If it is true, and there is no reason to doubt it, that a lot of the young punks who are causing so much trouble on campuses of universities throughout the land are offsprings of communist parents they need to be taken into hand and disciplined severely. Freedom of speech and action is a vital part of our way of life but when such freedoms lead young people to riot and destroy lives and property they should be dealt with in such a manner that they will learn that those freedoms do not give them the right to infringe upon the freedom of others.

The Russians have vowed they will destroy our country and if we continue to let these young punks, and the older ones too, demonstrate and riot they might accomplish their purpose. It is time the people of the United States became disturbed and do something about the situation.

Crops are doing just fine but some moisture right now would keep them growing. A short dry spell is sometimes good for cotton because it causes the plants to send their roots deeper.

If you took a little trip during the recent holidays and arrived home safely you are a safe driver or else you were just plain lucky. Hundreds of people died on the highways of the nation because somebody was not driving safely. It is so easy to get into the habit of driving "just any old way" in and around our home town. Some day when you get out on the highway you are going to follow those habits you have formed and you are going to get hurt or cause somebody else to get hurt. Why not get in the habit of driving safely every where you go—at home or abroad.

Questionnaires Mailed For Industrial Survey

Report Made On Skip Row Planting

A report on retaining the skip row method of planting in Mitchell County was given by Terry Julian, executive director of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers of Sweetwater, to the Colorado City Industrial Team and the agriculture and industrial development committees of the Chamber of Commerce at a Friday morning breakfast.

Julian explained that it seemed to be a general feeling among members of National ASCS Committee that areas having less than 25 inches of rainfall annually would retain the skip row method in the future.

A great deal of time has been spent by Mr. Julian in Washington, D. C. since the original protest began, to retain current skip row farming methods, which were in jeopardy if the Dept. of Agriculture should make a change in policy.

Farmers and those interested in the skip row situation were urged by Julian to keep up letter writing projects to elected officials in regard to the proposed change.

The problem is still of deep concern to cotton farmers in this area, he said.

It was also learned that Charlie Register, member of the Farmer Program Division in Washington, D. C. was in the skip row farming area to tour certain counties to observe the importance of the planting methods used in the area. He was to report his findings to Secretary of Agriculture, Orville Freeman.

Lynn, Lubbock and Fisher Counties were among those visited by Register.

The Industrial Team of Colorado City began mailing out questionnaires for the industrial survey Wednesday, July 7.

These questionnaires are also written in Spanish for the Spanish speaking people of this area.

The project was launched by the Industrial Team, Inc. in order to obtain adequate detailed information on the Mitchell County labor situation which is necessary to attract industry to this area.

The questionnaire envelopes contain a self-addressed return envelope in which to return the information to the Chamber of Commerce office.

All persons in the county are urged to fill in these questionnaires and return the information to the Chamber office whether they are employed or not.

Listed below is a sample of the questionnaires being mailed out.

Highlights and Sidelights

BY VERN SANFORD

AUSTIN, Texas—Water remains very much in the spotlight over the state.

As June ended, cattle were in better than average condition, says the US Department of Agriculture. Pastures and ranges continued to furnish good grazing and rising cattle prices have resulted.

On the High Plains heavy showers boosted range prospects, but grass growth was slowing in many areas because of high temperatures which sapped soil moisture.

In the Trans-Pecos ranges some farmers and ranchers were forced to begin supplement feeding.

Some farmers have been combating the rain problem by irrigating their crops. A joint study by the USDA, the Texas Water Commission and the State Soil Conservation Board indicates that irrigation in Texas rose significantly from 1958 to 1964. Amount of water used increased nearly one third, to 12,500 acre feet or an average of 18 inches per irrigated acre.

Amount of irrigated land increased by about 15 per cent during the six year period. Much of the gain occurred in the High Plains—in the upper parts of the Canadian, Colorado, Brazos and Red River Basins—but some of it also was in the basins of the Rio Grande and Nueces Rivers.

By next September studies to show how much water will be available in 2020 from Texas reservoirs and ground water strata already in use will be complete.

Then will come the job of finding additional sources to match yields to needs. This will involve searching for new surface water supplies as well as desalinization of poor underground water.

When in-basin sources are checked out against the needs of each river basin, the planners expect to find some of the heavy rainfall regions will have more water than they will need, even to 2020, while others will not have enough.

Then, the question will be: where to take the surplus? $100,000,000 SURPLUS—State government will begin the new fiscal biennium with a surplus of nearly $100,000,000. But it will wind up with a balance of only $4,200,000, according to estimates of the Governor's budget office. In a recap of legislative spending, Gov. John Connally's staff totaled all appropriations at $3,700,000,000, of which $622,900,000 will come from general revenue. (Vetoes by the governor of $2,600,000 from the spending bills are deducted.)

Figures put state cost of the $553 teacher pay raise at $70,600,000 for the two-year period beginning September 1.

Total new revenue provided by the 59th Legislature, will go into $82,500,000, according to revised figures. Biggest portion of this comes from the three-cents-a-pack increase in the cigarette tax.

HOSPITAL TRANSITION UNDER WAY—Texas' vast system for treating the mentally ill, mentally retarded and victims of tuberculosis is entering a vital transition period.

On September 1, realignment and reorientation of these facilities and services, as enacted by the 59th Legislature, will go into effect.

Separation of the tuberculosis hospital treatment program from the mental health and retardation services and consolidating it with the State Health Department, which now handles case finding and follow-up work.

Abolishing the existing hospital board—general policy-making agency for mental and tuberculosis hospitals and special schools for the retarded—and creating a new Department of Mental Health and Retardation. A new, nine-member board will replace the present Board for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools.

Sweeping new concepts of care, spelled out in recommendations of statewide study committees named by Governor Connally, are expected of the reorganization. AUTO INSURANCE HIKES—Auto liability insurance rates will increase an average of 14.4 per cent on August 1. Rates will vary widely in the 26 rating areas in the state.

However, some coverages will go down in cost, by as much as 17 per cent. These policies are for insurance against losses not connected with accidents—such as fire and theft.

State Board of Insurance says it has carefully reviewed the loss data forming the basis of the rate changes and finds that the new rates will be "adequate and reasonable as required by law."

In another area of insurance, Texas companies have had more than $15,000,000 worth of claims from hail and storm damage. By this time last year, $9,000,000 had been paid in such claims. Biggest blow came from the Wichita Falls storm of May 27.

A Delivered People Tested and Trained was the subject for the Bible lesson taken from Royal Service when the Willie Mae Kennedy Circle of the W. S. C. S. met last week in the home of Mrs. W. H. Long Monday.

In giving the introductory for the lesson Mrs. J. W. King read Exodus 14:1 through 20:26. A people just delivered from bondage, like new converts, may not as yet be prepared to meet successfully the tests which are certain to befall them. Those who are delivered usually need to be developed. The redeemed need to be trained, and those who have been brought into newly found freedom need to be disciplined. And to enable them to do this may be the most difficult part of a religious leader's task.

Topics for the lesson were given by Mrs. King and Mrs. Dexter Taylor.

The group sang I Love to Tell The Story to open the meeting which was followed by prayer by Mrs. O. C. Lucas.

Mrs. L. E. Crutcher read the prayer calendar using a scripture from the 4th chapter of Philippians, then reading the names of the missionaries who had birthdays on that day. Mrs. Edwin Hallmark closed the period with prayer.

Mrs. J. W. King directed the regular business meeting for the circle. The secretary-treasurer read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report which was followed by reports from chairmen of standing committees. Some future plans for the circle were discussed.

Mrs. Elia Thomas was a welcome visitor.

RICHARD FAMILY VISITORS

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Richard Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Coldewey and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Boling from Midland Texas. They were on their way to Six Flags over Texas.

Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pruitt and daughter Shelia of Midland, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Sherman and son Stuart, of Colorado City, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Richard of Colorado City and Kathy Cain of Lorraine.

BAIRD GUESTS

Weekend guests of Mrs. Roy Baird were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Baird and little son, and Mrs. Palace Barnes of Dallas and Roy Baird of Big Spring. Mrs. Barnes remained and is spending this week.

Others visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Baird of Big Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Baird and Vicki and Mike Fitts of Sweetwater.

GAS AIR CONDITIONING SAVES MONEY AND HEADACHES YEAR AFTER YEAR

You save in operating efficiency, low maintenance, amazingly long service. Combined heating and cooling costs with gas are substantially lower than for electric heating and cooling. Add to that the savings in maintenance and electric compressor replacements and you'll see why gas is your best home air conditioning investment.

LOW DOWN PAYMENT, AS LITTLE AS $25/MO. FOR 2-TON UNIT

This new gas unit for medium-size homes both cools and heats... puts the world's finest air conditioning in reach of everyone.

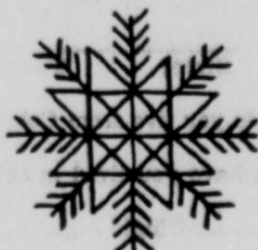

HOW GAS UNITS CAN LAST TWICE AS LONG AS ELECTRIC

SPECIAL SUMMER GAS AIR CONDITIONING RATES

Owners of gas air conditioners get reduced gas rates for cooling during the hot summer months. This makes for even more economy from an efficient gas unit!

CALL FOR A FREE ESTIMATE ON GAS AIR CONDITIONING. NO OBLIGATION.

Don't be fooled by "horseback estimates" on costs! Get a bona fide air conditioning price from Lone Star Gas and compare with the price of the same size electric unit. You'll find the little extra per month to buy a gas unit buys you a lot more air conditioning over the years! There are two types of gas systems for the home: a combination cooling and heating system and an add-on cooling system. Investigate the possibility of gas air conditioning your home now.
