Compton to end tenure as superintendent May 31st

Supt. Buddy Compton

Supt. Clinton E. "Buddy" Compton, a C-City native who returned here six years ago to serve as high school principal and then superintendent, made the surprise announcement at Monday night's regular 7 p.m. school board meeting that he will retire at the end of this school year, effective May 31.

Compton, 58, said after the hour and 45 minute meeting that he wanted to retire last year to pursue his favorite hobby, woodworking, and play golf.

But he decided to stay one more year to make additional improvements to the district.

"Through much deliberation and thought, both individually and with my family, I feel the time has come for me to spend time in another area (retirement) -- one I have never been sure that I would last to see, much less live to experience," he said in his letter to the board.

"I hope that I have fulfilled your expectations as your superintendent, and I really appreciate the confidence you have had in me. . .

"I thank you for enabling me to live out the last part of my dream, being the leader of an educational system and trying to make a difference."

Board member Jesse Muñoz Jr. moved to accept the resignation "with regret," seconded by Sally Neff, and the motion passed unanimously.

Various board members said Compton, who succeeded Lucky Merket in March 1999, has provided good leadership, has been accessible and has accomplished a number of good things for the district.

President Larry Blassingame appointed Larry Mason, Lisa Hernandez and Muñoz to a

Wolves in playoffs

The Colorado Wolves will take their 6-4 season record into the first round (bi-district) of the state playoffs this Friday in Snyder when they face the 7-3 Post Antelopes in a 7:30 p.m. kickoff at Tiger Stadium.

Post come off a 2-8 record of a year ago and return nine offensive and eight defensive starters off that squad.

Post quarterback Michael Huff, 6-2, 190 is an outstanding leader of the team and is considered to be a college division I prospect. He completed 51 of 131 passing attempts last season as well as rushing for 510 yards on 90 carries. Tailback Jonathan Curtis is a speedy back who has took over the rushing game for the Antelopes. He goes both ways playing defensive back on the other side of the ball. Huff is also an outstanding safety on defense.

Tight end/defensive end Jarrett Vickers makes for a big target at 6-5, 200 pounds and is considered a good blocker. Offensive quard/linebacker John Eilenberger was all-district last season on both sides of the ball and led the team in tackles

It was her day off, but she had not usually been working on the 7:30 a.m. flight to Los Angeles.

Ms. Bassham, daughter of Robert and Janie Henderson of C-City, continues to work at the job she has held for 19 months but will consider quitting "if one more thing happens.

Railhead is promising

The Saturday-Sunday Railhead Trade Days should return the November event to its status as the biggest Railhead of the year.

Down in attendance and sales because of freezing weather, last November's Railhead was less successful than the one in March this year.

Attendance was fair in July, but sales were off because of scorching hot weather.

With 90 vendors and counting Monday, the thrice annual event will open in the Railhead Trade Days Building at First and Elm Streets from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 11-5 Sunday.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Leigh Ann Erwin said 80 vendors had rented indoor booth space and another six can be accommodated in rooms on the east and northeast sides of the building if necessary.

Ten outdoor booths have been reserved, and a number of food vendors have committed with a new one to offer Mexican gorditos.

The Happy's Fun Factory mini-carnival from Bryan will have a Bounce House, Tubs of Fun, Carousel and 26 foot slide while Lee's Fast Pitch of San Angelo a throwing game where people guess how fast they can throw a baseball and then have it timed by a "speed gun" like those used by college and Major League teams.

A Rock Climb from Marble Falls, a Gyrosphere from Tye and a Power Jump from Midland will also be in operation outside the building.

Santa Claus will be there from 2 to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Indoor vendors will sell can-

Hospital, city clash on sewer

Chagrined by a letter from hospital administrator Rick Rickard, City Council members decided to send a committee to the hospital board to seek a solution to the $500,000 construction of a sewer line to the new county hospital.

Noting that the hospital district has been asked several times over the past year to pay $247,000 of the cost, City Manager Steve Shutt said Tuesday night, "They flat refuse to do it, and we just cannot take the sewage.

"We could do it and say, 'Your tap fee to get on the sewer line is $247,000."

Councilwoman Verta Hardegee, who formed a committee with Mayor Bob Reily and Councilman Justin Harris to approach the hospital board, said, "Let's do it in the least antagonistic way possible."

Rickard said in his Oct. 16 letter to Shutt that the hospital board has only budgeted $70,000 for sewer related expenses and does not plan to spend any more than that.

"There was no commitment made from the district to furnish a sewer line for the city to operate," Rickard wrote.

"Please refrain from attempting to commit the hospital district to the expenditure of funds which this governing body has not approved, nor is expected to."

CMS war history project is enriching for students

The young war historians of Colorado Middle School had a different reaction than most people their age when they saw terrorist-flown jetliners hit the World Trade Center towers in New York City Sept. 11.

Having just spent a year interviewing local veterans and researching wars, they asked: "Is this like Pearl Harbor?"

Now knowing most veterans were not much older than them when they served, they wonder aloud if the war in Afghanistan will still be going on when they reach military age.

They ask if there will be a draft like there was in World War II, Korea and Vietnam.

They wonder about the stories Afghanistan veterans will bring home -- and if anyone they know will not come back.

With a three year, $66,000 grant from the Texas Education Agency, their "Real History, Real Heroes" project has had a profound effect on the school's 250 students -- and many of the wizened veterans they have interviewed.

It's called the CURVES project for "Citizens Uniting to Recognize Veterans' Efforts and Service."

"You never know what's going to happen emotionally," said one of the faculty sponsors, eighth grade reading and gifted and talented teacher Tammy Johnson, of the veterans who are asked to recount the most intense experiences of their lives. "Some cry."

CMS students have been to Texas Tech University in Lub-

Patriotism abounds in ceremonies

With Americans fighting a war in Afghanistan and facing a domestic terrorism threat, Mitchell Countians observed their most emotional Veterans Day in decades Monday.

For the first time, said Congressman Charles Stenholm at the 11:30 a.m. ceremony on the county courthouse lawn, "War has been brought to the soil of the United States of America."

He said citizens and government officials are confident the nation's military "might do as we know they will do -- win this war."

The Abilene Democrat said his Washington, D. C., office had just reopened after being closed for two weeks while security measures were taken for anthrax poisoning.

There is some trepidation involved in working in government on the East Coast, he said, "But when you sign on for a job, you do it."

Rep. Stenholm recounted his experiences after the terrorist attacks on Sept. 11, saying county schools "have a better fire drill than the Congress of the United States."

Junior high and high school students from Colorado City, Westbrook and Loraine took part.

Stenholm said pandemonium broke out when office buildings and the Capitol were ordered evacuated and a report

CISD redistricting brings only minor realignments

None of the Colorado City School District's single member districts will change drastically in Census 2000-related redistricting, but District 4 is the only one of the seven that will evidently stay the same.

Represented by board member Lisa Hernandez, it covers northwest, west, southwest and south C-City.

Redistricting attorney David Guinn of Waco, a Baylor University law professor, said at a special 6 p.m. Thursday school board meeting that adjustments to 1990 alignments were carefully crafted to avoid diluting minority populations.

Mike Ratliff and Charles Walker were absent at the 35 minute session.

"If you're overpopulated, your people are under-represented," Professor Guinn said. "If you are underpopulated, they're over-represented."

He said the ideal CISD district has 746 residents, and Ms. Hernandez' is within the Justice Department's (DOJ) allowable 10 percent deviation with 729.

Jesse Muñoz Jr.'s District 1 had 932 and was shrunk to 773, Larry Blassingame's 2 went from 810 to 752, Larry Mason's 3 was expanded from 579 to 743 and Ratliff's 5 was decreased from 902 to 735.

Walker's No. 6 grew from 661 to 743 and Sally Neff's 7 from 611 to 749.

1 is basically central C-City, 2 is the north central side, 3 is the west and southwest sides, 5 is the northeast side and rural area east and southeast of town, 6 is northeast of town and 7 is the far north end of C-City and the rural area northwest, west and southwest of town.

Members of the district's redistricting advisory committee told Guinn at the end of the meeting that they had no problems with the plan.

Blassingame, board president, said no action needed to be taken, but public notices will be published and a public hearing held at the board's regular Dec. 11 meeting.

Then the plan will be submitted to the DOJ for final approval.

Redistricting committee panelists are Patti Graham from District 1, Lupe Contreras from 2, Jake Chaney of 3, Rita Espinoza of 4, Nancy Thompson of 5, Connie Waldrip of 6 and Rodney Cooper of 7.

Among other changes, the adjustments were accomplished by the following realignments:

-- Shrinking District 1 by moving its north line south into District 2 from 13th and 14th Streets to 11th and 12th and southeast from 13th and Pine to 11th and Oak.

-- Further enlarging District 2 by adding the old northwest corner of District 1 from 11th and Elm to 13 and Pine.

-- Moving four blocks from District 2 north of 17th from Austin to El Paso into Districts 6 and 7 and two long blocks and a regular block from 15th and Eastover to 17th and Dallas from District 2 into District 6.

-- Adding territory from District 5 to District 3 from Ninth and Austin to 10th and Rusk and Nicolosa and Houston.

Minority citizenship, including blacks, Mexican-Americans and all other minorities, is changing from 43 to 44 percent in 1, 30 to 31 percent in 2, 59 to 56 percent in 3, 26 to 22 percent in 5, 28 to 25 percent in 6 and 31 to 35 percent in 7.

It holds at 58 percent in District 4.

Although minority populations have declined in some districts, Guinn noted, some variations over 10 years are inevitable and are legally inconsequential.

The primary concern is that there is no deliberate "backsliding" by school boards or city councils attempting to weaken the voting strength of established minority districts.

Guinn also reviewed the ongoing statewide rhubarb over congressional and state House and Senate redistricting.

"This is the biggest mess Texas has ever seen in redistricting," he said.

The Justice Department has pre-cleared the existing Senate plan, he said, which leaves Mitchell County in Lubbock Republican Sen. Robert Duncan's 28th District.

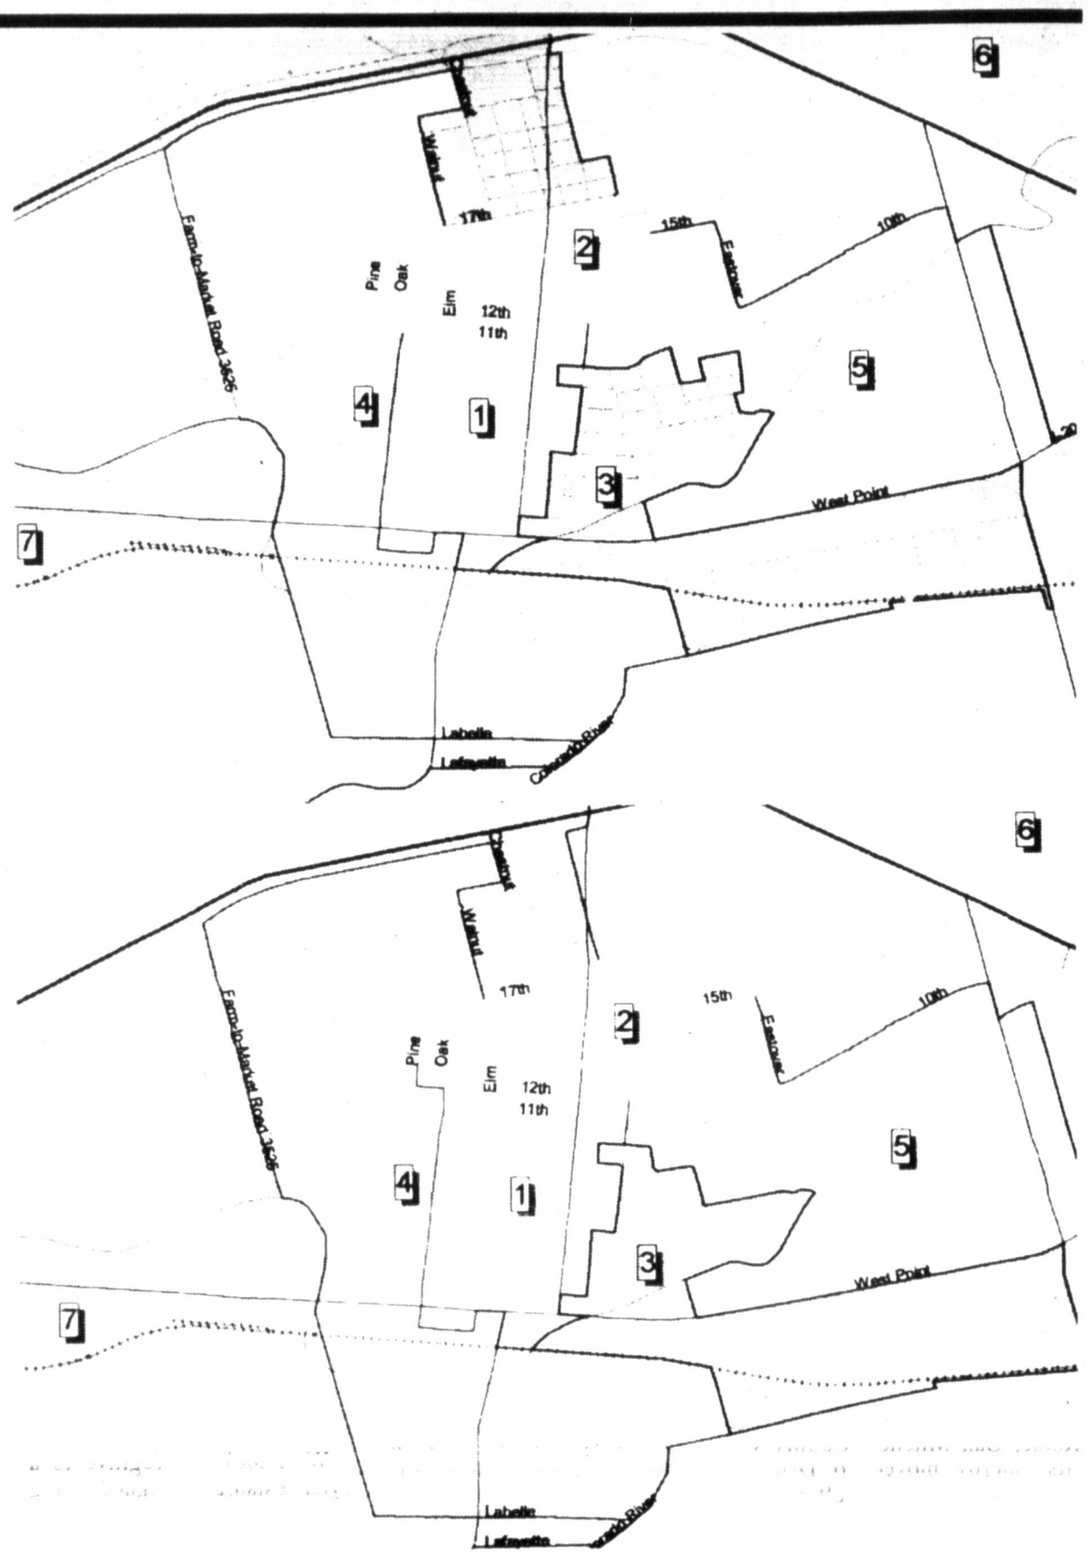

It has been moved out of Troy Fraser's 24th District by the state Legislative Redistricting Board (LRB).

That plan is therefore the most likely to be upheld.

The LRB left Mitchell in San Angelo Rep. Rob Junell's District 72, thwarting a move to Knox City Rep. David Counts' 70th.

However, that and statewide federal congressional redistricting including Abilene Rep. Charles Stenholm's 17th District are still up in the air with a three judge panel of federal judges in Tyler.

Guinn said the state House plan "was tried" before the judges Oct. 13 with state Senate and congressional lines still to be considered.

NEW CISD SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERS' DISTRICTS are shown in the top map, which will supplant the old plan at bottom. A public hearing will be held at the board's Dec. 11 meeting.

Sheriff Ware had colorful career

DICK WARE DESCENDANTS Roland Graham of Loraine, left, and Maxey Ware of Westbrook are at the sheriff's grave in Colorado City Cemetery. Its Texas Historical Site marker is at the lower right.

The life of Frontier lawman Richard Clayton "Dick" Ware has been well chronicled, but there was a lot more to it than the famous gunfight for which he was known throughout the West.

Colorado City's Ware Unit was named after him in 1997.

Born into a family with a 3,000 acre plantation south of Rome, Ga., Mitchell County's first sheriff moved to Dallas with most of his clan after the Civil War had rendered their holdings worthless.

He and his brother Charles L. were the only ones of their family, before or since, to wear a badge.

Ware joined the Texas Rangers in 1876 at age 24 and in two years had proved trustworthy enough to be the personal bodyguard of the Adjutant General of Texas, Rangers Maj. John B. Jones.

It's well known the Rangers had just learned the Bass Gang would rob the bank in Round Rock, north of Austin, and Maj. Jones, Ware and two others arrived what they thought was a day early.

Less known is the undercover work that led to the showdown and the connection it had to Bonnie and Clyde's ambush 46 years later.

The rest of Company E, including Charlie Ware, was en route to San Saba but headed for Round Rock when a rider from Jones reached them near Lampasas.

Sam Bass, Seaborn Barnes and two other outlaws rode in to case the bank on July 21, 1878.

A Williamson County deputy braced them in a general store about illegally carrying firearms. The wild-eyed, dark-haired Bass killed him and shot another deputy, and the gunfight was on.

Ranger Ware came out of a barber shop with lather still on his face and was bloodied when a shot from Bass's long barreled Colt .45 drove splinters from a cedar post into his neck and face -- a shot the outlaw later said he thought had killed him because he saw the blood splatter.

Ware shot Barnes in the head and hit Bass in the lower back as he mounted his horse.

Bass had worked as a farmhand for Denton County Sheriff Dad Eagan and as a teamster, drifting into crime as a gambler, saloon habitue and owner of a profitable racehorse known as The Denton Mare.

The Indianan died on the afternoon of his 27th birthday after the lawmen found him lying under a tree north of Round Rock the day after the shootout.

He didn't last long but was one of the most notorious outlaws in the Southwest while he lasted.

He first came to the public's attention in September 1877, when he and his gang robbed a Union Pacific train of $60,000 in gold pieces near Big Spring, Mo.

They held up trains at Allen, Eagle Ford and Mesquite, all in the Dallas area, Feb. 22, March 8 and April 20, 1878, and had been planning to rob the Texas State Treasury in Austin before showing up in Round Rock.

Ware, his brother and most of their kin are buried in Colorado City Cemetery.

He has three descendants in Mitchell County -- Historical Commission member Roland Graham of Loraine, Westbrook English teacher Maxey Ware and Ware's daughter Jeran, a Colorado Middle School special education teacher.

Graham and Ware's grandfather, Robert Penn Ware, was Dick and Charlie's first cousin, working for them on a Borden County ranch in the 1890's.

Ware was sheriff here from 1881 to '92 and United States Marshal of the Western District of Texas from '93 until heart trouble forced him to leave law enforcement four years later.

A bachelor like Graham, he died in Fort Worth in 1902.

Graham has a July 19, 1925, Dallas Morning News story in which Charlie said the Bass Gang was broken up by means an informant his brother had developed.

Jim Murphy had been secretly captured by the Rangers and pressured to rejoin the gang and keep them posted of its plans by letters.

For a proud Ranger, what happened next must have been hard to stomach.

Ware took the fugitive to a Tyler restaurant, feigned being too rattled to use his pistol when Murphy tried to escape and even let his hat be stolen!

"The laugh ran the length and breadth of Texas, and Bass heard of the amusing incident in which one of his men had gotten the best of a Texas Ranger," the newspaper said.

"This in itself convinced Bass that Murphy was loyal to him and paved the way for his downfall."

Born in Rowena, southwest of Ballinger, Bonnie Parker is a distant cousin of Graham's on his father's side.

Graham said former Ranger Frank Hamer credited studying Ware's method of gang infiltration in his successful pursuit of Bonnie and Clyde four decades later.

Hamer persuaded the father of gang member Henry Methvin to help waylay the couple near Arcadia, La., on May 23, 1934.

Ironically, both Murphy and Methvin ended up committing suicide after their cohorts were killed.

Maxey Ware had not delved into the legend of Dick Ware much before the May 4, 1997, ribbon cutting and dedication of the Ware Unit, when he and other descendants from Kingwood, Pflugerville, Sun City, Ariz., Powder Springs, Ga., Amarillo, Midland, Boyd, Dallas, Denton, Forney, Alvarado, Sweetwater, Snyder, Wolfforth, Bangs and Lillian, south of Fort Worth, were recognized.

But he enjoys having a famous relative, particularly one so well regarded.

"It is unusual," said the 38 year veteran teacher.

Graham visited the Ranger Museum in Waco in April last year to do additional research.

"I have always admired Dick and what he did, keeping the peace in Mitchell County," he said.

"I can just see him walking down that old boardwalk with the pianos going, getting the bad guys out.

"I don't know how one man could do that without getting ambushed. He must have been able to put the bluff on them, somehow.

"If I could have been here in the 1890's, I would have liked to be a Ranger, too."

(Next week: Ware's unique political career, his interview with President Grover Cleveland and the time he was almost forced into a gunfight with one of his own deputies, who was shot down by an El Paso officer before he could find the U. S. Marshal.)

THE BRASS SECTION of the CHS Wolf Band was an integral part of patriotic music that was played on Veterans Day at the county courthouse, where choirs from the Wallace Center and Westbrook Schools also performed.

bock and McMurry University in Abilene to learn how to do historical research.

They videotaped interviews and made three sided story boards with computer processed illustrations with 250 veterans last year and will do 200 this year.

The boards went on display Sunday at the Civic Center for National Veterans Appreciation Week and will be there through Friday.

They show veterans' photos in various settings and tell about their experiences, including wounds, medals and things like meeting Gen. Eisenhower before the Normandy Invasion or witnessing the Japanese surrender on the Battleship Missouri.

The interviews will make a video library that will be put permanently in the county library, and scrapbooks are being made.

Eighty-five eighth graders went to Midland last month to see the traveling Vietnam memorial wall of soldiers' names and made paper and pencil impressions of all those from Mitchell County.

When a strong wind threatened to blown down a line of American flags, the students ran to hold them up and did not let any fall -- an event described and shown with a photo in the Monday Veterans Day program.

Students Billy Crawford and Brik McGuffin discussed their work last Friday with seventh and eighth grade language arts teachers Emily Strain and Les Anderson and Librarian Beverly Adams.

The boys interviewed two of their relatives and are now researching Army World War II Pacific veteran Harry Dockrey and Navy Korean vet Kenneth Rogers.

Last year, Billy documented the experiences of his grandfather, Billy Allen Walker of Waco, who did "tank blackout missions" with the Army tank corps during World War II in Europe.

The tanks made suprise attacks at night.

Brik interviewed his granddad, Dawson McGuffin, a Navy man who maintained fighter planes on the USS Enterprise aircraft carrier during the Korean War.

The project has been led by the eighth grades this year and last with some participation by high school students and teachers.

But every CMS student gets involved the tri-fold presentation board production, capped by their display and the attendance of 700 people at a "Real History, Real Heroes" program at last April 5's Dare to Care Rally in the school auditorium.

The teachers said the project, led by Principal Mark Merrell, seemed promising at the outset but has paid unanticipated dividends.

Having typically thought the world had forgotten them, the veterans enjoy telling their stories to the well-versed young people and having them documented.

And it's revelatory for students to learn firsthand of the stunning heroism and pathos of war and selfless sacrifices of the veterans -- often their own relatives.

"I give them all the credit they deserve," said Brik.

In addition to studying wars, said Ms. Strain, they get interested in eras like the colorful 1940's with its black and white TV sets, formal clothing and stylish women's hairdo's.

They want to know what all aspects of the veterans' lives were like.

Anderson said the project has enhanced C-City's sense of community, making the veterans feel more appreciated and giving the young people the seasoning they need in the maturation process.

Ms. Adams said it was so well-timed, it quickly took on a life of its own and keeps gaining momentum.

Newspaper, TV, cable TV and radio advertising is being used in Abilene, San Angelo, Midland-Odessa, Snyder, Post and other places to bring in customers.

"I expect a lot of Christmas shoppers," Ms. Erwin said.

"We had a lot of people in July, but the vendors say they don't buy as much when it's hot."

Morris is named to AD Board

Mitchell County commissioners Tuesday reappointed Tommy Morris of Cuthbert as the county's representative on the County Appraisal District Board.

Morris's two year term is about to expire.

Other business in the 35 minute 9 a.m. regular meeting included the approval of a $7,900 budget amendment to pay for materials, supplies, parts and repairs in Commissioner Ed Roach's Pct. 1.

County Judge Ray Mayo was absent, having been hospitalized since Tuesday in the county hospital with an abdominal malady.

with 88.

Head Post coach Richard Gorman lists depth as his main strength as well as quickness. The team only lost five letterman from last year, returning 22 off that team.

"Our key will be to contain Huff," said head Wolf coach Gerald James. "He runs the football well and sometimes goes into the shotgun where he has time to pick out his receivers. We are going to have to play two good halves and not turn the ball over. You can't do that to a good club like them."

See Playoff Bracket, page 3B

On defense the Antelopes use a 4-3 front and have a quick secondary and the entire defense goes to the ball real well according to Coach James. He added that they have been vulnerable to the rushing game at times this season.

Should the Wolves win Friday they will face the winner of the Wall Hawks-Reagan County Owls game probably in San Angelo. Wall is favored over the 3-7 Owls.

now -- to be away from cities and big hotels. It looks like a safe haven.

"I think I could get my old job back as the organist at the Methodist Church."

The 1972 CHS graduate and her former husband Brian have two daughters, Tia Matlock, a Hutchinson Elementary content mastery teacher, and West Texas A&M senior Whitney Bassham.

She worked at a Crate & Barrel store in Dallas after leaving C-City 2 1/2 years ago, then took seven weeks' training with American in Dallas.

She knew four of the flight attendants who were on Flight 11 -- Sara Low, Jeff Colman, Diane Snyder and Betty Ong.

Colman and Ms. Low had traded with other attendants to get the trip to California, and an attendant she did not know well, Jean Roger, had been at the airport on standby.

Ms. Roger was put on the plane when another attendant got caught in traffic.

Asked if the attendants had ever discussed hijackings, Ms. Bassham said, "No one ever talked about that. You talk about where you're going and what you're going to do when you get there.

"It was just not in our mindset at the time."

She said an apparent accident like Monday's New York City airbus crash is less alarming than things like the events of Sept. 11 because accidents are "just a chance.

"You expect that hijackers want to land the plane and do a hostage situation," she said. "You just never expect they're going to use it as a weapon.

"Now people are more inclined to thwart the hijackers by overcoming them. Everybody thought the plane would land and 'We'll just ride this out and see what happens.'

"The hijackers said, 'Everyone sit down. We're going back to New York.'

"It's not the same world we were living in. We need to federalize baggage handling and have the government hire and check out the backgrounds of the people who work there.

"It's a wonderful job. It's our way of fighting terrorism to show up and work.

"I miss everyone in Colorado City, and I hope everyone will keep me in their prayers."

search committee to seek a new superintendent.

An executive session to discuss personnel was held from 7:22 to 8:35 before Compton made his announcement.

A graduate of Southwest Texas State University in San Marcos, he coached and taught social studies, health and P. E. in Alvarado, Athens and San Antonio before working 12 years as principal of Cole High School in San Antonio.

One of his students was Los Angeles Lakers basketball player Shaquille O'Neal.

The 1961 CHS graduate and his wife Carol have two children, local math teacher Kaci Griffith and Ann Bazany of C-City, and four grandchildren.

Other business included the superintendent's report on the visit of Texas Education Agency Program Specialist Ernest Singleton of Austin to review the district's English as a second language (ESL) program.

Here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Singleton will probably recommend that a file be kept on each ESL student, including a home language survey, Compton said.

Muñoz and Dr. Billy Bruce Bridgford, a C-City dentist, were nominated as the district's representatives on the County Appraisal District (AD) board.

Blassingame called a special 6 p.m. Wednesday meeting to consider the required third representative.

Recently reapproved by the AD board, the AD's proposed $238,262 2001-02 budget was reviewed without comment or action.

The school board declined to approve the budget in September, followed by the City Council last month, which has apparently left the AD budget in limbo.

TEA commendations were given to high school and middle school principals Janey Burke and Mark Merrell for their schools' TAAS Tests.

CHS was recognized for its "continuing efforts to provide excellence and equity" and CMS for its work with migrant students.

The panel gave certificates of appreciation to athletic trainer Sherry Ann Miller and groundskeeper Leticia Silva.

Expected to cost about $55,000, the purchase of a new schoolbus through the Texas General Services Commission in Austin was approved.

Compton got permission to sell five old buses, 1980, '82, '84, '85 and '87 models, that are no longer usable.

He said the TEA has awarded $19,500 in accelerated reading instruction funding, based on $1,500 for each of 13 third graders who did not pass the TAAS reading test last spring,.

The board noted TEA Learn & Serve grant awards of $3,700 to CMS, applied for by gifted and talented and eighth grade reading teacher Tammy Johnson; $1,600 to CMS, applied for by eighth grade language arts teacher Emily Strain; and $1,500 to Hutchinson Elementary School, applied for by fourth grade teacher Leslie Geiger.

Compton said an attempt to secure lower health insurance rates for employees was unsuccessful because not enough enrollees could be recruited for a new group plan.

So the board accepted his recommendation to continue with Allied National Insurance Co. of Kansas City, Mo., which has coverage through American Heritage and Health Smart Insurance in Lubbock.

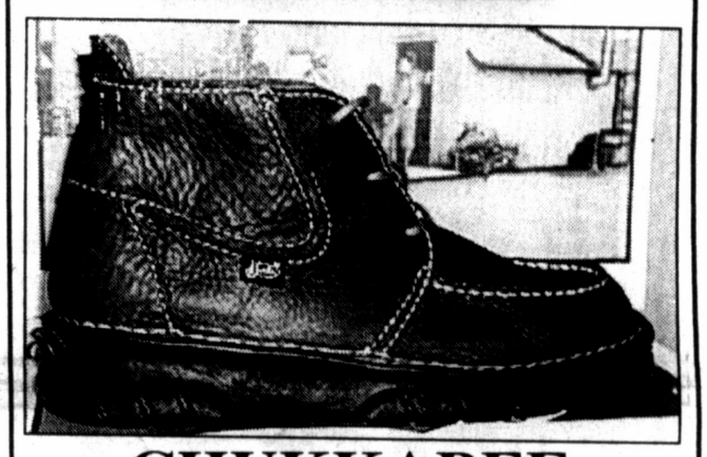

Minus CISD's $150 monthly contribution, it costs $266 for an employee and $851 for an employee and his or her spouse and children.

Contracts for a wide variety of custodial supplies were awarded to Empire Paper Co. of Wichita Falls, Western Texas Fire and Extinguishers Co. and the Mayfield Co., both of San Angelo, Wagner Supply of Odessa and Marquis Supply of Lubbock.

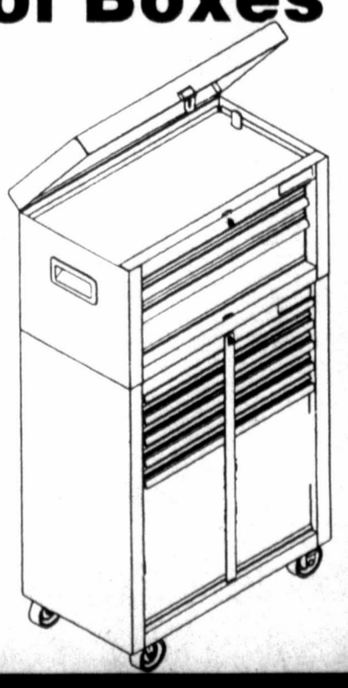

The meeting began with the Pledge of Allegiance and Pledge to Texas being led by eighth graders Matthew Potter and Kalyn Cooper.

Truckers on I-20 reckless

By Bob Campbell

The good old days when truckers were the kings of the road and "gentlemen of the highway" are sure long gone.

There are still some good guys left, of course, but a majority seem to think of themselves more like Jeff Gordon running hammer down for the checkered flag at Talladega.

You have to go 75 mph just to keep them from threatening to nudge you and knock you rolling.

Drive 60 to save oil in an old car and about every 10th one rumbles up, veers into the passing lane at the last second and just misses your back bumper to tell you, in effect, speed up or die!

Every now and then, somebody does get clipped.

You would need this whole newspaper to write up all the I-20 truck wrecks that have happened in Mitchell County in the past year.

One recently ran off the road, through the state park sign and back down the embankment, blocking both inside lanes for several hours.

Another missed the turnoff to C-City, turned over and slid across the Subway parking lot toward the Parks Chevron gas pumps.

They even go through the median and hit each other going opposite directions.

Let's hope we don't have another Christmas and New Year's like last year, when the road had black ice and the truckers and motorists in cars, pickups, SUV's and buses kept trying to go highway speeds.

We had more smashups than the officers and wrecker companies could handle -- 50 that one week.

They'd be investigating one wreck and see one or two more happen right in front of them.

It has been good lately to see DPS troopers and license and weight officers stopping more of these bad boy truckers and other reckless drivers on I-20 and the second most dangerous highway in the area -- 208 between here and Snyder.

But there's only so much you can do with a handful of officers and thousands of hot rodders who menace those who still think a car is just a mode of transportation.

The best thing would be to videotape the traffic and send tickets to everyone who clocks over 70.

That would make the situation manageable and give the troopers more freedom to look for the drug traffickers, car thieves and other criminals who make the interstate highways what cops privately refer to "the sewer line of America."

It would be a good revenue producer for the county and state and much more socially constructive than the ratty Texas Lottery.

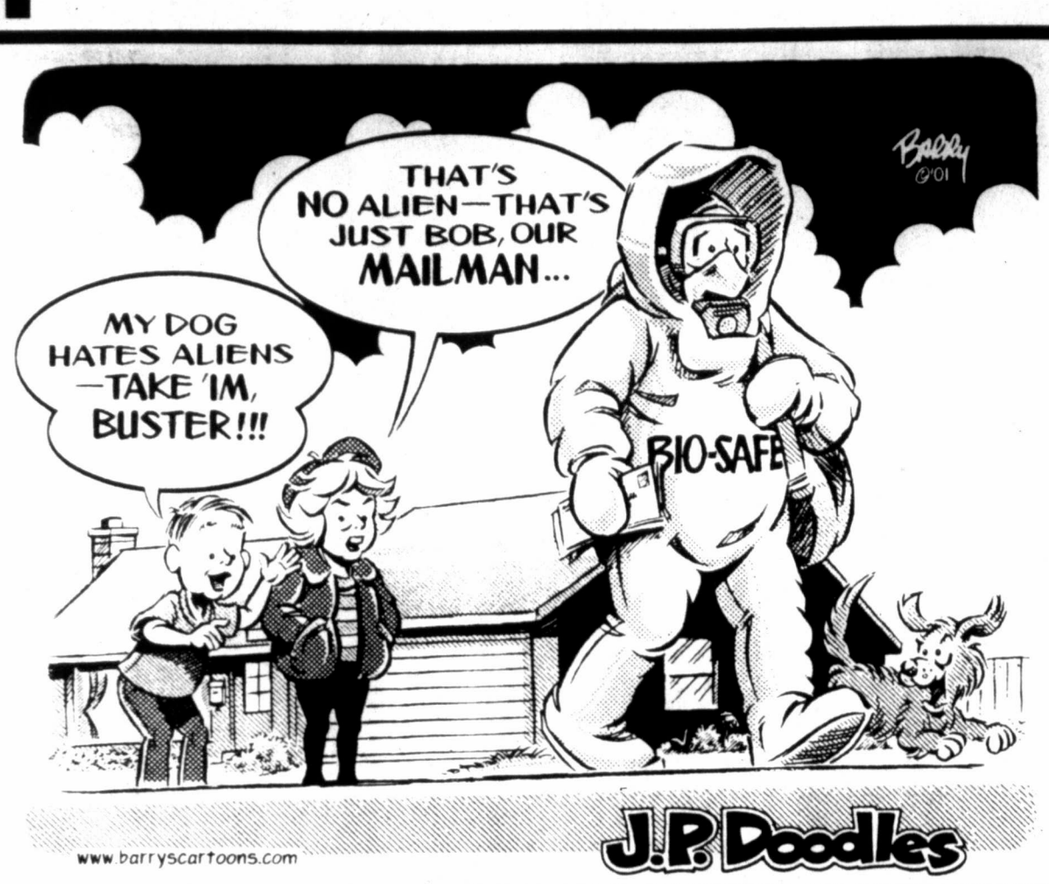

If they're from out of state and don't respond, they should be extradited.

Except for the wackos who shouldn't be driving anything bigger than a tricycle, most angry drivers are otherwise good citizens with a bad habit.

The truckers have a schedule and time is money in any business.

But how much time do you gain driving 75 or 80 instead of 70, 15 or 20 minutes in 400 or 500 miles?

They have a reason to push hard but not to endanger motorists in smaller vehicles.

The back forty

by Roger Pond

We can learn a lot about the motel business by just looking around and reading signs in the rooms. It's enough to make a person nervous.

Signs like "Please do not clean birds in the room," or "Do not water horses in the duck pond," give us some idea of what the small town motel operator is up against. And if you think that's scary, consider what bed and breakfast owners are getting themselves into?!

Bed and breakfast may be the inn thing for a lot of folks, but I'm not sure American culture is ready for it. Bed and breakfast sounds too much like something one does to relatives. I wouldn't have the nerve to try it on a stranger.

It may sound like fun to get to know one's guests personally, share bathrooms, and all of that; but I think we should give the whole thing a little more thought. Rural travelers aren't the same clientele the tourist areas are used to seeing.

Small town gusts may be headed for the next rodeo or they're going hunting. We should consider our customers before getting too chummy with them.

Let's not go tripping through the house shouting, "Tennis anyone?" when the parking lot is obviously full of cattle trucks. And let's not spring one of those continental breakfasts on a bunch of cowboys. They won't even know they've eaten.

Rural motels have been down this road before. They've learned to deal with all sorts. A few have become defensive as a result.

I stopped at a motel way out in the boonies awhile back -- and was standing in the lobby waiting to check in. Two men registering at the desk were obviously business travelers. One of them asked, "What is your rate for a commercial single?"

"Eighteen dollars the woman behind the desk replied."

"Eighteen dollars?! the man exclaimed.

"Well, everything has gone up you know," she said.

"Are there phones in the room?" the business man asked.

"Phone calls are 50 cents," the clerk said gruffly.

"But I'll be putting them on my card," the fellow said.

"All phone calls are 50 cents," she straightened him up again.

Now she had his attention, and his jaws clamped down like a vise. I could see there would be no more frivolous questions from this guy.

I saw this gentleman later in the parking lot, and he asked, "Is this the only motel in town?"

I thought about the bed and breakfast establishments and the opportunity for guests and their hosts to get better acquainted. I understand that may sound like fun to a lot of folks.

Others might just want a telephone, a key to their room, and a real good lock on the door.

Who can sing and how to write the blues

By Tumbleweed Smith

I get all sorts of email from high school buddies, relatives and friends. I usually discard them immediately, since most of them are just pap. Cuz Bill sent me one the other day I think I'll share with you, in case you somehow have been out of the country and missed it. It's about THE BLUES.

Blues cars: Chevys, Ford, Cadillacs and broken-down trucks. Blues don't travel in Volvos, BMW's or Sport Utitlity Vehicles. Most Blues transportation is a Greyhound bus or a southbound train. Jet aircraft an' limos ain't even in the running. Walkin' plays a major part in the Blues lifestyle. So does fixin' to die.

Teenagers can't sing the Blues. They ain't fixin' to die yet. Adults sing the Blues. In Blues, adulthood means being old enough to get the electric chair if you shoot a man in Memphis.

Blues can take place in New York City, but not in Hawaii or any place in Canada. Hard times in Minneapolis or Seattle is probably just clinical depression. Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City are still the best places to have the Blues. You cannot have the Blues in any place that don't get rain.

A man with male pattern baldness ain't the Blues. A woman with male pattern baldness is. Breaking you leg cause you skiing is not the Blues. Breaking you leg 'cause a alligator be chompin' on it is.

You can't have no Blues in a office or shopping mall. The lighting is wrong. Go outside to the parking lot or sit by the dumpster.

Good places for the Blues: highway, jailhouse, empty bed, bottom of a whiskey glass.

Bad places: Dillard's, gallery openings, Ivy League Institutions.

No one will believe it's the Blues if you wear a suit 'less you happen to be an old ethnic person and you sleep in it.

Blues beverages are cheap wine, whiskey or bourbon, muddy water, nasty black coffee. These are NOT Blues beverages: Perrier, Chardonnay, Snapple and Slim Fast.

If death occurs in a cheap motel or a shotgun shack, it's a Blues death. Stabbed in the back by a jealous lover is another Blues way to die. So is substance abuse and dying lonely on a broken down cot. You can't have a Blues death if you die during a tennis match or getting liposuction.

Some Blues names: Sadie, Big Mama, Bessie, Fat River Dumpling, Joe, Willie, Little Willie, Big Willie. Persons with names like Michelle, Amber, Debbie and Heather can't sing the Blues.

Make your own Blues name starter kit: a. Name a physical infirmity (blind, crippled, lame, etc.) b. The second name should be a fruit (lemon, lime, kiwi) 3. The Third name shuld be the name of a dead president (Jefferson, Johnson, Fillmore.) For instance, Braces Banana Jackson.

If you won a computer you cannot sing the Blues.

Rain probability is high all week for Mitchell Co.

Does West Central Texas need rain?

Yes, and for once, it looks like it's going to get it.

A Pacific storm system was moving this way from Utah Tuesday afternoon and would settle over New Mexico Wednesday, a National Weather Service forecaster in Midland said.

There is a 50 percent chance of rain Wednesday, 70 percent Wednesday night, 60 percent Thursday and a good chance of showers Friday and Saturday, said Alec Lyster.

"The winds will turn southeast, bring moisture from the Gulf and spread it across West Texas and into New Mexico," he said.

"We'll have these little disturbances rotating around and giving a decent chance of rain into this weekend."

There is no chance of a freeze anytime soon, though, unless it gets colder than expected Sunday and Monday.

Temperatures will be 60-65 and 50-55 Wednesday through Saturday and in the low 60's and low 40's Sunday and Monday, Lyster said.

City Atty. Tom Rees told the Council that the city "does not have to take their sewer."

Abilene engineer Ken Martin attended the 6 p.m. regular meeting in the C.C. Thompson Room to review preliminary plans to lay an 18 inch line south from 17th Street and Rogers Road to the Colorado River.

Also serving the Wallace and Ware Unit prisons, the gravity flow line would follow the river east, go under it south of Walnut Street and run west to the city's main sewer lift station.

The controversy first developed a year ago when Shutt wrote Rickard that the hospital district would have to pay $318,000 as its part of the project -- a total that was subsequently reduced.

Other business in the two hour session included Shutt's successful request for Council approval of a $38,000 initial payment in matching funds for the Texas Department of Transportation to smooth and pave the full lengths of 10th, 17th, Austin, Chestnut and Oak Streets next spring.

The other $58,000 of its total $96,000 obligation will be due 60 days before the expected 90 day project begins.

Shutt said the total cost will be more than $800,000.

After an executive session from 7:20 to 7:53, a rewriting of Rees' 17 year old contract and a nine percent raise for Shutt, who makes $54,000 a year, were approved.

Councilwoman Hardegree was reappointed as the City's representative on the County Appraisal District Board.

With city redistricting committee member Bobbie Banks present, a public hearing on the Council's single member district redistricting plan was set for 6 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 11.

Shutt said the only changes are minor realignments between Districts 3 and 4 and 4 and 6.

Maps of the old and new plan will be in next week's Record.

Kiwaniannes toy drive now underway

Kiwaniannes are gearing up for this year's Mitchell County Toy Drive. The toy drive did very well last year and the Kiwaniannes hope to surpass that effort this year.

Last year, the toy drive provided new and "like new" toys to 147 Mitchell County children. All children received at least one "new" toy and 3 to 4 "like new toys". There were 11 refurbished bicycles from the County Probation Department included in these toys and they have already begun refurbishing bicycles for this year.

Last year community support was great. The local merchants involved supplied drop points for toys, and collected cash donations. Toy drop off boxes will be located at Ramage Furniture and Appliance, Radio Shack, Dollar General on Oak Street, Family Dollar, Alco, Atkins Supply in Westbrook and First Bank of West Texas in Loraine. There will be cash donation drop boxes at City National, First National and the Credit Union as well as Dandy's Diner.

The Kiwaniannes will pick up the "new and like new" toys from these points, and with help from Colorado High School and Hutchinson School teachers and students, these toys will be refurbished so they can be recirculated and help fill the dreams of kids.

The community service clubs as well as some of our local churches gave a lot of financial help and service hours last year, and Christmas in Action is donating the use of their facility as headquarters. The communities of Westbrook and Loraine were an amazing help in collecting toys last year and are doing their part again this year.

New for this year... the Kiwaniannes are supplying the prison inmates with material and patterns to make wooden toys in their shop.

The Colorado City schools are going to participate by having their students collect toys at school gving them the chance to see that Christmas is a season of giving, as well as receiving.

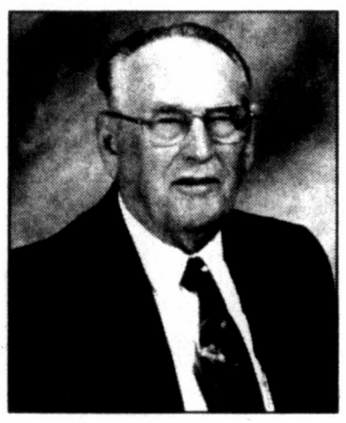

Mitchell County businesses will be contacted for small cash donations. Businesses can make their donations payable to "Kiwaniannes" and mail them c/o Jan Lemons, 314 W County Road 145, Colorado City, TX 79512.

Any and all help will be gratefully accepted and truly appreciated. For more information or questions contact Ellen Patton at 728-3166 or Jan Lemons at 728-3678 with any questions.

Applications for kids needing toys will be available November 15 thru December 15 at the Community Mission, 301 E 3rd, Colorado City, Texas, Ms. Shirley Stafford, 915-728-5701.

First Presbyterian names new pastor

The Reverend Doctor Chuck Fisher has come to be the new pastor of First Presbyterian Church. Chuck and his wife, Cindy, moved to Colorado City from Vernon, Texas on the fateful day of September 11, 2001.

A native of Brownwood, Chuck received his B.S. from Tarleton State University in 1974. From there he went to Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary and graduated with a Master of Divinity in 1978. Chuck earned his Doctor of Ministry degree from McCormick Presbyterian Seminary of Chicago, Illinois in 1987.

Before coming to Colorado City, Chuck served as pastor of churches in Honey Grove, Nocona, and Vernon, Texas as well as Aurora, Missouri. Throughout his twenty plus years in the ordained ministry of the Presbyterian Church, Chuck has demonstrated an interest in youth, and community affairs along with his responsibilities to the church.

In response to having first felt the call to ministry at the Presbyterian Encampment at Buffalo Gap, Texas, Chuck volunteers a week of his time each summer to a junior high church camp. For the last four summers, Chuck has directed the Presbyterian Church Camp for junior highs at Buffalo Gap.

In the various towns where Chuck has served as pastor he has volunteered with a number of different causes. Habitat for Humanity, the American Red Cross, Meals on Wheels and Hospice mark a few of the organizations he has worked with.

"I am called to be the pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Colorado City," Rev. Fisher says. "But, I really want to reach and serve in whatever ways I can to the whole community."

First Presbyterian Church sponsors a youth program on Wednesday evenings beginning at 6 pm with a meal. The Youth Choir then practices for a few minutes before breaking into games and Bible Study. Sunday mornings begin with Sunday school at 9:30 followed by worship at 10:45. "The worship service is held in the chapel to add to the warmth of the service," Fisher noted.

Chuck Fisher and his wife Cindy have a combined family of five children and one grandson.

"I am very pleased with the hospitality extended to us as we moved into town," Chuck stated. "We have been impressed with the friendliness of the people of Colroado City."

"We are excited to be here in this place at this time," Rev. Fisher said. "We are pleased to be a part of this small congregation that has a very big heart."

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON REDISTRICTING OF THE CITY OF COLORADO CITY

Colorado City is a home rule city governed by Article XI, section 5 of the Texas Constitution. Since Colorado City elects six of its council members from single member districts, the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution requires under the principle of "one-person one-vote" that all the districts have essentially the same number of people. Also, Texas and its political subdivisions are jurisdictions covered by the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and as subsequently amended. Under Section 5 of the Act, the Attorney General of the United States must preclear all voting changes before they may be implemented. The Attorney General must determine that all voting changes made by the city do not have a discriminatory purpose or effect upon the rights of minorities to vote.

The Attorney General's regulations strongly encourage community input into the process. Therefore, a public hearing will be held for the purpose of securing community comment upon the proposed redistricting plan. The date, time, and location of the public hearings are as follows:
City of Colorado City, Tuesday, December 11, 2001 at 6 pm at: The City National Bank of Colorado City, C.C. Thompson Room, 228 Elm Street.

All citizens of the City of Colorado City are encouraged to attend and participate in this important public hearing.

Signed: Bob Reily, Mayor
Council Members of the City of Colorado City

AVISO DE AUDIENCIA PUBLICA SOBRE LA DIVISION EN DISTRITOS DE LA CIUDAD DE COLORADO CITY

Colorado City es una ciudad de gobierno autonomo gobernada por el Articulo XI, seccion 5 de la Constitucion del estado de Texas. Debido a que la ciudad de Colorado City elige a seis de sus concejales de los distritos de "representacion individual," la Enmienda 14 de la Constitucion de los Estados Unidos requiere, bajo el principio de "una persona - un voto," que todos los distritos tengan aproximadamente el mismo numero de personas. Adernas, el estado de Texas y sus subdivisiones politicas son jurisdicciones comprendidas por el Acto de Derechos Electorales (Voting Rights Act) de 1965 y sus enmiendas subsiguientes. Bajo la Seccion 5 de este Acto, el Procurador General de los Estados Unidos tiene que dar la pre-autorizacion a cualquier cambio electoral antes de que pueda entrar en vigencia. El Procurador General tambien tiene que determinar que cualquier cambio electoral hecho por la ciudad no tenga ningun efecto ni proposito discriminatorio sobre los derechos de votacion de la poblacion minoritaria.

Los reglamentos del Procurador General recomiendan fuertemente que haya comentarios de la comunidad como parte de este proceso. circulated that kamikaze jetliners were headed for them.

"It has been a difficult time for us all," he said, singling out the heroic passengers of United Airlines Flight 93, who brought their plane down in Pennsylvania rather than let it be crashed into the Capitol or White House.

"Now we know that there are those who will attack us in cowardly ways. Any means of destruction that they have in their power, they will use."

He said "a new group of heroes" has emerged -- the Postal Service employees who work to counter the anthrax threat.

Stenholm said the country has 19 million veterans, 2,000 from World War II in 1917-19 and six million from World War II in 1941-45.

He observed Veterans Day, or Armistice Day as it was called until 1954, at the exact hour World War II ended Sunday at the VA Hospital in Big Spring.

Having just rewatched the World War II movie "Saving Private Ryan," he said, he believes Americans want to come out of the crisis in the same way as former Private James Ryan at the Arlington National Cemetery graves of the men who had rescued him 40 years earlier.

Ryan asked his wife, "Tell me I have been a good man."

"I think that's what we want -- to be a good student, player, father, mother -- that we can say 'yes,'" the congressman said.

The 75 minute ceremony featured patriotic music by the CHS Wolf Band, middle school band and choirs from the Wallace Center and Westbrook School.

Dr. Ted Spear, pastor of the First Baptist Church, gave the invocation, and the Pledge of Allegiance was led by Loraine students Jacob Hester and April Bailey.

Under the middle school's "Real History, Real Heroes" research project banner above the courthouse entranceway, Westbrook High student Sterling Burleson said the American flag "is our badge of courage and our robe of mercy."

An estimated 700 people, including a number of veterans and their relatives, watched as a Dyess Air Force Base color guard presented the colors, or flags, of the nation and air base.

Col. Jack Wylie, the base's inspector general and father of local students Zack, Chase and Dustin Wylie, attended.

Vietnam veterans Jim Hearin of the Army and Don Redwine of the Marine Corps were given illustrated plaques recognizing their service by CMS Principal Mark Merrell and students who researched their records.

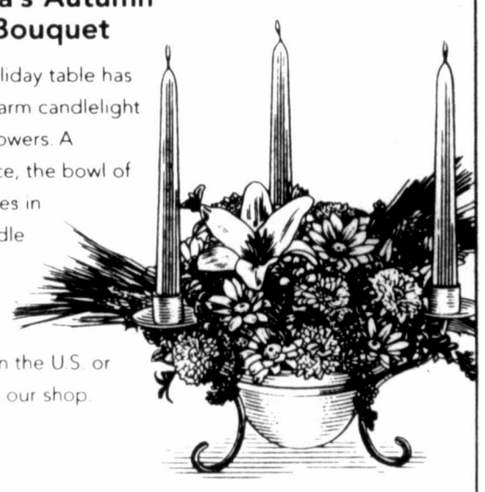

T. H. "Dan" Dannheim of Lake C-City, who served in the Navy in World War II, Korea and Vietnam, was recognized with World War II Army veterans Tandy and Lovess Curlee and others.

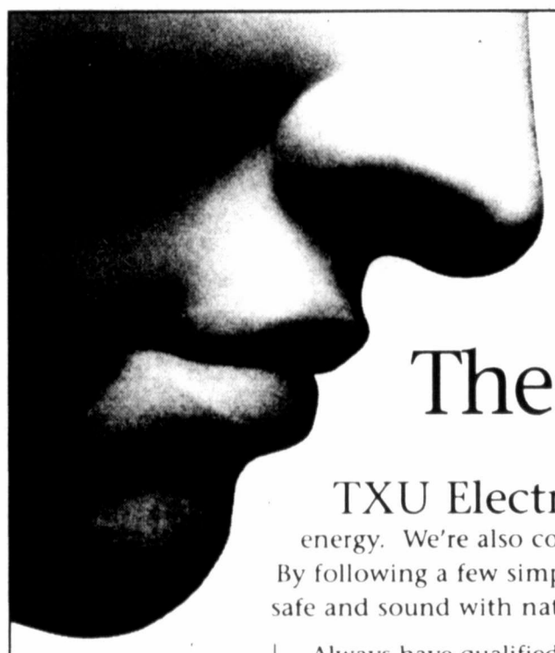

Hearin wept during the first playing of "Taps" by trumpeter David Jones, commenting to his wife, "That's the saddest song in the world."

COOK'S CORNER

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, we have found some recipes to help with the big meal from snacks to main course. We hope these are appealing additions to your Thanksgiving feast.

Onion Cheese Ball

1 pkg. (8 oz) fat-free cream cheese, softened
8 slices fat-free sharp cheddar cheese, cut into thin strips
1 small onion, diced
1 tabelspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon garlic powder
Dash hot pepper sauce
1/2 cup minced fully cooked low-fat ham
fresh vegetables or reduced-fat crackers

In a mixing bowl, beat the cheeses. Add onion, Worcestershire sauce, garlic powder and hot pepper sauce; mix well. Shape into a ball and roll in ham. Cover and refrigerate for at least 1 hour. Serve with vegetables or crackers.

Company Fruit Salad

4 medium Golden Delicious apples, diced
4 medium Red Delicious apples, diced
2 cups seedless green grapes, halved
2 cups seedles red grapes, halved
1 can pineapple chunks, drained
1 can mandarin oranges, drained
DRESSING:
1 pkg. (3 oz) cream cheese, softened
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup sugar

Combine all the fruit in a large bowl. In a mixing bowl, beat the dressing ingredients until smooth. Pour over fruit; toss gently to coat. Serve immediately.

Mushroom Stuffing

4 bacon strips, diced
4 celery ribs, chopped
1 medium onion, chopped
1 poud fresh mushrooms, chopped
1 teaspoon rubbed sage
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 pkg. corn bread stuffing
1/2 cup chopped celery leaves
2 tablespoons minced fresh parsley
4 eggs, beaten
2 1/2 cups chicken broth
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

In a large skillet, cook bacon until crisp; remove with a slotted spoon to paper towel. Drain, reserving 2 tablespoons drippings. Saute celery and onion in drippings until tender. Add mushrooms, sage, salt and pepper; cook and stir for 5 minutes. Remove from the heat; stir in stuffing, celery leaves, parsley and bacon; mix well. Combine eggs and broth; add to stuffing mixture and mix well. Spread into a greased 9x13 baking dish (dish will be full). Dot with butter. Cover and bake at 350° for 30 minutes. Uncover; bake 10 minutes longer or until lightly browned.

Special Roast Turkey

1 turkey, 12 to 14 pounds
2 cups water
2 1/2 cups chicken broth, divided
1 1/2 cups orange juice, divided
4 tablespoons soy sauce, divided
1 tabelspoon chicken bouillon granules
1 teaspoon dried minced onion
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
ORANGE GIBLET GRAVY
3/4 cup chicken broth
1/4 cup orange juice
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 cup water

Place turkey on a greased rack in a roasting pan. Add water, giblets and neck to pan. Combine 1 1/4 cups broth, 3/4 cup orange juice and 2 tablespoons soy sauce; pour over turkey. Combine bouillon, onion and garlic powder; sprinkle over turkey. Bake, uncovered, at 325° for 3 1/2 hours, basting every 30 minutes. When turkey begins to brown, cover lightly with foil. Remove giblets and neck when tender; set aside for gravy.

Combine remaining broth, orange juice and soy sauce. Remove foil from turkey; pour broth mixture over turkey. Bake 30 minutes longer or until a meat thermometer reads 180°. For gravy, remove meat from neck; discard bones. Chop giblets and neck meat; ste aside.

In a saucepan, combine 2 cups pan juices, broth, orange juice and Worcertershire sauce; mix well. Stir in thyme, sugar and pepper. Combine cornstarch and water until smooth. Whisk into broth mixture; bring to a boil. Cook and stir for 2 minutes. Stir in reserved giblets and neck meat. Carve turkey; serve with gravy.

Pumpkin Cake Roll

3 eggs
1 cup sugar
2/3 cup cooked or canned pumpkin
1 teaspoon lemon juice
3/4 cup all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
1 cup finely chopped walnuts
CREAM CHEESE FILLING
2 pkgs. (3 oz) cream cheese, softened
1 cup confectioners' sugar
1/4 cup butter or margarine, softened
1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
Additional confectioners' sugar, optional

In a mixing bowl, beat eggs on high for 5 minutes. Gradually beat in sugar until thick and lemon-colored. Add pumpkin and lemon juice. Combine flour, cinnamon, baking powder, salt and nutmeg, fold into pumpkin mixture.

Grease a 15x10" baking pan and line with waxed paper. Grease and flour the paper. Spread batter into pan; sprinkle with walnuts. Bake at 375° for 15 minutes or until cake springs back when lightly touched. Immediately turn out onto a linen towel dusted with confectioners' sugar. Peel off paper and roll cake up in towel, starting with a short end. Cool.

Meanwhile in a mixing bowl, beat cream cheese, sugar, butter and vanilla until fluffy. Carefully unroll cake. Spread filling over cake to within 1" of edges. Roll up again. Cover and chill until serving. Dust with confectioners' sugar if desired.

Sweet, Speer united

Rebecca A. Sweet daughter of Denisem Wenken, and granddaughter to Grady and Mollie Morris was married on September 25th to Bryan M. Speer of Camden, AR.

Bryan is a Senior Airman in the U.S. Airforce stationed out of Goodfellow AFB in San Angelo, Texas.

Bryan is the son of Rodney and Karan Speer of Camden, AR.

Rebecca is a graduate of Colorado High School and will graduate in December from Hardin-Simmons University with a Master of Physical therapy degree.

Bryan and Rebecca Speer will make their home in San Angelo, Texas.

Servicemen addresses are sought

Two C-City women are seeking the names and military addresses of Mitchell County servicemen and women whose Christmas leaves have been canceled.

They will be sent Christmas packages of gifts to give them a touch of home.

The organizers are Leslie Scott and Jimmie Bell, who may be reached at 728-3326 and 2104.

Ms. Scott said her son-in-law Ricky Molina, a 1999 CHS graduate, is in the Army in Korea and, like other service people, is being required to stay on duty because of the war in Afghanistan.

"They will not be coming home until this crisis calms down," she said. "I just think it would be neat for them to get a bunch of stuff from the county, showing them that the people back home are really thinking about them."

Ms. Scott said she and Ms. Bell know of a few service people, but there are a number of whom they are unaware or whose addresses they do not have.

Work day set at Dunn Cemetery

The Dunn Cemetery Associating will have a work day and annual meeting at the cemetery in Dunn, Saturday, November 17, beginning at 9 a.m.

Attempts will be made to identify unmarked grave sites. Some curbing, weeding and fencing will be done.

Anyone with interest in the cemetery with time, tools, equipment and willing to help are encouraged to attend.

For more information please call 915-573-4336 or 915-728-5590.

Wolves lose district title to Coahoma

After reeling off nine straight district wins over the past two seasons the Colorado Wolves dropped their regular season finale to the Coahoma Bulldogs 28-0 in action played at Wolf Stadium last Friday night.

The win gives Coahoma the district title, the first one in 29 years. They finish regular season play at 9-1 but undefeated at 5-0 in district 3-2A play.

Colorado moves to 6-4 and 4-1 in district play and will represent the district in the large school category. They will now face off Friday night against the Post Antelopes in Snyder at 7:30 p.m. at Tiger Stadium.

Coahoma was only able to manage one touchdown in the first half of the hard hitting contest. That came on their second possession of the night on a 12-play drive that started on their own 25 yard line and culminated when Bulldogs quarterback Chase Ward hit David Davis on a 19-yard touchdown pass with 6:43 left to go in the first half. Anthony Herrera booted the first of four of his extra points on the night to put the Bulldogs up 7-0.

Though the Bulldogs had three first half drives of over 10 plays they were only able to capitalize on one of them as the first drive was killed due to a fumble recovered by the Wolves and the last one was stopped when Marquise intercepted a pass from Ward to Rickey Richters.

Bulldog all-district tailback Cory Hill carried the ball for 87 yards on 18 carries the first half which ate up a considerable amount of time off the clock.

The second Bulldog score would not take place until late in the third quarter when Ward culminated a seven-play drive on a quarterback keeper from the two-yard line. Herrera tacked on the PAT putting the Dogs up 14-0 with 1:35 left to go in the third period.

Just 23 seconds later disaster would strike for the Wolves when the Coahoma kickoff nailed the Wolves at their own 10-yard line.

Wolves quarterback Jonathan Spear was stopped for no gain on the first play. Then, on the next play, Spear was blindsided on a blitz by Davis while Spear was attempting to get off a pass. Bulldogs Jeremiah Baeza pounced on the fumbled pigskin for another Coahoma touchdown. With Herrera's kick the Bulldogs had now stretched the lead to 21-0 and had struck a big blow for a Wolf comeback.

The Wolves went three and out twice in the final quarter with sophomore safety Kelby Kemper breaking up the second possession when Spear tried to hit Marquise Lenard on a pass play. The third possession drive was killed when Kemper picked off an errant Jacobie Russell pass to wide receiver Tyson Zigler.

Coahoma closed out the scoring for the evening when Ward fired a 21-yard strike to Travis Hipp with 5:22 left to go in the contest Herrera tacked on his fourth PAT to put the Bulldogs up 28-0 at that point, a score that would hold up as the final.

Coahoma head coach Robert Wood felt good about his team coming away with the huge win that gave them the district championship.

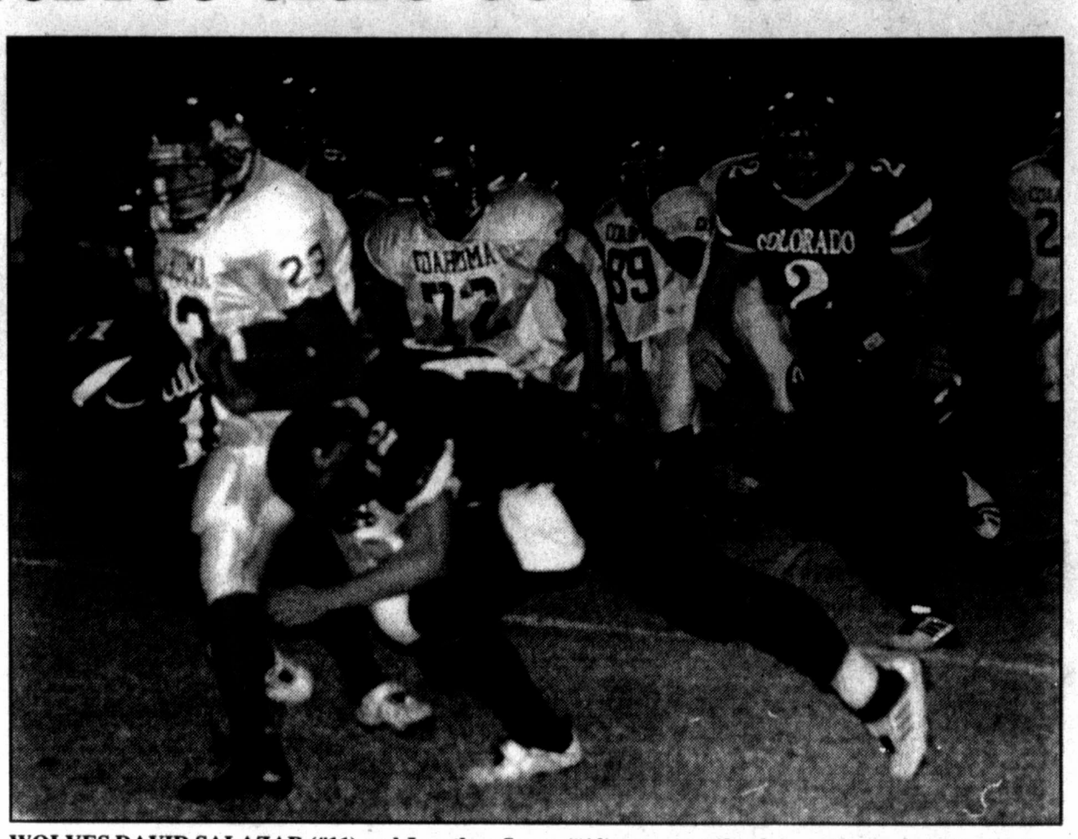

"It was a good football game and a great game for the championship," said Coach Wood. "Colorado City fought hard and it was still anybody's game until that fumble recovery in the endzone. This championship has been a long time coming for our fans and our students. We wish the Wolves all the success in their playoff game this week with Post. We are going to take just a little time to savor the moment and then it's back to work to prepare for our bi-district game with Idalou next week."

Head wolf mentor Gerald James complimented Coahoma on their win adding that the team was well coached.

"I thought that Coahoma was well coached and have improved a lot since last year," said James. "Coach Wood and his kids have really turned it around and have a good program going there."

Coach James said the Wolves made a few mistakes that ultimately cost the game.

"We made some mistakes with the mishandled punt and had some missed assignments that cost us to give up a touchdown. Our kids were disappointed with the way they played Friday night and are determined to bounce back. I believe that our district respresentatives will fare well this week as Coahoma matches up real well with Idalou and the Plains-Tahoka game should be a good game. I still believe in our kids and I think we match up well with Post and can extend our season."

WOLVES DAVID SALAZAR (#11) and Jonathan Spear (#12) attempt to haul down Coahoma's Travis Hipp (#23) on one of his runs in action played last Friday night at Wolf Stadium. Jed Anderson (#2) closes in to help as does B.J. Graham (#93). The Wolves lost the final regular season match 28-0 to Coahoma to finished second in district 3-2A and will play Post this Friday night at Snyder with a 7:30 p.m. kickoff slated.

Ball wins final jackpot contest

It seemed as if everyone decided to wait to the final week to enter the Record's Jackpot Football contest as we had the most entrants in the whole season entering.

For the second week in a row the winner only missed two picks as Phil Ball bounces back to win for his second time this year. He just missed the tie-breaker Dallas-Atlanta game although it wasn't needed this week. Ball only missed the Oakland-Seattle game as everyone else and he picked UCLA to beat Oregon.

And persistence paid off for Loraine resident Earline Crisp as she beat out a host of others for the second place spot missing only three picks, all in the NFL. Earline and her husband Lionel have played every week and often coming close but no cigar. For her efforts she will receive two chicken fried steak dinners from B&B One Stop and if Lionel is lucky she will share the prize with him.

Thank you for participating this year and making this another successful year of Jackpot Football.

Speaking of Sports...

Our congratulations go out to the Colorado Lady Wolves on a great season!

The team was much better than their record indicated due to the brutal non-district schedule that had the Lady Wolves doing battle with 5A teams like Abilene High as well as established 3A and 4A schools. The tough schedule paid off apparently with the Lady Wolves making it to the regional quarterfinals before bowing out to the number 10 team in the state, the Van Horn Eagles.

The Lady Wolves lead in the second game 7-3 and held on until Van Horn tied the score at 10-10 before the Lady Eagles pulled away to win the match 15-13.

The girls will have little rest if any as the majority of the girls are also on the basketball team.

We look forward to them having a great season in hoops as well.

And Kudos goes to the Colorado JV football team who came on strong in district play with the only blemish being a final game tie with Coahoma. They should be able to help make up for the loss of several good seniors the team will be losing this year.

And last but not least. The Colorado Wolves are to be congratulated on a fine season. Though the final game of the season did not pan out the way we would have liked, you can't take away from the great season we had with most everyone picking Colorado City to finish third in the district to Stanton and Coahoma.

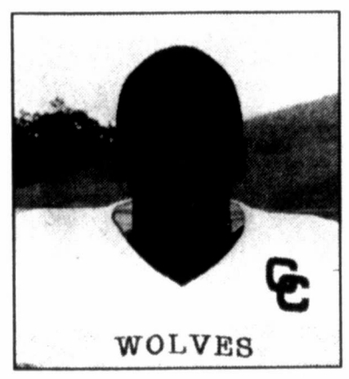

Best of luck to the Wolves this week as they proceed into the first round of playoffs against the tough Post Antelopes this Friday night.

Lady Wolves ready for title run

Coach Darrin Leverton

Members of the Lady Wolves volleyball team had little time to rest before hitting the hardwood floor as the girls have already been practicing and playing scrimmages in preparation for what should be an even better year than last.

Under the direction of head coach Darrin Leverton, the Lady Wolves made the playoffs last year as the district runner-up with a record of 7-3 and advanced to the Regional Quarterfinals after winning the Bi-District and Area Championships.

Coach Leverton has good reason to be optimistic about his chances of the team advancing even further this year as the team returns eight letterman off last year's squad that includes four starters.

Among the returnees are Allison Lopez, a 5'6" sharpshooter who averaged over 16 points a game. She had 20 three-point shots to her credit. Kassi Redwine averaged almost seven points per game and contributed another 19 three-point shots. Vanessa Quintero, who stands 5'7", averaged 9 1/2 points per game and just over five rebounds a game. The tallest member is Teri Phariss who stands 5'8". She averaged just over eight points per game and almost six rebounds per game.

Others expected to play a main role in a successful season for the Lady Wolves will be Kotia Russell, Erica Grant, Amanda Guerra and Hannah Bassham.

Coach Leverton said besides being experienced in the playoffs from last year the team has good speed, shoot well and have great depth. They play great defense as evidenced by holding their opponents to an average of 47 1/2 points per game.

"I feel like we have a great chance of taking it a notch higher this season," said Coach Leverton. "They have a great attitude and desire to reach that goal."

CHEYENNE ALVAREZ (left) received his blue belt from West Texas Taekwondo Academy in Snyder, under Master Instructor Greg Gafford. He recieved his belt on September 27, 2001. He also received his second degree green belt on July 12, 2001. Koe Alvarez received her orange belt at the same Academy. Koe received her belt on November 1, 2001. Parents of Cheyenne and Koe are Rick and Rebecca Alvarez. Grandparents are Joe Erwin and Abel and Dora Alvarez, all of Colorado City.

Wolf JV close season with a tie

The Colorado Wolves junior varsity football team completed their season last Thursday night in Coahoma with a 20-20 tie thus ending their season with a record of 5-4-1 and a 4-0-1 record in district play.

"We were extremely happy with the way our kids played this season and the way the season ended," said head JV coach David Wood. "Once district began we told them they need to play like they are district champions because we are representing Colorado High School and we are the defending district champions. The kids took it to heart and we began to play much better and since we finished as the only unbeaten team in the district we are the district champs."

El mejor detector de fugas de gas es usted.

Usted nació con el mejor equipo para detectar una situación de emergencia con un ducto de gas natural – sus ojos, oídos y nariz.

La Nariz

Las aromas inusuales alrededor de su propiedad que se parecen a huevos podridos, zorrillo (mofeta), o azufre podrían indicar una fuga de gas natural.

Los Oídos

Preste atención si oye en su propiedad un silbido agudo, un soplo fuerte, o un rugido. Todos estos ruidos pueden ser señal de una emergencia de gas natural a alta presión.

Los Ojos

Las señales visibles de una emergencia de gas incluyen agua o tierra soplando en el aire, vegetación descolorida o un burbujeo constante que emerge de agua reposada.

Tómese el Tiempo Necesario para Llamar.

Si usted descubre alguna señal o todas las señales mencionadas arriba, sálgase del área inmediatamente. No opere ningún vehículo de motor o equipo cerca del área, y absténgase de cualquier actividad que pudiera generar una chispa. Usted debe contactar de inmediato a las autoridades locales de emergencia y también a ONEOK WesTex Transmission al 1-800-562-5879, o al operador del ducto en cuestión.

Westbrook drops Loraine, 50-19

The Westbrook Wildcats broke open a close 26-19 lead over cross-country rival Loraine Bulldogs in the final six minutes of the game with 24 unanswered points to propel the Wildcats to a 50-19 district 6 win.

With the win the Wildcats maintained sole possession of second place in the district behind district champion Ira Bulldogs. The Wildcats finished district with a 4-1 record and 9-1 on the season with the only blemish being the loss to Ira.

Westbrook will take on the New Home Leopards, district champions of district five. The game will be played at Borden County High School in Gale at 7:30 p.m. Friday night.

Westbrook drew first blood in the contest when senior tailback Chris Matlock rambled 72 yards for the first score. The point after attempt (PAT) was no good leaving the score 6-0 in favor of Westbrook.

Matlock would light up the scoreboard again in the second quarter with a 5-yard touchdown run in the second quarter but again the PAT was no good but the Wildcats were up 12-0.

Loraine finally got on the scoreboard in the second quarter when senior end Tony Rivera returned a Wildcat fumble nine yards for a touchdown. The PAT failed leaving the Wildcats up 12-6.

The Wildcats added another touchdown on a 32-yard touchdown pass from Adam Roemisch to Matlock to up the lead to 20-6, a lead they carried into the locker at half.

Loraine cut into the lead in the third quarter when Lee Ybarra threw a 28-yard touchdown pass to George Davila and then kicked on another point on a Davila to Daniel Martinez pass. That would leave the Bulldogs down by the score of 20-13 at that point.

Roemisch hit Cody Rich on a three-yard touchdown pass in the third quarter but the PAT failed leaving the Wildcats up 26-13 after three quarters of play.

The lead would be cut to 26-19 early in the last quarter when Ryan Lucas, playing in his first game since being hurt early in the season, found Ybarra open and hit him on a 39-yard strike but the PAT failed and that would be as close as the visiting Dogs would get.

During the last six minutes of the game the Wildcats would score three more touchdowns, the first on a Roemisch pass to Cody Rich followed by Landon Graham's 11-yard touchdown run. The final touchdown for Westbrook came when Graham gathered in a 42-yard touchdown pass from Roemisch to give the final score of 50-19 in favor of Westbrook.

Loraine head coach Victor Garcia said that despite the tough loss he was proud of the way the kids played in their last game of their high school career," said Garcia. "We saw a big improvement in our last four games of the season and I attribute it to the stepped up play of our seniors. They never gave up and gave 100 percent."

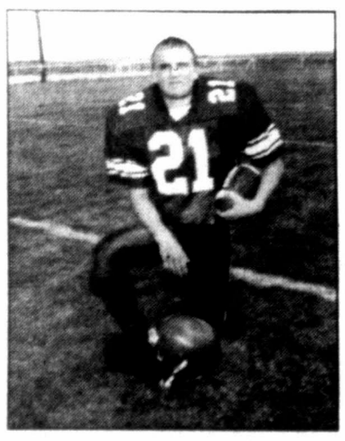

"We are glad to have this one behind us," said head Westbrook coach Andrew Hannon. "They played us tough until we broke it open in the last quarter. Now we must get ready for the playoffs and move on."

Matlock lead Westbrook's offense with 239 yards on 35 carries and scored two touchdowns while adding another touchdown via air mail. Cody Rich caught five balls for 63 yards and scored on two of these. Defensively Cody Rich had five tackles while Roemisch contributed five tackles and had an interception. Matlock added three tackles, one bumble recovery and one interception.

Ybarra was the Bulldogs leading rusher with 38 yards on seven carries while also catching one pass for 39 yards and a touchdown. He also hit on 10 of 22 passes for 91 yards and a touchdown. Lucas was good on two of five passes for 54 yards and one touchdown while being picked off once.

The Bulldog defense was led by Tony Rivera who had 22 tackles. Ybarra added another 16 while Edward Lujan pitched in with eight. Daniel Martinez added another seven.

Senior Roemisch leads Westbrook Wildcats

Adam Roemisch

Westbrook senior quarterback Adam Roemisch has played a big role in the Wildcats successful 9-1 season this year.

In a must-win game week before last against Borden County Roemisch tossed a 5-yard touchdown pass to Chris Matlock as well as running for a 16-yard touchdown that iced the game for the Wildcats.

Against cross-county rival Loraine Roemisch also played a key role in the victory. He threw a 32-yard pass to Matlock that was good for a touchdown pass to Cody Rich, as well as another touchdown toss to Rich in the final quarter. The final Wildcat touchdown came on a Roemisch touchdown toss to Landon Graham that covered 42 yards.

Roemisch has also been a mainstay on defense. Against Loraine he had five solo tackles as well as an interception.

Congratulations to Adam Roemisch on a great season!

NANCY ROBINSON MASTERS, award winning author, presented a program to Hutchinson Elementary students November 12, 2001.

Robinson speaks to Hutchinson students

Award-winning author, pilot, explorer Nancy Robinson Masters visited Hutchinson Elementary November 12, 2001. She presented fun and exciting programs to encourage students to use their reading and writing skills to expand their horizons and achieve their dreams.

Some of her books include The Horrible Homemade Halloweed Costume, The Fabulous Flying Flag Farm, Airplanes of World Ware II, and All My Downs Have Been Ups.

Nancy is a popular inspirational speaker for schools, businesses, organizations, and events. She has spoken to more than 150,000 students in schools across America through her visiting author programs.

Nancy has been described as a combination "Minnie Pearl" and "Will Rogers". She uses her warmth, wit, and down-home style to motivate individuals to climb on course.

Nancy is author of 14 books, including award-winning books for children. Her more than 3,000 feature articles have appeared in a variety of publications. Nancy's writing has taken her around the world including traveling with the National Science Foundation in Antarctica. In addition to her writing, she works as an independent consultant with schools and businesses presenting programs on the power of reading and writing in a free nation.

Nancy grew up on a cotton farm in Jones County, Texas, during the terrible years of drought in the early 1950's. She credits much of her success today to the values, patriotism, and work ethic instilled in her during those difficult years. A licensed pilot, she resides on a farm in the Elmdale community near Abilene, Texas, adjacent to the airport built by her husband and writing partner, veteran aviator Bill Masters. Her most important work in life, Nancy says, is "teaching children in Sunday School."

By Bessie Ann Vaughn

We hope you had a good week with interesting things to do. We also hope your loved ones will find a way to get home this year for Thanksgiving if they have decided not to use the airlines. A train trip might be fun.

Danny and Charla Cain from Anna, Texas and Matthew and Coral Clark plus a friend also from Anna were in Loraine visiting with Ham and Blondie Hamilton recently.

Last week, the Ham Hamiltons met Louise Walker in Big Spring where they had a good visit and a nice lunch together.

Maylon and Peggy Beaty were here recently helping Earl Phillips celebrate his birthday and also to visit with Elba Mae Evans.

Jack Compton was in town last Friday. While here he stopped by the Senior Center, visited with friends and had lunch. Jack is still wearing a beard and several people didn't recognized him at all.

The wrecked automobile parked near the fire station last week caused quite a stir.

The condition of the car was so badly crushed and mangled it was disheartening to see it.

Firefighters had been using it for a study and learning experience.

Fire chief Donny Phillips reported that after some time of debating and showing need of a "jaws of life", (a piece of equipment). The county commissioners agreed to pay for half of it and the firefighters paid the other half from their farm equipment sale.

The jaws of life machinery was bought at Big Country Supply in Abilene and a certified instructor was here Monday night to teach all on hand how to use it. The instructor will continue to come until all the firemen learn how to use it.

The community is very fortunate to have this life saving device and also to have fire fighters that know how to use it.

Tharon and Doris Henderson attended a patriotic program of love, joy and thanks called "United We Stand", performed by Rusk Elementary School in Midland to honor America and our veterans.

The program was held November 9, 2001 at Confederate Air Force Hanger, Midland, Texas. The Henderson's granddaughter, Morgan Henderson, attends 4th grade at Rusk. Several other Mitchell County veterans also attended the program.

Paul and Dawn Kropp and daughter, Danielle, from Conroe visited Dan and Pam Butler. Juanice Butler joined the family for a nice meal.

Laverne Sawyer of Abilene visited with her mother, Gertrude Sims at Valley Fair Lodge on Sunday.

* * *

Phillis Wilson of Hobbs visited her daughter, Diane Sanders last Friday and stayed the weekend. The ladies went shopping in Abilene and had a great time.

Vida Gage told me Monday that she had just returned home from Branson, MO. She went with a church tour group. They had a great time.

She was looking forward to playing Bridge with some Roscoe ladies in the home of Christine Stuard of Snyder on Monday.

J.A. Treadwell and Charlene Walker went to Miami, Texas last week to visit with J.A.'s relatives.

They also went back to Brisco, Texas where J.A. was raised and in Groom, Texas. They ate lunch with his brother and sister-in-law.

In Pampa, Texas they spent a while with another sister-in-law.

They ended their family visits after going to Erick, OK for a sister's birthday celebration. They had a nice visit with all the family members.

Several retired teachers of Mitchell County congregated at Loraine Senior Center Monday, November 12 where they had lunch then went into a business meeting the Mike Lehr, executive state director of retired teachers, directing the business session.

Attending this meeting were Hollis and Nell Gainey, Francies Godwin, Louise Feaster, Mabel Merritt, Joan Lemons, Janie Lou Greenlee, Geneva Young, Martha Kallus, Loma Jean Wynn, Florence Bodine, Mike Lehr, Francine Lehr, Gerry Stone, David Woods, Erna Lou Burt, Mike Burt, Ralston Bruce, Charles Bowen, Mary Rose Bowen, Betsy Aycock, Bob Reily, George Whitten, Carolyn Whitten, Dorothy Fowler, Elaine McMichael and Catherine Morris.

Senior Center

Last Friday on Veterans Day, a patriotic program took place to honor all veterans.

It opened with the Pledge of Allegiance recited in unison, led by Royce Mahon.

Several songs were sung with Vida Mae McDaniel playing piano, and Gus Armstrong on drums.

Song selections were God Bless America, This Land is My Land, My Country Tis of Thee and Mine Eyes Have Seen The Glory, with Ina Vay McAdams as song leader.

A solo, entitled the Statue of Liberty, was sung by Ina Vay McAdams.

Veterans who were recognized and honored were Ray Birmingham, George Lee, Hank Millering, Wayne Dubose, Bobby Graham, Charles Bowen, Royce Mahon, Tommy Wright, Herbert Mearse, Neal Miles, Doug Jones, D.C. Fowler, Gus Armstrong, Bob Motley, J.A. Sadler, A.W. Phillips and Jack Compton.

Those who were killed in wars from Loraine were Owen Richardson, Raymond Price, Angeline Britton and J.C. Forbus.

* * *

The popular meal of green enchilidas will be served Friday, November 16. Bingo is scheduled to be played.

* * *

On Monday, November 19, Aubrey Wilson and the band will be playing.

* * *

October 21 - Randall Smith will sing and do narration.

In observance of Thanksgiving the Center will be closed as usual on Thursday, November 22 and also on Friday, November 23.

Stray dog problems discussed

During an hour long city council meeting last Thursday night, the Loraine city council failed to take action on a growing problem of stray dogs around the city. Wayne Childs, a concerned citizen, addressed the council as well as several others on the problem and said that something has to be done before someone is bit or an outbreak of rabies occurs.

Mayor Catarino Martinez told those assembled that dogs that are picked up are taken to the Colorado City pound and if not claimed within seven (7) days they are destroyed but the city would be responsible for the cost of the week's upkeep and he stated that the city could not afford to do that for every stray dog in town.

In another action, George Martin was appointed to the Mitchell County Appraisal District Board to represent the city of Loraine.

No need to shout!

A classified ad will get attention! Call 728-3413.
