Where "Worst Drought" Is Felt

Grasshopper menace appears as appeals rise from Washington to relieve distress.
Governor acts to forestall "most dangerous forest fire hazard in history."
Wheat pit in turmoil as prices rise legal limit, facing "short crop."

Acute water shortage at Salt Lake City and in many communities east to Ohio.
Heavy dust storms sweep whole counties, denuding and killing wheat.
Farmers break seals of "loan corn" cribs to feed stock as mercury hits 90 degrees.

The entire midwest waits anxiously for relief from the "worst drought in a generation." The worst counties of "America's bread basket" lie parching under unseasonable heat, and nearly a month without appreciable rainfall is endangering the wheat crop. While a huge carry-over eliminates fear of actual shortage, Washington officials watch anxiously the effects on the mid-west farming region.

WTCC DEPLORES 'BIG OVERHEAD' USED IN ADMINISTERING RELIEF FUND; RECOMMENDATIONS MADE

4 Major Activities Announced For Next Year

SAN ANGELO, May 14 (AP)—A four-point program that would "ask nothing of the government except protection of rights and the privilege of paying a reasonable tax" was recommended to West Texans today by the convention work committee of their regional chamber of commerce. The sixteenth general convention of the West Texas regional organization opened today with group conferences.

A spirit of "independence and self-reliance" would be substituted for "government patronage and subsidy" in this new campaign to return prosperity "through the development of a social and economic structure relying upon gainful employment in enterprises that yield a profit."

The recommendations of the important convention work committee, headed by Ray H. Nichols, Vernon newspaper man, and made up of many West Texas leaders, are contained in one of many resolutions which the committee will present to the general convention tomorrow.

Four major activities were outlined for the ensuing year:

1. An analysis of the agricultural possibilities of each county in the area.
2. An analysis of possibilities for successful operation of small industrial enterprises, having in mind the processing of West Texas raw materials and the employment of West Texas labor.
3. The encouragement of the settlement of undeveloped or partially developed farming areas on such a basis that a thrifty family can

White to Look After Land in Gaines County

County Attorney Sherman White may be sent to Gaines county soon by the commissioners court to investigate the status of Gray county school lands which have been parceled out by the original buyer.

Interest is long past due on many of the tracts. Principal payments, which will total about $61,000, will not be due until 1947. The land sold for $3.50 an acre.

In recent months, oil development has touched Gaines county and many leases have been sold in parts of the county. Gray county would profit by collecting back interest or foreclosing on some delinquent tracts which might be developed for oil or gas.

Two Gaines county landowners, J. W. Allison and Bert W. Self of Crowell, were here today to pay interest on land formerly belonging to Gray county. Their land, once under oil leases, is expected to be leased again soon, they said.

MEN PLAN TO LAND IN ROME IN 40 HOURS

13 PERSONS WERE LOST IN FIVE OTHER ATTEMPTS

BROOKLYN, May 14 (AP)—Captain George R. Pond and Lieut. Cesare Sabelli soared away from Floyd Bennett field at 6:24 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, today with the announced intention of reaching Rome without a stop. They said their large orange and maroon monoplane could make the 4,500-mile flight in about 40 hours.

Pond, a former navy flyer, and Sabelli, one-time Italian war ace, had been planning the flight for months. They had hoped originally to make the attempt last fall but abandoned the idea because of unfavorable weather.

Their plane, "Leonardo Da Vinci," with 680 gallons of gasoline, carried enough fuel to last more than 40 hours.

Weather reports indicated favorable winds, but noted a low pressure area over the North Atlantic coast which the fliers said they would fly over.

They set a course over Cape Grace, Nfld., at the great circle route. If the weather turned bad, they said, they might abandon the attempt to make Rome and land in France or Spain.

Today's attempt was the first transatlantic flight of the year. Only a few friends and officers were at the airport to see them off. The sky was overcast as the big plane soared away.

The plane made a perfect takeoff, rising easily into the air after a run of about 1,000 feet.

Only a few minutes at the controls, kept the plane at an altitude of 100 feet as it flew over Jamaica Bay, then banked it sharply and darted away toward the northeast.

The "Leonardo da Vinci" was powered with a Wright J6 motor, capable of developing 300 horsepower at a maximum speed of 150 miles per hour and a cruising speed of 120 miles.

The fliers carried a wireless receiver and made arrangements for hourly weather reports.

Sabelli is 37 years old and lives in New York. His flying suit, loaned to him by Peggy Rex of Cleveland, bore the autographs of Ethel Barrymore, Frank Hawks, and Jimmy Doolittle.

Pond, 40 years old, is considered an outstanding navigator and pilot. He has a his home at the Explorers club in New York.

The flight, if successful, will be the first from New York to Rome. Thirteen persons have been lost in five other attempts.

Sabelli, who became an American citizen several years ago, gained wide notice in 1928 when he and Roger Q. Williams projected a flight to Italy in the giant seagull-plane, "Roma." The flight did not materialize and later Sabelli sought $20,000 damages against Bellanca Aircraft corporation, saying that after he spent time and money planning the flight the Bellanca, who had agreed to sell him the plane, got it back from him.

Captain Pond added to his aviation laurels in 1928 when he and another flier successfully carried mail to and from the liner Leviathan, which was outward bound 60 miles off Ambrose channel lights. It was a forerunner of the ship-to-shore service of more recent days.

Rain Accompanies Cold Spell Here

Cold misty, rainy weather has brought Pampa 40 of an inch of moisture since Sunday morning.

The cold wind and precipitation caused abandonment of the Road-runners-Topeka baseball game in the afternoon and the civic club tournament in the morning.

The rain was heavier north of the city and spotted over this territory.

LATE NEWS

WASHINGTON, May 15 (AP)—Legislation requested by President Roosevelt which democratic leaders said would provide possibly "several billion dollars" for home construction and improvement was introduced today in congress.

AUSTIN, May 14 (AP)—Miss Marie Dresden, state relief director, said remittances of relief funds to counties for this month likely would be mailed today. The total is $1,173,500. County allocations were determined this month on an actual need basis as determined by investigations of individual cases, she said.

AUSTIN, May 14 (AP)—The state highway commission, facing depletion of both state and federal funds for road construction, today announced a curtailment program. No new highways will be designated and no promises will be made for road construction, it announced.

"People generally have been misled by stories emanating from Washington that funds at the disposal of the highway department have been recently increased. That is a mistake," the commission said.

AMARILLO, May 14 (AP)—Moisture ranging from light showers to half an inch was received last night over scattered sections of the Panhandle. The rain resulted in low temperatures with it dropping to the 40-degree mark at 7 o'clock.

Clarendon and vicinity received half an inch of moisture. One-eighth of an inch and more fell Sunday night from Canadian west to Canyon. Light showers were reported from Canyon west to the New Mexico line.

BENEFIELD IS NEW HEAD OF TEXAS LEGION

TO SUCCEED PERKINS WHO IS CHARGED WITH FORGERY

AUSTIN, May 14 (AP)—M. J. Benefield of Brady, an overseas world war sergeant, today was commander of the Texas department of American Legion.

Legion executive committee members yesterday accepted the resignation of L. Van Perkins of Cameron and elevated Benefield from commander of the fifth Texas division to the post. Perkins resigned after he was charged before a United States commissioner at Waco with forging the name of a payee to a government obligation.

Orville H. Turner of Brownwood was selected to succeed Benefield as fifth division commander. Turner was executive committee member from the 17th district.

Ex-Prisoner Is Wanted to Grind Telescope Lens

CHICAGO, May 14 (AP)—A former prisoner was sought today as one of the few men in the world with sufficient skill to assist in the production of the world's largest telescope.

Dismayed at the breaking of the mold for the 72-inch lens for the new University of Texas observatory, New York glass makers communicated with Sheriff Harry Crawford at Geneva, Ill., yesterday asking for the address of John E. Mellish.

Crawford wired the Prez Glass company at Corning that Mellish had been paroled a year ago to George Friend in Los Angeles, California. Previously Mellish had been confined in Kane county jail on charges preferred by his wife, Jesse, in behalf of their 15 year old daughter.

Officials of seven universities asserted at the time of Mellish's indictment in 1931 that he was one of four men in the world with the skill to grind astronomical lenses properly.

For many months, while he waited trial, Mellish was permitted to work in his laboratory because of the demands of science for his unique skill.

Lightning Strikes Residence in City

The H. T. Hampton residence at 1025 East Fischer street was struck by lightning about 1 o'clock this morning. The bolt struck the roof on the east side of the house, tearing loose shingles and boards from the side of the house as it went into the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. Hampton, and some guests were in the living room when the lightning struck. They were dazed for a minute as the house quivered. No one followed.

SUSPECTS TAKEN IN TRAP SET BY POLICE

Go-Between Escapes After Gun Fight With Gang

LOS ANGELES, May 14 (AP)—In a sensational escape from a mob of men apparently attempting to hijack $50,000 offered as ransom for the release of William P. Gettle, kidnaped oil millionaire, an emissary fled today after shooting his way to freedom and shortly afterward two suspects were caught in an immense police trap.

The intermediary, whose identity was kept secret at the request of police, was not Ernest E. Noon, family lawyer, who has been attempting to contact the kidnapers since the abduction of Gettle from his five-acre wooded estate in suburban Arcadia last Wednesday.

The attempt to seize the money, carried in a black satchel and made up of $5 and $10 bills of old issue but genuine currency, came after a dramatic series of maneuvers which had thrown the entire police forces of Los Angeles into a state of confusion.

After the emissary had picked up several notes, apparently left by the kidnapers and containing instructions for payment of the ransom, he noticed as he drove down a street that he was being surrounded by about three machines.

Confident that the occupants could not be the actual kidnapers because of the information he had obtained from the notes, he opened fire upon them. Shots were exchanged and after a brisk battle, the go-between succeeded in escaping.

In a matter of minutes the district, about eight miles southwest of Los Angeles, was filled off by swarming police automobiles. Officers leading the hunt believed the emissary had been made away with at he attempted to pass the money but this, it soon developed, was erroneous.

Shortly after detective headquarters learned the emissary was safe, two men fell into the police blockade. One of them possessed a firearm and wore a red sweater.

In the course of another brief interval, Noon received a telephone call from a man who was identified by his voice as the kidnapers' contact man, saying:

"Something has happened out at Downey."

He referred to the district where the revolver fire occurred and apparently this marked, for the time being, a cessation of all real efforts to establish contact.

The emissary, upon escaping from the suspected hi-jackers, hurried to a telephone, notified authorities he was safe and in possession of the money and a squad of police machine to his protection. He was escorted back to his offices and plans were laid anew to pay the money and bring about the release of Gettle.

The start of the presumed contacts with the kidnapers began about 9 p. m. last night and as far as could be learned, the intermediary chosen remained unshaken.

Work on Pampa's new postoffice is rapidly nearing completion and occupation should be before June 15, Postmaster D. E. Geill announced this morning. Laying of the beautiful floors has been completed and sanding and smoothing are now under way.

Workmen this morning started decorating of the ceiling and walls, which should be completed within the next two weeks. After that, small odd jobs should finish the work and moving will be started.

Boxes have been installed and assignments made. It has been found necessary to change many of the numbers because of the size of the new boxes. Bins have been made available for firms receiving large quantities of mail. Keys will open the new boxes.

Meek and Woodrow Millsap Catch 53 Catfish Saturday

One of the best fish stories of the season was told today by J. A. Meek, principal of B. M. Baker school. He and Woodrow Millsap went to Lelia Lake, near Clarendon, to try for catfish. Chicken intestines were used as bait. While many others had little luck, the local men caught 53 catfish and, weary, stopped fishing while the biting was good.

TEXAS SOLONS TOLD RELIEF FUND IS SURE

HOPKINS AGAIN TELLS PAIR MONEY IS AVAILABLE

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—Senator Connally and Representative Marvin Jones, Texas democrats, said today they had been given renewed assurances by Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, that an emergency road program for drought and storm areas in their state would go forward immediately as planned.

The Texans called on Hopkins after receipt of information from Mayor Ross Rogers of Amarillo to the effect that C. B. Braun, described as a Texas relief official, had stated there was little or no available funds for labor for the program.

Jones and Connally said Hopkins informed them he had talked today with Miss Marie Dresden, state relief director, and had been advised the work would go forward. Jones said Hopkins told him he understood Braun was no longer with the Texas administration, and thus had no authority to speak for it.

The Texans emphasized that while money for labor costs had not been actually earmarked, the administrator's agreement was to the effect labor—representing 70 per cent of the cost—would be furnished. They added there never had been any claim that specific funds had been actually set apart for labor pointing out the administration invariably furnishes labor itself—the equivalent of money.

AUSTIN, May 14 (AP)—Severe reductions in relief expenditures to make funds available to Texas last until next February was proposed in the Texas relief commission today.

Miss Marie Dresden, state relief director, said that only $1,200,000 of the $4,000,000 recently derived from sale of bonds was left. She said expenditure of $2,750,000 state bond money since April 17 "about evened" the state's account with the federal government on its matching agreement.

"The Panhandle is much worse than it was before President Roosevelt took office," Julius Dorenfield Jr. of Amarillo, declared.

He complained West Texas had not been treated fairly.

"Yes, and I'm going to tell this afternoon all about the raw deal West Texas got," Earle P. Adams of Austin rejoined.

Gray County Gets $5,000 For Labor

AUSTIN, May 14 (AP)—Tentative allotments of labor by the Texas relief commission for emergency highway construction in 23 counties in a new $9,900,000 program to relieve conditions in drought and storm hit areas were announced today by the state highway commission.

May allotments by counties were: Armstrong $1,700; Castro $2,000; Carson $1,500; Dallam $5,000; Deaf Smith $3,000; Gray $5,000; Hansford $1,200; Hartley $1,000; Hempden $2,200; Hutchinson $2,500; Lipscomb $2,200; Moore $1,200; Neodesha $13,000; Ochiltree $3,500; Oldham $1,000; Potter $14,000; Roberts $800; Sherman $1,000; Swisher $2,500; Sabine $3,150; San Augustine $5,400; Shelby $9,000, and Randall $2,250.

FDR Plans Home Building

President Asks Government To Insure Private Financing of Construction.

WASHINGTON, May 14 (AP)—Government insurance of private financing for home construction and repair was proposed today by President Roosevelt in a message to congress.

The president urged action at this session on the two-fold program which he said would add to employment and provide "tangible, useful wealth in a form for which there is a great social and economic need."

Loans for modernization would be made by private agencies which would be insured by government agencies against loss up to a certain percentage of their advances.

HOME VS. STREET

In a short time school will be out. With the closing of school comes the big problem of what to do with the children.

In many ways the town child is up against it during the summer. Cooped up in town, with no place to play, no work, no objective but to loaf, the boy has little chance to make good use of his vacation.

There is therefore, a lack of opportunity for the boy to make himself useful. He is faced with a problem that he must solve, but the answer is a riddle. It is easy to drift into the loafing habit and the chances are that the lad will be on the street a big portion of the time.

Home work in town is on the negative order, for there is nothing much to do. Odd jobs are scarce and regular work out side of the home is rarely to be had and just now, owing to the slack times, work is not to be had because older men need employment.

Boys are restless young animals and want to be on the go and that usually means that boys gang up and seek adventure and it matters very little what the adventure may be if the gang has a leader of questionable habits.

The back yard of home can not always be used for a playground and boys object strenuously if they think they are being watched by parents who may seem officious. It is true, also, that boys don't want to be bossed.

During school hours the children are kept busy and in the evening home work on lessons takes up the time, but after the close of school the children are left more or less to their own wits to fill up the time and naturally find the street inviting.

Obviously the street is not the place for children. There is danger from cars when children play in the street. The child has little time to escape being hit by a car driven at a high rate of speed. The moral atmosphere of the street is not always the best and companions at play are not always ideal. Therefore the street gamin is not overly good company for the gang.

The home and the mother must be the cure all and that means many weary hours for the mother and perplexity for the children. But most mothers realize the fact that they are responsible for recreation making for the children as well as for the work periods that must be created to keep the youngsters out of mischief, busy and happy.

And perhaps before vacation is over there may be plenty of reasons why mothers have gray hair. But, for all that, the boy and the girl will profit exceedingly by the watchful care of the best friend a child ever had—its mother.

It is not a wise thing, however, for dad to be too careless, or too busy, to take a hand in making vacation worth while for the kiddies.

But, in all events, keep the children off the streets. Higgins News.

WHISTLER'S FAMED PAINTING OF MOTHER CRITICIZED AS OBSOLETE

By The Associated Press
Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of the president, led the nation's observance of Mother's day yesterday.

As the "first mother of the land" she was the guest of honor at the world peace ways dinner and the principal speaker on the annual old rule foundation's program, both in New York.

"I rejoice most of all, this year," she said, "in the belief that we are in the eve of a greater recovery of our moral and spiritual resources."

C. V. Vickery, president of the Golden Rule foundation, termed the president's mother the "typical mother of today" and criticized Whistler's "mother" painting, used on the memorial postage stamps.

"A painting of a modern mother," said Vickery, "would not depict her sitting meditatively, hand folded, but surrounded by magazines and newspapers with a telephone at hand and a radio in the background. Mothers today are not only interested in their own families and homes, but in other homes and conditions around them."

At Washington wreaths from 24 chapters of the American war mothers were placed on the tomb of the unknown soldier. A message from President Roosevelt to the war mothers said: "May you long enjoy the peace and tranquility which your sons have made possible for us."

PIGS HUNT PEOPLE
HELLO HORIZONTE, Brazil—Hunting wild pigs may be a sport, but residents of Santa Cruz, Minas Geraes, found it no fun when the pigs turned the tables on them. Several thousand savage porkers stampeded through the town from the nearby forest, driving the people from the streets and taking temporary possession of the place. Townspeople felled scores of the pigs with firearms, bricks and anything else that came to hand.

Texas, as a state, is behind many other states in this respect and much work as the local art patrons and artists are doing is well worth state and national recognition.

A campaign to reduce the menace to health caused by open toilets outside the city limits will be made by Dr. W. Purviance, county health officer.

6.8 PER CENT OF POPULATION IN TEXAS IS REPORTED ILLITERATE

BY R. W. BARRY.
AUSTIN, May 14 (AP)—The 1930 census recorded 308,121 illiterates in Texas, almost evenly divided between males and female. That was 6.8 per cent of the population. Educating these has been started through an appropriation by the federal government of $95,000 per month for educational relief.

The capital press correspondents are kept informed to the nth degree as to progress of the candidates for state office.

A. W. von Strube of Waco, veteran newspaper man, quit a post in Washington with the relief administration to take charge of the publicity for Tom Hunter of Wichita Falls, gubernatorial candidate. Von Strube did that work for Hunter two years ago.

Each of the other candidates has "high-powered" press representatives. Paul Wakefield, who worked in two campaigns for former Gov. St. S. Sterling, is handling publicity for James V. Allred. Gene Cooper, formerly with the Dallas Morning News, is writing stories for Edgar S. Will. A. K. Lyon, of the San Antonio Express, is helping Clint C.

ATTORNEY GENERAL JIMMIE ALLRED TO OPEN PRE-CENTENNIAL

LETTERS FROM PIONEERS IN NEW INCREASE

STATE OFFICIAL WILL GIVE PATRIOTIC ADDRESS

The Pre-Centennial celebration and Pioneers Roundup was given an official flavor this morning when Mayor W. A. Bratton announced that James V. Allred, attorney general of Texas, had accepted an invitation "with pleasure" to open the celebration on the morning of May 31 with a patriotic address.

The mayor invited the second-ranking state officer at the request of H. L. Polley, chairman of the speakers committee.

It was the opinion that a high state official would lend dignity to the opening of the celebration. Mr. Allred is well known here, having spoken in the city several times. One of his brothers, Raymond Allred, was formerly district attorney in Pampa. Mayor Bratton has invited other state and federal officials to attend but has not heard from them yet.

This morning's Pre-Centennial mail brought more favorable letters from old timers who wrote they would attend the celebration. W. W. Lewis, stock farmer of Canadian, who has been in the Panhandle since 1888 said he would be here if possible. E. B. Reeves, resident of the Panhandle for over 40 years, said he and his brothers, Phil and Elmer, all of Alameda, would attend.

From Clarendon, Mrs. J. B. Baird, Mrs. Annie Hall and William F. Fleming wrote that "you may expect us to be present."

The following letter was received from E. J. Pickens, judge of the 84th judicial district: "While I do not belong to that splendid and high-type of citizenship that can be called a 'real old timer,' I will certainly try to be on hand for at least one day of your celebration, and two if possible."

"I appreciate this opportunity that you and your co-workers are giving us, who came afterwards, to honor those who laid the foundations of this country. There are no finer men and women anywhere than this type. My coming to this country was far enough back to know many of this type who have passed on, and I count it as one of the rare privileges.

"In your town, such men as Jess Wynne, the Ledicks, T. D. Hobart, C. F. Buckler, M. K. Brown and Judge W. R. Ewing, together with many others who cannot be named because of lack of space, are but testimonials of the fine character possessed by this type. Thank you very much for the invitation."

RAIN AT CLARENDON, MAY 14.—A half-inch of rain fell here today in a 45-degree temperature. The cool spell will retard planting. Frost was predicted for tomorrow morning.

MURDER AT MOCKING HOUSE

SYNOPSIS: It seems obvious that the two men found shot to death in Pierre Dufresne's breakfast room killed each other, and that one of them is the crank who has been writing threatening letters to Dufresne. But Sergeant Harper has a different hunch, although neither Dufresne, his wife, nor anyone else can shed any light on the matter. Harper is about to question the household.

Chapter 15
INQUISITION
A few minutes later Mrs. Dufresne's sister arrived, with her husband, Richard Croyden. One had only to glance at Aline Croyden to recognize her as the sister of Sylvia Dufresne. Her hair approached an auburn shade rather than the golden blonde coloring of her sister.

Her features, too, though of the same distinctive beauty, had less of the fragile and ethereal quality. Her natural manner was more vigorous and forthright, though not lacking either in poise or graciousness.

Mrs. Croyden excused herself at the first opportunity to go upstairs and see if she could be of any service. Harper continued to talk with Richard Croyden. He found this brother-in-law of Pierre Dufresne a nervous, impulsive personality, but with an alert, incisive turn of mind.

He questioned the detective closely along lines which showed that he was not the only one who had a grasp of the essentials of the mystery and a bond of mutual liking and respect sprang up between him and the Sergeant of Detectives at their first contact.

It was not until later that the detective found out that Croyden was the famous concert pianist.

Croyden was not the only one who exhibited a strong interest in the strange mystery of the breakfast room. The chauffeur, Donaghy, listened intently and said nothing. And Harper was surprised to glance upward and find Dr. Ulrich standing near the head of the stairs, absorbed in the conversation below. He caught the detective's look and slowly backed away with a sardonic gleam of the eye.

When Mrs. Croyden returned from upstairs, Harper mustered them all into the breakfast-room. They formed into two natural groups, facing the body in the chair. In one group were Pierre Dufresne, and Mr. and Mrs. Croyden. In the other were the two Whitmores, Andrews, and Donaghy.

The detective gave a brief summary of the situation, to which they listened in absolute silence. He demonstrated how the features had been altered by the disguise.

"Have you, Mrs. Croyden?" "I am sure I have not," she answered in a very small voice.

"Mr. Croyden?" "No, Sergeant. Sorry I can't help you."

"Whitmore?" The black-browed Mrs. Whitmore spoke up before her slow-minded spouse could pull his wits together. "No, we've never seen him," she answered, sharply.

"Perhaps your husband would prefer to answer for himself," Harper suggested, annoyed by her air.

"Well, I ought to know. We've been married twenty-some years, and if I didn't see him, John didn't see him," she shot back, her black eyes snapping.

"That's right, I don't know him," the slow-witted Whitmore replied, with a sheepish look.

"Andrews?" The tight-lipped butler looked more glum than ever as he silently shook his head.

The handsome chauffeur had been the most interested member of the group. He looked long and carefully at the unidentified victim. "It seems to me I have seen this man somewhere before," he stated slowly.

His deliberate words had the effect of a bombshell in that room. Harper caught the sudden tenseness, the sharp hiss of some one's breath, a certain mischievous glint in a gasp. His eye swept the group. Andrews' look was positively venomous. The detective scented something in the wind.

"Think hard, Donaghy. This is most important."

Joseph Donaghy held his pause to the limit, then he smiled and shook his head. "For a moment, I thought I had it—something about the face. I'll try to remember, Sergeant. Maybe it will come back to me."

That was what Donaghy's words brought to Harper's ear, but it was as if Donaghy's real voice had been saying, "I know this man. That knowledge is dangerous to one of you. Will it be made worth while for me to forget?"

And more than one pair of ears was aware of the importance of both messages!

The following day, Wednesday, January 11th, dawned clear and cold. The heavy fall of snow and tapered off about midnight and there had been very little wind to disturb it afterward.

Harper, arriving for duty at Dufresne's house shortly after eight o'clock, noted with satisfaction the undisturbed condition of the white blanket surrounding the house. A carpet of Nature had contrived this smooth carpet to record a portion of the previous night's fantastic story and the detective proposed to make good use of it.

Harper found Mrs. Richard Croyden in the hall, deep in consultation with the black-browed house-

JAPANESE SAY RUSSIANS KILL TWO SAILORS

REPORT TROOPS BOUND FOR SERVICE AT BORDER CITY

BY GLENN BABB, Associated Press Foreign Staff.
TOKYO, May 14 (AP)—A Japanese report said today that rifle fire from Russian military position on the Amur river Saturday killed one Manchukuoan sailor and wounded another aboard a steamer.

The army report made no mention of advice from Tselihar to the newspaper Asahi that a detachment of Japanese troops bound for duty at Heino was aboard the vessel.

"The war is declining to comment," a spokesman said the government of the Japanese-protected empire of Manchukuo was investigating. He said a protest might be made to Moscow.

The shooting took place near the confluence of the Amur and Sungari rivers. The Amur forms the northern boundary of Manchukuo. A Rengo (Japanese) news agency dispatch from Hsinking (Changchun), capital of Manchukuo, said the foreign office was preparing a protest to the Soviet consul-general at Harbin, Manchukuo.

Tokyo government officials expressed the opinion that serious Russo-Japanese friction as a result of the incident was unlikely in view of the serious efforts being made by both governments recently to arrive at a friendly solution of Russo-Japanese issues.

San Augustine Planning To Be Centennial City

AUSTIN, May 14 (AP)—San Augustine, the oldest town in Texas, plans improvement of its historic place to attract Texas Centennial visitors in 1936.

Mrs. U. D. Lynch, a member of the Centennial advisory board for San Augustine county, recently outlined plans to the town to make it attractive as an overnight stopping place for Centennial visitors entering Texas from the east on the old San Antonio trail.

"San Augustine was perhaps the first Anglo-Saxon settlement in Texas," she said. "And for that reason it feels it should have a prominent part in whatever Centennial celebration may be held."

An acre park near the center of the East Texas town, site of the first Masonic lodge building in Texas, has been beautified, she said. The original building has been destroyed, but the present structure has the original cornerstone, inscribed "1836."

Efforts are being made to secure the site of the old San Augustine mission and fort near the edge of town and restore it as a Centennial project. Reconstruction of the old McMahon chapel, First Methodist church building in Texas, also is planned. Texas Methodists at their Centennial celebration in San Antonio next fall will be asked to aid in restoration of the historic chapel, Mrs. Lynch said.

San Augustine citizens hope to secure a state park designation and have it improved by the civilian conservation corps.

"You certainly leave nothing to chance," Mrs. Croyden observed. "This morning I saw there was a policeman guarding Mr. Dufresne's room. Isn't that a rather unusual procedure, Mr. Harper? Surely, last night's events put an end to the danger."

The detective shook his head. "This is an unusual case, Mrs. Croyden. We do not actually know that the man found in this room is the man who threatened Mr. Dufresne and attempted to kill him."

"But surely you have a theory? I thought the matter was quite clear." (Copyright, 1934, by Walter C. Brown)

SNOW AND RAIN FALL OVER BIG DROUGHT AREA

Topeka Gets Biggest Rain in Last 4 Years

CHICAGO, May 14 (AP)—Rain drenched parts of a drought stricken midwest, but general predictions for fair weather today and tomorrow gladdened the relief as only a stop-gap.

Precipitation, both rain and snow, ranged from light drizzles in some sections to 4-1/2-inch downpours in others, but agricultural experts said additional moisture was imperative to material improvement.

Showers fell generally throughout the agricultural area yesterday, assuring in many sections the germination of corn and proving a boon to the oat crop. The weather was cooler.

Lightning killed two men in Iowa and rain in that state was rather general, but a recurrence of dust storms was reported at Sioux City and Cherokee.

The beet fields of Nebraska gained appreciably from a half inch of moisture, combined with rain and snow. At Sterling, 4 1/2 inches of rain, the heaviest fall in many months, was recorded.

Topeka, Kan., was soaked with 4.08 inches of rain, the heaviest fall since September, 1930. However, the long parched western section of the state remained dry.

Scattered showers, insufficient to bring permanent relief, fell in Illinois.

MEAT CUTTERS ON STRIKE FOR HIGHER WAGES

SINCLAIR'S EMPLOYEES GO BACK TO JOBS AT SEMINOLE

By The Associated Press.
Industrial strife spread to the meat packing business today, with a strike of butchers and meat cutters at St. Louis, and another death was charged to the prolonged coal mine troubles in Illinois.

Joe Augouas, a United Mine worker employed by the Peabody Coal company, was shot and killed at Taylorville, Ill. Police arrested Eddie Newman, member of the rival Progressive Miners' Union, as the slayer. The killing, police said, followed a backyard quarrel over the miners' controversy.

About 2,500 workers are involved in the St. Louis strike. Picketing of the major packing plants was ordered. The strike was voted at a mass meeting of union butchers and meat cutters, who are asking nois, Minnesota, and parts of South Dakota.

Snow, turning almost immediately into rain, provided much needed moisture for Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, and northern New Mexico.

Rain was general throughout Wisconsin, ranging from one inch.

minimum wages of 75 cents an hour for butchers and 60 cents for laborers, with a 32-hour week.

Philadelphia painters were ordered to strike for a minimum wage of $1 an hour. The district council, which authorized the strike, said 4,000 painters would quit work.

At Washington, William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, warned there probably would be more strikes in the automobile industry unless striking employees of the Fisher body plant at Flint, Mich., win their demands for union recognition and collective bargaining.

"The strike of the workers employed at the Fisher body plant at Flint, Mich.," said Green, "reflects the spirit of unrest and discontent which prevails among the automobile workers at the present time."

Cleveland motorists drove to neighboring towns for gasoline. Supplies in Cleveland were virtually exhausted as a result of the strike of filling station attendants. Negotiations for a settlement are under way in Washington.

Akron, Ohio, had a normal supply of bread again, 600 bakers and bakery truck drivers having returned to work under a settlement arranged by Ralph A. Lind of the Cleveland regional labor board. The agreement provided for wage increases of 15 to 20 per cent and a reduction in hours.

At Seminole, Okla., oil field employees of the Sinclair company ended their strike and returned to work pending efforts of Dr. George W. Stouck of the Federal petroleum labor policy board, to negotiate an agreement with the company which would have the approval of the A. F. of L.

IBN SAUD AND CONQUERED YEMEN AGREE UPON AN ARMISTICE

PEACE TERMS ARE DICTATED BY CONQUEROR

MONARCH EXPECTED TO SET UP PUPPET KINGDOM

JEDDAH, Arabia, May 14. (AP)—Peace settled over southwestern Arabia today after months of bitter fighting between the conquering forces of Ibn Saud, King of Saudi Arabia, and the Imam Yahya, ruler of Yemen.

An armistice was agreed upon, it was announced officially here, on terms laid down by Ibn Saud. His armies are in control of most of the ancient state of Yemen—bounded by Asir, Saudi Arabia, British-controlled Aden, and the Red sea. Envoys were reported meeting to plan a permanent peace at Taif, Arabia—5,500 feet up in the Hejaz mountains—where Ibn Saud has been directing his armies by radio from his marble palace.

It is presumed the bespectacled, bearded monarch will set up a nominally independent Yemen, under Saudi domination.

Dallasites Bet $1,685,353 In First 13 Days

DALLAS, May 14. (AP)—Racing-mad Dallasites bet $1,685,352 on the 274 horse races which ran at the new band-box state fair park track the first 13 days of the 21-day inaugural meeting.

From 3,500 to 6,000 race goers have huddled an average of $129,642.54 a day at the "iron men," the pari-mutuel or certificate machines, which have served it back at them after a bite of ten cents out of each dollar bet.

In the small fields running ten horses have appeared five times each in the 13 days while no fewer than 44 have gone to the post four times each, an average of about one race every third day.

One was remarked as a familiar thoroughbred, decided his way into the paddock in equine fashion that the horse really was bowing to persons he recognized after having seen them so frequently.

Argentina has appointed a commission to study the revision and modernizing of its plant and trade mark laws and the desirability of adhering to the International Patent and Trade Mark convention.

Both fighters recognized their willingness through telegrams to meet in Pampa on that date. Contracts have been sent both fighters and they are expected to be signed and returned early this week.

Jack Thompson, Marietta, Okla., battler, who two weeks ago defeated Mickey Dunham here, will be on the eight-round semi-final. His opponent has not been selected but Promoter B. W. Kelley is dickering for a good battler to oppose Thompson.

Trammell and Chong will fight 10 rounds, of three minutes each, and Trammell has written his friend Frank Hunt that he will risk his mythical title in his battle with the Chinaman who has been beating all comers since he came to Texas—Chong is headquarters in Houston.

The fight will be held in the open, weather permitting. A definite announcement regarding time, admission and location will be released upon return of signed contracts from the two fighters.

Blames Parents

"If her parents hadn't interfered everything probably would have worked out all right," Sober and unsmiling, John Jacob Astor, one of the world's richest young men, thus explained the breaking of his engagement to Miss Eileen Gillespie when he returned to New York, as shown above, from a tour of the world.

Young Astor revealed that he "put his foot down" when Miss Gillespie's parents "wanted to go with us on our honeymoon."

Smith started his 1933 campaign by winning the Dallas city championship from Gibson Payne. He crossed the Dallas path again in the state tournament and was eliminated after one of the greatest matches to be played over the Houston Country club links where greats of the past and present have played many fine matches.

The Lakewood ace won the Corsicana Country club invitation to put on the shelf with his Dallas trophy. He followed up by qualifying in the sectional meet for the national amateur along with Gus Moreland, Frank Munger, Leland Hamman, W. R. Long, but he failed to qualify for main play at the scene of the big tournament.

Returning home he was selected as a member of the Texas cup team. In the singles he lost to professional George Albach, 5 and 4, but shared with Jack Jackson, won from Professionals Francis Schneider and Levi Lynch in the doubles, 1 up.

Smith started 1934 by seriously training for the tournament season. He has added solid weight, increased his power of grip on clubs, built up his shoulders and beyond doubt stands ready to battle the challenge of Old Man Par and any golfer striving to beat him to the finish line in the state tournament. His play in the Dallas city event, his only tournament so far, built up a bluish or weakness.

Smith's best shot is a mashing-nublick pitch. He is an excellent putter, has iron nerves and a stout heart.

Hitting the ball hard behind the no-hit pitching of Croft, the Coltexo corporation baseball team of LeFors won a 13 to 0 game of five innings from McLean Saturday afternoon to open McLean's new park, Jimmie Baldwin and Ike Lister christened the new fence with home runs, Lister getting his four-ply wallop with the bases loaded and Baldwin hitting for the circuit with two men on base.

Croft, besides pitching great ball, gathered two hits and scored two runs on his two trips to the plate. Only two McLean batters reached first base, one on a walk and the other on an error. Stanley was on the mound for McLean and was nipped for 11 hits. His teammates made four errors.

The game was called at the end of the fifth inning because of a dust storm which blew across the diamond. The McLean park has not been completed, due to lack of material. When finished, the grandstand will have a seating capacity of nearly 2,000.

The Coltexo team won a 14 to 4 game from the Coltexo city team last week. It lasted only four innings. Manager Poindecker of the corporation nine says his team is ready to meet all comers.

SMITH IS DETERMINED TO WIN STATE'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Is Only Player Ever To Win Dallas City Title Twice in Row; Has Improved.

(Editor's note: A new state amateur golf championship will be crowned here May 27 at the Brook Hollow Golf club. Gus Moreland, three consecutive times champion, will not defend his title. He is in Europe to compete in the British amateur. This is the first of several series of prominent candidates for Moreland's championship.)

Reynolds George Smith, stocky Dallas Lakewood Country club sub-par ace, is standing on substantial ground with a sound warning he will be sharp-shooting with an A-1 degree of confidence in this year's Texas Golf association state championship.

Smith recently added a new page to Texas golf history when he survived strong competition and emerged as the only player ever to win the Dallas city championship two times. Smith won last year and retained his title this year.

Playing over the treacherous Dallas Cedar Crest Country club course in the city tournament, Smith qualified with a 75, and in all his championship matches he was never moreland's path again in the state tournament and was eliminated after one of the greatest matches to be played over the Houston Country club links where greats of the past and present have played many fine matches.

HEARD SAYS HE'LL BE READY FOR SHEIK'S DIGITS TONIGHT

Prince To Try For Come-back Against Pat Garrison in 30 Minute Semi-Final.

"I'm the sheik of Araby," grunts Sheik Ben Ali Marallah as he sneaks a finger in his opponent's eye when he gets the referee behind him. Marallah will get a chance to show his style here tonight when he meets the fast little San Antonio grappler, Charlie Heard, in the main event at the Pla-Mor auditorium.

The two middleweights met in a 30-minute semi-final last week and the going was scientific, rough and tough, until the final bell. Then both maulers wanted to continue the affray and his referee had a battle on his hands. Heard went wild with pain as the sheik styled used fingers and knuckles in his eyes and gave the Asiatic champion a busy time.

Prince Omar Yochin, the mauler who fell before Danny McShain, in the semi-final, will attempt to make a come-back this time against Pat Garrison, Pampa Irishman. Yochin says he can beat the best in the game if they will wrestle and Garrison has agreed to let Yochin prove his statement.

The Pampa man has been showing marked improvement in the last few weeks. He had three matches out of the city recently and is in the best condition of the season. He threw Joe Bauer, German clown, last week in Amarillo, a feat he had been attempting for some time.

The card will open with a surprise affair. The promoter has not even given an inkling as to the identity of the men who will be on the 20-minute opener at 8:15 o'clock.

He was known to have driven into the Laurel Canyon area of the city, north of Hollywood, and there was supposed to have found upon a stick, further directions for continuing the contact, including an instruction that the completion of the ransom payoff would be made after a drive of about 90 miles.

Several contacts followed, leading up to the detective's trip to the southwestern section of the city.

During a this series of maneuvers, scores upon scores of police automobiles were moved about Los Angeles as the intermediary procedure to follow instructions he received. The direction of these machines was accomplished by disguising radio broadcasts.

The automobiles were variously instructed to go to certain districts and investigate drunks, or similar apparently petty violations of the law. In reality they were being moved to counter each maneuver of the suspected kidnaper.</

CHURCHES DEVOTE SERVICES TO HONORING MOTHER'S DAY

SERMONS AND MUSIC OBSERVE THE OCCASION

CHILDREN ENTERTAIN FOR MOTHERS AT PROGRAMS

FLOWERS were worn for mother, sermons were preached and songs were sung in her honor at churches here yesterday. Several classes of children entertained mothers with special programs.

First Baptist members, while they paused to honor motherhood, were preparing for the annual Southern Baptist convention that opens in Fort Worth this week. The Rev. C. E. Lancaster, minister, and Miss R. L. Edmondson, E. M. Dean, and J. A. Arwood plan to attend.

Classes had Mother's day programs; the morning sermon was on that topic, and the training school assembly program in the evening repeated the observance. There were 705 in Sunday school and 154 in training service.

Vesper Program.
A Mother's day vesper song program was given at the Presbyterian church. The beautiful floral setting was arranged by the Women's Auxiliary, and Mrs. Bob Muller gave flowers at the door to each visitor. The choir, assisted by Mrs. R. F. Dirksen as reader, gave the program. That church reported 106 in Sunday school.

Children of the primary department in First Christian church entertained their mothers yesterday afternoon. They gave a program, presented a flower to each mother, and served refreshments. Misses Dick Rhodes, Floyd Coffin, H. H. Isbell, Frank Meers, R. M. Skeal, Earl Thompson, and Misses Della Deane, department teachers and officers, were in charge.

Musical tributes to mothers were given in all services of the church. At the Sunday school assembly a bouquet was presented by Viola Jenkins to Mrs. Jeffries, the oldest mother present. That service also included a Sunday school and one addition to the church.

CHURCHES

Intermediates at the Methodist church were hosts to their mothers at a tea and program at twilight yesterday. The morning sermon and music there were in keeping with the day, and at the evening service the sacred cantata, Stabat Mater, was presented as the Mother's day offering of music week. Sunday school was attended by 450.

The Church of Christ had 188 in Sunday school, reported three additions to the church, and observed Mother's day with a special sermon by the pastor, E. C. McKenzie, in the morning.

Central Baptist church again combined a service with that of Galvary Baptist church, and both congregations heard an evening sermon at the Central church building by Evangelist King, who has conducted a two-week revival at Galvary Baptist church.

The morning sermon honoring Mother's day was preached by the Rev. Vernie Pipes, pastor, after a Sunday school service attended by 133.

END OF MUSIC WEEK MARKED AT 3 EVENTS

ATTENDANCE PROVES PAMPA'S INTEREST IN MUSIC

CLOSE of another annual observance of national music week yesterday added again to proof that Pampans are interested in public programs on the fine arts as well as in football games or other athletic events.

Daily programs that began more than a week ago were ended yesterday with music honoring Mother's day. It included special music in all churches, a concert which the high school band dedicated to their mothers yesterday afternoon, a vesper song service by the Presbyterian choir, and presentation of Stabat Mater by the Amarillo Civic chorus and Philharmonic choir at the Methodist church last evening.

Band Plays in Gym.
Crowds braved the cool, damp weather of yesterday to attend all these programs. The band concert was given in the high school gymnasium instead of the city park, as first planned, and was heard by a large audience. Roy Wallenstein directed the program, made up of favorite numbers learned this year.

Flowers made a beautiful setting for the vesper song service at the Presbyterian church. In Bible readings and music, the life of Christ was reviewed and tribute was paid to mothers. Mrs. R. F. Dirksen was the reader, George Briggs the choir director, and Mrs. F. P. McKimming the pianist.

Visitors Sing Cantata.
A chorus of 60 gave Rossini's sacred cantata, last evening, to a crowd that filled the Methodist church. Many were present from nearby towns.

An introductory number was given by the Philharmonic choir, directed by Mrs. May Forman Carr, with Miss Helen Marie Jones as pianist and Miss Hermine Slover violinist. The beauty of the music held the audience from the first strains of the organ in Stabat Mater. Emil F. Myers of Amarillo directed; Mrs. Carr was organist; Mrs. Myers and Miss Marie Jones were pianists. Soloists from the Amarillo chorus interpreted their numbers with feeling, and the Inflammatus East, sung by Mrs. Otis Truelove, and the Culus Cumanus, by Mr. Myers, were special favorites.

The Farm Woman's Place in the New Deal" will be the theme of the afternoon session, which will include a round table discussion on the subject, talks on the live-at-home program, federal canning plants, state community canning centers, war-bond planning, yard beautification, marketing, and menu planning.

A surprise birthday party was given for Mrs. Lee Waits and her small daughter, Willa Mae, Thursday evening at their home. Friends were entertained with games and candy making.

Musie by Clarence Underwood and Frank Owens on the guitar and harp was enjoyed. A birthday cake presented by Mrs. Waits' daughter, Estelle, will be in charge.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tollison and son, J. R.; Mr. and Mrs. Gus Mathews and daughters, Lucille and Marie; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Boles, Mrs. Florence Berry, Mrs. Nancy Tinsworth, Mrs. Corral.

Misses Mildred Camp, Margaret Reeds, Marie Stevens, Mildred and Roma Boles, Ina and Madelon Tittsworth, Virginia Lee Camp, Louise Berry; Messrs. Paul and Randolph Boles, the Berry Gene Stevens, Dewitt Cordell, Glen White, Albert Lane, Lloyd Conover, Lester Wright, John Owens, Loy Tittsworth, Eugene Underwood, Richard Williams, Mike Moran, Vernon and Douglas Camp, and the honorees.

LITTLE THEATER WILL NAME ITS NEW OFFICERS

Annual Election Is Scheduled For Tonight

Officers will be elected for next year at a meeting of the Little Theatre this evening at 8 o'clock, in the city hall club rooms.

All members are urged to be present for this important meeting by the president, Paul M. LeBeuf. In addition to the annual election, other business relative to the close of this season and advance plans for next season will be discussed in the brief session.

Missionary Held For Huge Ransom In Hankow, China

HANKOW, China, May 14 (AP)—Bandits under the command of the dread General Ho Lung demanded $35,000 ransom today for the kidnapped American missionary, The Rev. Howard Smith of Washington, Pa. Mr. Smith was seized by renegades May 8 near Pengshien in Szechwan province.

The ransom demand was communicated to the Christian Missionary Alliance headquarters here. Mission and United States consular authorities were considering means of obtaining the missionary's release, but gave no thought to the bandits' demands since the mission's policy is not to pay ransom for kidnapped members. Besides, attaches said, the mission has no funds for the purpose.

Outlaws under the notorious Ho Lung terrorized sections of China for many months. The renegade general is said to have large supplies of arms and to be immensely wealthy.

Bearing incursions at Kishui, in West Hupeh province, American missionaries were reported to have evacuated that city.

In addition to demanding the $35,000 ransom, Mr. Smith's captors specified that a $5,000 shipment of medicine must be sent them before the missionary will be released.

residential, but the new features providing governmental assistance are confined largely to home improvements.

The president's message follows:
"To the congress:
"May I draw your attention to some important suggestions for legislation which should tend to improve conditions for those who live in houses, those who repair and construct houses, and those who invest in houses?"

"Many of our homes are in decadent condition and not fit for human habitation. They need repairing and modernizing to bring them up to the standard of the times. Many new homes now are needed to replace those not worth repairing."

"The protection of the health and safety of the people demands that this renovating and building be done speedily. The federal government should take the initiative immediately to cooperate with private capital and industry in the real-property conservation. We must lay the groundwork for this effort before congress adjourns its present session."

"The purpose of the program is two-fold: First, to return many of the unemployed to useful and gainful occupation; second, to produce tangible, useful wealth in a form for which there is great social and economic need."

"The program consists of three major, inter-related divisions:
"1. Modernization, repair and construction;
"2. Mortgage insurance;
"3. Mortgage associations."

"The modernization phase of the program will furnish national guidance and support for locally-managed renovating campaigns throughout the country and protection for home owners against unwarranted cost advances. For these purposes and to assure adequate financing at low cost and moderate terms of repayment, a new governmental agency is required."

"Modernization of commercial and industrial structure is envisioned, as well as residential, but the new features providing governmental assistance are confined largely to home improvements."

"Loans to individuals will be made by private agencies which will be insured by a governmental agency against loss up to a certain percentage of their advances. This insurance against loss on the rehabilitation loans will be met by the government and will be confined to advances of credits that meet standards and conditions designed to protect both the home owners and the cooperating agencies."

FRANCE HOWLS FOR SECURITY FROM BRITAIN

OTHERWISE FRENCHMEN WILL ARM TO THE LIMIT

GENEVA, May 14 (AP)—France was waiting today for bids from Great Britain to guarantee security. Hungary likewise called for a security guarantee and published a protest against Yugoslavia which said the political tension in Europe is now so great that every conflict which risks "putting Europe on fire" should be eliminated.

This situation confronted the members of the League of Nations council as they gathered for that body's seventy-ninth session.

Louis Barthou, foreign minister of France, attended a private meeting presided over by Augusto Vasconcelos of the League of Nations cognizant with the recent Paris conversation said that disarmament prospects were gloomy unless Barthou was able to get unbreakable assurances for his nation that France will be given military assistance if attacked.

France would like a military alliance with Great Britain but, failing this, desires a security system reinforcing the Locarno pact. If she obtains this, she might consent to reduction of armaments, it was said.

However, declared a French spokesman, "France cannot accept a legalization of German rearmament which violate the treaty of Versailles."

The private meeting decided to postpone the consideration of the Hungarian appeal against Yugoslavia to a later session which probably will be specially convoked during the disarmament conference which will resume at the end of May. The Hungarian protest, however, was made public.

UTAH GIRL IS FOUND KILLED IN NOTED PARK

PORT ENGINEER HELD ON MURDER CHARGE IN FRISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14. (AP)—Fourteen hours after the broken body of Miss Louise Jeppsen, 23, Utah girl, was found in Golden Gate park, Millard Hickman, port engineer for the Matson Navigation company, was booked on a murder charge here today.

Hickman admitted, Captain of Inspectors Charles Dullea said, that Miss Jeppsen, was in his apartment until 3 a. m. Sunday, but that she then left alone. Hickman, Captain Dullea said, declared he had no knowledge of the girl's death.

Miss Jeppsen, Captain Dullea said Hickman claimed, "passed out" during the party. Hickman added, the police inspector said, that he tried to make her comfortable but when he attempted to remove her shoes she became angry and left the apartment.

Assistant District Attorney Peter Mullins said employees at the hotel apartment reported they had seen Hickman enter the elevator with the girl.

The girl, member of a prominent Ogden and Salt Lake City family, was criminally attacked, beaten and strangled with a belt and scarf from her ensemble outfit, police said.

Miss Jeppsen, on a vacation from her employment with an Ogden newspaper, had been in San Francisco five weeks, visiting at the home of family friends.

The Nicest LAXATIVE for Busy People

Just as autos have replaced horses, science has developed and proven a new, more thorough and prompt-acting laxative called Feen-a-mint. Feen-a-mint is the delicious chewing gum laxative. It contains a laxative ingredient regularly prescribed by physicians. Feen-a-mint is better than old-fashioned laxatives, because chewing distributes the laxative uniformly into the system, thus insuring a "full" action without shock or irritation to even the delicate digestive organs of children. The prompt, gentle but complete action of Feen-a-mint does not interfere with usual duties. Rid your system of constipation's headaches and sluggishness. "Delay" is dangerous—chew Feen-a-mint for constipation. 15c and 25c at druggists everywhere.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, May 14. (AP)—After a ragged and desultory performance today, stocks staged a final rally which enabled a number of them to cancel earlier losses of 1 to 2 or more points and emerge with moderate gains.

Residents Will Wear Costumes For Local Fete

Each year when Santa Barbara, Calif., stages its colorful fiesta, celebrating the occupation of the Spanish dogs in California, most of the residents of that California town wear Spanish costumes during the celebration.

That custom gave the Pre-Centennial committee the idea of borrowing an idea from Santa Barbara. So it has been suggested that women and men of Pampa wear historical costumes on the street and in their business places during the celebration. The costumes would be French, Spanish, Mexican, and American between 1834 and 1834 or even up to 1890.

The Worth Amusement Enterprises of Dallas which will furnish the costumes for the pageant and stage the production will rent historical costumes of any period or design to Pampans for $3.50 each for the entire time. Anyone who wishes to rent such a costume for the two days, may phone 616 so the committee can make arrangements to secure measurements and place the order immediately. Many people said they would wear historical costumes if they were available, and Hal C. Worth wrote today that he had such costumes for rent.

—they age good grapes to make rare wines

—and they do something like that to mellow good tobaccos

WHERE THE RARE WINES come from they know that the two most important things in wine-making are the selection of the grapes and the long years of ageing in the wine cellars.

IT'S VERY MUCH THE SAME in the making of a cigarette. You have to get the right tobaccos, then put them away to age and mellow in wooden casks.

You can't make a good cigarette like Chesterfield in a day. It takes over two years to age the tobaccos for your Chesterfields—but it adds something to the taste and makes them milder.

the cigarette that TASTES BETTER

Everything that modern Science really knows about is used to make Chesterfield the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better.
