Washington Stall Puts Local Farmer In Bind

Failure of Congress to finalize a farm bill is pinching Mitchell County from crop producer to merchant.

Without a farm bill, agriculture producers don't know how to plan and prepare for 1971.

When they don't know what to plan for, then they don't buy and spend.

When they don't spend, Colorado City feels it. Right in the pocketbook.

That's the situation now, Congress has recessed without a farm bill until Nov. 16 after General Election.

Then, in mid-November when Congress returns to work to the capitol, farm legislation must be squeezed into the uncertain machinery of a lame-duck Congress that follows the election.

Every aspect of agriculture and business is hurt by Congressional inaction. From the farm to the bank, from the retail merchant to the implement and automobile dealers.

Farmers Home Administration, Production Credit Association and commercial bank loans are stalled. Government agriculture offices are marking time with no information to supply producers.

Generally speaking, loans can't be made until we know what kind of program will be set up," spoke one person on the lending credit front.

This means that farmer planting and action for seed and fertilizer and equipment is at a standstill in most cases.

Severest hurt right now is the wheat farmer. His planting date is already behind. He has had to plant without knowing what kind of a wheat program will be in effect when his crop is harvested.

He doesn't know whether he will be under-planted and short of maximum income, or over-planted and facing the extra cost of putting back to meet the program-to-be.

"Wheat is not a big business here in Mitchell," said one producer, "but we still produced more than 17,000 bushels last year.

Those several thousand dollars spend just like any other money and this delay on a farm bill hurts," said one.

"I start planning my next year's operation in August and September," a cotton farmer told the Record.

"That's when you start deciding about renting more land.

"And by this time I like to already have made plans on next year's equipment--what I'll need, whether I need to trade

"But now I won't even know what to do by mid-November."

Leasing and buying of acreage allotments is big business for cotton farming. It has been and will continue to be at a standstill until a farm bill is enacted.

"I checked a man who has three farms for rent," spoke another. "I finally had to tell him I just didn't know what to do. I couldn't tell him if I wanted the farms or not because I won't know until I know what the farm program is going to be.

Some landowners also are not even talking about prospects of renting their land, either, until they see the farm program. They want to know the prospects and there might be retirement clauses in the new bill that a landowner may want to consider.

If there is not a healthy cotton program in the new farm bill, a lot of cotton farmers will be planting more grain sorghum.

Change to more grain-type farming may also cause a change in equipment needs--different tractor, grain drill, ect. But, still the farmer doesn't know what to do.

"It has just shut our business down," spoke a farmer.

When that farmer described his business as shut down, he was talking about a business that produces $5,500,000 Mitchell County dollars even in a short crop year like 1969.

Mitchell County produced 20,900 bales of cotton last year with poor crop conditions. That short crop alone accounted for about $2,600,000 gross-net dollars at the farm.

So, when a business like that shuts down it is felt.

Implement dealers especially are feeling effects of the Congressional inaction. So are car dealers who usually have farmers looking at this time for good deals on pickup trucks.

"A farmer may know he should trade a cotton stripper or a pickup," said a town citizen, "but if he is not going to have a cotton farm program or if he doesn't know what the program will be, he is not going to be in a hurry to trade now."

There is more hurting, too.

Cotton prices are not likely to climb in the face of uncertainty. Mills are more likely to buy short term stocks, waiting until the future is known before stocking heavier.

As one person, who has both town and farm interests, put it:

"This affects every person in this county...every person."

Spotlight

Mrs. Ella Mae Davis, center top photo, traveled 1,500 miles to be with her sisters, Mrs. Clay Mann Smith, left, and Mrs. Fran Thompson and also win plaque Saturday for traveling longest distance to Colorado City's Old-Timers Reunion. In bottom photo, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones, married 56 years, received award as the old-timers married longest.

Busy Reunion

Old-Timers Gather

Chilly weather and damp skies didn't keep Colorado City's Old-Timers at home Saturday.

They came from as far as North Hollywood, Calif., to renew friendships and hurry from event to event.

From North Hollywood was Mrs. Ella Mae Davis, sister of Mrs. Clay Mann Smith and Mrs. Fran Thompson, and the trip was enough to earn for her the plaque for traveling most miles to attend the annual reunion.

Will Berry, who has a museum all his own of West Texas lore and history, was the oldest old-timer present with his 88 years.

Honored as the couple married the longest time were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Jones, who now live in town instead of at Spade Ranch. Their wedding was 56 years ago.

Youngest "old-timer" in attendance was little Janine Galey, 8 months old daughter of Colorado City's Mr. and Mrs. Danny Galey.

Lions Sell Lightbulbs Monday

Noon Lions Club members will be busy Monday in their annual Lightbulb sale to assist their charity and civic projects.

Residential sales will begin at 5 p.m. and will be conducted house - to - house, said Lions President Charles Godwin, and continue until completion.

However, sales to business will be all day under the chairmanship of Rev. Glenn Roenfeldt.

Two teams will be competing against each other in the residential sales with Jimmy Harrison and Bill Carter as their captains. Losing team will be the "pearl divers" washing dishes during the annual Lions chili supper.

Burglary Fails At Safeway

A burglary attempt Wednesday failed at Safeway Store here.

The attempted break-in came less than 24-hours after a successful burglary at Corner Drug, located across an alley from the super market.

Police believe they may have frightened the burglar or burglars away from Safeway. A routine patrol check discovered the attempt at 11:23 p.m.

Patrolman Pete Upshaw and Dan Pfeuffer and Assistant Chief Jim Latham immediately checked the building but found no evidence of entry.

A lock was broken on the store's south rear door. But the burglar left before breaking through the door.

In the pre-dawn hours Wednesday burglars took $150 cash and about $25 worth of medicine and costume jewelry from Corner Drug.

Jaycee Area Forum Here

Jaycees from 15 West Texas cities will be here Monday for an Area I-C forum.

Heading the out-of-town participants will be Malcolm Tallmon, Texas Jaycee president from state headquarters in Grand Prairie.

The forum will be hosted by Colorado City Jaycees and begin at 8 p.m., according to Larry Ivy, local president.

Site for the meeting will be

Col-Tex Recreation Club at Lake Colorado City.

The forum will be a workshop for both new and veteran Jaycee members.

"We invite any young man (age 21 to 35) who is interested in becoming a Jaycee to attend," said Ivy.

Following the workshop, local Jaycees will serve sandwiches and refreshments.

Malcolm Tallmon, state president.

6th Arrested On Narcotic Charge

Colorado City's sixth felony narcotic charge in recent weeks has been filed in Justice of Peace Leonard Henderson's Court.

Don Craig, former resident of Colorado City now living in Odessa, is named in the complaint filed by District Attorney Weldon Kirk.

The complaint's accusation is possession of a narcotic drug, marijuana.

A frequent visitor here in his former hometown, Craig was arrested at 11:30 a.m. Friday on State Highway 208 near East 10th Street at the City's eastern limits while driving an old model white panel truck.

Police had been on the lookout for a motor vehicle of similar description following a report that a truck had made a hurried departure from a local service station at night last weekend.

Police were alerted Friday after a report to Sheriff Lewis Claxton.

Police Chief Jesse Browning, stopped Craig, who was driving alone on State 208. The Chief was joined at the scene by Sheriff Claxton and City Patrolman Andy Rivera.

Soon after Craig's arrest, police sent small amounts of suspected marijuana and hashish to State Department of Public Safety Laboratory for analysis.

Bond for Craig was set at $10,000--same amount originally set in felony cases filed Oct. 7 against two other Colorado City youths involving narcotics.

The earlier cases--filed against the pair at both county and district court levels--came after undercover police had operated in Colorado City area at the request of local law enforcement officials.

The latest cases bring to six the number of Colorado City youths charged in felony narcotic cases during the last six weeks. In addition, four other youths--all minors under 17 years of age--are facing delinquency hearings if juvenile court after arrested for having marijuana.

Eleven defendants have pleaded guilty of offenses ranging from simple assault to driving while intoxicated.

Nine others are named in complaints that have yet to come to trial.

Defendants named in charges filed by County Attorney Frank Ginzel and facing future trials are:

Macca Findley, accused of committing aggravated assault with a blunt instrument upon Lonny Reynolds and carrying a night stick on and about his persons.

Charges List 20

County Court cases are on the increase with the fall months.

At least 20 persons are named in charges filed in the court in recent weeks.

Eleven defendants have pleaded guilty of offenses ranging from simple assault to driving while intoxicated.

Nine others are named in complaints that have yet to come to trial.

Defendants named in charges filed by County Attorney Frank Ginzel and facing future trials are:

Macca Findley, accused of committing aggravated assault with a blunt instrument upon Lonny Reynolds and carrying a night stick on and about his persons.

J. C. Barrett, Gerald Eugene McCarver and Eugene Cummins Wood--each charged with driving while intoxicated.

Dellar Hart, doing business as Western Cafe, accused of engaging in retail business after suspension of her limited sales excise tax and use permit.

Johnny Mae Gardner, charged with unlawful sale of beer.

Jesse Wells Griffin, possession of beer for purpose of sale.

Pleading guilty before County Judge Elmer Martin to driving while intoxicated were:

Michael Lane Milan, fined $50 and $37 court costs with 10 days jail term probated for six months.

Robert Jose Castro, fined $50 and $37 costs, 12 days jail term probated one year.

Felix Rodriguez Soliz, fined $50 and $37 costs.

Thomas Edward Lewis, fined $50 and $37 costs, 15 days jail sentence probated one year.

Henry Smith Jr., fined $50 and $37 costs, 35 days jail term probated one year.

James Reel Bobo, fined $50 and $37, 15 days jail term suspended one year.

Tommy Grady Daniel, fined $50 and $37, 15 days jail term probated one year.

Florencio Lopez Valadez, $75 and $37 costs, 15 days jail term probated one year.

$3,000 Drive Blackmen Leads Girl Scout Fund

Colorado City's 1970 Girl Scout fund drive will begin Tuesday with Esten Blackmon as chairman.

A meeting Thursday night formulated plans for campaign seeking to raise $3,000 for the local West Texas Girl Scout program. More volunteer workers to solicit funds are needed for the drive, campaign leader reported.

Blackmon, principal of Frank Kelley Elementary School, is a member of the board of directors of West Texas Girl Scout Council.

Colorado City's Girl Scout program has more than 150 girls participating now. At the helm of the adult leadership for the girls is Mrs. Corky Houston.

"The fact that more than 150 Colorado City girls are active in girl scouting is ample evidence that Girl Scouts are meeting a need within our local community," said Blackmon.

Blackmon emphasized that 87 cents of each dollar collected in the $3,000 fund campaign will be spent on Colorado City program services.

"Only 12 cents of each dollar collected is spent for management and general expenses of West Texas Girl Scout Council. The rest goes into providing services that keep the program going for our girls."

Girl Scout leaders say the West Texas council offers a wide variety of training events for local volunteers throughout the year.

"It takes year-round planning to offer girls a wide variety of activities in troops and camp," Blackmon pointed out.

In addition to training and program planning, the council provides leader consultation services, membership records and council-wide public information programs.

The 12 cents spent for management and general expenses pays for board and committee meetings, budget procedures, accounting and structure studies for best application of the program to fit the needs of the West Texas communities.

"There is a lot of talk about caring and getting involved," Blackmon said. "We are hopeful local citizens will put these words into action,

CONVERSATION CORNER

WHEN anybody lives to be 100 years old they have surely earned the right to be quoted, noted, and listened to by everybody everywhere.

In case you didn't know it, Mary McConnell Borah, widow of Idaho's Senator William E. Borah, celebrated her 100th birthday, Saturday, Oct. 17.

Liked her brief philosophy expressed when looking forward to the day.

"One thing I've learned after living 100 years is that every man is different but all husbands are alike," she said.

That has to be a consoling little bit to all plain vanilla wives of this land.

MOST people who live to be 100 or even almost 100 choose to make statements concerning how they managed to do it.

Any observer could tell you that every single-or married-one who ever had breath left for 100 candles on a cake can speak a different reason for the accomplishment.

One will say "I've worked hard all my life and honest work never killed anybody." Another will say "I was born lazy, lived up to that fact, and never worried about anything."

Some will tell the world they have never tasted spirits or tobacco. Others will credit small sips of this and that and the comfort of a puff, a dip, and onion sandwiches at bedtime.

SO? So to each his own-or her own, as the case may be--reason for having survived decade after decade in spite of all kinds of complications, ailments, and habits good or bad.

As the late Senator Borah's widow says, "All men are different but all husbands are alike."

What the lady meant, probably, is that even a senator wants his eggs done just right, buttons on his shirts, and the unchallenged right to do strictly as he pleases when he pleases, if he pleases.

A man is a man 'til he takes a wife. After that he's a husband the rest of his life.

And if he's halfway smart he'll try not to forget it, either.

WHEN the time comes, if ever it does that this writer-wife is faced with 100 candles on a cake she intends to be ready with advice to one and sundry.

No telling how many times she'll change her mind between now and then so preparing a formal statement for that occasion would be a fearful waste of time just now.

But because hope is the finest tonic known to the human race she dares hope there will be fitting jewels of wisdom for use by then.

One main hope is that she will not forget herself and tell the kith and kin... how much better things were "back when."

ALSO, she dares hope that none of the great-great-grandchildren have to miss the party because they're homesteading on the moon... or manning a station in space.

Hope none of the lads yet unborn will be away fighting any war... and that none of the little girls will be subject to the draft. Is it too much to hope they'll be commuting by helicopter to peaceful college campuses instead?

Well, whatever happens, do hope the world has not gone "unisex" by then... and that women are still women... and that men are still men.

PIONEER REUNION names will not show up until Thursday. As this is written, the celebration is one day in the future.

Did drop by the new Colorado City Museum one day to find it very impressive. Go by and see for yourself, if you haven't already.

Saw the Pritchett sisters, Cleo, Lottie, and Pauline Bruner admiring the artifacts and old town photographs. Bruce Campbell was acting as protocol host for his wife Mildred, curator, the few minutes I was there.

SEEN LATELYS other places were Charlie Godwin, Record drop-in... L. C. Morris... Joe Leonard... Shug (Mrs. Howard) Bynum... Emily and Tom Barry... Roy Davis Coles on the downtown scene... Bob Reilly sporting a flame red shirt.

County Commissioners Court, Judge Elmer Martin, Drue Cawthron, Moody Richardson, Jake Northcut, and Marcus Vest were sharing their noon lunch hour.

At another table sat Highway Patrolman Buddy Hertenberger and Rip Allen of the Snyder area Patrol.

Spied Ann and Bill Martin... Floy Johnson... Aline Arnold Boone... Dorothy (Mrs.

Curtis Smartlett... Mary Jo (Mrs. J. D.) Hill... Lily (Mrs. Earl) Brown... Sharon (Mrs. Morris) Hammond... Dink Rees PR man for Lufe Wolf Electric Cooperative, Inc.

HEAR TELL that Zollie (Rusty) Steakley, second son of the H. Jene Steakley family, has been named to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." Zollie is a pre-law junior student at Baylor University, Waco, where his brother Topper is a senior student, now.

Topper, his little wife Mayfair, and their daughter Michele, visited with her parents and with Bobbie and Jene last Sunday in Dallas. They plan their next reunion when the Baylor-Texas game comes up.

CLOUD NINE in boy baby blue arrived at 3 a.m. Thursday for the Frank Prewitt family.

Carol and Frank became parents of a son, named James Alan, and weighing seven pounds, nine ounces. He is third child, first son of the Prewitts who are also parents of two beautiful little daughters, Sheryl, aged seven, and Caron, who is four.

Incidentally, Miss Kirby Lee Barber, first child born recently to Dan Barber, young attorney, and his wife Regina, is a GIRL. So it's Cloud Nine in pink for the Barbers and his parents Mary and Dell Barber.

VIOLA ERWIN (Mrs. Curtis Erwin Sr.) was happy over a recent visit from her LTF (long time friend) Minnie Sparr and Minnie's sister Virginia Corner of Lubbock.

The sisters expect to leave Nov. 1 for a stay in South Africa at Giepietermaritz, 50 miles from Johannesburg, with Minnie's daughter and her husband, Minnie will be remembered here as a longtime employee at Landau's.

FAMILIAR FACES various places-Mabel (Mrs. Frank H.) Kelley just back from two months spent in Indianapolis, Ind., and on a beautiful vacation at Lake Louise with her late husband's sister and her husband who drove Mable home, then visited friends in Lubbock and Waco.

Lucille Trulock (Mrs. Oren) spent two weeks in Virginia recently with son C. A. Wilkins, Jr. Air Force Lt. Colonel on temporary assignment there. The Colonel is now back in Austin and took his son Walter to see the Dallas Cowboys play the Atlanta Falcons in that water-ski rain scene last Sunday. Lucille was planning to visit the family again in Austin this week.

Ed (Mrs. Hav H.) Simons of the LTNS (long time no see) department was saying Clifton Caffey, ex-Wolf and TCU star has been very ill.

Mauldin Speaks To Club

Highway Patrolman Jim Mauldin was guest speaker of Hesperian Daughters Study Club last Thursday in Villa Inn party room.

Mauldin presented written tests about road rules and followed by round-table discussion of test answers and explanations.

Mrs. R. F. Fee was hostess for the meeting in which Mrs. B. W. Tartt, club president, welcomed two new members, Mrs. R. E. Weber and Mrs. Margaret Aden.

Next meeting will be with other federated clubs in Hesperian Room of Mitchell County Public Library Oct. 27. Mrs. A. J. Smith Jr., Mesquite District president, will be guest speaker.

Members attending the afternoon session were Mrs. Curtis Erwin, Mrs. E. V. Grantland, Mrs. Willis Jones, Mrs. Waverly Massingale, Mrs. Tartt, Mrs. John M. Worrell, Mrs. J. E. White, Mrs. Weber, Mrs. Aden and Mrs. Fee.

First Clinic Display

Mrs. G. C. Lemons stands by her painting, the first to be displayed by local artists in Mental Health Clinic here. The Texas bluebonnet scene is painted in oil. Mrs. Lemons, a member of Brush and Palette Club, has painted for the past three years and studied art under direction of Mrs. Frank Wilson, a former resident now of Pampa. Clinic lobby will feature a painting by a different local artist each month.

B&PW Proclamation

Mrs. Margaret Oyler, left, and Mrs. J. A. Sadler Jr., members of Business and Professional Women's Club here took on as Mayor C. C. Burt signs a proclamation in observance of National Business Women's Week here beginning Sunday (today).

Business, Professional Women Celebrate Special Observance

Members of Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club this week will join business women throughout the nation in observance of National Business Women's Week.

Mayor C. C. (Mike) Burt Friday issued an official statement proclaiming the special week's observance in Colorado City.

In his proclamation Mayor Burt urged leaders of business and industry to join in observing National Business Women's Week here.

The mayor's proclamation states:

"Whereas National Business Women's Week will be celebrated throughout the nation beginning Oct. 18, and ending Oct. 24, 1970, and

"Whereas the theme of National Business Women's Week,

"Enrich, Renew, Act", is a vital principle in a great, free and Democratic country, and

"Whereas the organization of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Incorporated, is contributing much toward the advancement of business and industry,

"And whereas the Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club, as an affiliate of the National Federation, is likewise contributing much toward the improvement and progress of business, industry and civic needs in our community,

"Now therefore, I, Clarence C. Burt, Mayor of Colorado City, do hereby proclaim the week beginning Oct. 18, and ending Oct. 24, 1970, as Business Women's Week in Colorado City, and urge our leaders of business and industry to join in this observance.

Local club members have planned several social activities during the week's observance.

First on the calendar will be a breakfast in Civic House Sunday (today) at 8 a.m. An afternoon tea for B&PW members and guests will feature a book review of "Calico Palace", by Mrs. Margaret Ann Williams.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served to all downtown working women Monday from 9:30-11 a.m. in Reddy Room of Texas Electric Service Company.

A Mexican dinner at Big Spring's Spanish Inn will highlight Tuesday activities.

Mouthy social Thursday evening and a Halloween party Friday evening in home of Mrs. Lena Porter will climax the special week's observance.

nis Walding, Mrs. Porter Richardson, Mrs. Thompson.

Members present were Mrs. Lena Porter, Mrs. Chester Hart, Mrs. Sefton Pickens, Mrs. R. L. Mosley, Mrs. Betty Norris, Mrs. Lona Pritchett, and Mrs. Don DeLaney.

Also, Mrs. Ethel Hardegree,

Mrs. Maude Charters, Mrs. Inez Hook, Mrs. Margaret Ann Williams, Mrs. Kirschbaum, Mrs. Annie Dixon, Mrs. Oyler, Mrs. Bessie House, Mrs. Albert Spivey, Miss Garrett, Miss Ruth Hightower, Mrs. J. A. Sadler Jr., Mrs. Theima Tidwell, Mrs. Keith Miles, Mrs. Roxie Witten, Mrs. Luther Coffman and the hostess committee.

Complacency Is Dangerous, Speaker Tells Women

"Are we as adults too complacent?"

Mrs. C. C. Thompson challenged the Business and Professional Women's Club with the question Tuesday night in regular dinner and business meeting in Civic House as she presented a speech on "Mastering Maturity."

She stressed how we, as adults, could use our power as leaders in our home and communities and that complacency is the most dangerous area of maturity.

"We must shoulder responsibilities and be concerned about others and about our community and country—be dedicated to a cause.

"We should handle and accept disappointment and discouragements as best we can. Success is one of major frustrations of maturity."

"We should be happy with our talents, develop them and contribute and serve as our abilities can be used," Mrs. Thompson told the group.

Following the speech Mrs. Margaret Oyler presented a new member, Linda Perkins, with the club pin.

Club reports were heard from committee chairmen and finance chairman, Mrs. Morris Kirschbaum, presented the club budget for the year.

Mrs. Oyler revealed plans for National B&PW week beginning Sunday (today).

The meeting was hosted by members of the Personal Development Committee, Mrs. P. G. Carpenter, Mrs. Sallie Rogers, Mrs. Arnel Smith and Mrs. Mozelle Richardson.

Guests for the monthly meeting were Mrs. Kent Womack, Mrs. A. A. Free, Mrs. Den-

Council Reports

HD Activities Are Told

Mitchell County Home Demonstration Council held its Annual Council meeting on Thursday at the Lone Wolf Electric Medallion Room.

The morning session was a report of the State THDA meeting held in Galveston last month.

Attending the state session were Mrs. W. C. Harlow, Mrs. W. E. Harris, Mrs. Hubert Feaster, Mrs. Maggie Hamrick, Mrs. Pauline Smiley, Mrs. Bruce Byrne, Mrs. Henry McGuire, Mrs. Rufus Marshall, Mrs. R. E. McMillan, Mrs. Charles Williams, and Mrs. Emory Sweatt.

Their reports Wednesday were presented in the form of skits, one entitled "Galveston Gala"; the other a "style show."

A covered dish luncheon followed the morning business session. Baumann and Buford Clubs hosted the affair.

Afternoon session began with call to order by vice chairman Mrs. Raymond Wheeler. Recreation was brought by the agent, Mrs. Janet Moore, wholed in the action song "Hokey Pokey".

Annual reports from clubs indicated good attendance and varied programs. Club members were involved in civic projects, 4-H support, cancer, heart and Red Cross Drives.

Annual reports from standing committees followed club reports.

It was announced that an outstanding Home Demonstration Club Woman of the Year will be named at the Christmas luncheon. Each club will submit one nominee and her qualifications. The 3-E committee will serve as judges.

Annual educational tour will be Friday, Nov. 20. Interested persons are invited to go to Abilene for a tour of the West Texas Rehabilitation Center and the U. S. Weather Bureau Station.

Members present were Mrs. Don Forbes, Mrs. Tom Jackson, Mrs. T. A. Rees, Mrs. A. J. Hooks, Gertrude White, Mrs. Vanda Preston, Mrs. Lester Webb, Mrs. Lynn Compton, Mrs. J. D. Gibson, Mrs. R. E.
