

Farm Help Survey Being Made

According to C. E. Curry, Manager of the Local Office of the Texas Employment Commission, a general increase in employment is being noted. This applies to both agricultural and non-agricultural work.

Letters are being mailed to farmers of Terry and Yoakum Counties requesting information that may be used to indicate farm labor needs at the present time, and also during cotton chopping and cotton picking seasons. The majority of the farmers should receive these letters within the next two weeks. Prompt return of the requested information will be of great assistance in supplying farm laborers.

There is an indication that many farmers will need farm hands as soon as rain is received. It would be of considerable advantage to farmers anticipating need for workers in the near future to begin making arrangements for such workers in advance of the time when the actual work should be done.

Wayland Students Escape Iron Curtain

A family who escaped the Russian Iron Curtain will attend Wayland College this summer.

Two Latvian refugees, George Lambert, who escaped Russian-occupied Latvia in a fishing boat, and his wife, who fled with other destitute countrymen, are presently in the United States. They are participating in Baptist meetings in various Texas churches.

Dr. J. W. (Bill) Marshall, Wayland College president, met the couple at the Baptist World Alliance in Copenhagen, Denmark, last summer, where Lambert directed a choir of Latvian refugees. According to Dr. Marshall, both Mr. and Mrs. Lambert are excellent singers.

A Lubbock physician, who asked that his name be withheld, has given $750 to defray tuition and other expenses for Rev. Lambert during his first year of residence at the college.

The Lamberts have a son, Andris, who will arrive in the United States in April, and will also attend Wayland. The family has applied for citizenship in this country.

George Lambert petitioned the U. S. Attorney General for entrance to Wayland, and the Department of Immigration and Naturalization granted the college approval as acceptable for nonquota immigrant students.

Light Showers Fall Here Wednesday

What the weatherman refers to over the radio as "widely scattered showers" must have felt here Wednesday afternoon. We have never quite understood whether the WM means widely scattered drops, or wide open spaces between where one shower ended and another began.

Anyway, after quite an artillery duel in the sky, the immediate area of Brownfield received 20 up to early night, and beginning about 3 p. m. The Lahey area is reported to have received a good rain, and it is believed the northern part of the county received a heavier rain than here.

Homer Sudderth was in from his farm nine miles northwest of Tokio, yesterday and stated he had 1.41 inches of rain Wednesday.

Good Attendance At Baptist Revivals

Rev. A. A. Brian reports that the attendance and interest in the Baptist Simultaneous Revivals now being held at the three churches in town is above average.

There have been 50 additions to the churches and 80 re-dedications during the first ten days of the revivals.

Dr. Wade C. Freeman, supt. of Evangelism of Texas Baptists, preaching at the First Church; Rev. Glen Edwards, pastor of Ozona, at South Side; and Rev. W. T. Sparkman, West Side pastor, is holding the services at that church.

A record breaking attendance is expected Sunday, the closing day of the revivals.

Name Of Assistant Coach Revealed

Supt. Cowan stated that he received a letter from Tracey Kellow the new head coach for Brownfield high, in which Kellow gave his selection for assistant as George Zoller of Texas Tech.

Both men are to report August 1.

Band Clinic Here April 25-27

All of this clinic will be conducted by Mr. Pat Arseners, widely known Band authority, now in the position of Band director in the Alamo Heights School in San Antonio. Mr. Arseners is at present president of the Texas Bandmasters association and a member of the board of directors of the San Antonio Musicians Union.

Accompanying Mr. Arseners will be his wife, who is an authority in baton twirling and drum majoring. Mrs. Arseners will teach both in a group and individually the twirlers and drum majors of the high school band.

Richard Young, local band director is in charge of the arrangements in scheduling groups for their work.

If The Washington "Planners" Will Lay Off

Texas is a long way from running our oil or gas if the petroleum industry is allowed to keep the pace set during 1947.

President R. B. Anderson of the Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association said today that his organization's analysis of the national survey made by the American Petroleum Institute and the American Gas Association showed these facts:

(1) Texas oil men discovered 16 per cent more crude oil during 1947 than was produced.

(2) The industry found 248 per cent more gas during 1947 than was produced.

"If the government 'planners' and those whose interests are linked with competitive fuels will leave Texas' Number One Industry alone, the public will get the maximum supply of petroleum possible in this country," Anderson said.

Anderson pointed out that Texas' crude oil reserves are now estimated at 11,777,537,000 barrels, a 1.13 per cent increase over the estimated total at the end of 1946.

Mrs. Goldston Pays The Herald A Visit

Mrs. W. M. Goldston, an old time Terryite, was over from Denver City visiting some of the children who still live here, and called Monday for a brief talk with the Herald. She stated that her son, Oliver, in the service, and stationed in Korea with the army of occupation, had not been getting his paper. He had stated in one letter that Japan was a much better place to stay than Korea.

She had also received a letter from her daughter, Miss Hazel, located in Alaska. Also a picture in which she was seated on a snowbank. Looked rather cool. But the letter also stated that they had a comparatively mild winter in Alaska. Old Man Winter must have aimed his breath in this direction, last winter.

Building Permits Total $8,000 for Week

Junior Ed Riding Goats At El Paso

The force was a bit slowed this week on account of the Junior member of this firm, along with some dozen other young Brownfieldites being at El Paso taking the Scottish Rite week in Masonry. The candidates were led by Clovis Kendrick, Vice-President of the First National Bank.

However, all the rest of the force from the youngest member, Billy Arnold, high school boy to the Society Editor and the Ad Solicitor, seemed to know that a bit more was expected of them, and they got busy.

Now—if we can just get some paper to print with.

Bennie Ruth Wartes spent the weekend in Seagraves with her uncle and family. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Singleton, jr.

$500,000 School Bond Issue Proposed

Brownfield Wins Opener In Oil Belt League

Around 1000 people were on hand Sunday to see the opening game of Brownfield Bears versus Levelland Refiners in the official games of the season for the Bears. However, Levelland had played two practice games with Littlefield, and of course the dopsters had it all figured that the Refiners would polish off the newly organized Bears in short order.

Such was not the case however. The Crites bunch was right there, and took 20 hits off the Levelland pitcher, who was thought to be some kind of Mordicia Brown. The final score was 12 to 10 in favor of the locals.

Brownfield 150 024 00x 12 20 5
Levelland 050 032 000 10 12 5

There were two other games for the season opening, Denver City and Sundown failing to have a game on account of sand. Other results as follows:

Post 12
Littlefield 11
Slaton 12
Seagraves 7

Next Sunday, April 25, Sundown will be at Slaton; Post at Denver City; Brownfield at Littlefield and Seagraves at Levelland.

Gives Wayland College $50,000

From a pioneer plains family has come a $50,000 gift to the Pioneers of Wayland College, I. V. Boggs, economic adviser to the college, revealed recently.

The life-long interest of Mrs. S. F. Flores, Tulla, in "the preachers down at Wayland," and the unselfishness of her pastor, Rev. C. G. Seawell, who contacted Boggs to arrange for the gift to go to Wayland, were responsible for the generous donation. The $50,000 is from the personal estate of Mrs. Flores.

"I've wanted for a long time to do something for Wayland, and it looks like the Lord brought this opportunity," Mrs. Flores said to Wayland President, J. W. Bill Marshall, when making the gift.

Brownfield Banks In Fine Condition

Aside from the fact that the Brownfield banks, the First National and Brownfield State Bank and a Trust Co., show a seasonable decline, they are nevertheless in very fine condition financially. And there is a healthy increase over the statement of one year ago, but a bit less than the record high of the December 31 statement.

Below we give the readers a combined statement of the assets, cash and available funds, loans and deposits, as of April 12th, in response to a call by the Comptroller of the Currency and the State banking commission:

Total assets $12,312,344.13
Loans 4,016,387.12
Cash-Available 8,206,901.47
Deposits 11,884,289.86

Hundreds Attend Singing Convention

Those who attended the Terry County Singing convention at Wellman last Sunday, stated that a large crowd was on hand, and that a great singing was enjoyed by those present.

Aside from the individual singers, there were several good quartettes from Terry and adjoining counties. A good dinner was spread at the noon hour.

ERNEST BROUGHTON IN RACE FOR SHERIFF AT ODESSA

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Broughton of Odessa were here early this week visiting Mrs. Broughton's brothers, the Heartills.

Ernest was reared in this county, but moved to Odessa several years ago, where is serving as a County Commissioner, and is now in the race for Sheriff of Ector county.

Local Oil Dealers Taking No New Customers

Following considerable comment last week in the Lubbock area about the shortage of gas for farm tractors, we checked with our local dealers early this week on the situation. Nearly all of the wholesale dealers had been advised by their companies, to take no new customers. They all thought they would continue to receive the same allotments as heretofore, and could supply their present customers, but no new ones.

While they advanced various reasons for this action, the consensus of opinion among the dealers, is that the demand is greater than the capacity of the refiners. It was thought by some that the Government was taking liberal amounts of the better grades for storage, if and when?—Some pointed out the refiners are making more gallons than before, but with five million new cars and all on the road; with all the old ones still in action, increased number of farm tractors and trucks, they are burning it faster than it is made.

Some think the companies are volunteering rationing, to prevent the Government from doing it later. One stated he thought would be able to furnish his present demands, but if and when it rains and all started planting at the same time, it would likely exhaust their supply in mid-season.

It seems no doubt but that the country is faced with a gasoline shortage. The unpleasant suggestion is made, that curtailing passenger travel, now, might save enough gasoline to keep the farm tractors plowing. For these reasons the public is urged to voluntarily save gasoline, or risk enforced rationing.

Tech Ready For Interscholastic Meet

Texas Technological College is this week making ready its campus and facilities for the Region One Interscholastic League meet slated April 24. High schools throughout the Panhandle and West Texas are to come here to participate in 43 events.

General Director Ernest Wallace has received reservations from entries in the three part meet, AA, A, and B, and has forwarded participating schools schedules for events beginning at 9 a. m. Saturday through Saturday night.

Winners from the regional contests will be entries in the final State Interscholastic League meet.

Saturday Is Official Straw Hat Day

In keeping with the seasons and customs of the country, Mayor Tom May has officially proclaimed Saturday, April 24th, as straw hat day in Brownfield. Spring was officially recognized a month ago.

With summer coming on and strong winds subsiding, it is appropriate that the men adorn a new look. Our alert Mayor has timely designated tomorrow, as the beginning of straw hat season.

Measles Epidemic Strikes County

The epidemic of measles, which caused the Lamesa schools to close last week, is spreading to this city and county. Reports early this week that some 30 pupils in the local school have it. School authorities stated Wednesday that they did not consider it bad enough to close the local schools at this time.

Parents are urged to watch their youngsters, and by prompt action help prevent further spread of the disease. Some claim there is no use to close school, when youngsters are permitted to freely attend all other public gatherings.

Dr. Miller of the County Health Unit, has an article on the subject elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Teague spent last week in Fort Worth.

Measles Epidemic In South Plains Area

Measles is one of the most highly contagious diseases. The first symptoms would appear as a health, cold; eyes, nose and throat irritated three to four days before rash appears on skin, spots in mouth before skin rash. Measles is contagious at least fourteen days from onset until rash disappears.

Parents are urged to keep their children at home having what they think is a common cold, if measles itself keeps the children at home at least fourteen days or longer. It is best to have a certificate from your physician before going back to school. Make it safe that your child will not convey any possible germ to other children.

Consult your physician as to the protection and the value of an immune serum for measles, prevention or modification under six years of age especially infants and weakly children. The best protection from serum is not later than six days after exposure to measles.

Epidemic of any disease there will be some fatalities. We as public health workers again beg your support and cooperation in observing the protection against dreaded diseases that may cause suffering and perhaps death.

School Petitions Being Circulated

A petition was circulated Wednesday asking the Brownfield school board to order an election for $500,000 bond issue to build a new high school, and to refund $107,000 in former bonds now held by the State school fund, if the State will permit it.

Other petitions are being circulated, asking the board to build three or four room ward schools, one in the north part of town, west of the Lubbock highway; one in the west part of town and one south of the draw, each ward claiming enough pupils of primary grades to fill them. The latter supporters claiming it would relieve the room shortage in present school buildings. It looks like an interesting scrap is shaping up.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watson of Denver City spent the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam White.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tomlinson and daughter, Wandu, visited in Lockney Sunday.

Mr. W. R. Benton was released from Treadaway-Daniel hospital Sunday.

A large group of representatives of the several civic clubs in the city met with the Board of Trustees of the Brownfield School district Thursday night of last week. President of the Board, Gene Gann, acting as chairman, stated that the purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the patrons with the over-crowded condition of the schools. It is desired that some action be taken to relieve this situation.

Superintendent Cowan, after stating it was not his business to tell the people what to do, but to inform them of the facts and figures in his office, proceeded to show the increase in scholastics each year for the past three years. There has been an increase of over 200 this year. All the rooms vacant three years ago, are now overflowing. The normal increase will require additional rooms for the ensuing term. This increase will call for 8 more teachers in order to hold State aid.

The present bonded indebtedness of the District is $341,000.00. Of this, the State school funds hold about $107,000, bearing an average of 5 per cent. The proposed new issue of $500,000, is to refund the State bonds with the current 3 per cent. The remainder of the new issue was proposed by some to build a high school building on the east part of town.

No action was taken other than open discussion of the subject. The trustees invite the opinion and suggestions of the public.

To boost and build a better town is the goal of all West Texans. Brownfield has and is doing just that with marked success. We have discarded the little red school house in the country, which brings in hundreds of students from a wide area. Since the advent of the farm tractor, many are moving to town. We are morally bound to provide ample school facilities.

Good schools are perhaps the number 1 inducement for immigration. There is no use to wince, the obligation is knocking at our door.

Whether the proposed sum is too great or too little is open for discussion. It is hoped the public will consider and express their opinion on the subject before an election is called.

Wellman Baptist Church Enlarging

The new addition to the Wellman Baptist Church is almost complete. It will be ready for use by Sunday morning according to J. L. Lyons who is in charge of the building which is in progress now.

The public is invited to attend services especially during the revival which is being held at the present time. Rev. D. E. Sloan of Houston, who is conducting the revival, reports a good attendance.

There was an exceptionally large crowd at the Saturday night services. Mr. G. A. Gondra, also of Houston, is leading the song services. W. L. Kite, Student of Wayland College, is pastor of the church.

SPECIAL MEETING FOR VFW CALLED FOR TONIGHT

A special meeting of the Hand Brothers VFW post has been called for Friday night by Command will be held at 8:00 p. m. tonight, will be held at 8:00 p. m. tonight, April 23, in the district court room.

The purpose of the meeting will be for business only. All members are urged to be present.

Mrs. Perry Bryant was in this week to see why she had been cut out, as her paper does not expire until July. Just one of those slips but she was not mad—hot even sore.

And from "way out at Delhi, Calif.," we had a singular plaint from "D. L. Blevins, except" he failed to mind a little warning card from the Herald. Says he: "You don't miss the water till the well runs dry." Thanks for the three bucks, D. L.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Bishop and children visited the Virgil Bishop home in Mineral Wells over the weekend.

Housefly An Enemy Of National Health

The ordinary housefly is an enemy to health, and is one of the agents most commonly responsible for the spread of disease throughout the nation, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Typhoid fever, dysentery, and many other intestinal diseases can often be traced to the common housefly as the carrier of infection.

Speaking in this connection, Dr. Cox advised: "Be sure that your windows and doors are tightly screened so that stray flies will not endanger the health of your family. Keep flies away from food, drink and utensils used in the preparation of food. Make sure, if you live in rural districts that outside privy vaults are tightly covered so as not to permit the entrance of flies. Infections from this source can be picked up by flies and spread to human beings through contact with food, drink, and utensils. Keep all garbage covered until collected or buried. Eliminate all breeding places for flies and you will be helping your community in its work of controlling communicable diseases and preventing unnecessary illness."

Dr. Cox said that the State Health Department would furnish upon request a pamphlet outlining safe and practical methods recommended for use in fly control.

Security Loan Quota Set Higher

A quota of $45,000 has been set for Terry County in the Security Loan campaign, April 15 through June 30, Mr. J. O. Gillham, county Savings Bonds chairman, announced today after receiving the figure from the U. S. Treasury Department.

"This is the highest quota we have received since the war," Mr. Gillham said, "but the threat that today's peacetime inflation offers to our personal and national economic security makes it vital that this county can and will meet the quota."

He said that rapid progress was being made toward completion of the volunteer organization that will carry out the Savings Bonds solicitation in the county, but urged that individuals, clubs and organizations offer their service in the campaign.

"The United States cannot be strong unless we have a strong national economy," he said. "If the individual citizens of this and every county in the nation provide for their own financial security, it follows that the nation is strong economically. Widespread ownership of Savings Bonds by the people fights inflation, provides a guard against possible depression and allows for the sound management of our national debt. Money received from the sale of Savings Bonds is used to retire inflationary short-term government obligations which are held by banks and large corporations."

Whether the proposed sum is too great or too little is open for discussion. It is hoped the public will consider and express their opinion on the subject before an election is called.

Home And Contents Destroyed By Fire

The family were at Church at the time. Cause of the fire was thought to have been defective wiring.

An Anti Society Formed At ACC

Eight hundred students enrolled in Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, have organized the first collegiate Anti-cancer Anti-heart Disease Society ever founded in the United States. The society is in effect an anti-smoking group. Its purpose is to show, through the results of scientific research, the effects of tobacco on the human body and thus discourage the use of tobacco products. Such research shows that 80 mal conditions of the body are caused or aggravated by the use of tobacco.

President of the society is a senior student Numa V. Crowder of Indian Creek, Texas. A majority of the students in Abilene Christian College became members of the society at its organization.

Mrs. Eula Lewis spent the weekend with her son, Elbert Lewis, in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murry and sons of Rogers, N. M. visited with relatives over the weekend.

Mrs. S. R. Thrasler, sr., of Longview is visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bill Hefflin.

Giving The South Due Credit

One of the sanest editorials on the subject of the South's revolt against Truman's civil rights proposal comes from, believe it or not, a Northern newspaper.

It ought not to be surprising, however, to find such a comment in the Christian Science Monitor, which is recognized as one of the best newspapers in the country with a point of view which is usually sound.

In its issue of Feb. 12, the Monitor says that if the proverbial Man from Mars were to read the fulminations of certain Southern congressmen and governors, the visitor might be justified in thinking that the people who live below the Mason and Dixon Line were "a pretty violent and unneighborly lot."

The Monitor adds, however, that it would be as unfair to type the South in terms of its "wool hats" as it would be to judge the North by those who whip up race riots.

The Monitor says that in between stands "a solid core of kindly, deeply religious, decent people who live face to face with one of the world's most difficult problems in these times of turmoil."

In explaining why these good citizens of the South are troubled by the president's message, the Monitor says, "First, they face themselves (and the majority of Negroes) culturally and emotionally unready for any erasure of segregation lines."

In the second place, says the Monitor, the people of the South are a proud people, and, "although made sick at heart by a lynching, they resent any assumption that they can't put their own house in order."

The Monitor says that while respecting Mr. Truman's humanitarianism, these Southerners "suspect that in timing and uncompromising scope his message was designed to win Negro and ultra-liberal Northern votes at what they consider the South's expense."

"In conclusion, the Monitor notes that nine Southern governors have just signed an agreement to set up regional professional schools for Negroes as well as for whites," and thinks "it would be well to put that into focus along with some of the rantings."

It is a great pity that the Northern press, as a whole, cannot consider the South's problems as fairly and judicially as does the Christian Science Monitor. —Macon Telegraph, Macon, Ga.

Girl Scouts Receive $2,200 From Local Rotary Club

The Brownfield Girl Scouts received a gift of $2,200 from the Rotary Club this week. This is to complete the necessary fund for the Little House that is now being built.

Dr. T. H. McIlroy raised half of the $4,400 needed for the construction of the building by making a personal drive.

The money given by the Rotarians was made as a result of last fall's Harvest Festival.

The Rotary Club took the cause of the Girl Scouts as one of their projects for this year. The Girl Scouts are grateful for the kindness of the Rotary Club.

Cancer Society Renders Much Aid

Texans are contributing $268,200 to cancer control work in their own state.

In Texas by the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society, which during April is campaigning for a total of $447,000 in the state.

But 60 per cent of the money Texans are asked to give will be used for information centers and cancer clinics in Texas, according to former governor W.P. Hobby.

Nine tumor and cancer clinics in the state are now being assisted by cancer society funds. Others are being opened, and very shortly officials expect every section of Texas to have a convenient clinic for the early detection and treatment of cancer.

In many of these same cities information centers are open—in Texarkana and El Paso and other cities all across the state. New ones are being planned every month—these all to be supported by the April drive.

It's all part of a program designed to tell people that many cancers can be cured, if caught in time. Cancer Society people feel that folks who have cancer now should not wait for present-day research to find a cure, but should act immediately.

So they're emphasizing the fact that many cancers can be cured with what we now know, and that certain specific danger signals which often indicate cancer. If these are obeyed, cancers can be removed by surgery, X-ray, or the use of radium, and many a life spared.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

Well, I see where they are "deeply concerned" again, down yonder on the Big River. Proceed, chimed in Henry—being "deeply concerned" is old stuff—but I got a minute, he says, so what is the latest? It is the CEA—the economic adviser boys, I say. They are deeply concerned about electricity.

The CEA put Uncle Harry up to asking for more tax-free dinero to pour into the Tennessee. And in the same paper I see where Great Britain has gobbled up its sixth major business under its socialist Govt's program—the electric business. And on the same day it took over, it announced that domestic rates in some areas would need be raised.

Any person left in our U. S. A. who does not savvy what TVA and the 100 others dams-and-schemes in our fair land is headin us into, should glance across the Old Pond, or let their wife or somebody feel the bumps on his belfry.

IN MISERY HALF THE TIME; BLESSES RETONGA

Suffered for Years From Gas On Stomach, Indigestion, Restlessness, Muscular Aches And Pains; Mother Of Eight Wants Others To Know About Retonga

"No one knows better than my husband how much Retonga has helped me," declares Mrs. Ed D. Nunnelle, well-known resident of RFD No. 2, Ohatchee, Alabama, whose husband has farmed on his present homestead for 57 years. The mother of eight children, Mrs. Nunnelle gratefully states:

"I was in misery half the time from sour stomach and indigestion. I often felt like gas was pressing against my chest so hard I had to gasp for breath. I couldn't seem to sleep sound. I had to take strong purgatives like salts to get relief from sluggish elimination. I was on edge most of the time. Muscular aches and pains ran through me like darts. I felt so run-down I was cross with myself for complaining so much. I always got up feeling worse than when I went to bed.

"Retonga was truly a blessing and a relief to me. I eat anything now and my food seems to give me the strength and energy I need. I sleep fine and no longer depend on harsh laxatives for relief from sluggish bowels. I fell easy after meals and am not bothered with excessive gas. The muscular aches and pains are relieved, and I have regained much of my lost weight."

Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, loss of appetite, borderline Vitamin B-1 deficiency, and constipation. The active ingredients of Retonga are purely herbal, combined with Vitamin B-1. You can get Retonga at Primm Drug Store and all other good drug stores.

Well, we learn something new over the "raydoh" almost every week. We had always pronounced the capital of Columbia like it's spelled, and like they pronounce a town, by the same name in east Texas: BO as in body odor, GO as in he's went, and TA as in ta! ta!, he seeing you. But the "commenpataters" pronounce it BAH-GOAT-TAW. Reminds us of an old gentleman who came in from one of the old states in the early days to visit a brother at Mexia, Texas, which the visitor pronounced like it is spelled. The conductor was too polite to remind him of his error, and when the town was neared, the porter came through singing, "Mayhair!" like the "furriners" pronounce it. The conductor informed the old fellow that was his stopping place. No, says he, Mexia is my place.

We had not a few compliments on our writeup last week about the guys who are in such a hurry to get nowhere in particular, that they endanger the lives of not only themselves, but maybe others who really amount to something in the community. These compliments and handshakes came from men and women, farmers, business and professional men, and included one minister. The Herald does not have it in for anyone. It is just a matter of halting reckless speeders before they seriously injure or kill someone and find themselves in the toils of the law on a charge of negligent homicide.

It seems that congress is rather slow attacking the dairy trust by erasing the high tax on margarine. If the dairy association was able to supply the demand, at reasonable cost, it would sound more reasonable to keep the tax on it, but the market is now far above their reach. The raw materials in the USA from which margarine is made is produced on 1,500,000 cotton farms, and 450,000 soy bean farms, so you see the congress is robbing about two dozen Peters to pay one Paul. But as for who's who is production of butter or margarine, we must take into consideration some 140 million who like a good spread on their bread occasionally.

Does anyone really want war? Hardly a week passes but we hear some one branded as a warmonger, and many go on to state that the major oil companies and big machinery manufacturers want war so they can sell their products faster. As a matter of fact, and most people know it if they would use their old noodles, that oil companies are having one cut fit after another right now to supply the demand, and gasoline is scarce right here in the oil fields and where there is a refinery or two in several counties. And, if you think machinery markets are glutted, just you try to buy a tractor right off the reel. Manufacturers and oil folks are pretty shrewd guys. They don't have to be very old to remember what happened to the Krupp and Sodika gun works of Europe, or the oil fields and refineries in Roumania, and that the owners not only lost their business but are being tried for supplying Hitler with stuff to start a war. These men also know that the same thing can happen here. No, sir no one but a would-be-dictator or idiot wants war, and the former does not, if he thinks there is the slightest chance to lose the war. Nor does the congress or the president want war. They are talking preparedness to prevent war if possible. No one with sense enough to lead a blind goose to water, believes the Japs would have attacked us at Pearl Harbor had we been prepared. Recently Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson came to Texas and spoke over a state hook-up. He stated on the beginning of his address that he thoroughly hated war and what it means, but that he was in favor of limited draft and even UMT if that would prevent our young men from having to face death and destruction in World War III.

And speaking of UMT (Universal Military Training) we saw what we think was a very exaggerated case in point in one of our last Sunday dailies. The picture revealed a matron, holding the hand of her eight or ten year old son rigged out in uniform until he looked like a miniature Gen. Eisenhower. This little child was in a military school in another state, and Mom was visiting him, who appeared to fear mother was fixing to leave him. Now, you can draw any conclusion that may suit you, but that picture to us revealed a mother too selfish to assume her duties of rearing her offspring. She wants to have a high-heeled time, and let strangers take the responsibilities that God endowed her with, to personally be responsible for rearing this child. We could of course, have the wrong idea about the whole matter, but the idea of training young children for the military, looks like pulling the plums before they are ripe.

The gasoline situation seems to be getting tougher and tougher. In the winter we people of the southwest very complacently went about our business while the north and east, with a severe winter, cried for more gas and fuel oil. Now all at once, we have a scarcity right here on the South Plains, where there is an oil field every few miles, and a number of oil refineries. There may have to be a checkup to see that too much gasoline is not leaving our own shores, or that the Army-Navy is not taking more than their share to stockpile in case of emergency.

If the farmers of this nation are deprived of fuel for their tractors to make a crop, then the whole world may be in for a seige of hunger as well as cold. We believe that some crudes could be imported if need be without hurting domestic prices, as crude is now higher than for years.

At least one city, Meridian, Miss., is not stopping on just one "Fire Prevention Week" out of the 52. They are having "Fire Prevention Year"—all of 1948, and the idea was carried out in 1947. If every city, town, village and community would do as much perhaps some of the 10,000 lives lost in 1947, and the staggering money cost of $692 million dollars, plus, could be saved. At least the figures could be cut considerably.

John L. Lewis and his UMC miners are taking a direct slap at the security and financial stability of the United States, right when production counts most. That a subterfuge for the word "strike" was brought out all too clearly by the talk Judge Goldsborough made when he pronounced JLL and his miners guilty of contempt. For instance, when Lewis wanted his miners to stop work, instead of the word "strike" being used, the words "contract dishonored" was used for the signal for the walkout. And when orders were given to go back to work, the words "contract honored" was used. When will the people of the USA quit allowing such as Lewis to make a monkey out of them?

Scientists tell us that it takes the pancreatic glands of 7500 hogs or 1500 cattle to make one ounce of insulin. This will provide 40 unit doses for one diabetes sufferer for several years. What will happen to the production of this vital remedy for diabetes if the animal production on the farms and ranches is greatly lowered? Or as in case during the war, a lot of the animals went to black market slaughter houses, and no effort made to save the pancreas? For those reasons, if for no other, it is very essential that our packing plants keep open and operating.

Now for just a bit of politics. For the past week, we have found that not a few good people are thinking along the same line as the writer. Since our last issue, we have had bankers, farmers, professional men and trades people make some remark that indicated they were not dissatisfied with the progress Harold Stassen is making toward gaining the nomination for president on the Republican ticket. And most of them added: Harold Stassen is just our idea of what a president should be, and they believed he was much nearer their idea of a Democrat than a lot of

Behind the Scenes in American Business

More than $6 billion dollars will be added to the American public's purchasing power for the rest of this year.

The new federal income tax cut will put $4.8 billion into individual consumers' pockets and state payments of veterans' bonuses will total around $1.5 billion.

This coming influx of buying power is expected to keep retail sales at high levels. But even with this promising outlook most retailers, reeling the dark days before Easter, are holding inventories to safe minimums.

Sales still lag in luxury lines and a buyers' market is either forecast or already developing in some hard lines such as heavier appliances, despite a certain amount of "scare buying" touched off by war threats and stockpiling of metals for national defense emergency.

BUYERS' MARKET-- The rash of new types, new shapes and new grades of tires announced in recent weeks clearly indicates the return of the fierce competition that marks this business before the war. Sales of passenger-car, bus and truck tires hit an all-time high last year, but the tire "pipeline" are now well filled. Passenger-car tire sales are expected to decline some 15 per cent this year, truck and bus tire sales about 25 per cent, but that they still would be considerably above any years except 1946 and 1947.

Tire manufacturers are reacting in traditional fashion: by bringing out lower-priced lines and much improved products. All of the "Big Four" have announced second-line, and in some cases third-line, tires. They have also introduced extra-low pressure models, which cost slightly more than first-line tires but give a smoother ride. Going even further in innovation, the B. F. Goodrich Company has put on the market its puncture-sealing tubeless tires, an item the rubber and automotive industries have been seeking to develop since the beginning of the automotive age. Improvements like these, BFG points out, have resulted in reducing the motorist's cost per thousand miles of tire wear from 67 cents in 1940 to 58 cents in 1947.

THAT'S A FAIR QUESTION—and the American Cancer Society welcomes this opportunity to answer it, before one of our Field Workers comes to your door for your 1948 contribution.

Part of every dollar which you and other generous Americans gave to us last year went for cancer research, part for cancer education, and part for cancer medical service.

Let's see exactly what those terms mean.

Your Money Went for Cancer Research

There exists no more powerful weapon against cancer than research. Research has given us X-ray, radium, and surgical techniques for the treatment of cancer. It is research which will deal cancer the most telling blows in the future—perhaps, please God, the deathblow which will some day wipe out this dread disease.

For some cancers, the death rate is already on the downgrade. Improved techniques of surgery and radiology now give greater hope for cure than ever before.

Thousands of scientists are engaged in cancer research right now. For this purpose they are provided with an arsenal of expensive technical equipment.

Last year, part of your money went toward the more than $3,000,000 set aside in 1947 for cancer research.

Your Money Went for Cancer Education

Education begins where research leaves off. It distributes knowledge already gained to everyone who should have it.

The general public must be taught—over and over again—how to recognize cancer's danger signals and what to do when cancer is suspected. This is the mission of the Society's public education program.

Education requires the use of every available means of public information. It calls for booklets, posters, and billboards, radio transcriptions, magazine and newspaper messages to the public, films, and leaflets. Nearly 50,000,000 pieces of printed material alone were produced and distributed by the Society in 1947.

Last year, part of your money went toward doing that job.

Your Money Went for Cancer Medical Service

Medical service backs up the direct attack against cancer. By means of scientific papers, films, lectures and other services, physicians and scientists are kept informed of the latest developments in the detection, treatment, and cure of cancer.

In your own community, the Society operates through your local division, with its Field Army of volunteer workers. These volunteers render personal aid to cancer patients—such as cancer dressings, transportation, and home services. They help establish and staff local detection centers and cancer clinics, and they publicize those facilities locally. The Field Army carries cancer control right into the home.

Seventy-five per cent of the cancer detection centers now in operation derive their support from the medical service program, which also helps to establish and support new cancer clinics.

Last year, part of your money went for cancer medical service.

THAT'S WHAT WE DID WITH THE MONEY YOU GAVE US LAST YEAR.

Now we need more—to fight for the one out of every eight persons still marked to be stricken by cancer. Maybe one of them is the man who sat beside you at the movies last night . . . maybe it's a person who lives on your street . . . maybe it's a friend or a member of your family . . . maybe it's you. Whoever it is, there's hope—if you give! Will you aid the fight for his life—again this year—with as big a contribution as you can possibly manage?

The WWW club is proud to announce that Juanda Crews has re-entered the club.

Miss Dunlap made several announcements about coming events including the open house at Texas Tech, April 23 and 24, and the training school at Levelland on April 24.

MORE TROUBLE HITS LOCAL PAPERS

We told you of some troubles last week—news having to be left out. Well, this week, our wholesaler did not get their car of newsprint. In fact it is not due till Saturday.

So, we just had enough regular size, 8 column to print four pages. The Brownfield News was also caught the same way, but offered to share some odd-size stuff. But as we could beg, borrow or steal our Editor Vanzandt of Seagraves, we got some there, leaving the other paper here with probably enough.

So, your paper will be at least two sizes this week—part 8 and part 7 columns. Just can't be helped—lucky to get out at all.

G I Question And Answer Department

Q. I have added total disability income coverage to my 20-payment National Service Life Insurance policy. Does the disability coverage continue after my policy is paid up?

A. Yes, provided you have not reached the age of 60. You continue to pay the additional premium for disability protection to the end of the 20-year period when it, too, becomes paid up. All disability income protection ceases when the insured reaches age 60, but payments are continued to those who are totally disabled at the time they reach 60.

Q. I have been discharged from the service for over a year. What is the latest date on which I can enter school or take training under the G-I Bill?

A. You have until July 25, 1951 to start to school or training under the provisions of Public Law 446 (G-I Bill), and all schooling or training must be completed by July 25, 1956.

Q. I converted my National Service Life Insurance to 20-payment life. Is it possible to convert this policy once again to a cheaper plan of insurance, such as ordinary life?

A. You may, provided you are able to pass a physical examination, and the effective date of the converted policy is not more than five years ago.

Q. I am the beneficiary of a $10,000 National Service Life Insurance policy. Are the payments I am receiving subject to taxation?

A. No. The payments of National Service Life Insurance as such are wholly exempt from Federal taxation. Except that they must be included as a part of the estate for Federal estate tax purposes.

Elvin Burnett and Wayland Whisenant, cousins, of El Centro, Calif., dropped in on us this week for a chat. Both were practically reared in Terry county, but have been in New Mexico or California several years. They came in via Tulsa section where Burnett has a wheat farm. The former is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnett city, and the latter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whisenant, now of New Mexico.

Thanks for the help in restoring the loss we had in the fire. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baker and Alma.

Why Let The Babies Die?

It is a tragedy that Texas parents continue to allow their babies to suffer and die from that painful and killing disease diphtheria. This is the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who says "It is up to the parents. If they protect their children with immunization, they need not have diphtheria."

Dr. Cox said that it is amazing that this disease should be allowed to take its toll of young lives when it can be entirely stamped out by proper immunization. Yet in the past week, 33 cases were reported in this state.

"Babies should be immunized by the age of eight or nine months," Dr. Cox advised. Authorities on the care of infants recommend a first dose by the age of eight or nine months, and sometimes as early as six months. A second dose is usually given later.

To maintain complete immunity, Dr. Cox said that a reinforcing dose of toxoid is advised when a child is old enough to enter school if a Schick test reveals the need of one. Children who have never

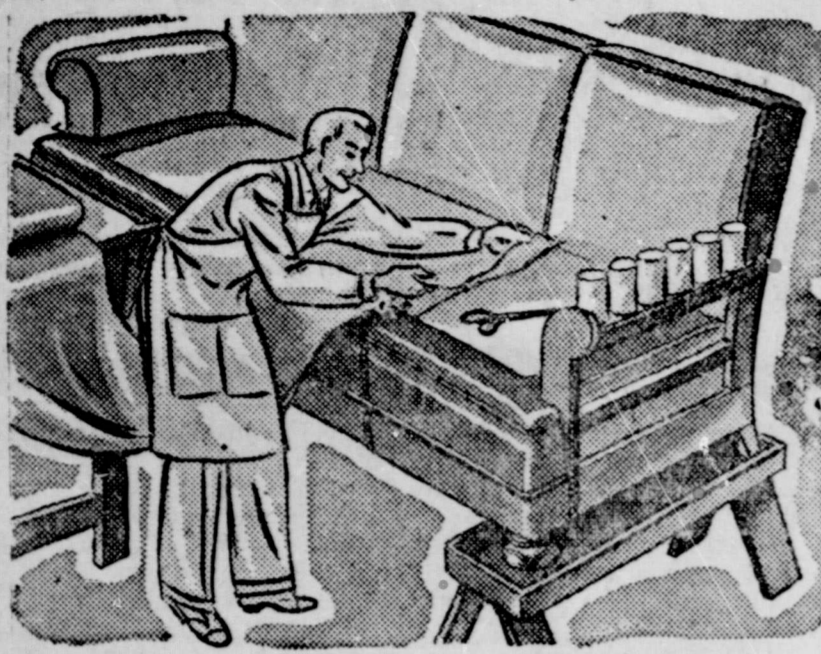

One of the things that in wrong with the press in Texas, they tell us, is that we haven't been spending enough of our space on ourselves, telling the people what essential people we are, how nice and kind and benevolent and patriotic. One dispatch from deep east Texas tells of a candidate, approached for some advertising for news papers of the state, who had never so much as heard of the Texas Press association. This press association has been going for nearly three quarters of a century. Mostly a back patting, we think a lot of each other sort of thing, though, not like the Teachers association which lays the money on the line for somebody to go down to Austin and tell the legislature which cow ate the cabbage, and what are you going to do about it if you want to do the right thing. Anyway, the candidate mentioned above had spent some time and money getting around to find some black market newsprint to get out a "newspaper" which would tell the people the "facts", while the newspaper which operate as well between campaigns, panted and panted for paper on which to print their established editions. Which makes us think possibly our East Texas friend is right.

—Floydada Hesterian

been immunized certainly should be protected without any further delay, the State Health Officer declared, and added that it is the responsibility of the parents to save the lives of their children.

Mr. O. F. Campbell, Sue and Bud; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Trotter and Clyde spent the week end at Possum Kingdom Lake.

Wall Paper Brightens Early American Settings

Provincial furnishings are more popular today than ever before, but there's no need for the cold bare surfaces which our forefathers had to put up with. This attractive dining alcove would be equally suitable in a living room or as one end of the kitchen. The walls are brightened considerably by the clear, fresh wall paper showing luscious ripe red strawberries and crisp green leaves. The paper also covers the valance frame around the door.

The floor is spattered in typical Early American fashion with black, grey, green, and red.

The sawbuck table, built with attached benches, is painted white. Seat cushions, upholstered in vivid strawberry red sailcloth, add sparkle, and the students lamps with green shades accent the whole. An old pine cupboard provides for displaying choice pieces of old glass, pewter, and earthenware as well as being a good storage place.

Some of the 75,000 ABC Pins Get Ready to Travel

Did you know that rules of the American Bowling Congress call for daily replacement of the bowling pins on its 40 tournament alleys? This means some 75,000 new pins are used in the course of the event. The practice assures that every team will compete under exactly the same circumstances. In the photograph above a girl is repacking a few of the discarded pins for distribution by Chevrolet truck to privately owned bowling establishments.

NEW A-C TRACTOR MOUNTS ENGINE IN REAR, IMPLEMENTS IN FRONT FOR BETTER VISION

A new light weight farm tractor with implements mounted in front of the operator has just been announced by the Allis-Chalmers Tractor Division. Designed similar to rear-mounted engine road graders for highway construction, the new unit has its power plant behind the driver.

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—A new farm tractor in the low priced field featuring a rear-mounted engine design was recently placed in production at the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Company's Gadsden, Alabama, plant. A noteworthy feature of the new light weight Model G tractor is the unusually wide range of operator-visibility permitted by the rear-mounted engine design. By shifting the engine to the rear, A-C engineers report they have succeeded in mounting farm implements in full view of the operator.

A complete line of front-mounted, quick hitch, companion implements designed especially for use with the new tractor is also being produced by the company's tractor division.

The new Model G tractor is equipped with a 4-cylinder, L-head engine—2 3/4" bore; 3 1/2" stroke; 62 cu. in. piston displacement—and is capable of handling one 12-inch moldboard plow in average soils at customary plowing depths. It has 4 forward speeds, including a super-low gear for operations requiring extremely slow speeds. Fuel consumption is low, running from 2 to 3 quarts per hour under medium to heavy loads. Tractor wheel treads can be adjusted to fit any row-crop spacing. Any of the "G" implements can be attached to the tractor or removed from it in 5 minutes or less. The plow, like the planters and cultivators, is mounted ahead of the operator—a radical departure from conventional practice.

In a prepared statement, W. A. Roberts, Allis-Chalmers Executive Vice President, said: "In the new Model G tractor and the implements designed for it, we believe we have contributed a farm tool that will further advance the mechanization of agriculture, lower farm production costs, and place the advantages of mechanization within reach of thousands of farmers, who are still using animals and other unprofitable forms of farm power."

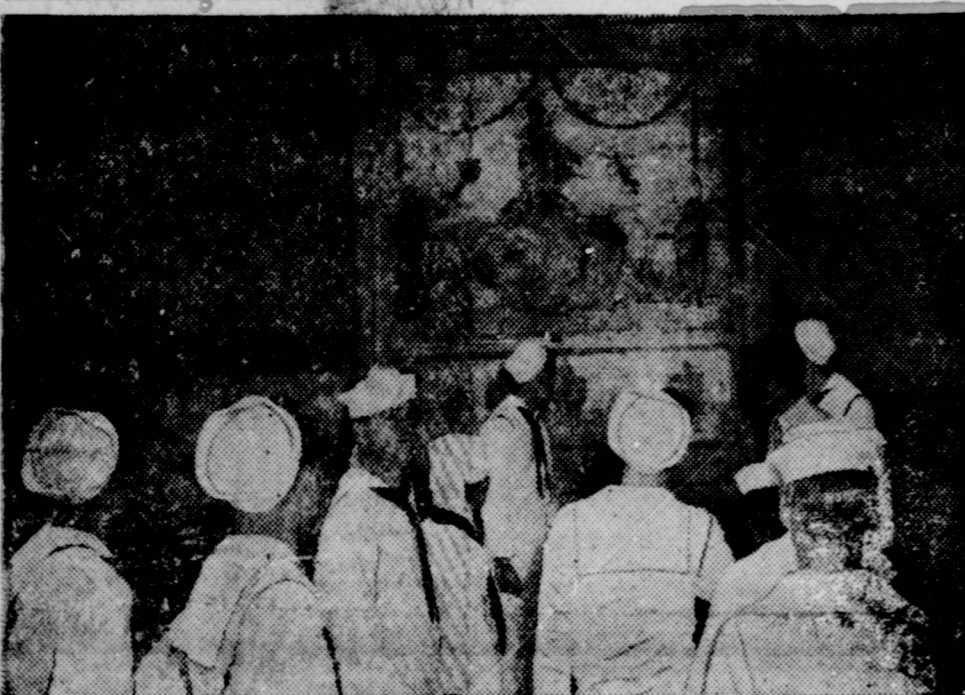

"We believe that this tractor will find a useful place on family farms of all types and sizes, because of its adaptability to all field operations, particularly those requiring great accuracy and precision."
