Seven Business Houses Are Under Construction In City, One Firm Is Completed

Reflecting the continuous growth of the city of Lamesa are the eight new buildings which are now under construction, or which have recently been completed here. Business men now constructing buildings are Davie Jones and Jimmy Cotten, E. J. Burkhead, C. W. Firestone, J. D. McPhaul, Leo Ramdal, Irvin and H. H. Wright and J. P. Hughes. R. N. Kayal recently saw his building on Dallas Street completed.

Jimmy Cotten and Davie Jones are having a 75x75 foot brick structure built, where they will operate the Jones-Cotten Buick Company. The building is located at 312 South Second Street with the front entrance to be on the south side.

Construction began June 1 and according to Cotten, the firm is expected to be completed around September 15.

The structure will accommodate rooms for repair service, a parts department, offices and show room. The owners explain that when it is complete the firm will have a modern front, which will practically be constructed of plate glass.

The building will house the buick agency here and all new equipment will be installed in the company.

E. J. Burkhead stated Tuesday of this week that he expected his new 50x95 foot brick building to be completed soon and that he would probably begin operations there somewhere from July 15 to 25.

His business will operate under the name of E. J. Burkhead Company and will be a reconditioning plant where a variety of services will be offered. The company will serve as automotive tappers for West Texas as well as Eastern New Mexico, and the owner states that this is the only plant between Oklahoma City and Los Angeles which offers such versatile services in its field under one coverage.

Construction on the E. J. Burkhead Company was begun February 10. The building is a brick structure and is located at 310 South Main Street, with the main entrance facing east.

The company will include all the latest types of equipment.

Another new building now under construction is C. W. Firestone's structure at 302 South Houston where he will house the Firestone Feed & Poultry.

Construction began around the first of this month on the 70x110 foot frame and stucco structure. The building is located on a 70x140 lot, and Firestone explains that the business will cover nearly all of the lot after he adds the elevator at the back of the building.

The building will have a north and east front, and will probably be completed in 90 days. Immediately after its completion Firestone plans to begin operation there.

The structure will include 3 departments—the farm supply room, feed department, and mill. Firestone plans to stock feed, farm supplies, manufacture feed, handle chicks and grow fryers.

The owner explains that the checkerboard design of the Purina Company will be used, and that red and white checkerboards will be painted on the building.

Construction began 60 days ago on McPhaul Motor Company which is located on South Second and Austin Streets and which is owned by J. D. McPhaul.

McPhaul will house his Ford agency in the new brick and tile building which is 70x140 feet in size. The building is one story, with a large balcony where the parts department is to be located.

The McPhaul Motor Company space east and south. The bulk of the space will be used as a shop, and in addition there will be a part show room, offices and a parts department.

About 80 feet of plate glass will form the front of the building. McPhaul states that the corners at the front of the structure will be rounded and made of glass, making the building streamlined. Convenient exits and entrances are being prepared for patrons of the business.

The McPhaul Motor Company building will probably be completed in 60 days, and McPhaul explains that he will possibly be moved into the new structure by the middle of October.

Still another new structure going up in this city is the tile and stucco building which is being constructed on South Second and Dallas Streets. (Continued On Back Page)

Latest News From THE HOME DEMONSTRATION AGENT

MYRTLE DICKIE NEGY County Home Demonstration Agent

MORE ABOUT SUGAR— BUT NOT MORE SUGAR!

Some mathematical home economist has measured one sugar allotment and found that each person gets only 1-3 tablespoons per day. It doesn't take much of a statistician to see at once that this won't furnish 2 or 3 teaspoons of sugar for tea for dinner and supper, sugar on cereal and in coffee for breakfast, and sugar for mother to make those luscious pies, ice creams and frosty cakes so many of us are spoiled to. It is easy to see that all safe sugar substitutes are going to be popular.

INVERT SUGAR

If you haven't tried invert sugar and if you have lost the recipe printed in Mrs. Phinizy's column recently, here it is again. Mrs. Kennedy and several others have tried it. It makes the sweet taste of sugar go a lot further.

2 cups sugar
1 cup water
1-4 teaspoon tartaric acid (this can be bought at any drug store)
Mix, cover, and simmer gently 30 minutes. Each cup is about 1-3-4 times as sweet as the same proportions would give if only sugar and water were used. Use this invert sugar for sweetening fruits, cereals, ice cream and drinks. It is also excellent to use in canning but it is so sweet it has to be diluted. One-fourth cup invert sugar syrup to 1 cup water is just like the light syrup in our Big Bull's, an example of Fruits and Vegetables." If you do not have a copy of it, go by the County Home Demonstration Agents' office for one.

DRIED PEACHES

It takes no sugar to dry peaches. The method of preparation of the fruit is similar to that for canning. The peaches may be dried without peeling, or if desired, peeled peaches dry more quickly and make a good product.

Treat with sulphur to keep color and food value. One method is to dissolve 3 1-2 tablespoons of potassium metabisulfite or sodium sulfite in 1 gallon water, drop peaches as they are peeled or cut into this solution for 15 minutes, drain, and arrange on tray for drying. The other method is to burn flowers of sulphur under the fruit. Use 1 teaspoon sulphur for each pound prepared fruit. Put the sulphur in a small piece of paper, roll it loosely and twist the ends. Arrange a place out doors. Place fruit in a tray and put the roll of sulphur in a pan about 12 or 15 inches under the trays. Start burning the roll of paper containing the sulphur. After it has started burning, put a box or barrel down over the trays, and pull some loose dirt up around the edge of the box to hold the fumes. For peeled peaches, sulphur for 20 minutes, and for unpeeled peaches, leave under the tight box with the sulphur fumes about three hours.

Complete the drying process either by sun drying, or by controlled heat in an electric drier or stove oven. If sun drying method is used arrange fruit on slatted or wire trays covered with cheese cloth, cover peaches with a layer of cheese cloth or a regular screen dryer. Place where air can circulate around fruit.

When the fruit is dry the peaches are pliable and leathery, and not sticky. They have a springy feel. Heat to 150 degrees in an oven from 15 to 30 minutes, place in hot, dry jars or cans and seal immediately, then store in a cool dry place.

SUGAR SAVING REMINDERS

The sugar shortage is a fact of which all homemakers are definitely aware these days, but when we stop to consider that our present sugar allotment actually amounts to only 1-3 tablespoons of sugar per person each day, we realize the homemaker faces a real problem when the family continues to demand dessert.

Miss Edith Lawrence, specialist in food preparation at A. and M. College Extension Service, suggests several sugar saving methods which will still give the family dessert, at least part of the time.

In fresh fruit season, it is easier to solve the dessert problem, she suggests, since a fruit salad topped by a dressing mixed with fruit juice does double duty, as a refreshing salad and a dessert.

Adapt 1-2-3-4 Cake To Less Sugar
The familiar 1-2-3-4 Butter Cake can be made by using part corn syrup or honey. Although it is usually made by the conventional method, it can also be made by the quicker muffin method. The texture will be different, but still desirable. If honey is used for part of the sugar, a lower baking temperature is necessary, and a more moist product is obtained.

The recipe includes:
1 cup butter
1 cup sugar
1 cup corn syrup
3 cups flour
4 eggs
3-4 cup milk
3 t. baking powder
1-6 t. salt
1 t. vanilla
1 t. lemon flavoring.

Mix and sift dry ingredients together. Beat eggs and add syrup, milk, extracts, and melted butter. Mix well. Add liquids to dry ingredients and beat until well blended. Bake in loaf pans in moderate oven (about 350 degrees) approximately 35-40 minutes.

You can save sugar too, by not frosting your cakes, or freezing just the top. Honey may replace sugar cup for cup, but use half the quantity of other liquid called for in original recipe—and keep baking temperature moderate. Best results come in substituting only a part of the sugar with honey or syrup.

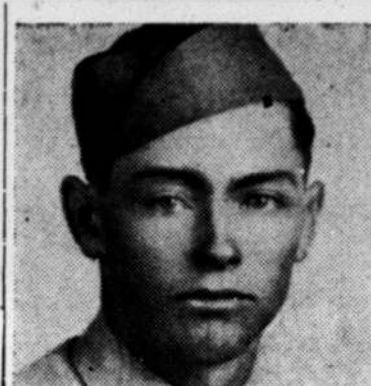

Mrs. Roma Morton and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Kennedy spent Sunday in Big Spring visiting with relatives.

Fat-Salvage Bee To Aid in Licking National Fat Shortage

It's been ages since we had an old-fashioned "bee" in these parts, but just as we've always pitched in to help a neighbor, so must we pitch in for our country. To help make hundreds of battlefield and home-front essentials, more used fats are needed than are on hand. City folks are trying to make up the deficit of over 1,200,000,000 pounds. But their fats aren't enough.

Women in small cities, towns and rural districts must also save every drop of fat. Not just big amounts. But scraps of plates, meat trimmings. Melt them down once a week. Your butcher will give you up to 4¢ and 2 red points a pound. If you have any difficulty, call Home Demonstration or County Agent.

Approved by WFA and CPA. Paid for by Industry.

Understanding Among English To Be Promoted

AP Newsfeatures—MANCHESTER, England—Manchester University Settlement, one of England's pioneer social service organizations, will work to carry over into peacetime the common understanding achieved by Englishmen during the war. The Settlement, in the words of its warden, Miss Sheila S. McKay, is convinced that "life in the forces, in civil defense units and factories during the war has been the means of bringing together, naturally, people of different educational and social backgrounds and of providing a basis of common understanding."

grew out of the 19th century London experiment of Canon Samuel Barnett, who believed university men should live in slum areas, and by using their houses as meeting places, share with the unprivileged the benefit of social and educational opportunities and at the same time learn the need of and press for the solution of social and economic injustices. Through choral societies, dramatic clubs, a children's theater, debating society and other activities, the Settlement branched out to other Manchester areas. Now, Miss McKay suggests: "Settlement workers, living as 'settlers' but in cottage homes or flats, like those ordinarily resident in a neighborhood, may be able to help the newly formed communities to develop a community sense and to widen their experiences so that they may provide themselves with a full, rich and varied social life. "Today the opportunities for different groups to meet spontaneously in common fellowship are continually increasing, but none can deny that there is still much mutual misunderstanding and ignorance . . . The Settlement of today provides a bridge which should do much to lessen the gap which must disappear if a classless good fellowship and helpful national society are to evolve."

Group Advocates Increased Milk Prices For Area

Milk distributors and dairymen met Wednesday afternoon in the county agents office at the request of the personnel of the War Food Administration to discuss possibilities of increasing milk production in this area.

Seven were present at the meeting and the group decided to ask OPA and WFA for an increase in the price of milk to the public, instead of for an increase in subsidy payments.

The group favored charging two cents more per quart for milk, making one quart cost 16 cents in the future, instead of the current price of 14 cents.

This session was an outgrowth of a meeting held in Lubbock recently which county agents and dairy representatives attended. The men going to the session were asked to hold similar meetings in their home district, and were told that an effort would be made to have the price for milk uniform throughout this area.

County Agent Barfield reported that by increasing the price of milk they hope to have more men enter the dairy business, and thus increase production. He pointed out also that dairymen are having to pay more for labor now, and that because of the weather conditions many are having to buy feed to supply the needs of their animals.

Those attending the Wednesday afternoon session at the county agent's office included E. W. Renner, T. A. Barfield, Frank and Ray Love, Doyle Shillingburg, Billie Mitchell and C. E. Tarter. The group will submit to the committee appointed in Lubbock their proposed dairy program, and this in turn will be taken to Washington for consideration.

Texas' Grain Harvest Now Over The Hill

At the turn of the month, Texas' grain harvests were "over the hill." This information came from J. B. Kidd, Farm Labor Field assistant at Plainview, who has had the responsibility for recruiting and placing of combines in the Panhandle, the south plains and low rolling plains.

According to Kidd's survey, harvesting south of Amarillo was 95 percent completed through July 4, and finished in the area below the caprock. North of Amarillo the work was well advanced, with the main activity in the extreme northwestern counties of Ochiltree, Lipscomb, Fansford and Sherman. In that section, generally regarded as the heaviest wheat producing area of the Panhandle, harvesting was between 50 and 60 per cent completed.

Kidd reported to Caesar Hohn, Extension farm labor supervisor, that wheat production had ranged from five to 40 bushels an acre, the latter being recorded in the irrigated districts. Wheat on summer fallowed lands also showed excellent yields. In Castro County and other areas summer fallowing practices produced as high as 20 bushels or more an acre.

Labor and equipment during the harvesting were adequate. Acute labor shortages were avoided by the volunteer services of many south plains farmers who were delayed in starting row crop planting on account of prolonged dry weather. With the harvest passing, however, a need for tractor drivers to break

Divers Descend Lower In The New, Light Suits

By MAX NELSON AP Newsfeatures

MILWAUKEE — Deep sea divers, with a lighter diving suit and a new gas mixture, now can descend lower than ever—to recover sunken war goods from the ocean bottom.

In a twill and rubber suit he designed. Jack Browne, the world champion diver, has gone down 550 theoretical feet in a basement testing tank at his diving equipment plant.

Standard diving gear weighs between 200 and 250 pounds. Browne's weighs 45.

To make the record dive, he used a helium-oxygen gas developed by Dr. Edgar M. End, at 34 an assistant Marquette University professor.

Took A Dive

Browne, now 28, took his first dive in the family bathtub with the aid of an inverted milk bottle. He was seven then.

He and Max Eugene Nohl, another Milwaukee youth, began serious tests with diving equipment while still in their teens.

Their work attracted the attention of Dr. End, a physiology instructor who had been experimenting independently in the effect of gases on the bloodstream.

They worked out their first unit supplying a helium-oxygen mixture to the diver in 1936.

Earlier, oxygen had been used, but that gas limited the depth to which divers could go safely since

NATIONAL FARM SAFETY WEEK, 1945

A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States of America

WHEREAS the Nation recognizes that the skill and labor of its farmers is a vital factor in winning the war, and the production of food one of the most essential means of winning the peace; and

WHEREAS the inevitable decrease in available farm labor this year creates an especially urgent need for conserving farm manpower to meet production goals in 1945; and

WHEREAS the accidents which cause some fourteen hundred farm residents to lose their lives each month, and one hundred and twenty-five thousand others to suffer injuries, constitute an unnecessary waste of human life as well as of time and material:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the Nation to observe the week commencing July 22, 1945, as National Farm Safety Week. And I request all persons and organizations concerned with agriculture and farm life to do everything in their power to educate farm people in the proper precautions by which they may eliminate farm hazards, and to stimulate a Nation-wide determination to stop the needless waste of irreplaceable farm manpower and property. And I further urge that farm people everywhere observe National Farm Safety Week by making a safety check in their homes and on their farms.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington this 9th day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-ninth.

BRYAN STREET MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH

E. L. JONES, Pastor
WHAT WE BELIEVE

1. We believe that Jesus Christ established His Church during His own personal ministry on earth (Matt. 16:18), and though He did not call it a Missionary Baptist Church, all the material used by Him in its constitution, including Jesus Christ Himself as its Head and Founder, were baptized by a Missionary Baptist preacher, whose name was John (John 1:6; Matt. 11:11 and 3:1).
2. We believe in the local and independent character of all Missionary Baptist Churches, and the perpetuity of the Missionary Baptist Faith through local churches down through the centuries from the days of John the Baptist and Jesus Christ to this present time.
3. We believe that Christ commissioned His Churches to preach His Gospel to all the world, unto the end of the age, and that this mandatory law has never been repealed, therefore we are Missionary Baptists still.
4. We believe in the verbal and plenary Inspiration of the entire Bible, the atoning blood of Calvary, the resurrection of the dead, the salvation of lost sinners by grace only, the exercise of repentance and faith as prerequisites of salvation, and the security of believers in Christ.
5. We believe in the ordinance of baptism by immersion, symbolizing the death, burial and resurrection of Jesus Christ, and that it may only be performed by the authority of a local Missionary Baptist Church.
6. We believe in the ordinance of the Lord's Supper under the authority of a local Missionary Baptist Church, symbolizing the broken body and the shed blood of the Son of God, and that only members of the church may partake of it.
7. We believe in the sovereign rule of the Holy Spirit in the churches of God, and when man presumes to dictate to the churches of the Lord he usurps the place and authority of the Holy Spirit.
8. We believe in the cooperation of churches in missionary and benevolent work, under the leadership of the Holy Spirit, and governed by the laws of the New Testament, and repudiate all man-made laws and institutions that attempt to lord it over God's heritage. We believe that these churches should meet together in a cooperative body by means of messengers (not delegates) on an equality, each church being allowed an equal number of messengers, in order that the larger and wealthier churches may not have an advantage over the smaller and poorer ones.
9. We believe that the missionaries who go out to the local, state, interstate and foreign fields should first be called of God, set apart or recommended to the work by the church or churches of which they are members, and then that the cooperating churches may associate themselves together in the support of such missionaries under the direction of the Holy Spirit according to the Word of God.
10. We believe in the judgment of God upon Satan and sin, the visible, personal, bodily return of our Lord in glory, and the personal reign of Christ upon the throne of His Father David.
11. We believe that all believers in Christ shall have a place in His heavenly kingdom and shall be supremely happy in service to the King forever and ever, and that all unbelievers shall have their part with the devil and the damned in the lake of fire and brimstone, where the worm dieth not and the fire is not quenched.
12. We believe the churches are to be the sole judge of their ministers and missionaries and that no board, convention, or denominational headquarters shall have any power or authority over them, that they are to be led, governed and controlled by the Holy Spirit according to the teaching of the Word.
13. We believe in preaching the whole gospel to the whole world, and support missionaries in several foreign fields.
14. We believe in a supernatural Bible which tells of a supernatural Christ, who had a supernatural birth, who lived a supernatural life, who spoke supernatural words, who performed supernatural miracles, who died a supernatural death, who rose in supernatural power, who ascended in supernatural glory, who lives and intercedes a supernatural Priest, who is coming again in supernatural victory, to establish a supernatural kingdom and reign a supernatural King for one thousand years on the earth.

ODT APPEALS FOR CAR AND TIRE CONSERVATION
In an appeal to passenger car owners to conserve their automobiles, Col. J. Monroe Johnson, Director of the Office of Defense Transportation, warned that it will be at least three years before many millions of private car owners and prospective car owners who want new automobiles will be able to get them. Colonel Johnson said this fact "has not been generally realized in the first rosy flush of enthusiasm over the limited resumption of passenger car production." Although it is expected that 240,000 passenger cars will be built this year, Colonel Johnson commented that this number will replace less than one percent of the Nation's automobiles. "None of the cars produced in the near future will go to the average driver," he added. "They'll go, instead to the most essential drivers—doctors, police, taxi drivers, war workers and others. And they will be short—far short—of meeting the need of these fields."

Pointing out that the foundation of a good replaced tire is a good casing, the Office of Defense Transportation outlined rules for the care of tire casings before and after recapping. Proper care of the original casing, the ODT said, is most important because the production of complete casings is the real bottleneck in the flow of tires to users. The rubber tread of a tire does not add greatly to the strength of the casing but does cushion the fabric against damage from minor irregularities of the road. Tires that have not been abused by overloading, over-spreading, low air pressure, or damaged by running over curbs or sharp obstacles in the road will be suitable for recapping.

EXTRA CHARGES ON TUBE REPAIR CAN BE ADDED
Service stations and other tire repair shops that are prevented from making additional charges for extra services connected with tube repair jobs only may now apply for permission to make additional charges, OPA announced. This action, effective June 30, 1945, applies to such services as pick-up and delivery, mounting and demounting of tire and tube from wheel, and road service for emergency repair jobs involving tube repairs.

SOME JULY POINT VALUES CHANGED
Point values for margarine and canned fish will be increased, points for cheese will be reduced, and the point values of nearly all meats will be unchanged during the rationing period beginning July 1 and ending July 28, OPA said. The point value of butter will remain unchanged. A two point increase in the margarine point value from 12 to 14 points a pound, is necessary because of the decreased supply and to improve distribution. Rationed canned fish, with present point values ranging from four to nine points a pound, will be increased two and three points a pound, depending upon the kind, because of reduced supplies for civilians.

Although the over-all supply of cheese will be somewhat smaller during the third quarter, new point values for the July rationing period will be from two to four points a pound lower than during June to prevent loss of soft perishable varieties from spoilage. Point values of hard cheeses such as cheddar and blue, were reduced four points. The only fresh or cured meat point value changes for July are increases of one and two points a pound for seven fat pork cuts.

NEW REGULATIONS ON USED CARS
Used 1942 automobiles will be removed from rationing on July 2, 1945, OPA announced. The principal reason for the rationing of used 1942 cars—that they were the best automobiles in the country aside from the new 1942 cars in stock and so should be restricted to essential users—no longer holds true. Many of these cars have been driven by public officials, doctors and war workers who travel long distances and, consequently, the cars have had more mileage and more hard usage than some earlier models that have been driven fewer miles. Therefore, continued rationing is unnecessary, OPA said.

The four per cent decrease on used passenger car ceiling prices scheduled for July 1, will not affect the warranty allowance when this allowance amounts to $100 or less, OPA said. The July 1 reduction, announced June 7, is the first of a series of four per cent reductions to be made once each half year, reflecting normal depreciation in value, OPA explained.

CIVILIAN MOTORISTS TO GET 2,500,000 CAR TIRES IN JULY
Borrowing 833,334 tires from inventories to meet hot weather replacement needs, WPB allocated 2,500,000 passenger car tires to OPA for civilian motorists during July, OPA announced. "The 2,500,000 tires allocated to OPA for rationing should meet the immediate requirements of the most essential drivers," Max McCollough, Deputy Administrator for Rationing, said. "Only B and C ration holders are eligible for new tires and these drivers, as well as A-Card holders, who must depend solely on their present tires, must continue to conserve their tires in every way possible. Motorists whose tires can be recapped are not eligible for new tires and should not apply."

INTERREGIONAL WORKER RECRUITMENT TO SPUR EMPLOYMENT
Because of the gradual conversion from wartime to peacetime activity and the simultaneous continuation of war production, inter-regional recruitment facilities of U. S. Employment Service offices will be made available to employers engaged in certain civilian production, as well as war production, the War Manpower Commission announced.

Local USES offices in areas where the supply of labor is in excess of local employer needs, will prepare orders for workers from employers whose needs can not be met in their own localities, WMC said. "By such an arrangement, surplus labor will be more quickly reemployed and the labor requirements of employers more quickly met," WMC officials said.

SLAUGHTERERS MUST MARK LIVESTOCK
All livestock carcasses and wholesale cut of meat must, after July 15, 1945, be clearly marked with the slaughterer's official identification number before they are sold or transferred by the slaughterer, OPA announced. The numbers may not be altered, mutilated or removed except when the meat is prepared for consumption or use, or when the wholesale cuts are broken into retail cuts.

Non-federally inspected commercial and farm slaughterers will mark their meat with one of the following—(A) Their OPA license or permit number, (B) Their present War Food Administration license or permit number, or (C) The establishment number assigned them by a federal, state, county or city meat inspection authority. Any one of the three numbers mentioned may be used by slaughterers through July 31, 1945. After that date, however, WFA license or permit numbers cannot be used. Those who wish to continue using, after July 31, 1945, the establishment number to them by an official meat inspection authority, rather than the OPA license, or permit number, must give notice to that effect, prior to using the number, to the Local War Price and Rationing Board of OPA District Office with which they are registered.

All accessible wholesale cuts of meat are to be marked, except in the case of calf carcasses with the skin on. These need only be marked on the hind shanks and brisket. Any person who removes the skin from a calf carcass, however, is required to mark each accessible wholesale cut before the carcass is broken, sold or transferred. All markings must be clear and conspicuous and the numerals and letters at least 1-4 inch in height and width. The marking may be done with a Kasher marking pencil or with a stamp or stencil and an approved violet branding fluid. Farm slaughterers selling or transferring meat directly to a consumer may put the required identification number on a tag that is firmly attached to the meat.

nounced by OPA. It replaces the former basing point system of pricing poultry and provides ceilings for all sellers. The recently announced national average increase of 1.26 cents a pound in the ceiling price of young chickens is reflected in the new zone prices, effective July 1, 1945. The general level of present retail ceiling prices for all other poultry remains unchanged.

Ceiling prices for apples of the 1945 crop will be increased 80 cents a standard bushel F.O.B. any shipping point, during the period beginning June 25, and ending July 20, OPA said. The new ceiling price for fruit graded, packed and loaded on car or truck at the shipping point is $3.45 a standard bushel. The retail ceiling price of apples during the period ending July 20, will be about 1 3-8 cents a pound higher than the original retail ceiling price, but about 2-10 cent a pound lower than the retail ceiling price during the period ending June 20.

Latest News From COUNTY AGENT

T. A. BARFIELD
County Agricultural Agent

Texas migratory labor, chiefly of Latin-American descent, is expected to be a more flexible and efficient element in Texas agriculture during 1945 than at any time in its history.

According to D. D. Steele, assistant state farm labor supervisor, the Extension Service farm labor staff has devoted the winter and spring months to laying a solid foundation of confidence and cooperation between the more than 30,000 migratory workers and Extension county agricultural agents and staff of the State Extension farm labor office at College Station.

To acquaint the migrants with the plan and objectives of the Extension farm labor program, a group of experienced assistants who speak Spanish were assigned to 30 South Texas and Rio Grande Valley counties where the majority of these workers live. They have contacted more than 2,500 crew leaders, each having an average group of 15 workers, as the basis for spreading information about the program. In all contacts the function of county agricultural agents was explained, along with the services their offices are able to render to laborers. The purpose is to accustom crew leaders and workers to seeking placements through county agricultural agents, and especially depending upon them for accurate information regarding demands for their services. Farmers in parts of the state where this labor is used most largely are cooperating in providing reception centers and suitable housing for migrants.

Field assistants report contacting 2,350 workers through 50 meetings and more than 2,000 through personal interviews. Meanwhile, eight south Texas radio stations and one in Mexico are lending cooperation by broadcasting information regarding the importance of the laborers' service in winning the war. Supplementing this, letters in English and Spanish from state Extension Director Ide P. Trotter emphasizing the service which Extension workers are prepared to render have been distributed to migrants. Steele believes that this preliminary planning should result in more equitable and economical distribution of migratory labor this year.

VENEZUELAN MOVIE GOERS DEMAND THE REAL THING
CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — The idea of dubbing Spanish dialogue into American movies isn't going over in Caracas.

The two principal complaints are that it is impossible to synchronize the Spanish with the movement of the actors' lips, and that it is incongruous to hear Spanish coming from an actor who doesn't gesture.

For a Latin to speak without gestures is, you might say, like ham without eggs. And bad synchronization can produce a laugh in the most serious sequence.

American movies with Spanish dialogue have a tremendous appeal in the small villages where illiteracy is highest, but Caracas' more discriminating movie houses refuse to show the American product except with its original English dialogue.

Five Weeks Band Course Will Be Taught In City

Parents of boys and girls eager to commence or continue the study of a musical instrument are urged to enroll their children in the summer band school to be conducted in this city at the high school band hall over a five weeks period beginning July 23. The band school will be held on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9 a. m. to 12 noon, during the five weeks period.

Richard Young, band director of the Lamesa organization will offer a complete course of study to local children who find it possible to attend this training school. Both beginners and matured players will be offered a course of study during the period.

Director Young states that letters explaining the school are being sent to the regularly enrolled pupils of the winter school term, but explains that there are a few children who wish to start the study of a musical instrument this summer. The charge for the five weeks course will be $5.00.

Registration for the course will take place in the band hall on Saturday, July 21, from 9 a. m. until 4 p. m. Parents of the younger players and beginners are urged to accompany their children to the registration.

Director Young states, "It is imperative that all who wish to register for band school do so on July 21, as it will be necessary to determine the enrollment so that the necessary music supplies can be obtained to teach the group."

A. Yes, providing that person is in one of the following degrees of relationship to each insured: wife, husband, child, parent, brother, sister, or one who has stood in the place of a parent toward the insured for a year before the insured entered the service.

Q. My son will soon be coming home for a furlough before he goes to the Pacific. His wife is a Wac stationed in this country. Could she get a furlough to cover the same period as his?

A. Women of any of the armed services who are stationed in the United States will be given leaves or furloughs concurrent with those of their husbands who are returning from overseas for temporary duty, rest or reassignment. Such leaves or furloughs may not exceed 45 days, except in such cases as wives of prisoners of war.

Q. If a soldier comes back from overseas for redeployment owing income taxes, does he have to pay these taxes before going overseas again?

A. Not unless he is in this country for five and a half months. The Secretary of the Treasury has recently extended the period when accrued income taxes of returning servicemen fall due. Service personnel returning from overseas may now wait until they have been in the United States for a continuous period of five and one-half months (not counting the month in which they return) before they pay their accrued income taxes.

Peaches May Be Canned Without Use Of Sugar

Sugar helps canned fruit to hold its shape, color and flavor, but it is not necessary to keep fruits from spoiling, says Mrs. Winifred J. Leverenz, specialist in food preservation of A. and M. College Extension Service. With present sugar shortages, canning without sugar will help homemakers to conserve the large surplus of peaches this summer, and will add many cans of fruit to the pantry shelves and to next winter's menus.

To can without sugar, use boiling water or strained fruit juice made from the softer peaches. Wash, peel and remove seed from firm peaches. Complete the canning operation by packing the raw peaches into a clean jar or can. Bring fruit juice or water to a boil and pour over the packed fruit. Leave 1-2 inch headspace. Steam before sealing: pints, 10 minutes; quarts, 15 minutes; half gallons, 20 minutes. Press down, and refill if necessary. Wipe off rim of jar and seal according to type of container being used. Process in a water bath after water starts boiling: pints and quarts, 15 minutes; half gallons, 25 minutes. Another method to can without sugar is to drop the firm fruit into the fruit juice. Bring to a boil. Pack into boiling hot clean jars. Leave 1-2 inch headspace. Seal according to type of container used. Process in a boiling water bath, 15 minutes for pints and quarts, and 25 minutes for half gallons.

If a small amount of sugar is available, the general wartime rule is to add one cup of sugar to two quarts of fruit. One cup of sugar syrup usually covers 1 quart of fruit when it is well packed. A thin syrup, one cup sugar to three cups juice or water, is also desirable from a nutrition standpoint.

Corn syrup or corn sugar may be substituted for part or all of the sugar. One cup sugar and two cups corn syrup to 6 cups water makes a desirable syrup. If corn syrup is to replace all of the sugar, use 1-2 to 3-4 cup syrup and one cup water. Honey may be substituted for a small part of the sugar, but it affects the flavor of the fruit, more than corn syrup. It is good with canned figs and with fruit pickles. Never use saccharin in canning, as it becomes bitter when heated.
