THREE HELD IN FLOGGING CASE

Pevehouse, county school superintendent, said today as he sorted out numerous letters in his office received during the past two months from individuals all over the southwest asking for positions in Lubbock county schools so that they could send their children to the Tech and to the public schools here. It rose again, however, and made for the tall mooring mast on the outskirts. Shortly after 9 o'clock part of the gas in the bag was discharged and the mooring to the mast completed without a hitch.

This little city—with a bare 2,000 population—one of the two or three northernmost towns in the world, was gaily bedecked in flags and bunting in honor of the visiting airman.

FARM MEASURE NEARS END OF CONGRESS ROW

HOUSE APPROVES BILL IN STORMY SESSION; GOES TO SENATE
WASHINGTON, May 4.—The McNary-Haugen farm relief bill today entered the last lap of its legislative journey to the White House.

For the second consecutive year the measure, with its disputed equalization fee for crop stabilization, was approved last night by the house. The vote was 204 to 121.

The bill now must go back to the senate for a smoothing over of minor differences. These are expected to be ironed out quickly and President Coolidge then will be forced to pass again upon a farm relief plan containing a provision which prompted him to veto last year's bill.

Less Than Veto Majority
The house vote was 13 less than the two-thirds majority that would be required to override presidential disapproval which administration leaders freely predict will be forthcoming. The senate several weeks ago approved the measure in a slightly different form by a vote of 53 to 23, or a few votes more than the necessary two-thirds.

A year ago the house passed the bill by a vote of 214 to 178, while the senate vote was 47 to 39.

Final action by the house last night climaxed a week of hectic discussion during which the possible effect of the measure on the coming wheat crop was a major concern.

MARYE and MOM Their Letters

BY RUTH DEWEY GROVES

Mom, love
Try and do it! Shake a Latin. I mean. Surely was kidding myself when I wrote to you yesterday. I was about as free of Pede as the roads are of Sunday drivers. He was suddenly an immovable object in my path.

He car was parked at my door all this morning. And every five minutes he came and up from the building across the street. I knew he could see me if I tried to sneak out. And he went in a bunch of violets—and then a box of roses and finally a corsage of orchids.

I had to give the orchids to Florence and to Alan. I think I should send them to her. She was glad enough to get them to keep her mouth shut. I guess she wants to use them as a suggestion to "Mich," as she calls him. Norman's aunt got the roses and I guess Alan won't be cut up if he thinks I bought myself some violets.

Then a stream of notes. Implying me to see him. Threatened to bombard me until I gave in. I got kind of nervous after while thinking about how it would look to Alan if Pede kept on sending flowers and epistles all evening. So I had to let him in.

You can see how I feel. Mom. For this time you guessed right. Handling a South American is not the same as blowing bubbles with a boy like Billy. He'd just been waiting for me to give him a signal. It seemed. But when I told him we must stop seeing each other he knew it was time to speak or keep silent forever after.

Cross my heart I had no idea he was batty about me. But when he did say it he didn't stop with flowers. He had a few gestures to make, too.

To tell the truth, I don't think he meant a word of it, though I've heard such a stream of love language in my short but not cocoon life. I couldn't take him seriously because I'm sure I'd have known if he'd been really losing his head over me.

Well I got him out finally but she says he won't give me up. I hope he won't be a threat.

Dear love,
MARYE
NEXT: Let that be a lesson, writes Mom.

MATADORS WIN SECOND CLASH WITH INDIANS

At Dallas, the Steeres played a hustling brand of baseball which combined with Dick Schuman's good pitching enabled them to defeat Houston. Although the Buffs out-hit the Steeres, eight to seven, Schuman kept the Houston hits well scattered and was airtight when better hurling was needed.

At Shreveport, the Sports defeated the Beaumont Exporters, 4 to 2, by virtue of extra-base hits, by Blossom and Wilson and evened the series.

Coach Victor Payne, handler of the Matador cinder path pacers, anticipates an unusually strong contest from the Steeres as they have won every dual, triangular, and quadrangular meet they have participated in at Abilene this season.

They are strong in the dashes, field events and distant events. The Steeres are in thirteenth place today. In other words, the Matador mentor declares that Weems' matinee has no weaknesses.

The records and times set by the Wildcat entries in their meets at Abilene on a whole have been better than those made in similar meets held in Lubbock.

Payne has a total of 21 entries listed in the dual contest with the Wildcats while Weems has 16 entered in the meet.

Coach "Dutch" Meyer took fifteen men to Houston, the first stop on a five-day trip. The Frogs jump to College Station Monday and Tuesday for two games with the Texas Aggies. The trip will complete four-game play-offs with the Owls and Aggies.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Joe Glick, hard-punching New Yorker, who not so long ago had the junior lightweight champion, Tod Morgan on the floor only to lose later on a foul, meets Lope Tenorio, sensational Filipino 135-pounder, in a 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. Tenorio won a decision over Glick in a recent match at Cleveland.

Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion, and Jimmy McLarnin, Pacific Coast knockout artist who meets Mandell in a little match here May 17 will occupy ringside seats with the idea of getting a line on the Filipino's style of mauling over Glick in a recent match. McLarnin has promised Tenorio a shot at the title provided he succeeds in dethroning Mandell.

CATS ARE HELD IDLE BY RAIN AS SPUDS WIN

STEERS BEAT BUFFS AND EXPORTERS GO DOWN 4 TO 2

By The Associated Press. As a result of their second straight victory over Waco and the idleness of Fort Worth on account of rain, the Wichita Falls Spudders held a one-game advantage over the Panthers, the runners-up.

Buff's Beaten By Steers. The Houston Buffs suffered the greatest set-back Thursday among the leaders as they were beaten by the Dallas Steers, 5 to 1, in one of the best games of the day.

The contest at Wichita Falls was a exciting affair that went to the Wichitians by an 8 to 7 score because of their heavier hitting in the pitcher. The Cubs started business by getting a run in the first inning and added two more scores to their total in the fourth, but this lead was wiped out in the fifth when the heavy guns of the Wichitians struck, fanned five runners to cross the plate.

Schuman is Airtight. At Dallas, the Steeres played a hustling brand of baseball which combined with Dick Schuman's good pitching enabled them to defeat Houston. Although the Buffs out-hit the Steeres, eight to seven, Schuman kept the Houston hits well scattered and was airtight when better hurling was needed.

Since leaving San Angelo the Snappers have swept through their series with Les Tullos' Aces from Abilene, the league leaders, in two consecutive victories.

Pete Donohue, reformed holdout, succeeded Rixey in the third and held the Cards to five hits and one run in five innings. Edwards finished for the Reds and the last St. Louis run was scored off him.

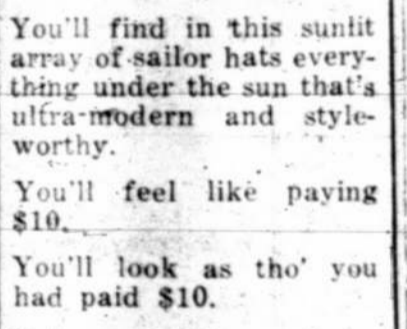

All other national league clubs are expected to play the regular monthly tournament. J. O. Smith, scorer and conductor of the tournament, told the Journal today that the interest seems to be at a high tide toward the meet and he expects numerous qualifying scores before the time limit, Saturday evening.

After qualifying scores are listed pairing for elimination matches will be made and the tournament will be underway. Semi-finals and finals of the tournament will be reached by next week-end.

Red Sox Beat Athletics. The one American league contest saw the Philadelphia Athletics even the game winning streak halted by Red Morris, recruit right hander, and the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 1. Morris allowed only four hits and the Athletics failed to hit safely until the seventh when Cobb doubled and eventually scored his team's only run. Ira Flagstead was Boston's defensive and offensive star. He captured six flies in the outfield, got two hits, walked once and scored two runs. Ossie Orwell picked a bad day to pitch a six-hit performance for the clan of Mc-Gilleuddy.

DRIZZLING RAIN HAMPERS LEAGUE MEET IN AUSTIN

AUSTIN, May 4.—A cold drizzling rain held track and field qualifying results on a mediocre level and almost paralyzed the tennis schedules Friday, the second day of Texas University interscholastic league meet, which some 3,000 contestants and visitors from hundreds of schools are attending.

Despite the rain, a crowd of several hundred saw the qualifying heats in the track and field preliminaries, but the heavy track and cold sorely reduced the quality of the performances. Finals will be run off Saturday afternoon.

The best time in the 100 yard dash was 16.6 seconds. Oliver of Polytechnic High, Fort Worth, and Davis of Freepor, tied for that time.

Goddard of Waco, who broke the Texas relay record in the 100 yard dash a few weeks ago, qualified at 16.8 Friday, almost trotting into the tape.

LITTLE JUAREZ

It may be found for a statement concerning their situation.

Cinco de Mayo marks the date of Mexico's freedom from the French rule and the end of the reign of Maximiliano as emperor in 1862. A representative of the Journal observed Mexican's throughout "Little Juarez" with the help of Julian Flores, musician, was able to piece together the facts which when uncovered meant that a "big time" will be had by all when the celebration gets underway.

Inhabitants of the section frankly admitted that differences of opinion over Mexican politics and religion caused two functions to be planned where only one has been held here in past years. Between 400 and 500 Mexicans make their habitation in "Little Juarez."

STATE P. T. A. TO HAVE CHARGE OF CLUBS IN CITIES

CLEVELAND, May 4.—The National Congress of Parents and Teachers in session here today voted to change its by-laws to give state branches of the organization control over city organizations.

Heretofore state organization controlled district and county units but not these in the cities.

Numerous resolutions were presented to it to change today. Hasty marriage and divorce was characterized as a great evil among the American people and one that is slowly undermining the home.

Mrs. William Titton, Cambridge, Mass., presented a report of a recent survey made of road houses. She declared that "hundreds" of road houses are scattered all over the country.

Other resolutions, endorsed the following: "The federal child labor amendment, the prohibition laws, equal compensation for men and women in similar teaching service; appointment of police women to protect morals of women and children; projects for better housing; better building codes and park systems; immediate steps to improve conditions in mining fields; more federal appropriations for agricultural education.

The resolutions are to be acted on today.

Leader Is Slain

SHANGHAI — Tsai Kung-Han, who only yesterday was appointed nationalist commissioner of foreign affairs at Tsinan and his staff, have been killed by Japanese soldiers, says a message to King Wen-Szu nationalist foreign affairs commissioner at Shanghai.

Chinese Scanty dispatches which filtered from the city did not indicate whether the Japanese troops, not known to number over 2,000 at Tsinan, have taken an organized stand against 20,000 national troops said to have invested the city or have just encountered small organized bands. That this latter may be the real case is indicated by continued reports that the nationalist troops are out of control of the city.

Reinforcements Of Japs Sent In

SHANGHAI, China, May 4.—Reports from Tientsin say that Japanese trains loaded with reinforcements have left Tsingtao for Tsinan-Fu.

Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, chief of the northern forces, is reported to have expressed his regret at the clash between the Japanese and the nationalists at Tsinan and to have offered to assist the Japanese with arms and ammunition.

Tsun offer the Japanese declined with the explanation that they intended to suppress the "outlaws" without help from other parties.

Japanese Civilians Victims Of Looters

PEKING, May 4.—It was officially reported from Tsinan today that the Japanese military casualties in yesterday's clash with the Chinese were five killed and 28 wounded. The Japanese civilian casualties were not known. It was feared that several had been tortured and murdered.

The Japanese reports today did not confirm rumors from other sources that non-Japanese foreigners had been killed, but it was known that foreign property as well as that of the Japanese was looted.

No American Report

At 2:15 o'clock this afternoon, the American legation was still without word from the consulate at Tsinan which has not been heard from since the nationalist occupation of that city on May 1.

It was believed, however, that the Americans remaining in Tsinan had taken refuge within the protecting cordon of Japanese troops.

Japanese dispatches asserted that Chinese troops entered and looted the guarded area of the international settlement and the Japanese troops then opened fire. From housetops and windows the Chinese poured a steady fire upon the Japanese.

Can Man Walk Up Cliff Backwards

There's no question about a man's being able to walk right up the side of a cliff, but can he do it backwards? Yes, he can—this picture proves it! The feat requires a lot of stamina, however, and pose and perspective. You can readily see how the man can hang in the picture above by a rope, but the fellow who's standing there with his arms akimbo—why the blasted thing's all soaked? Turn the picture over on its right side and you'll see a nice view of the Toronto cliff dwellings on the Apache trail of Arizona—and you'll understand then how this picture was taken.

The Jury System
CHICAGO—In the view of a juror who prevented the maximum penalty for some boy bandits, it is well-defense for a stick-up man to kill a victim who resists. "This is a free country," says Lawrence O'Toole, "and a man can go out and pull a stick-up if he can get away with it." Lawrence is now accused of contempt of court and perjury.

Site Of Ex-Capital Of State Is Marked

HOUSTON, May 4.—A bronze tablet marking the site in Harrisburg of the capital of the republic of Texas in that stormy month of General Sam Houston's retreat across the state to the battle field of San Jacinto, was unveiled Friday at a ceremony by the San Jacinto chapter, Daughters of the Republic of Texas.

The site now a vacant lot, was the home of John R. Harris. It was the only seat of civil government during the days of the "runaway scrape" when thousands of families of Texas settlers fled to the Sabine before the army of Santa Anna.

Another "Meanest" Man Located Today

FORT WORTH, May 4.—Here's another story of the "meanest man."

Grappling hooks used by three Fort Worth life savers who were sent by the Red Cross to Ranger when two men drowned in a lake there this week proved an attraction to some thief. He also took a fancy to $1, which one of the life savers had in his clothes, which were strewn on the banks of the lake.

The Ranger mayor sent word of the theft to Fort Worth Red Cross headquarters and said his city will pay the loss.

TEXAS PIONEERS ARE PRAISED IN OWSLEY ADDRESS

(By Associated Press)
THROCKMORTON, May 4.—Tribute to Texas favorite sons who worked for the advancement of railroad building and allied industries was paid in an address prepared for delivery here today by Alvin Owsley of Dallas, in the celebration marking the entrance of the first train into Throckmorton.

The extension was made by the Cisco and Northeastern, a subsidiary of the Texas and Pacific.

"It seems only yesterday," Mr. Owsley said, "that Texas was required to give millions of acres of her fertile land to the builders of railroads in order to get the lines built. Now the towns and cities already having been established are legitimate sources of revenue and really become partners in the enterprise of railroad building in this great empire of Texas."

Mr. Owsley then lauded the names of Kemp Kell, Yoakum and Lee, which "will be found in letters of gold when the proud history of our great state is written."

Unless trees have been given better than ordinary handling in the operations of transplanting, their roots will need some trimming; broken and bruised roots should be pruned with a clean cut.

Fourth Man Held In Arms Smuggle Plot

NEW ORLEANS, May 4.—A fourth man was taken into custody today by police for department of justice agents in connection with the seizure in a house near the old French quarter last night of a large quantity of pistols, rifles, ammunition, dynamite and tear gas bombs. He was Clifford, Campus, son of Gabriel Campos, who with Juan Flores and Louis Lopez were arrested shortly after the seizure last night. All said they were residents of La Ceiba, Honduras.

Police said the men were being held for questioning and that the federal agents had not indicated their future course of action.

Harbor police were searching for trace of the motorship Thelma which the agents indicated is believed to have been destined to contribute the arms and ammunition to some Central American country.

REALTY MAN

by the shooting, pointed him out to police and he submitted to arrest with the remark he was on his way to the police station anyway. "He broke up my home," Wheeler told chief of detective L. A. Toyne. "I tried to kill him. He caused me plenty of worry and I'm glad I did it."

Extremely Jealous Wheeler, who at 37 has developed an extensive real estate business, was described as extremely jealous in a divorce complaint filed by his wife April 10, last. Mrs. Wheeler charged her husband had refused to provide simple funds for herself and 10 year old daughter.

The Wheelers and Millers had been friends for ten years. Miller recently purchased stock in a company formed by Wheeler to distribute an electrical device he invented, and the two often conferred in the Pullman company office. Wheeler admitted he had sought to collect money he loaned the Pullman official, he denied this had anything to do with the shooting. Miller, who is about 45 years old and married, was said by physicians to have a chance of recovery.

FARM MEASURE

presidential campaign frequently was referred to. The debate at times also touched upon the presidential aspirations of Frank O. Lowden of Illinois and Vice President Dawes.

Elimination Defeated The vote came after frantic but unsuccessful efforts had been made by opponents of the equalization fee to eliminate that provision, the battle continuing with unabated fury to the very last.

The vote on passage found party lines split asunder with 101 republicans, 100 democrats, two farmer-labor members and one socialist joining in support of the bill, while 68 republicans and 53 democrats lined up in opposition.

With the exception of changes approved by Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee and co-author of the bill, all amendments were turned down.

The proposals offered exceeded a score in number, but of those only three were approved. They provided:

Extension of the right to co-operative associations to decide through the commodity councils that the bill would create, when the equalization fee would be placed in operation.

Application to Livestock Application of the fee machinery to packers as well as livestock raisers whenever it might be put in operation upon cattle and swine.

Selection of the members of the proposed advisory councils from lists of names to be submitted by governors of states as well as co-operatives and other farm organizations.

The house bill differs also from the senate measure in that it does not exempt beef and beef products from the operation.

To carry out the loan-to-co-operatives proposal the bill would authorize an appropriation of $400,000. This would be known as the revolving fund, and its use would be controlled by the federal farm board, the bill would create.

MISSING SHIP IS SAFE IN HARBOR BADLY DISABLED

(By Associated Press.)

HONOLULU, May 4.—The missing four masted schooner Ella A. limped into Waimea Bay, Island of Maui, yesterday, with seven feet of water in her hold. Her crew told a story of harrowing rivaing those of the days of wild jammers.

Captain D. O. Kilham declared the ship had been battered by the seas for 148 days after leaving New Seattle, Australia, with a cargo of coal for Callao, Peru.

Forty days out of New Seattle the ship sprung a leak after a long battle with rough seas. One man was lost when he was washed overboard. The ship lost her provisions in the storm, carried only a supply of bread and a few potatoes remained in the gallery. Bread and potatoes made up the diet of the crew for many weeks.

When the ship reached Maui her water supply was reduced to a cistern to last less than two weeks. The Ella A. now is awaiting a tow to Honolulu.

LINDY CAVORTS IN AIR ON HIS GOTHAM HOLIDAY

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 4.—When a flier has a holiday he flies. "What about your next flight to Europe?" Colonel Charles A. Lindy-burgh was asked at Curtiss Field.

"This about it," he answered. "I'm on a holiday today and I'm leaving the details with my next long-distance flight to the future."

"What are you going to do on this holiday?" "Oh, I'll probably do a little flying," and he did in three planes.

He first took a spin in his own Ryan plane, cavorting in the air over Long Island for several minutes. Then he took a turn at a new Curtiss Falcon which had just been delivered to the army.

Next he took aloft a 10-passenger tri-motored Fokker built for the western air corps. His passengers were Harry F. Guggenheim, head of the Guggenheim fund for the promotion of aviation; Rear Admiral H. I. Cone, U. S. N., retired; Captain Walter I. Bender, army air force Grover Loening, airplane manufacturer; Thomas Carroll, civilian test pilot; Lieut. Stanley Umstead, Mitchell field, and Professor Alexander Klemin of the Guggenheim school of aeronautics.

GREAT DISPLAY OF AIR STRENGTH TO BE EXHIBITED

(By The Associated Press.)

LANGLEY FIELD, Va., May 4.—Glistering from the rub of scores of bravery mechanics more than 100 planes of all descriptions were being tuned up here today for the greatest display of army air strength since the world war.

The ships had been brought from many sections of the country. Spread out in rows all over the field, with pilots and mechanics busily about with preparations for the two days of maneuvers, they gave the army station here the appearance of an airrome of actual war footing.

They included Seifridge Field, Mich., pursuit planes, attack ships from Galveston, Texas, the big Langley bombers, huge cabin transport and observation planes from Washington, and a number of other types.

Many to See Exhibition The mobilization, marking a new departure in the activity of the army air corps, is the first of six similar demonstrations to be given by the corps throughout the country.

The exhibition air warfare was expected to be witnessed by hundreds of citizens from the surrounding territory, in addition to aviation officers and officials and members of the senate and house military and naval committees.

All the tactics developed by the air corps since the war were to be graphically displayed in the maneuvers for the information of ground forces, including the infantry, artillery, cavalry and other service schools.

HAIR STOPS WEDDING TOLEDO, O.—There was no mistaking Walter Stearns when he walked into the marriage license office here with the girl of his choice. "You're Walter Stearns of Allegan, Mich., aren't you?" said the clerk.

"Well, I'm sorry, but your red hair has spoiled the sloopment," Walter's parents had warned the officer to be on the lookout for the youth because he was only 19, and they did not approve of the match.

Acid Stomach

Excess acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about 100 hours after eating. The quick-corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acid. The best corrective is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention. One spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly the excess times its volume in acid. It is harmless and tasteless and its action is quick. Thought For Today
Mercy and truth are met together; righteousness and peace have kissed each other.—Ps. 85:10

Statistics
It is easy to make statistics mean almost anything. Usually they have to stretch themselves to completely in order not to draw false conclusions.

A New Process
Often the really important news of the day goes almost unnoticed. The other day the foreign information department of the Bankers Trust company, New York, issued a bulletin saying that a new spinning process has been discovered in Great Britain that its inventor says will reduce the cost of making iron in its production from the iron and steel industry to a few years.

Military Display
Washington is seeing a good many more military maneuvers than it used to. Throughout the warm months soldiers from nearby army posts hold exhibition drills on grounds near the White House.

Support
A young man who wants to go to college is fortunate, of course, if his father has money enough to pay all of his expenses, so that he can devote all of his time to getting an education.

THE PLAINSMAN

Says:
That Girl on Broadway says the Fort Worth thief who had his loot in a coffin should have known that it would be a dead give away.

A number of city officials and interested citizens will leave here Monday enroute to Dallas where they will attend the 20th annual session of the National Conference on City Planning.

Zoning—which is nothing more or less than city planning—is one of the most important problems facing Lubbock today. Some citizens here have expressed the opinion that it is the most important of all public questions.

The fact that the National Conference on City Planning meets this year in Dallas is significant from two angles. In the first place its meeting site is adjacent to Lubbock—giving more local men an opportunity to attend than usual.

Third Of Prohibition Enforcement Executives Fail To Pass Civil Service Examinations, Rodney Dutcher Says

WASHINGTON, May 4.—At least a third of the administrative executives in the prohibition enforcement system have been weeded out by civil service examinations.

NEW YORK, May 4.—New York's most delightful dwelling places are not discernable to the man in the street. To view them and admire them, he must climb upon a high building and look down.

With Our West

BACK-SEAT DRIVERS
Back-seat driving, an Iowa judge has said, is not sufficient grounds for a divorce.

The subject of back-seat driving has not been treated thoroughly enough in our literature. It is a great evil, to be sure; yet there is much to be said for the one who practices it.

Some of the drivers breed back-seat driving inevitably. They steer their cars about in heavy traffic as if they were free from the ordinary limitations of time and space.

The question of driving automobiles is receiving more attention now than possibly ever before in the history of the nation.

First because there are many more cars now than ever before, and again because there are more accidents than ever before.

It is still another reason for it and that is that there is a disposition on the part of drivers to do more reckless stunts, but it seems to us that the folks on the back seat should either refuse to ride in the car or trust the fellow at the wheel for their safety.

Another fellow driver, while the other fellow drives, is very confusing to the driver to be continually warned that he is driving too fast or that he is driving too close to the edge of the road, or too close to the other cars, etc.

The man at the wheel can see where he is driving better than the driver on the back seat, and should therefore be given the right to judge his distances and not be nagged and harassed by continual "look out," "be careful," etc.

Dempsey And Wife Sign With Belasco

NEW YORK, May 4.—Jack Dempsey and his wife Estelle Taylor are to trend the boards of Broadway under the tutelage of David Belasco next fall.

The former heavyweight champion and his movie actress wife have signed on the dotted-line with Sam H. Harris to appear in "The Big Fight" at a Broadway theatre.

Mr. Harris said the contract called for the highest salaries ever paid in any theatrical production.

Texan Found Dead On Top Of Box Car

CHICAGO, May 4.—A man identified as Charles Haslop of Houston, Texas, a switchman for the Missouri, Kansas, Texas railroad and a former member of the Kansas City, Mo., police department, was found dead on top of an Illinois Central freight train arriving here today from Memphis.

Police believe he was struck by a low bridge.

Commandant Fitzmaurice said the crew of the Bremen began to scurry on hearing America. "Wasn't until they're here a while. The ain't seen nothing yet."

FLIER TO MAKE SECOND TRY AT ENDURANCE TEST

MITCHELL FIELD, N. Y., May 2. Undismayed by his defeat in his single handed attempt to set a new endurance flight record, Lieut. Ross V. Thomas plans to try again today.

Forced down when the dump valve on his gas tank opened allowing escape of his fuel, he said he would take off on a new attempt as soon as he had a little sleep and his monoplane Reliance could be put into condition again.

On his flight which ended last night at 11:15 eastern daylight time he fell almost 20 hours short of the world's endurance record. He was in the air 35 hours, 25 minutes and 56 seconds.

He set a new record for sustained solo flight, bettering by almost two hours the mark of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh in his flight to Paris last May.

Thomas was groggy when he landed but quickly recovered and appeared little the worse for his long siege without sleep.

TERRIFIC BLAST WRECKS MINE IN BIG REBEL DRIVE

BLUEFIELDS, Nicaragua, May 4.—So great was the explosion which destroyed the La Buz mine in the Prinzapolka district a few days ago that trees more than a mile away were uprooted and fell, according to the story told here by the cashier of the mine, a Mr. Brown.

Having seen the rebels approaching, Brown had hidden in the brush to await their departure when the terrific blast which destroyed the workings occurred.

Assistant Manager Johnson of the mine in telling of the explosion today said that all 25 cases of dynamite kept there had been used for the blast, which destroyed machinery, the mine's mill, seine houses and offices. Parts of the machinery were found as far as 300 yards away, he said.

Marshall's Fate Unknown
According to Johnson, George Marshall, another assistant manager at the mine, and a New Yorker was taken prisoner by the rebels at General Augustine Sandino's orders and sent to the rebel leader's headquarters, supposedly somewhere in the north. What has happened to him there is not known.

The Bonanza mine, to the north, also was blown up, but the damage there was not so extensive and Johnson said it was believed operations could be resumed if there were no further disturbances within three weeks.

The manager of the mine, Harry P. Amplett, had started back to the Prinzapolka district with the rebel raid under General Guroz there April 12, when he met Johnson and others from the mine. He was told by these what had occurred.

CLAIM VICTORY Sandino Says 700 Marines Slain In Recent Encounter

EL PASO, May 3 (AP).—El Continental, Spanish language newspaper here, says it is in receipt of reports that Dr. Pedro Cepeda, representing the Nicaraguan rebels in Mexico City, has received a letter from General Sandino, relating an encounter that took place at El Bramadero on April 26.

It says according to the newspaper, that an infantry column headed by Simoen Montoya and backed by cavalry detachments under General Luis Espinosa, having two batteries of machine guns, encountered a regiment of 800 American soldiers who were going to Ticopterera and engaged in battle with them, killing or wounding 700 marines. The battle lasted five hours, the report says. Sandino claims he captured 400 rifles, 16 machine guns, 180 miles loaded with provisions and ammunition, 60 pistols, eleven photographic cameras, four pairs of field glasses, two medicine cabinets, a number of tents and kitchen utensils. The Nicaraguan casualties included General Luis Espinosa killed and Colonel Carlos Quesada seriously wounded. The letter states that a United States army plane was brought down, killing the pilot, Captain William Bird and Sergeant Rudolph Frankforter, who were on a poison gas bombing mission. Two more planes were shot down, the report goes.

Fraternity Honor Refused By Woman

MADISON, Wis., May 3 (AP).—Miss Olga Rubnow of Philadelphia has refused election to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society, because she believes high grades are not "a genuine criterion of true scholarship and intellectual achievement."

In a letter declining the honor, Miss Rubnow said she was opposed to the bestowal of formal honors on the basis of high grades. "The distinction," she added, "is often conferred upon the unworthy as well as the worthy. A large part of the worthy who do not happen to excel in grades are excluded."

General Hartsfield said. They will make the trip to the convention city in train that will carry delegates from several West Texas points, leaving here at 8:30 a. m. Monday.
