Airlifts Set Soon

SANTA CRUZ DE TENNERIFE, Canary Islands (AP) — Pan American hopes to start an airlift to the United States Saturday with the bodies of its passengers and crew members killed in the runway collision at the Santa Cruz airport four days ago, a spokesman for the airline said today.

Pan Am's executive vice president, W.H. Waltrip, said special flights would begin as soon as the airstrip is cleared of the wreckage of the KLM and Pan Am planes that collided in aviation's worst disaster.

'Pot' Report Released

WASHINGTON (AP) — Harsh penalties don't keep people from smoking marijuana and moderate use probably poses no substantial health hazard, says a new government-financed report.

The 375-page report, issued today by the National Governors Conference, also says states that have decriminalized marijuana possession have shown a "substantial" savings of tax dollars.

Finance Bill To House

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — A $694 million school finance bill, which orders school districts to cut their taxes in 1978-79 by a statewide total of $73 million, has been cleared by a House committee for floor debate.

The House Public Education Committee approved the bill, dealing with one of the session's top issues and using up more than half of the estimated state tax surplus, by an 8-2 vote.

The House is expected to take it up next week.

Energy Coop Weighed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration is considering the idea of a world-wide energy cooperative that would give all nations equal access to nuclear power for peaceful purposes.

Administration sources say the co-op concept is designed to aid in the development of poor nations and could halt the spread of nuclear weapons by giving non-nuclear nations access to atomic power without forcing them to develop their own nuclear technology.

The SDN Column

We couldn't believe it. The checker couldn't believe it. So, she put it on the scales again. It turned out the same. One onion came to more than a dollar.

A person's first impulse in a situation such as this is to put it back and let somebody else pay the high prices. Then you remember that you've planned to have hamburgers for supper, and what is a hamburger without onion? Not much.

So, we took the onion, with several other items that came to several dollars more and headed home, marveling at the days when such things as onions and lowly cabbages cost as much as gasoline and even nearly as much as coffee.

The very next day, an explanation came through the mail. The Texas Department of Agriculture had forwarded a communique with the official bad news.

"This year's spring onion crop may have consumers crying in the checkout stands, along with those producers who have seen their crops cut in half from last year's production," it began.

It went on to report that a total of five million 50-pound sacks are to be harvested this year, compared to 9.7 million sacks last year. And, the market responded several days ago, with jumbo onions bringing 36 cents per pound, and apparently this was before they passed through two or three "middle men."

So, the time may be at hand when pearl onions may indeed be worth as much a real pearl. It's enough to renew a person's determination to plant a garden.

Incidentally, this was one of the first pieces of information we received which had Reagan V. Brown's name on the letterhead as commissioner of agriculture. We hope this is not an omen for the Reagan Brown regime.

LABOR DEPT. BROADENS TEAMSTERS CRACKDOWN

Union Fund Suit Threatened

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department, broadening its crackdown on the Teamsters Union, is threatening to sue a union benefit fund in Ohio in connection with $2.5 million in fees paid to fund officials.

Sources familiar with the investigation say the department is challenging as excessive the fees paid to two Dayton attorneys who administered the Ohio Highway Drivers' Welfare Fund for 27,000 truckers since 1972.

The sources said the department is seeking to bring the fund into "voluntary compliance" with the 1974 federal pension reform law. Among other things, the government is demanding the ouster of the fund's administrator, Robert C. Knee Jr.

His father, Robert C. Knee Sr., administered the fund in the past.

Labor Department records filed by the Ohio fund show the father was paid $482,763 in 1972 and $575,573 in 1973 to administer the plan. His son took over in 1974 and received $878,915 that year and $627,746 in 1975, the last year for which records are available.

The fund's response to the government's demands have not been satisfactory, the sources said, and the government will take the fund to court under the pension law, unless the fund's officials change their minds soon.

The giant Teamsters Union has been the main target of the government's enforcement of the two-year-old law so far, primarily through an intense investigation of the $1.4 billion Chicago-based Central States Pension Fund.

Earlier this month, the government forced the ouster of Teamsters President Frank Fitzsimmons and three others as trustees of the Central States plan, which has been accused of mismanagement and ties to organized crime.

The Central States plan, covering 450,000 members in 33 states, is the largest of some 270 individual Teamsters pension, health and welfare plans.

Two Injured In Traffic Crash

Two youths escaped serious injury when the 1972 Ford Pinto Stationwagon they were traveling in was in collision with a 1977 GMC pickup truck here Wednesday.

Rodney Mueller, 19, the driver of the car and William Clint Shaefer, 15, a passenger in the 1972 Ford, were taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital for treatment of minor injuries following the 1:03 p.m. Wednesday crashd at 25th Street and Avenue W.

A hospital spokesman said Mueller was treated and released yesterday and that Shaefer was released from the hospital this morning after having been kept overnight for observation.

Police officers reported that the west-bound car the youths were in was in collision with an east-bound pickup truck driven by W.O. Hayter of Abilene.

Major damages were reported to each of the vehicles.

In other police activity, a theft and a minor traffic accident were also investigated by police officers Wednesday.

Dela Gutierrez of 115 31st St. told officers her purse had been taken from her residence sometime between 8 and 8:30 a.m. yesterday. The purse is reported to have contained approximately $85 in cash as well as personal belongings.

A minor mishap occurred Wednesday at 6:27 p.m. at the Sonic Drive-In. Involved in the collision were a 1975 Cadillac driven by Edith Whatley McKanna of Fluvanna and a parked 1974 AMC driven by James Dale Swigert of Snyder.

Minor damages were reported to the Swigert vehicle while no damages were reported to the car driven by Mrs. McKanna.

Deadline For Car Tags Near

Friday is the last day to get new motor vehicle tags attached without a penalty, but the Scurry County Tax office is not expecting the usual last-minute rush.

There were no lines at the motor vehicle registration counter this morning, and Clarence Minton, county tax assessor-collector, said he believed that all but a few Scurry County motorists already had their 1977 tags.

Minton said he appreciated the cooperation of local vehicle owners who responded to pleas that they register their cars early.

Vance Says Fair Package Nixed

BONN, West Germany (AP) — U.S. Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance said today that the Soviet Union had rejected a "very fair package" of American proposals to reduce nuclear weapons.

Vance, stopping over in Bonn on his way to Washington from Moscow, said the American proposals had included provisions dealing with key Russian worries about the development of a new U.S. cruise missile and critical U.S. worries about the Russian Backfire bomber.

The U.S. proposals "sought to strike a fair balance while at the same time reducing the number of weapons which both sides would have and also put a freeze upon the further development for the future," Vance told reporters after spending five hours in Bonn, where he met with West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt.

Vance refused to characterize as a threat President Carter's statement that he might be forced to consider speeding up U.S. weapons development if the Soviet Union failed to negotiate "in good faith" at another round of arms talks in May.

Vance was seen off in Bonn by West German Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich Genscher. He was to spend the night in London and visit Paris Friday to brief British and French officials on his fruitless five-day attempt in Moscow to break the deadlock over a new Strategic Arms Limitation Treaty - SALT.

ON WEBB AFB

Senators Pledge Continued Effort

By ROBERT B. CULLEN
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force announcement Wednesday of a final decision to close Webb Air Force Base in Big Spring, Tex., left Texas senators disappointed and pessimistic.

"Frankly, prospects for a reversal don't look good," said Sen. Lloyd Bentsen. "I cannot at this stage be optimistic," said Sen. John Tower. Both, however, pledged to try to keep the base open.

The Air Force announcement said that Webb and two other bases, Craig in Alabama and Kincheloe in Michigan were being closed in an effort to save $75 million annually.

Webb and Craig are part of the Air Training Command, which the Pentagon has decided to trim because of smaller pilot training quotas for the post-Vietnam era. The Air Force said it expects both bases to be reduced to caretaker status within six months.

Basically, congressional sources said Wednesday, there are two ways to reverse the decision. Neither looks promising.

The first would be to persuade the Air Force to change its mind and close two different bases. Tower said he would use the Senate Armed Services Committee as a vehicle for demanding that the Air Force justify its decision.

However, nothing that has been said in the year since the Air Force put Webb on its closure list has persuaded the Pentagon to change its thinking.

The second avenue for saving the base lies in the congressional appropriations process. The Carter administration's proposed 1978 budget assumes that two training bases will be closed. An addition to the budget for operation and maintenance of the training bases might persuade the Air Force to keep Webb open.

The chairman of the defense appropriations subcommittee is Rep. George Mahon, D-Tex., whose district is adjacent to Webb.

time for a change

Beyond question there are grave defects in a system of jurisprudence that produced reversal of the conviction of a confessed slayer of a child more than eight years after the event. In point is the decision of the U.S. Supreme Court last week in the case of one Robert Anthony Williams, a former mental patient, convicted of murdering a 10-year-old girl Christmas Eve, 1968. The high court held the trial court erred in disregarding violation by police of a ban on questioning an accused person in the absence of counsel.

The crime was committed in Des Moines, Iowa. The suspect was arrested in Davenport in the same state. Evidence shows arresting officers assured defense counsel Williams would not be questioned in the course of the journey from Davenport to Des Moines. A detective breached this agreement when he suggested to the suspect it would be good if parents of the murder victim could be told where the body was so they could give her a Christian burial.

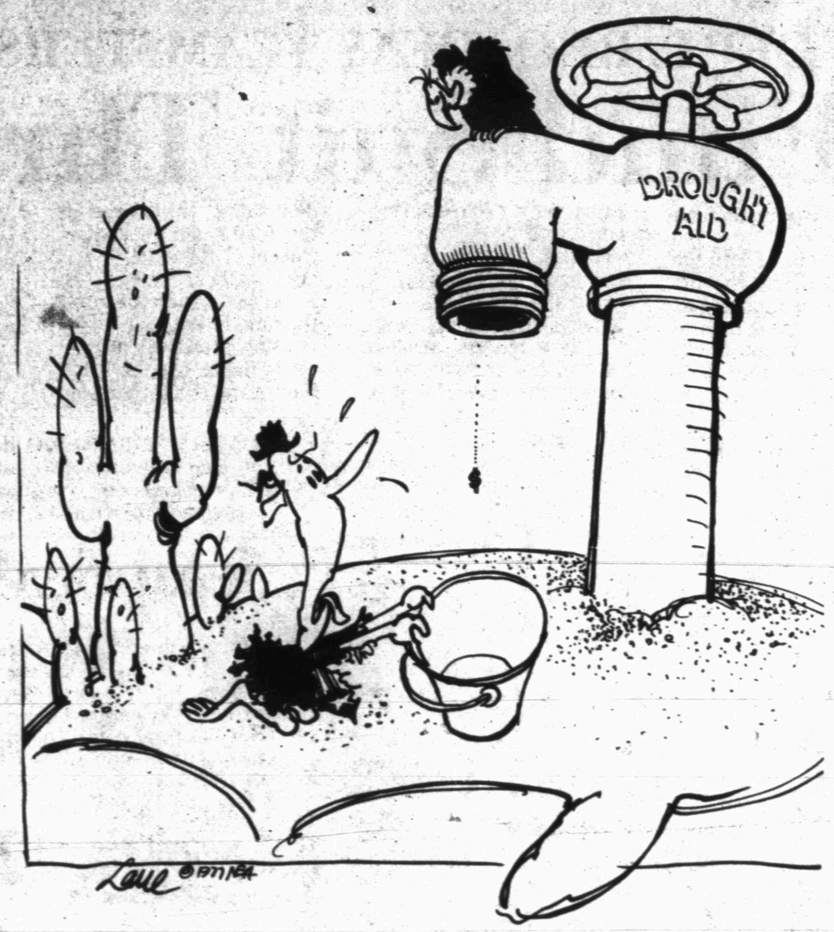

In last week's 5-4 decision the Supreme Court set aside the conviction on the ground that the defendant's constitutional rights had been violated. No mention was made in news reports that police used pressure of any kind to persuade the suspect to make a confession or do anything that might produce evidence inimical to his interests.

After eight years chance of second trial of the case on its merits is unlikely and may be impossible. That could well be if material witnesses are no longer available. Also remote is that members of a jury now will be as sensitive to the issues in this bizarre incident as members of the original jury were.

In all probability the defendant will never face punishment for an admitted first degree murder. He may not be tried again. If evidence that improper conduct by police officers calculated to prejudice the legal rights of the defendant did in fact occur the logic of a second trial at this late date seems somewhat strained.

That this case is an instance of defeating justice for the sake of respecting a legal technicality, that could hardly have a negative effect of the judgment of jurors, seems obvious. Four members of the Supreme Court, including the chief justice, think so and said as much in a vigorously worded dissent from the majority ruling.

If the law requires this type of logic it is high time changes were made in the law. In any event something is wrong when it takes a court system eight years to pass on issues in a case as revolting as the one in this instance.

experience needed

I have been piloting airplanes since before I was old enough to be licensed—since 14.

That's a lot of miles ago.

I am licensed now and rated to fly single- and multi-engine aircraft, land and sea planes—but for my frequent out-and-back trips to distant speaking engagements and such, in recent years I have used a Lear jet and have left the flying to full-time, air transport-rated, jet-qualified airmen.

I stay mostly in the cabin reading, writing and dozing with complete confidence that the cockpit crew is more proficient than I would be.

For that crew consists of a mature pilot of many hours and a younger co-pilot who is entirely capable.

The other night, coming back from somewhere into marginal weather, I was thinking how ideal it would be if each of us could at once have the reflexes of the young plus the judgment of the experienced.

For last Christmas young Paul received from Santa Claus one of those electronic TV games. You plug it into your television set and two people, with separate controls, can compete in simulated games of tennis, hockey and marksmanship.

He beat me every time.

I am no match for the lightning dexterity of my quick, young professional pianist son.

Especially in the fastest of the games, inevitably he outscores me.

Now young Paul, between concerts, is also doing some writing.

And when we put aside the electronic TV game and go into the library to discuss his latest literary effort—then I am able to make some tangible contribution to augment his considerable natural talent.

If not already, one day he will be a better writer than I. He will give that profession an additional dimension. But he concedes—and entirely honestly, I think—that our collaboration for now is constructive.

His skill, my experience.

This is a single for-instance of a now national need. What industry and politics and education and the sciences are now seeking—that they might make the most of our increasingly complex challenges—are many employees between the ages of 25 and 30 who have 40 years' experience!

Arbitrary cutoff ages for employment are outdated. Grandmothers don't look or act or react as grandmothers used to. Nor do grandfathers.

It should be the job, not the man, which determines how old is too old.

If 27 is old for an athlete, 80 might not be for a George Meany.

While our nation is presently and properly preoccupied with husbanding our national resources, we are still wantonly wasting our most important one.

some strange ethics

A proposed ethics code in the U.S. Senate points up again the fact that a country may regulate itself to death.

Nobody is opposed to "ethics" these days because it has become such a popular word, especially since Watergate. But it is possible to prescribe too much of a good medicine, and the ethics code now hanging in the Senate could be a good example. Fortunately, despite the fact that it has that magic word "ethics" attached to it, reports are that opposition has developed.

The code in question would bar doctors, lawyers, engineers, architects, real estate agents, insurance agents, consultants, or "one who engages in activities of a similar character," from earning any money from their professions while serving in the Senate.

We shudder to speculate on what "activities of a similar character" may mean if and when the bureaucrats get a chance to interpret it.

We could wake up some morning and discover that no professional people may serve in the Senate and follow their own profession at the same time—that is, excepting the professional politicians, of course.

Products in this day and age are sometimes subject to factory recalls. At times, it seems to be an almost common occurrence. Car manufacturers and tuna processors have been known to recall their products for possible defects.

Now, 1977 has brought with it the recall of two types of heart pacemakers.

One of the models is being recalled because the Food and Drug Administration suspects that the pacemaker's batteries may run down and produce truly dire effects in the heart patients it has been installed in.

The other pacemaker model is being recalled because the FDA believes it may produce an abnormal pulse rate and recommended that physicians regularly monitor their patients who are equipped with the device.

A total of 945 pacemakers are involved in the two-pronged recall.

Another item that was recalled a few months ago was a particular model of smoke alarm detector.

Smoke detectors are designed to measure the amount of smoke in a room or in a house and emit a shrill alarm in the event of a fire.

Some governmental regulatory agency made the interesting discovery that one model might actually start a fire if it over-heated.

However, in an effort not to alarm the purchasers of the device, it was announced that the detector would sound the alarm if it did catch fire and would continue with the alarm until it burned itself out. The fact that a person's house might go up in smoke along with the alarm was also pointed out.

If it were not for the last minute, many things simply would not be done.

I did not start filling out my income tax papers until Tuesday night. Again, as I am each year, I was amazed by the complexity of the procedure.

If the Internal Revenue Service wanted to run an audit on my finances, it probably could find grounds for it.

I want to emphasize, however, that I am not an inherently evil and otherwise corrupt person.

If there are discrepancies in my financial reports, it is because I have never fully understood the instructions on the 1040 form.

compensation costs employers

NEW YORK (AP) — So often you hear a worker rationalize his acceptance of unemployment compensation. "I paid into the pot and now I'm only taking my fair share," he says. Employers often agree. But it isn't so.

In only two states, Alabama and New Jersey, do workers contribute. Almost the entire amount of payments, which rose to a rate of nearly $20 billion a year in the recession, comes from one source: employers.

Oddly, many employers are unaware of, the expense to them, even though it can be substantial. In all states the employer pays into the fund a percentage of the first $4,200 earned by each worker. The minimum is 3.4 per cent.

At that rate, a company with 2,000 workers would have a taxable payroll of $8.4 million and an obligation to the unemployment compensation fund of more than $285,000. Next year the $4,200 base likely will rise to $6,000.

Once a relatively minor cost for employers, unemployment taxes have gradually worked their way higher since the mid-1930s.

An unemployed worker now can collect a total maximum benefit of $5,265 in Illinois, $6,318 in Massachusetts and $6,786 in Connecticut - and under a law passed by Congress late last year the numbers might go even higher.

But, says Philip Kaplan, an authority, "If you ask a vice president-finance how much his company pays he would have to get hold of the controller or treasurer or the tax man."

In most instances, he finds, the corporate executive thinks the amount involved is a nuisance sum. Many have the vague feeling that the workers contribute, as indeed did Gov. Ronald Reagan during his race for the Republican presidential nomination.

Because of this attitude, he says, some companies deal carelessly with the situation. Simple measures, he maintains, could reduce costs for some companies from $270,000 to as little as $90,000.

Kaplan's firm, Reed, Roberts Associates of Garden City, N.Y., claims to be the largest independent in the business of advising corporations and municipalities on unemployment compensation, with 7,000 clients around the country.

Recently he told clients, among them companies such as Gulf & Western, Borden, Citibank and Allied Chemical, to reduce employment claims by avoiding outright layoffs. If business is bad, he advised, you can cut down the number of weekly work days or schedule shifts for two weeks on and two weeks off.

"This will reduce payroll and maintain minimal unemployment tax liability. Yet, employes will be earning more than they would be collecting unemployment compensation," he explained.

Challenge claims, he advises. In 37 states, employes fired for causes such as insubordination can collect benefits, but the payments are not chargeable to the former employer's account.

the saccharin issue

WASHINGTON, D.C. — How can the ban on saccharin by the Food and Drug Administration be justified when the Government subsidizes the growing of tobacco? The Surgeon General of the United States has determined that cigarette smoking is dangerous to health. Medical findings relate tobacco use to cancer, heart disease, emphysema and other ills. The proposal to ban saccharin for human consumption was made after laboratory tests on rats in Canada found that saccharin had the potential of causing cancer in people.

The question on the use of the Nation's sole artificial sweetener is before FDA officials. From reports there is a difference of opinion in that agency. Although notice has been given that saccharin may be put off the market, the decision will likely be months away. Clyclamate was banned a few years ago, not because it was found to be injurious to health but because its failed to demonstrate its "efficacy". This forced drug manufacturers to reformulate and now, pill coatings, syrups, soft drinks and cosmetics, among other products, use saccharin to replace sugar.

More serious, however, is the denial of this artificial sweetener to calorie-watchers and the estimated ten million diabetics across the Country.

Many years ago, Mae West was supposed to have said that it seemed that everything she did was either illegal, immoral or fattening. She likely could have more to say about some regulations of these times.

The tests in Canada found that a dietary level of 5 per cent saccharin produced malignant bladder tumors in 17 of 200 test animals. One malignant and one nonmalignant tumor showed up in another 100 under controls. The equivalent human consumption, according to scientific estimates, would be 800 cans of diet soda daily for a lifetime. Under the law, however, known as the Delaney Amendment, a "safe level" of food additives is not recognized if there is demonstrated a cancer-producing potential.

There is a need for amending the so-called Delaney clause in the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. A number of us in the Congress have proposed modifications to put more reason into it.

Hearings are scheduled before a Committee in the House of Representatives to review the provisions which now place a narrow and limited interpretation on food additives. Hopefully more clear and practical provisions can be devised and, at the same time, give adequate protection against any product reliably linked with cancer.

By JO ANN NUNLEY

Mrs. Jim Johnson, 4115 Jacksboro, and her daughter have hypoglycemic, a low blood sugar condition which calls for a special diet.

Mr. Johnson transferred to Snyder with the Western Company in August of last year from Midland where they lived for 20 years. They have two children, a son, Jim, who will graduate in May from Baylor, and a daughter, Linda, who is a Junior in Snyder High School.

Linda has been on the special diet for her condition for two years and her mother less than a year. Therefore, they have taken a special interest in finding recipes and revising new ones to better suit their tastes.

Opening lead — 5 ♠

By Oswald & James Jacoby

North's four-notrump bid is definitely not Blackwood. It is a notrump raise and suggests that North go on if his two-notrump response was a sound one.

South's five-heart call was what we call "Optional Blackwood." South has a super sound two notrump. Only 14 high-card points, but all of them are in aces and kings and he also has two ten spots and a five-card suit. He intends to bid six later on and has some slight dream of getting to seven.

North has no interest in seven and merely bids six notrump.

A heart or club lead would solve all problems for South, but West opened a spade and South could only count 11 top tricks, assuming the diamonds came in. So South won the spade with his king and went right after diamonds. Not only did they behave nicely but when he ran all of the suit, the defenders chucked spades while South let a couple of clubs go.

Now South cashed the ace of spades to account for all East-West cards in that suit. His next play was to lead North's queen of clubs and let it ride around to West's king.

Then he spread his hand since West had to lead either a club or heart and give South the rest of the tricks.

Ask the Jacobys

A Canadian reader wants to know the correct response to partner's one spade opening with:

♠ A J 10 7 6 4 2 ♥ 7 6 2 ♦ 3 2 ♣ 3.

This is a tough one, but we bid just four spades.

Sorority Social Held

Lambda Kappa members and husbands were entertained recently at a Las Vegas night social. A buffet dinner of meat and potato casserole, salad, french bread and assorted cakes were served.

Members of the social committee, Laura Greene, Marie Boone, Susan Chesser and Linda Moreland, presented the entertainment for the evening.

After the floor show, a surprise birthday box and cake was presented to Joe League. New member, Sharon Hanzalick was also congratulated on her birthday.

A kit from Harold's Club in Las Vegas was used to give table and wall decorations an authentic look. Various games were played throughout the evening. John Greene served as official sheriff for the evening to keep everyone honest.

Gloria Myers won the ladies' prize, and Phil Fortune the men's prize, for top winners of the evening.

The sweet green pepper is not related to the true pepper from which we get our black table pepper. It belongs to the same family as the tomato and the potato, both native to the Americas, says Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt, consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension service, The Texas A&M University System.

Jean Sealy Hosts Society

Zeta Lambda Chapter of The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International met Monday evening, March 28th, in the home of Jean Sealy with Phil Kelley, Vestal Maner, and Anniece Hawkins as co-hostesses.

"Reflections on Happiness" was the meditation presented by Mary Devenport.

The Research Committee with Evelyn Boone as chairman presented the program on the topic "Committed to Leadership". A skit was presented by Evelyn, LaNelle Rambin, Phil Kelley, Gerri Parker, and June McGlaun depicting the need of being "committed". A survey had been made among the chapter members in which guiding principles were ranked. The number one principle marked by the majority was salvation, followed by inner harmony, family security, happiness and sense of accomplishment.

Also, the members have recorded their hours spent in service to the community or outside activities and it was found that in 10 months there had been a total of 3050 hours of service. Of this total church activities headed the list with 1279 hours; community service (Hospital Auxiliary and Museum) – 764 hours; society work on state, district, and chapter level – 447 hours; and professional organizations – 185 hours.

During the short business meeting conducted by Helen Mock, president, twenty-four members answered roll call.

ASTRO·GRAPH

Bernice Bede Osol

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Your work could be doubly frustrating today, mostly because you delay things until the last minute.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) If social pressures beset you today, decide which is more important: Peace of mind or doing what you feel is expected of you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) For the sake of harmony on the home front, don't let outsiders butt into family matters. An agitator could stir up a peck of trouble.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Take care how you express yourself today. You could inadvertently offend someone with words that convey double meanings.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Someone you're very close to who is a poor manager may prevail on you to get him out of a bind. You must evaluate the risk involved.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You'll be judged by the company you keep today. Try to avoid impetuous or aggressive types, because you'll be painted with the same brush.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) While you won't mind helping others today, you'll be happy only if you act voluntarily. Unfortunately, your hand may be forced by an unfeeling person.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You could mistakenly feel challenged by a friend today. Analyze the situation and you'll act more rationally.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Success will elude you today because you're zeroed-in on the wrong target.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Steer clear of political or philosophical discussions today. Bitter exchanges could ensue.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) What you put into a joint venture today is likely to be greater than that of your associates. Take care. This could precipitate a bitter confrontation.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Usually you're quite easy to get along with. Today, stubborness could jeopardize an important one-to-one relationship.

Bonds Set For Suspects After Raid

Bond has been set at $10,000 each for the five suspects arrested early Wednesday morning in a marijuana raid in Borden County. The bond was set by Borden County Judge Jim M. Burkett.

The three men arrested in the raid are being held in the Scurry County Jail. One of the men is being held on suspicion of possession of dangerous drugs after officers allegedly found him in possession of a substance believed to be heroin.

The two women are being held in the Mitchell County Jail.

Because the suspects were arrested in Borden County, they will face charges there, and not in Scurry County as was previously reported.

Approximately 50 to 60 pounds of marijuana were seized in the raid that was conducted at a residence near Lake J.B. Thomas. Officers reported finding five kilos, each weighing approximately 2.2 pounds, and about 49 plastic bags of marijuana.

Conducting the raid were officers of the Snyder Police Department, the Scurry and Borden County Sheriff Offices.

Woman Injured In Cycle Mishap

A 34-year-old Colorado City woman remains in Cogdgell Memorial Hospital for observation following a motorcycle mishap Wednesday.

Highway patrolmen reported that Dorothy Watkins lost control of the motorcycle she was driving and struck a bar ditch. The mishap occurred about 3 miles south of Snyder on Highway 350 approximately 12:20 p.m. yesterday.

Patrolmen said the woman sustained minor cuts, lacerations, and bruises in the single-vehicle accident but was not thought to have been seriously injured.

SCORES—Sid Everton scores during Tuesday's game with Andrews. Everton will see action again this afternoon, as will most of Albert Lewis' crew when they open district play against Brownfield here at 4 o'clock. (SDN Staff Photo)

Lacombe Leads Texas Decathlon

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Gary Wise of Ambassador College set a high jump record for the Texas Relays, but it wasn't enough to keep him in front of Houston's Richard Lacombe at UT's Memorial Stadium decathlon.

Wise's jump of 2.07 meters and 6-foot-9 12 edges the former record of 2.03 meters and 6-foot-8, set by Ed Miller of California in 1976.

Wise tied Lacombe of Houston Wednesday in decathlon scoring after setting the high jump record, but fell to second after the 400-meter dash.

Local Teams To See Action Today

Snyder spreads the athletic spirit at home today and in Lubbock and Lamesa - as baseball, tennis and little dribbler action fill the afternoon hours.

Local play begins at 4 p.m. as the varsity baseball squad and junior high tennis teams both find area opponents.

The baseball crew, 8-5 after their loss to Andrews Tuesday, welcomes Brownfield in the district 3-3A opener. Coach Albert Lewis notes the Cubs are a team to respect, despite a weak appearing 2-14 record. He is quick to point out the visitors are improving, and looks for a hotly contested game from the 1976 district champs.

Out of town, the junior varsity baseballers visit rival Sweetwater at 4 p.m. The Tigers will be trying to get some steam following their 28-1 loss to Monterey earlier in the week.

In the only other action involving Snyder teams today, the Little Dribbler All-Stars open in Regional tournament play at Kermit.

The group, coached by Ira Riggs, Irvil Ham, Randy Courtney and Randy Riggs, was to meet Lamesa at 3 p.m. in first round play. Winner of the game will meet the Seminole National-Brownfield winner tonight at eight o'clock.

State Sports

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys' annual veterans orientation program starts this week with a series of meetings, timed runs and weightlifting Thursday through Saturday.

The get-together marks the official beginning of the voluntary off-season training program.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Bob Hoyt of Houston and Lee Carter Jr. of Dallas tied at 68 with Steve Taylor of Sacramento, Calif., for the first round lead in the American Golf Tour $25,000 tournament here Wednesday.

Carter, 23, managed seven birdies on the tough Pecan Valley Country Club course.

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The Texas A&I University football team has started spring practice, and Coach Gil Steinke said the early workouts allow everyone to "get a good look at the newcomers."

"We know what Collins, Shaw and guys like that can do," he said.

Jr. High To Host Friday Track Meet

Some eight to ten boys and girls junior high schools will be represented here Friday to compete in track and field events.

In addition to the seventh and eighth grade groups, boys ninth grades will also see action.

Snyder, Brownfield, Lake View Lincoln, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Goliad and Big Spring will be among the schools attending.

Field events are scheduled to begin at 12:45 p.m. with girls shot, high jump, discus, long jump and triple jump. Immediately following will be the boys events. Boys pole vault is slated to start at 12:45 also.

Running preliminaries will get underway at 2 p.m. with finals tentatively scheduled for 6:30.

Finals events are to be in the following order:

Girls (7-8) 80 yard hurdles; Boys (7-8-9) 70 yard intermediate hurdles; Girls (7-8) 60 yard dash; Girls-Boys (7-8-9) 440 relay; Girls-Boys (7-8-9) 330 dash; Girls-Boys (7-8-9) 100 dash; Girls-Boys (7-8-9) 660 dash; Girls-Boys (7-8-9) 230 Intermediate hurdles; Boys (7-8-9) 230 dash; Boys (7-8-9) 1320 dash; Girls-Boys (7-8-9) 1320 relay.

HOST 2ND DISTRICT MEET SATURDAY...

Tiger Golf Team Locks Scores With Levelland

LEVELLAND — The Snyder Tigers tied the host team in an invitational golf meet here yesterday, then lost the trophy bid by two strokes in sudden death play.

The five man crews from Snyder and Levelland paced a field of six schools, including Lamesa, Canyon, Tulia and two squads from Andrews with a score of 309 apiece. Lamesa shot a 336, Andrews A pointed 347, Canyon had 349, Tulia 359 and Andrews B shot 392.

Individually for the Tigers, Clint Baack took medalist honors with a 75, followed by teammates Mike O'Day with a 76, Benny Parnell with a 79, Lance McMillan with a 79 and Randy Chambers with an 84.

O'Day and Horton of Lamesa tied for runnerup medalist. O'Day won in the playoff, 5-9.

The Tigers, under direction of coach Mackie Greene, host the 2nd District Match Saturday at Snyder Country Club. Competing in the morning-long affair will be 3-3A contestants Snyder, Brownfield, Sweetwater and Lamesa. Coach Greene anticipates a better showing from his group with the home course advantage.

At the 1st District Match, held March 19 in Sweetwater, Snyder placed 22 points off the pace set by Sweetwater, and earned fourth position.

Saturday's match begins at 8:30 a.m.

'Boys Hire Cage Coach

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) — Oklahoma State University has hired Jim Killingsworth of Idaho State as the Cowboys' new head basketball coach.

The Cowboys signed Killingsworth to a four-year, $32,000 annual contract, Oklahoma State Athletic Director Floyd Gass announced Wednesday.

Killingsworth has been head coach at Idaho State for six years and compiled a 25-5 record last season, wining two games in the NCAA playoffs - including an upset of UCLA - before bowing to the University of Nevada at Las Vegas.

"We feel fortunate to get someone familiar with Oklahoma and the surrounding area," Gass said.

A 50-year-old native Oklahoman, Killingsworth began his coaching career in 1949 at Stidham, Okla. He spent 12 years coaching high school basketball in the state, building a record of 305-50.

Before going to Idaho State, he spent seven years at Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, Calif.

Killingsworth is a graduate of Northeastern State at Tahlequah, Okla., and holds a masters degree from the University of Oklahoma.

He is married and the father of two children.

A former Killingsworth assistant coach at Cerritos, Bob Forester, said Wednesday that OSU is getting a coach "from the Hank Iba school."

Tigerettes Welcome Area Schools In Local Meet

Snyder Tigerettes, under direction of coach Ken Housden, host a track meet of their own here Saturday to start at 9 a.m.

Some 15 schools from classes 1A through 4A including Denver City, Colorado City, Rotan, Monahans, Post, Sweetwater, Midland High, Slaton, Coahoma, Stanton, Ballinger, Midland Lee, San Angelo, Lake View, Fort Stockton and Snyder will compete in the single division meet.

Snyder anticipates a good showing in the all-day events, having placed second twice, and third and fourth in previous outings.

Last week the Tigerettes placed second in Big Spring with 62 points. Rain shortened what might have been an even better day for the local team, who turned in first place efforts in the 440 relay and 440 run, and second in the long jump.

In Saturday's meet, field events are scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. with the long jump, high jump and shot put. Events continue on the field at 10 o'clock with the triple jump and discus.

Running prelims begin at 10:45 with the 440 relay. Finals are slated to start at 2 p.m.

Divers Grab AAU Honors

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Two Olympic divers picked up individual honors Wednesday at the National AAU Indoor Diving Championships at the Texas Olympic Swimming Center.

Cindy McIngvale, bronze medalist from the three-meter board in Montreal last summer, won the women's three-meter event with 690.94 points.

Robert Cragg, fifth on the three-meter in Montreal, won the men's one-meter.

RANGER MANAGER COMMENTS...

Randle Shouldn't Get Away With Behavior

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Texas Ranger Manager Frank Lucchesi, punched and hospitalized by second baseman Lenny Randle Monday, said Wednesday that Randle shouldn't get away with it.

Asked about the possibility of a civil suit or criminal charges, Lucchesi said, "I don't want to make a definite comment on that right now because I've got some thinking to do. But I don't think any man should be allowed to get away with something like this."

Witnesses said Randle knocked the manager down with one punch, then rained blows on him until teammate Bert Campaneris intervened.

Randle was dissatisfied at having been bumped from the starting job bookie Bump Wills. He and Lucchesi had traded barbs in the media.

Ranger officials suspended Randle after the incident.

Doctors say Lucchesi will be hospitalized at least until Saturday. He underwent surgery to repair a triple fracture of the cheekbone.

'Hawks Ask For Early Move To NFL West

PHOENIX (AP) — The National Football League was to plunk the Seattle Seahawks into their permanent American Conference West home today, one year ahead of schedule, then try to tackle the sticky problem of retroactive compensation.

Those last two words happen to be the dirtiest floating around these NFL meetings - and most clubs apparently would be happy to wash their hands of the mess, generated by the one year when teams could sign free agents without fear of losing anything in return.

The Seahawks were supposed to be part of the AFC Central Division this year, joining Pittsburgh, Houston, Cincinnati and Cleveland for the 1977 season before moving in permanently with Oakland, Denver, Kansas City and San Diego in the AFC West in 1978.

But when Tampa Bay, placed in the National Conference Central Division with Chicago, Detroit, Green Bay and Minnesota for the 1977 season, was assigned that berth for 1978 and beyond, too, the Seahawks decided to ask that they also be moved into their permanent home in 1977.

CONTESTANTS—Tressie Griffin, Debbie Clements and Jackie Haney, students at Western Texas College, display awards received at a recent Office Education (OEA) conference.

3 WTC Students Win Certificates

Three students from Western Texas College were among those winning certificates for achievement in competition at the state Office Education Association (OEA) conference in San Antonio.

Representing WTC were Debbie Clements of Ira, Tressie Griffin of Crosbyton and Jackie Haney of Roscoe. Contestants were from junior colleges throughout Texas.

Miss Clements entered the Secretary II (shorthand) contest and won third place. She will represent WTC at the OEA National Leadership Conference in Houston in May, and other members of the WTC chapter are also planning to attend.

Students in the Secretary II event were required to transcribe material at varying speeds higher than 90 words per minute for a minimum of three minutes with 95 per cent accuracy.

Miss Griffin won sixth place in Office Clerk II competition. Students entering this contest were required to type more than 45 words per minute for five minutes with a maximum of five errors. Other tasks included typing various office forms and materials, filing alphabetic and numeric office materials, verifying calculations, solving a human relations problem and establishing priorities.

Miss Henry competed in the Talent Show, accompanying herself on the guitar as she sang "Home Again."

The WTC chapter was presented a charter certifying affiliation with the Texas Post-Secondary Association and the National Organization of OEA. Miss Griffin, president of the WTC chapter, accepted the charter.

Kiwanis International was founded Jan. 21, 1915, in Detroit, Mich.

Let Your Fireman Rescue Himself

By Abigail Van Buren
© 1977 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 22 and John (not his real name) is 29. We've been dating steadily for two years.

John is a fireman paramedic, which brings me to my problem. About three months ago John's squad responded to a car accident in which a very pretty 26-year-old blonde was slightly injured. (I'll call her Nancy.) Nancy wasn't seriously hurt, but she was hospitalized for 24 hours and then released. John happened to be the paramedic who treated her at the scene of the accident, and since then Nancy can't do enough to repay him for "saving her life."

She found out his name and station and wrote him a thank you letter, which I though was very nice. But she didn't stop there. She's been dropping in to visit him at the station, bringing little gifts. She even baked him a birthday cake!

I think she's carrying her gratitude a little too far, don't you? John says he has no interest in her, but he can't stop her from coming to the station and bringing him gifts, and he doesn't want to be rude or hurt her feelings.

How would you handle something like this, Abby? Should I talk to Nancy and ask her to please lay off my guy?

IN LOVE AND INSECURE

DEAR IN: No. He's not "your" guy. (Nobody owns anybody else.) If John wants to discourage Nancy's visits and gifts, he'll find a way. Let him handle it.

DEAR ABBY: Our first child died shortly before his second birthday. In offering condolences some of our friends said, "You'll have another one." Or, "It's all for the best." Or, "It was a blessing."

In behalf of all of us who have lost children, I have this message:

We will never again see that child who was with us for such a brief time. He wasn't just "a baby." He was an individual—entirely different from any other child we may have in the future.

If my husband were to die, I doubt that anyone would say, "You'll have another one."

Abby, please tell those well-meaning people who want to say something comforting to parents who have lost a child to just say, "I'm sorry."

I hope you find this letter worthy of space in your column.

A MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: I do. And thanks for setting many of us straight.

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who gave up cigarettes because his doctor said he had to. Now this friend smokes a pipe! I think he's just kidding himself and told him so. He insists that he doesn't inhale when smoking his pipe, so it's perfectly harmless. Meanwhile he's got a pipe stuck in his face all the time, and he's busy lighting it every two minutes, creating huge clouds of smelly smoke.

IS a pipe harmless?

SKEPTICAL

DEAR SKEPTICAL: Only if you don't light it.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (24¢) envelope.

Conservation Program Set By Lone Star

DALLAS (AP) — A survey commissioned by Lone Star Gas Co. shows that three-quarters of the company's residential customers could reduce their energy needs by taking conservation steps.

Lone Star said Wednesday the survey was in preparation for planned launching of a new consumer conservation program.

Some of the survey findings:

—A majority of homes in the service area have inadequate insulation. Only 17 per cent of the residents have added attic insulation.

—A majority of homeowners in all income brackets is willing to invest money in conservation steps, but few have done so.

—More than 40 per cent of customers who say they have not considered making conservation changes believe their home doesn't need any improvements.

—About one-fourth of those not considering conservation steps say they are financially unable to pay the cost of those steps.

—Some 28 per cent of those who have taken conservation steps did so to reduce utility bills, while eight per cent did so to conserve energy.

Burt Reynolds' diet flap

DEAR DR. LAMB — I read in the paper that Burt Reynolds lost 30 pounds in just three weeks. He had a half grapefruit, unsweetened, for breakfast with a cup of black coffee. For lunch he had a single scoop of cottage cheese and a peeled fresh peach. He skipped dinner every other day. When he did have dinner it was limited to six ounces of steak, or six ounces of ground beef or 12 to 16 ounces of fish. With this he had a salad with no salad dressing.

When he felt like he was going to give in to his hunger he jogged around the block.

Do you approve of this diet? Is it really possible to lose 30 pounds in three weeks that way? If you think it is OK I'd like to try it.

DEAR READER — I am afraid Burt Reynolds knows more about movies than he does about dieting.

Let's examine what Burt really did. If he lost a pound of fat a day for three weeks that would be 21 pounds. He would have to use 3500 calories a day more than he took in. Even on total starvation that would be impossible unless he was doing lots of strenuous physical activity every day. It is more likely that he used closer to 2500 or 2800 calories a day while he was on his diet. That is not equal to the calories in a pound of fat.

When anyone starts on a bad diet like that one which markedly decreases the food intake the first week there will be a loss of normal body water — your body weight is half water — and the digestive system will empty out. You can lose between five and 10 pounds of weight (water, not fat) that way. That accounts for part of his weight loss.

On the days without dinner he must have eaten less than 250 calories. On the days with dinner he ate 1000 to 1200 calories. So he must have had an average daily calorie intake of 675 calories. That would mean he must not have had a daily calorie deficit of more than 2200 calories — equivalent to only two-thirds of a pound of body fat a day. That is only 14 pounds of body fat in three weeks — not 30.

Weight in pounds and fat lost are not the same thing. The rest of Burt's weight loss then must have been water and food waste in the digestive system — but that was most likely only seven pounds at the most making a total of 21 pounds. What was the other nine pounds? Burt's muscles. He lost part of that manly torso as well as blubber. A pound of lean muscles contains only about 600 calories, so he lost both protein and fat. That is not good for you. He can gain it back with exercise but he is kidding himself if he thinks he lost 30 pounds of fat. The pounds of water loss and food waste loss will return as soon as he gets back to healthy eating habits.

The proper way to diet and protect your muscles and your health is to use a well-balanced diet plan that will help you eat wisely from then on. For that purpose I am sending you The Health Letter number 4-7, Weight Losing Diet. Others who want this safe plan to lose weight safely can send 50 cents for it with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. Write to me in care of this newspaper, P.O.
