County Agent Don Reeves trims Patricia Fourmentin's Chianina-Angus cross calf, with help from Mark Fourmentin, for the county's youth calf show Saturday.

Cardio-Respiratory Department Grows

The Cardio-Respiratory Department, for which Collingsworth General Hospital contracted with David Brown, RRT, and his wife, Deborah 13 months ago, has brought an added dimension to the health care available to Wellington area residents.

For the company which operates the department, it has brought growth.

Brown, announced this week that the corporate offices of Associated Respiratory Rehabilitation Management Services, Inc., have been moved to Wellington from Childress. He is the company president.

The Browns were operating services in the Paducah Hospital at the time they came to Wellington, now they have expanded to include similar services at the Wheeler Hospital.

Danny Manrique, CRTT (certified respiratory therapy technician) came here to head the department in September. A month later, his brother, Eli Manrique, a respiratory technician, joined him.

Their home town is Plainview where both graduated from High School. Danny Manrique received his training through South Plains College of Respiratory Therapy in Lubbock. He received a certificate of completion and passed his certification for the national board on December 4.

Eli Manrique is preparing to enter an external degree program through the California College for Respiratory Therapy at San Diego. The work will be completed by correspondence and training and work at Collingsworth General Hospital.

Deborah Brown, company executive vice president, recently completed this course. Within a few weeks she will be listed as a graduate respiratory therapy technician.

Both Manrique brothers are married and the Danny Manriques have a young son.

Brown, RRT, CRTT, grew up in Victoria and received his training at the University of Houston in Victoria, University of Houston in Houston, Northwestern Louisiana State University at Natchitoches, and Tarleton State University, Stephenville. Besides being a registered respiratory therapist, he is a certified respiratory therapy technician, having received this certification in December 1973 through the national board.

Brown explained that the credentialing process is through the National Board for Respiratory Therapy, of Shawnee Mission, Kansas, and registry with the board enables one to practice world-wide.

He explains there are two steps in the credentials process, the first is certification, the second, or top step is the registry, which he attained in 1979.

Addition of the respiratory therapy department at Collingsworth General allows doctors to give the stress test for the first time at Collingsworth General, and to make available other tests and respiratory care for the first time in the hospital's history.

There is an added service, —See RESPIRATORY, page 2

Stock Show Will Be Saturday

Fifteen fine 4-H Club show calves will be exhibited in the annual Collingsworth County Junior Livestock Show Saturday, Jan. 22. It is the first stop on the big time show circuit for many of these fine animals.

Wayne Martin and Earl Patterson are co-chairmen of the show along with Extension Agent Don Reeves.

The show will begin at 2 p.m. in Bill Wilson's heated indoor arena a mile and a half north of Wellington. No matter what the weather may be, spectators and 4-H boys and girls and their animals will be comfortable. Grand and reserve champions and place winner will be named.

The number of calves that will be in competition will be a little smaller than in recent years as 6 show calves that were shown in the State Fair of Texas were sold following that event.

Both standard European and Exotic breeds will be seen. There will be a small class of beef heifers.

"We're in cattle country.

If you want to see what the trend is, these kids can tell you. They know what they're looking for in cattle, and they'll have them right here, Saturday afternoon at the Wilson show arena," said Reeves.

Show judge will be Tracy Haymes, extension agent from Randall County in charge of the 4-H steer program.

Haymes is a graduate of Texas Tech University and has judged shows over a wide area of the southwest.

Wellington State Bank is furnishing the trophies and ribbons, and money has been donated in larger amounts than in recent years, Reeves pointed out. When the entire amount is in the money will be divided and all of it will be used for show prize money.

Commander Ike Paschal and Quartermaster Don Jones of Glynn Moore Post 6439, Veterans of Foreign Wars, presented Patterson and Martin with a check for $200 for premium money at the junior livestock show. When all funds are in, the list of donors will be announced.

"Competition will be real close, predict the co-chairmen, who believe the judge will be doing some head-scratching before the champions are picked," said Patterson and Martin.

Stan Tate will exhibit a Chianina-Angus cross and a Polled Hereford, both bought at a club calf sale in Oklahoma, and a horned Hereford from B&C Cattle Co. at Miami. Tate is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Tate. Stan sold two steers at Dallas.

Brad and Barry Long each has a Chianina steer that came from Mike Stapleton herd at Haskell. They also sold a steer in the sale that followed the State Fair of —See STOCK SHOW, page 2

Wheeler Oil Co. Pursues Aggressive Drilling Program

Wheeler Oil Company of Wellington announces the results of its drilling program for 1982 and its plans for 1983. Wheeler Oil Company also maintains a branch office at 204 East Texas Street in Wheeler, and 5500 Meadowgreen Drive in Amarillo.

Wheeler Oil Company operates 56 wells located in Oklahoma, Louisiana, and mostly around Shamrock. Wheeler Oil Company also owns an ORI (overriding royalty interest) or working interest in some 91 wells. Wheeler Oil Company drilled eight wells as operator last year with most coming in the last quarter of the year.

The Blake #1 was a 2150' oil well which is producing at a rate of ten barrels per day, plus casinghead gas. The Purdy #2-19 was drilled in August as a Farmout from

Cities Service, Mesa, Texas and Tenneco, in Cimarron County, Oklahoma, and was drilled to the Keyes Sand at 4716'. The well was completed in the "A", "B", and "C" zones of the Keyes Sand with "A" zone on a 1/2 inch choke flowing out 1,158 M per day with AOF of 3,350 M per day. "B" zone tested on 3/4 inch choke at 2,549 with AOF of 7,050 M per day.

"C" zone on a 1/4 inch choke at 271 M per day with 550 M AOF. A reserve study was done on the "A" and "B" zones which is producing into Panhandle Eastern —See WHEELER OIL, page 2

WADE WILLIAMS-DRU LACY

Williams-Lacy On All-State

Skyrockets Wade Williams and Dru Lacy were selected for honorable mention on the Class 2A All-State football team, Head Coach James Williams has announced.

They are the 8th and 9th all-state selections Williams has had in his 10 years as head coach of Wellington High School.

Both Skyrockets were named to the defensive team.

Wade Williams, who doubled as quarterback this year, is a repeater on the all-state list, having been chosen for the second team last year. That selection was for strictly defensive play.

Lacy was named for his accomplishments in the cornerback position.

"Dru averaged about 10 tackles per game and had four interceptions," said Coach Williams.

Without taking one thing away from the two who won state honors, or his pride in them, the head coach passed out more praise.

"The overall team record helped us place these two on the all-state team. We had a —See ALL-STATE, page 2

Hospital Board Reduces Debt $30,000 More

Collingsworth General Hospital Board voted at regular board meeting Tuesday, Jan. 18 to pay $30,000 more on the short term notes owed by the hospital.

The action brings the hospital's short-term debt down to $64,000. Hospital administrator Perry Foster also reported that the hospital had taken in over $151,000 in taxes by the end of December.

The board also approved the transfer of $19,000 to the interest and sinking fund to pay bonded indebtedness.

And the board turned over $2,324 in past due accounts to a collection agency.

The board also approved adding $3,000 life insurance coverage to the hospital employees health insurance package. Hospital employees had life insurance under a previous health plan, and the board changed health coverage in December. This action completed —See HOSPITAL BOARD, page 2

Sheriff Warns Jaws of Life Scam Operating

The Collingsworth County Sheriff and Samnorwood Fire Department have issued a warning to citizens regarding a scam that purports to be raising funds for a "Jaws of Life" device for the Samnorwood Fire Department.

Law enforcement officials have learned that the scheme has operated in Shamrock, Wheeler, McLean and Childress.

This is how the scheme works: a man claiming to be a deputy in the Collingsworth County sheriff's office calls and asks for a contribution or for the purchase of an ad in a program or brochure. He —See SCAM, page 2

If you live in Wellington, you may have already joined involuntarily.
What at first appeared to be a problem between Wellington's postmaster Charles Britton and post office patrons who are no more explicit with their addresses than Wellington, Texas 79095, has burgeoned into a problem that has settled in with the City Council. It appears likely to be there quite a while.
City Manager Tiny Taylor began to suspect something was amiss when a resident in the new Robert Owens Addition came to city office and reported the house number assigned her by the city was in the 1900s. All other houses in the block were numbered in the the changeover to the new plan.

The board also discussed a new telephone system for the hospital but took no action on the proposals.
Tommy Hudson, WTU manager, reported to the board on the results of an energy audit conducted by the company. Hudson said that possibilities for reducing energy costs included installation of storm windows and attic insulation, among other things.
Foster also told the board that February 15 is the new deadline to have records deficiencies noted in the latest Medicare survey brought up to date.
Present were board members Dr. J.M. Orr, Robert Owens, Loretta Wright, Corky Bowen, Buddy Carter and Yates Parker. Bill Patrick was absent.

1800s.
Britton, in trying to get residents to use full street addresses or box numbers found something more.
Houses on north-south streets should carry even numbers on the east side of the street and odd numbers on the west. Not all home owners agree.
Because the corner house on the east side is, for example 1100 Blank Street, the man next door may reason that his house is 1101. It's 1102. Sometimes, the city has found, the owner of a new home may assign himself a house number he believes is correct. Sometimes it isn't.
Along the north side of the square, merchants use both odd and even numbers.
In the 900 block of West Avenue, east side of the street, some surprises arise. Near the south end, both the Chamber of Commerce and Dr. J.M. Orr's office are listed by the city as 916.

Texas. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Benson Long.
Patricia Fourmentin will have two Hereford steers that came from Denny Fuston's herd at Clarendon, and a black Chianina-Angus that was raised here, and which Patricia bought from Keith Davis.
She also will have two Limousine heifers from the Bergert Limousine herd at Allison.
Patricia sold one steer at Dallas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fourmentin.
Stacy Fires will exhibit a Hereford steer that has never been exhibited. Her other steer that won in the State Fair of Texas was sold at Dallas. Her parents are Dr. and Mrs. Mark Fires.
Tim Hartman will have a Brahman-Hereford steer in the show which he raised.
His sister, Leandra Hartman will exhibit a Brahman-Angus steer. They are two of the younger exhibitors in this year's show and are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Hartman.
Darvin Nix will show a Hereford steer that came from a registered breeder in Nevada, and his second calf will be a black Main Anjou which came from a club calf sale in Oklahoma. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nix.

lot of good people on this football team and when you advance as far as we did, you usually place people on the all-state," said Williams.
"All these honors the kids receive usually are team honors, with the members working as a unit.
"Our boys demonstrated they could work as a team and they advanced farther than any team has in the history of the school.
"Some of this was accomplished through good assistant coaches. I feel we are fortunate here in Wellington that we have some of the top coaches in the State of Texas and a lot of our success has been through team effort and their hard work."

Between them, the Masonic Lodge is 914.
Mayor Ralph Owens has always believed the number of his home, built a few years ago was 1800 East Avenue—it is the first house south of a paved one-way street. But the "street", it turns out, is a paved waterway that residents of the neighborhood have used for one-way east to west travel since before it was paved.
The telephone directory, in listing addresses of its patrons, doesn't agree with either the city or the owner.
Memories come into play in many instances. Most of the incorrect house numbers have been used for many years, and often the present occupant is innocently following the practice of the occupant before him. Some incorrect numbers have a history of more than 50 years.
The Mayor, city manager and council have seen and heard enough to believe the situation exists throughout the city.

City Manager Taylor said in the Monday night council meeting, he believes it is the city's job to straighten out the problem. The council agrees.
The City has a program coming up this year in which street markers will be installed throughout town.
The council and postmaster agree this would be a good time for correcting the incorrect addresses.

Pipeline and shows remaining gas reserves of 1,210,000 MCF with Wheeler Oil owning 22% of working interest in the well.
The Calco #1 was drilled in September and completed as a shallow gas well in Wheeler County, and is producing at 200 mcf per day.
The Gragg #1 and Blake #2 are in the process of being completed in Wheeler County, and will be producing wells. Wheeler Oil Company took farmouts from Gulf Oil and drilled two 3450' wells, which are being completed at Pampa.
Wheeler Oil Company plans to drill approximately 36 shallow oil and gas wells this year on leases it presently owns, and farmouts it has received from major companies. Wheeler Oil Company has five employees in its office and field, plus its management team. Wheeler Oil Company was started in 1978, and Bill Spillman, is president and legal counsel, plus R.C. Callan, Jr., is vice president chief geologist, and Bill Vahrenkamp is vice president-land manager.

County Attorney Warns Retired Teachers of Ripoffs

"I wouldn't let anyone in my house unless I knew them," County Attorney Charles Darter advised members of the county Retired Teachers Association when he discussed "Fraud and Deceit: How to stop being ripped off." "Be sure you know who the person asking to come into your house is. Ask for credentials, and if you are in doubt, call some one, a family member, a lawyer or the sheriff's department," he said.

Darter's discussion, given at the association tea Tuesday, Jan. 11, was based on a recent book by John W. Suthers and Gary L. Shupp. He discussed the most common types of ripoffs and these included:

"Business opportunities and investment fraud" often enticed victims through ads placed in newspapers and magazines for people to work at home typing or addressing envelopes (that one's been around more than 50 years)" or similar proposals.

"They will ask you to send money from $10 to $25 for supplies," All you get is a name to write for a list of businesses that just might be interested.

"Merchandising frauds." Usually an item, such as a television, is advertised at a low price, but once the customer is in the store, he will be pressured to buy a more expensive model. Under this Darter also discussed the "contest winner" in which one "wins" a contest but must buy a major item to receive the prize--if he even gets it.

"If you receive merchandise you have not ordered, then are billed for it, you do not have to pay," Darter pointed out. "You can keep the merchandise, but you don't have to do anything....

He warned against television ads asking that credit card numbers be given. Sometimes this merchandise is never sent.

The county attorney also warned of car repair ripoffs, when traveling out of town. "Be sure someone stays with the car all the time at a service station. A battery can be wrecked in a minute, or a tire cut, or hose cut, enabling the station to run up a large bill for you.

"House painting by fly-by-night painters drew strong warnings, for this scam has been worked in Wellington. Older people are especially vulnerable. Sometimes the paint washes off with the first rain.

Home construction, remodeling and painting by strangers also brought strong warnings, as these have been worked in Collingsworth County in the past.

Darter warned against insurance salesmen who try to sell annuities to senior citizens--at an exorbitant cost.

Several items during the talk, Darter warned against letting strangers in one's home.

Why do older people do this, in the first place?

Sometimes it's because of loneliness, sometimes the house occupant just likes to visit, or perhaps because of the inborn hospitality found in this part of the country.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Kedron Mitchell, Mrs. Myrtle Hill, Mrs. Emily Roark and John Coleman.

Mrs. Dollie Mae Wilson, president, was in charge of the meeting, held in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church.

marriage by her brother, James William Neeley of Amarillo.

She wore a floor-length wedding gown of white silk organza. Lace with an overall floral design formed the overlay for the fitted bodice, as well as the high neck and long Juliet sleeves. The full overskirt edged with a broad band of lace was cut away at front to reveal the ruffled flounces of the skirt, each edged in lace.

Her hat of sheer horsehair braid and lace held her illusion veil, which was attached with a large bow of the same material. She carried a bouquet of blue and white roses and chrysanthemums with touches of ivy.

Susan Brooks was the bride's maid of honor and Karen McDanel, niece of the bride, was the bridesmaid. They wore blue floor-length dresses with low necklines and yokes outlined with a ruffle. Back skirt panels, tied at the waist, swept to short trains. Each attendant carried three blue roses.

Joel Sherwood was the groom's bestman and Audie Watson was the groomsman and also ushered.

Shelly McWhorter of Memphis, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl.

After the ceremony, wedding guests were entertained at a reception held in the church parlor.

The bride's table was covered with white lace and crystal appointments were used. The centerpiece was an arrangement of blue flowers.

Mrs. Raymond Neeley and Mrs. Benny McDanel served the wedding cake and punch. Camille Smith registered the guests.

A baby shower honoring Mrs. Richard M. Sims was held at the Heritage Room on the morning of December 11.

Hostesses were Mrs. Reece Bowen, Mrs. Jerry Barton, Mrs. N.E. Childers, Mrs. Lanny Ford, Mrs. Jerry Manuel, Mrs. Kenneth Maxwell, Mrs. Louise Templeton, Mrs. J.D. Ward and Mrs. Gary Wischkaemper.

Centering the room was the refreshment table with bright yellow covering and a large bouquet of multi-colored flowers. The huge cake was highly decorated in multi-colors too. Favors were confection versions of baby pacifiers.

The packages for the baby-to-be were placed under the green holiday tree. The honoree's corsage was of baby socks created like rosebuds.

Guests registered at a table decorated in bright yellow.

Instant-type photos of the event were made and taken to the honoree who hours earlier had checked into Childress General Hospital. By the time those pictures of the festive occasion and some of the hostesses arrived at Childress a few hours later, there to "greet" them in the nursery was the newly arrived Donna Nicole Sims.

B&PW Looks at Women and Their Job Opportunities

Wellington Business and Professional Women's Club met at Bura Handley Community Center Tuesday, Jan. 11, when Miss Myra Hays discussed "Changing times for women and the occupational outlook for women in the 1980s."

Mrs. Ernest Harwell was program chairman and Miss Hays co-chairman.

"More women are involved in politics and more are becoming managers in their jobs," said Miss Hays.

"There are over 25 million married couples in the U.S. today with both the husband and wife working."

Slumber Party For Junior FHA

The Junior Future Homemakers of America Chapter had a slumber party on Friday night, Jan. 14 following the basketball games. It was held at the Farm Bureau Hospitality Room.

The girls first entertained guests and served refreshments.

Those attending were Lesa White, Karen Mote, Tresa Archie, Rhoda Meadows, Amanda Massey, Mary Ann Outley, Paula Chambers, Julie Caldwell, Patricia Fourmentin, Gwendy Kerlee, Debbie Benton, Rhonda Heisler, Carla Caison, Deborah Chandler and Hope Thomas.

Housing patterns have changed because it is not possible to buy homes for many young couples due to high interest rates. There are also many single parents coping with both a job and taking care of their children," the speaker reported.

Mrs. Harwell in a talk that was both humorous and down to earth, described a woman giving instruction on washing clothes in an iron washpot in the back yard, with lye soap as the detergent.

"Then she asked members to tell what they believed was enjoyed more today than when most of the B&PW members were growing up."

Automatic washers and dryers came high on the list, as did bathrooms, gas and electricity.

Mrs. Harwell also led the collect which opened the History of Dodson Area Schools Told for Civic Club Members

Histories of 9 schools that have served students of the Dodson area were discussed in the Dodson Civic Club program on education Thursday, Jan. 13, when Mrs. Ross Swift and Mrs. Clyde Alexander were hostesses in the Roberson Cafe club room.

Mrs. Clarence Black, member of the pioneer Talley family, presented the program, assisted by Mrs. B.B. Martin.

They told when each school was founded, the land on which it was located and the first teachers.

Fresno School was the first school in Collingsworth County, coming into existence in 1892. It later consolidated with Wellington School.

Pleasant Point began in 1909 and was a two room school that consolidated with Dodson in 1941. In 1922 the Home Demonstration clubs of the area built concrete cellars for Fresno and Pleasant Point schools.

Fairview was located two miles north of Dodson and was begun in 1903. The building was also used as a church until the first church was built in Dodson in 1911. Many camp meetings were held in this church in the early days. In 1913, the meeting. Reports of the secretary and treasurer were given and the president, Mrs. Goldie Barnett, was in charge of the meeting.

Mrs. Harwell reported that 11 families were helped with the community-sponsored Christmas Blessing Fund and Mrs. Barnett told of gifts taken to Thomas Nursing Center at Christmas.

Guests present were Mrs. Sherri Hess of Amarillo, and Cynthia Gollighugh.

These members attended: Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. Truman Estes, Mrs. Marie Gollighugh, Mrs. Bura Handley, Mrs. Ernest Harwell, Mrs. Pearl Harwell, Miss Hays, Mrs. Jimmie Kelso, Mrs. Erma Fay Kersten, Mrs. D.R. McKinney, Mrs. Glenn McLain, Mrs. Tex Smith, Mrs. L.C. Sweat, Mrs. Delmar Turner, Mrs. Wolf and Miss Nancy Bigby.

school was moved northwest of the location to what was known as the Frank Ford land. The school closed in 1919 with pupils going to Dodson school.

Brewer School was located in the southeast part of the county on what is now Mrs. Clarence Kesler's land. Six families, composed of four sisters and two brothers came from Arkansas in the late 1890s. Some settled in the Kelley community, others moved to the south and named their community Brewer. They put up a building to serve as a school and church. Winfield Brewer taught there in 1904. About 1910 Brewer School merged with Red Hill School.

Red Hill School was located on land now owned by Truett and Dennis Holland. It was begun about 1902. Families attending were Reynolds, Cochran, Jones, Carter, Holleman, Jones, Cornelius, Brewer, Alexander and Bennett. It was not known by the speakers when this school closed or if it consolidated with another.

Kesler School was located on Chandler land near the Kesler Switch on the Katy Railroad. Not much is known of this school, although it had one room and in 1919 Jewel Bell Cobb was the teacher with 20 scholars in 6 grades. Clifford Camp and Homer Kesler were trustees. It is not known when this school closed.

Kelley School was first located in a two room house on the Jeff Kelley land now owned by Mrs. Bertha Orr. Miss Ola Cochran was the first teacher in 1904. Later, about 1913, the school was moved to two acres of land owned by Mrs. Daro Camp. A church was built across the road from the school. As land was owned by Mr. Kelley, the community was named Kelley.

Many families attended this school, and in 1914, there were 36 pupils, with O.C. Evans and F.H. Kelsner as teachers. All six of the Hightower children attended at that time. Altogether, some 24 teachers taught at Kelley. It consolidated with Wellington and Dodson. The building was bought by Raymond Ward and moved to Shinnery.

Dodsonville School opened soon after the Katy railroad came through town in 1910. The first school, in 1911, was held in two churches, the Missionary Baptist and Church of Christ.

In 1912, a four room school was built, three teachers were hired. In 1924 a brick building was built, and in 1928 another building was added. In later years, a gym was constructed. The first graduates were in 1925; in 1935 a bus route was added. Over the years, three schools merged with Dodson-Arlie, Pleasant Point and part of Kelley. The school closed in 1969, and the students were transferred to Wellington. The brick buildings were torn down and given to Westview Boys Home. The Gym remains and is now a church.

Arlie School in Childress County was begun in the 1890s in a home with children of the Deahls, Wilks, Bennetts, Hills, Showalters, Polings and Fields attending.

The school consolidated with Dodson and Loco in 1937.

Mrs. Black had many pictures of each school and teachers and these were viewed.

During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Fred Boyd, new officers were elected. Mrs. Black was named president; Mrs. J.C. Howell, vice-president; Mrs. T.E. Lennon secretary; Mrs. B.B. Martin, treasurer and Mrs. Thurman Crowover, reporter.

Mrs. Boyd reported on the Christmas bazaar, gave a financial report and told of the year's activities, as well as of a box of clothing sent to the Vernon Health and Retardation Center and M.D. Anderson, hospital.

A salad plate was served to Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Garland Hightower, Mrs. Thurman Crowover, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Louis Patterson, Mrs. Murray Dodson, Mrs. S.L. Beanland, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Swift and Mrs. Alexander.

Thank you!

It wasn't much of a cotton crop, either pound or dollar wise, but now that the bad weather has returned it is such a relief to have it harvested and ginned, thanks to the following group of the finest, most considerate friends and neighbors anyone ever was blessed with. These men interrupted their busy schedules, and in some cases, delayed harvesting their own cotton or neglected their business in order to help us with our harvest.

Our sincere apologies go to anyone we might have inadvertently failed to include in this list.

Thanks to Tom Allison and the Farm Bureau for furnishing drinks for the crew and to the management and workers at the Co-op Gin who ginned it so promptly and efficiently. It's time like this that make us proud we live in Collingsworth County.

On His 87th Birthday, Willie Smith Looks Forward

Willie Smith, a native of Collingsworth County who can remember when there was just one brick business building in Wellington, celebrated his 87th birthday, Wednesday, Jan. 12, doing one of the things he likes to do best: playing 42 at a party given in his honor.

What is his ambition?

To live beyond the year 2000. "Then I could say I have lived in three centuries, the 19th, 20th and 21st," he has told some of his children. He would be 104 years old by then, but the Smiths are a hardy family.

He is willing to settle for a little less, however.

"My pacemaker is supposed to last 10 years and I don't think they're going to put me under the ground before then," he says.

His entire life has been in Collingsworth County except for one year. In 1918, he and his wife, Hollie, homesteaded on a quarter section of land in New Mexico. With their oldest son, Leo, they lived in a half dugout. They had one milk cow.

Willie Smith recalls he did a lot of hunting that year and he adds that it was not for sport. It was for food.

WILLIE SMITH

At the end of the year, they returned to Collingsworth County.

Hostess for the 42 party given Mr. Smith on his birthday was his daughter, Patricia Bowden. Neighbors and friends attended, ranging in age from his older sister, Mrs. Mary Karnes, to some friends of college age.

They were served cookies, cherry pie, cream pie and chips and dips.

The centerpiece was an arrangement of flowers from a granddaughter and her family, Bill and Judy Hall, Kevin and Darren.

There were gifts and cards to be opened, and long distance calls from people who could not be with him.

Those attending were his sister, Mrs. Karnes and a brother and sister-in-law, Ed and Chris Smith. Others were Opal and Earl Janes, Derek Janes, Nancy Bigby, Nell Wilbur, Georgia Bartlett, Coy Vaughan, Florence and Tom Caterlin, a daughter-in-law, Dora E. Smith and a granddaughter, Mrs. Hall, and his daughter, Mrs. Bowden.

Mr. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.I. Smith, came here during the earliest years of settlement to an area that would become Collingsworth County. There was no nearby town. They established the Smith Ranch, and later it would be designated as being located southwest of Wellington. It is still owned by family members. Willie Smith was born on this ranch in 1896.

Like his brothers and sisters, Mr. Smith attended Houselog School. Later he studied at Clarendon College but decided he wanted to become a farmer.

He was married to Hollie Mae Trimble on Oct. 15, 1916. She died in 1977. They had 8 children, Leo, Christine, Maurice, Keith, Billye, Patricia, Ann and Tanya.

Willie Smith was a good farmer, but he did other things, also. He was a builder and in his lifetime has constructed and sold or bought and sold, more than 30 homes.

He established the first nursing home in Wellington.

Family members say that after two of Mrs. Smith's

YOU MAY BE LOSING ENERGY DOLLARS UP YOUR CHIMNEY!

How many times a year
do you open and close your Fireplace damper?

Many people leave it open all the time — so it's always ready when they build a fire in the fireplace. A fireplace damper that's always open is allowing winter heat and summer air conditioning to leave through the chimney in a continuous flowing stream. And with that loss of conditioned air goes higher electric bills. Be sure to close your fireplace damper when not in use.

A fireplace screen can help to save a lot of Energy too! With your damper closed, when not in use, and with an air-tight glass screen in front of your fireplace you can keep ENERGY DOLLARS from escaping up the chimney.

Remember REDDY Supplies the energy—but only YOU can use it wisely!

TODAY AND CUT
YOUR HOME HEATING
GAS USE NOW."

* Cubic feet of gas used during heating season by a five year old conventional gas furnace—81,000.

Cubic feet of gas used by the new Lennox Pulse Furnace—45,000.

Pulse can cut your home heating gas use immediately. Let's say your present gas consumption for heating purposes is 81,000 cubic feet of fuel per season. The new Lennox Pulse can cut your usage by nearly 36,000 cubic feet. Immediately. Because for every dollar's worth of fuel burned, Pulse delivers up to 96¢ worth of heat. Your present conventional gas furnace may deliver no more than 55¢ worth of heat. So you see why we say Pulse can pay for itself in a few heating seasons.

This higher efficiency gas furnace is available now. The new Lennox Pulse is unlike any gas furnace in the world. It uses a new technology for home heating. A process that ignites tiny quantities of gas continuously at a rate of 60-70 times per second! Virtually complete combustion occurs with each "pulse" ignition, delivering almost waste-free heat.

Cancer Society Services Named

The American Cancer Society in Collingsworth announced today that it has a variety of services available to cancer patients without charge.

"Many people are unaware of all the services we can provide right here in this town," said Sandy St. John, field representative for Amarillo and the eastern panhandle. "And all that is required in most cases is written permission from the patient's physician."

hospital beds, wheel chairs, commode chairs and walkers are available as well as expanded items including dressings, hospital gowns, bed pads, pillows and other items.

"These are all in addition to our basic information and referral services," said Ms. St. John. "And, depending on location, we also have several rehabilitation programs including Reach to Recovery for mastectomies, esophageal speech lessons for laryngectomies, ostomy rehabilitation and related patient and family support groups."

The fox is probably the only four-footed animal indigenous to Iceland.
