Airman Confesses Slaying Daughter

FORT WORTH (AP)—A youthful air policeman, who said he "sort of enjoys seeing things hurt," admitted today he killed his 4-month-old daughter in a fury because she would not stop crying.

Charles Croley Jr., 19, of Perryton, an airman at Carswell Air Force Base here, admitted his role in the infant's death to officers and newsmen after Peace Justice T. M. Sheffield today returned a verdict of murder with malice.

Sheffield and White Settlement police questioned Croley through the night. Croley said he had spanked the baby several times recently and enjoyed "seeing things hurt."

He said that at about 5 a.m. Wednesday he found the baby "already crying," and told his wife, 17, to make it stop.

"The baby never stopped crying," said Croley, in White Settlement jail. He said he got up, took Rhonda from his wife's arms, and pitched the baby six or seven feet onto the couch.

"I went over and spanked her," he said. "I didn't mean to hurt her then. I'd done it before. My wife came over screaming and hollering at me. She snatched the baby up."

By JACK BELL

But they demanded cuts in domestic spending to offset the military buildup. This stand was announced by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Senate minority leader, and Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, House minority leader, at a news conference that followed a meeting of top GOP members of Senate and House.

Their warred Soviet Premier Khrushchev against falling into the "mistaken belief" that the United States will not go "all the way," including resort to nuclear warfare, to meet its commitments in Europe.

Smouldering Feud Sparks Violence

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A smouldering feud between rival gangs of white and Negro youths at Blackstone, Va., exploded into violence as two white teenagers were wounded by shotgun pellets. The youths were wounded on Wednesday night when Negroes fired a shotgun into a milling crowd made up of the two gangs. Police Chief Bruce Farley said they were not seriously hurt. Farley said the feud had been brewing for two or three nights. Wednesday night the Negroes sent two small boys to tell the white youths they were ready to fight. The chief said 51 white boys piled into three cars and met the Negroes near the center of Blackstone. The Volunteer Fire Department heard the melee and rushed to join police in breaking up the riot. State Police said the firemen turned hoses on the youths to disperse them. No arrests were made. At Richmond, Va., a federal judge said Wednesday it would be up to the Virginia Supreme Court to determine whether the Prince Edward County public schools were closed in violation of the state's constitution. Judge Oren R. Lewis said he was not going to require the reopening of the county's schools closed two years ago to avoid racial integration. Lewis' comments came in the third day of a hearing on attorneys for the Negro plaintiffs and the Prince Edward School Board summarized before the judge arguments in a court case testing the legality of the school closures.

Fat Shortage Plagues Cuba

By JACK BEST
Canadian Press Staff Writer
HAVANA (AP)—The key word in Cuba today is "manateca." Translated from the Spanish it means lard, or fat.

"Manateca—or lack of it—has presented Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime with a sticky problem. For the first time in its 2½-year history, the regime has had to impose rationing.

Families are restricted to one pound of lard and one pound of cooking oil monthly for each person above the age of one year. This is going to hurt Cubans normally consume an extraordinarily large amount of fat.

The government places the blame on "American economic aggression" for the present embarrassing situation, claiming the United States is maintaining an unannounced embargo against exports of lard to Cuba. The United States has traditionally been the sole supplier of Cuba, selling this country 98,000 tons a year.

Shipments of lard from the United States have ceased or practically ceased. Some, however, suspect that Cuba's dollar shortage may have as much to do with this as any real or imagined embargo.

Shortages have been cropping up all over the place in Cuba in the last several months, as the U.S. embargo on most exports sinks in. But none has caused such consternation as the lard shortage.

Cuban people like their food fried, so they use a lot of fat—many times the one pound monthly now to be allotted. They also like to douse certain foods, for instance rice and salads, with vegetable oil.

The government says the shortage will be over in 18 months. It is feverishly building up the country's pig stocks, mostly by imports from Canada.

Kiwanis Has Report On Convention

Frank D. Stephenson, president of the Kiwanis Club of Snyder, gave a report on his trip to the 46th annual convention of Kiwanis International at the Wednesday luncheon meeting of the local club.

The International convention was held in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, and the business session there was climaxed by the election of I. R. Witthuhn of Milwaukee as president of Kiwanis International.

Stephenson said Witthuhn thus becomes official spokesman for 260,000 Kiwanians in more than 4,800 clubs located throughout the United States and Canada. He succeeded J. O. Tally Jr., of Fayetteville, N. C.

Stephenson said attendance at the Toronto convention totalled over 18,000, making it the largest in the organization's 46-year history.

In other business, the delegates approved a resolution favoring establishment of Kiwanis Clubs in other countries in addition to Canada and the United States, under due safeguards fixed by the board of trustees of Kiwanis International.

Principal speaker at the convention was the Hon. John G. Diefenbaker, Prime Minister of Canada. Denver, Colo., was selected as site for the 1962 convention.

Stephenson returned home via Washington, D. C., from which he made a leisurely tour of Atlantic Coast states and the Deep South, visiting points of tourist interest and industries along the way.

Finds Irish Men Lacking

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—"Irishmen think their wives are just servants—slaves. They don't even think they're women."

The authority, blonde, green-eyed Ruth Kane, 38, Miss Ireland in the International Beauty Congress now under way at this southern California city.

"They're such nice," she said of Irish men in an interview Wednesday. "Their wives get their own way all the time. Who would want that?"

Miss Kane, who said she prefers American men but doesn't have any marriage plans, added: "People seem to have the idea that Irishmen have a great gift of gab. Malarkey. The only time they have a gift of gab is when they're drunk."

Barber Is Anxious To Make A Deal
KANSAS CITY (AP)—Dale Gasper, 24, needs an upper dental plate and he wants to make a deal with some dentist.

He'll give a dentist two years of barber service in return for the chompers.

Gasper said a dentist placed the cost of a plate at $150. He figures 32 haircuts, 52 tonic massages and 26 shampoos are worth $171.

"I've got four sons to feed," Gasper said Wednesday. "They're good eaters. The way our food bills run, it wouldn't be easy to scrape up $150. And I need those teeth now."

Victim Of Shooting Likes Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP)—Charles Boothroyd, 35, Rockville, Conn., leaves Utah with the haunting memory of murder—murder of the woman he planned to marry. But he wants to return.

"I do plan to come back again to Utah," he said when he was released from the hospital here Wednesday. "It is so beautiful here."

"That is, if my eyesight improves."

Boothroyd was shot twice in the head by a man he stopped to help on a lonely desert road July 4 near Moab in southeastern Utah.

The man tried to rob him, but ended up shooting Jeanette Sullivan, 41, also of Rockville, in the back of the head.

She died. He shot Boothroyd and left him for dead.

Mrs. Sullivan's daughter, Denise, 15, tried to drive off in their car, but the killer ran her down in his car and took her with him. Denise is presumed dead.

Boothroyd said he met Mrs. Sullivan two years ago and planned to marry her. He took Denise and Mrs. Sullivan on a vacation camping trip to Utah and Wyoming as a Christmas present to Denise for her school work.

On July 7, FBI agents stopped Abel Aragon on a highway not far from the kidnap-killing to question him about it. But the former marine shot and killed himself. Aragon, 35, was an unemployed coal miner with five children, and a respected citizen of Price, Utah.

Boothroyd's son Charles flew here to get him. Boothroyd has lost part of the sight in his right eye because of the wounds.

They plan to drive home in Boothroyd's car.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Entertainer Sammy Davis Jr. and his father face income-tax liens totaling $35,244.

The Internal Revenue Service Wednesday filed a $12,375 lien for additional income taxes for 1958 against the entertainer and his former wife, Lora, from whom he was divorced in 1959. He is now married to actress May Britt.

A lien for the $22,869 for the same year was filed against Sammy Davis Sr. and his wife, Rita

Rhodesia Alters Its Constitution

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (AP)—Southern Rhodesia voters have endorsed a proposed new constitution for this British colony that gives Negroes a voice in Parliament for the first time but retains white rule.

Prime Minister Sir Edgar Whitehead, leader of the United Federal Party, heralded the outcome of the referendum Wednesday as a "victory over the extremists of both sides."

African nationalists, demanding Negro domination of the government, and the right-wing White Dominion party, opposed to any relaxation of the color bar, but Dominion Party, opposed to any relaxation of the color bar, bitterly fought the plan to give Negroes 15 of the 60 seats in the new Parliament.

The voting went off with only minor incidents after three days of rioting and demonstrations in which three Negroes were killed by police gunfire.

An attempt by nationalist leaders to paralyze the country by a protest strike flopped. Most Africans went to their jobs as usual. Some 79,000 whites and only 4,000 Negroes were eligible to vote in the colony, which has a population of 2,675,000 Negroes and 215,000 whites.

Returns from 23 of the 33 districts showed 32,878 votes in favor of the new constitution, 13,415 opposed. Only five constituencies so far had rejected the plan. One was Willowvale, which has the largest concentration of Negro voters in the colony.

Government officials say the new constitution will mean a gradual breakdown of the color bar and will be a real move toward a partnership of the white and black races.

Khrushchev Must Realize Kennedy's Serious This Time

By RICHARD STARNES
In the next 60 days, President Kennedy's chief proponent will be the exquisitely delicate task of persuading Khrushchev and his equities that this time we mean it.

The most difficult aspect of this task is that Khrushchev will have before his eyes the image of Laos, where we said it and didn't mean it, and it may be impossible for him to forego what appears to be another easy conquest.

There is an important historical parallel here, and one not as ancient as most such hard-son lessons. It has to do with another power - hungry international gambler shooting craps with the prospects of global war.

Like Khrushchev, Hitler was playing against a much stronger enemy, but it was an enemy divided and unsure. Beginning with the resumption of compulsory military service in 1935, Hitler played on the weakness of the Allies like a virtuoso scraping a fiddle. The most dramatic example of what might have been was when Hitler in 1936 remilitarized the left bank of the Rhine.

troops we could not even think of denying the line of the Rhine!" Kesselring called the move "an excusable military... only a gesture, and a very unconvincing one." In Paris, the German military attaché seriously asked a colonel on the French general staff, "Surely, you are not going to decide war on us merely because a few battalions have entered the Rhineland?" Hitler himself knew the risks. "It was agreed," Field Marshal Blomberg said later, "that only three battalions would march over the river — so that it would be easy to withdraw if the French made any serious threat."

The Fuehrer explained that he intended that German troops be withdrawn in the face of any French activity, no matter how small the units involved. But on the other hand, "Goutard quotes Hitler, "mere diplomatic protests, however violent, will never force my hand."

The French and the British contented themselves with mere talk, however, and the stage was set for the next — move leading to World War II.

100 Arrested In Propaganda Raids

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — About 100 persons have been arrested following nationwide raids by police searching for Communist propaganda. Federal police said Wednesday 30 persons were arrested in Buenos Aires. No charges have been filed against the prisoners. They remain at the disposition of the executive power, a form of arrest under which charges need not be filed.

How To Be Popular In One Lesson

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Once upon a time there was a man who set out to be popular and well-liked. His name was Mortimer Witherspoon Thrope.

He went to the public library and read a book on how to become popular and successful. "The way to be popular is to be normal," the book said. "Just act as a normal, balanced, civilized individual should act and you're bound to be well-liked."

So Thrope faithfully followed the book's advice. He decided to become the most normal individual in his community. Mortimer married a girl who was neither homely nor pretty—just average. They had three children, all of whom got medium grades in school.

Mortimer bought a standard-sized house with a standard-sized mortgage in a standard neighborhood. He drove a medium-sized car—neither too dull nor too flashy—and traded it in on a new one every three years.

He joined the Elks, the PTA, and the American Legion. He was glad to serve on committees but always declined to run for office in any of these organizations. "Oh, there must be someone else better qualified," he said, modestly.

He subscribed to a book club, but carefully avoided reading any of the selections—unless they hit the best seller list. Mortimer always—almost always—got up to give his seat to an old lady on the bus, particularly if anyone from his neighborhood was on the bus too.

He always arrived on the job punctually at 9 a.m., and left promptly at 5:30. "I get paid for a full day's work—and I like to give it to them," he said. When the boss told a joke in a conference, Mortimer was the second employee to start chuckling and the next to the last to quit laughing.

At cocktail parties, Mortimer got high but never loaded, and never bragged about himself. "Tell me about yourself—you must have had an interesting life," he urged those he met. After 15 years of exemplary living, Mortimer suddenly awoke to the fact that instead of being widely popular, he was being avoided, even by old acquaintances. They seemed uneasy in his presence.

So Mortimer hired a public relations man to find out why. This individual made a secret survey of Mortimer's neighborhood and office and came back with his report. "They think you're too good to be true, Mr. Thrope. They don't trust you. They think you must be hiding something."

Moral: If you want to be popular, be different. Everyone suspects anyone who acts too normal.

Junior Editors Quiz on INSECTS

QUESTION: How do fireflies turn their lights on and off?

ANSWER: Fireflies are not really flies, but soft-bodied flying beetles. The females, in some kinds, are without wings and these are the familiar "glow worms." The males find the females by their flashing lights. In Paraguay there is an amazing firefly with both red and green lights, called the "railway beetle." Certain tribes living in the jungle fasten fireflies to their toes, so that they can find their way at night.

FOR YOU TO DO: It is said that when the fireflies "cold light" is really understood so that it can be made in a test tube, it might be very useful to mankind. Study your science and chemistry and some day you may be the one to find out how to make "cold light!"

(Richard Branca of Norristown, Pa., wins $10 for this question. Mail yours on a post card to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

Melons Are Plentiful In State

DALLAS (AP) — Watermelons are plentiful in Texas food markets, but you may have to pay a bit more for quality, says the Agricultural Marketing Service. The price spread between top melons and those of lower quality increased noticeably this week, as harvest in Southern areas tapered off. Better melons are scarce.

Texas cantaloupes continue in excellent supply at economical prices. Fresh peaches are plentiful and low-priced if bought in bulk. Lemons, California plums and strawberries remain in good supply. Bananas also are abundant and priced to sell.

Grapefruit and California grapes are higher.

Best buys among vegetables are snapbeans, cabbage, carrots, celery, corn, greens and green onions, lettuce, onions, okra, field peas, peppers, round-red potatoes and tomatoes.

Cabbage, from Texas, Colorado and New Mexico, and okra are lower. Carrots, celery and potatoes are slightly lower.

Squash prices are fairly high and supply limited. A small volume of early sweet potatoes reached some markets this week.

Volume of California Bartlett pears is increasing and prices are some lower. Summer apples, including Arkansas Summer Champions and Gravensteins from Texas and Arkansas, are appearing.

Chicken and turkey are plentiful and economical. Increased beef slaughter, especially better-quality red beef, is making itself felt. Egg prices continue firm. Shrimp is plentiful.

McClellan's Hope Stifled

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Staff Writer

A thoughtful army encourages its soldiers to write letters home. It's good for morale.

But the letters Gen. George B. McClellan wrote to his adoring wife, Nell, back in 1861 might have given a thoughtful army second thoughts had it known about them at the time.

McClellan, called up to command the Union Army after the Bull Run disaster, openly ridiculed the President of the United States and toyed with the idea of becoming a dictator.

"Our George," or "Little Mac" as his soldiers called him, turned out to be a failure on the battlefield, and in a way, it was a good thing. One big victory conceivably might have turned the trick for him.

McClellan, born to wealth in Philadelphia, a top scholar at West Point and a railroad president at 32, was summoned to command after a minor success against the Confederates in western Virginia.

Arriving in Washington with the Bull Run panic still hanging heavy in the air, he wrote to his wife: "I find myself in a new and strange position here: President, cabinet, Gen. Scott, the general-in-chief and all deferring to me. I seem to have become the power of the land."

Adulation did nothing to dispel his day dreams.

He had barely arrived on the scene when Democratic politicians began sounding him out as presidential timber for 1864 to run against Lincoln — the "Original Gorilla," he called him in letters to his wife.

Nixon Backs JFK's Stand

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon says of President Kennedy's call for increased military power to meet the Soviet challenge on Berlin: "Only this kind of firm policy in dealing with the Communists has a chance to keep the peace without surrender."

Nixon, commenting Wednesday on Kennedy's nationwide talk on Tuesday night, urged full support of the chief executive by all Americans—regardless of party.

At the same time, Nixon called for "decisive action" on four other fronts. The 1960 Republican candidate for president listed them as:

1. Stop Castro's outlaw operations in the Americas.
2. Break the Soviet filibuster on atomic testing.

3. Put some backbone into America's fight against admitting Red China to the United Nations.
4. Shelve all new spending programs not directly necessary for national defense.

"Action on these fronts," Nixon declared, "is essential to protect our security at home and will help regain the initiative for American leadership abroad."

The officer didn't accept the fine.

land August 12. Featured among the stars to be seen at that time will be a number of West Texas grid greats, including All-American Jack Spikes of Snyder and TCU and E. J. Holub of Lubbock and Texas Tech.

Summed up: the Dallas Texans, who some people thought might have been the class of the American Football League in 1960, should be a much better football team in 1961.

Not listed but likely to be in the running are a couple more fullbacks who rank high in consideration this season — Texas A&M's Sam Byers (here Oct. 7) and the Raiders' own Coolidge Hunt, leading Conference rusher last fall.

And, adding further credence to the Texans' claim that a championship may be in the offing, are newcomers like all-American linebacker E. J. Holub of Texas Tech, a 6-4, 225-pounder who has been called "the finest professional prospect in the country."

And then there's Randy Duncan, Everybody's all-American at Iowa in 1958. Duncan will be a Texas quarterback candidate after two years in Canada. He led the nation in passing at Iowa and, from accounts of his final game in Canadian football (five touchdowns and more than 300 yards), he has lost none of his touch.

McNeely, a one-time Michigan State football player, owns victories over George Logan, Uli Ritter and Willi Besmanoff in his unbeaten career.

McNeely, who is in the hands of lawyers," the promoter said. "They are very complicated things. As soon as the lawyers get them straightened out, Patterson will come to Boston to sign."

Four Baltimore pitchers held Boston to eight hits in a doubleheader while the Orioles swept the pair 1-1 and 9-2. Billy Hoel, Wes Stock and Hoyt Wilhelm teamed up with a two-hitter in the opener. Jack Fisher went all the way in the second with a six-hitter.

Woody Held and Jimmy Piersall each had four hits in Cleveland's 17-hit attack in a 12-5 victory over Kansas City. Gary Bell was the winner over Norm Bass in relief of Jim Archer.

Minnesota piled up an early lead, added four runs in the sixth and withstood a closing surge by Washington for a 10-9 decision. Ray Moore, fifth Twins' pitcher, finally saved Dagoberto Cueto's first major league victory. Dave Sisler lost in relief.

In the National League, Cincinnati remained one game in front of Los Angeles. The Reds rallied to nip Milwaukee 3-2 and the Dodgers beat Philadelphia 6-1. Pittsburgh broke a five-game losing streak by defeating San Francisco 8-3 and Chicago edged St. Louis 7-5 in 12 innings.

Roland Sheldon pitched a four-hitter for the Yanks, easing along behind all those homers off loser Ray Herbert.

Left-hander Don Moeller was roughed up for four of the five Detroit runs, suffering a sixth defeat.

land August 12. Featured among the stars to be seen at that time will be a number of West Texas grid greats, including All-American Jack Spikes of Snyder and TCU and E. J. Holub of Lubbock and Texas Tech. Following is a Texas news release, along with the accompanying sketches as forwarded on Spikes and Holub.)

DALLAS (Special) — The Dallas Texans very definitely expect to be strong contenders for the American Football League championship in 1961.

A mid-season slump, greeted to a large extent by a series of injuries, curtailed the Texas challenge in 1960 although the 8-6 record of the Dallas team was certainly not embarrassing. Included in the eight victories were a 24-0 decision over AFL champion Houston and a 17-0 verdict over Western Division titlist Los Angeles (now San Diego) Chargers.

The Texans allowed less points than any team in the league (253) and, although they were fourth in points scored, their total of 382 points scored was only 20 points less than the New York Titans' league-leading mark. The Texas point spread was 26-1 as compared to second best Houston's 27-20.

The nucleus of the fine 1960 team remains. Abner Haynes, the AFL's Player of the Year, is back as is his halfback partner Johnny Robinson, fullback Jack Spikes, quarterback Cotton Davidson, end Chris Burford, guards Sid Fournet and Bill Kristler and from the defensive team ends Paul Miller and Mel Branch, linebacker Sherrill Hendrick and defensive backs Don Flynn and David Webster. Haynes, Krisber, Branch and Hendrick were on the All-AFL first team and several of the others received second team honors.

And, adding further credence to the Texans' claim that a championship may be in the offing, are newcomers like all-American linebacker E. J. Holub of Texas Tech, a 6-4, 225-pounder who has been called "the finest professional prospect in the country."
