Education Pays Off In Salary

The average young man residing in Lamb County who is just starting out to make a living can expect to earn close to $186,000 over the next 45 years or so.

Such are his lifetime income prospects, based upon the amount of schooling he has had, the economic environment in which he lives, his probable life span and other factors.

The most important of these is education, according to the findings of various governmental and college bodies.

From that standpoint, the Lamb County resident is in a good position because the education level, locally, is higher than in many areas of the country and is constantly rising.

At the present time the median amount of schooling being acquired by local men is about 10.0 years, 6.7 percent more than in 1960.

According to figures compiled by the Department of Commerce, some 13.9 percent of the local male population over age 25 are elementary school graduates, another 18.4 percent have completed four years high school and 5.2 percent are college graduates.

Studies by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center and other show that each added year of school produces greater income for the average person throughout his entire working career.

The current differential between an elementary school graduate and a high school graduate is about $60,000 in lifetime earnings. By the same token, the average college graduate has a $180,000 advantage over the high school graduate. These figures were quoted recently by President Johnson.

As a result, millions of adults in the United States have been returning to school in their spare time, taking courses to improve their basic skills and knowledge.

Some guidance is given to the parents of new-born children who want to start saving now so that they will have enough money at the end of 18 years to send their children to college.

By putting aside $25 a month in a bank that pays 4 1/2 percent compound interest, they will have $8,300 for the purpose when the time comes.

Homemaking Workshop Set

Summer homemaking workshop activities are scheduled to resume Monday Aug. 8, according to Mrs. Tommy Lester, homemaking teacher at Olton High School.

A knitting project, child care workshop and a grooming course will be offered along with an adult clothing workshop.

Persons interested in enrolling in the classes are asked to contact Mrs. Lester.

Babe Ruth Queen Named

BABE RUTH QUEEN-Kathline Carson was crowned Babe Ruth Queen Saturday. With her is Jimmy Ferguson, captain of Parsons Funeral Home team, which Miss Carson represented.

NYC PROGRAM DECLINED

New Teachers Named, 3 Resignations Taken

Olton school trustees approved employment of four new teachers and accepted the resignations of three at a regular meeting Monday night.

In other activity, the board declined to renew the Neighborhood Youth Corps program which operated here last year.

New teachers employed are Geary Taylor, coach and science; Mrs. Judy Taylor, fifth grade; Mrs. Pearl Holt, fifth grade; and Mrs. Reda Clay, junior high physical education.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are from Amarillo, while Mrs. Holt has been teaching in Lazbuddie and Mrs. Clay has been girls basketball coach at Ralls the past four years.

Resignations were accepted from Coach and Mrs. Jacky Moss, who went to Littlefield; and Donna Burnett, elementary teacher who has taken a position with the Brownfield schools.

Employment of Taylor filled the last vacancy on the coaching staff. The group now includes Don Beck, head football coach; Raymond Kauffman, line coach; James Cagle, head basketball coach and football end coach; and three others, Taylor, Buddy Sharpe and Tommy Lester, who will be assigned to junior varsity, freshmen and junior high coaching.

Kauffman , who succeeds Moss as line coach, received a $200 per year salary boost by board approval when he stepped into the first football assistant's role.

Football workouts will begin Aug. 15.

In other action at the meeting, the board accepted a bid of $2,003 on the purchase of three used 48-passenger buses by Clarence Carpentor, El Paso. The board earlier had replaced the three buses with three new ones.

Trustees also approved the delinquent tax roll for 1965, and heard a report from Supt. Ray Schultz on teacher salaries.

Schultz told the board that school administrators are facing the toughest time ever in finding teachers. Four hundred teachers in this area alone went into remedial reading programs, he said, leaving vacancies behind them.

He suggested the board study the possibility of a small increase in teacher's salaries here, to enable the school to compete in the hiring of teachers with other schools of the area.

The survey showed Olton among schools in the lower bracket in starting teacher's pay. Olton pays $240 per year above the state schedule, while others pay anywhere from zero to $800 above, the average being about $360.

First Cotton, Milo Get C-CA Prizes

Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture board of directors met Tuesday morning and announced plans for a farmer-merchant breakfast, along with prizes for first cotton and grain loads.

A committee, composed of Walter Struve, Doug Jones and Kenneth Moore, was appointed to set a date for the proposed breakfast.

Each member of the C-CA is to ask a guest.

A prize of $50 will be given for the first load of cotton and another $50 prize will be given for the first load of grain.

Only requirement for the cotton is that it be accepted by the gin and the government. Grain load must be not less than 10,000 pounds.

Both must be delivered to a gin or elevator in Olton.

Merchants who desire to donate additional prizes will be contacted.

In other action, Basil Sherman was named new director to West Texas Chamber of Commerce. He succeeds Percy Parsons.

What's Going Out Isn't Coming Back

Just how Lamb County made out last year under the Federal government's grants-in-aid programs is indicated in new figures from Washington.

The aid programs -- there are more than 200 of them -- offer financial assistance to states and local communities for such purposes as education, child welfare, health, highways, housing, airports, research, sewage disposal and the like.

For some cities and counties the cost of the assistance is greater than the assistance received. In those communities, the price paid for these grants, through taxes and matching funds, makes them an expensive luxury.

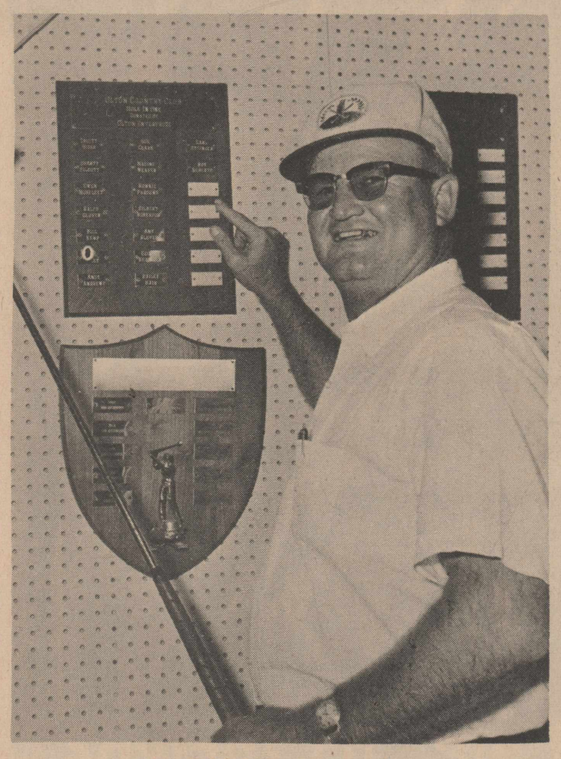

For others, it works out favorably from cost standpoint and helps in the development of community facilities that might otherwise be long delayed.

The current study was made by the Tax Foundation, a non-profit organization.

According to a breakdown of its figures, which are based on Treasury Department reports, the cost of Federal aid in Lamb County came to approximately $1,134,000 in the past fiscal year and the amount that came back in the form of grants, an estimated $1,090,000.

The State of Texas as a whole was also behind on this basis. Its payments to Washington, allocated to the Federal aid programs, amounted to $560,900,000.

It was equivalent to $1 in government aid recieved for every $1.04 expended.

HE SCORED AN ACE

NORLAN DUDLEY, Hart banker, points to the place where his name will be inscribed on a plaque after shooting a hole-in-one last Sunday afternoon at Olton Country Club. Dudley used a chip iron on the 165-yard number three hole. Five other Hart golfers were on hand to see the "dream shot," including Joe Bailey, Dub Bruington, Lanny Tucker, Junior Bass and Newlon Rowland. Dudley's "1" enabled him to shoot a 39 on the 36-par course.

Improvements Set After Paving OK'd

Bond Issue Gets 129-90 Approval

Olton's city council set its sights on street repairs as soon as possible this week after certifying voting returns which approved a $60,000 bond election at the polls last Saturday.

A turnout of 223 voters gave the green light on the street improvements, 129-90. Four ballots were mutilated.

Only apparent disappointment to the council was the light turnout. They had hoped for a better representation of voters this time.

An earlier election saw the proposal defeated by a 139-120 count.

Approval of the bond issue will mean about 25 blocks of new paving and a large amount of seal coating and repair to other city streets.

About $35,000 will be spent on new paving and $25,000 on seal coating.

Reversal of the earlier election apparently was due to the council's announcement that no tax increase would be necessary if the bonds were approved.

In the first election, approval would have meant a 14 per cent increase in taxes.

In between the first and second elections, the city found a way to handle the improvements without a tax hike. It was discovered by financial advisor Joe Smith of First Southwest Co. of Lubbock, who pointed out big surpluses already built up in funds set aside to pay off bonds.

Anticipated cost of property owners on new paving will run between $4.25 and $4.50 per front foot.

The council canvassed returns of Saturday's election at a regular meeting Tuesday night.

After approving the returns, the group voted that the $60,000 in bonds be sold to First Southwest Co., Lubbock, at an interest rate of 4 1/2 per cent.

The council then set a special meeting for next Tuesday night at 7 o'clock with city Engineer Bill McMorries of Amarillo. This session is designed to get the ball rolling on street repairs first, then new paving.

Financial advisor Smith told the council it would be at least 30 days before money would be available to the city to begin the repairs.

Because of weather factors in the fall, much of the new paving may have to be put off until next spring, Smith said.

Procedures for the repair and new paving will be outlined by McMorries at Tuesday night's special meeting.

In other activity at this week's meeting, the council approved a resolution closing an alley on the old McGowan property between Ed Thompson Implement and Piggly Wiggly.

Early records showed an alley designated for that spot, but a petition from H. G. Walker, new owner of the property, and Ed Thompson pointed out that the alley had never been used and that the McGowan store had been on the site more than 30 years.

LIONS EVENT NETS $1,300

Olton Lions Club reported proceeds of almost $1,300 from its sponsorship of a carnival here four nights last week.

"It's the best turnout we've had, at least in the eight years I've been here," Lions President Charles Polk said.

FFA Boys, Instructors At Convention

Three Olton FFA boys and ag instructors, Max Malone and John Scott, are attending the State FFA convention in Austin.

Voting delegate from Olton is Mike Trotter. Other boys attending are Danny Collins and Danny Sides.

State convention is being held in the municipal auditorium in Austin and officially got underway yesterday. It will close tomorrow.

Olton Youth trying for Lone Star Farmer's Degrees were Jack Burkhalter, Don Mitchell, Doyle Meadows, Darrell Breland, Neal Burrow and Steve Huckabee.

Featured speaker today was Howard Williams, 20, national president of FFA from Olin, N. C.

Approximately 5,000 Texas Future Farmers were expected to attend the meet.

Convention actually started Tuesday night with the 6th annual vesper service at the Stepehn F. Austin Hotel. Service was conducted by state officers.

Awards program was to be held today.

A LONG-TIME former resident of the Olton area, Snooks Goyne, displays a rare joint snake he found near his place in Oklahoma. Goyne, visiting here with his daughter, Mrs. Bennie Doggett, said the snake just "came to pieces" at its joints when he tried to catch him. He turned it over to the Olton school science department for its studies.

Little League Stars Named, Tourney Starts Next Thursday

They Did It

They are always busier than anyone-honking at us the second the light changes, raising cain and taxes, spreading rumors, littering the highways and letting this country go to the dogs and the Communists.

They are always talking about the good old days and trying to put a man on the moon before They solve Their problems here on earth.

They are out to get us---take it away, give us the run-around, put us down. They never understand us or listen to us.

They can't be trusted, but They are our main source of information--whispering in our ears, flashing before our eyeballs---making us say: "I hear where They're going to make us pay more taxes . . .I see where They let him off free. Everyone knows he's guilty. . .They say he beats his wife . . . runs around all the time, you know."

They always vote the good guys down and the bad guys in - - when They vote at all.

They are everywhere all the time, meddling, shoving---except when we think "They ought to do something about it."

They used to do a few good things. . . but it was all just a big front. We are the innocent good guys. They do the dirty work of the world.

Just who do They think They are, anyway ?

Most people can't lick them so they join Them but here in Olton, we think we should have a showdown with Them. We could plan a giant barbecue at the ORC.

Led by the high school band, the junior high band, the Sheriff's Posse, and all the school children, we could parade through the area summoning people to the event.

The bands could play "Don't Let Them Take It Away " and "We Shall Overcome."

Our local lawmen could make sure no one stayed at home, figuring that if everyone in the area was in one place at one time, They were bound to be there, too.

Such an event would be bound to attract the attention of the whole civilized world. The international press, the Beatles, John Glenn, Sophia Loren and President Johnson might even fly in for it.

After the glorious feast, we could take a head count. Then President Johnson might approach the microphone and say:

"My fellow Americans, this is an historic occasion. You have resolved to make peace with Them by declaring total war against Them. And They are with us here tonight. Let us . . . "

But what is this? A small boy with barbecue sauce on his face, squeaking:

"But, Mr. President, there ain't nobody here but us chickens ! "

And then it's quiet- - real quiet- - as we turn around and look at our neighbors, get up and head for home, feeling mighty lonesome.

The wire services would flash the news around the globe :

"The world tonight mourns the passing of its greatest agitator, friend, enemy, comforter and scapegoat--- Them. They died in this quiet rural community today, having "never existed. "

Dear Bill and Amy,

How is the weather down there ? We are in Norwich, N. Y. visiting our daughter and her family Dr. and Mrs. Wagner.

It is 68 in the house this morning. We turned on the heat when we got up this morning. In the night it was down to 56.

It is the prettiest place I have ever been. The town is in a valley and mountains on both sides. We went to N. Y. City Saturday and it was so hot -105 we didn't enjoy it as much as we would have if it had been cooler.

We are leaving here Monday for Chicago to visit a daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Poteet called us Tuesday night and they said it was 105 there the day before. We are having a nice time but this is no place like home and we have enjoyed the Olton paper while we have been here.

Yours truly,
Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Curry

OFFICE SMOKERS CREATE SMOG

Dear Amy:

I doubt very much I'm the only one with this problem, but believe me when I say I would do almost anything to find a solution.

I work in an office with men who happen to smoke to an excess. I do not smoke and am not against it, however, I am disgusted with it. Everyday, the entire office becomes so smoke-infested that it looks as though a cloud came through the window. I have asked them time after time to please cut down a little for my sake because I suffer the consequences of not being able to breathe, getting itchy eyes and a runny nose.

You can't possibly imagine the response. Either I am ignored completely or a nasty comment is made.

Amy, what am I supposed to do — quit my job?

Gasping for Fresh Air

Dear Gasping:

Your doubts are correct, but there is a positive solution: Find a marriageable mate (who also objects to smoking) and choose your own "Cloud 9."

Dear Amy:

A few months ago I read that you would give the addresses of servicemen who wish to correspond.

I am only 16 and would appreciate it very much if you would give me the address of a young serviceman who is preferably single (since I think it would be unwise to write to one who is married). Oh, and I would like one who is in Viet Nam since I feel that there is where the men are most lonely and I'll be doing something to help the war.

Janet

Dear Janet:

I never stated that I would supply my readers names and addresses of servicemen. I did, however, suggest that anyone who was interested in writing to servicemen contact their local Y. W. C. A.

Since then I have been advised that the U. S. O. operation also can supply you with the address of an Armed Forces Unit and how the selection of a 'pen-pal' works. You may also write to the U. S. O. CLUB, Saigon, Viet Nam. Your letter will be posted for any serviceman who would desire to correspond with you.

Dear Amy:

Our problem is this: We both want to go out with the same boy and we are both good friends of his. It seems as though when we are together, we always meet up with him. We both want him and no other. What should we do?

D.G. & J.K.

Dear D.G. & J.K.:

Toss a coin!

Dear Amy:

We have friends who have a son in the Marines leaving for Viet Nam shortly. He is presently home for 10 days before being shipped over. We want to give him a small gift but don't know what would be useful or appropriate.

We need suggestions. Got any?

Mr. & Mrs. Avery

Dear Mr. & Mrs.:

I got a few!

Air Mail Stationary,
Religious Artifacts,
Military Brush Set,
Shaving Kit,
Playing Cards,
Comic Books,
and . . . . . .
a Subscription to this newspaper!

Dear Amy:

I am having problems. My boyfriend has moved to Wisconsin. He promised he would write to me but he hasn't written yet. Do you think I should write to him or do you think he has gotten another girl? He has written to two of the boys. Do you think he still likes me?

Problems

Dear Problems:

Long distance romances usually run out of steam. You may drop him a few lines, but I suggest you date while you wait.

A modest statement about Ansar

In the steady, relentless march of agricultural chemistry, farmers are likely to hear all manner of wild, unbelievable claims about herbicides.

Well, we'd like to make a carefully considered, modest statement about ANSAR: It's the best weed-killer ever developed for the cotton grower.

Why? Because it's the first weed-killer that effectively, economically and consistently kills Johnson Grass—a weed that's killed a lot of cotton crops. ANSAR also kills cocklebur, puncture vine, dallisgrass, nutsedge and dozens of other crop-choking weeds. It's easy to apply, completely non-injurious to cotton and thoroughly proven in use.

Try it! We'll make you a believer, too.

Hopewell Revival Set

The Hopewell Baptist Church is holding its revival meeting July 17 through July 24 at 8 p. m. each evening.

Pastor Dean Harris, evangeltist, and Paul Burch of Lubbock will be in charge of the services. Bro . Burch is formerly of Olton.

There will also be an annual homecoming dinner at the school lunchroom July 24.

Everyone is invited to attend both the revival services and the dinner.

SCOUT NEWS

Girls from ages eight through 12 attended day camp last week at the Melvin Berry farm, July 5-9. The camp was given the name of "Camp Four Winds" by the girls, and was held between the hours of 2 and 7 p. m.

Swimming was enjoyed each day, along with cook outs, hikes, and nature studies. There were 75 registered for the camp with an average daily attendance of 71.

Saturday, the last day of the camp, was devoted to play time and skit giving. The four units which made up the camp, Sirocco, Foehn, Williwaw, and Skinook, each acted out a skit they had worked on the previous days. There was also a papoose unit for boys and girls, ages three to eight, children of the day camp leaders.

Mrs. Ann Nicholas acted as lifeguard, Mrs. Ray Culwell served as first aid nurse, and several mothers and also the Cadette Scouts served as leaders of the different units.

Mrs. Roscoe Thomas showed a collection of Indian artifacts which belong to Sammy Thomas. They included tools, arrowheads, etc. Mrs. Ruth Holladay gave a review on "The Sound of Music."

The day camp was reported "A big success".

The Star Patrol of Girl Scout Troop attended the production, "The Sound of Music" in Lubbock, Wednesday July 13, along with their leaders, Mrs. F. B. Coleman and Mrs. J. S. Nicholas.

Those attending were Susan Nicholas, Sandee Coleman, Susan Cannon, Royetta Moore, Leslie Holladay, Lana Myers, Marlana May, Judy Meadows, Carol Scribner and guests, Sharla Nicholas and Sheree Coleman.

IN BABE RUTH

Olton Babe Ruth Team Out After Two Tourney Losses

Olton Babe Ruth team went down to Muleshoe in their first tourney game this week.

A second defeat by Canyon Tuesday eliminated the Olton team from competition.

Details of games follow:

CANYON 8, OLTON 5

Olton's All Stars were eliminated from the Babe Ruth Tournament Tuesday afternoon when they lost to Canyon 8-5.

In the first inning, Freddie Helms and Tony George drew walks but were unable to score. For Canyon it was three up, three down.

Neither team scored in the second and Tony George turned in his second outstanding grab of the tournament, robbing Wick Culp of a hit.

In the third, Olton picked up two runs on three hits. Roy Dean Rivers led off with a single followed by Helms' second base on balls. Terry Bridge hit to the short stop what would have been a double play but was safe when the first baseman dropped the ball. Charles A. McClain doubled to drive in Helms and Kelly O'Hair singled to score Bridge. Canyon picked up their first hit in the bottom of the third, a single by Lynn Salman.

In the fourth, Canyon tied the game as Jim Albracht drew a walk, stole second and Frank Williams singled. Johnny Johnson sacrificed to score Albracht and Steve Vernon laid down a double to score Williams with the tying run.

For Olton in the sixth, George was safe when the shortstop fumbled a ground ball. McClain singled to right field and went to second when the fielder misplayed the ball. O'Hair was safe on a fielders' choice that failed to pick off a runner. Bobby Cummings' single cleaned the bases and got him second base on the right fielders' second error of the inning. Terry Houchin singled but Canyon stifled the rally. It was almost tied up again when Gaylon Davis singled and advanced as Salman was out third to first. Wick Culp was on safe and Davis scored when Olton's first baseman dropped a throw. Albracht singled and Johnson brought home Culp.

Olton only had one base runner in the final two frames-a base on balls to Cummings. Canyon's first baseman Lenie was safe on an error, stole second and was sacrificed home by Davis. Salman singled, with Culp drawing a base on balls.

Albracht collected his second single, scoring Salman with the go ahead run. Williams second single drove in two more. Winning pitcher was Wick Culp allowing six hits. Losing pitcher was Joe Schultz, who gave up seven hits.

MULESHOE 5, OLTON 4

Olton's Babe Ruth All Stars lost a heart breaker to Muleshoe All Stars Monday Afternoon. It was Olton's game except for the final score. As Steve Sanderson, 13-year-old pitcher from Earth, pitched a no-hit ball game.

Olton led off the first inning when Roy Dean Rivers drew a base on balls, stole second and scored when Freddie Helms singled for Olton's first hit. (Terry Bridge sent a long fly ball to center field for the first out with Charles A. McClain going down swinging.) Tony George connected for Olton's second hit but Bobby Cummings long fly to left ended the frame. For Muleshoe it was almost one-two-three as Larry Calvert , third man to face Sanderson, drew a walk, stole second, but slipped off the bag and was put out by second baseman Terry Bridge. Tony George made one of the game's most outstanding plays with a running catch on a long ball to right center.

In the second, Olton failed to score although Charlie Fraga and Sanderson drew walks. Muleshoe was three up, three down.

In the third, Bridge was safe on an error with McClain sending a single to right field. Bridge thinking it was a fly ball was not off quickly enough and was thrown out at second. McClain stole second and third but was stranded there. Muleshoe's Bobby Burge was hit by a pitch for their only runner in the third.

In the fourth, Randy Gaither drew a base on balls, Fraga laid down a perfect bunt single. Sanderson singled to drive in Gaither and a ball advanced both runners. Helms picked up his second single to drive in Frage. Bridge sacrificed Sanderson home with run number 4. In the bottom of the inning Ronnie Barrett was safe on Olton's first error as first baseman Gaither was pulled off the bag. Larry Calvert walked and Troy Steinbock sent a high fly to left center. Barrett, scored when the short stop threw wild to third on the relay. Darrell Mathew drew a walk and Buddy Samis was safe at first on a fielder's choice that scored Barrett. Steve Foster sacrificed to score run number 3. Bridge made a beautiful diving catch of a line drive off Burge to end the inning.

In the fifth, Cummings singled but was wiped out on a double play. For Muleshoe Veincien De Leon drew a walk but was stranded on first.

Rivers singled in the sixth and Helms drew a base on balls but neither were able to score. The bottom of the sixth is the frame Olton would like to forget. Steinbock was safe on a throwing error by the catcher, Mathew forced Steinbock at second and Buddy Samis drew a base on balls, the fifth given up by Sanderson. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch. Mathew led off third base and in a squeeze play effort scored when the catcher threw to the short stop. The throw back home was not in time as Mathew scored. A throw to third to attempt to pitch off . Samis stealing third was wild and Samis was home with the fifth and winning run.

In the top of the seventh, it was three up and three down and Olton was loser in the first of the double elimination games. Winning pitcher was Monte Barne who gave up eight hits, five walks. Muleshoe committed one error. Loser was Steve Sanderson who gave up no hits, and walked five.

MRS. J. C, RICHARDSON

Smith-Richardson United In Ceremony At Lubbock

Miss Terrell Ann Smith became the bride of James Carrol Richardson in a double ring ceremony held at the Second Baptist Church of Lubbock, Saturday July 2. Dr. Virgil Robert Trout, minister of the Northside Church of Christ in Duncan, Okla., officiated.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith of Lubbock, formerly of Olton. Richardson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Richardson of Lubbock.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal floor-length sheath gown of white de luna peau featuring a batteau neckline and elbow-length sleeves. A band of chantilly lace crested with pearls accented the empire bodice and extended to the hemline of the sheath skirt. A detachable full chapel train which formed a redingote effect, was attached by two snall bows in the front and one large bow at the back.

A caplet of starched lace petals crested with tiny seed pearls held a tiered veil of imported illusion. The bride's bouquet was of cascading white gardenias with English ivy.

Attending her sister as maid-of-honor was Miss Leslie Sue Smith. Bridesmaids were Miss Carie Lane Irby of Clovis and Miss Terry Ann Malouf of Dallas. Mrs. Randall McGee was the brides-matron.

Attendants wore formal floor-length gowns fashioned of maize-colored lined dotted swiss with a scoop neckline and elbow-length sleeves with double ruffles of dotted swiss and cluny lace. Deep yellow velvet ribbons encircled the empire waists with bows in the back. Streamers of the bows fell almost to the hemline of the column skirts. Matching maize headpieces of organza floral petals featured jet veils. They carried colonial nosegays of white daisies with white shower ribbon.

Serving as best man was Burle Pettit. Groomsmen were George Biffle, Charles E. Smith and Carlton Stowers. David L. Hollinshead and Smith were ushers.

Candlelighters were Cheryl Richardson and Carol Ann Richardson. Wedding music was presented by Jack Williams of Odessa, who was accompanied by Larry Douglas.

A reception in the parlor of the church followed the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to Cowles and Santa Fe. N. M., the bride chose a two-piece beige linen suit with a soft cluny lace ruffle encircling the neckline and bracelet-length sleeves. Small covered buttons and a fabric rose accented the front of the jacket. Her corsage was a gardenia and she chose turquoise accessories.

The bride is a 1964 graduate of Monterey High School and attended Texas Tech, where she was a member of Mu Phi Epsilon professional music fraternity. She is employed by the Avalanche-Journal.

Richardson is a 1960 graduate of Monterey and also attended Texas Tech where he was a member of the Saddle Tramps. He is employed as a sports writer for the Avalanche-Journal.

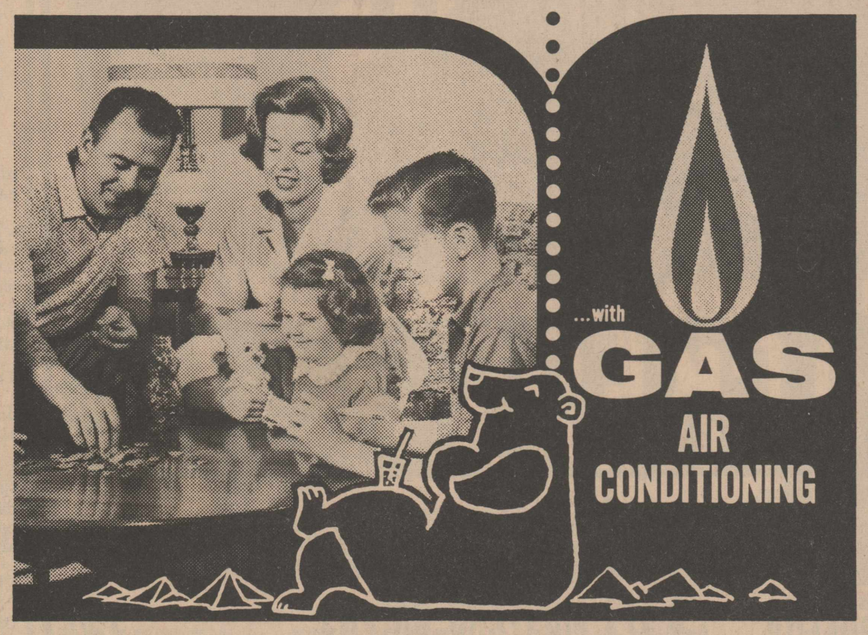

The couple will reside at 4306 23rd St., Lubbock.

Ernesto Sanchez Takes Training

CAMP PENDLETON, CALIF. June 10- Marine Private Ernesto Sanchez Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernesto Sanchez Sr. of Olton has completed individual combat training here.

The four-week course included over 200 hours of instruction under simulated combat conditions, covering squad tactics, guerrilla warfare, day and night combat, patrolling, and the use of infantry weapons.

His next stop is four weeks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field. Marines to be assigned to infantry units will be taught infantry sub-specialties, such as the machine gun, grenade launcher, rifle or mortar. Marines to be assigned to highly technical specialties will be sent to military technical schools for their specialist training.

Leathernecks bound for the Pacific will receive more training when they report to the Staging Battalion at Camp Pendleton, Calif. This training will emphasize jungle warfare, patrolling, and civic action based on experience gained in Vietnam.
