

Party Chief Rules South Africa

Old Policies To Continue

By RICHARD KASISCHKE

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Paul Oliver Sauer, chief of the Nationalist Party in Parliament, took over today as government leader in place of wounded Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd. Sauer promptly pledged to carry on Verwoerd's apartheid policies.

Sauer, 62, is Minister of Lands in the Cabinet. He takes over the helm as senior member of the Cabinet but will not serve as acting prime minister, Foreign Minister Eric Louw said. But Sauer will preside at Cabinet meetings.

Sauer told Parliament the government will continue on its regular program and Verwoerd's program as a result of what has happened, Sauer declared.

Even as Sauer spoke South Africa's white police and courts continued to take sharp action to quell racial strife and continuing Negro work boycotts against white supremacy laws.

Verwoerd continued to show progress in a Pretoria hospital from two head wounds inflicted Saturday by a wealthy white

Medical Aid Push Hinted

Lawyer Says Chessman Was Framed

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Caryl Chessman's attorney, claiming new evidence, says he hopes to save the convict-author from the gas chamber by revealing the name of the "real red light bandit."

"We know who he is and what he is," attorney George T. Davis told newsmen Sunday night. "Except we don't know where he is." Davis said the new evidence he claims shows Chessman was innocent.

Chessman, 38, was condemned at Los Angeles in 1948 for kidnaping with bodily harm, forcing two women into unnatural sex acts. The victims were stopped in a lovers lane by a robber who drove a car carrying a police-type red light.

The new evidence he claims shows Chessman was convicted through perjury in a "vicious frame-up," Davis asserted. He also contended the state has suppressed evidence showing Chessman's innocence and the identity of the real red light bandit.

"All the Los Angeles offered to sell as the information we needed early in February. We didn't buy, but he was dead a month later. I don't know how he died, but he wasn't very old," Davis said.

Davis asserted the Los Angeles police department has refused to let him see the file on the red light bandit.

Davis said he is framing a new legal action to be brought before the State Supreme Court and Gov. Edmund G. Brown, Brown's day reprieve saved Chessman from his eighth execution date Feb. 19. He is now scheduled to die May 2 at San Quentin Prison.

Davis said his information was obtained from William Inhart, a private detective in Richmond, Calif., and William Woodfield, Los Angeles investigator and magazine writer.

Two Texans Winners Of Fellowships

NEW YORK (AP)—Two Texans are among eight news specialists in radio and television fields named as winners of CBS Foundation News and Public Affairs Fellowships for 1960-61.

They are Neal Spelce Jr., associate news editor, KTRC-AM-TV, Austin and Raymond Yelkin, operations manager, KVHT University of Houston, and an instructor at the university.

Elaborate Plans Made For 1960's 'Operation Alert'

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil Defense "Operation Alert-1960" scheduled for the first week of May, promises to be quite a show.

Advance preparations are the most elaborate ever. This is particularly true of the Conrad drill on Tuesday, May 3, which will suspend regular programs for 30 minutes on every radio and TV station in the country.

President Eisenhower may deliver a special radio message during this period, perhaps from an "alternate White House" outside Washington.

The Conrad drill will start at 1 p.m. EST. Basically it will test the mechanics of the system, designed to confuse direction finders on enemy craft. Conrad stands for control of electronic radiation.

Federal Communications Commission Robert E. Lee, who handles defense matters for the of Texas were said to be working on a compromise plan which would provide federal assistance for hospitalization, nursing home care and possibly some other benefits for those over 65.

Whether this would be linked to the Social Security System or handled through a separate agency apparently has not been determined. In any event it seems likely to be offered in a form that would avoid a "socialized medicine" tag.

Hospitalization and nursing home care were said to account for about 80 per cent of the health expenditures for the elderly. Because of this, Rayburn and Johnson were reported giving this part of the field their immediate attention.

President Eisenhower has ordered a study of proposals for health, hospital and medical care for the elderly. Although Vice President Richard M. Nixon obviously wants action in this session, there is doubt the administration will offer any concrete plan.

Eight GOP senators have offered a program for federal-state subsidies to pay the cost of private health insurance for persons over 65 unable to afford it. They have not yet obtained administration support.

Rayburn and Johnson apparently aim to try to show that the Democratic-controlled Congress is willing to act in this situation where the President is not.

Eisenhower has declared against a Social Security insurance plan such as that advanced by Rep. Aime J. Forand (D-R.I.). It has the support of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), a rival of Johnson's—for the Democratic nomination.

Sen. William D. Dore, who also has announced for the nomination, said during the weekend he would try to attach some such measure as the Forand Bill onto "the first House appropriations bill that comes over" to the Senate.

Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.) predicted a subcommittee he heads will come up with some proposals of its own within three or four weeks. He said in a "television interview" he personally favored the Social Security approach which is the basis of the Forand Bill. Still to be worked out, however, is a method of providing similar aid to the million or more retired persons not covered by Social Security, he said.

Johnson and Rayburn are convinced that the Forand Bill can be passed in Congress if they can come up with a substitute that can, they think the Democrats will benefit by that action in the general election campaign.

The House Ways and Means Committee, which is working on various possible Social Security revisions, has rejected the Forand Bill.

Kennedy called during the week for an overhauling of the Social Security System. Along with medical care for the elderly he plugged for an increase in benefits to meet higher living costs and a boost in lump sum payments to surviving spouses.

Oilman Questions Legality Of Fund-Raising Efforts

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Oilman

Edwin W. Pauley said today he had questioned legality of fund-raising efforts for the Democratic National Convention. But he denied a published report he was trying to hurt those efforts.

Pauley said he wrote a letter to that effect but sent it to an attorney, not to prospective contributors.

His statements were touched off by a Washington dispatch by Earl Mayo, New York Herald Tribune news service correspondent. Mayo wrote that Pauley had been warning potential convention fund donors that any donations may be in violation of income tax and corrupt practices laws.

Convention Finance Committee Chairman Mark Boyar said the committee has raised $300,000 of the $450,000 needed and anticipates no difficulty getting the rest.

"We got a ruling from the Treasury department that it's tax deductible as a nonprofit expense," Boyar said. "It's hard for me to believe Mr. Pauley would do anything like this. He's a good Democrat and has responsibility for bringing the convention here."

Pauley resigned last fall as chairman of the convention host committee after losing a battle with Paul Butler, Democratic national chairman, over allocation of convention tickets.

Pauley confirmed he had written the letter attributed to him by the Herald-Tribune but he denied any knowledge that it was sent to potential convention donors.

"The lake at Towle Park was the subject of a heated debate this morning at the Seury County commissioners Court."

Park Superintendent Russell Jones contended hotly that public use of the lake and the spillway was the subject of a heated debate this morning at the Seury County commissioners Court.

He added that the firm had done "a good month's work in the past three days according to their standards" in clearing up a lot of things that were supposed to be done and that there was still a lot grading to be done before the job would meet specifications.

On the other hand W. W. Greif, the county's consulting engineer, stated that the company had been planned by bad weather but had at that completed, except for the paving and raising of the spillway.

Instead the company had piddled along for two and one half months, working a day then being gone for a week or two and not getting the job done," as Jones put it.

Campaign In Coal Fields

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) both are campaigning in southern West Virginia's coal fields today but they aren't likely to bump into each other.

Kennedy's only stop in the southern fields will be an evening speech at Beckley. Humphrey planned to spend his time in half a dozen southern towns. Beckley was one of them.

It is Kennedy's first serious campaigning for the state's May 10 Democratic presidential primary. Humphrey spent all Friday and Saturday in the state and came back Sunday to appear on a television show.

The primary will not bind any of West Virginia's 25 votes at the Democratic National Convention.

Kennedy planned to fly into the Ohio River city of Parkersburg in time for a coffee session and rally before flying south to the capital of Charleston, motoring to Huntington, and then flying on to Beckley.

Humphrey scheduled an early departure from Charleston in his chartered bus for stops at Logan, Welch and Bluefield and the smaller towns of Man, Oceana and Pineville.

The Minnesota Sunday television interview Sunday night said pictures of some candidates in West Virginia "would make American democracy look pretty sick."

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Two British air force sergeants, who begin hiking across the United States Tuesday, are worried that too many motorists may offer them a ride.

"There is an enormous amount of courtesy in America," said Sgt. Instructor Mewyn Evans, of Wales. "Especially with these heavy haulage trucks."

With him will be Sgt. Patrick Moloney of Kilmallock, County Limerick, Ireland. Driving a station wagon with supplies will be Sgt. Roy Rogers of London. All are on leave from the Royal Air Force.

The record for walking across the United States, about 3,200 miles from San Francisco to New York, is 73 days, 10 hours and 10 minutes. It was established by A. L. Monteverde, an American, in 1928.

The sergeants hope to clip that anywhere from 7 to 9 days.

They arrived in San Francisco Sunday and told newsmen they plan to walk 14 hours each day, averaging 47 miles a day. The pair walked the 900 miles from John O'Grants in Scotland to London's End in Cornwall in 18 days last June.

farmer. An anti-government newspaper suggested he may have been injured more severely than his doctors admit.

The Rand Daily Mail said the two bullets "may have caused damage which could impair his speech, his sense of balance, his hearing and possibly his mental state for some time."

A medical bulletin said Verwoerd is still weak but making progress, adding: "Reassurance can be given that there is no sign of paralysis and, according to the progress made so far, paralysis is not expected."

Verwoerd's assailant, David Pratt, 52, had not appeared for arraignment in Johannesburg Magistrate's Court by late afternoon. Legal authorities were reported to be debating what charges should be brought.

Teams of detectives revisited the scene of the shooting—Johannesburg's Union Exposition Trade and Agriculture Air

Authorities in the midst of the crisis pressed their crackdown on Negro resistance to South Africa's segregation policy.

A large force of armed police, supported by armored cars, staged big door-to-door raids on a sprawling Negro settlement five miles outside Johannesburg.

Scores of Africans were hauled away in police trucks. Many weapons were reported taken in what Col. J. C. Lemmer, deputy commissioner of police described as "a cleaning operation."

Reports from Port Elizabeth on the south coast said 26 Negroes were arrested there on charges of incitement and intimidation.

There has been no indication Pratt had any accomplices, but detectives search several homes in the Johannesburg area in connection with the shooting. One friend said Pratt "hates Nationalists and Verwoerd's nationalism."

Other friends of Pratt, a gentleman farmer, said he had no political leanings and described him as "a nice, courteous and very generous man."

A daughter by Pratt's first marriage avowed she was in Marshall Square jail in Johannesburg and she found him "perfectly contented" and "not upset by his situation."

Pratt was reported seeking a reconciliation with his second, Dutch-born wife. They have been estranged 2½ years, and she is living in Holland with their two children—a girl of 6 and a boy of 8.

There is no definite sentence specified in South African law for attempted murder. The judge may impose any sentence except death or life imprisonment.

The Nationalist newspaper Die Transvaler said that Pratt could be charged with high treason if he is convicted. They have been with the intent to endanger the independence and security of the state.

Murder Case Due To Reach Jury Today

RANKIN (AP)—The murder trial of Dr. Clyde Vaughn, charged with the Oct. 2 slaying of H. E. Duguay of El Paso at Presidio, is expected to go to the jury today.

Testimony was completed Saturday.

Vaughn, a Presidio osteopath, said he shot Duguay, 70, owner of a controversial toll bridge at Presidio, because he "treated for him."

Duguay, who had threatened him over the telephone.

Vaughn, a county commissioner, and others had urged the construction of a free bridge over the Rio Grande at Presidio to replace the toll bridge which Duguay had constructed in 1928.

BEVERLY ADDLAND LEAVES SHOOTING SCENE—Beverly Addland, Erol Flynn's former traveling companion, leaves her apartment building in Hollywood with a police detective after a shooting which left her rejected suitor, William Stancu, 20, in critical condition. Police said Stancu held a pistol to her head for an hour and a half, then shot himself in the head. (AP Wirephoto)

Beverly's Suitor Dies Of Wounds

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Death ended the story of William Billy the Kid Stancu, latest boyfriend in the tempestuous life of Beverly Addland, the day he became 21. Miss Addland, the late Erol Flynn's last flame, herself narrowly escaped death when the muscular would-be actor fired a fatal bullet into his head, she said. She told police Stancu forced his way into her apartment Saturday, raped her at gunpoint, threatened to kill her, then snubbed, "I love you too much, I can't kill you"—and shot himself. He died Sunday in a hospital prison ward. Stancu had been booked on suspicion of rape. Police listed his death as suicide and said they have no immediate plans for an inquest. An autopsy is pending. Beverly said he asked her to marry him and she refused. "He told me that I had ruined his life—that he loved me, but I didn't love him, and he was going to kill me," she said. "That's a pack of lies," asserted Stancu's brother, Kenneth, 22, another aspiring actor. Beverly asked Billy to marry her a few weeks ago. He asked, "Why would Billy want to rape her? He and Beverly have been going together every night for six weeks. Everybody in town knows that." He said he was certain his brother wouldn't kill himself—he wasn't that kind of guy. He had everything to live for. The dead man, son of Romanian immigrants, had a juvenile arrest record. Police found him lying motionless in Beverly's apartment. Beverly, a slender platinum blonde, was held in Juvenile Hall under a law permitting detention in cases where there is a lack of adequate parental supervision. She faces a hearing Wednesday to determine if she has such supervision. She is serving a one-year probation, having won a boxing championship twice in the last four years.

Infiltration Charge Denied

DALLAS (AP)—A charge that the Southern Baptist Convention has been infiltrated "church by church" by communist sympathizers has been denied editorially by The Baptist Standard, official publication of the Baptist General Convention of Texas. Dr. E. S. James, editor, denied in the editorial charges made by Maj. Edgar C. Bundy, chairman and general manager of the Church League of America. He quoted Bundy as saying the Reds are infiltrating the Southern Baptist Convention "church by church" by placing "travelers of sympathizers" into places of leadership. James, who termed the charges "too ludicrous to answer," said he didn't believe there are even 9 card-carrying communists with in the nine million member Southern Baptist Convention.

Every Plant In House Watered At One Time

Experts at raising vigorous, healthy houseplants have one universal bit of advice: Don't over-water. Give plants a good soaking, then let them go without water until they are quite dry, at which time they need another thorough soaking.

One of the best ways to handle plants in clay pots is to put a whole houseful of them in the kitchen sink at one time. Let the water soak through the porous, life-breathing walls of the pots, until the moisture glistens on the top of the soil. Then, with the root ball thoroughly soaked, with the pot itself recharged with water, pull the plug out of the sink.

When the plants have drained, return them to their beauty spots around the house.

You never have to worry about over-watering your plants when you use clay pots: excess moisture will find its way through the sides of the pot and evaporate. Another advantage of the porous pot is that it allows any of the injurious salts contained in many soils, to escape through the walls of the pot, thus preventing a concentration of salts from souring the soil and killing your plants.

This practice of soaking normally needs to be repeated about one time in two weeks during the summer, and perhaps once in 10 days or a week in winter when furnace heat dries the air. Off on a vacation in the summer, many plant-wise families put the plants in the sink or the bathtub, give them a soaking, then leave about two inches of water in the tub. Plants don't mind being over-watered for a few days at which time the water will have leaked out of the sink or tub giving the plants a good, safe three or four weeks' soaking, particularly if the bathroom door is left closed.

The Art Of Broiling Good Shrimp

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

BROILING is easier than it is used to be, that's for sure. Splendid charcoal grills spruce up outdoors sportsmen while up-to-date ranges encourage kitchen folk.

Another big help to indoor chefs are the widely available and inexpensive broiler pans in small and medium sizes that may be substituted when appropriate, for the large broiling pan that comes with a range.

Aluminum foil's entry on the culinary scene has been still one more boon. Line a broiler pan with the stuff, after broiling, sweep it up and dispose of it so there's no pan to scrub. We're against the hoarding instinct that forces cooks to wash, fall when it's encrusted with brown drippings after broiling. If you do this, getting lofty self-satisfaction out of your high-minded effort, don't use foil in the first place. Use the broiler pan, scrub away at it, and see if we care.

Some cooks cover broiler grids. When this is done, silt should be cut in the foil to correspond to those in the grill so, during broiling fat can run down into the lined broiler pan.

Influenced by the way Italians deal with their special variety of shrimp-called scampi, nowadays, broiled shrimp are often flavored in our country's high-priced restaurants. There should be nothing to keep you from preparing this great dish at home—at comparatively small cost.

To do so, shell and devein large shrimp. Insert on small metal skewers, dip in melted butter seasoned with crushed garlic or garlic salt. Place on pan without grid in preheated broiler several inches from high heat. Turn once, broiling only until shrimp lose their transparent look—5 minutes or so. Place skewers of shrimp, if you like, on strips of crisply broiled bacon.

With a salad, crusty rolls and good butter, his dish should satisfy both strong men and fair women.

Rolling stock will simplify your backyard barbecue and sunning manoeuvres this summer. Picnic tables, lounges and love seats are appearing with wheels on one side. You pick up the other side—wheelbarrow fashion—and follow the sun or the shade.

A Tasty Tribute To The Irish

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

IRISH indeed will your table be on St. Patrick's Day if you serve that old-country dish called Colcannon. A simple combination of potatoes and green cabbage, it won't convert years ago in Ireland, Scotland and America. Whenever we give the recipe, it continues to charm.

Rattan furniture often has an exotic and mysterious look. That is because the raw materials—and sometimes the actual furniture—come from the exotic and mysterious Orient. Rattan is a creeping vine that is used for everything from baskets to bridges in the Near East. In furniture thicker sections are built into frames. Fine vines are woven and peel may be used for decorations.

Dotty Denson Hostess To Brownie Troop

Brownie Troop 239 met in the home of Dotty Denson last week.

Activity for the afternoon was a scavenger hunt. Such articles as spider webs, tumble weeds, flowers and ant-hills were requested, in keeping with the afternoon program on nature study.

Refreshments were served at the end of the meeting according to Melmeta Maschek, reporter.

Mrs. John Reaves Gives Inspiring Talk On Africa

"Other Cultures" was the topic of study when the Twentieth Century Club met recently at the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Dale Clemmer presided at the business session. Mrs. H. J. Brief gave a brief report on the federation meeting in Lubbock, and Mrs. C. O. Holder was in charge of a parliamentary drill.

Mrs. Tom McKinnon, program leader for the day, introduced the program on a knowledge of the world in which we live. "It is no longer true that east is east and west is west, and never the twain shall meet. Today we live in a small, inter-related world."

Mrs. Bernhard Bartels gave an interesting review of the Middle East, mentioning that US forces in the Middle East indicate the vital interest the United States has in that area. "Because of its history, the strategic location and the natural oil reserves, the Middle East is a controversial spot in the world today.

"There is such a wide variety in types of people there, no one person can be considered a typical native of that country. However, a majority of the people are either Arabs or Jews. Both are very hospitable people when they entertain you in their homes.

"It is definitely still a man's world in the Middle East where the women are in the background and very little in public affairs. Islam is the dominant religion of the land."

Mrs. John Reaves presented Africa the hot spot of today's world. She compared the continent of Africa to an exploding mass of yeast, with repercussions being felt all over the world. "Until recently very little was known of the dark continent which was mostly unexplored. It now produces a large supply of the world's uranium, 34 of the world's cobalt, 98 percent of its diamonds, two-thirds of its gold and much other ore. Africa is a very potential storehouse, scarcely tapped.

"Most of Africa is coming out from under the yoke of colonialism and is facing the problems of self government. The peculiar thing is white man has come and taken over and found these areas of revolt and war and unrest.

"Africa is a continent full of racial prejudice and hatred. Apartheid or part-hate is promoted by whites who exploit the natives. Out of 14 million people in South Africa, there are only three million whites and these whites control the wealth and the government.

"Liberia is an independent republic which was founded as a home for freed American slaves who were shipped back to Africa to live. It is a sad underdeveloped country, full of disease, illiteracy and poverty, and it is a shining example of what happens to people who are not ready for freedom and self government."

Refreshments were served, to 17 members of the hostess, Mrs. Clemmer.

Mrs. Umberson Gives Program To Sorority

The Gamma Upsilon Chapter of ESA met Thursday night with Mrs. Sonnie Umberson.

Joyce Williamson, president, presided over the business meeting. Laverne Foster and Adrina Sparks gave a brief history of the sorority. Mrs. Umberson presented the program and gave an enlightening demonstration on home decoration, the selection of furniture, fitting various highlights to the color scheme and carrying out the general theme in decor.

Islasu Minor and Dolores Minor were hostesses. A discussion was held on the state meeting to be held in Galveston in May.

Coffee was served to one rushee, Rosie Floyd and the following members: Nedra Harless, Joyce Williamson, Dolores Minor, Peggy Guy, Jamie Borden, Billy Springer, Islasu Minor, Carmen Ivson, and Laverne Foster.

Election of officers was held with the following to serve the next year: Islasu Minor, president, Ida Stokes, vice president, Sharon Nearse, corresponding secretary, Dolores Minor, recording secretary and Billie Springer, treasurer.

DUNN SpI—Mrs. Roy Havens was hostess for the Buford Women's Society of Christian Service in the Dunn Methodist parsonage. Mrs. Dub Blassegame was Thursday afternoon.

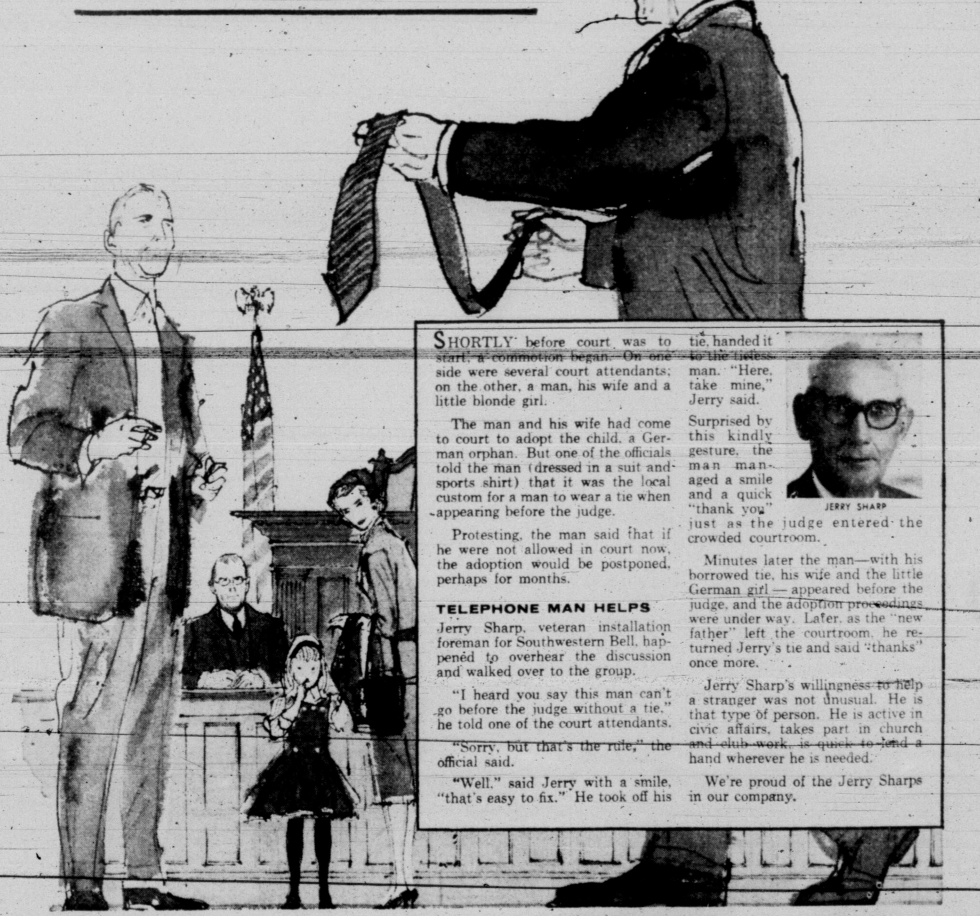

Study leader Town and country churches was the study subject. Members attending included Mrs. John Hooks, Mrs. Bill Anderson, Mrs. Bud Blassegame, Mrs. Bud Loving, Mrs. Ruth Adams and Mrs. Bess Cooper.

Tomato Aspic Salad

INGREDIENTS: 1 can (1 pint and 2 ounces or 2 1/4) tomato juice, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 teaspoon cery salt, sour cream or sour-cream substitute, romaine or other salad greens.

METHOD: Pour 1 cup of the tomato juice into a bowl and sprinkle the gelatin over it to soften, stir in the Worcestershire and celery salt. Heat the remaining 1 1/4 cups tomato juice until it comes to a full boil, pour over gelatin mixture and stir until dissolved. Turn into 5 one-half cup molds—use those with indentations at bottom if available. Chill until set. To unmold, run spatula around top edges dip in medium-hot water for a few seconds; turn out. Top salads with sour cream and garnish with romaine.

"HERE, TAKE MINE!"

SHORTLY before court was to start, a commotion began. On one side were several court attendants; on the other, a man, his wife and a little blonde girl.

The man and his wife had come to court to adopt the child, a German orphan. But one of the officials told the man (dressed in a suit and sports shirt) that it was the local custom for a man to wear a tie when appearing before the judge.

Protesting, the man said that if he were not allowed in court now, the adoption would be postponed, perhaps for months.

TELEPHONE MAN HELPS
Jerry Sharp, veteran installation foreman for Southwestern Bell, happened to overhear the discussion and walked over to the group.

"I heard you say this man can't go before the judge without a tie," he told one of the court attendants.

"Sorry, but that's the rule," the official said.

"Well," said Jerry with a smile, "that's easy to fix." He took off his tie, handed it to the little blonde man. "Here, take mine," Jerry said.

Surprised by this kindly gesture, the man managed a smile and a quick "thank you" just as the judge entered the crowded courtroom.

Minutes later the man—with his borrowed tie, his wife and the little German girl—appeared before the judge, and the adoption proceedings were under way. Later, as the "new father" left the courtroom, he returned Jerry's tie and said "thanks" once more.

Jerry Sharp's willingness to help a stranger was not unusual. He is that type of person. He is active in civic affairs, takes part in church and club work, is quick to lend a hand wherever he is needed.

We're proud of the Jerry Sharps in our company.

Black Man Still Suffering Indignity In South Africa

By INEZ ROBB

If there is one commodity in this wicked world that I can do without until I am called to my reward, it is diamonds from the Union of South Africa.

It also will be a pleasure to do without rock lobster tails which the Union sells to the tune of 7,000,000 annually in the U.S.A. From now on in market and in restaurant, I shall make sure that any rock lobster I purchase does not bear the imprimatur of the Union of South Africa.

In the future none of my money will go for the purchase of pills, candles, the large sardines exported to us from the Union. And I shall take care that any Persian lamb that comes my way in the future originates elsewhere than in the Union. And from now on when I buy a wool coat, suit or dress, I shall do my best to determine that the wool did not come from the Union of South Africa.

Diamonds from the Union of South Africa ceased to be a girl's best friend the day that it became the lawful privilege of Hitler's white disciples in the Union to kill and scourge its black inhabitants as will.

It would be farcical to write "its black citizens" because citizens cannot be slaves. The cunning, cruel system of slavery devised by the arrogant Africans deprives the black man of citizenship as surely and completely as if he were merchandise on the auction block.

The helish pass system holds the native in thrall as tightly as chains, deprives him of freedom of movement and liberty of choice. No decent man can read the recent event in the Union of South Africa without stinking revulsion that the white man is still so besotted with cruelty and stupidity.

There may be very little I can do about the situation. But what little I can do, I shall do. I cannot prevent my government and American industry from purchasing the gold, manganese, chrome, lead, zinc, asbestos and copper, as well as diamonds, from the Union.

But as an individual citizen, I will not knowingly purchase any product sold here by the Union of South Africa. Granted that this personal reaction is but a grain of sand upon the shore, nonetheless the American boycott of Japanese goods in the thirties had its benefits, in the revolution of individual Americans against Japanese actions in Manchuria.

It is possible that we live in a world in which moral indignation no longer counts, but I prefer not to believe so. All told the United States buys only $100,000,000 worth of products from the Union annually, and sells the Union a little more than twice that much.

But there must be other things from which the United States can obtain the sardines of manganese, chrome, lead, zinc, asbestos, copper and even diamonds it buys from the Union. And this country in turn will not go broke if the Union takes its piddling trade in machinery, auto, tractors, chemical and petroleum products and textiles elsewhere.

For a long time I have not spoken out on the situation in South Africa because we are still trying to solve, in general with good heart, our own racial problems. Progress may be slow, but at least there is progress.

But who, with an ounce of humanity, can remain silent when enslaved men, women and children are wantonly murdered; and others scourged back to their work in the white man's mines, mills, industry and homes? The black man's burden in the Union of South Africa is the 3,000,000 whites he must bear on his bleeding back. (Copyright, 1960, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Everyone Is Kept Guessing In Race

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — Find an inexpensive, fortunate and you'll know as much as the politicians do now about the presidential race.

They're guessing, and they're all mixed up.

Right now the accent is on individuals—the personality and appeal of the would-be presidential candidates. On election day what probably will count most is the mood of the country. The politicians hardly mention that.

In mid-April the pros have no more idea who will get the Democratic nomination than they did in January. Nor can they even be sure Vice President Richard M. Nixon will get the Republican nomination, although he now has no open opposition.

The presidential primaries have not proved anything—even to the winning or losing candidates.

Sen. John F. Kennedy's win in Wisconsin last week won't count for much if he gets slaughtered May 19 in the West Virginia primary against Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey. It might be enough to make Kennedy pick up his marbles.

Politicians seem to give the undependable Humphrey the least chance of getting the nomination at the Democratic convention. He lost to Kennedy in Wisconsin by more than 40,000 votes.

But it was like a shot of adrenaline. Humphrey immediately began rocketing around West Virginia in anticipation of May 19.

Nixon, unopposed so far for the Republican nomination, finished third behind Kennedy and Humphrey in Wisconsin in total votes. He can't stand too much of that.

Maybe it's because he hasn't said much all year. In turn, maybe that's because he didn't think he had to, since he looked like a lurch for the nomination.

Nixon is like a man in a political corset, laced tight. For seven years he has been President Eisenhower's shadow, and so far as the public knows his yes-man. At least, they have had no public differences.

But since there is only one Eisenhower, Nixon can't run on his record alone. Before the general ran in 1952 he was a proven military leader, a popular hero, and a recognized apostle of good will. He was a "papa-knows-best" vote, two times in a row. He not only gave the country two conservative administrations, he did more. By his "let's-be-calm" attitude he gave the country a chance to catch its breath.

Lamar Teams Take Tab Of 'Texans'

In a recent student body election canvassing the Lamar Junior High group, the official nickname of "Texans" was chosen by a large majority as the name by which the school's athletic teams will be known. The new name was picked by ballot from a list of 28 suggestions as submitted by members of the student body, and won out by receiving more votes than the other names combined. The school colors as voted on last year will be red and gray.

Wilt Decides To Play For Globetrotters

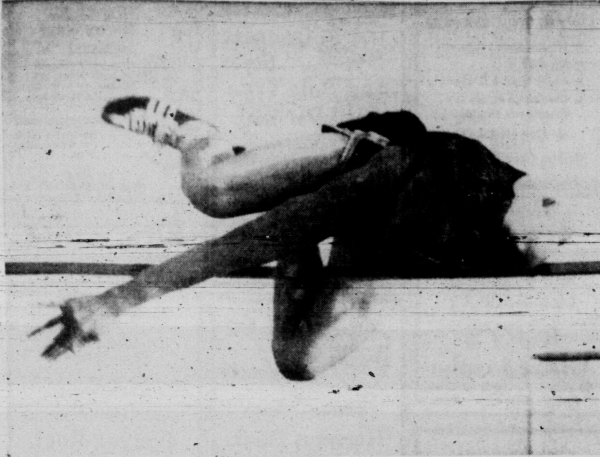

CHICAGO (AP)—Wilt Chamberlain will join the Harlem Globetrotters on June 1 in Paris, France, to complete a basketball tour of Europe, the Middle East and North Africa. Chamberlain, a 72 star, quit the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Assn. last month. He played one game with the Globetrotters after that.

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—Betsy Rawls was back on the winning road today, taking home the $6,500 Babe Zaharias Open Golf Tournament in her hand bag. Rawls won 10 tournaments last year and earned more money than any other woman player ever had. But six tournaments were played this year before the links at Spartanburg, S.C., could had one.

Killeen Keglers Bowling Champs

UP AND OVER—Jimmy Maroney, Tiger Jack-of-all-trades, "shows how it's done" as he clears the bar in Saturday's 3-AAA high jump finals. His leap of 5'7" was good for a three-way tie for second place in the event behind Colorado City's record-breaking Jerry McKay, who sprang to an even six feet. The old record of 5'11" was established by Snyder's Rex Wilson in 1958. (Photo by Thomas Boyd)

Jr. High Cinderermen Perform Here Today

Following on the heels of their "big brothers' victorious sweep at the District 33 meet, the local junior high cindermen look into the thick of the night today themselves in an attempt to duplicate the Tigers' awesome showing, as they play host to the Snyder Junior High Track Meet on the Tiger Stadium oval.

The festivities were to have begun at 2:00 this afternoon, with the preliminaries in the dash and field events on tap for that time. The prelims will be completed at 4 o'clock, while the finals in the running events will start at 7 and be completed at approximately 8:45. The meet will feature three divisions of play—the 7th, 8th, and 9th grades. A host of teams are entered in these divisions, including Big Spring, Goliad, Big Spring, Humble, three Abilene schools, South North and Lincoln, Colorado City, Lamesa, a trio of San Angelo junior highs—Edison, Washington, and Blackshear, and Snyder.

Defending champs in each are Lincoln (7th), Sweetwater (8th), and Edison (9th). Snyder failed to place in the "500 three" of any of the divisions in last year's meet. Snyder may boast of several victories in the divisions represented, however. The 7th grade broad jump mark of 12'4" was set in 1957 and is held by James McCormick, while another 7th grade existing record was written into the books by Tommy Minton, it being his 1956 discus heave of 117'2". 'DON'T UNDERRATE US' Cards Citrus Kings

By DON WEISS, Associated Press Sports Writer. The St. Louis Cardinals are not the only team to have a "don't underestimate us" slogan on their exhibition baseball season, and Manager Solly Hemus cautions "don't underestimate us" it might be time to listen. Seventh and woeful with a porous defense, erratic pitching and little batting punch in 1959, the rejuvenated Cards head into Tuesday's NL opener at San Francisco after ringing up an 18-8 spring record. While the exhibition season is sometimes as helpful as a second guessing yesterday's eye-popping revelation to all who have seen this spring. There is added pitching in ex-pirate Ronnie Kline and young Bob Miller, more sock with Daryl Spencer, Bob Neuman, Leon Wagner and a healthier defense with Spencer at short and Musial's aging legs at first base instead of the outfield. Add these to the few good carry-over features from last year's club—pitchers like Larry Jackson, Ernie Broglio, Lindy McDaniel and vineyarder Bond Mitchell, and steady hitters Joe Cunningham, Bill White and Ken Boyer, and there is reason for Hemus' optimism.

Asked which team has impressed him most this spring, Solly said, "My own club. We're 50 per cent better than last year. Don't underestimate us, we're coming." (The Cardinals' 17th inning and Musial handled the pitching and Musial had three hits Sunday as the Cards posted victory, No. 18, 5-2, over the Yankees, who lost to Las Vegas. The Cubs played without ace shortstop Ernie Banks, who suffered a bloody nose in a pepper game workout. In other Sunday games, which started up the warm-up season for the Nationals, Los Angeles whipped San Francisco 8-4 at Sacramento, Cincinnati's first inning run clipped Milwaukee 4-2 at Louisville, Pittsburgh edged Kansas City 3-2 at Fort Myers, Fla., Baltimore blanked Philadelphia 5-0 at Miami, the New York Yankees stopped the Chicago White Sox on a one-hitter 11-0 at Tampa, Cleveland edged Boston 9-8 in New Orleans, and Washington beat Detroit 5-4 at Lakeland, Fla. The American League clubs, who open their season April 18 and 19 this year, will be busy with exhibitions in Florida most of this week while the NL gets a head start. Right-hander Jim Coates and reliever Yanks Duren combined for the Yankees' one-hitter. The only Chicago hit was Billy Goodman's single off Coates in the seventh. Cleveland had 20 hits—16 off like Deloach in six innings—but Championship, set out for Toronto today hopeful of wrapping up the day hopeful of wrapping up the best-of-seven final series in short order. The Canadians completed back-to-back victories on home ice with a 2-1 victory over the Maple Leafs Saturday night. Just as in last Thursday's 4-2 win, the Canadiens jumped in front early and the battling Leafs were struggling to catch up the rest of the way. Now down 2-0 in games, the Leafs will have whatever advantage goes with home ice in trying to get the series on an even basis. The third and fourth games will be played in Toronto Tuesday and Thursday.

Dallas Man Wins With Maserati

Palmer Birdies Way To Masters Crown

By MERCER BAILEY, Associated Press Sports Writer. AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Cheers for the champion rang for Arnold Palmer in the 1960 Masters Golf Tournament. Tears were shed for Ken Venturi and Dow Finsterwald, who made gallant bids that failed. Although he led after every round, Palmer had to win his second Masters the hard way Sunday. The big bettor from Pennsylvania needed birdies on each of the last two holes to clinch the title. He got them.

Better Cleans Up On 82 Race Ticket

LONDON, R. I. (AP)—An unidentified letter won $29,789.20 on a $2 wager Saturday correctly picking the last six winners at Lincoln Downs Race Track. The huge payoff, which track officials said was one of the largest ever made at a U.S. track, was for the Panella-Quadro, a post betting arrangement on the last six races.

Are Celtics 'The Most'?

BOSTON (AP)—The recent victory Boston Celtics gave basketball buffs at least two questions to ponder when they marked up their second straight world title Saturday. Is this the No. 1 basketball team in history? How long can the Celtics keep it up? Boston wrapped up its second straight National Basketball Assn. title and third in four seasons with a 122-103 victory over St. Louis in the seventh game of the final playoffs. It was the first time an NBA team had repeated since Minneapolis since Minneapolis, then in the straight in 1952, 1953 and 1954. Boston coach Red Auerbach sports "the man" may have been the player of the half-century, but if he was around now he wouldn't even be No. 1 in the league. Bill Russell would run the legs off George.

15-B Meet Slated Here Tomorrow

Tiger Stadium will be the scene here tomorrow of the District 15-B track and field meet, which will involve five of the area teams. Participation in the annual race for the laurels will be Westbrook, and Loraine, with Harnett being the defending champion of the district. At far left is Woodrow Larrosa, the fourth-place finisher at dead center is Snyder's Wayne Berry (3rd), and sandwiched in between Woolever and Berry is Sweetwater's Burrett, who came in fourth. Not pictured is the Tiger's second place finisher, Jesse Crawford. Woolever's time of 19.4 eclipsed the old mark of 19.5 as set by Bud Morgan of Snyder in 1957. (Photo by Thomas Boyd)

SUMMER STORAGE FOR WINTER WOOLENS is a main feature of Highland Park Cleaners on the Big Spring Highway this time of year. Here Mrs. Orville-Taylor straightens a fur jacket for storage in their large, fire proof vault. All garments with the exception of knits are hung. The knits are folded carefully so they will not pull out of shape from long hanging.

Highland Park Cleaners Has Storage For Winter Clothes

It's almost time to put winter clothing away, and in many homes, it has been a problem for those who want to store furs and wooleens to keep them well-protected for future use.

It need not be a problem, however, since Highland Park Cleaners, 3803 Big Spring Highway, has safe protection in its cold storage vault. The 18 by 25 foot vault fully protects furs and wooleens against heat, moths, fire and flood. And it has ample room for several thousand garments for summer storage in a safe, odorless and pest-free place.

Shelby Coker, manager of Highland Park Cleaners, invites you to stop by and inquire about storing your winter clothing and reminds you that last season's clothing was highly styled with fur trim and accessories and if you have never felt the need of storage before for wooleens, you certainly will need it for those touches of fur.

Not only will summer storage keep your winter apparel in top shape, it will give you lots of extra closet space for the fluff and frill of hot weather wear.

AND you need not get the storage bill mixed in with the spring cleaning you are giving your spring wardrobe—store now and pay when you get them out next fall. Or you can pay a little all during the summer months so it won't cost so much all at once.

For pickup and delivery for your items to store or just for the week's cleaning, call Highland Park Cleaners.

Prospectors Say Wagon Was Strafed

DEATH VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Two prospectors say a jet fighter made a strafing run on their station wagon on a lonely desert road in Death Valley.

Paul Nett, 60, and Milo Potter, 81, of Long Beach, Calif., said the airplane approached from behind, flying low.

"We heard popping noises," said Nett, "and we could see puffs of dust rising in a long line on the desert, about 100 yards away."

The plane disappeared before the men could identify it. The incident occurred Wednesday, but wasn't reported until Sunday.

An Air Force official promised to investigate.

He said it was an Air Force plane, but he said he didn't know what it was doing there.

Port In Turkey Rocked By Quake

AMIR, Turkey (AP)—A strong port city and several towns in the Aegean region of Turkey early today.

There were no immediate reports of casualties.

The shock waves were felt for miles, sending hundreds fleeing from their homes.

Fear Boycott Of Wedding

LONDON (AP)—Some British newspapers say European royalty is boycotting Princess Margaret's wedding, and the papers don't like it.

The Daily Herald said so far Queen Ingrid of Denmark had sent the only royal acceptance.

The Danish court said King Frederik IX had another engagement that conflicted with the May 6 ceremony.

"I come regretfully to the conclusion that the royal houses of Europe are boycotting Princess Margaret for reasons other than mere inconvenience," prior engagements or even protocol," said Herald columnist Henry Fielding.

Irked at rumors that Scandinavia's royalty were not going to the wedding because Margaret's fiancé, Antony Armstrong-Jones, is a commoner, the London Daily Express thundered: "The haughtiness of the Scandinavians merely rouses laughter. If they do not come to the wedding, they will not be missed."

A spokesman for Norway's royal family called any suggestion of a boycott "sheer nonsense."

King Olav's daughter, Princess Ragnhild, is happily married to a commoner—a Norwegian ship owner.

Adlai Doesn't Expect To Get Nomination

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said today "I won't seek the Democratic nomination and I don't expect to be nominated."

Stevenson, who arrived by plane from a nine-week tour of Latin American countries, said his position on the presidential nomination "is no different from that of 1956."

The two-time presidential loser told newsmen that he has "no preference" in the race for his party's presidential nomination.

"They are all my friends," he said.

Stevenson, who flew here from San Juan, Puerto Rico, said his visits to 14 Latin American countries were "most useful."

"I think I came back a better citizen of the hemisphere," he said.

Man, 96, Claims A Bride Of 56

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Dr. Charles F. Oehler, 96, claimed a bride 40 years his junior Sunday in the church he started and served as pastor for 45 years.

Dr. Oehler, pastor emeritus of St. John's Lutheran church here and a practicing chiropractor, was married to Elizabeth von Niessen-Astra, 56, before 300 guests.

The groom believes he is the world's oldest practicing chiropractor. The bride, whom he has known for six years, is a practicing naturopath. She once treated her new husband during an illness.

Dr. Oehler was pastor of St. John's until his retirement in 1955. His wife died in 1945. Mrs. von Niessen-Astra's husband died two years ago.

Film Work Resumed

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Work resumes today on four of the eight motion pictures interrupted by the Screen Actors Guild strike, which was settled Friday.

Spokesmen at some studios said it may take two weeks to get into full production again.

Boy Composer Has More Ambitions

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Now that eight-year-old Kenneth Brown has composed a successful rhapsody which drew raves from the critics he wants to try his hand at a symphony or a concerto or maybe a ballet to which his two little cousins can dance. "He feels he will make his career in composing music," said his mother, Vera Brown. "I will do all in my power to see that it is done."

Mrs. Brown said she hopes to send Kenneth to the Conservatory of Music here but Kenny will continue to take lessons from a private instructor.

The Philadelphia Orchestra, under assistant conductor William Smith played Kenny's "Israeli Rhapsody" Saturday before a full house in the Academy of Music. Smith orchestrated the piano composition.

Kenny has been writing music since he was four. He composed "Israeli Rhapsody" last January. Most of the critics agreed the composition had great feeling and expression.

Writing in the Philadelphia Inquirer, Manuel Shores said of the rhapsody: "It showed an unmistakable creative talent. For this youngster has captured the flavor of the near east in a work that is notable for its originality—its avoidance of the musical rhetoric and initialiveness so common in child composers."

Kenny took his success in stride. Sunday he spent most of the afternoon playing baseball but he did find time to make his mother promise him "to take him to town to the department store so he could play the organ."

The boy is dead-set on having an organ. One which he has his eye on costs $2,500. Mrs. Brown, whose husband is an auto salesman, says the family can't afford it now.

Kenny also took his mind off baseball long enough to constructively criticize Smith's orchestration—privately to his mother.

So when Smith asked him what he thought of the orchestration, Kenny said: "It wasn't so bad."

But Sunday he called his mother aside and told her: "It should have been stronger. There were two places in the song where Mr. Smith could have brought-out a little more feeling."

Kenny says he composes music from things he visions in his mind. When his mother asked him if he felt he could express these things for different instruments, he answered: "I think I could but I need an organ with the different instruments to try it out."

Briton Says Medical Aid Too Costly

FORT WORTH (AP)—A former British doctor told Texas physicians Sunday that voluntary prepayment health insurance plans are the best alternative to socialized medicine.

Dr. John B. Reckless of Durham, N.C., spoke at a meeting of the House of Delegates of the Texas Medical Assn. He has been in the United States two years. He described the British experiment with a comprehensive governmental health plan and said under such a plan the patient has to pay more in the form of taxes for less satisfactory medical care.

The technical quality of medical care has not deteriorated but the patient loses his identity as an individual, he said.

He told Texas physicians that English doctors are paid on a per capita basis—set fee for each patient on their roster—and they must take a large number of patients to make enough money.

Other drawbacks in the English system, the doctor said, are:

1. Physicians lose freedom to choose where they will practice.

2. Some patients abuse the system by getting medical care when they don't need it.

3. On the credit side, Dr. Reckless listed:

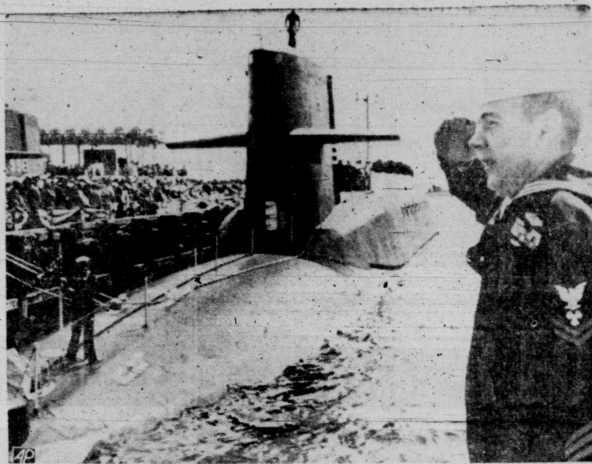

1. Improvements of existing hospital facilities.

2. Specialists are located in all towns instead of being clustered around universities and large cities.

3. The assurance that everyone will have medical care if they need it.

Person Can Be Underweight, Overfat At The Same Time

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN, Associated Press Science Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—It's not only the embarrassing bulges that make you fat. If you're still trim—but never will see 20 again—the odds are strong you're a lot fatter than you used to be.

The sad fact is you can be underweight and overfat at the same time.

A scientist from Cornell University's Graduate School of Nutrition described advanced studies on body weight today in the American Institute of Nutrition.

A scientific team working under Dr. J. H. Fryer found that if a young man reaches an "ideal weight" at age 20 and never puts on another ounce, he will at least double his body fat content by age 60—at the expense of lost muscle and other lean tissues.

Where does the excess fat go? Dr. Fryer suspects it is deposited internally as well as under the skin.

The study involved 60 men of age 60 and over and in good general health. It stemmed from the casual observation of the body composition of a 63-year-old man who had been ill.

The man had lost 25 pounds, presented a wasted appearance, and was about 20 pounds under what had been regarded as the ideal weight for his age.

A series of tests disclosed, however, that he still had almost twice as much fat in his body as a well-nourished young man of ideal weight for the same height.

In the study, subcutaneous fat was measured at selected sites in the individual by skinfold calipers. The principal body fat determinations were made by weighing subjects both in air and water.

Dr. Fryer said the study showed that a reduction in body specific gravity—more fat in proportion to lean tissue—"is apparently almost inevitable with increased age."

The study indicated that less fat is conducive to a longer life span.

Poll Shows Farm Policy Is Unpopular

CHICAGO (AP)—A recent poll taken in Iowa by Midwest Voters for Nixon shows considerable discontent for the administration's farm policies.

But, the organization reported Sunday, the vice president was preferred over four potential Democratic opponents for the presidency.

William H. McFetridge of Chicago, chairman of the group, said the poll was based on interviews with 738 adults from Feb. 25 through March 15. He said Iowa was selected "because he wanted to get a sampling of how Nixon would do in a typical farm state."

Eighty-one per cent of farmers polled expressed dissatisfaction for GOP farm policy, the organization said. Fifteen per cent were satisfied and 4 per cent had no opinion. Farmers and non-farmers showed 59 per cent dissatisfied, 24 per cent satisfied and 17 per cent no opinion.

The poll including farm and non-farm persons showed Nixon was preferred 52 to 48 per cent over Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass.); 59 to 41 per cent over Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.); and 61 to 39 per cent over both Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) and Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic party's presidential nominee in 1952 and 1956.

Seniors Plan Trip To Puerto Rico

HAVERSTRAW, N.Y. (AP)—High school seniors here traditionally take a trip together in their final year. Sometimes they visit New York or another nearby city.

School seniors came up with a different idea—a visit to Puerto Rico.

Fifty seniors, accompanied by 10 teachers and a representative of the Puerto Rican government, will fly to the island next Sunday for a three-day stay.

The trip is sponsored by the American Assn. of Spanish Speaking People and Haverstraw High School teachers. The students are paying their own way.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

TO THE DAILY NEWS:

Since the week of April 10-16 has been designated Pan American Week, I would like to take this opportunity to tell the people of Snyder about an experience which I had recently.

I am the President of the local chapter of the Pan American Student Forum of Texas. On March 17-19 I was about to attend the state meeting of this fine organization. At the meeting, which was held at Municipal Auditorium in from-over 100 PASF chapters in Texas. All in all, well over 1,000 students were in attendance.

The first general assembly was held Friday morning. At this meeting a letter was read which had been written by President Eisenhower to Buddy Miller of Mineola, President of PASF. In his letter, PASF on the fine work it had done in strengthening relations between the people of Texas and those of the Latin American republics.

The next event of the day was the discussion group session. In the discussion groups, of which there were four, the delegates held a roundtable forum concerning specific problems of interest to the clubs. The group which I attended dealt with "Latin American in World Affairs." Present in all four groups were experts in their respective fields.

In my group, Mr. Neville G. Penrose of Fort Worth, who has served on the Good Neighbor Commission, gave his opinions on various questions asked him by the delegates.

One discussion group leader was Mrs. Helen Mitchell, public relations director for the Texas State Bank of Austin. At the end of the student was chosen to present a summary of the discussion at the afternoon general session. The student chosen from my group had spent four years living in Bolivia and was well-versed on this subject.

I heard many compliments paid to the discussion group-type convention in the past. PASF had used a system of contests as the main interest-builder in its state convention. However, the Board of Directors came to the conclusion that rivalry from the contests was causing hard feelings among the chapters. Therefore, the Board decided to replace the contests with the discussion-forum plan. Our own club sponsor, Mrs. Wendell N. Shiflett, was selected to arrange the many long, hard spent hours in preparation for this year's convention, and I feel that the success attained by it can be credited to her untiring efforts.

Snyder can be proud to have among its high school faculty an instructor such as Mrs. Shiflett. She is thought of very highly by her fellow PASF chapter sponsors, as attested by their selection of her to be workshop chairman. She was asked to assume this responsibility again next year, but she declined. Therefore, the board of directors created a new position, that of workshop advisor, which they bestowed on her.

All of Snyder should share the pride felt by the PASF Chapter's delegation; at Mrs. Shiflett's marvelous job.

On behalf of the chapter I would like to thank Mr. McCollum, along with the school administration and Board, for the help they gave Mrs. Shiflett on this project. Also, speaking for the delegation, I would like to thank these same people for making possible such an inspiring and enjoyable trip.

CHEVY! YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS ... UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!

Anyone who's looked around knows the majority of Chevrolet models—6's and V8's together—list for less than comparable models of other low-priced cars. But the price tag alone is only one of a whole raft of reasons a Chevy does better by your dollars. For in no other low-priced car will you find such price-less advantages as Fisher Body craftsmanship, an X-built Safety-Girder frame, Safety Plate Glass in every window and countless "extras" that don't cost you a penny more!

The price tags on a '60 Chevrolet and the other cars in its class may look somewhat alike. But there—very abruptly—the resemblance ends.

Nothing near Chevy's size and price can match the Full Coil cushioning of its ride, or the fine, finished workmanship of its Body by Fisher. That even applies to some cars that cost a lot more. You're up in the higher price brackets before you find a car that moves as quietly as a Chevrolet or offers the inner space that Chevrolet does.

Or look at the extras Chevy gives you—at no extra cost—that others in its class can't offer at any price. Shock-cushioned steering, Safety Plate Glass in every window, Keyless locking of all doors, A full wrap-around windshield, Vent windows that crank open and closed, Chevrolet offers the widest choice of power teams; too—seven engines and five transmissions—including shift-free Turbofide, an extra-cost option.

Drop by your dealer's and drive a Chevy—just once. You'll have a tough time settling for anything less.
