After a mob of 10,000 residents of St. Joseph, Mo., had dragged Lloyd Warner, 10-year-old confessed attacker of a white woman from the Buchanan county jail Tuesday night, it hanged him to a tree across from the courthouse and burned his body. The photograph shows some of the mob at the scene after Warner's body had been burned down. Charred remains of the body are on the ground at the feet of the mob.

HOUSTON (UP)—Enough natural gas goes to waste each day in the East Texas oil field to supply fuel for the state's five largest cities and 10 cities the size of Galveston, oil men here estimate.

Estimates are that approximately 100,000,000 cubic feet of gas are burned daily in flares lighted near producing oil wells. The gas, after forcing the oil from the well, is piped off away from the well and burned as a safety and health measure.

Approximations of a gas distributing company here are that the waste gas would supply fuel for the average daily demand of a city of about 1,700,000 population.

"Wonderful Girl"

She's "one of the best girls I know" and a wonderful person. Her name is not going to marry pretty Alice Faye (above), a singer in his band. At least that is what the famous crooner said about a reported romance with the blonde beauty as he prepared to sue his wife, Fay Webb, for divorce in New York.

INSTITUTE OFFERS VALUABLE COURSE

For years, agricultural leaders have been offering short courses in agriculture to the farmers and business men of any community desiring such service.

Manufacturers and wholesalers of Dallas, are now offering a short course in business administration to the merchants and business men of the Southwest through the Southwestern Merchants institute, which will be presented in Midland on Dec. 4, 5 and 6.

"We can not hope to cover any subject in the short time allotted to us in Midland. But we will have time to touch some of the high spots of modern merchandising, Henry W. Stanley, institute director, said in a communication just received.

"Modern business is a battle. It's a battle of brains. Capital once had all the power of business, but that day is history. Brains are in the saddle now. The merchant who exercises good common sense and expert news editor in a service, is the man who gets the business today."

Among the interesting subjects to be discussed during the four-day course will be retailing, advertising, display and merchandising problems.

CLEVELAND MAN TO BE CHARGED IN THE SLAYING

Pretty Ohio Widow Is Identified as Victim

EL PASO, Dec. 1. (UP)—Assistant District Attorney John Penn said today he had instructed the Van Horn justice of the peace to file a complaint charging Arthur C. Wilson, 28, of Cleveland, O., with the slaying of Mrs. Irene Diebolt, 28, Cleveland widow.

The woman's nude body was found near there November 7. Sheriff Fox said clues were discovered at a Pecos tourist camp resulting in identification of the woman and in the search of the slayer.

Teaching of Texas The Present Vogue

AUSTIN, (UP)—Programs for sectional meetings of the 55th annual convention of the Texas State Teachers association here show that school teachers have been "teaching Texas" as well as the "three R's."

Program planners went far afield for some of their noted speakers on educational theories for the convention which opened here Thanksgiving day.

A sectional meeting on Geography of the program is an example. After Dr. J. B. Johnston, University of Minnesota, has discussed "The Curriculum and the Adjustment of the Pupil to Life," there follows an address on "The Central Mineral Region of Texas; the Llano-Burnet Country" by Dr. William T. Chambers of the State Teachers College at Nacogdoches.

"Folk music of Texas that school children should know," cowboy songs, Spanish dances, Indian songs and dances, and other features peculiar to Texas and the Southwest abound in the programs for the 42nd sectional meetings.

There will be touches of sad irony; pupils from the State School for the Deaf will present "Rhythm Numbers" they cannot hear; pupils from the State School for the Blind will give a playlet on "Children of Other Lands" whom they have never seen.

The business world will not be excluded from the pale of the teachers' convention. M. H. Reed, Austin financier, will tell a sectional meeting on Commercial Instruction "What the Business Man Wants and Doesn't Get."

Increasing enrollment of young men in Home Economics classes has prompted teachers of that subject to broaden the program of their sectional meeting here. Heretofore it concerned only girls. The Home Economics teachers will offer today on "A Boy's Homemaking Activities."

Barrymen a Superior Club in Last Periods

Flashing a powerful running offense that carried increased effectiveness as the game advanced, the Purple and Gold grid machine of the Midland high school Thursday afternoon held the championship winners of the south end of District 9-B, the Crane high school club, to a 14-7 win in one of the most interesting games staged in Lackey field in several three-cornered moons.

Advised as one of the strongest B clubs in West Texas, the invaders did not disappoint the big holiday crowd. Its powerhouse plays and sure-fire aerial attack were every bit as dangerous as had been expected, and its quartet of backs, E. Simpson, White, Padgett, and Brannon, shone with offensive and defensive versatility and power. In short, had it not been that Crane played a great game and held at strategic intervals the Barrymen would have sent the invading club on a toboggan ride.

A few antithetical characters will serve to show just how true the above statement is: In the first period, Crane stacked up 102 yards from scrimmage, and shot a pass for 13 more, for a total of 119 yards; while Midland could make only 13. It looked for those 15 minutes that the results would be rather pitiable, but behold a striking transformation of the Midland squad, which came back to rush 48 yards against the invaders in the second period, while Crane was making 34 yards in its drive and 15 through the air, or a total of 49. The third period saw Crane make only 60 yards against the Bulldogs, 55 of which resulted from passes. Midland ripped into the Crane county club for 87 yards. The last quarter was even more a reflection of the confidence the lads suddenly felt: Bulldog plays gaining 101 yards, 28 of which came through the air, to 60 for Crane, 34 of which resulted from two passes.

Thus, the Barrymen constantly struck with increasing strength and, with the completion of a pass to McWilliams on the last play of the game, the first downs were even at 15. In the first period Crane chalked up six first downs before the Dogs succeeded in getting theirs first.

Crane scored in the second quarter, after driving to the Midland 19 (See THRILLING, page 4)

MINISTER GETS EVEN

COLORADO.—The Rev. Dick O'Brien admits now that the Rev. Alex B. Hanson, his minister colleague in the Lions club, is not to be outdone in an exchange of reports. The former even confesses that the latter got the best of the deal.

A few weeks ago, Mr. O'Brien was letting loose some of his Irish broadsides at members of the Lions club. He said, among other things, "One is never safe in Colorado any more. If you get onto the street you are likely to be run down by an automobile. If you get on the sidewalk you are likely to be run over by Alex Hanson."

Thursday evening, soon after banquet program at the Lions "ladies night" affair had gotten under way, Mr. Hanson addressed Mr. O'Brien, who was presiding.

AN NRA TESTIMONIAL

The American Iron and Steel Institute's report on conditions in the steel industry in the last few months constitutes one of the most striking testimonials imaginable to the value of the NRA.

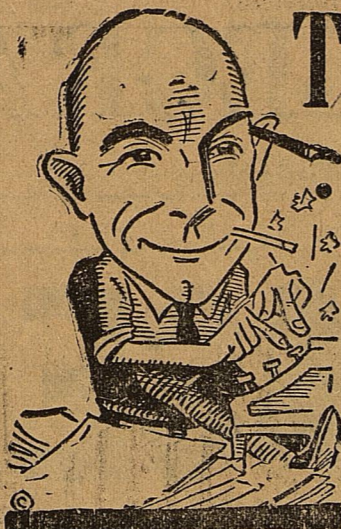

This testimonial gets its force not merely from the fact that both the number of men employed and the amount paid out in wages have risen, but from the fact that these increases have taken place during a period in which the actual volume of business handled by the industry was shrinking.

On Oct. 14 the number of men employed was 28 per cent above the number employed on June 17, while the payroll had risen by 32 per cent. But the industry as a whole was operating at 44 per cent of capacity in October, whereas it was operating at 47 per cent of capacity in June.

Here is a most graphic example of the good the NRA program can do under adverse circumstances. It is a bright omen for the future.

At any rate, the Payne Fund of New York City, which seeks to study the effects of modern motion pictures on juveniles, should not lack for Saturday afternoon volunteer subjects.

SCHOOL GIRLS' COSTUME

Did you know that you were judged by the clothes that you wear? Do you make wise choices in selecting your school clothes?

The following article on the suitable dress for school should help the high school girl to select her costumes more wisely and cause her to realize the effect of unsuitable design.

The suitable school dress is characterized by simplicity. If we wear clothes which are very elaborate and extreme day after day, the people who see us tire of us. A school girl always looks out of place in silks and satins and spike heels. Once a girl wears a dress almost to her ankles, high heels, and anklets to school. Of course such a costume is ridiculous and nothing could be less attractive.

The lines of the dresses should be becoming to the wearer. Tall girls should wear horizontal lines while the stout girl should wear vertical lines. Sweaters do not harmonize with organic, buttoned or print dresses. So often girls in high school are seen wearing boots with print dresses. This is certainly an unharmonious costume.

Freshness of clothes should not be neglected. When a girl is seen wearing a mussed, soiled dress, stockings with runners in them and shoes with run over heels, people do not rate her very highly.

An excess of costume jewelry cheapens one's appearance, especially in school. Usually anyone looks better without it. The high school girl looks far more attractive with natural coloring than with dyed hair and eyelashes. Too much makeup also cheapens the girl. If makeup is used, it should be put on to look natural.

If these facts are kept in mind there should be some improvement every girl can make in her costume. She must remember that simple dresses are best, and that they require less care.

—May Beth Judkins.

Chick Parisiennes Seek Jobs

By WALLACE CARROLL
United Press Staff Correspondent
PARIS. (UP)—French women, felled in their attempts to win the ballot, are seeking anew to enter man's domain. This time they want to join the police force.

Madame Avril de Sainte-Croix, society woman here, is the leader of a movement which aims to upset the French tradition that a policeman must have handle-bar mustaches—and look severe.

Her aim is to provide Paris with chic little policewomen, who will keep Frenchmen law-abiding by appealing to their gallantry.

"We do not wish to supplant the men on the police force in any way," she said. "Our purpose is simply to use women for certain police work to which men are not adapted for because they are men."

"For example, who can deny that women are better qualified to watch over children in the squares, parks and gardens? And what great services women police could render in safe-guarding young women who are in constant danger on the city streets."

Since London recruited its first policewoman, Madame de Sainte-Croix points out, other countries have followed suit, including Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Holland, Poland, Sweden, Brazil, Egypt and the United States.

As a result of this reform, she contents, the Viennese fraulein, though carried away by the sweep of the waltz, may feel safe under the vigilant eye of the policewoman.

If Madame de Sainte-Croix succeeds, the women of Paris may enjoy similar society, but Paris will always be Paris.

The Department of Commerce announces that a complete revision of "airworthiness requirements" of aircraft will become effective July 1, 1934.

The aeronautics branch of the Department of Commerce has been reorganized so that it now comprises two major divisions instead of three, as before. The divisions are air navigation and air regulation.

American aircraft must receive permission from the Siamese government before flying over or landing in Siam. And at least one week notice of arrival of the airplane must be given to Siamese authorities.

AVOID THE DANGER OF CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Overcomes This Condition Safely and Pleasantly

The first signs of constipation may be headaches, tired feelings, sallow complexions, sleeplessness, loss of appetite. If neglected, constipation may seriously impair health.

Today, you can banish constipation by simply eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to excise the intestines, and vitamin B to further aid regular habits. ALL-BRAN is also a good source of iron for the blood.

This "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is gentle in action similar to leafy vegetables. Within the body, it forms a soft mass, and gently clears out the intestinal wastes.

Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of common constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or use in cooking. Appetizing recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

H. Lanham, and Murray Pasken. This is the last game of high school football these Bulldogs will ever play for Midland. Each player made a heartfelt speech in chapel Wednesday morning pledging himself to play the best game of his life in spite of the fact that Crane is the toughest competition the Bulldogs have met this year.

Many noted contemporary French artists now are working for Beauvais and the display shows the striking progress made by the factories in applying modern principles of decorative art.

THRILLING 40-YARD HEAVE AND 25 YARD RUN DEFEAT LOCALS; MIDLAND PLAYS FINEST GAME OF THE SEASON

in the first period and losing the ball on downs. The Midland line held on the first deep penetration, on the one foot line, but Crane came back with a pass and three line plays to score on a 25-yard drive.

It was about the middle of the third period that Crane touched off the fireworks for a brilliant 40-yard pass and accompanying 25-yard run for touchdown. Officially, the gain was only 50 yards, as the play started on the mid-field stripe, but Simpson raced back before Midland ends to almost his 30-yard ribbon before tossing slightly more than 40 yards to G. Shackelford, who rose from nowhere in the midst of a bunch of surprised Midland backs and plucked the ball out of the ether and dashed off for pay dirt. White converted from placement as he had done following the original touchdown.

Midland made its first scoring threat in the late moments of the second period, but a pass was intercepted by W. Padgett on the Crane 30, and a run back 13 yards as the whistle blew.

Early in the third period, Midland drove to the Crane 20, but a fumble lost the ball.

The Midland touchdown came in the early moments of the fourth period, Quarterback Jones taking over the ball-lugging duties on his 25 and driving well into Crane territory before Stanley was called on to punt. Crane received a penalty, however, of 15 yards and a moment later, another of the same distance, which placed Midland right on the Crane goal over which Jones pointed on the third try.

Midland made an thrilling last-minute bid to knot the score, passes and runs driving to the Crane 18, where Midland held the ball when the whistle sounded.

MIDLAND KICKED TO SIMPSON
Midland kicked to Simpson who returned 20 to his own 30. The next change of punts and Crane started a drive from its own 20 that carried to the Crane 19 yard line where Captain Jack Prothro intercepted Simpson's pass and Midland drove back to its 30, where Nobles punted to White on the Crane 36. The safety returned 8 yards. Drives by Simpson, Captain Chaffin, White, Padgett, and Brannon carried the ball on 7 plays to the Midland 19 where Crane had the ball when the whistle sounded, to end the quarter.

FIRST QUARTER
Simpson hit left tackle for 5. Simpson on a basket pass hit line for 7. White made 2 at line. White drove to the 1 yard line. On fourth down and 1 foot to go, Brannon, Crane's 172 pound fullback failed to go over, and the ball was put in play by Midland whose frontal line held charging Crane linemen while Nobles kicked to the Midland 25, where the ball was downed.

Crane with superb ease, marched directly on three power plays and one 15-yard pass to G. Shackelford, White plowing over center for the score. White converted from placement.

Crane kicked to Sam Midkiff, who fumbled. Nobles scooping up the ball and on a reverse handing it to Stanley who raced 15 to the Midland 35. Gordon Jones made 16 yards on 2 plays but a holding penalty set Midland back 15 yards and Nobles kicked to Ham on the Midland 45 and the fleet half returned 10 yards. White and Brannon drove to the Midland 29, where pass to Ham was launched but was batted down. McWilliams caught Ham and threw him for a 4 yard loss as Crane attempted to circle his end and the ball went over to Midland on downs. Gordon Jones raced to the Midland 35, hit left tackle for 4, made it a first down on the Midland 45, hit left tackle for 6, gained 10 yards. White and Brannon called Stanley through the line for a yard and for a first down against Crane on the Crane 45. Shackelford threw Stanley for a 5-yard loss when he attempted and ran following a lateral pass. Nobles gained 3 at left tackle. W. Padgett intercepted

Max Baer Fights Carnera in Film Coming to Yucca

"The Prizefighter and the Lady," the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture coming at a preview Saturday night at the Yucca theatre is the kind of a picture reviewers like to review.

It is no longer news that Myrna Loy has turned out to be one of the most interesting and charming of the cinema's feminine stars, and in her current role of a night club singer she again more than proves her worth. As for Max Baer, this challenger for the heavyweight championship of the world is as excellent an actor as he is a fighter. In the new film he does both and sets a new high for ardent, romantic lovelinking.

Baer is a handsome boy and a fine actor. His love scenes with Myrna Loy and the brutal, realistic fight scenes with Carnera, whom he is soon to battle in real life, are little less than superb. He brings to the screen a new conception of "romantic lover," and adds to it all the charm of a healthy bubbling personality.

There can be no doubt that it is the greatest prizefight story ever filmed. All the splendor of a great championship match is flashed before the eyes of the spectators.

Even the famous ex-champions and their contemporaries are present—more probably than would be even at a championship match. Jess Willard, Jim Jeffries, Billy Papke, Frank Moran and Joe Rivers are only a few of those who appear in the film.

Philo Vance Back With Wm. Powell Again in the Part

Who killed Archer Coe?

That is the most baffling question that Philo Vance, the famous and debonair detective, character created by S. S. Van Dine, and impersonated by William Powell in the Warner Bros. picture, "The Kennel Murder Case," which comes to the Ritz theatre Sunday and Monday ever has been called upon to answer.

Archer Coe is found dead in his bed room with a revolver in his hand and not a sign of a struggle and with the door locked. He has a bullet in his brain and a scalp abrasion.

The police consider it a case of suicide until Philo Vance walks into the scene and through a series of deductions, proves that it is a murderer and not a suicide and then proceeds to discover the murderer.

Not only is "The Kennel Murder Case" one of the most mysterious of all of Van Dine's stories in which seven persons are found to have both a motive for the crime and an opportunity to have committed it, but it carries a strange love tangle which is eventually unraveled by Vance.

The picture has a strong cast in support of Powell and includes such Midland 44. On a deceptive play out of punt formation, Nobles reeled off first down on the Crane 44 and Crane called time.

McWilliams snagged a 9-yard pass and ran 5 yards for another first down. Jones hit left tackle for 9 yards then made it first down at right tackle. G. Shackelford threw Jones for a 4-yard loss at right tackle. Jones' pass to Lanham was wide. Jones attempted to pass after he had been tackled and Midland was given a 5-yard penalty for the second incomplete pass of the series. McWilliams took Jones' pass on the Crane 18 as the game ended.
