Northern Push Into Prussia Is Foreseen

Report Says 12-14 Soviet Divisions Active In Drive

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 5—Russian troops in Lithuania have mounted an all-out offensive west of Siauliai, Col. Ernst von Hammer, the German news agency's military commentator, said today in a broadcast.

The German report said 12 to 14 Russian divisions attacked in the Siaulai area, 80 miles northeast of the East Prussian city of Tilsit, with the help of four tank corps. A drumfire artillery barrage of guns "of the heaviest caliber" preceded the drive.

The enemy said the offensive was on a broad front. One of its purposes might be to cut off the Riga garrison to the north. Successful Russian operations also would prepare a northern descent into East Prussia, along whose eastern frontier other Russians have been drawn up for many weeks.

Invade Estonian Island

The Germans announced earlier that seven Russian divisions of perhaps 100,000 men had invaded the big Estonian island of Saare (Osel) at the mouth of the Gulf of Riga during the morning. Possession of the 1,010 square mile land mass would block any seaward escape of Germans beseiged in the great Latvian seaport of Riga, and permit the Russian fleet to burst into the Baltic sea.

The Germans said also that Soviet artillery was beginning to pound the German line on the U. S. Subs Sink 11 Jap Ships

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (AP)—American submarines, ripping Japanese supply lines, have destroyed another 11 enemy vessels, including three war craft, the Navy announced today.

The fighting craft included a destroyer, an escort vessel and a seaplane tender, all of which may have been trying to protect Japanese convoys from American underwater attacks.

Large Tanker Included

Included in the latest bag of the submersibles were six cargo ships and a large tanker from the rapidly dwinding Japanese fleet of fuel-carrying craft.

Also destroyed was a cable ship indicating that the submarines may have been engaged in breakor preventng repair of enemy communication lines.

The newly-reported sinkings raise to 294 the number of Japanese vessels of all types sunk, probably sunk or damaged by submarine action. They include 772 enemy craft definitely destroyed 37 probably sunk and 115 damaged. Of the ships destroyed 67 are combatant craft of the Japanese Navy.

No Limestone Demo Sheriff's Candidate

WACO, Oct. 5 (U.P.)—Limestone county was without a Democratic candidate for sheriff today as a result of the decision by the 10th court of civil appeals which affirmed the district court judgment in the county sheriff race.

The opinion denied the mandamus to Sam Adkins, top man of the first primary, and Herman Adams, second; and sustained an injunction forbidding the Democratic executive committee from certifying Charlie Shreve, third man in the primary.

Whether the executive committee required nomination by a majority vote was the point upon which the decision hinged. The court held that the committee had complied sufficiently with the provision to require a majority.

The race became complicated when Adkins resigned and then changed his mind. Adams followed his actions, and the committee decided to place all three of the men on the runoff ballot. Suit was filed when Adkins and Adams refused to abide by this decision and Shreve was certified.

British Land In West Greece

Tommies Enter Port; Airfields Are Captured

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, Oct. 5—Striking from the sea and air, British troops have landed in western Greece, entered the port of Patrai and seized airfields from which RAF Spitfires already are operating in support of the effort to drive out or destroy German garrisons.

The Allied command, announcing the invasion today, said landing forces had made contact with the enemy both in Greece and neighboring southern Albania, where other units went ashore 10 days ago.

There appeared a strong possibility the operations might swiftly end German rule throughout the Balkans.

(Reliable reports reaching Cairo said the Germans had carried out demolitions in the Corinth canal to block movements through the Gulf of Corinth and to form a large obstacle for forces proceeding overland from the Peloponnesus.)

No Resistance Reported

There was no immediate report on the extent of German resistance at Patrai, Greece's third largest port, or elsewhere, but the Germans recently were said to have three divisions on the Greek mainland as well as other elements evacuated from Crete and the Aegean islands.

All these have been reported ready to flee northward on a moment's notice to escape the jaws of a great trap closing in on the whole Balkans with Russians advancing from the east and Allied forces with patriot support striking from the west.

The landing forces were believed to be of small size compared with the major invasions of Africa, Sicily, Italy and France.

Paratroopers Spear Attack

In Albania the Allied forces were attempting to cut enemy communications around the port of Sarande, supply base for the German garrison of the strongly defended island of Corfu (Kerkyra.)

Demobilization Plan Rumors Countered

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — Secretary of War Stimson today termed "absolutely untrue" reports that the War department would delay partial demobilization in order to ease the job situation.

The statement to a news conference was in reply to a reporter's question that "there has been some comment to the effect that the War department will delay its partial demobilization in order to ease the job situation. Is that correct?"

Stimson replied with an emphatic "no" and then added:

"There are only two things that will affect the speed of demobilization of the Army One is the military necessity of retaining sufficient troops in service to quickly and permanently defeat Japan.

"The other is available shipping. Except for these two limitations, the Army is arranging to return those eligible for demobilization as quickly as possible.

"No economic or political factors enter into that planning."

Airmen Bearing Down On Jap Oil Supply; Borneo Center Hit

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Tokyo radio indicated today that Allied bombers are wasting no time in their long distance campaign to knock out the vital oil producting center at Balikpapan, Borneo.

A Domei (news) agency broadcast reported 40 four-engined bombers struck Tuesday in the second mass raid at Balikpapan. Sixty Liberators struck the first heavy blow three days previously. Only yesterday MacArthur promised this important source of Nipponese oil and aviation gasoline would be pounded into uselessness, "drastically and immediately" curtailing Japan's ability to fight in the air or on the sea.

Shipping Losses Felt

Heavy shipping losses have already reduced Nippon's ability to exploit rich Dutch Indies oil resources and forced development of synthetic substitutes.

Another tanker was among 11 Japanese ships sunk or badly damaged in new air strikes ranging from the southern approaches to the Philippines to Chichi island, 615 miles south of Tokyo. The others were mostly small freighters.

Shipping losses have forced curtailment of importation of rice, the Imperial agricultural administration said in admitting losing a battle in "our war of foodstuffs." Nippon usually imports 20 per cent of its rice, the country's basic food.

However, Tokyo announced a "great leap" in munitions production and increased output of airplanes, estimated by American sources at more than 1,400 a month.

Japan's newest invasion, Chungking announced, has driven to the outskirts of Foochow, last large Chinese-held port on the Central China coast.

In the Central China offensive which has cost the 14th U. S. Air force six advanced bases in recent months. Nipponese columns captured the rail town of Hingan, 31 miles northeast of Kweilin, and broke into Changning which had been holding up the left flank of the advance.

President Is To Speak Tonight; Talk Aimed To Party Workers

(By The Associated Press)

President Roosevelt comes up for another political round tonight in a nationwide broadcast from the White House—aimed especially at Democratic party workers on whom he is depending to get out the vote for him.

The speech is set for 9 p. m. (CWT) (CBS and Mutual). A Democratic worker in each of 125,000 voting districts has been asked to have ten persons in to hear it. Afterwards these people are all to be given lists of voters to help get them to the polls.

The chances are good that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will listen in also, but only in his capacity as the Republican presidential nominee. For Dewey has let it be known he is waiting to hear what Mr. Rooseyelt says before he completes the speech he is to make Saturday night in Charleston, W. Va.

RALLY PLANNED HERE

"We want Lubbock county to poll its largest vote in history in the November election," L. C. Ellis, chairman of the Lubbock County Democratic committee, said today. "We want to be one of the high counties in Texas in the campaign which the party is seeking to get a million voters out to the polls."

Ellis said plans were to be discussed this afternoon for conducting a get-out-the-vote campaign on the South Plains which may be terminated with a big Democratic rally here between now and Nov. 7. The rally is included in state party leaders' plans as announced in Dallas yesterday by Speaker Sam Rayburn. Ellis said he hoped as many party members as possible would hear the President's radio talk tonight.

PAC In Limelight

Pending these top-man speeches, the campaigning went along in familiar lines, with emphasis on the CIO Political Action committee and foreign relations.

John W. Bricker, the Republican vice presidential nominee, said in a St. Louis speech that New Deal leaders saw a chance "to buy this election" in "the millions of dollars collected" by the PAC. He said "pressure, regimentation, threats and intimidation" were the tools of CIO Leader Sidney Hillman.

Hillman commented at New York that "Honest John Bricker is deliberately continuing his campaign of lies" and using the "Nazi formula of repeating a de-

Possibility Of Dies As Regent Discounted

AUSTIN, Oct. 5. (U.P.) — Gov. Coke R. Stevenson said today that reported possibility that Cong. Martin Dies of Orange would be named a regent of the University of Texas was "news" to him.

"The first I heard of it was in the papers," said Stevenson, who has three appointments to make on the board of regents next January.

Dies and university officials had a dispute two years ago over complaints of "red" or "pink" tendencies at the university.

Stevenson declined comment on the reported statement of Mrs. I. D. Fairchild of Lufkin, one of the regents whose term is expiring, that she did not seek reappointment but thought there should be a woman member of the regents.

Shreveport Strikers To Return To Work

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 15 (U.P.)—Approximately 700 striking glass cutters at the Shreveport Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass company plant will return to work Monday after having been on a sympathetic strike since Sept. 21, it was learned today.

Union officials here said that they understood that striking workers at the company's Charleston, W. Va., plant also would resume work Monday.

Victor Mature Rushes To Bedside Of Young Admirer Who Underwent 1,000-1 Operation

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 5 (U.P.) — Handsome Victor Mature arrived here today for a "personal appearance" at the bedside of 11-year-old Eunice Kinzer, who yesterday underwent a 1,000-to-1 operation for the removal of a brain tumor.

The movie actor, now a chief boatswain's mate in the Coast Guard, traveled 360 miles by train from Indianapolis, where he is appearing in the Coast Guard production, "Tars And Spars," to be with his young admirer.

As Mature prepared to go to the hospital, Eunice, who was described as "resting easy but still at the crisis stage," called for him as she recovered gradually from the operation, which was called a tentative success.

Actor Suffering From Cold

Mature, who conferred with the girl's father, John Kinzer, before going to the hospital, reported that he was suffering "from my first cold in years," but hoped to get permission to go to Eunice's bedside, wearing a surgical mask, if necessary.

The film star planned to remain with the girl for several hours before leaving by plane at 1:50 p. m., in order to return to Indianapolis for a matinee performance of the Coast Guard production. One show was cancelled today because of his trip.

Telephoned Her Often

The friendship of Mature and Eunice began last August in Atlantic City, where they met while the girl was gaining strength for the operation. Since then he has telephoned her many times, encouraging her to "keep your chin up, honey," and sending her flowers.

Mature, unable to get here yesterday because of poor weather which grounded planes out of Indianapolis, talked to Eunice by phone a short time before she underwent the operation, and told her he would be here today.

The brain tumor removed yesterday was blamed for the girl's lack of muscular coordination in her arms and legs. She has been suffering from the condition for several years.

Simplicity To Mark Last Rites For Al

NEW YORK, Oct. 5. (AP)—The body of Alfred E. Smith will lie in state at St. Patrick's cathedral from 2 p. m. tomorrow until funeral services at 11 a. m. Saturday.

The 70-year-old "Happy Warrior"—four times governor of New York state and Democratic presidential nominee in 1928—who died yesterday of lung congestion and acute heart disease, will be buried in the family plot at Queens Calvary cemetery.

Services will be simple in keeping with Mr. Smith's wishes, the family said. There will be no honorary pallbearers. The family requested no flowers be sent.

The 69th regiment, New York guard, and the Catholic War veterans will form a guard of honor at the cathedral.

Meanwhile, messages of condolence were received and tributes paid by President Roosevelt, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, former President Hoover, Smith's 1928 presidential opponent, and many other leaders.

Governor Dewey ordered all state flags flown at half staff for 30 days.

Detroit Strikers Act To Resume Work At Once

Production Slowed In At Least 26 War Plants

(By The United Press)

DETROIT, Oct. 5—Representatives of striking maintenance workers voted today to end immediately walkouts which have halted or slowed production in at least 26 vital war plants.

The vote was taken at a meeting of the United Automobile Workers (CIO) Maintenance Workers council and local union presidents on a plea by International Vice President Walter P. Reuther, who was rushed to Detroit by Army plane to tell the workers that they must return to their jobs at once in the interest of the war effort.

Reuther told newsmen, who were excluded from the meeting, that the back to work vote was adopted "overwhelmingly, although not unanimously."

To Confer With WLB

Reuther said that a maintenance workers committee would return to Washington for further conference with the War Labor board, and would report back to local union leaders by Oct. 16.

International UAW President R. J. Thomas told the strikers in a message last night that in the interest of the war program "this strike, however just the grievances, cannot be supported by the internatinal union."

Latest checks showed that the walkout of some 4,000 maintenance employes since the strike began Monday had forced idleness upon 60,000 employes, and union officials said the number could reach 100,000.

Texas Regulars Plan Campaign

AUSTIN, Oct. 5. (AP)—Roy Sanderford of Belton was named today by the Texas Regulars to head their statewide committee on publicity and advertising, as leaders of the new party mapped a campaign to penetrate into every precinct in the state.

The party's executive committee voted to name five regional campaign managers, to work under direction of Merritt H. Gibson of Longview, state chairman of the campaign. In addition, there will be chairmen for each congressional district and each county.

A spokesman for the committee said it was formulating a statement of principles to be used in the party's campaign in behalf of its 23 presidential electors opposed to Roosevelt and Truman. The party was organized by an anti-Roosevelt group from the Democratic party.

Townes Heads Committee

The executive committee of the party, headed by E .E. Townes of Houston, called a meeting here to formulate its principles.

Statewide headquarters were opened here in the Littlefield building with Gibson in charge. Divisional offices will be opened in other cities.

Gibson said a schedule of mass meetings and radio broadcasts soon would be announced. The regulars have scheduled a Fort Worth mass meeting for next Tuesday with Rep. Martin Dies, critic of the national administration, as a principal speaker. T. H. McGregor of Austin, former state senator, also will speak at Fort Worth.

They are first United States airmen to receive this award.

Big Tank Battle Shaping; Enemy Loses Key Town

Yanks Widen Wedge Through Shattered Fixed Defenses Of West Wall; Germans Mass Record Concentration Of Artillery

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Oct. 5.—American tanks and infantry advanced more than a mile through the shattered fixed defenses of the West Wall at Ubach today and captured the town of Beggendorf, which the Germans had attempted to turn into an anchor of a backstop line.

Widening their wedge, the Yanks also captured Kerkrade on the Dutch-German border. Kerkrade, on the south side of the wedge, is two miles southwest of Merkstein and five miles north of Aachen.

Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' First army scored the gains in a fiercely rising battle in which the Germans massed their biggest artillery concentrations of the western front. Three heavy armored counterthrusts were turned back and front line dispatches said a major tank battle was developing.

Beggendorf is more than a mile beyond Ubach and its capture placed the Americans astride the Aachen-Geilenkirchen road and within a mile and a half of the main north road out of Aachen, the highway to Gladbach. The town is three miles from the nearest point of the Dutch border and about four miles from the general line of the frontier.

GENERAL OFFENSIVE EXPECTED

LONDON, Oct. 5 (AP)—An Allied general offensive on the "new German line in the west" is imminent, the Berlin radio said today.

Back Of Siegfried

An Associated Press dispatch from the sector said Allied tanks in numbers were now back of the original Siegfried line and were churning out east and southeast on hardening ground to exploit an infantry breakthrough begun two days ago.

The tanks were coming up against earthworks hastily thrown up as a secondary defense, the dispatch said. The Germans were fighting from behind huge slag piles in this mining area, dubbed by the doughboys "Little Pittsbugh."

The Germans, with at least 55 pillboxes smashed in their main fortifications, were now trying to stop the American push with mobile guns instead of fixed batteries, it was said.

Heavy Fighting Flares

To the north, heavy fighting flared along the British Nijmegen-Arnhem corridor. Infantry attacked in several sectors, gaining a mile in an eastward advance and several miles in a northwesterly direction.

To the south the American Third army of Lt. Gen. George S. Patton was engaged in a grim fight atop Fort Driant, a key stronghold southwest of Metz. Germans had holed up in the concrete fastnesses of an underground labyrinth.

An AP correspondent on the Ubach front reported:

"Tanks, guns, infantry and supplies are pouring through the gap in the Siegfried line to put mounting pressure on the enemy."

German Defenses Torn

Three thunderous serenades from every American gun in the area—from 75's to 240 mm. siege pieces—tore German defenses to pieces in preparation for a new

Fort Driant Battle Reminiscent Of Verdun

Yanks Blasting Into Underground Fort

BY ROBERT RICHARDS
United Press War Writer

WITH THIRD AMERICAN ARMY Before Metz, Oct. 5—Weary American GI's blasted their way today at least 100 yards into one of the main underground chambers of Fort Driant in a bloody man-to-man combat reminiscent of the Verdun battles of World War I.

It was the third day of continuous assault on the massive citadel which is protected by concrete walls so thick that shells bounce off them like tennis balls against a backstop.

The advance into the subterranean fortress was made at the southwest corner of the fortress area which in all represents a square about 470 feet wide and about the same length.

Get Relief From Artillery

The underground U. S. troops had relief from German artillery fire for the first time in 36 hours. They hammered into the corridors seeking a passage which might lead into the main Driant fort which is in the center of the square.

They were hampered by thick steel doors reinforced by massive steel gratings. The steel was so tough that so far it had been almost impervious to the explosive charges rammed against the walls by the Americans.

Above the surface other troops slowly ground their way in on a line extending from the southwest fortress corner almost to the southeast corner. But so far they had been unable to wipe out a giant pillbox almost completely buried in the southeast corner of Driant.

Deadly Fire Hits Yanks

The giant pillbox poured a deadly rain of machinegun fire into the Americans as they inched forward. It was supported by

Approaches To Antwerp Inundated

Four 'Feeder' Airfields For Siegfried Line Hit By Yanks

LONDON, Oct. 5. (AP) — Upwards of 1,100 American heavy bombers beat today at four airfields in northwest Germany near Munster, from which Nazi planes have been operating in increasing strength over the Siegfried line, and hammered freight yards at Cologne and Rheine which feed the front.

British heavy bombers attacked Wilhelmshaven and reconnaissance flights showed that their dike-breaching exploit at Walcheren island Tuesday already had inundated 25 of its 100 square miles, guarding the approaches to Antwerp.

Runways Crowded

The airfields attacked were at Handorf, Lippstadt, Paderborn and Loddenheide. Photographs had showed the runways crowded with planes which had been forced out of France and Belgium by Allied advances. Some were new jet propulsion fighters, a few of which were encountered today.

Fighters escorting the bombers destroyed 15 German planes on the ground.

Two main forces, with strong fighter escort, attacked the choked rail terminals at Cologne and Rheine, while smaller formations raided airfields at the other places.

British heavy bombers also went to Germany in daylight, attacking industrial objectives at the big port of Wilhelmshaven through clouds. The RAF lost one bomber.

RAF Mosquitos kept the offensive going last night with a stab at 18 more trains in Germany and Holland.

Pilots reported all 18 trains were stopped dead, bringing the Mosquitos' total of trains attacked to

Fighter Pilot From Bonham Is Missing

U. S. FIGHTER BASE, Britain, Oct. 5. (AP) — Lt. James W. Russell, jr., 23, of Bonham, Texas, a Mustang fighter pilot with four Nazi planes to his credit, has been listed as missing in action over enemy territory since Sept. 13.

On this date the Mustang helped escort bombers on three separate attacks over western and southern Germany but it is not definitely known whether Russell was shot down or forced to crash land. Eleven fighters were reported missing after the operation.

Russell, a former oil field worker, wore the Air Medal and three clusters. He destroyed three German planes on the ground April 10 and shot down an Me-109 in combat May 24.

Reds Cool To Japs, Really Hate Nazis

By HARRISON SALISBURY
United Press Foreign Editor

The first question most people ask when they hear you've just come from Moscow is whether the Russians are going to help us against Japan.

The next question frequently is whether we are going to have to fight the Russians after this war.

I have been interrogated by civilian officials, generals, admirals and plain GI's in many weeks of travel through Iran, India, Australia and the Pacific since leaving Russia.

Conferred With Officials

My answers are not personal opinions but must represent what I have been told in dozens of conversations with Soviet officials and Red army officials, by the official Russian press and what I've heard in thousands of miles of travel to almost every corner of the Soviet Union.

First, "are the Russians going to help us against Japan?"

So far as the official record goes Russia has made no commitment to help us in the Pacific. Russia and Japan are bound by a neutrality pact which does not expire until April 25, 1946. However, most competent diplomatic observers believe that Russia will participate in the final phases of the Pacific war, presumably some months after Germany has been defeated. Present Russo-Japanese relations are correct but chilly. Soviet newspapers delight in recounting Jap reverses in the Pacific, never failing to point out that the Japanese are getting what they deserve for trying to be a tail to Hitler's kite.

Russians Hope For Peace

"Are we going to have to fight the Russians after this war?"

No one in Russia thinks so. The Muscovite-in-the-street hopes for a long period of peace and security when the fighting is over. Stalin has told every American he has talked to in the last year exactly the same thing.

"Will the Russians go into Germany?"

The Russians are aching to smash the wehrmacht on its home ground. When the plot against Hitler was revealed last summer, many Russians were worried. They were afraid the Nazis would crack up before the Red army got into Germany.

"How do Russians like Americans?"

They Like Americans

They feel at home with us. They laugh at pretty much the same kind of jokes. They're like Americans in their drinking habits—they drink liquor to feel the effects. They like the way we hustle and get things done. They admire our industry. Henry Ford is still a great name in Russia. One thing Russians can't understand is why Americans laugh and wisecrack about serious things. They can't understand American politics at all.

"Are the Russians really licking the Germans or are the Nazis making a planned retreat?"

Brother, they are really licking them. The toughest moment in a Nazi's life comes when he makes up his mind to try to surrender to a Red army man. The ordinary Red army man feels about the Germans the way our troops feel about the Japanese. He'd rather shoot first than take a chance. German officer prisoners say frankly that the Red army is stronger and—often—better led and better equipped.

No Sympthy For Germany

"What do the Russians want to do with Germany after the war?"

The Russian man or woman who has been toiling 12 and 14 hours a day in a war plant since the start of the war has no sympathy for Germany. There's hardly a Russian family which hasn't lost someone at the front or in a civilian massacre.

These people feel that the only good German is a dead German. After the war they want to put the surviving Germans to work rebuilding Russia's ruined cities. If there's anything left of German industry they want its output to help the restoration. They don't care how Germany is carved up but they want to be dead certain she is so weak that she never again can make war.

RESIDENTS INELIGIBLE

SULPHUR, Okla. (U.P.) — The Murray county attorney here has been advised by the Oklahoma Attorney General, Randall S. Cobb, that civilian employees of the Platt National Park who live within the park are not eligible to vote in an Oklahoma election as the park is federal property. Neither can a park resident serve on the Sulphur city school board, the opinion added.

State Finances In Good Shape

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—There will be ample revenue to meet legislative appropriations for the next two years unless the new legislature to convene in January greatly exceeds appropriations of the last session, Gov. Coke R. Stevenson said today.

Estimates furnished to the governor by State Auditor C. H. Cavness indicate an income for the general revenue fund of approximately $46,000,000 for the first year of the new biennium and $44,000,000 for the second year. Legislative appropriations are made for two years, but separated into separate years.

Preparing Recommendations

The estimates are a part of the data being gathered by the governor in preparation of his budget recommendations to the new legislature.

The estimate of revenue is particularly important now because a recent constitutional amendment to place the state on a pay-as-you-go basis requires a four-fifths vote in the legislature to make any appropriation greater than revenues for the period.

Soldier absentees in the senate made it difficult to maintain a sufficient attendance in the last session to get four-fifth vote even for an unopposed measure.

State Treasurer Jesse James today reported the deficit in the state general fund to be $3,061,297, but that compares with a deficit of $22,025,255 a year ago.

The financial outlook is all right "if we don't get our eyes too big," said Stevenson.

One reliable estimate places our 1943 air express cargo at approximately 14,000 tons, an average of 45 tons daily.

YOU CAN'T BLAME THE OTHER FELLOW

if a "freeze-up" wrecks your engine!

ALL RIGHT, so you don't pay much attention to advertising! But sure as it will freeze this winter, some car owner who doesn't heed this message will find a sudden freeze-up has wrecked the cylinder head, engine block, or radiator of his car. He'll learn, too, that these parts are mighty hard to get—that replacements, if available, may take weeks.

Your car is needed to help relieve crowded trains, trolleys and busses. That's why the War Production Board has seen to it that there is enough anti-freeze to meet the real needs of every automobile. However, you may not always be able to get all you want of a particular brand.

Please don't waste a drop. Have your dealer put in anti-freeze in time this year—but avoid wasteful over-protection. Remember, anti-freeze is made from war-critical materials—materials that also go into explosives, rubber, and plastics.

To save anti-freeze and money, have your cooling system checked by your dealer before installing anti-freeze. He'll make sure that all parts and connections are tight, to avoid leakage. He can also clean out rust and scale which so often clog cooling systems and cause overheating and wasteful use of gas and oil.

Have your dealer service your cooling system today and give it two-way protection—against freezing and against rust—with a Du Pont anti-freeze.

SEND NO MONEY ... IT'S FREE!

"Take Care of Your Cooling System" tells money-saving facts you want to know. Send a post card today for this free, easy-to-read, illustrated booklet. Write to E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. (Inc.), 2496N Nemours Bldg., Wilmington 98, Delaware.

BETTER THINGS FOR BETTER LIVING...THROUGH CHEMISTRY

"ZERONE"* is made from methanol. Gives maximum cooling system protection at low cost. Odorless. Anti-acid. Anti-rust. $1.00 a gallon.

WAR EMERGENCY "ZERONE" is made with an ethanol base. Requires only occasional check-up for winter-long driving. Anti-rust. $1.40 a gallon.

"ZEREX"* is non-evaporating. One shot lasts all winter! Money can't buy better anti-freeze. Anti-acid. Anti-rust. Limited supply. $2.65 a gallon.

Passage Of WTCC Planks Urged Here

Urging passage by referendum ballot of a proposed platform, officials of West Texas Chamber of Commerce read and explained the nine-planks of the program in a meeting in Hilton hotel Wednesday afternoon that was attended by 60 directors and chamber secretaries of district 2.

This was the second of eight referendum meetings being held in West Texas for purpose of discussing the program and work of the organization for the coming year. The first meeting was held in Odessa Tuesday.

M. C. Ulmer of Midland, WTCC president, urged directors present to take their ballots home for careful consideration of their local organizations before casting their votes.

The platform was explained by Ulmer, D. A. Bandeen, of Abilene, WTCC manager, and J. A. Rix of Fort Worth, secretary.

Federal Tax Plans

Possibly the most important of the nine planks, as explained by Bandeen, was number 8, dealing with post war federal tax plans.

Concerning this plank, Bandeen said: "Our post war welfare is more closely hooked up with federal taxation and public expenditure than any other one thing. Some of the questions involved are: Shall industry and production be federalized or free-enterprised; shall private initiative or incentive be increased or stagnated; shall earnings be left in the hands of the people after taxes; and how much taxing can business take and still provide employment?"

The plank, if adopted, would favor six items, as follows:

A post war federal budget of no greater than $20,000,000,000 per year including service charges on the national debt.

Apply To Federal Agencies

When not interfering with the national defense and when interfering with legitimate free enterprise, all tax laws and equal percentage schedules should be applied to all agencies created, controlled or financed by the government, when such agencies are operating in competition with privately owned agencies.

The abolition of the war time excess profits tax.

The deduction of corporate dividends in determining corporate net income for taxation.

The abolition of capital stock taxes.

The reduction of individual income and surtax rates, with the minimum bracket no greater than 15 per cent and the maximum bracket no greater than 60 per cent of the total taxable income.

Social Security Expansion

Another important plank, as explained by Ulmer, who wrote it, was number 6, dealing with social security. The plank would favor, on subsistance levels only, a general broadening of our national Social Security programs so as to embrace all workers including the armed forces, financed on a 50-50 employer and employe basis, and administered with the maximum of state authority and the minimum of federal authority.

A plank, which would favor national advertising of Texas natural resources and potentialities, was read and explained by Rix. It reads as follows: "Resolved, that the editorial board of West Texas Today be authorized to foster a $2,000,000 biennium state appropriation for the purpose of nationally advertising the advantages and potentialities of the state of Texas."

Other Planks Outlined

Other planks were:

Resolved, that, a permanent public expenditure and taxation bureau be established by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of fostering the organization's programs for the reduction of public expenditure in federal, state and local affairs.

In case Texas receives no equitable freight rate relief through cases now pending before the Interstate Commerce commission and the U. S. Supreme court, resolved, that the WTCC and its Freight Rate Equality federation seek a legislative appropriation for the purpose of filing suit before the U. S. Supreme Court to secure equality for Texas in transportation charges.

Resolved, that each affiliated city will seek the support of its state legislative representatives on: The state fiscal control bill; the city and county budget bill; the redistricting bill; the scholastic attendance school apportionment bill.

Conversion Legislation

Believing early enactment of conversion legislation will stimulate post war recovery and provide more jobs for returning service men, we urge prompt enactment into law of the principles of the Baruch report. We further urge that in liquidating government housing projects, the underhoused needs of the respective territories be given first consideration, and that, due to the unexcelled climate of West Texas for health and training purposes, the West Texas camps be maintained as far as practicable in the hospitalization and defense plans of the nation.

Presiding at the meeting was Percy Ralls of Ralls, district director. Ralls was introduced by G. A. Simmons, host director, who welcomed the group to Lubbock.

Social Security Tax Hike To Be Opposed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) proposed today the freezing of social security payroll taxes at present levels for a fourth year, raising the possibility of another controversy between the administration and Congress.

Asserting the social security reserve fund will reach an estimated $6,000,000,000 on January 1 and that collections at current levels will meet anticipated payments for the next five years without disturbing it, Vandenberg declared in a statement:

"Under these circumstances, and since every effort next year must be to reduce rather than increase taxes, I shall again ask that the 100 per cent increase in pay-roll taxes and workers be postponed."

The freezing of payroll taxes at one per cent against employers and one per cent against employes was made a part of the tax bill passed early this year over President Roosevelt's veto.

Unless Congress acts before that time, the taxes automatically will be doubled January 1 on 40,000,000 workers and all of their employers, going to two per cent on each.

The fixed remuneration attached to the honor of being England's poet laureate is about $515 a year.

'Handicap' Plan Of Reconversion Hit

BOSTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — New England's six governors have condemned as "Hitlerian" and "ridiculous" a Senate committee's recommendation that the Northeast be handicapped during reconversion to permit western and southern industrial expansion.

The governors agreed that a plan to delay the reconversion of $7,000,000,000 worth of government owned war plants in 11 northeastern states would be a staggering blow to "free enterprise" and a "serious threat to the entire industrial structure of New England."

"Jobs in private industry for returning veterans and war workers are the key to our future," Gov. Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, spokesman for the group, said. "We cannot compete with the West and South on most products of agriculture.

"This scheme means that the government will attempt to dictate where industry will go. That is one of the characteristics of Hitler and is one of the principles of government which our boys are fighting against all over the world."

Four Brothers Lost, Marine Wants 'Out'

CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C., Oct. 5 (AP)—Pfc. Boyd Borgstrom said today he would like a discharge from the U. S. Marine Corps so that he could return to his parents' farm near Trementon, Utah.

Three sons of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alben Borgstrom, have been killed and a fourth is missing in action. The Borgstroms have asked Marine Corps officials to give Boyd a discharge.

The camp public relations office, when asked for comment from Boyd Borgstrom as to whether he wanted a discharge, reported that Borgstrom replied: "Yes. I feel that I am needed at home to help and be near my folks who have been through such terrible ordeals in the last few months. I'd like to take over running our farm and in that way relieve my father who is now past 60. My folks need my help and it is my duty to see that they get it."

Look at the diffusing bowls on your lamps and fixtures. Are they clean and bright? How about the lamp bulbs, and the shades, too? Dust and dirt can rob you of as much as 50 per cent of your light. That is light you are paying for, and need for easy seeing. So make sure your lamps and fixtures stay clean.

Home lighting equipment should always be at top efficiency. Reading, writing, drawing, sewing—all home tasks—involve intense eye work. Often more actual study is carried on at home than in school!

In cleaning up, you may find some empty sockets. There's no better time to fill them up. Most electric dealers now have light bulbs in all common home sizes, so you can secure what you need. Be sure you put the RIGHT SIZE bulb in each lamp or fixture!

It's a good time to study the arrangement of your lamps, too. Make sure they are placed for easy, comfortable seeing, so that you have neither glare in your eyes nor shadows on your work.

Government Starts Promptly In Providing For Veterans

BY JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5—When Johnny comes marching home from this war he will not be—like the returning veterans of other American wars—a Johnny-come-lately.

For the veterans of this war—able and disabled—the government has done more faster than for the fighters of any previous war.

When he is discharged he will get:

Full back pay at the time of his discharge; an additional $100 to $300 in mustering out pay, depending on his length of service; railroad fare home; schooling, if he wants it; vocational training and a pension if he is disabled; a government guarantee of loans up to $2,000 to buy a home or a farm or a business; a guarantee of his job back except in unusual circumstances; assistance in finding a new job; unemployment pay if he can't find a job; special consideration in seeking federal civil service jobs; hospitalization for illness due to service regardless of ability to pay and hospitalization for any cause if he can't pay; and free legal advice in certain matters.

Death Benefits Provided

And there are pensions for his close dependent survivors if the war caused his death.

The history of our treatment of our veterans has often been stumbling, stupid, slow and callous.

There is perhaps no better illustration of this anywhere than in a new, 588-page book—"When Johnny Comes Marching Home Again"—by Dixon Wecter, a professor in the University of California at Los Angeles.

The book is named after a Civil War song. It is a rich and rewarding book. It is required reading for anyone who wants a handy history of how we have treated our veterans throughout our history and of their struggles to readjust themselves to peace after the Revolutionary, Civil and First World wars.

Some Heartaches To Repeat

Some of their heartaches undoubtedly will be repeated after this war, for each veteran has his own individual adjustment to make.

But Wecter says:

"Good things that are being done for (the) first casualties of World War II, and the plans in store for millions of the able-bodied after V-day, are a heartening proof that we learn by experience.

"Now, for the first time in American history, planning for the veteran has preceded, not followed, demobilization.

Bor Captured, Berlin Claims

LONDON, Oct. 5 (AP) — Berlin announced today that Gen. Tadeusz Komorowski (Bor), newly appointed commander in chief of the Polish army, and his entire staff had been taken prisoner.

The German news agency said: "It has just been learned that the Polish General Bor-Komorowski, who was recently appointed commander in chief of all Polish forces and up to now was commander of the Warsaw rebels, was made a prisoner of war after the capitulation of Warsaw. The whole of his staff, as well as several other Polish generals, was taken prisoner with him."

There has been an argument in Allied quarters as to whether Komorowski was in Warsaw during the uprising. Polish spokesmen in Moscow declared he was not in the city, but the Polish government here insisted he was.

Dies Committee Is Assailed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — The Dies committee was accused today by the head of Press Research, Inc., of applying "gestapo methods of intimidation to the press."

Nelson Poynter, publisher of the Washington research agency, made the accusation in a statement to reporters as the special House committee began inquiring into distribution of a pamphlet entitled "Special Report No. 1 —Dewey," prepared by Poynter's organization.

Earlier, his managing editor, David Loth, had testified that Press Research, Inc., was not connected with or financed in any way by the National Citizens Political Action committee (NCPAC) or any political committee. Poynter said he was a member of the NCPAC.

Referring to the Dies committee, some of those members have been defeated for reelection, Poynter said "the congressional lame ducks are determined to smear and try to destroy an organization that is dedicated to fight reaction such as the Dies committee so well symbolizes, with facts and research."

"We intend to make these facts available through all media that will use them," he added. "Most of our clients are supporting President Roosevelt and this, according to the Dies committee, gives it license to subpoena telegrams, tap our telephones and send stooges to investigate our financial condition."

Labor Rifts Hit Houston Plants

HOUSTON, Oct. 5. (AP)—Houston today was beset by a work stoppage at one plant and what a union representative called a lockout at another.

The office of President J. E. Goigh of the Port Houston Iron Works said yesterday that 90 painters walked off the job Tuesday. No other company statement was issued, while C. A. West, business agent of the painters local union, an AFL affiliate, said the walkout was news to him. He said the painters belonged to his union.

Meanwhile, Frank Hardesty, district representative of the CIO United Steelworkers of America, said that a walkout of 200 steelworkers on Sept. 7 at the Mosher Steel company plant had evolved into a lockout.

"The walkout has become a lockout," said Hardesty, adding that the "company refused to recognize seniority rights of their workers when they announced a willingness to return to work and reported for duty Tuesday."

He said a union request for a War Labor board panel to hear the case had not been acted on last night, although the plea for the panel had been sent to Washington by regional disputes Director Cliff Potter of Dallas.

Fifth Gains In Bitter Fighting

ROME, Oct. 5, (AP)—U. . . Fifth army troops drove a mile forward against violent fire from reinforced and hastily entrenched Germans yesterday on the bitterly contested road to Bologna to within 14 miles of that great communications center.

The doughboys seized a ridge just north of La Selva, five miles east of highway 65 at Loiano.

Other advances yesterday put the doughboys within 11 miles of the old Roman Aemilia road, running from Bologna to Rimini.

To the east, the British Eighth army advanced to a point up to two miles northeast of Castagno, and South African units entered Lagaro, on the Prato-Bologna road.

Eighth's Position Unchanged

In the Adriatic sector Eighth army positions along the swollen Fiumicno river remained substantially unchanged. Indian units took San Donato, about four miles west of Scorticata, across the Rubicon.

While strong forces of escorted heavy bombers blasted railyards in Munich and rail communications in northern Italy yesterday, mediums attacked rail bridges in the Po valley. Light craft bombed and strafed troop concentrations, supply dumps and communications lines in and north of the battle area.

From these and other operations in the Balkans 21 Allied planes failed to return, including 13 heavy bombers.

Magnolia Loses Tax Suit Naming U. S.

DALLAS, Oct. 5 (U.P.)—The federal government today had won its case, as defendant, against the Magnolia Petroleum company in which the oil firm had sued for $444,413 in income taxes it claimed had illegally been assessed and collected.

Federal Judge William H. Atwell ruled that the company could not claim exemptions on transactions with subsidiaries.

Germans Trying To Salt Away War Loot In Neutral Nations

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—German embassies in neutral countries were reported today to be "l aded down" with gold, securities and currency with large staffs working full time to put the stuff—including loot from occupied countries—under cover.

Some of the tricks being used by German leaders to conceal their financial resources were disclosed after the State department announced that the United States and Britain have asked neutrals to deny the enemy protection for his loot.

Other governments which took part in the United Nations monetary conference at Bretton Woods, N. H., last July are expected soon to put similar pressure on the neutral group, which includes Switzerland, Argentina, Sweden, Spain and Portugal.

Would Sustain Underground

That the German ruling clique is salting away assets not only for its personal salvation but as a war chest to keep underground organizations going after the war.

That in concealing funds, the Germans are extending their power in foreign industry. They are cleverly cloaking this control and it will be hard to trace.

That the German leaders may know they are beaten militarily but they have utterly no intention of losing the war economically.

That Geramns recently arriving in neutral countries are cocky. They tell the local industrialists the war won't last much longer, but "it doesn't matter." They boast that German industrialists were better off than those in England and the United States after the last war, and it will be so again.

Appeal To The Greedy

These Germans are claiming citizens in neutral countries who cooperate with them in developing the industries of those countries will profit too.

The following examples were given of how the Germans are preparing for their rainy day:

Gold, securities, and currnecy are being stored in safe deposit boxes and vaults, usually under some non-German's name.

A citizen in a neutral country, with no riches and only a small income, suddenly buys a valuable wolfram mine.

A small new company springs up in an occupied land. German-made goods then are shipped into that territory. The purchasers are instructed not to pay the manufacturers directly, but to send their money to the new company. Secretly the firm is German-controlled; therefore funds are built up outside Germany's borders.

An individual in one neutral nation is receiving coal shipments from Germany. He is given preferential treatment, and in return agrees to pay commissions to the German shippers. But the commissions, instead of being sent to Germany now, are allowed to accumulate to the Germans' credit. The Germans expect to use them later, when the nations relax their financial controls.

Norman Thomas Sees Defect In Planning

GALVESTON, Oct. 5 (U.P.)—Norman Thomas, five-time candidate for president of the United States and a champion of Socialism, spoke to a crowd of aproximately 100 persons in a tent theater here last night.

"We must begin to think in terms of the people of the world and of their security," he said. "This is the only road to a lasting peace."

Thomas said the Dumbarton Oaks conference did not lay the ground work for a lasting peace, but for a continuation of "power politics that led us into this war, just as they have led us into countless wars before."

Missing Boys And Boats Are Sought

FORT WORTH, Oct. 5. (U.P.) — Search was under way today along the windjng Trinity river between here and the Gulf of Mexico for two boys, one 13 and the other 14, who were believed to have undertaken the trip in an outboard motor without the knowledge of their parents.

The boys, Jack Conrad Barrett, 13, and Richard Davis, 14, have not been seen since Monday. Neither has one of two motorboats kept in the Barrett garage, several quarts of milk and other foodstuffs from the Barrett pantry.

Army commanders in ancient Rome used homing pigeons to carry messages.

Warning Of Typhus Sounded In Texas

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP) — Unless more control measures are adopted this year's total of typhus fever cases in Texas will reach 1,700 compared with 1,452 last year, State Health Officer George W. Cox declared today.

Dr. Cox said health department reports indicate the presence of typhus in almost all sections of Texas without regard to city or rural population.

He recommanded a four-point control program, in addition to the already widely used rat poisoning campaign:

Make food stuff inaccessible to rats.

Rat proof homes, business buildings and public places.

Keep at least two traps baited in homes that are not rat proof.

Conduct educational campaigns.

TWO CASES IN LUBBOCK

There have only been two 1944 cases of typhus fever in Lubbock, one affecting a Mexican cotton picker from the Texas valley, the other a young girl living in East Lubbock, Dr. J. W. Rollo, city health officer, said today.

It is believed the few cases trace to a rat-killing campaign conducted last year by Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce under supervision of a government employe, Dr. Rollo indicated.

Also contributing to the lack of cases is the fact most downtown alleys are paved, which discourages breeding of rodents.

First symptoms of the disease are fever and aching, followed by a rash in a week or 10 days. High temperatures usually run two or three weeks.

Wild Men Of Front Are Redball Crew

BY HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

LA CHAPELLE, France, Sept. 30 (Delayed)—A cold autumn rain tapped like silver pencils on the windowpanes of a small French hotel in this Gallic version of Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street."

Three truck drivers with dirty, stained uniforms and fatigue-lined faces sat at a small table eating a five dollar steak dinner and washing it down with a five dollar bottle of wine.

The prices were outrageous for such a hotel, but the three soldiers didn't care if the meal cost their whole month's pay. It was their first solid food in days and they were warm and out of the rain and nipping wind. All that worried them was whether the steak was real beef or horse meat —and they weren't worried too much about that.

Their Life Is Rough

They were "Redball" truck drivers—members of that unsung and hard working crew who keep flowing along the Army's lifeline supplies of food, ammunition, medicine and clothing without which the front line troops would be helpless.

They related what it was like to be a truck driver in those first mad days when they had to supply armies rampaging clear across France and Belgium and up into Holland and Germany.

"For 10 days we only had two or three hours' sleep each night," said Pvt. Joe Patti, Chicago, adding that the outfit "highballed" a record total of 222,000 gallons of gasoline to the front line area during one 24-hour period.

"Yeah, we work 20 or 30 hours at a stretch—until we get that gas up where those tanks can use it," said Pfc. Marco A. Battista, Brooklyn, who like Patti and the third soldier, Pvt. James Gaston of Winterville, Miss., was proud because they were in the first gasoline supply unit to operate east of Paris.

Men Outlast Vehicles

The convoys moved on a special "Redball" system of one-way roads from which all slow-moving civilian and Army traffic was banned. The trucks were kept going day and night without repairs—and they broke down before the tough and loyal drivers broke.

"We moved so fast from place to place we could never count on meals and we were always running out of rations," said Gaston, "so we just scrounged wherever we could and picked up eggs, apples and tomatoes from French farmers—anything to keep filled up."

"It ain't such a bad life," said Patti, "except it gets awful cold in that cab at night, particularly if you lose your blankets."

Someone opened the door and the three truck drivers shivered as the wind blew in. They finished their last gulp of wine, paid the bill and hesitated reluctantly at the door as they buttoned their jackets.

They gave a slow last look around the dry room and then stomped noisily into the cold, wet world outside. They climbed into big trucks and in a few seconds were spinning them down the rain-shiny highway like it was the Indianapolis speedway with one lap to go for the prize money.

Odds Level Off As Browns Cop Opener

Galehouse Star Of 2-1 Victory

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5 (AP)—They are calling the St. Louis Browns the hitless wonders today because they copped the opening game of the first all-St. Louis World Series, 2-1, on two hits and a team batting average of .069 but Manager Luke Sewell will take three more of the same with no squawks.

After the Brownies took the opener, the series odds fell to 9 to 10 and take your choice.

Although Mort Cooper and Blix Donnelly, who teamed up to gain the unenviable distinction of losing the first two-hitter in series history, outshone Galehouse in sheer brilliance, it was the former Youngstown defense worker who had it in the pinches. Denny pulled out of tight spots in the second and third with vital strikeouts of Mort Cooper and Whitey Kurowski and bore down to retire the side after Marty Marion had scored the only Red Bird run.

Homer Thrillks Crowd

A crowd of 33,242 that paid $149,268 into the kitty, thrilled to George "Lefty" McQuinn's fourth inning home run clout atop the right field pavilion following Gene Moore's single to right. That was all the American league hitting and all its scoring but it was enough to send the customers home chuckling about how their "Cinderella Kids" had upset the Cardinal "supermen."

When the pressure was on, Galehouse was superb. After Marion smacked the first of two doubles in the second and Emil Verban singled, he struck out Mort Cooper. Following safeties by Johnny Hopp and Ray Sanders and a pass to Walker Cooper which loaded them with one out in the third, Denny whiffed Whitey Kurowski and made Danny Litwhiler force Hopp. Again in the ninth, Marion doubled to lead off but had to move around on an infield out and score on Pinch Hitter Ken O'Dea's fly to center.

Control Marvelous

Galehouse's display of control was marvelous. Despite the four passes issued by the former defense worker, he pitched only 123 baseballs, a very low total.

Only 35 were called balls, while 58 were strikes, including 25 fouls. Of the remaining 30, seven were hit safely and 23 hit for outs.

Except for his four passes, one of which was intentional, at no time did Galehouse have three balls on any batter. On only three occasions did batters work him for two.

Nineteen Cardinals connected without any called balls on them, six on the first pitch. Of his five strikeouts, four were of the one-two-three variety.

'Purple' Rallies To Beat Tahoka Pups

TAHOKA, Oct. 5 (Special)—The Lubbock Cowboys' Purple team came from behind here yesterday afternoon to win a 12 to 7 decision over the Tahoka Pups with Jackie Davis sparking the visitors to the victory.

Tahoka took the ball on the opening kickoff, and marched 60 yards to score with Botts plunging over from 12 yards out, and Minor ran over for the extra point.

The Cowboys came back with a 65 yard drive, with Davis scoring from the 20 on a wide end run. There was no more scoring until late in the game when Davis hit pay dirt again from nine yards out for the winning tally.

World Series Notes

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 5. (AP) — The Browns' first game victory was the second time in less than a week that they won a ball game on two hits. Last Friday they beat the Yankees, 1-0, with only two safe blows, a single and a double.

Hal Newhouser, Dizzy Trout, Dick Wakefield and Bob Swift, four members of the Detroit Tigers who had counted on playing in the series instead of watching it, were in the stands yesterday.

If Luke Sewell and Billy Southworth need any advice during this series they won't have to look far. Frankie Frisch, former Cardinal pilot; Gabby Street and Rogers Hornsby, who led both St. Louis clubs; and Jim Bottomley who once headed the Browns, are attending the games.

Marty Marion, who sported only a .269 batting average for the season, was the only Cardinal to get two hits in the first game, both two-baggers. Marion was the leading batter in the 1943 series with a .357 average.

The records say the Cards will have to win today's game to stay in the running. Never has a team lost the first two contests of a best four-of seven series and come back to take the classic. In 1921 in a five-out of eight playoff, the Yankees beat the Giants twice, but lost the title, five games to three.

Umpires Ernie Stewart of the American league and Lou Jorda of the National have two of the best seats in the park and get $500 plus expenses just for watching the game. They are reserves and will work only if one of the four regular arbiters is sick or injured.

The ancient Egyptians, Greeks and Romans raised onions.

Raiders Prep For Aggies

Oklahoma Team To Be Here Saturday

With the undefeated, untied Oklahoma Aggies as the next step in their rugged 11 game schedule, the Texas Tech Red Raiders have devoted the week to preparing a defense designed to stop the Cowboys in their game here Saturday night.

Defense Worked Over

The offense of the Red Raiders showed a great improvement last week against the Texas Aggies, but Coach Morgan expressed himself as highly displeased with the showing of the defense, and this phase of the game has been the subject of the week.

One boy who has been coming to the front in these workouts has been John Birdwell, who came to Texas Tech as a fullback from Bossier City, La. Birdwell has been shifted into the line where he has been getting in some whacks at playing guard, and his work has been highly pleasing during this week.

T. M. Cox, letterman back from Muleshoe, is another that has shown a great amount of improvement this week, and after a slow start looms as about ready to hit his stride.

Bufkin Likely Starter

Costin Bufkin, backfield flash from Hobbs, N. M. Mexico, leaped into the limelight last week against the Texas Aggies with dazzling offensive game, and likely will find a spot in Saturday's starting eleven.

The Oklahomans boast of a seasoned lineup with seven lettermen in the starting lineup, headed by Bob Fenimore, rated as one of the greatest backs in the hisotry of the school.

Fenimore dealt the Red Raiders plenty of trouble last season as a Freshman star, but went out for the rest of the season in the following game to cut short his rise to stardom. But he has started in where he left off last season, and looms as one of the top performers in the Southwest.

Paired against him will be Walter Schlinkman, the Dumas Demon, who has carried a large part of the Red Raider attack, and fans are looking for a wide open scoring thriller matching these two great backfield stars in a battle royal.

Baltimore Wins In International Loop

BALTIMORE, Oct. 5. (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles forged their way into the little world series for the first time since 1925 last night by taking the seventh game of the final International league playoffs from Newark's Bears 6-3 in drizzling rain and fog before 14,747 fans.

Three home runs plus a collection of other extra base blows and sterling pitching by Right-hander Stan West paved the way for the Baltimore victory. The Birds will meet Louisville in the opening game of baseball's minor classic Friday night, at Louisville.

Lobos Preparing For Tussle With Buffs

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 5. (AP)—The New Mexico university Lobos are being shaken up in preparation for the football game here Saturday night against the Buffaloes of West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon.

The game is the second this season between members on the Border conference which is inactive for the duration.

Following New Mexico's loss 25-7 last week to Colorado college, Coach Willie Barnes tried several new combinations in the line and backfield, but is not willing yet to announce a starting lineup.

Among the new men likely to see action are guard W. R. McKay on Phoenix, former Arizona all-state high school player; and Charlie Patterson who has been taking turns this week at R. D. Lutjen's right halfback spot.

Center Virgil Boteler has been named game captain.

New Mexico defeated Arizona State of Flagstaff, 47-14, in its first meeting with a Border team this year. It will close the season at Lubbock against a third member, Texas Tech.

CAPTAINS NAMED

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 5. (AP) — When Randolph field plays the University of Texas Longhorns at Austin Saturday two former Longhorn three-year lettermen will captain the Ramblers—Pete Layden and Jack Freeman. Layden will start at fullback and Freeman at right guard.

Cowboy 'Whites' Win 21-7 Over Petersburg

The Lubbock Cowboys' White team evened the score with the Petersburg Juniors Wednesday afternoon at Chapman field and gained a 21 to 7 victory over a team that knocked over the Reds last week by a 13-0 count. The Cowboys struck twice in the early minutes, and were never headed off.

Omer Castor was the hero for the Cowboys, scoring two touchdowns from his wing position, and setting up a third. On the first play after the kickoff, Castor got away for a 65 yard gallop on an end around play, and was roped in on the Petersburg 8. On the next play he took a pass from Ellison for the touchdown. Bill Bridge plunged over the extra point.

A few plays later, the Cowboys recovered a fumble, and on the next play Castor got away again for a 25-yard gallop to set up the score with Ellison plunging over from six yards out. Bridges carried the ball over for the extra point.

There was no more scoring in the half, but in the third period, Petersburg scored on a 40 yard power drive that refused to be stopped, and ran the ball over for the extra point.

Castor scored the final touchdown on a short run late in the ball game, and Ellison ran over for the extra point.

Pearson To Be In Lamesa Tilt

Star Lineman Back With Westerners

The hopes of the Lubbock Westerners were given a decided shot in the arm Wednesday afternoon with the announcement that Co-Captain Johnny Pearson, star lineman, would be back with the team this week when the Westerners go after their fourth win of the season at Lamesa Friday night.

Pearson missed the game last week at Big Spring, but the work has been made up to assure the return of Pearson to the lineup this week.

But the use of the two injured stars of last week remained a big question mark with the Westerners as Billy Bob Harris, regular end, and R. W. Moyers, big fullback, continue to nurse their injured knees from the sidelines.

Missed Big Spring Game

Both men missed the Big Spring game, and are likely to also watch this game from the sidelines. Harris injured his knee a week ago during a workout, but Moyers' injury is an old holdover from last season.

Coach Dixie White put the club through an extensive drill Wednesday, most of it on setting up the defense to be used against Coach Fitzgerald's threatening Golden Tornadoes.

Coach J. Mule Davis and Athletic Director E. J. "Pinkey" Lowrey were in Amarillo Wednesday attending a meeting of District 1-AA officials for a general discussion of plans and eligibility check of playing lists of the member schools.

It was announced Wednesday that 125 adult and 150 student tickets for Friday night's game at Lamesa have been received, and will go on sale today in the principal's office at the Senior High school.

Porkers May Drill En Route To T. C. U.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 5. (AP) — Coach Glen Rose says he may give the University of Arkansas Razorbacks a practice session in Paris, Texas, tomorrow afternoon en route to Fort Worth, where on Saturday the Hogs play the Texas Christian Horned Frogs.

Thirty-two members of the club will leave here tomorrow morning for Texas. Rose, seeking a scoring punch, yesterday ran off new plays in a private workout.

THIS is a project which has been mentioned before in other parts of the paper. No one has asked us to make further mention of it here, but we're doing so, because it is very, very worthwhile. It is a project which The Plainsman wants to help along, not personally, but by urging others to aid in it.

We refer to the current campaign to secure Christmas gifts for wounded and otherwise disabled soldiers at McCloskey General hospital, Temple.

The campaign to make Christmas brighter for these heroic defenders of our country, is statewide in scope. In Lubbock and the surrounding area, it is sponsored by wifes of the military personnel of South Plains Army Air Field. Here's all you have to do to help:

The next time you are shopping, select some sort of gift for a wounded or disabled fighting man. It doesn't have to be big. It doesn't have to be expensive. Just let it be as big and as expensive as you feel you can afford. You may buy your gift wherever you choose. After you do so, however, take it to the sub-postoffice at Hemphill-Wells and turn it over to the SPAAF women there who are on hand to wrap and forward the gifts. That's all there is to it.

None of us, nor all of us together, can make Christmas merry for the wounded and disabled at McCloskey General hospital. But we can help make the Yuletide cheerier than it could otherwise be for the men who are there because they were struck down while protecting us against the foe.

Some college—perhaps even the University of Texas, his dear, old almy mammy—should and probably will confer upon Gibb Gilchrist the honorary degree of doctor of laws.

We suggest this honor not because it, or the title, is sought by the towering, new president of Texas A&M, but because it will make Gibb answer to "doctor" whether he likes it or not.

A&M's new prexy is not an academician. He vaulted into his present job from the deanship of A&M's engineering division, but before that he was a tough, state highway engineer and before that a practicing consultant. Now that he's a college president, a great many people mistakenly call him "doctor," and a great many others—especially Gibb's old friends who like to kid him—do so on purpose, just to see him wince.

When President Gilchrist was here last week-end, he was "doctored" so much he almost hid out, especially from the kidders.

Something ought to be done about it.

THE most recent of our wartime labor walkouts in the Detroit area pose, almost on election eve, a question which long has bothered many a Texas Democrat who by choice, habit and/or custom and tradition wishes, on November 7, to vote the national ticket listed as "Democratic."

That question, of course, is: "How can I mark my ballot favoring electors pledged to the Roosevelt-Truman ticket without placing my stamp of approval on the administration's labor policy?"

That is a very difficult question for anyone to answer to his own satisfaction if he believes an administration which can put young men in frontline fighting should be able to keep well-paid workers at their jobs of supplying the weapons of war.

We have never run across an all-out New Deal supporter who can rationalize the Roosevelt policy as it applies to organized labor in war plants.

We doubt if any citizen—no matter how much he may trust and admire the President as a man and as a public official — can rationalize it.

Certainly it is neither just nor democratic for the government to say to one man: "You must leave your comfortable home, family and loved ones and risk your life and limb in the service of your country; you must work around the clock in the blood and the mud at a wage scale which is only a fraction of what your home front counterpart is drawing in safety;" and say to another: "You don't have to work at your safe, well-paid job if for any reason you do not wish to; you may strike and, by force, prevent others from working —even though you tie up production of materials sorely needed by the men at the battle front."

Yet that is, to all intents and purposes, what the government of the U. S. has been saying all along through application of the Roosevelt labor policy.

IN case there is in Lubbock or on the South Plains a citizen who can rationalize this situation, and who can answer this question bothering so many Texas Democrats, we'd like to hear from him, or her.

We offer this column — the whole of a normal day's space if needed—to the one who best can answer this question:

"How can I mark my ballot favoring electors pledged to the Roosevelt-Truman ticket without placing my stamp of approval on the administration's labor policy?"

Those offering a solution to the puzzle — and The Plainsman is sincere in asking for answers — may take up to 800 or 1,000 words.

We shall take all the answers we get and submit them to at least three local pro-Roosevelt people and permit them to select the answer to be published.

A logical answer, if there is one, will be helpful to thousands of Lubbock and South Plains citizens on pondering the question in their own minds.

A gentleman with a sense of humor is Sr. Francisco Castillo Najera, Mexico's ambassador to the United States.

Recently a rumor drifted up to Washington from Mexico City to the effect that Najera planned to resign his post. To the Mexican embassy hurried reporters, who asked the ambassador, straight from the shoulder:

"Have you resigned, or do you plan to resign?"

"Gentlemen," answered the ambassador, with a poker face, "when you have as good a paying job as I have, you do not resign."

The reporters thanked Najera, and turned to leave. The ambassador who was walking in the opposite direction, called back over his shoulder:

"You do not resign — but they fire you!"

N. B. Quiet, gray and popular Ambassador Najera hasn't been fired—yet.

THE Plainsman, who has always preferred the Good, Old Summer Time to any other period of the year, never thought he'd welcome winter. But this year he can hardly wait until the northers zip down from Amarillo.

The reason is, we're sick nigh unto death of the spectacle of grown women running around with their bare feet showing.

Just why any female should consider her ugly toes of interest to anyone but herself — and that in the privacy of her boudoir—is more than we have been able to understand.

As far as we are concerned, a woman with a million dollars worth of allure above the ankles renders it to 30 cents by leaving her bare toes sticking out of her shoes. And we've got a hunch that about 99.44 per cent of the men feel the same way!

Feminine Viewpoint

BY RUTH MILLETT
(Copyright, 1944, For The Journal)

ONCE upon a time when a woman was going to have a baby the news was kept strictly within the family circle until nature itself announced the fact.

MILLETT

Then it became a common practice for a couple to tell their friends and relatives about an expected "blessed event" soon after they knew about it themselves.

The next step was for gossip columnists to spread to the reading public the fact that movie famous people were "imaging." It was the modern version of the old-fashioned behind hands, "Isn't Mrs. Jones expecting?" gossip.

Pretty soon the public announcement of the awaited arrival of a baby became so common that the news was often in print six or seven months before the baby was due, and an actress who was to become a mother could make a movie or two in between the time when her prospective motherhood was announced and accomplished.

COMPLETE SURPRISE

SOME day ultimate in the announcement of such tidings had to be reached. And that day, it seems, has at last arrived, with this news item: "Mary Livingston declared Wednesday that the statement of Jack Benny, her husband, that she was an expectant mother came as a complete surprise to her."

Now we might as well go back to the old-fashioned reticence of our grandmothers' time and start the evolution all over again.

Because when the world gets the news of a prospective baby before the prospective mother knows about it herself the vogue for spreading such glad tidings fast and far and wide has gone as far as it can go.

ALFRED E. SMITH: AN OBJECT LESSON

When death early yesterday summoned Alfred E. Smith from the scenes he loved so well the nation, as a White House statement aptly put it, "lost a great patriot." Almost as important, there was removed from the ranks of the living a man whose career was symbolic of the American Way of Life which made it possible for a poor boy to climb—by way of his own, natural talents—from the obscurity of a fish market to a position of great power, prestige and more than a fair share of riches.

Four times governor of the most popular state in the Union, many times suggested and once nominated by his party for the presidency, the man variously known as "the Brown Derby," "the Happy Warrior," and "our Al" wrung by his successes a place in the national sun. But, it seems to us, the greatest return from all his efforts came from his one great defeat—in the presidential campaign of 1928. For Al Smith, jaunty, smiling, always willing to face the odds and fight them through, became, in the eyes of his fellow citizens, a greater American after losing to Herbert Hoover than he had ever been before. Never, even in his hey-day as governor of New York, or as Democratic nominee for the presidency, did Al Smith have as much respect and regard from the American public as a whole as he did in the years following his defeat when his brave demeanor marked him as the possessor of a great heart.

As America drops a tear on Al Smith's bier today, her people might well wonder if the future will offer to our sons the same sort of chance for success the past guaranteed to Alfred E. Smith.

As citizens from one end of the land to another read of Al Smith's meteoric climb from nowhere to within reaching distance of the highest pinnacle in the land, they may ask themselves: "will my son, my grandson, have the same opportunity Al Smith had if our system of government continues to drift toward the various European 'isms'?"

More than any other figure who presently comes to mind, Al Smith and his career illustrates the value of the American Way of Life, now assaulted on all sides by political expediency and pressure groups. The death of a great man who came from the humbles surroundings should rivet, we believe, the attention of Americans everywhere on their blood — won birthright; should strengthen their willpower and sharpen their wits that they may not have it stolen from them.

Churchill Thumbs Down U. S. Plan In Italy

Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. — Here is the inside story behind the Roosevelt - Churchill announcement for more relief to Italy and more latitude for the new Bonomi government:

When President Roosevelt sat down to confer with Winston Churchill in Quebec, he had before him a very important plan for revamping the Italian economic and political system worked out by Brig.-Gen. William O'Dwyer, former district-attorney in Brooklyn and former candidate for mayor of New York. The plan, briefly summarized, provided for:

Removal of Allied military control in Rome.

PEARSON

Establishment of a definite food program for the Italian people in the major cities.

Increase of transportation, both rail and automobile.

Increase of electric power facilities.

Return of all prisoners to Italy who are non-Fascist and willing to cooperate with the present Bonomi government. Especially it was proposed that Italian prisoners be returned from France, where they are more harshly treated than in the United States or England.

Before going to Quebec, President Roosevelt also had a very important session with General O'Dwyer, at which O'Dwyer told FDR that it required 1,400 tons of food daily to feed Rome, instead of which people of Rome were getting only 1,100 tons a day. General O'Dwyer illustrated Italian starvation by citing the number of children who died in Rome in July, namely 435 out of every 1,000. In normal peace times the infant death rate is nearer 100 in 1,000. Merely by increasing the amount of milk available in Rome during the month of August, O'Dwyer said, the death rate had dropped to nearer 300 out of every 1,000.

O'DWYER also told how the villas of counts and countesses outside of Rome featured ornate, many - coursed dinners, while the poor people of Rome ate almost nothing. Just before General O'Dwyer left Italy for Washington, he wrote a letter to Premier Bonomi, stating that unless more food was provided for Italy in the near future, there would be serious riots and bloodsheds by January. He also told Roosevelt about the Allied brasshats in Italy who took no interest in Italian civilian problems and who probably would not do so until starvation and food riots hit them in the face.

This report was placed before Churchill in Quebec, where he put immediate thumbs down on the plan to remove Allied military control in Rome. He cited the riots over the assistant prison warden in Rome and said that Italy wasn't anywhere near ready to govern itself. However, he fully agreed with FDR regarding a stabilized food program for Italy and for gradual resumption of normal relations.

NOTE—U. S. observers have sent to Washington the amazing report that when Churchill arrived in Rome on his recent visit, the first man he talked to was Marshal Badoglio. Although Badoglio is no longer in power, Churchill conferred with him before he met Premier Bonomi. Badoglio, of course, was Churchill's own personal choice to head the government in Rome.

MARTIN BUSY

REPUBLICANS aren't saying much about it, but it is extremely noticeable that Joseph W. Martin, House Minority leader, is not playing a prominent role in the national campaign. Inside fact is that he is too busy trying to get reelected in his own district, where he is opposed by Edmund P. Talbot, former mayor of Fall River and a former sheriff of the county. Talbot is of French-Canadian extraction, a Catholic and a Spanish War veteran.

In the 1942 election, the largest city in this Congressional district, Fall River, voted as follows: Joe Martin received 11,765 votes, while the Democratic nominee, Lomax received 17,334 votes. Therefore, while the whole district went Republican by 17,000, Fall River went Democratic by almost 6,000. Already there is a 41,000 registration in a city which cast only about 30,000 votes in 1942.

Outside of Fall River, if Martin can be kept down to a 12,000 lead, Democrats figure he can be licked. Martin led outside Fall River in 1942 by 22,000. But in many of the small towns there are powerful groups of Yankee "liberal intellectuals" who are close to the Willkie line. Talbot has made contact with the United Nations groups in this area and they are working enthusiastically for him.

BETTER BOMB

ARMY officials haven't revealed whether they plan to use it yet, but they've already perfected and tested a new flying robomb, bigger and faster than anything the Nazis have ever seen.

Fact is, the new robomb was tested in the Middlewest last month, and whizzed through the air at more than 100 miles an hour during performance checks. The bomb has been developed with the aid of the Ford Motor company. Whether it is in production or not is a military secret.

Actually, during the last war, Ford produced a heavy robot bomb of his own, but couldn't find out how it would perform under front line conditions. It has never been revealed, but in the American part of the first World war one robomb was partially inspired by Gen. "Hap" Arnold, now commander of the U. S. Army Air corps.

Arnold brought his idea to the Ford company, asked Ford to work out a motor to go with it. Ford rolled up his sleeves, soon produced a two-cylinder engine that worked well. Probably if the first war had lasted another six months, the robomb would have made its appearance 24 years earlier.

NOTE—The original American robomb is still preserved in the Ford laboratories in Michigan.

OUTMODED

ENLISTED men in the Navy continue to hope and pray that Admiral Ernie King will take time to consider their outmoded 200-year-old uniform.

Once the admiral — recently returned from his London tailor —went over the head of the late Secretary Knox and got the White House okay for the new gray-blue summer uniform which most naval officers so despise. So now the enlisted men, who have to wear the tight-fitting pants with 13 buttons and the blouses that go over the head, are wondering if Admiral King couldn't devote a little thought to their clothes problems.

The Merchant Marine some time ago realized that the sailors' uniform, designed by the British Navy during the days of the clipper and frigate, was long out of date. Also, the Coast Guard permits its petty officers to wear an adaptation of the chief petty officers uniform. But the lowly sailor in the Navy must continue wearing flapping pants, and the broad collar that blows up around his ears in a high gale.

Older men in the Seabees, who enlisted as professional experts, are especially resentful at having to wear a uniform which they feel makes them look like school boys.

Ernie's Second Installment Of A Saga Of Fighting In The Sky

Airplane Gets Credit For "Bringin' 'em Back!"

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Ernie Pyle is resting following his service with frontline troops in Europe and next plans to go to the fighting zones of the Pacific. While he is on leave The Journal will publish here some of Ernie's earlier articles, not previously printed in Lubbock, upon which first was built the mutual esteem between Pyle and "GI Joe.")

By ERNIE PYLE

A FORWARD AIRDOME In French Africa, January, 1943. —The 10 men who brought their Flying Fortress home from a raid on Tripoli, after they had been given up for lost, undoubtedly will get decorations. Nothing quite like it has happened before in this war. Here is the full story:

The Tripoli airdrome was heavily defended, by both fighter planes and antiaircraft guns. Flying into that hailstorm, as one pilot said, was like a mouse attacking a dozen cats.

The Thunderbird — for that was the name of this Fortress — was first hit just as it dropped its bomb load. One engine went out. Then a few moments later the other engine on the same side went.

ERNIE PYLE

When both engines go out on the same side it is usually fatal. And therein lies the difference of this feat from other instances of bringing damaged bombers home.

The Thunderbird was forced to drop below the other Fortresses. And the moment a Fortress drops down or lags behind, German fighters are on it like vultures. The boys don't know how many Germans were in the air, but they think there must have been 30.

Our Lightning fighters, escorting the Fortresses, stuck by the Thunderbird and fought as long as they could, but finally they had to leave or they wouldn't have had enough fuel to make it home.

Boys Stick With Plane

The last fighter left the crippled Fortress about 40 miles from Tripoli. Fortunately, the swarm of German fighters started home at the same time, for their gas was low, too.

The Thunderbird flew on another 20 miles. Then a single German fighter appeared, and dived at them. Its guns did great damage to the already crippled plane, but simply couldn't knock it out of the air.

Finally the fighter ran out of ammunition, and left. Our boys were alone now with their grave troubles. Two engines were gone, most of the guns were out of commission, and they were still more than 400 miles from home. The radio was out. They were losing altitude, 500 feet a minute, and now they were down to 2,000.

The pilot called up his crew and held a consultation. Did they want to jump? They all said they would ride the plane as long as it was in the air. He decide to keep going.

THE ship was completely out of trim., cocked over at a terrible angle. But they gradually got it trimmed so that it stopped losing altitude.

By now they were down to 900 feet, and a solid wall of mountains ahead barred the way homeward. They flew along parallel to these mountains for a long time, but they were now miraculously gaining some altitude. Finally they got the thing to 1500 feet.

The lowest pass is 1600 feet, but they came across at 1500. Explain that if you can!

Maybe it's as the pilot said: "We didn't come over the mountains, we came through them."

The co-pilot said: "I was blowing on the windshield trying to push her along. Once I almost wanted to reach a foot down and sort of walk us along over the pass."

And the navigator said:

"If I had been on the wingtip I could have touched the ground with my hand when we went through the pass."

The air currents were bad. One wing was cocked way down. It was hard to hold. The pilots had a horrible fear that the low wing would drop clear down and they'd roll over and go into a spin. But they didn't.

"Everything Against Them"

The navigator came into the cockpit, and he and the pilots navigated the plane home. Never for a second could they feel any real assurance of making it. They were practically rigid but they talked a blue streak all the time, and cussed, as airmen do.

Everything seemed against them. The gas consumption doubled, squandering their precious supply. To top off their misery, they had a bad headwind. The gas gauge went down and down.

At last the navigator said they were only 40 miles from home, but those 40 miles passed as though they were driving a horse and buggy. Dusk, coming down on the sandy haze, made the vast flat desert an indefinite thing. One oasis looks exactly like another.

* * *

BUT they knew when they were near home. Then they shot their red flare and waited for the green flare from our control tower.

A minute later it came—the most beautiful sight that crew has ever seen.

When the plane touched the ground they cut the switches and let it roll. For it had no brakes. At the end of the roll the big Fortress veered off the side of the runway. And then it climaxed its historic homecoming by spinning madly around five times and then running backwards for 50 yards before it stopped.

When they checked the gas gauges, they found one tank dry and the other down to 20 gallons.

Deep dusk enveloped the field. Five more minutes and they never would have found it.

This weary, crippled Fortress had flown for the incredible time of 4½ hours on one pair of motors.

Got Six German Fighters!

That night I was with the pilot and some of the crew and we drank a toast. One visitor raised his glass and said: "Here's to your safe return."

But the pilot raised his own glass and said instead: "Here's to a damned good airplane!"

And the others of the crew raised their glasses and repeated: "Here's to a damned good airplane!"

And here is the climax. During that agonizing homeward crawl, this one crippled plane shot down the fantastic total of six German fighters. These were officially confirmed.

Landing In Greece

the first blow in Greece. They quickly seized an airfield on the Peloponnesus from which Spitfires were operating before the landings from the sea began. Air transport planes carried in other troops. By Tuesday night the invaders were entering Patrai, a city of 61,000 on the northern shore of the Peloponnesus 112 miles west of Athens.

The parachute troops and seaborne units were given a joyful welcome by the Greek natives who in more than two years of stern German rule have suffered severely from food shortages.

Food, Medicine Promised

The Allies already have promised essential foods and medical supplies to the country, which for six months in 1940-41 fought an attacking Italian army to a standstill and might have pushed it into the sea but for a German drive across the Balkans.

Lending support to the invaders, Mustangs from the U. S. 15th Air force swarmed over the Kalamaki, Tatoi and Elesis airdromes in the Athens area, destroying several grounded enemy planes but meeting no air opposition.

Other warplanes blasted the threadbare enemy lines of communication through Yugoslavia, on which the Germans must pin their last hope of getting their Balkan garrisons back to the fatherland.

Native Patriots Helping

Patriot groups were said to be cooperating closely with Allied forces in both Greece and Albania.

The invasion returned British troops to the Greek mainland for the first time since 1941, when an ill-fated expeditionary force was forced to flee before the then all-powerful German army.

Fort Driant Battle

mortars from the forest across the Moselle and by artillery fire from Driant's sister fortresses.

At the closest point the Americans were a scant 75 yards from the main fort.

But the Germans still were able to supply their garrison by trucks and wagons which slipped along a winding dirt road through the forest at Driant's rear.

The road was under almost continuous shellfire but American observers could see the Germans moving even field kitchens up to their besieged positions.

On the southeast flank of their position the Germans held a line from the giant pillbox about 300 yards to the right, ending at the Moselle. Along this line the Germans were dug in with machine-gun and mortar positions.

India's population figures have shown an increase of 10 per cent in 10 years; her total population is now 360,000,000.

Total Casualties Of Yanks 417,085

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5. (AP) — Secretary of War Stimson reported today that Army casualties on all fronts were 351,293 Sept. 21. The latest Navy casualty figure of 65,792 brought the total for the armed services to 417,085.

The campaign in Italy, Stimson said, has cost 82,111 ground force casualties.

Stimson's overall Army total was up 13,550 from his last report of two weeks ago for the period ended Sept. 6. The 351,293 was divided as follows: 68,568 killed; 185,291 wounded; 45,488 missing and 51,316 prisoners.

The Navy casualties: Total 65,792; killed 25, 963, wounded 25,588 missing 9,761, prisoners 4,480.

Stimson said that 48,379 of the Army wounded have returned to duty.

The separate report on Italian campaign casualties did not include Air force personnel losses. It showed 15,889 killed, 56,178 wounded and 10,044 missing as of Sept. 25.

New Cotton Rates Are Listed By WFA

DALLAS, Oct. 5 (AP)—The War Food administration has announced that new rates at which Commodity Credit corporation will purchase this year's cotton crop range from 21.90 cents a pound for October to 22.25 cents during May and June, 1945.

The new price schedule is based on moddling 15-16-inch gin bale at Memphis with premiums and discounts the same as those announced under the 1944 loan program.

L. J. Cappleman, WFA's regional distribution director, said the CCC had advised him that cotton may be placed in the loan now and be eligible for purchase at announced prices in later months.

He said cotton will be purchased only from farmers who produced cotton in 1944 and who have retained the beneficial interest to the cotton at all times.

National Politics

liberate lie."

Senator Ball (R-Minn) reiterated in a St. Louis speech that "I meant what I said" when he announced he was unable to campagn for Dewey at this time. Ball, an active advocate of international collaboration, said "unfortunately we have not had" complete candor on this matter from the President and it thus "becomes even more incumbent on the opposition to draw the issues clearly and forcefully."

Hitting the political highspots otherwise:

A "double the vote for Dewey day" was set for Oct. 25 by women Republicans who plan a particularly intensive drive that day.

Democratic National Chairman Hannegan, speaking in New York, declared that "the Republicans are interested—to put it mildly—in a small vote, the smallest possible."

Florida Group For Dewey

The Florida Independent Democratic party, whose presidential electors were denied a place on the state ballot, voted to support the GOP ticket. A resolution said that Mr. Roosevelt and Senator Truman were nominated by "southhating bureaucrats."

The Senate campaign expenditures committee sent out questionaires on political activity to 168 organizations, ranging from national associations to such groups as one in Chicago named "Girls who save nickels to elect a Republican president club."

Assurances of fourth term support were given at the White House by leaders of a group of railway labor unions including the firemen, clerks, conductors, maintenance-of-way men and machinists.

Rumely Denies Part In Texas Politics

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — Texas politics was projected into the House campaign expenditures committee investigation today when Dr. Edward A. Rumely, secretary of the Committee on Constitutional government, was asked to tell of the activities of his group in that state. The witness denied the contentions of Chairman Anderson, (D-N.M.) that there was political significance to the circulation by the Rumely group of literature in certain Texas areas just before last summer's Democratic primary election.

The literature, including a leaflet outlining the national debt increase under Roocevelt administration, was distributed in congressional districts of Speaker Rayburn and Reps. Wright Patman, Lyndon B. Johnson and Luther A. Johnson, Anderson asserted.

"You did it because you desired to retire them from Congress," declared Anderson, who said the group would go further into the Texas situation at a hearing in Dallas Oct 11.

Giant Cross Planned For Aimee's Funeral

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5. (AP)—The floral cross on Evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson's marble sarcophagus in Forest Lawn Memorial park will be, her followers say, the largest ever constructed here.

Two carloads of flowers, most of them white, will form a cross 250 feet wide and 600 feet long against the sloping hillside at burial services next Monday. Her body will lie in state at her church, Angelus temple, tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday.

She died Sept. 27 in Oakland, Calif.

RUBINOFFS PARENTS

SPECIALTIES MAINTAIN RECOVERY

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP) — Specialty stocks kept the market recovery pot simmering today with activity in low-quoted issues putting volume at one of the largest in the past two months.

Steels were out at the start in sizable blocks. They soon lost their stamina and extreme gains were pared or cancelled in the majority of instances by midday. While scattered plus marks of a point or so were in evidence near the close, minor improvement was the rule. Rails moved up in the final hour.

Turnover was around 900,000 shares.

Favorites touching 1944 peaks at one time or another included Great Northern, General Realty, Loy Mfg., Pepsi-Cola, American Airlines and Curtiss-Wright "A." Ahead most of the time were U. S. Steel, Southern Pacific, Atlantic Coast line, Chrysler, Woolworth, Eastman Kodak, Borden, Warner Bros., Anaconda, Westinghouse and Texas Co. Backward were Texas Pacific Land Trust, Boeing, Hiram Walker, Dow Chemical and General Electric.

Carriers revived when it was learned application had been made to the Interstate Commerce commission for reinstatement on Jan. 1, next, of freight rate increases granted in 1942 which have been under suspension since May 15 last year.

Cotton Market

Air War On Nazis

134 on four consecutive nights. Most of them have been caught shuttling between industrial cities in the Ruhr valley.

Pass, Sub Base Hit

The only major attack on the continent yesterday was by between 500 and 750 heavy bombers of the American 15th airforce that flew up from Italy and bombed the freight yards at Munich and points on the vulnerable Brenner pass railroad.

British Lancasters and Halifaxes followed up their spectacular breaching of the Walcheren island seawall by racing across the North sea on a 1,300-mile roundtrip and cracking the Nazi submarine base at Bergen, Norway. Several new U-boat stalls are reported under construction there to replace those lost along the French coast.

Bad weather hampered reconnaissance activities over the Dutch island since Tuesday's "earthquake" bombing, but the German radio last night admitted 6,000 troops were trapped in floods.

Governor Sets Nov. 30 As Thanksgiving Day

AUSTIN, Oct. 5. (AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson of Texas today issued his Thanksgiving day proclamation and designated the fifth Thursday—Nov. 30—as the day, though Congress has designated the fourth Thursday.

"The observance of the day in our country dates from the Pilgrim fathers. The uniformity of its designation as the last Thursday in November dates from 1863," the proclamation recited.

attack just south of Ubach, the dispatch said, and so many dead Germans were found that the bodies formed an obstacle to the infantry when it went forward.

The center of enemy resistance was a hill just east of Herbach and south of captured Ubach. The Germans stormed the height, knocking out three mutually supporting pillboxes and forcing a fourth to raise the white flag.

The Germans, whose broadcasts admitted that the wedge had been widened, turned a record number of guns onto the corridor and rushed up men from pillboxes to the north and south in an effort to shore sagging defenses.

Pillboxes Knocked Out

Two large pillboxes were knocked out between the southwest and southeast corners of the fortress. They were found to be equipped with three large caliber guns.

The main fortifications are sunk so deeply into the hilltop where the fort is located and follow the earth's contours so closely that they can hardly be seen.

From where they lie atop the fort the GI's can readily hear the Germans shouting to each other inside the fort.

Tanks Enter Fort

Initial entry into the fortress area was made by a column of Sherman tanks which moved up four abreast under cover of a terrific artillery barrage.

Maj. James P. Owens, 43, Junction City, Kans., described the action:

"Our artillery never stopped shooting, even when the tanks began to roll. They merely tilted guns up and let the shells roll just ahead of the advancing tanks. When the shermans got inside, they blazed away point blank at the pillboxes and forts. Then the infantry closed in. Many of our fellows were able to get on top of the main fort but they couldn't crack it and finally were forced back."

Built About 1900

Driant was built about 1900. It is atop a bare hilltop, about 300 yards from the Moselle. The fortifications are of concrete which has hardened to the strength of iron and is covered by soil and grass making the walls doubtly impervious to shell fire.

About 10 pillboxes surround the main fort in checkerboard fashion, providing an almost perfect 360 degree perimeter defense. A moat about 30 feet wide and 15 feet deep coveres the fort's southern flank. Outside the moat lie barbwire entangelements.

Driant is covered by artillery fire from Fort Mareville, to the north across the Moselle, and by the Verdun forts south of Metz.

Attack On 6-Mile Front

Lt. Gen. Sir Miles C. Dempsey's main attack eastward was launched on a six-mile front from south of Arnhem and only about two miles from the famous bridge for which the British First air-borne division had battled in vain. It was aimed in the direction of Pannerdensch, eight miles southeast of Arnhem and the same distance northeast of Nijmegen. Pannerdensch is only about two miles from the German border north of Kleve and is at the fork of the Waal and Neder Ryn rivers. The stiff opposition limited the advance to about a mile.

Farther south, Allied armor attacking from the eastern side of the Nijmegen corridor near Venray advanced several miles from Meijel, established a front along the Nooren canal north of Venlo, and fought forward slowly across marshy land from Overloon.

Nazi Thrust Nipped

Almost directly east of Nijmegen Allied infantry and artillery broke up a German concentration in the Reichswald, south of Kleve, where the enemy was preparing another counterattack.

West of the corridor an advance of eight miles was made in a northwesterly direction by British troops on a 10-mile front south of Tilburg, and troops of the Canadian army advancing from the other direction, the southwest, approached to within five miles of Tilburg.

However, the Germans launched a surprise counterattack against Polish troops in the latter area, around Barrie Nassau, eight miles southwest of Tilburg, which forced the Allies to give ground temporarily.

Rain, Cold Mark Fighting

Drizzling rain and cold marked the fighting on the American front at Ubach.

The enemy counterattack, first of the Nazi defensive blows to be led with armor, blunted itself against the American lines near Herbach, a mile and a half south of Ubach, which is at the center of the two-mile-deep wedge into Germany.

At the peak of their wedge the Americans were edging forward under artillery, mortar and machinegun fire beyond the eastern outskirts of Ubach.

Nazis Lose 2 Forts

To the west, Canadian troops hurled the Germans back from Forts Cappellen and Starbroek, five to seven miles north of Antwerp, in a thrust within seven miles of the narrow land neck over which the only road runs from the mainland to the Dutch islands of Beveland and RAF-flooded Walcheren.

From 10,000 to 15,000 German troops were in imminent danger of being cut off there as they clung to the artillery positions which have guarded the Schedle estuary and blocked Allied shipping from use of the port of Antwerp.

To the south one of the strangest battles of the war developed amid gunfire and the smoke of fire grenades and burning crude oil at Fort Driant, key bastion to Metz. Doughboys of the American Third army held the surface and the Nazi garrison fought with desperation in the maze of underground defenses.

AP Correspondent Edward D. Ball reported in a dispatch from the Metz front that the Americans had made their first penetration last night into the subterranean tunnels of Fort Driant.

Capture of the fort was announced prematurely at supreme headquarters yesterday on the basis of information from frontline headquarters before the full tenacity of the German stand was known.

Now it was a touch and go fight, with the Americans holding on grimly under crossfire from flanking forts and sniping from German trapdoor gun positions.

Some Nazis Smoked Out

The Americans smoked some of the Nazis out with phosphorus grenades and poured flaming oil down hidden passages on others, but still had the job of quarrying out the remainder of the German garrison.

Between the Waal and the Neder Rhine British Tommies gained ground in heavy fighting with reinforced German forces just south of Arnhem, and troops of the Canadian First army pushed north of Turnhout, capturing Hilvarenbeek within five miles of Tilburg.

The American Third army repulsed a German counterattack near Sivrey, nine miles north of Nancy.

Seventh Gains Slowly

The Seventh army kept up its measured gains farther south in the face of slowly hardening resistance. Northeast of Epinal the Seventh found going hard through newly-reinforced German defensive positions, but in the Vosges foothills forests of Gehard and Longegoutte, between there and Belfort, the Americans advanced several miles.

At Ronchamp, ten miles due west of Belfort, French forces of the Seventh army mopped up one German hold-out pocket. Other Germans were fighting from fortified houses and factories in the city.

The lull of temporary truce hung, almost unreal, over Dunkirk. The Germans had cleared a lane through their defensive minefield and the first of 20,000 civilians began filing out, laden with possessions they could carry, into the Canadians lines. The evacuation will end tonight. Then, by agreement, the Canadians will give the Germans twelve hours to re-lay their mines before the all-out assault begins at dawn tomorrow.

Candidate Refuses To Swear Support Of 'Roosevelt Bull'

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—The secretary of state's office today had passed on to Bell county officials the question if an amended "oath of allegiance" would permit a candidate for public weigher to have his name on the Nov. 7 election ballot.

The oath is required by statute and its form was drafted by the attorney general's department several years ago.

The Bell county candidate deleted a portion which read: "I believe in and approve our present representative form of government and will resist any effort or movement from any source which seeks to subvert or destroy the same or any part thereof."

He wrote on the affidavit form furnished to candidates:

"To hell with this bull. I do not approve Roosevelt's bull and (underscored) his part of our present form of government (end underscoring) and if elected will not support Mr. Roosevelt."

Utilities Modifying Corporate Setup

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5. (AP) — Crescent Public Service company, its four subsidiaries and several affiliates filed today with the Securities and Exchange commission a plan to comply with provisions of the holding company act by dissolving Crescent and distributing holdings in the subsidiaries among its security holders.

The first step in simplifying the corporate structure would be dissolution of Oklahoma Utilities company, Bristow, Okla., following the sale of its utility properties for $280,000 to Oklahoma Natural Gas company.

The other subsidies—Central Ohio Light & Power Co., Findlay, O.; Colorado Central Power company, Golden, Colo., and Empire Southern Service company, Big Spring, Tex.—would be recapitalized.

Each of the subsidiaries would reclassify its common stock to a $1 par value and retire outstanding common stocks held by Crescent with the new stock. Excesses of stated value of outstanding stocks over the aggregate par value of the new common stocks would be credited to the subsidiaries' capital surplus accounts.

Japs' Black Dragon Head Reported Dead

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5. (AP) — Japan's Domei (news) agency today announced the death of Mitsuru Toyama, 90-year-old head of the Black Dragon society, Japanese terroristic patriotic organization.

The dispatch, intercepted by the Federal Communications commission, said the "saint" of the terrorist movement died at his summer home Wednesday night of a long illness.

FCC for eastern monitors described him as "one of the most powerful political bosses in Japan, believed to be the power behind the Tojo government and responsible for the present greater East Asia war."

WARRANTS CALLED

AUSTIN, Oct. 5. (U.P.) — State Teasurer Jesse James today issued a call for presentation of warrants against the state general revenue fund issued prior to August 19. Amount of the warrants called for payment is $444,193.

Paper Denies Buying Book

FORT WORTH, Oct. 5. (AP)—A report from Washington that the Fort Worth Star-Telegram purchased copies of a book entitled "For Americans Only" has been denied by the newspaper.

The denial followed testimony before a House campaign expenditures committee yesterday by Dr. Edward A. Rumely, executive secretary of the committee for constitutional government, that the Fort Worth Star-Telegram bought 6,000 copies of the book, written by Sam Pettingill, former Indiana representative.

Chairman Anderson (D-NM) of the committee yesterday questioned Rumely about the book, which Rumely testified cost 38 cents to publish and sold for 55 cents. Rumely said profits were used to help pay administrative costs of the committee, including a secretary hired at $280 monthly.

Additional Books Sent

Rumely said that some of the books he said were sold to the Star-Telegram were damaged in shipment and that an additional 500 copies were sent to the newspaper without charge. In response to questions, Rumely testified the Texas newspaper is owned by Amon G. Carter.

The Star-Telegram, in a prepared statement, said:

"The Star-Telegram purchased for distribution to students of public and parochial high schools of Fort Worth and Tarrant county 4,000 copies of Thomas James Norton's 'Constitution of The United States,' a factual treatise on the Constitution. It purchased no copies whatsoever of Pettingill's pamphlet, 'For Americans Only,' and knows nothing about its distribution.

"The Star-Telegram knows nothing about the political activities, if any, in Texas or elsewhere of the committee for constitutional government. Its only interest is in conducting a quiz contest among high school students on the Constitution, and all its dealings have been with the contest director. All costs of the contest are being paid by the paper, and the prizes likewise offered by it."

FALL OF BELGRADE TO RUSSIANS IS IMMINENT

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Associated Press Staff Writer

MOSCOW, Oct. 5. (AP) — Russian armored spearheads advanced today upon the rail junction of Pancevo, a city of 22,000 less than nine miles northeast of Belgrade, and front dispatches indicated that the Yugoslav capital may fall in a matter of hours.

The German position in all of the Belgrade area was declared untenable. The Russians have a big encircling maneuver ready to put into effect if the enemy tries to dig in.

Would Cut Escape Route

Closing in from the captured towns of Banatska Kraljevicevo, 15 miles northeast of Belgrade, and Debilyacha, 18 miles to the north, Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's forces cleared two rail lines leading to Pancevo and aimed toward cutting the main railway running northwest from the capital — major remaining rail escape route for the bulk of the German forces on the Balkan peninsula.

A companion Russian offensive southwest of Turnu Severin and 100 miles southeast of Belgrade, however, ran into stiffer resistance. This resistance was reported faltering under the blows of Russians in front and partisan detachment deep in the rear.

Juncture Reannounced

Yesterday's Russian communique, making the first official comment on the union of Russian troops with partisan forces first reported Monday by Marshal Tito, said that in that sector the united forces were fighting "for the annihaltion" of the Germans.

Racing to smash the main rail route in that region, the Russians outflanked the three-way rail junction of Zajecar, captured Vratarnica nine miles to the south, and drove to within 40 miles of Nis, key junction on the railway from Bulgaria and Greece.

A total of 13 towns and railway stations fell to this Russian thrust, including Bor, center of the second largest copper deposit in Europe.

The Soviet communique announced only patrol activity on other sectors of the eastern front.

Texas Regulars

asserted in a formal statement released in Dallas the objective of the group was to "consolidate the anti-New Deal votes in Texas and elect our electors who will cast their votes for Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia and not for the Roosevelt-Truman-Hillman-Kelly-Hague ticket."

Germany theorized that if the Texas Regulars electors are elected their 23 votes in the electoral college may be sufficient to block the required majority of 266 electoral votes for the Roosevelt-Truman ticket.

De Gaulle's Plans May Be Symbolical

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

We shouldn't allow the thunder of the guns of war to drown the significance of General De Gaulle's declaration that the French government gradually will take over complete control of the country's economy.

"It shall be an organization of industry," says the general, "in which all who participate shall be considered associates. We no longer can permit the concentration of interests which in England and America are called trusts and which today do not meet the needs of social betterment."

Would Avoid Later Trouble

While De Gaulle allows exact interpretation of his pronouncement to fall where it will, it's clear that he's signalling a great change in France to avoid, as he says, "the prewar political, social and moral situation which took us to the bring of the abyss." It also would seem that this represents a marked swing to what is popularly known as the "left."

However, we must await developments before jumping to the conclusion that France is headed for Communism in her leftward swing. The country is agricultural and the vast majority of its people are traditionally conservative. I should say that the outcome depends on how great an influence can be exercised by the powerful and well-organized Communist minority in the great industrial centers like Paris. We've seen numerous cases where strongly coordinated minorities have controlled big majorities—but it doesn't necessarily follow that this will happen in France.

French Situation Symbolical

Be that as may, if we are to keep abreast of fast moving events in Europe we must recognize that what's going on in France is symtomatic of what's boiling up in many other parts of the continent. There's a definite swing to the left, and in all instances Communism is involved.

We see this in eastern Europe, in the Balkans, in Italy, and in Spain which is being urged by the Moscow radio to overthrow Generalissimo Franco and re-establish the pre-civil war republic which was heavily Communistic. Even in Germany there's an underground Communist organization which has survived all the Gestapo efforts to exterminate it. And as this article is being written there comes to my desk a Stockholm dispatch saying the belief is expressed there that Finland eventually must form a government with more strongly leftist tendencies if she hopes to live in harmony with Russia.

This is a developing situation. It will thrust itself into world affairs as we come to the end of the European war.

Germans' V-2 Called Failure

LONDON, Oct. 5 (U.P.)—The Daily Mail reported today in a sensationally displayed dispatch from Stockholm that Germany's V-2 secret weapon has already been launched against Britain from Dutch firing sites but that the German high command is disappointed with the results.

The dispatch attributed its information to "a neutral observer who served in the Germany army"

It asserted that the new weapon had been fired against England from the Dutch coast but that it travelled so rapidly that it had no terror effect since the populace was unaware of its approach.

Speed Reduces Destruction

It was also said to penetrate the earth at such speed that its destructive force is less than that of the robot bomb.

(No reports of the use of V-2 have passed the British censorship in London. Fleet street observers, commenting on the Daily Mail Stockholm correspondent in finding what they called "such a well-informed ready-made neutral observer." They also expressed wonder at how long Stockholm date lines would be employed to "cover Allied censorship sins.")

The Daily Mail re-made its front page to give smash play to the V-2 dispatch, switching its play from an early banner line saying "tanks widen Siegfried breach" to one which said "Germans decide V-2 has failed."

You can't see the crowd waiting for telephones

. . . yet more than 1,000 are waiting here in Lubbock

When people crowd bus and railroad stations, it's easy to see that travel facilities are overburdened. If you could see the folks waiting for telephone service here, you'd know the telephone system is crowded, too.

We wish we could put in telephone service immediately for everyone who is waiting, but we can't get the facilities to do it. Our telephone equipment factories still are working full speed to supply field equipment and electrical weapons for the army and navy.

Facing such a condition we must first of all—as prescribed by the War Production Board—furnish the telephone service necessary to the war effort, public health, and security.

Then others waiting for service are connected in order—those waiting longest are served first, just as at a cafeteria or theater. In general we are able to fill delayed orders only as fast as present users give up their telephone service. We immediately assign the wires, instruments, and central office equipment thus released to those nearest the top on the waiting list, who can be served by that equipment.

To those of you who still are waiting, we say, "Thank you for your patience. We'll be glad to install a telephone for you as soon as we possibly can."
