GOP Scores Budget As 'Extravagant'

LAUNCH CAMPAIGN—New Hampshire supporters of General Dwight D. Eisenhower for president led by Joseph H. GENERAL BELIEVED CANDIDATE

Eisenhower Has No Comment On 'Draft' Move In New Hampshire

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower passed up an opportunity today to crack down on a New Hampshire "draft Eisenhower" movement—and some political analysts immediately interpreted this to mean he is virtually a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Although an army spokesman declared the chief of staff still "wants nothing to do with politics," Eisenhower declined comment on the filing in New Hampshire of a slate of nominating convention delegates pledged to him.

Meantime the Draft Eisenhower league in Pennsylvania announced that his name will go before the voters in a second state—Pennsylvania—in a preferential primary April 27.

Eisenhower has had nothing to say with reference to the Pennsylvania plan.

Actually he said not a word in connection with the New Hampshire move either.

But Maj. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, chief of the army public information division, issued this statement:

"General Eisenhower will make no statement with regard to the New Hampshire primary. He has reiterated on many previous occasions that he wants nothing to do with politics. He has not changed his mind."

Gould Lincoln, veteran political writer for the Washington Evening Star, said this makes Eisenhower virtually a candidate.

At the same time, a Democratic national committee official who declined to be quoted by name, said he has become convinced by developments that Eisenhower is "flirting" with the idea of seeking the Republican nomination but probably hasn't finally made up his mind."

The venture of the Draft Eisenhower league into the Pennsylvania running might be calculated to upset the plans of other potential GOP candidates, most of whom have counted on dealing with the party organization there, rather than testing their popularity directly at the polls.

Stassen Sends Letter To HST In Dispute

Pauley's Right To Job Is Challenged

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—Edwin W. Pauley's right to keep his Army department post after making nearly $1,000,000 in commodity speculation was challenged today in an open letter to President Truman.

The Republican presidential aspirant dictated his new blast against Pauley, special assistant to Secretary of the Army Royall, by telephone from Sheridan, Wyo., to his Washington office. It said:

"Now that Mr. Pauley has admitted the extensive nature of his operations, I respectfully ask this question of the President. I ask it in particular view of the urgent need for leveling off food prices and of the anticipated heavy governmental purchases of food in 1948.

"The question is this:

"Does a man who has admitted under investigation that he made approximately a million dollars ($932,703 to be exact) in personal profit, by speculating since the war in increased prices of food and commodities, belong in the position of assistant to the Secretary of the Army for procurement and industrial mobilization?"

Pauley, in a telegram to Stassen last night, denied that his trading was based on "inside information" and accused Stassen of making "false statements."

The White House declined comment on Stassen's qusetion to President Truman.

Pauley soon to resign as a Democratic national committeeman from California, has told congressional investigators that he agreed to dispose of his commodity holdings when he accepted the War department post last Septem-

TODAY'S DREAM

'Chain Letter' Fad Takes New Twist

Inflation has even hit the old chain letter fad—and apparently it was contributing to instead of holding down the popularity of a revival of the 'get something for nothing' scheme which has popped up over the past several years.

The new twist, with a $20,470 pot of gold awaiting each and every paritcipant, came to light in Lubbock Monday. And apparently a lot of people were getting on the bandwagon in a big way.

Here's the way the latest deal works:

Someone with four letters, each containing an identical list of eleven names, sells two letters for $5. The buyer then puts $5 (but no letter) in an envelope and sends it to the man whose name is listed at the top of the letter. Then the buyer crosses that man's name off on both sheets and adds his own name to the bottom of the sheet. Then the buyer makes two copies of the letter and with the two letters he then has four letters. He then sells two letters together to two different persons for $5 who in turn send $5 more to the top man listed.

When the process works its 'magic,' everyone should wind up with a net total of $20,470.

Previous chain letter systems have been cracked down on by Postal department officials but what attitude would be taken on this scheme remained to be seen.

Crew Rescued From Burning U.S. Transport

BY JOE HALL
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 — Two Army transports which sped through gale-swept seas completed the rescue tonight of 46 men forced to abandon the U. S. army's blazing "funeral ship," the Joseph V. Connolly, which still burned fiercely in the north Atlantic some 900 miles east of New York.

The Connolly's survivors, 45 crewmen and one passenger, had shivered for nine hours in lifeboats buffeted by high seas before they were taken aboard the rescue ships—the Gen. R. E. Callan and the Union Victory.

All Aboard Rescued

A message from the Gen. Callan received tonight at the New York port of embarkation, some 16 hours after an engine-room frie broke out aboard the Connolly sending its crew and lone passenger over its sides in a northeast gale, said:

"All survivors picked up. No lives lost. Minor burns and injuries among survivors."

The Gen. Callan's message said the Connolly was ablaze "from stem to stern with constant eruptions from 40 to 50 feet," and that an army salvage tug en route to the scene to guard the burning ship would "not be able to come within one-half mile of the flaming derelict."

The Gen. Callan message said the cause of the fire aboard the Connolly still had not been determined and that it would stand by pending arrival of a salvage tug.

The Connolly was described as a "total loss."

Three Said Seriously Hurt

The Army said 27 of the men were taken aboard the Union Victory and 19 aboard the Gen. R. E. Callan, another Army transport.

Earlier, the Coast Guard announced one of its radio stations at Southwest Harbor, Me., had intercepted a message from the General Callan, telling one of the search planes "that four boats and all survivors have been picked up."

Three of the survivors on the Union Victory were believed seriously injured, the Coast Guard said. It did not have their names, or the nature of their injuries.

Ship Reported Total Loss

Both the General Callan and the Union Victory were bound for Europe before the rescues but were directed by the Coast Guard to proceed to Halifax, Newfound-

Court Says Negro May Enter School

By W. H. MOBLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 — The Supreme court held today that negroes are entitled not only to receive in state institutions any sort of educational training that whites can get in such schools, but also to get it as quickly as any other group.

Strict application of the order would give the State of Oklahoma just three days to admit a negro girl, Ada Lois Sipuel, to the law school at the all-white University of Oklahoma, or set up separate and equal facilities for her.

A new semester in which white students can enter begins January 15. There is no Oklahoma state law school for negroes now. The applicant already has been waiting two years while the case was in litigation.

Oklahoma Courts Reversed

Speed was the main point in today's ruling. Negroes' rights to equal facilities, and to have them in institutions of their own states, had been affirmed by the high court in a Missouri case 10 years ago.

Counsel for Miss Sipuel contended in the appeal that the Missouri ruling should be made stronger on the issue of time, and the high court complied.

The lawyers argued that the

Two Persons Injured In Blaze At Refinery Near Levelland

(Special To The Avalanche)

LEVELLAND, Jan. 13 — A fire which burned for more than four hours was brought under control at 12:20 o'clock this morning after threatening at times to envelop a huge tank of gasoline centered in a tank farm area at the Consumers Co-Operative Refinery three miles west of Levelland.

Two men were injured, one of them seriously, and damage was estimated at between $3,000 and $4,000 in the blaze which brought calls for help from the plant to Levelland and Lubbock Fire departments. V. J. Ille, general superintendent, estimated the damage at 1 o'clock this morning.

Justin D. Henderson, 24, of Levelland, a worker at the refinery, was hospitalized with third-degree burns on the legs, and severe burns on the hands and neck as a result of the fire, but is expected to recover. Melvin Ray, Levelland fireman, was overcome by fumes while fighting the fire and was reported to be recovering early today.

The fire, which started about 8:15 o'clock Monday night in a square slush pit area in a square section which surrounded one of the tanks in the tank farm area, was believed to have been caused from a spark from pumping equipment. A line leading from the tank began leaking gasoline into the dyked up area and the spark apparently started the blaze.

The plant's fire fighting equipment, a truck from Levelland and one from Lubbock was called into action. The firemen played water on the tank which contained a large amount of gasoline to keep it cool while others played chemical foam on the blaze. After a four-hour nip-and-tuck bat-

Americans' Quarters In Germany Are Tops

(NOTE TO READERS: This is No. 14 in a series of articles on present-day conditions in Europe and the problems of the American Occupation in Germay. The Avalanche-Journal's Editor recently returned from a five-week inspection tour, covering the British and American occupations in Germany, in the Free State of Trieste, and our directional work in liberated Austria. On the tour Mr. Guy was one of 14 U. S. editors sent overseas by the Department of the Army).

BY CHAS. A. GUY, EDITOR
The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal

ON MY last day in Germany I drove from Frankfurt to Weisbaden to spend the afternoon and night with a couple well known in Lubbock: Col. and Mrs. Howell M. Estes, jr.

Colonel Estes, one-time commanding officer at Lubbock Army Air Field, now is chief of the Planning section of the Army Air Forces in Germany, headquartered at Weisbaden, the GHQ of the AAF. With Mrs. Estes and their three fine boys, he lives in a house which looks like a Carnegie library and is about as large.

After Howell and Nan had shown me around their residence, commandeered by the Army, from its German owner, I remarked:

"Never did so many get so much for so little," then added, in all honesty, "or deserved it more."

While in the U. S. zone in Germany I was a guest in ten or more homes in which reside our military and civilian people officially connected with the occupation. These included quarters of generals, colonels, a Navy captain and a lieutenant commander, a major a first lieutenant and a State department vice-consul.

Every one of the homes were "scrumptuous," although the higher the rank the "scrumtuouser!"

Trieste Headquarters In Palace

There is not a home in all Texas—perhaps even in the whole United States—which can touch the quarters of Maj. Gen. Bryant Moore, commanding TRUST, which means "Troops of the United States in Trieste."

General Moore and his family live in a relatively few rooms of the world famous Miramare Palace, high on a hill overlooking Trieste and the blue Adriatic—a dream castle built by Maximilian before that unfortunate man left Europe to be emperor of Mexico and to die before a firing squad.

This palace, with 50 rooms or more, not only takes care of General Moore's housing problem and has luxurious space for visiting celebrities. It also serves as our GHQ in Trieste and houses the bachelor officers on General Moore's staff.

Loaded with beautiful paintings, the finest furniture and chandeliers imaginable; replete with beautiful tapestries and everything else under the sun, Miramare could not be duplicated today under any circumstances.

We might come within whooping distance of it at an expenditure in excess of a million dollars, but we couldn't equal it.

MIRAMARE, of course, is abnormal as to size, beauty, setting and everything else. There is no other military installation like it in all Europe—even the British headquarters in the astounding old Krupp family villa, at Essen.

But the residences in which our people live in the various German cities are very nice, indeed, and some of them will top anything we have in Lubbock, including such homes as those of Dr. J. T. Krueger, W. G. McMillan, Arch Underwood and O. W. McLeod.

Better even than the two homes I visited which are occupied by two-star generals was the residence of a Texan who is the Navy's representative on the high command at Frankfurt. Capt. Noble Abrahams, of Houston, is certainly "fixed up" for himself, his China-born wife of American missionary parents, and their two small daughters.

Located in the Koenigstein section of Frankfurt, the Abrahams home was built in 1936 by a director of the I. G. Farben organization and presented to the latter's daughter as a wedding gift.

To reproduce the 18-room house and grounds, including formal gardens, three-car garage with an apartment on top, would cost, in the U. S. today, no less than $400,000.

All Ranks Live Nicely

Former Texas Tech end, 1st. Lt. Jack Wheelis, now in Nurnberg, and Mrs. Wheelis, live with their small son in a lovely eight-room house in a good residential section.

Tastefully furnished, it would cost to construct in Lubbock today something like $20,000, maybe more.

In similar quarters in Munich live Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jones. Bill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Jones, 1814 Avenue J, and is U. S. vice-consul in that one-time Nazi stronghold.

The Estes residence in Frankfurt, a beautiful, two-story affair, would be worth at least $200,000 on the local real estate

INCIDENT IS LATEST IN SERIES OF 17 ARRESTS

Soviet Occupation Forces Arrest President Of Indiana University In Russian Zone Of Berlin

By LYNN HEINZERLING
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Jan. 12—Soviet occupation authorities arrested Dr Herman B. Wells, president of Indiana university, just inside the Russian sector of Berlin and held him for three hours before releasing him, U. S. Army police said today.

Wells' arrest yesterday was the latest in a series of such incidents In recent weeks 17 Americans, including 12 soldiers, have been picked up and detained, some for as long as three days.

The Russians made the arrests despite Allied agreements providing for the free movement of Allied personnel in all four occupation sectors of the city. U. S. criminal investigation agents said there had been a sharp increase in this type of Soviet activity since the breakup of the recent Big Four foreign ministers conference in London.

Wells, on leave of absence from his Indiana university post, now is serving as chief of the U. S. Military government's education branch.

Arrested with him were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rotstein, of New York City and Elmsford, N. Y.; Peter A. Fraenkel of Bloomington, Ind., and Wade E. Faris, soldier driver for the party. Fraenkel and Rotstein are employes of the military government, the last named being assigned to the decartelization branch.

Wells said he believed the Russian soldiers were young and overzealous.

British authorities said they had not noticed any increase in the number of arrests and detentions of British personnel in the Russian

Power To Put Ceilings On Meat Asked

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12— The power to clamp ceilings on wholesale meat prices, if the government thinks it necessary, was asked of Congress today by Secretary of Agriculture Anderson.

Anderson told the Senate Banking committee, however, that he didn't think there would be a need for retail price ceilings on meat.

The secretary testified in favor of an administration bill which would empower the government to impose "selective" controls on wages and prices if other methods fail to control inflation.

At the same time Senator Morse (R-Ore) introduced a bill providing for an economic stabilization coordinator to fight high prices by emergency measures short of price control and rationing.

Investigation Ordered

And the Justice department ordered a federal grand jury investigation of the food industry—"especially into the production, distribution and high price of milk"—in the St. Louis, Missouri, area.

Anderson told the senate group "we do need and we may have to use select price controls" on meat. He did not say whether he wanted the controls on live cattle or only on meat sold by packers.

The bill he supported was sponsored by Senator Barkley (D-Ky.) It would put into effect several key portions of President Truman's 10-point anti-inflation program which Congress rejected last year.

No early change in congress' attitude was indicated although Chairman Tobey (R-NH) of the Banking committee said it "may be necessary to do some unorthodox things" and mentioned the possibility of meat rationing next spring.

Senator Morse called in a speech for "high-minded, non-partisan action by the Congress" to enact "some measures which really will be effective."

Meat Shortage Forecast

His bill would provide for an economic stabilization coordinator whose responsibility, Morse said said, would be to plan a consistent attack on inflation, to provide a clearing house for plans developed by individual executive agencies, to issue directives to individual agencies and to settle disputes among them, and to prepare legislative recommendations.

The bill also would set up an anti-inflation advisory board composed of 12 persons appointed by

Two Killed In Area Accidents

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon in Sanders Funeral home chapel for Clyde Monroe Patterson, 22, who was killed almost instantly in the crash of a truck and a pickup-truck seven and one-half miles north of Lubbock on the Plainview highway about 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Walter Emery, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Emery, 5½ miles east of Monroe, was driver of the truck, which was in collision with Patterson's pickup. Emery was thrown clear of the truck, which rolled over him, but he escaped with only minor injuries to an arm and leg. He was fined $1 and costs in the justice of peace court of C. E. Lynn for failure to have a driver's license.

Returning From Lubbock

Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Patterson, who reside 2½ miles north of Abernathy, was returning from Lubbock when the crash occurred. Young Emery was traveling south.

Heavy traffic on the highway was delayed until wreckage of the pick-up could be removed.

Daniels is suffering from pneumonia and other complications and has been in a coma for many hours.

Daniels served as secretary of the navy in World War I and is the last surviving member of President Woodrow Wilson's war cabinet.

Request Sets Record For Peacetime Funds

U. S. Defense And Foreign Aid Top Items In $39,669,000,000 Budget

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—President Truman sent Congress today a $39,669,000,000 budget, a record-smasher for peacetime, and Republican lawmakers reacted swiftly with cries of "extravagance."

In asking this sum to run the government for the fiscal year beginning July 1, Mr. Truman said it is needed to (1) head off "totalitarian rule" in western Europe (2) maintain "a modern and balanced armed force" for America's security and (3) strengthen "the foundations of our democracy and the happiness of our people."

He also forecast record-breaking surpluses if Congress does not cut the nation's overall tax bill.

Taft Scores Budget

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) called the President's spending recommendations "too high." Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) accused Mr. Truman of "bad faith." Democrats largely went along with the President, calling the estimate reasonable at a time when, as Senator Connally (D-Tex) put it, "the world is in a state of chaos."

The total is about $2,000,000,000 larger than what Mr. Truman asked a year ago for the fiscal year ending this June 30. The biggest items: $11,000,000,000 for national defense, $7,000,000,000 for international programs, including European recovery aid.

Surpluses Predicted

"The plain fact is that our budget must remain high," Mr. Truman wrote in his message to Congress, "until we have met our international responsibilities and can see the way clear to a peaceful and prosperous world."

Prudence demands it, he said.

Turning to the expected surpluses, he declared the treasury should be in the black by $7,500,000,000 June 30 this year and by an additional $4,800,000,000 on June 30, 1949. The $7,500,000,000 figure would be the largest surplus for any year in history and more than the government spent in any of its first 146 years.

GOP Plans Slash

Mr. Truman urged that this money should be used to reduce the public debt, rather than cut the total tax rate.

Republicans, undeterred by Mr. Truman's familiar argument, went ahead with their plans to push through a $5,600,000,000 income tax cutting bill with percentage cuts for everybody.

While GOP leaders said they were astounded at the size of the budget—and said it would be cut—there was little criticism of the $11,000,000,000 for national defense.

Items Said "Padded"

Calling this figure "realistic" Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations committee nevertheless said of Mr. Truman's overall proposals, that he has "played politics." The senator added:

"But no politics, however stated, can avoid the fact that he is suggesting an increase of $2,000,000,000 in federal spending at a time when the security and well-being of the nation demand reduced expenditures."

Chairman Taber (R-NY) of the House Appropriations committee complained to the House: "Every single departmental item has been padded."

Spending Plans "Threat"

Senator Ferguson said he does not see how anyone can talk of a budget that large and at the same time want to reduce the cost of living. "I think that the President acts in bad faith," he summed up.

The spending plans of the administration are "a threat to the general welfare," said Senator Dworshak (R-Idaho).

Democratic Senator Byrd of Virginia said the budget involves a "dangerous gamble with our national solvency" and said it is up to Congress to cut "bloated federal expenditures."

El Paso Milk Firms Named In Price Suit

AUSTIN, Jan. 12 (AP)—Three wholesale milk distributors of El Paso were charged with violations of the state anti-trust law in a suit filed today by Attorney General Price Daniel in 98th district court.

The suit was the fifth to be filed within a week by the attorney general, following more than six months of continuous investigation and courts of inquiry.

Named in today's suit were the Borden company, Price's Creameries, Inc., and Hawkin's dairy.

The attorney general alleged that they have, since the lifting of OPA controls July 1, 1946, operated under an agreement or understanding to fix and maintain the price on purchase of raw milk, and to fix and maintain a uniform price on sales of pasteurized and other milk products, eliminating competition and creating a trust in restraint of trade.

Statutory penalties of from $50 to $1,500 per day from July 1, 1946 to the date of the filing of the suit were sought by the state. The state also asked the court for an injunction to restrain the corporations named from further such alleged acts in the future.

SCHOOL AID PLAN

AUSTIN, Jan. 12 (AP) — State warrants totalling $13,587,063.40 were released today in the fourth payment of a portion of the per capita allocation for schools during 1946-47. The amount represents $9 per capita on each of the state's 1,509,685 scholastics, bringing to $24 the amount paid out thus far against the total $55 per capita.

Parents Boycott School In City

A petition signed by 134 parents of children attending Chris Harwell school Monday night expressed their intention to withhold the children from attendance at the school until heating system repairs are made.

Spokesmen for the group said the petition was outgrowth of an explosion which caused slight damage in the school boiler room Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 6.

To Meet With Officials

Claude Brown, named chairman of a committee to consult with school board members regarding the boilers, declined to estimate how many children will be kept away by parents, beginning today, but expressed belief it will be "a majority."

Other members named to the committee included Gus J. Beevers, Home H. Brady, T. C. Scott and W. L. Simmons.

Brown said he called H. L. Allen, president of the board of trustees of Lubbock Independent school district, after the meeting and advised him of the action. Brown said Howard Day, principal of the school, attended the meeting.

After last Tuesday's explosion the school was closed for the remainder of the week and all automatic features of the boiler were removed, since a pilot light mech-

No One Injured When Blaze Forces 200 From Theater

SAVANNAH, Ga., Jan. 12 (AP)—Fire breaking out in the auditorium ceiling of the historic Savannah theater tonight drove about 200 persons into the street from the late evening motion picture show.

There was no panic and no injuries were reported in the hasty evacuation of the building.

The fire, of undetermined origin, threw a heavy pall of smoke over downtown Savannah and brought out all fire-fighting equipment in a general alarm.

Theater ushers quietly directed the audience to leave after a man reported to the management that he had seen flames over the balcony. The audience was about evenly divided between whites and negroes.

Gasoline, Fuel Oil Supplies Said Assured For 3,000 Years

By ELMER C. WALZER
United Press Staff Writer

BATON ROUGE, La., Jan. 12—The nation's gasoline and fuel oil supplies are assured for at least 3,000 years, Standard Oil company (New Jersey) scientists said here today.

When present sources of these valuable fluids are exhausted, they will be produced from coal and other substances synthetically, according to the scientists here for dedication of a new research laboratory.

While Standard's production and transportation experts are working feverishly, along with other companies to avert fuel shortages, the company's scientists are making experiments that will be the basis for production of fuels many years hence, fuels for new automobiles with higher compression ratios and other improvements.

Supplies Said Adequate

At the present time, supplies of petroleum are adequate for all the nation's needs. However, the oil experts foresee a time when it will be necessary to augment petroleum with other properties, and eventually all liquid fuel will be made by synthesis, it was said.

E. V. Murphree, president, Standard Oil Development company of New Jersey's research subsidiary, made the dedication address. He related how the scientists are working in their laboratories and pilot plants on fuels of the future.

Standard already is making gasoline and diesel fuel from natural gas in a pilot plant which also could produce these items from coal, Murphree said. He stated that synthetic fuels from natural gas have been perfected to the point where they can compete in price with petroleum.

Synthetic Plants Planned

As a result of the perfection in the pilot plant, oil companies are planning construction of commercial synthetic plants at Brownsville, Texas, and the Hugoton field area in Kansas.

Standard oil officials foresaw the time when natural gas may supply 10 to 15 per cent of our domestic demands for gasoline.

Meantime, private government sources are carrying forward vast research programs on production of liquid fuels from coal and oil shales. Thus far the production of these fuels from coal has been too expensive to make it commercial profitable. Later, it is expected the costs will be cut to the point where these fuels made from coal will be in line with other prices.

Former Woman Candidate For U.S. Vice President Dies

BENECIA, Calif., Jan. 12 (AP)—A woman who once ran for vice-president of the United States on the Socialist ticket with Eugene V. Debs and, known as "Red Kate," was a controversial figure throughout the nation, died in relative obscurity Saturday night.

When a mortuary informed one newspaper that Mrs Kathleen O'Hare Cunningham, 70, had died at her home, the brief notice was tucked away Sunday morning among the obituaries on page 12.

But she was page one news back in 1916 when she teamed up with Debs. She was page one again when sentenced to five years federal imprisonment for calling mothers of World War I soldiers "brood sows" (the precise charge was espionage), and page one when President Wilson commuted the sentence in 1920.

She remained prominent until seven years ago, largely because of her crusade for prison reforms. Her efforts had widespread effect in California, her home for the past 20 years.

Times changed in more ways than one for "Red Kate." Once, as she espoused Socialist causes, she was proud of being called that. In recent years, as "Red" became a connotation for Communists, she expressed staunch anti-Communist views and came to hate the name.

She was a founder of Commonwealth college, Mena, Ark.

Use Of Synthetic Rubber In Tires Said Gets Best Result

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 12 (AP)—Proper combinations of synthetic and tree grown rubber produce better automobile tires than prewar all tree rubber, L. A. McQueen, vice president of the General Tire and Rubber company, said here today.

McQueen, here to attend a sales clinic with Texas and Louisiana distributors, predicted a "permanent future" for synthetic rubber and added that his firm "will be a permanent part of the manufacturing industry in Texas."

The company operates a government owned synthetic plant at Baytown and a government built tire manufacturing plant at Waco.

The Waco plant, recently enlarged by the company, will be a permanent operation, McQueen said.

Baby Elephant Gets Special Treatment On Trip To Texas

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 12 (U.P.)—Butch, 5½ month old elephant said to be the smallest ever brought to this country, paused here today enroute to Gonzales, Tex., for a meal of head lettuce, syrup, baby pablum and grade A milk.

The 3-foot, 200-pound youngster caught pneumonia during a rough sea trip that began 51 days ago at Mysore, India, for the largest animal shipment since the war, and rested under a blanket in its own corner of a baggage car when it arrived at union station this morning.

But Aarumai Singh, one of three young Indian mahouts accompanying the animals to the winter home of the Dailey Brothers circus, thought Butch, a female, was improved when the pachyderm wrapped its trunk around the flash attachment of a news photographer's camera.

'She must be feeling better," Singh said. "She wants her picture taken."

Frank Fizzell, chief trainer for the circus, who valued Butch at $10,000, said veterinarians who examined Butch at Boston and Trenton, N. J., prescribed penicillin injections but he refused.

'Okay for humans," he said, "but we're taking no chances with Butch."

Butch shared the car with eight larger elephants, five camels in a wired-off area, three zebras and 50 monkeys and three rock pythons in cages.

Establishment of a new Presbyterian church in southwest Lubbock was announced Monday.

The new church was approved by the Deacons and Elders, official bodies of the First Presbyterian church, in a joint session Sunday afternoon. Some of the members of the First Presbyterian church who live in the vicinity of the building site at Thirty-third and Tyler, will form the nucleus of the new church to be organized in the near future.

A tract of land at Thirty-third and Tyler was made available for site of the new church.

The church will be the second new church to be sponsored by the First Presbyterian church of which Dr. J. M. Lewis is pastor. The chapel Presbyterian church in the Arnett-Benson addition was begun as a chapel of the First church in 1940, and was organized as a Presbyterian church in February, 1947.

Store Executive Speaks At ABC Club Luncheon Monday

"Viewers with alarm" have been present in every age in history, always with about the same results they obtain today, B. Watkins, department store executive and incoming president of the American Business club, told the Methodist Men's club at its luncheon in Lubbock hotel Monday. He drew a parallel between modern times and the barbarism and brutalities of various past ages.

Each generation, he said, has always charged the succeeding generation with falling into disrepute and "going to the dogs," but he believes that evaluation of conditions from a proper distance brings hope to the world today, and that "we must have a long time faith in the worthiness of that for which we work, allying ourselves always on the side of decency and right."

Watkins was introduced by Ruel Martin, program chairman. Clarence Whiteside presided, and called for a vote on whether the club should meet next week due to presence in the city of Harold E. Stassen, presidential candidate, who is to speak at a joint meeting of Jaycees and the Lions club. The club voted to hold the regular meeting. Invocation was by W. G. McMillan.

The average motor car contains 45 pounds of copper, mostly in the radiator.

OFFICIALS TO PUSH WORK

Fuel Oil Rushed To East From Texas City As Strike Settled

TEXAS CITY, Jan. 12 (AP)—Two tankers carrying over 250,000 barrels of heating fuel oils tonight were enroute to eastern delivery points after being delayed here 10 days by a strike of CIO union employes.

The tanker Bulklube, destined for New York City and Providence, R. I., sailed this afternoon, approximately eight hours after the Pan American, first tanker to leave Texas City docks since 1400 Pan American Refining company employes walked out New Year's Day, departed for New York City.

To Push Loading

Paul Miller, director of coordination for Pan American, said a third tanker immediately replaced the Pan American at the refinery's docks and began taking on a cargo of various grades of fuel oils.

The company official said he was unable at present to say where the third tanker, to sail tomorrow, will unload its cargo other than at an eastern port.

Miller denied an earlier report that at least three other tankers are waiting to be loaded or are expected here within a matter of hours.

"Only two were here at the end of the strike and another arrived yesterday," he said. "But we are prepared to load the vessels as quickly as they arrive."

Agreement Is Okayed

Prior to the strike, which also involved 240 employes of the Pan American Pipe Line company, the Texas City refinery shipped approximately 2,500,000 gallons of fuel oil daily to eastern points.

The 1640 oil workers International Union, CIO, members walked out in demand of a 28-cent per hour wage increase and continuation of a 22-cent per hour cost-of-living bonus granted by the companies several months ago.

Following a 17½ hour meeting Friday afternoon and early Saturday, union-management negotiators agreed on a 12-cent per hour increase in basic wages and continuation of the bonus. The union's membership ratified the agreement Saturday night and began returning to work at 8 a. m. Sunday.

Bus Company Suspends Service To Celebrate 24th Birthday

HUGO, Okla., Jan. 12 (AP)—The Jordan Bus company won't be running its regular schedules in Texas and Oklahoma tomorrow, for all of its employes will be at a birthday party.

Officials decided to suspend service while the company celebrates its 24th birthday. Abner R. Jordan, company owner, will entertain employes and their families and other guests at breakfast and lunch.

The company runs buses between Vernon and Wichita Falls, Tex., and Idabel, Okla., in addition to its Oklahoma runs.

British Official Denounces Reds

LEICESTER, Eng., Jan. 12 (AP)—Russia got its second blast from high British officials within eight days last night when Deputy Prime Minister Herbert Morrison asserted "provocative" Soviet policies are risking another war and impeding world economic recovery.

On Jan. 3, Prime Minister Attlee denounced Russian Communism as a "new form of imperialism" threatening Europe.

Last Thursday the British cabinet met to survey British foreign policy. Informants said the decisions reached would align Britain closer to the United States in world affairs.

Suppression Is Charged

Morrison told a regional council of the Labor party that Britain wants to cooperate with Russia, but added:

"We cannot be expected to be happy when country after country in eastern and southeastern Europe find themselves subject to undemocratic and unrepresentative Communist governments, coupled with the suppression of other political parties and freedom of the press, wholesale witch hunting, and even the very unjudicial execution of non-Communist political leaders.

"Nobody is seeking to upset the internal security of the Soviet Union," Morrison declared, but added," "can they not begin to reverse engines and to discard provocative policies by which they are not only running the risk of another war at some time, but which are impeding the economic recovery and progress of mankind?"

Acquittal Verdict Returned In Drunk Driving Case Here

An instructed verdict of acquittal was returned Monday afternoon by a county court jury of which Jim McCandlies was foreman, in the drunk driving action naming F. G. Follis.

The case had been filed in September. When trial was called, the law firm of Burks and McNeil for the defense, pointed out to the court a discrepancy between the complaint and the information. The complaint was refiled and after a plea of innocent had been entered, defense attorneys informed the court of another technical error, Judge Walter Davies said.

Other judgments filed Monday in county court:

George Cato, about 55, a negro, fined $50 and costs of court, on a drunk driving charge; Charles Earl Crable, 45, of Plainview, $100 and costs, drunk driving; W. H. Miller, 49, of Lubbock, $50 and costs, drunk driving; Roy Fulcher, 30, $100 and costs, aggravated assault.

New Hampshire was one of the early colonies that achieved wealth from natural resources rather than from the soil.

Mohandas Gandhi Will Begin Fast For Hindu-Moslem Peace

NEW DELHI, Jan. 12 (U.P.) — India's spiritual leader Mohandas K. Gandhi said today he would begin a fast tomorrow to attempt to bring about Hindu-Moslem unity.

He announced at his prayer ceremony that he would begin his fast after breakfast tomorrow in the attempt to bring the warring religious communities together.

In previous instances of great disunity, Gandhi customarily began his fast with a similar announcement and continued it until satisfied that leaders of both sides were making attempts at peace.

Hog Prices Expected To Remain At Peak

Prices to producers of hogs this year are expected to remain at a high level, with consequent retail prices that will be as high, or possibly higher than at present, on the basis of a report from the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, which shows breeding intentions far below the 1936-45 ten-year average, both in Texas and the nation as a whole.

The report shows that Texas produced more pigs in 1947 than in 1946, but the total of 2,244,000 in 1947, while three per cent above 1946, was 14 per cent below the ten-year average.

Fall farrowings last year were 12 per cent above 1946 for the state as a whole, but some west north central counties reported a drop due to short grain reserves.

The picture for 1948 is no brighter. Based on breeding intention estimates a total of 186,000 sows will farrow the coming spring, about the same number as in 1947, but 19 per cent below the 10-year average of 230,000 head. Breeding intentions in the United States indicate 1948 spring farrowings of about 7,732,000 sows, smallest number since 1938.

Thus, in the opinion of E. M. Regenbrecht, extension service swine husbandman, the price outlook for the producer is good. He foresees, however, that grains will be in much demand and consequently hard to get.

The specialist believes there is no economy in feeding hogs to extremely heavy weights, suggesting that hogs weighing from 225 to 265 pounds, which can be produced more efficiently, are preferred on the market.

George Carter Suffers Minor Injuries In Auto Collision

Minor injuries were suffered by one person in a collision about 9:55 a. m. Monday four miles north of Abernathy on U. S. highway 87.

A 1947 car driven by Earl Taylor Horton, 32, of Fort Worth, salesman for the Gates Rubber Co., skidded after the driver applied brakes behind a truck going the same direction and the Horton car was in collision with a car being driven southward by Oliver Wendel Shadden, 27, of Hale Center, Star route, a farmer, the highway patrol reported. George Carter of 2804 Twenty-eighth in Lubbock, salesman for Becknell Wilkins Hardware Co., was an occupant of the Horton car and was flung from the car when the vehicle turned around after the collision. Carter was taken to his residence in a Rix ambulance.

The late President F. D. Roosevelt has his name or picture on about 40 stamps of 10 countries outside the United States.

AIRLINE HOSTESSES

ACCORDING to a story from the Braniff department of public relations, hostesses of their airways are not trading their seniority for other jobs or a trip to the altar as hastily now as in the past. During 1945 there was a one hundred per cent change in hostess personnel of the airline, but for the past twelve months, only one-third of the girls have given up their air careers, Miss Dorothy Brindley, chief hostess, says. At the end of the war the majority of the airlines' hostesses were 22, while today the average age is 25.5.

It's quickly pointed out that the increase in average seniority cannot be blamed on bachelor non-availability nor any noticeable decrease in the usual standards of effort of the American male between 20 and 30. No hostess phones are given to inquisitive callers unless proof double positive is furnished that he is a member of immediate family or an old —and very old—friend. If a young man should read this who has had luck in getting by that rule on chance meeting, then he may know he is really sharp.

Incidentally, two recent brides from other cities who have come here to make their homes are former airlines hostesses and they are terribly attractive: Mrs. Marshall Hendryx ad Mrs. Robert Smith.

IN THE MAIL

WE had a large beautiful gray cat with aqua colored eyes that we thought a great deal of, but last week we found him dead on the highway, hit no doubt, by a fast driving motorist.

We miss the pet and would like to get another to take its place. We wonder if some one has a kitten for us, either a Persian or a Maltese.

Will come up after it, at any time.

Thank you,
Mrs. Corbin Barton,
Slaton.

DEAR Margaret Turner:

While in Lubbock last Thursday I lost the belt to my dress and since the dress is no use to me now, I hope the person who found it will see this notice and send it to me.

The belt is serise crepe and I don't know where I can find matching material.

Thanks for any help.
Mrs. Ed Blair,

JUST A MEMORY

POLIOMYELITIS is just a memory to Ann Nall, who a year ago was a patient in Lubbock Memorial hospital. The child, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Nall of 2713 North Second St. was in the hospital two weeks, then in bed a week at home. Since then, she has had no ill effects and has grown considerably, said her mother. She "responded wonderfully to the Kenny packs," her mother added.

MARRIAGES

THERE were about 2,000,000 marriages in the United States in 1947, a total second only to the all-time peak of about 2,285,000 marriages in 1946, according to statistics furnished by the Metropolitan Life Insurance company.

Yes, and the society writers of the Avalanche-Journal wrote stories about at least 2,000 of those weddings.

DOCUMENTS

THE Freedom Train may not come within 300 miles of Lubbock, but if a proposal to Congress that copies of the historic documents on the train be made available to schools and references is passed, perhaps the children can at least come to know what it is all about. The AAUW endorsed the proposal and suggested that such titles as "The American Heritage" be used for the collection of such documents.

The fact that thousands of people have stood in line to view the documents on the Freedom Train and that other thousands were turned away by the crowds, shows there is need for such a publication, it is pointed out. It is generally conceded that the quality and character of the history textbooks for our elementary and secondary schools falls far short of what might be desired, and such an edition of authentic source material would be of great educational value.

U. S. Said Facing Showdown With Reds On Occupation Of Berlin

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Reports from Munich of an impending wholesale withdrawal of American personnel from Berlin, leaving only a skeleton force to go through the forms of continuing four-power military government in the city, cannot be properly evaluated pending clarification of the full program.

At first glance, such reports automatically give rise to a question as to whether occupation authorities have learned the lessons of experience in other occupied capitals. Where Anglo-American authorities have not been backed by ample strength, they have succeeded only in being pushed off the map by the Russians.

U. S. Faces Showdown

If we permit that to happen in Berlin, the Germans will surely begin to swallow the Russian line that the Anglo-American program in western Germany is deliberate partition of the country. We wil get the blame for what Russia is doing.

Nothing would please the Bolshevists so much as to drive the western powers out of Berlin and then use it for the seat of a regime which they would proclaim as the rightful government of all Germany.

And the system Russia would use is more familiar to the Germans than the forms of Democracy with which we are trying to acquaint them in the west. When Secretary Marshall said that the Russians were operating in the image of Hitler's Germany, and Herbert Morrison, Britain's Socialist leader, recognized them as being truly rightist, not leftist, they were striking at something which might prove vitally important in the struggle for control of Germany.

All-Out Fight Urged

The Munich report says some remnants of American military government will remain in Berlin in order to avoid an impression that we have given up all efforts to reach some accord with Russia on unification. That is all right so far as it goes, but actual maintenance of a strong foothold in the capital itself is more important.

It is too late now to bemoan the fact that, while we were still trying to buy Russia's postwar cooperation, we permitted her armies to occupy more of Europe than was necessary. Berlin, Prague and possibly Vienna could have been occupied by Americans, and a little more foresight might even have put us in Belgrade. This might have changed postwar history.

"Token" participation in the occupation of countries controlled by Russia has been ineffectual. There is no reason to believe that it would prove otherwise in Berlin.

State Governments Council Seeks Cut In Federal Taxes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—An organization of state governments has asked Congress to reduce federal excise taxes, especially those on local telephone calls, intra-state electric energy, gasoline and admissions.

The organization, the board of managers of the Council of State Governments, also urged Congress to take quick action to assure adequate fuel oil supplies to shortage areas where it said the "health and well being" of citizens is at stake.

The shortage has been particularly acute in northeastern states.

Tax Relinquishment Sought

The board concluded a weekend session by adopting resolutions and electing Governor Horace Hildreth (R-Maine) president of the council for the ensuing year.

Further on taxes, the board called on Congress to:

1. Adopt legislation relinquishing to the states the federal tax on employers to cover the cost of administering state employment security programs. The states would assume the responsibility for administration of unemployment compensation and employment service programs. This has been a long standing controversy in Congress.
2. Extend to non-community property states the tax "advantages and credits" now enjoyed by community property states.
3. Amend the federal inheritance and estate tax laws to provide "more equitable" division of the revenue between the federal government and the states.

Tidelands Ownership Asked

Other resolutions requested Congress to:

1. Require federal agencies administering airport construction grants to channel all such grants through state governments "in the same manner as all other major federal grant-in-aid programs are administered."
2. Recognize and confirm "state ownership and control" of tidelands—offshore areas. The board said the Supreme Court gave the federal government a "paramount right" in these lands, but did not confirm or deny either state or federal ownership to them.
3. Reaffirm the "recognition by the Congress of the rights and interests of the states to a voice in the development of their water resources."

Constitutionality Of O'Daniel Anti-Strike Law Is Upheld

WACO, Tex., Jan. 12 (AP)—Judge D. W. Bartlett today overruled an attack on the constitutionality of the O'Daniel anti-strike law and on the validity of an indictment against Mrs. Mary Adams today. Selection of a jury was begun.

Mrs. Adams was charged with using force and violence in an attempt to prevent Miss Myrtle Arnett from working at the Southern Maid bakery plant where a strike was in progress.

The defense charged that the anti-strike law was invalid because it is discriminatory, is class legislation and provides an excessive penalty, one to two years imprisonment.

The defense attacked the indictment on the ground there were no wage earners, day laborers or women on the grand jury commission or the grand jury.

Bartlett said that there were no women on the grand jury because they are not eligible in Texas and said also that there is no systematic exclusion of day laborers or wage earners from grand juries in this country.

Marine Commander Denies U. S. Forces To Be Sent To Holy Land

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12 (AP)—The commandant of the U. S. Marine corps labeled as "untrue" a report that Leathernecks would be sent to protect the American consulate in Palestine.

Gen. Clifton B. Cates, in an interview yesterday before a rally opening Marine Corps Reserve week here, said the Palestine situation is "none of our official business."

Not Looking For Trouble

Cates and Fleet Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., were among the top-ranking officers attending the rally.

General Cates told a reporter that the announced dispatch of 1,000 Marines to the Mediterranean was "perfectly normal" and that the contingent "will merely replace those that are already there.

"We're not looking for trouble," General Cates said, "and if we did, we wouldn't be sending a scrub team to take the place of the varsity."

Admiral Halsey reminded the wildly cheering gathering that "American history is not all behind us."

"New pages," he said, "will be written this year and in the coming decade. I have no doubt that the most interesting footnotes will be written by the Marines."

The retired wartime commander of the Third and Fifth fleets said "we must not forget that when American policy has been to guard the peace, the Marines have been just as ready, willing and able for the job."

TEXAN GETS POST

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP) — The White House announced today reappointment of Walter M. W. Spawn of Texas to the Interstate Commerce commission for a term expiring Dec. 31, 1954, and Maj. Gen. P. T. Hill as Marine Corps quartermaster general for a two year period starting Feb. 1. President Truman will send the nominations to the Senate this week.

Congressmen Seek Publications To Keep Constituents Happy

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Each year about 10,000 or more yearbooks of the Department of Agriculture are given to Texans by their Representatives and Senators in Congress. It is a part of the service they render the voters.

At government printing office prices, this means about $20,000 worth of free books.

Ask Your Congressman

If there is a book published by the government, or a set of books, or a map of any particular state, or body of water or section of that body of water, or a pamphlet, or a report or hearing text that you want . . .

Write your congressman.

He will send it to you with his name stamped on it. More than likely it will not cost him anything. But if it does, he'll probably send it anyway rather than risk incurring your wrath.

Congressmen have thousands of copies of such publications allotted them each year to distribute as they choose.

The government printing office prints about 30 catalogs listing these publications in small type. Each catalog contains up to 30 or 40 pages.

Wall Maps Available

The interior department allots wall maps of the United States to each congressman. The Coast and Geodetic survey will give them maps of lakes, rivers, coastlines. Some of them look good in your den, and others are useful for fishermen.

You can get them by writing to the man whose name appears in the upper right-hand corner, in lieu of stamps, on all those envelopes you get around election time.

Congressmen guard closely their "folding room accounts" where their publication allotments are kept. And they watch closely to see that they go, properly stamped with their name, to people who vote in their districts.

Swaps Grid Tickets

When new editions of the USDA yearbooks come off the press, Texas congressmen usually enter into spirited bidding with members from more urban centers like Chicago and New York City.

One Texas congressman, when the 1947 book was published, gave his option on five Army-Navy football tickets to David Potts (R-NY) for 100 of the volumes. Potts with many constituents who wanted to see the game, could use the tickets easily. The Texan needed the books for his rural constituents.

NEW SEAL — Gloria Fyock, White House secretary, displays the design for the official seal of the newly created U. S. department of the air force. President Truman approved seal.

FLYING FARMERS MEET

DALLAS, Jan. 12 (AP) — Forty directors of the Flying Farmers association—men who ride fences, feed stock and go on coyote hunts by air—will hold a two-day convention here beginning Wednesday. The flying farmers will bring their private aircraft from points as far off as New York state.

Britain's Need Said Greatest

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP) — The State department estimated today that Great Britain needs $5,348,000,000 in outside financial help under the Marshall plan—almost twice as much as any of the other 16 participating countries.

This information, given the Senate Foreign Relations committee, represents the first administration effort to break down how much assistance from all sources each nation may get from the western hemisphere.

France Is Second

Second to Britain in need in the State department estimates is France which it said requires a total of $3,701,000,000 for metropolitan France, the French zone of Germany, and dependencies during the 4 1/4 years beginning April 1.

Italy ranks number three with a deficit figure of $2,913,000,000 and the combined American-British zone of Germany next with requirements of $2,499,000,000. The Netherlands stands fifth in the listing with $2,436,000,000.

The State department documents emphasize the United States does not plan to make up the full amount of the deficits in all the countries.

Other Nations To Help

Canada, the Latin-American republics and the World bank are counted upon to furnish about $4,100,000,000—about 15 percent of the overall total deficit which is put at $19,400,000,000 to $22,100,000,000.

The State department originally called upon Congress to appropriate $17,000,000,000 as the American contribution but last week erased this over-all price tag in favor of yearly donations and loans.

In explaining the deficit table presented to senators, the State department said it "is a measure of the (recipient) country's need for outside assistance to supplement use of its own resources in achieving certain levels of consumption and investment."

Indiana Standard Oil Reduces Fuel Prices In Midwest Area

CHICAGO, Jan. 12 (U.P.) — The Standard Oil company of Indiana today announced price reductions on tank-wagon quantities of gasoline, naphtha, kerosene, tractor fuels, burning and diesel fuels in eight mid-western states.

The price cuts are not general, officials said. Many points in South and North Dakota, Minnesota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Illinois, Michigan and Indiana will benefit, but areas such as Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul will not, they said.

The reduction ranges from one-tenth to six-tenths of a cent a gallon. The firm said it cut prices on the basis of an Interstate Commerce commission amendment which scaled down the freight increases of a recent order.

J. P. Watt Selected 'Man Of Month' By Lubbock Jaycees

Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce named J. P. Watt, chairman of the Christmas activities committee of the Jaycees, as man of the month for December and a key was presented to Watt by Marion Sanford at the Jaycee luncheon in Hilton hotel Monday noon.

Tom Gordon announced the world premiere of W. G. McMillan's Afrcian hunt film and invited Jaycees to atend the Jan. 23 program at Senior High school.

Cal Lee and Chas. Dvoracek were introduced as new members.

Legislation To Assure State Title To Tidelands Is Studied

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—New legislation removing all question as to state ownership of tidelands is being drafted here by a subcommittee representing the attorneys general of 44 states.

Hope that the measure soon will be passed by Congress and signed by President Truman was expressed today by one of the group studying the matter.

"We expect to reach an agreement soon among ourselves as to the wording of the legislation," said Texas Attorney General Price Daniel.

"Since the President's veto the United States Supreme court has handed down its decision in the California case. That pending decision had been given as the reason for the veto.

Legislation Is Studied

"We contend that the case did not settle the question of ownership, but only gave the federal government paramount power to use the tidelands and title to mineral rights off California's coast. We are hopeful the President will approve the new measure."

Nebraska Attorney General Walter Johnson is chairman of the group working on the legislation. Those consulting with him include the following attorney generals: Hugh Jenkins, Ohio; Fred Howser, California; Eugene Cook, Georgia, and Nels Anderson, South Dakota. Also in on the conferences are John Madden, assistant attorney general of Louisiana, and Elton Ryder, jr., assistant attorney general of Texas.

Issue Not Settled

The only four states whose attorney generals have not endorsed the position they have taken on the tidelands ownership dispute, said Daniel, are Alabama, Arizona, Montana and Missouri.

"This legislation would remove all doubt that might exist in any quarter as to the state ownership of lands under navigable waters," Daniel continued.

"The U. S. Supreme court in the California case definitely did not settle this issue."

He then observed that over and beyond the claim which other states maintain to submerged land ownership, Texas is in a particularly distinct position because of terms under which it entered the union.

These annexation provisions would give Texas a strong claim in its fight for the disputed lands in the event that other states as a collective group lose their tussle, he said.

Army Estimates Texas Projects

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—A number of Texas projects were on the list made public today of projects making up the budget estimated of the Army engineers for flood control and rivers and harbor construction.

It was released by Rep. Engel (R-Mich), chairman of the House Appropriations subcommittee handling funds for waterways projects, who emphasized that the estimates are recommendations only and subject to revision by the committee and Congress.

As a matter of fact, he said he considers the $471,440,000 budget for flood control work, including maintenance and administration, too high. He estimated the committee will be able to cut it to $400,000,000, or about 25 per cent more than the $298,322,825 appropriated for the current fiscal year.

The following are listed by Engel as making up the budget estimates for construction work only, totaling $107,350,000, for rivers and harbors projects:

River and harbor construction —Sabine-Neches waterway, $380,000; Gulf Intracoastal waterway (Galveston district), $2,119,000; Brazos island harbor, $325,000; Dam B-Neches and Angelina system, $1,318,000.

Following is the breakdown of budget estimates totaling $381,895,000 for construction work on projects listed as "flood control, general:"

Red river levees and bank stabilization below Denison Dam, Ark., Tex., and La., $1,000,000; Benbrook reservoir, $4,950,000; Lavon reservoir, $3,200,000; Grapevine reservoir, $4,300,000; Whitney reservoir, $5,172,000; Hords creek reservoir, $280,000; San Angelo reservoir and floodway, $5,360,000; Denison reservoir, Tex., and Okla., $500,000.

CHURCH THERE TO STAY

HINGHAM, Mass. (AP)—The parishioners of the Hingham Center Evangelical Congregational Church already are planning the church's 200th anniversary in 2047. At 100th anniversary celebration a fund was set up to provide for the observance 100 years hence.

In 1850 there was not a mile of steam railroad anywhere west of the Mississippi river in the United States.

A railroad journey from New York to Jacksonville, Fla., required 27 1/3 hours in 1900 but only 19 1/3 hours in 1944.

Lubbock Quint Said First Team To Receive Shoddy Treatment

SPORTS Spotlight
By Bob Cone

Old Bert Kahn had that super abundance of enthusiasm Monday . . . And he had a good reason for it . . . J. D. Kirkpatrick was back in camp, training for defense of his Golden Gloves heavy title here next month . . . What Bert hopes to do is develop a team which will not only go through the state, but into the national meet in Chicago as well . . . a South Plains team, if you please . . .

• • • •

The behind the scene story of J. D. Kirkpatrick's hesitancy was this: His young wife didn't want her handsome, Don Juan Cassanova type of hubby to get all battle scarred . . . And J. D. is a neat looking gentleman! . . .

• • • •

We have at our elbow some enlightening information from an Abernathy fan . . .

"This letter is not written to criticize your ability to write sports . . . But, due to the fact that Abernathy has taken the lead in the north zone of district 4-A, we would like to see an up and coming team get some of those fancy writeups that ever loving Tahoka has been getting.

"This is a little late, Partner, but our Post friends seem to have gotten their wires crossed as the score wa. 50 to 42 Abernathy, not 46 to 32. Preston made 20 points, not 18.

"Andrews may be pretty good with their point-a-minute average, but in the last three games Abernathy has averaged 50 points and they haven't been held under 38 points all year, and that was by the favorites of 1-AA, namely Plainview . . . (And this is a stray note, or a wrong font or something . . . Earl Scudday and Putt Powell won't like you for calling Plainview the 1-AA favorite) . . . And the last game with them was 44-40 . . . And Abernathy was ahead of Plainview about all the game . . . But lost in the last few minutes of the game . . .

"But the way our man Preston is an all-stater, we believe because he has been high point man in almost every game, no matter who won the game . . .

"If you don't want to take the word of this writer ask any team that Abernathy has played . . .

It was signed 'Some evah lovin' Abernathy supporters . . .

Yep, and you haven't been reading The Morning Avalanche as you should . . . This newspaper has always plugged the Abernathy teams . . . Coach Purvis and Supt. Miller will tell you that . . . But why don't you folks who write in sign your names? . . . Guess we'll have to get in touch with Mrs. Eddins over at Sudan to defend us . . . She's our South Plains sports operative, you know . . . We see a girlish touch to the Abernathy letter . . .

Speaking of Lubbock and Amarillo and the 1-AA cage race . . . Just now, (and you, Scudday, don't get too excited) it looks like the Westerners might have something like an infinitesmal edge on Powell's favorites for honors in 1-AA . . .

Westerner Quintet Is Set For Heavy Work

Drill on offensive formations highlighted activities at the Lubbock Senior High gym Monday afternoon, as the Westerner cage squad, fresh from a weekend invasion of El Paso, returned to the practice floor.

The Westerners, slated to tangle with Amarillo's Golden Sandies in the lid-blaster of the 1948 District 1-AA basketball season here Friday night, were back in top condition with the return of veteran Jack Alderson to the squad. Alderson missed the Border city tussles because of a mild case of influenza, but appeared to be entirely recovered at yesterday afternoon's session. Richard Herchenroeder, hampered by an ankle injury for the last three weeks, ran through the drill without any sign of a limp.

Coach Harvey Dunn revealed that he was entirely pleased with the showing of the Westerner quint against three strong El Paso teams and said he believed the Lubbock quint would be able to make a strong bid for the district title. Plainview and Amarillo still hold the favored positions in the loop race, but the Westerners have made steady improvement since the opening of the season.

HOGS' RELATIONS GOOD

FAYETTEVIBLE, Ark., Jan. 12. (AP)—The relationship of the University of Arkansas with the Southwest Conference "has never been better in history," despite rumors to the contrary, Dean Robert Leflar, head of the university's athletic council and acting conference president, declared tonight.

Les Cook, new coach of the Dallas Texans in the U. S. Hockey League, coached the Kirkland Lake Blue Devils in 1940 when they won the Allen Cup, emblematic of the senior championship of Canada.

El Paso Conditions Weren't Foreseen

Lubbock High school officials last night blamed "unforeseen circumstances" for the unsatisfactory housing situation faced by the Westerner basketball squad, on a trip to El Paso last weekend, and said it was the objective of the school to furnish the "best of equipment and accommodations" for all athletic teams.

The "unsatisfactory situation" resulted from the placement of the Lubbock High basketball squad in a Y.M.C.A. dormitory for the three-night stay in the border city. The boys were housed in a large barracks-type room with approximately 100 soldiers and were inconvenienced and disturbed by noise at all hours of the night.

Not Pinch-Pennies

E. J. (Pinkey) Lowrey, High school athletic director, said last night that the director of Interscholastic league activities for the city of El Paso had made all room arrangements for the team and that he had no reason to believe that the accommodations would not be entirely satisfactory.

Lowrey denied that any "pinch-penny" attitude of school officials had influenced arrangements. Lowrey pointed out that the football team last fall stayed in the best hotels in the towns where games were played and that the players were furnished the best meals that could be obtained, regardless of the cost. All athletic teams have been furnished new equipment at frequent intervals. Lowrey pointed out, and he said this was the first case where good rooms were not available.

Superintendent of Schools R. W. Matthews revealed that basketball trips out of the South Plains area were expected to "pay their own way," but said that it had always been the policy of the school to furnish the best meals and housing to athletic teams.

Would Pay For Itself

"When the trip first came up," Matthews said, "I was told that the boys wanted to go and that it would provide good experience for them. It was understood that it would more or less pay its own way from expense money received. Since it was not a conference game, and out of this area, it was not considered that the school would pay a large amount for expenses." Supt. Matthews said that a definite budget was followed by the athletic department and that the officials tried to conduct financial matters in a businesslike manner.

It was reported that the High school athletic department received $300 from El Paso for expenses, but only $150 remained after payment of bus charter fare for food and hotel expenses for the squad.

Dexter, N. M., one of the other cage squads playing in El Paso last weekend, stayed in private rooms at the Y. M. C. A., but the Amarillo squad stayed at the Hilton hotel, it was reported.

Spur Basketeers Win Three Court Games

SPUR, Jan. 12 (Special)—Guard Joe Simpson spurred the Spur High school basketball team to a 41-23 victory over the visiting Matador Matadors tonight in a District 3-A cage battle moved ahead one night due to a P-TA meeting Tuesday.

Matador held a 13-12 lead at the half, but Simpson hit the netting for 14 points in the second half to lead Spur to victory. Simpson ended the evening with 17 points for high honors, while Center Giesecke led the Matadors with eight points.

The Spur boys B team also won, 30-14, with Melvin Lindsey, ex-junior high school player at Lubbock hitting for 16 points. Spur built up a 16-5 lead in the first period and freshmen finished the game for the home team.

Spur girls turned in the third victory, beating Matador 29-13, with Billie Hindman making 21 of the points.

Tech's Raiders On Road Jaunt

A 12-man Texas Tech basketball squad takes to the road this morning in the first invasion of foreign soil for Border Conference court action, Coach Polk Robison's cagers playing games with Arizona university, Arizona State at Tempe and Arizona State at Flagstaff on successive nights.

The first game will be in Tucson, Ariz., Wednesday night, when the Red Raiders will oppose the same defending Border loop champions they defeated in Lubbock Friday night, 65-38. Neither team is expected to be changed at all, but the Wildcats will have the advantage of playing at home.

Opposition Is Strong

Thursday night the Raiders will invade Tempe for a clash with an Arizona State quintet that appears to be strong, but not as strong as the university five. Tempe has had rough going on its early schedule, faring only fairly well against conference teams.

The following night the Raiders enter Flagstaff for the final game of the trip and not too much is known of the Flagstaff group, except that they perenially have strong teams.

Coach Robison believes that his team has a rocky road ahead of it and that they must play at least as well against all three as they played at home against Arizona. The Raiders are undefeated at the present in the conference and must return with a good record to stay in the title race.

Those making the trip include Ardis Barton, Don Grove, Jiggs Jackson, James Hill, Wayne Bowles, William Banks, Jay Kerr, Gene Gibson, C. W. Dukes, Gilbert McAlister, Winston Churchill and James Cole.

Brown, Wight Win Ragtime Doubles

Ben Brown of Lubbock and Peck Wight of Abilene formed the winning duo in the Ragtime Doubles bowling tournament rolled Saturday and Sunday at the Lubbock Bowling club alleys.

Brown notched a 622 and Wight had a 660 for a grand total of 1,282, three pins more than Ben Brown and Leroy Behrens of Lubbock, who rolled a 1,279. Brown bettered his mark with Wight by hitting for a 653, while Behrens had a 626. In third place was Behrens and George Tate of Lubbock, who finished with a total of 1,274. Behrens slipped to 592, but Tate had a 682.

Brown High Roller

Ben Brown rolled the high single game in the tournament, splitting the maples for a 279, although Tate pressed him closely with a 277.

High three-game series was rolled by Wight, who had the scintillating tally of 696 on single games of 213-255-228.

The out of town bowlers competing included George Luce, O. D. Busby, Marcus Welch and Roy Tolley, San Angelo; E. B. Dozier, C. G. Runyan and Jake Douglas, Big Spring; Wight of Abilene; and Paul Braden, Austin.

Local bowlers were Ben and T. I. Brown, Tate, Behrens, Tubby Reed, Sam Carter, A. E. Christensen, Dale Vannoy, Ken Kimble, Si Barkley, Al Glassman, G. Young, J. K. Giles and J. A. Peels.

The defending Ragtime Doubles champions were Barkley and Young.

MULESHOE TAKES LOSS

SPRINGLAKE, Jan. 12. (Special)—The high school basketball team turned in a 35-23 District 4-A conference victory over the visiting Muleshoe quintet tonight, as Jack Angley led his team with 16 points.

Don Sanders led the visitors with seven points but it was not enough. The Muleshoe B team won a 17-13 victory, but the Springlake girls team took a 14-13 game to hand the home high school two out of three games.

Among those intending to enter, but who have not submitted entry blanks, are Bill Henderson, Lonnie Balch, Dingy Davis, J. D. Kirkpatrick, Gene James and others.

Broken down by weights, the fighters submitting entry blanks include: bantamweight, Billie L. Brackeen of Slaton lightweight, LeRoy Malouf of Lubbock, David Fawcett of Lubbock and Pete Jenkins of Muleshoe; welterweight, Walter Knapp of Crosbyton and J. C. Petersburg Fighter Joined By Stevens

By BOB CONE
Avalanche Sports Writer

A tall, handsome slugger from Petersburg came back to Lubbock Monday and began training for defense of his heavyweight Golden Gloves title.

The love for fighting was too strong in J. D. Kirkpatrick's heart and, despite family pleas, he was back and punching, punching, punching, getting himself in shape for the grueling defense of his title at Tech gym Feb. 2-3-4-5.

At the same time another heavyweight, John W. Stevens, 23, of Paris Junior college, told his father, M. D. Stevens of Lubbock, that he probably would enter the Lubbock regional.

Has Impressive Record

He, too, has an impressive record. In 123 fights he has lost but five, and, for the past two years, has been defending heavyweight in the East Texas area.

"He's a fighter," the father, M. D. Stevens, said. "Young M. D. fights, too, at the Boys club. I'm proud of my boys. They know how to fight and have the hearts of fighters."

Stevens won a beautiful robe in the Pacific islands as a Marine fighter, and, when he went on Iwo Jima, he sent it home to Lubbock for his family to keep. He, like all Marines, didn't figure they'd come back.

His entrance here would give the South Plains one of the most impressive fight teams in the state. Bill Henderson, Kirkpatrick, Stevens, Gene James, Jim Witt, Lonnie Balch, Billie Brackeen, all are big names in Golden Gloves fighting. With them to Fort Worth would go Bert Kahn who has given his time and his cash to get together an All-South Plains fight team.

"Bo" Sexton, the official, and an old time fighter himself, had much to do with Stevens deciding to fight with the South Plains team.

Sexton and Kahn have each year been the outstanding figures in the promotion of the Golden Gloves here.

Opens New Plains Era

The 1948 Golden Gloves is expected to open a new era in South Plains successes in the fight game. In all probability most of the young fighters entering here will not only win at the state, but will continue on to Chicago to fight in the national tournament.

Henderson, Kirkpatrick, Stevens, Brackeen, are champs. Balch will be tough. He, too, was a Marine fighter. And his boyish face must not be misunderstood when he crawls through the ropes.

Said Kirkpatrick Monday:

"They just made it so interesting I couldn't say 'no.'"

Mrs. Kirkpatrick wasn't around, but it was obvious, by the smile on his face, that he had convinced her that entering the 1948 Gloves tourney here was the thing to do.

Black Demons Turn In 35-12 Win Over Junior Cowhands Monday

The Junior Cowhands went down to defeat before the Black Demons in basketball play at the Boys club yesterday afternoon, losing 35-12, as Keith White potted 17 points to keep the hoops hot, while Jim Washington led the Cowhands with six points.

Gene Tollison scored 12 points to lead the Juniors to an 18-9 win over the Frenship Juniors, and Billy Bohner's 10 points led the Seniors to a 23-14 victory over the Frenship Seniors, paced by Roy Gillit with six points.

Wednesday afternoon the Boys club Midgets and Juniors will play host to similar teams from Sudan in games beginning at 4 p. m.

ON SOUTH PLAINS CAGE FRONT

Top Court Action Seen Tonight As District Cage Teams Collide

Another week of fighting on the court has arrived and tonight sends several strong teams out from the shelter of their own gyms and into those of their opponents for continued action on the South Plains Cage front.

And one of the headline cards will pair two strong quintets from the southern division of District 4-A in action at Sundown, where the challenging Antelopes present one of their better cage fives against a determined Sundown crew.

Game Rated Toss-Up

On the basis of comparative scores, never ironclad in basketball, the outcome of the game is a toss-up. Sundown beat Post 29-22, while Abernathy beat Post 40-32 three nights later. This would make the Antelopes one-point favorites, but when two conference teams clash, you can throw the book out the window.

Both teams are undefeated in their division of 4-A and both have imposing records. Sundown has played nine games and has won eight, scoring 359 points to their opponents' 237.

The Abernathy record is not quite so clean, but is good enough to be impressive and they have been winning more consistently since the Christmas holidays.

Three lettermen, two of them brothers, sparkle on the Sundown offensive, John and Douglas Ethridge and Jim Hogue, Doug Ethridge has scored 90 points, his brother, 87, and Jim Clark has notched 48. Thus these three players have scored 225 of the team's 359 total.

Two girls games will be played before the varsity event, one game starting at 6 p.m., the other following at 7 p.m. and the main feature at 8 p.m.

Sundown presently is enlarging its 500-seat gym by 500 seats and when finished, the 1,000-seat gym will be one of the best on the South Plains.

Other top attractions in the south half of District 4-A are O'Donnell at Slaton and Tahoka at Post, while the three games in the north division of District 4-A are Littlefield at Olton, Levelland at Muleshoe and Sudan at Morton.

Spur took a 41-23 victory from Matador to open District 3-A play last night and Paducah goes to Lockney, while Floydada visits Crosbyton in other games tonight.

Denver City invades Andrews tonight and Meadow goes to Union in other South Plain cage features.

Whitharral Cagers Not Pressed To Defeat Pettit High Team

PETTIT, Jan. 12. (Special)—The visiting Whitharral High school basketball team turned in a District 6, Conference B, cage victory over Pettit High school here tonight, 23-11, as Bill Jones paced the invaders to victory.

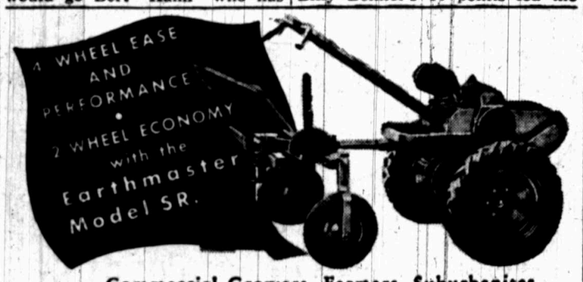

An "A" girls team from Whitharral also won from Pettit, 28-16, with Delvina Shedds and Betty Joe Hobbs, both of Whitharral tying for scoring honors. The "B" girls took the third victory back to Whitharral, winning from Pettit, 16-3.

Jews Push Plans For Partition As Battles With Arabs Continue

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

JERUSALEM, Jan. 12—Against a background of virtual civil war the Jews of the Holy Land went forward today with their plans for a provisional government for the separate Jewish state to be established in accordance with the decision of the United Nations.

There was no surcease from the crackle of gunfire which has sounded day and night since the Nov. 29 decision of the United Nations, and new killings today boosted the unofficial death count to 694 in Palestine for that period.

Bank Is Robbed

Three Arabs were killed and seven British soldiers were wounded in a gun battle that developed in Beit Safafa, a Jerusalem suburb, an official announcement said. The Arabs were directing sniper fire at an army fire brigade fighting a blaze in a flour mill, and the battle resulted when the troops tried to clear out the house where the snipers were situated.

In the Jewish coastal city of Tel Aviv a gang of eight men and a woman robbed the Barclays bank of between $50,000 and $75,000, Jewish informants said. Five small cash boxes inside the bank were looted. The bandits fled.

Arabs Hit Partition Plan

Two Jews were killed in Haifa and on the Haifa-Tel Aviv road.

The Arabs refused to discuss plans for the part of Palestine allotted to them by the United Nations. The Arab higher committee declared it would neither recognize partition nor permit it to be accomplished.

Details of the planning for the provisional Jewish government were disclosed by a spokesman for the Jewish agency, who told a news conference that the bloodshed of the past six weeks has not retarded progress in any way.

Militia Not Included

He said the formation of 15 ministries of the provisional government, which will have an annual budget of approximately $50,000,000, would be completed by the end of this month.

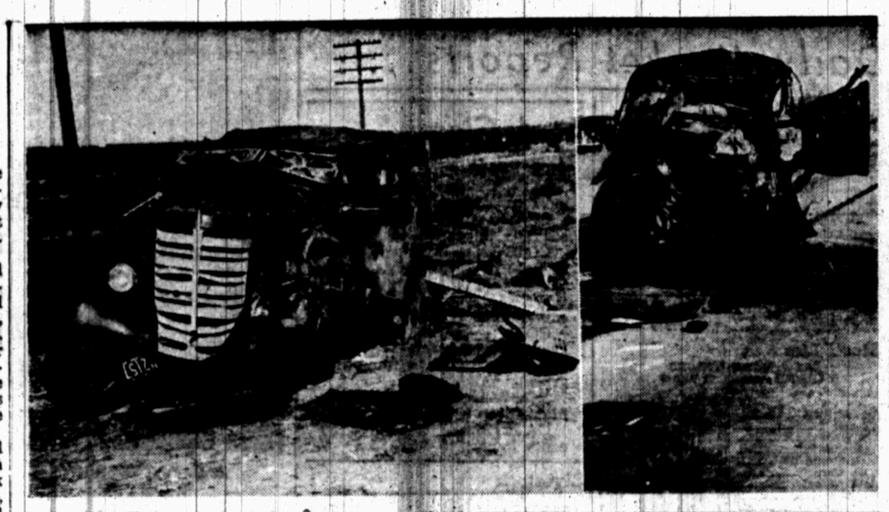

The spokesman said that security provisions, including formation of a militia, was being excluded from the planning since "that is a matter for Hagana at present and will be integrated when the time comes."

Hagana is the Jewish militia.

International Force Studied

(At Lake Success, N. Y., the Jewish agency declared it would ask the United Nations to establish an international military force to enforce the partitioning of Palestine.

(Moshe Shertok, head of the agency's political department, said the agency would also ask the United Nations to assist in arming and financing a Jewish force of from 15,000 to 25,000 men immediately to keep law and order in the Jewish state.

SCENE AT TRUCK-PICKUP CRASH—The pictures above show the two vehicles which were involved in the crash of a truck and pick-up truck on the Plainview highway about seven and one-half miles north of Lubbock about 9:30 o'clock Monday morning. Top left picture shows the truck after it had come to a stop in the bar ditch after overturning from the impact. Top right picture shows the pickup before it was moved from the highway. Bottom picture shows another view of the pickup and how it was practically demolished in the crash. Clyde Monroe Patterson, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Patterson, 2½ miles north of Abernathy, driver of the pickup was fatally injured. Walter Emery, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Emery, 5½ miles east of Monroe, driver of the truck miraculously escaped serious injury. (Avalanche Staff Photos).

LAUGH OFF DROUGHT

LLANO, Tex. (U.P.)—Drought, described by some ranchers as worst they remember on the Edwards plateau of Texas, is not causing the cattle and sheepmen any financial loss. Americans Stationed In Germany Have Finest Homes For Quarters market. It was chosen by the colonel because it is more like an American residence than most German homes.

Two-star Air Forces Gen. Bob Walsh, in Berlin, has a similar layout, with formal drawingroom, grand hall and spacious grounds.

IN STUTTGART, Dr. Charles C. Winning, our top civilian official, has a magnificent estate bordering our Military government headquarters. Once inhabited by one of the minor Hapsburgs, it is almost a palace, with the spacious grounds and interior trappings called for in such an establishment.

To give you an idea of its size, Doctor and Mrs. Winning had a luncheon for our group with about 40 persons present. They had room and sufficient help to have had 60 guests had they so desired.

I could go on for columns telling of the super-duper living arrangements of our people in Occupied Germany, liberated Austria and in Trieste. It is sufficient to say, however, that in 99 per cent of the cases—if not a flat 100 per cent—they are living much better overseas than they would be at home.

Our People Pay For What They Get

There are those, of course, who will decry the fact that our people are living so well. Some prompted by envy, the others by a queer, martyr complex, will scream against what they like to call "ostentation."

For my part, I do not feel that way at all.

In the first place, any American forced to live overseas in nasty weather, and constantly depressed by the rubble of bombed-out cities, should have everything good he and his can get.

In the second place, our people are paying for their quarters. The fact that a colonel's $120 per month computation of quarters can get him a mansion and at the same time give a needed income to the German owner of the property looks all to the good to me.

Frankly, I think Americans are chumps to pay for the use of essential properties in Germany, Austria, or Trieste. I think we should take them and use them and charge the cost to the future governments of those places so that the guilty war-mongers, themselves, would have to pay the freight.

* * *

A GREAT deal of misinformation has been scattered around the U. S. about the number of servants our military and civilian representatives have in Europe—and about who pays for them:

Here are the facts:

It is true that Americans overseas today have more servants than they have ever had before or likely ever will have again.

It is true that in the more expensive, commandeered homes the Army pays two maintenance people, who are Germans, to keep the places in good conditions so rightful owners may have no complaint when their property eventually is returned to them. These maintenance employes, one a man, the other a woman, also do gardening and maid work, respectively. A gardener is a necessity in Germany, because people must raise their own vegetables—or go without.

It is true that the larger establishments have three or more servants in addition to the maintenance employes, but they are paid for by the householder and not by the taxpayer. In Europe, larger staffs of servants are needed, because each is a specialist. A cook does nothing but cook; a housekeeper keeps house and a laundress does laundry.

With expert domestic help available for a few marks per month, plus food and quarters, our people naturally are employing such help. And the Germans in American service are more than satisfied. Any German would give his or her right arm to work for the Americans, because that means both extra food and comfort.

(TOMORROW: The British are in Germany, too. In tomorrow's article, Mr. Guy will describe the ruins of the Krupp plant in Essen, where the old "Big Bertha," of World War I fame, sits dejectedly in the midst of broken concrete and twisted steel.)

Communism Is Said Real Threat To U. S.

Belief that the United States faces real danger from Communism and that war is likely was expressed in a talk by Bob N. Massengale, legal adviser and chief clerk in the Department of Public Safety at Austin, before 125 members of the Allen Bros. post of the American Legion in a talk Monday night.

Massengale recently attended a seminar in Washington sponsored by the American Legion for the purpose of discussing Russia and Communism.

He was invited to speak before the Lubbock post and made a special trip to Lubbock to speak.

Members of the post also voted to revive and sponsor a drum and bugle corps within the next four weeks. They discussed decline in membership of the post from 921 last year to 738 Monday, and formation of a drill team to act as firing squad at military funerals.

Pauley Challenged

ber. He said he already has disposed of 90 per cent of them.

Thomas Offer Accepted

Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okla) offered meanwhile to turn over all records of his own commodity trading to the Senate Appropriations committee and a committee official said the offer had been accepted.

The committee is investigating commodity dealings by public employes as an aftermath of charges by Stassen that "government insiders" made huge profits from speculation. Thomas disclosed over the weekend that he has dealt in commodity and other markets for years. Like Pauley, he denied profiting from "inside information."

The appropriations group today named seven naval officers and one civilian employe of the Navy department as traders in commodities.

The one civilian employe on the list, which resulted from a survey of all personnel in Washington having anything to do with purchasing, was Mrs. Eva M. Brisker, an employe of the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts.

Mrs. Brisker's name was included on a list of heavy traders made public last week by the Department of Agriculture, on which she was listed as the holder of 230,000 bushels of wheat futures last Sept. 17.

Other Traders Named

She is the wife of Harry Brisker, customer's man for Bache and company, the brokers who handled the commodity account of Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham, President Truman's personal physician. Graham is to be called before an appropriations subcommittee tomorrow morning to tell the story of his transactions.

In addition to Mrs. Brisker, the Navy department said these officers have acknowledged trading in commodities in an unspecified period:

Capt. William L. Eagleston, USNR, material division, executive office of the secretary, Washington; Lt. Col. H. C. Tschirgi, USMC, Marine corps headquarters, Washington; Capt. V. H. Schaeffer, USN, office of the chief of naval operations, Washington; Capt. L. E. Haugen, USN, Bureau of Ships, Washington; Comdr. H. E. Cooper, U. S. Naval school, Newport, R. I.; Comdr. James H. Fortune, Jr., USN, U.S. Naval postgraduate school, Annapolis, Md., Comdr. Oliver L. Billingsley, USN War Agency Liquidation unit, Interior department, Washington.

The department said replies to the president and confirmed by the Senate.

It does not carry any price control, rationing or allocation powers.

Meanwhile, the Agriculture department, in a report on the meat situation, said livestock feeding developments are bearing out previous forecasts of a reduced supply of meat this year.

Supplies will be shortest, it said, during the late spring, summer and early fall. The reduction will be accompanied, it said, by higher prices.

Production Incentive Less

Farmers marketed an unusually large part of the winter supply of hogs in December, the department said, because of high prices and scarcity of corn. As a result consumers will feel the effects of a reduced pork supply earlier than usual.

Likewise, feeders were said to be fattening fewer cattle for the same reason. Lamb slaughter this year is expected to be smaller than in 1947, when it was the smallest in 18 years.

The department said that while hog prices are higher than a year ago there is much less incentive to produce and feed them because prices of feed have advanced considerably more than have livestock prices.

The Justice department did not give details of the St. Louis investigation. It named four special departmental assistants to work with U. S. Attorney Drake Watson of the eastern Missouri district in conducting the probe.

anism could not be obtained, Allen told a Morning Avalanche reporter. An extra man was hired with the specific duty of watching the furnace at all times while the school heating system was on.

As it now operates, Allen explained, the boiler fire is turned off and lighted manually, by the attendant. The danger of fuel oil leakage into the boiler before it ignites was eliminated by this means.

Allen indicated he would call a school board meeting in the near future.

The text of the petition was as follows:

"We, the undersigned, are hereby expressing our intention to withhold our children from Chris Harwell school until measures are taken to correct the danger in the present heating system."

area in recent weeks.

American criminal investigation agents said Corp. Stanley P. Claycomb of New Enterprise, Penn., had been missing since Dec. 23 when he left Tempelhof airport, where he was stationed, presumably to visit a doctor.

The investigators said they suspected foul play, but had found no clues. Russian authorities were asked if they had arrested Claycomb, but replied in the negative, the agents said.

An American liaison officer who negotiated with the Russians for the release of Americans arrested in the Soviet sector recently said American protests had effected an improvement in the situation.

Change In Aid Plan Costs Under Study

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP) — Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) hinted strongly today that the Senate Foreign Relations committee will not be bound by the $6,800,000,000 figure submitted by the Truman administration as the initial cost of the "Marshall plan."

Noting that there are many differences in estimates prepared by the State department and those made by the Harriman committee which investigated this country's ability to supply Europe's needs, Vandenberg said:

Total May Be Changed

"Does not the whole comparison clearly indicate that there is nothing sacrosanct about the figure of $6,800,000,000?"

He added that the final figure might be more or might be less and said that the committee would not "ipso facto" ruin the program if it made some changes.

Vandenberg made his comments during testimony by Richard M. Bissell, jr., executive secretary of the Harriman committee.

Four Burglaries At Spur Investigated

SPUR, Jan. 12 (Special)—Sheriff Charlie Kemmel tonight continued investigation into the breaking and entering of four Spur places Saturday night—two of them through skylights—with only a small amount of loss resulting.

Two or three other burglaries were attempted unsuccessfully.

A small amount of money was taken from a cash register of Red Front drug, probably nothing more.

Tools Are Taken

Tools and a small box containing attendance cards were taken from Spur Baptist church.

An attempt was made to knock the knob of Campbell Furniture company safe, and screws were removed from safe hinges—but the safe was not entered.

A gun was taken from a car in a private garage. It and the tools were found on top of the Campbell building, the sheriff said.

Investigation Made

Sheriff Kemmel, members of his department and Texas Ranger W. E. Renfrow of the Lubbock district ranger office investigated the burglaries.

The drug store and the Campbell Furniture company are in the same block and burglars were believed to have crossed roofs to go from one place to the other.

They took ropes and let themselves down through skylights of those buildings, Sheriff Kemmel said.

Court Ruling

original findings had been so applied that a negro student might be required to make application for special schools or classes and then to wait "interminibly" until they were set up.

The order reversed Oklahoma State court findings in the student's suit against the regents of the university, and required new proceedings in line with the new rule.

Miss Sipuel had demanded an order for immediate admission to the university law school itself, and state courts had turned her down.

At Oklahoma City, Dr. M. A. Nash, chancellor of the state board of regents, said "Oklahoma will of course abide by the court's ruling." Te added:

Split Decision Given

"The regents believe Oklahoma's problem now is one to be settled by the citizens through their legislature."

Nash noted it would take millions of dollars to provide separate facilities in all specialized or graduate study courses and it might be too costly all at once. He said it is up to the people of Oklahoma to decide the policy to be followed.

The court found itself in another of the 5-4 opinion splits which often occur in civil rights cases, in throwing out the conviction of a young Canton, Ohio, negro sentenced to a life term for murder.

Justice Douglas, in the majority opinion, held that a confession was "wrung from a child by means which the law should not sanction."

The negro, John Harvey Haley, was 15 at the time.

Justices Black, Murphy and Rutledge joined Douglas, and Justice Frankfurter wrote a seperate concurring opinion.

Justice Burton, for the dissenters, contended that "undisputed facts left comparatively little need for such a confession as was signed by Haley."

Another action by the court assured a ruling on the constitutionality of peace time rent controls.

The tribunal agreed to hear a Justice department appeal from a decision of the Cleveland district court which had declared the 1947 Rent Control act invalid.

The court refused to hear two appeals in widely publicized cases. They were those of:

Benjamin F. Fields, sentenced to 90 days and a $250 fine for contempt of Congress on allegations that he failed to produce records in a House committee investigation of a surplus screen wire transaction.

Donald M. Johnson, son of former Federal Judge Albert W. Johnson of Lewisburg, Pa., and Jacob Greenes. Each was sentenced to two years and a $10,000 fine on charges of defrauding the government in receivership and criminal cases heard by the elder Johnson. The judge had been acquitted at the same trial.

In an international development, 14 Nazi doctors convicted at Nuernberg of crimes against humanity asked the Supreme court to intervene on their behalf.

WOOL IS BOUGHT

SYDNEY, Jan. 12 (AP)—United States buyers were foremost in competition at the Sydney wool sales today. Selling prices indicated an upward trend in comparison with closing quotations of 1947. The greatest demand came for spinners-type Merino of which supplies were not plentiful.

STOCKS FAIL TO GAIN

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—The President's budget message aided aircraft stocks today but the response of many market leaders was a retreat to lower territory.

Most oils ran into profit cashing after an early bulge. The White House proposal for a sizable increase in military planes buoyed the aviations although the majority finished well under the day's best. Prices hardened here and there in the final hour as Wall Street envisioned considerable congressional opposition to the spending program. While advances of fractions to a point or so persisted at the close, losses of as much were widespread. Dealings slowed at intervals but volume ran to 1,000,000 shares against 980,000 Friday.

Selling, on the whole, was attributed mainly to doubts regarding business, taxes, European relief and mounting corporate costs.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off .3 of a point at 65.4. Of 981 issues registering, 531 fell and 241 rose.

Boeing, Grumman and United Aircraft touched highs for the past year but emerged with only modest gains. Douglas Aircraft was up 1 at 53⅛, and lesser improvement was retained by Glenn Martin, Lockheed, Republic and Consolidated Vultee. Standard Oil of Ohio, with interests in the new Texas field, added 2⅛ at 30.

Gulf Oil suffered a belated sinking spell on word the company would offer additional stock to shareholders. The issue tumbled as much as 7 points and ended off 5½ at 66½. Down a point or better were U. S. Steel at 76½, J. I. Case 44, Owens-Illinois 70⅝, American Tobacco "B" 67⅛, Union Pacific 160½, Pacific Western Oil 47½, Textron 14⅞ and Homestake Mining 39¾.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP) — Cotton futures turned irregular in slow dealings today. Mill buying and short covering accounted for early gains, but the market subsequently eased on scattered profit taking and hedging.

The President's budget message recommending a lower farm price support attracted attention but most traders felt that a lower government loan rate would be offset by a possible inclusion on farm labor costs in parity which would boost the parity figure.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 12 (AP) — Substantial gains were scored by wheat on the board of trade today following advices from the southwest stating the government had re-entered the flour market. Old crop corn contracts also were higher, but the December delivery lagged. The cereal advanced more than 5 cents at times, although holding under seasonal highs. The May contract went above $3.00. Smaller upturns in corn were sufficient to send all deliveries except December to new seasonal peaks.

Wheat closed 5 to 6¾ cents higher, May $3.04½-3.05, corn was ½ lower to 3¾ higher, May $2.65¼-⅝, oats were unchanged to 1¼ higher, May $1.25¼-⅜.

extinguished. About 400 barrels of fuel was estimated to have leaked into the dyked up area and burned. The tank was also damaged, Ille said.

Had the tank exploded, it would have threatened five tanks containing 5,000 barrels of fuel each and four more containing 10,000 barrels of various types of fuel.

At no time was the main part of the big plant, which was believed to have cost $500,000 when built several years ago and estimated unofficially to be valued at $1,000,000 now, endangered.

Board Of Education Elects San Antonio Man President

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 12. (AP)—The state Board of Education today elected Gilbert Denman of San Antonio as president and approved teacher's pay schedules for Texarkana and Fort Davis.

The salary schedules were approved after state school Superintendent L. A. Woods reported they had been adjusted to meet requirements of the state minimum salary law.

The board also upheld action of the Dallas school trustees expelling two boys for failure to meet vaccination requirements.

This action was taken without comment after Woods informed the board that court decisions have upheld school districts in such matters. The Dallas board's action had been appealed to the state board by William Walker of Dallas for reinstatement of his sons who have been out of school since Dec. 1. Walker stated that his sons had been vaccinated at infancy, and in a letter to the board said that the order of the trustees violated his "right to religious freedom."

Lonnie Robbins Charged With Murder In Poison Death Case

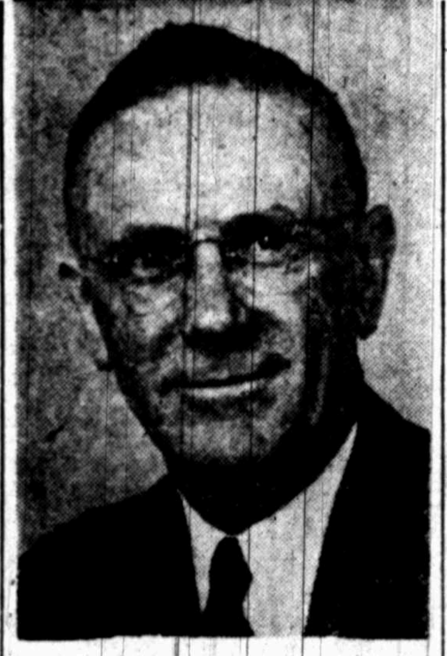

CLINTON, Ark., Jan. 12 (AP) — Lonnie Ambrose Robbins, portly bespectacled 49-year-old farmer, was charged formally with first degree murder today in the poison death of his bride, whom he met through a matrimonial agency.

The complaint, charging first degree murder, was filed by Prosecuting Attorney R. E. Rush in Van Buren circuit court. It accuses Robbins of administering poison to Mrs. Sadie Sue Dudley Robbins, 54. The couple were married at Abilene, Tex., Christmas Day and Mrs. Robbins died on New Year's Eve, four hours after her arrival at Robbins' farm near here.

An autopsy performed at the request of Abilene relatives showed a lethal amount of strychnine had been consumed by Mrs. Robbins.

Sheriff Boyce Casinger said he had been unable to locate $1,850 which relatives told him that Mrs. Robbins had in her possession when she left Abilene. He said Robbins told him he knew where her jewelry was but knew nothing of the money.

At an Anglo-Saxon wedding it used to be the custom for the father of the bride to present one of her shoes to the bridegroom.

GOP Scores Budget

ever, said: "The President has figured expenditures just about as closely as they can be trimmed."

Senator Lucas (D-Ill) regretted "the necessity of having such a large budget" but said he was "encouraged to know that once again we can balance the budget and have a surplus to apply on the national debt."

"I don't see how we can avoid a heavy outlay for military and naval preparedness," commented Sentor Connally. "The world is in a state of chaos and we can't afford to lay down our arms until we know where we are going."

HST Expects High Revenues

The $39,669,000,000 is the largest spending estimate ever listed in a peacetime budget message. But it would not be the largest amount actually spent in a peacetime year.

Actual expenditures for the year ending June 30, 1947 set a peacetime record of $42,505,000,000, although Mr. Truman started off with a budget estimate of only $35,860,000,000.

The President is counting federal revenues next year of $44,477,000,000. He estimated they should reach that total provided business, incomes, employment and prices stay about where they are and Congress supplies "an effective anti-inflation program."

For this year he estimated receipts would hit a peacetime record of $45,210,000,000.

Budget Broken Down

Use of the surpluses this year and next to slash the debt would bring it down to $246,200,000,000 by mid-1949. To make that possible, along with a flat $40 tax reduction for every taxpayer and dependent, Mr. Truman again urged Congress to hoist corporation taxes by $3,200,000,000. This is the amount he estimated the $40 cut would cost.

The $39,669,000,000 in the budget would be split among these broad fields:

National defense $11,025,000,000, an increase of $279,000,000 over the present year; international affairs, including the Marshall plan, $7,009,000,000, a $1,476,000,000 increase; veterans' care and benefits $6,102,000,000, a decrease of $530,000,000; social security, health and welfare $2,028,000,000, up $68,000,000; housing and community facilities $38,000,000, down $75,000,000; education and general research $387,000,000, an increase of $310,000,000; agriculture and agricultural resources $906,000,000, up $292,000,000; natural resources $1,626,000,000, a boost of $447,000,000; transportation and communication $1,646,000,000, up $83,000,000; finance, commerce and industry $190,000,000, down $182,000,000; labor, $116,000,000, a $19,000,000 increase; general government $1,157,000,000, a reduction of $316,000,000; interest on the national debt $5,250,000,000, up $50,000,000; tax refunds $1,990,000,000, a cut of $59,000,000; reserves $200,000,000 up $80,000,000.

Texas Officers Alerted For Two Hard-To-Hold Fugitives

ROCKWALL, Tex., Jan. 12 (AP) —Officers over Texas were alerted today to watch for two hard-to-hold fugitives who escaped for the third time from the Rockwall county jail last Friday.

In Carthage Sheriff Corbett Akins of Panola county said he was ready with his pack of bloodhounds to go out again for the pair should they come his way.

The two were Maxie Lott and Johnnie Orr, charged with armed robbery and theft.

Sheriff W. J. Price said they escaped Friday about 6 p. m. by taking some pipe fixtures and breaking the door lock.

"We don't know which way they went," Price said. "We think they got hold of a car."

Various Thefts, Holdups Probed

Police investigated a burglary of Plains Furniture company, 909 Thirteenth street, in which $12 to $15 in pennies and silver was taken, records showed Monday night.

E. R. Howell, operator of the store, discovered the burglary and reported it to police Monday morning. Also taken were four checks payable to the store, in amounts of $45.00, $11.80, $5 and $6, and an insurance policy.

Other Thefts Probed

In another burglary, of Stokes-Morrison filling station at 401 Thirteenth, two of three suspects were released by the sheriff's department late Monday and a third, 17, was held for Army authorities upon notification that he allegedly was AWOL.

Two 15-year-old boys will be questioned further in connection with their alleged admission that they had stolen an automobile in which they were arrested over the weekend.

Juvenile officials said a third 15-year-old boy was held for investigation of forgery. He lives in Hale county.

Two Are Transferred

Two other juvenile boys were transferred from Lubbock to state institutions. One, 11, will be lodged in a reform school at Gatesville until he can be admitted to a mental institution. The other, 16, will be admitted to an insane institution at Wichita Falls, officials said. The 11-year-old boy admitted taking approximately a half-million dollars worth of non-negotiable checks from the mails here. The boys were transferred by Deps. Sheriff Tom Cannon and Leonard Lott.

County and city officers who arrested the boys in the car said the automobile was registered to C. W. Cole of 2308 Fourteenth, Apartment A. The 1941 light car was recovered in 2300-block Texas Ave.

Hijacking Reported

John Stevens, a negro of 2603 East Ave. B, informed the sheriff's department that another negro came up behind him when he was waiting early Sunday on East Twenty-fifth for a bus, pushed a gun against his back and took $15.75 from him.

Stevens said the gunman fired the weapon once into the air and that he, Stevens, ran. Stevens did not have much description of the bandit, but said he would recognize him upon sight.

Two other robberies were reported.

Bob Braselton told investigators four youths about 18 years old stopped him at Nineteenth and Ave. V about 4:20 a. m. Sunday and robbed him of $3. He could give no further description of them, but did describe the type of car he said they were driving.

Hit With Bottle

Santos Talan, of Brownfield, told police several Mexicans approached him, gave him a drink of whisky, then took his billfold containing $25 and papers. They then hit him on the head with a bottle, he charged.

N. A. Shuffield of 2423 Fourteenth said 20 boxes of cigars valued at $48 were stolen from his parked automobile. Two blue fender skirts were reported stolen from the car of Mrs. R. L. Magarity of 1706 Ave. R. A girl's bike valued at $35 was stolen from the Bill Evans property at 2805 Twenty-third. A razor was taken from the car of L. A. Jones of Barstow, Calif., parked in a Lubbock residential addition.

To Face Trial

The sheriff's department said Lil Crawford, 38, Lubbock man charged here by indictment with car theft, was surrendered on a bench warrant to Nolan county officials Sunday for trial in Sweetwater of an indictment charging a similar offense.

The sheriff's department arrested Raymond Bowers Rowland, 26, a Lubbock negro, for the McKinney sheriff's office. Dep. Sheriff Ed Blakeman of McKinney said by telephone the negro was wanted there on two grand jury indictments charging theft.

L. O. Rouse of 212 College avenue reported theft of two skids used in house-moving. They were valued at $250. Police later found the skids in 2100-block Ave. G.

Roy Fulcher, 30, of a Lubbock tourist court, was fined $100 on an aggravated assault charge in county court of Judge Walter Davies.

DON'T BE FOOLED

Water And Politics

IT might be easier to attach more importance to the water conference set for Jan. 20 in Big Spring if there was less reason to suspect that its real purpose is to give Governor Jester an opportunity to do some needed political fence mending in West Texas.

No one in West Texas is likely to belittle the importance of any legitimate studies pertaining to water supply. But something more than coincidence is needed to explain the setting of this meeting, at which the "Beautiful, Beautiful Beauford" is to be the principal speaker, practically on the eve of the campaign in which he will be a candidate for reelection. If the meeting is as important as now pretended, why wasn't it held long ago?

There may be further significance in hints that this merely is to be the first of several planned meetings in West Texas, with Mr. Jester the principal speaker at all. After this general meeting, the apparent intent is to hold a series of district conclaves.

Even if the meetings were justified, how could speeches by the governor contribute anything of value to them? What does he, a Central Texan, know about water in West Texas?

If any of the meetings should produce anything constructive, men of expert knowledge will have to supply the ideas and do the work. The governor will have to be guided by their advice. Why couldn't he get that in Austin when they have something definite and concrete to offer? Heaven knows the state capital has seen little enough of him since he became a vaccilating governor more than a year ago. What good can he do by gadding about the state making speeches on subjects he knows little about?

ALIGNED with these various suspicion-arousing conjectures are certain definite and unquestionable facts.

One is that Governor Jester antagonized many West Texans when he became the stooge of the "university gang" as their chief drum-beater for the infamous college building amendment in the election last Summer. West Texas voted overwhelmingly against the proposition. The governor has been trying to get back into the good graces of West Texans ever since.

Another fact is that meetings like that set and others reportedly planned, would insure audiences of influential, serious-minded people—just the sort of people the governor is most anxious to reach. No important West Texas locality can ignore such sessions. They must be represented, just in case.

It is to be hoped, of course, that any meetings held will produce something constructive. They might do just that. If so, it will be in spite of the governor's presence, not because of it.

Nor will achievement remove the suspicion that one of the main reasons for holding it at this time is to strengthen the governor's wobbly political position, either by gaining increased support, or by heading off opposition candidacies which are said to be causing nightmares during Mr. Jester's infrequent occupancy of the executive mansion.

Some men have a little spare cash to spend while others have a daughter off in college.

"Practical" Men Don't Laugh At 'Em Now --

This Is Happy

BY PEGGY DERN

Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

XXV

HAPPY was like an excited child, proudly showing off the beauties of Sundown. And for a few days, Steve was treated to the island's pleasant, gracious hospitality. The fact that the Harrells had a house guest was accepted by the rest of the island as a signal that they, too, must help entertain him. There were horseback rides over the far-flung acres of Sundown, dinner parties at neighboring estates, a tea dance at the hotel.

Happy went about in a blissful dream. Sundown was so unbelievably beautiful that it gave her a great deal of pleasure to show it to Steve; and when, on the night before Steve was to leave for his next engagement, he and Happy walked in the moon-silvered garden beside the ancient sundial, with its inevitable phrase, "I count only the sunny hours," Steve paused and looked down at Happy.

"You like it here, don't you?" he asked, almost challengingly.

"Well, yes, of course. It's been the most glamorous vacation I've ever known, or dreamed of—"

"It needn't be just a vacation, Happy. It could be permanent, you know. Anybody with half an eye could see that with a single glance at Harrell," Steve cut in roughly. "He's quite a fellow, Happy."

"You do like him, Steve?" she asked eagerly.

"Sure, I like him a lot. You couldn't do better, Happy."

Startled, she said swiftly, "But I didn't mean—"

"I did." Steve was almost grim. "Look, Happy, you fit in here. You would make a lovely mistress for Sundown; you've got all the things such a job demands, and you'd be a silly little fool not to take what's offered you."

She was still, and there was a queer little chill about her heart.

"Does that mean you don't—want me, Steve?" she asked at last, and her voice was a thin thread of sound.

"Oh, you're the world's most perfect secretary, Happy," Steve told her almost harshly. "But you're bad for me. I might get too dependent on you."

He tried hard to make the last sound gay and light.

"I didn't mean as a secretary, Steve," she told him quietly. "I—think I'm in love with you."

STEVE stood at a little distance from her and the moonlight was deceptive. So she must have just imagined that he gave a tiny start, and that his jaw set a little more firmly. For when he answered her, his vioce was controlled, almost amused.

"If you just think, Happy, then you're not," he told her firmly. "There's no thinking about being in love—not the way I see it. You're either in up to your neck, or it's nothing serious. And you couldn't possibly be in love with me, Happy. You musn't be."

"Musn't?"

He shook his head.

"I'm bad medicine for you, Happy. I'm not the marrying sort. And I'm a gloomy sort of guy, because I can't see anything ahead but chaos and heartbreak and—war! You'd lose that bright and shining disposition, Happy; you'd get frightened and worried and gloomy like me, and that wouldn't be so good."

He waited a moment and Happy dared not trust her voice, because she knew, that if she spoke at all, she would fling herself into his arms.

"You see, Happy, I have no roots anywhere. And you're the sort who's got to put down roots to be happy. To be Happy!" he repeated, smiling a little, though it was a tightly drawn smile that had nothing in it of mirth. "Here at Sundown, you can flower into the very fine and wonderful person you should be. Harrell's the man for you, Happy. You're a very lucky girl."

With that she turned and went swiftly back up the garden path and into the house. She reached the drawing-room ahead of him and as she came in, George looked at her swiftly, and then almost accusingly at Steve, who came in a few paces behind her.

"OF course," said Steve casually as he came into the room, "I don't believe any of it. The whole place is something out of a fairy story. You do it with mirrors or something. There isn't any such place as Sundown—it's a state of mind. But what a state of mind!"

"Glad you like it," said George pleasantly. "I'm sorry you have to check out tomorrow. I'd like to show you some of the things we are trying to do on East Island."

"I wish I could stay—thanks for asking me," said Steve as pleasantly.

Madelaine called bedtime a little later, since George was to drive Steve to Jacksonville, and they were leaving very early.

"Since I shan't be seeing you in the morning," Steve addressed the three women, "I'd better say goodbye now. It's been wonderful being here and I can't begin to tell you how much I've enjoyed it."

"Prove it then," said Madelaine, smiling as she held out her hand, "by coming again, any time you can."

"Thanks. I'd like that a whole lot," Steve assured her warmly.

Joyce said goodbye and Steve turned to Happy. There was a look in his eyes that she would not have understood, even if there had not been tears in her own to blind her.

"It's been swell seeing you like this, Happy," said Steve quietly. "Wonderful to remember you here—being Happy!" His voice gave the word her name, rather than an adjective.

"Thanks," said Happy almost brusquely, because she dared not trust her unruly voice, too far. "It's been nice seeing you. Have fun!"

Then she turned swiftly from him and ran up the stairs.

Looking At Life - - By Erich Brandeis

FOR only $6.00 you can find out something that your grandmother could have told you many years ago for nothing.

It's in a book called "Successful Marriage," containing "38 papers by authorities on courtship, marriage, the rearing of children, family life and personal and social health."

BRANDEIS

It's a big book and it will take you quite some time to read and quite some more time to digest.

When you are all through reading the book you will know that "the investigators discovered," as one of the book reviews said, that in happy homes

(1) Each person in the family knew his place or role and knew what to expect from every other member. As one father put it: "If everybody has a job in the family and does it, we get along all right."

(2) Each member of the family was willing to put the good of the family ahead of his own good.

(3) Each member provided some means for family members to meet their needs and satisfy their interests within the family.

(4) Each family had a goal or plan and was moving in the direction of it. Everybody in the family wanted this goal and was helping to reach it.

Then there are three very good rules for running a home successfully. They are rules, however, which your grandmother knew without having read any books about the subject.

Here they are:

(1) The ability to buy wisely within the family income.

(2) To resist high-pressure salesmanship which keeps families in debt.

(3) To understand how to manage a house.

Mind you, I am not trying to make fun of this book or of all the other marital, parental, economic and sundry other scientific advice that is now being given to brides, grooms, mothers, fathers and all others engaged or about to be engaged in the simple business of living.

WE have made living so complicated and brought so many mechanical and economic factors into it that it does seem to take guidebooks with diagrams and maps to lead us through the maze.

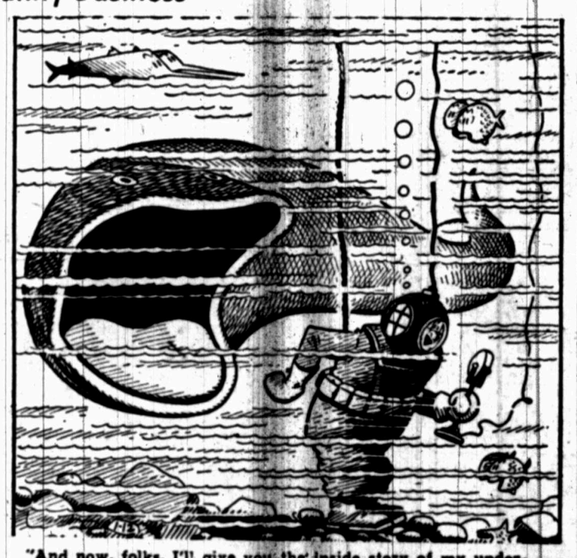

Life, instead of just living, has become a complex mechanism of percentages, forms to be filled out, gadgets to be understood, psychological puzzles to be solved, and of temperamental adjustments and compromises.

So instead of just going into marriage and the management of a home and a family with courage, high spirit and glorious anticipation, young people approach it with anxiety, doubt and fear.

There used to be a time when love and common sense could solve pretty nearly all home problems.

It almost seems that psychiatry has taken their place.

PRESSURE ON SOLONS

U. S. May Take DP's

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The Stratton proposal for the admission of a certain number of Europe's "displaced persons" is making such headway in the "grass roots" section of the country that Congress may be forced or persuaded to take action on it at the present session.

Aside from practical and humanitarian considerations, politicos on both sides of the aisle begin to appreciate its vote-getting advantages, especially as Henry A. Wallace means to grab it.

TUCKER

A new and favorable factor is that powerful union labor figures and forces, which had been expected to oppose the idea, now seem to be swinging around to it, provided they can be assured that the newcomers will be no threat to them.

In cooperation with state and local organizations, notably the commissions set up by Governors Luther W. Youngdahl of Minnesota and Fred G. Aandahl of North Dakota, they are making a detailed survey of the need for a quota of well-screened DP's, and resources for accommodating them.

FAVORABLE: The invasion of Europe by approximately 200 members of Congress last summer has also proved a helpful influence. These M.C.'s, as well as other observers, report that their survey of the camps convinced them that many thousands would make good, reliable, rugged workers and excellent citizens. Their acceptance, it is argued, would make as favorable impression abroad as the proposed Marshall Plan.

It would be, according to this argument, a most effective means of counteracting Moscow's attacks on the United States as "selfish, aggressive and imperialistic."

For most of the people seeking refuge here—Poles, Germans, Lithuanians, Latvians, Estonians, Hungarians, Czechs and Yugoslavs—do not want to return to their old homes for fear of Russian oppression. Their eyes are turned toward the West, not to the East.

LOSS: Congressional, state and local studies report an alarming loss of population in the so-called "bread basket"states, where it is expected that admitted DP's would settle.

Nationwide population trends, which raise the question of whether the U.S. will have enough industrial and agriculaural workers several generations hence, have forced high officials at Washington to study the wisdom of our present, sharply restrictive immigration laws.

It is estimated, for instance, that ten states in the Middle West, North Central and Mountain areas have lost approximately a million people since the 1940 census. They are Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Wyoming, Minnesota, Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, North Dakota and South Dakota.

It is not only the farms which could use additional help, according to preliminary reports reaching Washington and the Citizens Committee on Displaced Persons. Openings are reported in many trade and service ficlds.

DEPLETION: In addition to the war-inspired depletion of the farm population, surveys set afoot by worried state executives and legislatures disclose that the age of the men who grow the nation's food, not to mention surpluses for Europe and other sections of the world, shows a startling increase. So does that of the men who grope in the earth for our minerals.

The average age of a farmer in North Dakota, according to the findings of Governor Aandahl's surveyors, is reported to be sixty. In Colorado it is fifty-seven. It is understood to be over fifty in many areas of the great wheat belt.

The 1917 war song of "How Ya Gonna Keep 'Em Down on the Farm after They've Seen Paree?" is no longer a joke. The boys and girls who enjoyed a taste of city life and wages before, during and since the war are not going back to the old homestead. It is a trend which manifested itself after every war since 1861-1865 and the industrial revolution, only that it is more marked this time.

METHODS: It is understood that many states have contacted Governors Youngdahl and Aandahl to obtain data on their methods and findings with respect to locating DP's. Others have gotten in touch with UNRRA at Washington, which still maintains an administrative headquarters during the process of liquidation, or the International Refugee Organization.

Minnesota's plan appears to be the model. One committee, working mainly with the churches, ascertains how many Minnesotans have relatives or friends in DP camps abroad.

Another studies the State agricultural situation to discover how many farms and abandoned houses are available. Still a third, including both A. F. of L. and C.I.O. advisers, is making an analysis of labor shortages in small towns and cities.

INFORMATION: UNRRA and IRO has full information on the European phase of the picture.

There are approximately 850,000 persons in these camps at the present moment. About 100,000 are classified as agricultural workers, meaning that they were farmers before Hitler and Stalin transformed them into transients.

It is estimated that there are 5,000 blacksmiths, thousands of wood workers, skilled and unskilled artisans, and non-scientific farmers. There are, of course, thousands who were engaged in the trades or service field. Their average intelligence and aptitude are reported to be good, meaning that they are susceptible to training. About 150,000 are children.

Eighty-three per cent are of the Christian faith, while seventeen per cent are Jewish. Most of the latter prefer to go to Palestine, if and when possible.

COMMUNISTS: "Do you believe that there are many actual Communists in the federal government?," asks G.F.M. of Macon, Ga.

Answer: No, I do not, and officials here think that most of them have been screened out. Seth W. Richardson, who heads the Loyalty Board charged with eliminating Reds from the federal family, is regarded as an extremely capable and outstanding individual. He should do an effective but fair job.

It is a difficult task, however, to define and identify a Communist, and Attorney General Tom Clark's list of supposedly disloyal organizations furnishes no help.

Many people joined them when F.D.R. assured us that there was the utmost individual freedom in Russia. They had the Administration's official approval. Others signed up because they thought these clubs, which always hid behind high-sounding names, were what they purported to be.

Some employees honestly disagree with our policies vis-a-vis Russia, Western Europe, China, Britain etc. Does that make them a Commie?

A diplomat is the man who can write a personal letter without getting too personal.

The road back from victory seems to be nearly as tough as the road to victory.

Similie: As temporary as a Hollywood marriage.

PROGRESS EVEN IN POLITICS

Sen. Taft Puts GOPs On Spot

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Maybe we do make progress.

Republicans shouted "politics" at President Truman's list of proposed domestic social welfare measures and complained that they would bankrupt the nation and make ours a totalitarian state. But it is significant that no one yet has raised his voice against any individual socinl aim that the President espoused in his message to Congress.

STOKES

The objections, in the few cases where anybody specified them, were as to method, not aim. They didn't dare to attack the aims.

What, then, does this mean? It seems that despite all the scorn they heap on what they satirically refer to as "the New Deal," Republicans have been constrained to accept its aims again in this election year, as they have in previous years—for the simple reason that a majority of the voters are for them. While this may mean only lip service for campaign purposes, eventually it may mean advances for the nation. If Republicans should be elevated to complete control of the government, the public can demand that they deliver on some of their promises, at least.

Some Progress Noted

Anybody who knows motives among Congressmen from long observation is fully aware that many Republicans don't really agree even with some of the objectives stated by Mr. Truman, which is true also of some Democrats, especially from the South. But the "politics" they accuse him of playing has pushed them into some "politics" of their own, out of which ultimately all of us may benefit.

Which is progress of a sort, happily.

Exhibit No. 1 in diagnosing the attitude of the Republican party in Congress is, of course, Senator Taft of Ohio. His speech on the President's message to Congress is an interesting specimen, both for the student of politics and the psychiatrist.

At the start he said, "no one can fail to agree with most of the ideals expressed by the President." So he protected himself at the outset. Then, on two occasions, after he had tossed around some pretty hot criticism, he pulled himself up short, as if recalling that after all he is a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, and his party wants to get back into power. The first was:

"I do not mean to say that all the features of the President's program are to be condemned. I only point out that taken together they add up to national bankruptcy."

Then, later:

"Again, I do not mean to condemn all of the project. I only point out that, taken together, they will add up to a totalitarian state."

Backs Housing Program

The senator was discussing the President's advocacy of legislation on health, housing, education and social security expansion, among other proposals.

The senator is for all those things, himself. In fact, he has bills on health, housing and education all providing for rather substantial federal appropriations, though with emphasis on state and local rather than federal control and administration.

In concluding, he said:

"We will proceed with a program of social welfare in health, education and housing and social security. But our program will be based on state and local administration and control, and federal aid in reasonable sums will be limited to those fields where the states and communities cannot adequately do the job which ought to be done for the benefit of those of our population who cannot earn their way."

That looks much like a promise. The public should hold the senator and his party to it in this session of Congress.

Maybe we do make progress.

Thank you, President Truman. And thank you, also, Senator Taft.

Libel Suit Against Commissioner Of Agriculture Slated For Trial

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Jan. 12 (UP)—A $100,000 libel suit against state Commissioner of Agriculture J. E. McDonald was expected today to go to trial the latter part of this week.

The trial was scheduled to start today in 107th district court, but attorneys for McDonald and Moore Mathews, ex-manager of a water district at La Feria, were engaged in defining the law issue.

Matthews seeks $100,000 damages from McDonald and three other defendants. He claims he was damaged to that extent when the four men, all water users in the irrigation district where Matthews was manager, circulated a petition last summer for his discharge.
