THE MOST powerful Lubbock High school team in recent years ran rampant on the Texas Tech gridiron here on Thanksgiving Day and brought to a glorious close its 1929 conference gridiron campaign by crushing a fighting Bulldog eleven from Plainview by the decisive margin of 45 to 2.

With their scoring machinery stied to perfection, the Golden-jersted Westerners turned back the plucky Bulldog pack before a holiday crowd of 2,000 persons, winding up their conference race in sole possession of the runner-up post in District One. The invading gladiators came primed for a Turkey Day feast at the expense of the Frnka-Morgan bogie, but were smacked home without even a taste of the gravy.

Overhead Goes Well
It was the fifth conference triumph for the Gold and Black aggregation and the Thanksgiving Day show saw the Westerners open up their full category of tricks and display a dazzling running attack, interspersed with effective overhead tactics. So powerful were the thrusts and so well did the Hub City lads carry out

Slaton Dry Goods Store Loses Cash

Burglars Wait Until Grid Game Draws Crowd, Enter Store And Get Away With Undetermined Loot

Timing their operations when practically everyone was at the Slaton-Flynn football game, robbers Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock entered the Jones Dry Goods company, at Slaton, and rifled the cash drawer of an undetermined amount of money.

The robbery was discovered later in the afternoon and an investigation by Oscar Killian, manager of the store, showed that nothing else had been stolen.

Enter Rear Door
Entry into the building was gained through the rear door which was found open. Officials advanced the theory that employees of the store either left the door open or that the thieves were locked in.

There were several checks in the drawer but all of these were left untouched.

ABILENE, Nov. 28. (Special)—A Simmons Cowboys made high entertainment for a homecoming crowd of 5,000 this afternoon by defeating the Texas Tech Matadors 21 to 0, for the decision in the first chapter of their Thanksgiving feud.

Making and taking the breaks, the Cowboys breezed to victory, complete masters of the game from start to finish. They scored one touchdown in the first quarter, one in the second and one in the fourth. The Simmons second string played the entire third round against a substitute Matador lineup and the two squads squared away back and forth the whole time with neither making much progress.

Cowboys Score Early
The first touchdown came in five minutes after the kickoff. Simmons made it without ever giving Tech possession of the ball.

Receiving the kickoff, Simmons punted back. It was high and long from the toe of Marshall and Peary, named Green as he caught it. A fumble resulted, and Lark recovered on the Tech 25 yard line, from which the Ranchers drove steadily on.

Hoover Attends His Church, Then Goes Into Seclusion

COMMEMORATING a national holiday when the minds of the masses turned back to the day several hundred years ago when the first Americans paused in their work of building a new country to give thanks for blessings received, churches of Lubbock united yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church in union Thanksgiving services.

A prayer of Thanksgiving was offered by Rev. D. C. Ross, superannuated minister of the Methodist church, following a hymn, "All Hail The Power of Jesus Name."

Jennings Takes Part
Rev. Walter P. Jennings, pastor of the First Christian church, read the scripture lesson, the 118th Psalm: "The first two verses of which are: 'I love the Lord because He hath heard my voice and my supplication. Because He hath inclined His ear unto me, therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.'"

The choir sang a Thanksgiving anthem, "Praise Yet The Lord," after which Rev. O. P. McCollum, pastor of the Asbury Methodist Church, delivered a sermon on "A Practical Thanksgiving," taking as his text "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me?"

"As a man thinketh in his heart, so is he," we read in the scriptures," said the minister in part, "and thankfulness to God may be rendered through the inner life, which only man and his Maker may understand, through use of possessions, and through personal service."

Thanks Are Essential
Rev. McCollum said that no one from the humblest person to the man of millions is exempt from using his material wealth to the glory of God, and the blessings of God are bountiful to him who sacrifices enough to let God come into his life.

"In no way may one show that he is truly grateful than to consecrate his life to the Master through personal service," he added.

Rev. O. C. Baucum, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church gave a second prayer of Thanksgiving, and the audience sang "Praise God From Whom all Blessings Flow."

Rev. C. A. Bickley, presiding elder of the Methodist church, pronounced the benediction.

Aggie Captain, Playing In His Last Game, Is Great In All Departments; Lads From Austin Helpless

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLLEGE STATION, Nov. 28. (AP)—Scoring touchdowns in the third and fourth periods with a tricky passing attack that completely bewildered their opponents, the Texas Aggies defeated Texas university, 13 to 0, in their traditional battle here today. The result had no bearing on the Southwest conference race.

A march from their own 39 yard line, featuring long passes from Captain Tommy Mills to Conover and Alabrook, gave the Aggies their first score just before the third period ended. Alabrook took a flip from Mills on the goal line and fell over after a pass to Tracy had carried to the four yard mark.

Triple Pass Works
Late in the final period a tricky triple pass, sent to Alabrook to Conover, scored from the 18 yard line. Christian broke even in his tries for extra point.

A crowd estimated at 30,000 witnessed the colorful contest. Almost filling the new Kyle Field stadium. They saw an Aggie team that had been given only a fighting chance for victory completely outplay the Longhorns. Three times the Aggies were deprived of touchdowns when the Steer line held inside its own five yard parallel.

Curtis Beatty, veteran Texas guard, suffered a broken leg on the opening play of the game. He was tackled hard as he returned the kickoff. It was his last chance to

Intervention Not Expected In China

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP)—The possibility of concerted action by the interested powers in averting open hostilities in Manchuria as a result of the Chinese-Soviet troubles there seemed more remote tonight with the growing belief by officials here that the two nations would find a way to direct negotiations to settle their difficulties.

DAY SPENT IN WAITING

GENEVA, Nov. 28. (AP)—The secretary of the League of Nations waited all day today for signs of an appeal from Nanking for intervention in the Russo-Chinese dispute in Manchuria, but tonight had received no communication indicating the intentions of the nationalist government.

Backers Of Girls See Flight's End

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28. (AP)—Backers of Bobbie Trout, Los Angeles, and Elinor Smith, New York, announced at 6:10 o'clock tonight that the girls' second assault upon the world refueling endurance airplane flight record appeared doomed to end early today. Difficulties beset the endurance flight attempt when their nurse plane from its cylinders, and made a forced landing during an attempted refueling contact.

Slack to Controls
Fighting a dwindling gasoline supply the young women stuck doggedly to their controls, however, and with nearly a day and a half behind them, kept their course over San Fernando valley until a smaller refueling plane was groomed hastily.

An emergency supply of gasoline was transferred into the endurance plane's tanks with, it was estimated by airport officials, only 20 minutes to spare. Only 80 gallons of fuel were transferred by the pinch-hitting nurse plane, however, making another refueling in the dark necessary.

BROWNSVILLE, Nov. 28. (AP)—"You shot me two years ago, and I didn't file charges. Now that I have shot you, if you do the right thing, you won't file charges against me." This was the plea of a negro woman held here today after her husband was sent to a hospital suffering gunshot wounds.

The husband is weighing the situation. He only shot off one of his wife's fingers.

The accident occurred in the third quarter of the game when Laird received a kick on his five-yard line and was tackled by Tracey Price, Lubbock end, on the 10-yard line. Following the tackle the youth lay still while frantic efforts of coaches failed to revive him.

Equipment Taken
Together with the liquor, 500 gallons of mash, ten 30-gallon, mash barrels, a 50-gallon automatic still, 24 empty half gallon jars, 43 pounds of yeast and 100 pounds of sugar were confiscated.

A preliminary hearing probably will be held this morning at which time a bond will be set.

The shooting occurred on Avenue B between 16th and 17th streets.

Law violations in Lubbock were held down to a decided minimum and a check at the police station last night revealed that no arrests were made by the city officers during the entire day.

All Is Fair In Love and War

Carroll Laird, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Laird, and star half-back of the Plainview high school Bull Dogs, early this morning was still in a semi-conscious condition at Lubbock sanitarium following injuries sustained in the Lubbock-Plainview high school football game yesterday afternoon at Tech field.

The accident occurred in the third quarter of the game when Laird received a kick on his five-yard line and was tackled by Tracey Price, Lubbock end, on the 10-yard line. Following the tackle the youth lay still while frantic efforts of coaches failed to revive him.

Taken To Sanitarium
A motor car, driven by Frank Skinner, 1514 17th street, in which the injured lad's mother, Dr. J. T. Krueger and a youth were riding, took Laird to the Lubbock sanitarium for emergency treatment.

An X-ray examination revealed a serious injury to the cervical vertebrae and concussion of the brain. Attendants early this morning stated that his condition is very critical, although recovery is expected barring complications.

Queer Quirks of Thanksgiving Day

Strange Happenings Brought In By The News Wires

Pretty Soft Pickings For This Fellow

MIAMI, Okla., Nov. 28. (AP)—Today was Thanksgiving Day for H. H. Green. As Green was crossing Main street, wondering if he had anything to be thankful for, a pump with duck fell at his feet. Examination revealed the bird was stunned temporarily, apparently having struck an electric light or trolley wire while flying too low. Several bystanders saw the fowl career to the pavement.

His Relatives Can Be Thankful For Gift

WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 28. (AP)—Winner in a suit to set aside the $30,000 will of M. R. Diver, his incompetent grandfather who died here last February, Frank R. Diver of Alamosa, Colo., made Thanksgiving the occasion of an announcement that he would share the fortune with other relatives.

Judge L. N. Williams here yesterday set aside the will on the grounds the aged man was incompetent when he made it in May, 1925, distributing his estate among nine persons of whom Frank Diver was the closest relative.

The relatives to whom the grand-jury intends to give part of the estate include the family of Mamie Turner of Houston, Tex.

Mrs. Ida Wilhite, the eccentric's landlady whom he married after he was declared incompetent here a year ago, has gone to the supreme court in an effort to upset judgment which made the marriage invalid. Should she win her appeal, she would fall heir to the estate.

Revolver Shot Causes Hotel Folks To Worry

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. (AP)—A revolver shot, coming from the room in which Arnold Rothstein is said to have been mortally wounded a year ago, startled residents on the third floor of the Park Central hotel last night.

As guests rushed to their doors, two men interviewed every one on the floor.

"Did you hear anything?" they asked.

"Yes, a revolver shot," was the invariable reply.

"Sure it wasn't automobile backfire?" they would ask.

When asked whether they were working on the Rothstein case, the two men replied in the affirmative, but declined to give their names or reveal their connection.

It was recalled that at the trial of George A. McManus for the Rothstein murder it was testified by a woman guest at the hotel that she heard a noise, which she at first thought might be a shot but later decided was the backfire of an automobile.

President Hoover Is Worshiper At Church

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP)—Attending Thanksgiving Day services in the Metropolitan Memorial

Methodist church, President Hoover today heard from the pulpit a plea that America lead the world into peaceful pursuits.

The opportunity given the United States to destroy "the old mind of hate and fear" was stressed by Bishop William Fraser McDowell whose text was taken from St. Matthew, chapter 23, the 18th, 19th, and 20th verses.

The President attended the services, participated in by all of the Methodist churches in Washington with Mrs. Hoover and their son, Allan. With him also were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rickard who were Thanksgiving Day guests at the White House.

So Now He's On The Inside Of The Jail

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 28. (AP)—Albert Clem, 56, objected last night when his wife and three step-daughters disturbed his sleep by gathering in the kitchen to prepare a Thanksgiving dinner.

Clem, the family testified in police court, entered the kitchen, remonstrated, and tore up a radio.

Today the father ate his Thanksgiving meal in the city work house, where he was taken in default of a $110 fine.

It Was A Dry Day In Central Missouri

SEDALIA, Mo., Nov. 28. (AP)—It was a dry Thanksgiving in central Missouri with 114 persons under arrest on charges of liquor law violations as a result of pre-holiday raiding by Federal prohibition agents.

The raiding, which started three days ago, developed into one of the most sweeping dry cleanups campaigns in rural Missouri since prohibition was adopted. It extended over nine counties and included the state capital and Columbia, seat of the state university.

Federal Dry Agents Halt For Holiday

WALLACE, Ida., Nov. 28. (AP)—The holiday today halted the advance of federal agents through the Coeur D'Alene region with warrants for nearly half a hundred alleged liquor ring conspirators.

With 50 men and women under arrest here on conspiracy charges, the squad of Deputy United States marshals, special operatives and prohibition agents disappeared last night with the promise they would return tomorrow and recommence operations after Thanksgiving. It was believed 41 persons yet were to be arrested.

Chief of Police William J. Dalley of Wallace was arrested last night. Previously the Mayor of Wallace, the Shoshone county sheriff and two of his deputies and the county assessor were taken.

Federal grand juries recently indicted nearly 200 men and women, including city officials and prominent business men of the Coeur D'Alene region. Ten cities and towns were involved, with Wallace, capital of the great lead-zinc-silver mining region, contributing 46 names.

A Good Memory Proves To Be Fatal For Mr. Delaney

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Nov. 28. (AP)—If Deputy Sheriff J. W. Loadholtes, fingerprint expert with the sheriff's office here, didn't have such a good memory for faces, William Delaney of Chicago, would have been a free man today. Instead of spending his Thanksgiving in the county jail.

Loadholtes had halted his automobile at a cross street when traffic lights went red. Delaney stepped from the curb and walked across the street in front of the car. The officer had never seen Delaney before, but he remembered seeing a picture resembling him in a detective magazine. A caption below the picture had said that one Delaney, alias W. Davenport, William Caldwell, S. I. Denham, James Schwartz and George Brooks, was wanted by Chicago police for swindling a victim out of $25,000 in a confidence game.

Delaney was arrested and taken to the county jail. Telegraphic communications with Chicago police brought word that he was the man wanted and a request that authorities here hold him for Chicago officers.

MacDonald Looks Toward Close Of Naval Arms Meet

Co-Operation With America Is Stressed In Talk Of British Prime Minister In House Of Commons

LONDON, Nov. 28 (AP)—J. Ramsay MacDonald, British prime minister, has no illusions that the five power naval conference opening here in January will find a path strewn with roses ahead of it, or that America may be led through it to a more formal collaboration with Europe in international matters.

"They (America)," he said at a tea in the House of Commons attended by, among others, Frank B. Kellogg, former Secretary of State, "certainly are not going to cooperate with us as allies bound by formal ties. They certainly are not going to commit themselves to European policy and mix themselves up in European messes. No president of the United States is going to go back on their wise policy of keeping out of European messes.

"But it is perfectly evident at the same time that wherever and whenever there is a humane flag flying over the world, the thought and heart of America will be there. Our cooperation with America will be active so long as the cause in which we are enlisted is good."

"We have never been able to say the United States has failed in human support of any great human cause. That is the foundation on which our active cooperation and friendship is going to rest."

The Prime Minister admitted difficulties which would beset the naval conference, but brushed them aside, declaring, "we will not be afraid."

Arrested last Sunday on a charge of sale and possession of whiskey, Melvin Riche was released Wednesday on $1,500 bond. His arrest followed a raid by local officers on the Three-Way filling station, two miles northwest of Lubbock.

Fee System Plans To Be Outlined In Ft. Worth Session

DALLAS, Nov. 28 (AP)—Four recommendations intended to improve the Texas fee system will be presented to the next legislature by the Fee Investigating committee, Representative Jack Keller, of Dallas, a committee member, said today.

The committee report will be prepared Saturday in Fort Worth, Keller said, and will urge that: private contracts for the collection of delinquent taxes be abolished or regulated; interest on funds held by district or county clerks be prorated among those to whom the funds belong instead of among officials; district clerks be required to make larger bonds; and that a limit of from $12,000 to $12,000 be placed on total fees any one official may draw.

Other members of the committee are Senators Pink Parrish, of Lubbock, and Walter Woodruff, of Houston and Representatives Carl Roundtree of Lamesa, and George Puri of Dallas.

SHIPS IN COLLISION

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 28 (AP)—The British motor ship Pacific Reliance and the States line steamer California returned to this port today for inspection following a collision near Desdemona sands, at the mouth of the Columbia river. Neither ship was badly damaged but the vessel was ordered to turn back from the outbound trip southward. The Pacific Reliance leaked in the stern, investigators said, after it had been struck there by the California. The motor ship was anchored off Desdemona sands and was en route to Portland.

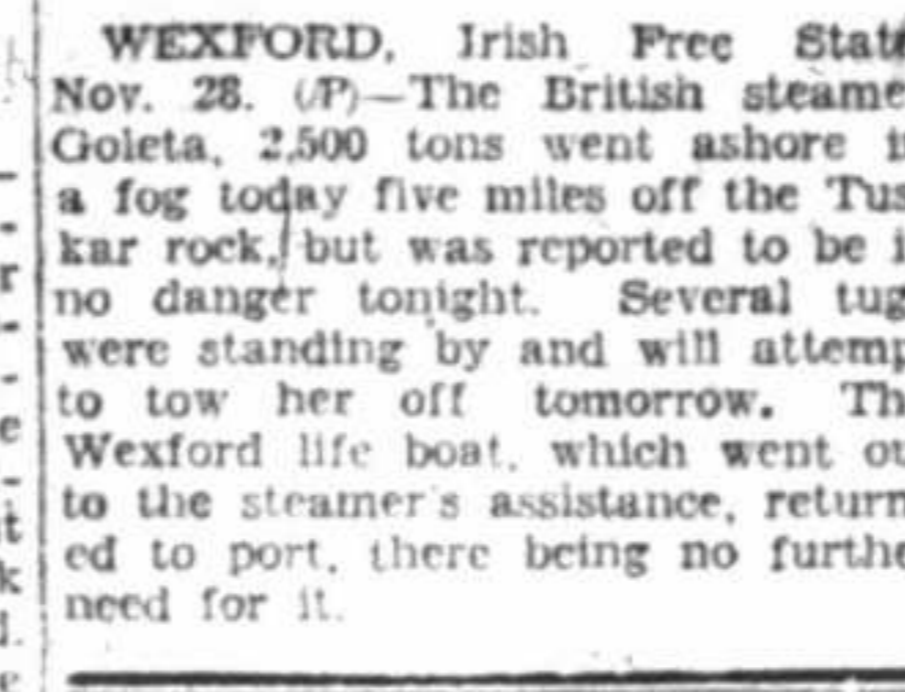

SHIP IS HUNG

WEXFORD, Irish Free State, Nov. 28 (AP)—The British steamer Goleta, 2,500 tons, went ashore in a fog today five miles off the Tuskar rock, but was reported to be in no danger tonight. Several tugs were standing by and will attempt to tow her off tomorrow. The Wexford life boat, which went out to the steamer's assistance, returned to port, there being no further need for it.

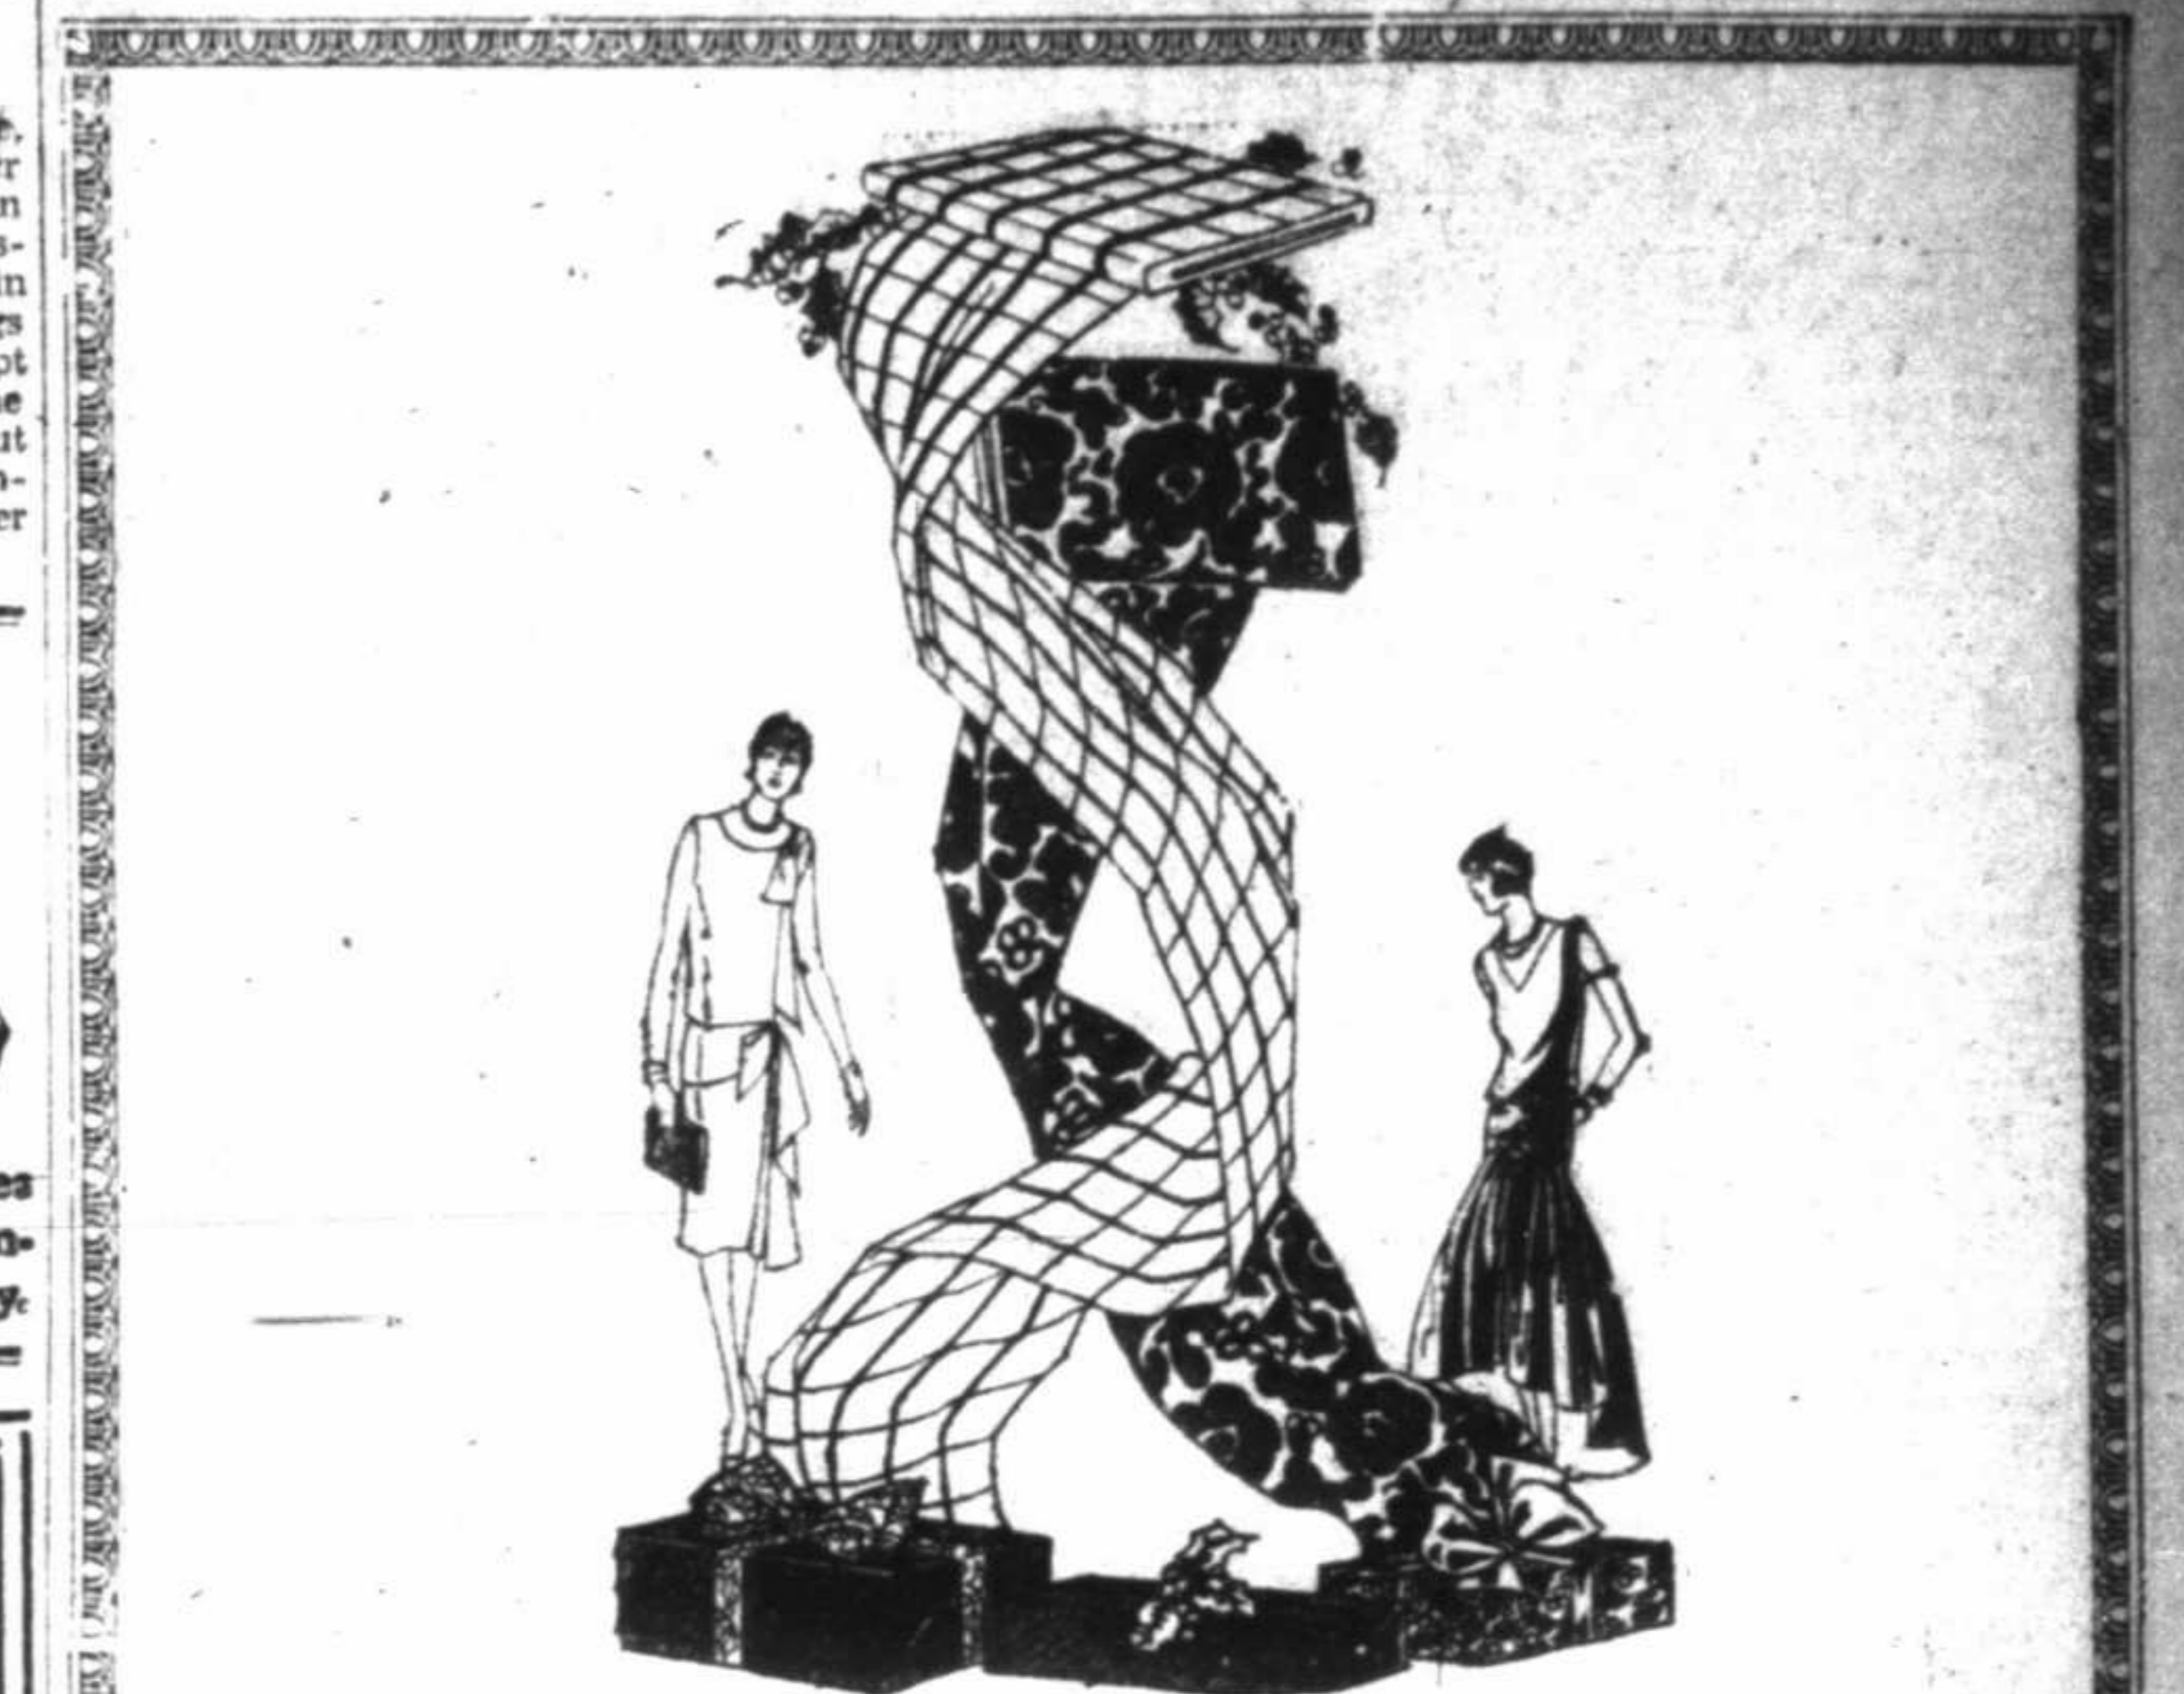

CHILD IS IMPROVING

Reports from the Lubbock sanitarium last night were to the effect that Johnnie May Bomer, 12-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mary Bomer, 420 Avenue M, was resting nicely following an injury to her leg Wednesday night. The child sustained a broken limb when she fell to the ground near her home while running across the street.

Avalanche-Journal Expedition, On Way To Santa's Home, Lost In The North; Last Wireless Is Received

Consternation Reigns When Additional Facts Do Not Come From Kleinschmidt, Leader Of Party

Below is the last wireless message received from Captain Kleinschmidt, and his exploring party at midnight last night:

"We are encountering extremely stormy weather, but keeping close to the shore of Hudson Bay. Fuel sufficient and mechanism perfect. All well and confident of braving storm at present threatening our safety."

CAPT. F. E. KLEINSCHMIDT.

The mammoth airplane carrying the Avalanche-Journal expedition to the North Pole in search of Santa Claus had not been heard from since midnight last night. Are they lost at sea? This is the question that is causing so much anxiety at the office of the Avalanche-Journal and the editor kept in constant touch all last night with various radio stations and wireless sets that might have picked up the airplane's signal.

Last Message Received

The last wireless message from the airplane expedition toward the Arctic region was from Rupert House on the coast of Hudson Bay. The wireless received at midnight last night is quoted above.

Did the storm prove insurmountable? Or did they fly safely through? The frantically searched the Avalanche-Journal office that they were forced to land, impairing their wireless system.

Diligent Search On

All means are being employed by the Avalanche-Journal to locate the missing flier. Wireless sets have been appealed to for picking up constant batteries of messages through the air in the hope of reaching the lost planes. Ships have been ordered to sweep the seven north coast searchlights. Nothing has been done that might answer the mystery of the air.

According to the members who received the plane transmitted from New York to Ottawa, thence to Moose Factory, on Hudson Bay. A snow storm made it impossible to follow a straight course to their destination. However, they picked up the broad Nottaway river and following it to Hudson Bay landed at Rupert's Bay about 75 miles east of Moose Factory. For the benefit of those who are puzzled in their guesses as to the whereabouts of the Rupert's House are close to the dividing line between the Province of Quebec and Ontario on the southern tip of Hudson Bay. From here the plane proceeded along the western coast of Hudson Bay toward Fort Albany between the mainland and Akimiski Island and should have been visible after their last wireless message between Fort Severn and Cape Churchill, next place of landing.

Can Land In Water

The plane is equipped with pontoons, shaped in the style of ski so it can land equally as well on snow as on water. The last message received from the expedition indicating snow and rain storms. This is the worst kind of weather for an airplane, as sleet will form on the

To Find Santa Claus

The expedition to the North Pole was instigated as a search for Santa Claus in an effort to quiet a difficult controversy that had arisen over the existence of the merry old gent.

Captain Kleinschmidt was chosen to head the expedition because of his peculiar fitness for the job. The captain has spent many years in the Arctic taking motion pictures among the Eskimos and their little snow houses showing the way the little fat brown men and women hunt the polar bear, the seal and the walrus in their Omaks or skin boats and on the ice floes in the Arctic ocean. Just think of it, children: of the wonderful motion pictures he will bring back even if he should not be able to find Santa Claus.

Knows Eskimos Well

He had traveled with them and their dog teams and had spent 15 years among them. He assured the editor that he was almost certain he would be able to discover Santa Claus' home, for the Eskimos had told him that Santa Claus often visited them. They had seen him passing by their snow igloos with his great reindeer team on Christmas eve.

In the last several years men have discovered many things. Explorers have gone away in ships, in airplanes and on foot, and have brought back strange tales. This, however, is the first time a newspaper has sent an expedition to hunt a story particularly to interest and please its child readers.

Due To Arrive Saturday

According to the plans of Captain Kleinschmidt, the exploring party is due to arrive late Tuesday night in Victoria Land and begin their search. They will leave their airplane and will obtain dog teams and reindeer from the Eskimos for their long trek over the frozen wastes, searching for Santa Claus' home.

In the meantime word is anxiously awaited by loving and watchful ones in Lubbock from the missing planes and the daring brave explorers.

Gale Sweeps Across Central Part Of Blue Grass State

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 28 (AP)—Buildings were unroofed, limbs stripped from trees, glass was shattered, telephone poles blown down and street lamps broken by a sudden windstorm that struck Lexington and Central Kentucky last night, causing several thousands of dollars damage to city property.

The gale reached a 52 mile an hour velocity, according to George B. Wertz, meteorologist in charge of the United States weather bureau office here.

Toyland OPENS FRIDAY

Horns and Dolls and Woolly Bears—Airplanes—Soldiers, Cozy Chairs

So many games, that if you played one of them every day, it would take you almost a hundred years to finish. So many toys that you could fill your house to the ceiling with them. So much fun, that you will want to come back again and again. That is what you will find in Toyland. Best of all, you may shake hands with Santa Claus himself. He is as roly-poly as anyone you ever did see, and his laugh is so merry that you can hear it from one end of Toyland to the other. Ask your mother and father to take you to Toyland.

Hobby Horses—Tops That Spin—Clowns and Jesters Made of Tin—A Magic Country

Toyland is a magic country. It is said that often when children make wishes there, the wishes are granted. One day, a little boy saw a toy moving-picture machine, and wished he might have it. On Christmas morning, he found that very moving-picture machine next to his tree. Maybe, if you visit Toyland with your parents and YOU make a wish, Santa will see that your wish comes true.

HEAR YE! CHILDREN! HEAR YE! TOYLAND OPENS FRIDAY!

Just imagine what it would be like if the work-shop of Santa Claus suddenly lost its floor and spilled out thousands and thousands of toys. And we caught them and gathered them all together for you to see. That is what has happened; so tomorrow we shall open Toyland, with the entire contents of Santa's work-shop except his brownies, who escaped. Bring your mother and father, or, if you are big boys and girls, come alone. Remember! Toyland opens tomorrow.

Missouri Tigers Finish Second In Race By Win Over Oklahoma Thursday; Huskers Undefeated

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 28. (AP)—Nebraska's Cornhuskers, undefeated, but twice tied in conference games, won their second consecutive Big Six football title today under the tutelage of Coach Dana X. Bible in his first year at the University of Nebraska.

Missouri was runner-up, with three victories, one tied game with Nebraska and one defeat at the hands of the Kansas Aggies, who completed their conference schedule last Saturday and finished with three wins and two defeats.

Oklahoma, by losing to the Tigers today, descended from a tie for second to fourth in the final standings with a season record showing two victories, two defeats and a tie game with Nebraska.

Kansas had three defeats against two victories and was fifth in the final 1929 standings. Iowa State defeated five times in the conference was in the cellar with not a win.

The final Big Six 1929 standings: Team W L T Pct. Nebraska 11 0 0 1.000. Missouri 3 0 2 .750. Kansas 3 2 0 .600. Oklahoma 2 2 1 .500. Iowa State 0 3 0 .000.

GEORGIA DOWNS ALABAMA. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 28. (AP)—An alert Georgia Bulldogs eleven did the unexpected today, pushing over two touchdowns to take a 12 to 9 victory from Alabama before 22,000 spectators.

Georgia made 13 first downs to Alabama's 11. Each side punted eight times. Georgia gained a distinct advantage at an average of 48 yards, compared with Alabama's 34 yard average. Tony Hohn continued to ply his line busting trade, with 94 yards gained from scrimmage.

Louisiana Demons Are Atop S. I. A. A.

NATCHITOCHE, La., Nov. 28. (AP)—Staging an eighty yard march near the end of the finish quarter and at the opening of the second quarter that the visitors were unable to cope with the Louisiana State Normal Demons, scored the only touchdown in the annual state Normal-Southwestern Turkey Day classic on the Normal athletic field here Thursday.

Ole Miss Eleven Ties Aggie Crew

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Nov. 28. (AP)—University of Mississippi was forced to exert all force at its command to earn a 7 to 7 tie with the Mississippi Aggies here today in the twenty-seventh renewal of the annual state football classic.

California Cops Ist Title Victory

COLIFSUM, LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28. (AP)—Rising to its first conference victory this season, the University of California at Los Angeles today scored a 14 to 0 triumph over the Grizzlies of Montana in a game that for sheer fight carried all the earmarks of a championship match instead of a battle for the cellar position of the Pacific coast conference.

play for the Orange. Mills is Star. Captain Tommy Mills, wearing an Aggie uniform for the last time, played probably the greatest game of his career. He was the spark that kept the Steers off their feet through four periods of play. His bullet passes and spectacular sprints off tackle and around the Texas ends enabled the farmers to keep the ball in Steer territory almost constantly after the first period. He intercepted four passes.

Brown Plays Well

Again, toward the close of the second period, the Aggies completed one of their complicated triple passes that Conover carried out on the Longhorns' 37 yard stripe. Another toss, Mills to Alsbrook, carried to the five yard line. Mills plunged within six inches of a touchdown in his first try, but the scoring threat failed when a pass over the line was incomplete. Gordy Brown, Texas captain, was playing as inspired game when pressed near his own goal.

Conover Goes Over

The play that scored that second touchdown was a tricky affair. Mills heaved an aerial to Alsbrook, end, who pivoted just before being tackled and tossed it back to Conover. The later whirled across the field and crossed the line without being touched.

While the Aggies were playing the finest game they have turned in this year, the Longhorns failed to show the form that made them favorites at one time in the title race. Shelley and Rees turned in an occasional sprint that brought the crowd to its feet, but there was not sustained drive. Their passing attack fizzled before the crack defensive work of Mills, Conover and Dorsey. They never seriously threatened to score. Late in the game they penetrated to the Cadets' 35 yard line on a series of passes, but could not get deeper into enemy territory.

Officials: Referee, Meyer; T. C. U. Umpire, Winters; (Ohio State); Head Linesman, Braun; (Sewanee); Field Judge, Prater; (Baylor). Score by periods: 0 0 0 0-13. Texas: 0 0 0 0-1. Aggies scoring: Touchdown, Alsbrook; Conover. Point after touchdown, Christian (place kick).

WASHINGTON: ST. LOUIS 9. ST. LOUIS, Nov. 28. (AP)—Washington university retained the city football championship and maintained its record of not having lost to St. Louis university since 1917 by turning back the Billikens in the annual Turkey day game, 7 to 0.

Tech-Simmons

ward, Marshall went over for the tally from the one yard line and Hyde booted from placement for the goal. Air Attack Falls. Waller and Crites tried again and again to gain from the air, but their efforts were unsuccessful in the extreme. Of the 27 they tried, only four were complete for short gains, and one resulted in a touchdown for Simmons as Captain Hyde intercepted Crites' peg in the second period and rambled down the boundary line for 60 yards and another six yards. Crites was the only player with a chance to make the tackle and he was cut down by Jennings; his shoulder was dislocated and he was taken out for the remainder of the game. Hyde tried for the point, and his kick was blocked, but Tech was offside and it counted a goal.

Another Tech tumble paved the way for Simmons' last counter. On a bad pass from Jones at center, Waller dropped the ball and Pearce covered for Simmons on the Mataro 27-yard line. Again the Big White Wave surged forward, touchdown bound. Clark and Marshall progressed four, five and seven yards at a clip until Marshall hurried into a mass of forwards for the tally. Hyde added the point with another goal.

Woodriddle Leads Matadors. Tech's running game, centered about Woodriddle, went well in the first half, but they forsook it for the aerial in the last two periods and their overhead, as has been noted before, was pitiful. Woodriddle broke loose and ran 27 yards for his longest gain. Hodges, playing only in the last half, started defensively in his own private homecoming.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 28. (AP)—Across the snow covered Blue Grass county tonight, the sharp shrill scream of the Kentucky Wildcat sang a funeral dirge for blasted Tennessee championship dreams. Clavering their way through a snow storm to a six-six tie with the mightiest Tennessee team in history, the Wildcats not only smashed Volunteer tie hope but left a smudge on an otherwise unsullied record.

ST. MARY'S 31; OREGON 6. KEZAR STADIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28. (AP)—Denied one of the greatest achievements of football—that of being the only team in the nation to complete a season without having its goal line crossed—a powerful St. Mary's eleven found some satisfaction today however, in trouncing the University of Oregon, 31 to 6.

Tulane Greenies Trim Louisiana

TIGER STADIUM, BATON ROUGE, Nov. 28. (AP)—Tulane university of New Orleans today laid claim to the Southern Conference title and a share in national honors by defeating Louisiana State university 21 to 0 in the 37th annual renewal of their Thanksgiving gridiron classic. With Tennessee tied by Kentucky at Lexington this afternoon, Tulane was the only undefeated and untied eleven in the Dixie circuit.

Ten thousand Tulane rosters, leaving the stadium, cried "On to the Rose Bowl!"

GRINNELL 12; Creighton 0. OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 28. (AP)—Creighton and the Grinnell Pioneers dropped the curtain on the Missouri Valley conference football season today with the Pioneers on the long end of a 12 to 0 count. The game was played on a snow-covered gridiron before a holiday crowd of less than 4,000.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 28. (AP)—The 85 yard run of Pilkington, University of Tulsa fullback, gave his school a football victory today over Oklahoma City University, 6 to 3. The touchdown was made in the third period. Hilpert, Oklahoma City guard, kicked a field goal in the first half.

PITTSBURGH TEACHERS LOSE. PITTSBURGH, Kas. Nov. 28. (AP)—A place kick from the 15 yard line in the last period by Mesch, Southwestern College halfback, enabled the Builders to defeat the Pittsburgh Teachers in the Central conference cellar position contest here today, 3 to 0. Both teams threatened several times.

Camels have always welcomed comparison with any other cigarette because the true test of value is the pleasure to be found in smoking.

The most important thing for smokers to know is that genuine cigarette quality must begin with the selection of tobaccos. Nothing can take the place of quality tobacco. Thus the extraordinary goodness of Camels begins with the choicest tobaccos grown and these are blended with expert skill to achieve the mildness and surpassing fragrance of this great cigarette. It is this genuineness of quality which smokers appreciate when they have passed the experimental stage and know real smoking pleasure.

NEW YOUNG GUARD SO OUTNUMBERED AS TO BE OF LITTLE USE IN THE SENATE. STEWART CONCLUDES, AFTER ANALYSIS

By CHARLES F. STEWART Central Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Politicians never did believe that the Republican old guard liked President Hoover; that is to say, politically...

How account indeed, for this new group except on the ground of the effervescence of its loyalty to President Hoover?

Certainly such solons as Senators Deneen, Glenn, Goff, Metcalf, Oddie, Robinson of Indiana and Waterman look like too ultra-conservative a platoon ever to be consistently depended on by the president...

Senator McNary, apparently determined to be the young Turkish leader, probably will prove more dependable also Senators Allen, Sackett, Stewer, Thomas of Idaho and Vandenberg—very, very mild progressives.

And, anyway, what good can it do President Hoover to have the young turks back and call, however faithful they may be to him, with the Progressive-Democratic coalition outnumbering both them and the old guard put together?

The O. O. P. side of the senate is now split three ways: The old guard, 16; the young Turks, 24; the Progressives, 14.

There were even out-and-out Progressives among them, but of these seven only two were definitely of the Hoover reservation; the rest were more or less prepared to play ball if things had gone to their liking.

For that matter, the Democrats are split, too. If it ever comes to a showdown, in reality there are six parties in the senate, counting Farmer-Laborite Shipestead as one of them—and he ought to be, for really there is more solidarity in his group than in any of the others.

KEEPING SCHOOLS OPEN IN "FLU" EPIDEMIC HELPS CHECK DISEASE

By DR. MORRIS FISHERIN Editor Journal of the American Medical Association and of Hygiene, the Health Magazine

At the time of the last great epidemic of influenza there was much dispute among sanitary authorities as to whether or not the schools should be closed as a means of preventing the spread of disease.

Nowadays it is realized that it is advisable to keep the school open because in this way it is possible to keep a check on the movements of the children to find out which ones are sick and which are well...

The actual records are interesting. In 23 schools in Pennsylvania which depended only on fumigation to stamp out contagious diseases, there was a total of 171 cases within a month before and 200 within a month following closure and fumigation.

Therefore the advice should be repeated again: in times of epidemic do not close the schools and lose control of the children; much better keep the schools open, examine the children daily and carefully record the development of cases so as to prevent contact and continued spread of infection.

We have been saving up a paragraph for 1940, as follows: "Who now can remember dimpled knees?"

Anniversary Notes

DOMINICAN TREATY On Nov. 29, 1869, a treaty for the annexation of Santo Domingo by the United States was negotiated by General Babcock, U. S. A.

In 1863, Spain had recognized the independence of the Dominican republic and President Grant sent Babcock to inquire into the condition of the country and its resources.

Babcock negotiated the treaty of annexation, which was ratified by the United States senate by a tie vote.

Violent revolutionary outbreaks finally forced the United States to take a hand and in 1916 the Military Government of the United States in Santo Domingo was set up.

Peace was soon established and improvements in finances, education, transportation, and government machinery were carried out. The last U. S. troops withdrew from the republic in July, 1924.

Today's Poem

AN OLD TUNE After Gerard de Nevald There is an air for which I would down Mozart's, Rossini's, Weber's melodies— A sweet sad air that languishes and sighs, And keeps its secret charm for me alone.

Whenever I hear that music vague and old, Two hundred years are mist that roll away, The thirteenth Louis reigns, and I behold A green land golden in the dying day.

An old red castle, strong with stony towers, And windows gay with many-colored glass; Wide plains, and rivers flowing among flowers, That bathe the castle basement as they pass.

In antique wood, with dark eyes and gold hair, A lady looks forth from her window high; It may be that I knew and found her fair, In some forgotten life, long time gone by. —Andrew Long (1844-1912)

Lubbock Delegates On Hand As More Than 3,000 Open Longview Meeting; Fight For '30 Meet Is Begun

(By Associated Press) LONGVIEW, Nov. 28.—More than 3,000 delegates, from El Paso, to Texas and from the Panhandle to Lower Rio Grande valley, were gathered here tonight in what already has been termed the most successful B. Y. P. U. convention ever held in Texas.

Dallas, Houston and Wichita Falls, each city with a representation of nearly 300, began their fight in earnest for the 1930 convention. The convention will last through Saturday.

Friday there will be addresses by Secretary J. E. Lambdin of the Nashville, Tenn. Baptist school board; Dr. F. B. Thorn of Waco, and Harry P. Wooten of Dallas.

Seventeen district conventions will also be in progress while departmental and inspirational programs will be held at night. Selection of a president to replace W. L. Howe, has not been started, but is expected to get underway tomorrow afternoon.

Kilgore and other neighboring communities are helping Longview entertain the convention.

Lubbock People There. Miss Willie B. Cloninger and Mrs. Lloyd Russell, both of this city, left Wednesday night for Longview as official delegates from the Lubbock B. Y. P. U. They are expected to return next Sunday morning.

Dr. W. R. White, pastor of the First Baptist church, left Thursday morning and will be one of the principal speakers at the Friday sessions of the convention. He is to speak this morning at 11 o'clock and again tonight.

Tale of Mysterious Escape Thrills Simple Welsh Folk After Shipwreck

(By Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 28.—The story of a Maltese fireman named Attard, supposed to have been drowned when steamer Molesey was wrecked with loss of eight lives in a gale three days ago, has created a sensation along the Welsh coast.

The fireman put in an unexpected appearance yesterday at a hotel in Milford Haven. He had remained aboard the wreck until calmer water yesterday permitted him to scramble to shore over the great Milford rock, which rises steeply from the water. His feat was considered remarkable.

Man Is Removed. By chance, a retired naval officer in a motorboat spotted Attard on the rock and took him off, stiff with cold and almost exhausted. Liquor and dry clothes revived him, and he was driven to the hotel where his shipwrecked comrades are staying.

In broken English he told the story of his extraordinary luck in surviving the wreck. He spent many hours awaiting death, praying and believing he was the only survivor; for he did not know most of the crew had been taken off in a lifeboat.

Waves pitched him into a cabin amidships. He scrambled, dazed, into a bunk, rolled up like a ball and watched the water rising and receding in the cabin.

As he was being interviewed by reporters the ship's chief officer, Stocks, whose wife is missing, entered the room. The two looked at each other in silence, and Stocks' jaw literally dropped.

"Where did you come from?" he finally uttered. Attard, in reply, gave him a handshake.

When Viscountess Ipswich married Major G. R. V. Hume-Gore in London recently, her fifteen-year-old son, a Harrow schoolboy, gave her away.

ENGINEER IS DEAD

STAMFORD, Nov. 28.—A few minutes after T. C. Smith, K. K. & T. railroad engineer, had been found lying in an alley unable to move a block from his boarding house here this morning, he died before he could be carried to a sanitarium. Heart failure was the cause.

His home was in De Leon and the body was sent there today for burial. Smith was 38 years old and weighed 240 pounds. He had been making the run from De Leon to Stamford on an K. K. & T. passenger train for several years and had come in here on his run late yesterday afternoon.

Trio of Sisters Drown in Brook

AUGUSTA, Maine, Nov. 28. (AP)—Three small children were drowned as they fell through thin ice on Two Mile brook, near here today and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Parlin nearly sacrificed their own lives in their frantic rescue attempts. The children were Beatrice, aged 5, Irene, 6, and Catherine Alberta, 8.

Mrs. Nellie Parlin is in a critical condition from shock and exposure. She was dragged from the icy water by her 11-year-old son, Levitt, one of the nine Parlin children. The youngest of the nine Parlin children was born three weeks ago.

Two Divisions Of Lubbock Organizations Take Field And Two Sessions Planned For Today

With the opening date of the Lubbock Community Chest drive drawing near, two divisions of the organizations have taken the field this week in efforts to clear the way for the territorial teams that are to start active campaigning on December 3.

The employes division and the big gifts committee both have reported substantial progress but an official report will not be given until the opening day of the drive proper.

Only two meetings are scheduled today. At 6 o'clock this afternoon O. P. Kuykendall, colonel of the men's territorial teams, will meet with his four majors, twenty captains and one hundred lieutenants for an instructive session at headquarters in the City Hall. This is to be the last meeting of the men's group until next Tuesday when they will start solicitations.

Tonight at 7 o'clock the board of directors of the organization will gather for a business meeting.

Only two more days are left for the educational program which has been given for the past two weeks by Henry Clark, of the American City Bureau. Mr. Clark spoke last night before the American Legion and his auxiliary, and today is scheduled for two appearances. During his stay here he has delivered the Community Chest message to more than 2,500 persons.

Carroll Laird

convulsions and an attending physician declared that his pulse became very weak. Unconscious when under treatment, Laird at times last night attempted to speak but was irrational. Reports stated that he could barely move the left side of his body and that immediately following the injury his whole left side was paralyzed.

Laird was playing the last game of his high school career for the Plainview Bull Dogs, having lettered for the past three years. With him, a twin brother, Harold, also starred, playing an opposite half. Harold suffered a leg injury earlier in the game and was only taken from the field after concerted efforts of the Plainview coaches.

Until a late hour last night scores of anxious friends, both of Plainview and Lubbock, hovered about the entrance to the sanitarium, eager for any word which might bring assurance of the youth's recovery. His father and mother were at his bedside shortly after he was taken from the field.

PLANT IS ROBBED

Chicago Pie Company Loses $20,000 To Bandits

CHICAGO, Nov. 28. (AP)—Eight men invaded the Case and Martin Pie company plant early today, bound up eight employes, blasted the safe and escaped with currency and securities worth $20,000.

The robbers, armed with revolvers and a shotgun, rounded up workers and herded them in the boiler room where all were framed with electric light cords, while the bandits cracked the safe with nitroglycerine. The employes were left on the floor and it took them three hours to loose their bonds.

Sanger's Death

Sanger accompanied him on the Waco trip. A son, Edwin, is a resident of Dallas.

Prior to his removal to Dallas in 1915 he had been a resident of Waco since his arrival here at the age of four years.

Sanger was general manager of the Sanger Brothers department store at Waco before his removal to Dallas. At that time he became assistant to the president, the late Alex Sanger, of all the stores then operated by the firm. He retained the position until 1926 when he went into the investment and brokerage business at Dallas. At the time of his death he was also associated with his son in the Edwin Sanger Music corporation.

Was Civic Worker. Besides his extensive commercial interests, Sanger was active in civic work of his community, and had many affiliations outside of business pursuits.

He was a thirty-second degree Mason. For several years he was president of the congregation of the Temple Roden Sholem at Waco. Until a year ago he was president of the congregation of Temple Emanuel at Dallas, when he resigned on account of his health.

He was president of the Ofand Avenue State bank of Dallas at the time of his death. He was a powerful influence in the construction of the Mercantile Bank building of Dallas, and he had acted as director of the Mercantile Bank and Trust company.

Had Many Interests. His Waco business interests also included establishment and operation of the C. L. Sanger Cotton company.

For many years he was an active member of the Travelers Protective association, having at one time served as its president.

Sanger was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and came to Texas at the age of four years, his family locating in Waco. He was married to Miss Flora Livingston in 1893 at Waco.

Three brothers survive: I. S. Sanger is in business in New York City; Aher and Alex Sanger are Waco business men. One sister, Mrs. Carrie Gedshaw, is an Austin resident.

No funeral arrangements had been completed tonight. It was intimated that the body would be taken to Dallas for burial, but no positive announcement to this effect was made, nor was the time of final rites decided.

German Democracy Defended By Act

BERLIN, Nov. 28. (AP)—The Reichstag today adopted the newly introduced defense of the republic act putting new teeth into regulations for the defense of the German democracy. The vote was 38 to 23.

The bill will now go to the Reichstag for its final reading on Dec. 2. The bill contains considerably increased penalties for attacks, not only against the lives of cabinet ministers, but also against the lives of any holders of political office.

Even "insulting or slandering or inciting to attack against any political officeholder" is made punishable as high treason.

Numerous other paragraphs relate to punishment for any subversive acts endangering the peaceful conduct of the republican government in Germany.

Irish Leader Set Free After Trial

DUBLIN, Ireland, Nov. 28. (AP)—Mrs. Maud Gonne MacBride, noted Irish republican leader, was acquitted today on a charge of sedition growing out of a speech which she made recently regarding the government's juries protection bill.

Mrs. MacBride went on trial in criminal court this afternoon. She has long played a prominent part in the Irish republican movement and for many years has been known as the "Irish Joan of Arc."

Mrs. S. Sheppington, another leader in the movement, who appeared in court representing a republican newspaper, was among those excluded from the courtroom which was cleared for the trial. As she left she exclaimed to Justice Hanna:

"This is freedom of the press."

Texas Fireman Is Police Substitute

PORT WORTH, Nov. 28. (AP)—Capture of three youths, discovered at 3 a. m. today in the H. P. Love Drug store, was credited by police to the vigilance of Fireman R. G. Conner, on duty as "lookout" at a fire hall across the street.

One of the suspects attempted to escape and was knocked, unconscious by Conner, who wielded a shotgun.

Police questioned the youths, ages 18 to 20, and recovered loot stolen in two previous burglaries.

When Fireman Conner heard a noise in the drug store, he snatched up a shotgun and ran toward the pharmacy. Seeing three figures, he called to other firemen, who notified police.

Conner stood watch near the store until police arrived.

Opposition Denied By Texas Railway

DALLAS, Nov. 28. (AP)—G. O. Bateman, of the legal department of the Texas and Pacific railroad, issued a statement last night denying the Abilene and Southern, T. and P. subsidiary, was "opposing" application of the Gulf and West Texas railroad for authority to construct a road from Fredericksburg to Brady in Interstate Commerce commission hearings.

Mr. Bateman pointed out his company also has a petition before the commission, for a line extension from Ballinger to San Angelo, and the petition filed with the commission was an interviewing petition. The Gulf and West Texas, he added had also filed an interviewing plea to the T. and P. petition.

The statement was meant to correct dispatches indicating the Abilene and Southern was opposing the petition.

Grim Guards, Behind Machine Guns, Await Threatened Riot At Prison

(By Associated Press)
DANNEMORA, N. Y., Nov. 28.—Prisoners and widely circulated rumors that an attempt would be made today for a general riot of some 1,500 convicts in Clinton prison here caused Warden Harry M. Kaiser to send out a call for aid of troops. Thirty-eight state policemen, under Lieutenant Lynch of Malone barracks, hurried to the prison. The riot did not materialize.

All guards, including those who had the day or part of the day off for the Thanksgiving holiday, were summoned back to their posts. Machine guns were placed in key positions on the great walls and there was a general feeling of tension, not only at the institution, but throughout the village.

Rumors widely spread. The rumors, flying about for two or three days, reached the ears of about every person here. Remembering the bloody outbreak of July 12, this year, male residents ate their Thanksgiving dinner while they listened expectantly for the shrieking of the prison's siren.

As the day passed without untoward incident within the grim walls, the belief grew among the citizenry and guards that the convicts themselves, nettled by the failure of the previous attempt to get out, had started the reports through their grapevine telegraph, with the purpose of calling guards back from their day off.

An entertainment for the inmates following their Thanksgiving day dinner of chicken and turkey, continued under the ever watchful eyes of the men with the guns.

CHILDREN ARE SAVED

Deaf And Dumb Negroes Are Rescued From Fire

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 28. (AP)—Forty negro children, all deaf were rescued with considerable difficulty today from a burning dormitory at the state school of the deaf here.

Warning was given the children by instructors using sign language. Police aided in taking them out of the building.

The fire was said by firemen to have started from wires in the attic.

Contract Will Be Held By England

LONDON, Nov. 28. (AP)—Philip Snowden, chancellor of the exchequer, told the House of Commons today the government had no intention of varying its contractual obligations entered into with holders of government securities.

The Chancellor made his statement in reply to several questions prompted by a recent speech of Tom

Shaw, minister of war, in which he asserted the nation was paying "a hundred million sterling too much interest to people who have not the smallest moral right to it."

This remark by Mr. Shaw immediately produced demands from opposition members for an explanation from the chancellor as to whether this foreshadowed a policy of confiscation or repudiation of war loan securities.

The kill is becoming very popular in Scotland for evening wear.

Five Members Of Congress Prepare To Fight For Seats As Charges Of Defeated Opponents Face Hearings

Harry M. Wurzbach, Beaten In Bexar County, Is One Of Quintet Who Lodge A Kick With Solons

BY CECIL B. DICKSON
Associated Press Staff Writer.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. (AP)—Five representatives were vigorous contestants over their seats in the house despite the fact they have been serving officially since the beginning of the special session.

They were seated following receipt by William Tyler Page, house clerk, of certificates of election from the state secretaries, but attorneys have been working on the cases of both contestants and contestees, and records are not complete and in the hands of Page.

To Form Committees. Three elections committees will be organized next week to hear the contests after the regular session convenes Monday. They will go into the records and probably will hold open hearings.

With the exception of the contest over the seat held by Representative Ruth Bryan Owen, democrat, of the fourth Florida district, the contests deal with disputes over election returns.

W. C. Lawson, republican candidate for the Florida seat, charges Mrs. Owen lost her citizenship when she married a British army officer. Mrs. Owen returned to the United States after her husband died and claims to have lived here a sufficient time to have regained her citizenship and thus be eligible for her seat.

Former Representative Harry M. Wurzbach, republican, has been persistent in his attack on the seating of Representative Augustus McClosky, democrat, of the fourteenth Texas district. He has declined to relinquish his office in the house office building and is understood to have charged irregularities in Bexar county, Texas, elections.

John Phillip Hill is attempting to unseat Representative Vincent L. Palmisano, democrat, of the third Maryland district.

Jacob L. Milligan, democrat, of the Missouri district is stoutly defending his claim to his seat against H. F. Lawrence.

Ladlow Contested. Ralph E. Updike, defeated republican of the seventh Indiana district, is contesting the seating of Louis Ladlow, democrat.

Dempsey and Jack Kearns File Suit

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28. (AP)—A suit for $2,368 by the Jack Dempsey-Jack Kearns motion picture enterprises against Alexander Panagias, growing out of a theatre robbery in Kansas City on Nov. 11, 1922, probably will be settled out of court.

The suit was called for trial yesterday but a delay was granted when counsel for the complainants said a settlement was imminent.

Robbery of the Kansas City Panagias theatre occurred while Dempsey and Kearns were partners in a road show. Robbers blew the theatre safe and took $9,000. The plaintiffs assert that thereafter their share of the receipts, $2,368, never was paid.

In a cross complaint Kearns asked judgment of $12 from Dempsey stating he at one time loaned the former heavyweight champion that amount and never was repaid.

Turkey plans to spend nearly $50,000,000 in new irrigation projects.
