Negotiations Complete For Razing Of Hotel

Formalities were completed today for a milestone project in the modernization of Big Spring.

Announcement was made that negotiations had been closed for Downtown Big Spring, Inc. to acquire the Crawford Hotel building, and simultaneously the completion of an agreement for demolition of the structure.

The non-profit corporation, an association of local business men and property owners, made remittance for purchase of the property from Bankers Life and Casualty Company of Chicago.

The corporation also closed its contract with John Vilbig III of Dallas, who will tear down the seven-story hotel which for 40 years has been a downtown landmark. Vilbig advised that he will start preliminary work next week. He has 75 days to complete the job.

START IMMEDIATELY

Vilbig, who currently is razing a two-block area in Lubbock to make way for a new federal center, recently demolished the Kemp Hotel in Wichita Falls. He has done similar work in several other Texas cities. He told local interests he is ready to start work immediately.

Only tenant in the Crawford Hotel building is the Hardesty Drug, and Frank Hardesty announced he is making plans for early closing of this business.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

Downtown Big Spring, Inc., is financing the purchase through subscription of local business interests, which in the main are making five year pledges. While actual figures were not given, it was said that an amount considerably in excess of $60,000 must be raised. A portion of this sum already has been subscribed, said Adolph Swartz, one of the founders and original president of the corporation, and a moving force behind a number of city improvements.

When the structure is cleared to ground level, the City of Big Spring will improve the property — 125 by 140 feet on a key downtown corner — and maintain it as a public parking lot with possibly some embellishments added for recreational and leisure use.

CITY, COUNTY

The city is to have title to two lots on the property, and Howard County is acquiring 25 feet for county parking facilities.

This procedure was employed by Downtown Big Spring's first major undertaking — the purchase of the old First National Bank corner in 1965 and adjacent property at Second and Main, razing buildings thereon, and transferring land title to the city, which now operates it as a paved, lighted and improved parking area.

The Main Street project was accompanied by a massive renovation of the 200 block of Main, where street grade was inverted, curbs lowered and new sidewalks installed. The sidewalk and curb improvement was paid for on an assessment basis by property owners; the city did the street improvement.

EARLIER FUNDS

For the Main Street property purchase and demolition, members of Downtown Big Spring subscribed something in excess of $100,000. The improvements were put into public use just two years ago, but the efforts of businessmen to help bring about a transformation of the central section of the city dated a full two years back of that.

"This is another self-help program on the part of business people interested in the future of Big Spring," said Swartz. "It represents substantial investments on the part of many store operators and property owners toward continued growth and development.

SELF-HELP

"It should be a matter of pride that we can do this on our own, without turning to federal grants. Federal aid was given consideration at one time, when our obstacles seemed to be so large, but we concluded that this was not in line with desires of Big Spring people, and that it would not be the most feasible or economical route to go."

When the Crawford is obliterated from the local skyline, it means a dramatic change from the oil boom days of the late 20's. Then, when the city was pressed for hotel facilities to accommodate swarms of people associated in oil development, the hotel was built by A. J. Crawford of Carlsbad, N.M., with local support. The hotel opened in 1928, and was an important local business and social center for years.

Through the years the hotel, and the property itself, changed hands several times.

The Crawford closed in 1963, and gradually ground-floor tenants moved out. The building has been regarded of late as a hazard because of deteriorating trim, window ledges, etc.

Leaving To Be Wed

Jacqueline Kennedy leaves her Fifth Avenue apartment in New York last night for Kennedy Airport where she boarded a plane for Greece. The wife of the late president will be wed there to one of the world's richest men, Aristotle Onassis.

HIGH TIDES

Gladys Drifts But Punch Is Deceptive

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Gladys drifted north in the Gulf of Mexico today just out of wind reach from the populous Tampa Bay area but armed with a deceptive punch.

"The danger really is due to high water and not to winds," said Dr. Robert Simpson, director of the National Hurricane Center in Miami.

Simpson said he feared shoreline cities would drop their guard because of weak winds and then be caught unprepared for tides five feet above normal when Gladys makes landfall.

Forecaster Ray Kraft said Gladys could turn northeast and hit land near Cedar Key in the Big Bend area of the Gulf Coast.

But the storm was barely moving. Forward speed was clocked at five miles per hour with bare hurricane-force winds of 75 m.p.h.

IN ODESSA

Oil Show Opens

ODESSA (AP) — The Permian Basin Oil Show opened to the public today after two days of private exhibitions for the oil industry.

New equipment valued at $2 billion is on display.

The event has attracted a record 12,442 persons from the industry this year. Officials said they expected more than 300,000 by Saturday.

United Fund Report

The United Fund jumped two big percentage points in one day and surpassed the halfway mark of the $109,225 objective here with $56,154.86 reported today.

The new total, almost $2,000 over the Thursday figures, brought the UF goal to 51.4 per cent, according to Mrs. Alyce Butler, executive secretary.

Large contributions came from the out-of-town division, chaired by Raymond Tolett; big gifts, headed by Jimmy Taylor; area gifts, led by Alton Marwitz; and women's division, led by Mrs. Ralph Caton and Mrs. Bob Galbraith.

Morris Robertson's Body Shop chipped in contributions averaging $10.17 per capita, and Webb AFB chipped in more to run its share of the drive to 102 per cent of its $13,000 goal.

Mrs. Butler said the out-of-town division is 65 per cent complete, while area gifts division has 96 per cent of its objective. The women's division has about 84 per cent of its goal, big gifts has 64 per cent, and special division is 36 per cent complete, taking a six per cent jump from Thursday.

MOST POWERFUL EVER ATTEMPTED

Vital Test Successful

SPACE CENTER, HOUSTON (AP) — With a jolting burst of energy, the Apollo 7 astronauts fired their steering engine today in the most powerful maneuver ever made by a manned space ship.

"Yabba-dabba-doo!" shouted Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr. as the huge engine flashed to life and spurted a steady tail of flame for 66 seconds as Apollo 7 raced 120 miles above the Gulf of Mexico.

BEAUTIFULLY

"That was a real nice to-do, the machine performed beautifully," spacecraft commander Schirra reported at the completion of this vital test of the engine that one day will guide American astronauts to the moon.

When the burn started, it was under the automatic control of the spacecraft guidance and navigation system. Schirra took control manually the last 30 seconds to demonstrate the ability of the pilot to take over in case the automatic system failed.

He reported that momentarily during the firing, the astronauts were jolted out of their weightless world and that the gravity reading in the cabin was 1 G equal to the force of gravity at ground level.

The engine was the most powerful ever fired on a manned space ship. It had been ignited four times earlier on the Apollo 7 mission, with a maximum burn of 15 seconds. Thus, the amount of energy produced was a record.

The burst of energy from the 2,500-pound thrust engine temporarily added 1,120 miles an hour to the speed of the vehicle. Had the astronauts fired only their east-west line of flight, they would have shot several thousand miles into space.

The high point of the orbital path was raised from 174 to about 277 miles. The low point of 103 miles was raised less than a mile.

TURNED BACK

The spaceship wound up about 70 miles south of its original path. Schirra then turned it back to its line of flight and Apollo 7 assumed its normal orbital speed of about 17,500 miles an hour. The increase in speed imparted by the engine had been absorbed by the out-of-plane maneuver.

The television show was concelled today because of a busy schedule.

Sunday Wedding Date For Jackie, Onassis

ATHENS (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy arrived in Greece today to marry one of the world's richest men, Aristotle Onassis, then went to his private island where they will be married Sunday.

A spokesman for Onassis, announcing the wedding date, said she had no further details nor did she have a guest list. The guests will be ferried by helicopter to Scorpis, Onassis' island, she added.

PRIVATE

The spokesman said Onassis wanted the wedding to be as private as possible and no reporters or photographers would be permitted.

A special Greek airliner brought the bride-to-be and her family to a military airport at Andriada, in southern Greece. As Mrs. Kennedy stepped from the plane and walked down the steps, she was greeted by Onassis, who had flown from Athens to take his bride on to Scorpis, the small scorpion-shaped island he owns south of Corfu.

Onassis said they would spend their honeymoon on Scorpis unless Jackie wants to make a tour of the Mediterranean with Christina, his palatial yacht named for his 18-year-old daughter by his first marriage. Airport police confiscated all cameras and looked newsmen at the airport's waiting room about 300 yards away just before Mrs. Kennedy's jet landed.

Airport employees said Mrs. Kennedy was smiling as Onassis kissed her on one cheek. She took a deep breath, looked at the bright warm sun, and took her two children for a brief walk along the runway to stretch their legs.

Then Onassis, Mrs. Kennedy, her party and his sister boarded the DC-6 which had brought Onassis from Athens. It flew them to Preveza, on the west coast of Greece, where helicopters waited to ferry the group to Scorpis.

The wedding will unite the 39-year-old widow of assassinated President John F. Kennedy, left a wealthy woman by him, and a shipping magnate 23 years her senior who is often dubbed the "Golden Greek."

DIVORCED

Onassis, 62, was divorced in 1960 after 14 years of marriage to the former Tina Livanos, daughter of another multimillionaire Greek shipowner. They had two children, and she later married England's Marquis of Blandford, the Duke of Marlborough's heir.

Mrs. Kennedy's plans to wed were announced Thursday in New York by her mother, Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, whose brief statement said: "My daughter, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, is planning to marry Mr. Aristotle Onassis."

A few hours after the announcement, Mrs. Kennedy, her two children, Caroline, 10, and John Jr., 7, and a party of eight bumped 90 passengers from an Olympic Airways jetliner and took off from New York's Kennedy.

Debate In Hanoi Delaying Proposals On Bomb Halt

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disagreement between "Hawks" and "Doves" in Hanoi may be delaying a response to Washington proposals for ending all bombing of North Vietnam, diplomatic authorities here believe.

DEBATE IN HANOI

These authorities suggest a debate has been going on within the North Vietnamese leadership over the issue of giving assurances of limiting the war on the Communist side if President Johnson halts attacks on the North.

The Paris sources said the U.S. proposals were made contingent on firm acceptance by Hanoi of the Saigon government as a party to any ultimate peace negotiations.

Participation in some form of the National Liberation Front, political arm of the Viet Cong guerrillas in South Vietnam, was said to have been conceded by the United States.

The official North Vietnamese newspaper, Nhan Dan, Thursday denounced Johnson's demand for what the North Vietnamese call "reciprocity" for ending the bombing.

But U.S. officials said this appeared to be more a continuation of the familiar Hanoi position stated many times in the Paris peace talks than actual rejection of the U.S. proposals in the present situation.

Johnson's requirements have been reported to include restoration of the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam, with removal of Communist forces from the zone, and an end to terror attacks on South Vietnamese cities and towns.

U.S. officials say that arrangements for a bombing halt have been thoroughly covered in consultations with governments allied in the war, including the South Vietnamese government, and that the "hangup" is now entirely in Hanoi.

Press reports from Saigon, however, have stressed objections by President Nguyen Van Thieu to any termination of the bombing of the North without a guarantee of Communist de-escalation.

It is argued here that the North Vietnamese already have de-escalated the conflict over the last several weeks. A number of Communist military units are reported to have been withdrawn from South Vietnam, either back into North Vietnam or into neighboring Laos and Cambodia. The level of fighting has declined. These actions have been taken on Communist initiative.

PRACTICAL

What Johnson wants now are practical assurances the Communists will not step up the war again if the bombing is halted. In the American view, this approach seems to get around the issue of reciprocity as raised by the Hanoi leadership.

BOTH BOYS AND GIRLS THINK IT'S A FINE IDEA

Explorer Scouts To Admit Girls In 1969

By LOUISE COOK
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Girls in a Boy Scout troop?

That's what the Boy Scouts of America says is in store for 1969. And both the boys and girls seem to think it's a fine idea.

The group's executive board announced Thursday, after a unanimous vote, that starting next Jan. 1, the Boy Scouts will "be prepared" to admit girls to the Explorer program for boys 14 to 18.

"We have known all along that boys were interested in girls," said a spokesman for the 58-year-old organization which has almost 4.5 million members, including more than 300,000 Explorers. "Now, it's an acknowledged fact," he added.

A spot survey showed most Explorer Scouts liked the plan. "It's a good idea," said Terry Ruch, 17, of West Chicago, Ill.

"A bunch of dizzy dames balance" things, he said, and would provide an opportunity for different types of programs.

Bill Watson, 16, of Dallas, who's been an Explorer for one year, said, "Girls could possibly fit in if the program were carefully planned. . . I think it might be very interesting."

Mark Ohanian, 15, of Burbank, Calif., said, "When you get to a certain age. . . you don't have much time for scouting and dates too. This will take care of both."

The plan won approval on the staff side also.

Deann Sullivan, 16, of Portland, Ore., said "it sounds like more fun" than the Girl Scouts. And Linda Walters, 15, of Northridge, Calif., who dropped out of scouting a year ago, said, "This could change my mind."

There were some dissenters, however. Angelo Suran, 15, of Portland, said girls would be too much of a diversion. "If we had any projects to do, we'd never finish them with girls around."

Don James of Wichita Falls, Tex., a former Explorer who's now a scoutmaster, said, "People here think scouting should be an outdoor program, strictly."

Asked whether he would have liked girls in his Explorer troop, James, said, "No. I wouldn't have touched a girl with a 10-foot pole when I was 14."

Girls would have to be members of qualified girls organizations to join Explorer troops, a Boy Scout spokesman said, and will, initially, be admitted only to "special interest" posts, oriented toward vocations and hobbies. About one-third of the 22,000 Explorer posts in the country are "special interest" posts.

Girl Scouts To Have Activities

Girl Scout skating lessons will begin Oct. 19 at Skateland Roller Rink from 9:45 a.m. until 12 noon. In this way, girls may earn their skating badge, and the classes will be held each Saturday except immediately after Thanksgiving and just before and after Christmas.

There will be nine lessons, with the fee to be paid at the time of the first lesson. For those taking patrol leader's workshop, a make-up lesson will be held. Troop leaders and parents are welcome to take the lessons, and information on charges may be obtained by calling Mrs. Henry Thames, 267-2620.

PATROL LEADERS

A Girl Scout patrol leader's workshop will be conducted from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday at the Girl Scout House, 1405 Lancaster, under the direction of Miss Celia Fowler, district advisor. About 40 girls are expected to participate, and leaders are invited to attend. Girls are to bring the standard handbook, the patrol leader's handbook and a lunch.

Outdoor training for all-adult leaders will be held from 9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Oct. 22, and will continue during the same hours.

Philathea's Contribution Benefits Organ Fund

The Philathea Sunday school class agreed to contribute $100 each quarter to the organ fund during a Thursday dinner meeting in the fellowship hall of First United Methodist Church.

Mrs. Bill McIlvaine presided, and the invocation was given by Mrs. Jewell Kuykendall. Mrs. Merle Stewart presented the devotion, "Fences."

Hostesses were Mrs. J. H. Parks, Mrs. E. J. Cass, Mrs. Morris Gay, Mrs. Paul Guy.

A LOVELIER YOU

Strengthen Back For Figure Slump

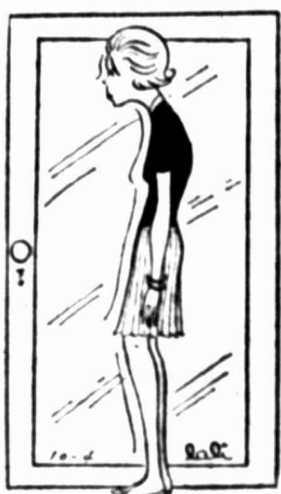

By MARY SUE MILLER
Are you a slumper? Slumping happens to be the most prevalent posture fault among both girls and women. And it leads to the most unattractive consequences.

To name just a few: crooked-neck, protruding chin, jutting head, drooping bosomline and sloping shoulders. Even more serious is the way slumping hampers one's breathing and circulation.

It's a wise lovely who checks her posture in a full-length mirror from time to time. In making a check, the profile view is the one to analyze. An important point to bear in mind is that some slumpers are able to stand fairly erect when they try but they cannot hold the position for long.

To maintain an erect stance without effort, an habitual slumper has to strengthen her back and shoulder muscles. The following routine, repeated 10 times daily, not only tones up the muscles but helps to establish good carriage.

Sit on the floor with your back against a wall and arms stretched forward at shoulder level. Leading with your head, slowly curl your spine until hands touch ankles. Then uncurl, inch by inch, so that your back lies flat against the wall and your chin parallels the floor. Now note your shoulder position — how it is neither backward nor forward of the body. Carry it over into your stance, and your figure and posture will grow lovelier.

LAZY EXERCISES
Here's an effortless way to trim off heavy spots. All you do is lie down or sit down, and flex your muscles. If that's for you, send for "Lazy Girl's Exercises." Based on the isometric principle of exercise, routines trim head-to-toe figure. Write Mary Sue Miller care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 15 cents in coin.

Gardeners See Flower Arranging

Mrs. Albert Hill demonstrated the care and arranging of artificial flowers at Tuesday's meeting of the After Five Garden Club in the home of Mrs. Dee Thomas, 1907 Mittel.

Mrs. Hill created an all-occasion centerpiece as well as fall and Christmas arrangements.

Mrs. Tom Ivey presided, announcing a zone meeting in November at Monahan. Mrs. Thomas was named corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Ivey reminded the group that various types of bulbs are now being sold by the Men's Garden Club.

Refreshments were served.

Airport Club Sees Food Preparation

Mrs. Fred Jones and Mrs. Vern Vigar demonstrated different methods of preparing chicken, which they served to the Airport Home Demonstration Club at Wednesday's meeting in the Jones' home, 810 Andre. Cookies were brought to be mailed to the Vietnam war veterans in the Corpus Christi Naval Hospital by Mrs. B. A. Dunn and Mrs. R. B. Covington Jr.

Informal Coffee Is Held Thursday

Mrs. Harold Church, 803 E. 13th, was hostess for an informal coffee Thursday morning where guests were wives of employees of the Wittman Contracting Company. During the morning the women worked on individual projects such as sewing and making Christmas decorations. On Oct. 24, the women will meet at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Troy Carter, 603 Runnels.

Newcomers Tell Bridge Winners

Six tables were in play at Newcomers Club bridge games held Wednesday in the Pioneer Gas Flame Room. Winners were Mrs. William Skaggs, high; Mrs. Ray Daniels, second high; and Mrs. Don Piccolo, bridge-o. Guests welcomed were Mrs. Harlan Birdwell, Mrs. Jack Bell, Mrs. Pat Richberg, Mrs. Richard Guthrie and Mrs. James P. Dale. The next meeting will be a dessert bridge and luncheon at Cosden Country Club, Nov. 5, at 12:15 p.m.

Heart President Shows Cancer Film

STANTON (SC) — Tom Angel, president of the Martin County unit of American Cancer Society, showed a film on lung cancer at Tuesday's meeting of the TOPS Scale Steppers in the Martin County Library. Miss Lloy Henson, chairman of the public education committee, spoke to the group on education. A collection of low-calorie recipes was presented to the member losing the most weight during the week.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:
Every time I go to the store to buy laundry supplies I'm confused by the many kinds of soaps, detergents, and water conditioners or softeners.

Can you explain to me which I should use in my laundry and with what kind of clothes? ... Mary Poe

Mary, this can be a problem. There are many brands of soaps, detergents and water softeners and I'm sure they all do a good job of what they were meant to do. The U.S. Department of Agriculture explains in lengthy detail the difference and uses of these three products in their Home and Garden Bulletin No. 139, which is sold through the U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20420, for five cents.

I'll try to boil it down so you will know what to use and when.

Soaps and detergents both are designed to keep the dirt that is lifted out of the fabrics during washing, in a suspended state so it can be rinsed away without it settling back in the material.

Water softeners help both soaps and detergents do a better job by either settling the minerals in the water (precipitating) or keeping the minerals in a solution form that cannot combine with soap to form a scum (non-precipitating). Mechanical water softeners filter minerals out of the water.

In hard water, detergents work better than soap. So if soap is used in hard water, also use a water softener.

Soap is made mainly of natural fats — including oils — and an alkali such as lye. Detergents are made basically of petroleum and natural fats and oils. They are both produced as Light Duty and Heavy Duty. The light duty types are safe to use on fine fabrics, lightly soiled clothes, and are safe for most dyes.

The heavy duty type of soaps and detergents are "built" by the addition of alkaline salts and other substances to increase their cleaning power. But are harder on some dyes, wools and silks.

In summary:
For laundering delicate fabrics or lightly soiled garments, use light duty detergents in any kind of water or — light duty soaps in soft water. Add softener to hard water if soap is used.

For general laundering and heavily soiled fabrics, use heavy duty detergents in any kind of water. Or use heavy duty soap in soft water, but add softener to hard water.

If fabrics are NOT color fast, use light duty soaps or detergents.
For wools and silks (or blends of these materials), use light duty soaps or detergents.

BSP Has Party For Rushees

The Beta Sigma Phi City Council hosted a salad supper and crazy bridge party Tuesday evening in the First Federal Community Room. The party theme was "Reach for the Stars."

Game winners were Mrs. Gerald Wooten, high, and Mrs. Jerry Hewitt, low.

Guests were Mrs. Skipper Driver, Mrs. Hewitt, Miss Veva Wood and Mrs. Rendal Hamby, rushees from Mu Zeta Chapter; Mrs. Jackie Owens, Mrs. Clinton Hull and Mrs. Frank Pearson, rushees from the Alpha Beta Omicron Chapter of Coahoma. Mrs. Joe Crump, a spring rushee, also attended.

Rebels Told To Count Calories

The importance of counting calories was stressed during the therapy program held by the TOPS Pound Rebels Tuesday at the YMCA. Mrs. Al Scott presided, introducing a new member, Mrs. Marvin Callahan, and a guest, Mrs. A. P. Daylong.

Mrs. Henry Atkinson won the attendance prize, and a total weight loss of 18 pounds was reported. Mrs. Harold Bell, 2402 Allendale, will be hostess for a "Sweet 16" party and salad supper at the next meeting. Those attending were asked to dress as they would have at the age of 16.

Club Announces Bridge Winners

Mrs. Hayes Stripling and Mrs. Elmo Wasson placed first during duplicate bridge games held Tuesday at Big Spring Country Club.

There was a three-way tie for second and third place which involved Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Jack Irons, Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. E. O. Ellington, and Mrs. A. Swartz and Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow.

Winners in Wednesday's play were Mrs. Ayra McGann and Mrs. Bera Renuau, first; Mrs. Auriel LaFond and Mrs. Morris Rhodes, second; and Mrs. Glenn Riley and Mrs. Joe Herbert, third.

YMCA Trim-Fit Class Now Open

The Women's Trim and Fit Class, now in progress at the YMCA, is being held from 6:45 to 7:45 p.m. each Tuesday and Thursday. The class will continue through May, and those interested in joining the sessions should contact the YMCA by calling 267-8234. The course is free to members, while there is a charge of $10 for non-members. Class exercises are conducted by Nancy Miller.

Dr. Charles Warren Describes Medical Work In Madagascar

In accordance with the Gay Hill 4-H Club's study of community health, Dr. Charles Warren, guest speaker, showed slides and told of his trip to Madagascar at Monday's meeting of the club.

Brenda Jackson presided and appointed the following committee members: Reba Hyden, Billy Jackson and Tricia

Jackson, recreation; Rita Ellison and Sherry Jackson, telephone; Annette Couch and Debra Buchanan, refreshment; and Darla Buchanan, devotions.

New members introduced were Danny Lockhart, Mike Lockhart, Ronnie Wegner and Tommy Wegner. Guests were Mrs. M. S. Warren, mother of the guest speaker, Mrs. Delaine Crawford, Howard County home demonstration agent; David Montgomery, Cindy Montgomery and Terry Montgomery.

Clubbers Prepare 'Achievement Day'

STANTON (SC) — The Stanton Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Eula Eubanks Wednesday afternoon to plan the club's county fair booth on Achievement Day, Nov. 7. Mrs. James Eiland presented the program demonstrating the various cooking implements available for this method of cooking.

Economy Doesn't Start At Home For Lawmakers

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the nation's economy facing the worst crisis in decades, Congress voted for record billions in budget slashes this election year. But many of the members who backed at national programs, jumped the traces and voted extra millions for home area projects.

SCHOOL FUNDS
One example: When one of the major federal school-aid bills came up in the House June 11, economy lost some luster. This program channels school funds into more than 300 of the 435 congressional districts.

The House voted 226 to 133 to increase the budget figure for this aid by $91 million over the 1968 fiscal year. And among the 226 were 140 who also voted for an over-all $6-billion slash in federal spending.

Some of those who hammered loudest on the spending bill didn't hesitate to plead with the Public Works Committee that reservoir, flood control and similar projects in their own districts be spared.

Congress did cut about $12 billion out of Johnson's budget requests of appropriations totaling $138.2 billion, for the fiscal year that began last July 1. Since there is a time lag between appropriations and actual outlays from the treasury, the appropriation and the spending figures for a given year do not agree.

INCOME TAX
Chairman George H. Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee told his colleagues they had "reduced the budget requests of the executive branch by a greater amount than ever before in the nation's history."

But he added that the actual spending reduction this year brought about by Congress' actions would be only about $4 billion. The lawmakers told the President to find enough additional cuttable items to bring the whole spending reduction to $6 billion. At the same time they marked off large areas he was not to reduce.

The 1968 economy act, which was combined with a 10 per cent income tax surcharge, was championed in the House by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and in the Senate by Sens. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., and John J. Williams, R-Del.

"It will do no good to take $10 billion out of the American taxpayers' pocket if it is just brought to Washington and spent on additional federal expenditures," Mills told the House as he called June 20 for strict financial belt-tightening.

Mills went before the House rules Committee Oct. 3 to support a proposal exempting from the spending cuts about $1 billion for farm price support payments and aid to states for medical programs.

HOLES PUNCHED
The House approved the exemption without a roll-call vote. Earlier, other holes had been punched in the spending and manpower limitations by ex-leagues they had "reduced the budget requests of the executive branch by a greater amount than ever before in the nation's history."

But he added that the actual spending reduction this year brought about by Congress' actions would be only about $4 billion. The lawmakers told the President to find enough additional cuttable items to bring the whole spending reduction to $6 billion. At the same time they marked off large areas he was not to reduce.

The 1968 economy act, which was combined with a 10 per cent income tax surcharge, was championed in the House by Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, and in the Senate by Sens. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., and John J. Williams, R-Del.

"It will do no good to take $10 billion out of the American taxpayers' pocket if it is just brought to Washington and spent on additional federal expenditures," Mills told the House as he called June 20 for strict financial belt-tightening.

Mills went before the House rules Committee Oct. 3 to support a proposal exempting from the spending cuts about $1 billion for farm price support payments and aid to states for medical programs.

Arizona Senator Visits Here

Winston Winkle, left, Republican committeeman from the 24th senatorial district, and Mrs. Jimmy Butler, chairman of Women for Nixon, were among those who greeted U.S. Senator Paul J. Fannin on his arrival here Friday. The senator is stumping the state on behalf of the Nixon-Agnew ticket, and addressed a joint meeting of three service clubs at noon Friday in the Settles Hotel before holding a brief press conference, conferring with GOP leaders, and flying to Austin for another address for Nixon-Agnew.

Nixon Backs Possible Halt In North Vietnam Bombing

By The Associated Press

Reports of a possible development in the Paris peace talks have revived emphasis on Vietnam in the presidential campaign.

Republican Richard M. Nixon says he'll not criticize President Johnson's decision for a bombing halt over North Vietnam, if it works. But Sen. Strom Thurmond—Nixon's ally in the South—warned Americans not to be lulled into thinking the war will end before election day. Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey hasn't mentioned the bombing halt rumors, and his running mate, Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, refused to discuss what he knows about the Paris peace talks.

George C. Wallace, the third-party candidate for president, said he's feeling tired and suspended campaigning until his running mate, Curtis E. LeMay, returns from a tour of Vietnam. Nixon told a rally in Johnstown, Pa., Wednesday that, as before, he supports a bombing halt if it doesn't endanger U.S. troops and would improve prospects for peace.

He said the Republicans will support the President if a bombing halt is called and it meets Nixon's conditions.

Nixon said Johnson is "the one man who can make that determination... let's let him make that determination." "We do not want to play politics with peace," said Nixon. Thurmond, R-S.C., told a Columbia, S.C., news conference: "It would be downright cheap politics if the administration tries to confuse the American people" into thinking the war will end soon.

"It's going to take a new administration with firmness and new policies to wind up the war," he said.

Newsman questioned Muskie in Chicago on developments in the Vietnam peace talks, but Muskie replied: "Would you like to have a frank exposure of what I know about what's going on in Paris or would you rather have a ceasefire?" Humphrey didn't mention the war as he campaigned for labor votes, which he admitted are drifting to Wallace.

The vice president went on a handshaking tour of Ford Motor Co.'s River Rouge plant near Detroit and told a noon rally Wallace is a "union-busting governor."

Humphrey said union men apparently fear they'll lose jobs to Negroes unless they vote for Wallace, but Humphrey predicted there will be plenty of jobs to go around under a Democratic administration.

Howard County Youth Horsemen will leave at 8 a.m. Saturday on a three-mile trail ride from the club's arena south of town to the Reed Ranch in Sterling County.

All members are urged to attend and take part in the ride. Meals will cost each rider $1.50. This will pay for all of the meals eaten on the ride. Announcement was also made that the club's annual barbecue will be served on Oct. 26. In the past, these barbecues have been in the county fair barns but the barns are being remodeled and the place for this year's event has not been decided.

The barbecue on Oct. 26 will be free to all members. Members may also bring guests, but for each guest a fee of $1.50 will be charged.

The place will be announced later.

Wallace Backers Will Stay Busy

A number of activities are planned for the weekend at the Wallace for President Campaign headquarters, 600 E. 3rd.

A caravan will leave from there at 12:30 p.m. Saturday to attend the speaking engagement of Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia at Andrews. All interested persons are invited to participate.

The Young Americans for Wallace, who held a regular meeting Tuesday, plan to stage a car wash at the headquarters Saturday. Ronnie Broadrick, chairman, reported on the recent bake sale, during the meeting.

Sunday at 2 p.m., a rally is planned at the headquarters, according to E. O. McNeese, county chairman, and he invited all interested persons to attend.

Social Studies Confab Saturday

Seven Big Spring teachers will be among the 1,000 area social studies instructors who are expected to gather in Midland Saturday for the fifth annual social studies conference.

Going from Big Spring High School are Rodney Allison, Mrs. Jette Lung and Mrs. Donna Hembree. Runnels Junior High School teachers attending will be Paul Chapel, Mrs. Gladys Anderson, Mrs. Opal Tanner and Mrs. Jo Hill.

Theme for this year's conference is "The Negro in the Mainstream of American Life." Featured speakers will be Dr. John R. Sheeler, chairman of the history department of Texas Southern University, and Dr. Donald C. Lord, associate professor of history at Texas Women's University.

Volunteer Council Elects New Slate

The Volunteer Council of Big Spring State Hospital Thursday elected a new chairman and recognized volunteers for giving 34,280 hours of service to the hospital.

Dr. Harold G. Smith was elected chairman, replacing Louis McKnight, and Mrs. John Caldwell, Midland, was named vice chairman. Other officers elected were Mrs. J. R. Petty, secretary, and Mrs. H. W. Smith, treasurer.

Awards for volunteer service were given by Mrs. Smith to 52 persons.

Receiving the top honor was Mrs. Theo Ferguson, Midland, who has logged more than 6,228 hours as a hospital volunteer. She stands second highest in the number of volunteer hours in the hospital's history.

A report was given by Mrs. Mary Cochran, hospital volunteer services coordinator, for the State Volunteer Services Council meeting slated in Big Spring next year. Plans were made to host the gathering at Big Spring State Hospital in October, 1969.

A plea was made for volunteer workers in the coming holiday season, including volunteers for the Halloween carnival slated Oct. 30, and Christmas programs in December.

Volunteers for parties, programs and decorations are needed.

CHRISTMAS

The Christmas season at Big Spring State Hospital will kick off early in December with an open house at Woolworth's, when Herman Bauer, store manager, and his staff will host all patients who will want to do their Christmas shopping.

Decorations of the units will begin Dec. 9, and there will be a need for unbreakable Christmas decorations. The Howard County Junior College drama class will present a play Dec. 11, and volunteer parties and entertainment will be on Dec. 19 when Christmas gifts will be distributed to all hospital patients by the volunteer council.

The patients will give a special program Dec. 11, and the public is invited.

The 34,280 hours turned in by volunteers represents 16 people working 40 hours a week for one year, Mrs. Cochran said.

There were a number of volunteers recognized from Midland, Lamesa, Colorado City, Snyder and Stanton.

Volunteers receiving awards were:

6,000 HOURS — Mrs. Theo Ferguson, Midland.

2,000 HOURS — Mrs. E. M. Braselton, Midland, and Mrs. J. S. Lock, Midland.

1,500 HOURS — Mrs. J. C. Carlson, Midland.

1,000 HOURS — Mrs. Emmet Grantham and Mrs. Justin Holmes, both of Big Spring, and Mrs. O. F. Hedrick, Mrs. Lee May and Mrs. Herman Morton, all of Midland.

500 HOURS — Mrs. L. N. Brooks Jr., Mrs. E. P. Driver, Mrs. Billy Gaskins, Mrs. H. W. Smith and Frank Wharton, all of Big Spring, Mrs. John Caldwell, Mrs. R. A. Diemer, Mrs. R. E. LeBlond and Mrs. M. B. Stephens, all of Midland.

100 HOURS — Mrs. Mira Beavans, Charles Bell, Mrs. Eugene Bellevue, Mrs. Clayton Bettie, Ginger Brown, Dr. Marshall Q. Cauley, Bernice Cutright, Mrs. E. P. Driver, Mrs. Grady Harland, Mrs. Johnnie Hughes, Mrs. Donald Lester, Mrs. Nicolaus Molina, Mrs. Molina, Mrs. H. T. Page, Ruth Payne, Mrs. J. M. Area 4-H Club Members Score

A Mitchell County 4-H Club member, Eddie Merkett, showed the reserve grand champion Shorthorn steer of the junior stock show of the Texas State Fair last week. His animal had won top honors in its own class.

Area showmen and the placings they made are:

Angus, Class 1, Becky Merkett, Mitchell County 4-H; Class 2, Beth Ann Tidwell, Dawson County 4-H; Class 3, Sherrell Vogler, Dawson County 4-H; Class 4, first.

Shorthorn, Class 7, Eddie Merkett, Mitchell County, 4-H; first and reserve champion; Class 8, Pam Sanford, Mitchell County 4-H; second; Class 9, Keff Merkett, Mitchell County 4-H; first.

Crossbred, Dalton Freeman, Dawson 4-H; sixth; Troy Colley, Klondike FFA, seventh and Joe Cozart, Klondike FFA, ninth.

Workers Grade 173 Blocks

City street department graded 173 blocks of streets, 29 blocks of shoulders and 173 blocks of alleys during September, according to Ernest Lillard, director of public works.

In addition, 32 blocks of streets and seven blocks of alleys were rebuilt, he said. This required 1,317 cubic yards of material.

The city used 65,900 gallons of water on streets and 3,100 gallons on the alleys, he said.

Street sweepers were operated 20 days in September and removed 814 cubic yards of dirt from 1,075 miles of streets, Lillard said.

Coahoman Hurt In Gin Plunge

A Coahoman man was injured today in a satisfactory condition at a local hospital after a fall in the Guitin Gin in Coahoman Tuesday morning.

Fred Adams, a laborer at the gin, received cuts, bruises and a hip injury when he fell from a platform to the floor about 11:30 a.m. He was taken to a Big Spring hospital by ambulance.

Bicycle Stolen

Ester Hernandez, 1010 N. Runnels, reported to police Thursday that a 20-inch bicycle had been taken from the yard of her home.

TREE, FENCE WATCH OUT

Two single-car accidents were investigated by the police Thursday.

William Calvin Sherman, 701 Wyoming, lost control of his car and hit a tree in the 300 block of Ayford.

Gudalope R. Galvin Jr., Howard County Junior College, collided with a fence in the 500 block of Birdwell Lane.

Top Bond Record

Dr. Preston E. Harrison, left, superintendent of the Big Spring State Hospital, receives two citations from Larson Lloyd, district U.S. Savings Bond chairman, for outstanding records. Of 290 employees, 210 (the figure was three more before these buyers transferred to another agency) purchase U.S. bonds regularly. This comes out to $3.8 per cent, perhaps the top percentage in the district. This is the third year the hospital has been cited by the treasury department. Dr. Harrison received a personal certificate in addition to the one for BSSH.

Special Ladies' Night Thursday

Class 70-02, Webb AFB student pilots, their wives and sweethearts will be guests of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club at a dinner on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The dinner is to be in the Downtown Tea Room.

Announcement was made last week of the plans for the special ladies night meeting. It will be the second opportunity the Kiwanians have had to be hosts to a class of pilots from Webb.

Jim Thompson, program chairman and president elect of the Big Spring Kiwanians said that he has arranged for Dr. A. B. Lightfoot, widely popular humorist and entertainer, to be at the meeting. Other special entertainment is planned.

All Kiwanians and their wives are urged to attend.

A round table will be conducted at the Settles Hotel for Kiwanians who will not be able to attend the evening meeting. However, no regular club session will be held at the hotel on that date.

Program on last Thursday featured a talk by Roger Brown, former legislator and Big Spring attorney, on his experiences and misadventures at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago last summer.

Brown was an alternate on the Texas delegation at the convention. The wild scenes which were enacted were vividly described and Brown told of the clashes between hippies, yuppies and other demonstrators he witnessed in the Hilton Hotel area.

He voiced his personal concern over the trends which were demonstrated at Chicago and of the developments politically which have developed since the convention.

The situation, he feels, is dangerous and menacing many American ideals and institutions.

Top Bond Record

Dr. Preston E. Harrison, left, superintendent of the Big Spring State Hospital, receives two citations from Larson Lloyd, district U.S. Savings Bond chairman, for outstanding records. Of 290 employees, 210 (the figure was three more before these buyers transferred to another agency) purchase U.S. bonds regularly. This comes out to $3.8 per cent, perhaps the top percentage in the district. This is the third year the hospital has been cited by the treasury department. MOST ADMIRER WOMAN IN WORLD

Marriage To Change Image?

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — In those rare times when America creates its own royalty, it lavishes upon the chosen few all the fierce, jealous affection that practical people render unto dreams.

For this adulation, Americans exact obedience. The rules are few but firm, and paramount is the preservation, at all costs, of the public image we know and love.

Will Marry Jackie

Aristotle Onassis, Greek shipping magnate, will marry Jacqueline Kennedy, wife of the late president, probably next week on his private island, Scyros, off the Greek coast.

Onassis Now One Of Richest Men

By The Associated Press

Aristotle Socrates Onassis was 16 years old and had $60 to his name when he arrived in Argentina as a Greek refugee from the Turks in 1922.

In his wildest dreams he could hardly have imagined that 46 years later, now one of the richest men in the world, he would win the hand of an American President's beautiful widow, Jacqueline Kennedy.

SHREWD MASTER

His mother and father had operated a tobacco business in Smyrna. Once in Argentina, Onassis, too, turned to the tobacco trade. By the time he was 24 his shrewd operations had earned him his first million and he was Greece's consul general in Buenos Aires.

But Onassis wanted above all to be the master of a cargo fleet.

He got his chance in 1930 when he learned that Canada was preparing to sell at scrap value ten surplus cargo vessels ranging in tonnage from 8,500 to 10,000. Onassis bought six for $120,000 and launched a maritime career which eventually gave him control of much of the world's oil tanker trade.

He married Athina Livanos, whose father was another big name in Greek shipping. Her sister, Eugenie, married Stavros Niarchos, who also had built a huge ocean-going fleet. Both marriages ended in divorce.

WORLD FIGURE

Onassis liked to play host to prominent people. Guests aboard his yacht Christina included many well known names in politics, entertainment and society—the late Winston Churchill, for example.

Maria Callas, the Metropolitan Opera star, was his guest and traveling companion for years. In 1960 his wife divorced him in an Alabama court, charging mental cruelty.

Onassis had in recent years entertained various members of the Kennedy family aboard the Christina, including Jacqueline, her sister, Princess Lee Radziwill, and her late husband's brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.

Water Pumping In City Noted

Water was pumped from the city's filtering plant at the average rate of 5.485 million gallons a day during the month of September, according to Robert Anderson, superintendent of utilities. While during the same period, sewage was treated at the rate of 3.712 million gallons a day, he said.

The sewage amount is higher than previous months because some was recirculated in an experiment to try to improve the quantity of effluent, he said.

The city bought 245,659 million gallons of water from the Colorado River Municipal Water District in September for 14,895 cents per thousand gallons, Anderson said.

government. It gained stature when she met the shattering tragedy with a dignity and restraint that moved millions to compassion, admiring tears. Her lonely widowhood, circumscribed as it is by the careful rearing of her two fatherless children—Caroline, now 10, and John Jr., 7—and the perpetuating of her assassinated husband's memory, is in the tradition of the great dowager queens.

Today at 39 she is perhaps the most admired woman in the world.

With her forthcoming marriage to 62-year-old Aristotle Onassis, Greek shipping magnate, yet set playboy and one of the richest men in the world, her image in America, as well as her status, might change.

HOPE

As the news of the approaching wedding broke, some of Mrs. Kennedy's closest friends, reached by telephone, expressed hope the marriage would be a happy one.

William Walton the painter, an old friend of both Jack and Jackie Kennedy, put it this way: "One wishes her great happiness. She deserves it and I hope she finds it."

Several suggested that the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, her brother-in-law, was a key factor. "Jackie depended on him completely," said one. "Since he died she has been very lonely."

Another agreed: "She's certainly lonelier now than before Bobby died. He was a sort of an Irish uncle, you know; something she and the children could lean on."

RUMORS

Mrs. Kennedy always has seemed to like—even prefer—the company of mature men, and armchair psychologists might attribute it to her deep attachment to her father, the dashing Jack Bouvier, sportsman and stockbroker, whom her mother, now Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss, divorced when Jacqueline was 10.

Two years ago a report of her impending engagement to Spanish diplomat Antonio Garriques Y Diaz Canabate, 62, was denied by both the U.S. Embassy in Madrid and by Mrs. Auchincloss.

The most persistent romantic rumors concerned Lord Harlech, former British ambassador to the United States and a close friend to both the late President and Mrs. Kennedy.

Lord Harlech, 50, accompanied Mrs. Kennedy on her 1967 trip to Cambodia. Romance was emphatically denied each time the rumors cropped up. Mrs. Kennedy and Lord Harlech, widower and father of five grown children, have stayed just good friends.

Their Religions Present Problems

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Greek Orthodoxy, the church to which shipping tycoon Aristotle Onassis would approve his planned marriage to Jacqueline Kennedy. But it was highly uncertain that her church, Roman Catholicism, would do so.

That was the mixed ecclesiastical picture today in the wake of the announcement that they planned to wed.

He was divorced in 1960, after 14 years of marriage and two children. Roman Catholic rules do not allow divorce.

Only if Onassis' earlier marriage were found to be invalid, and thereby annulled, would the Catholic rules sanction his marriage to Mrs. Kennedy in that church.

Catholic authorities here saw slim chances for such a determination, and in Rome, a Vatican theologian said, "it would not be a valid marriage in the eyes of the church."

But the door was open to their marriage in the Greek Orthodox Church of North and South America, whose marital court in 1961 granted approval of Onassis' divorce.

"As far as we're concerned, a second marriage can be contracted in the Orthodox Church," said the Rev. Constantine Eliades, an Orthodox matrimonial expert here.

Orthodoxy in this country authorizes divorce on various grounds, such as adultery, prolonged desertion or imprisonment, or threats against the life of a partner in the marriage.

The basis cited in the Onassis case was not disclosed.

Roman Catholic rules allowing annulment are considerably more restrictive, the chief conditions being mental illness at the time of marriage, or fraud by not really intending to enter a permanent, faithful marriage and to rear children.

Whether such factors could be established in the Onassis case was regarded doubtful.

To gain an annulment is usually a long, intricate process, requiring court hearings, evidence and witnesses.

Onassis and his first wife, Tina, were married in 1946 under Greek Orthodox auspices. Roman Catholicism regards as valid marriages of non-Catholics outside the Catholic Church, such as between Protestants or Orthodox unless one of the impediments is found making it void.

County Demos Urged To Work For 'Upset'

By TEX ROGERS

Howard County Democrats were admonished Thursday night to gird themselves for the final three weeks of campaigning before the general election Nov. 5.

Phillip Hartburger, Odessa attorney and Ector County Democratic chairman, spoke before a small audience of about 20 people in the district courtroom in the courthouse.

UNIQUE DEAL

"The Democrats find themselves in the unique position of being the underdog," he said. "We can get beat, but we don't have to. If we don't work, we will."

The 34-year-old former assistant to Sargent Shriver in the Poverty Program said that Democrats have been resting on their laurels of the past eight years, and have to go to work now.

He reviewed the campaign in Ector County, which compares to Howard County, saying that supporters of George Wallace, the American Independent Party's presidential candidate, got off to an early start in the campaign, and the Republican Party was second.

Democrats in the county were held back until after the national convention in late August and until party machinery began moving on the national level.

NOT FIRST TIME

Hartburger said the Democrat standard bearer, Hubert H. Humphrey, stands well as a candidate, and he biographed Humphrey from the time he was elected mayor of Minneapolis in 1945 when he was 34 years old, and when he was elected to the U.S. Senate in 1948.

"Humphrey was an underdog in both elections, but he won," Hartburger said. "He's an underdog today, also."

The Democratic presidential candidate's public record in crime, race relations, foreign relations and peace seeking is good, Hartburger said.

"He's the right man, the people's politician," he said. "Humphrey has won upsets before, and he can add another."

Speaking on various problems of the country, Hartburger urged Democratic leadership has increased some 30 per cent since 1961, and said Americans are paying less taxes today than they were in 1961.

"We remember the 10 per cent tax hike recently, but the government also has made $27 billion in tax cuts before that," he said.

PROFITS SOAR

Cities are a big problem, he asserted, and there are "not many large healthy cities." However, he said that Democrats had cut the number of substandard housing from 8.5 million dwelling units in 1961 by three million today. The number of slum dwellings of non-whites has been cut from 77 per cent of the total to 50 per cent.

He added that corporate profits have doubled, dividends have increased and employment has increased.

"The United States is not trouble free, and there are a lot of serious and complex problems which have to be worked out," he said. "Hubert Humphrey can face the problems and help solve them."

He urged that Howard County Democrats work hard in the last few weeks before the election, and take time to recruit voters, education programs and supply cars to carry electors to the polls.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Friday, Oct. 18, 1968 7-A

Jackie's Remarriage Will End Protection

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. John F. Kennedy's remarriage will end her Secret Service protection and government pension of $10,000 a year, government sources say.

Secret Service protection for her two children, John Jr., 7, and Caroline, 10, will continue, however, until they are 16 unless such protection is declined.

The presidential widow's pension and the Secret Service protection were among various special privileges Congress voted for Mrs. Kennedy after her husband was assassinated in November, 1963. Those two privileges were to end with remarriage.

A $50,000 payment for office and staff, later cut to $30,000, was ended July 1, 1967 when she said she didn't need it any more.

A Post Office spokesman said a legal decision probably will be needed to determine whether remarriage will put an end to free mail privileges, also granted by Congress.

Mrs. Kennedy comes from a wealthy family and her husband left a sizable fortune. Aristotle Onassis, the man she is marrying, is one of the world's richest men.

Body Of Young Girl Identified

DALLAS (AP)—Sheriff's deputies said the body of a young woman fished from the Trinity River was identified today by her parents as Barbara Ann Bryan, 15, of Dallas.

Investigators disclosed an autopsy finding earlier that the teenager had been strangled, presumably by a pillow case wrapped around the neck.

ENCYCLICAL INCITING

Capital Catholics Contest

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Protests in Washington, D.C., may become a test case for American Catholics dissenting against the Pope's ban on artificial birth control.

In Washington, Patrick Cardinal O'Boyle's insistence on compliance with the order has brought church walkouts and defiance by some priests.

Cardinal O'Boyle has penalized 13 priests and threatened penalties to 31 others for refusing to withdraw their objections to the encyclical.

"Throughout the country, many bishops apparently are waiting to see how the crack-down there comes off," said Toby Stein, communications chairman of the National Association of Catholic Laymen.

"If it works, some may go ahead with similar measures. That's why it's so important that the effort there be countered."

Elsewhere, there has been scattered lay conflict with ecclesiastical authority, including a walkout of a half dozen people from St. Patrick's Cathedral here.

But most of the lay opposition has been in statements and studies, as has that of some clergymen. Few bishops have acted to force a showdown, although Bishop James A. McNulty, of Buffalo, N.Y., did transfer seven dissenting faculty members from a seminary.

Some laymen and priests, supervision, said papal authority on birth control "cannot be rejected."

The board of directors of the National Council of Catholic Men, a lay body under episcopal at Fordham University here

FAITH OFFERS NEXT LESSON: CHASTISEMENT PART OF LIFE

The Book of Hebrews is one of faith, and the 11th chapter is known popularly as the "faith chapter." Eighteen times the phrase "by faith" (or a similar expression) is used in connection with the saints of old.

The passage for Sunday's lesson tells about our relationship of faith. The passage is Heb. 12:1-4, 7-15. The "cloud of witnesses" referred to in the first verse is that roster of great saints encouraging us on. The Christian, therefore, must do his best by ridding himself of every encumbrance that would prevent running (and keep on running) the best possible race.

In this, we are to fix our eyes on Jesus as the head of the great army of heroes of faith. In His humanity, Jesus ran the race before us, facing greater obstacles than we shall ever meet.

The lesson (v. 4) suggests that if difficulty or persecution has not come, they may well come. But chastening is to be taken as a part of Christian growth. The word implies moral training and not necessarily punishment. In any event, we are to endure chastening because God is treating us as sons. Lack of divine discipline should actually cause us concern. Discipline from God is always "for our profit," and it produces inner peace and righteousness.

In this knowledge we are to be strengthened, and we should strengthen others, for this is one of the best ways to strengthen ourselves. Again, the process of continuation is stressed — "follow (or pursue) peace with all men." If we do this it will keep us from falling away, as was the constant danger to the Hebrew Christians and is no less to us.

also backed the encyclical, as did 16 faculty members at Immaculate Conception Seminary in Darlington, N.J.

Many institutional theologians have taken opposing views, and 735 priests across the country signed a statement originated at the Catholic University of America in Washington defending conscientious dissent.

Among laymen, there have been protest "pray-ins" in some European churches, along with a petition for the encyclical's revision by a meeting of 5,000 West German laymen.

A Gallup poll indicated 54 per cent of American Catholics oppose the contraception ban, and 65 per cent think it possible to practice contraception and remain a "good Catholic."

Public opinion polls abroad found 70 per cent of Dutch Catholics think the encyclical is wrong, and half of French Catholics think it should be ignored.

In Philadelphia, an assembly of Pax Romana, an organization of lay Catholic intellectuals to promote cultural development, said the matter need "further investigation" and varying views should "not be considered disloyal."

At a meeting of the National Student Association in Manhattan, Kan., student presidents from 20 Catholic campuses said the encyclical did not represent "the consensus of the majority of the Church" and jeopardized its unity.

Baptist Youth Meet For Revolution

FORT WORTH — Probably the largest religious student gathering in the nation will convene here this weekend to examine the student's role in revolution.

Three thousand students from about 80 Texas campuses are expected to participate in the 49th Texas Baptist Student Union Convention, today through Sunday, according to Dr. W. F. Howard, director of the sponsoring Division of Student Work of the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

Dr. Cecil E. Sherman, a native Texan and pastor of First Baptist Church, Asheville, N.C., will keynote the convention. The former BGCT staff member will address himself to the convention theme — "The Church: Resource for Revolution."

Other convention speakers include Dr. Gordon C. Cinard, BGCT president and pastor of First Baptist Church, San Angelo and Dr. James Flammang, pastor of First Baptist Church, Abilene.

In determining the convention theme, 1,200 Texas Baptist students, meeting last year at Golieta (N.M.) Baptist Assembly, decided that Christian students cannot remain silent in a country boiling with student unrest and revolution, that the time has come for "revolutionary churchmanship," that Christians cannot be satisfied with the status quo, and that Texas Baptist students must "take up the challenge" to be "heard responsibly."

Also featured on the program will be Dwight Young, 24, a former Southern Baptist Missionary Journeyman to Hong Kong Young, a graduate of Texas Technological College, Lubbock, serves as a staff assistant in the department of missionary personnel of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va. Young's experience includes stints as a summer missionary to Juarez, Mexico, for the Texas Baptist Student Union in 1963 and a community ambassador from Lubbock to Nigeria in 1964. In Hong Kong, he taught English at Hong Kong Baptist College.

Other BSU convention personalities include Ed Seabough, associate secretary in the missionary personnel department of the Southern Baptist Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga.; Donald James of Texas Tech, State Baptist Student Union president; the Pilgrim 20 Singers, 13 collegians from five campuses throughout Kansas and Nebraska; and Leroy Yarbrough, minister of music, Westside Baptist Church will hold a revival starting Sunday which is scheduled to last throughout the week. There will be evening services, except Saturday, starting at 7:30.

The Rev. Jim Farmer, San Angelo pastor, will lead the revival. Del Hartin, Big Spring, will serve as music leader. The church's nursery will be open during all services.

Conducts Revival

Westside Baptist Church will hold a revival starting Sunday which is scheduled to last throughout the week. There will be evening services, except Saturday, starting at 7:30.

The Rev. Jim Farmer, San Angelo pastor, will lead the revival. Del Hartin, Big Spring, will serve as music leader. The church's nursery will be open during all services.

Christmas Comes Early At St. Paul

The Women of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will sponsor a public Christmas Institute, Wednesday, from 9 a.m. until noon. The institute will be a workshop of handmade Christmas gifts and cards and is designed to help instill the true meaning of Christmas through devotional and family participation in the making of gifts, cards, and decorations.

A nursery will be provided during the meeting. Mrs. John Furquerson and Mrs. Don Wiley are coordinating the activities.

Revival Held At Coahoma

Coahoma Assembly of God Church will hold a revival starting Saturday night that will last until Thursday, according to the Rev. Jerry Johnson, pastor of the church.

The Rev. L. R. Lewis, pastor of Snyder Assembly of God Church, will preach during the nightly meeting which will start at 7:30.

REV. LUTHER MANN

College Revival Begins Sunday

The College Baptist Church begins a series of revival services on Sunday. The revival services will be conducted each evening at 7:30.

The Friday evening service will begin at 6:45 and conclude at 7:45 so that the members of the church might attend the local high school football game in Memorial Stadium.

Leading in the revival will be the Rev. Luther Mann, pastor of the Wilshire Park Baptist Church of Midland. Rev. Mann has led the Midland church to record heights in building and in total additions to the church. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and is now completing doctoral studies at the Luther Rice Seminary in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. Kenney Sheppard will direct the music during the revival. He is the choral director for the Big Spring High School and the music director for the College church.

It's easy-when you know the answers

All of life is not far removed from the classroom. There are truths to be learned every day. And there are questions to be answered.

But some people don't have the answer when they need it. And some people do...

Any teacher will tell you it's a question of preparation. And any preacher will tell you the same.

The people who go to church on Sunday have no more problems than those who stay home. Nor do they expect as a result to have any fewer.

They believe simply in preparation—preparation of the mind, conscience, heart and soul... faith.

This is the preparation God offers men... for the questions that will confront us all tomorrow!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Negro 'Laugh-In' Fast And Funny

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The marked family resemblance between the weekly "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In" and Thursday night's NBC special "Soul" was no accident.

"Soul" was really a Negro "Laugh-In." George Schlatter and Ed Friendly, fathers of the Monday night hit series, assembled a number of talented and attractive Negro performers—singers, dancers, comedians—and assigned the writing to a team from the Watts Writers Workshop. Then they mixed the music, the jokes and the sketches like a tossed salad. The result was fast, funny and handsome.

NEVER BITTER

There was more singing and dancing and more impressive production numbers than on the parent show. And, of course, it was possible to slant the humor toward Negro-white relationships, and present inside Negro jokes. While it was brash, irreverent and sometimes a little risqué, it was never bitter.

Lou Rawls and Martha Reeves and the Vandellas stuck to their musical specialties, while another singing act, Hines, Hines and Dad, moved out of their usual repertoire to join the comedy with great success. The burden of the topical humor was on the professional funny men—George Kirby, Redd Foxx, Nipsey Russell and Slappy White. In "Laugh-In" style, endless short takes and wise cracks were mixed with some pretty old jokes. The humor was aimed at everything from the Ku Klux Klan to the Negroes themselves.

Earlier there was another engaging special on the network, "Fabulous Shorts," a delightful hour dedicated to showing, in whole or in part, animated cartoon films that have won Oscars.

ABC PATCH

Present, of course, were Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck, Bugs Bunny and Mr. Magoo. But there were also two off-beat and fascinating short subjects to be especially savored by the adult audience.

One was a cartoon called "Moonbird," which started with a recording of an imaginative conversation between two very young children. The creators—parents of the children—then matched the animation to the children's words.

The other was a product of Yugoslavia called "Ersatz," which with some distinctive drawings wordlessly editorialized on the artificial nature of our society.

ABC, only one month into its new season, is already planning to patch up its schedule. In early January it will launch a weekly variety hour starring British pop singer Tom Jones. "Judd for the Defense," a courtroom dramatic series now in its second season will be relocated from its Friday night spot to make room for the new show. The network has not indicated which hour show will be dropped at midseason.

Capt. Fought Selected Chief Of Administration

Capt. Louis J. Fought became chief of administration at Webb AFB recently, replacing Maj. Cletus T. Pajot, who is now base executive officer. He had been administrative officer for the Comptroller since December, 1967. Before that he was chief of Security Police.

The captain came to Webb in September, 1965, immediately after he was commissioned through AFOTC. He was initially assigned to Security Police Division, and in December, 1966, he became chief of security police. A second lieutenant, he was at that time the youngest chief in the command and one of the youngest in the Air Force.

While a security police officer, he attended an eight-week police administration course at the University of Southern California in 1966. As chief of security police at Webb, he initiated riot control training at the base before it was an Air Force requirement. Webb was the first base in Air Training Command to give this type of training.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Capt. Fought received a bachelor of science degree in general studies from Louisiana State University in 1965. In addition to his chief duty as administration head, Capt. Fought is resource advisor for the Air Base.

CAPT. L. J. FOUGHT

Group commander and emergency services officer for the command post.

A private pilot since 1965, Capt. Fought is commander of the Big Spring Composite Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol and a member of the Webb AFB Aero Club. Before entering the Air Force he was a CAP cadet and CAP senior member in Louisiana. He took command of the Big Spring squadron in July.

Capt. Fought and his wife, the former Glenna Kemp of New Orleans, have a one-year-old daughter, Leigh.

West failed to diagnose an unusual defensive play that would have assured the defeat of South's four spade contract.

West opened the three of hearts and East's king fell under declarer's ace. Declarer drew trump in two rounds, cashed the ace of clubs and the queen of hearts and then exited with a club. It was his intention to force the opposition to open up the diamond suit for him, since it did not appear profitable for him to lead that suit himself.

East cashed the king and queen of clubs. He was afraid that a heart return next would present the declarer with a ruff and discard, so he exited with a small diamond away from the ace. South put up the jack. West covered with the queen and North's king won the trick. A diamond lead from the dummy now enabled declarer to score the ten of diamonds for the game fulfilling trick.

When East returned the small diamond and South played the jack, West should have permitted him to win the trick. Since the defense had taken only two tricks to that point, there can be no hope of defeating the contract unless East holds the ace of diamonds and—South has three cards in that suit.

If West ducks the jack of diamonds, declarer is obliged to lead the suit himself and, whether he plays the ten or the eight, the defense must now win two tricks in the suit. Observe that, had East cashed the ace of diamonds when he was in, his partner's queen would have become exposed to a fatal finesse subsequently.

Top Young Farmers

Star Farmer Of America Is Worth About $80,000

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Boyd Joe Spencer Jr., 21, of Albert, Okla., the 1968 Star Farmer of America, is a student, businessman and farmer, and soon will become a father.

Spencer received the Star Farmer award and $1,000 Thursday night at the Future Farmers of America national convention.

HONOR STUDENT

He was chosen from among four regional Star Farmers. The others are DeLane Ruess, 20, dairy farmer from Owosso, Mich.; Michel Linn Oakley, 20, seed specialist from Scio, Ore.; and Jack Wesley Gibbons, 20, Clymer, N.Y., dairy farmer.

Spencer is an honor student at Oklahoma State University, majoring in agricultural economics. His wife, Janie Sue, whom he married a year ago, also is an OSU student and is expecting a baby in February.

They live in a mobile home at Stillwater and take it back to the farm for summer use.

INCOME

Spencer has invested $140,000 in farming and has debts of $39,000, giving him a net worth of about $80,000. In six years of supervised farming programs, his income has totaled $52,752.

He has bought 240 acres of land and irrigates 80 acres of it. He is a partner with his father in ownership of a Polled Hereford beef herd of 222 head.

Spencer and his father own their land separately, but farm it together. They raise cotton, peanuts and wheat.

Young Spencer has hired a man to work on the farm during the school months. He and Janie try to get home on week-

Capt. Lord Gains Honor

Capt. Richard F. Lord, an instructor in the 3561st Student Squadron, has been selected Classroom Instructor of the Quarter at Webb AFB, it was announced this week.

He teaches the counterinsurgency course, and serves as a training officer with the student squadron, presently with undergraduate pilot training class 69-G.

The Classroom Instructor of the Quarter award — a wing honor — covers the July-September quarterly period.

Since receiving his wings from Williams AFB, Ariz., the captain has flown the C-141 Starlifter and the AC-47 Dragonship. He flew the latter aircraft when stationed in Southeast Asia. The captain recorded 330 missions over Vietnam. All his missions were close air support, usually aiding ground forces which were under attack.

For his service there, the captain was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross with three oak leaf clusters and the Air Medal with 10 oak leaf clusters as well as other military decorations.

He came to Webb in December, 1967. Initially he served as a T-37 instructor pilot.

Dear Abby

He Likes Company

DEAR ABBY: If I live to be 100, I'll never be able to understand why a man says he can't stand to stay home and look at the four walls, yet he can go to a neighborhood bar and sit there for hours on end. How about the four walls there?

We are both 56 and have a good marriage, except for this one difference of opinion which seems to give us cause for argument. I'm not a drinking woman, but if I were, I'd just as soon stay home and drink by myself. Why should I go to a bar and buy drinks for other people? I don't care for friends that much. They are a lot of trouble and expense. My husband's not a drunkard, but he likes to sit in bars. Why?

Maybe you or one of your readers can give me an answer.

DEAR LIZ: The "difference of opinion" that seems to give you cause for argument is that you don't care for friends and your husband does. The reason the neighborhood bar is so popular is that people need people. I say moderation is essential to the enjoyment of everything, but the man who drinks alone could be a bigger problem than the one who seeks companionship.

DEAR ABBY: The problem that concerns me right now is the bugging some of my buddies are giving me because of your being my "pin up girl." Yes, that is right, Abby, I cut your picture out of the STARS AND STRIPES, which all the guys here in South Vietnam get, and I pinned your picture up on my wall locker.

I don't care what the guys think. Every guy has himself a pin up girl he likes to dream about, and mine is YOU. The thing that bugs me the most is that people say that the picture isn't really you, Abby. They say the newspapers get a picture of a beautiful girl and they say it's you.

So, please, do me a favor and send me a picture of yourself. It doesn't have to be in a bathing suit like all the other guys have in their lockers. Just a plain picture of your face so I can really show you off.

YOUR SECRET ADMIRER
DEAR ADMIRER: Your letter made my day. I like secret admirers, but you're TOO secret for your own good. Please send me your name and address and I'll send you my picture.

DEAR ABBY: I haven't had a well day in 3 years. First I had trouble with my back and was in traction for 5 weeks. Then I got a sinus infection which gave me a headache. I couldn't shake for a month. Next I got a bad case of the shingles which hung on for nearly 3 months.

All of a sudden my hearing went bad and my doctor discovered I had high blood pressure and diabetes. I was telling my neighbor about this and she says I should throw away all my pills, think positive, and stay with wheat germ and yogurt, and in 30 days I'll be bowling. ((She is 58, looks like 40, bowls 3 nights a week. I'm 55, and look like 90.) Should I listen to my neighbor? I'm willing to try anything.

A SICK WOMAN
DEAR SICK: I'm all for "positive thinking," but the best place to get medical advice is from your doctor.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

BUSINESS AS USUAL FOR AMERICAN PILOTS

Bombers Continue Daily Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. fighter-bombers streaked through heavy monsoon clouds again today to continue their daily bombing of North Vietnam while the Saigon government continued to balk at agreeing to a bombing halt.

With the military men it was business as usual although some said they felt an eventual bombing halt now appeared inevitable. More air strikes over North Vietnam's panhandle were planned for Saturday.

100 MISSIONS

Air Force, Navy and Marine jets today kept up their steady attack on enemy supply channels south of the 19th parallel. Reports on the raids will not be available until Saturday, but U.S. pilots logged 100 missions over North Vietnam Thursday, concentrating on boats and barges along coastal waterways.

Assessment of the damage was hampered by the poor weather but the pilots reported destroying or damaging 19 supply boats, two trucks, six warehouses and two bridges.

U.S. military sources said the American pilots are concentrating more on the waterways because there is less truck traffic moving south.

"There is a hell of a lot less night. The pilot reported a large secondary explosion," and of stockpiled enemy guns, ammunition and food stockpiles. The lull in ground fighting continued. In its morning command the U.S. Command on routine patrol in the My Tho River 35 miles southwest of Saigon intercepted two sampans with the enemy Thursday.

BIGGEST KILL

Australia's small air contingent reported its biggest kill of the war so far, 40 Viet Cong killed by a Canberra jet bomber near Pleiku, in the central highlands. A spokesman said the bomber attacked an enemy troop concentration Wednesday.

The Navy river patrol boats continued. U.S. Navy river patrol boats on routine patrol in the My Tho River 35 miles southwest of Saigon intercepted two sampans with the enemy Thursday.

U.S. and South Vietnamese infantrymen reported discovering two more munitions stockpiles for Viet Cong troops in the 10 and 20 miles south of Saigon. Near the demilitarized zone, U.S. Marines uncovered a cache of 300 rounds of 152mm artillery rounds.

The Navy crew seized more than 3,000 bottles of antibiotics, $6,700 in plasters, large quantities of other medicines and seven Vietnamese suspected of being Viet Cong.

A Devotional For The Day

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. (John 15:13)
PRAYER: O God, I thank Thee for Thy grace offered to me every day amid my trials and temptations. Help me to tell others about Thy great love and sacrifice on the cross so that they may experience Thy redemption and be thankful evermore. In Jesus' name. Amen.

The Electoral Jumble

If no one candidate wins a majority electoral vote as a result of the Nov. 5 election, a great many complexities may arise, and the nation could face considerable turmoil. Some people see danger to the country, as well as confusion, in event of a deadlocked election.

The magazine "U.S. News & World Report" in a recent issue carries an exhaustive analysis on possibilities resulting from the deadlock.

It points, first of all, the time element. The electors who will not meet until Dec. 16, so — if the issue is not decided at the polls — here is about a six-week wait. Then, if the matter goes to the House of Representatives, that body will not take up the question until next January 6. That's another three weeks. This time element — if there is an uncertainty as to outcome — means a period of intense negotiating and a buildup of pressures in Congress.

Bear in mind that the House membership which might vote on the presidency would be made up of members elected in November, which means the complexion might not be what it is now. A Republican majority might be expected to go for Nixon, a Democratic majority for Humphrey. Since there are no congressmen wearing the American Independent party label, votes for Wallace would have to come from a coalition.

The House, if it voted for president, would be voting by states, one vote for each. There are at least three state delegations in the House divided evenly between the two major parties. How would they vote?

Consider such possibilities:

Humphrey could run second or third, but if Democrats had control of the House they could elect him president; Nixon could run out of first place, but could be elected if Republicans happened to gain control of the House; nobody knows how a vote would be cast by a congressman in whose states Wallace ran first. Would they abide by this majority, or would they stick by party lines?

Another interesting facet: In a deadlocked election, the vice president is named by the Senate, and it can consider only the two top candidates. The Senate could choose a vice president not on the same ticket with the president elected by the House. And think of this one: If the Senate, by some remote chance should be tied in the balloting for vice president, then Hubert Humphrey, the incumbent vice president might be placed in the position of casting the tie-breaking vote.

There are eventualities here that the voters ought to consider. Lack of a clear majority for any candidate could bring great complexities. And these same eventualities would indicate that something should be done in the next session of Congress to change the antiquated electoral college system.

Plague Of Locusts

Everyone knows that a plague of locusts was a common natural disaster in Biblical times. Comparatively few know that such disasters still occasionally play hob with crops in our time.

Egypt, Saudi Arabia and the Sudan are currently threatened with the worst locust invasion in a decade. More than 200,000 square miles of five Sudanese provinces are already infested with these voracious insects, and more are expected. Unusually heavy rains, which provide conditions in which the locusts thrive and multiply, heighten the danger.

Considering the great advances in pest and disease control, it is hard to believe that such disasters are seriously threatened in the 20th century. The situation points up one of the enormous chasms that exist between underdeveloped and more advanced countries which profess to have controls.

It also points up how Nature can slap down man in all his wisdom.

Holmes Alexander For And Against Some Congressmen

WASHINGTON — The Corrupt Practices Act hasn't caught up with me yet. For years I've been stuffing the ballot-boxes by "voting" in states where I'm not registered, so once more I mark my ballots.

There's no practical way of indicting the entire Democratic Party (which it deserves) for some Democrats are fine fellows. It's no pain at all to pull the lever for Talmadge (Ga.), Bible (Nev.), Long (La.) and even Hughes (Iowa), a superior man by any count. Magnuson of Washington is a fixture that should stay put.

IT'S TERRIBLE torture in Maryland where both Senate candidates are personal friends, but I'm for Brewster (D) because Mathias (R) has taken money from the peace-mongering Council For A Liveable World. It's agony in Arkansas because Fulbright deserves to be rubbed out, but I would not want to participate in an act against his academic freedom to be wrong. Ribicoff of Connecticut lost me when he hollared "Gestapo!" against Mayor Daley in Chicago. It's just as wrong to call a good American a Fascist as a Communist, isn't it?

IT WOULD SUIT me if the tombstones rose up to vote for Schweiker against Clark in Pennsylvania, for Hansen to win over Church in Idaho, for anybody to beat Javits in New York and anybody to defeat McGovern in South Dakota. Also we hope Nelson in Wisconsin, and Morse of Oregon are voted out of the Senate. The only act of civil disobedience I ever contemplated is to rig the voting machines against sitting senators, like these, who don't seem to care which side wins the anti-Communist wars.

PARTICULAR pleasure should go with the opportunity to ghost-write for Barry Goldwater in Arizona, for we need him back in the Senate. We also need Republican Tom Curtis of Missouri who would add several depth of gray matter to the upper chamber. It would be a shame to lose Cotton of New Hampshire or Bennett of Utah or Dominick of Colorado.

Something extra's going to be needed among Republicans to bring Max Rafferty to the Senate for California instead of Alan Cranston. If there's any moral justification for ballot box-stuffing it lies in the defection of many GOP Californians who are out for revenge against Rafferty for beating Tom Kuchel in the primary.

IF DEMOCRAT Cranston gets in on Kuchel votes, the Senate will have another biped, little more, whereas Rafferty would bring warmth, color and a handful of opinions which now comprise the mainstream of Republican thinking. A couple of governorships matter much — Arch Moore for West Virginia and Jim Babcock of Montana — because these are young men who could be Republican senators before Nixon leaves the White House.

BOULDER, Colo. (AP) — A 59-year-old woman, charged with arson after her home burned, said in District Court she admitted setting fire to the house to protect her husband. She said she was afraid he had dropped a burning cigarette behind a couch cushion and she didn't want him blamed. The charge was dismissed.

How To Rouse The Envy Of Your Neighbors

NEW YORK (AP) — Do you remember how dazzled the neighbors were when you rolled up to the house in your new chrome-shiny automobile, its 400 horses restrained but ready, its interior as sumptuous as an old-fashioned parlor?

Want to relive that thrill? Today you do it with a tractor, perhaps one of the 14 horsepower jobs with attached lawn mower and snow thrower, electric starting, four speeds, solid state radio, chrome hubcaps...

IN SUBURBIA, two cars fall today to have the impact of just one big new car a few years ago. In 1961 17 per cent of American families owned two cars; now it's 32 per cent, too high for snobbery.

The tractor instead is the thing to rouse the envy of your neighbors, to use up that leisure time constructively and, incidentally, to get the work done.

"We call it the man toy," said a spokesman for International Harvester, one of the biggest of the nearly 50 companies that make lawn tractors of one size or another. "Many buyers don't need them; they could get by with something smaller."

STUDYING the warranty tags that come back to the factory, the IH man finds the average purchaser is a $12,000-a-year man owning 1 1/2 acre or more. But some also are two-home owners, perhaps with a vacation home in the country.

Another marketing man, from Deere & Co., claims his outfit brought out its biggest lawn tractor at 14 h.p. as something for motels and institutions. "But we can't stop homeowners from buying them," he said.

Not that any manufacturer would try to stop them. They couldn't. Demand goes up each year, and something like 300,000 might be sold in 1968. Lawns, someday might be the most America, aside from federal highways.

ONE MANUFACTURER estimates that nearly three million riding mowers and yard tractors now cruise suburban lawns. Make that figure 25 million if you count the old machines, the low prestige types, the power mowers you must walk behind.

And just as on the highway, there's a real horsepower battle out on the lawn. For a while the industry seemed to stall at a top range of 14 h.p. Then this month one manufacturer announced a 15 h.p. job.

Will others now be content with their 14 horses? Likely not, for each year, marketing studies show, people trade up to bigger models.

Hal Boyle Her Idea Of Football

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — I admit I still don't understand all the finer points of the game, but as a captive audience for televised football every weekend I am nevertheless in a position to offer my observations, conclusions and suggestions.

I now feel qualified not only to comment on gridiron activity as presently conducted, but also to give advice on how its quality and safety can be improved and, especially, how to speed it up. Although playing time is supposed to be only one hour, I have never seen a game completed in less than two.

FIRST OF all, it's asking too much for all those boys to play with just one ball. Giving each side its own would cut down considerably on all the dangerous pushing and shoving that goes on when everybody fights for the only available ball.

Then, the players themselves should come to a firm decision about which way they want to go, instead of chasing halfway down the field and then suddenly deciding they prefer to move in the opposite direction, after all.

THEY SHOULD also quit changing their minds about whether they even want to play, rather than to keep running back and forth from the sidelines into the field every few minutes.

One of the most obvious practices slowing down the game is their habit of doing so many things twice. They run, pass or kick—and then they do exactly the same thing again, only this time very slowly. No wonder a 15-minute quarter lasts half an hour!

There's another contributing factor. The stadium clocks leave a lot to be desired. They're always stopping, and the participants have to hang around waiting till they get them started again.

The players could speed the action a good deal if they'd hold the jokes until later instead of gathering their pals together in a tight little knot to tell them the latest, right in the midst of the game.

THOUGH MY husband is always too intent on watching the action to further my education in the esoteric realm of piskin parlance, I have on my own absorbed the idea that a screen pass is a pass viewed on the television screen, an offside is the team that's having an off day, two quarterbacks make a halfback and two halfbacks equal one fullback, and a 220-pound safety man doesn't sound very safe to me.

My final bit of free counsel to those who would make football a better game is, send in those men in striped shirts who are always hanging around the field. They are the fastest runners of all.

Hal Boyle, who usually writes this column, is ill.

Around The Rim

The Passing Scene

It seems to be popular right now to claim that we have lost "our national sense of humor." As a matter of fact, that's about all we have left.

I CAN'T join those whose bumper stickers say "Vote NO For President," because that ticket doesn't have a vice presidential candidate.

"You just can't trust the Republicans," said the office loyalist. "They're stealing this election!" "What do you mean?" a Republican asked indignantly. "It's obvious! Everybody knows Goldwater deserved another chance!"

Not-that-it-really-matters: Pictures taken three years ago show Hubert Humphrey with distinctly gray hair — but today it's dark and glossy. Well? Nixon is supposed to touch his up a bit, too.

LBJ REPORTEDLY is asking $1 million for his memoir, who does he think he is — Frank Sinatra?

Wonder if anyone has told George Wallace the old one about "Three's a crowd"?

Current Comedy reports that the college campuses are in turmoil. They want longer hair, shorter skirts, louder transistors, less supervision and free love. And that's only the professors!

THEN THERE was the 18-year-old college freshman who thought Orientation meant they'd have Chinese food for dinner.

The Oklahoma Daily, student publication at OU, reports the biggest laugh received by Columnist Art Buchwald at an appearance there recently was when he quoted several graffiti, ending with: "George Wallace uses hair straightener."

A FRIEND wrote: "May you be in heaven a half day before the devil finds out you're dead." I'm assuming he doesn't mean right now.

If the polls are correct, H-cubed is headed for a defeat similar to Barry Goldwater's four years ago.

He can always do what Goldwater is doing: Run for his old Senate seat. It's the American way — starting over again at the bottom.

Marquis Childs The McCarthy Influence

WASHINGTON — Returning from his Riviera vacation to take a writing assignment on the World Series, Sen. Eugene McCarthy left many of his young followers not so much disillusioned as troubled and confused. Newcomers to politics, their dedicated service begun in the snows of New Hampshire, they feel their leader had left them in limbo with few road signs pointing to a way out.

PARTLY THIS can be put down to the McCarthy temperament. With a lofty view of personal ambition this has been the oblique approach of the philosopher to politics. From the beginning, when his bold adventure in the primaries had made him a national figure, he has taken a detached view of the probable election of Richard Nixon. After all, he once said, we will still control the Senate and we can block what we don't want him doing.

LARGE NUMBERS of young people, as this reporter discovered in a swing across the country, are turned off. The rejection of their hero and the defeat of the minority plank on Vietnam at the Chicago convention left them with a feeling of outrage and hurt. The political process was rigged and they were having no more of it.

These are not the hippies, the psychedelic disciples who long since opted out in such barren retreats as Haight-Ashbury in San Francisco and East Village in New York. They are serious young people who in many instances slaved long hours in primary after primary for McCarthy.

TOLD BY McCarthy that their choice is now to go out and work for statewide candidates following the McCarthy line, they react with indifference or indignation.

They were novices and unreality is their hallmark. No compromise: in this department they bear a family resemblance to many of McCarthy's big-money backers. These are the men whose names are on the notes for the McCarthy campaign debt — some estimates put it as high as $600,000. Their resentment, hatred even, of Hubert Humphrey is said to be obsessive. Whatever influence they exert will be to keep McCarthy neutral through Nov. 5.

The realists know full well the extent of McCarthy's influence in these waning weeks. One such is Gov. Harold Hughes of Iowa, a Democrat running for a Senate seat, with the Iowa Poll showing the Nixon-Agnew ticket ahead by a margin of more than two to one. He says the only person who could help him would be Sen. Edward Kennedy and that because Kennedy would draw crowds.

IN THE big-city states, notably New York and California, the McCarthy influence is still a factor. He may have helped Alan Cranston, the Democrat who confronts the hard-line, highly articulate right-winger, State Superintendent of Instruction Max Rafferty. In New York the story is different, since the McCarthyist Democrat, Paul O'Dwyer, who refuses to support the national ticket, faces Sen. Jacob Javits, a formidable vote getter.

A conviction that haunts many of the young is that if their man had got it he would have won. Or anyway, they add somewhat lamely, he would have done better than Humphrey. This gets into the tricky and yet fascinating area of might-have-beens.

IT IS IMPOSSIBLE to believe that McCarthy could have offset the defection of blue-collar workers to George Wallace. His presence at the head of the ticket with his liberal, dovish stance could have swelled the procession of the disgruntled and disaffected streaming out of normally Democratic ranks.

But a McCarthy ticket would have channeled the youthful ardor of the primaries in a national campaign. That brand of enthusiasm is sadly missing in this campaign. In the view of this observer that element alone — nor, for that matter, whatever else McCarthy might bring to a national ticket — could not make the difference for a party plagued with a hornet's nest of troubles. (Copyright, 1968, United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

David Lawrence From One Dictatorship To Another

WASHINGTON — No outward sign has appeared to indicate that the rulers of the Soviet Union realize what has been the effect of the invasion of Czechoslovakia on the public opinion of the rest of the world. A state of tension has developed, and the conversations of diplomats everywhere reflect that this has not been reduced in the slightest by the Russian promises that their troops will eventually be withdrawn from that country.

IF IT WERE not for the strength of the Soviets through their possession of nuclear power, there might have been a conventional war in Europe by this time. For the peoples in every one of the Eastern European countries know that they are no longer secure and that at any moment they may be invaded and coerced by Moscow into making subservient treaties and agreements.

Ever since World War II ended, the Eastern European countries have been referred to as the "Communist bloc." It has been assumed that they share the doctrines of communism, and they have often been called "allies" of the Soviet Union. But today they have truly become captives and are being deprived of their independence and sovereignty.

THE KREMLIN itself has not revealed what it hoped to gain by the move in invading Czechoslovakia or just why the Soviets believe that the involuntary signing of a treaty by the Czechs agreeing to the presence of the Russian troops gives any assurance of "peaceful co-existence."

The secretary general of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization said the other day in Lisbon that the invasion of Czechoslovakia proves the Soviet Union has "a powerful military instrument capable of massive operations at minimal notice." He called for a strong and united Europe to counter the Soviets, and declared West Germany has become the key "not only to European security but to supremacy in Europe as well."

THE RUSSIANS have trouble in Asia and undoubtedly are worried about a hostile China. They are even concerned that the United States may some day make a deal with Red China. But this is not considered here as likely to happen. For the military groups are in command in China, and at the moment the Peking government is actively supporting the North Vietnamese.

Meanwhile, the United States is caught between the various currents of hostility in Asia as well as in Europe. Veteran observers believe, however, that Russia has lost more than it has gained in Eastern Europe and that the Kremlin will not dare to become involved in any military operations with West Germany, as this is certain to draw NATO forces into action as a protective measure.

THE VIETNAM WAR, therefore, becomes part of a big game of strategy, with Peking and Moscow each trying to preserve an influence with the Hanoi government. Coincidentally, in the Middle East, Russia is deeply involved in the Israeli-Arab situation and recently has been strengthening the Soviet fleet in the Mediterranean.

WHILE THE West has refrained from making any counter-moves, warnings have been given nevertheless through the quiet channels of diplomacy that the Soviets must not go too far or they will have a large war on their hands.

For if the Russian conquest of Czechoslovakia is permitted to stand, it means that about all that World War II accomplished was the transfer of power from one dictatorship to another. (Copyright, 1968, Publishers - Holt Syndicate)

SNYDER — Big Spring Runnels gained revenge for the only defeat it has suffered this season by trouncing Snyder Lamar, 20-6, here Thursday night. The win left the Yearlings with a 3-1 record.

A great second half effort, especially on defense, turned the trick for Runnels. Coach Dan Lewis and Bobby Zellars said Johnny Ortega, Mark Risetter, Rafael Luevanos, Jay Tee Smith, Charley Brown, and Chris Duron played particularly well for Runnels on defense.

The Yearlings scored the first touchdown with 16 seconds left in the first half and then counted once in each period of the final half.

Lamar, whose only previous loss had been to Big Spring Goliad, used a major penalty against Big Spring to gain possession of the ball on the Yearling 20 in the opening round and scored in three plays to take a 6-0 lead.

Again in the second, Lamar drove the length of the field only to fumble in the end zone. Smith recovered for Big Spring. The Yearlings then mounted an 80-yard march in three minutes that paid off. Dick Conley passed 35 yards to Manuel Ramirez in one play, then sought out Smith on another pass that netted 16 yards. A 20-yard aerial to Luevanos was nullified by an infraction but Smith opened the door with a run down to the one.

Clifford Hobbs next slipped a pass to Conley in the end zone. When Hobbs ran the extra point, Big Spring went ahead to stay.

Snyder fumbled after taking the third quarter kickoff and Brown recovered for Big Spring.

on the Runnels 48. The Yearlings then scored in eight plays, Hobbs going to Luevanos for the final 13 yards on a pass. There were 55 seconds left in the period.

In the fourth, Conley blocked a Snyder punt and the Yearlings bruised 60 yards to pay dirt. Ortega was the 'big man' in the drive, lugging the ball eight times for 44 yards. Smith ultimately managed the TD on a one-yard scamper, with 2:11 left in the game.

Ortega ran with the ball 21 times for 88 yards. Smith eight times for 67 and Conley 10 for 47.

Runnels ran 54 plays to only 29 for Snyder. Lamar made 104 yards in ground gains the first half but only 21 after the intermission.

On offense, Luevanos, Robert Foster, Ramirez, Larry Gonzales, Risetter, David Coates, Joe Gravengaard, Pablo Flores, Guy Condra, Hobbs, Conley Smith and Ortega were outstanding.

Battered Wildcats Clash With Ohio State Bucks

By The Associated Press

At Northwestern University they might just be contemplating a mock string-up of the guy who mapped out the school's football schedule this season.

On successive Saturdays, the Wildcats have been paired against Miami, Fla. (No. 12 in this week's Associated Press poll), top-ranked Southern California, Purdue (then ranked No. 1), and Notre Dame (sixth this week).

No. 3 Penn State is idle, while fourth-ranked Kansas draws Big Eight foe Oklahoma State, fresh from a 21-17 upset of Houston. No. 5 Purdue should have LeRoy Keyes back at full strength in what is expected to be an easy breeze against Wake Forest. Keyes suffered a strained back in practice a week ago.

Sixth-rated Notre Dame is heavily favored to clobber winless Illinois, and in the process quarterback Terry Hanratty may surpass the Irish's total yards record set by the immortal George Gipp. Hanratty is only 183 yards shy of the 4,110 total yards amassed by the Gipper from 1917-1920.

In other games involving the Top 10, No. 7 Florida travels to North Carolina, No. 8 Tennessee plays host to Alabama in a Southeastern Conference showdown, No. 9 Arkansas faces a crucial test at No. 17 Texas in a night game and No. 10 Georgia entertains Vanderbilt.

Two games match teams in the second 10—No. 13 Nebraska at home against Big Eight rival Missouri (tied for 20th) and No. 18 Michigan at No. 19 Indiana.

Other games involving the rated are: No. 11 Syracuse at California, No. 12 Miami plays host to Virginia Tech tonight, No. 14 Stanford faces Washington State at Spokane, No. 15 Texas Tech meets Mississippi State in a night game at Jackson, No. 16 Mississippi is at home against Southern Mississippi and Kentucky invades Louisiana State, tied with Missouri for 20th, in a night affair.

Brahmas Grab Initial Win

SNYDER — The ninth grade Brahmas of Big Spring won their first game of the season in convincing fashion here Thursday night, turning back Snyder Lamar by a score of 24-0.

David Stanley scored all the points for the Brahmas, going 16, 13 and 14 yards for touchdowns and adding six extra points.

Stanley carried the ball 19 times for 140 yards and an eight-yard average. Billy Wood gained 75 yards in 14 luges, Gatlin Jones 35 in nine tries and Rondle Brock 20 in five attempts.

The Brahmas gained a total of 316 yards in 58 plays for a 5.5 norm and completed four of nine passes for 71 paces. Jones punted four times for a 33-yard average.

On offense, Fan Whatley, Jeff Murdock, Gerald Carter, Bill Coggin, Thomas Brewer and Rodney Imel excelled for Big Spring.

Murdock made eight tackles and blocked two punts. Brock intercepted a pass, blocked a punt and was in on 15 tackles. Barry Armstrong had nine tackles, Whatley 11, Bill Coleman five, Elmer Foster four and John Bizzell four.

The rejuvenated Brahmas play in Sweetwater next Thursday.

Games Committee Suspends 2 Stars

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The U.S. Olympic Committee suspended star Negro sprinters Tommie Smith and John Carlos from the U.S. Olympic team after midnight Thursday for "untypical exhibitionism" during an Olympic victory ceremony.

The decision followed a complaint by the International Olympic Committee regarding the conduct of Smith when he received the gold medal for winning the 200-meter event and wore black knee socks without shoes during the presentation ceremony.

TOMMIE SMITH

JOHN CARLOS

the bronze medal for finishing third in the 200-meter finals Wednesday.

Both Smith and Carlos raised clenched fists clothed in black gloves during the playing of the Star Spangled Banner and also wore black knee socks without shoes during the presentation ceremony.

They also wore identical buttons on their team uniforms citing demands for racial equality. Two members of the U.S. Olympic Committee's board of consultants, John Sayre, a rower in the 1960 Olympics, and Billy Mills, the 10,000-meter winner in 1964, went to the Olympic Village after midnight to notify Smith and Carlos to leave.

The statement from the U.S. Olympic Committee said that any repetition of "such incidents by other members of the U.S. team can only be considered a willful disregard of Olympic principles that would warrant the imposition of the severest penalties at the disposal of the U.S. Olympic Committee."

The statement expressed "profound regrets" to the IOC, the Mexican Organizing Committee and to the people of Mexico "for the discourtesy displayed by two members of this team in departing from tradition during a victory ceremony at the Olympic Stadium Oct. 16."

Three In Tie At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and two less renowned rivals led the way into the second round of the $100,000 Sahara Invitational golf tournament today.

The winner the last two years and in 1963, Nicklaus, along with long Bill Collins and Dale Douglass, all shot first round scores of 34-33-67.

Tied at 68 were Julius Boros, Kermit Zarley and Joe Porter. Included in the 70 or better class was National Open champion Lee Trevino, whose 70 deadlocked him with such pros as Chi Chi Rodriguez and R. H. Sikes.

George Archer, one of the top five money winners on the tour, was in the group, while the leading money winner of the year, Billy Casper, had to settle for 71.

A Check To Make Sure

Pro C. G. Griffin, assisted by his wife, runs a final check on scores turned in at the conclusion of the pro-member meet held at the Big Spring Country Club Wednesday while three of the players await the final report.

From the left, they are Wally Slate, J. R. Farmer and Bill Patton. A team led by Bob Maxwell of Abilene copped the round of competition.

All Eyes On Herd-Hog Encounter Saturday

By The Associated Press
As Coach Frank Broyles was saying on television show the other night, pride makes the Texas-Arkansas football classic one of football's premiere events.
"You know, there is an awful lot of pride at stake when the two big state universities meet," Broyles said. "You don't have trouble getting any one up for the game."
Arkansas and Texas collide before a sellout crowd of 66,397 and it certainly will be a place for a person with ticker trouble.
The Razorbacks are riding the momentum of a 4-0 record, including last week's 35-19 over TCU. Texas also has momentum, a 26-20 victory over Oklahoma, but Texas has already lost to Texas Tech and another SWC defeat spells the end of the Longhorns for this year.
Coach Darrell Royal of Texas is worried about Arkansas' usual strong fourth quarter surge.
Royal said, "Most of their results have been in the fourth quarter. Defensively, they are really strong. If you happen to hit 'em right you might get something. But when they decide to come, they come uncontrolled. They back off and go until they hear glass."

Sophs Dominate Play At Stanton

STANTON — All 34 boys Big Spring suited out got a chance to play as the Sophomores overran the Stanton B team, 44-0, here Thursday night.

In a previous game with Stanton, the Sophs had to go all out to win, 20-6. Now 6-0 on the year, the Sophs will go to Colorado City next Thursday for a 7:30 p.m. game with the Cee City reserves.

Big Spring gained a total of 403 yards rushing and passing against Stanton. Roddy Caffey leading the way with 97 paces in four carries.
Phillip Ferguson ran 80 yards for Big Spring's first score in Round One. The try for point failed.

After Stanton was forced to punt, Big Spring scored again in three plays. Caffey traveling the last 45 yards for a 12-0 lead. The drive covered 60 yards.

Before the first period ended, Big Spring scored again after recovering a Stanton fumble on the enemy 15. Scott McLaughlin kept for the score from that point. Tommy Fletcher added the PAT on a kick and the Dogs led, 19-0.

Big Spring added two touchdowns in the second. Ernest Zubiate culminated a 51-yard drive with an eight-yard run for one tally and Fletcher again connected on the PAT kick.

Benito Rubio collected the other one on a 30-yard pass from McLaughlin, at the end of a 35-yard drive. That made it 32-0.

In the third, Rubio counted again from the 12 to wind up a 57-yard offensive. Zubiate missed the PAT try.

Ricky Dyer and Howard Stewart blocked a Stanton punt in the fourth period and Guy Bell fell on the ball at the Bison 30 to create the scene for the last Big Spring score.

Caffey managed the tally on the first play thereafter with a run.

The Big Spring coaches were particularly proud of their defense, which never gave Stanton a look-in.

Russians Are Moving Out In Olympics

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Russians are on the move and the racially-troubled Americans are officially—but perhaps temporarily—embarrassed in these harassed, politically tainted 1968 Olympic Games.

Russia picked up 10 medals Thursday, two of them gold, and moved past the United States in total medals 19-17. The Americans still lead in gold medals, 9-5, including a 1-2 finish in the 110-meter hurdles and record-breaking victories by two swimming relay teams.

Off the playing fields and in the conference rooms, the United States received a slap on the wrist from the International Olympic Committee over the conduct of black athletes Tommie Smith and John Carlos.

Smith and Carlos, 13 finishers in the 200 meters Wednesday, refused to look at the American flag after receiving their medals and raised black-gloved, clenched fists in protest of the racial question in the United States.

The IOC, through President Avery Brundage, released a statement saying Smith and Carlos violated the Olympics no-politics principle "by using the occasion to advertise domestic political views."

"I am embarrassed," acting USOC Director Everett Barnes told a newsmen. "All of us are embarrassed. It makes our country look like the devil."

There was no such incident Thursday, when Willie Davenport of Warren, Ohio, and Ervin Hall of Philadelphia swept a 1-2 finish in the 110-meter hurdles, Davenport winning in 13.3, matching the Olympic record.

Both Negroes stood at attention during the victory ceremony, and refused to discuss the racial question.

The American victories in the two swimming relays, the women's 400-meter medley and the men's 400-meter freestyle, was expected but completely unexpected was a bronze medal from Larry Young of San Pedro, Calif.

It was the first medal the United States had ever won in Olympic walking competition. Young was near exhaustion when he came in more than 10 minutes after the winner, Christoph Höhne of East Germany, who was timed in four hours, 20:13.6.

Antel Kiss of Hungary was second and Young was third in 4:31:55.4.

The Owls must stop Chuck Hixson, the sophomore quarterback who is the nation's leading passer, and split end Jerry Levas, the nation's leading receiver.

SMU is a 12-point favorite and an estimated 35,000 persons are expected to be on hand in the Cotton Bowl.

Hixson also has scored three touchdowns running, and figures he is deceptive.

Pokes, Rams, Colts Picked In Contests

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — With the big showdown battle only one week off, both the Los Angeles Rams and Baltimore Colts should roll to their sixth straight victories Sunday.

Dallas also should make it six in a row at Minnesota with Dan-ny Meredith hitting his receivers while the Cowboys' defense shuts down the Vikings.

The Rams can't afford to look ahead to next week because the Atlanta Falcons can be tough, as the New York Giants found out.

No worry about the Colts being overconfident. They still remember that 27-0 beating in Cleveland in the 1964 title game.

Oakland's chances of repeating in the American Football League's West may depend on the Raiders' ability to bounce back at Kansas City. Houston's hopes of winning the East could hinge on Sunday's home game with Joe Namath and the New York Jets.

After last week's 6-6-1 this picker is bloodied but unbowed. That makes it 34-17-1 for the year (22-10 in NFL and 17-7-1 in AFL).

Let's try again. All games are Sunday afternoon.

NFL
Los Angeles 34, Atlanta 13—Unless Rams flatten out after Packer game to rest up for Colts, they should give the old Dutchman a rough welcome home. Rams have won 13 straight in regular season. Falcons just snapped 11-game losing streak last Sunday. Rams won both last year 31-3 and 20-3.

Baltimore 31, Cleveland 14—Colts' air arm too strong whether it's Earl Morrill or John Unitas at controls, and defense will pressure Bill Nelsen and contain Leroy Kelly.

Dallas 27, Minnesota 13—Cowboys never have lost to Vikings and won't start this week. Cowboys haven't given up a TD on ground and Vikes' best bet is the rush.

Detroit 14, Green Bay 13—Another tough defensive battle with Lem Barney's interception threat a key. Bart Starr questionable so Packers may have to go again with Zeke Bratkowski. Lions' attack clicking for Bill Munson with Mel Farr on hot streak.

New York 31, San Francisco 28—Frank Tarkenton-Homer Jones combo big threat for Giants but this may be the week for Aaron Thomas. Giants' leaky defense will make it close and John Brodie could pull it.

St. Louis 23, Washington 20—Could be a kicking contest between Jim Bakken and Charlie Gogolak. If Sonny Jurgensen were 100 per cent, Skins would have edge on passing.

New Orleans 20, Pittsburgh 17—Saints riding high after beating Vikings. They average 20 points a game and Steelers give up about 33. Could be an upset with Steelers at home and desperate with 0-5 record.

Chicago 17, Philadelphia 14—Bears hurting with Gale Sayers sub par and Jack Concannon out. Strictly a blindfold pick.

The other bowl games should be as set as the Rose Bowl appears to be at this writing.

It likely will bring a rematch between Ohio State and Southern California and a head-to-head confrontation between the Trojans' O. J. Simpson and Jim Otis of Ohio State.

The only thing that could draw attention away from Pasadena, if such a pairing happens, would be another meeting between Dallas and Green Bay for the NFL championship. That could and should occur, too—if praying by Dallas buffs will make it so.

Keith Henderson, the local fan who flew to Detroit for the World Series, met and talked with Charles A. Lindbergh some 16 times when Keith was a supervisor for the Ford Motor Company.

He recalls he found Lindbergh to be of noble stripe and an individual who shunned the spotlight to serve mankind. Not many of the younger generation now know, perhaps, that Lindbergh was the most celebrated individual in the world at one time.

Henderson also had occasion to see the late Henry Ford stroll through his section of the Ford plant on a couple of occasions.

Not long after Mr. Ford had paused in his area, Keith got a call from management. Said the voice on the other end of the line:

"Hurry and get your section cleaned up. Mr. Ford is on his way!"

"It's too late, Henderson replied, 'he's already been here.'"

Incidentally, Keith's brother, A. C., who made the trip to the series with Keith, had to hurry back to Texas.

He had been summoned to serve as a witness for the prosecution in the murder trial of Dolphus Jack Brown in El Paso.

A. C. was the first man on the scene after the bodies of the boy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J. (Buzz) Brown, were discovered.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The high school team at Hobart, Okla., opened its 1968 football season a few weeks ago with a resounding 35-6 victory over Walters and the boy who shot the Blue Devils down in flames was Ford Farris.

The name might ring a bell. With Sherry Wilson of Bell Spring, it does more than that.

The two are brother and sister and Ford lived here until about three years ago, when he moved to the Sooner State with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Farris. He was considered a real comer as a quarterback when in school here. Fact is, the then head coach of the Steers, Don Robbins, wanted to declare a public day of mourning when the young man in a packed his bags and headed north.

Farris scored three touchdowns when Hobart took Walters apart. Ford's ability to thread the needle as a passer kept the Walters defense off balance all evening. He completed five of 11 passes for 69 yards.

Hobart won three of its first four starts. The Steers claimed the Oklahoma State Class B championship last year.

When he resided here, Ford was equally renowned as a Little League pitcher. His very presence on the hill used to send some batters looking for the nerve medicine.

You'd have to look upon Willie Williams of the Runnels Junior High football team here as the Volkswagen of the game of football.

There's this thing about Willie, however. He hits with the impact of a Mack truck. His weight (88 pounds) had held him back until recently. Last week, he was dispatched into the battle pits by the Runnels coach and he clung to the Snyder Travis ball carriers like a bill collector after a delinquent account.

It was the first time he had ever played against outside competition. No doubt, it won't be his last. He likes to strike the opposition.

Willie's parents are Air Force people. He spent much of the past summer in Miami, Fla., where his father was on assignment. He has played Little League ball here in the past.

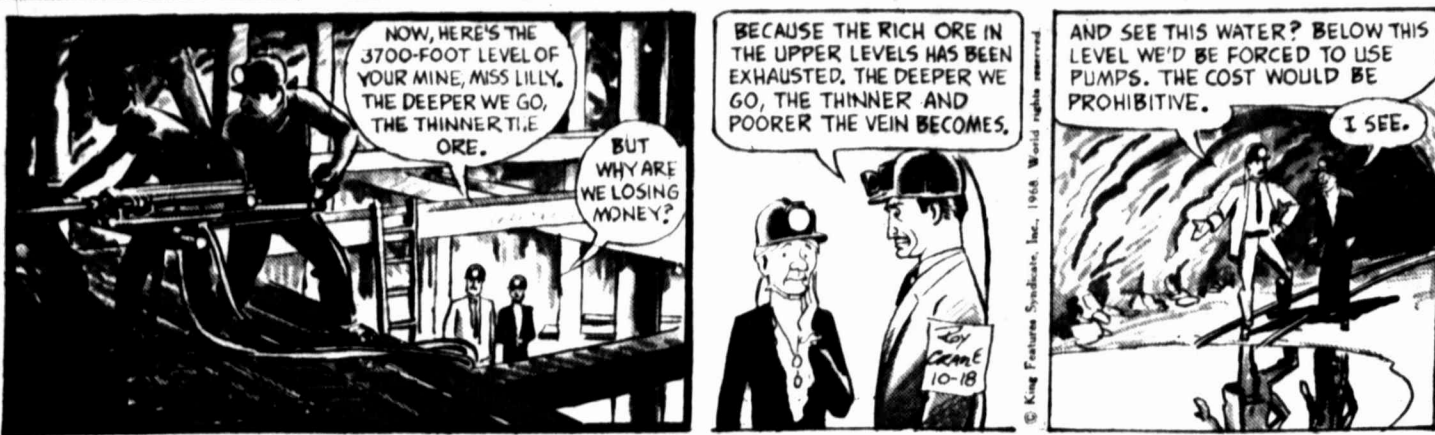

The other bowl games should be as set as the Rose Bowl appears to be at this writing.

It likely will bring a rematch between Ohio State and Southern California and a head-to-head confrontation between the Trojans' O. J. Simpson and Jim Otis of Ohio State.

The only thing that could draw attention away from Pasadena, if such a pairing happens, would be another meeting between Dallas and Green Bay for the NFL championship. That could and should occur, too—if praying by Dallas buffs will make it so.

Keith Henderson, the local fan who flew to Detroit for the World Series, met and talked with Charles A. Lindbergh some 16 times when Keith was a supervisor for the Ford Motor Company.

Aviation Old Timers

Dr. P. W. Malone, left, representing Big Spring Aircraft, Inc., is shown here with W. T. Piper, 88-year-old board chairman of Piper Aircraft Corporation. They are in front of the 14,000th Piper Cherokee on display in the Diplomat Hotel headquarters for the 28th dealer meeting in Hollywood Beach, Fla. Dr. Malone has been flying for nearly two score years now and is still an aviation enthusiast.

Hubert To Bid For Texas' 25

By The Associated Press

A lull between Texas visits by presidential candidates permitted campaigners for state office to court voter attention with better prospects for success today.

NO HECKLERS

Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace flew home for a rest Thursday night after Fort Worth and Longview appearances minus the hecklers who tried to drown out his speeches at some other stops.

Next in line to bid for Texas' 25 electoral votes is Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, due Tuesday in Fort Worth. It was announced that a crowded schedule will keep him from visiting Dallas the same day but he'll go to Waco and Austin.

Humphrey also cancelled a Corpus Christi stop, a spokesman said, but will proceed next day to San Antonio, Harlingen and El Paso.

Republicans said Maryland Gov. Spiro Agnew, candidate for vice president on the ticket with Richard Nixon, will campaign Oct. 19-21 at Corpus Christi and Midland-Odessa.

Rep. Gerald Ford, R-Mich., the House minority leader, was in Dallas with a Republican task force Thursday to aid GOP candidates running in the Nov. 5 election. He predicted the party will gain three to four congressional seats in Texas.

TEXAS POVERTY

In the Texas governor's race, Republican nominee Paul Eggers pledged himself to bring new industry and new opportunities into the state. He declared Thursday in El Paso that its human resources "are among the most underdeveloped in the nation—more than half of our Mexican-American families live in poverty, on income less than $3,000."

Eggers said, "Our one-party political system has closed many doors that soon will be opened when new leadership comes to Texas in November, and when two-party government is a reality."

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, the Democratic candidate for governor, asserted at a Beaumont breakfast today, "It is my intention that the state assume the strongest possible role in all matters affecting our people. Texans should govern Texans whenever possible. The state can be the most effective working partner in coordinating programs between our federal government, the state and our local governments."

Smith arranged to take part later in the day in a ceremony dedicating the $100 million Owens-Illinois wood pulp and container board mill seven miles north of Orange.

Sen. Fulbright Running Bit Scared In Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright, Democratic chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, is running one of the hardest races of his career against a Republican farmer-businessman seeking his first statewide office.

The campaign has pushed beyond Arkansas' borders, enlisting contributors for both sides from throughout the country.

FOREIGN POLICY

Headquarters for Charles T. Bernard, the GOP candidate, has mailed thousands of letters scoring Fulbright's foreign policy record and asking for contributions. But Bernard denies reports that he is receiving the aid of large conservative organizations.

Bernard's letter says liberal groups are "pouring thousands of dollars into the effort to save Fulbright," who is seeking his fourth Senate term.

Hoyt Purvis, Fulbright's press aide, denies that, but says "one or two" national organizations probably have encouraged their members to contribute to the senator.

In addition, letters bearing the name of Poet Archibald MacLeish urging contributions for Fulbright have been mailed from Washington.

"With George Wallace and Richard Nixon dominating the Arkansas presidential picture, and with his Republican opponent powerfully backed by the full financial resources of the right wing across the nation, Sen. Fulbright needs substantial support," the letter says.

BOY OF HANOI

Fulbright won renomination in the July 30 primary, receiving 53 per cent of the vote. This was a much closer margin than the 65 per cent he had predicted.

Fulbright has been described by the primary runner-up, self-proclaimed segregationist Jim Johnson, as the "Pin-up Boy of Hanoi."

If advertising in newspapers, on billboards, radio and television is any indication, Bernard's campaign looks like the best-financed Fulbright has faced. Bernard also has aggressively stumped the state.

Blast Shatters Ticket Office

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — An early morning blast shattered the front of an Air Canada ticket office today. George Kennedy, Air Canada sales manager, said Canada's diplomatic relations with Cuba could be the reason. He estimated damage to the office at $5,000.

Police found no evidence to link the bombing to Cuban exile terrorists. Cuban Police signs were found at the scene of a number of the 28 previous bombings in the Miami area.

Many of the previous bombings occurred at government and business offices of countries that, like Canada, maintain trade or diplomatic relations with Cuba.

There were no injuries in the explosion. Police said five other businesses, three clothing stores, a stock broker's office and a small hotel also were damaged.

Sgt. Tom Brody of the Metropolitan Dade County bomb squad said the explosive may have been a pound of penitite.

Mayor Of Lamesa To Give Awards

LAMESA — Lloyd Cline, mayor of Lamesa, will present the awards to Dawson County's Gold Star Boy and Girl for 1968. It has been announced.

The awards will be highlighted by the Achievement Banquet at 7 p.m. Nov. 19. Two hundred 4-H Club members, their parents and friends will attend, according to Mrs. Mickie Crump, county home demonstration agent.

The current Gold Star holders are Sheraton Hodges and Bob Montgomery. Names of the 1968 winners are being kept secret until the night of the banquet.

In addition to the Gold Star awards, a large number of other 4-H Club members will receive medals for outstanding achievement in the organization's program.
