March 3 To See Biggest Dollar Day

Classes Are Started In Aviation Welding, Radio, Auto Mechanics

Being Conducted As Part Of The Defense Program

Sponsored By Local School Under Supervision Of The United States Government

The Lamesa Independent School District has been permitted to open schools under the National Defense Program. Schools in aviation welding, automotive maintenance and repair, and in radio reception and transmission were opened last Monday night following the signing of agreements on Saturday afternoon, February 22.

The radio school is at the present time in the educational building at the CCC Camp, and is taught by Hubert Nelson. The welding and automotive schools are now located in the Cleveland building at 410 North Second Street, next door to the Lamesa Creamery. The classes meet at six o'clock p. m.

The most interest seems to be shown in the welding school of which there are now three units. One being a unit for the benefit of Y. A. boys, the CCC boys and elementary courses for people who are working at the welding trade or who have had experience in that trade. Another class is being considered for young men who have now out of school and who have had no previous experience in welding. This class, if organized, will have to be a day-time class and the time required of pupils for (Continued on Back Page)

Bob Crawley Is Training With Texas Longhorns

The Courier this week received a letter from Bob Crawley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Crawley of this city, who is attending school at Texas University. Bob will be recalled here as a star of the Golden Tornado Football team during his High School days. He is out to make the University team, and his many friends here feel sure that he will not only make the team, but that they will be reading of him in the daily press when the Southwestern conference opens play this fall. The letter follows:

Austin, Texas, February 22, 1941.

Dear Mr. Alexander: I have moved into Hill Hall down here at the University and I wish that you would start sending my papers to me in Box 200, Hill Hall, Austin, Texas. You had been sending my paper to 708 West 23rd street, and by the time I got it here (Continued on Back Page)

$75,000 Water Bond Issue Carries By Big Majority In Light Voting Monday

Expect To Have Enlargement And Remodeling Program Completed In Time For Summer Use

The water bond election held here Monday, was favored overwhelmingly by the comparatively small number of voters who braved the weather to cast their ballots.

Out of a total of only 143 votes cast in the election, 115 favored the proposition, while only 28 voted against it. The issue calls for $75,000 in Revenue Bonds for the improvement and enlargement of Lamesa's water system. The bonds will be paid off from the profits of the water system and not through the levying of taxes.

Improvements planned are for several large mains, the drilling of at least three new water wells and possibly five, the construction of a 200,000 gallon overhead storage tank, as well as other improvements.

As has been pointed out, the present system has been outgrown by Lamesa, and residents here will recall that last summer, as well as several preceding summers, there has been a shortage of water for business and domestic consumption, to say nothing of fire needs.

While the population of Lamesa today is slightly over 6,000, plans are for the construction of a system suitable for a town of 7,000 population. It is said that it will not require all of the above amount to take care of the needed expansion just now, but that it should take care of future needs for some time.

City officials state that plans will be prepared at once, and that bids will be awarded for the construction, so that the needs for this summer may be supplied.

Two Stores In Lamesa To Make Big Improvements

An announcement was issued this week by Wacker's Variety Store and Hitch Grocery, of some changes and big improvements.

The Hatch Grocery is building a new building to house their business at the corner of North Second and Main Street. The building which is being erected by Harvey C. Allen, is to be of white oriental stucco with black trim, finished in modernistic design. It will be 25x90 feet, and so constructed that it will be ideal for a modern food store.

Raymond Hatch, owner and operator of the store returned Wednesday from Dallas, where he made arrangements to have a specially trained man to be with him for a full week when he moves into his new quarters. The fixtures will be completely modernized to fit the new building and the arrangements will be made to make of this store the most modern food store possible.

The new building will have sixty feet of window display, and the location will provide ample parking room for customers.

The Wacker Store has leased the entire building occupied by (Continued on Back Page)

Many Outsiders Are Investors In Association

That the Lamesa Federal Savings and Loan Association, is other than locally recognized, as a sound financial institution, is revealed in some interesting figures released this week by Secretary O. H. Morris.

The figures show that fifty-eight investors, who live outside of Dawson County, have a total of $95,903.14 invested in the Lamesa Association. Only Monday of this week, Mr. Morris received a $5,000.00 investment from a party in Little Rock, Arkansas. This was a private individual who was looking for a safe investment for his money, and who sought advice from the president of the Federal Home Loan Bank of Little Rock, under whose supervision the local Association comes.

It was upon the recommendation of this man, who is in the best position to know the soundness of the local institution, that the Little Rock citizen made his investment in Lamesa.

The Lamesa Federal Savings and Loan Association, under the management of Mr. Morris, has shown a remarkable growth since its organization. All investments up to $5,000 are insured by the FDI.

Ranger Painting In Museum

A recent addition to paintings of Texas pioneers in the Big Bend Historical and Scientific Museum at Sul Ross State college in Alpine, is the portrait of Capt. R. W. Aldrich of Austin, veteran Texas ranger. It was painted by Harry Anthony De Young of San Antonio, director of Sul Ross summer art colony.

More Red Cross Materials Have Been Received By Sewing Room In Lamesa

Women Of County Are Asked To Contact Mrs. Reed For Materials In Which To Assist In Program

Mrs. Louis B. Reed, in charge of War Relief Production Sewing by Dawson County residents to aid war-stricken democratic countries in Europe, made the following announcement this week: "The local chapter of the American Red Cross is receiving materials for their new quota and the ladies have been busy cutting the materials ready for distribution, Saturday, March 1. The thread for the sweaters has also been received and we want to urge everyone in the county to cooperate with the Red Cross in helping to complete this quota on time. Every woman who can sew or knit is urged to come to the American Legion Hall to get something to take home with her. Especially are the women who live in rural communities urged to cooperate with the Red Cross. In order to complete our quota for knitted garments it will be necessary for every woman who can knit to help." The new quota calls for 24 wo-

Merchants Of Lamesa Will Offer Greatest Bargains In History For One Day

All Lines Of Business Will Be Represented In Bigger Values For People Of This Territory

Every indication points to the fact that next Monday will be the biggest Dollar Day event in the history of Lamesa, with an ever increasing number of firms participating. The business firms of Lamesa have made a special effort this month to bring the greatest array of values to yet be offered to the shoppers of this territory. Almost every line of business in the town will have specials for this one day.

Although there are not as many Dollar Day ads in this issue of the Courier as it was hoped to carry, there is nevertheless a very representative group, and in these will be found unusual and outstanding values. Look up the ads and make it a point to shop in Lamesa Monday. With the interest being shown by the business firms in the town, it is expected that the movement will gain in momentum as the months unroll.

Shoppers of the territory are urged to take advantage of these bargains, as the more response the merchants receive, the more bargains they will offer in the future. Lamesa stores have a selection of merchandise which will compare most favorable with that found in cities much larger, and the prices are as low and in many instances lower, than those quoted in other places. Regardless of your needs, you will more than likely find it in Lamesa Monday, and at a price so low, it will please you.

Nearly Inch Of Rain Falls In Slow Drizzle To Give Farmers Plenty Moisture

Some Parts Of Dawson County Report As Much As Two Inches. As General Rain Falls Over State

With a total rainfall of .79 inches up until Wednesday night, for this week, Dawson County has a fair underground season, and sufficient moisture for farming operations, according to reports.

The skies have been heavily overcast for a full week, and from Wednesday morning of last week thru Tuesday of this week, Old Sol failed to put in his appearance a single time. Wednesday morning of this week, the sun peeped out for only a few minutes, and it immediately clouded up again. The clouds were breaking late Wednesday afternoon, and it appeared as if the rain was over.

This is possibly one of the longest spells in many years that the sun has failed to shine in Dawson County. Old timers could not recall a single period of time within their memory, that the sun did not peep through for at least a few minutes in a similar period.

Up until Monday at noon a total of 51 inches had fallen and the remainder fell in heavy showers on Monday night, with mist and light sprinkles falling up until noon Wednesday.

Farmers in various sections of the county report that the rain has covered the entire territory, with some sections reporting twice the fall that was recorded in Lamesa. The way the rain fell, it all soaked in, as it fell easy and gentle, and never in a downpour.

Cotton Information Given

More detailed information on the 1941 Supplementary Cotton Program has just been made available to the County AAA Offices. This supplementary program which provides Cotton Order Stamp payments should be of special interest to all cotton producers in this county since it is designed to (1) reduce the acreage planted to cotton this year, (2) to increase the consumption of cotton and (3) to help improve living conditions thru increased production and storage of food for home use.

All farm operators, tenants, share croppers and landlords are entitled to participate in this volunteer program which operates as follows: The cotton producer may make an additional acreage reduction under the 1941 cotton acreage allotment or the 1940 measured acreage of cotton, whichever is the smaller. For this additional reduction he will receive as compensation Cotton Order Stamps which can be used to purchase cotton goods. The stamp payments are in addition to the regular payment provided under the 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program. All single farm operators may be paid up to $25.00 in stamps. No one farm may be paid less than $5.00 for participation. Producers (landlords or operators) interested in more than one farm, having more than one tenant, may earn up to $50.00 in Cotton Order Stamps. No one person may receive more than $50.00 in Cotton Order Stamps. Payments will be made according to the following examples. Example 1: One person owns and operates a single farm. The farm has 35 acres in 1941 cotton allotment. 35 acres of cotton were measured in 1940. The owner operator was measured 34 acres of cotton in 1941. The normal yield was 250 pounds. Since the allowance is 10c per pound the total payment would be $25.00. Example 2: The farm has a landlord and a third-fourth tenant. The 1941 allotment is 12 acres. The 1940 acreage was 10 acres. The 1941 measured acreage was 9.0. The reduction was 1 acre. The 1941 normal yield was 250 pounds. The total payment for this farm under the Cotton Order Stamp payment would be $25.00. In this case it would be necessary to divide the payment in the same manner as the crop was divided, which would result in a payment of $6.00 to the landlord and $19.00 to the tenant.

(All amounts less than 25c dropped and all over 25c are carried.) If the reduction was 2 acres the farm Stamp Payment would be $50 which would be divided $12 to the landlord and $38.00 to the tenant. If the landlord in this example had other farms with tenants, the landlord's payment could be earned up to $50.00 provided all the farms in which he had an interest participated in the Cotton Supplemental Program. If this farm had a share-cropper who had cotton acreage, he would also share his proportionate part of the farm Stamp payment.

To participate in the Cotton Supplemental Program, a notice of intention must be filed in the AAA Office before June 15, 1941. A regular form will be mailed to each 1941 farm operator, who will indicate on the form that he receives in the mail, how much the 1941 intended cotton acreage will be. The form will be returned through the mail to the AAA Office. As soon as the forms are received in the AAA Office they will be prepared for each farm and mailed to all the 1941 farm operators in the county. Since it will not be permissible in 1941 to plow under any cotton that is not in excess of the allotted acreage, it will not be possible to receive payment in stamps if the 1941 acreage measures out to the full cotton acreage allotment. For example: If the allotment is 35 acres and the operator files his intention to have 33 acres and the cotton measures out 35 acres, he will then not be permitted to qualify (Continued on Back Page)

Even Dozen Texas Girls Working For Scholarship

There are an even dozen contestants this year for the top honor in Texas girls' 4-H Club work—a $300 scholarship offered by the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

Nina Ruth Hirdon of Harlingen received the scholarship in 1940. Two Extension Service staff members, Onah Jacks, state girls' club agent, and Lida Cooper, one of the 12 district agents in charge of home demonstration work, are serving as judges and are visiting the contestants during February. They are considering not only a girl's 4-H record but her contribution to better family and community living, Miss Jack explains.

Contestants include: Mildred Hauke of Harris County, Myrl Emmanuel of Liberty County, Mozelle Blanch of Jefferson County, George Call, Elizabeth Rueter, and Theo Lorenz of McLennan County, Alice Humphrey of Brown County, Leota Jackson of Tarrant County, Sara Pearl Davis of Cooke County, Lois London of Fannin County, Marie Pfaup of Smith County, and Hera Jeanne Harper of Rusk County.

More Mattresses For Texas Farm Families In 1941

Rural low-income families in Texas had made 205,138 cotton mattresses under the cooperative demonstration program late in February. Of this number 32,436 were made in January, according to Mildred Horton, vice director of the A and M College Extension Service.

Workers of the three cooperating groups, the Triple-A, Surplus Marketing Administration and Extension Service, estimate that nearly half a million new mattresses will be in use in Texas by the end of 1941. Previously estimates had been somewhat lower but a new regulation announced early this month by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration will increase the figure. The new regulation provides that a certified family of three persons will be eligible to receive two mattresses and a certified family of five persons will be eligible to receive three mattresses.

Every family receiving one or more mattresses under the 1940 and 1941 programs will be entitled to receive materials for making the same number of cotton comforts under a supplemental provision, making of the comforts in community centers likely will not begin until late March, Miss Horton says.

Young Senators Introduce Bill For Reforms

It has remained for the two youngest members of the Texas Senate to take steps toward the regulation of "honky tonks" and nondescript dance halls in Texas. Senator T. C. Chadwick of Minocla and Senator Marshall Formby of McAdoo last week introduced Senate Bill 159 which is designed to give county officials the authority to regulate all dance halls outside city limits. The bill requires that these amusements spots must close their doors not later than one a. m. It further requires that licenses must be purchased through the county commissioners' courts and that these licenses should be renewed every ninety days with the court having the power to reject applications for renewal and to cancel unexpired licenses where halls are operating in violation to the law. Besides being the youngest members of the Senate, the forty-seventh Legislature, the authors of the reform bill are unmarried and roommates. Chadwick formerly served as county attorney of Wood County in which capacity he had considerable experience with "honky tonks." It was as a result of his drive to keep the undesirable places in his home county closed that he shared much of his reputation as a reform advocate. Formby, 29, formerly served as county judge of Dickens County for four years and has taken definite stands against liquor and "honky tonks." Despite the fact that they represent districts 500 miles apart, the two Senators were born within a few miles of each other in East Texas. Chadwick is a native of Franklin County and Formby was born in Hopkins County, and at one time they lived within a few miles of each other near Pickett.

Texas Investment Figures Show Big Increase

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Savings and investment funds in unprecedented amounts were received in January from Texas savers by the 119 insured savings and loan associations in the state. The Federal Home Loan Bank of Little Rock reported today in its monthly review of home financing conditions in the Southwest. New funds aggregating $4,179,724 flowed into the associations during the month and the total number of thrifty Texans having accounts in the institutions increased to 89,500, establishing a new high record both in the amount of savings and the number of accounts. The report prepared by the Bank includes the figures of the Lamesa Federal Savings and Loan Association, by which the local area is served. Officials of the Bank expressed gratification at the progress made by the Texas associations. They pointed out that the associations have had a steady, substantial growth during the past several years. They said the number of savers in the insured associations in Texas had increased from 73,000 in January 1939 to 80,590 in 1940, and 89,500 in 1941. A gain of 16,600 in two years. In the same period the aggregate balances in these accounts increased from $55,600,000 to $80,000,000 for a gain of $24,400,000. These balances average about $900 each, although many of them are for smaller sums, representing the weekly and monthly savings of persons of modest means.

SMOKING HABIT VANISHES ALOFT

DAYTON, O. (AP) — There are easier things to do than smoke and eat at 15,000 feet aloft. Army flyers have found during "acceleration tests" at Patterson Field.

"Did you ever try to smoke a cigarette at that height?" asks Lieut. P. F. Davis. "In the first place they're hard to light and to keep burning. Lack of oxygen, you know. In the second place, they smell . . . Well, we thought the ship was afire when one of the boys tried to light up." Another crew member tried to eat an apple.

"They taste pretty good on the ground," he reports, "but up there, they're NOT so hot—and for the same reason."

A Sale In 1849 Features Many Unique Items

(Mrs. Etta Macraye)

Below is an account of a sale which took place near Versailles, Kentucky, in 1849. It was taken by my grandfather (then a young man) from the Live Stock Reporter, a primitive paper of that day.

He gave the paper to a daughter who gave it to me when a very young girl. Many people were leaving for the Oregon Territory at that time, and all the sales, I have heard that grandfather said, were large and of plentiful amount.

This sale reads as follows: "Having sold my farm and am leaving by ox team for Oregon territory on March 1, 1849. I will sell all my personal property except 2 ox teams, Buck and Ben, and Lon and Jerry. The property consists of the following: Two milk cows, one grey mare and colt, 2 ox carts, 1 iron plow with wood mold board, 800 feet of poplar weather boards, 1,000 feet three-foot clap boards, 1,500 ten-foot fence rails, 1 60-gallon soap kettle, 85 sugar troughs made of white ash timber, 10 gallons maple syrup, 2 spinning wheels, 30 pounds mutton tallow, 1 large loom made by Jerry Wilson, 100 split hoops, 100 empty barrels, 1 32-gallon barrel of Johnson-Miller whiskey seven years old, 20 gallons apple brandy, 1 40-gallon copper still, 4 sides of oak tanned leather, 1 dozen pitch forks, a 1/2 interest in the tan yard, 1 32-caliber rifle, bullet moulds and powder horn, a rifle made by Ben Miller, 50 gallons of soft soap, hams, bacon, lard, 40 gallons of sorghum molasses, 6 head of fox hounds, all soft mouthed but one.

"At the same time I will sell my negro slaves — 2 men, 35 and 50 years old, 2 boys, 12 and 18 years old, two mulatto wenches, 40 and 30 years old. Will sell all together to same party as I will not separate them.

"Terms of sale—Cash in hand or note to draw 4 percent interest with Bob McConnell security. My home is 2 miles south of Versailles, Kentucky, on McConnell Ferry pike. Sale will begin at 8 o'clock sharp, a plenty to eat and drink."

Wm. A. Wilson Is Elevated In His Profession

The following editorial is taken from the Sulphur Springs Daily News-Telegram, where William A. Wilson, former manager of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce has lived for the past several years and served as manager of the Hopkins County Chamber.

The job referred to, and which Wilson will accept about April 1, is District Manager of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, and will be located at Waco. The article follows:

Wm. A. Wilson Resigns Post Here

Like a bolt of thunder out of a clear sky, came the resignation at Thursday night's Chamber of Commerce meeting of Wm. A. Wilson, secretary manager of these two bodies. An interesting meeting had about drawn to a close, during which time the reports of various committees and the discussion of newly-made plans had created a spirit of enthusiastic optimism among those present. It was then that President Howard Hicks read the letter of resignation from Mr. Wilson, in which he stated he was resigning his post here, effective April 1, 1941, and asking the meeting to give an answer then, in order that he might accept a place with the East Texas Chamber of Commerce as district field man in rural community organization work.

The letter finished, a lull fell over the audience and all sat stunned for the moment. It was finally unanimously voted to comply with Mr. Wilson's wishes—there was nothing else to do—and his resignation was accepted.

From our view, that is a heavy blow to Sulphur Springs and all Hopkins County—the losing of Wm. A. Wilson, especially just at this time when so many irons are in the fire, everything is functioning so smoothly, and overnight developments are calling for double-quick action in all parts of the country. During the three years Mr. Wilson has been here, he has built up one of the most active, and the best departmentized Chambers of Commerce in the State. He has been especially good in detail work, which has insured a smooth coordination that has accomplished much in a steady, sure manner. His efforts for a better cooperation between the rural and the town citizenship has brought to pass much good, which will no doubt continue on for an even better development and understanding in the time to come.

Yes, it is a hard blow to lose Wm. A. Wilson, but, like the mother who sent her only son off to war, we should be proud that Sulphur Springs was able to furnish such a good man. It is a distinct honor to know that of the many men available in Texas, a Sulphur Springs man was chosen over them all. And it also proves again that Sulphur Springs had a good man here in Wilson—so good they wanted him elsewhere. It is better to lose a good

Rotary Observes Thirty-Sixth Anniversary

Where to, traveler? Amarillo, Texas, or Amarillo, India? Kansas City, Missouri, or Kauai, Hawaii? Twin Bridges, Montana, or Twickenham, England? Unadilla, New York, or Unley, Australia? Travelers have long since become accustomed to the familiar cog-wheel road signs which inform them that "Rotary Meets on Tuesday" or what ever the day might be.

Whenever columnists, journalists, authors, lecturers, politicians, or playwrights wish to refer to a typical group of American businessmen, they usually think of Rotary. To put it in another way, Rotary has become an American institution—but by no means is it limited to the United States. Of course, Rotary was born in Chicago, but during its 36-year existence it has been adopted by business and professional men of more than three-score countries or regions.

In Rotary's membership are more than 210,000 men. They, collectively, speak almost every language, embrace almost every political belief, represent almost every religion. But there is something fundamentally the same about all these men, about all men, and it is that fundamental sameness which has led to universal acceptance of Rotary.

Rotary has one ideal—the Ideal of Service. Perhaps you are not familiar with the term, "Ideal of Service," but you have heard of the Golden Rule, and that, basically, is Rotary's Ideal of Service—application of the Golden Rule by Rotarians in all phases of everyday life. And it works! Few ideals are practical, sadly enough, but Rotary's is. In union there is strength, and each Rotary club is a union of business and professional executives—one man from each recognized line of business. It is a union held together by the cement of friendship and good will and fellowship. It's easy to see how such a group possesses and exercises tremendous potentialities for the accomplishment of good. Crippled children, delinquent youth, college students in dire financial straits, the blind, the poor—the underprivileged—these and others who have needed help have seen Rotary's potentialities applied. Rotary has also brought about betterment of business and professional ethics through the adoption by trade and craft associations of codes of ethics of fair business and professional standards.

Rotary has a fourth object which reads: "The advancement of international understanding, good will, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men united in the ideal of service." Does that impress you as being somewhat futile in view of the mess the world is in at present?

Don't you agree that the conditions which lead to war, the basic conditions, are mistrust, hatred, misunderstanding, and intolerance, on the international scale, whether in the field of politics or economics? And doesn't it appear reasonable that if we could replace those things with trust, friendship, understanding, and tolerance, we'd be eliminating the conditions and causes of war? That's just what Rotary believes. Moreover, Rotarians have seen such principles put into practice. Rotarians have more than average opportunities to meet with people from other lands. They travel considerably, gather in interdis-

Your Income Tax And How The Total Is Hiked

By Alexander R. George
AP FEATURE SERVICE

Washington — The Federal income tax load has been increased this year by three methods:

1. Lowering the exemptions for both married and single persons. (From $2,500 to $2,000 and from $1,000 to $800.)
2. Levying a new defense tax of 10 per cent of the normal and surtax payments.
3. Raising the surtax rates on incomes between $6,000 and $100,000.

age of increase, those in the lower income brackets are the hardest hit. For example, a married man with a net earned income of $3,000 will pay $30.80 this year compared with $8 last year, a jump of 285 per cent.

The increase amounts to 60 per cent for the $4,000 a year married man; 37.5 per cent for the $5,000 man and 27.2 per cent for the $10,000 man. The increase soars to 89.3 per cent for the $50,000 fellow, because of mounting surtax rates.

Tax authorities point out that while the proportional increase is much greater in the case of the little fellow, his Federal income tax burden has been comparatively light.

Here is a table showing the increase in tax payments for married men (without dependents) with various incomes:

Net Earned Income	Tax Last Year	Tax This Year
$2,500	$11.	$30.80
$3,000	$8	110.
$5,000	20.000	1.589
$10,000	32.469	43.476.
$50,000	304.144	330.155.
1,000,000	679,044	717,583.

Thin shell eggs are often due to the lack of limestone and oyster shells in the poultry diet.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

QUAIL PROBLEMS ARE MYRIAD
Keeping a supply of quail in the fields and woods of Texas is the biggest problem confronting the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. Conditions vary so much that the problems must be attacked from many angles. In many portions of the state the big problem is providing suitable cover and food much of it having been wiped out by clean farming and over grazing. However, a report to the executive secretary of the Game Department discloses a different picture in the wooded areas of East Texas. Where the trees are too thick they prevent the growing of suitable weeds to be used as feed. In other areas, and this is particularly true where strict fire prevention is being practiced, there is too much vegetation of certain kinds, such as broomsedge.

A recent check by Game Department biologists on several areas in East Texas shows a decline of 66 per cent in quail population, due mainly to fire prevention and the lack of sufficient grazing having allowed broomsedge grass to grow so dense that the birds were unable to use the areas and were driven out. The thick grass not only crowded out quail food, but acted as a physical barrier to Bobwhites.

The solution, according to biologists, is carefully controlled winter fires, made when the ground is wet to singe off the thick grass tops. Kills Strange Duck.

A rarity among wild ducks, a hybrid, was killed during the recent hunting season by Porter Loring, of San Antonio. Shooting at the St. Charles Club, near Rockport, Loring dropped a bird which Washington. Within a few days now, what is — to me at least — one of the strangest phases of national defense will open its doors. It is privately financed and only partially government supervised, but it is provided for by law and recognized by the military as an integral part of the defense set-up. It is the first camp for conscientious objectors.

With 125 to 150 boys, whose religious or conscientious scruples prevent their taking part in any military activities, Patapsco State Park Camp, near Baltimore, Md., will be the first of a nationwide network of camps where lads who will not spill blood, will do their civilian bit, by giving a year of labor to work that is useful to the nation and a contribution to the national welfare.

Patapsco is an abandoned Civilian Conservation Corps camp and what these boys will do there is not a great deal different from the non-military activities of the CCC. They'll contribute to reforestation, soil conservation, road construction, and the hundred or so other things which are considered vital to national welfare, but which have nothing to do directly with the defense program.

The C.O.'s who will go into these civilian camps should not be confused with those who will be inducted into the army for non-combat training, such as that in the medical corps. The latter's scruples forbid only participation in actual combat.

6,700 Already Listed
Plans for the civilian training camps, of which Patapsco is the first, were prepared by several government agencies, and the national Service Board of Religious Objectors. This latter is a coordinating board which represents all the religious groups whose beliefs forbid participation in wars or war activities.

The plan was given the official stamp recently when President Roosevelt issued an executive order setting the machinery in motion.

About 25 camps are already planned, but it is expected that the number may reach 100 or more before next fall. With camp sites and some equipment provided by the CCC, with other equipment provided by the Army, with work direction by Agriculture, and Interior department experts, these camps will offer work for the unofficially estimated 6,700 young men who already have been classified by the Selective Service as conscientious objectors.

An odd thing about the C. O. work camps, is that although Congress set them up in the Selective Service Act, no funds were provided for financing them. Thus the actual maintenance of the camps will be financed by the purely private National Service Board. There is a request in Selective Service's 1942 budget for maintenance of the camps, but Paul C. French, Quaker secretary of the National Service board, says the board does not want any government funds and for the present, at least, would rather do its own financing. With food, clothing, medical care and salaries of supervisory personnel, it is expected that the maintenance cost will run about $35 a man per month.

One Objective
At least one amazing story has come out of the preliminary plans for the C.O. camps. Officials tell of one patriarchal Mennonite farmer who inquired what his pacifist son would have to do in the camp. He was informed that they would have to work eight hours a day. The old farmer exploded like a volcano.

"Eight hours," he shouted. "No son of mine is going to do a place like that. Fourteen hours is a good day's work. These camps will only send my sons home lazy."

And then!

appears to be a cross between a mallard and a sprig. Wild ducks and geese often mate with tame varieties, but for two species of wild ducks to mate is extremely unusual, according to Texas Game Department biologists.

The duck killed by Loring has a mallard breast and a tail one half pintail. Its head is brown with a reddish cast.

Kills White Barn Swallow
Numerous albino birds and animals are reported to the Game Department, but the first white barn swallow to be made known was recently by a state game warden in Colorado County. The bird was feeding in the rise fields with thousands of ordinary birds.

More Ducks In Texas
Many hunters who returned to their homes with empty or nearly empty bags during the last duck season won't believe it, but careful checks by the Game Department biologists reveal more ducks and geese wintered on the southeast Texas coast than have for ten years. These same biologists list as some of the reasons for poor kills: limited permission to hunt on large holdings; roads impassable to autos when wet; an unusually large supply of rice left in the fields to the mallards, pintail and teal, where 98 per cent of the feeding was done at night, and finally, an unusually heavy rainfall, which created an open lake on the coastal marsh. From daylight until sunrise wave after wave of pintails and mallards coming from the rice fields and stopping on the marsh for a long day's rest.

A check of 1,031 hunters' kills revealed many things, among them the fact that 30 per cent of the bags were young ducks and that the sex ratio was about 50-50. The kill of most species was also larger, the annual check reveals. Mallards declined from 42.4 per cent of the bags to 11.4 due to the earlier season in 1940, which opened before the heavier birds arrived. However, the kill of teal was 4.3 per cent greater, baldpates 7.2, gad-

Treat Cottonseed For Better Yields Is A. & M. Advice

Cotton producers of Texas easily can make extra money by treating their cottonseed before planting. In verification, E. A. Miller, Extension Service agronomist for Texas A. and M. College, points to a four-year test at the Temple Experiment sub-station, which showed that nearly twice as much treated cottonseed germinated as did untreated seed. Furthermore, there was 40 percent angular leaf spot infection on seedlings from untreated seed as compared with six percent from treated seed. Also there was more loss from damping-off and sores from untreated seed. "These factors cause a poor stand and lower yields." Translated into dollars and cents, the specialist continues, the greatest four year average yield at the Temple station — 713 pounds of seed cotton an acre — was grown from seed treated with new improved ceresan. Untreated seed of the same variety planted side-by-side, produces only 371 pounds, a difference of 25 per cent in favor of the treated seed. The increased yield totaled approximately $5 an acre. Similar four year tests at College Station, Brazos Bottom and Lubbock gave increases of 25, 9, and 4 percent, respectively. An important discovery about seed treatment is that it is safe to plant at least one third to one half less treated seed an acre than untreated. The saving in seed is more than enough to pay for the treatment. Miller cautions, however, that results will vary from year to year in different fields, depending upon time of planting, condition of soil, number of disease germs on the seed, and kindred factors. Although various chemicals were used in the experiments, the organic mercury compound known as ceresan has given best results so far. Recent tests show that one to one and one half ounces of a bushel of new improved ceresan is as effective as three ounces of the two percent, or common ceresan, used formerly. Treatment costs less than five cents an acre as much as one half bushel of seed is planted. Treated seed may be planted somewhat earlier than untreated, which often is an advantage. Any tight container, such as a lard can may be used for a few bushels. For larger quantities, a 50-gallon oil drum with a tight lid and arranged on an axis, is suitable. The axis may be made from a one-inch water pipe about four feet long passed diagonally through the drum and welded or soldered firmly to it. A mixing, or baffle board nailed across the inside is needed to do a good job. The drum should not be more than one half or two third filled so the seed will fall while it revolves. As the chemical is poisonous, the drum should be treated outdoors, with the apparatus arranged so the

Tigers, Browns Gel Stars From Texas League

By FELIX R. McKNIGHT

DALLAS — Pitchers, they say, could transform the St. Louis Browns into quite a baseball club up in the American League. Off their productive farm at San Antonio in the Texas League are coming two of the stoutest twirlers of the pitcher-famous league. Tall, cool, Bob Muncie, who, despite a late season lagging spell, won 22 and lost 9, and his brilliant mound twin, Maurice Newlin, who knocked off 23 victories and had several one-run defeats listed in the eight losses, are certainly to be warmly accepted by the Browns. Newlin's 742 was the highest winning average of the league. Too, the Browns will get Charles Stevens, a clever boy who made only 18 errors in handling 1,627 chances at first base, but who was weak at the plate with 264. Vernon Stephens, a fine shortstop who drove in many runs with a 266 average, outfielders Jack Bradsher and Pete Kraus and Pitcher Loy Hanning go to the Browns — Bradsher, Kraus, Muncie and Hanning by the recall route.

Pittsburg drafted pitcher Dick Conger and Frank Secory, outfielder, was sold to Cincinnati. Paul Erickson, a good pitcher who won 12 and lost 10 with second division Tulsa, pitcher Ray Campbell, and Eddie Waitkus, brilliant first base prospect who hit .303, plus Lenzie Merullo, shortstop, and Barney Olsen, outfielder, have been recalled by the Chicago Cubs. Towering George Dickey, younger brother of the Yankees' famed Bill Dickey, goes from his catching job at Oklahoma City to the Chicago White Sox, along with outfielders Dave Shert and Thurman Tucker, infielder Dave Kolloway and pitcher Orval Grove. Pitcher Dewey Adkins, who showed great promise, was sold to Cleveland. Two Shreveport pitchers with stuff, Jack Hallett and Walter Navie, were sold to the Chicago White Sox, while Fort Worth, with an aged club, didn't lose a man to the majors. Two fine hurlers left the Dallas club for the big-time, lefthander Bob Uhle to Detroit by outright sale and Johnny Pintar to St. Louis. Uhle won 16 and lost 12 with a staggering club while Pintar, late in starting, was an 11-9 performer. Mrs. Eleanor Rose returned Sunday from Fort Worth where she has been buying new merchandise for Weaver's Specialty Shop and visiting with friends. The United States has approximately 21,000 printing and publishing establishments. NO. 437 THE STATE OF TEXAS: COUNTY OF DAWSON: To those indebted to, or holding claims against the Estate of Rosa A. An Unfair Trucking Law

WILL WORK HARDSHIPS ON ALL OF US!

DURING ELECTION LAST SUMMER IT WAS APPARENT THAT THE PEOPLE WERE DEMANDING THAT A JUST LOAD LIMIT BE PUT IN TRUCKING LAWS. THE PRESENT SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE REALIZES THAT THEY ARE GOING TO HAVE TO DO SOMETHING TO FULFILL THEIR PLEDGE TO THE VOTERS. OPPONENTS TO THE TRUCKING INDUSTRY ARE TAKING ADVANTAGE OF THIS TO TRY TO PUT THROUGH BILLS THAT SEEMINGLY RAISE THE LOAD LIMIT, BUT NOT SUFFICIENTLY TO RELIEVE THE HANDICAP TEXAS TRUCKERS ARE OPERATING UNDER. THE TRUCKS HAVE BROUGHT ABOUT A VAST IMPROVEMENT IN FREIGHT SERVICE TO THE PEOPLE OF TEXAS. THEY PAY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS INTO OUR TREASURY. THEY RENDER AN INDESPENSABLE SERVICE TO ALL OF US.

Thirteen Men To Be Inducted On Friday March 7

Eight White Men And Five Negroes Will Answer Call Under Selective Service

Announcement is made from the local Draft Board office, that ten more men will be called from Dawson County on March 7th. Six of these will be white men, and four colored.

A total of thirteen men will be called up, so that the board will be sure and have the required ten to induct.

The following order was issued from the Draft office this week:

List of men selected for Call No. 7, March 1, 1941:

J. L. Kitchens, John Leo Nichols, Aubrey Gayland Moore, Ernest Radford Fulcher, David Alexander Scott, Julian Cornelius Jones, John William Gist, Charley Edward Harry.

There will be only six men called out of the eight men named above but we have selected two extra because of the probability of two of the men named are either ill or so far away from this Local Board that they will have to be inducted at another Local Board and we will not know about this until we can hear from these men.

Dawson County Local Board By L. E. Eager Clerk

List of men (Colored) selected for Call No. 8, March 7, 1941:

George Amos Night, Timothy Washington, Curtis Simon, Otho Henry, Austin Flintroy.

There will only be four men called out of the five men named above for the same reason mentioned in Call No. 7, for white selectees.

They plan to enlarge the building to a full fifty foot frontage, with a modern front and new fixtures throughout. Plans also call for new lighting and heating equipment.

S. Baker, district manager for the company from Hobbs, was here Monday with A. W. Merical of the Storecraft Manufacturing Company, measuring the store for the new fixtures, etc.

The remodeling program is expected to get under way within the next sixty days, Baker stated. The new store will be as modern as it can be made, he said.

The American Legion Hall is the place being furnished for this work. Materials are sent out from the St. Louis offices of the American Red Cross to be used in making garments. Cost of materials for building shipping boxes and cost of freight in transporting finished materials for focal points must be borne locally, according to Mrs. Reed and a drive for funds for this purpose may be made soon.

"People too busy to help with the work," said Mrs. Reed, "have the opportunity to assist the local Red Cross chapter in this manner, since local chapter money cannot be used for this purpose."

Numerous civic organizations have sent letters of commendation and appreciation to Mrs. Reed and those who are working with her in this War Relief program.

attendance will be six hours per day, five days per week. The welding class is being taught by Azil McClintock. The automotive maintenance and repair class is taught by L. R. Middlebrook. Each of the teachers has had considerable experience in his respective field.

The equipment for the schools has been ordered and is being supplied by the A. G. Waugh Co. who were the low bidders.

The Federal government is bearing the expense of the school for equipment, teaching supplies, and instructional services as a part of the Defense Preparedness Program and the local district is required to only furnish a place for holding the classes.

It is understood the equipment now being used in these courses will be available for use by high school pupils in the event these courses are conducted as a part of the high school curriculum, beginning with the next school year.

Building Of Big Bridge Started On Borden Road

Getting into a major scale of construction activities on Highway 15 work in Eastern Borden County, Cooke & Braden, contractors, reported Wednesday night that pilings are being set this week for the Gavitt Creek bridge.

This bridge, 10 miles east of Gall on the East-West Highway, will be one of the major structures to be erected on the 148-mile stretch of Highway 15 from a point one mile east of Gall eastward to the Scurry County line.

The Gavitt bridge, first to be started by the roadwork contractors, will be, when finished, one of the modern structures for this section of West Texas. Setting of pilings is expected to take some 10 days or more.

Dirt construction work is still reported to be up to schedule, with activities slowed down Wednesday afternoon and today (Thursday) by inclement weather. — Scurry County Times.

State Salary Aid For Co. Schools Is Received

The schools of Dawson County along with those of the remainder of the State, received the first 50 per cent of the teachers salary aid for 1940-41. Salary aid for the independent school districts will be mailed directly from the State Department of Education to officials of those schools.

Total payment of aid to the common school districts will amount to $2297.00. The independent districts of the county will receive $11,469.00, making a total of $13,766.00. The amount Deputy State Superintendent Day approved for the schools of the county is almost the exact amount which is being received.

According to L. A. Woods, State Superintendent, one half of the transportation aid for the county should arrive for use by the 15th of March. This amounts to $19,120.00 for the entire county.

A recent study shows that ten cows producing 300 pounds of fat annually make as much profit as eighteen 200-pound producers.

The 1,500,000 4-H Club members in the United States produce yearly products having a market value of around $30,000,000.

Church, to visit us and hear these messages." Rev. Sager stated Tuesday "Everyone is welcome to come and worship with us."

Rev. Sager also announced that for the next six weeks, up until Easter, special services will be held at the church each Wednesday night. This is in accordance with practices of the Lutheran church during the Lenten Season, which begins with February 26, called Ash Wednesday, and ends with Good Friday. During this time it remembers with special services the great suffering and sacrifices made by the Lord and Saviour for the sins and transgressions of mankind, he said.

Everyone who is not attending some church is especially invited to attend these services each Wednesday evening beginning at 7:45, Rev. Sager announced.

Lions Club All Set For Auction Sale

Indications Are That Livestock Will Be Given

Wright Boyd of the General Committee in charge of the Lions Club drive for funds for glasses for the needy children of Dawson County, states a number of persons in the county have indicated they will contribute livestock for the big auction sale on March 17.

At the present time the Lions Club Glasses Fund is depleted, but it is hoped that the auction will raise several hundred dollars for this work. The Glasses committee, headed by John Allen reports that a large number of children have been turned away awaiting funds to take care of their needs.

G. M. Roberts, principal of the Lamesa Elementary School in a letter to the Lions Club stated this week: "I take this method of extending my thanks to your good club for the services you have rendered in fitting glasses for children in the Lamesa Elementary School.

"My records show that six children have been seen to you during this term of school. Quite a number have been aided in other years, for which I do not have records."

"Your club is to be congratulated on this fine service which is being rendered to the community."

"Best wishes for all possible success."

Similar statements have come from principals of the different rural schools from over the county.

BAND TO BIG SPRING

Conway King, director of the Lamesa High School Band, will take the band to Big Spring Friday to attend a band clinic being held at that place.

Rural Lunch Rooms Will Be Established

The school lunch room projects of the rural schools will begin operating on a larger scale in a few days, according to E. E. Kerr of the WPA Office at Lubbock who visited in Lamesa Wednesday.

While here he was met by several of the teachers of different schools and final plans were made for WPA labor for the lunch rooms at Key and Mullins.

Mr. Kerr states that "Relief labor is scarce in Dawson County which is actually a compliment to the citizenship."

Plans were discussed briefly for establishment of a county garden to be worked by relief labor and to furnish canned food for the lunch room projects next year.

Sparenberg Wins Tournament Here Last Saturday

Sparenberg made a clean sweep of the Elementary School and Junior High Basketball Tournament held in Lamesa last week end.

Entries included, in the Elementary division, Lamesa, Klondike, Dawson, OK, McCarty, Key and Sparenberg. In this division, OK met Sparenberg in the finals, losing to the champions, after a tough battle, 17 to 18.

Methodist Pastor To Observe His 21st Anniversary

At the Sunday evening services, beginning at 7:30, Rev. E. D. Landreth, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will observe the twenty-first anniversary of the preaching of his first sermon.

He will use the same text as was used in his first sermon twenty-one years ago, and will dedicate a beautiful new Bible for pulpit use, laying aside with appropriate ceremonies, a Bible which has served him a dozen years and is well worn with use. Members and friends of the Church are cordially invited to be in this service Sunday night.

Methodist Will Give Million

The First Methodist Church, under the leadership of the pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth, will participate in an emergency offering, Sunday, in which the eight million Methodists of America will have a part. One-fourth of the million dollar offering will be used for religious service to the boys in army camps throughout the nation; one-fourth for war relief to the foreign missions of British Methodism; and one-half will be used for relief work among war-stricken peoples of Europe and China.

Every worshiper will be furnished with a specially designed envelope to use in this "Good Samaritan Offering". The day is being designated as "The Methodist Day of Compassion".

Nobody Got Mad
My Boss, standing there in line heard the instructions, given the men ahead of him, so when he stepped up he knew just what to do. Apparently, he knew too well, because the printer gave him a mighty suspicious look and said: "You've been fingerprinted before."

To another friend who had a scar on his thumb, the same printer said cheerfully: "Well, pal, we'll never have any trouble picking you up." And one of the other men told a co-worker of mine: "You're practically a perfect criminal; your prints don't register."

Personally, I thought that was no way to talk to a fellow, who had worn his fingers almost to the bone on typewriter keys. But nobody got mad.

After all, it's all in a newsmen's day's work in these times of war abroad, and national defense at home. And all of us still aren't as much on the spot as the boys who cover War - Navy and have to wear their pictures and identifications on signs on their coat lapels - or those who cover Civil Service and can only enter and leave by one door, although the building has six.

I just thought I'd let you know, Butch. A newspaperman still can get around—that is, if he has his passport, and didn't flunk the Secret Service and the FBI.
