Alaskans Fly In On Fourth

Hundreds of persons made their way to Colorado City from all parts of the country to join in Fourth of July celebrations by attending the Annual Fly-In.

Main attraction of the day proved to be a mammoth United States Air Force C-130, which was flown here from Dyess Air Force Base, in Abilene.

Sightseers toured the plane continually from 7 a.m. until lift-off at 3 p.m.

Daring stunt pilots thrilled the throngs who, with faces lifted skyward, watched as planes swooped, dived and, just when they appeared to be completely out of control, stralghtened their flight paths and zoomed into one more stunt.

Parachute exhibitionists delighted audiences with precision free-fall demonstrations.

Chamber members served breakfast to about seventy pilots who flew in to take part in the festivities.

This was a real family affair, with most of the pilots bringing their families.

Trophies were awarded to several of the pilots.

Bob and Mary Bright won the trophy for flying the farthest to attend the Fly-In. They flew 26½ hours, all the way from Anchorage, Alaska. See FLY Page 2

Despite the wind, heat and discomfort, hundreds of people flocked to the Fourth of July Fly-In, making it one of the most successful ever held. For those of you who missed the affair, I offer my condolences and suggest you try to attend next year. It was great fun.

With Fiesta Day and the AJRA Rodeo coming up, my vacation has been delayed until the first of August.

I started looking around for something to do that would be entertaining, educational and inexpensive and I came up with a dandy, the University of Texas Institute of Texan Cultures' 1980 Texas Folklife Festival.

The festival is held July 31 through August 3 at the HemisFair Plaza, in San Antonio.

It presents about 6,000 people representing 31 different cultural and ethnic groups from across the state.

The concept of the folklife festival is to present and preserve Texas heritage and traditions.

Tickets are only $3 and all types of transportation from different areas of San Antonio are available.

The point that really attracted me to the festival is the fact that visitors become active participants in the festivities.

Some roll up their sleeves, seize a saw to help build an outdoor kitchen and others sit at the feet of a gray-haired grandmother and learn a style of tatting that is generations old.

Since Texas was settled by a very diversified group of nationalities, such cultures as Norwegian, Lebanese, German, Polish, Indian, Mexican and Filipino will be represented at the festival.

I'm really looking forward to all that "great food."

Anyone interested in the festival can write to Texan Cultures, P.O. Box 1228, San Antonio, TX 78294 or telephone 512-226-7651.

The Senate Finance Committee on Wednesday approved legislation to provide relief to small royalty owners, hit hard by the so called "windfall profit" tax.

It still has to be approved by the full Senate, House and signed by the President.

This amendment to the Crude Oil Windfall Profit Tax Act of 1980 permits royalty owners, when they file their annual income tax returns, to apply for a refund of up to $1,000.

This amendment was co-sponsored by Senator Lloyd Bentsen.

Bentsen will preside over hearings by the Finance Subcommittee on Taxation and Debt Management, in Austin, on July 17. The hearing will explore See COLUMN Page 3

Classroom Addition Planned

Specifications for a portable classroom building to be constructed for use at Hutchinson School was the subject of a 7 a.m. meeting of the Colorado Independent School District Board of Trustees Thursday.

The building is to be constructed under a $32,000 federal grant.

It is to be about 24 feet by 64 feet. The building will be divided into two classrooms and two restrooms (furnished with handicapped fixtures, exhaust fans and other equipment for handicapped persons).

The board discussed the possibility of a slab or pier and beam foundation.

Superintendent Charlie Uselton reported he has been in contact with contractors and they have indicated the pier and beam foundation would be constructed at a lesser cost.

Board members decided to accept bids on both type foundations.

The exterior of the building may be constructed of metal or pre-fab material.

The roof of the building may be fiberglass, metal or asphalt. The board ruled out shingles because of the increased cost of fire insurance on wood roofing material.

A central unit for heating and cooling will be installed in each classroom.

The board voted to advertise for bids to be opened during the regular board meeting July 14 at 7 p.m. in the Administration Building.

The board also discussed progress of the air conditioning projects at Kelley Elementary and Hutchinson Elementary Schools.

The project at Hutchinson School has been completed but the Kelley School project has been delayed.

Additional assistance may be required to complete that project, according to Board Member Mac Morris.

Auto Theft Closed By Look-Alike Discovery

Remember the car stolen from the Root Memorial Hospital last week? It's been found.

Colorado City Police were contacted on June 22 by an employee of the hospital who reported her car stolen.

She said she had reported for work, leaving her car parked on the south parking lot between Root Valley Fair Lodge and the hospital.

Friday, the police received a report that a car matching the description of the stolen vehicle was parked in the new parking lot in front of the hospital. Upon investigating the matter, police determined the vehicle did match the description, but it belonged to a patient who had been in the hospital for over a week.

Upon further investigation, the police found the stolen vehicle parked in the driveway of the hospitalized person. Both cars were identical in appearance.

It seems the patient had requested a friend drive her car home because she was to be in the hospital for an extended period.

The keys were left in the parked car and the friend, seeing the car which looked like the right one, drove the car to the friend's house and parked it in the driveway.

Both vehicles were returned to the proper owners and the police filed the report under "solved."

One man received major injuries and one man was only slightly injured in a motorcycle, car collision Sunday.

Food and utility costs at the Civic Center will be reviewed and considered by council members to determine if the current charges are adequate to cover costs.

City employees are covered under the Texas Municipal Retirement Plan. Mason will discuss the possibility of increasing the plan to cover death and disability benefits too.

In his Manager's Report, Mason will report that the curtailment on watering lawns between the hours of 4 p.m. and 10 p.m., has done some good."

Mason said Thursday that citizens are voluntarily complying with the request and the storage tank is "holding its ground."

been mailed to all AJRA members, however, any member or non-member needing a form may contact the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce at 723-3403.

Besides the regular rodeo events, a special "Calf Dressing" contest will be held.

Three-man teams (women may participate too) consisting of persons from local organizations or groups will converge on a "helpless" little calf and try to civilize it by placing items of clothing on it.

"This crazy event alone is worth the price of admission," Rodeo Chairman Kenneth Beasley said.

Beardless Males To Face Calaboose "Fiesta Day"

Men with clean shaven faces beware, "Fiesta Day" is fast approaching.

"Fiesta Day" is a Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce project in conjunction with American Junior Rodeo week.

"Fiesta Day" will be filled with fun and surprises.

On "Fiesta Day," July 22, any man not supporting a full beard will be apprehended and placed in jail," Chamber of Commerce Manager Starr Greenblatt said.

Men not choosing to grow a beard may purchase a permit for $2.50 to prevent a fine or jail sentence.

Women have not been left out of this project either. Women must dress in Western attire on "Fiesta Day" or they too will go straight to jail or pay a fine.

They may, however, purchase a similar permit for $2.50.

Chamber Ambassadors will act as marshals, apprehending offenders and collecting fines.

If arrested, persons must spend 15 minutes in the "calaboose" or forfeit a fine of $5.

"This is all being done in a spirit of good will and fun. Anyone not wishing to participate will not be subjected to the fine or jailing," Ms. Greenblatt said.

A beard growing contest will be held toward the end of the day. The "calaboose" will be located in the vicinity of Walnut Street between First and Second Streets.

This area will be roped-off from 7 p.m. See BEARD Page 2

Chamber Brushes Poised For "Painting Day" Finale

The Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors are scheduled to set plans for the Rodeo Arena Paint Day during their regularly scheduled meeting Monday at 7 p.m. in the Chamber Office.

The purpose of the Paint Day is to complete renovations of the rodeo arena.

All chamber members and interested persons are requested to be at the arena about 8 a.m. Saturday to help paint fences, bleachers and stands.

All paint and equipment will be supplied by See DAY Page 3

Youths From Payne Chapel Attend District Conference In Lubbock

Three youths from the Payne Chapel, in Colorado City, attended the Abilene District Christian Methodist Episcopal Conference, in Lubbock.

Attending the conference were Daphne

Fowler, Judy Feathers and Jean Johnson. They were under the supervision of Mrs. Dorothy Fowler.

During the conference the youth were involved in learning activities which were broken up into age and school levels. The classes were designed to teach the youth to prepare themselves for Christian leadership.

"The Story Telling Man" was an activity in which all age groups participated. This is a children's musical by Ken Medema. It retells the story of the Prodigal Son and the Lost Coin.

The youths were also offered the opportunity to demonstrate their talents in the categories of choral, solo, quartets, oratorical, speech, instrumental, drama, skits and choral reading.

The local winner during the conference was Daphne Fowler. She demonstrated skills in a twirling routine. As a result of her winning performance she was awarded a third place certificate.

During the youth conference the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church admonishes the seniors who graduated by offering encouragement to pursue both spiritual and educational growth in their future objectives.

Charles Jackson was awarded a certificate of recognition as a 1980 graduate.

Rockwell Lumber and Higginbotham Bartlett Lumber Companies.

Chamber members will also hear a report on plans and progress for the American Junior Rodeo to be held July 23-26.

An update on "Fiesta Day," July 22, will be presented and discussed.

Availability and placement of rodeo buntings will be considered by the directors. Also on the agenda is a review of the Chamber sponsored Fourth of July Fly-In held Friday at the airport northwest of the city.

The United Girls' Softball Tournament is to be discussed during the meeting and Soil Conservation Service Director Van Mills will present information on a speaker for the Farm Tour.

Ambassadors will hold their quarterly meeting at noon Monday at the Villa Restaurant.

Producers Asked To Certify Acres

There are only 23 days remaining in which producers may certify planted acres.

Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Service Director Don Stewart reminded producers, "To be eligible for benefits such as disaster payments, deficiency payments and commodity loans, producers must file an accurate acreage report at ASCS by August 1."

"If a producer's acreage is found out of tolerance, the farm is ineligible for any benefits," he noted.

Any producer in doubt of acreage measurements may take advantage of the ASCS measuring service for a small fee.

"Producers have a tolerance of 1.0 acre or 5 per cent of reported acres, not to exceed 40 acres," Stewart said.

"If you are in doubt of acreage, we will measure any field or farm," he said.

Stewart also reminded producers the program for livestock feeding has been discontinued.

Producers have until July 30 to report any feed tickets to the ASCS Office for program benefits.

Any producer having destroyed acres by natural disaster is requested to contact the ASCS Office before making another use of the land in order to be eligible under the disaster program.

problems the new tax is causing for royalty owners. There are between 600,000 and 650,000 royalty owners in this state. If even half of them would write or contact their Senator or Congressman to express an opinion on the tax, it would create instant interest because of the sheer numbers.

It was reported by one elderly couple, dependent on a monthly Social Security check of $216.70 and a royalty check of $114.45 that after deduction of an $8.11 production tax and the $36.72 "windfall profit" tax, their royalty check amounted to only $69.62.

I totally agree with the statement that a tendency exists to believe that the so called "windfall profit" tax is targeted solely at the major oil companies, which, according to "conventional wisdom," stand to reap huge, unearned profits from oil decontrol.

Ask the blue collar worker, whose $6 royalty check has been cut to $4, who's footing the bill for the tax.

A new organization has been formed recently. About 350 royalty owners from seven states formed the National Association of Royalty Owners.

The purpose of the organization is to fight the effects of and repeal the Windfall Profits Oil Excise Tax.

If you're interested, contact the Permian Basin Petroleum Association, P.O. Box 132, Midland, TX 79702 for information.

The House and Senate are in recess now and return to Washington July 20. It's a good time to catch your representatives at home.

A most quotable quote comes back to me right here. It came from Sergeant Oil and Gas Co.'s publication "Sound-Off." It goes something like this:

"Energy never will be discovered, developed or conserved by governmental decree nearly as well as by incentive. The United States industrial economy was built by energy brought forth by incentive. The energy...and the economy...will disappear as the result of decrees which fail to understand the key role of incentive in maintaining and adding to energy supplies."

B&PW Club Has Formal Installation Of Officers In C.C. Thompson Room

The Colorado City Business and Professional Women's Club had a formal installation ceremony June 26 in the C.C. Thompson Room for their new club officers for the 1980-81 year.

Nelda Garrett was the installing officer and Virginia Dearen was mistress of ceremonies.

Margaret Ann Conway, past president, gave the welcome address and the invocation was given by Eardine Morgan. The musical entertainment was by Ann Gregory.

During the installation of the officers, Miss Garrett used a cord of twine to connect each officer into a circle to show their connection with the duties and responsibilities of each.

Officers installed were: Juanita Schafer, president; Ann Gregory, first vice president; Faye Spivey, second vice president; Louise Johnston, recording secretary; Shirley Delaney, treasurer and Judy Winkle, corresponding secretary.

Margaret Ann Conway presented an engraved gavel and the president's pin to Juanita Schafer, who in turn presented her with the past president's pin.

Virginia Dearen presented the new president with a long stemmed red rose.

The tables were covered in the club colors and decorated with wicker balls.

Daria Gregory presided at the registration table and Dianne Gregory served cookies and punch at the refreshment table.

What Is Replacement Cost Insurance On Your Home?

Homeowners are fully insured against fire and theft. However, in the case of a loss of significant size, the insurance company may not have maintained their policy for the full amount of current replacement cost to collect the maximum amount permitted under their policy. Homeowners' insurance will be taken care of by the insurance company.

Replacement cost or other factors may be a factor of this 80 per cent rule. You could be disappointed to find that your home is not covered to the full replacement cost.

Your independent agent will be happy to discuss this subject with you.

Cotton Pest Management

By Bill Jany

Cotton in many areas of Mitchell and Scurry Counties has been squaring; several fields already have one-third grown squares.

The beginning of cotton squaring signals a dramatic change in many of the cotton insect's life styles.

For example, the boll weevils that emerged prior to the beginning of cotton squaring could not find food or squares in which to lay their eggs, as a result, they starved.

Once cotton begins to square, the small squares will sustain boll weevils long enough for other squares to grow, large enough to lay eggs in. Bollworms and flea-hoppers also find it easier to survive in cotton to square.

Because of the mild weather Texas experienced this year, insect populations, both beneficial and pest, are very high in all crops and home gardens throughout the state.

Boll weevils in South Texas cotton fields are in record numbers. The percentage of boll weevil punctured squares and bolls in these fields range from 15 per cent to 90 per cent.

Other insects, such as fleahoppers and bollworms, have also been recorded in high numbers in these areas.

What's happening in Mitchell and Scurry Counties? Well, we also experienced a mild winter and had many insects survive in record numbers.

The candle moths you saw by the millions, flying around your night lights, were a clue to what to expect from other insects this summer.

Cotton in most areas of Mitchell County has begun to square. This means that weevils emerging at this time can find food and survive until cotton produces squares large enough to lay eggs in, about the size of a pencil eraser.

The highest levels of boll weevils captured in traps in Mitchell County this season have been in the Northwest around Rogers Community. An extremely high number of boll weevils existed in this area last season and a high number survived the winter, despite treating many of these fields with an insecticide when the fields were dedicated.

The uniform delayed planting date and unfavorable moisture condition caused over 95 per cent of the cotton acreage to be planted after May 19.

By planting cotton this late, producers prevented the largest number of boll weevils emerging this season to find squares to feed on and lay eggs.

However, the number of weevils that have emerged late in June has been higher than originally predicted, indicating that producers will be seeing more of this pest (later this season) than last year. Whether or not they will be present in economic numbers will depend on how late cotton squares this fall and how favorable the weather conditions for weevil reproduction are this season. So far, this hot, dry weather has been very unfavorable for weevil survival in squares.

Bollworms are another insect which has taken advantage of a mild winter. Very high numbers of bollworms have been captured in insect light traps and pheromone baited T.P. traps in both Mitchell and Scurry Counties.

Field infestations ranging from 0-5 per cent have been reported by scouts in some areas in the two counties.

This high number of bollworms, this early in the season, indicates potentially serious problems from this pest later. Hopefully this hot, dry weather and the bountiful beneficial insect populations will reduce the numbers of the next bollworm population.

Fleahoppers in both counties are low, however, that doesn't mean we can forget about them. They can still enter cotton fields and contribute to the squashed already caused by the hot, dry winds.

Grasshoppers are still in field borders and can cause problems to young 2-4 leaf cotton. Grasshoppers, that are going to hatch this year, have done so already.

This means, thank goodness, that very few Jumbo's emerged this year. That's one insect that didn't survive the winter.

Rogers, Overby Exchange Double Ring Vows In Methodist Chapel

Miss Shaunna May Rogers became the bride of Wallace Overby Saturday, June 21 in the First United Methodist Church Chapel. Rev. Ron Hamby officiated during the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Wallace Overby
...former Shaunna Rogers

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Rogers, of Colorado City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Roudner, of Big Spring.

The couple were married before an arch of greenery accented with blue bows and flanked by gladiolus and white carnations tipped in blue.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal length gown of white Quana featuring a keyhole neckline. The empire waistline was accented with lace appliques as was the neckline and cap sleeves.

For her veil, she chose a two-layered veil of illusion trimmed with lace that was attached to a Juliet cap. She carried a cascade of white sweetheart roses, white carnations tipped in blue and baby's breath. Worked into the bouquet was a pearl necklace and an old lace handkerchief.

Wedding music was presented by Jan Winn.

Maid of honor was Kathy Robertson. She wore a formal blue gown with an empire waist. A capelet accented the pleated dress. She wore a comb accented with two carnations and baby's breath in her hair. She carried a single white carnation tipped in blue.

Train bearer was Justin Hughes.

Best man was Mike Rogers, brother of the bride.

Ushers were Albert Overby, brother of the groom, and Bobby Rogers, brother of the bride.

A reception was given in honor of the couple following the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. The registry table was decorated with blue silk roses and the bride's table was decorated with the wedding bouquet. Cake trimmed with blue flowers, lime punch, mints and nuts were served to the guests.

Members of the house-party were Rennie Rogers, Nancy Robertson and Becky Simer.

For a honeymoon trip to Lubbock the bride wore a two-piece sundress of white and blue.

The couple will make their home in Colorado City.

The groom is a graduate of Snyder High School. The bride is presently a student at Colorado High School and plans to continue her studies.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, of Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dickmann, of Fort Worth, Mrs. Brenda Irwin and son, of Dallas, Richard Webb and daughter, of Dallas and Debbie Madewell and Becky Simer, of Big Spring.

Rev. Byrd Presents Program

The Mitchell County Widowed Persons Service held their quarterly board meeting Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in the Wallace Center.

After the business session, Rev. Roy Byrd, president, presented a slide and commentary presentation.

Attending the meeting were Earline Sellier, Dona Reed, Della Fox, Edna Pace, Juanita Coker, Lenora Berry and Roger Wells.
