Rev. and Mrs. Hill said upon leaving, "We have regrets at leaving Wellington and our pastorate here, but everything done for the work of the Lord is for the best. We feel that we will be happy in our new home, but we do want to thank the people of Wellington for their splendid cooperation they have given us in our two years here. We extend a cordial invitation to each of you to visit us in our new home."

City Stiffens Enforcement Of City Traffic Regulation

The City Council announced Monday, May 28, that all city traffic regulations will be strictly enforced, and an officer will be on duty 24 hours a day to see that the rules are carried out.

The move by the city for stricter enforcement came after numerous demands from local citizens for better protection against traffic hazards caused by violation of safe driving practices, Bura Handley, city manager, said. Points at street intersections where the driver should stop have been plainly marked, as have the various speed zones in the city. At no point in the city limits, may a car travel more than 20 miles an hour, and in the business area, near the hospital and schools, the speed limit is lowered to 15 miles.

Markers which drivers are especially warned to observe are: Stop signs on streets. No parking zones. Pedestrian lanes. Fire Zones. Length limit on trucks. Speed zones that are marked. Those violating the city traffic regulations will be fined, J. F. Holley, chief of police, said. Fines at first will be light, but they will increase progressively for repeat offenders. Mr. Holley estimated that not more than 50 percent of Wellington drivers observe stop signs, and that the average driving speed in town is well above the legal limit, possibly up to 35 miles per hour.

Planting County's 1951 Cotton Crop Starts; 120,000 Acres Estimated

Planting what may be Collingsworth County's biggest cotton crop of recent years is under way, and the ideal cotton growing weather that has prevailed since Sunday is giving rise to early cotton optimism.

Some of the cotton planted before the rains began is up and beginning to grow, although a large percent of the seed put in the ground at that time was washed out or covered up to the extent that it had to be replanted.

Estimates of the acreage for the county this season are generally set as at least 120,000 acres, County Agent J. W. Thomas said, but he added that there is a possibility the acreage may go as high as 140,000. This last figure would be about double the acreage in 1950, when cotton was under a government acreage restriction.

A considerable amount of plowed up wheat land is being planted to cotton, although an accurate estimate of the acreage is not possible, Mr. Thomas pointed out. Altogether, it is estimated by some that approximately half of the 40,000 acres planted to wheat this year has been plowed up. Part of this, however, will go into combine maize.

Not many farmers will plant all their land to cotton, Mr. Thomas believes.

A shortage of planting seed already has appeared, Dick Sweat of the Farmers Co-op Gin revealed. All certified seed the co-op had available was booked long ago and most of it has been picked up. The best planting seed offered now is gin run seed that has been delinted, treated and culled.

Growers in this area have paid $21.00 cwt. for certified seed, around $20.00 cwt. for culled, delinted and treated second year seed, and $16.00 or more for last year's seed.

Farmers from Carnegie, Okla., Shamrock and Lakeview have been in Wellington in the last few days hunting planting seed, giving an indication that the shortage is area wide.

Moisture right now is perfect for planting, and is sufficient for the immediate future. In spite of the long drouth, which existed unbroken from September until January, and intermittently until last week, the moisture content of the soil was only a little under normal, due to the heavy rainfall last summer, Mr. Thomas revealed.

In comparison to the county's record cotton crop of 1949, the acreage is expected to be larger. Highest estimates for that crop were 118,000 acres. 1949 saw an average yield for the count of 258 pounds of lint cotton, in comparison a 10 year average of between 157 and 165 pounds. Summer rain and insect control will be the determining factor in the lint yield this year.

Faced with a possible labor shortage, some farmers who ordinarily would have planted heavily to cotton, are expected to increase their combine maize acreage, Mr. Thomas believes.

Altogether the combine grain acreage in the county is expected to amount to between 70,000 and 80,000 acres.

The county agent at this time warned growers this year to watch for indications of insect infestations and to combat them early and hit them hard. Already, quite a few grasshoppers are showing up in the pastures.

Cancer Crusade Report Made

Collingsworth County's Cancer Crusade netted $553.08, which has been sent into state headquarters at Houston, Jack Gibson, chairman, reported.

"In view of conditions which make fund campaigns in the Panhandle difficult during the spring, and especially this spring, it seems to me that you have done a splendid job. I know that you and your co-workers have put forth a lot of effort, and I hope that your success is rewarding to you," Clark Sudduth, Crusade Director for the state, wrote Mr. Gibson this week.

With the close of the campaign, Mr. Gibson told Mr. Sudduth that he could no longer be active in the program, and he has been requested by the latter to help in securing a capable successor.

McCaskill Breaks Shamrock Record

G. E. McCaskill of Wellington has made the first hole-in-one ever scored on the Shamrock golf course, and with this won a number of prizes offered.

The hole-in-one was scored on a 155 yard par-three hole. His prizes included three years free golfing at the Shamrock club, one year's pass to a Shamrock theatre, and a medal.

A hole in one is getting to be an old story to Mr. McCaskill, for during his 18 years golfing experience, he has two official holes in one to his credit and three that are unofficial.

His score for the round was 34.

Makes Duncan Hines Ice Cream

Wellington Creamery Gets Choice Franchise

A new, high quality ice cream will be introduced for the first time in the Panhandle this week.

Called Duncan Hines Ice Cream, after America's most famous authority on good eating, it will be made and distributed by Wellington Creamery.

The ice cream will be made according to a special recipe developed by Duncan Hines, and was developed to give the consuming public the finest product possible.

Steve Owens, owner of the Wellington Creamery, said that the ice cream will be made strictly according to the Duncan Hines recipe, and that it will contain about one-third more cream and weigh up to 25 per cent more than regular ice cream. "Moreover," he said, "it is made with only the finest of ingredients all down the line."

For the past 15 years, Duncan Hines has made a business of discovering good eating places which are listed in his book, "Adventures in Good Cooking." He has been the subject of numerous articles in "The Saturday Evening Post," "Readers Digest," and other national magazines, as well as writing a column on food for newspapers all over the nation.

Hines, who estimates that he has traveled more than two million miles, is said to have eaten in more different eating places than any other man in the world.

Colored School Planned

ANNUAL BAPTIST VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WILL OPEN ON JUNE 4th

The annual vacation Bible School will begin at the First Baptist Church Monday, June 4, Rev. Howard Jones, pastor, announced. Teachers have not yet been selected, the time for the classes to begin has been set at 8:30 a.m.

Students ranging from preschool age to seventeen years are invited to attend the school.

At the same time, a school for the colored children will be conducted, with John Winters, a student of Wayland College, in charge of local arrangements. The definite location of the school has not been announced, but it will begin on Monday, June 4.

The Highway Department Is The Best Road Builder

A solution of the Legislature's deadlock over the natural gas gathering tax and the proposed distribution of the tax for rural roads seems a little nearer solution, as the House announced Friday its willingness to retreat on the specific allocation of the money and let it go into the state's general revenue as long as rural roads were taken care of.

The representatives maintain their original position on the gathering tax on natural gas. As originally proposed, this tax on gas for pipeline use would be divided to give one half to the counties for farm to market roads, one fourth to the cities for street improvement, and one fourth to the school fund because the constitution requires it.

The rural roads have been a bone of contention through the entire tax arguments. Governor Allan Shivers commented that it boiled down to whether the State Highway Department shall building farm-to-market roads, or whether they shall be built by the 254 separate counties under the supervision of the Commissioners Courts.

The Leader agrees with Governor Shivers in believing that the latter plan could lead only to confusion, waste and the construction of second and third class roads. In short, it would allow the rural roads to become a political football.

This is no reflection on the judge and commissioners of Collingsworth County, who are doing a commendable job on the county roads, but it is a proven fact that the State Highway Department can do a better job of road building than any local political unit. It is the one state agency that has been free of corruption of graft.

The State Highway Department has one job to do and it does that efficiently. It hires men who are trained in this field and thus, the Texas Highway system ranks high among those of the 48 states. It no more tolerates inefficiency and waste than does a private business.

On the other hand, roads are only one of many problems the county commissioners have to cope with. Most of them have their hands full as it is.

At this point, it seems as if compromise is necessary, and the step toward leaving Farm-to-Market highway construction where it is one in the right direction.

Public Reacting Against Too Many Drives for Funds

The American public are being called upon for too many financial drives. The public is reacting against the policy of every kind of organization which is seeking to draw money for its particular cause.

All of the causes are good, and deserve much more than the people are putting up. There is no justification in saying that we will not support these worthy causes.

Just consider, if you please, the plight of Mr. Average Citizen. The federal government is taking more of his cash in income taxes and social security; the state of Iowa would like to take more of his money; the local schools, the local city and the local county all need more money to meet the higher cost of operation; his church, lodge and every local institution feels that this a good time to get more money.

Mr. Average Citizen may be a little better off today than he was a year ago, that is, his income may have increased—but likewise the demands upon his purse have increased. As a result of all these increases chances are that he has less cash at the end of the month or year than he had a few years back when he worked for lower income.

We have always held to the theory that it made no difference as to the amount of money Mr. Average Citizen took in—whether it be dollar per day, or dollar per hour. The thing is: What does this money buy? If the money of several years ago bought more than his increased pay of today will buy, then we are kidding ourselves about this wonderful prosperity.

Harold C. Scott of Wellington has enlisted in the Air Force for a four-year period, M-Sgt. John C. Gaskill, U. S. Army and Air Force recruiting officer for this area, has announced.

Pvt. Scott has been sent to Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio for assignment.

Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Scott of Loco.

Modern Market -

"We're celebrating this with a big, two-day event in our store Friday and Saturday, when we hope to have all our friends in the Wellington trade area come in to see us," the owners said.

"Looking back over the history of the business, we believe that we've come through some pretty difficult years, considering that the business was started during the war, when all food items were hard to get, and help was scarce. But there is one thing of which we are proud, and that is the continued progress of the store, the constant growth," Mr. Ward said.

The business was established by Mr. Ward and operated by him until an interest was sold to Mr. Barnett a year ago.

In addition to leadership in the food merchandising field, the store and its personnel has taken a lead in civic enterprises, and for several reasons one of its activities was sponsorship of a softball team.

"We are sincerely grateful to our many friends for their patronage through the years, and we can assure you that you will continue to find the same high quality of food and the same friendly service you have known here for the past 7 years," the owners said.

Employees of Modern Market, in addition to Mr. Ward and Mr. Barnett are Roy Bounds, James McDanel and Don Shoff. Additional Saturday employees are Wayne Maxwell and Cecil Welch.

WIND FOR THE STRETCH—Dr. V. C. Fobian indicates the auxiliary wind pipe in the neck of Beaumont Hanover. The stainless steel tube was inserted after it was found that the horse was having breathing difficulties in his home stretch drives. Owners of the seven-year-old gelding hope that the tube will show bright results by season's end at the Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Raceway.

YEAR-AROUND TURKEY—Good news for the housewife has come out of Lancaster, Calif., where Mrs. Phyllis Higgs has developed an eight-pound turkey. Mrs. Higgs, shown above with one of her junior gobblers, has been trying for 17 years to raise a turkey that can fit most budgets and ovens.

Former Residents Visiting County

Two daughters of a family that came here before the organization of the county returned to Wellington and Quail to visit early this week.

While in the county they are visiting members of the Atkinson family and with their aunt, Mrs. Mary Stall of Wellington.

Mrs. Ford remarked while here that she remembers when the first court house was built.

From here they will go to Georgetown to visit relatives, and later will return here for a longer visit.

Motor Vehicle Inspection Act Soon Effective

AUSTIN — Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that preliminary plans are under way for the administration of the State's Motor Vehicle Inspection Act.

Recently passed by the 52nd Legislature and signed into law by Governor Allan Shivers, the act, which is designed to enhance traffic safety by removing unsafe motor vehicles from the highways, will become effective 90 days after the adjournment of the 52nd Legislature.

According to Garrison, an additional period of about 60 days will be required to complete the organizational details of the inspection division which, by law, will fall under the supervision of the Public Safety Department.

Garrison stated that garage owners and other individuals interested in making application for official inspection stations in their areas may do so by writing directly to him at Austin. The proper application blanks will be mailed to those making inquiry as soon as they are available. Those selected will be subject to a thorough examination of facilities and equipment and will be instructed in inspection standards. Garrison further stated that no testing devices have yet been approved and that it was not advisable for applicants to purchase such equipment until his Department has set up the official standards for such devices.

DODSON

By MRS. Z. O. MCKINNEY

The rains were really fine. Most farmers in our community are planting their cotton over, hoping to get a stand before more hard rains come.

Claude Parker and Collier Basart of Mobeetie was visiting relatives and old friends here last week.

Mrs. T. E. Lennon was in Canyon, Texas, last week where she will enter school the first of June. Quite a number of people responded to the cemetery working last Friday, but there is lots of work to be done yet.

Mrs. Clyde Alexander had as house guests last Thursday night Brooks and Jimmie Thompson of Wellington.

Roy Norman Burk filled his regular appointment at the Church of Christ last Sunday.

Mrs. T. E. Lennon, Mrs. Duffey, and Mr. Brown, teachers in the lower grades, accompanied the classes from the fifth down, to the Childress park last Wednesday for a picnic. A large number of the mothers also attended and a nice lunch was served at noon. They all had a wonderful time, but returned tired.

Denver Warren who has been in school at Weatherford, Oklahoma, was visiting here last week with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Warren.

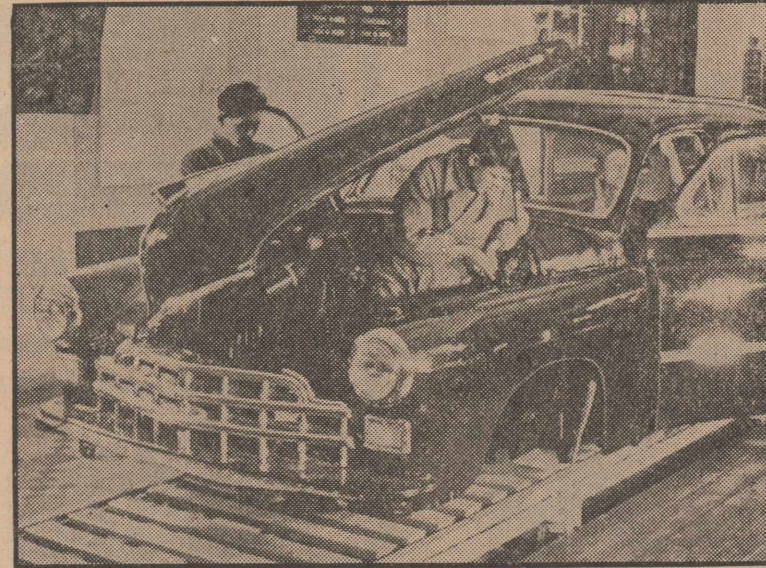

Mrs. Evie Swim left last week for Dill, Oklahoma, to visit her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud King have recently moved here from Wellington. We welcome them to our town.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Vaughn had as house guests last week Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keith of Phillips, Texas; Mrs. Alvin Hallmark and daughter of Oklahoma City; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cook and Gale of Dallas; and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vaughn of Wellington.

LABOR OF LOVE—Mrs. Clyde H. Myers lines up the cords on a sewing frame which she uses to lend new life to these ancient and priceless volumes which are part of the collection of Cornell University, Ithica, N. Y. This is truly a labor of love for Mrs. Meyers; her husband taught at Cornell for 33 years before his death in 1944.

COMMUNISTS' CADILLAC?—The caption accompanying the Soviet-released picture above fails to tag a price on the Zim automobile about to roll off Moscow production lines. But judging from the grill, which bears a suspicious resemblance to that of the 1951 Cadillac, the sleek Russian car is probably beyond the means of the average Ivan.

BEFORE AND AFTER—The youngsters, left, are shown as they appeared when Tasewell County, Ill., juvenile authorities removed them from their home. Twenty-four hours later, the tots, right, seemed to be different children. They were made wards of court, and will be placed in foster homes.

Stock Feeding Stressed by Samnorwood FFA

One of the major parts of the Vocational Agriculture course at Samnorwood High School is the project programs of each individual boy. Each project is owned and cared for by the boy under the supervision of the Vocational Agriculture Instructor and his parents. Each project program is planned to fit the individual farm. The project programs of the members of the Samnorwood Chapter stress the marketing of home grown feeds through livestock. The animals that are used to market these home grown feeds are sheep, hogs, dairy cattle and beef cattle. Other projects include grain sorghums and cotton.

The members of that chapter have just completed buying a group of steers to use as a market for grass. The steers bought are classed as heavy stockers, weighing from 500 to 750 pounds each. This size steers were bought because they cost less per pound than the lighter steers and would mature enough this fall to take a high degree of finish, which commands a higher price on the market. Also the heavier steers make a faster gain on pasture because they have the capacity for more grass.

The plans are to run the steers on pasture this summer and feed them home grown feeds next winter for 120 to 150 days. The boys expect to market them next spring in May at Oklahoma City. By that time all the steers are expected to weigh from 1200 to 1400 pounds. The boys' desire is to top that market again next year.

Many of the boys who don't have the grass available will buy their steers next fall to go directly into the feed lot. The boys who now have steers on grass are: L. B. Cornell, 1; Eugene Eagle, 1; Franklin Knoll, 2; George Cunningham, 2; Douglas Deviney, 1; James Massey, 1; Charles Shields, 1; and Jimmy Boyd, 1.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Morris of Shamrock visited Mrs. Lula Bell Cotton and son Sunday.

Miss Nancy Sullivan of Pampa visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Sullivan, over the week end.

He recently completed a night vision course at the Naval Air Station, San Diego, Calif. Night vision is important to lookouts, and flyers for defense and safety.

As they sat in blacked-out rooms, trained instructors explained how the human eye works under light and dark conditions. Soon the men were able to distinguish silhouettes of model buildings, towers and other landmarks that should be familiar to pilots on a night flight, or to lookouts on a ship.

Near the end of the course, they took seats on a high balcony and underwent a simulated mission over an "enemy" city at night to locate the target area.

PATRIOTIC MUSICAL HIGHLIGHT OF YEAR FOR QUAIL STUDENTS

With the color of a Billy Rose extravaganza, 200 students of the Quail school presented "Uncle Sam's Children," Thursday evening, May 25, as one of the outstanding events of the school year. Jesse Young, as Uncle Sam, attended by Joyce Kennedy and Glenda Gay Phipps, was master of ceremonies, and introduced the students as they portrayed some of the people who make up the "melting pot" of America: Indian, Negro, Mexican, Dutch, Hawaiian, and Western.

The production was given in the gymnasium, giving an arena in which the present the musical, and as each group completed its part, the children seated themselves around the arena for the remainder of the performance.

The authentically costumed Indian group played tom-toms and danced the Eagle dance, hoop dance, rain dance, and girls hoop dance, as Chief Billy Wilson, astride his paint pony, watched from the end of the arena.

Entering to the strains of "Dixie," the Negro group seated itself in a choral section and sang spirituals.

They were followed by the brightly attired Mexican dancers, who gave the traditional spirited dances of that country to the south.

The quaint costumes of Holland were featured as fourth graders sang a Dutch song and gave the wind-mill dance, before a background of an old Dutch mill and rows of tulips.

Dressed in white and wearing leis, the Hawaiian youngsters played their ukuleles and sang "Aloha Oe."

Representing the rural West, the high school girls chorus sang "Country Style" and did steps in the rhythm of "Josephine."

As the grand finale, three boys in uniform entered with the United States Flag, and Uncle Sam led the audience in the salute to the Flag and singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner." To the music of "Stars and Stripes Forever," the entire group marched from the room. Members of the senior chorus were Sonja Atkinson, Hettie Baggett, Erna Lee Farris, Nancy Jett, Loreta Kindrick, Nadine Kindrick, Joan Kirkland, Janelle Langford, Virginia Miller, Fern Neeley, Fayteen Peoples, Melba Pendergrass, Shirley Robinson, Sharlene Saunders, Annie Mae Souder, Sue Vaughan, Barbara Weaver, Jo Helen White, Alice Faye Wilkinson, Marian Wilkinson, Elizabeth Wilson, Vivian Minatrea, Mary Louise Robinson, Jimmy Langford, Richard Beale and Leon Shields.

I would like to know whatever happened to the Texas Legislature?

As I recall, it was in session and tryin to get some California gambler to come to Austin and I guess explain how to improve the game and still keep it on a friendly basis when President Truman fired General MacArthur, and since then I haven't heard a word out of it.

I suppose it's still in session, but the MacArthur fuss has dominated the news so much exerybody forgot about Austin and as far as I know they may be just sittin around listenin to the radio themselves.

If you ask me, the Legislature missed a big opportunity. Right when the people's minds was all on Washington was the ideal time to go ahead and balance the state budget in a statesmanlike way, vote whatever new taxes was needed, pass any laws they could think of, and adjourn and go home. Wouldn't a person have heard about it till months later.

Why right now I couldn't tell you what the Legislature has done in the last four weeks any more than I could tell you what it'll do next week. Never again will a group of law makers have such a golden opportunity to legislate like they please.

In regard to the Truman-MacArthur argument, so many words have been spoken on the matter now I'm about played out with it, about bogged down in testimony myself, but I can say this, the old age pension problem would be wiped out completely if every man, when he reached the age of 71 lost his government job, was given the choice of makin $100,000 a year sellin typewriters or $150,000 a year sellin Hadaacol.

Is there anything to the report that Truman is tryin to get them companies to hold the offers open just in case he's available after 1952? I knew there was lots of jobs open these days, but had no idea jobs payin that kind of money was goin beggin. Almost wish I had a job so I could get fired in to a higher bracket myself.

Yours faithfully,

Moisture Ideal for Seed Crop

Alfalfa Hay Harvest Starts; Yields Light

Alfalfa growers of the county have started cutting their first hay crop, and yields are among the lowest the county has had, due to the prolonged dry weather, County Agent J. W. Thomas reports.

eral growers in the Wellington area had alfalfa on the ground when the last rain came.

This cutting, however, is putting the alfalfa in condition for the seed crop, since there is sufficient moisture and the rains fell perfectly from the growers standpoint.

The county has an estimated 8,000 to 10,000 acres in alfalfa this year.

An afternoon respite in Denver is welcome before the evening departure enroute to the Cody Gateway to Yellowstone.

The next morning will surprise Louisianans and Texans with a sight of some of Wyoming's extensive oil field development near the town of Casper, then another sightseeing marvel, Wind River Canyon, and a new reservoir development which takes the railroad safely thru a tunnel below the water level of a man-made lake.

Evening finds the tourist on this trip in famous Cody Inn for a night and morning in the typical western town of Cody, Wyoming.

The entrance into Yellowstone Park begins via Cody Road, thru Shoshone Canyon, past Buffalo Bill Dam and Reservoir for a glorious afternoon ride to Canyon Hotel, the first stop in Yellowstone Park. Canyon Hotel, a magnificent structure, is on the rim of Yellowstone Canyon at the site of the Upper and Lower Yellowstone Falls, a sight-seeing "must" for westward travelers.

An evening and night at Canyon are followed by a day's trip via Mammoth Hot Springs to Old Faithful Inn thru the most scenic and exciting part of this playground of natural wonders. After a thrill-packed night and day at Old Faithful, a late afternoon departure is made for a drive of an hour or so to West Yellowstone for an overnight ride to Salt Lake City.

A day of sightseeing in this Mormon City includes famous places of historic interest, Utah Copper Mines, Bingham Canyon, and Great Salt Lake where a dip in the water that will not let you sink is a novel experience for everyone.

The trip eastward from Salt Lake City is the beginning of the homeward trek, squarely thru the center of Colorado's mountain scenery by daylight in a "Vista Dome" car of the latest and most modern design. Truly, there is thrilling scenery galore on this part of the journey. A 10-minute stop is made at Hanging Bridge in Royal Gorge of the Arkansas River, to climax a day of unbelievable mountain vistas.

A mid-afternoon change of trains in Pueblo's grand old Union Station starts the final leg of the trip homeward on the Texas Zephyr, past Twin Peaks, views of late afternoon sun glow over Sangre le Christo Range near Trinidad, Oak Canyon, Mt. Cauplin (an extinct volcano), then the broad, rolling plains of North-eastern New Mexico and Texas—and home!

11,000 More Teachers Needed

STATE'S SCHOOL AGE CHILDREN MAY TOTAL 1,950,000 BY 1960

AUSTIN—The rapid growth in the school population of Texas is reflected in a study just released by the Texas State Teachers Association. Texas will have at least 1,950,000 children of school age by 1960 if the present migration of birthrate trends continue, according to E. L. Galyean, director of research of the Association.

Such an increase will bring about further demands upon the public school system of Texas. Based upon an average daily attendance of 26 pupils per teacher, Texas will need more than 11,000 additional teachers in the next ten year period, Galyean stated.

Basing a prediction for the next five years on the trend of the past few years, Galyean predicts that by 1955 there will be 1,750,000 school age children in Texas, requiring more than 5,000 teachers above the present 54,000. With the increased enrollment due to better enforcement of the compulsory attendance law together with the continuous increase of birthrate during the past few years, it is predicted that the school attendance rate will continue to increase. The increase in attendance will require more than $100,000,000 additional capital outlay to the building program, which is far short of needs at the present time.

"We are trying to show what is to be expected in future attendance and needs," Galyean announced.

"Our whole purpose in this survey is to show how many school children will have to be taken care of by 1960," he added.

The number of teachers needed is based on increased population only, and does not take into consideration the need for replacements because of retirement, deaths, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stratton of Fort Worth, and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Davis of Lubbock visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cap Davis.

IT WON'T WORK

Once the free enterprise way of life has been shattered by the establishment of the Socialist Welfare State all the King's horses and all the King's men may be unable to put it back together again. Public opinion polls in England indicate that most of the people now want to end the rule of the Labor-Socialist government. But not even Conservative leader Winston Churchill suggests that there is a way at hand to undo, in the foreseeable future, what has already been done.

Welfare State governments must have big money to operate. The necessary heavy taxes quickly drain away private wealth and kill the incentive to progress. The Socialized industries become run down, and finally unproductive—unless harsh Police State measures are used to shackle the workers. Where there is no private wealth remaining, socialized industries cannot be really restored to private ownership. And where the people have long depended on regular monthly benefits, doles and subsidies, and "free" services, their psychology is not easily changed.

NON-REDUCIBLE

The dismal course of the Welfare State seldom varies. The scheme now has been implanted to some degree in virtually all nations of Europe. Dr. Wm. T. Bean, principal of Butler (Pa.) High School, who is now studying conditions in Europe under sponsorship of Harding College, writes from Oslo, Norway: Norway's program of social services, which is very extensive, has not been expanded; neither has it been reduced. . . . It would be almost impossible for any government to reduce the services at this point.

"These non-reducible services, plus expenditures for defense, have produced a tax binder (shackle) and government control that are almost ruinous, especially for business and industry. It is not unusual for a very small business to pay 75 per cent of its net profit in taxes; and the remainder is again taxed heavily on the personal income of the owner.

"FREE RIDE" EXPOSED

"Government control is very extensive indeed. In addition to levying taxes, and thereby exercising a considerable measure of control, it has necessarily extended control over the lives of the people as it has extended services to them, and as it has taken over responsibility for their welfare. The people complain bitterly about the high taxes and government restrictions, but they would never reduce the very thing that causes them. Obviously many people had expected these things to be done without personal inconvenience to themselves. It is the old story of the "free ride" exposed.

"Housing is a good cause in point. In Oslo, for instance, the government owns and operates most of the housing units and has done so for a considerable period of time. Private housing is almost non-existent for the average man. Since the private investor has been driven out of the market, the government finds that it must continue to carry the ever-increasing housing burden—and the government now is broke. Who builds? Nobody! And so the condition becomes more and more aggravating as newly married couples demand the same subsidized low rent government housing as their parents have been getting for years. It would seem that once a cycle of this sort is started, it cannot be stopped.

NORWAY'S ROAD AHEAD

"Every article in Norway is subject to price control. Rationing is still the order of the day, and food is far shorter than I imagined it would be. Meat and cheese are short, with reindeer meat the most commonly available. Sugar and coffee are difficult to find, and there are no fresh fruits at all, since they are imported that the government has banned."

If the 20th Century "Democratic" Socialism has proved one thing—it is that political ownership, management or control of the facilities of production cannot succeed in a free society. It always reduces production of goods and services and thus lowers the living standard. Either complete Socialism must take over or the nation must try slowly and painfully to restore private ownership and individual responsibility. Complete Socialism requires the enslavement of the people. It requires rigidly controlled and enforced labor. It destroys the last vestige of individual freedom. England and Norway and the other Socialist countries may someday get rid of their Socialist governments but their roads ahead, under any circumstances, is not pretty. Socialism has infected their future. For the sake of our American employees and for the sake of all our children we must not let its disguised ideas take root here.

Visiting Mrs. Minnie Gibbs and Mr. and Mrs. Rodell Byers were Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Peters and son, Gerol, of Lubbock, Miss Letha Mae Gibbs of Amarillo, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Batchelor, Mr. and Mrs. Harman Fales and children of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gibbs of Quail, Mr. and Mrs. Milborn Gibbs of Quail, and Drucilla Gibbs of Bethany Peniel College, Bethany, Oklahoma.

MASTER PLAN FOR IMPROVEMENT OF ELLISON PARK DRAWN BY CITY

A master plan for improvement of Ellison Park has been drawn up by City Manager Bura Handley and approved by the city council, which has given its O.K. for certain of these improvements, to be started this summer.

"The greatest need right now is for more picnic tables and benches of a permanent nature. Interest in park improvement is being shown by several of the civic organizations, and one or more individual picnic stands could well become a project of such a group. The city will furnish the materials for any individuals or group who will do the work," Mr. Handley said.

"There is only one permanent picnic table and seats, that it was built by Dr. E. W. Jones and Jack Hurst a number of years ago." Others are of wood and are deteriorating.

The current plans call for moving the kiddies playground equipment to the front of the park, where it will be more accessible. This includes three batteries of swings, a combination swing-trapeze unit given by the Business and Professional Women's Club, and a slide which is almost worn out.

Rest room facilities will be installed, and drinking fountains are being considered.

The two croquet courts have been turned into volleyball courts, and two more will be built by the Rotary Club. These can also be used as badminton courts.

Approximately 50 young men and women are using the present courts each evening. The tennis courts are being used more than at any time since they were put up, and more are requested, but the cost of building surfaced courts is prohibitive. Mr. Handley said that it is possible that two dirt practice courts may be laid off.

A softball court will be set up at the southwest corner of the park.

The parking area at the north end of the park has been enlarged and re-arranged to keep cars out of the park itself.

The Scout Hut, located here, is a permanent stone building.

"The picnic grounds are the most popular spot, and on pretty Sundays, as many as 75 persons may be seen here. Some of these are from Wellington, but many are from the rural areas around," Mr. Handley said. "Ellison park, with a little improvement, will compare favorably with the parks in any town this size in the area. There is excellent shade and the grass is good, and the city sincerely hopes for the co-operation of the citizens in the improvement work."

The land was given to the City more than 40 years ago by Col. Ellison to be used as a park.

After leaving here, they lived in Donley County and for a number of years at McLean. Following Mr. Belew's retirement, they moved to Amarillo in 1937.

Give Your Pig A Chance to Make Hog of Himself

Even a pig needs some help in order to make a hog of himself. Good summer management helps pigs make market-topping hogs, says A. L. Ward, Educational Director of the National Cottonseed Products Association. Well-fed, properly managed hogs make a profit most years. Diseased or parasite-infested hogs that don't get the right care and feed are a poor bet any year.

Start with healthy pigs and keep them healthy for fast gains and efficient feed use. A sick pig is a poor producer. It takes longer to get to market and requires more feed.

Sanitation is first requirement for disease and parasite control. Good green pasture provides cheap, nourishing feed and is the best way to maintain sanitation. Avoid stale mud wallows. Keep water and feed troughs clean and supplied with fresh water and well-balanced rations. Well-fed pigs are easiest to keep healthy.

Your county agent or agriculture teacher can show you how to worm hogs with sodium fluoride. Vaccinate for cholera if your farm or neighborhood had a recent outbreak. Consult your veterinarian immediately when diseases occur. Use the new efficient, proved insecticides to control lice, mange and flies.

Good rations make the most profit. Balance them for protein, minerals and vitamins. Feed liberally but without waste.

The noted feeding authority, F. B. Morrison, says in "Feeds and Feeding" that one pound of protein supplement will save five to six pounds of grain when used in amounts needed to balance rations for pigs.

An economical and efficient protein supplement you can mix on the farm is: 40 pounds of cottonseed meal, 40 pounds of tankage or meat meal, and 20 pounds of alfalfa leaf meal. Leave the alfalfa out of the mixture of hogs are on good pasture. This supplement may be self-fed, free choice, with grain or mixed with ground grain and self-fed or hand-fed. Growing pigs and breeding sows need the vitamins, minerals and growth factors they get from green pasture. If pasture is not available, feed rations containing 5 per cent alfalfa meal for fattening hogs and 10 to 15 per cent alfalfa for breeding animals. A good mineral mixture to feed, free access, is 2 parts of bone meal and part salt.

Self-feeders promote fast gains and reduce labor costs. Hogging-down grain in the field is another way to save costs by reducing labor.

Fattening hogs eat more and gain faster if you keep them cool and comfortable during hot weather. The Texas experiment Station showed that gains are increased when hogs have a concrete wallow to keep them cool. Conveniently located shade helps keep them comfortable and reduces the danger of heat losses. Construct shade so that the breeze will blow over the hogs.

Plenty of clean, fresh water is essential at all times but is especially important during hot summer months. Partially covered water troughs make it easy to keep water clean and cool.

Market hogs at 200-to-225 pound weights for most efficient gains and highest prices. After hogs reach 200 pounds, it requires an extra 1-4 to 1-2 of a pound of feed to produce a pound of gain. A Cornbelt swine specialist has suggested that you may find it more profitable to market a ton of pork in ten skins instead of eight.

Fight Fire With Fire

COLLEGE STATION—In Somervell County, Texas, farmers banded together and burned the grass along the highways. Each morning when the wind was moderate, farmers would burn the grass to prevent fire starting when no one was present to control them.

Much can be done toward educating motorists to refrain from throwing lighted matches and cigarettes along highways where grass can be set afire, says Somervell county agricultural agent E. D. Cooper. But it is doubtful if a 100 per cent job can be done. An estimate has been made that indicates about ten percent of the drivers are law violators who pay little attention to any law. They pass cars in no-passing zones; fail to stop at intersections where stop signs are placed; and they pay no attention to 30-mile speed zones. When one of these drivers violates one law, chances are good he'll violate another the next time the opportunity presents itself. Cooper suggests that drivers do a little checking on their own as well as he other fellow's driving habits.

He points out that unless 100 percent of the drivers cooperate in keeping down fires, not much can be done because ten drivers can strew lighted matches and cigarettes along the highway and ruin the good record set by the 90 careful drivers. The best answer to the problem is to fight fire with fire.

Before the program started in Somervell county, he says, several large fires destroyed pastures ranging from 20 acres to 300 acres. One home was lost from a grass fire.

This may not be all that could be desired from the standpoint of highway beautification, he adds, but it does stop the losses caused by the careless motorist.

William Henry Harrison held the shortest term of any U. S. president. He died a month after taking office.

"50,000 Miles-No Wear!" Proved Here:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence; in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts. AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000!

"55,000 hard, fast miles have been put on my Pontiac, with new Conoco Super," says David Brown, Salesman, Salt Lake City. "That car is still like new—excellent gasoline mileage, oil consumption slight, and no engine repairs."

"Our car makes 2 or 3 trips to the top of Pike's Peak every day during the summer," reports R. P. Finney, Sight-Seeing Service, Colorado Springs. "We use Conoco Super and never have to add oil between 1,000-mile drains."

Lord Jim Says--

By Bill Hughes

"Master Willy, what is it I hear rattling around so vigorously inside your skull?"

Believe it or not, Lord Jim, you flaprant whelp, a thought has dawned there and demands out.

"OK., your most awesome Bipedship, the column is yours. Believe your mental strain and let the rascal out."

Thank you. Thank you. But for goodness sake stop drumming the floor with your tail, twitching your ears, and above all stop sneezing and listen.

The other day a good man, a man I like and respect, had me bellowing with rage and literally bouncing up and down in my chair with frustration.

He fully admitted that he did not like the immorality of the administration, he further agreed that Mr. Truman was not big enough for the job, but that nevertheless he would vote to keep him there. To the repeated question, but, why, why, why, he either would not or could not give a reasonable answer.

At first my rage and frustration I blamed upon what seemed to me to be his stupid muleishness, his cowardliness, or possibly on guilt of being involved in it all. But something some where inside my skull kept insisting that this answer was false, not in keeping with the facts.

As I cooled down, I realized that my own lack of self-control had in the first place blocked any chance of even starting to understand.

Lack of understanding, lack of self-control, self-discipline; these were the causes of my rage and frustration, not him at all.

But how could I understand, if he could not explain this business of being against and yet at the same time of intending to vote to continue it?

Then I got to thinking about this human trait called loyalty and how it had worked in mankind down through the pages. This explained the matter up to the point that our first loyalty is to God and this would seem to leave my friend in the category of the irreligious, even verging on the perimeter of Communism, neither of which, I felt fitted fact.

"How can Satan cast out Satan?"

Truthfully looked at, the present leadership of both major parties are, I believe equally guilty of lip service to God, but by deed, in partnership with Satan, placing personal politics and interests above the need and best interest of America as a whole. Democrats or Republicans alike, we have permitted Satan to enter our houses and bind us and while "if Satan has risen against himself and is divided he cannot stand, he comes to an end," yet in falling, he plunders our houses nevertheless — for the eternal sin of blaspheming the Holy Spirit.

Hence, it is now easy to see that my friend has real reason for not switching loyalty where nothing is to be gained by doing so.

Our hope lies in we the people of both parties castigating this Satanical leadership and placing before the nation on both sides, men whose leadership derives its morality and leadership from God, not human weakness, earthly power, self-perpetuation in office and Satan made politics.

Let us pray for truly one of God's men to come forward to offer his leadership. Let us be prepared to recognize him by reason of the fact that he will promise us "blood, sweat, and tears" and not false Heaven on earth for only our enslaved loyalty. Let us be prepared to understand God's will. "Take up your cross daily and follow me." Let us be prepared to support this man, this leadership with our votes. Then with our uncomplaining shoulder to the wheel work and, yea, fight for peace and salvation, because neither one can be achieved by merely wishing for them. Neither one can be bought or purchased by deals, by influence, nor by all the material treasure of the earth. They never have been yet. Security comes only with death and then only perhaps depending upon how we met and handled the problems of our temporary life here on earth. History proves this. Life here is temporary you know. No one has ever bribed God by good or bad, into leaving him here, except in the form of skull and bones buried beneath centuries of gravel and stone to give employment to archaeologists.

Power to you, my good friend, but never give up the fight. That is living death. That is a thing far worse than all the failures, trials, tribulations, and pains of living life.

Wellington Folk Visit Gooch Lake

A large number of Wellington people fished at Dr. Gooch's lake one mile south of Shamrock on the Wellington - Shamrock highway, Sunday, May 27.

This is a government stocked lake and is the first season that fishing has been allowed. There are very nice fish to be had for the catching. Everyone that was there Sunday before last had such good luck and the news spread so fast, the lake was so crowded Sunday the luck was poor for many.

Greenbelt Sends Three to Meeting

Orval Couch, R. B. Johnson and Mrs. Fern Bounds of the Greenbelt Electric Cooperative attended an "Electrification Advisers Conference," May 15 through 17 in Austin. The program for the first two days included various problems concerning the wiring of rural homes and farmsteads.

W. W. Mills, of A. & M. College, pointed out how the hazards of inadequate wiring endangers human life and damages property. He used the movie "The Shocking Truth" to illustrate numerous misuses and abuses of electric service.

V. E. Moore, Electrification Adviser of Karnes Electric Cooperative of Kansas City, used a panel board to show advantages of an adequate wiring system. He showed that correct wiring permits the member efficient use of appliances with a minimum of expense.

"Getting News to Members" was topic of the third day program. This will help members of the Greenbelt Electric Cooperative to be familiar with ways in which electricity can do a better job for them in a shorter time than the manual labor practices of past generations, Mr. Couch said.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lowe of Amarillo visited their daughter, Mrs. Forerst Ezzell and family, over the week end.

Ross Taylor and Dub Marchane spent the week end fishing in Lake Lugart.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Schaub and children, and his mother, Mrs. Schaub, Sr., of Pampa visited in the Ernest Schaub home Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Mary Phillips, who is teaching in the Dumas schools, was home to attend the baccalaureate service Sunday at Samnorwood. Her brother, Wendell Phillips, is a member of the graduating class.

Miss Effie Rankin's school closed Friday, and she is home for the summer.

This area received varying amounts of rain ranging from 3 to 4 inches. More fell Sunday night. The farmers described the rain as having been "Just Right."
