Tech Exes Jam City For Homecoming

WELCOME HOME! TEXAS TECH EXES!

IT'S HOMECOMING AGAIN—Symbolic of the spirit of Homecoming activities which got underway at Texas Tech Friday and continues in the city and on the campus today is the "Welcome Home!" greeting and warm handclasp as oldtimers and students greet one another. Thousands of exes and students jammed the city for the annual event, many of them duplicating the greeting of Dale Carter of Roby, left above, and Coffee Conner, right, Archer City sophomore, as they stand before the huge Homecoming bonfire on the campus. Parade Slated This Morning

By KENNETH MAY
Avalanche Staff Writer

ONE of the most colorful Homecoming celebrations in the history of Texas Technological college picked up steam last night as a traditional pep rally and bonfire sent festivities into high gear for thousands of returning exes and students alike.

The program continues at high speed this morning with the annual Tech Ex-Students association breakfast at 8 a.m. and the Homecoming parade through downtown Lubbock and up Broadway to the college, starting at 10 a.m., and a luncheon in the Tech gym.

Game Tops Program

Afternoon highlight of the celebration will be the football game at 2:30 p.m. between Tech's Red Raiders and the Baylor University Bears in Jones Stadium. Dances in the college gymnasium and recreation hall tonight will end the activities.

Former students began pouring into Lubbock Friday, filling up all available hotel space and overflowing into homes of local friends. The pep rally and traditional bonfire at the gymnasium Friday night followed by an informal reunion in the recreation hall officially got the celebration underway.

Members of the Tech Board of Directors as well as the executive council of the Ex-Students' association will stage meetings this morning to make up the business side of Homecoming. Committee meetings were held by the Board Friday, while the Ex-Students' council met in their primary business session on the campus.

Colorful Parade Slated

Forty-three floats will make up the longest parade in the history of the college today, following behind the Texas Tech band as the parade moves down Main street to Texas avenue and back up Broadway to College. Classes will dismiss at 9:30 a.m. for the event.

Assembling of the floats will begin around 9 a.m. in the 1000 blocks of Avenues N and O and

Officials Again Delay Action On City Limits

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

PROPOSED extensions of the city limits bogged down again Friday afternoon in a recessed meeting of the city commission called for the specifically announced purpose of considering them.

Members of the commission devoted more than four hours to the transaction of some items of important business, more of routine nature and a great deal of aimless conversation.

Then, as dusk settled, they set another meeting for 10 a. m. Tuesday to consider 12 city limits extensions recommended by a citizens' committee "one by one."

Called For Special Study

That was precisely the expression used when Friday's special session was set to consider the annexation program formally recommended to the commission's semi-monthly meeting Thursday afternoon.

Yet only a few minutes of the four hours were devoted Friday to discussions of any phase of annexations, with absolutely no consideration of the proposition for action.

The annexations must be completed before Jan. 1 if the populations of such areas are to be included in that of the city of Lubbock when the federal census is taken next year. The legal technicalities involved in an extension of the city limits require about two months.

Payment Period Cut

The most important business transacted during the purported "annexation session" were these:

The commission cut from five years to three years the period during which property owners will be allowed to pay for new street paving.

City Manager Steve Matthews announced that Truman Green has resigned as superintendent of the electric department, effective in about two months. On Matthews' recommendation, Frank G. Posey, jr., 42, formerly of Austin and now of Eminence, Mo., was employed as his successor at $500

FOR GRID FANS

Warm Weather Forecast Today

The Weatherman took a good look at the football charts and his weather observations late last night and came up with a forecast of near perfect conditions for Lubbock and South Plains grid fans today.

Unless something unforeseen develops, and there were no indications it would, grid fans in Lubbock can look forward to temperatures hovering near a comfortable 72 degrees today. Only light winds and few if any clouds were in the offing.

The same forecast held true for most of the state, the Weather bureau said, as a cool front which had been in the northern part of the Panhandle completely dissipated. Similar conditions were forecast for Sunday.

Suspect Held By Officers At Morton

(Special To The Avalanche)

LEVELLAND, Oct. 15. (Saturday)—Mrs. Leo Nichols, 28, was near death in Phillips-Dupre hospital here at 1 a. m. today after being shot in the chest at her farm home about six miles south of Whiteface between 6 and 7 p. m. Friday.

Officers were holding a suspect in the Cochran county jail at Morton, waiting for him to become sober enough to permit questioning.

Dr. R. A. Reid, staff member of the hospital here, said Mrs. Nichols was in "an extremely critical condition" from the gunshot wound, excessive loss of blood and shock.

Brought In By Sheriff

She was conscious when brought to the hospital about 7:45 p. m. by Sheriff Charlie Bullock of Hockley county, but lapsed into a semi-conscious state.

Dr. Reid said the bullet entered the right side of the woman's chest cavity. She was given blood plasma and treated for shock, but due to her critical condition, no surgery attempt was made.

Full details of the shooting remained sketchy this morning, with law enforcement officials continuing their investigation in the rural area. Several officers were attending Friday night football games and were not aware of the shooting until late last night.

Man Placed In Jail

The only officer who could be contacted with a knowledge of the shooting was Hazel Hancock, Morton constable and former Cochran county sheriff. It was Hancock who accepted custody of the suspect from W. V. McKay, constable at Whiteface, and placed the man in jail in Morton.

"The man we locked up was aware of the shooting," Constable Hancock said. "He asked what kind of shape she was in—if she was dead or going to die."

Hancock said that officers at Morton and Levelland were continuing the investigation by questioning several persons, including Leo Nichols, about 38, identified as the woman's husband.

Hancock said McKay informed

Lamesa Child Shot To Death

(Special To The Avalanche)

LAMESA, Oct. 14.—Four-year-old Francis Lynn Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Brown, was accidentally shot to death at 5:30 p. m., today, at the family home half a mile south of here.

The girl was shot with a .22 caliber rifle, investigating officers said.

Deputy Sheriff John Mowell, who investigated, said the child's six-year-old brother, Johnny Mac, told him that he was outside when he heard a shot. Mowell said that the youngster told him he had taken the gun away from his sister and had put it away before he went outside.

Child Rushed To Hospital

Mrs. Brown, returning from a neighborhood grocery, rushed the child to the Price hospital here, where the girl died a short time later. Brown was at work weighing cotton and was not at home.

The bullet struck the child in the chin and apparently traveled downward, according to the Higgenbotham Funeral home, which has charge of funeral arrangements. No inquest will be held.

Officers and family members could not explain how the accident occurred.

Lewis Urges Labor To Unite

By HAROLD W. WARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Oct. 14 — John L. Lewis made a spectacular bid today for labor unity, offering to contribute to a $2,500,000-a-week pool to help the striking CIO steelworkers win a "vital economic conflict."

The unpredictable Lewis thus tossed a bombshell into the coal and steel strikes by shelving for the moment the idleness of his own 400,000 United Mine Workers to go to the aid of another union.

Lewis appealed to a union foe, AFL President William Green, to ask at least nine of the wealthiest unions to match a contribution of $250,000 weekly by the miners.

This financial credit, as Lewis called it, would enable the United Steelworkers "to win beyond peradventure . . . the monumental conflict which is now drawn," he said.

Green Declines Comment

Green said he had not received the letter in which Lewis made his amazing proposal so he declined comment. Philip Murray, the steelworkers' president, refused to reveal his feelings also.

The miners' strike started Sept. 19 and the steel walkout on Oct. 1.

In leaving to the fore for unity,

Solons Face More Delay

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 — The Senate failed in three tries tonight to agree on a time for a showdown vote on the Truman-supported displaced persons bill and forced itself into an unusual Saturday session.

One firm result of the fruitless jockeying was to make dead certain that Congress will not adjourn this week.

The chamber recessed at 9:10 p. m. CST.

A deadlock with no agreement resulted when opponents of the legislation objected to a test vote either Saturday or Monday and administration leaders opposed a vote tonight.

The test will come on a motion to recommit the DP bill.

Filibuster Winning

Filibustering foes of the legislation headed for apparent victory because so many senators are tied up on farm and defense issues the administration was unable to muster its supporters.

Both sides in the DP fight admitted that the pulling and hauling was based on each faction lacking needed votes at different times.

Prospects for adjournment, originally planned for Saturday, became thoroughly confused because of the DP deadlock and the stalemates between the Senate and House on size of the Air Force and farm subsidies. Sharply-opposed bills passed on the Air Force and farm supports are tied up in conference.

Senate majority leader Lucas declared there is "not a chance" of adjourning Congress this week.

Lucas tried twice to obtain unanimous consent for a test vote on the DP bill, but was blocked each time by objection from Sen. Langer (R-ND). Lucas first asked that the Senate vote at 5 p. m. CST Saturday on the recommital motion and second, that it vote at 5 p. m. Monday.

Then, when Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) tried to get agreement for a vote at midnight tonight, majority whip Myers (D-Pa) objected. Myers pointed out that many senators had left town with the "understanding" there would be no vote before Saturday.

Proponents of the DP bill conceded they lacked enough votes present tonight to defeat the recommital motion. Opponents feared they might not have the votes Saturday or Monday.

Lucas voiced a "mighty hope" that an agreement might be

Eleven Defendants To Be Sentenced Friday

Top Reds Convicted Of Plot Against U. S.

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The nation's 11 top Communist leaders were convicted today of plotting to advocate violent revolution in the United States.

Handcuffed, they were hustled into a prison van and jail within an hour to await sentencing next Friday. They face maximum sentences of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine each.

Federal Judge Harold R. Medina turned on the five defense attorneys and the top defendant, Eugene Dennis, and sentenced them to jail for contempt during the nine-months trial.

The court ordered the lawyers to begin on Nov. 15 terms varying from 30 days to six months.

Trial Is Bitter

It was a dramatic ending to a stormy, bitter trial, perhaps the longest federal criminal case in American history.

Five defendants went to jail for contempt at one time or another as Judge Medina strove to halt wrangling that he said threatened his health and his reason.

Amid the 39 weeks of turmoil, Judge Medina never used his gavel once. But when things got out of hand he called on U.S. marshals to bring order to his first-floor courtroom.

He accused the defense lawyers today of "working in shifts. . . to badger the court."

Also working in shifts outside on many a day of the trial were noisy pro-Communist pickets. They reviled Medina and American justice with slogans and placards. As late as last night, they still lingered in Foley square where the courthouse stands.

Judge Medina refused a defense request to free the defendants on bail of $5,000. Eight have been free on such a bond. The other three have been behind bars during out-of-court hours since their

Price Support Still Snagged

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP) — Two closed-door conferences between farm-minded senators and representatives failed to bring agreement today upon new price support legislation.

One of the conferees told a reporter, however, that House members are offering a compromise which would retain existing price floors under cotton, wheat, rice and peanuts for the next three years.

That would pick up a major feature of the House-passed bill to merely extend existing price supports on basic crops through next year and discard the Senate-passed flexible price plan.

The House bill would require government supports at 90 per cent of parity which is a computed price intended to give a farm product the same relative purchasing power it had in a past favorable period.

Majority Leader Lucas (D-Ill), one of the seven Senate conferees, was reported to have asked time

Chinese Red Troops Reported In Canton

HONG KONG, Saturday, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Chinese maritime customs office said today it had received a report that Communist troops have entered Canton.

Nationalist troops abandoned their positions on the mainland border of this crown colony.

Exes Will Name Officers Today

Officers of the Texas Technological college Ex-Students' association are to be chosen at a breakfast meeting of the executive council in the Hilton hotel at 8 a. m. today as part of the annual Homecoming activities.

A decision to make an annual award to the Tech alumnus rendering the greatest service to the betterment of society was voted in a business session held in the college speech building by the group Friday at 3 p. m. Plans to help in Tech's Silver anniversary celebrations next fall also were mapped.

Dr. Wiggins To Speak

Dr. D M. Wiggins, president of Tech, is to speak before the council at their breakfast meeting today. He expected to speak on the place of the ex-students' association in the growth of the college. Dr. E. N. Jones, ice-president, also was to be present.

The annual award voted by the council Friday will be made at the college's spring commencement to the ex-student who "through his contributions to the betterment of society has reflected the most credit on Tech during the year."

No definite plans were mapped by the group for their part in the Silver anniversary celebrations of the college, but a committee will be appointed by the new president to meet with administration officials to study the plans.

Nominations for the distinguished service award will be sought each year through the publications of the Ex-Students associations and other means of solicitation. A Committee appointed by the Tech president will then meet some time after April 1 to decide upon the recipient.

PAY HIKES GRANTED

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (INS)—Swift and Co. announced today an agreement on new contracts with three unions which will give more than 30,000 employes in 21 plants wage increases ranging from one to 15 cents an hour. The unions are the CIO-United Packinghouse Workers, the AFL-Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen and the independent National Brotherhood of Packinghouse Workers.

House Speeds Arms Aid Bill To Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (INS)—The House, spurred by a warning from Gen. Omar N. Bradley that war is not "impossible," passed and sped to the Senate today the full $1,314,010,000 asked by President Truman to arm friendly nations.

House action came by voice vote a few hours after the bill was approved by the appropriations committee, which published a statement by the chairman of the joint chiefs of staff that the decision for war or peace rests "in the hands of a few men overseas."

Bradley's words were bolstered by Undersecretary of State Webb who told the committee that Western Europe lives in "widespread fear of Soviet intentions."

The Senate is expected to hasten approval of the arms measure and send it to the White House for President Truman's signature. The Senate Appropriations committee is winding up brief hearings on the legislation.

Lubbock Child Undergoes Examination At Galveston

GALVESTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—Billie Eugene Williams of Lubbock underwent examination today for a defective heart and lung condition.

The eight-months-old infant arrived with his mother, Mrs. B. A. Williams. Home town folks had raised $736 for his treatment.

Dr. Jack Ewalt, superintendent of the hospital, said the infant is under the direct supervision of Dr. Arild Hansen, director of the child health program for Texas and chairman of the pediatric hospital.

Dr. Ewalt said it may take two or three days before a complete diagnosis can be made.

Billie Eugene's father is a laborer in a cotton oil mill. There are three other children, Doris Jean, 2; Edna Louise, 4; and Judy Marie, 6.

Three Injured In Traffic Mishaps

Three persons were injured—two requiring hospitalization—in separate traffic mishaps in and near Lubbock Friday. Two of the accidents involved pedestrians and cars, while the other was a two-car collision.

Bettye Jackson, 15, here from Pampa for the Lubbock-Pampa football game, ran into the side of a car at 7:30 p. m. in the middle of the 400 block College Ave. police said.

Suffers Neck Injury

She was taken to West Texas hospital in a Rix Funeral home ambulance. Attendants said she received a possible neck injury, a cut across her forehead. Her condition was described as good, but she was held overnight for observation and X-ray examination.

Police said no charges were filed against the driver of the car, H. E. Logan, jr., of 2009 Twenty-second street.

Mary Belle Yates, 17, Texas Tech student living in Women's dormitory No. 4, was treated at St. Mary's hospital after being struck by a car at Broadway and College Ave. at 3:20 p. m.

Hospital attendants said she received lacerations of her feet and legs, but was dismissed after treatment. Police said traffic tickets charging reckless driving and no

Suspect Is Arrested In Lubbock Holdup

A negro suspect was arrested at Littlefield early this morning only two hours after a Lubbock Latin American reported being held up and robbed of his car in north Lubbock.

Felmion Jimenez and a woman friend were parked at the corner of Ave. U and Second last night about 9:15, when an unidentified negro opened a rear door, jumped in, and pointed a nickel-plated automatic at them, investigating officers were told.

They said Jimenez told them the negro ordered him to drive north on Ave. U past the Plains Packing company, and to a step-up transformer on the hill, where he was forced to turn off the road. Jimenez told officers the negro then ordered them out and forced him to take off his trousers containing his wallet, and throw them in the car.

The negro then drove away, officers said. The robbery was not reported until about 10:15, because Jimenez told officers that he had asked others nearby to report the incident, but finally walked to the nearest telephone and called officers.

Officers Probe Mystery Thefts

It was still anybody's guess Friday night just why four automobiles and a school bus were driven into a basement excavation on the campus of Texas Tech.

Theories — and nothing but theories—ranged from the prank of fraternity or sorority pledges to the work of visiting Baylor students, but none had much foundation.

Cars Not Damaged

The cars—all apparently stolen sometime after midnight — had been driven or rolled down a dirt ramp into the excavated basement. The vehicles, none of which was damaged, were found Friday morning.

Whether the offenses were the work of pranksters or drunks, the police were not ready to say.

"We're investigating," they explained.

Jerry Hoover, desk sergeant, said the school bus and two of the cars were new.

Cause Work Halt

A workman engaged in excavating for a south wing to the Tech administration building telephoned Hoover at 8:08 a. m. He couldn't commence work with his power shovel because "a school bus and four cars are in the hole in my way. I'd appreciate it . . ."

Not all the owners had reported the thefts at that time.

One of the cars, a 1949 Plymouth, was stolen from John Huckabay of 2302 Broadway; a 1949 Ford from Buddy Crutchfield of 2319 Thirteenth; a 1939 Cheyrolet, from Hardy Scott of

Ouster Of Admiral Denfeld In Air Force-Navy Feud Rumored

By JAMES LEE
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14—Civilian assistants of Defense Secretary Johnson are convinced today that Johnson will demand removal of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld as chief of naval operations.

A high official who declined to permit use of his name said that Denfeld, in attacking the defense policies of President Truman and Johnson, has "shown that he no longer can be a useful member of the joint chiefs of staff."

Denfeld's tour of duty as operations chief ends Dec. 15, but he already has been reappointed by Mr. Truman and confirmed by the Senate for an additional two-year term.

However, reports are persistent in the Pentagon that Johnson will ask Mr. Truman to exercise his prerogative as commander-in-chief of the armed forces and oust Denfeld.

Officials close to the defense secretary say that the move would not be in "reprisal" for Denfeld's testimony before the House Armed Services committee that unification as administered by John-

HITCHHIKING TOUR INTERRUPTED

Seminole Girl, Missing Since Monday, Found In Los Angeles

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 14 —A hitchhiking tour by a 12-year-old girl from Seminole, Tex., was interrupted by juvenile authorities today.

Policewoman Pauline A. Copeland said the girl, who gave her name as Mary Donna Nelson, was found wandering on the streets today.

With her was an English Setter named Buster. The dog joined the hitchhiking tour in Arizona, Mary said.

The girl said she left Seminole Monday with $10 after a spat with parents and was on the way to Santa Cruz, Calif., to visit an uncle.

She was taken to Juvenile hall in Los Angeles to await instructions from Seminole. Police said the girl was reluctant to give her name and they did not get the names of parents or the uncle.

At Seminole rewards totaling $600 had been offered for information leading to the whereabouts of the girl.

The girl last was seen at her home Monday night when she went to bed. She reportedly was

Two Workers Burned In Oil Field Blaze Near Electra

ELECTRA, Oct. 14 (AP)—Electra firemen early today extinguished a flash fire which burned two oil workers at an oil drilling rig a mile northeast of here.

An explosion preceded the blaze, which broke out shortly before midnight. Burned were Raymond F. Adkins, 39, tooldresser from Electra, and A. T. Barbettini, 67, a driller. Adkins' condition was described as serious.

The fire was on Magonlia's No. 43, Putnam lease.

Breakup Of Temple Marriage Claimed Blow To Industry

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14.—The breakup of Shirley Temple's marriage to John Agar is a blow to the entire motion picture industry.

Shirley stood for something that was so sweet and beautiful that the story being printed in New York and Hollywood made those who have loved her since she was a child actress shudder with distaste for the whole thing.

The story that the breakup of Shirley and Agar was caused by Johnny Johnston's attentions to her had been denied but even the fact that it had been printed at all can be very harmful.

Today Kathryn Grayson, wife of Johnston, telephoned me and said:

Actress To Join Husband

"I want you to know that I am going to New York Monday to be with my husband. My studio has given me permission to spend two weeks with Johnny.

"We have never been happier in our lives, and I don't intend to have these rumors destroy my marriage.

"It's true that Shirley and her husband used to go to Ciro's to hear Johnny and at one time he and I did separate, but that was a year ago. I know that Johnny hasn't seen Shirley in over a year."

When I talked to John Agar the day that Shirley announced she was divorcing him, I asked him if the Johnny Johnston rumor had anything to do with the breakup of his marriage to Shirley. Agar replied:

"That's ridiculous. It has nothing to do with the breakup of our marriage, and I feel very sorry that people could gossip and talk that way about my wife.

"Our only trouble is that we just can't see eye to eye and we cannot get along."

I must say he acted as if he had never heard of the Johnston rumor.

When I tried to say something to Shirley about it, she burst into tears and was so unhappy that I didn't feel I had the right to question her further.

Shirley Cares For Baby

Today she was caring for her baby and not talking to anyone.

Her attorney, Grant Cooper, said that Agar had retained Judge Isaac Pacht, and that he and the Pacht office had a gentleman's agreement that nothing would be discussed until after their meeting Sunday afternoon. He said Clora Warren of the Pacht office had instructed Agar not to talk and he had told Shirley to make no statements.

In the meantime, in New York, Johnston, who is there for television appearances, said:

"I am very much in love with my wife, Kathryn Grayson, and reports connecting my name with the Temple-Agar marital rift are untrue.

"Shirley and John used to drop in at Ciro's in Hollywood when I was singing there. I did dance with Shirley occasionally when John was along, but I never went out with her alone.

"I knew them before I was married to Kathryn. Agar and I belonged to the same golf club."

Johnston charged that a "friend" was trying to create a rift between him and Kathryn by spreading untrue gossip of a romance.

"When I get back to Hollywood, I'll run that person out of the country," said Johnny.

He went on to say that reports of his separation from Kathryn had been exaggerated. They did have a minor tiff about a year ago and were separated for three days.

"The Agars put me up for those few days, but that was the last time I have seen either Shirley or John," he said.

This story, if it is as untrue as all four principles say, should be crushed immediately, not only for the sake of Shirley Temple but for the sake of the whole industry to which she stood as the symbol of all that is good and fine.

Mother Collapses As Test Fails To Prove Boy As Missing Son

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 14 (INS) — A 30-year-old Dayton, O., mother collapsed today when told blood tests indicated a six-year-old ward of the Michigan Children's institute was not her kidnaped son.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thompson arrived in Ann Arbor earlier this week when told an orphan, known as "Tommy" O'Neill, resembled their missing son, Ronald.

The Thompson boy was kidnapped by a nursemaid in 1944.

Mother Sure Of Identity

Mrs. Thompson was almost convinced that the four-year search for her lost boy was happily over. Only yesterday the hopeful mother told Michigan state police she was ready to take Tommy home right now, "for that's how sure I am."

Dr. James Cotterman of the hereditary clinic of the University of Michigan hospital yesterday took blood tests of "Tommy" and the Thompsons. In addition, blood samples of the Thompsons' two younger sons, Jimmy and Bobby, were flown from Dayton to Ann Arbor.

C. F. Ramsay, superintendent of the children's institute, announced this afternoon that the tests "show conclusively that the Thompsons are not the biological parents of the O'Neill boy."

New Problem Arises

Authorities at the foundling home now face the problem of breaking the news to Tommy.

Ramsay said before the Thompsons arrived, the boy was told that his parents were coming to claim him. The institute superintendent pointed out that the Thompsons cannot adopt the boy "because it is against regulations to place a boy in a home where he would be the oldest child."

Blonde Tommy was brought to the institute after being taken from a Mexican family in Lansing, Mich. The Mexican family told state authorities the child was "given" them by a Toledo mother.

The Thompsons came to Michigan to see Tommy when told he, like their missing son, has webbed toes and a dimple under his left eye.

Highway Officials Association Names Texan As New President

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 14. (AP) — DeWitt C. Greer, Texas state highway engineer, began a year's term as president of the American Association of State Highway officials today.

The Texan was elected by some 700 association delegates here yesterday at the conclusion of the 35th annual convention. The association members are highway executives of the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia.

Before adjourning, the association adopted a resolution suggesting the oil industry "review its policy of objection" to petroleum tax increases. Members said the petroleum industry is a major beneficiary of better roads, yet opposes taxes making these roads possible.

Truman Faces Major Problem

DENVER, Oct. 14. (INS) — A vacancy on the federal district court bench in Denver shaped up into one of the major issues in the national political scene today.

Control of the U. S. Senate after the 1950 election may hinge on President Truman's choice to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of U. S. district Judge J. Foster Symes.

Other factors, including a lack of accord within the Democratic party ranks, also may influence the President's decision.

Congress To Adjourn

Congress is set to adjourn next week, which means a new judge must be nominated within a few days or the post left unfilled until the next session. There are indications the latter course has been adopted.

Judge Symes, in failing health for some time, announced his retirement Sept. 20.

Colorado's senior senator, E. C. Johnson (D) recommended Gov. Lee Knous for the job. But the reappointment of Leland Olds to the Federal Power commission intervened. Johnson was a leader in the fight against Olds, climaxed by yesterday's 53 to 15 vote by the Senate, denying the appointment.

Other Appointment Is Made

The President appointed John C. Pickett of Cheyenne to the new seat on the U. S. 110th circuit court, and two days ago named Willis N. Ritter to the federal district bench in Utah. There was no mention of the vacancy in Colorado.

Pickett yesterday was assigned to preside temporarily in Denver's federal district court, lending credence to the theory no new judge will be named, barring a last-minute, or perhaps interim, appointment.

Speculation over the reasons leads to at least two possible conclusions: 1—The matter was "put on ice" for the present because of Johnson's stand against Olds.

2—Or more likely, Knous' recognized ability as a vote-getter denied him the judgeship "for the good of the party."

The battle for domination of the senate in the off-year election promises to be close, even with eight senators virtually assured of re-election in the south.

Nicaragua, in the grip of severe drought, fears that it may affect its bumper coffee crop.

In Fight For Health Girl, Facing Death, In New Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE, Oct. 14. (AP)—Green-eyed Janet Latsha came to Albuquerque today and said she wants to climb a mountain.

"Now we are close to Jesus," she told her mother on the flight here.

Doctors say the six-year-old daughter of Mrs. Wilma Latsha, Nacogdoches, Texas, is dying of asthma. Her mother thinks she will get well in this climate.

Doll Accompanies Girl

Janet, her mother, and Marjorie Ann—her doll—were flown here today from Oklahoma City where she has been in a hospital. Pilot Burrell Tibbs, Oklahoma City, said the trip was without incident and added "she's sure a good passenger."

Mrs. Latsha appealed recently for aid to bring Janet to Albuquerque. Well-wishers have donated $600. The Catholic Sisters of Charity offered to treat Janet in their St. Joseph's hospital and give Mrs. Latsha a job. She'll live just across the street from the hospital.

Mrs. Latsha turned to one of the black-robed nuns and sobbed during the reception at the hospital.

Nuns Greet Patient

The nuns, headed by Sister Francis Marie, director of the hospital, met Janet at the entrance. There were tears in their eyes and those of watchers when Mrs. Celeste Gatling, manager of the Albuquerque Civic council, delivered the pair.

Janet, clad in a bright red corduroy jumper and plaid shirt, smiled gaily. She agreed with her mother that when she gets well she wants to "climb that mountain," gesturing to the 10,678-ft. high Sandias.

The little girl, who weighs only 34 pounds, was taken to a balloon bedecked hospital ward. A new book and flowers awaited her. The flowers were taken away hurriedly when Mrs. Latsha told the sisters Janet is allergic to them.

New Dallas Television Station To Go Into Operation On Nov. 1

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP)—KRLD-TV, television station of the Dallas Times Herald, is to go on the air about Nov. 1, it was announced today.

Clyde Rembert, managing director for radio and television activities of the newspaper, said the new television station would carry Columbia Broadcasting system television shows to the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Civic Party Marks 20th Year For Van

VAN, Texas, Oct. 14. (AP)—The Van oilfield was 20 years old today, and the community had a big birthday party to mark the occasion.

It was complete to a birthday cake—a gaily-decorated hunk of pastry eight feet in diameter, nine feet tall and topped off by a miniature oil derrick. It was ringed with candles, molded as oilwell tubing.

Twenty years ago, Van was a sand hill community of about 20 families.

Today it is a thriving little town of 2,500—a "model oil town."

First Well Noted

So it was with thanksgiving that Van paused on this 20th anniversary of the completion of its discovery well—the Jarman No. One, brought in by Pure Oil company on Oct. 14, 1929—for its prosperity is based solely on oil.

There has been, and is now, no other industry.

State, county and local business leaders took part in the ceremony. Carl L. Estes, publisher of the Longview newspapers, introduced the guests, principal of whom was L. S. Wescoat of Chicago, Pure Oil president.

Business houses were closed, the high school band was on hand and a barbecue for 2,500 was on the spits when the program opened.

Five Firms Held Leases

Five oil companies held leases in the Van area, but Pure had the biggest block, approximately three-quarters of the acreage thought to be productive, and it directed the development. A unitization agreement was signed 17 days after the No. One Jarman became a producer.

Wescoat noted that the unitization agreement is still in effect, and he said:

"It is a striking example of the way in which business men can co-operate for the interests of the entire nation as well as for their own interests."

Other Fields Die

Wescoat observed that many fields with greater potentials had long since been exhausted and abandoned, "but the Van field after 20 years . . has produced more than 200 million barrels of oil and. . . has today a greater vitality and longer life expectancy than many recently-discovered oil fields. No gas has been flared in this field in 17 years."

Operating companies share equipment and, Wescoat said, Van is a community of "settled homes, churches and schools. . . the undesirable floaters who attach themselves like leeches . . . in other fields have been conspicuously absent here" and "this model town . . . is a source of pride to all of us and . . . an example for the entire petroleum industry of America."

Planned Community Chest Drive Boosted At ABC Luncheon Here

Warlick Carr and Hugh Anderson, Lubbock lawyers and members of the Toastmaster's club, Friday spoke in behalf of the Community chest drive to open next week at a luncheon meeting of the American Business club at the Holton hotel.

The program also included the showing of the New Year's Day Cotton bowl classic at Dallas between SMU and Oregon.

Club guests were J. D. Hunter, Hershel and Arch Lamb, Dallas Atkins, Jack Hall and Robert Dennis.

George Dale presided.

Court Seeks Explanation Of Fee Charges From Representative

HOUSTON, Oct. 14. (U.P.)—State Representative J. M. (Jim) Heflin will have to tell in a written explanation how he could be working here and in Austin at the same time, the Harris county commissioners court ruled today.

The veteran Harris county legislator, according to accounts in the Houston Press, received $700 in "special fees" for real estate appraisals here at a time when legislative records show he was in Austin.

Yesterday, the court asked an investigation of the matter, and announced today that Heflin would be required to submit his story in writing.

Heflin declined to comment today on the turn of events. "Anything further I have to say will be said before commissioners court," he stated.

Earlier, when Press reporter Vernon Smylie first made the accusations, Heflin commented, "I can't understand what caused this mix-up."

Film Workers Pledge Aid In Hollywood 'Cleanup' Drive

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14 (INS)—Thirty-five thousand members of the film industry today banded together to aid law enforcement agencies in a drive "to clean criminal elements out of the Hollywood area."

The Motion Picture Industry council, representing nine major Hollywood guild, labor and management groups, pledged itself to cooperate with the law enforcement agencies and to steer newcomers to the movies on a straight moral course.

The council adopted a resolution asserting "the Hollywood area long has been made a special target of extortionists, shakedown artists, and other criminal elements who seek to entrap, and prey upon, the unwary and the unwise."

The moral training for newcomers was to consist of "straight from the shoulder talks by seasoned individuals, including newspaper men and women covering the Hollywood beats, who can detail past experiences."

The council was organized eight months ago with the announced purpose of counteracting unfavorable publicity about the film industry and its thousands of personnel.

Former Film Player Surrenders On Extortion Scheme Indictment

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 14 (INS)—Party girl Helen Keller languished behind jail bars today after surrendering on an indictment for extortion on a film city sex shakedown scheme.

The red-haired one-time movie bit player was taken to the lockup when she declared at her arraignment that she was unable to raise $5000 bail.

Miss Keller emphatically denied that she extorted money from Hollywood talent school President eBn Klekner in exchange for her keeping silent on the executive's extramartial romantic excursions.

She insisted that she planned to marry Klekner whenever he was legally free.

The flame-haired beauty explained that she would have surrendered to authorities yesterday, as she had promised, only that she recalled it was her 25th birthday and she wanted to celebrate out of jail.

Miss Keller and her roommate, Toni Hughes, were indicted by the Los Angeles county grand jury on multiple counts of extortion, attempted extortion and conspiracy to commit extortion.

Miss Hughes was arrested in New York earlier in the week and was freed on $5000 bond.

City Commission Again Delays Action On City Limits Extension

a month plus the city's cost-of-living bonus, now amounting to about $80 monthly.

Green advised the commission several weeks ago he plans to establish his own engineering business. Members of the commission warmly praised his services during his more than three years' of employment by the city.

Has Held Top Positions

Posey, a 1931 engineering graduate of the University of Texas, was described as having had about 12 years of experience with the Austin electric plant, held highly responsible technical positions in civilian governmental services during the war and, during the post-war years, has operated his own business in Eminence. He is scheduled to report for his new duties in about six weeks. He is married and has two children.

Green, a 1936 graduate of Texas Technological college, was city manager at Spur eight years before coming to Lubbock.

The time for payments of pavement was shortened by unanimous action of the commission after having been recommended by the city manager.

Old Plan Discarded

For approximately 20 years, the city has followed the policy of allowing property owners to pay for street pavement in front of their places in five installments — the first when the work is finished and the remainder in four equal annual amounts.

Officials said they did not believe the shortening of the time of payment will retard Lubbock's paving progress, which has been at a phenomenal pace. More than 30 miles of streets have been paved within the past year, with a bigger program in prospect in 1950.

Officials emphasized that those who already have filed petitions seeking pavement will have the benefit of the five-installment plan, if they desire it.

But the three-year plan will apply to future paving requests.

To Make Funds Available

The city manager said the plan will make more money available for pavement at a time when the city's resources are strained to the breaking point to meet the initial costs of this type of improvement.

"If we don't adopt this plan, we'll have to cut down on our street paving," Matthews commented. "We may have to cut down anyway unless we find some way to finance the work."

During the brief periods devoted to discussions of the city limits extensions proposals, Clayton Carter appeared to protest the annexation of the addition bearing his name north of the city limits; Bill Hams urged the annexation of the Southeast Lubbock area where he resides, and Matthews and R. L. Oldham, city director of public works, presented a mass of financial figures.

Figures Are Given

Oldham's analysis estimated that provision for Lubbock needs through 1953, if the city limits are extended as proposed, will cost $7,293,000, of which about $1,000,000 is available in bond money.

Major items shown in his breakdown were: water expansions, $3,895,000, sewer requirements, $1,665,000, and fire department, including three new substations, $350,000.

He readily acknowledged, however, that by far the greater portion of these improvements will be needed, and in many instances will be necessary, regardless of whether the city limits are extended.

Matthews estimated that, if the annexation program should be carried out as proposed, it would add about $193,000 to city revenues next year, including $75,000 from water, $70,000 from ad valorem taxes and $48,000 for electricity sales. He estimated the expansions would add about $4,000,000 to city tax rolls — regarded by many authoritative observers as an extremely conservative figure.

Will Boost Revenue

But, on the basis of the estimates cited, it was pointed out, the annexed areas make a substantial contribution toward the costs of the municipal services to which they would be entitled as residents of the city. Officials acknowledged that the revenues from these sources almost certainly would increase very rapidly from year to year.

An unusual matter considered by the commission pertained to the Retail Merchants association. Vaughn Wilson, city attorney, said he was advised the association henceforth will expect the city to pay for information requested about individuals in connection with taxation. The association is a credit information and rating agency.

The city manager was directed to "remind" the association "strongly" that it was supplied offices rent free for many years in the city hall and, on one occasion, approximately $800 in unpaid back rent was wiped off the city's books.

Group Offered Building

Other business transacted included:

The Lubbock Little Theatre was offered one of the buildings at the former South Plains Army Air field, all now owned by the city, for $827.

The commission ordered the engineering department to go ahead with 55-foot paving on Sixth street between Avenues M and N.

J. M. Lewelling, 1419 Sixth, has blocked the improvement for several months because of damage which might result to some trees. The city offered to replace the trees, but Lewelling declined without submitting a counter-proposal. Officials said the unpaved portion long has formed a serious traffic bottleneck as well as a dust nuisance.

The commission approved the lease of about four acres of land in Southeast Lubbock to the Texas Rangers for a shortwave radio station costing about $20,000.

A new sewer line was ordered extended to serve the recently annexed area bounded by Nineteenth, Twenty-sixth, Tyler and Pierce in West Lubbock. The improvement will cost about $16,275, Oldham estimated.

The City Cab company was granted exclusive space at the new Municipal Airport terminal, now nearing completion, to supply taxicab and limousine service. The city will collect 3 per cent of the gross of the business resulting. Other cab companies also will have access to the terminal either to deliver passengers or to pick up those who call them.

Lubbock Bus Co., was authorized to re-route one of its Southwest Lubbock buses so as to travel along Avenue Q between Thirteenth and Nineteenth, and thence on Thirteenth between Avenues Q and K.

All members of the commission attended the meeting, including Mayor W. H. Rodgers and Commissioners W. B. Price, E. K. Hufstedler, John Spikes and Clarence Whiteside.

Officers To Be Named

letic council representative will be chosen at this morning's session.

This will be the last time at which two names for each position will appear on the ballot prepared by the nominating committee, since an amendment was approved Friday which will limit that body to one nomination for each office. Other nominations will be possible at the council meeting, as in the past.

Candidates Are Named

Candidates for the various offices of the association included Ed McCullough, Midland, and Wayne Sellers, Fort Worth, for president; John H. Wilson, Lubbock, and Hart Shoemaker, Abilene, first vice-president; W. W. Nicklaus, Amarillo, and Ralph Blodgett, Spearman, second vice-president; Forrest Weimhold, Levelland and Fike Godfrey, Spur, director; and George Langford, Lubbock and Marion Harris, Muleshoe, athletic council representative.

Other business conducted by the council included an amendment to the by-laws which will no longer place all living past presidents of the association as ex-officio members of the council. They also voted to make members of the executive board ex-officio members of the council.

Redistricting To Be Studied

A further amendment which was deferred until today's session would provide for a committee to make a study of former students relative to their localities and make recommendations for the redistricting of the state for purposes of membership to the council.

At the present time, members of the council include the presidents of the 17 local chapters of the association or their representatives, officers of the senior class and president of the junior class, and elected representatives from each of the state senatorial districts.

The proposed amendment, if passed, would change the latter setup into a more fair distribution of representation on the council.

Incumbent president, Hurley Carpenter, Lubbock, presided over the Friday session, which was begun with an invocation by Elmer Tarbox, of Lubbock. In his opening remarks, Carpenter praised the local chapters for their work and called for a more extensive financial campaign next year.

D. M. McElroy, executive secretary for the association, reported that chapters have been established in Abilene, Amarillo, Corpus Christi and Sweetwater within the past year and said over $6,000 has been collected for the Loyalty fund to date this year. He also said that 95 per cent of the graduating seniors are now leaving their addresses in the association office.

Although no action was taken, the council Friday afternoon also discussed the possibilities of improving their athletic drives toward greater support of Tech athletic events. Definite decisions along that line were postponed indefinitely, with the possibility they might come up again in this morning's meeting.

Wreck Victim Still In Serious Condition

LEVELLAND, Oct. 14 (Special) —John David Goley, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Goley, sr., of Blossom, remained in serious, but not critical, condition late tonight in Phillips-Dupre hospital here.

The youngster is suffering a severe concussion received in a car-truck collision two miles west of Levelland about 5:30 p. m. Thursday.

He was one of 11 persons injured in the mishap.

Three other persons involved in the same accident remained in the hospital tonight, but were considerably improved, according to hospital attendants. They were Vivian Sue Justice, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Justice, who reside seven miles southwest of Levelland, a passenger in the Goley automobile, who received hip and scalp lacerations; Robert Goley, 8, one of the six Goley children, who suffered less serious scalp lacerations; and Mrs. Goley, 37, hospitalized with several fractured ribs and a chest injury.

Seven other persons received less serious injuries and were dismissed from the hospital after treatment of lacerations and bruises.

FORMER TEXAN VICTIM

MT. VERNON, Ill., Oct. 14 (AP) —Nathan B. Chenault, jr., 34, formerly of Wichita Falls, Tex., died today of injuries resulting from a traffic accident near Sims, Ill., Tuesday. He was Southern Illinois district superintendent for the Oil Petroleum Producing division. His car and a truck collided.

Keys had not been left in any of the vehicles, so far as police knew.

Ignition switches were "wired around" by thieves in some of the cases, Hoover said the police had been informed.

Youth Is Fined

A 17-year-old youth, Joe Junior Weatherman of the 500 block Fortieth street, was turned over to police by Deputy Sheriff F. H. Bolen and was fined $25 on a plea of guilty of window peeping. The youth was caught by a negro, Rinza Washington, who said the peeping was done in the rear of 2209 Sixteenth street.

J. L. McCafferty of 2115 Sanders told police at 10 p.m. that his car, a 1939 blue Ford coach, had been stolen from its parking place in the 900 block Main street sometime after 8 p.m.

Dallas officials, City Detective J. O. Fields of the criminal investigation division, and Dep. Sheriff E. L. Warnack, came here to accept custody of Calvin H. Garner, 53, who is charged in Dallas with embezzlement.

The suspect was arrested here this week by City Detective Robert West after inciting suspicion at a hospital where he had sought treatment. He was employed by a drug store in Oak Cliff when he left Dallas several days ago, the Dallas officers said. Included in property found in his possession here, they said, was a quantity of drugs.

John Henry Bigbie, jr., 21, of Columbus, Ga., was returned here Friday afternoon from Boston, Bowie county, on a bench warrant charging the prisoner is under 99th court indictment accusing him of forgery.

Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubank delivered the prisoner.

Judge Walter Davies reformed a judgment in the aggravated assault case of John Charles Sluss, 26, who had been fined $25, county court costs and sent to jail for 30 days.

Sluss, said by arresting officers to be a military policeman at Lubbock Air Force base, will be required to pay a $75 fine and costs instead of the original judgment, Judge Davies decided after "further study" of the case.

Sluss admitted he had assaulted his wife a few hours after she had arrived here Friday morning from Shreveport with her two children, 4 and 2.

If he were confined to jail 30 days his pay allotment to his family would be affected, working a further hardship on the woman and children, court officials learned.

Ernest Adams of Rotan was fined $25 and county court costs on a plea of guilty of check law violation, county court officials said. He is about 45.

James Russess Gafford, 37, of Lubbock, pleaded innocent Friday to a charge of drunk driving, and Judge Davies set trial appearance bond of $500. The arrest was by the Texas Highway patrol at the Posey community.

Judge Davies and the county attorney's department also occupied themselves with other aggravated assault cases.

Al Hays, 27, a negro who Jan. 11 had been fined $200 and court costs and sent to county jail five months on a plea of guilty of aggravated assault by knifing Ray Hall, pleaded innocent of a similar charge. The state accuses him of having stabbed Johnny Mack Gardner Saturday night. Bond of $500 was set in the case.

Bond of $400 was set for Charles Neff, about 25, charged with aggravated assault on a woman, Rosemary Noah. The woman said she and her husband were assaulted by two men after a traffic incident Saturday night. A simple assault charge was filed against the other man, Hugh Daniels, about 25, in the court of C. E. Lynn.

Farm Bill Snagged

to think over the compromise overnight. He mentioned a two-year extension of the present levels instead of three years but made no commitment.

The Senate-House group named to iron out differences between the farm price prop bills will meet again tomorrow.

Price supports for tobacco at 90 per cent of parity are not at issue. Both the Senate and House bill would allow supports at this level whenever growers voted controls. They have done this in all recent years.

Corn Farmers Worried

The conferees were told that corn farmers—already worried about surplus production and falling prices—are not pressing for a permanent high level government support.

The Senate's flexible price bill sponsored by Senator Anderson (D-NM) proposes supports between 75 and 90 per cent for all basic crops after next year except tobacco.

Conferees said that House members first asked a five year extension of the 90 per cent supports for basic crops before allowing the flexible program to operate.

Later the seven Senate conferees took a vote on a three year extension, it was said, and it was beaten 4 to 3.

Listed as supporting it were Chairman Elmer Thomas (D-Okla) and Senators Ellender (D-La) and Young (R-ND).

Opposing were Senators Lucas, Anderson, Thye (R-Minn) and Aiken (R-Vt).

Indications that the farm dispute may not be one of the last settled at this session came in departure of Senator Thye, one of the conferees, for his farm home at Northfield, Minn.

Thye left by airplane tonight and was to return by Tuesday. He left a proxy with Senator Aiken for voting while he is away.

Threat Seen In Red Arms Plan

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Oct. 14 (INS)—U. S. Representative Warren R. Austin implied in the United Nations today that yielding to Russia's demands for combining atomic and non-atomic arms in any control plan would lay the United States open to surprise attack.

Austin criticized the latest Russian motion calling for disclosure of atomic stockpiles along with non-atomic arms through a global census and told the Security Council:

"The nuclear fuels used or produced in atomic energy plants are the same nuclear explosives used in atomic weapons. Their conversion from one to the other could take place rapidly and without warning. Therefore, controls over such plants must be of an entirely different nature, which are neither necessary nor desirable in the field of conventional armaments."

He added:

"The dispute is not one of technical niceties. It is one based on considerations of common sense and common experience. It is simply a matter of taking one thing at a time in order to get something done. In their efforts to make out of it some sinister plot by the majority, the Soviet representatives have been trying to muddy the waters so that they will fail to reflect clearly the true Soviet countenance, which is one of complete opposition to any real plan of effective disarmament."

Other western delegates keynoted their opposition to the Russian motion with the same anxiety.

Canada's Lester B. Pearson underlined Austin's contention that only strict verification by a UN control commission can keep tab on the amount of nuclear materials in production and provide for "effective prevention of clandestine diversion to secretly stocked weapons."

Jean Chauvel of France, introducing a counter-resolution to the Russian, stressed the possibility that "false" information might be offered by some governments if there is no check-up system.

Soviet Delegate Jacob Malik, who introduced the new Russian motion earlier in the week for a world arms census which includes atomic weapons, deferred his statement until Thursday afternoon.

NEWS BRIEFS

Mrs. J. O. Green has returned to her home at 2621 Twenty-fifth after undergoing emergency major surgery at West Texas hospital Sept. 23. Her condition was considered satisfactory Friday.

Lt. (jg) Dewey E. Ellison, USN, of 1802 Avenue H, Lubbock is scheduled to arrive at Norfolk, Va., October 15, after a three-week cruise in the Mediterranean a crew member of the destroyer mine sweeper USS Macomb. The Mecomb put in to Algiers, North Africa, to afford the crew a period of leave and liberty before leaving the Mediterranean for Bermuda, B. W. I., en route to Norfolk.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lettie Gaddy, 44, resident of Hobbs, N.M., and former South Plains resident, were held at 2:30 p.m. Friday in the East Side Baptist church of Lubbock. Rix Funeral home directed burial in Lubbock cemetery. Mrs. Gaddy died Thursday afternoon in Hobbs after an illness of several weeks.

Two persons suffered minor injuries in a car collision near Lubbock Air Force base about 12:30 a. m. today. Christene Dansler, 19, a negro of Oakwood, Texas, suffered lacerations over the left eye, and her father, Pete Sanders, 46, minor facial cuts. They were treated at Chatman hospital. Highway patrolmen were still investigating the accident early this morning.

him that the gun used in the shooting was a .38-.40 revolver which apparently had been fired once.

The Morton constable said Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and their son, Bobby, 10, lived in a two-room house behind the home of Ray James, a farmer who employed Nichols as a farm hand.

Youth Found Mother

The Nichols boy, according to Hancock, found his mother lying in a pool of blood in the front room of the house and ran for help at an oil field worker's camp about three-quarters of a mile away.

Another report on the shooting said Bobby Nichols found a man with a gun in front of the Nichols home, and rushed into the house to find his mother.

Hospital attendants said the extreme loss of blood suffered by Mrs. Nichols indicated that she had been shot 30 minutes or an hour before the boy found his mother around 7 p. m.

Levelland Ambulance Called

An emergency call for an ambulance came to the Price Funeral home in Levelland, but George Price said the woman had been removed by Sheriff Bullock before he arrived at the farm home.

Price said a group of men in four or five cars were in the road about one-fourth of a mile from the house, afraid to go up to the scene of the shooting. He said that Bullock, accompanied by another man went to the house and got Mrs. Nichols while McKay and Joe L. Taylor, a farmer and oil field worker, took the suspect to the jail at Morton.

A hospital attendant said Mrs. Nichols was a "very attractive woman." Her given name was said to be Uresa.

Another report on the shooting had it that three bullets had been fired from the gun, and the other three shells indicated the firing pin had been snapped on them.

Top Reds Convicted

bail was remanded for contempt. The judge ordered all 11 jailed until sentenced.

The verdict and court action were smashing blows to the Communist party in America.

Defense Attorney Harry Sacher said the verdict and contempt sentences wil be appealed.

HST, GOP Blamed

The defendants blamed the verdict on President Truman, Wall Street, the Republican party and war profiteers.

They said in a statement the Communist party would continue despite "the infamous verdict of this Hitler-like trial. . ."

Congressmen applauded when the verdict was announced on the House floor of Congress.

Attorney General Tom Clark, now a Supreme court justice, started the case in 1948 to try for a clear-cut court ruling that the Communist party in America was a revolutionary band.

Rep. Quinn (D-N.Y.) said the verdict firmly establishes just that.

Attorney General McGrath called the outcome "gratifying."

Whether the verdict would give the government a lever to virtually outlaw the party remained to be seen.

Argue Cards Stacked

For the first two months of the trial the defense argued that the cards were stacked against it. Negroes and other minorities had little chance to get on the jury, they said.

It was a negro, Mrs. Thelma Dial, who pronounced their fate.

She led the jury into the crowded, tense courtroom just before noon (EST) after seven hours of deliberations. The case went to the eight women and four men at 3:53 p.m. yesterday. The defendants gave no show of emotion.

The 11 defendants are:

Defendants Named

Eugene Dennis, 44, national secretary of the Communist party in America;

Gus Hall, 39, Ohio state chairman;

Henry Winston, 35, negro and national organizational secretary;

John Gates, 36, editor of the Daily Worker, Communist newspaper;

Benjamin J. Davis, jr., negro city councilman in New York.

Carl Winter, 43, Michigan state chairman;

Jacob Stachel, 49, national educational director;

John B. Williamson, 46, national labor secretary;

Robert Thompson, 34, New York state chairman;

Irving Potash, 47, vice president of the International Fur and Leather Workers union;

Gilbert Green, 43, Illinois state chairman.

Judge Medina thanked the jury and warned its members against discussing the case.

Turns On Lawyers

Then, as the jury filed out, Judge Medina turned on the five attorneys and Dennis, who acted as his own lawyer. The patience that he had shown during the long, bitter trial still was with Judge Medina.

He told the attorneys they deliberately had tried to cause "delay and confusion so as to make the trial impossible, to provoke an incident to result in a mistrial or to impair my health."

Then, one by one, he sentenced the men to jail. The lawyers and their sentences:

Harry Sacher, six months.
Richard Gladstein, six months.
George W. Crockett, jr., Detroit negro, four months.
Louis McCabe, 30 days.
Abraham Isserman, four months.
Dennis also got six months.

Defense Surprised

The sentencing, without any preliminaries, apparently surprised and stunned the defense attorneys.

"One even gives a rabbit a running chance," Sacher complained to Medina, "and we should have had that."

Then he compared the defense lawyers to Alexander Hamilton, Charles Evans Hughes, Clarence Darrow and Wendell Willkie.

The other attorneys added their protest. They called the contempt sentences a blow to the American bar, a danger to civil liberties and called the trial itself "an infamous persecution."

Handcuffed and in a closed van, the defendants later were taken to jail to await sentence.

About 600 curious or sympathetic bystanders watched them leave. The crowd shouted mixed boos and cheers for the Communists.

U.S. District Attorney John F. X. McGohey, who drove home the case for the government called the historic, nine-months trial perhaps the longest federal criminal case in history. It cost the government about $1,000,000 and the defense about $500,000.

Parents Overjoyed At News

In Seminole tonight, the girl's father, Guy Nelson, a Seminole barber, said he and his wife were overjoyed at the news.

"I'm leaving by plane tonight for Los Angeles to bring her back," he said. "We're so happy, I'll even bring the dog back too if that's what she wants."

Nelson said he was not surprised to hear that Mary Donna had picked up a dog in her travels.

"She's always picking up stray dogs and bringing them home," he said. "Right now I believe we have two dogs and two cats that she gathered up."

Nelson said he has "no idea in the world" why the seventh grade school girl left home."

Nelson was to leave Midland tonight by American Airlines, arriving in Los Angeles at 1:25 a.m. tomorrow.

Tech Exes Here For Homecoming

on Main street between Avenues Q and M. All persons living in those areas as well as on Broadway have been asked to refrain from parking cars in the street, Bill McCasland, parade chairman, said.

Judges will make their choice of the most outstanding floats in the three divisions of comic, descriptive, and beautiful from their perch on the Lubbock hotel balcony. Plaques will be presented the winners at halftime of the ball game and the most outstanding of those will be awarded the 41½-inch-high Thomas trophy, to be given each year to the best float.

Registration To Continue

Ex-students of the college meanwhile will continue to register in the Lubbock and Hilton hotels and in all the main campus buildings until noon. Name cards given to them at that time will entitle them to a free luncheon in the gymnasium at noon, given by Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma motor coaches and Furr food stores.

Some 1,800 general admission tickets were still available last night to exes and others wishing to attend the Tech-Baylor football game at 2:30 p.m. in Jones stadium. Rated the underdogs in the tussle, the Red Raiders must win before Tech freshmen will be allowed to remove their green skull caps, which they must otherwise wear until Thanksgiving.

A crowd of more than 18,000 fans is expected to witness the game, a number made possible through the addition of extra bleachers in the end zone sections. The remaining tickets will go on sale at 8 a.m. at the stadium ticket office.

The heralded power of the Bears football team failed to dampen the spirit of the more than 1,500 former and present Techsans who attended a noisy pep rally in the Tech gym last night, and then poured outside to where Freshmen had formed a ring around a huge bonfire on the campus. A spokesman for the Red Raider team said, "If the measure of our success is as great as the enthusiasm of those at this rally, then we'll bring home a Bear for supper tomorrow night."

Burl Hubbard's orchestra will play for ex-students and their friends who attend the final dance in the gymnasium at 9 p. m. today. A simultaneous dance is being staged in the recreation hall for students in order to avoid overcrowding of the dance floor at either place.

Open houses and teas will be staged by many of the social and other organizations on the campus, while a few are planning special dinners and luncheons in honor of their alumnae. A three-hour period from 6 to 9 p. m. today has been specifically set aside for such functions.

Welcome mats for former students and others were thrown out by college organizations and departments Friday afternoon. Decorations were thrown up on college buildings and dormitories as well as club houses.

Beginning at 8:30 p. m., the informal reunion of exes in the recreation hall green room was staged for the first time this year. Snack bar privileges were available to those exes attending.

Today's official program follows:

8 a. m.—Registration in Lubbock and Hilton hotels and in principal campus buildings.

10 a. m.—Homecoming parade down Main street from Avenue Q to Texas, across Broadway and back up to College.

12 noon—Buffet luncheon in gymnasium for ex-students and faculty members, given by Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma coaches and Furr food stores.

2:30 p. m.—Texas Tech vs. Baylor university football game in Jones stadium.

6-9 p. m. — Reserved for organizations having open houses and other entertainments for former members.

Lewis Urges Unity

the 69-year-old mine leader gave the impression at least of shrugging off sometimes bitter differences with the other two union heads.

Murray once was Lewis' top lieutenant. They split over CIO policies and support of the late President Roosevelt.

Murray went on as head of the CIO after Lewis left the organization which he helped build out of the AFL in 1935.

The AFL and CIO haven't cooperated even politically. Lewis has taken his 600,000 miners in and out of both unions because of spats with Murray and Green.

Spread Threatens

The steel strike, involving 500,000 workers, threatens to spread next week to the remainder of the Murray union membership in fabricating plants. Most fabricators' contracts expire Oct. 15. The remainder run out between now and December.

Murray has promised to strike all but the 14 fabricating companies which have agreed to his free pension and insurance demands.

Those demands were revised last month to fit the recommendations of a presidential fact-finding board. U. S. Steel Corp., and other steel makers refused to accept the board's suggested peace formula for a company-financed and pension and insurance programs costing 10 cents more an hour per worker.

Lewis and soft coal operators from the northern and western mines had more words here today and recessed until next Tuesday, without progress in their strike talk. The same recess was taken by southern operators, who will resume their negotiations at Bluefield, W. Va., next Tuesday.

Congratulations to:

Former Ball Player Charged In Murder

AMARILLO, Oct. 14 (AP)—A first degree murder warrant was issued today for a 34-year-old former baseball player sought in the slaying of Alfred Clark, 23, Boise City, Okla.

The warrant for the arrest of Leonard (Lucky) Hawkins was issued in Jerseyville, Ill., near which Clark's body, shot through the head and robbed, was found Wednesday.

The search for Hawkins centered in Texas and New Mexico because of evidence that he returned to that section.

A charge of armed robbery against Hawkins was filed in Moore county in connection with an incident near Dalhart last Friday night.

Clark had been lured from his Clayton, N. M., cafe job with an offer to split a set of world series tickets.

Clark and a man companion left Clayton Oct. 3 in Clark's new car. Last Friday night Juanita Groves, 19, Dalhart, said she and her date were accosted near Dalhart by a man driving a car which she identified, from papers in it, as Clark's.

Hollywood Mystery Man Believed Known

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14 (INS) — Police today announced that they are "practically certain' they have established the identity of the mystery man referred to in a note left by pretty Jean Spangler, missing Hollywood dancer.

Authorities refused to reveal the identity of the "Kirk" cryptically referred to in the note found in Miss Spangler's battered purse two days after her disappearance.

They described him, however, as a former Hollywood promotion figure.

In the meantime, mystery into the film beauty's strange week-old disappearance deepened as authorities investigated the report that the girl may have gone on a yachting cruise.

Friends told police that the missing girl was a yachting enthusiast and that she oftentimes would take off on extended cruises.

The note in the girl's purse found in Griffith park read:

"Kirk: can't wait any longer. Going to see Dr. Scott. It will work best this way while mother is away."

Doctors named Scott were being asked to examine photographs of the missing dancer. The doctors previously had said that they did not know the Spangler girl, at least under that name.

Russia To Return Destroyers To U. S.

YOKOSUKA, Japan, Oct. 14 (INS)—Nine destroyer escorts lend-leased to Russia during the war will be formally returned to the United States next Tuesday.

An American naval officer who inspected the ships at the Japanese naval base at Yokosuka today reported they were in "superficially good condition." The officer, Lt. Comdr. Loren Henderson of San Francisco, said he would inpect the lower decks Sunday.

The Soviet naval officer in charge, Captain Korovkin, was non-committal on an American invitation offering freedom of the port to all Russian officers and crewmen. He said simply:

"Work comes first."

All Russian officers will be dinner guests Sunday at the home of the American commander of Yokosuka, Rear Adm. Benton Decker.

Workers To Strike Against Maior Aluminum Firm Monday

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 14 (AP) — The Aluminum Company of America and the CIO United steelworkers tonight broke off wage contract negotiations. A strike is set for 11:01 a.m. (CST) Monday.

The strike will affect 20,000 Alcoa workers in nine plants in nine states.

The steelworkers sought an undisclosed wage increase and a company-paid pension and insurance program. The pension and insurance demand was similar to the one which has closed down the nation's steel industry.

Ouster Is Rumored

son is worse than no unification at all.

These officials contend that the admiral's attitude makes it plain that as an ex-officio member of the joint chiefs he could not be expected to function with the necessary absence of bias.

Others To Testify

At Johnson's request, the other members of the joint chiefs, headed by Gen. Omar Bradley, will testify before the armed services committee next week, as will Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army chief of staff, today was ordered to return from Japan "immediately" to testify at "hearings before Congress vitally affecting unification of the armed services."

Collins left Washington Oct. 7 to inspect Army installations in the Far East and was not scheduled to return until Oct. 31.

Johnson and his top advisers are preparing to answer the Navy charges as well as those of Committee Chairman Vinson (D-Ga), who accused the defense secretary of making a "grandstand play" as an economy expert.

Economy Action Hit

Vinson charged that Johnson ordered "concealed" economies totaling $800 million in service funds for the 1950 fiscal year without congressional authorization.

Johnson is expected to reply that the slash is only tentative, that final figures depend upon Army, Navy and Air Force views, and that therefore it would have been impossible for him to give Congress authentic information at this time.

Air Force officials, whose mass-bombing plans were bitterly assailed by the Navy's top admirals, also are readying their defense to the explosive charges.

Navy Neglect Hinted

It was learned that air leaders will counterattack with a charge that the Navy, insisting upon full recognition of carrier aviation, has neglected submarine warfare.

Air Forces spokesmen are reported ready to point out that whereas Russia is known to have hundreds of undersea craft, the U. S. Navy has but 80 submarines in operation, only 23 of which are of postwar design.

Meanwhile, there were indications that the Navy has won strong congressional support for its plea that Johnson be overridden and construction authorized on the 65,000-ton supercarrier "United States," scrapped by the defense secretary's order last spring.

House Republican whip Arends of Illinois declared there is a "strong possibility" that the House will act to authorize construction of the huge carrier.

reached tomorrow to vote Saturday night.

GOP Holds Upper Hand

A handful of Republicans, supported by a few southern Democrats, held the upper hand in their battle to prevent passage of the DP bill. The measure would increase by almost 50 per cent the number of displaced Europeans to be admitted to the United States.

Adjournment-wise congressmen predicted that as soon as the Air Force and farm subsidy fights are resolved, the DP issue will be abandoned in the go-home rush because the current DP law runs through next June, and Congress can act when it reconvenes in January.

Senate Democratic and Republican leaders are trying to reach agreement on a voting time for the DP measure. Majority leader Lucas, Ill., is holding out for next week because he can not assemble his forces over the weekend.

Air Force Problem Tangled

The House knotted the Air Force tangle even tighter today when it rejected a Senate resolution permitting the armed services to spend at the current rate until Jan. 16.

The Senate wants a 48-group Air Force. The House is adamant for 58 groups. The fight has tied up the fifteen billion appropriation to finance all the armed services for the fiscal year which began last July 1.

Conferees on farm subsidies met today to no avail. The House wants a 90 per cent of parity farm price support. The Senate bill cuts supports to a sliding 75-90 per cent. If there is no action, the Aiken bill, reducing supports to 60-90 per cent, goes into effect Jan. 1.

Move Embarrassing

The Senate filibuster is embarrassing some leading Republicans who must run for re-election in 1950. These include Sens. Taft, Ohio and Dulles, N. Y. Dulles, who supports the DP bill, faces a fight against ex-Gov. Lehman.

Taft conferred today with Sen. Cain (R-Wash), who has led the filibuster. Senate Republican leader Wherry, Neb., and Sen. Ives (R-NY) also urged Cain to cut short his fight.

Sen. Morse (R-Ore) declared it was "too late" to remove the "tag that this is a Republican filibuster."

A senator who is in Europe joined the filibuster. Sen. McCarran (D-Nev), whose judiciary committee bottled up the measure for months, in a speech read by Sen. Johnson (D-Colo), attacked the DP liberalization as a "gigantic fraud" which would inundate the U. S. with a flood of aliens. McCarran is studying the DP situation abroad.

HALT TO DISMANTLING SOUGHT

West Germans Offer To Pay For Steel Plant Anywhere In World

By TOM AGOSTON
INS Staff Correspondent

BONN, Oct. 14. — A German informant said tonight the West German state has offered to pay for erection of a big steel plant "anywhere in the world" to produce reparations if dismantling of Ruhr plants is halted by the Western Allies.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer conferred for two hours today with the allied high commissioners headed by John J. McCloy of the United States before a German cabinet meeting. Then he and aides met with the commissioners for two and one-half hours more.

A communique merely said they discussed "varied subjects concerning the German and allied governments."

But a source close to the German government told International News Service that the Germans offered to reproduce another sprawling Thyssen Steel works somewhere abroad if the original Thyssen works is left intact in Germany.

Adenauer's plan includes the idea of a mixed foreign and German board of custodians for plants allowed to remain intact.

Under such a plan the Germans would produce machinery for shipment abroad.

In a letter accompanying their memorandum the Germans also offered additional security guarantees whose exact nature was not immediately learned.

Owners May Lose Control

If the German offer is accepted the western allies would in fact take over Ruhr industries scheduled for dismantling and operate them to their own profit inside Germany. Original owners would actually lose controlling rights and ownership.

Allied law no. 75 proides that future ownership of the Ruhr industries must be decided by the German government.

The whole dismantling controversy was fanned considerably last week by an interview given International News Service by McCloy. The American commissioner opposed "aimless" dismantling of German plants but demanded full security and reparations guarantees before it is halted.

West German state leaders naturally are treating the subject gingerly. They fear that they will become a better target for Soviet propagandists accusing them of "selling out to foreign interests."

London Starts Hunt For Cats Gone 'Native' Near Cathedral

LONDON, Oct. 14. (AP)—The hunt was on today for 20 near wild cats living in a "jungle" of weeds and bombed rubble near St. Paul's cathedral. They're domestic cats gone native.

A woman passerby was badly scratched by one this week.

Today officials of the people's dispensary for sick animals put down harmless traps baited with fish. Said one:

"We've got to catch them or the city will be overrun by these vicious creatures. They're having kittens in the ruins."

San Antonio District Begins Drive To Expel Illegal Aliens

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 14 (AP) — The border patrol today started a systematic drive to expel illegal aliens.

J. W. Holland, enforcement officer, said the drive was in the San Antonio district of the immigration and naturalization service—a district that takes in about two-thirds of Texas.

Holland said the patrol had been ordered first to arrest all unemployed aliens; second, to arrest aliens employed in non-agricultural jobs; third, to arrest those employed by farmers who have refused to cooperate with the immigration service under the U.S.-Mexico agreement regarding contract laborers.

He would not estimate how many aliens might be seized for deportation, but said the drive would take several weeks.

The biggest concentration of illegal aliens is expected to be found along the Mexican border from Del Rio to Brownsville and in the lower Rio Grande valley.

A week ago he improved and was able to sit in a wheel chair. Then he took a turn for the worse Wednesday.

Irene Dunne May Co-Star With MacMurray In 'Come Share My Love' At RKO Studios

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 14.—Looks very much as if Irene Dunne and Fred MacMurray will co-star in "Come Share My Love," Kay Swift's amusing book, for Harriet Parsons at RKO.

Irene hasn't made a picture since her highly successful "I Remember Mama," which was also made at RKO with Harriet as its producer. Now, Howard Hughes has given the "go" sign to Sidney Rogell, the studio's boss. All that remains is for a few details to be settled.

May I say that I think Irene and Fred will be a terrific comedy combination. I am glad Irene is going to do a comedy.

Future Role Planned

Here is something else about Irene Dunne. Charles Feldman tells me after she finishes "Come Share My Love," he wants her to star in "Tender Mercy," by Leonard Kaufman. Charles is lining up Irene and Charles Boyer, and hopes to make part of the picture in Europe next year.

It is a drama, and one of Feldman's favorite stories. Irene has really been off the screen much too long, and it is nice to know she is making plans to return. She has had dozens and dozens of offers.

New Story Scheduled

While I was having dinner with Joseph Schenck, Joseph Moskowitz and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brand, I was introduced to Jules Blaustein, who told me "Old Eighty-Eight," the story of a counterfeiter, published in the New Yorker, is being readied by him for 20th Century-Fox.

Robert Riskin, just signed by 20th, is writing the screenplay of this character study of a counterfeiter of the Milquetoast type, who makes spurious bills, and does well until the law catches up with him.

Since Mr. Blaustein has no casting ideas I'll give him a few. How about Edmund Gwynn or Barry Fitzgerald, if he can be had?

Couple Separates Again

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Louis Hayward and Peggy Morrow are separated again. This time it looks final.

Nora Flynn and Dick Haymes will get that honeymoon trip to England after all, because Dick has signed to go into the London Palladium at $12,500 a week. If they do any traveling I wonder if they will meet Errol Flynn?

The new home of Jacqueline Dalya and her husband burned to the ground in the valley yesterday.

Now it is Ginger Rogers 20th Century-Fox is talking about as Betty Grable's replacement in "My Blue Heaven."

Good Will Trip Important

This will be the biggest turnout of stars for the Command performance ever sent to England. That's because the Producers association thinks it is important now to send these goodwill ambassadors. Robert Young is slated to go, Gregory Peck has been invited, and many others.

Jack Oakie, minus 40 pounds, at the Kings restaurant proudly parading his loss of weight.

Gloria Lloyd and Bill Guasti, of the rich wine company, are happy when they are in each other's company.

Paramount swears that Joan Fontaine has sent her acceptance to the opening of "The Heiress," Olivia de Havilland's picture. What an opening that will be—the Gary Coopers, the Van Johnsons, and every big star in town wants to see Livvie and Montgomery Clift.

Judge Rules Against Cheesecake At Sally Rand's Court Hearing

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP) — Judge Dallas Blankenship of 101st district court ruled today there would be "no cheesecake" at fan dancer Sally Rand's hearing Tuesday.

Miss Rand is being sued by two showmen who claim she owes them 50 per cent of the profits of her show now playing on the midway at the State Fair of Texas.

The showmen, Robert Peck and James Hess of Chicago, claim that Miss Rand's appearance at the fair is a breach of an earlier contract.

They claim that they were hired to furnish all "girlie" shows at the fair, and they state that the hiring of Miss Rand was done without their approval.

Judge Blankenship ruled that the hearing would be public, but "there will be no cheesecake on or off the witness stand."

Commission Okays Halt In Rail Service

AUSTIN, Oct. 14 (AP)—Authorizations for discontinuance of two Texas passenger train schedules were announced today by the railroad commission.

Permits for the discontinuances were issued to the International-Great Northern Railroad company for its passenger trains Nos. 37 and 38 between San Antonio and Laredo and to the Wichita Valley Railway company for passenger trains Nos. 111 and 112 between Wichita Falls and Abilene.

The orders were signed by Commissioners Ernest Thompson and Olin Culberson but Culberson took exception to both.

Culberson said he signed them only because "it is the law."

"Under the decision of the supreme court of Texas in both the Palacios and Yoakum cases there is nothing this commission can do when a showing is made that 'the particular train' is not profitable, except grant its discontinuance," he said, adding:

"I have never been able to find a case where such doctrine has been enunciated before. I do not think the 'public convenience' was considered in the least by the court. However much, though, I disagree with such a decision it is the law and it is only becaure of this that I join this order."

A public hearing was held at Seymour Sept. 13 on discontinuance of the Wichita Falls-Abilene schedule and at Cotulla Aug. 16 on the San Antonio-Laredo route.

Financial loss was alleged for the schedules at both hearings.

Westerners Down Pampa, 33-20, In Bitter Tilt

14,000 Watch As Harvesters Launch Big Counter Attack

By AL WILLIAMS
Avalanche Sports Writer

The rivalry existing between Lubbock and Pampa high school elevens flared again last night at Jones Stadium, and 14,000 persons watched the Harvesters hold the heavily-favored Westerners to a 33 to 20 victory.

The victory was the fifth straight for Lubbock this season, and it was the most bitterly contested game thus far. Pampa refused to be counted out of the chase after serving notice on the opening kickoff that the team had come to the Hub City to play football, taking the offensive with a drive that fizzled on the Cowpokes' two-yard line.

Almost Like Last Year

The game was almost a repetition of last year's contest which Pampa won, 26-19, after trailing, 19-6, at halftime. In last night's affair the Harvesters trailed, 20-7, at halftime and made a strong comeback, but Lubbock got the first jump early in the third quarter when left Halfback Wayne Stroud ran 90 yards over left tackle for the deciding tally on the third play of the new half.

Pampa effectively penetrated the Lubbock defense to run up 18 first downs to 16 for the winners, and chalked up 366 yards passing and running, with the Westerners gaining 382.

Seven Harvester passes were completed in 15 attempts, and one reason the percentage wasn't better was because passes were too long or wide. Two were intercepted. One Pampa touchdown came on an 18-yard aerial, and another score was set up by a 22-yard heave. Quarterback and passer was Carroll Smith, and his performance was bettered by the hard running of left Halfback Jimmy Hayes who accounted for 134 yards on the ground in 10 carries, breaking loose on runs of 32 and 46 yards before being pulled in on both occasions by Quarterback Bobby Brown of Lubbock. Fullback Carl Kennedy scored twice for Pampa.

Young Leads Squad

Workhorse of the Lubbock squad was Fullback Malcolm Young, who carried the pigskin 15 times for 86 net yards and the first score of the game. Halfback Stroud carried five times, scored twice, and turned in 118 yards from scrimmage. Righ Halfback Charlie Williams put the game on ice with a 16-yard touchdown gallop to run his day's work to 102 yards on 10 carries. In addition to calling plays, Brown ran a punt back 85 yards for the second score and completed three of five passes, all to End Garnet Reeves, for 66 yards.

Line play was hard and rough throughout the game, and defensive standouts were the Ends Billy Wright and Reeves, with Tackles Joe Brock and Douglas Ross doing much to slow up the Harvester ground game. Guard Freddy Gray and Substitute Curtis Roberts were at the bottom of many tackles, with Williams and Douglas Wienke turning in their topnotch line-backing performances.

Stroud Helps Locals

For Pampa Back Pete Cooper, End Tom Allison and Center Taylor were instrumental in limiting the yardage gained by the Westerners.

After stopping a Pampa drive on Lubbock's four-yard stripe following the kickoff, Stroud got the Westerners out of a hole with a booming 80-yard punt which was runback to the Pampa 30. A fumble gave Lubbock the ball on the 30, and two plays later Young went over left guard for 26 yards and the score, with Billy Pressley converting.

In the second quarter Stroud received a punt on his own 15 and handed off to Brown who went all the way for the score, with Pressley converting for his 14th straight time.

An intercepted pass by Brown on the 50 made the third score possible, and Stroud circled right end for 19 yards and the tally. Following the kickoff Pampa went 64-yards on six plays, with Fullback Kennedy climaxing the drive with a 31-yard gallop to paydirt on a pitchout from Smith with 30 seconds left in the half.

Pampa Rolls Back

Stroud's long run on the third play from scrimmage and Pressley's conversion put the Westerners out in front in the third quarter, 27-7, the run being made possible by Brock's key block.

Pampa came back to score twice and pull within seven points of the Westerners, with Kennedy plunging over for one score and Smith passing to Halfback Pete Cooper for 18-yards and the final Thresher score to end an 87- yard drive.

The Cowboys went 52 yards for the last touchdown after Pampa's kickoff was returned 24 yards by Young. Williams went over from the 16 on an end sweep, sidestepping Hayes nicely to go into the clear.

Another Lubbock drive was halted on the Pampa eight-yard marker by a fumble late in the quarter. Late in the third quarter Lubbock again went to the eight, but an attempted fourth down pass by Brown was stopped when Pampa's Taylor broke through to stop the play.

Kermit, Andrews Battle To Tie

ANDREWS, Oct. 14 (Special)—Kermit and Andrews tonight battled to a bitter 12-12 tie in the week's feature District 5-A football game, as Coach Francis Tubb's Andrews team narrowly missed upsetting the first-place Yellow Jackets.

The final gun checked a determined Mustang drive on the Kermit two-yard line as the Andrews team was lining up for another crack at pay dirt.

The game will count as a half-game won, half-game lost for each team in the district standings. As a result, Kermit, which now has five victories and one tie remains in first place in the ten-team loop.

Kermit drew first scoring blood when a long pass clicked for a touchdown, but Jack Smith pulled in the ensuing kickoff on his 10-yard line and scampered 90 yards through the Kermit team for an Andrews touchdown that knotted the count at 6-6.

Late in the third quarter, Kermit checked an Andrews march on the Yellow Jacket one-yard line, took over possession of the ball, and drove 99 yards to score.

Andrews bounced back with a 60-yard scoring march midway through the final period. Enoch Reed ended the drive by smashing into the end zone from eight yards out for the tying touchdown.

First downs were all even at 12-12. Andrews led in 20-yard-line penetrations, 5-3, but under a District 5-A agreement tie games are not decided by penetrations.

Bauer Advances To Finals In Open

FORT WORTH, Oct. 14. (AP)—Medalist Marlene Bauer of Los Angeles moved into the finals of the Women's Texas Open here with a 1-up victory today over Betty Mackinnon of Mt. Pleasant, Texas.

The 15-year-old lass will meet another Californian, Beverly Hanson of Indio, in the 36-hole finals Sunday over the River Crest country club course.

Beverly, eliminated Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga., 4 and 3.

Both Marlene and Betty were four over par 75 for the distance. Beverly ran up a 3-up margin on the front nine and when she closed the match out on No. 15 was two over par.

Wilson Overpowers Flomot In 4-B Six-Man Game, 44-0

WILSON, Oct. 14. (Special)—Wilson overpowered Flomot here tonight before 1,000 fans in a District 4-B six-man football game, 44-0.

Wilson kept its record clean with its fourth victory of the year without defeat. The winners rolled up 12 first downs to Flomot's three and dominated play in all respects. A host of backs took part in the scoring.

Wilson scored seven points in the first quarter, 13 in the second and 12 each in the third and fourth periods.

Sudan Beats Levelland; Crosbyton Wins, 20-6

Favored Lobos Are Outclassed

By HANK McKEE
Avalanche Sports Writer

SUDAN, Oct. 14 (Special)—A free-passing, hard-running Sudan eleven outclassed the favored Levelland Lobos, 26-7, before an estimated 2,500 chilled spectators in Masten stadium here tonight.

The victory moved the Hornets into a two-way tie with Littlefield in District 4-A North.

Sudan, behind only once after it powered across its first touchdown in eight minutes of the opening quarter, wound up a tight first half leading 12-7 after another tally in the second quarter. then moved on to demoralize the Lobos with another seven points in each of the remaining stanzas.

The Lobos' lone touchdown came near the end of the first period when Left Halfback Perry Heard skirted right end for 24 yards. Coach Truett Rattan's charges set up the score when Quarterback Dee Windsor returned a Hornet punt to his own 40, Heard and Windsor splitting the distance between that point and the Sudan 24 with a series of end sweeps. Heard kicked the point.

Sudan returned the ball to its own 30 on the opening kickoff, keeping possession for 70 yards. and the first six points of the game when wing back Clifford Johnston went over from the five with a pass from Tommy Sherrill. Fullback Ross Hammock's kick was no good.

The Hornets added six points shortly before the end of the half when Hammock went over from the one. Hammock's kick again went wild.

In the second half, it was the Hornets all the way. Coach F. M. Smith's boys traded punts with the Lobos, then settled down to a passing and running attack which sent Hammock over from the five in the third period, and Sherrill across from the 25 late in the fourth.

A run by Hammock, and a pass from Sherrill to G. W. Maxfield counted for the conversions.

Sherrill and Hammock in the backfield and Buddy Wiseman, Buddy Whitmire and Ballard Montgomery in the line starred for Sudan, while Backs Perry Heard, Dee Windsor and Don Wise handled their assignments well for Levelland.

The game ended with Levelland on the winners' 15 yard line.

Scoring summary—Sudan touchdowns: Sherrill passed to Johnston in the end zone from the five in the 1q; Hammock failed to kick the extra point. Hammock went over from the one in the 2q on a line buck, and again failed to kick the point. In the 3q Hammock scored from the five on a line plunge, then ran across the extra point. Sherrill wound up the touchdowns with a 25-yard sweep around right end in the 4q. A pass from Sherrill to Maxfield added the point. Levelland touchdown: Heard skirted right end from the Hornet 24. His kick was good.

Sudan starters—Maxfield, le; Humphreys, lt; Ackinson, lg; Graves, c; Montgomery, rg; Wiseman, rt; Whitmire, re; Johnston, wb; Crouch, bb; Hammock, fb; Sherrill, tb.

Levelland starters—Billingsley, le; Byerly, lt; Davis, lg; Spence, c; Sneed, rg; Kennedy, rt; Bailey, re; Windsor, qb; Heard, lh D Waltrip, rh; Johnson, fb.

Sudan subs—Bobby Lynch, Don Crouch, Don Patterson, and Harlan Pickett.

Levelland subs—Gene Billingsley, Gene Cardinal, John Branch, Clyde Grappe, U Dell Hood, Harvey Campbell, Glen Clarkson, Jim Luker, Bill Taylor and Don Wise.

Abilene Upsets Odessa, 39 To 6

ABILENE, Oct. 14 (Special)—Coach Pete Shotwell's Abilene Eagles stunned Texas football circles here tonight with a crushing 39-6 victory over the powerful Odessa Broncos before 8,000 fans, 2,000 of whom had come from Odessa expecting to see the Broncs roll up an easy victory.

The Eagles fought tooth and nail to hold a 6-6 tie at the half and then broke the Odessa defense wide open with a second half attack that netted 33 points.

It was the worst defeat in the history of the series that began in 1939.

Abilene players swarmed Odessa backs at every turn tonight. They rushed the passers before they could cock their arms, they smothered the runners before they could get started and they blocked two punts.

Abilene had 17 first downs to 13 for Odessa, but the story of the game was in rushing. The Eagles rolled up 248 yards, of which 213 were net, while Odessa had 85 yards, of which only 14 were net.

Odessa tried 23 passes, completed 10 for 114 yards, Abilene tried seven aerials and completed four for 37 yards. Abilene intercepted two passes, Odessa none.

It was a complete rout in the second half, with the Broncs taking one of the worst lickings in

PAMPA FIGHTS BACK — Never giving up although behind 27-7 in the third period of the Westerner-Harvester game last night at Jones Stadium, the Pampans scored when Fullback Carl Kennedy went over from less than one yard out to give the visitors new hope. The Threshers pulled up to within seven points of Lubbock early in the fourth quarter before bowing, 33 to 20. Kennedy, indicated by the arrow above, is shown taking a handoff from Quarterback Carroll Smith and crashing over the goal line in a big pile up. Lubbock players, left to right, are Halfback Wayne Stroud (51), Tackle Curtis Roberts (73), Center Douglas Wienke (67), Fullback Malcolm Young, and an unidentified official. Chiefs Trounce Abernathy Team

By CLIFF BLACKBURN
Avalanche Sports Writer

CROSBYTON, Oct. 14. (Special)—Crosbyton's Chiefs, in one of the big upsets of the year, scalped the Abernathy Antelopes, 20-6, in a district 3-A conference tilt here tonight before a crowd of about 2,300 fans. Prior to this defeat, the Antelopes were leading the district.

The slightly heavier Chiefs opened up their offensive as soon as the game started. Before the startled Antelopes could tighten their defenses, Chief Fullback Russell Halder tossed a 35-yard pass to Back Charlie Wheeler and the Chiefs were on the Abernathy eight-yard line. Halder scored through center on the next play. Hargis kicked the extra point.

Toward the end of the quarter, the Chiefs went on the warpath again. Halder took to the air and two passes to Hargis put them on the Antelope 15 as the quarter closed.

Another pass from Halder, this time to Stephenson, put the Chiefs again deep in scoring territory. Halder went over center from the six several plays later to score. The kick for the extra point failed.

An Antelope fumble on the kickoff was recovered by the Chiefs on the Abernathy 25-yard line and once more the Chiefs were in the scoring slot. A 15-yard dash by Hargis set up the third score. Back Sam Covington took a lateral from Wheeler and went nine yards around end for a Chief touchdown. Hargis again kicked the extra point.

The Chiefs kicked off to the Antelopes and Abernathy Back Verlan Barron took the ball on the run and twisted and squirmed his way back to the Crosbyton 18-yard line before he was cut down from the rear by Covington. A ten-yard pass from Fullback Wayne Wolf to Barron brought the ball to the Chief six. Back Jimmy Miller scored the lone Antelope tally when he went over guard moments later. Snodgrass failed to make the extra point.

As the half neared Center Billy Peel of Crosbyton tried to break up a pass play near midfield and in the tangle suffered a broken left leg. An ambulance pulled onto the field and he was taken to the hospital. This dampened the Chief's victory. Peel, along with Linemen Savage, Hash, Brewer and McMellan, played an outstanding game, both on defense and offense.

The final two quarters saw two goal threats, one by each squad, fizzle inches from paydirt. In the third quarter, the Antelopes battered against the strong Chief line from the two-yard line for two plays and lost the ball on downs. In the final frame, the Chiefs lost the ball on downs on the Antelope five-yard line.

The game ended with a flurry of unsuccessful Antelope passes. Coach Fred Cunningham's Chiefs made 11 first downs, gained 209 yards rushing, and threw 15 passes, five of which were completed. Coach Boyce Box's Antelopes picked up nine first downs, a total of 85 yards rushing and threw eight passes, two of which were completed.

Slaton's Tigers Score 12 To 0 Triumph Over Morton Indians

1,500 See Bengals Gain Fourth Win

By JIMMIE HENLEY
Avalanche Sports Writer

SLATON, Oct. 14.—Slaton's Tigers scored via every route—touchdown, extra point, field goal and safety—tonight to score a 12-0 non-conference win over the Morton Indians.

A crowd of 1,500 fans, including 300 Morton rooters brought here by special train, saw the Tigers register their fourth win of the year.

In the first quarter after Morton's initial drive, sparked by Clifford Wall, was brought to standstill on the Slaton 20, the Tigers took over behind the power of Fullback Ed Willis.

Willis alternated with Halfback Bob Lambert in driving the ball downfield to the Morton 25, where the Tigers were set back with a 15-yard penalty. Willis and Carl Lewis went through the line for short gains to set up for the initial Tiger tally.

Halfback Lewis on a handoff from Cecil Bybee, shot a pass from the Morton 25 to Jerry Huckabay, 164-pound junior who alternates at center and end. He scooted on the few remaining yards to pay dirt. Quarterback Cecil Bybee converted.

The remainder of the first two periods was filled with long runs and short line plunges that put the two teams about equal in yardage at half. Morton led in yards gained rushing at the half with 112 for 6 first downs, but Slaton led in first downs with 9 from 108 yards rushing.

Fumbles by both teams stopped scoring threats. Morton fumbled on its 38. The Tigers took over to drive to the 10 where their second scoring threat of the first period ended in a fumble.

The first half ended with Slaton on the Indian 20 after having recovered a Morton fumble on a punt runback by Ross Smith.

Guard Roland German and Tackle Carl Williams sparked the defense for Coach Clarence Tillery's Tigers. Tackles Ted Wood and Jimmy Chapman played outstanding ball for Coach Melvin Crawford's Morton team.

The Indians successfully held the Tigers outside the 20-yard line through the third period, tak-

Olton Takes Over 3-B Leadership With 13 To 0 Win Over Dimmitt

DIMMITT, Oct. 14 (Special)—Coach T. M. Cox's Olton Mustangs tonight took over leadership of District 3-B by defeating the Dimmitt Bobcats, 13-0.

It was the first loss of the season for Dimmitt, and the fifth consecutive conference triumph for the Mustangs, who now lead Hale Center by one-half game in the district standings.

A crowd estimated at 2,000 persons, many of whom drove here from Olton, saw the Mustangs take a 13-0 halftime lead, then protect their margin through the last two quarters.

Halfback Gerald Allcorn opened the scoring in the first quarter with a touchdown, but Quarterback Jimmy Millsap's try for point missed.

Right End Garland Rose added another six-pointer in the second period. This time Millsap hit the extra point.

Coach J. W. Blaine's Bobcats led in first downs, 10-8, with Quarterback Douglas Dennis and Guard Billy Murphy playing outstanding ball.

For the victorious Mustangs, Allcorn, Rose and Huck Nichols turned in stellar performances.

Ropesville Eagles Outdistance Plains Cowboy Eleven, 51 To 0

ROPES, Oct. 14 (Special)—In a District 4-B conference game here tonight, the Plains Cowboys were outdistanced by the Ropesville Eagles, 51-0.

Offensive stars for the Ropes eleven were Glenn Hewlett, fullback, and Kenneth Means, tailback. Means made a number of long runs and Hewlett plunged for much yardage.

The score was 19-0 at the half.

Billy Willis and Richard Arand, in addition to Means and Hewlett, did most of the scoring for the Eagles.

Plains' outstanding player was Bob Grayson, who did a large part of the passing and running for his team.

Plains made two first downs, with no penetrations, while the victorious Eagles had 17 first downs and eight penetrations.

Doyle Champion, Eagle co-captain and right end, suffered an injured ankle in tonight's first play.

Hale Center Defeats Amherst Eleven, 18-6, In 3-B Tussle

AMHERST, Oct. 14. (Special)—Hale Center preserved its perfect District 3-B record here tonight by downing a hard-fighting Amherst eleven, 18-6, before approximately 1,000 fans.

It was the fourth straight conference win for the Owls.

Amherst scored early in the game when it took the initial kickoff and in three plays crossed the double stripe.

The visiting Owls came to life with a bang and promptly scored the first of their three touchdowns. The other two Hale Center scores came in the third and fourth quarters.

Snyder Tigers Down Roby Eleven, 20-6

ROBY, Oct. 14. (Special)—Snyder's Tigers outbattled Roby in a District 6-A conference game here tonight, pushing over two first-period touchdowns and adding a third in the fourth for a 20-6 victory, the first for the Tigers in conference play.

Billy "Rip" Boss set up two of the scores on blocked punts. His first blocked punt was picked up by Tackle Robbie Floyd, who went 40 yards to score. His second blocked punt was recovered by the Tigers and Max Coffee passed 19 yards to Billy John Voss to put the ball on the three-yard line. Coffee powered over and James kicked the extra point.

In the final stanza, Coffee took a Lion punt on the 30-yard line and rambled 70 yards for the final score, with Bowers converting.

Roby finally marched 40 yards for its lone score of the game late in the same quarter.

Snyder piled up 12 first downs and 209 yards rushing, while Roby had seven first downs and 177 yards rushing.

Boss, Floyd and Quarterback Coffee were the outstanding players for the winners.

Bears Heavy Favorites To Stop Tech

18,000 Expected To Attend Game

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

Baylor's big, confident Bears furnish the competition for a good aggressive Texas Tech Red Raider eleven in Jones Stadium at 2:30 this afternoon before a Homecoming crowd that is expected to fill the stadium to an overflow capacity of 18,000.

All the odds point to a comfortable Bear victory in the tenth renewal of this old rivalry. The visitors, under the skillful tutelage of Coach Bob Woodruff, have rolled to four straight vietories this year and are on top the Southwest Conference standings at present. Tech, under the equally capable handling of Coach Dell Morgan, have lost a pair to Southwest Conference elevens, but have wiped out three other opponents.

Good Weather Seen

The weatherman has predicted clear skies and cool temperatures, with the sun warming up during the late morning until it's about 70 plus at game time. A light breeze probably will blow.

But this is Homecoming Saturday and thousands of football fans remember well last year's Rice game, when the Owls, overwhelming favorites, almost met defeat. Tech is expected to be up for this game and it could be a close battle, even though most gridiron predictions place Tech under at least a 13-point handicap.

Adrian Burk, Baylor sparkplug last week had a field day against Arkansas, when his passes sent the Bears rolling along to a 35-13 victory. Burk, a compact six foot, two inch, 185 pounder, is liquid dynamite with his passing. Arkansas Coach John Barnhill called him "the greatest living passer I've seen."

Burk's aerials usually find their way into the arms of End J. D. Ison, a six footer who weighs a solid 190 pounds. But Burk also finds the halfbacks a good target and such speedsters as James Parker, James Jeffrey, Llye Blackwood, Dudley Parker and Frank McKinney.

Mangum To Be Threat

Along with the aerial threat, the Raiders must guard against the plunging of Fullback Jerry Mangum, a six foot, 190-pound line crasher. Mangum is no stranger to the Raiders, nor is Frank Boydstun, who weighs 195 pounds and stands five feet 11.

The line also poses a threat to Raider hopes. Coach Woodruff's forward wall will average between 195 and 200 pounds, with Tech giving away five to ten pounds a man. All but one tackle is over six feet and not one of them weighs less than 200 pounds. The guards are a little shorter and a shade lighter, but not much.

But the Raiders aren't discouraged, despite what seems to be overwhelming Bear force. The defensive team showed power in holding Tulsa to 34 yards on the ground and 50 yards in the air last week. Moreover, the pass defense was clicking last week better than at any other time.

And most of the top Tech backs are ready to go today. Halfback Bill Barbee still isn't recovered from a shoulder dislocation and Halfabck Walter Maloney is suffering from a sprained ankle, but such backs as Ike Stuver, Bobby Close, Tim Hatch, Cal Steveson and Herman Bailey are ready to run.

Fullback J. W. Thompson injured his right hand in practice, but probably will be ready for some action. The other two piledrivers, Bud Conley and Earl Jackson, will be ready for full duty.

The quarterback slot will be manned by three players, all of whom can pass and have been directing the Raiders in good shape. Ernest Hawkins, who completed the only four passes completed by the Raiders last week, probably will start. In line for early service are Bill Lyman and Milton Rathbone.

Coach Woodruff, who brought 47 players to Lubbock by air yesterday, expressed doubt on the eve of the game. He mentioned that he had several injuries to key men and while they made the trip, none of them was ready to play hard ball for any length of time.

The Bear mentor also had high praise for Rathbone's passing and expressed further doubt that the Baylor line would be able to handle the Techsans. Coach Woodruff said that Tech had done a remarkably fine job of stopping Tulsa and Tulsa's line was good.

But this is Homecoming and past records, which show five Baylor victories and a tie in the nine games played so far, can be tossed out the window. It has the making of a fine game and an added thrill for Homecomers.

FIELD TRIALS SLATED

QUANAH, Oct. 14. (AP)—The annual field trials and bench show of the North Texas-Oklahoma Fox and Wolf Hunters' association will be held near here Oct. 25-26.

Floydada Tames Paducah, 12 To 6

FLOYDADA, Oct. 14 (Special)—Coach L. F. Gresham's Floydada Whirlwind tamed a hard fighting Paducah Dragon eleven 12-6 here tonight before a crowd of 1,200 fans who turned out in perfect football weather to witness the District 3-A battle.

The Whirlwind was never behind, drawing first blood when Back Wayne Robertson slanted off right tackle from the Paducah 27-yard line to score standing up early in the first quarter. The touchdown came at the end of a 73-yard drive that saw Floydada eat up yards both on the ground and in the air. Bob Finley's kick for extra point failed.

During the second period the teams battled evenly until midway in the period when the Dragons penetrated to the Floydada four-yard line. They lost the ball there on downs. The last play of the first half found the Whirlwind back down field and on the visitors' one-foot line.

The winning Floydada score came midway in the third quarter when Back Bill Smith rammed over from the nine. The play was set up on a pass interception by Center Aubrey Guthrie.

Paducah scored its lone touchdown late in the final period when Quarterback Joe Clark plunged over from the one-yard line. On the previous play, Clark had hit end H. A. Lee with a 30-yard pass to set up the score. Clark tried to run the extra point and was stopped.

The visitors made a total of nine first downs to the Whirlwinds' 14. Paducah gained only 16 yards net to 241 for the home eleven.

Power-Laden Farwell Drubs Spade, 33-6

FARWELL, Oct. 14. (Special)—Farwell's Steers powered their way to their third victory of the year in District 3-B with a 33-6 win over the outclassed Spade Longhorns here tonight before 500 fans.

Farwell broke the scoring ice with a touchdown on Don Ford's 20-yard run around end and Melvin Terry pitched to Cary Magness for the extra point.

Fullback Don Prentice took the ensuing kickoff and returned it 70 yards for Spade's only score. The extra point attempt failed.

After that it was a parade of scores for the Steers. Jerry Pool hit paydirt for the second touchdown in the second quarter when he rambled 60 yards off tackle.

Three touchdowns were counted in the third stanza. Ford passed 20 yards to Magness and Ford booted the extra point. Minutes later Pool romped 75 yards on a punt return and the scoring bee ended with a pass that carried 60 yards in the air from Ford to Melvin Terry for the final touchdown. Ford again kicked the extra point.

Prentice was the outstanding Spade player, while Tackle Bob Dollar, End Cary Magness and Center John Christian were the top Farwell linemen. Ford, Pool and Terry were Steer standouts in the backfield.

Meadow's Bronchos Romp Over Petersburg Buffaloes, 45-14

MEADOW, Oct. 14. (Special)—Meadow's Bronchos, their sights set on the District 4-B grid championship, tonight laced the Petersburg Buffaloes, 45-14, before 500 fans.

It was Meadow's third straight win in conference play, and Petersburg's third loss against two victories.

Tailback Robert White paced the Bronchos' offensive, scoring four of his team's seven touchdowns.

Coach Lloyd Hunt's squad, one of the few remaining undefeated and untied football aggregations on the South Plains, scored once in the first quarter, twice in the second, once in the third and three times in the final stanza.

Petersburg, sparked by Kenneth Meadows, scored its touchdowns in the second and fourth periods.

Deadly Passing Attack Hurts Cubs

Plainview Tramples Brownfield, 33 To 0

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 14 (Special)—Scoring in every quarter, the Plainview Bulldogs tonight ground out a 33-0 non-conference Class AA triumph over Brownfield's luckless Cubs.

Coach W. C. O. Harris' Bulldogs, flashing a deadly passing attack which scored eight completions in 11 tries, outgained the game Brownfield club, 336 yards net to 178. However, Coach Tracy Kellow's Cubs registered 14 first downs to 10 for the victors.

Fumble Starts March

The battling Brownfield team held the favored visitors scoreless through the first eight minutes of play. Then Plainview, after recovering a fumble on the Cub 29, marched to scoring territory with Fullback Jack Howton and Halfback Tom Caskey sparking the drive. Howton hammered over center for the final two yards, then placekicked the extra point.

Howton scored again in the second stanza, taking a 15-yard pass from Quarterback Dale Scott and running five additional yards to pay dirt. Howton again converted.

Plainview wasted no time in the second half, taking the kickoff and powering 61 yards to another touchdown. Halfback Otis Ratliff covered the last 10 yards in the march. Howton's try for point was wide, leaving the score 20-0.

The Bulldogs counted again in the third period after Sherwood Holley intercepted a Cub pass on the Plainview 23. Scott's quarterback sneak from one yard out produced the touchdown that capped the 77-yard drive. Howton's kick for point was blocked.

Ratliff Tallies

The final Plainview tally came on Ratliff's 11-yard sprint through right tackle, after a 74-yard advance sparked by the Scott-to-Holly pass combination. Howton kicked the extra point.

Brownfield's Willis McNiel checked another Plainview threat late in the fourth quarter by intercepting a Bulldog pass and returning it 33 yards to the Cub 40.

For the outclassed Brownfield team, Tackles Dean Murphy and Howard Swan and Center John Franks were outstanding in the line, while Quarterback Dale Cary turned in a good defensive game.

With Howton, Scott and Ratliff showing the way, however, the visiting Bulldogs held the upper hand most of the way.

Springlake High Rolls Up 25-7 3-B Triumph Over Friona Squad

SPRINGLAKE, Oct. 14 (Special)—Springlake High school rolled to an unexpectedly easy 25-7 victory over the Friona Chiefs here tonight before 500 fans in a District 3-B conference game.

The Wolverines scored in every quarter, although making eight first downs, the same as Friona. Springlake power in the line proved the difference.

Junior Smith scored two of the winners' touchdowns, although his finest effort, a 75-yard punt return, was stopped short of a score when he was hauled down from behind. It set up a touchdown, however. J. J. Barlow passed 42 yards to Smith for the second touchdown by that back.

Barlow also found his way to payoff territory when he ambled 20 yards and Roy Dale Underwood brought the scoring to an end with a 12-yard jaunt that capped a sustained drive.

The lone Friona score came when Tommy Lacewell went 60 yards for a tally and then converted.

Earl Jordan, Springlake tackle, was the outstanding lineman on the field, while Lacewell was the top Friona player.

SMU, RICE FROSH TIE

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Southern Methodist university's freshmen and the Rice Owlets battled to a scoreless tie today. Fullback Buddy Fornes paced Rice getting 58 yards. Sam Stollenwerck of SMU completed seven of 21 passes for 56 yards.

Hubs, Denver City Tangle Here Sunday

Denver City, winners of the Oil Belt league playoffs, will return the call made by the Lubbock Hubbers last Sunday with a nine-inning game at Rosenthal field tomorrow.

Manager Jackie Sullivan said that the game would begin at 2:30 p.m., with Bob Clodfelter hurling for the Hubbers against Lefty Epperson for the Gassers. Tickets will sell at the regular season price.

The lineup the Hubbers will present is not unlike a roster of minor leagues. For centerfield, Manager Sullivan has secured Wilcy Moore, who will be remembered for his service with the Clovis Pioneers. Moore since has been sold to the Chicago Cubs.

Bob Marquis, who was with the Binghampton Barons of the Eastern league, a Class A circuit, will be at first base. Marquis, a Lubbock boy, played a big part in the Binghampton triumph in the playoffs of the Eastern league.

Frank McAlexander, who played third base for the Hubbers for two years and who this year was with Corpus Christi, will be back at his usual hot corner.

Don Moore, who played for Saginaw of the Class A Central league this year, after service in Lubbock and other points in the West Texas-New Mexico league, will catch.

Other members of the Lubbock nine will be Sullivan at second, Nelson Davis at shortstop, Mike Dooley in rightfield and Charley Willis in leftfield.

Charles Howard's Noor Wins First Race In United States

SAN MATEO, Calif., Oct. 14. (INS) Noor, a horse Charles S. Howard purchased from the fabulous Aga Khan, won in his first race in the United States today.

The expensive English bred horse took the Harold's Club Plate at Bay Meadows by a nose.

Noor was left at the gate in the six furlong test but Jockey Basil James hustled him out to the front. He was tiring near the end but managed to win over the fast closing Frankly.

Jockey Jackie Westrope, aboard Frankly, lodged a claim of foul but it was not allowed.

Post Rolls Over Tahoka, 70 To 0

TAHOKA, Oct. 14 (Special)—Quarterback Jack Kirkpatrick scored two touchdowns and passed for six more tonight as he led Post's Antelopes to a stunning 70-0 triumph over the Tahoka Bulldogs in a District 4-A South game.

Post's win was not unexpected, as Tahoka had not broken into the victory column this year, but the margin of triumph by Francis Bingham's club shocked a Tahoka homecoming gathering of 2,000 fans.

Norman Cash, who scored three touchdowns, shared the offensive spotlight with Kirkpatrick, a sophomore who has shown rapid development on the gridiron this season.

Coach Francis Bingham's Antelopes, defending bi-district champs, started slowly, scoring only seven points in the initial quarter. But they exploded for 26 points in the second stanza as they took complete charge. Twelve more points in the third period and 25 in the fourth rounded out the scoring.

Meantime, the tight Post defense almost completely bottled Tahoka's attack. Coach Jim Foust's Bulldogs registered a total of only four first downs.

Cash opened the scoring with a 78-yard touchdown gallop in the first quarter.

Then Kirkpatrick took over. He ran 10 yards for the second tally, passed 22 yards to Jerry Odom for the third, returned a punt 40 yards for the fourth, and passed 11 yards to Billy Jones for the fifth. He also added three extra points to give Post a comfortable 33-0 margin at halftime.

Cash dashed 22 yards for a counter in the third quarter, and later scampered 95 yards for another. Kirkpatrick came back with a 21-yard touchdown romp, then shot a 21-yard pass to Roy Wade. A 13-yard pass, Kirkpatrick-to-Bobby Terry, netted another score, and a 40-yard pass-and-run play from Kirkpatrick to Cash closed the scoring.

It was Post's third straight win in District 4-A South play, and left the Antelopes needing only a win over Slaton to sew up the south half title.

Texas League Club Owners Wind Up Fall Meet In Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Texas league club owners wound up their fall meeting today with a decision that no club would make a commitment beyond 1950 for television broadcasts.

Each club will handle television individually so long as there is no conflict with current baseball law governing it.

Spur's Bulldogs Beat Lockney Squad, 12-6

LOCKNEY, Oct. 14 (Special)—Spur's Bulldogs turned in one of the upsets of the season in District 3-A here tonight before 2,500 unhappy fans, beating the Lockney Longhorns 12-6 on two long scoring passes.

Melvin Lindsey, a passing demon who completed three of six attempts, two of them for scores, was the player who broke the Steer backs. Lindsey tossed 12 yards to Joe King in the first quarter to give Spur a 6-0 lead, then tossed a 30-yard aerial to King in the third quarter to clinch the victory.

Meanwhile Lockney was rolling up the yardage on the ground, but making mistakes that hurt every time it got into scoring territory. The Longhorns piled up 220 yards on the ground to 122 for Spur and had 12 first downs to the Bulldogs' eight.

Lockney averted a whitewash in the final canto when DeJuan Strickland raced 25 yards around left end on a flicker play to score. His extra point attempt failed.

For Spur, Lindsey and Halfback Clyde Blair and Josh Gibson, a tackle, were outstanding.

Halfback Ray Ferguson, Tailback C. B. Smart and Fullback Strickland were outstanding backfield men for the losers, while Tackle Delbert Shearer and Guard Robert Huckabee sparked the Lockney line play.

Villanova Loses To Tulsa Eleven

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14. (AP)—An amazing Tulsa university eleven blasted Villanova college from football's undefeated tonight in one of the year's major upsets. Led by 165-pound Dub Graves, Tulsa built up a first half lead and withstood a stirring rally to win, 21 to 19.

The Oklahomans who couldn't win a ball game all last year and had a 1-3 record going into tonight's game, simply outfought the bigger, faster Villanova team.

It was essentially a team triumph, but little Graves, a 5 foot 10 junior from Fort Worth, Texas, was the hero of the battle.

With Tulsa leading 7-6 in the dying moments of the first half, Graves caught a punt on his own 30 and out legged the Villanova defenders for the score that gave Tulsa a 14 to 6 edge.

At the start of the second half Paul Barry took a handoff from Quarterback Pete Annex on his 31, found himself stopped on the Villanova 42 and pitched a lateral to Graves.

Graves danced past one tackler after another before he was stopped on the Villanova seven. Barry sprinted around end for the third Tulsa touchdown on the next play.

Cliff Boucher converted as he did after each touchdown and those placements were the margin of victory.

Georgia Takes To Air To Gain 7-0 Win Over LSU Team

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 14 (AP)—Georgia, a tired battler virtually without a running punch, got its passing game working late tonight to defeat Louisiana State university, 7-0. Attendance was estimated at 22,000.

The winning touchdown was scored by Halfback Billy Mixon on a one-yard smash over right tackle. Quarterback Ray Prosperi's high 34-yard pass to End Bob Walston four plays earlier set up the scoring chance.

Except for the last quarter Georgia could gain little when the playing was near a goal line. LSU tightened repeatedly to stop Georgia's threats.

Southern Methodist Meets Massive Rice Owls Tonight

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (AP)—Southern Methodist meets the team called its greatest challenger for the Southwest Conference championship here tomorrow night.

It's the first conference game for the defending titlists but it could be the most important of them all. The massive Owls of Rice, seeping power and grimly determined, furnish the opposition in the Cotton Bowl.

Tulane-Irish Tilt Tops Grid Slate

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP) — Tulane and Notre Dame will sock each other around in the top game of a crowded football program tomorrow. The winner can start trying on the national crown for size.

Several other unbeaten powers will be involved in games with important bearing on major races.

Notre Dame, undefeated although twice tied in 31 games dating back to the 1946 opener, is the nation's top outfit and will be a two-touchdown favorite.

Tulane has won 12 in a row since losing its first game in 1948. Now ranked fourth in the nation, the Green Wave is bent on avenging the 59-6 licking it took from the Irish two years ago.

Among other top teams attempting to retain or improve their positions tomorrow, those with the toughest row to hoe are Minnesota, California and Southern Methodist.

Minnesota, the ninth team, tangles with Southern California in Los Angeles. The game will establish the winner as a co-favorite with UCLA in the Pacific Coast Conference.

Southern Methodist, ranked tenth, will be at home for a night game with Rice. This opens the Southwest Conference slate for both teams.

Deflated Michigan invades Northwestern and Indiana visits Iowa in other big nine games. Oklahoma, the No. 3 team, entertains Kansas and Kansas State goes to Iowa State in the Big Seven.

Other midwestern highlights include Missouri at Illinois, Navy at Wisconsin, William and Mary at Michigan State, Drake at Oklahoma A. and M., and Mississippi State at Cincinnati.

Army, running a close second to Notre Dame after its upset of Michigan, will be at winless Harvard. Other Ivy League struggles are Cornell at Yale, Columbia at Pennsylvania and Brown at Princeton.

Other games in the east find Colgate at Dartmouth, Nebraska at Penn State and Fordham at Scranton.

Unbeaten North Carolina, ranked sixth, will be invaded by Wake Forest, one of the season's disappointments. Also in the Southern Conference, North Carolina State will be at Duke, Virginia Military at Richmond and Washington and Lee at Virginia.

In the Southeastern Conference it will be Tennessee at Alabama, Auburn at Georgia Tech and Vanderbilt at Florida. The Citadel plays powerful Kentucky.

Texas invades Arkansas and Texas A. and M. visits TCU in additional Southwest Conference tussles, while Baylor goes to Texas Tech.

On the Pacific coast, Stanford plays at Washington, Washington State at Idaho and Montana at Oregon State.

Elsewhere in the West and Southwest it will be Santa Clara at UCLA, Idaho State at Montana State, Colorado at Oregon, Utah State at Wyoming, Texas Western at Arizona, Colorado Mines at Colorado A. and M., Denver at Utah and New Mexico at Hardin-Simmons.

BYRNE HEADS MARSHALL

MARSHALL, Oct. 14. (AP)—G. E. Byrne was elected president of the Marshall baseball club at a meeting of the board of directors today. Byrne succeeded Willard Coke, who was not a candidate for re-election.

O'Donnell Is 4-A Winner

SEAGRAVES, Oct. 14 (Special) O'Donnell's Eagles racked up their first grid victory of the 1949 season here tonight, edging out Seagraves, 13-6, in a District 4-A South conference contest.

Approximately 1,000 fans saw the game.

O'Donnell's Leroy Gass, one of the tilt's top stars, opened the scoring with a 27-yard touchdown jaunt in the second quarter. Raymond Hancock added the extra point from placement.

Gass circled right end for 13 yards for a fourth-quarter O'Donnell touchdown.

Seagraves' lone tally came in the second period, when Kenneth Hart went 16 yards around right end to score.

Coach W. D. Jeter's visitors made eight first downs, while Coach Frank Sonntag's Seagraves crew netted 10 first downs.

The defeat dropped Seagraves into a last-place tie with Tahoka in the district race, while O'Donnell climbed into third place by virtue if its triumph.

Linemen Tommy Bicknell and Kenneth Davis and Backs Roger Stafford and Bob Dale were outstanding for the losers.

ACC Takes 38-12 Win Over Tampa

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 14 (AP)—Abilene Christian smeared Tampa tonight, 38 to 12, coming from behind with 32 points in the final quarter.

The underdog Tampa team outplayed the Texans for nearly three periods, but suddenly burst wide apart. Abilene Christian blocked two kicks and recovered two fumbles and scored easily each time.

The visitors added another marker in that wild quarter on 50-yard march after Tampa gambled on fourth down pass at midfield and missed. Their first touchdown was set up by intercepted pass.

Tampa's two touchdowns resulted from ACC misplays. The first followed a pass interception and the second was made on a 70-yard run with an intercepted pass.

Alton Green, a piledriving fullback, led Abilene Christian. He scored twice on smashes of 10 and two yards. Sam Davidson added two more on two yard plunge and a 19 yard run off tackle. Jerry Mullins got the other two, on 11 and one yard scoring plays. Bill Ayres converted twice.

Koorsman Sparks Dickens To 6-0 Six-Man Win Over Southland

SOUTHLAND, Oct. 14. (Special) Quarterback Johnny Koorsman of the Dickens Owls ran the opening kickoff of the game back for a touchdown here tonight to give the Owls a 6-0 victory over the Southland Eagles in a District 4-B six-man football game.

Koorsman took the ball on his own 23-yard line and returned it 77 yards to pay dirt with the aid of brilliant downfield blocking. That play ended scoring for the game and during the remainder of the contest the two teams battled on even terms.

End Howard Hitt and Back Tommy Leake turned in good performances for the home team.

Center Mickey Green was outstanding for Dickens.

COACHES ARE PILOTS

ABILENE, Oct. 14. (AP)—Two plane pilots will be opposing coaches in the Texas A & I—McMurry football game here tomorrow night. Dewey Mayhew, A & I mentor, was an instructor with the Air Force during the war, and Wilford Moore, McMurry coach, piloted B-26s.

Monahans Trounces Denver City, 18-0

DENVER CITY, Oct. 14. (Special)—Monahans' Loboes, defending state Class A champions, tonight drubbed the cellar-dwelling Denver City Mustangs, 18-0 in a District 5-A conference game played before 300 fans.

It was the sixth straight setback for Denver City in conference play this season, and Monahans' third victory against one defeat in district competition.

Left Halfback Leonard Perryman and Tailback Earl Chumney paced a Lobo attack which had comparatively easy going against a Mustang squad weakened by an epidemic of the mumps. Eight Denver City players were sidelined by mumps.

Perryman went over for the first Monahans tally, ripping through center for 20 yards midway through the second quarter.

Chumney sprinted 90 yards in the third stanza for the Loboes' second marker, then Perryman added the final tally on a five-yard off-tackle slant in the fourth heat.

Coach F. O. Scoggins' Monahans crew amassed 14 first downs on a net yardage gain of 283 yards. Wilson Head's Mustangs made seven first downs and 78 yards net.

Damon Brock, 128-pound freshman halfback, was the outstanding offensive performer for the home squad, while Guards Bill Fisher and Clarence Reed bore the brunt of Denver City's defense.

New Home, Robertson Schools Split Basketball Tussles

NEW HOME, Oct. 14. (Special) New Home and Robertson High schools split basketball games here tonight, the New Home boys turning in a 27-26 victory over Robertson and the Robertson girls winning 41-26.

Bobby Vandiver, with 13 points, led the New Home boys, while Bobby Blankenship paced the losers. Betty Sue Aycock had 22 points for the Robertson girls and Ann Cowan had 12 points for the losers.

Charles Kayos Pat Valentino

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14 (INS)—NBA heavyweight champion Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati retained his title tonight by knocking out Pat Valentino of San Francisco in 35 seconds of the eighth round.

The end came with startling and dramatic suddenness as the game California state champion appeared to be battling the champion on even terms. At the bell for the eighth they leaped to the center of the ring and exchanged a flurry of short jabs. Charles then hooked a lightning left to the challenger's body. The blow sent an audible thud to the ringside crowd and Charles followed it with a lethal right cross to the jaw.

Valentino, his long hair hanging a prespiration-wet mat over his face sagged to the canvas. He gamely gained one knee at the count of four and tried to struggle to his feet but staggered and almost fell on his face as he was counted out by Referee Jack Downey of San Francisco.

Boston College Ties Mississippi, 25-25

BRAVES FIELD, BOSTON, Oct. 14 (INS) — Boston college and Mississippi battled right up to the final gun tonight before 20,103 fans only to settle for a 25 to 25 deadlock.

The Rebels pulled away to a lead in the first period when Eulas Jenkins plunged from the three after a 55-yard march, but gave up the lead in the second quarter when Joe Diminick dived from the one to climax a B. C. drive from its own 17.

In the same frame, an Eagle interception on the B. C. 43 paved the way for another Boston march to the Rebel one. Al Cannava scored.

The Eagles stretched their lead in the third quarter on another plunge by Diminick and a conversion by Ernie Stautner.

John Dottley scored on a plunge in the final period to narrow the Eagle lead to 19-12. Billy Mustin went aroun dright end for 36 yards to make the score 19-18 and a conversion by Don Blanchard tied everything up.

A Rebel interception of an Ed Songin pass enabled the visitors to march from midfield and set up the ball near the Boston goal. Dottley then scored on a plunge to put Ole Miss ahead, 25-19. A 17-yard pass form Songin to Cannava later brought the pigskin to the Miss one and Ed Petela plunged for the final deadlock. The conversion failed.

Tulia's Hornets Score 28-0 Victory Over Matador Eleven

TULIA, Oct. 14. (Special)—The Tulia Hornets scored a decisive 28-0 victory over the Matador Matadors here tonight in a District 3-A football game witnessed by more than 1,000 fans.

The Hornets were led in their attack by the hard running of Back Paul Griffith, who scored two touchdowns and kicked the extra points. The other Tulia touchdowns were made by W. T. Simmons and Travis Rector. Coach Roger Smith's home team had things all its way and moved handily on the ground.

Littlefield Blanks Muleshoe Team, 48-0

MULESHOE, Oct. 14. (Special) The powerful Littlefield Wildcats continued their rampage in the District 4-A North title chase here tonight as Tom Bailes led his team to a 48-0 whitewashing of the Muleshoe Yellow Jackets.

Running for five of Littlefield's seven touchdowns, Bailes was in top form as his teammates never gave the Yell Jackets a chance. The Wildcats garnered 20 first downs to four for Muleshoe.

Littlefield started its scoring spree in the first period by blocking a kick behind the Jacket goal for two points. Frank Gage later carried for 39 yards on a hando f from Quarterback Don Crossley for the first touchdown.

Bailes' melee started in the second quarter, as he romped 30 and 50 yards, respectively, for the Wildcats' next two scores. Gene Renfro ran across both extra points.

Early in the third period Bailes again carried the ball 20 yards for a tally and Gage ran the extra point. Minutes later, Bailes intercepted a Yellow Jacket pass and ran 30 yards for another six points. Crossley converted.

Crossley passed to Gage for the first tally of the final period after Stephen Brock returned a Muleshoe punt 45 yards to the Littlefield 45-yard line. Try for extra point was no good, but Bailes came back minutes later to carry the final 39 yards of a 70-yard Wildcat drive to end the scoring.

Coach J. S. Fikes' Littlefield eleven gained approximately 300 yards during the game, holding Woody Green's Muleshoe team to about 80 net yards gained.

Tigers Triumph

ing over after an aerial attack by the Tigers pooped on the 20. A 15-yard penalty for offensive holding put Morton on the 5, where Burns was thrown for a loss of two yards, and Slaton scored an additional two points as Indian Halfback Wall was swamped behind the goal.

Late in the fourth period Slaton capitalized on another Indian fumble on 35 yard line. After Willis pushed the ball to the 13 in a series of three runs, 15, 3 and 4 yards respectively, Bob Taylor came into the game to tack the last three points on the Tiger score, as he booted the seldom used field goal from the 13 with Bybee holding.

Slaton gained a total net yardage of 177 compared with 136 for Morton, with 15 first downs to Morton's 8.

Completing 3 of 9 passes Morton led in the aerial department with 55 yards, Slaton completed 2 of 9 for 30. Both teams averaged 33 yards on punts.

Kid Gavilan Gains Decision Over Georgia's Beau Jack

CHICAGO, Oct. 14. (INS)—Kid Gavilan defeated Beau Jack in a 10-round slugging match tonight in the Chicago Stadium.

The heavier and taller Cuban battered Jack from long range and matched the one-time Augusta, Ga., bootblack blow for blow at close quarters to win the unanimous decision.

Wink Tramples Seminole, 33-0

WINK, Oct. 14 (Special) — Sparked by the brilliant running of Bud Rollins, Wink's Wildcats clawed the Seminole Indians here tonight, 33-0.

More than 3,500 spectators saw the game, which boosted the Wildcats into undisputed possession of second place in District 5-A.

Rollins scored Wink's two first-quarter touchdowns on end runs, Pat Drumm kicking the points. Drum scored from the two in the second quarter, but missed the point.

Rollins took the opening kickoff in the second half, and raced 90 yards for a touchdown. Drumm scored the last touchdown in the waning minutes of the fourth quarter when he intercepted a Seminole pass on the Seminole 22, and went over for the score.

Of 298 yards gained on the ground for Wink, Rollins personally made 273 of them, averaging 13 yards per try against the Seminole team.

Outstanding in the Seminole squad were Guinn Hood, Alfred Sims, Darrell Jordan, and John L. Parker.

Idalou Takes 58-14 Game From Frenship

IDALOU, Oct. 14 (Special)—Coach W. L. Johnson's powerful Idalou Wildcats had little trouble in romping to a 58-14 victory over Frenship here tonight before 800 spectators. It was the season's third District 4-B triumph for Idalou.

The Idalou starters saw little action tonight, with Coach Johnson leaving them in for only little over a quarter. Most of the time the second and third string played as Johnson tried to keep the score down.

A host of players took part in the scoring. Tommy Russell scored on a 35-yard end sweep. Alvin Joiner went 25 yards over center, 40 yards over center and passed to Loyd Allen, who went 35 yards for another score. Allen also went 30 yards for his second tally. Marcus Duran went 40 yards off tackle, Bill Roye travelled 50 yards, Travis Castleberry took a pass from Tommy Russell that covered 50 yards and Bill Sisk plunged eight yards for another score.

Conversions were made by Sisk on placement, David Reddell on a pass from Joiner, Russell on a plunge and another pass, from Joiner to Allen.

Lon Ed Cox scored Frenship's first touchdown and Glenn Allen scored the final, with both extra points kicked by Jerry Gladden.

New Deal Lions Rack Up 50-0 Victory Over Cooper Eleven

NEW DEAL, Oct. 14 (Special) —The New Deal Lions smothered a fighting Cooper eleven here tonight 50-0, before a throng of visiting ex-students who were attending the annual homecoming activities.

It was the third 4-B conference victory against one defeat for the home team. The Lions were never in danger as they rolled up yardage both on the ground and in the air almost at will.

Former War Correspondents Review Old Experiences At Gathering In Washington

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 — It wasn't a simple thing because it wasn't a simple occasion.

The boys were back in Washington — four of them — to chew the hash about old times. Things that happened a decade ago, when an even dozen newspapermen gathered in London and became the first accredited American correspondents attached to the British forces before we got into World War II.

French Flavor Dominates

The boys got to France and the war after that first London meeting. And so, at the reunion, everything on the menu had a parlez-vous flavor. Vermouth. Snails, cooked to the private taste of a French chef with the know-how.

The four who showed up were Frank Kent, jr., of the Baltimore Sun, John O'Donnell of the New York Daily News, Bill Henry of the Los Angeles Times, and Ed Angley, who at the time was with the New York Herald Tribune.

Others among the original dozen were Webb Miller of the United Press; Drew Middleton of the Associated Press, now with the New York Times; Bill Chaplin, formerly of the International News Service and now with NBC; Harold Denney, who was with the New York Times; Bill Stoneman, Chicago Daily News; Walter Duranty of Nana; Arthur Mann, of the Mutual Broadcasting system; and Frank Gervasi, of Colliers.

Dead Are Toasted

The four who made it back for the 10th anniversary first of all drank toasts to the two men who since have died — Miller and Denney.

There was nothing formal about the gathering. No speeches, mostly it was just looking back across the horrible years of the war. A little humor got into the picture, as it sometimes does when old newspapermen get together.

Everybody agreed that Webb Miller, who covered a lot of war once was moved to write a book called "I found No Peace," was the dean of the outfit. For one thing, Webb had had enough advance notice with his "connection" to go down and get fixed up with a uniform which fitted him. The others were not so fortunate. For another thing, Webb taught the boys a few things about censorship. One of the first dispatches filed by the boys was one which concerned an armored car the British declared would go 50 miles an hour. There was a regulation against using any figures in stories. Everybody but Webb forgot and used figures. The old hand spelled out "fifty" and got away with it.

Ed Angley recalled that in France, correspondents were told to carry gas masks at all times. One day he was walking along the streets of a French village when he was stopped by an officer.

"Testing all masks," the officer said.

Ed followed the man to headquarters and learned in short order he had been feeling perfectly safe for many days, lugging around a dummy mask.

Bill Henry is still a little amused about the official credentials the British gave the boys. They looked, he said, something like a tally card at a lady's bridge party—tassel and all. Bill fixed that for the party. He got some simple ribbons made for the occasion.

About an inch long — and replicas of a small stretch of typewriter ribbon.

Dallas Printers Union Okays New Contract Granting Raise

DALLAS, Oct. 14. (U.P.)—Members of the Dallas Typographical Union, Local 173, today approved new contract terms with three newspapers, providing for a $2.50 weekly raise across-the-board.

The offer was handed to the union last midnight by negotiators for the Dallas Times Herald, the Dallas Morning News and the southwest edition of the Wall Street Journal.

The new contract will retain the provision for a 35 hour work week.

Chemist Proposes New Political Division For World's Population

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Did you ever hear of a sation? It's a new word coined by one of the world's foremost chemists to describe a new kind of state into which he thinks the people of the world should be divided.

He is William J. Hale of Washington, who coined the word chemurgy to cover farm chemical production. He proposes the new state in a book, Farmer Victorious, published by Coward-McCann, Inc.

Self-Sufficiency Stressed

Hale's sation would be a section of the world whose borders would contain everything necessary for self-sufficiency. He says chemistry has now advanced to the scientific point where enough can be provided for everybody. And that there would then be no reason for wars.

He suggests four or five sations. One Mongolian (Asiatic); one Slavic (with its southern borders not defined but to provide the Slavs with access to warm waters); one Latin-Teutonic including western Europe and much of Africa (or perhaps with Africa as a fifth entity); and one Angle-American, including the British Isles, the Americas and Australia.

Hale presents his theory simultaneously with intensification of the campaign in the United States for a world federation.

Owen Roberts and others, including more than 100 congressmen, have offered or are supporting various approaches to world federation or for a federation of democracies if the non-democratic nations cannot be included. The House Foreign affairs committee is now holding hearings on a proposed resolution which would state it "as the sense of Congress" that the United Nations should be strengthened by such a federation and that this is a prime aim of American foreign policy.

This is an ancient dream. Tennyson's famous prediction of a brotherhood of man and federation of the world have taken on an almost biblical quality in the minds of millions of people.

Millions of others, including chemist Hale, think the idea impractical. Hale agrees with these that there are natural differences between peoples which cannot be compromised under a single political set-up.

Dr. Beazley Named Assistant To Hardin-Simmons President

ABILENE, Oct. 14. (Special)—Dr. William O. Beazley has been named assistant to the president of Hardin-Simmons university, Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president has announced. He succeeds W. T. Walton who has been appointed vice-president of the university.

In addition to his duties as assistant to the president, Dr. Beazley will serve as field representative for the school. He will make personal visits to Baptist churches in the West Texas area. He will also interview prospective students for the university.

Prior to his appointment, Dr. Beazley has been serving as an associate professor of religious education and speech. He will retain his teaching duties, Richardson added.

Dr. Beazley completed his doctorate at Southwestern seminary this year. He received his bachelor of arts from Bridgewater college in Virginia and a master of religious education from Southwestern.

The son of a Baptist minister, Dr. Beazley moved to Abilene Feb. 1, 1948 after his graduation from the Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary in Fort Worth Baptist church.

Dr. Beazley is a native of Singer Glen, Va., where he graduated from high school in 1932. After entering Bridgewater college a year later, Beazley became an outstanding athlete, participating in baseball, basketball, football, and track and earned 14 athletic letters.

Italy will spend $57,000,000—partly ECA funds—to reconstruct two steel plants at Bagnoli and Piombino, which were inactivated in wartime by Allied bombing and subsequent German demolition.

Texas Tech Board To Meet Here Today

New Buildings To Be Discussed

A proposal to use profits from the Texas Technological college bookstore for a fund for the erection of a student union building will be one of the major items of business for the Tech Board of Directors at a regular meeting here today.

Also on the program will be consideration of possible plans for additions to the Engineering building and awards of contracts for plumbing, heating and electrical work in the two wings to be added to the administration building. General contract for that construction was awarded recently and work has opened.

Other Issues On Program

Members of the board began gathering in Lubbock late Friday for unofficial and preliminary sessions in connection with the meeting which takes place in connection with Homecoming activities at the college. The meeting will get underway at 9 a.m. in the Administration building.

The pre-Homecoming session will also find the directors studying plans for possible erection of a Home Economics building. Members of a finance committee studying methods for obtaining funds to build the student union building and another on the other proposals met on the campus Friday afternoon in preliminary sessions.

A movement for the erection of the SUB has been steadily gaining impetus for several years, while the Engineering building additions and Home Economics building are part of a long-range building program planned by the college.

Members of the committees meeting Friday were:

Building—C. E. Weymouth of Amarillo, chairman, Robert B. Price of El Paso and Leon Ince of Houston.

Finance—Price, chairman, Ince, Charles Wooldridge of Dallas and C. T. McLaughlin of Snyder.

Other board member are Charles C. Thompson of Colorado City, Raymond Pfluger of Eden, A. G. (Pat) Mayse of Paris and Mark McGee of Fort Worth.

Hiss Loses Bid To Have Trial Transferred From New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP) — Alger Hiss today lost his bid to have the scene of his second perjury trial shifted from New York to Vermont.

Federal Judge Alfred C. Coxe ruled there was no basis in the former high state department official's contention that the publicity given the first trial so affected public sentiment that a fair hearing in New York now would be impossible.

Charges Filed In Amarillo Slaying

AMARILLO, Oct. 14. (AP)—Police said today charges of murder were filed against two men in the $31 robbery-slaying of a handicapped service station attendant.

Charles Lee Freeman was slain with a nine-millimeter Luger pistol here Oct. 6.

One of the men charged was Dwight Hoskins, 24, Amarillo, who was an Amarillo High school football star in 1941-42. He was arrested and denied bond. Police refused to identify the other man until he is arrested.

The charges came after a woman led police to a spot where a pistol was buried along a fence row near Canyon, Texas.

Freeman, crippled by polio, was shot to death in a robbery at the filling station where he worked. The shooting occurred eight days ago.

Hoskins was arrested and charged Thursday. He was a star on the high school football teams here in 1941 and 1942.

SUSPECT PLAYED BRIEFLY WITH TEXAS TECH SQUAD

Dwight Hoskins, charged in the robbery-murder of Charles Lee Freeman, was a member of the Texas Tech football squad briefly during the 1946 season.

Hoskins, a back, saw limited service in the Raiders' first three 1946 games, then was dropped from the squad. He later left school and returned to Amarillo.

Hobbs Mayor Back In Job On Order

LOVINGTON, N. M., Oct. 14 (INS) — The in-again, out-again mayor of Hobbs, J. Paul Heard, is in again.

His reinstatement to the mayorial post ordered today by District Judge E. Turner Hensley. The judge ruled that State Comptroller J. D. Hannah did not have sufficient cause for suspending Heard from office August 29.

Speaking from the bench, the judge declared that all eight members of the Hobbs city council are businessmen and are responsible along with the mayor, for the condition of affairs in the city's government.

State and defense attorneys were allowed time to file further proceedings before the order reinstating Heard was issued. The state already has filed a petition asking court suspension of Heard on the basis of charges that include his alleged acceptance of a $1,000 bribe to protect gambling, and of offering $1,000 to have Lea county Sheriff Horace Owens killed.

Diabetes Drive Extension Seen

There were growing indications Friday afternoon that free testing of urine specimens in connection with Diabetes week would be continued next week in the laboratory of the City-County Department of Public health.

Gerald Jarvis, director of the health department, said 819 specimens had been tested by laboratory technicians for the week, up to 3:30 o'clock.

"We will have tested not less than 900 by the end of the day," he said. "Specimens are coming in much faster every day."

Positive Reactions Noted

Eight positive reactions had been noted out of the first 754 tests.

"We will refer information associated with those findings to private physicians for interpretation," he said.

The average, it was further noted, was lower than that for the nation as a whole.

"That probably can be attributed to the fact that youngsters, school students, submitted most of the urine specimens," Jarvis said.

It is known that the incidence of diabetes increases significantly among individuals more than 40 years old, particularly among women.

Nationwide Drive Held

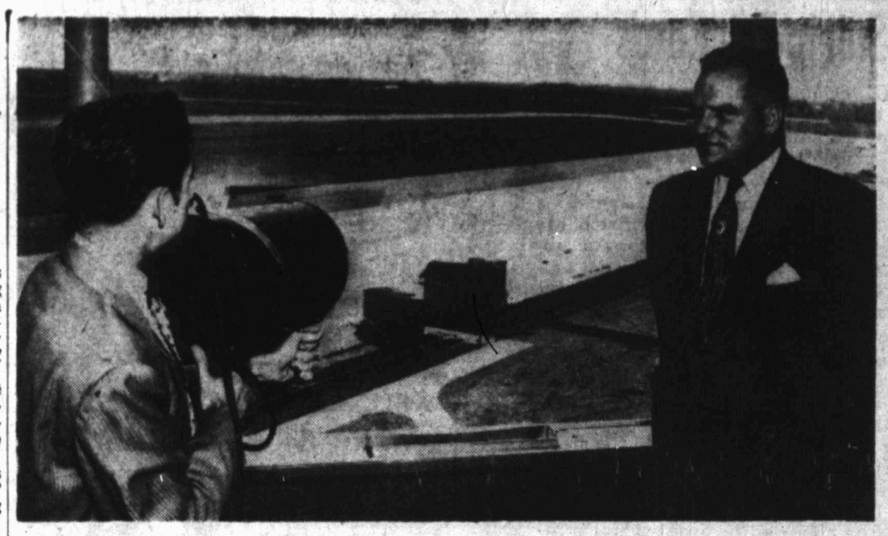

The diabetes detection drive is nationwide in its scope. It is sponsored by the National Diabetes Association, Inc., and Lubbock-Crosby Medical society and the Department of health are cooperating with it here.

All one needs to do to have a test made to determine whether there is too much sugar in the urine—which would indicate but not necessarily prove diabetes—is to collect a specimen of urine from one to two hours after a meal and take it in a small container to the city laboratory on the first floor of City hall or to the John Halsey Drug store on Broadway. Be sure, it was advised, to have the name of the donor taped to the container. Positive tests would indicate possibly further tests should be made of the individual, it was explained.

It was reemphasized that every individual should have the test made—at least once a year.

BAPTIST STATION TO OPEN

DALLAS, Oct. 14 (AP)—Radio station KYBS, new 90,000-watt FM station owned by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will be on the air Oct. 28, the Baptist office here announced today. Baptist headquarters here said that the station will be the most powerful FM station in North Texas.

New Control Tower Begins Operation At Municipal Airport

By BILL CLARK
Avalanche Staff Writer

A new milestone marking Lubbock's growth as a metropolitan nerve center was established at midnight when a civilian airport control tower in the new $450,000 airport terminal building went into operation.

For the first time Lubbock will have 24-hour a day traffic control of civilian aircraft at its airport. A staff of eight men will man the tower continuously.

Heading the Civil Aeronautics authority crew is Don McLeod, tower chief, who arrived Oct. 15 from New Orleans. He had been there three months and in Dallas prior to that.

Others who will maintain watches in the tower will be Glenn Huntsman, from Wichita Falls, Charlie Davis, from Albuquerque, Lloyd Carpenter, from Oklahoma City, John Duyka, from El Paso, Kenneth Pugh, from San Antonio, Elmo Spencer, from Amarillo, and Ray Gannaway, from New Orleans.

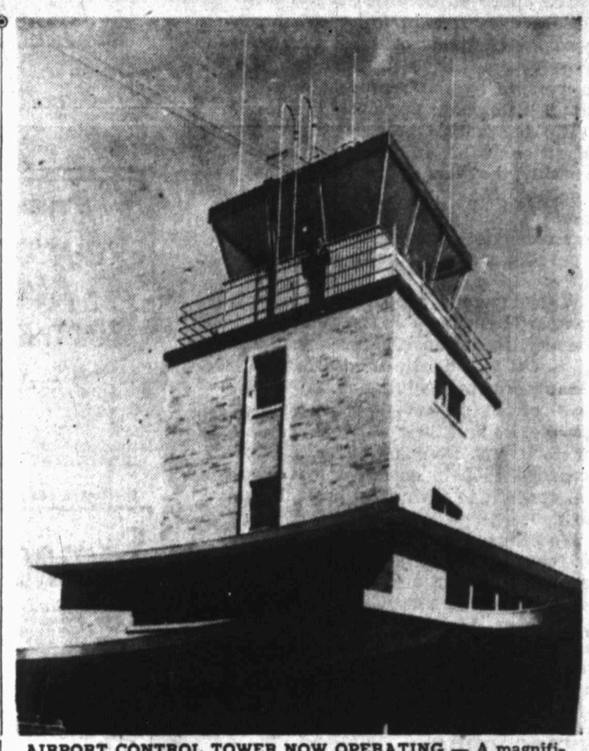

Speaking for the staff, McLeod said, "We are mighty happy to be in Lubbock. We all came here by choice."

The 60-foot high glass tower in the partially completed air terminal building commands an impressive view of the airport and surrounding country.

Delicately tinted double panes of glass afford the control tower unobstructed view of the skies.

The radio transmitting equipment is being installed. Until it is ready, the control tower operators will use a signal searchlight with radio receiving equipment in their operations. The transmitting equipment will be installed by a CAA crew within a few days.

In conjunction with the control tower an instrument landing system is being installed which will allow commercial airliners to land at Municipal airport in 400-foot ceilings rather than in the 600-foot ceilings now required.

Still In The Cards

THE seemingly definite announcement that the U. S. Senate will not consider the $85,000,000 Canadian river development bill this year naturally is disappointing.

But the disappointment should be tempered by the realization that it has progressed much further toward approval than the most optimistic supporter of the project hoped as recently as a few weeks ago.

About the best they expected this year was a favorable report on the measure by a subcommittee of the House Public Lands committee. It now stands with the approval of the subcommittee, the committee as a whole and the membership of the House. This represents amazing progress.

It does not guarantee the project will be approved because several difficult obstacles remain to be overcome. These are, in their order, a favorable report by the Senate Interior committee, passage by the Senate as a whole and the President's approval.

The big hurdle appears to be the committee. If this group reports the bill favorably, the other approvals are likely to follow. Supporters of the project, therefore, will concentrate when Congress reconvenes next year upon trying to get the measure through the committee.

With vigorous support pledged by Senators Lyndon Johnson and Tom Connally, the outlook seems encouraging. But it would help immeasurably—probably remove all doubt as to approval of the project—if the people of New Mexico and their senators, Clinton Anderson and Dennis Chavez, can be persuaded to help out in a matter of vital concern to their Northwest Texas neighbors.

We believe they will do that if given the reasonable assurance that the interests of their State will not suffer from a dam and reservoir on the Canadian near Amarillo. Senators Anderson and Chavez appear to be key figures upon whom supporters of the project should now concentrate.

Homecoming

ONE OF the most important occasions observed by any college is the annual Homecoming. Then former classmates return to their alma mater to recapture some of the joys of one of the happiest periods of their lives—a fact they appreciate with increasing poignancy with the lapse of years.

Today's Homecoming at Tech should be an occasion of profound satisfaction to everyone concerned—including the "old grads," the present student body and faculty, every friend and supporter of the college everywhere.

It is an appropriate occasion for remembering, as the students of other years are welcomed and honored, that Tech is an enduring monument which every one of them has had a part in building and making greater. The "old grads" are justified today, as they visit familiar scenes, in the feeling of personal pride that, in some degree, Texas Tech is the product of their handiwork.

It is a pleasure and privilege to join in welcoming them, to wish for them one of the happiest days they ever have experienced, and to urge their return often with the assurance that every day is Homecoming when an "old grad" returns to the campus of Texas Tech.

A Deserved Slap

SELDOM has a President been given a more resounding—or deserved—rebuke than was handed Mr. Truman when the Senate refused to confirm the reappointment of Leland Olds to the Federal Power commission.

Out of the entire membership of the Senate, the President was able to muster only 15 votes in support of Olds. Fifty-three others voted against. The remainder, nearly all "administration Democrats," refrained from voting, giving unmistakable evidence that their loyalty to Mr. Truman did not go far enough to stomach his latest sop to the radical element of New York.

The President employed every device he could to cram Olds down the senatorial throats. He tried persuasian. He made threats. He enlisted the support of nearly every leftist in the country. And the results produced 15 votes.

Mr. Truman begged for what happened to him—and it happened with a vengeance which the vast majority of Americans will cheer.

Someone To Love

BY IRENE LONNEN ERNHART
Distributed By NEA, Inc.

(THE STORY: After Jenny sees her husband Ted Duncan dining with Liz Conover, by whom he was once jilted, Jenny leaves him and refuses to return to the Duncan home where Ted's family has made her miserable. Although Ted has not been completely honest with Jenny in his assertions that "all is over" between him and Liz, he is determined to make her happy. Ted decides to live in a trailer near Markwood College while he finishes his education. Jenny is to continue to work as a model. But now Jenny discovers she is going to become a mother, but she does not tell Ted.)

XII

OCTOBER came. The campus across from the trailer camp was wreathed in flaming red and gold. The walks and streets were carpeted with fallen leaves.

On the busiest day of a hectic week, an afternoon when Max was holding a special showing, Jenny fainted in one of the fitting rooms. After the doctor had come and she was revived and rested, Max himself took her home.

"Don't you worry about a thing, Jenny," he told her. "Take the rest of the week off, even two weeks, and come back rested."

"I'll have to see what my own doctor says, Max," Jenny told him, "about coming back to the shop, I mean. You see, I'm going to have a baby."

"Oh no!". The dismay on Max's face made Jenny want to laugh. And when he saw the trailer camp, he was more put out than ever.

"Jenny, you shouldn't have come to a place like this to live! It isn't even sanitary!" He wrinkled his nose at the smell which she no longer noticed. "Nobody could be happy living in a dump like this!"

"But I'm happy, Max," Jenny said gravely, as she prepared to leave the car in front of the small blue trailer with its printed sign reading "The Duncans."

Max regarded her seriously for a moment. "Are you, Jenny? It has seemed to me that you've been troubled ever since you married this Tod of yours."

"Everyone has troubles, now and then," Jenny said defensively. "It wasn't pleasant living with his people, but now we're to ourselves, we'll have time to get adjusted. We're going to be happy. We love each other."

"Tod's lucky to have a girl with so much common sense," Max said.

LATER, after Max had gone, she fixed herself a cup of tea. She would have to tell Tod tonight about the baby, and she dreaded it. But that was silly. After all, a baby was something anyone ought to be happy about.

And then, after all her worry, it turned out she didn't have to tell Tod after all. Nina came knocking on the trailer door before Tod got home. Nina had brought three T-bone steaks, to celebrate the occasion, she said. She was standing by the skillet as they simmered when Tod opened the trailer door and came in. "Hello Nina!" he said. "This is a surprise. Where's Jenny? And what's cooking?"

"Jenny's lying down, per my orders," Nina said, "and steaks are cooking, if you mean 'what's cooking' literally."

"Well what's cooking not literally then," Tod said, flinging his books down in the daybed.

"You are going to be a proud papa one of these days," Nina said.

"Oh no!" Tod exclaimed. The color ebbed from his face. Jenny had come to the doorway of the tiny bedroom at the other end of the trailer. She tried to smile at him, and she wished desperately that Nina wasn't around, because she couldn't seem to think of any of the right words to say.

Tod recovered himself and came and put his arm around her, rather awkwardly. "When did you find out, hon?"

"Several weeks ago."

"But why didn't you tell me?"

"I meant to, but I kept putting it off, because it's going to upset our plans quite a lot, and besides I wasn't sure how you'd take it."

Tod's jaw tightened a trifle. His smile was obviously forced.

It was an awkward meal. Nina tried to be sprightly but only half succeeded. And after it was over, Tod said he believed he'd go for a little walk while they did the dishes. Jenny knew he wanted a chance to think. He was in one of his moods. If Nina hadn't been around they might have been frank with each other, talked things out.

"I shouldn't have come," Nina said ruefully, when Tod had gone.

"It doesn't matter, Nina," Jenny said. She wanted to go into the tiny bedroom and fling herself down and give way to tears. But she couldn't let Nina know how disappointed she was.

TOD swung aimlessly along the broad walk through the campus and then down one of the town streets. His mind was olurred with shock.

Nina said Jenny had fainted this afternoon, that she might have to quit working. Jenny's salary paid for groceries and rent. He had enough saved for his tuition, fees, books and so on. They'd probably have to sell the car if she couldn't work. There'd be a hospital bill too.

He knew he had been abrupt with Jenny, and that his efforts to pretend to like the idea of a baby had been transparent to her, if not to Nina. That was why he had come out walking. He must talk himself into liking it. For Jenny's sake.

He went into a small snack shop not far from the campus. There was a broken-down piano in one corner and a lot of students lounging around talking. He bought some cigarets. The piano began tinkling one of those nostalgic old tunes. Only last year he and Liz

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

AT the danger of receiving another batch of insulting letters as I usually do when I deal with a touchy or controversial subject, I want to take issue with those who maintain that we are degenerating morally.

BRANDEIS

The contrary is true.

Instead of degenerating morly, we are improving.

In a recently published book, the author says that we pay too much attention to SEX, that there is too much of it in our literature, on the stage and in the movies.

In Elizabethan days, he says, people didn't talk about sex. It was taboo as a subject of conversation. It wasn't mentioned.

No, they didn't talk about it.

But do you think for a moment that there was any less of it?

Do you think that people were more moral, more decent than they are today?

In my opinion we have simply substituted frankness for hypocrisy.

We do not say things only today that were done and said secretly in the so-called good old days.

Isn't it better to come out into the open with our thoughts than to let them fester inside us?

Isn't it better to lance a poisonous sore than to keep it hidden and let it infect our whole system?

There is no excuse for vulgarity or salaciousness.

The author who writes an indecent play to satisfy the vulgar appetities of salacious people has no legitimate place in our Society.

Neither has the producer who puts on the play, nor the audience that goes to see it.

The same thing applies to the printed word.

But to come out with the truth to show up rottenness with the purpose of remedying evil, is one of the rightful functions of literature, stage and screen.

FORBIDDEN fruit has ever been the sweetest.

The search for hidden things has ever been an attractive and exciting sport.

One of the most stupid ways of curing evil is by keeping people in ignorance of evil.

Open discussion has always been one of the priceless fundamentals of Democracy.

To eradicate Communism, for instance, you must let people know the facts and dangers of Communism.

Immorality is not eradicated by making people believe that there IS no immorality.

By showing it up, by illustrating its dangers, its folly, its vulgarity, its stupidity, immorality will some day be considered as the cheap, dirty, despicable thing it is.

But let us not mistake hypocrisy, intolerance and narrow-mindedness for morality.

FOR LATIN NATIONS

U. S. Studies Defense

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Although the agreement for American rearming of Latin-American nations was signed several years ago in the famous continental defense pact, not a single rifle or bullet has been forwarded to the nations below the Rio Grande, where Nazi agents and colonies flourished before 1939 until they were driven out or underground by diplomatic, political and economic pressure from Washington.

In fact, the pledge to build up armies, navies and air fleets for use in a possible World War III has been forgotten here at the very time when the U.S. is spending billions for that purpose in Europe. But the fact is that second-thought study of the problem convinces both Washington and South American statesmen that the rearmament compact was a major mistake.

TUCKER

It is probable that military assistance on a large scale would constitute a threat to peace in the western hemisphere, and precipitate wars and revolutions even more serious than those Caribbean outbreaks which now disturb President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson and National Defense Secretary Johnson.

* * *

REASONS: The various powers originally included in the rearmament program, especially the A-B-C countries—Argentina, Brazil and Chile—are at such swords' points in a race for Latin-American supremacy that it would be difficult to allocate arms among them without creating hard feelings all around.

No matter how an Administration at Washington tried to show impartiality, it would be damned if it gave one nation a few more rounds of ammunition than another.

The Latin-American politicians, although they would like to strengthen their respective military, naval and aviation establishments, cannot agree among themselves. In off-the-record talks with our diplomats, they note rather plaintively that any man who became Generalissimo of a modernized army, admiral of a go-to-sea navy or head of an effective air force, would become a potential President almost automatically. Therefore, they dare not accept such explosive gifts.

There are other reasons for not going through with the arms agreement. There are not enough trained technicians for maintaining or repairing new-style weapons, and replacement demands on us would become onerous. Moreover, the Latins resent American training, techniques and leaderships.

NEED: Failure to implement the earlier agreement, however, does not mean that our military men are not making preparations to keep South America in a fairly strong defensive state. But it is going to cost a lot of money in the next few years.

In view of Russia's expected progress in making atomic bombs, the major and immediate need is a new sea-level canal across the Isthmus of Panama, probably in Nicaragua.

The present waterway, which enabled our warships to slip from the Atlantic to the Pacific, or vice versa, as circumstances dictated, is too vulnerable to ordinary or atomic bombing. Indeed, our 45,000-ton aircraft carriers cannot negotiate it now.

BASES: Secretary Acheson has already initiated conversations looking toward establishment of key naval and air bases on both coasts, which would be manned with a skeleton force, but capable of expansion in the event of danger.

These could be built and occupied unobtrusively enough, it is believed, so that they would not wound Latin sensitivity or arouse prejudice against the "Yanquis."

Another requirement is an effective intelligence staff to be attached to our embassies and legations, such as we had during World War II. Although details cannot be published for security reasons, the number of our diplomatic, military, commercial and agricultural attaches at South American capitals has been increased far beyond ordinary needs in recent months.

AID: The South Americans still do not like us, for they are oriented, intellectually, culturally, musically, economically and politically, toward Europe. Nor has Secretary Acheson's anti-Franco attitude tended to win us friends down there.

But, when a war threatening the safety and security of the western hemisphere develops, as World War II demonstrated, the unfriendly Latins are only too happy to accept American aid.

Last, while they had a sneaking liking for the friendly Germans in their midst, they have no use for such enemies, as the Russian Communists, of civilization and their historic Catholic religion.

Down Memory Lane

(Taken from the files of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche, Oct. 15, 1929.)

In a telephone message late Monday to Senator Pink L. Parrish, of this city, Governor Dan Moody announced the appointment of H. T. Kimbro, prominent Lubbock business man, as a member of the state Industrial-Accident Board, effective immediately.

The appointment of Mr. Kimbro on the board, which is composed of only three members, follows his consideration of the offer by the governor for several weeks. Two of the places were left vacant some time ago, one by resignation and the other by expiration of term.

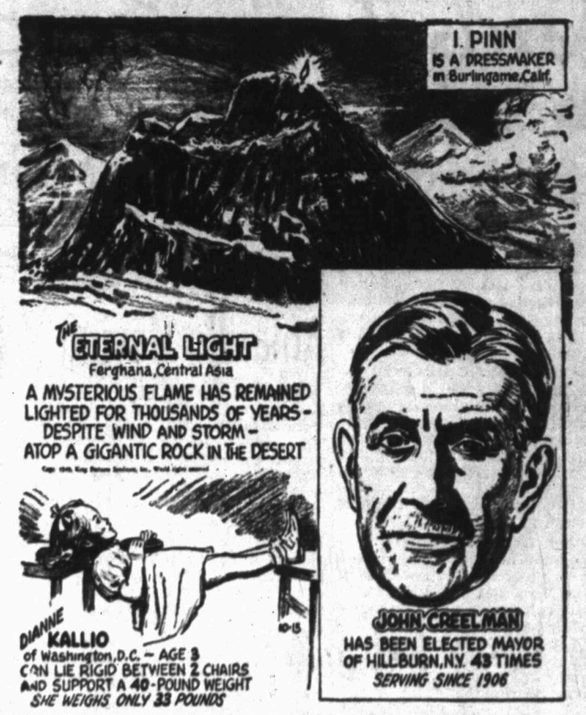

Mr. Kimbro last night announced that he would make his home in Austin and expects to leave this city with his family within the next few days. A pioneer of Lubbock and the South Plains, Mr. Kimbro has been a resident of Lubbock for 21 years. In recent years, with his son, K. I. Kimbro, he has been in the wholesale grain business and was formerly a director of Texas Technological college, having resigned this year.

World Government Plan Pushed

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—It is often in a small way, in calm discussion by groups of earnest men, that profund changes in the course of history have their beginnings.

It was so with the men—elderly, middle-aged and young—who gathered in a room in Philadelphia in 1789 and wrote the Constitution of the United States which transformed a struggling, uncertain and loose confederation of jealously independent states into a strong federal union which now, exactly 160 years later, is the most powerful single influence in the world.

STOKES

It was so, very close to this time, with a group of men in the House of Representatives of both political parties who gathered together in early 1943 in the midst of war at the instance of a young Arkansas congressman, J. William Fulbright, now a senator, and worked out the Fulbright resolution which, when approved by both branches, put Congress on record as favoring full co-operation by the United States with other nations after the war to maintain international peace and justice.

That, in itself, was the genesis of the United Nations.

New Step Planned

It may be so, again, with the group of men and women in Congress of both political parties and private citizens from all walks of life who gathered in a House committee room this week to talk and plan for the next step.

This is the evolution of the United Nations of diverse national states into a really strong and effective world federation or union. The objective is exactly the same on a larger scale as that which the men of Philadelphia achieved so notably in 1789 when they welded a weak and loose confederation into a strong union.

WE should by now have experienced enough, learned enough, to do the bigger job. It should be no more difficult if we have faith, persistence and vision. A careful reading of history reveals the skepticism with which many regarded the aim of those men in Philadelphia 160 years ago. Scoffing cynics said it was impossible. But history shows how they accomplished their purpose through faith, persistence and vision.

These essential ingredients of progress were mentioned in public hearings before the House Foreign Affairs committee this week on pending resolutions for a stronger and more perfect union of nations of the world, and so also were the long-ago meetings in Philadelphia and the more recent meetings here in 1943.

Discussion centered chiefly about two resolutions. One is sponsored by nearly a fourth of Congress—105 House members and 22 senators. It would express the will of Congress that an objective of our foreign policy should be the strengthening and development of the United Nations into a world federation with defined and limited powers adequate to preserve peace and prevent aggression through enactment, interpretation and enforcement of world law.

Atlantic Union Backed

The other, sponsored by a small but representative group of members of Congress of both parties, would put Congress on record for creation of an Atlantic Union of the western democracies, thus excluding Russia, as the basis of an eventual world union. This project is more restricted in scope but more far-reaching within its confines since it would involve a common parliament and mutual finance and defense arrangements.

Again it was a House member from Arkansas, Rep. Brooks Hays (D), who led discussion in behalf of the all-embracing federation and who gave it its full meaning by expressing the hope that our federal system that works for 150,000,000 people can be given by us to the world.

A young war veteran and freshman House member, Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D-Fla.) spoke for his proposal for a plebiscite or referendum vote of the American people on world government, which he argued was the proper way to proceed, and likewise he would have Congress spell out the powers and limits of proposed world government. To this Rep. John M. Vorys (R-Ohio), veteran House member and an original sponsor of the Fulbright resolution as of this one, replied that a resolution should be a prospectus, not a blueprint.

Another freshman member, Rep. Charles R. Howell (D-N.J.) told of a poll he had taken among his constituents that showed 7,000 for world federation and only 191 either against or with reservations, some minor. He concluded by expressing what is perhaps the real truth, as it often is:

"The people are ahead of us on this issue."

CHANGES MADE IN MEASURE

Bill Raising Minimum Wage Is Ready For House, Senate Action

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (AP)—A bill raising the minimum wage in interstate commerce industries from 40 cents an hour to 75 was made ready today for final action by the House and Senate.

However, in jacking up the wage floor, the compromise bill which was worked out by a Senate-House conference committee removes wage-hour law coverage from several hundred thousand workers now protected.

Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah) said it would be impossible to determine the number so affected until the courts interpret the new language.

Both Must Approve

Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) estimated that 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 low paid workers would share some $300,000,000 a year in pay increases on the basis of the new bill.

First the House, then the Senate, must approve the conference committee's compromise before it is sent to President Truman. Rep. Lesinski (D-Mich.), head of the House conferees, said the House probably will not act on the measure before Tuesday.

About 22,600,000 workers are covered by the present wage-hour law, which blankets occupations regarded as "necessary to" the production of items moving in interstate commerce.

In passing its bill, the House voted to restrict coverage to occupations "indispensable to" such production. Sponsors estimated this change would take more than 1,000,000 workers out from under the law.

Changes Are Made

The Senate bill, by other changes, would have excluded about 200,000 workers now under the law.

In the conference, however, the House language was changed, substituting the phrase "directly essential to" for "indispensable to."

They also agreed to two provisions affecting newspapers.

Under the present law, employes of papers (including dailies) which have a circulation of 3,000 or less are exempted. The House wanted to raise the exemption level to 5,000. The conferees settled on 4,000. The new section would apply to circulation in adjoining counties as well as the county of publication. Only circulation in home counties now is counted.

The conference committee also voted to exclude newspaper delivery boys from wage, hour and child labor provisions of the law. The senate had insisted on that.

Kansas Girl Crowned Queen Of Annual Livestock Show

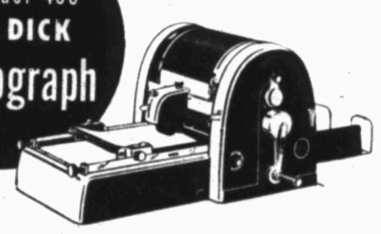

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 14 (INS)—Pretty, 20-year-old Janeice Millrae Bryan tonight was crowned queen of the 51st American Royal live stock and horse show.

A jeweled crown was placed on her head by Harry Darby, president of the American royal, in a colorful ceremony during the coronation ball in Kansas City's Municipal auditorium. The ball ushered in "American royal week" which begins in Kansas City tomorrow and continues through Oct. 22.

Miss Bryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Bryan of Lawrence, Kans., is five feet, five inches tall, weighs 108 pounds, has light brown hair and green eyes. She is a senior at the University of Kansas, majoring in psychology. For her coronation, she wore a white Spanish lace gown and a $45,000 diamond necklace supplied by John Taylors department store of Kansas City.

Crowned as princesses were Miss Mae Patterson, 19-year-old brunette from Clinton, Ark., and Miss Elizabeth Jean Minter, 20-year-old dark-haired girl from Liberty, Mo.

Senate Expected To Okay Air Force Bill

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14 (Special)—Prediction that ultimately the Senate would have to give in to the House and agree to a 58 group Air Force, also adequate strategic stockpiling, was made today by Rep. George Mahon, Lubbock, ranking House Democratic member of the conference committee. Mahon headed the House Appropriations sub-committee which wrote the House version of the money bill for national defense.

"The senators are anxious to get through and go home," said Mahon. "We have plenty of time. We'll just wait until they agree with us."

Churchill Urges Labor Party To Set British Election Date

LONDON, Oct. 14. (AP)—Winston Churchill urged today that Britain's Labor government announce at least the month in which it intends to call an election to replace a Parliament he said is "not only dead but decomposing."

Missouri Man Wins Cotton Picking Title For Second Time

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark., Oct. 14 (AP) — A 20-year-old farm laborer today became the second two-time winner of the world champion cotton picking contest.

The winner, John Edd Anderson of Bragg City, Mo., picked 92.7 pounds of clean cotton to take first prize of $1,000 and the 1949 championship.

Anderson, a farm worker, won the 1947 title by picking 99 pounds.

Title Won Twice

The only other two-time winner is Eugene Shinault of Mississippi county. He won the title last year and previously had walked off with the 1946 championship. Shinault placed fourth today.

Second place winner today was Ernest Pitts, 16, Blytheville, who picked 88.3 pounds to win $250.

Winner of the women's division was Mrs. Arthur Bentley, 31-year-old mother of six children, a resident of Gideon, Mo. She picked 81 pounds to win $250.

Miss Peggie Craft, 17, Wilson, Ark., was second with 78.3 pounds. She won $100.

Special Field Provided

The pickers work in a special field set aside for the contest. Each is assigned two rows of cotton. The pickers work until they finish their rows. There is no time limit.

Selection is made on cleanliness of the cotton after picking. Contestants actually pick more cotton than they receive credit for in the final judging. Judges knock off poundage for debris found in the pickers sack.

This year's contest was the 10th sponsored by the Blytheville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

STOCKS HOLD GROUND

NEW YORK, Oct. 14. (AP)—Stocks were unable to get ahead today, but the market showed marked resistance to selling pressure.

Prices were lower by fractions to around 2 points. There were a number of stocks standing against this trend. Gains in these groups were mainly fractional but extended to more than a point.

A mild recovery in mid-morning cut losses before it ran its course and gave way to a down trend. In the final hour, there was a snap-back from the lows that gave the whole market a lift.

The movement wasn't enough to carry the market to the winning side on average.

Railroads displayed comparative strength against the trend for long periods during the day but ended mixed and a little lower.

Steels, motors, oils and chemicals were mostly lower. There was a lot of backing and filling in those major groups throughout the session.

Radio-Television shares by and large gave a good account of themselves. Admiral Corp. kept ahead as did Motorola. Both report heavy television sales.

A number of gold and metal mining shares perked up in late trading after the Washington announcement of new administration backing for the mines subsidy bill that would aid high cost producers. Homestake Mines moved into new high ground for the year, and Cerro De Pasco advanced sharply.

An uncertain factor was the cut of ¾ of a cent to 13 cents a pound in the price of lead announced by a leading custom smelter.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .3 of a point to 67.2, just under the year's peak level. The industrial component of the average was off .5 of a point, and the railroads and utilities lost .1 of a point each.

The volume of trading was 1,190,000 shares as compared with 1,790,000 Thursday, which was the third highest volume of the year.

On the losing side, with net change and closing price, were Allied Chemical off 2 at 189½, American Can 1½ at 96½, Cocoat 24½, Westinghouse Electric 1½ at 28½, Chrysler ⅞ at 53¼, General Electric ½ at 37½, Union Pacific ⅞ at 81½, Standard Oil (NJ), ¾ at 71⅝, U. S. Gypsum ¾ at 99, and Graham-Paige ¼ at 2.

Advancing with net gain and closing price were Lockheed up ⅝ at 21½, Consolidated Vultee ⅜ at 10⅝, Admiral Corp. ⅛ at 28 (the fourth most active issue), Emerson Radio ⅛ at 16⅝, Motorola 1¼ at 24½, Westinghouse Electric 1; at 28½ (second most active), Homestake 1¼ at 47⅞, Warner Bros. ¼ at 12, Cerro De Pasco 1⅛ at 20⅝, and Santa Fe ¾ at 98½.

Prices were narrowly mixed in the curb market with a volume of 270,000 shares as against 460,000 shares Thursday. Lower were Consolidated Mining and Smelting, Cities Service, and Kaiser-Fraser. Higher were Northrop Aircraft and Messabi Iron.

Bonds were comparatively active but price changes were narrow. U. S. governments in the over the counter market were unchanged to lower.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP) — Cotton futures were firm today. The market was active in early dealings on extensive evening-up operations in nearby October prior to expiration of trading in those contracts at noon today. Thereafter, the market turned quiet, with traders particularly watching farm legislative developments at Washington which will determine the support level of the 1950 cotton crop. Nearby October expired at 29.94 cents a pound, up 45 cents a bale from the previous close.

Futures closed 20 to 40 cents a bale higher than the previous close.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Oct. 14 (AP) — Corn dropped a couple of cents in an all-around weak market on the board of trade today. The yellow cereal was under pressure from the start and worked downward throughout the day.

Cash prices also fell. The premium over the December delivery for No. 1 yellow corn was 7 to 9 cents compared with 9 to 11 cents yesterday. Dealers reported very little demand late in the day's trade.

The December wheat contract showed resistance to the general decline on buying by local traders and scattered orders from commission houses.

Wheat closed ⅛ to 1 cent lower, December $2.11⅝-½, corn was 1½-1¾ lower, December $1.15⅛-¾, oats were ⅛-⅜ lower, December 68-68½, rye was ½ lower to ¼ higher, December $1.47½.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Oct. 14 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard, 2.31½-37½.

Oats No. 2 white 85¾-86¾.

Corn No. 2 white, Texas only, 1.51½-55½.

Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo, per 100 lbs. 2.22-27.

Man Escapes Odessa Jail By Sawing Bars

ODESSA, Oct. 14 (AP) — Mack Howard Wilson, 28, was at large today after sawing through three bars of the Ector county jail and escaping.

Sheriff Earnest Broughton said Wilson probably escaped Wednesday but the break was not discovered until yesterday.

Wilson was under indictment for armed robbery and was to be tried Oct. 31. He is also wanted by the FBI for deserting from the Army in 1945 and on a forgery charge in Santa Barbara, Calif.

Lubbock Hospital To Hold Open House In New Addition Sunday

Sister M. Bertrand, superintendent of St. Mary's hospital extended a cordial invitation Friday to Lubbock residents to attend an open house at the hospital from 3 to 5 p.m. Sunday to commemorate the new 18-room wing.

Rev. William F. Blakeslee, Pastor of St. Elizabeth's Catholic church, will say a prayer in the wing at 2 p. m. and then will ask the benediction in the Sister's chapel at the hospital.

A special guest at the hospital Sunday will be Rev. Mother Louis, mother general of the Sisters of St. Joseph, who operate the hospital.

Sister Michael Rene, business manager of the hospital, said patients will be admitted to the new wing as soon as the open house is completed.

Each room is private and equipped with new furniture. The entire wing is air conditioned and centrally heated.

At the Mothercraft exhibition to be staged this November at Westminster, England, there will be a Fathercraft Corner where fathers can show their inventive powers with safety gadgets and toys.

Border Patrol Begins Roundup Of Mexican Nationals Illegally In U. S.

BROWNSVILLE, Oct. 14 (AP) — The roundup of wetbacks—Mexican aliens illegally in the United States—began today.

The U.S. Immigration service's border patrol sent its men out to pick up the aliens for return to Mexico.

Today was the deadline for Texas employers to "process" their aliens—get them formally approved under the new U.S.-Mexico international agreement.

Farm Workers Last

However, first emphasis was on unemployed aliens, then on non-agriculturally employed aliens, principally dishwashers, waiters and restaurant bus boys. Alien farm workers were last on the list.

The patrol's plan to go after wetbacks on farms last apparently was paying off in a rush by farmers to have their "braceros" legalized.

At Brownsville, Manager Roy Brockette of the Texas Employment commission office said applications from farmers were coming in "about as fast as we can write them up."

The searching patrol officers had orders not to raid the labor compliment of farmers who have applied to employment officers to have their braceros processed.

Mexico Okay Needed

Brockette would release no figures on the number of applications nor on the wage specified in the applications. Contracts legalizing the alien workers must be approved by Mexico, which so far has not approved agreements which offer less than 40 cents an hour.

The Mexican government requirement is that braceros get the "prevailing wage" in the area where they work. In the valley, where the majority of the farm work has been done by aliens, the prevailing wage is a nebulous figure, now in the process of determination by state and federal officials.

Other groups of aliens scheduled to be included in the border patrol drive are cannery workers and domestic employes.

Drive To Boost Speed

The drive was slow to start in the McAllen area but was expected to pick up speed. Fletcher Rawls, valley border patrol chief, said 767 non-agricultural and unprocessed agricultural workers were deported last week.

At Laredo, Chief Inspector E. B. Debrail of the patrol announced the roundup there was beginning immediately insofar as non-agricultural workers are concerned.

Debrail said aliens working for farmers who have refused to sign up under the international agreement will, however, be deported immediately.

Sekt, German substitute for champagne, a sparkling hock made from the lighter Rhine vintages, may become a popular British drink under a new trade agreement providing for importation of $2,500,000 worth of German wines and spirits.

Bumper Pecan Crop Nears Harvest Time

There are those who say you can't grow pecans in West Texas, but Mr. and Mrs. Ed Greer will argue that point anytime.

The Greers are preparing to harvest a bumper crop of Burkett pecans from four stately trees in the yard of their home at 1914 Ave. M.

Although they have lived there only four years, they have harvested three crops of pecans. The fourth year was a complete failure due to early frost.

The trees were planted by R. B. Bruce of Lubbock in 1929 when his mother, now deceased, owned the home.

Last year Mr. and Mrs. Greer harvested an estimated bushel and a half from the four trees. They don't know exactly how many pecans the trees bore because they had plenty of help in harvesting them from children and others in the vicinity.

Greer says he hasn't taken any special pains with the trees, other than to keep them watered and fertilized. He started to have them sprayed once, then decided against it.

The pecans are not of the paper shell variety, but they are large in size. They are still in their green jackets for the most part, but a few are beginning to open and drop out on the ground.
