Livmore-Deerrock Project Ellenburger Wildcat In Andrews

Operations are to start in a few days at a 12,000-foot wildcat to explore into the Ellenburger in Central-West Andrews County, in the region between the Dollarhide and the Nelson fields.

The prospector will be George W. Livmore, Inc., and Deerrock Oil Corporation No. 1 A. Mayhew, et al. It will be drilled with Livmore rotary tools, and that concern will have the operation. Livmore and Deerrock each own one half of the working interest in the development.

The drillsite is to be at the center of the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 20, block A-51, psi survey. That makes it six miles north of the nearest completed Ellenburger producers in the Dollarhide field, and approximately five miles south and slightly east of the Nelson field.

On 1,280 Acre Block
The prospector is on a block of 1,280 acres which was assembled by Wright & McMillen of Midland. That concern shot the block with seismograph and did the geological work on the spread.

Wright & McMillen turned the deal to Livmore and Deerrock to drill and retained an interest in all the acreage involved.

The prospect has been rumored for several weeks. The area in which it is located is "hot" from the standpoint of indicated possibilities of production being developed from the Ellenburger. Those prospects are of course based on the assumption that there is a structure in the region.

The area adjacent to the Mayhew block is fairly well cut up among a large number of companies and independent operators. Dry hole contributions toward the drilling of the wildcat have been made by Humble Oil & Refining Company, Sinclair Prairie Oil Company, Skelly Oil Company and Bankline Oil Company.

Acreage contributions have been made by Union Oil Company of California, Argo Oil Corporation, R. A. Bristol and F. A. Andrews. Southland Royalty Company owns extensive mineral interests in the region.

Humble Taking DST At Wildcat In Iron

Humble Oil & Refining Company was taking a drillstem test in the Southwest Iron County Wolfcamp lime of the lower Permian at its No. 1-P Sawyer, wildcat projected to the Ellenburger eight miles northwest of the town of Barnhart.

Total depth is 6,392 feet. Cutting samples above that depth showed good signs of oil and gas. The test now underway is to check those indications.

The venture is 960 feet from south and 1,390 feet from east lines of section 191, block 1, TP survey.

Scurry Ellenburger Yields Oil By Heads

Attempts to develop commercial Ellenburger production were still being made at Humble No. 1-B Moore, possible discovery from that formation in Northwest Scurry County, 19 miles northwest of Snyder and 1,890 feet from north, 1,980 feet from east lines of section 492, block 97, H&TC survey.

Perforations at 8,200-40 feet, opposite the prospective Ellenburger pay, were washed with 500 gallons of mud acid. During the eight hours following, the test produced three barrels and the second for seven barrels.

Crockett Prospect Prepares To Deepen

M. & M. Production Company No. 2-B Bouscaren, possible discovery from the lower Permian in the shallow Nozike field in Northwest Crockett County, and 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 29, block CG, HE&WT survey, is preparing to move out cable tool and move in a rotary to drill on to around 7,700 feet to test into the Ellenburger.

Mississippi River Levee Breaks

Waters Flood Wide Section Of Louisiana

BATON ROUGE, LA.—(AP)—The Mississippi River broke through a levee Thursday and sent residents fleeing from their homes.

The break occurred about 4:10 a. m., about three miles north of Port Allen, across the river from Baton Rouge.

Within three hours the water had moved three miles in from the river. Highway 190 was covered to a depth of three feet.

Sheriff's deputies and volunteers patrolled the roads, knocking on doors and urging residents to leave their houses. The Red Cross set up a reception center in Port Allen to care for refugees.

The break occurred at a large bend beside the Wilkman sugar plantation. The river washes directly against the levee at that point.

The break came as a complete surprise, as the river stage had not been considered dangerous. Deputy Sheriff H. L. Oncal, Jr., said the water was "just high enough to come through the break."

Wednesday's river stage at Baton Rouge was 34 feet, a foot below flood stage. The river had fallen half a foot in the previous 24 hours. It has been falling several days, following a crest reached as the result of the Ohio River flood coming down the Mississippi.

State of the advance of the water was difficult to determine immediately, Sheriff's officers said.

Communist Pattern For U.S. Revolution Read At Spy Trial

NEW YORK—(AP)—A Communist master plan for general strikes and revolt—according to the rules of military science—was unfolded before a federal court jury here Wednesday.

The prosecutor of 11 Communist Party leaders read from a Communist document which bristled with such words as "armed insurrection," "revolutionary positions," "putschism," "revolutionary upsurge," and "mobilization of the masses."

A copy of this Communist program was identified by Louis F. Budenz, former Communist official who, renounced the party in 1945 and returned to the Roman Catholic Church.

Budenz testified the party had demanded his loyalty to Premier Stalin as the leader of Communist world revolution in all countries, including the United States.

The witness said some of the defendants, being tried on charges of conspiracy to advocate overthrow of the U. S. government by force and violence, had taken such a "loyalty pledge in Moscow."

Budenz was the first witness called by the government in the 10-week-old trial.

Part of the Communist document identified at the trial by Budenz was read by U. S. Attorney John F. X. McConey. The prosecutor previously had told the jury the 11 defendants held the key to a planned American revolution.

Pension Bill Shelved By House Ballot

WASHINGTON—(AP)—By a one-vote margin, the House Thursday shelved the Rankin veterans' pension bill.

A roll-call vote of 208 to 207 sent the measure back to the Veterans Committee for further study.

It is possible for the Veterans Committee to write a new bill and send it back to the House at a later date.

But Chairman Rankin (D-Miss) told the House the vote to recommit meant the bill is dead.

"That kills this legislation for this Congress," Rankin said.

Rankin's bill already had been so amended it bore little resemblance to his original proposal for $90 a month pensions at age 65 to all World War I and World War II veterans.

The vote to throw it back to committee climaxed a series of maneuvers on the floor.

Rep. Teague (D-Texas) made the motion to send it back.

The roll call vote was first announced as 209 to 208 against the motion.

No Vote Switches
But on a recount, it developed the tabulators had erred on the first count.

There were no vote switches on the recapitulation.

Rep. McCormack (D-Mass), presiding in the absence of the city of Speaker Rayburn, ordered the recount on his own initiative.

The House sat in tense silence as the names of each member and the way they voted were called out by clerks. It was so quiet the automatic counter used by the clerks could be heard clicking.

It was the closest vote on a major bill in the House since late in 1941 when, by a one-vote margin, the bill to continue the draft law was passed.

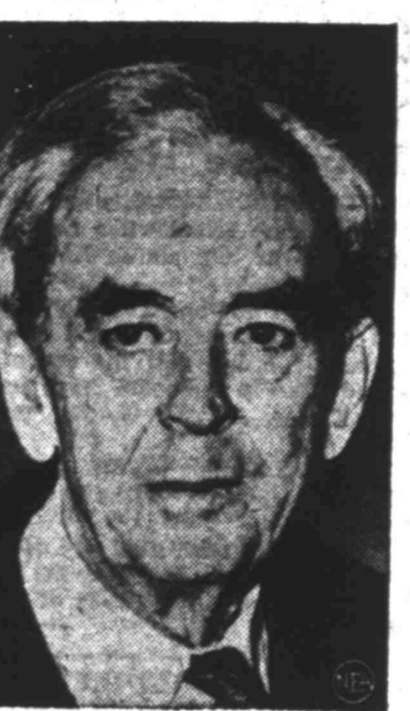

Two non-record votes preceded the roll call.

Teague first moved to strike out the bill's enacting clause—ordinarily a motion that kills a bill if it carries. That lost 169 to 158 on a standing count.

Then Teague got a teller vote on the same motion. It carried then, 171 to 168.

Teague's motion to send the bill back to committee followed, bringing the roll call and the recount of the vote first announced on it.

Pension Pusher

Rep. John E. Rankin, Mississippi Democrat, pushing his veterans' pension bill to a final vote in the House, saw it shelved by a one-vote margin Thursday. Rankin forced the battle to the end—a roll call ballot in which House members went on record in the final tally 208 to 207.

Lewis Orders Idle Coal Miners To Go Back To Pits Monday

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—John L. Lewis Thursday ordered his 468,000 idle coal miners to return to work Monday.

An executive order to district officers said:

"The present memorial period will terminate Monday, March 28. Production may then be resumed in all mines and all members should make themselves available for work on that date."

The order was directed to miners east of the Mississippi who have been idle since March 14 in a work stoppage Lewis said was meant as a memorial to dead and injured workers.

Lewis said it also would protest appointment of Dr. James Boyd as head of the U. S. Bureau of Mines.

The mine closings have cost the diggers some $30,000,000 in wages. During the mine shutdown, coal-carrying railroads laid off more than 70,000 employees.

Woman Burned As Gasoline Explodes

Mrs. J. B. Shipman, wife of a Midland carpenter, was treated at Western Clinic-Hospital Thursday morning for burns about the legs and arms. She reportedly suffered the injuries when gasoline with which she was working exploded.

The explosion set fire to the cabin in which the Shipmans live at the Rayan Tourist Court on East U. S. Highway 89 here.

Firemen extinguished the blaze. It did considerable damage to the bathroom and a hall in the cabin. Some damage was done to other cabins by smoke.

John Fliska, a fireman, was injured slightly when hit in the face by a fire hose nozzle. He was treated at the hospital and released.

Houston Officers Hold Young Slaying Suspect

HOUSTON—(AP)—Harris County probation authorities Thursday held a young girl they believe to have been involved in the slaying of a Dallas police matron last year.

They believe the girl to have escaped from the Gainesville State School for Girls, where she was sent after a Dallas trial following the death of Mrs. Kassil M. Chandler, 68, the police matron.

University Student, Avowed Communist, To Fight Expulsion

AUSTIN—(AP)—Wendell Addington, the self-identified spokesman for Communism in the University of Texas said Thursday he would fight any effort to expel him from the school.

Wednesday the Senate joined the House in approving a resolution to kick Communists out of state-supported schools. Governor Jester said he would sign the resolution.

There were no vote switches on the recapitulation.

Rep. McCormack (D-Mass), presiding in the absence of the city of Speaker Rayburn, ordered the recount on his own initiative.

House Refuses To Accept Senate Rent Control Amendments

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House refused Thursday to accept Senate amendments to its bill controlling rent controls. The measure will now go to a Senate-House Conference Committee to work out a compromise.

Rent controls will expire March 31 unless a compromise can be reached and the bill put to President Truman's desk by that time.

Neither Senate nor House bill makes rent controls as strong or continues them as long as President Truman asked.

But Democratic leaders on Capitol Hill described as a "pretty good job" the amended bill approved by the Senate Wednesday night 68 to 10. They didn't like a provision allowing "home rule" decontrol at any time. The House-approved measure also has a local option clause, although the Senate and House decontrol systems differ in some respects.

The Senate measure permits some rent increases up to 10 percent. The House measure provides for no percentage rent hikes, but stipulates that, so far as practicable, the rent administrator must assure a reasonable return on reasonable value of rented property.

A 15 months continuation is provided by the House bill. Control for "12 to 18" months was voted by the Senate.

Committee Delivers Knockout Blow To State Bonus Plans

AUSTIN—(AP)—Some 700 Texas veterans yelled their approval of a state bonus, but a House committee said no. The committee said it would not say when to report back.

Such procedure is considered almost certain death for legislation.

Roger Q. Evans, former representative and past commander of the Texas Department of Veterans of Foreign Wars, said afterward:

"These legislators will have to answer to a lot of veterans at the next election."

All but three or four of the committee are war veterans.

"Let's not call this a bonus, but a token of appreciation," Rep. J. A. Benton of Wylie, author of one of the plans, told the committee.

Benton's and Rep. Jimmy Horany's bonus resolutions would pay the ordinary veteran from $200 to $500. Prisoners-of-war, disabled veterans, and dependents of men killed in service would receive more.

Disabled Veteran Speaks
Legless Frank Siger of Dallas, speaking from a wheel chair, asked that Texas voters be given a chance to say whether veterans are entitled to a bonus.

"I don't believe there's a veteran in this house today who's asking you for anything but fair play. We're not asking for a handout," the World War II veteran said.

S. A. Childers of Waco, state VFW commander, declared to the committee: "I do not think you have a right to keep this from the people of Texas. I'm asking you to pass this in honor of the dead (servicemen) and to take care of the living."

Rep. Bill Fyfe of Victoria asked if the question of how to raise money for the bonus should also be voted on by the people of Texas.

Son To Claim Body Of Stone Mason Who Fell From Building

A son was due to arrive in Midland Thursday to claim the body of Frederick Louis Rogosch, 62-year-old stone mason who was killed early Wednesday afternoon in a fall from the sixth floor of the Permian Building.

Rogosch also is survived by other children and a wife. It was learned, but has no relatives living in or near Midland. The body is at the Ellis Funeral Home.

David L. Harmon, contractor for whom Rogosch was working, said the stone mason was from Wisconsin or Iowa and that he had been in Midland about two months, having worked previously on the McClintic Building.

Rogosch was employed by Harmon about two weeks ago at Odessa before coming here.

Four other workers were on the scaffold with Rogosch but stepped back into the clear before the winch, which was jerked loose from its mooring, struck Rogosch, knocking him from the scaffold.

Rogosch suffered a broken neck and was badly crushed.

Harmon said he told Rogosch to step back while another worker closed a third story window to let the stone clear. The 600-pound stone was being hoisted on a cable to Rogosch. Instead, Rogosch grabbed the cable and attempted to swing the stone around the obstruction.

This motion pulled the winch loose and it struck the stone mason full in the face. The blow turned Rogosch a complete somersault over the guard rail and he was turned another somersault on striking the telephone wires on the way to the ground. He landed on the sidewalk on West Texas Street.

He was rushed to the Western Clinic-Hospital in an ambulance and a doctor pronounced him dead on arrival.

Does Business At Same Old Stand

FORT WORTH—(AP)—A $10,000 fire that ruined a Jacksboro Highway cafe here early Thursday didn't faze the manager, A. L. Beek.

He was busy selling beer to curb customers Thursday morning, keeping an eye cocked at the roof that threatened to cave in at any moment.

Beek awakened in his rooms in the two-story cafe building before dawn and found the structure in flames. He stumbled to the door and escaped with only a hand cut.

Chinese Name Peace Delegation As Reds Mass Near Nanking

NANKING—(AP)—Nationalist China's cabinet named a peace delegation Thursday. But Red troop movements indicated the Communists may be leading a pistol to hold at the conference table.
Government Spokesman Teng Wen-Yi warned, after the peace delegates were announced, that Communist troops were being deployed toward the Yangtze River. The heaviest movement seemed to be centered seven miles from Nanking, Anhwei Province capital, 140 miles southwest of Nanking. Others were scattered up and down the river, which now divides Nationalist and Red China.
Such tactics would strengthen the victorious Communists' power to back up any demands they might make at the peace table. The action pointed up the fact that peace is still far away in China.
The Communists have not yet announced their delegates. The Reds also will name the site for peace talks. The old capital of Peiping, now in Red hands, likely will be their choice.
But as remote as peace still is, war-sickened Chinese sighed with relief when the delegates were named.
They are:
Shao Li-Tse, elder statesman, and a member of the unofficial Shanghai peace delegation that went to Peiping last month.
Huang Shao-Run, close associate of Li Cheng, minister of education and former head of Peiping Normal University.
Chang Chih-Chung, cabinet member without portfolio and political administrator for Northwest China.
Li Chang, minister of education and former head of Peiping Normal University.
Chang Tse-Chao, Shanghai lawyer and member of the unofficial delegation to Peiping.

'Stamp Book' System Suggested To Widen Social Security Plan

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A new "stamp-book" taxpaying system was suggested Thursday by the Administration to help make possible a vast expansion of social security.
The stamp system is designed principally for farm workers and household help who would be among the 20,000,000 new workers blanketed under old age insurance if Congress approves the expansion.
Arthur J. Altmeyer, social security commissioner, projected the tax plan as he laid before the House Ways and Means Committee the details of President Truman's program to:
(1) Increase the coverage of old age and survivors insurance from 30,000,000 to 50,000,000 workers;
(2) Boost the insurance benefits by about double; (3) Create a new insurance program for disabled workers; (4) Reduce the "pension age" for women from 65 to 60.
Stiff resistance already has formed against Truman's proposal to increase the security tax take from the present $1,800,000,000 a year to around $5,000,000,000.
As part of the battle to prevent "destitution," Altmeyer said, the insurance program should be expanded to include 6,000,000 farm operators, 7,700,000 urban self-employed (lawyers, doctors, businessmen, etc.), 3,000,000 domestic or household workers, and 4,700,000 hired farm workers.
And while the President had some rough things to say about pollsters after last November's election, Altmeyer quoted from a Gallup poll to show that most farmers want social security insurance.
A survey of House Ways and Means committee men indicated this group is ready to reject flatly the President's plan to extend direct financial aid or "home relief" to all needy persons including the unemployed. Such relief now is limited to the needy aged, the blind and to dependent children.

Hollywood's Award Of Oscars Looks Like England's Show

By HOWARD C. HEYN
HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—The Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences hands out its 1948 Oscars Thursday night, and it looks like England's show—at last.
If this be hereby in Hollywood, then build my gallows high. Because I believe Sir Laurence Olivier and his majestic "Hamlet" should win the best actor and best film awards.
Jane Wyman should get the nod as best actress, in "Johnny Belinda."
Of course (Here comes the hedging), if voting among the 1,987 academy members follows a strictly American pattern, "Johnny Belinda" will make "Hamlet" a striver over.
Miss Wyman's only serious worry, I think, is Olivia de Havilland's performance in "The Snake Pit." And Olivier could be displaced as best actor by Lew Ayres, also in "Johnny Belinda."
Two British Films
A British picture has never won the top award this year, for the first time, two British films, "Hamlet" and "The Red Shoes," were nominated. Other contenders are "Johnny Belinda," "The Snake Pit" and "The Treasure of the Sierra Madre."
With Olivier and Ayres on the list of best actor nominees are Montgomery Clift ("The Search"), Dan Dailey ("When My Baby Smiles at Me") and Clifton Webb ("Sitting Pretty"). Olivier was nominated for the same honor two years ago, for his "Henry V."
Miss Wyman and Miss de Havilland are competing with Ingrid Bergman ("Joan of Arc"), Irene Junne ("Remember Mama") and Barbara Stanwyck ("Wrong Number") for best actress Oscars.
Thursday night's 21st annual awards will be a modest event, held for the first time in the academy's own 690-seat theater. The program has been condensed (on paper) to 90 minutes.

The Green Hell Of Houston—Or Johnson's Last Stand

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOUSTON—If you thought there was something strange about Dorothy Lamour's Houston radio show, you were so right. It wasn't funny. Houstonians will be talking about it for the next 50 years. As the 1949 Battle of the Bulge, or the stampede of the Emerald Room, I'll privately remember it as Johnson's last stand—the only time I wished I'd ordered a Micky.

Mrs. Chester Morris will remember it as the night Ed Gardner accidentally poured nearly a cup of coffee on her blonde head.

One thousand Texans—the rooms seating capacity—paid $43 a plate to hear Glenn McCarthy dedicate his new $30,000,000 Shamrock Hotel and to listen to Dottie's radio show. Forty film stars, brought to Houston for the occasion, were Glenn's guests.

But 600 more paid $42, too. They were sent to a couple of other smaller banquet rooms in the hotel, where they were to hear the Emerald Room festivities on a public address system. That, plus horribly mixed-up seating arrangements, started the stampede of the Emerald Room just as Dottie went on the air. Only half the guests were seated. Hundreds were stampeding in the aisles. Hundreds more, caught in the lobby mob, were trying to reach the entrance.

Kitchen Entrance
Movie queens and Texas socialites, in evening gowns and mink were smuggled through the hotel's kitchen by their escorts. Dottie was trying to sing. Nobody could hear her. Guests sent to the other banquet halls returned to the Emerald Room. They didn't want to listen to Dottie on the air—they wanted to see her in person. They wanted to see all of Glenn's film star guests.

And they wanted to see Glenn. Dottie went into a routine with Ed Gardner and Van Heflin, her guests. The stampede was still on. Nobody could hear them. The script was forgotten. I don't know what was said. I couldn't hear them, and I was sitting only about 50 yards away.

The orchestra played. The Emerald Room still resembled a New York subway rush when the show went off the air. Dottie rushed from the room in tears. I don't blame her. For two hours the mob milled around the long tables while red-coated waiters tried to serve the $42 dinner.

They shut the doors. The crowd for them open. Glenn left his table and appealed for patience. That didn't even help. Half a dozen appeals to clear the room failed. I was sitting at a table with the Ed Gardners, Chester Morris and his wife, the Van Heflins, Dennis O'Keefe, Bob Ryan and others. They were asked to sign autographs through every course.

There's only one way to describe

Progressive Club Program Is On Mothers

Motherhood as a career was the theme of a program in the Progressive Study Club meeting Wednesday afternoon, one of a series on the subject, "Woman's Part in World Progress." The club has studied women's part in various vocations, with sketches of successful women in those vocations.

Mrs. R. J. Hickman presented the topic, "Mothers as Citizens," and Mrs. John V. Norman, Jr. read a paper prepared by Mrs. Buri H. Self, a sketch of a successful mother. Mrs. Self chose as the subject of her sketch Dr. Lillian M. Gilbreath, the mother presented in the lively new volume of family reminiscences, "Cheaper by the Dozen."

The meeting was in the home of Mrs. W. B. Yarborough. In the business session members planned a rummage sale for the afternoon of April 1. Mrs. Forbes Wallace of Cisco was introduced as a guest, she is the house guest of Mrs. J. W. Thomas, Jr.

Present in addition to those on program were Mrs. W. C. Kimball, Mrs. A. A. Jones, Mrs. John DeFord, Mrs. W. E. Cox, Mrs. James C. Clary, Mrs. Sol Bunnell, Mrs. L. Orla Baggett, Mrs. Lindley Latham, Mrs. Thomas M. West, Mrs. Haden Upchurch, Mrs. Frank L. True, Jr., Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. R. I. Sewell, Mrs. W. H. Pomeroy, Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Newton and Mrs. Burns McKinney.

Concert To Include Children's Music

Music composed by the children themselves will be played by LeVerne and Edward Orr, pianists, on the last of a series of children's concerts sponsored by the American Association of University Women Thursday night.

The program will be given in the North Elementary School auditorium and will include short works by noted composers as well as the original tunes which the children submitted at Orr's invitation.

Late entries were being considered Thursday by the AAUW concert committee, of which Mrs. Leonard Thomas is chairman. Tunes were submitted to and approved by the committee Tuesday by Nancy Forman, Jimmy Jones, Kay Thomas, Jane Armontrout, Bradley Woods and E. Hazen Woods, Jr.

Tiny Easter Tintypes

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Fashion Editor

NEW YORK — Any resemblance between the small fry's Easter finery and little Victorians in the family album is not mere coincidence. Dressing up the apple of Mom's eye in revival fashions, which are held in such reverence this spring, is the avowed purpose of designers of togs for both little boys and little girls.

Take the spring collection of Merry Hull, for example. This gifted U. S. designer who caters to little fel-

Family album fashions take a bow in Easter finery for small fry. Reminiscent of an Edwardian dandy's coat is the velvet-collared, pin-checked worsted topcoat with matching trousers modeled by the young cyclist (far left). His companion's sporty plaid washable flannel suit combines tall trousers with a short bolero jacket. The little girl promenades in a Victorian-styled, high-waisted coat of pink wool covered with matching poke bonnet. Fram Row with her Victorian fashions can step out on Easter dressed in a pink coat of wool covered with a poke bonnet to match. These two Bambyr-designed nifties — a high-breasted coat and chin-tied bonnet — are trimmed with brown faille.

Brownie Troop 36 Visits Hobby Show

A visit to the Antique-Hobby Show as guests of the Modern Study Club was made by Brownie Troop 36 Tuesday afternoon. The girls enjoyed the exhibit in the City-County Auditorium. Mrs. L. M. Freels, leader, and Mrs. William Rhoden accompanied them.

Pre-School Study Group Has Program

While members of the Pre-School Parent Study Group sponsored by the Midland Parent-Teacher Council heard a program Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. Ralph Love, their children were entertained in a nursery kept by two girls from the high school home-making department.

The students in charge of the nursery were Jimmie Louise Drury and Bertha Phillip. On the program for the mothers were two talks, "How Intelligence Develops," by Mrs. O. L. Stalcup, and "Thumbs Down on Prejudice," by Mrs. J. J. Black.

Others present were Mrs. Ted Love, Mrs. Carl W. Covington, Mrs. Allen Flaherty, Mrs. W. O. Stallings, Mrs. F. L. Houghton, Jr., Mrs. J. H. Doran and Mrs. L. W. Leggett.

The next meeting of the group will be held April 6 in Mrs. Black's home. Mrs. Covington will have charge of the program on the subject, "Roots of Aggression."

SITUATION: You are sending a child off to his first party.

RIGHT WAY: Don't burden him with a lot of reminders. Just try to get one or two reminders across.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

When you buy Barcostrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcostrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcostrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two table-spoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

"I have taken my dose six days from size 56 to 44 and never felt better in my life and everybody tells me how much slimmer I look than I did."

"I am still taking Barcostrate as I want to get my weight down to 105 or 100 pounds."

Jewelry Reflects Developed Tastes

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

A woman of excellent taste often reflects the careful choosing which years of trying out this and rejecting that have helped her to develop by her eventual selection of a few pieces of jewelry.

As this is written I have in mind a woman of good taste who when last admired by a roomful of friends wore one large brooch at the neckline of her suit blouse. This great circle of multi-colored stones which she wears often with blouses of different colors is a costume piece. But it reflects the woman's selective tastes. It is important enough to suffice as all the jewelry needed for one occasion.

A necklace can play as important a solo role in a woman's wardrobe. So can a cluster of small pins. A set of shirt studs with matching cuff links can also dazzle, with no help from other pieces of jewelry.

A decorative choice of jewelry used by one mature woman of highly developed tastes whose costume effects are widely admired is a set of make-believe topaz studs with matching cuff links. She confides that she had the set made up from six pairs of earrings which provided the large square make-believe topaz gems. These she had reset into the pronged gold-washed shirt stud holders and cuff links which sparkle from almost every crisp blouse which this woman wears.

Fine Arts Club Hears Program In Dual Theme

Two entirely different phases of their general subject, "Romance of Fine Arts," were considered by members of the Fine Arts Club at a meeting Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Y. D. McMurry.

Mrs. Harvey Sloan presented the topic, "Romance of Living," while Mrs. McMurry and Mrs. E. E. Payne developed "The Romance of Figurative." Two guests, Mrs. N. J. Taylor of Elgin, Ill., and Mrs. John B. Mills, were present with members.

Mrs. Sloan chose as an example of a person who is living fully Dr. Albert Schweitzer, whom she described as a physician, an organizer, a musician, a writer, and an intellectual giant who rocked the theological seminaries of the world with his quest for the historical Jesus. Dr. Schweitzer, an Alsatian by birth and now in his seventies, is the founder and head of a medical center in Africa, the Lambarese Hospital.

Mrs. McMurry, talking on figurines, emphasized the history of Meissen, or Dresden, where which was originated by a Frenchman, John J. Candler, and widely copied. She also discussed the English cottage ornaments of statuary and other types of figurines.

Mrs. Sloan showed a number of fine pieces from her own collection, including a Lennox figure, "The Reader," a milkmaid figure in French porcelain and the head of a child in Meissen ware. A Dresden candleburn belonging to Mrs. Haden Barlow of Odessa and bisque figurines belonging to Mrs. Ralph Lowe, including some contemporary American pieces, were also displayed.

Other members present were Mrs. Henry D. Murphy, Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. J. M. White, Mrs. B. R. Schabrum, Mrs. George Kidd, Mrs. C. H. Ervin, Mrs. J. G. Garner, Mrs. L. G. Byerley, Mrs. Tom C. Bobo and Mrs. E. H. Barton.

Seating Revised For Community Theater's Play 'In The Round'

Seating problems for presenting the next Midland Community Theater play, "Pygmalion," have been worked out, and Mrs. Coe Mills, ticket chairman, announces that the ticket board will be available to the public at Tailorline Tuesday, the opening date, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

"Pygmalion," a comedy by George Bernard Shaw, will be the first Community Theater show ever to be presented "in the round," in the center of the auditorium. Because of the change in the seating arrangement, the ticket board as used for previous plays had to be discarded and a new board arranged.

Norris Creath, house manager, says that although the seating arrangement will be entirely different, plans have been made for seating the audience without confusion. He reminds theatergoers that there will be four times as many front seats for this production, since the audience will be seated all around the central stage and adds that the actors will not only be closer to the audience, but they will carry out the stage action in a natural manner rather than directing it to the front of the stage as is necessary in a conventional theater, so that spectators seated on any of the four sides will have a "front view" of the stage.

The play opens Tuesday night after a special performance for negroes on Monday night given as a benefit for the negro youth center. The senior class of Carver School and the Rose Garden Club has charge of ticket sales for the Monday performance, which is scheduled at 8:15 p. m.

The regular run will continue through Sunday, April 3, when the Community Theater has scheduled another "first," a matinee performance. Seats will not be sold in advance for the matinee, as it is planned primarily to accommodate residents of other cities in this area. Midland residents will be welcomed, but the ticket committee wishes to give the out-of-city visitors an equal chance at securing seats.

Art Cole is directing the play, with Elizabeth Pennebaker and Bill Fomeroy heading the cast. Fomeroy is also serving as stage manager.

SMU Choir Will Appear In Midland

The public is invited to attend the concert.

Crowd Fills Theater To See Fashions In Spring Prevue '49

Spring styles from Midland stores were paraded for two hours Wednesday night before an audience which completely filled the Yucca Theater, to see Spring Prevue '49, the annual show sponsored by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal Church.

Clothing, jewelry, luggage, flowers, house and yard furnishings were shown in a series of scenes woven into a sequence titled "A Day at Springvue Country Club." The stage setting represented the terrace of the country club.

Play clothes for adults and children were featured in the first scene, "Small Fry Frolic and Well-Dressed Mania," with the children grouped around a sand-box. A "Club Coffee" scene next showed suits and casual dresses, while "Terrace Tea" presented afternoon and cocktail apparel. The finale was a wedding reception scene featuring formal.

Cast Entertained Informally After Spring Prevue '49

After the presentation of Spring Prevue '49 Wednesday night, the sponsoring organization, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Trinity Episcopal Church, entertained at the Parish House for models and their escorts, all members of the cast and the backstage staff.

The informal party was a "thank you" expression to those who cooperated to make the fashion show a success.

Mrs. R. J. Snell, wife of the minister, poured coffee and Mrs. D. R. Carter served the handsomely decorated wedding cake which had been a part of one of the style show scenes.

Flowers used on the stage for the show reappeared for party decorations, an arrangement of white stock centering the refreshment table and; on a side table, acacia covering a landing cutout in the shape of a teapot. Quartet tables around the room were each centered with one white candle, its base wreathed with greenery.

Neighborly Beauty Treatments Okay Under New Statute

AUSTIN—(P)—Mrs. Jones can run over next door and give Mrs. Smith a home permanent without fear of the law.

Mrs. Jones' and Mrs. Smith's friends were all set to appear before the Senate Public Health Committee Wednesday night to make sure such a neighborly deed wasn't prohibited.

But they didn't have to worry. Senator Fred Harris of Dallas offered an amendment to his bill to make sure such neighborliness could continue. It was adopted.

Specifically, Harris' bill would strengthen the powers of the State Cosmetology Board to enforce its regulations.

The committee sent the bill to the Senate with the recommendation that it pass. No one spoke against it.

But to dispel any doubts it was a popular bill, Harris said beautiful-clams from all over the state had come down to Austin to back the measure. He asked them all to rise. About 100 well-groomed women and a few men stood up on the Senate floor.

Vote The Bonds

Midland County voters Saturday must make an important decision. They must decide in a special election whether $150,000 in bonds will be issued for county road improvements.

The widening of the important strip of road long has been advocated by various individuals and organizations who last year launched a campaign to obtain quick action on the matter.

The Texas Highway Commission, too, appreciates the situation and is anxious to cooperate in widening the road which has come to be known as the most dangerous in the state.

The Highway Department is ready to proceed with actual construction, but the right-of-way needed in the widening project first must be obtained by the county.

The other major projects of the bond issue—improvements of lateral roads in the county's farm-to-market road system, purchase of needed road machinery and participation in the railway underpass project on Big Spring Street—also are important, but perhaps not as much so as the Midland-Odessa road widening job.

Every citizen should cast a ballot in Saturday's election. It is just that important.

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Drew Pearson says: Foundation for economic education operates powerful lobby on Capitol Hill; biggest U. S. corporations back foundation; pro-Hitler propagandist from France writes foundation's pamphlets.

WASHINGTON—One of the neatest ways of reducing your income tax while simultaneously operating a powerful lobby has just been disclosed on Capitol Hill.

The list of contributors has been kept a closely guarded secret. This column, however, has obtained a copy and can reveal the fact that the backers of this lobby include General Motors, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Ford, General Electric, the Mellon National Bank, Gulf Oil (also known as the Mellon family), Republic Steel, the Du Ponts, Chrysler, Humble Oil, Inland Steel, Swift Packing Company, U. S. Steel, Ernest T. Weir, Westinghouse, Monsanto Chemical, Libbey-Owens Ford, Sears Roebuck, Sun Oil, Texas Oil and various others.

Because the foundation is supposedly for "education," these big corporations can deduct every cent of their contributions from income. Thus the $274,576.60 given to the foundation in the last 11 months also is corporate income, a fractional part of the dollar.

One of the foundation's writers is Bertrand De Jouvenel, whom the New York Herald Tribune has called the "Goebbels of France." That he was a pro-Hitler propagandist also has been confirmed by the French embassy. Yet he was selected by the so-called "educational foundation" to write about the evils of rent control.

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Opposition Expected Toward Roberts Federal Union Plan

WASHINGTON—Ex-Supreme Court Justice Owen J. Roberts' newly announced "Atlantic Union Committee for a Federal Convention of Democracies" will probably meet with considerable opposition from isolationists and old America Firsters.

It will be argued that if the 60-odd countries of the world cannot now run a successful United Nations organization, it is hopeless to expect that they could get along under a central government as a federal union of states.

Interesting History The growth of this movement which Justice Roberts now heads up as president of the Atlantic Union Committee is interesting to trace. Since World War II there have been a number of similar movements like R. L. Whitehouse's "World Republic," Robert K. Hutchins's "Federal Republic of the World," Cord Meyer, Jr.'s "United World Federalists," Ely Culbertson's "Citizens Committee for United Nations Reform," and many others.

It looks as though we are getting a good insurance policy against World War III. (R. Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., (R., of Massachusetts, commenting on the North Atlantic Pact.)

For individual effort we have to pay a heavy ransom in individual self-interest. (Dr. C. W. De Kiewit, Provost, Cornell University.)

The peoples of the earth want freedom and justice. They do not want to be individuals without duties or automata without rights. Communism denies them freedom. The aim should be unity, which comes by agreement; not unification, which is imposed by force. (Robert M. Hutchins, Chancellor, University of Chicago.)

If we try to give the military the responsibility of preserving peace they are apt to miff it because it is not the kind of responsibility for which they are trained. (John Foster Dulles, U. S. delegate to the United Nations.)

Probe Of Alleged Feed Fraud Demanded BROWNWOOD—(AP)—County Attorney David J. Morris says rice hulls are being sold as ground rice in Texas. He called Wednesday for a statewide investigation.

He said reports had reached him rice hulls were being purchased by some South Texas plants and being sold to dairymen in many counties as cattle feed. He described rice hulls as worthless for feed.

Morris and District Attorney Ralston P. Haun said felony charges would be filed here if investigations bring sufficient evidence.

SPORTSLANTS

BY SHORTHY SHELburnE

Professional wrestling is due to return to Midland after a long absence Monday night at the VFW Hall seven miles west on U. S. Highway 80. Pat O'Dowdy, known far and wide in West Texas for his episodes on the grappling circuits, is promoting the matches.

O'Dowdy will continue as a promoter at Big Spring and likely will take his regular turns at other rings in the area. He is active as a wrestler as well as a promoter.

Bud Huddleston, manager of the VFW Hall, says arrangements are being made to seat 2,000 spectators at the opening night event.

O'Dowdy has promised fans weekly shows that will feature something out of the ordinary.

Wrestling never has been able to draw large enough crowds to be successful here. Who knows? Maybe O'Dowdy is the man to put it over.

Enough sponsors for softball teams have contacted Sports Slants to virtually assure Midland of at least one league this year. Representatives of teams for Rotary Engineering Company, Standard of Texas, Western Plastic, and The Reporter-Telegram have indicated they are raising to go.

If there are others interested in sponsoring a team, please contact the at telephone number 3000 before Saturday noon.

Watch S.S. in the Sunday edition for an announcement on the time and place for an organizational meeting. We hope to have enough entries for an eight-team league by that time.

Ed Kileman, former Cleveland hurler now with the Washington Senators, says Cleveland won't repeat as American League champion for six reasons. He lists the reasons as Lou Boudreau, Ken Keltner, Joe Gordon, Bob Lemon, Gene Bearden and Dale Mitchell.

Kileman surmises all six had the best season of their career in 1948 and the Indians just barely did win the flag. He thinks at least one of them is due for trouble this year, therefore breaking the magic circle which carried the Tribe last season.

We're inclined to agree with Kileman that Cleveland won't repeat—but not for the same reasons.

For the moment, all managers' berths in the Longhorn League are filled. Bob Crues was the last to be named. He will be playing manager of the Roswell Rockets.

The roster of other pilots stacks up like this: Dick Gyselman at Sweetwater, Al Monchak at Odessa, Charley English at Ballinger, Sam Harshaney at San Angelo, Bob Huntley at Vernon, Pat Stasey at Big Spring and Harold Webb at Midland.

James Tice of Bartow, Fla., has invented something new in the way of baseball scoreboards.

He calls his invention "Gertie the Goose."

The novel scoreboard is constructed so that "Gertie" comes out and lays "goose eggs" at the end of each scoreless inning.

Tice is booking engagements for "Gertie" at various baseball parks throughout the country.

Maybe Harold Webb would be interested in obtaining one for use in scoring games with Odessa this year.

HALF SLANTS . . . After much argument and checking in the rule books, S.S. finds we were in error on declaring Max Harris the winning pitcher in Tuesday's Odessa-Midland game. Frank Roberson rightfully is the winning pitcher because the score became tied after he took the mound, and the winning run was scored while he still was in the lineup.

The Midland Colts, successful Latin American baseball team, are conducting workouts in preparation for the coming season. Manager Lopez has 16 players on the roster and is looking toward a big season . . . A district National Baseball Congress tourney will be held in Lufkin the first week in July. Non-professional teams will enter the meet and the winner will play in a tournament for the Texas State Championship.

When he knocked out Tony Zale, Marcel Cerdan became the first foreign fighter to win the middleweight boxing crown in 50 years. Australia's Bob Fitzsimmons was the last overseas scrapper to hold the title.

Red Rutledge, an assistant coach at Midland High, is helping coach base runners at games this season. With Rutledge at first and Beauchamp at third, both flashing the steal signs at proper times, the Bulldogs might steal their way to the pennant.

The quietest crowd of baseball fans S.S. ever saw was at Portland, Ore. Old Tommy Bridges was in the final inning of a no hit, no run masterpiece against the feared San Francisco Seals. He had walked one runner who was quickly snuffed out on a double play. The fans were behind Tommy and he did the trick. That game and several similar performances is good reason why he still is a starting hurler for Portland at the age of 44—when most pitchers long have been retired from active service.

THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, MARCH 24, 1949—7

Purple Ready For Season Opener At Big Spring Friday

The Midland High baseball team, riding on the crest of two exhibition wins over the Odessa Broncos, will face the Big Spring Steers in the District 3-AA season opener Friday afternoon in Big Spring. Coach Garvin Beauchamp has named the ace of the Midland pitching staff, Frank Roberson, to toe the slab.

Big Spring is reported to be strong in every position this year with the possible exception of catching. The Steers have several lettermen in their lineup.

Steer Coach Conn Isaacs has indicated he will start Floyd Martin on the mound. The young right-hander has brought smiles to the face of his coach during Spring training and is considered to be the best of four hurlers available. Midland is ready.

There have been no reports of injuries or ill effects among the Bulldogs following Tuesday's warm-up play has been commendable, as has his batting.

Price will complete the infield at third base.

Larry Buckingham, the long-ball hitting outfielder, is ticketed for leftfield in the opener. His strong arm, increasing batting average and superior fielding make him a definite starter.

Dee Bivens covers centerfield well. He has been hitting in the clean-up spot, the same place he is likely to fill Friday.

L. C. Thomas, Bill Branch, Jackie Mobley and Norman Drake are fighting it out for the rightfield position. It's a toss up between them for the game with Big Spring.

Big Spring Lineup

The probable starting assignments for the Steers include Donnie Carter at first, Jack Lee at second, Wilmon White at third, Howie Washburn at short and Howard Jones, Harold Rosson and Maurice Arcand in the outfield.

Catching chores will go to Arless Davis, Billy Tubb or Ray Walker.

Howard Jones, Carter and Arcand stand ready for mound duty for the Steers.

Louis Picks Chicago For Title Match

CHICAGO — (AP) — Joe Louis, in his new role as boxing promoter, has picked Chicago for the Ezzard Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott heavyweight scrap for the Brown Bomber's vacated title.

It was in Chicago's Comiskey Park that Louis lifted the heavyweight crown from Jim Braddock in 1937 and it may be in the same ball park next June that the proposed 15-round match between Charles and Walcott takes place. The date might be June 22, the night Louis won the championship in the White Sox Park nearly 12 years ago. The date and site will be announced later.

The Charles-Walcott bout would be for the National Boxing Association's version of the heavyweight championship. New York, one of the two states not a member of the NBA, has suggested an "elimination" tournament for Louis' title and will not recognize the Charles-Walcott winner as champion. Massachusetts is the other non-NBA state.

Louis announced the Charles-Walcott event Thursday with his partners in the new International Boxing Club. They are Arthur Wirtz and James D. Norris, Chicago Stadium and Detroit Olympia executives. The new combine will appear Monday before the Illinois Athletic Commission and request a license.

Women's City Keg Tournament To Be Held April 18-19

April 18 and 19 are dates set for the second annual Women's City Championship Bowling Tournament to be held at Plamor Palace here. Helen Boggs, newly elected secretary of the tournament, Thursday said the dates were set at a meeting of members of the Women's Bowling League early this week.

The tournament schedule calls for singles and doubles to be rolled the first night of the meet. Four-member teams will bowl on the second night. Cash prizes will be awarded to winners in each event.

The tournament will be open to all women bowlers who are members of the Women's International Bowling Congress.

Details of the tournament will be worked out at a meeting of the tournament committee Monday. On the committee are Deana Gray, Nadine Harris, Pat Reed and Neanie Mathias.

Ted's Quint Wins 40-38 Cage Joust

Ted's Terrors, coming back with blood in their eyes after last week's 32-31 loss to the Ranch House, fought their way into a tie in the playoffs for the City Cage League championship Wednesday night. They outlasted the Ranchers 40 to 38 in a nip-and-tuck affair at the MHS gym. The two-out-of-three series now stands at one win each.

The JayCees put an end to the consolation bracket competition by edging a fighting VFW quint 46 to 41 for their second consecutive win.

The Ted Thompson-Ranch House battle was waged with vigor on both sides from opening whistle. There never was much difference in scoring.

Wildcats Heavily Favored To Topple Oklahoma Aggies

SEATTLE — (AP) — The East came West Wednesday night, ready to give you Oklahoma A&M and all the points you think you'll need to beat Kentucky in the NCAA basketball championships Saturday night.

Aggie coaches were so far gone on the Wildcats, kings of the Atlantic side of the basketball country, they were talking with a Southern drawl.

After the 11 1/2-hour plane ride from New York, there was hardly a smile in the entire cast of Kentucky and Illinois highboys.

Coach Hank Iba and his Aggies arrived at midnight by plane.

A Minimum-Cost House-Anywhere

By S. BURTON HEATH
NEW YORK (NEA)—A minimum-cost semi-finished house, without heating plant, could be built anywhere in the United States to sell for from $3,280 to $4,550, if the buyer supplied his own lot.

This would be the house that Detroit builders offer for $4,178 in the Royal Oak demonstration, in which the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit, trying to prove that houses can be provided for the low-income group without government building.

It would be a four-room house, completely finished outside, with plumbing and electrical fixtures, but requiring finishing inside and use of space heaters until the owner was ready to put in central heating.

The Dow Service has been studying comparative building costs in various cities. Myron L. Matthews, vice-president, has worked out comparisons for NEA Service between New Orleans, $3,927 in Washington, $3,969 in Houston.

Chicago building costs are the same as those in Detroit. But in Boston this house would cost $4,262, in Cleveland $4,303, in Pittsburgh or St. Louis $4,357, and in New York $4,544.

Using the same indices, the most costly of the Detroit houses, which is completely finished, with heating plant, washer and drier, and designed so that basement, second floor and connected garage can be added, would range from $4,521 in Atlanta to a top of $7,576 in New York.

These house rates at $6950 in Royal Oak, without lot, it would cost about $9,047 in Seattle, $9,225 in Denver or Los Angeles, $9,394 in San Francisco, $9,464 in New Orleans, $9,603 in Houston, $9,650 in Chicago, $7,298 in Boston, $7,159 in Cleveland, $7,298 in Pittsburgh or St. Louis.

These are current costs. The Dow survey shows that building costs are falling all over the country. Thus far detailed reports have been issued only for eastern cities. Comparing March, 1949, with September, 1948, the survey reveals that the decrease

Fourth Round Pay Increase Demands Bring Questions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Will 1949 Spring bring another round of wage increases? Here are some of the questions that will have to be decided at the conference tables. Workers' representatives will ask: Have raises up to now met the rise in the cost of the living? Have they been enough to provide the worker with his share of the growing output per man per hour made possible through technological and other advances?

Employers will ask: Is business good enough and is the outlook favorable enough to justify giving wage raises? If the employers' forces rise, would industry have to raise prices, thus adding another turn to the rising spiral of inflation? If prices could not be raised for fear of losing buyers, would employees have to be laid off to keep the business on a profitable basis?

CIO economists, in the latest issue of the CIO News, already have called for wage raises. One big employer already is committed to an increase—General Motors. The contract which the automobile manufacturer made last year with its 270,000 production workers provided for a 3-cents-an-hour raise on May 29, 1949.

This is for increased productivity or, as it is called by some, "the annual improvement factor." The recent cut in wages which GM employees took was an adjustment to the lowered cost of living, another provision of last year's contract. But the productivity was nothing to do with the cost of living.

Workers in a large number of smaller industries are getting raises. The Department of Labor reveals this in its monthly report, Current Wage Developments. Of 435 contracts reviewed in the January and February issues, raises were granted in all but 13 cases. But both AFL and CIO textile unions failed to receive wage raises.

Not all "Fourth Round" And the United Shoe Workers (CIO) sought a raise from 70 Massachusetts shoe manufacturers but failed to get it. The Amalgamated Clothing Workers (CIO) asked for no increase. Increases granted so far are not all fourth rounds. It's the fifth raise since the war's end for some industries, only the first or second for others.

All eyes this spring will be on the Consumers' Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The index, which is a measure of living costs, has dropped to 170.9 from its all-time peak of 174.5 last August. Since 1939 the average weekly wage in manufacturing industries has increased from $23.86 to $54.54 as of October 1948. The rise in the wages of bituminous coal miners has been perhaps the most spectacular—from $23.88 a week in 1939 to $76.40 last October. In terms of real wages, however, the workers have not improved their lot nearly so much. The $54.54 which the average factory worker was getting in October would buy no more than $31.23 in 1939.

The Labor Department has figured out that the average factory worker, although receiving a raise of 128.1 per cent since 1939, has gained only 30.9 per cent in purchasing power. The bituminous coal miners have increased their purchasing power 83.2 per cent.

But some other kinds of employees have done much more. Brokerage house employees' real wages went up only 3.6 per cent. The real wages of employees of insurance firms have dropped 14.9 per cent.

The President's Council of Economic Advisors said in its year-end report: "Substantial wage increases are still called for in a number of instances where wages are sub-standard." But the council added: "Pushing for the highest possible wage advance is dangerous to the economy in a period when that advance necessitates even higher prices."

British Baronet Is "See Britain" Urger
LONDON (AP)—A British baronet who has spent years in the United States has been given the job of luring dollar-spending American travelers to this dollar-short country.

The British Travel Association named Sir Harold Boulton, 56, to be chief representative of the "Come To Britain" organization in North America.

Until recently he was special U. S. representative of a Canadian hotel and resort group. He worked for the American Crocking Co. of Louisville and the Barrett Manufacturing Co. of New York before and during World War I. In 1918 he married Louise McGowan of Indianapolis.

Britain expects to earn more than $60 million this year from 130,000 visitors from the United States and 20,000 from Canada.

How To Prepare, What To Do Are Keys In Atlantic Treaty

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atlantic Pact has two key sections, and you'll hear about them from Congress.

This country—with Canada, Britain, France, Norway, Belgium, Luxembourg, The Netherlands—wrote the pact as a defense against Russia.

Their reason: If they're ready for attack, they may not be attacked at all; but if attacked, they'll be ready. But—unless the Senate approves, we can't take part in the pact. It's expected to.

Before the Senate says all right, the two key sections mentioned above will draw the heaviest examination and argument.

Their arc: How to prepare against an attack, and what to do if the attack comes.

How to prepare against attack—There are 14 articles in the 1949 pact, and Article 3, one of the keys, says:

"In order more effectively to achieve the objectives of this treaty, the parties, separately and jointly, by means of continuous and effective self-help and mutual aid, will maintain and develop their individual and collective capacity to resist armed attack."

Help Seives, One Another
It means they agree to help themselves and one another, prepare. Since we're best able to help, most of the helping depends on us.

To do that, President Truman is expected to ask Congress for $1,000,000,000 or more. He may get some strong opposition on the grounds we're spending too much money already.

Yet, in case of Russian attack, the European countries would be our first line of defense.

What to do if an attack comes—Article 5 is the other key section. It says that if one of the pact Allies is attacked, the others, singly and jointly, will give it such help as each "deems necessary, including the use of armed force."

That part about what each "deems necessary" is a loophole for any ally who wanted to use it.

Would we have to go to war? Asked about it, Secretary of State Acheson said "It is true nobody can force us to do it. But we will do what we have contracted to do."

This pact can't say outright that we'll go to war if an ally is attacked. Only Congress can put us into war—formally—by declaring war.

Oil Well Gas Fire Jolts South Houston

HOUSTON (AP)—A rip-roaring oil well gas fire shook South Houston homes late Wednesday, lighting up the night skies and tied up traffic in the area for hours before being subdued after blazing for more than nine hours.

The flame came in a bursting flash shortly after 6 p.m. and was seen for more than 20 miles, according to telephone reports.

Officials of the Production Maintenance Company, which was drilling an adjacent well, said the burning gas came from the R. Y. Smith Drive in the South Houston oil field.

The blaze was extinguished about 4 a.m. Thursday after more than 40 workmen pumped hundreds of sacks of drilling mud into the burning hole, smothering the fire.

J. K. Butler, vice president of the drilling company, reported that a nearby toothhouse, which housed pumping equipment for the drilling crew, was burned to the ground and that the rig and rig crewmen escaped injury.

No estimate of the damage was available immediately, but it was believed the partially drilled well would have to be abandoned.

Repeal Old 'Hoss' Thief Law, Other Outmoded Statutes

HARRISBURG, PA. (AP)—It may come as a blow to anti-horse thief societies but Pennsylvania legislators are repealing a 128-year-old law against horse stealing.

It's a part of a move to rid the state's legal code of ancient, outmoded statutes.

The house okayed a repealer to wipe out "an act to encourage the apprehension of persons who shall have committed the crime of horse stealing."

Also approved were bills repealing:

1. A law "prohibiting the discharge from public posts of union soldiers without reasonable cause."

2. An act providing "enumeration of taxable inhabitants and slaves within this commonwealth."

3. A law giving fisherman permission to catch terrapin, a form of turtles, on Sunday.

Midland Club Will Be Represented At JayCee Convention

Midlanders will be included among the almost 2,000 delegates and their wives at the annual state convention of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce to be held in Galveston March 31 through April 2.

More than 125 local JayCee units will be represented.

Highlight of the convention will be the keynote address at a luncheon April 1 by Gov. Sidney S. McMath of Arkansas. Educated in his native state, the governor worked his way through school, studied law, joined the Army and came out with the Silver Star and Legion of Merit for his campaigns at Guadalcanal and Bougainville, where he received a battlefield promotion to lieutenant colonel.

A few months out of the Army he became prosecuting attorney for two years, and left that office for the governor's mansion at the beginning of this year.

Other noted speakers for the convention also include Congressman Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls; George O. Baird, Jr., vice president of the USJCC, Shreveport; Tex Roberts, editor Future Magazine, USJCC, Tulsa, and Cliff Cooper, national chairman, JayCee War Memorial Fund, Pasadena, Calif.

Business of the organization will be handled in other periods, with recommendations of the state executive committee and acceptance of local clubs, reports of the present officers and appointment of committees.

The inaugural banquet will be held at the Galvez Hotel, after election of officers and selection of the 1950 convention city during the afternoon of April 2.

The Kiss of Freedom

Holding a small American flag in his hand, Robak Kazimierz, 33-year-old Polish carpenter, drops to his knees and kisses the soil of the "promised land" in New Orleans, La. He arrived with a group of 848 European displaced persons aboard the Army Transport General Sturgis.

Operation Cowlift

Hot Shot, a cow belonging to Ray Kaufman, upper right, Halstead, Kan., farmer, doesn't care for the mechanical hoist. While being milked for the first time with a new milking machine, Hot Shot had enough of modern civilization and bolted upstairs to the hayloft. It took three men to hobble her and give the cow her first trip in the air.

Foot, Mouth Threat Still Exists, Says Association Chief

HOUSTON—(P)—The president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association Thursday said the nation's economy still is threatened by the dread foot and mouth disease in Mexico.

Bryan Edwards of Henrietta said, "The danger to us and to our industry with consequent danger to the economy of the whole country is no less real today than it was a year ago."

In his annual report before the concluding session of the association's seventy second annual convention, Edwards said the support of the fight against the disease "is required and will be given."

Two officials of the commission, Senator Oscar Flores, Mexican undersecretary of agriculture for livestock, and Gen. Harry H. Johnson of Houston, earlier this week made reports to the convention on the fight's progress.

Edwards said it is very pleasant to know a spirit of cooperation exists between the two countries.

Boyle Gazes Into Woman's World Future

NEW YORK—(P)—News Item—"Professor says women are natural peacemakers and proposes they rule world for next thousand years. Predicts there would be fewer wars."

It was the year 3001, the thousandth anniversary of woman's rule of the world.

The morning dawned cold and clear. A skinny, undersized man and a runt boy, both clad in patchy rabbit fur, crawled shivering from their hill cave.

The two were father and son. With numb hands they began to collect bits of firewood, glancing constantly around to see that no wild animal crept upon them. From inside the cave came the sound of heavy snoring.

"We must hurry and make the cave warm," said the man nervously, "or your mother will beat us with a club when she wakens."

There Was A Time
The little boy sighed moodily. "Sometimes I wish we hunted for the food and ruled the cave instead of mother," he said.

"Rule the cave?" snorted his father. "Why, boy, there was a time when men ruled the whole world. That was the time when the earth was full of people."

"Once people lived together in great cities and were ruled by men. They had weapons that could kill animals at great distances."

"What happened?" said the boy, who didn't believe a word of it.

"Well, the men turned their weapons against each other and there was a long series of great wars. Finally, women asked if they could rule. And the men, weary of killing, agreed."

"At first there was peace for a hundred years. But then, so grandpa told me, power corrupted women, as it does all people. They became vain and greedy. And they fought among themselves, and war came again into the world."

War Of The Girldes
"Women first fought by nations, destroying each other's men and children. Then came the great vanity wars—first, the war of the girldes and then the war of the brassieres."

"What are brassieres and girldes?"

"No one remembers," said the father. "Perhaps they were terrible religions of some kind. But their followers have all died out now."

"And when shall we finally have peace in the world?" asked the boy.

"Soon," said the man. "Soon—when your mother and I are gone. You'll have peace, all to yourself alone."

Just then a deep contralto voice growled sleepily from the cave: "What are you two silly menfolk doing out there?"

The boy—the little snitch—ran fawning toward the cave. "Coming, mother dear," he said. "Father's been telling me lies again."

Ex-Convict Handed Five-Year Term As Holdup Accomplice

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—Paul Tomlin, 38, Dallas ex-convict, was sentenced to five years here Wednesday after conviction as a holdup accomplice.

It was the only accomplice case of its kind tried during the last 26 years in the court of Judge W. E. McCrory.

Tomlin was charged as an accomplice in the hotel room holdup of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Moody and Carlisle Lynton, San Antonio oilman, last October 2.

Tomlin also faces charges as a principal in the robbery. The accomplice charge accused Tomlin of encouraging, commanding and advising the holdup.

James A. McFadin, 18, Arlington, who admitted the holdup, was placed on probation after being given a five-year sentence.

Japanese Volcano Spits Smoke, Ashes

TOKYO—(P)—Fiery Mount Asama spewed smoke and ashes 10,000 feet into the air Thursday.

The treacherous Central Honshu volcano, one of the two largest of Japan's 500 volcanoes, is 8,340 feet high. It is in Gumma Prefecture, U. S. Army Pvt. G. L. Glimmer of Elizabeth, Pa., is at the resort hotel Mompel near the volcano. He said Japanese Meteorological Service observers were at the base of the volcano, which vies each Summer with Mount Aso, Japan's other large active cone.

For nearly two years Americans in the resort hotel near Mount Asama have been forbidden to approach the lower slopes of the volcano.

Youth Center Chatter

By JUNE HAZLIP AND JOYCE HOWELL

Well, here we are again, kids, so put on your reading specs, settle down in your easy chair and let's see what happened at our Youth Center. Say, Kids, we're going to have another ping-pong tournament. We found our faults on the last one and this one will be twice as good. Here are the rules: Sign up before Tuesday. Girls and boys singles, girls and boys doubles, and mixed doubles are the five groups. The games will be held on Saturday, April 2. Names will be drawn by officials to see who plays who and where. There will be a time set for each game and if you are not there you lose by forfeit. There will be an official in charge of each game and a schedule will be posted. Corky Moss and Moe Fries are in charge of this tournament and it looks as though they are off to a good start.

Several of the Youth Center members were seen in the film "Midland, My Home Town." We couldn't begin to name them all, but our congratulations go to those lucky ones that finally "made Hollywood."

We think this week's Medal of Honor should go to Maggie Murphy for her acting in "Midland, My Home Town." You really made quite a hit, Maggie!

Two of our members are back with us for awhile. John Torbett and Leon Cline. John is visiting here on a three week's vacation from school in Pennsylvania.

Have you ever stopped to listen to the cute saying and expressions around the Youth Center? Here are a few we just happened to pick up!

Bill Adams—"Oh, My sching back!"
Peggy Minear—"Well, Charge!"
Gloria Anguish—"Pokey!"
Mike Brunner—"How Mean!"
Roselyn Leggett—"Crunch!"
Howard Ischar—"Wal, I'll say!"
Peggy Charleton—"Pokey-doo!"
Ben Stany—"Is that right?"

Buddy Johnson—"Cheez, Guys!"
Gail Baker—"Oh, Disgust!"
Shirley Pulliam—"Shoot a Monkey!"
Pat Douglas—"It's all shot!"
These expressions and others usually are heard around the "Goalee" machine and the ping-pong tables!

The Youth Center got four new members this week—Charles Davis, Clara Bryan, Darlene Culp and Bobby Jenkins. Welcome to the Youth Center, "you all!"

Here are a few names we never see in the register. Why, kids! Dorothy Blackman, Ruth Anguish, Adair Leggett, Hoyt Stuedert, Eugene Morgan, Carl Buford Harding, Noyes Turner, William Faris, Eleanor Finch, Ella Ferguson, Gadsden Jenkins, and Howard Hanway. In case you don't recognize these people by their middle names, here they are as we know them: Adele, Gloria, Roselyn, Bek, "Red," Joe Charles, Theresa, Jean, Bobby and Dwayne. (We now will take a fast boat to somewhere!)

To Alpine

We will miss several of our members this weekend. They are going to Alpine for an Intercollegiate League meet. The acappella choir and choral club and several of our more talented pianists are going.

Dick Monroe, Alex Oates and Red Morgan, three of our most faithful Youth Center members, will sing a trio at contest. Good luck, boys, we hope you bring back a first!

Our "Goalee" machine has many players, some good, some bad, and some beginners. Sidney Smith was learning to play the other day. She caught on fast and won several games. Caution Kids! When Sidney plays she really gets into the game, and any one near her is likely to get kicked when she makes a score!

Two of our more expert players, John Zant and Corky Moss, were seen trying to get a new twist into the game. They played with their eyes closed and then with their backs to the machines!

Center Laughs

Have you ever listened to the various laughs of the Youth Center members? Jimmy Don Dayemport has a laugh so loud and so shrill it scares you to death. (Course it's put on!) Nancy McKinley has a low chuckle, while Camilla Birkhead's laughter is heard easily. Dick Monroe seldom really laughs, but when he does it's really quite a deep, bass, laugh.

Have you ever called the Youth Center only to be "greeted by laughter or witty remarks? We bent our roving ears to the Youth Center phone this week and here are a few typical greetings: "Engel's Insane Asylum, Which cell, Please!" "En-gel's Jail, Deputy Joe speaking! Mr. Engel? I think he has halled out, one moment and I'll see!" "Kelly's Pool Hall! Little Eight Ball speaking!" "Willy's Nut House, Napoleon speaking!" (Boles!) "Grand Central Station, Trunk 22."

We mentioned boys' hair styles a few weeks ago, so now it's time for the news about the girls' hair styles! Everything from featherouts to very long bobs are being sported in every color from light blonde to dark brown and black! Lynn Griffith has a cute style with her hair flat on top and curled on the ends! Shirley Harrison wears her hair quite long, while Jean Ferguson seems to like short hair! Favy hair becomes Peggy Simmons and Joy Clayton wear a bang! In the color department, L. Black has the darkest and Wiltona Armontrout the lightest! Sue Johnson's red hair is outstanding and so is the chestnut brown of Wilma Lake's.

Wandering Thoughts

How does Dwayne Hanway manage to win so many games on the "Goalee" machine? That boy is almost undefeatable!

French, German, Latin, and Spanish are a few of the languages we hear around the Youth Center. Oh to be brilliant enough to understand them!

Several of the Youth Center members are taking art lessons now. We'll expect to see some of your work on the bulletin board. Kids! Who knows, we may have some budding Rembrandt in our midst!

The juke-box certainly livens things up, doesn't it.

Have you noticed the novel way Gloria Anguish wears her glasses? We noticed Emily Hamilton hasn't been bringing "Troubles" to the Youth Center lately.

Sure glad to see Toya back from Panama. Seems like she was gone a year! Did you miss us, Toya?

What was John Torbett doing crawling around on the floor? Back to childhood, John?

Bobby Jenkins seems to be quite a good ping-pong player!

We had several visitors from Odessa the other night. Let's hope they come back soon!

Well, that about takes care of this week. So, "Goobee" until next week!

COBBLERS' FESTIVAL

Monday is humorously canonized as "St. Monday," the festival of cobblers. Cobblers were supposed, not to know on which day the feast of St. Crispin, their patron saint, fell, except that it should be a Monday, so they celebrated the patron's feast every Monday.

Doctors have a much higher mortality rate than have either lawyers or clergymen.

MOUSE MAKES LIKE A WREN

GRAYVILLE, ILL. —(AP)—The sounds with a musical quality prompted Mr. and Mrs. James G. Rot to peek into their utility room. Possibly a wren had got into the room somehow, they thought. What they saw so astonished them that they called over a neighbor, Mrs. Mildred Wimsatt. They swear that a mouse was warbling and tweeting with all the gusto of a bird.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR NOW TURNED PRIEST

CAMBRIDGE, ENG. —(AP)— Archie Veness, once a detective inspector of London Metropolitan police at Scotland Yard, is to be ordained next June as a priest in the Church of England.

Veness, who is 55 and is from Pednor, is studying at Trinity College here. He spent 26 years as a policeman and retired in 1947.

"I saw many good things a clergyman could do and I wanted to do my bit," he says. "I have ideas about getting at young people before they get into mischief."

Midland And Buildings Featured In Two Magazines—"Skyscraper" And "Buildings"

Gracing the cover of the March issue of Skyscraper Management, a building trades magazine published in Chicago, is Midland's majestic Petroleum Building.

Inside the magazine's covers is a two-page spread entitled, "The Growth of Midland, Texas." The article is accompanied by pictures of five of Midland's modern office buildings. They are the First National, McClinic, Midland Tower, Leggett and Wilkinson-Poster buildings.

A picture of Ralph H. Geisler, manager of the Petroleum and McClinic buildings, accompanies the article.

Midland received still more publicity in an article in the March issue of Buildings, another trade magazine published in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. The story is accompanied by an aerial view of the business section.

The reading matter of the two stories is identical since they were furnished by the same person, C. B. Jackson, executive secretary, Texas State Association of Building Owners and Managers.

The "deck" reading of the Midland article's headline in Skyscraper Management says: Prepares For 196,000

"It is astonishing to find 14 office buildings in a small town of 36,200 population. The fastest growing 'little city' in Texas is preparing for 100,000 people by 1960."

Midland, which had a population of 2,449 in 1920, now has 14 office buildings with 333,300 square feet of office space, the article points out.

"The new six-story McClinic Building is Midland's largest with 71,000 square feet of office space.

An additional nine stories (87,000 square feet) will be added this year to make the building the largest between Fort Worth and Los Angeles.

"The 12-story Petroleum Building, owned by Wyatt C. Hedrick, well-known architect and engineer of Texas, was completed in 1927 and has been managed for the past 21 years by Geisler. It has 62,000 square feet of office space.

"The nine-story Midland Tower was completed in 1948. Modern in every respect and completely air conditioned, it also has 62,000 square feet of office space.

"The Wilkinson-Poster Building has 20,000 and the eight-story First National Bank Building 24,000 square feet of office space. The other buildings range in size from 20,000 square feet of space downward.

"The building of office space Midland has complete confidence in the future and are building for a city of 100,000 population by 1960.

"This viewpoint is not based on wishful thinking. There are 250 oil company and affiliate offices operating in the area which has 29,128 producing wells with daily production of 988,821 barrels and an estimated ultimate recovery of over eight billion barrels."

OFF TO MEET SUNDAY

The Christian Youth Fellowship of the First Christian Church will meet at 8 p.m. Sunday at the First Christian Church, it was announced Wednesday.

Easter Glory Cake Is Simple

The Easter season motif is carried out in this white cake with a nest of coconut and colored eggs.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

For Easter, you may want a Glory Cake gleaming white with a green coconut nest filled with candy eggs. It is easily made with a simplified recipe and only two eggs.

Easter Glory Cake

Preparations: Have shortening at room temperature. Line bottoms of 2 deep 8-inch layer cake pans with paper; grease. Start oven for moderate heat, 375 degrees F. Sift flour once before measuring. Lift by spoonfuls into the cup until piled high, then level off by drawing spatula or straight knife across top. Do not pack or shake down.

Measure into sifter: 1 3/4 cups sifted cake flour, 2 1/4 teaspoons double-acting baking power, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup plus 2 table-spoons sugar.

Measure into mixing bowl: 1/2 cup shortening.

Measure into cup: milk (with butter, margarine or lard, use 2/3 cup minus 1 tablespoon milk); (with vegetable or any other shortening use 2/3 cup milk), 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Have ready 2 eggs, unbeaten.

Method: Stir shortening just to soften. Sift in dry ingredients. Add milk and mix until all flour is dampened. Then beat 300 strokes by hand or 2 minutes in mixer. Add eggs and beat 150 strokes or 1 minute in mixer. Mix cake by hand or at low speed of electric mixer. Count only actual beating strokes or beating time. Scrape bowl and spoon or beater often. Turn into pans. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 minutes or until done. Cool in pans on cake racks 5 minutes. Then loosen from sides with spatula, turn out, remove paper and turn right-side up on racks to cool before frosting.

Frosting: Spread 7-minute frosting between layers and on sides and top of cake. The nest of Easter eggs is made by tinting long shreds of moist coconut with green food coloring. Vari-colored candy eggs (jelly beans) are placed in the nest.

Polish Army Men Told Be Marxists

WARSAW, POLAND—(AP)—Polish army officers have been told they must be devout believers in Marxist-Leninist principles. Furthermore, they have been ordered to use all "propaganda devices" to sell that doctrine to all men under their command.

Col. Leon Grosfeld, writing in the Polish army newspaper "Polska Zbrojna," said: "Our officers must come to realize that to work on the broadening of his mental horizon, to definitely shape his outlook upon life, that to study Marxism-Leninism is not something remote from the army and having no connection with it. He must realize that the better he has mastered Marxism-Leninism, the more rapid will be his progress along the path of military excellence, the better will he perform his professional duties, the better will he serve his country."

BRUSSELS—(AP)—Banks, cafes and shops in Belgium are displaying large posters showing photographs and descriptions of counterfeit 1,000 francs notes now circulating in the country. The posters, issued by the National Bank, show up the faults in the engraving.
The public is being asked to learn the faults and report any counterfeits to the authorities. Belgian bank notes of 1,000 francs have a printed warning to the effect that "Counterfeits will be sentenced to hard labor." This warning has been faithfully reproduced by the forger.

Intends To Enforce Senate Debate Rules

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Vice President Barkley, who presides over the Senate, has given the senators fair warning he intends to enforce the rules of debate.
He said that heretofore some of the rules have been violated by unanimous consent, because the issue seemed trivial, or because some senators were reluctant to make a point of order against another senator who may be violating rules.
So, Barkley said, it appeared to be up to the vice president to enforce the rules.
He warned the senators that when they have the floor for a speech they are not compelled to yield to another senator.
"During debate on a motion (to take up a bill or resolution) x x x or matter which may be pending, the rules of the Senate provide that a senator can yield to another senator only for a question," the vice president explained.
"He is not required to yield for any purpose. He may yield only for the purpose of permitting another senator to ask him a question.
"If he yields for any other purpose and running debate ensues, which frequently happens, more or less by unanimous consent, and in violation of the rules, he may be taken from the floor by reason of the violation of the rules."
A long discussion followed. Some senators weren't quite sure they understood the rule. They were afraid they would be "taken from the floor" by violating a rule without knowing they were violating it.
The vice president suggested they might protect themselves by asking the unanimous consent of the other senators to permit another senator to interrupt them while they were talking.
Senator Hayden had the floor at this point. With the vice president's warning still fresh in his mind, he opened his speech this way:
"Mr. President, I now grant myself unanimous consent to proceed."

Daddy Ringtail

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail and The Uphill River

Monkey children like to know about things, just as other people do, and Bobby Ringtail was down by the river with a glass of the kind that you drink out of. He was trying to find some water that would pour up instead of down when you pour it out. He dipped and dipped the glass in the water.

He poured and poured the water out. All of it poured down and back in the river where the water was hurrying on down to the sea. None of the water poured up. Daddy Ringtail explained that the water all poured down because the river was a downhill river. All of its water was water that poured down, or flowed down, or went down instead of up.

And so Bobby said: "Daddy Ringtail, are there any uphill rivers — rivers that have water that goes up instead of down?" Daddy Ringtail explained that he didn't know of a river like that, one where the water flowed up instead of down. He said that maybe a river sometime, somewhere, had tried to be an uphill river.

"Imagine that!" said Bobby. "Yes," Daddy Ringtail said, "maybe a river somewhere sometime tried to be an uphill river with water that flows up, but you can see for yourself what an unhappy thing it would be. "Can I?" said Bobby.

Daddy Ringtail explained that anyone could see what an unhappy thing it would be. Just suppose that you had an uphill river. Then all the water would go up the river from the sea until it was empty. The fish in the sea would have no water to swim in, and finally, at last, there wouldn't be any more water in the river even, because all of it would have gone up. "And so," Daddy Ringtail explained, "if there ever was an uphill river, it quit being a river a long time ago, because it didn't have any more uphill water."

But Bobby asked, "What happened to the uphill water?" "Well," Daddy Ringtail said, "I guess it went on up the river and up the hills and up in the air where we never see it any more. And so you see it's a happy thing that all the water now pours down instead of up. You won't ever try to change it, will you? Happy day, and look for another adventure tomorrow!

Dutch Farmers To "Study" Americans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thirty-three young Dutch farmers soon will arrive in this country to live six months with American farm families and learn American agricultural techniques. The Economic Co-operation Administration said the group will reach Hoboken, N. J., about April 7. The project is being financed by ECIA—at a total cost of $4,000—to help boost the Netherlands' farm production.

Ham Is Favorite For Easter

Glazed, fully-cooked, ready-to-eat ham makes an Easter feast without kitchen drudgery. By GAYNOR MADDOX, NEA Staff Writer

How about an Easter buffet supper built around a ham—but no ham to cook? It can be done with one of the hams with the "ready-to-eat, fully cooked" notation on it. Home economists of the Swift Company laboratories have planned an Easter buffet menu exclusively for this column. They suggest that the colors and subtle new flavors of this season run rampant in the buffet menu. With the ham, serve creamed or scalloped potatoes, green peas or tender green stalks of asparagus, a colorful relish tray with assorted crisp vegetables and, since it is Easter, golden and white deviled egg halves.

A basket of hot buttered rolls should stand nearby. A dessert of a fruited gelatin ring served with a bowl of fluffy whipped cream dressing in the center will be the perfect climax to the meal.

The "ready-to-eat, fully-cooked" notation on the ham insures complete protection for you in serving this type of ham without further cooking. You may wish to score the fat on top of the ham in uniform diagonal lines and add cloves or a favorite glaze. A combination of brown sugar and mustard is excellent for a glaze or honey or a fruit marmalade may be used. Put the ham in the oven only long enough to produce a beautiful golden tinge to add to the eye-appeal of the ham; 15 minutes in a hot (400 degrees F.) oven will do the trick. Or you may wish to purchase an already glazed fully cooked ham garnished with a circle of pineapple and a maraschino cherry, all ready for the buffet table.

Garnish for the ham should be colorful, edible and appropriate for Easter. A novel and gay garnish consists of tiny flowerets of thin carrot slices centered with half dark ripe olive. The carrot flowerets are easily prepared and lend just the right perky Springtime touch to the ham.

Welch Grape Juice Company Celebrates 80th Anniversary

NEW YORK—A gala fiesta celebrating the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the Welch Grape Juice Company will be held this Fall at Westfield, N. Y., along the southern shore of Lake Erie. It was at Westfield that Dr. Thomas Welch built the first plant for the then new company 80 years ago. Dr. Welch, some years previously, had become the first man to bottle an unfermented grape drink made from pure concord grapes. He developed the grape juice for communion services for his church in Vineland, N. J., and it was here that his friends prevailed upon him to bottle the juice for home use. From a small beginning in 1866, the Welch Grape Juice Company has grown until today it owns eight plants and sells more than 38 different products. As a birthday gift to American families, company officials said Welch's Grape Juice is being offered at the lowest price in history.
