Attendance to the Foodhandlers school held here during the past week was entirely satisfactory, according to C. B. Breedlove of the State Department of Health, who conducted the school.

A total of 138 individuals attended the school with an average daily attendance of 107.

Eleven restaurants, two school cafeterias, six grocery and markets, two milk plants, four fountains, nine dairies, a bakery and a locker plant were represented.

Nine firms had 100 per cent of their employes received attendance certificates and four others had 80 per cent attendance.

The Texas Dairy and Produce Company had the greatest number of employes from one firm in attendance with 15 personnel attending.

"While many more foodhandlers should have participated, attendance was entirely satisfactory," said Breedlove, "Interest on the part of those attending was excellent and I hope much improvement may be observed in foodhandling practices in the city."

"We appreciate the opportunity of taking our health program before the Lions Club, the Rotary Club, the American Legion post and the Senior High School and the enthusiastic manner in which it was received," he concluded.

Rainfall Total Greater Than Previous Years

General Rain Received Over Entire Fort Worth And Denver Railroad

Rainfall received since the first of January this year has been greater, it was announced by Mr. Walton at the U. S. Weather Bureau station, than the first five months of any year as far back as he could check.

Since Friday noon rainfall had totaled 1.86 inches with a total of 2.2 inches being recorded since the rain began.

This rain has been general hitting along the Fort Worth and Denver Railroad, according to Oscar Bodeen, dispatcher. Rainfall was recorded in Wichita Falls to the east, Lubbock to the south, beyond Amarillo in the west and beyond Pampa in the north.

"The heaviest rains along the Denver fell in the Childress area," Bodeen said.

County Agent Vernon Hafner said that at the present the wheat crop in the county was at its best but too much rain would cause the wheat to fall and deteriorate.

In 1941 a similar situation caused the loss of a great deal of the county's wheat crop. Wheat fell to the ground, equipment bogged down in the field and on the way to the field.

"A bumper crop is in the offing for the county," said Hafner, "if it will just stop raining now."

Appoint New Sub-Committee For Palestine

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. (May 10 (UP)—The United Nations, locked in a Soviet-American conflict over Palestine independence, appointed a new subcommittee today to try for a solution.

The issue was forced back into subcommittee when the United States opposed a Soviet-Arab drive to direct the UN to prepare a plan to free Palestine "without delay."

American delegate Herschel Johnson told the 55-nation UN political committtee that no country objected to give Palestine independence at the "proper time," but the matter of time, he said, should be decided only after a still-to-be appointed UN commission completes a study of the entire Palestine problem.

Andrei Gromyko of Russia took the floor twice to insist that the UN press toward quick Palestine independence, "instead of speaking by symbols or hieroglyphics."

The specific issue was what instructions UN should give to the investigating commission.

The commission will submit recommendations by September. Gromyko proposed that the commission be required to make "a proposal on the question of establishing without delay the independent state of Palestine."

"It is not in any way trying to impose on the commission the study of only one solution," Gromyko argued.

Administration Says Aid Bill Not War Move

Rep. Smith Claims Bill Is Declaration Of War On Communism

WASHINGTON, May 10 (UP)—The administration hoped tonight to convince the United States and the world that its Greek-Turkish campaign is not a declaration of war but just what it purports to be—an effort to bolster democracy.

Among those who'll need the most convincing is Wisconsin's Rep. Lawrence H. Smith, Republican. After failing in his fight to persuade his House colleagues to kill the $400,000,000 stop - Communism measure, Smith said:

"The bill is a war measure and from now on we move in. Hysteria has swept over us and we can look for a stiffening of our military situation. They rigged this thing up with Red herrings and didn't have the moral courage—yes, the guts—to tell the people that this was really a war measure."

But the adminitsration has contended all along, and still does, that economic and military help for Greece and Turkey will help to preserve peace rather than jeopardize it.

And tonight, confident that the House and Senate will adjust their minor differences over the bill early next week, the administration was considering ways and means of:

1. Disabusing Rep. Smith and others who see a trend to war in the way U. S. foreign policy is shaping up.

2. Shifting the emphasis of the "Truman doctrine" from a negative anti-Communist ideological campaign to a positive drive to bolster the economic props on which democracy can build.

3. Persuading Congress and the U. S. people that the campaign must be a continuing one, calling ultimately for greater expenditures than those now envisaged.

Only small differences exist between the House and Senate versions of the Greek-Turkish bill. Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said tonight that he "saw no insurmountable difficulties in obtaining an early agreement."

Truman To Spend Two Hours With Ailing Mother

WASHINGTON, May 10—(U.P.)—President Truman, at 63 one of the nation's more dutiful sons, will fly 1,958 airline miles tomorrow in order to spend two hours with his aging and ailing mother.

Mrs. Martha Truman, 94, will observe Mother's Day in bed at her home in Grandview, Mo. She broke her hip last February in a fall.

Mr. Truman—who has complained that when he travels it is like moving a circus—has made it plain that this 12-hour round trip is a matter between himself and his mother.

He is leaving most of the "circus" at home. Only a small staff will be aboard his four-motor plane when it leaves National Airport shortly after dawn 5:30 a. m. Press coverage will be held to a minimum.

According to the timetable his busy schedule has allowed him, Mr. Truman can spend two hours and 45 minutes in Grandview. Most of that time he will be at his mother's bedside.

Joining him there will be Brig. Gen. Wallace Graham, White House physician. Graham is flying up from Randolph Field, Tex., to consult with local physicians on Mrs. Truman's condition.

Hopes For Final Labor Action Vote Monday

Taft Predicts Bill Will Pass Senate With Huge Majority

WASHINGTON, May 10—(U.P.)—Chairman Robert A. Taft of the Senate Labor committee tonight predicted passage of Republican-sponsored labor legislation by a two-thirds margin—enough to override a presidential veto.

But whether such a margin could be mustered in the actual event of a veto appeared doubtful.

Taft told a reporter he hoped for a final senate vote on the much amended labor bill Monday night. Other members did not reflect the Ohio Republican's optimism, and some believed there would be no final action for another week.

Although Taft's prediction of a two-thirds vote for the labor bill was limited to final passage, the measure's backers were hopeful that such a margin could be retained in a vote to override the veto which many Democratic members expect.

A two-thirds vote to override a veto would require support from about 15 Democrats.

Two Democratic leaders—Sens. Lister Hill and John Sparkman of Alabama—renewed pleas that Republican leaders go to the White House and ask Mr. Truman his views on what he would consider acceptable labor legislation.

Taft has contended that the initiative for such a conference must come from Mr. Truman. He doubts, moreover, that it would prove beneficial in getting labor legislation on the statute books.

But Hill insisted that the Republican leadership must take the first step in asking for such a conference. Otherwise, he asserted, Mr. Truman would be open to charges that he was attempting to "dictate" to congress. Sparkman agreed. He said the Republicans had shown a "most unfortunate attitude" in asserting that the president, in the matter of labor legislation, must "take it or leave it."

A bloc of 11 Democratic senators, meanwhile, launched a diversionary move which could delay a vote on the Republican bill for days. It came as a proposed substitute measure for the GOP measure which has been under senate debate for two full weeks.

Sen. James E. Murray, D., Mont., unexpectedly introduced the new measure last night. High-ranking party leaders made clear it did not bear the administration stamp.

However, the Murray substitute followed closely recommendations made by President Truman in his State of the Union message and by Secretary of Labor Lewis B. Schwellenbach.

Sen. Scott Lucas, D., Ill., and Carl A. Hatch, D., N. M., asserted further study is needed on amendment on union coercion, limitations on welfare funds and a provision allowing damage suits against unions for jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.

Sen. Wayne L. Morse, R., Ore., who opposes the proposed GOP bill, expressed doubt that its provisions could be sustained in courts of law.

But Sen. Irving M. Ives, R., N. Y., a leader in the fight against some of the so-called "tough" amendments, said he was well-satisfied with the present version of the measure and would vote for it.

TEXAS LAWMAKERS PREPARE FOR INDEFINITE PERIOD ON HALF PAY BEFORE QUITTING

AUSTIN, May 10—(U.P.)—Texas lawmakers, tightened their belts for an indefinite seige on state finances, prepared tonight to go into over-time—but on half pay of $5 a day—after the regular 120-day period ends Tuesday.

Faced with a cross-current of trimming appropriations by at least 25 per cent or flaunting Gov. Beauford H. Jester's "no new taxes" policy, the legislature was expected by Capitol observers to remain in sessions past June 1.

However, key men in both houses said tonight committee action in slashing major appropriations to meet expected revenue would be presented to the legislature Monday.

The problem was to make state expenditures match expected revenues of $186,500,000.

The planned appropriation for state departments, passed at $43,000,000 by the senate, has been cut to $38,000,000 by house appropriations committee, chairman Claude Gilmer of Rock Springs said, and is scheduled to come before the house Monday.

The senate will receive Monday its finance committee's report calling for expenditures of approximately $45,000,000 for Texas higher education institutions.

Sen. James E. Taylor of Gerens, committee chairman, said the report reflected a cut from the house-approved $56,797,000 figure and was in line with Gov. Jester's recommendations of $46,000,000. zMeanwhile, one appropriation measure—for the State's eleemosyary institutions—already in conference committee, and the judiciary and rural aid plans were well under way toward the same route.

The eleemoslyary appropriation, approved at $24,900,000 by the senate was trimmed about $1,000,000 by the house. The senate likewise slashed from $39,000,000 to $34,000,000 the house-approved plan for special aid to rural schools.

An estimated $74,000,000 already has been spent of expected total revenues of $186,500,00, leaving a working balance of $112,500,000. Against that must be matched projected spending of $145,000,000. Thus some $33,000,000 must be pared.

Weary legislators, caught in the web of one of the worst financial tangles in years, were anxious to leave the Capitol. However, pro-tax forces and others, cautious of Gov. Jester's twice-exercised veto power this session, were reported ready to hold until deep in the summer if necessary.

Rep. Marvin D. Fertsch of Hallettsville, author of a resolution that the house not adjourn until all major appropriations have been passed, acted on by the governor and returned to the lawmakers, appeared in no hurry to bring up his resolution for action.

The resolution constitutes a direct threat that the house might override a governor's veto. It was argued Wednesday before time for the resolution period expired. It may come up Monday.

Gov. Jester has vetoed a bill totaling $67,000 providing salary increases for 53 district attorneys, and items totaling $50,480 for the next two years for administration or a training program of exceptional children.

Although tax forces suffered a double-blow, they have not tossed in the sponge. Rep. Woodrow Bean of El Paso, author of a $13,000,000 tax on oil, natural gas and sulphur, was defeated last Tuesday, 77 to 55, on a motion to set his bill for special order. The said he would not seek further action until major appropriations are further advanced.

Rep. Davis of McKinney, defeated in a move to allow his two-cent increase on gasoline tax for farm-to-market roads to come up ahead of other bills, said he would try again Monday.

He said he hoped to meet objections to the plan by reducing the proposed increase to one cent—making the state gasoline tax five cents—and permit administration by the State Highway Department instead of by county commissioners, as now proposed.

A movement to abolish the three-man board of pardons and paroles—on the heels of a blistering by the senate investigating committee of "gross abuses"—will

Russia Accepts U. S. Conditions For Korean Talks

WASHINGTON, May 10 (UP)—Russia accepted U. S. conditions for resuming negotiations on Korea today and Secretary of State George C. Marshall was expected to give a quick go-ahead signal for new talks on the political and economic unification of that occupied and divided country.

Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov sent a note to Marshall in reply to one received a week ago. He said the Soviets were willing to abandon their insistence that only pro-Communist factions can participate in a Korean provisional government.

This was the condition laid down by Marshall before he would agree to re-convene the joint Soviet-American commission on Korea May 20.

Molotov pointed out in reply to Marshall that the American and Russian occupational commanders in Korea—Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge and Col. Gen. Ivan Christiakov—already had done much to resolve the differences between the two nations on the major issues in that Far East hot spot.

On November 20, 1946, he said, the Soviet commander had set forth in a letter to Hodge, a proposed basis for resuming the discussions. On December 24, Hodge agreed to accept Christiankov's proposal, but with amendments.

"I am ready to accept the above mentioned amendments proposed by the American Commander," Molotov said. "I hope, therefore, that there exists no longer any reasons for postponing the work of the joint commission."

Oklahoma's Gun Toting Lawmaker Found Insane

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 10 (UP)—State Rep. Jimie Scott, veteran of army combat in the Far East, who wounded a fellow townman in a Senate chamber shooting Welnesday afternoon, today was held to be insane and ordered committed to a mental institution.

The ruling was handed down by County Judge C. J. Blinn following a 90-minute hearing at which Scott gave a disjointed account of his relations with State Sen. Tom Anglin, 64, just prior to the shooting. Scott was extremely nervous during his court appearance.

Doctors testified that his experiences in combat against the Japanese may have caused his illness. Drs. John S. Pino and George L. Borecky, appointed by the court to examine Scott, said he had served in several strenuous campaigns against the Japanese without receiving leaves.

They testified Scott was suffering from paranoia. They explained it was a mental disease characterized by delusions of persecution and grandeur.

"This man is mentally ill," Blinn ruled. "He is dangerous and should be committed to a mental institution."

Expects To End Picketing Before Monday

WASHINGTON, May 10—(U.P.)—The government late today saw signs of a break that might lead to settlement of the Western Electric Co. strike which is blocking a complete windup of the 34-day nation-wide telephone walkout.

Federal Conciliator John Murray said so much progress had been made at today's session between Western Electric and the Association of Communication Equipment workers that he had called a night session.

The government was seeking a weekend settlement that would get rid of the picket lines by Monday morning.

The sudden spurt toward a settlement came a few hours after assistant secretary of labor John W. Gibson, the government's top strike trouble-shooter, took charge of the negotiations.

Murray told reporters that the company and union were "cooperating 100 per cent" in attempting to iron out their differences.

"We have covered many issues, and while not in complete agreement, progress had been made," he said.

Progress was reported to have been made in the dispute between Western Electric unions representing about 42,000 workers.

Gibson said earlier today that about 15 issues remained in dispute.

"The parties are moving ahead towards an agreement but still have some pretty basic issues to settle," Gibson told a reporter. "We are going to try to speed up negotiations and will hold Sunday sessions if necessary."

Gibson directed negotiations leading to the agreement for Long Lines workers reached three days ago.

Dspite many agreements in other phases of the telephone strike, picket lines of Western Electric employes are blocking the return to work of the long distance employes and of several local unions which reached wage settlements with Bell Company Affiliates of het American Telephone & Telegraph Co.

Also still on strike is the Association of Communication Equipment workers, with 20,000 members on picket lines from coast to coast. It and the Western Electrict Employes Association, with

The graduating class of 1947 of Childress High school was honored with a formal banquet Friday evening at the First Methodist church. The affair, which is given annually by the members of the Junior class, is a highlight of the school's activities.

Serving as toastmaster for the evening's program, the theme of which was "Deep in the Heart of Texas," was Joe Ward, Jr., high school junior. Rev. Fletcher Crowe, pastor of the First Methodist church, brought the invocation.

"Come West Seniors," the welcome, was given by Bill Hood, president of the Junior class. The response, "To the Pioneers," was brought by Miss Charlene Kennedy.

The High school trio, Misses Betty Lou Mitchell, Alice Price and Juanita Wheelock, sang "I'll Be Seeing You," the senior class song. A rendition of "Deep in the Heart of Texas," was also presented by the trio.

Main speaker for the evening was George S. Vineyard, director of the Boys Ranch at Amarillo. In his address, "The Successful Texan," Vineyard brought out several points of his idea of how a high school graduate may become a success.

"Have a definite purpose in life," Vineyard advised. Other points stressed were "give the very best of your energies, be deeply interested in your work, develop sincerity in thought and speech, be honest because you want to be, keep strict faith in everyone, make the most of your opportunities, be prompt in all that you do, work with enthusiasm, have unlimited faith in yourself, develop self-reliance, work with deligence and aim at better results."

In conclusion Vineyard said: "If you remember one thing of my talk with you tonight I want you to remember this, far too many people in the world today are draining it spiritually and materially. Be able to say when you have finished your day that you have put more back into the world than you have taken out."

A color scheme of yellow and blue was carried out in the decorations of the speaker's table which was graced by bouquets of spring flowers. Burning candles completed the decorative appointments. Also carrying out the theme of Texas were the miniature placards of the Lone Star state given to the guests as favors.

During the evening Miss Peggy Powell led in group singing. Piano accompanist was Tom Hipps. The Altus High school band furnished the dinner music.

Presiding at the bride's book, at which approximately 70 guests were registered, was Miss Sue Holman, sister of the honoree.

The hostess committee served refreshments from a crystal service. The beautifully decorated table held a centerpiece of a reflector mirror edged with pink roses. Floral arrangements of spring flowers were also placed throughout the reception room.

The program for the evening was presented by the pupils of the Rivercamp school. Appropriate readings were given by Joy Holman and Shirley McAbee. A playlet was presented by Barbara Teague and Ray Stone. The entertainment was closed with a song, "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms," sung by the younger students.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaye were married in a double ring ceremony performed last month at the Church of Christ. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Holman.

LUNCHEON CLOSES BOOK CLUB SEASON

The members of the Book club were honored with a May Day luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Woman's Department club. Hostesses were Mmes. Tom Hardin, W. H. Cravens, Jack Smith, C. P. Boyd, T. L. Lewis, W. E. Davis, Rush Record, Inez McFerran and J. H. Jernigan.

Th luncheon was the closing meeting of the season and honored retiring officers. The installation of incoming officers was held following the luncheon.

Mrs. A. J. Brown presented the former president, Mrs. G. C. Fox, with a gift of appreciation from the members of the club. Mrs. Jack Smith, the new president, presided over the brief business session.

Carrying out the May Day theme were beautiful arrangements of spring flowers which were centered on the serving table. Burning candles completed the centerpiece. Mrs. T. L. Lewis offered the invocation.

Those attending were Mmes. James Allen, Jernigan, Dan Davis, J. Ross Bell, Woodrow Carter, Jack Fox, Tom Huggins, Lewis, J. M. Crews, A. J. Brown, George Robertson, McFerren, RuRsh Record, W. E. Davis and Smith. Mrs. W. G. Daugherty was a guest.

Young Pupils Have Mother's Day Program

The second grade pupils of Wilson school entertained their mothers with a Mother's Day program Friday evening at the school house.

A play, "Mother Goose's Goslings," and a group of songs were presented by the young students.

After the program each mother was given a Mother's Day gift made by the children.

22,000 members in New York City and Northern New Jersey, have promised to maintain tight picket lines until their disputes are settled.

Spokesmen for the two unions said they have assurance from the Long Lines union and local affiliates elsewhere that the picket lines will be respected. They said this would prolong the nationwide strike into a sixth week beginning Monday and "indefinitely" beyond that time until wage agreements are reached.

An end to the Western Electric strike would permit a resumption of normal service in the nine Southern States, five Northwestern States, Illinois Michigan, Pennsylvania, Maryland and New York, where local agreements have been signed.

ST. LOUIS, May 10—(U.P.)—The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company today offered wage increases of from $2 to $4 a week to striking Southwestern Telephone Workers Union members and they promptly rejected the offer.

A union statement asserted that the STWU "would rather be starved into submission than to accept this proposal." It charged the company acted in "bad faith."

The statement went in to say:

"The company stated in Washington that it would not insult our intelligence with an offer if we returned the negotiations to St. Louis.

"We believe they have not only insulted our intelligence, but prejudiced any future confidence in the integrity of this company or its officials."

Everett S. Cotter, SWTU General Counsel, said the proposal would provide an overall average increase of 3.11 per week, that some would get less than $2 and a few nothing at all.

The company said 10,000 employes would get $4 raises, 26,000 boosts of $3 and the remainder $2. It offered voluntary check-off of union dues, liberalization of vacation periods, higher allowances for certain construction workers, additional time off for union representatives and what it said were other improvements in working conditions.

The company offered the cash increases in what it termed was an effort to obtain a quick settlement of the month-long walkout of 42,000 non-supervisory employes in Southwestern States. The offer closely paralleled the settlement between A. T. & T. and Long Lines workers.

be considered by a house committee Monday.

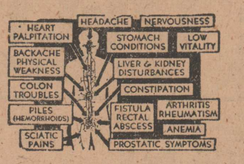

A senate committee has acted favorably on the proposed constitutional amendment to return sole clemency power to the governor, despite strong opposition in a surprise appearance by former Gov. James V. Allred.

Other controversial legislation included the "basic sciences' bill. It would require members of the healing art to pass examinations in six subjects. It has house approval and is before the senate. Chiropractors, who have led opposition to the plan, said it would kill the chiropractice licensing bill, also pending in the senate, if passed. "It would be the most one-sided 'compromise' in all Texas history," Dr. Walter H. Fischer of Temple, spokesman for Texas chiropractors.

J & J Wins Bowling Game Without Being Present

Although not a member of the team made their appearance, the J & J Cafe team defeated the Furr Food keglers on the local lanes Friday night, 1437 pins to 1384.

The cafe men, having amassed a comfortable average earlier in the season, were able to coast to victory on 90% of that average.

The league rules state that in case of absence of any player, he will be allowed 90% of his average for the season.

Thus the J & J team, although not on the floor, had a score of 1437 for the grocers to shoot at.

Four more games are scheduled in the league for the coming week.

Tomorrow night, at eight p. m., Bob Brown's Service is due to meet Pauline's Style Shop in what may determine the third place team.

Probably the most interesting game of the week will be played Tuesday night when the league-leading Childress Paint and Wallpaper Store team meets the second place Main Drug four. The Main team is only seven points behind the Painters and a win, except by a very close margin, would boost them back into the lead.

Thursday night Furr Food is scheduled to meet Bob Brown's Servicemen. Main Drug will be in action again Friday night, this time against J & J Cafe.

Faultless Leads On Trust To Win Preakness

BALTIMORE, Md., May 10—(U.P.)—Faultless, Calumet Farm's three-year-old beauty, ran like the wind down the stretch at Old Pimlico today to win the 57th running of the Preakness stakes and one of horse racing's richest purses.

Racing like a frightened rabbit as the field of 11 turned for home, the good-looking brown colt won by a length from E. O. Stice's and sons On Trust with Phalanx, the favorite third.

Maine Chance Farm's Jet Pilot, who won the Kentucky Derby last Saturday, was a fading fourth.

Second choice in the betting, Faultless, gave one of the Turf's richest stables its third Preakness victory—more than any other owner. He paid his backers $10.40, $4.80 and $2.80. On Trust, brought choice in the field, returned $7.00 and $3.40 while Phalanx's show price was $2.20.

Given a magnificent ride by Doug Dodson, Faultless ran the mile and three-sixteenths over a lightning fast track in 1:59 two second all Alsab's Preakness record, set in 1942.

It marked the third time that owner Warren Wright of Calumet Farms' Colors of Devil's Red and Blue had come down in front in this classic—Pensive having taken it in 1944 and Whirlaway in 1941.

NINE NEW LAWS

AUSTIN, May 10 (UP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester signed seven bills today but let two become law without his signature with the comment that Texas legislators are invading local self government fields.

One of the bills he refused to sign specifies what travel compensation county commissioners courts may pay sheriffs. The second fixed salaries of county school superintendents. The seven bills Jester signed were mostly of limited application.

Stance Reveals Mental Attitude

The way you stand and use your feet reveal more things about you than you even suspect. Here are some examples:

If you plant your weight on the back foot—when you stand with one foot in front of the other—you give the impression that you are bored or tired. Weight on the forward foot, however, is a body attitude which implies alertness and interest.

Take the stance where feet are even with each other but spaced widely apart. Some women seem to feel a compulsion to stand like this when dressed in slacks. Others do it even when dressed in skirts. In either case, this stance instantly robs them of femininty. Maybe that's because feet spaced widely apart while standing is a body pose characteristic of men.

How your feet behave when you turn your body around is most revealing. This move tells whether you have or have not mastered graceful foot-work. If you have, you pivot on the balls of your feet. But if you swing around step by step or twist your body, you haven't learned the first lesson in easy, direct and graceful maneuvers. The pivot-turn cuts out a lot of clumsy footwork and saves a lot of waste motion.

It has been estimated that there are approximately 12,000,00 illiterate people in the United States.

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distress. It works this way:

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalizers to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Boston's huskiest baby sitter, a 235-pound tackle on the Boston University football squad, a former day laborer, and a bomb loader with the Army, says those jobs weren't hard at all, but "this baby sitting is really a tough one."

Judging from his testimony, it's getting the little darlings into bed and settled down for the night that really whips him.

And yet it's a safe bet that when that young man marries and has his own children, he'll see nothing remarkable in the fact that his wife can go through a day's work, cook and serve dinner, wash dishes, get the children bathed and in bed, and then emerge dressed in her best for an evening out.

TYPICAL HUSBAND

He probably won't even be impressed by her competence when she crowds the cooking and serving of a dinner for six or eight into the tag end of a day, watching the kids with one eye and the roast with the other.

He won't if he's a typical husband. He'll just take it for granted that women are born to manage such things.

But maybe a man who has done baby sitting as a paid job will have more respect for housewife competence than the average husband who comes home each night and says, "Well, honey, what have you been doing all day?"

Use Both Hands To Speed Work

Too many women put the burden of their housework upon the hand that responds quickest to their bidding.

Even if the other hand is not so dexterous, expert home economists say that you should put it to work. By using both hands, they claim you can slice minutes from housework and salvage valuable time for other things.

Take dishwashing as a two-handed job. It is polished off quicker and more efficiently, according to the experts, if you will first organize your kitchen-sink assembly line so that dishes are moved from right to left.

The right hand (if you are right-handed) should be used to slip the soiled dishes into the dishpan. The left sould be used to pull dishes out, to hold them for a scrub with the dishrag, and to stack them into the dish drainer.

Don't allow one hand to loaf on the cleaning job, either. To speed up dusting, put each hand to work wth a dust-rag. The same tactics can be used when floors and baseboards need wiping.

When windows need washing, dip two rags into the bucket of suds, and divide the labor. Same thing goes for waxing floors, polishing brass.

It may take practice to make both hands work together, but the time saved in training the team will be worth the trouble.

One of the oldest cities on the French Riveria, Antibes, traces its history back more than 2000 years.

THE CHILDRESS INDEX

Shoulders Are Index Of Poise

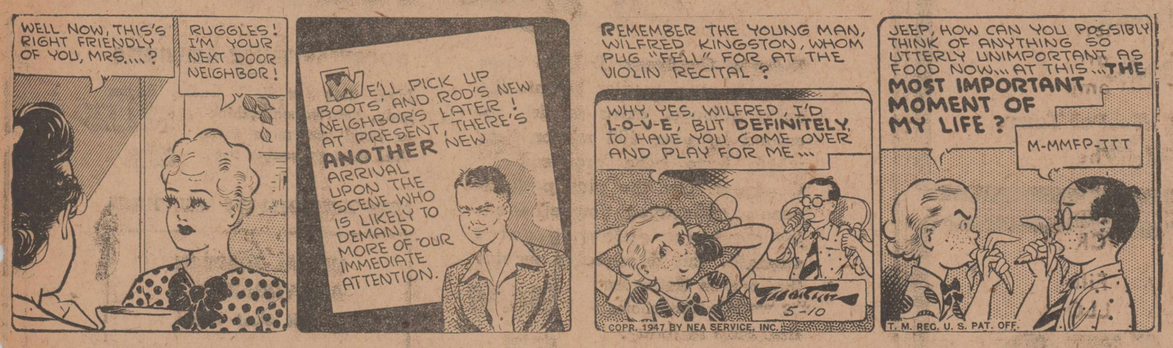

Do you have flexible shoulders? If you do, there should be no complaint about your ability to register poise and, when needed, authority. Flexible shoulders are as much an index of body grace as good knee-action and nimble feet.

If shoulders are held in by tight muscles, free them with exercise. Here are two simple routines which you can count on to work:

For the first, to be taken while sitting or standing, hunch your shoulders as high as your ears, and hold this position for a second or two. Then, with the help of your right arm, pull your right shoulder down and up again in a brisk movement. Repeat on the left side and alternate the routine.

For the second exercise, stand with arms outstretched at shoulder level and tighten muscles from shoulder sockets to fists. Shake arms to loosen tension. Tighten muscles again, and repeat.

LOOK what Grandma got for a penny when she was a little girl—a trained dog act! Towser grips the coin in his iron jaws, leaps merrily through the clown's hoop, and deposits the little red cent neatly in the little red barrel.

Quite a show for a penny! But nothing to the show your present-day electrical penny puts on for you. That penny does a lot. It will:

Tell you the correct time for four days or vacuum-clean six large room-size rugs or bring you an evening's radio entertainment, or run your sewing-machine for eight hours, or wash three heaping tubfuls of clothes for you!

Grandma's gay little bank may be a collector's item today, but electricity puts on a bigger and better show as it takes more and more work out of your housework.

It costs so little—and it does so much! Dollar values for penny prices—that's the record of the friendly folks in this company, under local business management.

GOVERNMENT'S MISSISSIPPI BARGE LINE PADDLING IN 18 YEAR OLD RIVER OF RED INK

BY FREDERICK C. OTHMAN

WASHINGTON, May 8—(U.P.)—Cap'n A. C. Ingersoll, Jr., president of the Inland Waterways Corp, reports he's a glorified steamboat pilot. Says he's been a riverman ever since he was knee-high to a peanut.

He sounds a little like Mark Twain, all right, and looks like him, too, but I wish Cap'n Ingersoll hadn't shown up in Washington in a hand-painted necktie. Kind of ruined the illusion.

Today the Cap'n has got to ruin it some more. It is his sad duty to tell congress how the government's Barge Line in the Mississeippi has been paddling in a river of red ink for the last 18 years. Most of the Capn's towboats are worn out; their engines wheeze and their paddle-wheels clank. Three-quarters of his barges leak through the patches on their patches.

Some experts estimate it will cost $15,000,000 to put the Federal Barge Lines in good working order. These things the Cap'n must explain to lawmakers who have no river romance in their souls. As an old St. Louisan who hung around the wrarf as a boy and regarded the Packet Golden Eagle as the most beautiful thing this side of Paradise, I think I'll stay away. I don't believe I can listen any more to the story of the snags besetting the government as a river pilot.

The legislators plainly have no sympathy. In the proceedings I did hear it come out that when Henry Wallace was Secretary of Commerce, he recommended the government quit the barge business. Rep. William H. Stevenson of Wisconsin said this surprised him.

"Maybe he wanted to buy it out and go out of the seed corn business," suggested Rep. William S. Hill of Colo.

"Whenever congress sets up a corporation, they never make money and they never quit drinking out of the public trough," said Rep. Stevenson, looking pointedly at the Cap'n. The latter sat there miserably, rolling himself a homemade cigarette.

"The government is a nice jersey cow," the gentleman from the dairy state continued. "And they all are there milking her all the time."

This reminded Rep. Hill of a story. "I found out the other day why they call the President's airplane the Sacred Cow," he said She is always letting somebody milk her."

Eventually we got back to the subject of steamboating on the Mississippi. W G. Oliphant, the General Traffic manager of the government's Barge Line, was the witness. It turned out that the House Small Business committee had been holding hearings at Chicago, St Paul, St. Louis, Omaha, Memphis and New Orleans.

In this last city a private barge line operator charged that Oliplant spent so much money hiring so many people to turn out so many freight rate schedules that if all the paper were loaded on the government's barges they would sink.

The partly bald, black mustached Oliphant said this was not true. He didn't look like a steamboat man; neither did he sound like one. In the flattest possible voice, he read figures which he said indicated how efficiently his office operated.

The congressmen must decide whether to let the barge line sink on July 1, give it a little more cash so it can splash along as at present (the deficit momentarily is better than $22,000,000), or spend a lot of money in the hope that somebody'll want to buy it.

My guess is that the government will get out of the steamboating and I don't know where Cap'n Ingersoll can find another job. The Golden Eagle long since blew up and sank. It's a hungry life on the Mississippi. It's these days for steamboat pilots, however glorified.

A man doesn't have to be a fool to be parted from his money these days.

The Doctor Says:

EXERCISE CAN REPLACE CATHARTICS

BY WILLIAM A. O'BRIEN, M. D.

Writeen for NEA Service

Most important factors in good elimination are exercise and the right amount of fruits and vegetables. Cathartics, enemies, and irritating foods often are responsible for aggrevating the condition.

Americans reportedly spend nearly 75 million dollars a year for bowel medicine. In most cases, these remedies not only are unnecessary, but actually they are the cause of much of the difficulty. When the average patient with so-called constipation starts to use cathartics, it quickly becomes necessary for him to continue their use because the bowel cannot function without them.

It is unfortunate that the public has been led to believe that a special habit time is desirable. Many adults can trace their difficulty to infancy. Modern physicians do not recommend "training" children as it is better to anticipate their desires and to co-operate with them.

To overcome constipation, bowel medicine should be stopped. One or two dishes of fruit is to be eaten two or three times a day. Cooked fruits are preferable to fresh fruits, and especially recommended are prunes, apricots, baked apple, applesause, rhubarb, pear and peach sauce.

RECOMMENDED VEGETABLES

Green-cooked vegetables should be eaten in liberal amounts. Recommended vegetables are spinach, string beans, beets, carrots, greens, squah, peas, asparagus, cauliflower. Other foods may be taken as desired.

Constipated persons need exercise. A daily walk is helpful. The old idea that the failure of elimination in elderly persons was due to weakening of the bowel muscles is no longer believed, as constipation can be just as common in young persons.
