GREEK ARMY RENEWS ATTACK

GENERAL OFFENSIVE MOVEMENT ALONG LINE BY TROOPS OPERATING IN EPRIUS

CLEVER RUSE IS EXECUTED

Troops Landed For Purpose of Drawing Part of Turkish Forces From Janina

By Associated Press.

Athens, Dec. 13.—A general offensive movement along the whole line was begun Wednesday by the Greek army operating in Epirus, the most westerly portion of the Balkan peninsula. After repeated attacks the Greek troops occupied, at the point of the bayonet, the Turkish advance post near the Visati fortifications and camped there.

The Greeks captured three quick firing cannon, and many tents. The Greek general reports from Tentetigedla that his troops fought vigorously all day. With the idea of drawing off a portion of the Turkish troops concentrated in the fortress of Janina, which the Greeks were about to attack, two batallions of Greek infantry, supported by four field guns, were landed west of Janina. This movement was successful.

The Turks, as soon as they learned of the landing of Greek troops, sent out eight batallions, with two batteries of siege guns to engage them. After a skirmish, the Greek troops re-embarked and made for another part of the coast of Epirus.

FACTORY SITE BONUS ALMOST COMPLETED

Only Few Hundred Dollars Lacking To Complete Bonus For Site of Ball Brothers Plant

This afternon finds all but a few hundred dollars of the purchase fund of $10,000 for the Ball Brothers factory site, raised by the committee, and it is hoped to complete the amount by nightfall. This is the fourth day of work by the committee, which feels that the amount should have been subscribed in considerably less time.

The other concessions asked by Ball Brothers are being arranged as rapidly as possible. On a recent trip to Chicago, Frank Kell stopped off at Muncie, Indiana, where Ball Brothers' headquarters are, and discussed the situation with them, being able to report good progress at the Wichita Falls end of the line. It will probably require several weeks to get the rate and switching concessions thoroughly closed up, owing to the several formalities that have to be gone through.

The soliciting committee has met with few turn-downs and does not consider that there is any doubt of the entire amount being subscribed. It is anxious, however, to wind up the list today and asks that everyone who has not subscribed assist it to this end. Messrs. Marlow and Blair are both devoting considerable time away from their other business affairs, but their burden has been light compared with that of Myles O'Reilly who, although suffering with a broken rib that causes him much inconvenience, has worked tirelessly with the others.

GOVERNMENT ATTACKS THE "CANDY TRUST"

Philadelphia, Dec. 13.—The candy trust of Philadelphia was attacked by Attorney General Wickersham in a civil anti-trust suit filed here today against the Philadelphia Jobbing Confectioners' Association. Members and officers of the association are charged with conspiring to coerce candy manufacturers from selling direct to retailers, consumers or jobbers unless they were members of the association.

BANQUET HELD HONORING NEOPHYTES

Knights Templar Extend Honors to Six Who Recently Crossed the Burning Sands

In honor of five candidates who recently crossed the burning sands and became Knights, the local commandery of Knights Templar enjoyed a banquet last night at the Y. M. C. A. building. About eighty Knights were in attendance. The banquet was served by the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church and consisted of roast turkey and other delicacies too numerous to mention.

The candidates recently initiated were Messrs. N. Henderson, Tom Jones, Clifford, Ferguson, Williams and Freeman. The members of the Commandery attended in full regalia and presented an imposing appearance.

FORECASTS END OF NEGRO RACE

New Orleans, La., Dec. 13.—"The negro race in the United States will become completely extinct approximately 220 years from now. The last of the negroes will be a negress, and she will die in the south." These deductions came from Prof. William Benjamin Smith, a noted educator and professor of philosophy in Tulane University, as result of his study of the United States census report for Louisiana, just issued from Washington.

"That report," said Prof. Smith, "shows that among the whites of this state the males are gaining in proportion over females in birth, a sure indication of the virulency and increasing stamina of the whites. But the same report also shows that among the negroes the females are gaining in number. Reports of other states confirm this retrogression.

"If the race were in the ascendency the male births would at least retain an equal proportion. The negro has come to the last two centuries of his being here. Slowly but surely, his race will dwindle in males until there are less than one-tenth the number of men compared with women. Finally, if the law works out to its logical conclusion, there will be but one negress left in the United States, whose death will occur about 2130 A. D."

HOSPITAL MUST WAIT FOR NEW CHARTER.

"Wait for the new charter" is the only answer the city can make at present to the resolution of the United Charities asking that an emergency or charity hospital be provided in this city. This proposition has been discussed before in recent months, but the city will be unable to take action until the new charter becomes effective.

Joint action by the city council and the county commissioners for a hospital is provided for in the new charter, and the city is empowered to levy a tax for this purpose. Pending the adoption of the charter, no action is likely to be taken.

BOY ON TRIAL FOR FATHER'S DEATH

Self Defense Will be Plea of Fourteen Year Old Will Smith

By Associated Press.

Gainesville, Texas, Dec. 13.—The trial of Will Smith, aged 14, charged with the murder of his father at Leo, Texas, began here today. The jury was completed yesterday. The boy shot his father following a reprimand by the elder Smith, who scolded the boy for playing while at work in a cotton field. Self-defense will be the boy's plea.

BELIEVES KIDNAPPED CHILD HAS BEEN KILLED.

By Associated Press.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 13.—That Robert Dunbar, the four-year-old son of Joseph Dunbar, of Opeloussas, La., who was kidnapped several months ago, has been foully dealt with by his captors, is the belief of R. C. Cowan, assistant superintendent of a private detective agency. Mr. Cowan with the father of the missing boy, left late last night for Lucedale, Mississippi, following the arrest of Edgar Hoeks on the charge of kidnapping the child. It is said the boy may be concealed near the Mississippi town.

In a cabin on the river occupied by Hooks and others, the detectives discovered a large quantity of stolen goods. The place evidently had been used by an organized gang. There is a $6000 reward for the boy's recovery.

BETWEEN MAN AND CONSCIENCE

"MONEY TRUST" WITNESS SAYS "SHORT" SELLING IS A MATTER FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL

THINKS IT GAMBLING

Moral Duty of Stock Exchange Was Subject of a Heated Argument

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 13.—S. K. Sturgis, former president of the New York Stock Exchange, told the "money trust" investigation committee today that he was unable to estimate the annual business of the exchange. Mr. Untermeyer then read from answers furnished by the exchange to questions of the Hughes commission, giving an estimate of yearly business amounting to $196,000,000 shares of stock.

Mr. Sturgis said he believed these figures about right. He said about one-third of the trading is done by brokers.

"Then about $131,000,000 are bought and sold by the public?"

"About that."

Sturgis said there were about four or five hundred active brokers on the exchange. He said commissions are charged on par value of stock without regard to market price. He explained that "short" selling is the practice of selling stock not owned by the seller in order to buy it back later at a lower price.

"The object is to make money on a break in the market by selling what you haven't got, isn't that so?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Sturgis. He said he believed it proper for a broker in times of panic to protect himself by short sales, if he is holding another line of stock for which there is no market.

"Do you believe short selling justified in a normal market?"

"Do you personally approve of short selling in a normal market?"

"Personally, I do not."

"The stock exchange does not discourage short selling?"

"It takes no position in that matter."

Mr. Untermeyer reviewed the argument in favor of short selling as a balance on a rising market, and as steadying a general market situation.

"Don't you think the moral obloquy of such a transaction outweighs any argument in its favor?"

"Yes, I do, personally."

"As a matter of fact, that is gambling, pure and simple?"

"Yes, very largely."

The moral duty of the stock exchange to the public involved Mr. Sturgis and the lawyer in a heated argument. Sturgis said:

"The exchange as such has no duty towards the public except to maintain a place to do business, and to surround that business with proper safeguard."

The witness said he did not believe the stock exchange is guilty of misleading banks about the value of securities manipulated.

GOVERNOR SAYS LAWS' DELAY RESULT FROM PRACTICES PERMITED BY JUDGES

CODIFICATION IS USELESS

Colquitt Criticises Work of Commission Appointed By His Predecessor

By Associated Press.

Austin, Texas, Dec. 13.—Governor Colquitt talked candidly to the convention of district judges today. He told the judges they were to blame in a large measure for delay. He said the trouble did not lie in the defects in legal procedure, but in a great measure, to the practices which the trial judges permit.

He asked the judges to appoint able counsel to defend the poor man without friends. He asserted that the poor man is railroaded to the penitentiary while the man with influence and money goes free, after taking up his case to the higher court two or three times.

The governor called attention to a case where the son of a poor widow, her only support, charged with violating the option laws, was railroaded to the penitentiary for two years and a man of influence charged with a serious offense was acquitted. He criticised the codification of the statutes by the commission appointed during his predecessor's administration. He said the book turned out by them was nothing more than a scrap book full of defects.

Articles which cannot be sent by parcels post include intoxicating liquors of all kinds, poisons, poisonous animals, insects or reptiles, explosives of very kind, inflammable articles including matches, infernal machines, pistols or revolvers, disease germs, any obscure defamatory or scurrilous matter now prohibited by law, live or dead animals or birds or live poultry, raw hides or pelts or anything having a bad odor.

Books and printed matter may be sent at parcels post rates, but only at the pound rate of third class matter.

YOUNG MAN SERIOUSLY HURT WHEN HORSE FELL

J. A. McFadden Jr., Unconscious Since Ten O'Clock This Morning From Concussion of Brain

J. A. McSpadden, Jr., superintendent of the City Dairy was seriously injured when the horse he was riding fell while he was riding in a gallop in attempt to head off other horses in the Orth pasture, about six miles south of the city at ten o'clock this morning. Mr. McSpadden with his brother-in-law W. J. Lamb were attempting to drive the horses into a corrall. Lamb was about a hundred yards distant when he saw McSpadden's horse go down. He could not see whether McSpadden fell under the horse or whether he was thrown to the ground, but when he rode up he found the rider unconscious.

Lamb summoned help and removed the injured man to the camp where they lived while working at this place and Dr. R. C. Smith was summoned. Later McSpadden was brought to the city and placed in the Wichita Sanitarium. At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon he had not regained consciousness. There is a bruised place on the side of his head and his unconscious state is attributed to concussion of the brain.

So far no internal injuries or fractures have been discovered and time will be required to determine whether the injuries are of a critical nature.

The injured man is a son of J. A. McSpadden, Sr., and is aged about 23 years. He is unmarried.

CRITICAL STAGE IN NEGOTIATIONS

Announcement of Failure of Mediation Between Harriman Lines and Trainmen Expected

By Associated Press.

Houston, Texas, Dec. 1[3]—There is no longer any attempt to disguise the fact that Federal Commissioner Neill's efforts to arbitrate differences between the Harriman conductors and trainmen between New Orleans and El Paso are at a critical stage with announcement of failure expected at any minute. General strike talk is being revived.

Neill says the present mediation, in point of time, has lasted longer than any trouble with which he has been called on to deal, except in one instance.

The apparently insurmountable differences have nothing to do with wage matters, but relate mainly to working conditions.

COTTON FUTURES 25 POINTS HIGHER

Reports of Decreased December Ginnings Were Leading Factor in Advance

By Associated Press.

New York, Dec. 13.—Cotton futures opened firm at an advance of 7 and 12 points and went 17 and 22 points net higher during early trading. Liverpool cables were steady on reports that returns to National Ginners' Association indicated that ginning for the first half of December would not be more than half of last year's figures, afternoon prices rose 2[5] to 31 points net higher. Close very steady.

J. P. MORGAN BUYING UP UNION PACIFIC?

Wall Street Believes Financier is Now Putting Over Big Deal

New York, Dec. 13.—In spite of assurance to the contrary, there is growing belief in Wall street that when the present flurry in the stock market is over J. P. Morgan will be found to be the owner of a very heavy if not dominating interest in Union Pacific.

The course of the stock since the Supreme Court decision was rendered has indicated some unusual operation in progress and not liquidation by insiders and today, soon after it had touched 150 3-4, the news was spread that Mr. Morgan had purchased 50,000 shares at private sale for $150 a share. This was the signal for a sharp rally, which carried Union Pacific to above 15[5] and turned the whole course of the market.

That several big blocks of stock have changed hands during the last few days at private sale is common gossip in the street, and in addition the holdings of several big operators have been shaken out in the general market.

One of these, a Chicago plunger, is said to have been forced to let go of 120,000 shares this week, all of which stock has been taken out of the market. The floating supply is said to be the smallest in a long time, and with most traders short of the stock, Wall street, with the Northern Pacific corner still fresh in memory, would not be surprised to see some fireworks.

IMPORTS OF LUXURIES GREATEST IN HISTORY

Estimated Total for Year Will Exceed $250,000—Entering Country at Rate of Million Dollars Daily

By Associated Press.

Washington, Dec. 13.—Imports of luxuries into the United States during October probably were the highest on record. Washington estimates show that luxuries are entering this country at the rate of a million dollars worth a day, and if that rate holds good it is estimated imports of luxuries will aggregate $250,000,000 for the calendar year of 1912.

MAYOR AGAINST BOXING GAME

DECLARES EVERY MAN PRESENT AT NEXT FIGHT IN WICHITA WILL BE ARRESTED

PLANS MAY BE CHANGED

Next Bout May Be Staged Outside of City Limits—Promoter Claims No Law Violated

"I'm going to arrest every man who is present at the next fight in Wichita Falls," said Mayor Bell today, "that exhibition Wednesday night was the most brutal and disgraceful thing I ever heard of."

There will be no more boxing exhibitions in Wichita Falls, if Mayor Bell has his way, according to his statement this morning. He contends that the matches are a violation of law. Promoter Waldon, who staged Wednesday night's mill and who is planning another for Christmas day, contends that no law was violated.

In this connection, it is interesting to note that District Attorney Scurry, Deputy Sheriff Hawkins and City Marshal Gwinn were all among the spectators at the fight and none of them seemed to consider that the law was being violated. The city council can, of course, pass an ordinance making exhibitions of that kind a misdemeanor.

Such an ordinance, however, would apply only to the city limits and plans are being made for holding the next bout at the Lake, where more commodious quarters can be obtained. Promoter Waldon is planning to bring Bobby Waugh and one or two other well known Southwestern fighters to this city and hopes to stage some interesting bouts during the winter.

While prize fights, as such, are prohibited under the Texas laws, nearly every large city in the State has clubs where boxing matches take place. No admission fee is charged for the fight itself and no prize is hung up—at least not where anybody can look at it. Promoter Waldon believes that the lake pavilion can be conveniently arranged for boxing bouts and if he carries out his plans will stage some good mills during the winter.

"A CURABLE DISEASE" TO BE SHOWN HERE SOON.

"A Curable Disease" is the title of a picture to be shown in this city at an early date. The picture in part treats of the great "White Plague." The story deals with a young linotype operator working on one of the large daily papers in New York City. He becomes the victim of the dreadful disease and is compelled to leave friends, relatives and sweetheart and go to the Union Printer's Home at Colorado Springs, Colorado. The picture shows the arrival at the Home of the young linotype operator and how he is treated for some time. How he is deprived of his mail from home by the nurse, who has fallen desperately in love with him. The picture shows that this awful disease is curable and how it is treated at the Union Printer's Home in Colorado Springs. It is a nice little photo play and said to be very instructive. Definite announcement will be made of its coming in these columns later.

WIFE CLAIMS SHE DIDN'T UNDERSTAND LEASE

Suit For Cancellation Brought On Grounds That Acknowledgement Not Properly Taken

Those who contend that married women have no property rights in Texas may find comfort in a suit filed in the district court by W. A. Martin and his wife, Mrs. Caroline Martin, seeking to cancel a lease of the Corsicana Petroleum Company on the ground that Mrs. Martin did not know the nature of the lease when she signed it and that her notoral acknowledgement was not "privily and apart from her husband," as the law requires.

The petition attacks the lease also on the ground of failure to develop the land and seeks its cancellation. Smoot and Smoot are attorneys for the plaintiff.

The same allegations are set forth in another petition against the Corsicana Company, along similar lines, in which J. H. Anderson and wife are plaintiffs.

Suit was filed today by J. T. Overby vs J. M. Burk et al for debt.

HYPODERMIC NEEDLE DENOUNCED AS CURSE

Government Official Says Doctors Are Most to Blame For Spread of Drug Habit

Washington, Dec. 13.—The medical profession is doing more to spread the drug habit among the American people than all other agencies combined, was the indictment made by Dr. L. F. Kobler, chief of the drug division of the department of agriculture in an address before the forty-second annual meeting of the American Society for the Study of Alcohol and Other Narcotics. Dr. Kobler declared the hypodermic needle, which had been regarded as a great boon to mankind, had proved to be one of its greatest curses. He said the amount of opium used in the United States had increased about 100 per cent in the last forty years, and charged that many physicians were drug users themselves.

Dr. D. C. Keister, of Roanoke, Va., told the members of the society that three thousand murders in the United States, last year, were directly attributable to the use of alcohol. Drinking among women was greatly on the increase, he said, adding that 28 per cent of those who drank intoxicants in the United States were women.

Would or would it not be a compliment to President Taft should President-elect Wilson, after he is inauguarted, remove from federal office all Republicans for "pernicious political activity?"

Having made most of his millions through favors shown him by the government at Washington through tariff legislation does not necessarily mean that Mr. Carnegie shall give a part of his ill gotten gains back by pensioning off our ex-presidents. Therefore his proposition to do that very thing meet with a frost.—Uncle Sam has not fallen so low as to accept loot for its honored ex-presidents in the form of charity.

If more Texas children attended the public schools, there would be less need of reformatories and penitentiaries! This fact is too well known to be discussed. But how on earth a majority of the teachers assembled in Fort Worth a few days ago, could go on record as opposed to compulsory education, is one of those mysteries perhaps a somnambule might explain. The right kind of parent does not need to be compelled to give his child proper schooling; it's only the trifling sinner who wants to live off his child's earnings that the law is aimed at, and how school teachers can afford to uphold such a man in keeping him from doing the decent thing is beyond us. It convinces us that a great many Texas school teachers are sadly in need of a few more grains of common sense.—Quanah Tribune Chief.

Perhaps there a few isolated cases where parents are compelled to depend upon their children for support, but in such cases Texas is big and wealthy enough to relieve all such pitable cases at public expense. Our school teachers, it occurs to the Times, have taken a very narrow view of this matter of compulsory education.

The Democratic party was placed in power to carry out Democratic ideas, and of course things are not going to run in the same channels they have been of late years. Revision of the tariff is one of the reforms promised, and when this is done, let us hope that a sufficinet reduction will be made as to put a sudden stop to this business of taking money out of the consuming masses and placing it into the pockets of such fellows as Morgan and his kind. That kind of protection is only a milder term for theft from the person.

Postoffice clerks are hard to get these days and the difficulty seems on the increase, according to Postmaster Bacon. The local office is in need of additional clerks, not only for handling the heavy holiday business, but to take care of the normal increase of the office, but it is proving hard to obtain competent extra employes. Telephone calls to nearby towns depeloped that they were similarly situated. Clerks must be able to pass the civil service examinations and while it is possible to secure help to handle the rush, comparatively few applicants can stand the examinations.

George Kempff, who lives on Pease river some twenty miles southeast of here, was in town yesterday. He was very happy having received a letter from his oldest son of whom he lost sight thirty-six years ago. The past year Mr. Kempff had been advertising for the missing youngster in various German papers, and finally located him in San Francisco. He is a big, fine looking boy, Mr. Kempff asserts, and shows his son's photograph to prove the assertion.—Quanah Tribune-Chief.

NEW ROUTE TO FORT WORTH IS PLANNED

Wise, Montaague and Clay Counties Begin Active Campaign For the Meridian Road

John C. Nicholson, secretary of the Meridian Road Association next week will make a trip from Fort Worth to Wichita Falls to inspect another proposed route for the "Meridian Road" by way of Henrietta, Bowie, Sunset, Alvord, Decatur and other towns along the Denver. The route originally selected was through Jacksboro and Weatherford.

D. P. Talley, chairman of the Wichita county committee, has written Mr. Nicholson at San Antonio, where he will be this week on his way to inspect a route to the coast, asking when he will leave Fort Worth so that representatives of the local organization may accompany him.

The people of Clay, Montague and Wise county have awakened to the importance of securing this route.

At a meeting at Bowie last week a Montague county organization was formed. Representatives from Clay county were in attendance. Officers were elected as follows:

President—C H Bodeker.
Secretary—O L Williams.
Treasurer—A E Thomas.
Committeemen—Tuck Perryman, A M Chandler, W J Priddy, Robert T Snapp, J H Matthews, T C Phillips, Sam Young, W T Penn.

Soliciting Committee for Road Funds—C B Downs, W T Penn, R C Cady, Sam Young, W A Wells, W B Buckner and Sam Daube.

The Bowie Cross Timbers has the following to say concerning the plans for taking Mr. Nicholson over the proposed route:

Secretary Williams was sent to Fort Worth last Monday. There he met Mr. Nicholson, secretary of the National Good Roads Association. It is Mr. Nicholson's business to inspect and log the proposed route. This he will do next week, making the run from Fort Worth north to Wichita Falls. The party will consist of Mr. Nicholson, Mr. Doods, O L Williams, W H Chisholm, a Fort Worth reporter and a photographer. Decatur autos will escort them to that place, where Bowie autoists will meet them and bring them on here about Tuesday. The local cars that will bring the party are those of M F and A J Allen, T C Phillips, John Black and H Jackson.

Arriving in Decatur Tuesday or Wednesday the party will be taken in charge by a Bowie entertainment committee consisting of A M Chandler, A J Allen, T C Phillips, W A Wells, J H Matthews, W T Penn, M F Allen, J T Lawson, H Jackson, John Black, H F Weldon, Sam Young and C B Downs.

When the party reaches Sunset, R J Kennedy and Jno. B Hunt will interest themselves in their entertainment.

Arriving in Bowie about 2 p. m. a luncheon will be served. The reception committee will consist of C H Boedeker, Sam Daube, J W Chancellor, A E Thomas, Wm. A Ayres, R Veil, John Holbrook, L A Clark, A J Weisner, J A Burgess, W B Buckner, Walt Worley, Joe M Brown, E Edminston, John Speer.

Tonight (Friday) at the Chamber of Commerce, will be held a meeting of county delegates from the counties of Wise, Montague and Clay. The intention is to perfect plans for the promotion of a district or state organization.

Notice

To the residents north of 7th street to the river, the city trash wagon will work out that district Monday, the 16th. The city ordinance requires all trash and cans to be placed in barrels or boxes and will be hauled away at 15c per barrel or box. This wagon goes out every day in the week and any garbage or trash wanted moved report same to city hal or notify J. A. Brown, Sanitary officer. 83 2tc

Use Cottolene For Cooking!

It Cuts Down the Butter Bills

When you shorten or fry food with butter it is needless extravagance. Butter is too expensive for use anywhere but on your table. If butter were really better, would produce better results in cooking, you would be justified in using it, but it won't. Cottolene is fully the equal of butter for shortening; it is better for frying. It makes food rich, but not greasy, because it heats to a higher temperature than lard or butter and cooks so quickly that the fat has no chance to "soak in." Cottolene is more healthful than lard, and you need to use only two-thirds as much as you would of either butter or lard.

When you stop to consider that the price of Cottolene is no more than the price of lard, you can readily figure out what a saving its use in your kitchen means.

Don't be extravagant; don't use butter for cooking; it's too expensive and no better. Don't use lard; it's too uncertain, and greasy.

Do use Cottolene, and you will have better, more healthful food, and more money in your pocketbook.

GRIDDLE CAKES

1 cup sifted flour	½ teaspoon salt
1 egg	1 tablespoon melted Cottolene
½ teaspoon soda	1 teaspoon baking powder

QUALITY
is the world's standard by which everything that desirable, durable or good is measured. Quality is that intrinsi something that we pay for in every piece of merchandise we buy. The goodness or desirability of a piece of merchandise can be no greater than it's quality. The quality in the products of the world's factories is their one and only recommendation to the ultimate buyer or consumer who takes them out of commerce forever. There is probably no place where quality is so seriously considered as in the buying of gift goods. The quality of the gift indicates to the recipient the quality of friendship or love of the giver and since quality dictates the price of every commodity dollars and cents are a poor standard for the measurement of the value of gifts for friends and loved ones. Durability is the paramount feature to be considered in a gift. Our line of gift goods this year are quality goods such as will correctly represent your feelings toward the person to whom you wish to present a reminder that will awaken pleasant memories in the years that are to come. We have no cheap or shoddy goods No tinsel. We will give you a hundred cents worth of intrinsic value and superior quality for every dollar you spend with us.

HIGH TRIBUTE PAID TO J. W. HOUSTON

Salt Lake City Paper's Account of the Death of Former Wichitan There

The Salt Lake City Tribune of last Sunday contained an extended account of the death of J. W. Houston, formerly a resident of Wichita Falls. In this account high tribute was paid to Mr. Houston's character and to his ability.

"Mr. Houston's death will be mourned by thousands," the Tribune's account says:

"Mr. Houston's geniality and his scrupulous honesty in all of his dealings won for him thousands of warm friends. He was ever optimistic, proverbially cheerful and always a firm believer in Salt Lake and its future. Though conservative in business dealings and never a plunger, he was nevertheless a builder. His enterprise made possible some of the largest business houses and office buildings of Salt Lake City.

"Joseph Weyman Houston was born September 11, 1865, on the Salado River, a short way from San Antonio, Texas. His father was a prominent physician, who was a member of the famous pioneer Houston family that settled in Texas when it was a part of Mexico and which was prominent in the affairs of the old Texan republic.

"Mr. Houston's father died when the son was 15 years of age. The family went to Wichita Falls, Texas, engaging in the cattle business for several years. Mr. Houston went to school in San Antonio and Wichita Falls and later attended school in Virginia.

"In 1889 he came to Salt Lake where he began his career as a real estate dealer. He began in the realty business in a small way. Within a short time he proved his exceptional ability in that field of endeavor. He possessed clear judgment and keen foresight. He carefully avoided anything that was not clearly open and above board in every transaction. He was a broad, intelligent man of high ideals and high mindedness and exact probity characterized every transaction.

"Mr. Houston confidently expected Salt Lake City to become a great city and he was one of the foremost of Salt Lake's public spirited men who helped achieve this result. He was one of the founders of the Salt Lake Commercial Club and was always one of its most active members. He was for many years one of the board of governors of the Commercial Club and was one of those who made possible the beautiful new home of the club.

"Mr. Houston always avoided publicity and while he was a close friend of the newspaper men in the city he at all times requested that he be mentioned as little as possible in the public prints. This request was characteristic of his modest bearing. Though responsible for many of the biggest real estate transactions in the city, he always declined to take advantage of the advertising that might accrue from the wide publicity of the part his firm had taken in the transaction.

"Among the business deals in which Mr. Houston was actively interested was the building of the Newhouse business district on South Main street. Exchange place and Cactus street. His company procured the property on behalf of Mr. Newhouse for the sites for the Newhouse and Boston buildings, the Mining exchange, the Commercial Club, the Newhouse Hotel and the Newhouse Theatre. Mr. Houston was also prominent in the real estate transactions which resulted in the establishment of a new retail district on East Broadway.

"Mr. Houston's real estate business was taken over in 1898 by the Houston Real Estate and Investment Co., originally incorporated for $10,000, but now having a capitalizatoin of $500,000. Mr. Houston was president of the company and owned the controlling interest. The next largest stockholder is Charles W. Johnson, secretary and managed of the company, who for many years has been associated in business with Mr. Houston. A. W. Houston of San Antonio is vice president of the company.

"By careful attention to business and conservative but consistent progress, Mr. Houston accumulated a snug fortune. His estate is estimated at approximately $250,000.

"In a quiet and unostentatious way, Mr. Houston dispensed much in charity. His charitable acts were never made known by Mr. Houston and were never revealed unless by the beneficiary of his kind acts. Many struggling young business men were given needed assistance by Mr. Houston and scores of waifs found in him a true friend and protector. The extent of Mr. Houston's charity will never be known.

"Though he was keenly interested in public affairs, Mr. Houston never could be prevailed upon to accept a political office. Several times he was urged to become mayor of Salt Lake City and to be a candidate for governor of the State, but he always firmly declined the proffered honors."

The burial took place at Salt Lake City Tuesday under the auspices of the Mt. Moriah Lodge of Masons.

IT MUST BE TRUE.

Wichita Falls Readers Must Come to That Conclusion.

It is not the telling of a single case in Wichita Falls, but scores of citizens testify. Endorsement by people you know bears the stamp of truth. The following is one of the public statements made in this locality about Doan's Kidney Pills:

Mrs. W. M. Langford, 309 Lee street, Wichita Falls, Texas, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for several years and I am glad to join others in recommending them, as they did me such excellent service. There were times when my back was so painful that I could not sleep at night. I also had pains in my sides and when I got up in the morning, I was more tired than when I went to bed. My kidneys were weak. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills and they promptly relieved me of all pains and also strengthened my kidneys. Since then I have taken a box of Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally and they have kept my kidneys in good working order."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Word reached here last night that the judgment of $7,000 for Miss Lelia Matchett in her suit against the Fort Worth & Denver Railroad was affirmed yesterday in the court of civil appeals at Fort Worth. RED CROSS SEALS

The little Red Cross stamp appears again with its appeal, "Help stamp out tuberculosis." Yet, after all, our knowledge of the work of the Christmas seals is vague. We know that it is a cross appropirate for the time of year, and we know it is red, which is also cheery and just right for Christmas time, and we know that it all means war on the "white plague." But how is the red stamp work done and to what degree? Well, in four years these seals have raised $1,005,000 to fight tuberculosis in this country. They have established fresh air classes for anaemic children, and tuberculosis clinics for all people. They have established hospitals—four in Texas, seven in Wisconsin, and on on. They employ visiting nurses. They publish the tuberculosis text book, a small book of twenty-five pages in large print, telling children how to be free from the disease.

Does the average person know that a large per cent of the children in cities are tuberculosis? This little book tells the ignorant how to keep from taking cold and how to live so as to overcome the tendency to tuberculosis. The book has been distributed in the schools of New York, where naturally the greatest part of this work is going on. There are dispensaries, baby farms, farms for convalescents, open air schools and many other things that spring from the little Red Cross stamps.

This story is told in a haphazard way because the work is so widespread and varies so much. For example, two years ago Texas did not have a single institution supported by the public to deal with this disease. Then the sale of the little Red Cross stamp was begun, and it has jumped from 100,000 the first year to 1,250,000, and the state has now five dispensaries and staffs. Our own state, Indiana, increased its sales of $3,837 in 1910 to $12,454 in 1911. In this present prosperous year we ought to do much better still. There are a few states that do not sell the stamp, but they are getting fewer each year, for this work is enlisting the whole country and it is American really.

It originated in this country during our civil war in the various charity stamps which crossed to Europe and finally came back to us in this shape from Norway, Sweden and Denmark for anti-tuberculosis work. This is the fifth season's sale that has now begun. A start was made in 1907 in eDalware by Jacob Riis and Emily Bissel, of the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, and the Red Cross Society combined, and made $3,000 that year. The next year the national stamp came into existence under the auspices of the American Red Cross Society. This year 85,000,000 stamps have been printed. John D. Rockefeller bought $300 worth the other day. As the work goes on, of course, it broadens in its scope and being local in its determination, it takes on shapes to suit local needs. An American thing about it is that the money raised in a region is spent there. There is no federal fund to take the contributions of various localities. The money goes right among the people that gave it for the benefit of those that need it. This is a greatly encouraging feature. Hawaii, Porto Rico, the Philippines and the canal zone have bought these stamps and the money has been used for the benefit of these different localities "right there at home." Thus everywhere that the influence of the little red stamp goes it encourages a local spirit of self-helpfulness and for the benefit of the immediate region.

Naturally the application of the funds varies in different localities according to needs. In Wisconsin, for example, a large part of the money was spent in a campaign of education. In Illinois about half the money was spent in Chicago on the direct work of fighting the disease. Utica, N. Y., used its money to increase the visiting nurses and to pay for dispensary and sanatorium expenses. In states like Georgia and Texas the work is almost wholly educational. The people must be roused, societies formed, legislatures appealed to, and so on.

It costs about 15 per cent to defray the expenses of the sale of the little Christmas seals. That leaves 85 cents out of $1 to make the fight against the white death. Here is a good summary of the present work from Frank H. Mann of the New York preventive committee:

At present the work of the association carrying on the fight against tuberculosis is focused largely in two kinds of preventative work. One is the treatment of children. The other is the segregation of advanced cases of consumption. It has been estimated that 90 per cent of the children in an American city are infected with tuberculosis before they are ten years old. At this age tuberculosis is easy enough to cure. If these children can be cared for while their disease is still in the incipent stage their health can be saved. As for the treatment of consumption in advanced stages, it is being more and more strongly realized that, whether or not there is hope of their recovery, men and women who are suffering from consumption must be separated from their families and neighbors, to prevent the spread of the disease.—Indianapolis News.

ELECTION OF OFICERS BY LADIES OF MACCABEES.

The local hive of Ladies of the Maccabees held an enjoyable session Wednesday, the feature being the annual election officers. The following were chosen for the ensuing term: Mrs. Laurel Morris, lady commander; Mrs. Werdna Hurst, lieutenant commander; Mrs. Merta Dellis, record keeper; Mrs. Lucile Barringer, fiance auditor; Mrs. Selina Hammond, chaplain; Miss Helen Mahoney, lady at arms; Mrs. Myrtle Barrett, sergeant at arms; Mrs. Sarah Roark, picket; Mrs. Senia Johnson, sentinel. The next meeting of the hive will be held January 8 at 3 p. m., when these officers will be installed.

Builders vs. Assenblers

The assembler works at a big disadvantage for he cannot know at all times just what goes into his car. He has to take the word of the concern that makes his drop forgings, the concern that does this machine work, etc., etc.

Of course he has to pay a good big profit to the parts maker and this profit must be added to the retail price of the car.

In placing his orders for parts, the assembler must conform to certain standards of the parts maker, or else pay a big price for special equipment for making what he wants.

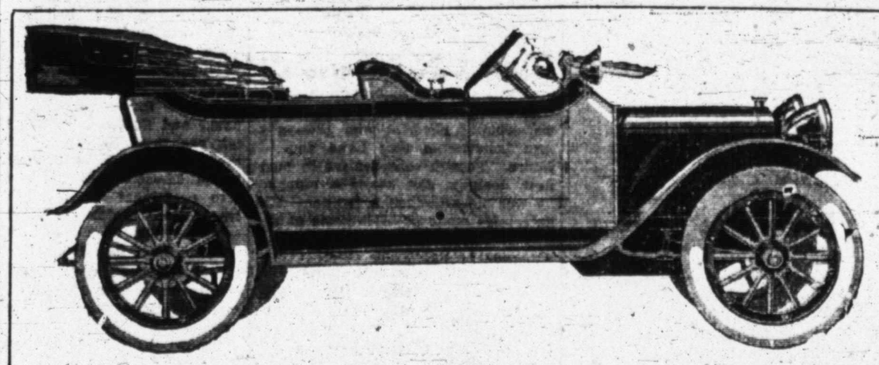

Satisfactory operation of a motor car depends very largely upon harmony of the mechanism.

The assembler is often up against the necessity of purchasing a motor, transmission, rear axle, etc., etc., which may be too heavy or too light for the other parts in conjunction with whch they work.

His car may be too heavy in front and too light behind, or vice versa.

The R-C-H "25" is built in the company's own Foundry, Forge, Machine Shops, Assembly buildings and Painting Departments in charge of men who have no superiors in their line, in the automobile business.

The R-C-H Corporation pays no parts maker profits—these profits go back into the car in the form of better material and workmanship so that at $900.00 the R-C-H is fully the equal and frequently the superior of assembled cars costing $500.00 more and up.

REPORTED CAMPO WILL START ANOTHER REVOLUTION.

By Associated Press.

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 14.—Emilo Campo, the Mexican insurecto leader released by the United States district court Wednesday, after he had been held more than forty days awaiting extradition, was reported today to be on the way to the Alatar district, to start another revolution.

United States officers said Campo was expected to reappear Monday to face another extradition warrant, charging him with being a fugitive from justice in Mexico, after, it is alleged, having committed murder in the Alatar district.

MORE BOXING BOUTS ARE UNCERTAIN

Attitude of Authorities Interferes With Plans For Proposed Exhibition

Plans for staging more boxing bouts in this city are more or less in doubt at present, and it is not certain that Wichitans will have an opportunity to witness glove contests again soon. Plans had been made by Promoter Waldon for bringing Danny Cullen, Bobby Waugh, and other well known southwestern scrappers to this city, but fear of difficulties with the authorities is causing him to hold up his plans to some extent.

Mayor Bell's statement, as published in The Times of Friday, was the cause of rather strained relations between city and county officials on the subject, especially since Deputy Sheriff Hawkins and District Attorney Scurry were both present. It was at the instance of the latter official that the fight was ended when it was, without permitting Condiners to administer any more punishment to Rawls.

Even if another fight should be staged here, no one could be dealt with by the authorities, under the State law, except the fighters themselves. The State law provides that where an admission fee is charged directly or indirectly, or where any prize or championship is at stake the fighters themselves may be sent to the penitentiary for from two to five years. The promoters of, or spectators at, such a contest, could not be prosecuted, under the terms of the statute.

The claim is made that last Wednesday's bout did not violate any law because no admission fee was charged and because no prize or championship was at stake, the fighters receiving a stated sum for their efforts.

In view, however, of almost certain intervention of some sort by the city authorities, the next fight, if there is one, will hardly be staged within the city limits and it can hardly be held at Lake Wichita owing to the repairs which are being made on the car line to that resort.

Mayor Bell has stated that he will certainly be present if another contest is held here, and has been rather severe in his criticism of last Wednesday's affair. City Marshal Gwinn, who was reported as present states that he saw only part of the fight between the two negroes and that he did not remain for the main contest of the evening.

SHOPPERS CROWDED DOWNTOWN DISTRICT

Sidewalks Crowded Almost to Point of Impassability and Sales Heaviest Recorded

The busy scene which Wichita Falls always presents on Saturday afternoon was intensified yesterday afternoon, when Christmas shoppers thronged the business section until late at night, being out in larger force, it is believed, than ever before. Every street car added its dozens to the throng and the scene was one to cheer the heart and gladden the eye.

The sidewalks were crowded almost to the point of impassability and in the streets the automobiles, buggies, farm wagons and other vehicles added to the hustle and bustle of the downtown district. But the crowd outside was as naught compared with that in the stores where both the capacity of the buildings and the ability of the clerks was taxed to the extreme to take care of the business.

The weather was clear and warm, ideal for the shopper, and the nearness of Christmas brought the buyers out in force. Not only were Wichitans shopping in great numbers, but the out-of-town shoppers from adjoining points also swelled the crowd considerably. Wichita Falls has long since been the recognized shopping center for a large part of Northwest Texas and Southwest Oklahoma, and the incoming trains yesterday morning brought many buyers to patronize local stores. Local merchants carry more extensive stocks than can be found at the smaller places in this section, and this fact, coupled with excellent accomodations and amusement facilities, brings many shoppers here at all seasons, particularly at this busy time of the year.

The good crops in Wichita and adjoining counties have been a great contributing factor to the general prosperity and farmers by the hundreds were here yesterday to make Christmas purchases. Not a little of the prosperity with which most Wichita county farmers find themselves surrounded is due to the oil activities and bonuses and rentals paid by oil companies went to swell local merchants' receipts yesterday.

The business section has had a busy time for some weeks past, but yesterday it seemed that it was outdoing itself for activity.

AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS VISIT AT VERA CRUZ.

By Associated Press.

Vera Cruz, Dec. 14.—Residents and officials of Vera Cruz today visited the United States battleships Minnesota, Kansas, Michigan and South Carolina. Commodore Azueta of the Mexican Navy, Gen. Luis Valdez, military commander of Vera Cruz, and other city officials went on board the flag ship and welcomed the American naval men in behalf of Mexico.

"It is not a stretch of the imagination to say that the automobile business will eventually exceed the entire business of the railroads of the United States," said F. E. Selberling a few days ago, in New York.

LAWTON SIGNS CONTRACT FOR RINGLING ROAD.

(By Mail)

Lawton, Okla., Dec. 13.—If John Ringling, millionaire circus owner and railroad builder, signs contracts with the Lawton Chamber of Commerce and east side park trustees forwarded to him today, work on the construction of a railway line connecting Lawton, Duncan and Ardmore will commence early in the year 1913 and before another twelve months has rolled around, freight and passenger cars will be in operation between the two terminal cities.

So far as the Lawton end of the deal is concerned, the contracts are closed.

Duplicate contracts, bearing the signatures of the four living trustees of the east side city park and sixty additional leading business and professional men of the city, were placed in the mails today, addressed to Mr. Ringling at his New York business offices.

The contract provides for the construction of a direct line of railway connecting Lawton and Ardmore, cars to be in operation within the next year, and in consideration of that road's construction, the payment by the city of Lawton of a cash bonus of $50,000, with terminal facilities within the city limits and ten miles of right of way to cost not in excess of $5,000. In lieu of the cash bonus however, the contract provides that the city may turn the east side park land to the railroad builder, to be used as he sees fit.

To permit the carrying out of this latter clause of the contract the names of three hundred business men of the city have been attached to petitions to the city commissioners requesting that the park be transferred for the sum of $500 instead of $12,000 as originally provided by the old city administration. It is possible that the transfer of the lands under these new conditions will be submitted to the people in the spring election. If it is decided unnecessary to hold the election, the commissioners will accept the petitions as authority sufficient and grant permission for the change in plans.

Terrell Man Killed.

Terrell, Texas, Dec. 14.—The body of J. D. Whitfield, one of the oldest business men of Terrell, was found by his wife today in a barn at their home. There was a bullet hole in his head. This morning he arose early and announced his intention of going to Elmo, where he operated a rock quarry. His wife was horrified when she found his body two hours later.

Financial troubles are assigned as the cause. Mr. Whitfield was 60 years old and beside his widow he leaves three children.

BETTER THAN THE STAGE

Actress Says Work Calls For More Talent and Versality Than Real Stage—Life Comfortable

You pay your dime in at the window and walk in. The electric piano skips a note or two, flats a tone or two, then continues its melody of "everybody doing it now." You sit down, the lights go out and on the screen before you appear the words "The Cattle Rustler—A Romance of the Western Plains." You immediately feel contemptuous of cattle thieves and your contempt increases when you behold the face and form of Juanita or Louisa, or Angela, daughter of the cattle king whose shorthorns have been mysteriously disappearing.

Your contempt for cattle thieves increases when you acquire the knowledge that the young lady is in love with Bud Badger, or Dave Dancer, or any other good name; who happens to be the sheriff. And it causes you some uneasiness to see that she is entirely too friendly with Larry Lariat, whom you instinctively feel isn't in the picture for any good.

The film unrolls, more cattle disappear and it begins to look as if Mr. Lariat was going to cut the sheriff out; this looks worse when the sheriff calls one night and gets back his mail order diamond and receives the mitten generally. But as he is on his way home on his cayuse, heart broken (heart broken sheriff, not cayuse), he discovers the cattle rustlers at their nefarious, wicked, not to mention, dastardly, work. He kills three members of the gang with three shots from his pistol and engages in a hand to hand encounter with the fourth, whom he finally subdues, and who should it be but our old friend Larry Lariat. Now of course no nice cow-lady would marry a rustler and you can tell by her looks that she is a very nice girl. So the last scene shows her and the sheriff clinched in each others arms and then the film stops, as stop it should, and the next thing you know you are looking at "Scenes in Patagonia."

The chances are just about two to one that the good-looking cow-girl in the picture, in real life, is Miss Mildred Bracken, who has been the heroine of more western film stories than she can remember. She is now in Wichita Falls, visiting her sister, Mrs. J. S. Pitman at 1503 Burnett street, and she told a Times reporter a few things about moving pictures as they are made.

Miss Bracken for some time has been the leading lady of the Melies Film Company, which has a studio in California, making a specialty of cowboy and ranch picture stories. Before she became a moving picture actress, she was on the regular stage, but the better pay, more attractive work and less arduous hours caused her to change.

Miss Bracken is a winsome young woman, to whose favor the outdoor life and activity of being an imitation "cow-girl" seem to have added materially. The writer used to think that when an actress wasn't good looking enough for regular stage work she went into moving pictures, but Miss Bracken is certainly an exception in that particular.

"I like it lots better than regular dramatic work," she said, "I don't have to sit up late at night, and I don't have to travel. The work is harder, because you always have to be creating parts. You have to create a new part for every play you are in, and you are at work from 9 in the morning until 5 in the evening."

The audience unseen, the applause unheard—these belong to Miss Bracken.

"It seems a little strange to think, when a picture is being made, that hundreds of people will be seeing us when we can't see them, some in Chicago, some in Texas. We can't see our audience, but it's there, just the same.

"We try to make our pictures as true to life as possible, and the cowboys and the ponies were all taken to California from Texas. We have a company of thirty to forty and we finish about two plays a week. We take one scene of a reel and rehearse it until we know it, then a picture is taken of that; then we take another scene and learn it, and the machine takes it; and so on until we are through with the film."

It takes just about 17 1-2 minutes, according to Miss Bracken, to do the actual taking of the picture for a thousand feet of film that requires about fifteen minutes to show, the action being slightly slower in the taking than it is in the picture. It is possible to make eighty-seven reels, or prints, from one picture and eighty-seven crowds might be viewing Miss Bracken at one and the same time, in far distant parts of the country.

"The plays are written by people in all parts of the country. I've written two or three myself," said Miss Bracken.

But things don't always turn out in the plays as they are planned, and sometimes the film story is more interesting and realistic then the writer had designed. Miss Bracken was in one of the plays earlier this year, in which some cowboys were supposed to rope a bridle-less pony she was riding. The cowboys missed and the pony got away, resulting in serious injury to Miss Bracken.

Miss Bracken's work has not been confined to California, as the company of which she was a member made a tour of some of the West Indies, taking a very interetsing series of pictures. Miss Bracken brought home some novel curios from that section.

"The natives regarded the picture machine as a great curiosity," she said, "they would try to imitate the actors in everything they did. Ours was the first company to ever visit them and they didn't know what to make of it."

Some idea of the magnitude of the work of making moving pictures may be obtained from the fact that Miss Bracken has appeared in over 200 plays hereof.

She finds the work interesting, she says, and gets much pleasure from it. There is much hard work and it is not a soft snap by any means, but the joy of forever creating something new more than offsets the discomforts of the work. Miss Bracken is a Texas girl and formerly resided at Waco.

INDIGESTION.

M-I-O-NA Stomach Tablets Banish All Misery, Gas and Sourness.

You know that most of the ailments named above come from an out of order stomach; of course you do.

If your food doesn't digest, but lays heavily on your stomach, it has started to ferment.

When it ferments it sets loose in the stomach poisonous gases which irritate the great nerve that leads directly to the brain from the stomach.

That irritation causes heartburn, dizziness, nightsweats, nervousness.

MIONA will end all stomach misery, or money back. A large box costs only 50 cents and is sold by Fooshee & Lynch and druggists everywhere.

FREEPORT, TEXAS, BORN NOV 20TH. NOW A GROWING CITY

ITS RAPID GROWTH A CERTAINTY. OPENING SALE COMPLETE SUCCESS

The official opening and sale of land of the Freeport Townsite Company was an unqualified success and was really an event of great industrial importance to Texas and the Southwest. Not only were the results obtained substantial and permanent, but they were typical of the sound and solid basis upon which the future development of Freeport has been planned, and on which the commercial possobilities of this coming city rests.

Freeport is logically destined, through its advantageous location, to become one of the really great port cities on the gulf, due largely to its being in fact as well as in name a free port, free from all dockage and wharfage charges, and to be kept so forever. It affords unusual opportunities for those who wish to grow up in a new and enterprising city.

The sale of Freeport property has been carried on in a manner which protects the private purchaser. In order to prevent large blocks of Freeport lots from falling into the hands of speculative interests, no one person at the opening was allowed to purchase more than two residence and business lots. This policy was strictly adhered to during the sale and subsequent purchasers can be assured that they will have a large selection of choice lots open to them at the regular scale of prices originally set by the Freeport Townsite Company.

Among the new improvements decided upon by the company, and which was not announced prior to the opening sale, is a contemplated sewerage system for Freeport, to be planned and constructed as soon as the lines of growth are clearly established.

Investors who were unable to be present at the opening sale and who desire information regarding the prevailing prices, will be interested in the following range of prices quoted here.

In the main business streets, lots have been sold according to location at from $1800 to $1200 for corners; and scaling down to $900, $800, $650, $600, $575 and $525 for inside lots in the heart of this section. Other business lots two to five blocks from this center range from $600 to $175 for desirable property.

Residence lots, very desirable in character, along or near the river front, range from $275, $300, $350, $400, $450 and $500 for corner lots to $225, $300, $325, $350 and $400 for inside lots, according to location. Other desirable residence lots range in price from $300 to $125 for corners, inside lots scaling 10 to 20 per cent less.

Many other desirable lots range from $425 down to $75 and $50. All business lots are 25x140 feet, residence lots 50x140 feet. Terms, one-third cash, one-third in one year and one-third in two years, at 6 per cent deferred interest. Title to Freeport lots is without a single flaw.

The Freeport Townsite Company has no outside acreage for sale and no outside agents. All business communications should be addressed to E. C. Hastings, manager for S. M. Swenson & Sons and associates, Freeport, Texas. Booklets, maps and personal information cheerfully furnished to those requesting same.

MANY NOTABLE MEN PRESENT

Many Distinguished Financiers and Public Men Guests of Founders of Promising New Town at Mouth of the Brazos—Plans of Promoters Are Outlined and Possibilities of Future Are Pointed Out.

Freeport, Texas, Nov. 20.—Freeport, Texas, made its debut this morning. The new port now occupies a place upon the map and will have its name listed in all the postal guides. While a band played stirring selections capitalists, lawmakers and men representing big business interests gathered on the site of the new town early in the day. They came from the East and the West. To some of them the ceremonies incident to the formal christening of a city were brand new, but they enjoyed them.

Governor Colquitt did not reach Freeport until noon. He was met at the station and conducted to the hotel. Early in the afternoon he was introduced by Colonel Louis J. Wortham, editor and representative, and delivered a speech in the lobby. During the morning Colonel Wortham made a speech in which he predicted that Freeport would soon work a mighty triumph. Among his hearers were Eastern capitalists whose wealth is measured by seven figures.

Distinguished Men Present

Parked in the railroad yards nearby were the private cars of E. P. Swenson, father of the Freeport project; Frank A. Vanderlip, president of the National City Bank of New York; Joseph T. Talbert, vice president of the same institution, and W. H. Cannon, capitalist, whose home is in Spokane, Wash. In addition to the four private cars there were twelve Pullmans. Many other persons who attended the formal opening of Freeport came by autos.

At 9 o'clock this morning the hotel was filled with guests.

Among the other distinguished visitors were Governor Colquitt, Colonel L. J. Wortham, John T. Scott, president of the First National Bank of Houston; C. E. Schaff, president of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas system; C. N. Whitehead, secretary of the Katy system; Judge Daniel E. Garrett, congressman-elect of Houston; J. B. D. Edge, traffic manager of the Dupont Powder Company; Charles L. Petz, purchasing agent for the Dupont Company; Charles P. Northrup, president of the Freeport Sugar Refining Company; Colonel R. M. Johnston and A. E. Masterson of Houston, J. E. McComb, Jr., from the Houston Chronicle.
