Death Takes Area Pioneer Early Friday

Mrs. J.H. Birchfield, whose life in Collingsworth County spanned almost 65 years, died at 6:30 a.m. Friday, November 26, in Harmon County Memorial Hospital, Hollis.

She was 93 years of age. Her death was attributed to complications from a fall she suffered a few days earlier. She had been living in a Hollis convalescent home this winter.

Alert and keenly interested in life about her, Mrs. Birchfield had remained active until only a short time ago.

She and the late Mr. Birchfield came to Collingsworth County in 1907, settling north of Dodson. First he was a cowboy, then a rancher and farmer. With grace and courage, she shared the hardships of those earlier years. These qualities remained, just as did the cordial quality of her home, and the friendship she gave generously to so many.

Mrs. Birchfield was a Methodist, having become a member in early life. She belonged to the Eastern Star and was a "Real Daughter" of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. This designation meant that her own father was a confederate veteran.

A native Texan, she was born Laura Josephine Eddins on July 2, 1878, in Jewett, Leon County, the daughter of Capt. Louis Sanders Eddins and Sue Frances Hayes Eddins. Her father had come to Texas after the Civil War, in which he served with Co. H of the third Louisiana Infantry.

She grew up at Chico and later came with her family to

NW Texas Research Meeting Set Dec. 6

The annual winter meeting to review the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration program will be held here Monday December 6, by administrative and research personnel of the Texas Experiment Station and Texas A&M Extension Service. They will be joined by the county agents of Collingsworth, Wheeler and Hall counties, and Thursday.

Ten handsome trophies, 5 for boys and 5 for girls, will be presented at the tournament end. These will go to the first, second, third and consolation winners and to the team winning the sportsmanship award.

Both of last year's Samnorwood tournament winners will be back, Briscoe girls and Shamrock boys.

Dwane Scott, farm demonstration assistant.

The purpose of the meeting is to review the experiments carried on in the three counties and to plan new or expanded tests, according to County Agent Don Reeves.

"We will get their opinions on changes that should be made, and we also want to get the opinions of local producers as to what they would like for us to work on," said Mr. Reeves.

While definite changes will not be known until after the meeting, he said 1972 would probably see an enlargement of the grass research program and tests on new varieties of cotton and grain sorghum.

Heading the list of those associated with the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration program are W.W. Grisham, District 1 agent; James Simmons, District 3 agent; and Dr. James Mulkey, superintendent of the Chillicothe Experiment Station; along with specialists in agronomy and animal nutrition, farm management specialists, and entomologists from Vernon, Lubbock and Amarillo, as well as County Agents Max Hatter of Wheeler, W.B. Hooser of Memphis, and Mr. Reeves and Mr. Scott.

Tournament officials will be out of the Borger Chapter, Mr. Martindale said.

First round games Thursday will include:

10:30 a.m. - Shamrock and Allison boys.

Lions Fund Benefits Girlstown Christmas

Wellington Lions have announced two projects, both aimed at helping others.

This club has joined all other Lions Clubs of District 2-T1 in sponsoring the much-needed "Girlstown Christmas Fund," Lion Jack Neeley announced. They are asking for donations from the public - and they will add their own donations - in order that each of the 165 girls may have a new coat and shoes for Christmas.

"The objective is to raise $40 for each girl, the amount required for a coat and shoes." "Give a gift of warmth and joy to the girls of the Whiteface and Borger Girlstowns this Christmas," Mr. Neeley urged. "Let's let them know someone cares. Now is the time to reach down into our

Santa Claus Visits Saturday, First Trades Day Drawing Set

Wellington's Christmas lights are on and Santa Claus can't be far behind. He's already on his way from the North Pole, in fact.

Santa will pay the first of three visits to Wellington, Saturday, December 4, arriving at 3:30 p.m., Mrs. Margaret Vines of the Chamber of Commerce has announced.

He will visit with Collingsworth area children until time for the first Trades Day Drawing, at 4:00 p.m.

Santa Claus will again visit

Saturday, December 18 and on Friday, December 24.

On his first visit Saturday, he will arrive on the court house square in the way he traditionally comes to Wellington . . . the big red fire truck, with its siren ringing and loaded with Santa's packs of goodies for Wellington children.

These visits are part of the city's annual pre-Christmas Good Will Trades Days, sponsored by the merchants of Wellington and the Chamber of Commerce. Drawings are slated for December 4, 11, 18 and 24, and kiddies are reminded that this year there is an extra drawing especially for them, but that they must be accompanied by one parent in order to be declared a winner.

All of the drawings will be on the south side of the court house at 4:00 p.m. Merchants began giving trades day tickets Monday, November 29. The same plan for drawing will be followed as in the past, with the first drawing for $35 in script, the second $25 in script, and the third $15. Each will be drawn for until there is a winner present. For the convenience of shoppers, script is in $5 denominations.

Also as part of the Christmas program, C-C president Harold Gattis reminded that it is time for Wellington residents to put up their Christmas decorations, and urged that this year the town be made colorful in this expression of the holiday spirit.

Both homes and business houses will be judged December 20.

Panhandle Man Named Police Chief

James King of Panhandle has been hired by the City Council as Police Chief for Wellington, Mayor John Coleman announced Monday, November 29.

Mr. King, 43, is presently chief of police at Panhandle, a post he has held about two years.

He was due to present his resignation to the Panhandle City Council at a called meeting this week. Both he and the Wellington council hope that he can begin work here around December 15.

Mr. King has a number of years experience in law enforcement work and prior to that, he worked as an officer on a part time basis.

He and Mrs. King have 5 children, but only two still at home, a son 17 and a daughter 13, Mayor Coleman said.

Prior to going to Panhandle the King family lived at Hereford.

Meeting Called Dec. 7 On Ambulance Service

In an effort to help Collingsworth County work out a plan for continued ambulance service, Wallace D. Lawson of the Texas Department of Health will be in Wellington for an open meeting with all interested citizens on Tuesday, December 7.

This meeting will be in the district court room beginning at 10:00 a.m. Every interested person is urged to be there.

Mr. Lawson has helped more than 200 counties in Texas, both large and small, work out ambulance service problems, according to Jimmie Kelso of Kelso Funeral Home.

"He will not come telling us what to do, but he will present numerous plans of operation for the community to consider, Mr. Kelso said.

He will answer questions of local people and give whatever information he may have.

Mr. Lawson will also meet with citizens of Memphis, Clarendon and McLean on his trip into the Panhandle.

This meeting is an outgrowth of the recent announcement by funeral directors of the four cities that they will have to suspend operation of ambulance service December 31 due to greatly increased expenses and more stringent federal and state regulations.

FU Delegates Will Attend Convention

Farmers and ranchers from across the state will converge on San Antonio December 6-8 to hear farm policy speeches and adopt policy on agricultural issues. Texas Farmers Union will hold its three-day conclave at the St. Anthony Hotel.

Delegates elected to represent the Collingsworth County Farmers Union include President, Donald Langley, of Quail, and Lloyd Woodbridge, Donald Coleman of Samnorwood, Doug Seal, Dan Hendard, Jr., J.L. Alexander of Lutie, and Garland Hightower of Dodson.

Rudie Tate of Samnorwood, the immediate past president, is a member of the program committee for the state convention. He and Mr. Langley.

Mr. Jones was born in Bee Bee, Arkansas, November 13, 1898. He moved with his family to Jack County in 1906, and to this county in 1930.

He was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:00 p.m. Sunday, November 21, in Glen Davis Memorial Methodist Church.

Collingsworth County Gospel Singers will meet Saturday, December 6, to select new song books to be used at coming regular and special events, President Tom Wilkins announced.

This business will be in addition to the regular singing, which will be held as usual.

The singers will meet at 7:00 p.m. in Trinity Methodist Church.

Methodist Women Plan Annual Dinner

Women of First United Methodist Church will hold their community-wide annual Turkey dinner Saturday, December 11, in Bura Handley Community Center.

Each year, this is one of the major events of the pre-Christmas season bringing together friends for a leisurely hour of fellowship.

The dinner will be served from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., said Mrs. R.T. Dyess.

All the food is home-cooked, with the menu planned around the turkey entre.

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Guild sponsor the dinner each year, with all women of the church assisting.

Tickets are available from WSCS members or they may be bought at the door. There are tickets for both children and adults.

EYE GLASSES

The second project of Wellington Lions is the collection of old eye glasses. These will be sent through Lions International to South American countries where the frames will be reused for the needy.

Boxes will be placed in the City State Bank and Wellington State Bank, where the glasses may be deposited. Later a house to house pickup is planned.

It does not matter if the lens are damaged or missing, the frames are still usable, Mr. Neeley pointed out.

Rockets, Rockettes Keep on Winning

Wellington Skyrockets and Rockettes remain undefeated as they took doubleheaders from Memphis and Paducah during Thanksgiving week.

Memphis was the first to fall, with Wellington girls winning a close 46-44 and the boys stretching their margin to 82-75. Traveling to Paducah, Wellington defeated the Dragonettes 56-53 and the Dragons 65-58.

This brings the WHS combined record to 10-0-0.

The game with Memphis girls played here Tuesday, November 23, was won by the Rockette guards, who did an outstanding job of playing defense and bringing the ball down to the forwards. They made only one or two mistakes during the entire game and Coach Lacy credits this as the key to the victory.

Rockette forwards were hitting about 30 per cent of their field goals and 36 per cent of the free shots.

Patti McAlister was high pointer with 32, Wanda Walker of Memphis had 23.

Wellington forwards were Patti McAlister, Leigh Nall, Phyllis Sullivan and Pam Black. Guards were Mary Saied, Katy Sullivan and Mary Thomas. Memphis starters were Wanda Walker, G. Johnson, and K. Carmen, forwards and V. Rea P. Fleets and J. Mass, guards.

The boys game was a rather high-scoring affair.

"We were pleased with the way the offense worked. They worked the ball real well and set up good shots," said Coach Lacy. The Rockets shot about 45 per cent from the field and 41 per cent from the foul line.

Ray Shrubs was high point man with 28; Larry Johnson of Memphis had 24.

Wellington starters were Ray Shrubs, Ronnie Pennon, Denny Carter, Danny Waters and Bruce Oney. Also seeing action were Jay Thomas, Randall Hodges and Barry Long.

Playing for Memphis were Louis Davis, Otho Rogers, Mike Browning, Larry Johnson, Tommy Johnson, Charley Slaughter, Larry Jeffers, Lewis Simpson, Randy Gouge and Donnie Scott.

WELLINGTON - PADUCAH

Wellington Rockettes eked out a 56-53 victory over the Paducah Dragonettes, rated as one of the stronger girls teams in this area.

"We felt the play of our forwards was an important factor in winning this game," declared Coach Lacy. "They did an excellent job of working the ball and working for the good shots."

Patti McAlister scored her career high of 41 points. Other forwards were Phyllis Sullivan, Leigh Nall, and Pam Black. Guards were Janie Davis, Katy Sullivan and Mary Saied.

Paducah led 17-15 at the end of the first quarter and 29-28 at the half. In the third period, the Rockettes had a good third period, scoring 14 points and holding the Dragonettes to 6. Paducah outscored Wellington 18 to 14 in the final period, but could not overcome the Rockette lead.

Paducah players were Rekiet, Smith and Spence forwards, Fields, Wall and C. Condon, guards.

SKYROCKETS - DRAGONS

Wellington went away ahead of Paducah, a young team, early in the game and after the Rockets had built up a 20 point margin of 38-18 at the half, the reserves got in the action. This enabled Paducah regulars to score 26 points in the third period and 14 in the fourth while Wellington picked up 14 and 13 respectively.

Shrubs' 25 points led the scoring. Others playing were Pennon, Carter, Waters, Gary Wright, Jay Thomas, Bruce Oney, Randall Hodges, Long, Mike Belew, Mike Williams, and Steve Hunter. The Rockets were minus Rozell Outley, who injured one leg out of school.

Danny Waters received a sprained ankle in the Paducah game and Coach Lacy said he would probably miss a couple of games.

The team made about 30 per cent from the free shot line.

Cover Needed For Success in Grass Seeding

Some farmers in this area may be planning to convert some dryland cropland to a permanent cover of grass. If this is done, there are some hints that will be beneficial, according to the local office of the Soil Conservation Service in Collingsworth County.

On most of the soils in Collingsworth County, it is difficult to obtain a stand of grass due to the blowing problem and uncertain moisture conditions. To help overcome these problems on dryland the grass should be planted in a deadlitter cover. This cover is the residue from a crop usually forage sorghum in narrow rows, planted the year before. The sorghum should be shredded during the year to prevent it from making seed which could compete with the grass for space and moisture. If a deadlitter cover is not used a mulch of cotton burs would serve the same purpose. The cover on the ground will prevent wind erosion at the time the grass is coming up. It will also help prevent the soil surface from drying out so fast the seed can't germinate.

There are several different grasses that are well adapted to this area. For information on varieties, seeding rates, etc. contact your local Soil Conservation Service.

Quail Takes One Point Victory From Hedley

In one of their more breath-taking games of the season, Quail Quails took a one-point victory over Hedley boys, 73-72, Tuesday evening, November 23, on their home court.

Quail Bobwhites, however, dropped their game to Hedley girls 60 to 46.

Quail boys led by a 29-18 and 48-37 at the first and second quarters. Hedley boys came back from the dressing room after half time for a hot third period, and pulled to within one point of Quail. Although the game was never tied nor did Hedley get ahead, Quail had only a single point lead at the third period 63-62, and scoring was held to 10 points for each team in the final quarter.

Quail shot 72 per cent of the field goals during the first half, but dropped to 41 per cent in the last. Hedley's percentages were 34 and 35, but they made about 56 per cent of the free shots to 35 for Quail.

Laron Peters led Quail's scoring with 21 points; James Reike had 31 for Hedley.

The girls game was nip and tuck: during the first quarter, which ended 15-14, but in the second, Hedley forwards began to score on Quail's smaller guards, who could not contain them. Bobwhite forwards, however, were able to score on the Hedley guards to keep the game fairly close until near the end.

Renee White's 30 points for Hedley was also high for the game, and Lenora Oatman, with 18, was Quail's high.

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

If you have a problem holding your hand steady when polishing your nails, place a cup upside-down on the table and rest your hand on the cup. No more worry about a smeared or uneven look to your polish.

You can remove many streaks from a light-colored dress with an eraser. A regular pencil eraser will do, but soft gum erasers are best.

Put a half-snap on each of your neck scarves and the corresponding half on the armhole of your coat. No matter what scarf you wear, it can be snapped into the coat sleeve when taken off, thus keeping it in place so it is not lost, dropped on the floor, or left someplace.

Use transparent nylon fishing line when restringing beads. It is stiff enough to go through the beads without the use of a needle and is still flexible enough for them to hang correctly. After they are all strung, tie the line securely to the clasp and stick the loose ends back inside a few beads near the end.

Kettle of Holiday Oyster Stew Ideal Dish for Winter Evening

AUSTIN -- How long since you've made a buttery, hot kettle of oyster stew for your family? Never? Shame on you!

Oysters are an excellent choice for your menu because they are a high protein food, rich in copper, iron, iodine and other essential minerals.

The warning to only eat oysters in months that have an "R" in them (September through April) is a holdover from the days of poor refrigeration and transportation. It was unwise to eat oysters during the summer months.

Now there are wholesome oysters available all through the year. But the peak harvest is just beginning off the Gulf coast of Texas, and that means an abundant supply for Texans and their neighbors.

Traditionally, oyster stew is made of oysters, milk and butter. Try this newer version that is special enough for holidays and simple enough for a family supper.

If you would like other free recipes send a postcard with your name and address to: Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan Building, Austin, Texas 78701. HOLIDAY OYSTER STEW

2 cans (12 oz. ea.) oysters
2 slices bacon, chopped
1/3 cup chopped onion
1 can (10 1/2 oz.) frozen condensed cream of potato soup
4 cups oyster liquid and half & half cream
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
dash white pepper
chopped parsley

Drain oysters, reserving liquid. Fry bacon until crisp. Remove bacon from fat. Cook onion in bacon fat until tender. Add soup, oyster liquid, cream and seasonings; heat, stirring occasionally. Add bacon and oyster; heat for three to five minutes longer or until edges of oysters begin to curl. Sprinkle with parsley. Serves six.

These directors will set the policy and operate the hospital for the benefit of all the people of the county. This will take the operation of the hospital out of politics and place it in the people.

Question: What will the $150,000.00 in bonds be used for?

Answer: The Dominican Sisters, owners of the present hospital building and equipment, have offered to sell it for $100,000.00. There will be remodeling costs and first year operating expenditures of approximately $50,000.00 and this will be determined by the board. The board will determine how much of the bonds will be actually issued and used.

Question: Will the present building pass the requirements of the health department?

Answer: Yes. It passed the hospital accreditation inspection in August, 1971, with the requirement that there be installed a sprinkler system and this has been done; and replace the existing oxygen system. This has been done.

Question: What would a new hospital building and equipment cost to replace the present?

Answer: Architects' estimates are between $700,000.00 and $800,000.00.

Question: What about doctors?

Answer: The hospital board can set policies which provide better working conditions for doctors and patients and assist our present doctors in getting additional doctors to locate here.

Question: What will be the yearly requirement of taxes to pay the bond indebtedness?

Answer: Bonds will be issued for ten (10) years and figured at 5 1/4 % interest and this will require an average tax rate of 18.2 cents per $100.00 tax valuation based on present county valuation of $11,366,422.00.

Example: The average yearly tax for the bonds on a new home such as in the Moore Addition to Wellington would be $3.64.

Example: On tax value (not sale value) of $1,000.00, the average yearly tax for 10 years would be $1.82.

Example: On a section of farm land with the tax value of $8,000.00, the average yearly tax would be $14.56.

Many of the houses in this county have a tax value of less than $1,000.00.

Question: Can the hospital district assist in ambulance service for the county?

Answer: Yes. The ambulance could be operated in connection with the hospital and serve as a saving to the taxpayers. This works in other states.

Question: Who may vote in the election on proposition to form a Hospital District and issue bonds?

Answer: Must be 18 years of age or over and registered 30 days prior to exercising the right to vote; resident of Texas one year and resident of Collingsworth County 6 months.

We, the undersigned, urge that all voters of Collingsworth County vote for the formation of a Hospital District and the issuance of the Bonds on December 18.

Memphis Upholstery Offers Four Top Lines of Sofas, Recliners, Mattresses

Eddie Gable, who operates Gable Furniture and Memphis Upholstery located at 114 North 7th St., in Memphis, states he is very proud of the four lines he is able to offer his customers, Spring Air mattresses, Riviera sofa-sleepers or sofas, and Berkline and La-Z-Boy recliners.

"Because I specialize in factory buying, I am able to offer to my customers some very good prices in these lines," Gable stated. "I am the only store between Amarillo and Wichita Falls that can offer you Riviera sofa-sleepers and stationary sofas at such low prices," he said. "These lines are highly advertised and many of you have seen these fine recliners and sofas in TV advertisements," Gable stated. Also, Gable offers good buys on Spring Air mattresses of which he carries a complete line.

"We invite you to come into our store and inspect this merchandise and get our prices before you buy elsewhere," Gable said.

"If we don't have what you prefer, you can choose from our complete warehouse or factory catalogues for any style frame and 1,000 different fabrics," he said.

Gable opened an upholstery store here in 1963 and about 1968 added furniture to his store.

Simmental Show, Sale Stated at Fat Stock Show

The Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show will host the second annual American Simmental Association Show and Sale during the 1972 Fort Worth Stock Show, Jan. 28 through Feb. 6.

W.R. Watt, Stock Show president-manager, said Simmental cattle will be judged in carcass and breeding classes for heifers and bulls ranging from half blood to purebred.

"Consigned are 160 of the best Simmental breeding stock in North America, including six purebred bull calves born in Canada this year," said Casey Anderson of Lewistown, Mont., president of CA Livestock (International) Inc., and sale manager.

Anticipated gross value of the Simmental sale is expected to exceed $500,000. This would be an average of $3,125 per head, making it what is believed to be the richest sale ever held in the Southwest, Anderson said. Simmental is a relatively new breed to the United States. The first of the breed imported into North America was from France. The next cattle were brought in from Switzerland, where this purebred breed was developed more than a thousand years ago.

It is from Switzerland that the Simmental name was derived. In Swiss, Tal means "valley". The cattle are from the Valley of the Simme -- thus Simmental.

The sale, billed as "Simmental Saturday Night," will be held at 6 p.m. Feb. 5 under sponsorship of the American Simmental Association. Breeding classes will be judged 1 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 3, on hoof and carcass entries will be placed at 7 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 27.

Watt reminded potential exhibitors that Stock Show entry closing date for cattle, horses, sheep and swine is Dec. 15. Entries for poultry, rabbits and pigeons must be in by Jan. 17.

If You'll Be Gone December 18 Cast Your Ballot Absentee

Absentee voting has begun in one of the most crucial questions to come before us, to determine the creation of a Hospital District covering Collingsworth County and the issuance of $150,000 in bonds.

If there is any likelihood that you will be out of town on December 18, it is most important that you vote absentee between now and December 14.

Because its medical facilities do much in determining a county's future, we must take those steps that are necessary to preserve the fine hospital care to which we are accustomed. The almost 33 years the Dominican Sisters have operated St. Joseph's Hospital has given Wellington a tradition of fine medical care that we can not let fail.

Everyone 18 years of age and over who is a qualified voter can vote in this election. Its outcome is vital to the health of each person in the county.

Other Editors Say . . .

Law-Abiding State

Mississippi, held up to the nation by liberal press and left-wing electronic media as the black pit of discrimination, racism and lynching, has once again been vindicated.

The 1970 Uniform Crime Report, which has just been issued by Director J. Edgar Hoover of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, reveals that once again Mississippi ranks as one of the two states in the Union with the lowest crime rate. Last year our state had the lowest rate and we usually alternate from year to year with North Dakota for this favored position.

The report shows that Mississippi had only 863.4 crimes per 100,000 inhabitants. This is less than one-third of the national rate, which is 2,740 serious crimes per 100,000 population. As we said, the only state ranking lower was North Dakota with an index of 846.1.

Let's compare our state with some of our neighbors and see how we fare. Alabama had a crime index of 1865.4, Louisiana 2404.7, and Tennessee 1888.3.

The report shows that crime rose 176% in volume during the decade from 1960 to 1970. During that same period of time the population of this country was increasing by only 13%. This establishes a ratio of almost 14 to 1 when the increase in volume of crime is related to population growth.

The fact that Mississippi ranks every year either No. 1 or No. 2 as the state with the lowest crime rate proves conclusively that the people of our state are better adjusted to life, are more law-abiding, and have more personal integrity and character than the people of other states.—The Winston County (Miss.) Journal.

Sweetie Pie

"Just Sweetie Pie with that 'three guesses who' routine—I hung up on her!"

By Bill Boykin

AUSTIN, Tex. -- Gov. Preston Smith's decision to run for a third term drew sharp new attention to an increasingly crowded and complex 1972 political scene.

Smith said he would seek vindication in stock-loan scandals. He plans to tell that he killed (by veto) the bank deposit legislation urged by Houston banker Frank Sharp which the Legislature passed in 1969.

Meanwhile, former U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough said odds are now 10-to-one he will be a candidate -- either for governor or senate -- next year. But he declined to indicate which race is most likely to attract him.

State Sen. Wayne Connally, youngest brother of U.S. Secretary of Treasury (and former Governor) John B. Connally jumped into the lieutenant governor's race. Connally is a conservative Democrat.

Harold (Barefoot) Sanders of Dallas reportedly is getting set to run for the U.S. Senate as a Democrat.

Sen. Joe Christie of El Paso indicated he will reveal at a dinner in his home town December 7 whether he will enter the lieutenant governor's race or stand for re-election.

Republicans, calling for a "top to bottom cleanup" in state government, began reciting preliminaries, concentrating on the governor's race. (They already have a U.S. Senate candidate, incumbent John Tower.)

The Republicans, in an informal statewide poll of gubernatorial preferences, came up with S. Ross Perot, wealthy Dallas businessman, who is a political independent, as their favorite.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall and Houston newspaper executive William P. Hobby Jr. have been in the lieutenant governor's race for months.

COURTS SPEAK -- Texas Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a new law which allows those accused of crimes to waive rights to a grand jury indictment before trial in cases where the death penalty is not applicable.

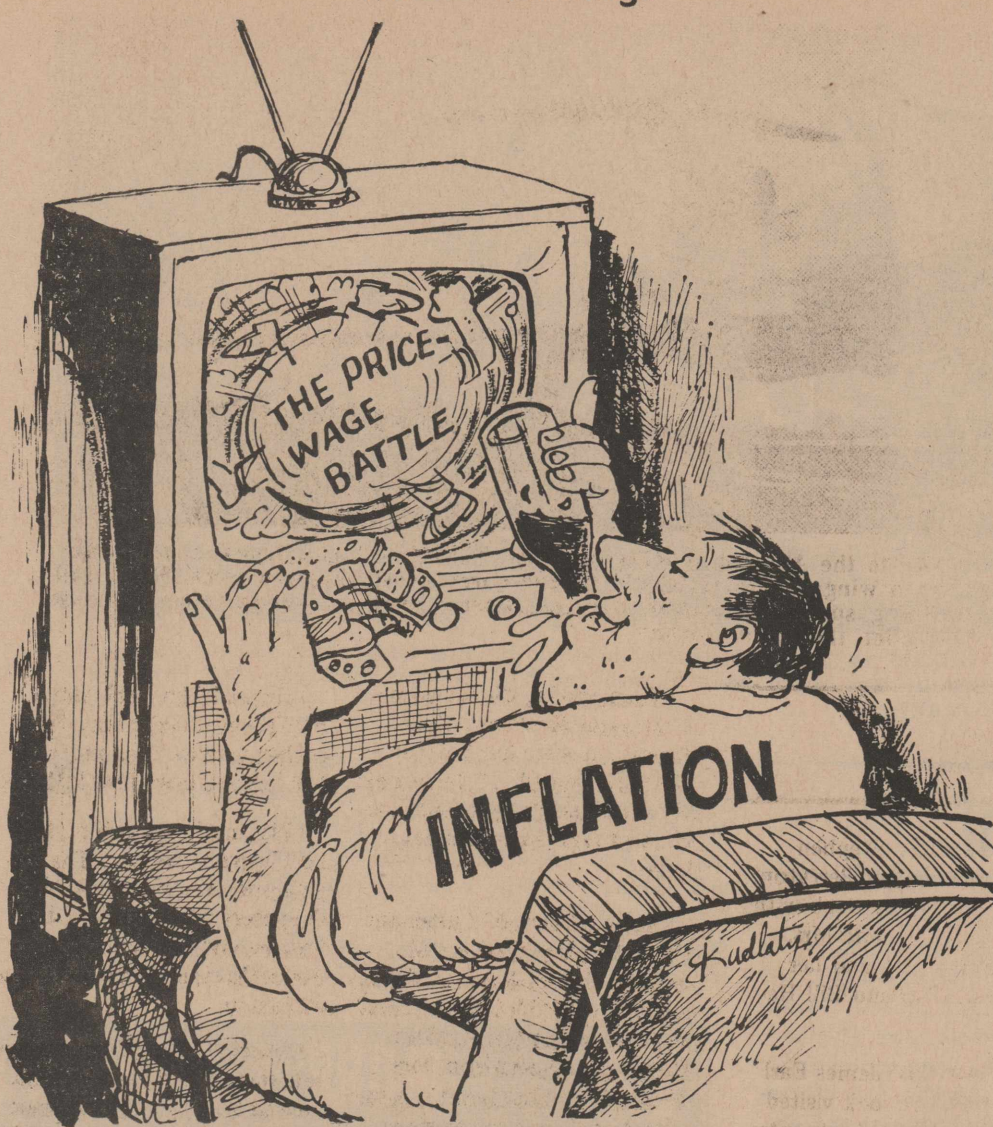

In other recent cases the Court of Criminal Appeals upheld a new law which all held:

* That photographs of a bloody death scene are not automatically prohibited from consideration in murder trials.

* That a court is not to look beyond a bill as passed by the legislature to consider if the act creating a new trial court was duly submitted to a special legislative session by the governor.

COURT COST "SURTAX" PROFITABLE -- Some 716 cities and the 264 counties collected $335,348.70 during September from a new "surtax" on court costs earmarked for improving criminal justice.

Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported on first collections under the law. Money will meet state and local matching fund needs for federal grants under the Omnibus Crime Control Act.

The new law provides an additional court cost assessment of $2.50 for a misdemeanor case conviction in a court where jurisdiction is limited to a $200 maximum fine and specifically includes traffic violations. It also directs a $5 additional charge on other misdemeanor convictions and $10 for felony convictions, to be collected as other fines or costs in cases.

AUTO LICENSE OBJECTION WITHDRAWN -- A new Texas Motor Vehicle Commission member withdrew his protest to licensing of a competitive auto dealer in Corpus Christi.

Jack McKenzie pulled down his objection to TMVC's granting a regular license to Barton Grubbs Volkswagen, which began operations in Corpus Christi three months ago. McKenzie, who operates a VW dealership, said he remains convinced he proved that a competitor in the city was not needed for several years. But he conceded, "reasonable men may differ on the facts presented . . ."

December 1 was the deadline set by the new Motor Vehicle Commission act for new car dealers, distributors, manufacturers and factory representatives to get required state licenses. McKenzie said the hearing before the Commission November 4 was "vital" and

CROSSROADS REPORT

Dear Editor:

I see where Congress is studying about government taking over the doctoring and the hospitalizing business.

Judging from the way it runs the post office business, this would bring about change in medical practice. Such as six or seven 3-day holidays for medical people and we would have to not be sick during these periods.

And people served by government-employed doctors and nurses would get different treatment, like postal customers do, according to whether they are first class, second class third class, fourth class or junk patients.

I see where Congress keeps trying to work out a plan whereby the vast expense of national political campaigns can be dumped on the taxpayers' backs.

Theoretically this is different from the system in use now, whereby people make "campaign contributions", expecting to get government gravy when their man wins.

But if tax money to influence voters is handled by the same inept political mercenaries who have been using same to buy foreign friends, the government-subsidized candidates may all go down like the Nationalist Chinese did.

SHORT SNORTS

A Democratic fund-raising reception here December 6 will cost $1,000 per -- to hobnob with Sen. Hubert Humphrey and Congressman Wilbur Mills. A $25-a-plate dinner follows.

State Republican leaders demanded removal of Secretary of State Bob Bullock. Bullock said he intends to stay.

The bicentennial era in Texas was launched Thanksgiving Day with half-time ceremonies at the Dallas-Los Angeles football game.

The Department of Public Safety has coded for computer storage 168,979 individual criminal records. Records will be retained by Project SEARCH (System for Electronic Analysis and Retrieval of Criminal Histories).

Four seminars were scheduled this week in Lubbock, Dallas, Houston, and San Antonio to review laws governing the new state vending commission and the industry it regulates. The commission staff, attorney general's office and consumer credit commissioner provided personnel to get the discussions going.

December 5-11 is Texas Consumer Week.

A Compost Pile Fights Pollution

COLLEGE STATION, -- Rather than burning leaves this fall and polluting the air, why not use them for a compost pile? This will provide a good source of organic matter for potted plants, for top-dressing the lawn, and for building up the soil in flower beds and shrub borders, says Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

There are many ways of composting leaves and other vegetable matter, but the simplest method is to alternate four-to-six-inch layers of good garden soil. If available, manure can be added to the soil layer to good advantage. The compost pile should be four-to-six feet wide and any desired length depending on material and space available.

Sprinkle a commercial fertilizer on each layer of vegetable matter to hasten decomposition, suggests Janne. Use about one-half pound, or one cupful, of any good commercial fertilizer with a 1-1-1 ratio per 10 square feet of each vegetable matter layer.

The top layer of the compost pile should be soil and the surface of the pile should be dish-shaped, forming a basin to hold water. Each layer of organic matter should be watered thoroughly before adding the soil layer. This is especially true when composting leaves as they can be extremely slow to decompose if too dry. The pile should be watered thoroughly when completed and additional water should be added as needed to keep the material moist but not soggy.

Turn or mix the compost with a garden fork or shovel every three or four months, recommends the horticulturist. It should be ready to use in six months to a year. The decomposition process can be speeded up by using commercial compost activators.

Nutrias Become Pests in Some Texas Areas

SAN ANGELO -- After taking East Texas like Attila the Hun, nutrias are looking for new worlds to conquer.

Nutrias, more correctly known as coypus, are already becoming pests in some West Texas areas, especially along such rivers as the Colorado and San Saba, report officials for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

These obnoxious rodents were introduced into Louisiana from South America in 1938 as a fur animal. Their belly fur is equal in quality to that of beaver. Nutrias were introduced into Texas in the late 1940's and early 1950's for aquatic vegetation control.

As soon as nutrias were set loose they began taking over. They are not native to the U.S., and they have few natural enemies here. Because nutrias are fierce fighters and weigh from 15 to 25 pounds, predators find them difficult to bring down, especially in water. About the only things which have had a major effect on populations in Texas to date are adverse weather conditions such as hurricanes and severe freezes.

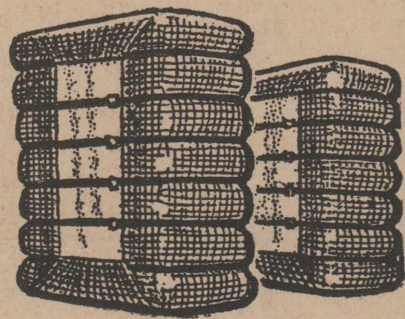

HARMLESS CENTIPEDE

The true centipede is provided with poison fangs but the northern species of house centipedes is harmless to man in spite of the repulsive appearance of its long legs. It devours house flies, ants, roaches, clothes moths and bookworms.

SALT SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

SEDIMENT:
A WATER POLLUTANT
by Lynn Courtney

Sediment is our greatest pollutant of waters in terms of volume. However, sediment may also be a carrier of other pollutants, perhaps actually removing them from their source area and then re-depositing them in another place as the nature of the stream flow changes.

Sediment becomes a pollutant when it occupies water storage reservoirs, fills lakes and ponds, clogs stream channels, settles on productive lands, destroys aquatic habitat, creates turbidity that detracts from recreational water uses, degrades water, increases water treatment costs, damages water distribution systems. Sediments is also the carrier of the other pollutants of water such as plant nutrients, insecticides, herbicides, and heavy metals. Perhaps even bacteria and virus are carried by sediments.

Because of erodible boundaries and the energy in flowing streams, sediment will continue to exist and to carry available pollutants. To control the bulk of the sediment problem concerned with pollution requires controlling the amount of clay and colloidal fractions within the sediment. The control would be necessary both at the sediment source and in its final deposition.

Is this sediment coming from your cropland that needs terracing? Is it filling your stock pond, your neighbors stock pond, or is it just running down a muddy stream? For further information contact your local Soil Conservation Service.

Prairie Chick Hunt Light

SAN ANGELO - The Panhandle prairie chicken harvest went begging this year, according to Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials.

The birds were in little danger because of the lack of hunters. During the two-day season hunters bagged only 179 chickens.

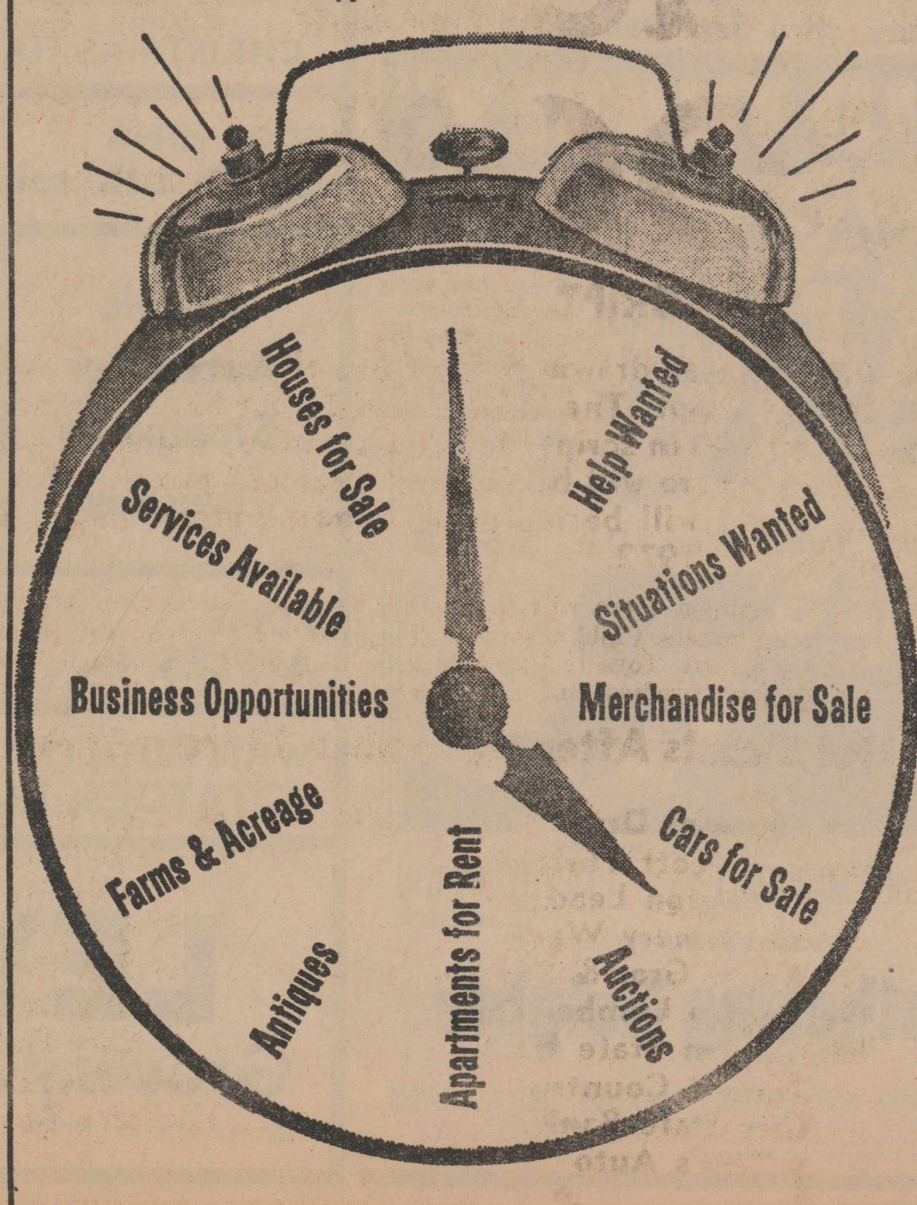

However, the 116 hunters confessed firing 664 times to down the 179 birds they took home, no doubt hoping their wives wouldn't ask how many they saw or shot at.

The prairie chickens were plentiful. Shotgunners saw an estimated 2,060 birds during the 326 hours they spent in the field.

Mr. and Mrs. A.B. Boyett and Mrs. Mary Boyett, Rev. Stout is pastor of Quail Baptist Church.

Thanksgiving day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ople White were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Jack Watson and children of Claude, Mr. and Mrs. Donald White and children of Clarendon, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott and children of Memphis.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—by Deskins Wells

THERE IS an advertisement in this issue of the paper giving the answers to questions people have been asking about the coming election on December 18 creating a hospital district. It is factual and it is presented without any special pleading. It is signed by some 185 people who have been known for the interest they have taken in the welfare of this community.

THE FACTS contained in the question and answer part of the advertisement are important, but the names that are signed to them and the variety of callings they represent are important also. The men who carried around the information on creating a hospital district say that they could have secured twice as many signatures if they could have had more time. Anyway here is a representative group of people who believe that a favorable vote on the proposition of creating a hospital district is imperative to the future well being of this community.

THE HOSPITAL district can be used in providing an ambulance service for the people of this community and this is also of the greatest importance in saving lives and caring for the sick.

ABSENTEE voting is now in progress on the proposition of creating a hospital district and voting a $150,000 bond issue. If there is any chance of you being out of town on December 18, you can make sure that your wishes will count by going to the county and district clerks office today and casting your ballot. Thus far there has been no vocal opposition to the measure. There can be danger in complacency and overconfidence. Considering the momentous consequences of the decision we must make, this is no time to take anything for granted.

WHEAT PASTURES this fall are the best in many years and the cattle herds look good regardless of which direction from Wellington you travel. The old saying that a good wheat crop means a good cotton crop the next year holds true in most years. Yet the fact remains that the cotton growers have had a miserable time waiting to harvest their crop. The continued wet weather has kept them out of the fields and has created the latest ginning season on record.

THE INTERMITTENT warm weather followed by cold damp days has provided another affliction. The number of people suffering from sinus, colds and even flu is much greater than in one of our customary fall seasons. Snow on the last day of November is also unusual.

"WUTHERING HEIGHTS" will be showing at the Ritz this Sunday through Wednesday. It is a new movie based on Emily Bronte's immortal novel by that same name. It is a remake of an older movie slanted at the young generation. It is one that is faithful to the novel that is filled with the power, passion and terror of the novel of 18th century England when life was tough, brutal and short. For authenticity the movie was filmed on the Yorkshire moors of the Bronte country. It is not the most pleasant picture in the world but is one you should see.

THE STORES of Wellington have taken on the Christmas look and are bright, glittering and cheerful. It is worth a trip to see the decorations.

DRIVE FRIENDLY takes on a new dimension as Jene Kincaid of El Paso makes a pointed plea for Texans to heed the message of the world's heaviest billboard. Erected during a highway construction project on Interstate Highway 10 in El Paso, the 210,000 pound steel beam billboard is 45 feet above the ground. Using the beam for the Drive Friendly message was the brain-child of J. D. Abrams, President of the El Paso Traffic Safety Council, who says that driving friendly means not driving while under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Notes from Your County Home Demonstration Agent

by Mrs. Leta Hill

PET FOOD
Have you bought any people crackers for your dog lately? People crackers for dogs came on the market because dogs presumably don't like to eat animal crackers. Dogs -- an estimated 26 million in the United States -- don't care for people food, for that matter. Not many of them eat scraps from the family dinner table these days. Neither do 21 million cats. Everybody knows that pets eat pet food, but who would guess that in the aggregate they eat more than $1 billion worth per year? Yes that's it -- the pet food industry is now booming $1 billion-a-year business and getting better. Last year, dogs, cats, and other pets consumed more than 4 million tons of prepared food. Never before have pets eaten so high on the people.

The accelerating increase in the sale of pet food is due in part to the reluctance of owners to feed their pets table scraps (causes irregularity, might get bone caught in throat, who has table scraps?) It is due in part to more and more affluent families. But it is due mainly to the simple fact that the dog and cat population is increasing by leaps and bounds. Meanwhile for the lucky dogs who have people, the pet food industry is canning and packaging 5 to 8 percent of the total high-protein feeds produced in this country. Use of high-protein feed by livestock growers climbed 35 percent from 1958 to 1969, but pet food consumption almost doubled. A great deal has happened for the better in the pet food business in the past ten years or so. Today pet owners will find more than 100 different types and forms of processed pet food on display in supermarkets. Four-fifths of these items are new foods, introduced since 1958.

The foods are marketed in three major forms: dry (meal pellets and biscuits,) canned, and moist and semi moist. Dogs get the lions share (so to speak). At least three-quarters of the total annual pet food output is dog food. Only about 10 percent is labelled for cats; the rest consists of "specialty feeds" (for fur-bearing and laboratory animals, birds and rabbits,) or is cat or dog food not so designated. A dog can eat steak if he has to. Pet owners buy additional unknown amounts of meat intended for human consumption to feed their four-footed friends. But no matter how you slice it, or dish it out, a dog's life isn't what it used to be -- and cats may or may not accept the best mere humans have to offer.

or hearing problem may cause difficulty in school work which can be corrected through therapy. Perhaps neither parents nor child know what is wrong. The pre-schooler may be slow to talk, and the school child may have reading and spelling problems. To many of these children, their world of blurred sounds and fuzzy images is as it should be -- they are not aware their vision or hearing is not normal. Mrs. Sims pointed out.

Junior Varsity Loses to Young Bobcats 57-53

Wellington Junior Varsity lost a close 57-53 to Childress Junior Bobcats Monday evening, November 9. Childress took a small lead in the first period 12-9, then enlarged it to 30-18 at half-time. Wellington began to play catch-up ball in the third period and had pulled to within 7 points of their opponents when the quarter ended. Wellington had a good fourth quarter and almost caught up with Childress as the game ended, Coach Jim Forrester said. Three boys scored in the double figures: Bobby Shrubbs, 19, Keith Davis 12 and Dickie Johnson, 11. Playing for Wellington were Jim Bob Nall, Romero Bueno, Ken Maxwell, Keith Davis, Bobby Shrubbs, Paul Wilbur, Paul Gonzales, Brent Wade, Gary Cummings and Dickie Johnson. Earlier in the season, the Skyrockets Junior Varsity defeated Boys Ranch B team 48-38. Coach Forrester said that several other boys are checking out playing suits this week but Tuesday had not worked out with the team.
