POLICE CLAIM 'CONFESSION' IS UNTRUE

EARLE SAID TO HAVE KNOWN OF PLAN TO KILL HIS WIFE

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Earle Wynekoop was arraigned in felony court today on a charge of accessory before the fact in the murder of his wife, Rheta.

The charge was substituted for the formal murder charge lodged Saturday against the youth, whose "confession" that he killed the girl was spurned by the police in an effort to save his mother from conviction. Dr. Alice Wynekoop is held for grand jury action on a murder charge.

Remanded To Police

Judge Jay A. Schiller remanded young Wynekoop to the custody of police without bail pending a hearing December 4.

Investigators of the eerie death of Rheta pressed their inquiry for a complete solution of the baffling mystery today bent on an early indictment of both Dr. Alice Wynekoop and Earle.

Assistant State's Attorney Charles S. Dougherty said he would go before the grand jury tomorrow or Wednesday to ask the indictment of the mother and her son—Dr. Wynekoop on a charge that she fired the pistol bullet the state contends killed Rheta, and Earle on the allegation he had advence knowledge of the doctor's alleged purpose.

Alibi Re-established

This course of action was announced after the police said that the alibi Earle sought to destroy "to save my mother from the electric chair" had been re-established.

The alibi—that Earle was en route to the southwest by automobile with Stanley Young at the time Rheta died on an operating table in the basement surgery of his mother, Dr. Alice Wynekoop—was found to be sound, the police said, establishing that a "confession" Earle made and later retracted, was untrue.

"I wanted to save my mother from the electric chair," Earle was quoted as having said.

Hunt For Clyde Barrow Pressed

LIQUOR WORTH SMALL FORTUNE IS CONFISCATED

BRADY, Nov. 27 (AP)—Smuggled liquor valued at approximately $7,000 was seized by customs officers in a raid at a ranch seven miles north of Brady.

The ranch owner, two of his sons and two other men were arrested and the officers indicated that complaints would be filed at San Antonio charging them with smuggling and conspiracy to defraud the government by evading the tariff. The five men were jailed here.

Contraband, consisting of 1,500 gallons of Cuban alcohol and Belgian cologne spirits, was found late yesterday in underground chambers in a sheep pen on the ranch.

The customs officers believe the ranch was a distributing point for this section of smuggled alcohol and other liquor. They were of the opinion the liquor was shipped here from New Orleans by way of San Antonio in cases with spurious labels.

NEGRO HUNTED FOR SLAYING

NOCTURNAL HUNT FOR BURIED TREASURE ENDS IN DEATH

(By The Associated Press)

WACO, Nov. 27—An unidentified negro was sought today for the mysterious murder of Mrs. Reba Carney, 33, who came here with a party from Kennedale on a nocturnal hunt for buried treasure.

Mrs. Carney was shot in the head as she sat in her parked car a short distance from the spot where $800 in cash was supposed to have been concealed. With her in the car was a son, Fred, 13.

Another son, Bobbie, 12, and a friend of the family, C. G. Whitlock of Fort Worth, had left the car shortly before to dig for the money.

Negro Opened Fire

Police were told by Fred that a negro walked by the car and then came back. Mrs. Carney flashed a light on the man, who fired at her with a pistol.

The boy said he threw his pocket knife at the negro. The knife was found by officers at the scene of the killing.

Whitlock said he had information from an acquaintance that the money was buried between two railroad tacks in east Waco. After locating the place Saturday afternoon, he said they returned after dark to dig for the money. Mrs. Carney was to have shared in whatever was found.

Youth Is Charged Here With Forgery

A tall, freckle-faced youth taken into custody this morning was charged in Justice of the Peace W. S. Clark's court with forgery, in a complaint filed by Burton S. Burks, assistant district attorney, and signed by Will Earnest, a police patrolman, who arrested the suspect.

The youth, Howard Loter, 18, of Wichita Falls, was charged with forging the name of a former employer, Loyd McCallister, who lived 3 miles southeast of Acuff, on a check for $23.50. The check was passed at the Austin Food store, the policeman said. Loter endorsing it as "Jack Lawson."

Loter was transferred to county jail.

DESPERADO REPORTED SEEN IN FT. WORTH-DALLAS SECTION

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Nov. 27—Search for Clyde Barrow, gunman who shot his way out of an officers' trap last week, centered today in the Dallas-Fort Worth area after authorities received reports of his being seen in this vicinity.

Arthur Wesley, a negro, told of being stopped in a wooded Dallas suburb by a man asking directions to a certain side road. The negro said the man, who brandished a machine gun, boasted he was Barrow, youthful desperado wanted for several killings and various robberies.

Seen By Officer

Another report came from Deputy Constable W. W. Parker of Carrollton, a town north of Dallas, who said he was riding with another man on a truck north of Arlington when two couples drove up in a car, stopped and asked the way to Dallas.

Parker said the party evidently had been drinking and that the driver was addressed as "Clyde." They hurried away without Parker being able to question them. The officer said he had no weapon.

Later last night a constable from Terrell reported to Fort Worth officers he saw an automobile without lights parked in a pasture between Mansfield and Arlington.

Intensive Hunt Begun

When he went to investigate, he said he found two men and two women, heavily armed. As he approached, the car was driven away rapidly. Fort Worth police started an intensive search for the dark green coupe.

Barrow has been a fugitive from justice for months.

Traveling with Barrow is Bonnie Parker, who is reputed to be as willing to shoot it out with officers as her companion.

W. D. Jones, 17, who officers say admitted having been an associate of Barrow, has made a statement to officers and newsmen in which he credited Barrow with participation in the killing of several men. The statement also charged Barrow with taking part in certain kidnapings.

Liquor Charge Is Filed Against Man

A charge of possession of liquor was filed against G. V. Churchill, 35, of Lubbock in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court this morning.

Five pints and a half-gallon of whisky, a gallon of alcohol, and a pint of gin were confiscated in Churchill's room in a downtown hotel, police said. He was arrested Sunday night by Wade Hardy, John L. Croft, and Will Earnest, policemen.

Churchill this morning was transferred to county jail, from which he had been released Saturday afternoon in bail of $750 upon being charged, as "C. M. Churchill," with automobile theft here.

STRIKE BOARD WILL PROBE DISPUTE

ARBITRATORS TO SEEK SOLUTION IN ROW ON SOUTHERN PACIFIC

(By The Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Nov. 27.—The board of arbitration appointed to investigate the dispute between the Southern Pacific railroad and the "big four" railway brotherhoods is composed of Judge Walter P. Stacy, Raleigh, N. C., Frank P. Douglas, Oklahoma City, and Dr. L. W. Courtney of Waco.

Chairman Samuel Winslow of the United States board of mediation, who announced the membership of the board in telegrams last night to L. B. McDonald, manager of the railroad, and Fred W. Lewis, spokesman for the unions, said the fact-finding board would begin its deliberations here Wednesday.

Data Assembled

A mass of data has been assembled by railroad officials and the brotherhoods for submission to the board on numerous issues involved in the dispute, which affected some 3,000 workers.

A strike had been called by the brotherhoods to begin at noon last Saturday but President Roosevelt averted it by ordering the emergency board of arbitration to see what it could do to settle the disagreement. The board has thirty days to work on the case and then submits its report for executive consideration for another thirty days.

It was pointed out that neither side will be required to abide by the recommendations of the board, which will hold open hearings.

Dr. Courtney is an English professor at Baylor university and a student of social and economic matters.

No definite announcement was made by Mr. Young on his findings, Mr. Inmon said. He indicated there might be something to announce soon.

TRIALS BEGUN HERE TODAY

CRIMINAL CASES ARE UP IN NINETY-NINTH DISTRICT COURT

Trial of criminal cases was begun before Judge Clark M. Mullican in 99th district court this morning.

Dutch Burnett waived trial by jury, pleaded guilty of burglary, and received a 4-year suspended sentence. He was charged with burglary of a Slaton home.

Sentences Suspended

Jose Plato and Higinio Satelo pleaded guilty of possession of marijuana and, upon agreement of the prosecution and defense counsel, received suspended sentence of a year each.

A young Mexican man who served as interpreter explained light colored marijuana is harmless, being used to make tea when the liquid is cold, and as a laxative when it is hot. Dark marijuana is the narcotic, he said.

The case of J. E. Aldridge, charged with violating banking laws, was continued for the term upon request of Meade F. Griffin, district attorney of the 64th district, from which the case was transferred, and defense attorneys. The case originated in Bailey county.

As defense attorney was absent because of court business elsewhere, the case of Mrs. A. F. Grisham, charged with liquor law violation, was continued until Wednesday.

J. W. Davis, facing two charges of forgery, probably would be the first person to be tried this afternoon, Daniel A. Blair, district attorney, said. J. W. Adams, also charged with forgery, probably would be tried this afternoon.

Other cases scheduled to be called for trial today were those of J. D. Warren, charged with liquor law violation, and J. P. Seeds, forgery.

OIL OPERATOR CLAIMS LONG WARNED HIM

HUNTER SAYS HE WAS TOLD TO CONTRIBUTE OR GO TO PRISON

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27.—S. D. Hunter, wealthy oil operator of Shreveport today told the senate committee investigating the election of Senator John H. Overton (D., La.), that Senator Huey P. Long, who supported Overton, had sent him word that if he did not contribute $5,000 to the Overton campaign and cease his political activities against the Long organization he would be arrested and put in the penitentiary for overproduction of gas and oil.

Hunter said he refused to make the contribution and sent back word that he would not support the Long-Overton faction and that after sometime, Senator Long sent word to him that the charges would not be pressed and for him "to forget it."

Reduction Ordered

He said he was first approached by Dr. J. A. Shaw, in charge of the Shreveport office of the state conservation department. Dr. Shaw said, he testified, that Robert Maestri, a Long-Overton appointee as head of the conservation department, had ordered Hunter to cut down his output 75 per cent.

"I asked him if it was also applying to other operators," said Hunter. "And he replied 'no'.

"I then called Senator J. A. Noe, a member of the Long-Overton faction but a personal friend of mine, and asked him to find out what it was all about. Senator Noe went to New Orleans and came back and told me that the state administration was incensed over my activities in politics and wanted them stopped and wanted me to make a $5,000 contribution for the Overton campaign and agree not to support Pike Hall for congress and not to take

PAMPA TO CLAIM MACKIE ELIGIBLE

PAMPA, Nov. 27 (AP)—Superintendent R. B. Fisher of Pampa was in Austin today to present evidence intended to show that a contract between Pampa and the Hopkins school district for sending Hopkins High school pupils to Pampa was formed in 1932.

Under the contract, Hazel Mackie, substitute linesman whom Amarillo had protested, is really living in the Pampa High school district, Fisher contended, and was obligated to attend here, where his tuition was paid.

MNEMONICS, OPIOPHAGISM, POLYPHONY STUMP CONTESTANTS IN SPELLING BEE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 27—The erudite of the town stumbled and fumbled among "mnemonics," "opiophagism" "perspicacity" and other assorted tongue-twisters at the annual Town Hall club spelling bee last night.

But when the last contestant rode an exhausted vowel over the finish line, a private secretary and a school teacher-writer stood victorious amid the shambles of "polyphony" "plagiarism" and "necrophagus" which had earlier downed a university professor, an editor, a foreign correspondent and a dozen other hardy dictionary warriors.

Miss Lou Helmuth, the teacher, won the first of two spelling sections with a devastating flank attack on "plyphony" and "plagiarism."

Philip Kerby, a former far eastern newspaper correspondent, had some

CONFESSED KIDNAPERS HANGED TO TREES AS HUNDRED MEN SMASH WAY INTO JAIL

WHOOPING AND CHEERING, THOUSANDS LOOK ON AS DETERMINED THRONG WINS BATTLE WITH OFFICERS AFTER MERCHANT'S BODY FOUND

(By The Associated Press)

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 27—Thomas H. Thurmond and John M. Holmes, confessed kidnaper-slayers of Brooke Hart, were lynched here last night by a mob of 100 men who smashed their way into the county jail after a 2-hour battle to seize the pair.

A whooping, cheering crowd estimated at 6,000 persons looked on.

Thurmoid, first to confess, was unconscious when dragged to St. James park, 100 yards from the jail, partially stripped and hanged to a tree.

Holmes, a powerful man, fought for his life in vain. Twice he wrenched his hands free and lifted the noose from his head, but the third time it was put there to stay and, still kicking, he was yanked into the air.

In the glare of torches and flashlights the bodies dangled for half an hour or so—a macabre picture for the thousands who had assembled swiftly after the news of the lynching movement had spread through the city. Then the lifeless forms were cut down and there was no further attempt to interfere with officers.

Body Slightly Burned

Thurmond's body had been slightly burned by flames from blazing newspapers held up by the mob as torches during the hanging.

The lynching, occurring only a few hours after the torn body of young Hart, son of a wealthy San Jose merchant, had been taken from San Francisco bay, climaxed a spectacular battle between officers barricaded in the jail and the determined mob.

The muttering throng began gathering about the jail about 9 p. m. The jail, an antiquated brick building to the rear of the courthouse, had been prepared against the possibility of a lynch movement but was unable to withstand the improvised battering rams of the attackers. Automobiles, parked across the alleys about the jail building, did little to impede the advances of the besiegers.

Shots Start Attack

Two shots, fired from the crowd as a signal, started the first attack. A barrage of rocks, gathered from across the alley where a new post office building is under construction, clattered against the jail walls. Officers within the jail let loose with three tear gas bombs. Blinded and weeping, the attackers fell back.

By this time some 3,000 persons had gathered to watch. The 35 officers in the jail building sent out a call for more tear gas. All lights in the building were extinguished.

The blinding tear gas from the first three bombs was still hanging like a thin veil about the building when the second attack began. Several of the attackers took from the post office building a piece of steel pipe 8 inches in diameter and about 20 feet long and used it as a battering ram, smashing in the jail door.

Steel Doors Give Way

Officers turned loose another barrage of tear gas, momentarily stopping the assault. After waiting a few moments for the gas to lift, the mob stormed ahead once more, playing a fire hose on the building as it advanced. A second group seized another pipe and joined the attackers. The steel doors of the jail gave way and the mob poured in, encouraged by cheering thousands outside.

Sheriff William J. Emig, whose quick action had resulted in the arrest of Thurmond while making a ransom demand by telephone to the Hart home a week after the young victim had been put to death, was knocked senseless. Other officers were manhandled and brushed aside.

The mob demanded Antone Serpa, recently convicted of manslaughter in the slaying of Leonard Ramonda, a ranch foreman, but deputy sheriffs persuaded the group to let Serpa

PARDONS PROMISED

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 27. (AP)—Governor Rolph said today the lynching in San Jose last night of Thomas Thurmond and John Holmes, confessed kidnapers and slayers of Brooke Hart, should result in fewer kidnapings throughout the country, and that he would pardon any one arrested for the lynchings.

DEPUTY TELLS OF LYNCHING

WOMEN AND CHILDREN WATCH TERRIFIED KILLERS HANGED

(By The Associated Press)

SAN JOSE, Calif., Nov. 27—Here is the story of Deputy Sheriff John Moore on the lynching of John H. Holmes and Thomas H. Thurmond, confessed kidnap-killers of Brooke Hart:

"The inside of the county jail was fogged with tear gas when the mob rushed in behind the battering ram . . . .

"I was standing on the stairs, inside the steel mesh door, with Deputy Sheriffs Earle Hamilton and Howard Buffington. We had only a few gas bombs left and we knew they had us . . . ."

Jail Keys Taken

"The mob brushed past us to Holmes' cell on the second floor, and four men stood me against a wall, searched me and took my keys. They went in for Holmes, who was hiding in the lavatory of his cell.

"He came out crying 'I'm not Holmes, I'm not Holmes,' but one of the lynchers rushed up and grabbed him by the neck and told him to shut up. Another fellow cracked him in the jaw.

"Holmes went down and when he go to his feet another man hit him, and another, until he lay sprawled at their feet, unconscious.

"They pulled him to his feet and stood him against the wall, still unconscious, while others kept hitting him in the face with their fists. They finally put a rope around his neck and dragged him head first down the steps.

Thurmond In Hiding

"Then they went up on the third floor and found Thurmond hanging by his hands to the iron grating of a high window inside the lavatory, where he thought they wouldn't find him.

"He didn't try to deny his identity but he came out sniveling and his face was very white. I have never seen human beings look so terrified as Holmes and Thurmond.

"Thurmond kept repeating 'don't string me up. For God's sake don't string me up.' And they hit him as they did Holmes and dragged him down the steps with a rope around his neck.

"They took both men across the street, threw the rope ends over tree limbs and jerked them roughly off their feet to die.

Women, Children In Crowd

"There were women and children in the crowd and they saw that whole thing in the park. Some of the children were babies in their mothers' arms.

"I heard a number of women laugh, even after it was all over, and say it had been a good thing.

"That mob seemed to be insane. The tear gas never fazed them. They came through it with eyes streaming and smarting but determined to get those men and lynch them—that was all that mob cared about."

MONETARY POLICY TO BE UNCHANGED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—An unchanged government gold price today gave fresh indications of President Roosevelt's determination to maintain his monetary policy despite widespread criticism and defense of commodity dollar plans.

The RFC offered to pay $33.76 an ounce for gold within two hours after Acting Secretary Morgenthau returned from a week-end conference with President Roosevelt at Warm Springs, Georgia, his figure maintained the level set before Morgenthau went south and quoted during his absence.

The fact that the price moved neither up nor down was interpreted in some quarters as reflecting a desire to steady financial markets prior to treasury funding operations in December exceeding $700,000,000.

SLATON YOUTH IN SERIOUS CONDITION AND ANOTHER CHARGED IN STABBING

(Special To The Journal)

SLATON, Nov. 27—One Slaton youth is in a serious condition and another is free in bail on assault and disturbance charges as a result of a stabbing at a dance at the community clubhouse.

Horney Thompson, 26, was stabbed three times, a lung being penetrated once, about 10 p. m. Saturday. Leon Hall, 18, was charged in two complaints in city court, where Mayor T. M. George set bond at $250, R. L. Wicker, chief of police, said.

An attending physician informed the police chief that Thompson's chance of recovery was encouraging if complications did not develop. He suffered two superficial wounds, one of an arm and one in the back, and another in the back extended into a lung. Thompson was treated in his room.

After the altercation, Thompson danced before his breathing became forced, and others discovered his condition, Police Chief Wicker said.

Hall said he had used a pocket knife to defend himself, the police chief intimated.

It's Smart To Wear The New Colors

BY BARBARA BEAUFORT
(Associated Press Fashion Editor)

PARIS, Nov. 27 (AP)—New color combinations have appeared on fashion's palette.

The latest mixtures are as fresh as new paint and as sophisticated as a modern artist's canvas. The Woman Who Wants to be Smart must study her shades this year if she wishes to retain her reputation for chic.

Color Magic

Bright blue with deep dark red, dark green with silver gray and goldenrod yellow with haze gray are other new combinations.

Fur trims on both daytime coats and evening wraps reflect a similar sophisticated tone. Beaver trims sulphur yellow wool, nutria appears on black wool, gray galyak finishes brown and gray tweed, mink appears on dark red velvet.

Combinations For Evening

The evening mode displays some of the most striking combinations of all. Dull red velvet trims a dull pink crepe frock, a raspbery velvet coat appears with a blackberry crepe dress and a brilliant Peiping red taffeta cape sets off a silver gray satin frock.

The new tones of blackberry, mulberry, raspberry, prune and grape, which are among the smartest on the style scene, are favorite bases for the sophisticated combinations. Designers delight to combine them with one another in subtle mixtures.

Rich brown mink gives color contrast to this bronze green velvet suit designed by Martial et Armand. The toque and gloves are brown to match the fur.

MARRIED 30 YEARS—
YET IT TOOK A BRIDE TO TEACH HER THIS SIMPLE SECRET ABOUT COFFEE

A NEW RARE FLAVOR
From The World's "Coffee Paradise"

Folger's is not merely another "brand" or "blend"—not simply a different "roast." But brings you the flavor of rare coffees from a totally different producing region that's famed as the world's "coffee paradise."

Grown chiefly in tiny, isolated districts along the steep west coast of Central America—these super-coffees are totally different because they are mountain-grown. Because they are produced in an odd type of volcanic soil where altitude and steaming tropical rainfall impart a richness and winy tang that nature has never bestowed on any other coffee that's known.

These are the coffees that give such distinctive flavor to Folger's—the coffee that appeals especially to men. Now brought to you with all its original mountain-freshness faithfully preserved in key-opening vacuum tins.

Please note also that Folger's is particularly economical to serve. For, because of greater richness and body, a single pound of it goes as far as a pound and one-third of cheap, paper-package coffees. In other words, you use ¼ less and still have richer coffee . . . Ask for Folger's today! 1732

FLASHES OF LIFE

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

Big Clothes Man

PITTSBURGH—Warden John McNeil looked at Prisoner John Hurt, had him weighed, found he scaled 325 pounds and proudly announced him as the heaviest Allegheny county jail "guest" in the prison's history. Then came the denouement. Examination disclosed that Hurt was wearing eight pairs of socks, 12 suits underwear, 15 shirts, eight pairs pants and 11 coats. The big clothes man had been arrested for vagrancy.

A Slight Error

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia.—Charles Heath, church janitor who takes a bromine medicine for sleeplessness and takes it in grape juice, got his sedative mixed with the communion grape juice. A hundred communicants partook of the soporific mixture. The congregation drowsed; several members reported slight sickness. The first Christian church is seeking a new janitor.

What's A Saloon

SEATTLE — "What is a saloon?" asked City Councilman David Levine.

"A saloon," replied Corporation Counsel A. C. Van Soelen, after searching his mind and all the legal volumes in his office for several days, "is what is commonly understood by the term."

He explained there is no statutory definition of the word.

Big (Hot) House

CLARKSBURG, W. Va.—Freezing temperatures succeeded in bringing back two escaped Upshur county prisoners after officers failed. Page Riley, 19, and Cecil Claypole, 26, broke jail Thursday. They returned yesterday voluntarily, reporting that they didn't like the cold weather outside.

Nine At A Time

WAUKESHA, Wis.—Informed there were several persons trapped inside, Vernal Tuttle, a police officer, dashed into a grocery store which was rapidly filling up with smoke from a basement fire. He emerged, eyes smarting, with the store cat in his arms. The spectators, applauded, one with remarking that Tuttle had saved nine lives.

Exclusive Eagles

NEW YORK — An inquirer with an eye for such things noted today that of the thousands of windows of bankers and brokers fronting on Wall Street, only three were found showing the blue eagle poster of the NRA.

Virtually every concern in the financial district, however, is reported operating under an NRA code.

CHICAGO IS READY FOR AGRICULTURE'S "WORLD SERIES;" NATION'S BEST LIVESTOCK TO PASS IN REVIEW AT SHOW

Top-notch animals already holding prizes for "on-the-hoof" excellence in various competitions are moving on to Chicago and the International Live Stock exposition under way the week after Thanksgiving. The annual gathering has made the Chicago background above familiar to many farmers and cattlemen over the country. Twelve thousand head of prime stock are expected for this year's judging.

CHICAGO, Nov. 27 (AP)—Chicago's world's fair has closed for the year, but agriculture's "world series" will soon move onto the scene to keep the farm world exposition-minded for another big week.

Into the union stock yards, "America's butcher shop," will amble thousands of head of the continent's choisest beef, pork, and veal on the hoof, to compete in the thirty-fourth annual International Live Stock exposition, starting December 1.

B. H. Heide, secretary-manager of the exposition, reports that several hundred more entries have been received than last year, which was a record-breaker.

Hay And Grain Show Too

For eight days there will be coronations of champions and grand champions in beef and dairy cattle, swine, horses and sheep; wheat and corn kings—for the International Hay and Grain Show is held in conjunction—and various champions among 4-H club boys and girls for their projects.

Coming each year the week following Thanksgiving, the Chicago exposition is the grand finale of the agricultural show season in North America.

It is the main event, through which hundreds of county and state fair champions move en route to the holiday-season tables of the country's finest hotels, railroad diners, and other high-class eating places.

Many Lands Represented

Increasing representation of Canadian grain and livestock exhibitors will make this year's show more truly international than ever, says Heide.

Farmers from seven Canadian provinces will exhibit in the crops department, draft horses will come from as far away as Saskatchewan, and Ontario sheep breeders have entered some of the largest flocks of purebred sheep to appear in the competitions.

More than 30 states of this country will be represented in the crops and livestock divisions. Fourteen states have entered sheep, draft horses will come from 11 states; shorthorn cattle from 19 states and Canada; Herefords from 14 states and Ontario, and Aberdeen-Angus from 12 states and Canada.

Expect 12,000 Animals

The task of judging the 12,000 head of prime livestock will be handled by a corps of 44 judges from 14 states, the District of Columbia, Ontario, Scotland and Argentina.

Officials say this year's show will see more draft horses on exhibition than at any time in the last decade. A spectacular feature of the draft horse show is the performance of ton-weight six-horse teams. Matinee and evening contests for riding and jumping horses and indoor polo, will enliven the program.

TECH IN CONTEST

Texas Technological college is to be represented in the "world series" of agriculture at Chicago when six students of the college take part in the intercollegiate livestock judging contest. The team is coached by Ray Mowery. At Kansas City recently, the team placed sixth out of a field of 13 teams from colleges over the nation.

LOVE HALTS SONG OF ORIENTAL DIVA

TOKYO, Nov. 25 (AP)—Yoshiko Miyakawa, the American-born Japanese diva who three years ago was hailed as the coming great "Madame Butterfly" of the operatic stage, confronted the old choice of career or marriage, and chose marriage.

She became the bride of Takefumi Makiyama, an alumnus of McGill University, Montreal.

She was born in Sacramento, Calif., in 1912 and sang "Madame Butterfly" at the Opera Comique in Paris when she was only 18. She appeared also in New York, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

LIKES FLYING

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP)—George F. Work, 95-year-old Denver resident who has no difficulty in remembering the prairie schooners and the pony express, came all the way by plane for a visit with his son. It was his first trip by air, but he says he plans others.

Face $500,000 Kidnap Ring Charge

Branded as one of the leaders in a $500,000 kidnaping ring, which forced Al Capone to bow to its orders, Frank Souder, Benton, Ill., gambler, with 11 others, is held in jail in Chicago. Souder, shown above with his wife after their arrest, is accused in a confession by an accomplice of the abductions of 10 wealthy gamblers and bootleggers in the midwest.

Thirty Acres Yield Thirty-Three Bales

RALLS, Nov. 27 (Special)—J. R. Holman, a Crosby county farmer, reported he had gathered thirty-three bales of cotton from thirty acres of land and probably would gather two or three more bales.

There are a number of farmers in Crosby county this season who are making a bale of cotton per acre. The weather has been ideal for cotton picking and with a few more days of good weather most of the cotton will be out.

Cloudcroft, N. Mex., lays claim to having the loftiest golf course in the United States; situated on top of the Sacramento mountains, the course is 9000 feet above sea level.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES TO BE A FOOTBALL REFEREE

M. J. ("MIKE") THOMPSON, FAMOUS FOOTBALL REFEREE

IF YOU WANT TO SEE nerve strain, look at "Mike" Thompson's job—refereeing two tons of football brawn, seeing every detail, but never getting in the players' way. "Mike" Thompson has been a steady smoker for years. "I'm open-minded on cigarettes," he says, "but I've got to keep my nerves in shape, so I stick to Camels."

A MATCHLESS BLEND

IT IS MORE FUN TO KNOW

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

M. J. ("Mike") Thompson, football's most famous referee, has to keep his nerves healthy. He says:

"Because nothing can be allowed to interfere with healthy nerves I smoke Camels. I have tried them all—given every popular brand a chance to show what it can offer. Camels don't upset my nerves even when I smoke constantly. And the longer I smoke them the more I come to appreciate their mildness and rich flavor."

Many smokers who have changed to Camels report that their nerves are no longer irritable . . . "jumpy." Switch to Camels yourself. You will find that Camels do not jangle your nerves—or tire your taste.

SPYING ON SPORTS

BY COLLIER PARRIS

In the succeeding pair of paragraphs we're going to tell three people how to make five dollars, cheap—not five dollars each, but a total of that much. After that, we're going to let Alan Gould, Associated Press sports editor, and Bo McMillin, head man at Kansas State, take over the column for today. Watch closely, now.

• • •

GET OUT THE PENCIL

On the morning after Baylor's victory over S. M. U. your correspondent awoke with an extra fin in his jeans. Evidently, you surmise, somebody had the audacity to argue the outcome of a football game with us. But since it was like taking peppermint away from an infant, we're going to pass that "V" on to you and you and you. Here's all you have to do:

• • •

It's that time of year when all-county, all-district, all-state, all-conference and all-America football teams are to be picked. Instead of trying to pick an all-America ourself, we're going to let the readers do it, and offer a reward for the best guesser. Everybody is eligible to enter this contest. Just write down the names, positions and schools of eleven men you consider outstanding in collegiate football this year. If your guess is as good as that of the Associated Press, or as nearly like it as possible, you will be notified that a two-and-a-half-dollar bill awaits you at this office. Next best picker will receive one buck and a half, and the third prize is one iron man. Now get out the pencil and go to figuring. Mail or bring your results to the sports desk not later than noon Friday of this week. Letters must be postmarked before 12 o'clock noon on Friday. The Associated Press' All-American will be released in these publications Sunday, December 3. Now, let's see you go.

• • •

TOO MUCH DEFENSE

Now here are Mr. Gould and Mr. McMillin, the latter now preparing to bring his Kansas State Aggies to Lubbock for the Thanksgiving Day football game with Texas Tech. This is where we leave off and where Mr. Gould takes charge:

• • •

It seems fair enough to give Alvin (Bo) McMillin the floor in any football debate. The loose-hipped Texan did pretty well as a ball-carrier and All-America quarterback for Centre College back in the Gaudy Era that followed the world war. He has coached over a fair stretch of territory since then in the East, South and Mid-west, where he now directs the Kansas State gridiron squad.

McMillin opposes most of the present agitation on behalf of the football defense, which wants restored the old privilege of running with any recovered fumble.

"Football has gone defense crazy", he says. "To allow defensive teams to run with fumbles is simply another step in the direction of throttling the offense and keeping down scoring threats and spectacular play. What should be done is to make it impossible for the defensive side to get possession of the ball on a fumbled backward or lateral pass. Give the ball back to the offense in such a case and count a down. You might do the same on any scrimmage play. Then you'll see some real offensive work, some of the thrills both the boys, and the spectators want.

"Teams won't be afraid to try double and triple laterals and the ball carrier can cut loose without worrying about somebody knocking the ball out of his arms.

"The way to improve the situation is certainly not to tack another penalty onto brilliant offensive play and make a team afraid to try something because of the disaster which may come from what should be a minor slip in football."

SUFFICIENT REWARD

From what we have observed of the National Football Rules Committee in action, and what we know many of its members think, there is little hope that the committee will do anything at all in regard to permitting the defense to gallop off with a recovered fumble in 1934.

"Take, for example, the case of a team that has negotiated 50 or 60 yards toward the opposing goal, then fumbles a step or two from the goal-line," remarked a member of the committee, "suppose also that the defensive side recovers and runs for a touchdown. Who will say that such a mistake merited such a heavy penalty? Loss of the ball, with a consequent opportunity for the defensive side to kick back 40 or 50 yards, is sufficient reward for the defensive side's alertness or luck, whatever you want to call it.

"Moreover, the coaches themselves were loudest among those urging the dead-ball rule now on the books. They felt they were paying too heavy a penalty for the breaks. Now, just because some formerly high-powered offensive teams have been failing to function, the rules are attacked as the cause!

"Do you think any one at Notre Dame is blaming the rules for the team's failure to score in five of the first six games? Or do you hear any complaint from teams such as Army, Princeton, Duke and Purdue, which have been scoring heavily in most of their games?"

KANSAS STATE MEETS TECH VARSITY HERE ON THANKSGIVING

Determined to make the last three days of practice count for all they are worth, the Texas Tech varsity football forces were ready to take the field this afternoon in a hard workout as part of the preparations for the Thanksgiving Day clash with Kansas State here Thursday.

Strenuous workouts are booked for today and tomorrow. The Matadors will taper off Wednesday afternoon in a lighter drill, going over offensive plays in shadow scrimmage.

Whacker Barton Out

With but one or two exceptions, the Tech gridders will be in fine physical fettle for this, their final game of the season. Whacker Barton, regular center, probably won't play because of a broken leg, but all other members of the clan are ready to go.

Meanwhile, school and town spirit is rising high. Advance ticket sales indicate a pre-game sellout of reserved seats. At least half of the 4,500 available grandstand seats have been sold or reserved, and the J. & J. Sporting Goods company, ticket agency, expects a constant rush during the remainder of this week.

Texas Tech's business management's campaign for a "crowd of 10,000 fans at the game" probably will meet with success. Campus organizations have declared their allegiance and offered their support, school spirit is nearly at its height, and other indications point to a record turnout and highly enthusiastic crowd.

"It will take everything we can get in that line, as well as our best ball club to hold off that Kansas State club," opines Head Coach Pete Cawthon. "Whether we lose or win, though, the fans will see a football show. We're going to be cutting loose with everything we've got, and I know the Kansas team is capable of putting on a great game. It's the best team ever to come to Lubbock, barring nobody."

Tech's coaches have scouted Kansas State twice, seeing the Aggies beat the University of Oklahoma and being defeated by Nebraska, the latter being the only loss sustained by the charges of Coach Alvin "Bo" McMillin.

Runners-up in the Big Six conference race of 1933, the Aggies have won six games, lost one and tied one. A battling Michigan State team of the Big Ten conference upset the dope to hold Kansas State scoreless.

HEADS ARE NAMED BY AMATEUR BODY

WACO, Nov. 27 (AP)—Fourteen representatives of the Texas Amateur Athletic federation from San Antonio, Dallas, Fort Worth, Beaumont, Austin and Waco met here Saturday with the recreation department to hear protests from each district and formulate plans for coming amateur athletic activities.

Officers of the federation elected were Koger Stokes of San Antonio, president; R. N. Gill of San Antonio, executive secretary; and Ralph H. Burkee of San Antonio, treasurer.

Those elected to take charge of various activities were:

Ed Milliken, Dallas, baseball; R. C. Oliver, Waco, tennis; Graham Pierce, Dallas, men's basketball; J. M. Nash, Galveston, women's basketball; Eugene Gilmore, Waco, football; R. D. Evans, Fort Worth, track and field; I. E. Witschke, Austin, boxing and wrestling; G. L. Leddingham, Fort Worth, soccer football; Harvey Williams, Austin, junior baseball; Rosa Lee O'Sullivan, Waco, dramatics; W. F. Jacoby, Dallas, horseshoe throwing; Bob Lee, Fort Worth; Roque; John Nash, Austin, men's playground baseball; Johnnie Marie Brooks, Beaumont, women's playground baseball; James A. Garrison, Austin, Swimming; N. A. Quinpanella, parish league.

STEERS, AGGIES TIE

HOUSTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—The University of Texas cross country team tied the Texas Aggies here Saturday in the annual conference cross country meet. Each team scored 32 points. Rice was the only other team entered in the event.

Wilson of Texas was the first to finish the 3.8 mile course. He was followed over the finish line by Wilson of Rice with Archer, Texas, finishing third.

Fuentes was the first member of the Texas Aggie team to cross the line. He was trailed by Cooke of the Aggies.

BIG FINISH IS SLATED FOR FOOTBALL

BIG-TIME DUELS ARE SCHEDULED THURSDAY AND SATURDAY

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Football virtually winds up its 1933 season this week with perhaps the biggest double-barrelled finish in its history.

A program of more than 30 big-time duels, split between Thanksgiving day and Saturday, will polish off a spectacular campaign in fitting style. A few major outfits will carry their seasons farther into December but it will be "taps" for most after this week.

Four Titles Unsettled

Developments of the week will definitely settle two of the four sectional championships still undecided and will throw more light on the national championship aspirations of Army, Princeton and Duke, the only remaining major undefeated and untied elevens.

So far five conference races have been decided with Michigan repeating in the Big Ten, Nebraska in the Big Six and Oklahoma A. and M. in the Missouri Valley. Stanford, the Rose bowl nominee, and Oregon finished in a tie for the Pacific coast title, while Duke and South Carolina have completed their Southern conference season without defeat or tie, Duke having won one more game than the Gamecocks.

The situation in the other four groups line up as follows:

East—Army and Princeton the only unbeaten, untied leaders.

Southeastern—Alabama and Louisiana State alone remain to carry on.

Rocky Mountain — Denver and Colorado Aggies survive.

Arkansas Has Lead

Southwest—Arkansas has clinched the crown but may lose out through the playing of an ineligible player. In that case, Baylor, Texas Christian and Texas A. and M. still would have a chance at the title.

Outstanding features of this week's program:

East — Brown and Colgate, Penn and Cornell, Pitt and Carnegie Tech, West Virginia and Washington & Jefferson are the principal Thanksgiving day pairings but most of the excitement will be reserved for Saturday when Army plays Notre Dame and Princeton clashes with Yale. On the same day Boston college and Holy Cross will renew their traditional rivalry while George Washington plays Kansas and Rutgers meets Villanova.

Alabama vs. Vanderbilt

South—Alabama, playing Vanderbilt on Thursday, will have a chance to clinch at least a share in the Southeastern title while Louisiana State, the only other contender, must whip Tulane Saturday and Tennessee Dec. 9 to gain rating with the Crimson Tide assuming an Alabama victory over Vanderbilt. Kentucky and Tennessee, Virginia and North Carolina, Virginia Poly and Virginia Military and Centenary and Loyola complete the Thanksgiving day card while Auburn and South Carolina, Georgia Tech and Duke, Florida and Maryland and Mississippi and Mississippi State square off on Saturday.

Far West — Southern California's intersectional tussle with Georgia Saturday tops the program with St. Mary's playing Oregon and Washington State meeting U. C. L. A. Thursday.

Middle-West — A slim program featured by the Big Six encounter of Kansas and Missouri and Nebraska's intersectional joust with Oregon State. Oklahoma and Oklahoma A. and M. get together for their annual battle while Tulsa plays Arkansas.

Aggies Face Steers

Southwest — The Texas-Texas A. and M. game on Thursday and the Texas Christian - Southern Methodist and Baylor-Rice duels Saturday all will figure in the championship if Arkansas' claim is declared invalid.

Rocky Mountain — The grand finale comes Thursday with Denver playing Colorado university and the Colorado Aggies facing Utah. Denver and the Aggies, tied one each, are the only unbeaten teams in the conference but Utah can slip into the title by beating the Aggies if Colorado overturns Denver.

KANSAS STATE'S ALL-AMERICA HOPE

Here's the gent who leads Coach Bo McMillin's Kansas State Wildcats against Texas Tech's Matadors here Thursday afternoon. Mid-western critics like him for an all-American berth.

Germany's New Law Protects Animals

BERLIN, Nov. 27 (AP)—A two-year jail term threatens anyone who "unnecessarily tortures or cruelly maltreats an animal" under the terms of a law for the protection of dumb animals promulgated here.

This law also forbids compelling an animal to do work exceeding its strength. It further prohibits anyone to maintain, provide for, house or transport an animal in a manner that causes it to suffer pain or damage.

Domestic animals may not be simply abandoned nor may dogs be trained to chase cats, foxes or other animals. Dogs and horses tails cannot be bobbed.

Made Safe

A device that gives Soviet flying students the practice needed for parachute jumping, without the risk of the actual leap from a plane, is shown here, with a pupil making his descent, in a Moscow park. The parachute is suspended, open, at 30 feet, a height where it ordinarily would not open, and then released by the device when the student is ready for the drop.

MOSCOW (AP)—The soviet press suggests formation of fishing groups to supply 400,000 tons of shrimp meat annually. The Black Sea is reported to contain ample supplies of the mollusc which does not now find its way to Russian cities.

AMARILLO AND LUBBOCK VIE THURSDAY

TILT HAS NO BEARING ON THE DISTRICT ONE FOOTBALL RACE

Although the game will have no bearing whatever on the District 1 race of the Texas Interscholastic league football title tournament, the Lubbock Westerners and Amarillo Sandies nevertheless will have their traditional rivalry on Butler Field to fire them up for Thursday's annual gridiron classic.

Amarillo's withdrawal from the football race left Pampa in the District 1 lead, and made the Lubbock-Amarillo game of no consequence in the flag chase. The Westerners will continue working out on the home field through tomorrow at least, and will invade Amarillo Thursday with ill-concealed determination to make the most of Amarillo's possible let down.

A special Santa Fe train will carry local high school students and fans to the game. The train will leave Lubbock at 9 o'clock Thursday morning, and will start the return trip at 7 o'clock after the game. Round trip fare is $2.50.

HASHERS MEET PUBLISHERS

TWO INDOOR BASEBALL TEAMS CLASH FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The Mitchell's Cafe indoor baseball team, featuring the flashy moundsman, Richard Godeke, will meet the Avalanche-Journal team this evening in the first of a scheduled three-game series to determine the championship of the Lubbock indoor baseball league.

The game is scheduled to start at 7:30 o'clock at the Auditorium. The second game of the series will be played tomorrow night, and the third, if necessary, is booked for Friday night.

The Publishers won the right to play in the championship series by defeating the J. & J. Sporting Goods company in the first series of the "Shaughnessy system" play-off, winning the third and decisive game 7 to 6, last Friday night. By beating the Lydick Roofers in two straight games, the Mitchel's Cafe team came through the other pre-championship series.

Southwest Grid Race Nears End

ARKANSAS HAS TITLE UNLESS COMMITTEE RULES OTHERWISE

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The annual Southwest conference football show is almost over. What started out to be a straight gridiron drama with many campus heroes battling for Miss Championship has suddenly developed into a deep mystery play in which even the players do not know the solution.

The curtain starts its semi-final downward roll Thanksgiving day when the University of Texas and Texas A. and M. engage in their annual classic at College Station. The lights will go out Saturday when Southern Methodist battles Texas Christian at Fort Worth, and Rice invades Waco to take on the Baylor Bears.

Committee To Decide

A week after the season closes the championship will be awarded by the faculty athletic committee of the league. It is not known who will get the crown. The last scene of the play will be unfolded at Dallas December 9 when the conference committee either officially awards the title to Arkansas or takes it from the Razorbacks.

On the field of battle the Razorbacks have won the title with four wins and one defeat. Regardless of the outcome of remaining games, no team can finish in front of Arkansas, but there's a flaw in the last act. Arkansas' status is somewhere behind a dark cloud because of the ineligibility of "Heinie" Schlueter, substitute tackle, who formerly played with the University of Nebraska. Not only was it discovered that Schlueter was ineligible but that he had played against Texas Christian, Baylor and Rice.

Steers Face Task

Trimmed 30 to 0 by Texas Christian and 20 to 6 by Arkansas, the Longhorns face a tremendous task in trying to defeat the Aggies on Kyle field. The Aggies rested last week and should be in marvelous condition for the invasion of the Longhorns. A. and M. has a slender chance at the title should Arkansas have to forfeit.

Having turned back Rice Saturday, 26 to 3, the Texas Christian Frogs are favored to take Southern Methodist for a gallop down defeat lane. The Frogs will be led by Charles Casper, speedy halfback, who is pacing the Southwest conference scoring race with nine touchdowns for 54 points. A victory will give the Frogs a tie for the championship if Arkansas is ruled ineligible for the crown.

Bears Are Favored

The Baylor Bears do not anticipate troube taking Rice into camp. The Owls have won only one conference game this season. Baylor has a chance for a cinch tie for the championship if the Bears whip Rice and if the committee rules against Arkansas. Baylor stopped Southern Methodist last week, 13 to 7.

Although they have closed their conference schedule, the Razorbacks will not conclude their schedule until Thursday when they invade Tulsa to play a non-conference game against the Tulsa university warriors.

CHAUTEMPS IN AS PREMIER

VARIED PROBLEMS TO BE TACKLED BY NEW FRENCH CABINET

PARIS, Nov. 27 (AP)—A fast-emptying treasury, widespread protest meetings and miners' "work and bread" demonstrations greeted the new cabinet of Premier Camille Chautemps today.

The members took office early this morning after formal presentation to President Albert Lebrun.

No sooner had they officially entered office than Finance Minister Georges Bonnet told Bank of France officials that the government could meet its debts only until December 15.

Economies Planned

To meet the situation, the cabinet began preparing a program contemplating saving 6,000,000,000 francs (about $400,000,000) through economies and tapping new resources to raise more funds.

At the same time, it was made known the cabinet planned to demand a decree of power to cut the pay of functionaries—a matter which has been a bone of bitter contention in the chamber of deputies.

It was upon a similar program that the two previous cabinet fell, the last one after four weeks in power.

Inflation Threatens

Meanwhile, economists were warning that inflation threatened, and new difficulties developed as a result of hundreds of farm meetings at which better prices were demanded.

These meetings were matched in northern France by so-called "work and bread" demonstrations in which 30,000 miners marched urging official action to improve employment conditions.

VALIDITY OF BEER LAW IS ATTACKED

AUSTIN, Nov. 27 (AP)—The validity of Texas' 3.2 beer sale regulatory law has been attacked by an appellant who had been fined $25 for selling the brew in dry territory under local option.

Contention was made that the legislature was without authority to pass the bill prior to a vote of the electorate on an amendment to the state constitution to permit the sale of beer.

The legislature had submitted the proposition, and then proceeded to enact a bill regulating its sale to become effective if the constitutional amendment was adopted. The amendment was ratified in a special election August 26.

The case was filed in the court of criminal appeals by Harold Letcher, who was fined in the county court of Mitchell county. He also contended that the county court was without jurisdiction because, he claimed, the beer regulatory bill did not supersede the Dean law, which makes violation of the liquor law a felony.

CHECKS RECEIVED

RALLS, Nov. 27 (Special)—Cline E. Morris, Crosby county agent, reports that he received thirteen cotton plow-up checks last week amounting to $6,572. About twenty-five more checks are yet to be received by the farmers of Crosby county. There were some sixteen hundred checks coming to this county for plowed up cotton.

PUPPETS, OLDEST OF ENTERTAINERS, FALL FINALLY FOR HOLLYWOOD; MARIONETTES WILL HAVE PART IN NEW FILM

* * * *

Even before legitimate play-acting, puppets were public entertainers, and all the time motion pictures developed the funny little marionettes scorned the screen. Now, however, they've fallen for Hollywood and will participate in the new film, "I Am Suzanne." Lilian Harvey, star of the show, is making some of the puppets feel at home. Inset is Vittorio Podrecca, their manager.

BY DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 27 — Motion pictures, the newest school of histrionics, have absorbed the oldest form of entertainment—the puppet show.

For centuries, even before the legitimate stage came into being, these quaint little marionettes held their place in the show world. In fact, they started the show world. They were our first actors. And they have come down through the ages without losing an iota of their popularity.

Now, for the first time, a real puppet show has been transplanted to the silver screen. Of course, puppets have been seen on the screen before, but never in the shape of a complete show with them as the sole actors. This is being done in Lilian Harvey's new film, "I Am Suzanne."

One entire sequence in the picture is devoted entirely to a theater performance in which actors, audience, and all are marionettes—1200 of them.

Brought From Italy

The world's largest and most famous puppet group, the Teatro dei Piccoli, was imported from Italy to appear in "I Am Suzanne." This company, headed by Vittorio Podrecca, consists of 28 persons and approximately 1200 marionettes. And it carries 300 different stage settings, some painted by foremost artists of Rome and Paris.

Twenty years ago Podrecca was a young newspaper man in Rome. He was interested in puppets and occasionally entertained his friends with a handful of crudely dressed dolls, all handled by himself and playing only the simplest of shows.

Now the repertoire of the company includes complete operas miniature Shakespearean dramas, Russian ballets, novelty numbers, and even modern jazz bands. And an entire group of skilled puppet operators is required to stage a show. What was once a hobby has grown into a thriving business.

They've Got Rhythm

Rhythm is the secret of the art of puppeteering," says Rowland V. Lee, director of "I Am Suzanne."

"So adroitly do Podrecca and his company handle the marionetes that they seem almost human. In fact, except for changing facial expressions, they seem able to do any thing done by human beings.

"Most puppet shows are staged from below the stage or behind a curtain. The Piccoli troupe achieve a more lifelike pantomime by operating their figures from a 'catwalk' above the stage, which affords a greater freedom of movement."

May Start Puppet Craze

Almost a standard sized stage is required for the manipulation of the puppets, which are nearly lifesize, measuring from 3 to 4 feet in height. And they do everything, with the operators speaking or singing the lines as required.

LAND RENTED TO GOVERNMENT MAY BE USED FOR OTHER CROPS BUT ONLY FOR FARM NEED AND HOME CONSUMPTION

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 27—(Special)—Land rented by the United States government in contracts with cotton, wheat and corn growers may not be used directly or indirectly to grow crops that may create surpluses in other lines of production, it was repeated again by Dr. J. F. Cox, chief of the replacement crops division of the Agricultural Adustment administration, in his talks to county farm and home demonstration agents at the annual Extension Service meeting at Texas A. and M. college last week.

"Retired acres may be put to any use that will make them better productive acres, or to the production of food and feed crops for home consumption," he said. "They may be planted to cover crops for turning under to enrich the soil or for holding the soil to check erosion. They may be sown to permanent pastures in part or in all," Dr. Cox continued, "but after the pasture is established next year and is furnishing grazing an equal number of acres must be retired from some other part of the farm. Where a farmer is not already devoting an acreage to the production of food and feed crops for farm consumption these government rented acres may be planted to such crops.

May Exchange Crops

"If certain home food crops are not produced on the farm, surpluses of other crops grown on retired acres may be exchanged for needed food supplies," he pointed out. "For example, a farmer and his family may have more tomatoes than they need and lack fruits. They may trade tomatoes for fruit.

"On the other hand, a farmer who signs a contract may not use the retired or contracted acreage for home food and feed crops and then turn around and plant the acres formerly used for food and feed to some cash crop or to a feed crop to be sold through livestock.

"The whole idea of farm relief," Dr. Cox told the extension agents, "is to take 43 million acres of good American farm land out of production for the good of the farmer and the nation. If production is merely shifted from one cash crop to another the aim of the Act is defeated," he said. "Vegetable growers for example, have plenty of trouble in marketing their crops without having a lot of cotton farmers turn to vegetable growing on land which the government has already rented. It is," he declared, "a great cooperative movement which depends for its success on the loyalty of farmers in keeping the letter and the spirit of the contracts."

Saving The Farms

The value of the work of the "forest army" is familiar to everyone by now. What is not realized so often, however, is the fact that a good deal of this army's work is connected only indirectly with forests.

Right now a considerable number of the forest army lads are at work on an ambitious scheme for preventing further loss of soil through erosion.

In southeastern Ohio, for example, ten camps are at work on this job. Streams which traverse country which formerly was wooded, but which now is under cultivation, tend to form gullies, or washes, which become progressively larger each year. As they grow larger, they carry away increasing quantities of farm land.

The forest army is building checks, dams, and the like to keep such streams under control. Good farm land is no longer to be carried downstream to the Gulf of Mexico.

The forest army, designed to save the forests, is also helping to save the farmer.

IT begins to look like public opinion, whipped to white heat by a series of accidents, is going to forge action in a necessary campaign to improve traffic conditions and make for greater safety on Lubbock's thoroughfares.

Police Chief Wiley Metcalfe, member of a committee appointed by the City commission to look into the traffic situation, says his group will work hand in hand with a committee to represent the various civic and women's clubs, working through the chamber of commerce.

Both groups expect to do serious work on the project.

* * *

And serious work will have to be done. A lot of it, too.

As has been noted in this column from time to time for the past several years, traffic control is a problem of its own.

No one unskilled in traffic matters can possibly work out an efficient system without much study, checking of the natural traffic flow, locations of public buildings with respect to chief traffic arteries and a hundred and one other points.

The two committees have a hard job but one which they can do well if they bend their efforts toward it.

* * *

NOT long ago The Plainsman commented at length upon the El Paso system of controling traffic adjacent to school buildings. In fact, the City commission has instructed its committee to pay particular attention to the school traffic problem here and it is possible a system similar to El Paso's may result.

Seeking more information concerning the Border City's methods, The Plainsman wired the El Paso Times for information and received the following answer from W. J. 'Bill' Hooten, Times city editor.

Because the information contained in the letter is interesting here, Mr. Hooten's communication is below quoted in full.

* * *

"With reference to your message regarding El Paso's police school traffic system, one of my reporters has gathered the following information:

"One traffic officer is detailed each school term to handle publicity among school children. He lectures to them on safety, demonstrating safety methods by means of motion pictures. He also is in charge of traffic officers on duty at school zones, and organizes and directs the school boy patrol.

"Cruising traffic officers work from one zone to another under the 'school traffic officer.' They watch particularly for persons speeding in school zones and for those passing other automobiles in the school districts.

"Special signs are erected at each street intersection adjacent to schools. The signs are metal on which is painted: 'School Zone, 10 miles per hour, one lane traffic only.' At some street intersections posters put out by the National Safety council are displayed.

"The two offenses punishable in court are speeding and passing in the school zone. Police have the full co-operation of the police judge who has made it an iron clad rule not to dismiss, except under very extenuating circumstances, such cases.

"Last year police arrested 113 persons for speeding and 282 for passing other cars in school zones. The usual fine for speeding is from $2 to $3, and for passing is $2. More aggravated cases, of course, resulted in higher fines.

"El Pasoans usually regard the regulations kindly, and particularly pay attention to the signals of the school boy patrolmen. The efficiency of the system is revealed in the fact that there have been no children killed or injured in school zones in the past three years."

* * *

THE problem of traffic control in Lubbock is many sided and is nothing for citizens to become angry at each other about.

Instead of fomenting distrust and disagreements, the problem should be accepted as a community affair and worked at from that angle.

After all, present conditions are not satisfactory to the thinking citizen and whatever improvement is made in them will be of benefit to everybody. It's just another case of the greatest good to the greatest number.

MAURY HUGHES, chairman of the State Democratic Executive committee, forecasts a repetition of the oldfashioned prohibition fight in Texas in 1934 and says every candidate for state office should be forced to take his stand upon the wet and dry basis.

That the fight is coming, there is no doubt.

But if Texas is going to choose its officials upon the basis of whether they are dry, or whether they are wet, we may just as well realize that we won't get the best in officials.

State officials should be (this is Utopian, of course) selected upon the basis of honesty and ability, not upon the basis of whether they're for or against alcoholic liquors.

Russians Are Wondering Whether Recognition By America Has Staved Off War With Japan Or Has Speeded It Along

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
The Evening Journal's Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27—Russians are wondering whether their deal with America has staved off war with Japan or speeded it along.

Litvinoff arrived with the Far Eastern situation foremost in mind.

Dutcher

Diplomats and military men assume Japanese militarists hope next to take the far end of eastern Siberia in a Pacific expansion program.

Soviet officials were primarily anxious to line up with us on the friendliest possible basis in answer to that threat. Hence their concessions to Roosevelt.

We entered no entangling alliance—but look at Litvinoff's smile and recall Roosevelt's assurance that prospects of peace are "greatly strengthened."

Realistic Russians and ever-suspicious American generals and admirals nevertheless feel that the warlike Japanese faction may prefer to strike now—before Russian-American rapprochement strengthens and before Russia is better prepared.

Probably nothing will happen. The future rests on the increasing or declining strength of the Japanese war party. In Washington and Moscow everyone hopes for the planned effect of assurance that Russia will have our moral support in case she is attacked.

* * *

No Setup for Japan

Dreading war in a critical economic period, but with backs stiffened in their Japanese relations, Russians grimly deny in private that they would be a mere setup for Nippon.

They have pleasant visions of a Red air force bombardment of Tokio—of Red aviators racing gloriously to likely death while showering an inflammable capital city with thermite. Tokio is just a few hundred miles from Soviet territory.

Also, Siberia's vast plains are a huge buffer for European Russia. Falling back to a secondary defense line, Russia believes she could carry on war while building up behind.

Confidential reports here also say that Russia has some 250,000 fighting men available east of Chita and that anti-Japanese uprisings in Manchukuo also might be anticipated.

* * *

Some Balm of Religion

Roosevelt took every possible precaution to assure favorable American reception of the recognition deal.

By design, discussions of the religious issue were the one thing permitted to leak from the White House during negotiations. Roosevelt feared backfire from the churches and sought to reassure them.

Their representatives had been to see him. Russia's religious guarantees were in line with guarantees of the Russian constitution and present practice.

American churches still will be unable to own property, proselytize, or engage in secular affairs.

Steel Is Great Need

Structural steel will be one of the primary Russian requirements from this country.

You haven't heard much about that, because Russia has been inclined to brag of her rich ore deposits. The truth is that most Russian ore is too magnetic for large construction purposes, too difficult and expensive to process. Thus her industrial program has been handicapped.

Officials here, worried about our capital goods market, have for some time pleasantly anticipated this boost in steel exports.

SEMINOLES GAZE LONGINGLY TOWARD HILLS OF MEXICO AS HUNTING GROUND

BY HUGH A. WAGNON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WEWOKA, Okla., Nov. 27. (AP)—Once more the eyes of the Seminoles, whose erstwhile hunting grounds are dotted with the white man's oil derricks, are gazing longingly toward the timbered hills of old Mexico.

A "lost reservation" in the state of Coahuila, granted to their forefathers, so they say, by President Alestus about 1850, long has been a land of promise for the restless tribesmen, stirred by dreams of a return to the tepees of their ancestors and a life of ease and hunting.

More than 300 Indians met secretly at New Lima this week for a pow-wow with George Jones, Seminole chief, to discuss emigration to a land where game and fish abound and where the tribal council might regain its pristine glory. Only two years ago, by an act of congress, the Seminoles revived their government, dormant a quarter of a century.

There are remaining fewer than 3,000 descendants of the hardy band of Seminoles which trudged the "trail of tears" from Florida to eastern Oklahoma, then Indian territory, in 1836.

They have seen their lands gradually taken by the white man, by due process of law, and their efforts to reclaim oil leases, valued at a total of more than $100,000,000 fail.

Mostly Plowmen Now

There is no hunting now and the braves are mostly plowmen.

But around the tribal campfires, the tug of the wild, the urge for a freedom altogether different from that designed by the white man, still is strong. In 1921, a delegation, the second of its kind, went to Mexico to survey the "lost reservation." Armed with a copper medal which they said validated the treaty between Mexico and the Seminole nation, they described the country as wild and beautiful, with rolling hills, abounding with deer and other game, crystal-clear streams, and friendly Kickapoos living nearby.

At that time, the blight of war hung over Mexico and the project did not succeed.

R. W. BARRY

AUSTIN, Nov. 27 (AP)—A well-known Texas lawyer has found a way for the Lone Star state to get away from its hard liquor problem without waiting until 1934 to submit a constitutional amendment.

He points out that there is nothing in the prohibition section of the state constitution to prohibit a citizen of Texas from ordering liquor by mail from Louisiana or another bordering wet state. The Dean law does make possession an offense.

Could Amend Law

Should the legislature reassemble in special session, as it undoubtedly will early next spring, it could amend the Dean law to eliminate as offenses transportation, importation, delivery, receiving, giving away, and possession of intoxicating liquors.

This action would not do violence, he said, to the state constitution which prohibits the manufacture, sale, bartering, and exchanging of intoxicating liquor.

He said, under that alteration of the law, Texans could purchase liquors in states where the sale is legal and transport them into this state for their own consumption, or for any other purpose except for sale, barter or exchange.

"It would be lawful, under such circumstances, for a citizen to order his liquor by mail or other means of communication and have the same shipped to him by means of any transportation agency, provided, of course, the sale be effected at a point outside the state," this lawyer said.

Held Practical Solution

"Those who hold a conservative view on the liquor question believe this course offers a practical solution of the vexatious problem. It would not necessitate an amendment to the state constitution and would immediately eliminate the bootlegger and the speakeasy, they believe. Past experience leads many to the conclusion that with a number of wet states bordering Texas, together with wet Mexico and rum-runners on the gulf, the procurement of a plentiful supply of liquor will be comparatively easier than it has been in the past."

This lawyer said many with whom he had discussed the question believed this plan offered a permanent solution of the liquor problem for this state.

In the recent election, she was chosen again for the part which she played in 1930.

Tells How Cardui Stopped Cramping

"Several years ago, when I was younger, I was advised to take Cardui for cramping and irregular trouble," writes Mrs. Esther L. Dodson, of Lowry City, Mo. "It helped me and stopped the cramping. I feel that my good health is due to Cardui, and I can certainly recommend it to other women."

When womanly aches and pains and cramps are due to a weak, run-down condition, take Cardui.

Studying Life . . .

PROPER TRAINING is the birthright of every American youth. Without the proper education and development of those faculties which will be necessary to him in later life, he will be seriously handicapped.

Realizing this, the newspaper industry is seeking to give the boys who are associated with it every opportunity for advancement. Through close co-operation with school authorities and by giving their boys special training in the fundamentals of business, they are developing a generation of boys who are above the average in intelligence, self-reliance, dependability and health.

Your carrier boy is one of 588,000 boys who are engaged in the sale and distribution of newspapers—a task that requires less than an hour and a half a day. He is a young merchant, supplementing his school work with a course in practical business training. He is learning the lesson of service, courtesy, punctuality and thrift. Encourage him in his task and respect the ambition and initiative which he has displayed in choosing it.

Your carrier boy buys his papers at wholesale and retails them to you. Failure to pay him promptly every week may mean a loss to him.

DR. KNAPP RETURNS FROM A MEETING OF COTTON PARITY PRICE COMMITTEE

Dr. Bradford Knapp, president of Texas Technological college, returned Saturday night from Washington, D. C., where he attended a meeting of the National Cotton Parity Price committee, of which he is a member.

At a preliminary meeting in Washington, Doctor Knapp was made chairman of a committee to frame the final presentation of proposed additions to the 1934-35 cotton reduction program to Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace.

The association had as its object the procuring of a parity price for cotton under terms of the Agricultural Adjustment act as soon as possible. About 40 representatives Monday, Nov. 20, interviewed Secretary Wallace; George Peek, director of the Agricultural Adjustment act, and C. A. Cobb, director of the cotton division of the act.

As proposed by the association, its program would embrace support of the government's program, with these added features:

First, loans on all cotton grown by and in the hands of the producers amounting to 10 cents a pound. This feature already had been granted by the administration and now is in operation.

Second, to advance 4 cents a pound on all ploy-up options. There are 2,400,000 bales of cotton owned by the government on which farmers were permitted to take option as a part of the plow-up campaign in 1933. These options are owned now by approximately 660,000 farmers.

The committee which went to Washington urged that the government advance this 4 cents to prevent this cotton from being dumped on the market while farmers were engaged in the marketing of the crop of 1933, Doctor Knapp said. This part of the program also has been adopted by the government and option contracts soon will be mailed to farmers, Doctor Knapp said.

DAILY MARKETS

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 27 (AP)—Cotton opened barely steady, 5 to 8 points lower on the decline in foreign exchange, disappointing cables and the unchanged government gold price. Dec. 9.82; Jan. 9.87; March 10.02; May 10.16; July 10.28; Oct. 10.49.

Liquidation became more active after the call following further declines in foreign exchange rates, while except for a moderate trade demand, the market appeared to be without much support. Some stop orders were uncovered on the break which carried December off to 9.75 and May to 10.07, or about 14 to 17 points net lower. Houses with Liverpool and continental connections were sellers at the opening, but the rapid fluctuations in both sterling and francs appeared to interfere with arbitrage operations.

Trading continued quite active during the first hour with the decline extending to 9.72 for December and 10.01 for May or 17 to 23 points below Saturday's close. At midday the market showed rallies of 6 to 9 points from the lowest on covering and trade buying with the tone quiet and steady.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27 (AP) — Cotton had an easier opening today. While Liverpool was about as due, sterling was weak. There was no change in gold. Trading which appeared to have shifted entirely to later months, was only moderate and first trades showed losses of 3 to 7 points.

The downward trend of sterling, rather indifferent stocks and lack of buying support caused prices to ease further after the start. March trading down to 9.93 and July to 10.23, or 11 points under Saturday's close.

At the end of the first half hour the market was soft and at the lows.

Cotton ruled quiet and easy all morning. Weakness of sterling and unsettlement in the foreign money and political situation prompted liquidation, mainly in the late months, near options being practically inactive. March traded as low as 9.83 and July at 10.12, down 21 to 22 points from Saturday's close.

At noon the market was quiet, but had recovered one to two points from the lows on a little short covering.

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Nov. 27 (AP)—Grain prices underwent decided new setbacks early today. In the main, selling was associated with absence of an official statement regarding the Washington administration's future financial policy. Opening unchanged to 1 1-8 lower, wheat afterward declined all around. Corn started 1-4 to 3-8 off, and subsequently receded further.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORTS

NEW YORK, Nov. 27. (AP)—The flowers of inflation seemed to have lost some more of their speculative bloom today and stocks and staples slipped to lower levels in rather dull trading.

Currency stabilization hopes were given further encouragement by the fact that the R. F. C., again failed to boost the domestic gold rate. The British pound slumped some 12 cents and the French franc was down about .14 of a cent. Grains, cotton, rubber and silver futures sagged. There were some resistant equity spots, notably the alcohols, but the metals were heavy along with a number of industrial specialties. U. S. government securities again moved up substantially.

Shares up fractionally included National Distillers, Schenley, American Commercial Alcohol and U. S. Industrial Alcohol. Homestake Mining dropped 7, U. S. Smelting 5, while losers of a point or more included McIntyre, Dome and Cerro De Pasco. Case and Western Union yielded 4 points and International Harvester and Allied Chemical lost more than 2. American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Consolidated Gas, Sears Roebuck, Johns-Manville, General Motors, Chrysler and Westinghouse showed recessions of fractions to 2 or more.

Permit Issued For Highway Warehouse

Lubbock's aggregate building expenditure, as measured in building permits, was increased $10,880 this morning. The city building inspector's office issued to James T. Taylor, a contractor, authorization for construction of a divisional warehouse for the state highway department at 103 East Broadway.

Work on the warehouse began several weeks ago. The structure will be of steel and asbestos-board. It will be of first and second class A classification.

George Duvall, as contractor, was authorized this morning to repair and alter at a cost of $600 a fire-damaged residence owned by R. J. Smith at 2109 Twenty-fifth street.

The two permits brought anticipated aggregate expenditures in construction here to $152,992, representing 106 permits.

part in any campaigns in the future.

Support Continued

"I told Senator Noe that I had not decided who I would support in the senatorial campaign, but that I would continue to support Pike Hall for congress and expected to make a small contribution to his campaign.

"Senator Noe said he hated to see me take that position and that the administration would file charges against me for over-production of gas and oil and I would be tried and sent to the state penitentiary.

"Senator Noe also told me that I was charged with 480 violations and that I was under many indictments in Morehouse parish, although I had never been arrested on any of the indictments."

Cub Leaders Class Scheduled Tonight

A second meeting of a Cub leaders training class will be conducted tonight, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, in the First Presbyterian church.

D. T. Jennings, area Boy Scout executive, said several additional parents of boys of Cub age, 9-11 years inclusive, still could be enrolled.

As Thursday will be Thanksgiving day, a weekly meeting of a first aid training class will not be conducted that night.

Executive Jennings corrected a report that men attending a troop camping training course, Friday and Saturday at the South Plains Area council camp near Post, would have to supply tents. The council will provide tents, he said.

FDR's Stocking To Hang By Fireplace

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. (AP)—Santa Claus this year will find Franklin D. Roosevelt's stocking hanging right in front of the presidential fireplace.

"Santa always has filled Franklin's stockings!" Mrs. Roosevelt told her press conference today, "and the rest of the family always hang their stocks in Franklin's room, about the fireplace."

In fact, as Mrs. Roosevelt described the traditional family Christmas celebration, the whole White House party will center about the president.

He reads Dickens' Christmas Carol to the family group on Christmas Eve, starting at tea time, and finishing before dinner. He directs the trimming of the tree, after the little children are in bed.

Pythians To Hold Roll Call Tuesday

Lubbock lodge, No. 486, of Knights of Pythias will have an annual roll call Tuesday night, beginning at 7 o'clock, in Pythian Castle hall, 1318 1-2 Texas avenue. A Mexican supper will be served.

Contributions for the order's orphans home at Weatherford, Tex., will be made, and nominations of officers for 1934 will be made, G. Y. Burns, keeper of records and seal, announced.

CONFESSED KIDNAP-SLAYERS OF HART TAKEN FROM JAIL, LYNCHED BY MOB

Prisoners Beaten

In the cell which had imprisoned David A. Lamson, now under sentence to hang for the murder of his attractive wife Allene at Stanford university last May, the mob laid hands upon the whimpering Thurmond, dragging him to the street and raining blows upon him.

Holmes struggled as he was dragged from the cell that once had held Douglas Tempsomething, now serving a life sentence for the murder of his aunt. Likewise he was dragged out and beaten.

Cheers, jeers and catcalls from thousands of watchers became the death march of Thurmond and Holmes. Down the alley between the courthouse and the partially constructed postoffice and across the street in the palm fringed park they were dragged. Officers, who had given up the fight, were closed out of the picture as the approving thousands lined the bordering streets.

The mob selected the limb of a tall tree, looped a rope about the unconscious Thurmond's neck and hoisted him aloft while the crowd whooped its approval. The clothing was torn from the lower part of the body and he hung there half clad.

Stripped of Clothing

The business of choosing a limb for Holmes required about ten minutes. A tree some 200 yards from where Thurmond was dangling was finally selected. He was stripped of all clothing and jerked upward.

Street lights and flashlights shedding intermittent gleams through the leaves, gave the scene a peculiar ghastliness. The crowd, augmented by thousands who had emerged from the theaters just in time to witness the gruesome climax, quieted. Photographers whose equipment had been seized in the earlier stages of the spectacle were not molested.

The body of Thurmond was cut down finally and the crowd swarmed into the park to break souvenir twigs from the hanging limb. The assembled thousands were beginning to drift away when the body of Holmes was taken down.

Hours after the lynching the tear gas still hung about the jail like a sinister veil. The floors of the building were filled with wreckage. Two steel barred doors that had been smashed were barely hanging on their hinges and the heavy pipes that had served as battering rams lay in a corridor.

No Arrests Made

Not an arrest was made. The only shots that were fired, with the exception of the charges from tear gas guns and bombs, were the two that started the attack on the jail.

Sheriff Emig, after recovering consciousness, stood by, helpless, until the crowd had wreaked its vengeance. Then he went to a hospital for treatment. Howard Buffington, a deputy who was struck from behind while pleading with the mob, and State Highway Patrolman Nick Gladner, also received emergency treatment. Several persons were struck by flying missiles or burned by tear gas bursts.

Earlier in the evening in Sacramento, when Governor James Rolph, jr., was asked if he would call out national guardsmen to reinforce the officers, the chief executive said:

"What, call out the troops to protect those two guys? That's the sheriff's job."

Informed later that Thurmond and Holmes had been lynched, Rolph said:

"California's Lesson"

"This is the best lesson that California has ever given the country. We showed the country that the state is not going to tolerate kidnaping."

The lynching was the first in California in 13 years. The last time a mob took the law into its own hands was December 10, 1920, when George Boyd, Terance Fitts and Charles Valento, San Francisco gangsters accused of killing three police officers, were hanged from a tree after being dragged from the Sonoma county jail at Santa Rosa.

Doublecheck

Checks sent to Orville J. Eisele in the past meant days of toil in his fields. So it was a novel experience when he was paid for not working. Eisele, Onawa, Ia., farmer, is shown left, receiving from Frank Reynolds, farm bureau agent, the first wheat allotment check mailed from Washington, paying him for cutting down his wheat acreage.

GASOLINE STOLEN

SLATON, Nov. 27.—(Special)—Locks were twisted from two Cities Service company gasoline storage tanks and an undetermined quantity of gasoline taken late Saturday or early Sunday here, R. L. Wicker, chief of police, said representatives of the company, said they would have an estimate of the loss today. The gasoline was believed to have been taken away by truck.

It has been estimated that there are 7,000,000 bicycle riders in Great Britain.

Brevities

Checks Received—Six cotton plow-up checks were received this morning by O. G. Tumlinson, county agent. Five checks in one lot were for $4.904 and one check was for $275. About 80 checks are yet to be received by farmers who entered the plowup campaign, Mr. Tumlinson added.

• • •

Offering Taken — A special offering for missions, taken at First Christian church Sunday, amounted to $169.70. There were 379 at Sunday school, the pastor, Rev. Walter P. Jennings, reported.

• • •

Theft Reported—Four automobile casings, tubes, and rims owned by J. L. Isom, and as many owned by R. G. Boozer of Lubbock, were stolen over the week-end, the sheriff's department was informed.

• • •

Car Thefts Prevented—A night police patrol car probably prevented theft of two automobiles Saturday night. Finding two automobiles had been pushed into the street in front of 2347 Nineteenth street, the policemen aroused H. T. Floyd, who said the cars were in his garage when he retired.

Floyd said wiring of the automobiles so they could be started was near completion when the cars were left, evidently as a result of arrival of the patrol car.

A 1931 Ford coach owned by "Shorty" Bell, 1900-block Fifth street, and stolen about 2 a. m. Sunday, was found a few moments later a block or more away. It had been pushed, police said.

• • •

Two Cars Collide—A Chevrolet coach driven southward on Avenue G by Fred Bradley of Miles, Tex., and a Chrysler coach piloted westward on Broadway by C. Morris of Woodrow collided at Broadway and Avenue G about 10:30 p. m. Sunday, police reported.

• • •

Safety Week Set — Although it was announced Sunday that Safety Week in the city schools would open today, the observance does not start until next Monday, December 4, it was announced today.

Lorenzo Woman Is Claimed By Death

Mrs. Anna Lay Earley, 67, a resident of Lorenzo the last 22 years, died at 5:30 a. m. Sunday at 1411 Avenue N, where she had lived since remaining in Lubbock for medical attention. She had been ill about seven months.

Funeral services were to be conducted at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the First Baptist church at Lorenzo. Burial was to be there. Sanders Funeral home announced. Rev. W. K. Johnson, a Lubbock Presbyterian minister, was to officiate. Mrs. Earley was a member of the Lorenzo Presbyterian church.

Immediate survivors were the widower, E. E. Earley, of Lorenzo; a son, A. M. Lay of McAdoo, and two daughters, Miss Lalla Lay of McAdoo, and Mrs. C. E. Westerman of Lorenzo.

Japanese and Chinese make more colonists in the tropics than do white men; the saying is that the white man expects to go home before he dies, while the Chinaman doesn't expect to go home until he dies.

FDR TURNS TO RECOVERY

PRESIDENT TO CONFER WITH JOHNSON AND SECRETARY ICKES

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 27 (AP)—President Roosevelt turned to a coordinated domestic recovery program today in further conferences with General Hugh S. Johnson, industrial administrator, and Secretary Ickes, public works administrator.

Henry Morgenthau, his acting secretary of the treasury, took over the commodity dollar monetary program in Washington with fresh instructions from the president. This program is going ahead and early moves by Morgenthau to project it farther along its course for early fulfillment were believed in prospect.

While Mr. Roosevelt has insisted upon a vacation during his stay here and also a rest for his important official callers, nevertheless there are signs that things are moving along in the meetings here.

Enforcement of the National Recovery act and further development of the public works program to make jobs are the points occupying presidential attention.

A recommendation will be made by Mr. Roosevelt for more funds for public works at the next session of congress. How much more to the original chest of $3,300,000,000 is one of the subjects up here today.

Also, General Johnson had some 22 codes for presidential approval. He gave assurance last night that "unavoidable violations" of the hotel code going into effect today would be pardoned for a ten day period.

Tech Graduate Is New County Agent

James Jackson of Gray county, graduate of the division of agriculture at Texas Tech in 1930, has been appointed county agent of Hall county effective December 1, according to an announcement here from John R. Edmonds, district agent leader for the North Plains district.

Jackson was a member of the senior class livestock judging team in 1929-30. He majored in animal husbandry while attending Tech. His first year in school was at Texas A. and M. but he transferred to the local school in 1927 and completed his training here.

During 1928-29 he was the holder of the Clifford B. Jones scholarship for the highest ranking agricultural student. Jackson was active in the Texas Ag club and was an officer.

Since graduation he has been working on a large wheat farm near Panhandle. He is the son of Mrs. Minnie Jackson and comes from a pioneer Gray county family.

LINDBERGHS ARRIVE

DAKAR, Senegal, Nov. 27 (AP)—Col. and Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh arrived at Porto Praia, Cape Verde islands, at 3 p. m. G. M. T. (10 a. m. E. S. T.), today on their flight from Villa Cisneros, on the northwest coast of Africa. The distance was about 800 miles.

BECTON GIVEN AFFILIATION

BLEDSOE SCHOOL HAS FIRST CLASS HIGH SCHOOL RATING

Although its expense to the taxpayers is less than when it was a common school, Bledsoe school at Becton is classified by the state department of education as a first class four-year high school with 15 affiliated credits.

The credit affiliation, Charles R. Lail, Bledsoe superintendent, explains, permits students who are graduated from the school to enter college without having to take an entrance examination.

Indebtedness No Higher

Bonded indebtedness of the district was not increased, even after subsequent radical reduction of land valuations in the district, the superintendent says.

Until 1930 the Bledsoe school in Lubbock county was a common school with a teaching corps of six teachers and offering only three years of high school work.

In 1930 the school board of trustees voted unanimously to add two teachers, offer four years of high school work, and apply for classification and affiliation that year. his was done.

The trustees; the head of the school, Mr. Lail, who was the newly elected superintendent for the 1930-31 year; the teaching faculty which consisted of eight teachers, including the superintendent; the student body, and the patrons cooperated with Miss Mae Murfee county superintendent of schools, to achieve the goal.

Affiliation Given

Bledsoe school was classified by the state department of education as a first class four-year high school with 9 1-2 credits of affiliations the same year.

The following term, 1931-32, four and one-half additional credits were received, and last term, 1932-33, third year English was added, increasing to 15 the number of credits.

Within the year of that accomplishment, land valuations of the school district were reduced approximately 50 per cent, Superintendent Lail says.

An old teacherage was equipped as a laboratory, the school building was renovated, a superintendent's home was built, and other repairs and additions were made, the total cost approximating $1,300. The same year the school received $1,540 state aid.

Valuations Raised

Although valuations were raised the following year, they still were approximately one-third less than they were for the common school. That year $1,850 state aid was received.

This year the district is on state and county valuations.

The teaching faculty, in addition to Superintendent Lail, is:

J. Russell Smith, principal; Mrs. D. C. Arthur, high school; Ruth Cloud, high school; Oma Rider, grades 6-7; Florice Smith, grades 5-6; Mrs. Lail, grades 3-4; Mrs. Connie Gilmore, grades 1-2.

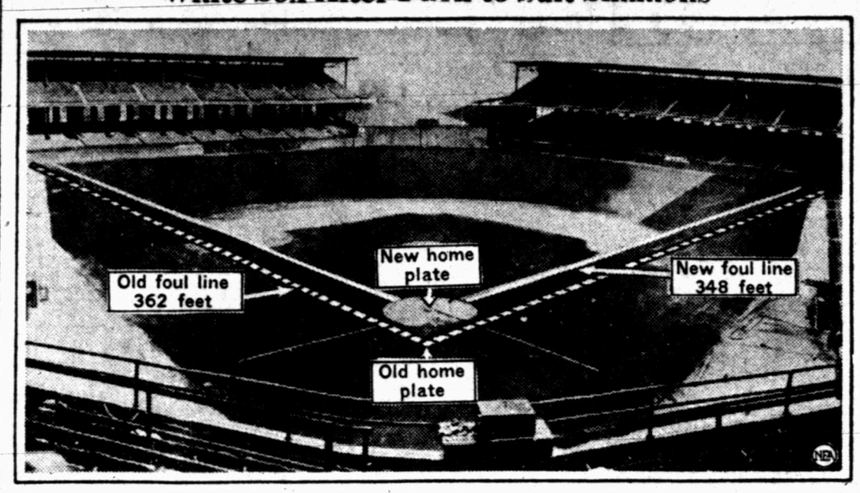

Two buses were added this year for transportation of students. G. L. Jones has charge of the buses.

Won Cage Title

Directed by Coach Smith, the Bledsoe boys basketball team won second place among class B Lubbock county quintets in the 1930-31 season; the girls basketball team second place among class B Lubbock county sextets in the 1932-33 season.

Last year Bledsoe placed in each event entered in the interscholastic league meet. It was first in the one-act play, picture memory, sub-junior and junior spelling, and other events.

White Sox Alter Park to Suit Simmons

Chicago White Sox officials believe that altering the park will make Al Simmons, slugging outfielder, look better. They've changed the $2,000,000 baseball plant to suit the $100,000 ball player, moving home plate 14 feet closer to center field, and reconstructing the in field, as shown above.

OUT FOR SENATE

CORSICANA, Nov. 27 (AP)—A. N. Justiss, member of house in the 41st and 42d legislatures and former Corsicana postmaster, has announced his candidacy for state senator from this district in the 1934 Democratic primaries. The district is composed of Anderson, Freestone, Henderson, Kaufman and Navarro counties.

Shipments Of Live Stock On Increase

AUSTIN, Nov. 27 (AP)—The University of Texas bureau of business research revealed today that shipments of livestock to Fort Worth and interstate markets during October totaled 4,755 cars, compared with 4,226 cars during the same month last year.

The increase amounted to nearly 13 per cent.

The bureau reported total shipments to Fort Worth and interstate points for the year through October, aggregated 45,096 cars, against 40,859 cars during the corresponding period last year, an increase of 11 per cent.

The bureau stated that the Edwards plateau district furnished the big increases in shipments. Shipments from the northern half of the Panhandle fell off sharply from those of October 1932, according to the bureau.

Sweden, Denmark, Iceland, Finland, and Norway comprise the five Scandinavian nations.

CLARENCE SAUNDERS IS BROKE AGAIN BUT SAYS HE STILL IS NOT LICKED

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 27. (AP)—Clarence Saunders is broke again but he says he's still not licked.

Twice before he ran a "shoe string" into a nation-wide chain of self-service grocery stores but today his main street store here, which little more than a year ago he predicted would make his third fortune, was closed.

Tells Of Failure

He told the public about it in the same personal way he chronicled his success and subsequent failure with the "Piggly Wiggly" and "Clarence Saunders, Sole Owner of My Name" chains.

"I subscribed to the NRA program in full faith as instructed by our president," he said in a newspaper advertisement.

"Losses on account of increased wages, plus a lower gross income from sales, so weakened our reserves that it has been a jump from one point of danger to another ever since.

"I am not blaming NRA or anybody. I am simply stating facts."

The first of Saunders' grocery store chains was Piggly Wiggly which, between 1916 and 1923, he developed into a $7,000,000 corporation operating 700 stores in 250 cities. A widely-heralded battle with Wall Street resulted in bankruptcy and the loss of his stock, a $5,000,000 fortune and a million dollar home.

Offer Refused

Soon he announced he had borrowed $12,000 to start the Clarence Saunders chain. In 1928 he said he was offered $3,000,000 for his holdings, providing he would get out of the grocery business. Refusing to do that, he was in bankruptcy again a year later.

"I simply ran out of ammunition —meaning reserve capital—in fighting the depression," Saunders said today.

"There is one thing that did not get killed, and that is my will and determination to do other things, even if I can't continue longer in the retail grocery business on my own account."

Arnold To Run For Attorney General

HOUSTON, Nov. 27 (AP)—Virgil E. Arnold, member of the Texas house of representatives in 1923 and 1924, announced at Houston that he would be a "bone dry" candidate for attorney general of Texas next year. He lives in Houston. Beside his stand on the liquor question, Arnold described himself as an opponent of the "Ferguson regime." Two years ago he was a candidate for lieutenant governor and last year he ran for congress, but without success in either race.
