One-tenth of the wealth of America escapes taxation. An estimate that it will total thirty billion dollars in bonds, entirely or partly tax exempted from which the Government received no revenue, was outstanding was made by Dr. Edwin R. A. Seligman, professor of political economy at Columbia University, New York, before the House Ways and Means committee, which is considering for a constitutional amendment prohibiting issuance of tax-exempt securities. Dr. Seligman asserted that the Government, even during the World War, never should have issued tax-exempt bonds. The sooner the Government refunds its tax-exempt bonds into taxable securities, the better it will be for everyone," declared Dr. Seligman, adding that if tax exemption of Federal bonds were abolished the Government would receive additional annual revenue of approximately $300,000,000. Dr. Seligman estimated the total of outstanding state, county and municipal tax-free bonds at approximately $10,000,000,000. In addition, he said, the Government received no revenue from $20,000,000,000 worth of Federal bonds, He asserted that the tax-exempt securities composed a tenth of the country's wealth. Is this a land of equal law and equal privilege? John Smith has a million dollars. He invests it in a manufacturing enterprise, or builds a railroad or developes a mine. He employs labor. He adds to the wealth of the state and he is taxed on every dollar of his holdings. John Jones has a million dollars. He invests his money in tax-exempt bonds or securities. He is not engaged in constructive building. He does not employ labor. He does not add to the wealth of the nation. His holdings are exempt and he laughs at the tax-gatherer.

Senator George H. Moses of New Hampshire is one of the gadflies of the senate. He says the so-called farm bloc of the senate which controls that body is made up of twenty lawyers, one newspaper editor and a well digger; that the bloc does not know that a farm exists north of the Mason and Dixon line or east of the Mississippi; that it gives no consideration to the truck farmers in that territory and all that the senatorial blockers know is hogs, corn, wheat and cotton. New England appears to have been stung. There was a time when the New Englanders dictated all tariff legislation. Now the producers of the country are demanding a division of the benefits. Senator Moses made his remarks at the annual dinner of the Boot and Shoe Manufacturers' association. After Moses had led the shoe manufacturers into the wilderness they adopted a resolution urging the senate finance committee to put hides on the free list in framing the next tariff bill and a tariff on shoe importations. If there is to be a tariff on footwear and all leather goods then why not a tariff on hides?

Editor Henry E. Ellis of the Denison Daily Herald is a churchman as well as a philosopher. He is a well-poised individual and these reflections from his pen are very much to the point: "Churches fought motion pictures because they cut down attendance. Now they give motion picture shows to increase attendance. Churches banned dancing because it cut

DEBT MEASURE IS CONDEMNED IN U. S. SENATE

"If Allied Nations Would Reduce Their Armies They Could Reduce Their Debt," Declares Borah.

Bill Transfers Treaty Power of President to Treasury Department, Is View of Senator Walsh.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGON, Jan. 25.—Discussion of economic conditions in Europe and an attack on the constitutionality of the measure marked senate debate today on the allied debt refunding bill. Chairman McCumber, of the finance committee, in charge of the measure, told the senate before the adjournment that he hoped to get a final vote tomorrow.

The situation in Europe was brought into the debate by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, who declared that "the key to the policy," there was the economic destruction of the German people. He declared that while the treaty of Versailles, "remains the law of Europe" it would be futile for the United States to seek a satisfactory adjustment of the foreign debt and that any assistance this countrry might seek to gender European nations would avail little.

If the treaty of Versailles were revised and the allied nations reduced their armies even to a reasonable extent, Senator Borah said, these nations not only could meet the interest payments due the United States, but could retire part of the principal of the debt as well. Under present conditions, he said, no man could say when the debtor nations could begin to pay interest, adding that it was proper for him to call attention to that so long as present policies were pursued in Europe "we are justified in transacting this debt matter on a purely business basis."

A constitutional point against the bill was raised by Senator Walsh, democrat, Montana, who argued by means of it congress was undertaking to transfer the treaty making power from the president to the secretary of the treasury and a commission. He quoted authorities to support his argument that the agreements which would be entered into between the United States and the debtor nations would be in fact treaties, and declared under the constitutions the negotiations could be conducted only by the president.

Senator McCumber and others disputed this contention, the finance committee chairman arguing that the demand obligations which were to be refunded were the property of the United States and that congress alone had authority to dispose of government property.

O'Rouke, the latter custodian of the labor temple and the former well known in labor circles, gave $5,000 bond this morning following the killing in the labor temple last night of James McDonald, financial secretary of International Association of Bridge Structural & Ornamental Iron Workers. The O'Rourkes' claim self defense. The shot which killed McDonald, is said to have been fired by the younger O'Rourke.

CHARGES RIDICULOUS SAYS ARMOUR OFFICIAL

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—A representative of Armour & Co., when informed tonight of charges made against the company and the Fowler Packing Co., by the Kansas City Livestock exchange, characterized them as "silly and ridiculous."

Armour & Co., has owned the Fowler Co., for years, he said, and asserted there could be no conspiracy between the two companies, which he said, would be equivalent to Armour & Co., conspiring with themselves.

EVOLUTION

COMPLAINT ON STORE RENTS HEARD TODAY

Business Rents Taken Up by Chamber of Commerce Commission First as of First Importance.

Complaints, if any, on rents paid by local business men are to be heard by the rent commission appointed by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting to be held in the Chamber of Commerce at 2 o'clock this afternoon. This decision was reached at an organzation meeting held at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday afternoon at which all members of the commission, with the exception of Norris Martin, whose business engagements will prevent his giving the time which will be necessary for the work of the committee and W. B. McNeely, who could not be reached by telephone.

Business rents were undertaken first, it was decided, as the most important angle of the situation, the rents paid by merchants being considered by the members as an item which affects the whole people of the city. Complaints on residence and apartment rents and on office rents will be investigated later.

Although the discussion Wednesday developed that the membership of the committee, as was designed in its appointment, contains those who look at the problem both from the sides of the rentor and the renter the members apparently reached ground for consideration of the problem which appealed to all as fair and right.

In the discussion of business rents the attitude of the committee seemed to be that where a rent contract was entered into by both parties with their eyes open and that the business could pay it, it was fair and right for the contract to be carried out, but that cases where an exhorbitant rent contract meant the difference between profit and loss for the concern, at a fair price for its product, that it was in the interest of the city, of the landlord and of the tenant for an adjustment to be made.

Discussion of residence rents, which are not to be taken up until later, brought out the opinion from several of the committeemen that they are in many cases too high in Wichita Falls—one member expressing the thought that the general average should be cut in two. This member fixed the fair return in the form of rent from a residence property at one per cent of its fair value today—not the investment made during the period of inflation.

MOONSHINE MASH BLOCKING SEWERS IN BUTTE, MONTANA

BUTTE, Montana, Jan. 25.—City sewers on Butte's East Side are blocked by large deposits of moonshine mash, including prune seeds, rye barley, raisins, corn and cherry pits, City Engineer Henry J. Wiegenstein said today.

Home brewers, the engineer concludes, are using sewers for garbage cans to avoid possible detection of their illegal traffic. Six lines of hose, connected to a swirling nozzle, are being used to flush the debris.

BURKBURNETT, Jan. 25.—Born, to Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Thompson, three miles south of the city, twin sons who bear the unique distinction of having different birthdays, notwithstanding they are twins. FARM MEETING ARRANGEMENTS ARE DEFENDED

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Proposals looking to development of American agriculture as a self-sustaining industry were considered today by the national agricultural conference while its committees continued work on suggested measures to relieve the present acute situation and provide for general rehabilitation.

The program of addresses, which covered marketing problems in many phases, was interrupted long enough to permit Chairman Anderson to deny the charge voiced in some quarters that the delegates to the conference were "handpicked." Mr. Anderson said that Secretary Wallace, despite the shortness of the time in which to select delegates after the conference was called, had consulted farm organization leaders and others in making up his list. Governor Parker of Louisiana, one of the speakers on the program, who was the first to mention the "whispered" talk of "handpicked" delegates at today's meeting, also defended the conference.

A number of informal conferences were held today, both before and during the conference session by delegates who were said to be considering the proposal of a resolution, indorsing the "farm bloc" in congress, it was said, and delegates favoring action in support of it are understood to be canvassing to determine what reception such a resolution would be likely to receive.

PACKERS ARE CHARGED WITH PRICE FIXING

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Armour & Co., and the Fowler Packing Co., were charged with numerous violations of the packers and stock yards act of 1921, in a formal complaint which the Kansas City Livestock exchange announced it had filed late today with the secretary of Agriculture. This was said to be the first complaint formally filed under the new packer control legislation. The exchange asked that a hearing would be held at Kansas City March 6.

The complaint charges that the defendants' practices include "price fixing in its worst form" and are tending toward "an absolute monopoly in the purchase and slaughter of hogs."

SPEECH CAUSED BITTER FEELING AMONG TROOPS

Sears-Roebuck President Assured Negroes That They Would Receive Better Treatment After War.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—None of the sixteen or more witnesses appearing today before a senate investigating committee was able to present direct testimony relating to charges that American soldiers had been hanged without trial in France. Others will be heard tomorrow.

Henry Gentry, a negro of Lawrence, Kansas, who served in the regular army prior to the war, declared that he saw a negro officer, Major Joseph Phillips of East Orange, N. J., shoot William Patterson, a negro private but he could not say positively whether the soldier died or whether Phillips was tried by court martial. The shooting, he said, followed the soldiers refusal to help an army cook slice bread.

Three medical officers attached to base hospital number 9, near Chateau Roux, testified there was no truth in charges by former service men that the bodies of nine men killed by the military police had been sent to the hospital. Then half a dozen former soldiers declared only two men were hanged at Is-Sur-Tille, the number listed on the war departments hanging report at that time. Previous testimony was to the effect that "about a dozen" soldiers had been put to death there. Speeches made by Julius Rosenwald, president of Sears-Roebuck and company of Chicago, to troops in France while there as representative of the secretary of war were mentioned by a couple of witnesses, who asserted Mr. Rosenwald had assured negro soldiers that they would receive bet-

OIL MAN LEAPS TO DEATH FROM ROOF OF HOTEL

By Associated Press.

TULSA, Okla., Jan. 25.—Mark Q. Chase, 41, well known oil man, formerly of Marion, Ohio and Wichita, Kan., died at a hospital soon after he leaped three stories to the sidewalk from the roof of a hotel in the business district here today.

Mrs. Chase declared her husband has been in an unusually cheerful frame of mind the past few days and that he arose early this morning, telling her he was going to the bath room. A few minutes later she said she learned he had climbed out of a hall door near their second story apartment, ascended the fire escape to the roof of the hotel and jumped to the pavement below. Chase was in his night clothes when picked up from the sidewalk and rushed to the hospital.

Mrs. Cause was formerly Miss Ethel C. Clark of a prominent Marion family and Chase is said to have been an intimate friend of President Harding.

KLAN SENDS RELIEF FOR MRS. FINGER

Letter Containing $100 Is Received by Police Commissioner Fitts Early Wednesday Night.

Other Aid Is Obtained for Family; Waggoner Gives Lot, Laborers Work; Churches Plan Collection.

The Wichita Falls Ku Klux Klan made its second appearance in the role of a charitable organization Wednesday night when $100 was delivered to Police Commissioner J. B. Fitts in a sealed letter with the request that the money be turned over by him to Mrs. B. M. Finger, whose husband and two-year-old babe were the victims of the fire which last week destroyed their home at 207 Burnett street.

Mr. Fitts was called to the police station about 10:30 p. m. by a phone message received at his home from an unknown party. Outside the station he was met by a messenger boy who delivered the sealed envelope containing ten $10 bills. It is the second time that the local organization of the Ku Klux Klan had made contributions to charity. Before Christmas its organization became officially known when $50 was sent to The Record News for delivery to the Salvation Army in their annual Christmas fund for the poor.

Although the communication Wednesday night did not bear the seal of the Klan it is expected that it came officially from the local organization. The letter was headed "Wichita Falls Ku Klux Klan. Under dispensation. Under Jurisdiction of G. B. Kembro Jr., Grand Goblin. Western Domain."

It was learned Wednesday that the gift of the Klan is to be only a part of the effort to be made locally to aid the Finger family which now consist of Mrs. Finger and three small children without means of support. R. M. Waggoner, local oil operator has agreed to give the family a vacant lot. Dr. H. D. Knickerbocker, pastor of the First M. E. Church, south, said Wednesday night that an effort will be made Sunday to raise a $1,000 fund in the several churches of the city to buy lumber to construct a house on the lot. He said that members of the local labor unions had agreed to furnish free of charge all labor needed to construct the building.

The letter from the Ku Klux Klan which was addressed to Mr. Fitts was as follows:

"We are herewith enclosing the sum of one hundred ($100) dollars to be used for the relief of Mrs. Finger and family who were so unfortunate to lose the members of their family in the recent fire at their home and will ask that you kindly deliver this money to Mrs. Finger at your earliest convenience." The letter was signed "Wichita Falls Ku Klux Klan, Western Domain."

NEGRO JAZZERS BEATEN UP AND MADE TO LEAVE

By Associated Press.

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 25.—Guarded by an escort of police, six members of a negro orchestra who had been employed at a tourist hotel here, were taken today to a northern suburb and placed on a train bound for their homes in Columbus, Ohio. The musicians last night were lured to the outskirts of the city and beaten by a gang of men who, the orchestra members said, warned them to leave Miami within 24 hours. Some of their instruments were destroyed.

Several complaints, it was reported, had been made to the police that the negroes had not conducted themselves in accordance with southern customs, had sought to mingle with white people in the public parks and at public entertainments, and that the leader of the orchestra had on one occasion left his place with the orchestra and stepped on the floor to direct a new dance.

MANY PASSENGERS ARE MAROONED ON ICE BOUND VESSEL

By Associated Press.

MACKINAW CITY, Mich., Jan. 25.—More than 100 passengers tonight were spending their second night on a Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic train, aboard the car ferry Chief Wawatam, ice bound in the straits of Mackinaw, with prospects of remaining marooned indefinitely.

The vessel was caught yesterday in attempt to gain passage from Mackinaw City to St. Ignac and while a few of the more hardy of the train's 130 passengers have elected to make the mile trip afoot over the ice to return here, the majority chose to stay aboard.

The stranded passengers are experiencing no discomfort, according to those who have come back. The ferry carries provisions for a week or ten days and the chair car and sleeper in which the travelers are quartered are well heated, it was stated.

The ferry Santa Maria with a freight train aboard, is in a similar predicament, about three miles off St. Ignace.

FORD SIGNS AND RETURNS MUSCLE SHOALS CONTRACT

By Associated Press.

DETROIT, Jan. 25.—The contract covering the proposed lease of the governments nitrate and water power project at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, was signed by Henry Ford and returned to the war department by one of the Ford engineers tonight, a few hours after it had been received, it was announced at the office of the Detroit manufacturer.

HARDING TAKES HAND IN ARMS PARLEY GAME

China Is Urged to Accept Latest Compromise Offer in Shantung Negotiations by President.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The aid of President Harding has been enlisted by the arms delegates to bring Japan and China into agreement on Shantung. Taking a direct hand in the Washington negotiations for the first time, the president today urged the Chinese to accept the latest compromise offer and thus remove from the field of controversy a subject which has become a serious barrier to the progress of the whole conference.

Whether the move is to succeed appears to rest largely with Peking. The Japanese already have indicated informally their willingness to make the principal concessions proposed and the president aproached the Chinese only after the Japanese ambassador had informed the state department that his government was ready to accept a tender of good offices.

The settlement plan sponsored by Mr. Harding deals only with the return of the TsingTao-TsinanFu railroad, substantially all other questions having been agreed upon.

Under the proposal Japan would abandon her proposition for a loan to China and the latter would purchase the road with treasury notes payable at option five to fifteen years hence. China would receive possession within five years but would withdraw her opposition to retention of a Japanese traffic manager and chief accountant during the period of payment.

Several days may be required to reach a final decision.

It is an open secret that until Shantung is settled, most of the commitments partially entered into here must remain indefinite.

FUNERAL POPE BENEDICT WILL BE HELD TODAY

By Associated Press.

ROME, Jan. 25.—The body of Benedict XV, will be entombed in the Basilica of St. Peters tomorrow. The ceremony will take place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. After which the sacred college will devote itself exclusively to matters pertaining to the conclave, to be held February 2.

Peparations for the funeral and the collecting and arranging of documents and medals to be placed in the coffin occupied practically the entire day of the members of the sacred college and the vatican household. The medals include all those struck during the pontificate of Benedict.

The funeral ceremony will be of the strictest privacy, the vatican officials holding to the letter that none be admitted to the vast basilica except the sacred college, the members of the ponitifical household, diplomatic officers accredited to the vatican, officers of the units of the ponitifical armed forces which are detailed for the ceremony according to the rites and members of the most ancient families of papal nobility.

The officers of the major domo of the vatican, Monsignor Sanz Le Samper, were besieged throughout the day by applicants for tickets to St. Peters. The Swiss guards were busy keeping the crowds away.

The sacred college, upon learning that the requests for tickets from diplomats greatly exceeded the number allowed by the constitution immediately gave orders to suspend all issuance of cards. The diplomats will be permitted to enter upon the presentation of their credentials. The newspaper correspondents will be excluded absolutely.

By Associated Press.

MEXIA, Texas, Jan. 25.—Arrests made in the Mexia military district in the two weeks the city has been under martial law, total 275, General Jacob F. Wolters announced tonight.

ANTI-LYNCHING BILL CLASH IS CAUSE UPROAR

Mississippi Democrat and Wisconsin Republican Engage in Heated Debate Regarding "Mob Rule."

Several Hundred Negroes in Gallaries Join in Violent Demonstration in Galleries of House.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Debate in the house on the Dyer anti-lynching bill was concluded today and the measure was taken up under the five minute rule which affords members an opportunity to offer amendments. Republican leaders, announced that the bill would be kept before the house until a final vote was reached said they were confident it would be sent to the senate late tomorrow or Friday.

Roll calls during debate indicated that proponents of the measure were in a majority, but it is expected that a number of drastic amendments will be offered in an attempt to alter provisions which call for heavy penalties in the way of fines and imprisonment for persons participating in lynching and for officials who through negligence fail to prevent them. The bill as it stands also provides that counties in which lynching occurs, must forfeit $10,000 to the families of the victims.

Democrats are said to stand practically solid in opposition, although two minority members, Representatives Cochran and Griffin, both of New York, spoke in favor of the bill today. Several republicans have expressed opposition to it and a number of republican members are expected to vote in the negative on the final roll call.

The session today was marked by a verbal clash between Representative Sisson, democrat, Mississippi and Representative Copper, republican, Wisconsin, which threw the house into confusion, with several hundred negroes in the galleries joining in a demonstration that was silenced with difficulty. The flare-up occurred when Mr. Copper declared Mr. Sisson had openly advocated "mob rule." Mr. Sisson, during an attack on the bill, had described conditions in the south and had contended that mob violence could not be stamped out until "black rascals keep their hands off the throats of white women."

Advocating federal action as a means of checking lynching, Representative Mondell, republican leader, declared that states had failed utterly to assert their authority. If permitted to go unchecked, Mr. Mondell contended, lynching will break down and destroy law and order and civilization.

Representative Garrett, Tennessee, democratic leader, appealed to members from the Pacific coast, who he said, were confronted with a perplexing race question to stand with opponents of the Dyer bill in resisting interference of the federal government in state affairs.

"Whatever you people in the west decide to do in working out your problem, we of the south will understand" said Mr. Garrett.

CULBERSON TO AGAIN ENTER SENATE RACE

Special to the Record News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Senator Charles A. Culberson tonight announced that he will be a candidate for re-election. He used just 61 words to make the announcement, which was as follows:

"To the democrats of Texas: It is my purpose to submit my name to the democratic primary this summer for the nomination for United States senator which place I now hold through your favor and partially and for which I am profoundly grateful. This is all I will say now, but in a few weeks, I will make a further statement to you on the subject." C. A. Culberson.

Senator Culberson dictated the short statement to his secretary, read it over and then affixed his signature. He said that he had nothing whatever to add at this time. It is understood that he signed the statement because there have been reports both that he would and would not be a candidate and that he wished to make it clear that the statement was directly from him.

Senator Culberson is beginning his 24th year in the senate, and in point of service, far outranks any other democratic member of that body. The announcement today was given out at exactly the same hour of the same day that he made his announcement six years ago, January 25, 1916.

WOMAN WHO KILLED HUSBAND, MOURNER AT HIS FUNERAL

By Associated Press.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—With permission of the court Mrs. Catherine Rosier today said farewell to her husband, Oscar Rosier, whom she shot and killed in his office last Saturday. As she leaned over the casket and repeatedly called "Oscar, I loved you," the funeral of Mildred Reckitt, Rosier's 19 year old stenographer, whom Mrs. Rosier also shot, was being held in another part of the city.

Mrs. Rosier, under guard, arrived at the undertaking establishment an hour before the time for her husband's funeral.

MAN CHARGED RESULT GIRL'S INTOXICATION

Warrant Issued Wednesday Following Finding Girl Intoxicated on Front Porch Early Monday.

In connection with the investigation made by county officials concerning the case of a 15-year-old girl who was found on the porch of her home in the factory district at 2 o'clock in the morning Monday, a warrant for the arrest of a local man charging a statutory offense was issued Wednesday afternoon. The man had not been apprehended on Wednesday night.

According to officials making the investigation, the girl has confessed that she was not drugged, but is alleged to have stated that she became drunk while in the company of the man. Another man and woman are also involved in the case, officials say.

According to the story told officers, after spending several hours in the party of two couples, she was brought back to her home and left on the porch. She was in an intoxicated condition when found later by her parents.

UNION CHURCH SPIRIT URGED FOR BAPTISTS

By Associated Press.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Jan. 25.—The National Baptist conference in session here late today unanimously adopted resolutions recommending that the northern and southern conventions appoint or elect nine representatives of their respective bodies to constitute the "conference committee" of the church.

This is the first action ever taken by the two conventions looking toward a permanent deliberative body of the two divisions.

The purpose of the conference committee as set forth before the conference today, will not be to attempt to bring about a union of the two conventions but to act as a "bond of co-operation and deliberative body," between the two divisions.

The presidents of the two conventions, under the action taken today will be ex-officio members of the conference committee. Thirty-four leaders of the northern and southern conventions attended the conference today.

The closing of the conference will be held tomorrow morning at which time final action on all other matters before the meeting will be taken.

McNider Scores Mellon's Stand On Bonus Bill

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion, issued a statement today charging Secretary Mellon with having adopted a watchdog of the treasury attitude toward the bonus question in his letter opposing the measure, sent yesterday to Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee.

The secretary is taking "the most pessimistic view" of the bonus situation, Colonel MacNider said, asserting that figures and estimates cited in the secretary's letter did not agree with those compiled by an "actuary of the treasury department and submitted by Senator McCumber at the last session of congress.

"We know American people want the bonus," the legion commander declared. The adjusted compensation plan would do no more to strengthen the economic fabric of the nation than any other thing that can be done at this time.

"Nor is there any reason to believe that all ex-service men will elect the cash bonus as alternative. But when thousands of ex-service men are walking the streets we don't believe they ought to be dictated to as to what form of compensation they ought to take."

ter treatment at home after the war and that this had created some bitterness in camp.

"The white troops were so bitter about the speech that some of them felt like lynching Rosenwald," declared James W. Lafitty of New York, who, as captain in the quartermaster corps was stationed at Gievres for nearly two years.

F. W. Powers of Red Bank, N. J., a sergeant storekeeper at Gievres, said he never saw a gallows there and never heard of an execution. He also referred to "Mr. Rosenwald" whom he described as a Chicago merchant working for the government at one dollar a year.

"Rosenwald in his speeches to the troops declared he had messages from state governors telling how negroes would get a better show after the war," he said. "As he touched on that subject some of the negroes would holler 'say it again.'"

ROSENWALD DECLARES HE HEARD NO COMPLAINTS

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.— Julius Rosenwald, president of the Sears-Roebuck and company, whose name was brought into the senate investigation of illegal hangings in France, said today this was the first time he had knowledge of any such feeling as described by witnesses.

"I never heard any opposition to my statements although there may have been some from some southern boys who didn't like to hear the [illegible] praised," declared Mr. Rosenwald.

RALLY HELD ON JACKSON DAY BY DEMOCRATS

Party Leaders Pay Tribute to Old Hickory and Voice Criticism of Republican Administration.

By Associated Press.

DAYTON, Ohio, Jan. 25.—National democracy joined with Ohio tonight here in paying tribute to Andrew Jackson and voicing criticism of the Republican national and state administration.

James M. Cox, Democratic standard bearer in 1920, in his first public address since his presidential campaign, declared that his party stands just where it did "when the votes were counted" and is "ready for the next fight." He assailed policies of the present administration including foreign, domestic and economic, and in reference to the Washington armament conference, asserted that America had refused to accept world leadership.

Joining with the former Ohio governor in criticizing the Harding administration, were Senators Harrison of Mississippi, and Atlee Pomerene of Ohio, Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to former President Wilson; Mrs. Gertrude Breslau Fuller, of Pittsburgh, and A. V. Dohaney, Democratic candidate for governor of Ohio at the last election.

Senator Pomerene, besides criticizing the acts of the administration, particularly denounced the action of the senate in seating Senator Newberry of Michigan.

Senator Harrison paid a glowing tribute to Governor Cox, asserting that "although defeated, by his service to the people, he had endeared himself to democracy of the country."

The Jackson day rally, held in memorial hall, was attended by representative Democrats, from every section of the state and many other states. More than 1600 sat at the banquet tables, while three thousand more listened to addresses from the balconies and galleries.

Prior to the meeting tonight leaders present conferred with Governor Cox informally at his home, but it was announced that no policies had been discussed other than those represented in addresses delivered at the meeting. Former national Chairman George White, of Marietta and T. T. Ansberry of Washington, also participated in the conference and were present tonight.

CANNED FOOD KILLS THREE IN ONE HOME

By Associated Press.

WEISER, Idaho, Jan. 25.—Three are dead, one may die and two are ill from botulinus poisoning as the result of eating canned greens at a birthday dinner last Sunday at the home of Charles W. Tuttle, at Cambridge, forty miles north of here on the Tin road. Tuttle's family was virtually exterminated by the poison.

The dead

HAZEL TUTTLE, 25.
ANDREW TUTTLE, 20.
BRYAN TUTTLE, 26, world war veteran.

Critically ill: Charles W. Tuttle, 60, carpenter, father of the boy and girl.

Slightly ill: Bessie Clare and Edward Russell, guests at the Tuttle dinner.

Cambridge physicians believe that Miss Clare and Russell ate so small a quantity of the greens that the poison did not secure a firm hold upon them, according to Edward Utley, chief of police of Weiser.

The greens were canned by Tuttle's daughters.

WILL VOTE ON PACKING HOUSE STRIKE TODAY

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 25.—Striking packing house workers over the country will vote on whether the packing strike shall be called off. This became known late last night when letters signed by officials of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen calling for a referendum vote were received by local packing house workers union officials.

The letter said that hope of government intervention in the trouble between packing houses and employes had been abandoned and it was thought best to hold a referendum on the subject of calling off the strike.

The letter instructs local union officials to take the vote by secret ballot before 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

The strike has been in effect since December 15.

By Associated Press.

Fashions for Americans

White and Coral Are Blended in This Dinner Dress.

The frock shown in the sketch, from a Paris design, may offer a suggestion to the woman who is planning an informal evening or dinner gown for present season or early spring wear. It was most effectively developed in a pure white crepe trimmed with coral colored silk smocking and coral velvet ribbon. The double belt or girdle effect, very much approved by some of the French designers, is featured. A band of smocking is placed almost at the normal waist line, and a similar band a few inches lower, with the panels of velvet ribbon drawn through the lower band.

This dress is simple and youthful, and brings out some of the points emphasized in spring apparel—that is, a tendency to favor a low waist line, the double belt, and the continued leaning to the straight silhouette. Some students of fashion believe that the trend is steadily toward a fitted line; but, as a matter of fact, the straight silhouette seems more popular than ever, and it is emphasized by a closely reefed draping about the hips on many of the newest models. Quite a number of the new coat dresses show a definite draping at the normal waistline, with the fabric drawn very smoothly about the hips, accentuating the slenderness of the hips by making the waist seem a little larger than it actually is. The straight silhouette, or rather the absence of a fitted tendency, is also expressed through the medium of many of the suits which are of the Balkan blouse type, with wide, low belt, band, or sash, and a slight blousing on either side at the waistline proper.

Simplicity is so strongly the rule followed by the leading designers that no real style upheaval need be looked for in the season immediately ahead. Good fabrics and excellent workmanship distinguish the output of the best houses, rather than bizarre style features.

GIRLS! LEMONS WHITEN ROUGH CHAPPED HANDS

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter-pint of harmless and delightful lemon-bleach lotion to soften and whiten red, rough or chapped hands. This home-made lemon lotion is far superior to glycerin and rose water to smoothen the skin. Famous stage beauties use it to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, because it doesn't irritate.—Adv.

down attendance. Now they give dances to raise money for the Lord's work. Churches have damned the automobile because it cut down attendance. Rev. E. J. Prescott, Unitarian pastor, North Andover, Mass., takes a truck and some touring cars, travels in a radius of seven miles every Sunday morning, and gathers up a load of children, carries them to his church, fills them full of enthusiasm and the Word, and takes them home again. Things are good or evil only as they are used for evil or for good."

Germany is working its way back. Germany lost all her cables when the Kaiser lost his throne. Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Commercial Cables-Postal Telegraph System, has announced that his company has completed a contract with the German Atlantic Cable company, a German corporation, under the terms of which direct cable communication with Germany will be restored after a lapse of about eight years. This contract, which has just been signed, calls for the laying of a new cable between New York and Emden, Germany, with the cable touching at the Azores. It is to be completed and in operation by October, 1923. The arrangement provides for the Commercial Cable company to lay a cable from New York to the Azores (2,302 miles), and for the German company to make the connection between the Azores and Emden (1,888 miles). The two sections will be joined at the Azores station, and all messages will be transferred automatically from one to the other, thus giving what virtually will be instantaneous service between the two companies. The contract further provides that the Commercial Cables-Postal Telegraph system shall hand to the German company all messages collected by them in the United States destined for Germany, and that the German company shall reciprocate by sending all of its American traffic via the Commercial Cables-Postal Telegraph system.

It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs and comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory or defeat.—Theodore Roosevelt

MORAL EDUCATION

By DR. FRANK CRANE

(Copyright, 1921, by Frank Crane.)

A few days before the meeting of the League of Nations at Geneva, another conference, private, not much advertised, and quite unnoticed, took place in the same city.

It was aided by a score or so of men and women interested in a problem that is more fundamental than the league or President Harding's disarmament scheme, namely, the moral education of the world's youth.

At bottom every question of human conduct is a moral one.

In every human being is an instinct indicating right and wrong. It is called conscience.

Nobody has ever satisfactorily explained just what it is, for it is a function of that mystery of mysteries, the personality.

When we understand what the human spirit is, then we shall understand what conscience is, which will be never.

But because we cannot comprehend it is no proof that we do not need to use it every hour of our lives, and to develop it so as to make it more useful.

We do not understand what electricity is, for that matter, but we could hardly get along without it.

This instinct can unquestionably be strengthened and improved by education, that is, by intelligent guidance and by training.

Just as is the case with one's arm or ear or brain, so with the conscience, the more it is exercised and the less it is abused, the stronger and more skilful it becomes.

Conscience training has been left too much to the church. It needs the most intelligent and scientific application; and religious organizations, while excellent for sincerity and noble aim, are too prone to slight facts and overvalue enthusiasms.

The places for conscience training are the home and the public school, as well as the church.

From the average home the best the child can expect is helpful example and environment, which is most important.

But from the school he should receive clear instruction and dependable knowledge. It is the business of educators to supply these.

The child should be carefully drilled in what is right, and scrupulously trained to despise and loathe what is wrong.

He should be drilled in self-mastery, and shown the shamefulness of will-weakness and self-pity.

This need not infringe upon the sphere of church teaching, but rather should prepare for it and co-operate with it. But the fundamentals of decency and fair dealing, of honor and honesty, are the same in every sect.

The greatest common divisor of all religions is conscience, and the public school ought to pay more attention to it.

For, after all, what business needs is conscience. The soundness of all commerce rests upon it.

Conscience is the underlying foundation of all law. People do not learn not to steal and lie by studying arithmetic and geography, but by learning the rules of right and wrong and by practising them.

It is conscience that is most needed in the family, to hold husband and wife, parent and child, up to their responsibilities.

It is conscience that is the essential in all good work, from bricklaying and bridge building to newspaper editing and book writing. A keener sense of right and wrong is the greatest desideratum in all these fields.

It is conscience that is needed in politics. The great political mistakes are due to crookedness. An honest statesman will go farther than a clever one.

In short, too feeble a conscience is what's the matter with the world.

Every store needs honest clerks more than clever ones.

Just plain everyday goodness is what is needed everywhere.

That universal instinct was planted in man by his Creator, to enable him to get along; and only by developing and conserving it, studying and strengthening it, will this earth gradually be made "a decenter place to live in."

Rippling Rhymes

SPRING IS COMING

Soon the winter will be gone from the haunts of freezing men, and the grass upon the lawn will run amuck, and we'll hear the quacking duck, and the earnest, thoughtful cluck of the busy setting hen. Oh, the wintry tempest blows, and it howls along the street; there is ice upon my nose and my ears are full of sleet; bleak the sky that o'er us bends, but the worst uprising ends, and we'll soon be telling friends that we're weary of the heat. Oh, the winter isn't nice, when it blusters to and fro, and my shoes are full of ice and my hat is full of snow; but I try to dance and sing and be happy as a king, for I have a hunch that spring pretty soon her goods will show. And she has the finest line that a man could wish to see, singing birds on every vine, and a homing bumble bee; sweetest fragrance in the air, and a rosebud here and there, golden sunshine everywhere, and a flower bestudded lea. Roughhouse Winter stays a while, filling us with discontent, heaping in a crazy pile of snow that isn't worth a cent; but he soon is out of sight; then comes spring, a bride in white, bringing comfort and delight to the breast of every gent.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

THE MOVIES, HAYS, AND THE HARDING CABINET

The first thing the movie magnates did after getting the acceptance of Will Hays to become FILMMASTER GENERAL was to insure his life for $2,000,000.

That shows what they think of his chances!

o o o

The biggest fight scene ever staged in the movie world may come when the new commissioner tries to do something the movie men don't like. Mr. Hays's safety depends upon whether they give him time for rehearsals.

o o o

Before accepting the offer of $150,000 a year Mr. Hays had a long conference with President Harding. The president wanted to know why the movie men hadn't first made him the offer. Mr. Harding will now have to work for two years for the same salary his former postmaster general gets in one.

o o o

"I would rather be right than be President," said a famous American. "I would rather be Hays than be either," said a leading financier today.

o o o

The real reason for the selection of Mr. Hays was revealed today. The movies had been criticized so much for low-brow stuff that the magnates decided to hire the country's greatest man of letters.

o o o

The report that Charles Evans Hughes, secretary of state, had been offered a high commissionship of the National Association of Jockey Clubs, at a salary of 10 per cent of all race track wagers, had not been verified at press time.

o o o

Secretary Denby of the Navy Department refused to affirm or deny a rumor that he had been offered the post of Imperial Kleagle of the United Circus Tentmen, Canvasmen and Seal Feeders Association.

o o o

President Harding was visibly alarmed over the prospect of his cabinet deserting him for higher paying positions. "Of course, I like to see the boys get ahead and all that sort of thing, but I shouldn't think they'd all want to walk out and leave me as the only member of the administration still working for a small salary like $75,000 a year," he said.

o o o

Commissioner Hays announced his first three rulings as filmmaster general today.

Jacob Solenpeffer, president of the Scandal Screen, Inc., was suspended until Oct. 1 for presenting a picture showing a Roman arena scene in which all the lions wore bobbed manes. This is considered immoral. Solenpeffer is the same man who recently aroused the censor's by running an automobile film showing a stripped chassis.

He took his suspension philosophically. "I don't care," he said. "Business is rotten this year, anyhow."

o o o

Simon Yudkin, art director of Banal Films Company, was ordered to keep out of Hollywood for nine months. Yudkin was responsible for an eight-reel super-production in which there was not a single scene in which the heroine was shown knitting a pair of baby sox while her young husband stood behind her wondering what it could possibly mean. He also allowed the picture to finish without the happy couple silhouetted against an oversized moon. Both things violate every rule of the movie picture game.

o o o

John Barrymore was warned by the commissioner that he must show the left side of his face in his next picture. John has been showing only the right side of his Profile Series. "It is only fair to you that you refute the growing belief of movie fans that your face has no left side," said Mr. Hays.

PETER RABBIT ASKS AFTER OLD FRIENDS

No sooner had Winsome Bluebird finished telling how Ol' Mistah Buzzard warms his toes on the chimneys of the houses in the far-away south than Peter Rabbit was full of questions about other friends who had been spending the long winter in the land of sunshine.

"Where is Little Friend the Song Sparrow?" he asked eagerly.

"Little Friend of All is not very far away," he replied. "In fact, I think he will be here in a few days, Peter. You see, Little Friend loves the Green Meadows and the Smiling Pool so much that he cannot bear to go any farther away than he has to. I guess he feels just as I do. And so he doesn't go way, way down south as some do, but just far enough to be comfortable and to be sure that he will be able to get enough to eat. I heard him singing only a few days ago, and he said to tell his friends up here that he is on his way."

"My, but I'll be glad to hear him again," said Peter with a sigh. "Somehow I always feel better when I hear the voice of Little Friend. I hope nothing will happen to him on the way."

"Oh, I guess not," replied Winsome Bluebird. "You see, everybody loves him so that nobody wants to harm him. He hasn't any beautiful suit. He's just the plainest little fellow. I guess he is just loved because—why—because he's always so cheery and lovable."

"Yes," said Peter. "I guess that's the reason. It must be beautiful to be loved like that. I suppose you've seen Cheerful Robin this winter."

"Oh, my, yes! Cheerful and I have been together a great deal this winter. He's coming right along, and if I don't watch out and get about my business Mistress Spring will be making him her herald instead of me. He looks just as fine as ever, and he really is very well and in splendid spirits, considering the hard time he has had ever since he left here."

"What do you mean? Doesn't Cheerful find enough to eat down south?" demanded Peter, pricking up his long ears.

"Plenty, plenty!" replied Winsome Bluebird. "It's the way people treat him down there. Men and boys are altogether too fond of Cheerful."

Peter looked up quickly to see if Winsome was joking, but he didn't seem to be. Indeed, he seemed to have a kind of sorrowful look, as if thinking of the hard time Cheerful Robin had had made him feel bad. "If they are so fond of him I should think that Cheerful would have the best kind of a time," said Peter.

"They are fond of him in the wrong way," replied Winsome sadly. "They are fond of him to eat, and Cheerful has to be watching out all the time for dreadful guns. I wish he had come along up with me. I won't feel quite easy until I see him. Don't you think guns are dreadful things, Peter Rabbit?"

"Yes, indeed! The most dreadful things in all the world," replied Peter promptly. "But I didn't suppose that Cheerful Robin ever had anything to fear from them. I don't see what he goes down south for, if that is the way they treat him."

"He has to get enough to eat," replied Winsome Bluebird, "just as I do. If it wasn't for that we wouldn't either of us go, because you know we love the Green Meadows and the Smiling Pool and the Old Orchard so. Now, I have sat here gossping with you just as long as I can. I must be spreading the glad news that Mistress Spring is coming."

"I'll help you," said Peter happily, and made ready to start right away for the Green Forest."

Opera Stars Whose Resignations Are Attributed to Professional Jealousy

Operatic circles in New York and Chicago have much to talk about. Announcements of Geraldine Farrar's resignation from the Metropolitan Opera company gave impetus to rumors of jealousy between Miss Farrar and Mme. Jertzia, the new soprano from Vienna. Miss Farrar will finish out the season but will go on a concert tour next year. Lucien Muratore the French tenor who has been the mainstay of the Chicago Opera company as director and refused to renew his contract for next year. The motive assigned for his action is the opera company's refusal to allow Lima Cavalieri, his wife, to sing "Thais" and other roles for which she was given a contract. Muratore is shown above with his wife. Below is Miss Farrar.

NEGRO DELEGATES AT FARM MEETING TALK TO HARDING

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Four negro delegates to the national agricultural conference were escorted to the White House today by Secretary Wallace and introduced to President Harding.

Th delegates, who are on the conference committee on negro farm problems, presented a petition to the president as representatives of nearly one million farmers operating more than 41,000,000, acres of land, asking for more general federal support of negro agricultural colleges and a more "adequate distribution" of the federal funds now allotted to states.

The petition also asked a more intensive and sympathetic study of the negro tenant farmers and a more favorable application of the federal farm loan act in its relation to negro farmers.

GIRL ACCUSES TEX RICKARD IN TESTIMONY

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Alice Ruck, 15-year-old East Side school girl, testified tonight in city court that she had been assaulted several times by Tex Rickard, internationally known sport promoter. The little girl was on the stand nearly three hours. Mr. Rickard sat a few feet from the witness stand, almost hidden by friends who surrounded him.

Because of the nature of the testimony, all persons not directly interested in the case were barred from the court room.

The Ruck girl said Mr. Rickard first attacked her in his office in the tower of the Madison Square Garden last August. While she was describing this, sobbing a bit, and talking in a whisper, her mother, a domestic, rushed before the magistrate and shouted:

"I don't think Mr. Rickard had anything to do with my child."

The mother was removed to an ante-room and after the case had been adjourned for the night, she pleaded to be allowed to take her child from the custody of the children's society, which preferred the charges.

It was brought out in cross-examination that the story the two girls told at Bellevue hospital when they said they had taken iodine upon reaching there late at night on January 13 was fiction. The witness admitted in telling hospital attendants that they had been kidnaped and a rag soaked in chloroform put over their faces. The stories were told, she said, in an attempt to get lodging overnight, as they feared to go home at a late hour.

The hearing will be resumed next Monday night.

Eddie Had No Chicks

"Ah ain't got no chickens, chief," said Eddie Thomas, negro boy as he stood before Night Chief of Police McDonald at the police station, Wednesday night, holding two full grown chickens in his hand.

"What you got in your hand then?" asked the chief of the trembling negro.

"Ah knows chief, but ah just ain't got 'em" replied the black.

Eddie was a victim of circumstances, according t his tale obtained after some difficulty. He saw a negro man coming toward him with two chickens in his hand fleeing from a couple of Mexican residents of the flat section.

The negro man stopped long enough to catch his breath and turn the chickens over to Eddie who was so unfortunate as to still have them when the Mexican owners arrived on the scene. They took the youth by the collar and forced him to carry them to the police station.

Eddie's story was good but he has a previous juvenile record and he will have a hearing in juvenile court before being turned loose. Police are looking for the other negro believed to be Eddie's partner in crime.

GAUDY ARMY GARB DESIGNED AS BAIT FOR THE RECRUITS

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Near-pink breeches for commanding officers, tailored uniforms for buck privates, and new model service caps designed from a more jaunty plate, are changes in United States army dress regulations announced at Governor's Island today as bait for recruits.

The new regulations provide a $308 clothing allowance for each soldier who enlists for a three-year period.

The gaudy breeches for officers come in under a provision that breeches may be of a "different shade" from the regulation olive drab blouse. Some of the samples, officers say, are almost pink.

"SHOCK ATTACK" OF CLUB FIVE BEATS HIGH SCHOOL IN BITTER CAGE BATTLE

Fans Are Treated to Wildest and Roughest Game of Season, Desperately Fought. North Methodists Also Gain a Notch by Taking Measure of Texhoma Quintet.

The University club "shock troops" won a bloody 31 to 22 victory over the High School team last night, while the North Methodists finally broke into the honor column by triumphing over the Texhoma brethren 22 to 15. Basketball fans nearly lifted the roof from the American Legion hall during the University club-High School fracas, which was without doubt the bitterest fought and most sensational game of the season.

During the first half, the two teams battled on even terms, intermission finding them deadlocked at 12-12. The game was brilliant in spots, with every player traveling at top speed but in the judgment of many spectators the play was frequently unnecessarily rough. Time and again players were thrown headlong to the floor, and at times the battle more resembled an old-fashioned Irish mix-up at Donnybrook Fair than a basketball game. The powerful shock attack of the University club five proved too much for the frailer high school boys in the second half, and while they fought desperately, it was apparent that the roughness of the play was slowly breaking down the strength of their youthful bodies.

Bill and Harry Viner and Ralph Harper led the University club attack each shooting 5 baskets from the field and Harry slipping in the other point via the foul line route. Captain "Cherry" Johnson was the outstanding star of the Red and Black, with Palmer Harrod a close runner-up.

While it lacked some of the thrills of the other game, the tangle between the North Methodists and Texhoma quintets was fast and well-played, as the score indicates. Superior team play on the part of the church team was responsible for their victory, coupled with the good shooting of C. Neal, Baldwin and Reid. Captain Stiles played the whole offensive practically for the Texhoma five, making 11 of his team's 15 points with 4 goals from the field and 3 from the foul line.

IOWA PARK TO STAGE COUNTY TITLE TOURNEY

Local High School Quint, Barred by Population Ruling, Plays Later in District Contests.

The sporting editor of the Record News has received a letter from W. R. Bradford, county director general of athletics, calling attention to the high school county basketball championships to be held at Iowa Park February 3-4, inclusive. The Wichita Falls high school quintet will not compete for the county championship, the reason assigned by Bradford being that "Wichita Falls having a population of more than 25,000 people makes of itself a county."

The Red and Black five will, therefore, "lay low" and be ready to make a strong bid for the district championship, when the games in that tourney are played in this city February 9, 10 and 11.

The high school teams of Iowa Park, Electra, Cashion, Clara and Burkburnett already have sent word they will play in the county championship tournament, and it is expected several other schools will enter. Games may be played on either outdoor or indoor courts, Iowa Park having good basketball courts of each type.

A number of local fans will probably attend the games at Iowa Park, as there are a number of mighty fast players on the various county high school teams, and hard-fought, interesting games should result.

SENATE COMMITTEE SHIFTS MADE DUE TO PENROSE DEATH

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Senator Bursum of New Mexico, one of the republicans who came to the senate in the 1920 victory of that party, has been made chairman of the senate committee on pensions, the chairmanship having become vacant through the transfer of senator McCumber of North Dakota, who has been head of the committee to the chairmanship of the finance committee to take the place of the late Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania.

Other committee shifts which have been decided on by republican committees as a result of the death of Senator Penrose, involve the selection of Senators Edge, New Jersey and Pepper, Pennsylvania, as members of the banking and currency committee and the transfer of Senator Johnson, California, from the committee on inter-ocean canals to the rules committee. Senator Pepper also was given a place on the canals committee.

BURK SCHOOL ART EXHIBIT IS SUCCESS.

BURKBURNETT, Texas, Jan. 25.—More than $400 was realized from the art exhibit held in the Burkburnett high school, according to those having the exhibit in charge. The proceeds will be used to buy pictures for the schools.

LANDIS DEALS WHITE SOX AND PHILLIES BLOW

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—The Philadelphia club of the National league tonight was fined $200 by Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, for entering into a secret agreement with outfielder Earle Neale, who had presented a claim for $600 as back salary due him. The claim was allowed but Neale himself was fined $100 because of the secret agreement.

In another decision, the Chicago club of the American league was ordered to pay the Sherman, Texas club $1,750 for Charles O. Robertson who was purchased in 1917. Only $250 of the purchase price was paid at the time and it was agreed that the balance would be paid if Robertson was retained after May 10, 1918. It developed that Robertson was sent to the Minneapolis club under an optional agreement instead of being returned to Sherman.

HERE IS AN OPPONENT By Ripley

By ROBERT L. RIPLEY

Dempsey can whip any man in the world today. But could he whip the cave man of our ancestry—the Rhodesian man, for instance?

An ancient fossil skull and part of a skeleton have recently been found at the Broken Hill mine in northern Rhodesia, Africa. Anthropologists are of the opinion that these are the oldest known human remains extant—even older than the Heidelberg man, who lived about 200,000 years ago, or the Neanderthal man, who roamed over Europe in the early palaeolithic age when the Mediterranean Sea was a valley and the Sahara Desert a fertile country.

Could our present-day champion, who is easily the physical master of any man alive, cope with the rough and woolly old Rhodesian baby?

The Rhodesian man must have been a tough customer to exist at that period of severe climates and huge and vicious animals. The reconstruction of the Rhodesian man resembles somewhat a gorilla in appearance. It is safe to assume that this primeval person was as strong as a gorilla, and the strength of a gorilla is well known. These huge apes have tremendous power and can break the strongest bars of cages. One frightened hunter, having lost his rifle, saw a gorilla grasp it and bend the barrel almost double with ease.

Imagine Dempsey in a ring with one of our ancestors. It is very doubtful if Dempsey, with his science, skill, and intelligence could compete with the animal-like agility, and the gorilla-like strength of the Rhodesian man. Jack wouldn't last a minute.

A left hook on the chin would not even make the long-armed, hairy old boy blink. His thick skull and the huge muscles of his jaw and neck would render him impervious to any punch on the head, and his heavy-set, muscular torse, with iron-like ribs, would protect him against Dempsey's right handers to the body. And what would happen to Jack in the clinches?

Supposing the old boy lost his temper!

Dempsey may be the greatest fighter in the world today, but not of all time.

I should say not!

CALL SENT OUT FOR UMPIRES IN CAGE LEAGUE

Following the hard-fought game between the University club and High school teams, President Lemen of the City Basketball league last night issued a call for the volunteer services of additional officials. For some time the league has been trying to obtain umpires to assist Referee McClain in handling the league games, but has met with little success thus far.

McClain is a fine referee in the judgment of the league players—but the fact is recognized that one official simply cannot follow every play in a fast basketball game. If "Mac" had had a little help last night, much of the unnecessary roughness that featured the whirlwind game between the club five and the high school boys might have been eliminated; but it was a super-human task for one man to cover the entire court at top speed and be in every play the instant it occurred.

It is believed there are many former college and university men in this city who have played the game and who could capably serve as umpires. They will be doing a service to the league, to the fans and to the game itself if they will get in touch with President Lemen at the office of Frederick Delano in the City National Bank of Commerce building.

Jack had returned to his ship apparently under the influences of drink, and was being interviewed by the officer of the watch.

That worthy, to prove whether Jack was drunk or not, ordered him to repeat the sentence: "The Irish constabulary extinguished the conflagration."

Jack stood for a minute, blinking, apparently stunned by the magnitude of the task.

Then, with a smile of triumph, he blurted out:

"The Irish coppers put the fire out!"

AMERICAN ASSN. OWNERS SPURN PLAN FOR DRAFT

Officials of Circuit Declare Star Players Can Be Sold for More Than $7,500 Draft Price.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Club owners of the American association today declined to enter into any draft agreement with the major leagues. The proposal for the restoration of the draft, carrying with it a price of $7,500 for each player drafted was unanimously voted down at a special meeting called to consider the subject. The major leagues, if they desire to obtain star players from the American Association clubs, will have to purchase them outright at whatever price demanded. Judge K. M. Landis, commissioner of baseball, has declared that restoration of the draft was necessary so that baseball players should advance in their profession.

The American association magnates however, declined to accept the proposal made by the baseball advisory council, they being permitted either to reject or accept it. The club owners declared that they could obtain a better price for any stars developed by selling them rather than being forced to accept the $7,500 draft price. The Pacific coast league rejected the proposal at its meeting several days ago.

WAITE HOYT WILL AFFIX SIGNATURE TO LIFE CONTRACT

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Waite Hoyt, who pitched the New York Yankees to two victories in the world's series with the pennant winning Giants last fall, accompanied Miss Dorothy H. Pyle, 23, of Brooklyn, to the Brooklyn marriage license bureau yesterday and took out credentials for signing a life contract. He gave his age as 22, but refused to say when he planned taking the critical step.

HEARINGS ARE ANNOUNCED ON BONUS PLANS

Representatives of Treasury and Veterans Organizations Will Be Permitted to Present Views.

Bill Will Be Presented to House Within Two or Three Weeks, Declares Chairman Fordney.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Brief hearings will be held probably next week by the house ways and means committee, preliminary to drafting of a soldier bonus bill, Chairman Fordney announced tonight. Opportunity would be afforded representatives of the treasury and of veterans organizations such as the American Legion to present their views, but it is not likely, he said, that any attempt will be made to obtain the opinions of others.

Mr. Fordney said a bill would be presented to the house "within two or three weeks" and would carry a provision for the raising of necessary revenue.

Announcement of the committee's plan came after a conference today between republican leaders of the senate and house at which it was agreed a bonus bill should be framed in the house with the determination of a way to provide revenue left entirely to the ways and means committee.

Decision of the committee to take action also came on the eve of a caucus of house republicans tomorrow night at which members who were in the military service during the war are expected to demand prompt enactment of a bonus bill.

Insistence of Secretary Mellon, expressed in a letter to Mr. Fordney, that the country's finances were critical and that a bonus was inadvisable, especially of linked up with the foreign debt, today increased talk among house members in favor of some sort of a sales tax.

Chairman Fordney refused to comment on Mr. Mellon's letter declaring he had not read it. He reiterated the belief, however, that some revenue for a bonus might be obtainable from the foreign debt repayment without disturbing the finances of the country.

Committee members, however, generally were agreed that a sales tax would have to furnish the bulk, if not all of the revenue for a bonus.

Declaring that the committee had in no way agreed as to what kind of a tax should be levied, Mr. Fordney said he was emphatically opposed to a tax on gasoline. A bill proposing a producers tax of three cents a gallon is pending before the committee. It would produce $500,000,000 annually, according to Mr. Fordney who contended, however, that it would be a grave mistake to levy such a tax.

The committee chairman is said to have decided not to hold lengthy hearings on the bonus question, because of the belief that the committee in preparing the new internal revenue bill heard sufficient testimony from various individuals as to the effect of different kinds of taxes.

WEEKS WOULD COMPLETE THE WILSON DAM

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Secretary Weeks informed the delegates to the national agricultural conference in session here today that "if there was no Ford offer," he would "recommend to congress the completion of the Wilson dam at Muscle Shoals, Alabama."

The statement was reiterated tonight by the secretary after two conferences with delegations from the agricultural meeting which called to urge him to approve the proposal for purchase and lease of the Muscle Shoals properties submitted by Henry Ford and drafted into a contract already sent to Detroit for signature.

In reply to questions as to whether he would recommend an appropriation for completion of the dams at Muscle Shoals when he submitted his "comments" which will accompany the contract when it is sent to congress, the secretary said he had made no such statement but had said that if Mr. Ford had not submitted an offer, a recommendation involving an appropriation, would be made for the completion of the Wilson dam.

EIGHT BOYS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

Names of a part of the local high school students who will attend the Older Boys' conference at Texas A. & M. college Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week, were announced Wednesday by J. T. Rundell, faculty representative, who will be in charge of the party.

Two or three other names are expected to be added to the list before the party leaves this afternoon. Those announced are: Paul Whatley, Lester Protho, Frank Wood, Joe Bashara, Charles Fuller, Edward Kadane and Jack Martin.

"There are many little ways of practising economy in the home," proclaimed Walter Wheese sagely to his guest, after making sure Mrs. Wheese was out of hearing.

"So" encouraged the visitor politely.

"Yes. Last winter my wife said we must get a new sofa in the spring."

"Well?"

"Instead, I got a new spring in the sofa."

MORE RAIN IS PROMISED FOR THIS SECTION

"Whether it rain, or whether it snow, we must have weather, whether or no"—so runs the ancient New England rhyme, and it applies even more fitly to Texas.

That being the case, it is up to one reporter to write one weather story. Weather stories are all the rage right now, and no up-to-date paper should go to press without a bang-up, big league tale of the weather that is just past and the weather that is just ahead. Very well, then: Attention! Count off!

The weather throughout the area surrounding Wichita Falls was wet yesterday. Rains that gladdened the hearts of farmers and oil men with wells to drill fell steadily, and also intermittently. When the rain fell not, the general mist and damp played substitute on the weather team. The rain was not reported as a heavy rain, nor a shower; just one of those what-you-might-call drizzly, old-style rains that perked up one minute and pered out the next. It was appreciated; it received a majority vote at the popular polls; rain was unanimously elected.

The future? Ah, yes, the future. Well, it promises to be sorter damp for a while longer, and perhaps a little warmer. A little more damp, and a little more warmth—say, fellers, won't that be great, huh? More rain, and ain't we got fun?

TRUSTEES ARE TO CONSIDER LOCAL OFFER

Wichita Fall's advantages and the standing offer made by the Chamber of Commerce for the location of a junior college here, which was brought to the attention of the trustees of Midland College at a recent conference will certainly be considered fully before the location of the college is chosen, Dr. J. T. McKissick, president of the college, who stopped over here Wednesday in connection with a business trip, said while here.

Dr. McKissick, talking to members of the committee appointed to represent the Chamber of Commerce in this matter, said that it was not definitely decided that the school was to be moved away from Midland. He also told them that the strong offer made by Cisco for this institution was being considered.

The offer of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, open to any standard junior college picking this city as a location during the coming year, includes a large area of land suitable for a campus and a substantial sum of money to be used toward the erection of buildings or purchase of equipment.

The children mentioned in the will are Roy A., Fred, Erwin P., Thomas J. Jr., and Avis B. Taylor and Mrs. Vera Gant and Miss Thelma Taylor, now Mrs. Echols. AILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Linton Tells How Helpful Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is at This Period

Denver, Colorado.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for seven years and I cannot tell you the good it has done me. It is good for young and old and I always keep a bottle of it in the house, for I am at that time of life when it calls for Lydia E. Pinkham's help. My husband saw your ad. in the papers and said 'You have taken everything you can think of, now I want you to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!' So I let him get it, and I soon felt better and he told me 'I want you to take about six bottles.' So I did and I keep house and do all my own work and work out by the day and feel fine now. I tell every one about the Vegetable Compound, for so many of my friends thought I would not get well."—Mrs. R. J. Linton, 1850 West 33d Avenue, Denver, Colorado.

After reading letters like the above, and we are constantly publishing them, why should any woman hesitate to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound if she is in need of help? It brings relief where other medicines fail.

Revenue Collector Issues Statement Regarding the Filing Of Individual Income Returns

The following statement is issued by Collector of Internal Revenue Geo. C. Hopkins, Second District of Texas, Dallas, Texas:

Forms 1040-A, revised and simplified, for filing individual returns of income for the calendar year 1921 if $5,000 and less will be available Wednesday, January 18, at the office of Collector of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Texas, and the following branch offices: Abilene, Dallas, Fort Worth, Tyler and Wichita Falls. A copy will be mailed to taxpayers who last year filed a return, but failure to receive the form does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to file a return on time—on or before March 15, 1922. The form has been reduced from 6 to 4 four pages, two of which are devoted to instructions which should be carefully read by the taxpayer before filling in the blanks. A study of these instructions will greatly lessen difficulties heretofore encountered in correctly making out the returns.

On page 1, under the head of "Income" are spaces for reporting the following items: Salaries, wages, commissions, etc., income from partnerships, fiduciaries, etc., rents and royalties, profit (or loss) from business or professions, profit (or loss) from sale of real estate, profit (or loss) from sale of stocks, bonds, etc., and other income. Beneath are spaces for entering deductions, such as interest and taxes paid during the year; losses by fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty or by theft, contribution, bad debts, etc.

On page 2, are spaces for entering explanations of the various items, i. e., the total amount of income from business or profession, with description (grocery) "retail clothing," "drug store," "laundry," "doctor," "lawyer" "farmer" from rents and royalties, sale of property, etc.

Returns are required of every single person and every married person not living with husband or wife, whose net income for 1921 was $1,000 or more, and of every married person living with husband or wife whose net income was $2,000 or more. If the combined net income of husband, wife and dependent minor children equaled or exceeded $2,000, or if the combined gross income of husband, wife and dependent minor children equaled or exceeded $5,000, all such income must be reported on a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife. If single and the net income including that of dependent minors, if any, equaled or exceeded $1,000, or if the gross income equaled or exceeded $5,000, a return must be filed. A minor, however, having a net income of $1,000 or $2,000, according to marital status or a gross income of $5,000, must file a return. The requirement to file a return of gross income, regardless of the amount of net income, upon which the tax is assessed is a new provision.

"Net income" is gross income less certain deductions which are explained on the form.

Under each of the above conditions, a return must be filed even though no tax is due. The exemptions are $1,000 for single persons and married persons not living with husband or wife, $2,500 for married persons living with husband and wife whose net income for 1921 was $5,000 or less and $2,000 for such persons whose net income was more than $5,000. The exemptions for dependents "a person under eighteen years of age or mentally or physically defective," has been increased from $200 to $400.

A head of a family—a person who actually supports in one household one or more persons closely related to him (or her) by blood, marriage or adoption, is granted the same exceptions allowed a married person.

The normal tax rates are unchanged 4 per cent on the first $4,000 of net income above the exemptions and 8 percent on the remaining net income. The tax this year, as last, may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or in four equal installments, due on or before March 15, June 15, September 15 and December 15.

Heavy penalties are provided by the new revenue act for failure to file a return and pay the tax on time.

Announcement will be made through the press of the date of release of forms 1040 for filing individual return of income of more than $5,000.

INSURANCE FIRMS ARE MERGED

Announcement of the consolidation of the Louis A. Robinson & Company, insurance agency, and the Charles R. Fuller company was made Wednesday by the parties concerned. The new firm which will be known as Fuller & Harvey, have offices in the Morgan building.

Both Charles R. Fuller and O. W. Harvey, the members of the new firm are well known in this city. Both have been engaged in the insurance business here and at other places. The consolidation is effective at once.

WICHITA CLUB HEARS TALK ON ENFORCEMENT

Dr. J. T. McKissick, president of Midland college and Judge P. A. Martin, were the speakers at the Wichita club luncheon Wednesday. Dr. McKissick made one of the pointed and spirited talks which were recognized as characteristic of him during a recent revival which he conducted here.

Judge Martin, by request, spoke on law enforcement. He discussed the dual nature of punishment of the criminal from both the standpoints of reforming the criminal and of deferring others from similar crimes. The latter purpose, he declared, has in a long measure been lost sight of in the interest of the former. In this connection, he assailed the administration of the suspended sentence law, declaring that there is rare occasion for its being invoked, while he ventured the assertion that many are incited to crime by the spectacle of the escape from punishment of each individual who undeservedly obtains advantage of it.

Enforcement of law and the suppression of lawlessness depend on the support of the public for the officers, Judge Martin said. He said that the character of the officers and of their work never rise above the level of their constituency, the speaker declared. He commented approvingly on the growing seriousness with which jury service is being taken and the infrequency of requests to be excused from other than statutory reasons.

"Waiter," growled a customer. "I should like to know the meaning of this! Yesterday I was served with a portion of pudding twice the size of this."

"Indeed, sir! replied the waiter. "Where did you sit?"

"By the window," answered the customer.

"Oh, that explains it!" said the waiter. "We always give the people at the window a large helping. It's a good advertisement!"

VERNON ITEMS OF INTEREST TO READERS

Sale of Vernon Record to E. C. Christian Is Announced With B. O. Brown as Advertising Manager.

A Large Sum of Money Is Available for County Road Work; Stock of Goods Sold.

VERNON, Texas, Jan. 25.—E. C. Christian, for three months connected with the Vernon Record, has purchased the interests of B. O. Brown in the paper and will continue in the business as manager. Mr. Brown has been made advertising manager.

R. A. Carpenter, president of the Penn-Burkburnett Oil company, who came here last week with A. E. Dean, an oil operator of Philadelphia, in connection with a possible resumption of drilling on the West Vernon well, said today that no decision had been reached as to what would be done by them.

A telegraphic transfer of $477,936.79 for Wilbarger county bonds has been received by the American National bank of Austin from the Chicago firm which purchased the securities. This amount will be transferred to the county as soon as warrants for it are received by the bank. These have been forwarded, so the money is expected here any day. Twenty-five thousand dollars is already in possession of the county in the form of a cashier's check which accompanied the bid as a forfeit. In addition, $2,625 has accrued to Wilbarger as interest since the bonds were issued. Lack of rain will offer the most serious opposition to the progress of county road work.

More than $16,500 in stock and fixtures belonging to Freeman Bros. Dry Goods company went at auction yesterday afternoon at the store building on North Main street for $7,375. Spirited bidding featured the sale which was ended when a representative of Sanger Brothers of Dallas offered the above figure. M. F. Stephens of Wichita Falls served as the auctioneer.

Pyramid number 2 drillers started work this morning with their bit resting in limestone. This formation as well as sandy shale has provided the structures encountered for a considerable number of feet recently. The hole has now reached a depth of 2,006 feet, and is in the neighborhood of thirty feet deeper than was Pyramid number 1. Progress is being made cautiously under the supervision of M. J. Daily, head driller, and the bit is sent only three or four feet and then withdrawn to permit the hole to be bailed.

E. Ross Chamblin of Dallas was selected yesterday by city commissioners as the engineer to attend to the project of equipping Vernon with a municipal light plant. There were nine other applicants for the place, and they were heard separately and collectively.

Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The professional character of recent dealings in the stock market became more clearly defined today by the bewildering fluctuations of speculative issues and the neglect of rails and other similar shares.

Gulf states steel, the recent market leader, was a striking example of these conditions rising 2 1-2 points, reacting 10 1-2 and closing at 70, a net loss of 6 points.

Davidson chemical, the most active feature of the session made an extreme advance of 7 1-2 points forfeiting a considerable part of its gain in the final dealings.

Similar tendencies were shown by various other industrials, sugars and a wide range of miscellaneous issues, the market closing with an irregular tone. Sales amounted to 700,000 shares.

The money market was another uncertain factor call loans opening at 5 points, easing gradually to 4 during the intermediate period and rallying to 4 1-2 in the last hour. Changes in money rates were restricted to demand loans, time funds being freely supplied at 4 1-2 to 4 3-4 per cent.

Reports from interior centers indicated that banks were preparing for spring crop requirements with consequent reduction of local reserves. In well informed banking circles, however, no appreciable tightening of time money was expected.

Advices from Pittsburg and other important sources of steel and iron production were mainly negative. January operations, according to latest trade reviews, are likely to show general gains over the previous month.

Firmness marked the day's moderate trading in foreign exchange, the German rate being among the various continental quotations to show gains of 3 to 10 points. Of the minor remittances the Austrian rate evinced further weakness.

Liberty bonds continued to ease under pressure and French municipals made further reactions. In the main standard domestic and international issues were relatively steady. Total sales, par value, aggreated $14,375,000.

Livestock

Fort Worth Livestock.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 25.—Slow trading was in evidence in the cattle and hog divisions today, but the sheep market was fairly active. Comparatively liberal receipts arrived in all departments, around 2,000 head of cattle, 1,000 calves, 2500 hogs and 2500 sheep being on offer.

Good steers were weak to 15c lower, but medium cattle held steady with yesterday's decline. Cows and heifers remained steady and on yearlings the trade was slow. Best calves remained steady but other kinds were weak to 25c lower.

Hogs sold at a decline of 25c and it was very late before anything was going to the scales. The best hogs sold around 8.50 and most of the run cleared at 8.00 to 8.25. Pigs were mostly 25c lower. Some early sales were made at 7.00 but the closing top was 6.75.

Cotton

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The cotton market was very unsettled today, but early in the afternoon rallies on covering met increased offerings and the lowest levels were reached in the late trading. March rallies from 17.16 to 17.39 and broke to 17.05, closing at that price compared with 17.44 at the close of the previous day. The general market closed easy at a net decline of 22 to 44 points.

The opening was easy at a decline of 18 to 37 points owing to lower Liverpool cables, unfavorable trade advices, reports that some Southern mills were talking of the possibility of curtailment and apprehensions of labor troubles over wage disputes in New England. There were slight rallies right after the call, but they were checked by the final liquidation of January contracts which sent the price of that delivery down to 16.98 during the middle of the morning or 47 points net lower.

Notices represented about 6,000 bales were reported, but a discount of about 25 points under March, the January offerings were absorbed and there were rallies during the middle of the day on covering. Trading in January ended at midday, the last sale of that position being at 17.10. May sold up to 17.02 on the early afternoon rally, or within 3 points of last night's closing, while July was relatively firm, selling 6 points net higher, owing to purchases against sales of March.

Switching from March to July was one of the most prominent features and one broker, supposed to be operating for either Wall Street or Japanese connections, was credited with selling 40,000 March against equal purchases in the summer months.

Liverpool Spot Cotton.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 25.—Cotton spot quiet, prices irregular. Good middling 10.57; fully middling 10.22; middling 9.83; low middling 8.87; good ordinary 7.62; ordinary 6.87. Sales 5,000 bales, including 3,400 American.

New Orleans Cotton.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 25.—Severe selling pressure was felt by cotton today in the last part of the session under which it weakened after showing rather marked steadiness. The close was at the lowest, at net losses of 39 to 47 points, March closing at 15.91; and October at 14.93 all months making new low levels for the downward movement which set in several weeks ago.

Moderately heavy selling was felt on the opening call but after declines of 23 to 26 points, shorts covered in sufficient volume which brought about almost a complete recovery and the steadiness persisted through to the early afternoon, prices at their highest being unchanged to 3 points down, compared with the final prices of yesterday. At this stage March stood at 16.35.

The selling influences of the day were many, starting off with a poor Liverpool. Further accounts of poor trade were received from Manchester. Augusta telegrams claimed, that southern mills were considering curtailment the spread of the strike among Rhode Island mills left a bad impression and the weather over the cotton region was considered to be what the growers wanted, cold and wet with snow here and there in northern and even central localities. Weather conditions were considered good for the soil and unfavorable for insect life.

Cottonseed Oil.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Cottonseed oil declined 6 to 10 points early under scattered liquidation on the easier showing in lard but a good rally followed on room covering and support by refiners. Closing bids were unchanged to five points net higher. Sales 12,500 barrels. Tenders 500 barrels. Prime crude 7.35@7.50; prime summer yellow spot 8.80@9.25; March 8.00; May 9.25; July 9.50, all bid.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Trading in primary woolen goods markets broadened today with the opening of additional lines Friday. The demand was of a conservative character but some lines of wool dress goods and cloakings sold well. Cotton goods were unsettled, silks quiet and burlaps firmer. Knit goods were in fair demand.

Sugar.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The raw sugar market was unchanged on the spot at 2½c for Cubas cost and freight, equal to 3.86 for centrifugal with Porto Rico at the same level. There were sales of 45 bags of Cubas and about 86,000 Porto Rico for February shipment and 7,000 bags of Cuban for March-bat 3.92. Japan also purchased 7,000 bags of Cubas at 2.20 for Cuba. The raw sugar future market was quite active and prices irregular. The closing was unchanged to two points net lower. March closed at 2.31; May 2.50; July 2.66; September 2.79.

The market for refined sugar was firmer and prices were advanced ten points to the basis of 5.10, for fine granulated.

There was a scale of one lot of July in refined futures at 5.93 and advance of 13 points from last night's close. Otherwise the market was neglected and closing prices were five to fifteen points net higher. March closed at 5.50; May 5.70; July 5.90.

CRABS BUY GARDENER.

GALVESTON, Texas, Jan. 24—Outfielder Dan Beal of the Ludington club of the Central league has been purchased by the Galveston Texas league club, it was announced today by Business Manager Bob Tarleton.

Grain

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Wheat averaged a little lower in price today owing chiefly to a decline at Liverpool and to absence of any sign of export business. The close was unsettled at 5c net decline to ¼c advance with May $1.15 to 1.15⅝ and July 1.02. Corn lost a shade to ⅛c and oats ⅜ to ¼c.

Moderate upturns in the price of wheat characterized the early trading, and appeared to be due for the most part to an opinion from British authority that pointed to a prospective scarcity of supplies for importing countries. But the Liverpool market closed lower and export business in wheat from the United States seemed to be temporarily, at least, at a standstill. The market tending to sag in the last part of the day, disturbed only by the operations of spreaders whose maneuvers led to a narrowing of 1c in the difference between the July and delivery the May, as compared with yesterday's range.

Corn and oats prices declined a little, owing to the action of wheat. Losses were checked however, by knowledge that exporters were after corn here and in the country, and because of a better southern demand for oats.

Provisions dropped in value with hogs.

LIQUOR CASES KEEP FEDERAL OFFICE BUSY

Several liquor cases kept the federal office busy Wednesday. C. T. Ingham, arrested Tuesday by police officers at his drinketeria on Ohio street waived a preliminary hearing on a charge of selling and having liquor in his possession and was released under $1,000 bond by United States Commissioner Lantz to await the action of the grand jury.

Jack Hill, alleged to be connected with the management of a Seventh street drink stand, was bound over under $500 bond on a charge of possession following a preliminary hearing. Roy Green, negro porter of a local hotel, was placed under $500 bond for the sale of liquor after waiving a preliminary hearing.

S. J. Bray, Sam Washburn and H. M. Willis were lodged in the county jail Wednesday evening charged with the violation of the federal prohibition act. They were brought here by officers from Young county. They will have a hearing this morning.

Phone Line in Pro Director's Office "Tapped"

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—When workmen today attempted to take down the telephone switchboard in Prohibition Director Ralph A. Day's office, evidences were found that outsiders, presumably bootleggers, had for an undetermined period been "tapping" the wires and listening in on telephonic conversaffons to and from prohibition headquarters.

The workmen discovered that one of the telephone extensions originally installed in Director Day's office had disappeared. A "live" connection which could not be traced was also found in the telephone switchboard.

The discoveries were made during preparations to remove the headquarters to new offices.

TWO BANK BANDITS ELUDE SEARCH OF OKLAHOMA POSSES

By Associated Press.
TAHLEQUAH, Okla., Jan. 25.—The horses, overcoats, overshoes and rifles belonging to the two men who held up the Farmers' State bank at Parkhill, this morning have been found by Sheriff Gourd's posse, but the bandits have escaped with $500 in cash which was secured, according to reports from the posse tonight.

It was thought that the bandits had been surrounded in a ticket two miles south of Parkhill, but when the officers closed in nothing was found. The chase is being continued.

It is thought that the Parkhill bandits are the same ones who held up the First National bank at Hulbert last week and the Farmers' State bank at Gore, early in December.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 25.—Fort Worth butcher workmen will vote to call off the nationwide strike tomorrow according to local labor leaders. Unsettled conditions, which include the large number of persons unemployed, making it easy for the packers to secure workers for the places left vacant by the strikers, were given as the reasons for the decision to call off the strike.

When an immovable object is struck by an irresistible force the result is the same as an argument between two women.

Corn, America is Burning Will Save Starving Armenia

Burying the Body of Another Victim of Starvation in the Fields Near Alexandropol, Armenia—Captain Paxton Hibben (insert at top)

The first complete semi-official account of conditions in Transcaucasian Russia, contained in the Report of the American Commission of five members sent out by the Near East Relief, and published in part in The Nation, has been made public in full. It states that in Armenia "conditions have been found shocking, indeed far worse than present conditions in the Volga district of Russia."

"The immediate cause for the present acute famine situation in Armenia," the Commission goes on to state, "was the destruction of some 140 villages by the invading Turks, from which the populations were driven and whence all beasts of burden, agricultural and household implements and furniture were removed by the invaders. The evacuation of this portion of Armenia did not take place until April 21, 1921, too late for any extensive crop to be put in, even had the peasants the draught animals and the implements to plough and sow the ground."

According to this Report there are "a rough total of about 400,000 homeless refugees in Armenia now facing winter without food. Of the 50,000 Armenians concentrated in cities and towns by far the greater part were actually starving, when observed by this Commission early in August. Children were lying dead in the streets and the sick and infirm were dying in great numbers daily. Cholera had set in and was making havoc, partly due to the reduced resistance to disease of those suffering from hunger."

The Commission states that the American Near East Relief is the only agency which stands between the whole population of this country and death this winter.

"Two relief ships loaded with the corn the farmers of the west are burning or feeding to the hogs would see the people of an entire nation through the winter," declared Capt. Paxton Hibben, secretary of the Commission. "President Harding, in his message to Congress, has said: 'It seems to me we should be indifferent to our heart promptings, and out of accord with the spirit which acclaims the Christmastide, if we do not give out of our national abundance to lighten this burden of woe upon a people blameless and helpless in famine's peril.'

"We in America can save a whole people without feeling it or missing a meal. Will we?"

NEGRO BOY ASKS JURY FOR TRIAL

Indications Wednesday pointed to one of the warmest trials ever tried in the local juvenile court this morning when W. T. Williams, negro boy, will face the court with jury charged with the theft of bicycles. Numerous witnesses were summoned by juvenile officials and the defense Wednesday preparatory to the trial which starts at 10 o'clock this morning.

Williams was arrested recently by city officers following an investigation concerned with the theft of several bicycles. It is the first case to be tried in over a year in juvenile court in which a jury was demanded.

Common Sense About Eczema and Eruptions!

Here's Something About S. S. S. That You'll Be Glad to Hear.

You might just as well know it right now,—the cause of skin eruptions, pimples, blackheads, boils and so on, is right in the blood. There is no getting away from it. Science has proved it. We prove it. You can prove it.

When the cause of skin troubles and eruptions is in the blood, it isn't common sense to simply treat the skin. A bottle of S. S. S. will prove to you what is happening in your blood. S.S.S. is a scientific blood cleanser,—it drives out the impurities which cause eczema, tetter, rash, pimples, boils, blackheads, blotches and other skin eruptions. When these impurities are driven out, you can't stop several very nice things from happening. Your lips turn naturally rosy. Your eyes sparkle, your complexion clears. It becomes beautiful. Your face looks like that of a prosperous, ruddy, well-fed, refined gentleman, or if you are a woman, your complexion becomes the real kind that the whole world so admires. S.S.S. is also a powerful body-builder, because it builds new and more blood-cells. That's why it fills out sunken cheeks, bony necks, thin limbs, helps regain lost flesh. It costs little to have this happen to you. S. S. S. is sold at all drug stores, in two sizes. The larger size is the more economical

WIRELESS RANKS HERE ARE GROWING

Interest in wireless telephoney, first by the boys of the city and spreading from them to their elders, as told from time to time through the Record News is rapidly extending among the business men of the city. P. A. Rogers and Ed Tschabold of the Art Jewelry Co. were among the first to take it up. Mark Walker, interested through their sets, purchased and installed a set by which he recently heard the program of the Chicago Grand Opera company "broadcasted" from a Chicago station. W. Newton Maer and J. J. Perkins are the latest of the business men to become interested.

Since the Roger station was first opened the stations sending out musical or other entertainment or news has increased rapidly. First a Denver station and the municipal plant at Dallas, which sends out police reports and through which Dr. George W. Truett preaches to a widely scattered office on Sundays, were about the principal sources of entertainment.

The commercial companies are rapidly extending their services in this particular, and the government, which broadcasts crop, weather and market reports, and through the navy, the "Naval News" by wireless telegraphy, is planning a similar service by telephone. Local Amateur stations catch the time signals from the Arlington Va., station from which the "Navy News" is now telephoned to the ships at sea.

BURKBURNETT OIL RUNS GAIN; DISTRICT LOSES

With losses in the south part of the district, reflecting the bad weather, and the scarcity of new wells, the North and Central Texas oil field production dropped about 1500 barrels in daily average last week compared with the previous week, according to figures based on pipeline runs. The total runs were approximately 132,700.

Stephens, Eastland and Comanche counties showed losses of several barrels each. Burkburnett, and Archer county showed gains of several hundred barrels, but not enough to offset the drop in the lower pools. Daily averages, based on runs, by pools, follow:

Burkburnett	37,600
Electra	11,500
Kemp Munger Allen and Iowa Park shallow	2,820
Archer county	1,700
Petrolia	370
Young county	9,200
Stephens county	50,900
Eastland	12,200
Comanche	4,085
Strawn	1,380
Brown	560
Moran	180
Coleman	120

In South Stephens the Fensland Oil company's No. 4 Brown, shot with 80 quarts in the 3200 ft. lime, is reported flowing at the rate of 500 barrels. The No. 3 Stoker of this same company which came in last week with a natural flow of 250 barrels, has been increased to 400 barrels by a hundred quart shot.

In Eastland county the Sinclair Oil & Gas company's No. 4 Davis is reported making 250 barrels, from the 1900 foot sand.

Electra's best completion this week is reported from the Planet Petroleum company's Burnett lease, the No. 29 being reported with 600 barrels flush production, in the 1800 foot sand.

Fitts Is After New Dog Catcher

Police Commissioner Fitts wants a city dog catcher; got to have one, he says; too many gosh-durn vagabond canines running 'round the city with rabies, possibly, or cooties, or some'p'n.

He has filed his problem with Tax Collector Anderson, who is the Grand Celestial Pooh-Bah of the local canine world, and who has authority to name dog catchers by the score—might almost say by the pound.

The pound has been the problem of the past. Other dog catchers used to put the wild, wild dogs in the pound, and then some man or boy wilder than the dogs would get 'em all out again. Two dog catchers resigned.

The dog catcher leads a tough life. He has to be tough himself; he can't afford to have any sympathy for the under dog. That's emf.

Both Collier and Landon will continue actively in the business, and the new firm will handle an extensive line of athletic equipment of all kinds. POLICE TELL TONY BENSON TO GET OUT

When City Detective Bob Hembree found Tony Benson's watch and money yesterday in Benson's home, thereby establishing the fact that Benson's recent tale of being hi-jacked, proved the existence of a good imagination—well, shortly thereafter a decision was reached at police headqutrters that Tony Benson might not be the most desirable citizen in Wichita Falls.

At any rate Benson was released from jail yesterday afternoon and received some very plain instructions from Police Commissioner Fitts to leave Wichita Falls before 10 o'clock this morning. Before he wended his way sadly from the city hall, Benson signed another statement in which, the police say, he declared he had inflicted wounds on himself and had spread the hi-jacking stories in order to obtain the sympathy of a young woman.

Benson had told so many conflicting stories since the police began investigating the case, and had signed so many statements only to repudiate them later, that the "mystery" for a time threatened to become one of the grandest muddles ever recorded on the local police blotter. Detective Hembree's discovery of Benson's watch and money in Benson's home, however, finally established the truth of Benson's last admission that he had invented earlier tales.

LOCAL STORE ADOPTS USE OF QUESTIONNAIRE

The P. B. M. Department store is increasing its buying force this spring, very considerably, in accordance with a new plan inauguarted by Jack C. Barnard, the general manager. In fact, when the buyers leave for the Eastern markets, they will carry with them the suggestions and advices of several thousand women, patrons and prospective patrons of the store.

Questionnaires, accompanied by a stamped and addressed envelope, have been mailed to a large number of women by Mr. Barnard, askin that the blanks be filled out, giving information in a general way as to what the individual needs and desires for the spring season will be. Information as to whether a suit, coat, dress will be bought, with the material, color and price desired, and the same information along all lines of women's wear, also for the piece goods department, is asked by this questionnaire.

That there will be no obligation whatever attached to filling out the questionnaire and sending it in, is stressed and emphasis is also put on the fact that to do so will help materially in the spring buying, as the store wishes to buy what it's customers desire.
