season with salt, and pepper and stir in yolks of eggs well beaten. Do not let mixture boil again. Broil chops on one side. On the second side of each chop put 2 tablespoons of the prepared mixture, mixing it high in the center and making smooth with a broad knife. Stir cracker crumbs into melted butter and cover each chop for ten minutes. Serve as a border around a course of lima beans.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP BY THIS SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even dry, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Motho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and discomfort. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Roval's Motho-Sulphur from any good druggist.

The Woman's Day

By Allene Sumner

"The girls don't see why in the name of creation Barbaud doesn't get herself some clothes. 'The girls,' meaning the remainder of the feminine faction in the office where Barbara toils, know perfectly well that Barbaud makes as much if not more money than they do—and she looks at her! She always wears the same winter coat at least three years, she has her shoes resoled and even darns her stockings! She generally has just about three office dresses, and all the rest of 'the girls' keep at least six, one for each day in the week, in rotation. Oh, Barbaud looks good enough, but she just never has anything really good! She wears no more than 300 hats, carries 2.35 handbags, and would die before she'd pay $500 for a fur coat, and 'everybody' has to have fur coats nowadays."

THEY'RE BLIND

What "the girls" don't consider, however, are the things which Barbaud has which they do not. Blinded by their own set of values, they cannot see Barbaud's. Barbaud is neither starchy nor uninterested in clothes. She just happens to say to other things, and knows that she can't have both.

THE HAT

I went on a shopping spree one noon hour with Babes. Babes was looking for a hat. She found one, just made for her—black and large and floppy and made of straw almost as fine as silk. It was priced $25. Babes wanted that hat and I knew it. There was another but much the same style, but made of coarser straw. It was priced $12.50. Babes toyed with one and then the other. She bought the cheaper one. "After all, there's another $12.50 for the spring-in-Italy ginger jar," said Babes, "that would mean enough for four days' living. That could mean four days in Florence. And I mean for me and not for the Rev. W. E. Hamilton, pastor of the Methodist church at Canyon, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler are at home in Amarillo, at 1223 West Ninth street.

New Feminine Bob Brings Forth Enhancing Hairbands Style Goes To The Head In Latest Move Of Fashions

For the modest debutante the small hair band of brilliant is the latest style. RIGHT—Here a charming girl wears a two-inch rhinestone tracing out one of the modern geometric designs. This band is caught in the back with a jeweled fastening that may be worn in the front or at one side.

The hair band is Paris' latest gesture to the feminine tendency of all women's modes this fall.

LEFT—A daring blonde Parisian beauty introduced the "black bottom" hairband—which consists of a band that swathe her head like Nanny's old hammock—though it is trimmed of pearls, gold and silver brocade like the distinctive evening gown she wears under her emine coat. She leaves a fringe of curls for further beauty.

The little opera cap is fashioned for the lucky miss with perfect features. BELOW—Rhinestones sparkle like star-dust all over a net cap so fine as to be almost invisible while a tarran of rhinestones and tulle crown her brow with a royal touch. Old gowns of great value will be pressed into service for hairbands like this this winter. For the undesignated head at even-tide is not the smart head this season.

GOD'S FAVORITES:— He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. Psalm 91:1. PRAYER: Lord, we are grateful for Thy promise: with long life satisfy us, and show us Thy salvation.

THE INNER VOICES

After Dr. Michelson had devised his marvelous instrument, the interferometer, for measuring the size of distant stars...

Astronomers do not know all about the moon, close as it is, comparatively speaking. They can with assurance say little about the planets, the earth's next-door neighbors...

VARIED ARE OUR NEEDS

While Texas people are fighting for possession of the waters of the state, the people of the Mississippi are begging for protection from the waters so that we need that our needs are varied.

few months ago when a great portion of the country was being devastated by the floods but which apparently was forgotten a few days ago after the floods began to recede.

WHY?

There are a few things that we do not exactly understand. One of them is: America is supposed to be a Christian nation.

Many of the men of the United States have been taking training in some of the camps in the South the past month. Many of them are fine fellows, Christian gentlemen.

The revival meeting in progress is not getting hold of the business men of this city as it should in order to have its best effect on the business interests.

OPINIONS

Mrs. Coolidge Walks In its struggle for betterment the world needs examples as well as exhortation.

OUT OUR WAY

SO THINK WE

We think that when it comes to the low down in most every case a settlement can be readily arranged for.

We think that a man's gratitude is always at its best just before you do him a favor.

We think that a little more punch should be shown by the local citizens. Let's make the old city hum with action.

We think that the justices of the U. S. courts should certainly be given to all the games are expounded from adjoining cities.

We think that a good place for the pacifists would be in Iceland as they have neither an army nor navy.

We think that the man that has no future in the fellow who is always thinking of the future tomorrow.

We think that the shake-up given to the prohibition officers in New York City will likely keep the wayward officers over the U. S. in thoughts of doing right in the federal work.

We think that the South Plains oil developments are still becoming very encouraging to the promoters.

We think that paved highway construction is being done on the north of us and on the south of us.

We think that after the radical organization with all of their high powered attorneys nothing but the law would have its course in the Sacco-Vanzetti case.

We think that the South Plains oil developments are still becoming very encouraging to the promoters.

YOUR HEALTH

Dr. Robert M. Marshall of Glasgow discussed before a recent meeting of the British Medical Association the subject of "The Mental Child of the Restless, Naughty Child."

There is a great difference between the wayward action of a child of the Peter Pan type and the wayward action of the child which suffers from forms of insanity or mental defect.

The normal mental child will take to heart a correction and is not likely to repeat the same offense.

Such a child may suffer from instability, but not from depravity.

Indeed, this restlessness is the most significant characteristic of these children and is involved in all of their actions.

They are pert, talk freely to whomsoever they may meet, and play with anything that interests them.

They are always busy about something and if their activities can be confined to mental thimble, they give indication of precocity.

On the other hand, their apparent brilliance is not usually accompanied by a high intelligence quotient.

They are, however, never below an intelligence quotient of 65, so that they rank well up with the majority of children.

Dr. Marshall's characterization of this type of child as the Peter Pan type that never grows up is an exceedingly apt one.

The Methodist negro chorister shouted: "Come up on the army of de Lord."

"De done fied," replied one of the congregation.

"Whard you fied?" asked the exhorter.

"In de Baptist church."

"Why, child," said the exhorter, "you ain't in the army, you're in de church."

"Yes, I am," replied the child.

"You ain't in the army, you're in de church."

"Yes, I am," replied the child.

"You ain't in the army, you're in de church."

"BOSS" AND "BIDDY" HEAD BIK FARM CASH PARADE.

"If he has milk splashed on his nose make the loan!" That was one form of country banking investigation as to the ability of a farmer to come through on a loan not so many years ago in a certain community in the Northwest.

In other words, the banker knew his farmer was "insured" against crop failure and would have a steady cash income despite whims of weather in the way of frost, winds, floods, drought and hail.

A herd of dairy cows spreads the risk over seven years instead of gambling a year's work and cash output on one season's crop.

Not only have both dairying and poultry raising had a big expansion since the war because of increased demand from consumers, but producers have been able to put the fun of farming on a better basis from the past.

The new industries being developed in this country are making for this section a great business. The only trouble we see in them is that too many farmers we fear are going to quit trying to farm and are going to try to make money in other ways.

It is reported that some one has made the discovery that the largest room in the world is room for improvement.

It is reported that Dr. Todd hit a pretty big problem when he started hopping on the conditions of Texas.

It is reported that Babe Ruth is now tied with Lou Gehrig for home run chieftain for this season.

It is reported that the "death house" of the Texas prison is full and running over.

DEFENDING CRIME.

There is a tendency on the part of some to criticize the peace officers of Childless, city and county, for permitting conditions to become bad in this county.

The trouble in this county, which is like many other counties in Northwest Texas, is that we possess a clean citizenship for many years.

Rich and poor obeyed the laws, or were careful never to openly violate the law.

It is reported that a loan widow is one who has money out on interest.

It is reported that leaf worms have begun to show up in this county.

It is reported that Sacco and Vanzetti were sent back to the death house as their plea was denied by supreme court.

It is reported that the Prohibition organization will spend over six million dollars this coming year in the interest of its national and world-wide enterprises.

WHAT KIND OF COUNTRY IS THE SOUTH PLAINS ANYWAY?

One time each year the Lubbock Newspapers, by greatly increased efforts and expense, attempt to impress the HOME PEOPLE with the industrial, commercial and agricultural advances and advantages of Lubbock and ALL the South Plains.

THAT TIME IS NEAR!

One time each year Lubbock newspapers, by increased circulation, without increased advertising rates, attempt to place before the strangers of the East, South and Southwest—a true story of Lubbock and the South Plains.

WHAT KIND OF IMPRESSION WILL IT MAKE?

If the publishers expend their efforts in composition, increase their expenditures, increase their circulation, advertise throughout the Eastern section of Texas and Oklahoma for interested people to write for the FAIR EDITION — and furnish same without cost to the interested party—if the publishers do those things they are intensely interested in the KIND of impression the edition will make.

What kind will it make? That depends now on the co-operation of EVERY business and of EVERY business man of Lubbock and the South Plains. Never before did a South Plains publishing concern throw aside thought of expense and make such elaborate plans in order to reflect the South Plains in its Annual Edition.

If it's an uphill pull to prosperity all shoulders should be put to the wheel. If you think it came ANYWAY give it a push and speed it along!

Other sections of the South Plains have voluntarily reserved space in the 1917 Fair Edition. It's now time for you to do so. The quicker—the better the newspaper.

LOWELL SAYS NO

BOSTON, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Judge James A. Lowell of the United States district court here today night declined to issue a stay of execution for Sacco and Vanzetti on a petition for a writ of habeas corpus presented by four New York attorneys representing defense counsel.

Holding court open for an hour after regular closing time to give the attorneys chance to reach the federal court, Judge Lowell held an open hearing in one of the press galleries, listened to an hour and a half argument for the petition and then declined to set on ground that the matter was outside his jurisdiction.

The petition for writ and stay was based on affidavits charging conspiracy between District Attorney Katsman of Norfolk county, who prosecuted Sacco and Vanzetti, and the Department of Justice officials. Judge Lowell declined to examine the affidavits, after declaring matter was entirely for consideration of the state courts.

The judge several times interrupted the arguments to stress his point that the entire matter was outside his jurisdiction and in conclusion stated briefly:

"I am of the opinion that this is not a question for this court, and therefore deny your petition."

PLEA REFUSED

BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Justice Holmes of the United States supreme court tonight refused to issue a writ of habeas corpus in the Sacco-Vanzetti case.

Justice Holmes after listening to the pleas of four of defense counsel for two hours, said:

"I am of the opinion that the petition is covered by the principles stated in my decisions upon the former applications for habeas corpus and certiorari and therefore I am compelled to deny the writ."

Accompanying president Baxley will be the Abilene Christian College club which will be in place at the club contest of the West Texas Chapter of Commerce in Wichita Falls this year.

HIGHWAY BODY TO MEET AUGUST 27

BIG GATHERING OF WITNESS BREAKING OF DIRT ON CONNECTING LINK

BROWNFIELD, Aug. 22.—On Saturday August 27, meeting of the Fort Worth-Roswell Air Line Highway association, will be held at "Cliffmont" for the purpose of witnessing the breaking of dirt on the Kent county section of the "Air Line" and which will result in the construction of a paved highway across the county for a connection between Post City and Nolan. Delegates from all towns along the line have been invited to attend and it is hoped that they will avail themselves of the invitation. A big barbecue will be staged, followed by polo, horse racing, bronco riding, goat roping, mule races and other forms of entertainment. A meeting of the association and of others interested in furthering this project will be held at some period during the day.

Beginning of the construction of the highway, marks the end of important activity upon the part of the association to secure full designation across Kent county and induce the highway department to join in its construction. Valuable aid was rendered by county officials and chambers of commerce along the entire route. It is the intention of the contractors to complete their work and close the gap between Nolan and Post City, early in 1923 and in ample time to care for tourist traffic enroute to Roswell, Grand Canyon, Southern California, and the coast of Mexico. Highway commission has recently given charge of a road between Carrieville and Socorro for the purpose of improving and hard-surfacing and when it is completed a direct route to the Grand Canyon will have been opened to the public.

The commission is also arranging to hard-surface Air Line connections to the caverns and to numerous mountain resorts.

CRUISER NEEDS

The United States has not tried to sell other nations what she needs in auxiliaries. It is suggested at the beginning tonnage limitations which would bear a reasonable relation to the capital ship tonnage and which would make the conference's work fruitful from the point of view of naval limitation. But it has been unwilling to concede increased tonnage to most British ideas, and is still disposed to consider equalization on higher levels. What it objects to is the British desire to amend the Washington Treaty by reducing the size of guns allowed on cruisers and to depart from the treaty principle of giving each nation a free hand in building within the tonnage limit for any class. This is an attempt to extract special concessions for consent to cruiser limitation. The United States has no need of cruiser needs. Great Britain has another. Why should we be asked to conform our cruiser-building program to hers when we do not ask her to conform hers to ours? Equality in total tonnage is the treaty test for parity, not equality in units. Neither nation is counting against the other. Consequently there is no good reason why each should not have the sort of cruiser it wishes to have. Our foreign trade is nearly equal to Great Britain's. We have a greater tonnage of ships in value than Great Britain's foreign trade. We are really entitled, economically, to superior cruiser strength. We ask only parity, however, and the right to build the types of vessels which we require because of our lack of distributed naval bases.—New York Herald Tribune.

"The World's Most Famous Leper" John Early Hoping To Get Cured

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 20.—John Early, America's most famous leper, has escaped once more.

Well on the road to a complete cure at state leprosyarium at Carville, La., this Spanish-American War veteran, who contracted the disease while on military service in the Philippine Islands, has run away from the federal hospital and vanished into the midst of a nation of more than 100,000,000 people.

They can't tell you up at Carville, just how many escapes take place in 1917 when he was first officially pronounced a leper and placed in confinement.

John is an incurable runaway and has escaped probably 30 times.

Old Leper's Cure Works Chaulmoogra oil taken by injections into the body, is the treatment that within two years would have set John Early free. Chaulmoogra oil—a treatment for leprosy that is more than one thousand years old—has been made much more effective by modern science.

"There is no longer any question in our minds," says Dr. O. E. Denney of the U. S. Public Health Service, in charge of the hospital, "that when we get hold of a case of leprosy early enough and treat it with chaulmoogra oil we can remove from that patient any danger of communicating the disease to those with whom the patient comes in contact. We have already discharged fourteen patients from Carville after that treatment and after long periods of observation. We are discharging two more this week. And within two years we would have discharged John Early."

All patients at the leprosyarium except Early are protected by antony.

Most Famous Leper But it would have been foolish the authorities knew, to try to shield John Early with the protection of anonymity, for he is the most widely known leper in the world. He has nobody but himself to thank for it. Too often John Early has set the whole United States by the ears.

Back in 1885 he enlisted in the army and fought through the Spanish-American War, with service in Cuba and the Philippines. He was honorably discharged after the war ended. He married, two children were born.

Then—some symptoms of some strange disease appeared on his skin. Doctors were baffled. At last, as an ex-soldier, Early went to Washington and appealed to the government health authorities.

They placed him in quarantine near Washington. They took an abandoned home, surrounded it with a barbed wire fence, and put an armed guard to patrol outside that fence.

Organized Lepers' Club Then the doctors decided John Early had leprosy, and his whole world came tumbling down about his ears. He fought the decision. Early was taken in custody to a New York hospital and later transferred to the U. S. leper colony at Carville. There he had been a colorful figure ever since. He organized a club at Carville, the members all ex-servicemen who had developed leprosy. They built a club house on the edge of the colony and fitted it up with all conveniences. But John Early had the trickiest foe.

The government had paid him a pension for his Army service. He would let the pension checks pile up until they totaled a sizeable sum. Then he would cash them from the leper colony, and keep out of sight days and weeks.

These antics caused him to drop the Venus de Milo was the chimpanzee's galoshes in the matter of race and form ought to have cast an O. G. upon Venus 1917, other than the Venus de Milo. You see her feet with the cup her charms won't in the annual Venus prize contest at Coney Island, New York.

Once he went to Washington, registered at a prominent hotel, and while Dr. Fowler has a physician's indifference to associating with a leper, his office staff can't get that viewpoint. Two many times John Early has walked into the office, walked down the long aisles, and brushed sleeves with duty stenographers and well-groomed clerks. They don't like it. So now, when the wires carry the news that John Early is out again, there is always a near-walkout in Dr. Fowler's office until the leper is safely back at Carville.

But that office has developed a system. There is one old employee who knows John Early well by sight. The minute the daily papers carry the news that John Early is out again, that employee goes on sentry duty. And the office works peacefully away knowing that sometime, sooner or later, the door will open and the sentry will call: "Here he comes!"

New It happens that Dr. Fowler has a large staff of clerks and stenographers, girls and men alike, collected from all over the country. Fowler's indifference to associating with a leper, his office staff can't get that viewpoint. Two many times John Early has walked into the office, walked down the long aisles, and brushed sleeves with duty stenographers and well-groomed clerks. They don't like it. LOCAL YOUTH RUN OVER BY ICE WAGON YESTERDAY

Painful injuries were received by C. T. Jackson, 15, of 1816 Avenue B, yesterday morning when he was run over by an ice wagon in which he had been riding with a friend.

While trying to reach the driver's glass, young Jackson slipped from the seat onto the wagon tongue and the team becoming excited, ran away. Jackson fell in the path of the wagon, the front wheel running over his neck and the rear wheel passing over his head.

An examination of the Lehigh Lock sanitarium revealed no broken bones, and physicians report his condition not serious, although he was kept at the hospital for the day.
