Answerline

(Q) When will the new postal rates take effect?

(A) New postal rates will go into effect Feb. 17, according to Colorado City Postmaster Charles Greer.

Greer explains that all classes of mail will see a price increase.

First class letters will go from 20 to 22 cents and post cards will go from 13 to 14 cents. Greer said, however, that the second ounce for first class letters will remain the same at 17 cents.

The cost of post office box rentals will also see an increase with the smallest box going from $10 to $11 for a six-month period. The largest box, which now costs $32.50 for six months, will cost $42.

Greer said that the post office will have plenty of the new 22-cent stamps as well as a supply of 2-cent stamps for those people who still have a supply of 20-cent stamps.

C-City man dies in collision

A 40-year-old Colorado City man was killed Tuesday night when his pickup truck collided with a Missouri and Pacific freight train at the Highway 208 crossing.

Henry Heredia Jr. was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Charles Ray Watlington following the 8:55 p.m. collision.

Lt. Don Pennington of the Colorado City Police Department said that the freight train, estimated to be traveling from 45-50 miles an hour, was west bound and that Heredia was traveling north in a 1975 Chevrolet pickup when the crash occurred.

Pennington said that according to witnesses, the signal lights were working and it is not known whether Heredia did not see the train or if he was trying to beat the train to the crossing.

The impact carried the cab portion of the pickup a half-mile down the track before the engineers could stop the train. The bed of the pickup was thrown near the Dowell office on 208.

Mr. Heredia was a meat cutter at Safeway and a member of St. Ann's Catholic Church. He was born Dec. 1, 1944 in Mitchell County and married Mary Ybarra on June 29, 1963 in Colorado City.

Services were held at 4 p.m. Thursday at St. Ann's Catholic Church. Burial was in Colorado City Cemetery under the direction of Kiker-Seale Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife; one daughter, Barbara, of the home; a son, Dennis, of Grand Prairie; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heredia Sr. of Colorado City; four sisters, Mary Aguilar, Lupe Contreras and Anita Heredia, all of Colorado City, and Jessie Franco of Big Spring; three brothers, Manual and Ramon, both of Odessa, and Tommy of Kermit.

DR. WALTER BINGHAM, right, secretary-treasurer of the Kiwanis Club presents a check to Lt. Don Pennington of the Colorado City Police Department to be used by the police department to purchase a series of slide presentations as part of a crime and drug prevention series. Looking on is Kiwanis president Charlie Uselton. Pennington said many organizations including the Lions Club, Crime Stoppers and women's groups contributed to the project which the police department will gladly show to any civic, church or school organization upon request.

Closed campus proves successful

The first week of a closed campus at Colorado Middle School went smoothly, according to CISD Supt. Charlie Uselton.

"We want to thank the parents and students for their cooperation in the change," said Uselton. "The closed campus has been very successful so far."

"Everybody involved, including the teachers, have really worked with us to help in the situation," he added.

The CISD board of trustees voted at a meeting on Jan. 24 to close the campus starting Feb. 4 for the remainder of the semester following several disturbances by students off campus during the noon hour.

A majority of the teachers at middle school voted to close the campus which mainly affects students during the lunch period. Prior to the closed campus, seventh and eighth grade students were allowed to leave campus at lunch.

The only exceptions will be if students live within walking distance of school and parents give written permission for their children to go home for lunch. As of Thursday, the school had received two letters from parents of three children for the students to go home for lunch.

The school board is to review the closed campus concept at its June meeting.

$34,352.31 received locally

Cities receive sales tax rebates

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday sent checks totaling $34,352.31 in local tax payments to the three towns in Mitchell County that levy the one-percent local sales tax.

Colorado City's payment for this period is $31,863, up from $29,969.78 for the same period last year. The latest payment brings the 1985 payments to date to $46,113.78, up 3.65 percent from the 1984 payments to date of $44,490.39.

Loraine's payment this period is $1,128.53, compared to last year's payment for the same period of $1,615.73. Loraine's 1985 payments to date are $1,128.53, down 30.15 percent compared to the 1984 payments to date of $1,615.73.

Westbrook's payment this period is $1,360.78, which brings its payments to date to $2,417.48. It did not levy the one-percent local sales tax last year.

The Mitchell County checks were part of $111.8 million in local tax payments to the 991 cities that levy the tax, said Bullock.

"Disappointing Christmas retail sales during the 1984 Christmas season held February payments to a puny six percent increase over last February," Bullock said. "And even this little increase is due as much to new items being taxed for the first time as it is to any real sales growth."

City payments compared to last February's checks and total 1985 to-date payments compared with 1984 to-date totals include Houston, $19 million, down one percent from last February, up less than a percent from 1984 totals; Dallas, $13.5 million, up seven percent for the month, up 12 percent for the year; San Antonio, $6.8 million, up three percent for the month, up eight percent for the year; Austin, $5 million, up 22 percent for the month, up 26 percent for the year; Fort Worth, $3.9 million, up five percent for the month, up seven percent for the year; El Paso, $2.4 million, up nine percent for the month, up 12 percent for the year.

Bullock also sent checks totaling $45.5 million to the state's four Metropolitan Transit Authorities. Houston's MTA received $21.9 million for a 1985 total of $31.9 million. Dallas' DART check for $18.6 million brought payments this year to $27.3 million. San Antonio's VIA received $3.9 million for a 1985 total of $5.5 million and the Fort Worth Transit Authority's payment of $921,697 brought its 1985 total to $1.3 million.

February checks represent taxes collected on sales made in December and the fourth quarter and reported to the Comptroller by January 20.

STUDENTS OF THE Mitchell County Day Care Center made this poster asking General Motors to locate its Saturn car plant in Colorado City. The poster was sent to City Manager Brenda Tarter who in turn sent it on to GM. Seated from left are Kevin Wright and Brian Browning with Amy Evans and Torie Ramos helping hold the poster. Standing from left are Lupe Flores and Betty Casares. The students also made a Valentine card to be sent to GM.

MRS. VIVIAN RUDDICK, left, manager of the Housing Authority, presents a check to City Manager Brenda Tarter in the amount of $6,799.39 as the housing authority's payment in lieu of taxes. The school district will receive $2,991.73, the county $1,631.86 and the city $2,175.80. Looking on is board chairman Jake Merritt who has been on the board since 1958. The first 50 units of the Housing Authority were constructed in 1961 and 26 units were added in 1973 and 20 more in 1977.

Ice House burglary investigated

The Colorado City Police Department is investigating the burglary of the Ice House Package Store, 101 Oak, early last Sunday morning in which a small amount of merchandise was taken.

Lt. Don Pennington said entry was gained through a door on the south side of the building, but that an alarm apparently scared away the burglars before they could take very much merchandise.

Pennington said he has several suspects in the case.

Mrs. Elsa Freeman returned home last week after visiting since Dec. 17 in Oregon. She visited a son and wife, Edgar and Mildred Baumann in Kerby, Ore. and accompanied them to Bend, Ore. where the family gathered for their Christmas visit with her grandson, Roddy, Landie and children, Mac, Kendra and Abraham. Also there were the other grandson and families, Steve and Robin Baumann and children, Shelly, Mandy and Joshua from Reidmond, Ore., and Eddie and Terry Sue Baumann from Selma, Ore.

On Christmas Eve they attended the Cantata presented at their church. Landie was a member of the cast and choir and was responsible for the appropriate stage arrangement.

After the service, the fifty member choir accompanied them home for more holiday celebration.

While at Edgar's, they also visited with Drs. Elton and Virginia Berkman who live nearby.

She spent ten days with Edgar and Mildred and with each of the grandsons and families and said the weather was very pleasant her entire stay there.

C-City, Sweetwater FmHA offices combined

A change in Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) districts has led to combining of the Colorado City and Sweetwater county offices. Recent restructuring of FmHA offices in the state has made it necessary to make a number of changes in the county office locations and the headquarters offices servicing various counties. J. Lynn Futch, FmHA state director said.

Combining the county offices will not affect individual loan customers with FmHA. Futch added The county office in Colorado City is located in the G-Kell building on Highway 208. Alton R. Pyburn is the county supervisor and Dennis V. Cumbie, assistant county supervisor. Mrs. Mae Dunn is the county office assistant.

The Farmers Home Administration is a rural credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It makes loans available to farmers and other rural and small town people, including local government, unable to secure credit elsewhere.

Loans are made for housing, agriculture purposes and for a variety of community facilities.

In addition, FmHA, under some circumstances, may guarantee repayment of housing, farm, and business and industry loans made by private lenders.

Cook's Corner

Gordon shares recipes

For a woman on the go most of the time, it's amazing that Nadine Gordon finds time to cook.

When Mrs. Gordon was growing up, she didn't cook because "I really wasn't needed in the kitchen. I watched my mother cook, but that was about all. I did have to clean up the kitchen and dining room."

She took Home Ec in school and that's where she learned to cook. "In Home Ec, we learned all the cuts of beef and we got to try new things."

Today, Mrs. Gordon doesn't eat as much beef and fixes a lot of chicken and fish.

Mrs. Gordon cooks every day. "My big meal is lunch and I usually fix enough to have leftovers for about two days."

Desserts are Mrs. Gordon's favorite things to make and she does cook from scratch.

She likes to cook and she likes to try new recipes. Sometimes Mrs. Gordon will change some ingredients in the recipe, but not very often.

Every once in a while she has a casserole prepared and will just fix a salad to go with it.

Nadine Gordon

Mrs. Gordon knew how to cook when she married, so it was real strange one day when her husband had a little talk with her. She continues with the story.

"I remember Gerald and I were talking and he looked at me and said, 'I think we should get someone to cook for you during the winter.' I thought I didn't know if he doesn't like my cooking or if he thought I was too busy with other projects."

Today, Mrs. Gordon is sharing four of her recipes with RECORD Readers.

QUICK CASSEROLE

(for unexpected company)
1 can (12 oz.) processed white chicken, cubed

1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup grated cheese
Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Sauté meat cubes, onions, green pepper, mushrooms and olives in margarine 10 minutes. Combine sautéed mixture with Beefaroni and sour cream. Spoon mixture into greased 1 1/2 quart casserole. Bake 20 to 25 minutes in 350 degree oven. Sprinkle with cheese. Garnish with sliced stuffed olives or parsley.

STUFFING FOR TOMATOES, WHOLE OR HALF, OR CUT PIECES OF CELERY

Dash of laurel leaf lemon pepper marinade
Dash of Worcestershire seasoning

CHS girls fall to Coahoma, 56-39

Colorado High School's varsity girls basketball team lost 56-39 at Coahoma last Tuesday night.

The loss was the eighth in as many district 7-AAA contests this year for the Wolves, which were to have ended the season with games against Ozona and Sonora last Friday and Saturday.

Denise Jackson, as she has all year long, led the Wolves with 19 points.

Patience on offense paid off for a 10-5 Colorado City lead after one period. In the quarter, the Wolves got three goals from Jackson and one from Sheri Morris and Margie Oliver.

Fouling, lack of defensive rebounding and turnovers dismantled the Wolves efforts during the second period.

The Wolves got two goals from Jackson for all their second period scoring while Coahoma used clutch free throw shooting to score 19 and take a 24-14 halftime lead.

Colorado City sent Coahoma to the free throw line 41 times and the Lady Bulldogs were true on 28 attempts.

The Bulldogs top two scorers, Shanna Fowler (20) and Leslie Kirkpatrick (12), sank only one goal each.

Jackson scored three quick goals for Colorado City to open the third quarter but again the Bulldogs used second shots to stay ahead.

However, a goal by Priscilla Dawkins and two free throws by Rebecca Erwin twice cut Coahoma's lead to five points late in the third quarter.

Leading 33-27 after the third period, the Bulldogs outscored the Wolves 23-12 during the last period—mainly behind the strength of 13 free throws and continued offensive rebounding.

Julie Waid ended the game's scoring with a three point play for the Wolves.

Scoring totals for the Pack were Jackson 19, Oliver five, Dawkins and Waid four, Morris and Erwin two and Sandra Williams one. Coahoma took the junior varsity contest 34-9.

Scoring for the Wolves were Holly Tarter three and DeAnna Salley, Janie DeLoera and Sally Mendoza two.

In another Colorado High School girls basketball game played here last Thursday night, the freshmen quad lost to Lamesa 45-29 after having led 18-17 at halftime.

After three periods, Lamesa led 30-20.

Jennifer Monroe scored 15 to lead the Wolves.

Also scoring were Billie Muncie four, Christabel Molina and Lisa Lamb three, Cindy Ingram two and Christy Mitchell and Misty Strain one.

Solution to this week's puzzle: Personality
Answers to quiz questions were: French, Acting, Gigi

ARIES (3-21/4-19) Don't make a move without consulting legal counsel. The action you are contemplating needs careful consideration every step of the way. This is no time for rash action.

TAURUS (4-20/5-20) Stop moaning about the neighbors' greener grass and tend to your own garden. Your stars indicate good fortune ahead, but it takes more than wishing to make it so.

GEMINI (5-21/6-20) It is time to take a member of your family into your confidence about a certain matter. You will need their support soon, and should not let pride get in the way of seeking it.

CANCER (6-21/7-22) Everything is going your way now, so be wise and store up for a rainy day. It would also be smart to tend to your romantic interests. Everything will work out eventually.

LEO (7-23/8-22) A change of scene will give you a better outlook on a situation that is bothering you. Sometimes you are too close to see the solution clearly. Everything will work out eventually.

VIRGO (8-23/9-22) What's right for your best friend may be wrong for you. Overcome peer pressure and follow your own instincts. An exciting career move is in the offing.

LIBRA (9-23/10-22) Your suspicion of the newcomer in the family circle is unfounded. Reach out and offer your friendship. Such a gesture will be repaid many times in the years to come.

SCORPIO (10-23/11-21) Changing your job to better yourself is okay, but are you sure you are making the right move for the right reasons? Examine your motives and evaluate the new position thoroughly.

SAGITTARIUS (11-22/12-21) Anyone who falls in love every other month is not ready to settle down. Unless you can sustain your enthusiasms for at least a year, steer clear of the altar.

CAPRICORN (12-22/1-19) You and your mate need a little fresh air in your lives. Take a long trip, or seek out new leisure activities to put the spark back in a basically sound relationship.

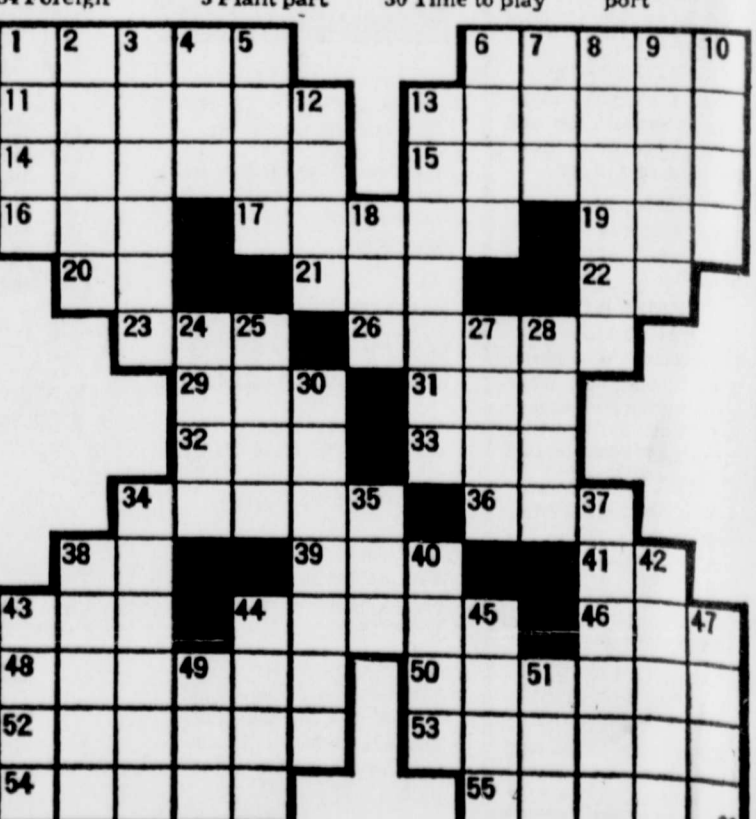

AQUARIUS (1-20/2-18) You are upset because no one supports your latest venture. Cast an eye back on some of your other whims, and you will understand their reluctance. You need a little staying power.

PISCES (2-19/3-20) Avoid an office romance which can only lead to heartache, and could cost you your job. The momentary thrill isn't worth it. Better things are in store for you if you just wait a little.
