By J. W. King, Sr.

We have a new year, a year that we hope will be filled with victory after victory for our armed forces throughout the world; a year in which we hope the laborers and all citizens of the United States will realize their serious business we are engaged in and will refrain from all strikes and slow downs of our war production. Our laborers, and all of us, must realize that winning the war does not lie at together on the shoulders of our brave fighting men. They must, of course, do the job of winning the battles but we must supply them with what they need in the way of planes, ships, guns, ammunition, food and clothing before they can win the battles.

Her, in Loraine last year we gathered scrap metal and rubber we bought bonds and stamps, but we didn't do near what we are capable of doing. In response to a plea from the Government, farmers raised peanuts, they produced milk and food and fibre. This year we must do even more for it is going to take greater and greater quantities of food, scrap metal and money to supply our armed forces to say nothing of our allies.

Farmers will have a difficult job this year because of the shortage of farm labor. We town folk may have to help out a little now and then on the farm, but I am betting that the people in and around Loraine come through with flying colors.

Collection Of Silk And Nylon Hosiery To Be Made Here

Our government is badly in need of more silk and nylon for the production of powder bags, and for other needed war materials. The public is asked to donate all worn and discarded silk and nylon hosiery (be sure they are washed) in the following classifications: (a) all silk, (b) all nylon, (c) mixture of silk and nylon, (d) mixture of silk and rayon. Collection must be continuous for the duration.

You will find boxes at Hutchins and Hall Drugs and Thornhill Dry Goods for collection of your washed hose.

Another home item that the government is vitally in need of is lard or grease that you cannot use at home. The grease should be strained and brought to your market where you will be paid 4 cents per pound for it. Do not waste at home what is vitally needed for production of war materials.

Mrs. R. K. Thornhill is chairman for Loraine.

More Can Buy New Tires Now

With a wider range of motorists eligible for tires under the new mileage rationing program, the Office of Price Administration offers an explanation to dealers and to motorists of the types of tires for which certificates will be issued.

The majority of certificates will be issued for Grade 3 tires and with these certificates the holder may choose any of three kinds of casings in that grade which includes: Used tires, recapped tires and made of reclaimed rubber.

Some dealers apparently believe that they are not permitted to sell used tires. The fact is, it is explained, that they may sell them to any holder of a Grade 3 Certificate.

Holders of certificates which call for a Grade 2 tire, may buy any of five kinds, which are: 1. Casings with a retail ceiling price of less than $5.47 of the price for a standard first-line tire. 2. All new tires manufactured before January 1, 1938. 3. Factory seconds so marked by the manufacturer. 4. Damaged new tires and 5. Tires that have been run less than 1,000 miles but enough to wear off the mold marks.

Motorists granted Grade 3 certificates may buy any new tire whose ceiling price is 85% or more of the maximum for a standard first-line casing. Grade 1 certificate holders also are allowed to buy Grade 2 tires if they wish.

However, Grade 1 or 2 certificate holders are not permitted to buy Grade 3 tires. If he wants to buy a tire of the lowest grade he may go to his local War Price and Ration Board and exchange the certificate he holds for one entitling him to buy a Grade 2 casing.

Holders of certificates for tires of a passenger type can not buy over a 4-ply tire without the certificate specifying that it is for a higher ply. Holders of certificates for tubes may not buy a puncture proof tube without the certificate specifying that it is for a puncture proof tube. However, holders of certificates for tubes may buy a second hand tube with the certificate if they so desire.

Deer Killed Near Loraine

Perhaps the first deer that has been killed near Loraine for many years north of town, near Lone Star, Monday, December 28, by Jack Walker who had been to Mason County twice since the season opened but killed no deer. The deer was an eight point buck and dressed 100 pounds.

Other who participated in the hunt were Wiley Walker, Jack Coffee, Clint McCollum, Claude Spikes, Stanton, Hutchins and the Hicks boys.

The buck probably wandered into this section from a ranch in Scurry County where a ranch or two is said to be stocked with the animals. It was first seen near Inadale by some boys who chased it in a car to the spot where it was killed.

NURSES BADLY NEEDED IN ARMED SERVICES

Abilene, Texas.—Because there is a critical shortage of graduate nurses to serve, not only in the armed forces, but in civilian hospitals to replace those gone into the army and navy, the government is appealing to women and girls, 17 to 30 years of age, to enter training in accredited schools of nursing.

To help provide trained nurses to meet the war need, Hendrick Memorial Hospital at Abilene will enroll a special class in February, Stella McCullough, Superintendent of Nurses, has announced. She encourages women 17 to 30 years old to write to her and, where possible, to see her at the hospital in Abilene. A high school diploma is required for entry into the school of nursing.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Wallace Urges Post-War Federation; Giraud's Choice for North Africa Post Bolsters French Unity Against Axis; Russ Continue Ground-Gaining Drives

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.) Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Col. Merian C. Cooper (left) points to map of China and Burma as he makes report to Robert Lovett, assistant secretary of war for air, in Washington. Colonel Cooper returned to the United States after serving as chief of staff of Gen. Claire L. Chennault, commander of the China Air Task Force.

WORLD FEDERATION: Asked by Wallace

Ever since his "quart of milk a day" speech forecasting bettered conditions for the world's underprivileged, Vice President Henry A. Wallace has been regarded as a No. 1 administration spokesman on post-war reconstruction.

Thus his latest address proposing a world council to preserve peace and promote the general welfare after the war received close inspection in world chancelleries, for it was taken as a major administration statement of future plans.

Wallace's recipe for international organization after the war: "The maximum of home rule that can be maintained along with the minimum of centralized authority that must come into existence to give the necessary protection."

The vice president outlined a four-fold objective for future peace: "To preserve the liberty, equality, security and unity of the United Nations—liberty in the political sense, equality of opportunity in international trade, security against war and business depression due to international causes, and unity of purpose in promoting the general welfare of the world."

Concerning the treatment of defeated nations he advocated not only military but "psychological disarmament."

For the American people, Wallace said, "the war is entering its grimmest phase" where we will learn for the first time the meaning of war privations. But, he added, Hitler's "desperate bid for a Nazi world order has reached and passed its highest point."

4-WAY OFFENSIVE: By Russ Armies

The Russians continued to prove that while the summer might have belonged to the invading Nazi hosts, the winter was the season for Red revival.

Four strong Soviet armies were proving this in four separate drives against the cold and weary Germans. These offensives sprang with the purpose of destroying Nazi manpower and equipment and weakening Hitler's hold on the Eastern front were centered on the Rzhev sector, in the Stalingrad area, in the reaches of the Middle Don and in the central Caucasus.

The central Caucasus drive was the newest on the Red schedule and was started south of Naichik, where Nazi armored mountain units had been trying unsuccessfully for weeks to break through to the Georgian military highway in Transcaucasia.

Most significant news came from the Stalingrad area, however, for Russian communications reported the capture of Kotelnikovski, key transportation town anchoring a 200-mile stretch of the Stalingrad-Caucasus railroad and a supply depot for the Nazis' eastern operations. Here big stores of Axis supplies were taken over by the Reds. From Kotelnikovski the Russians began a spearhead drive toward Rostov.

Meanwhile the Red encirclement of 22 German divisions trapped before Stalingrad was tightened by Russ advances of from 37 to 58 miles from the southwest.

HIGHLIGHTS . . . in the week's news

WASHINGTON: The navy department announced that dive bombers from Guadalcanal had sunk a 3,000-ton Japanese vessel near Wickham Island in the central Solomons. The destruction of the ship raised the number of Japanese vessels sunk in the Solomons to 54. Wickham Island is within 120 nautical miles of Guadalcanal. There is an anchorage nearby where Japs have been active.

GIRAUD: Assure Unity

Gen. Henri Giraud had been the Allies' original choice for the post of high commissioner of North Africa. Then the bullet of the 20-year-old assassin that killed Adm. Jean Darlan made Giraud's selection inevitable by the French imperial council.

That the elevation of Giraud to the slain Darlan's post had a unifying effect was immediately manifest. Not only did the French North African civil and military forces rally behind the new commissioner, but Gen. Charles de Gaulle, leader of the Fighting French, quickly pledged his support of Giraud's regime and urged the formation of a temporary government to unite all French elements.

While the murder of Darlan undeniably settled the controversy raging through the United Nations over the North African alliance of the Allies and the ex-Vichy collaborationist, observers believed that before his death Darlan had honestly recanted his former views and was wholeheartedly leading his forces for the liberation of France. And they defended the wisdom of General Eisenhower's first alliance with Darlan.

Tunisia Battlefront

Although tropical sunshine had dried the surface of Tunisia's boggy roads, the gumbo mud continued to hamper free movement of either the Allied or Axis forces. Principal strategic key was the town of Medjez-el-Bab, where General Dwight Eisenhower's army was endeavoring to anchor its positions for the coming all-out offensive against strongly held Tunis and Bizerte. That these positions could not be won without fierce struggles was indicated by reports that the Allied forces had withdrawn from an advanced hill six miles northeast of Medjez-el-Bab.

Air offensives continued against Axis bases in Tunisia and Axis supply lines from Sicily and Italy with Flying Fortresses battering Sousse, Tunis and Bizerte.

French forces under General Giraud had carried out aggressive action along the "waist" of Tunisia, taking the town of Pichon and advancing in a drive to prevent the effective junction of Marshal Rommel's Libyan forces with those of General Walther Nehring in Tunisia.

DRAFT: 250,000 Monthly

With fighting forces of 9,000,000 forecast for the United States by the end of 1943, draft officials estimated that between 250,000 and 300,000 men 18 through 37 years old will be called to the colors monthly this year.

Approximately half of the 1943 draftees will represent the 18 and 19-year-olds. The remainder will come from the ranks of childless married men, since the pool of unmarried men available for military service has been virtually exhausted.

Included in the 9,000,000 fighting forces will be an army of 7,500,000; a navy of 1,500,000; a marine corps of 400,000 and coast guard enrollments of 300,000.

Washington, D. C. 'INSIDE' HERO STORY

Behind the award of the Congressional Medal of Honor to 31-year-old Lieut. Com. Bruce McCandless of the U. S. Cruiser San Francisco is a story almost without parallel in the annals of naval warfare.

Inside fact is that shortly before he was cited for heroism "above and beyond the call of duty" in the smashing November 13 Solomons naval victory, McCandless wasn't sure whether he would be decorated or hauled on the carpet for insubordination.

His citation was one of glittering generalities, but here is the whole story of what happened:

McCandless was on the bridge of the San Francisco when it led a spectacular assault between two columns of Jap vessels, firing point-blank at both. In the roaring 35-minute engagement, Rear Admiral Daniel J. Callaghan, commander of the task force, and Capt. Cassin Young, skipper of the San Francisco, were killed, as well as other officers outranking McCandless.

The young lieutenant commander did not notify superior officers on other vessels in the task force of Callaghan's death, but immediately took command and began giving orders to the other vessels in Callaghan's name. Ordinarily, this would constitute a rank breach of discipline. However, McCandless acted as he did for two reasons:

(1) He was thoroughly familiar with the plan of attack, having been present at strategy powwows of Callaghan and Young when it was mapped out, and he feared there might be a slipup in carrying out the daring task maneuver if the command passed to another ship after Callaghan's death.

(2) It was vital to keep the news of Callaghan's death from the Japs, and they undoubtedly would have intercepted the radio communication. After the engagement, when a friend suggested that he might be decorated for his brilliant "incognito" leadership, McCandless is quoted as replying that he would be lucky to get off without a "court martial." However, the navy was only too glad to give praise where praise was due.

MARCHING INTO TOKYO

Mel Maas of Minnesota, who is both marine corps colonel and congressman, has two mementos from the Solomons—a 50-yrn Jap note and a 10-shilling note of Jap invasion money.

Maas got the money off dead Jap soldiers.

The other day he was displaying it to Representative Gordon Canfield of New Jersey and two British WRENS, comparable to our WAVES, who were having lunch with Canfield in the house restaurant. The WRENS, Third Officers Dorothy Taite and Elizabeth Gibson, were especially interested in the yen note, which was covered with bright-colored designs and pictures.

"Be sure to give that money back to me," said Maas. "I have big plans for it."

"Yes, these notes will make a wonderful souvenir to show your grandchildren," commented one of the WRENS.

"Souvenir—nothing," exclaimed Maas. "I'm keeping that money to spend in Tokyo."

GUARDING THE WHITE HOUSE

The White House called Speaker Sam Rayburn the other day, asked him to come in to see the President, bringing with him a group of congressmen of his own choosing.

When they arrived at the front gate of the White House, in the speaker's car, the chauffeur said to the Secret Service men: "This is the speaker and members of congress."

The guards were skeptical. "The speaker is all right, but how about these other men?" Whereupon they insisted upon a personal examination of the other members of congress.

When Rayburn got inside the White House, he was as mad as that god-natured Texan ever becomes. He found a senior officer of Secret Service and said: "Look here, when I am asked to bring members of congress to the White House, I want them to be admitted without any third degree examination. You ought to know I wouldn't bring any bomb throwers!"

Note: The White House has been more closely guarded in this war than at any other time in history; including World War I. Streets on three sides are blocked off, and no one can get near without a pass, even a member of congress.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

☞ The Germans are trying to scare Franco out of making a commercial deal to sell us certain critical materials which have been going to Germany.

☞ Practically every young officer in the navy department here is asking for active duty, and many are getting it. Waves of WAVES are replacing them.

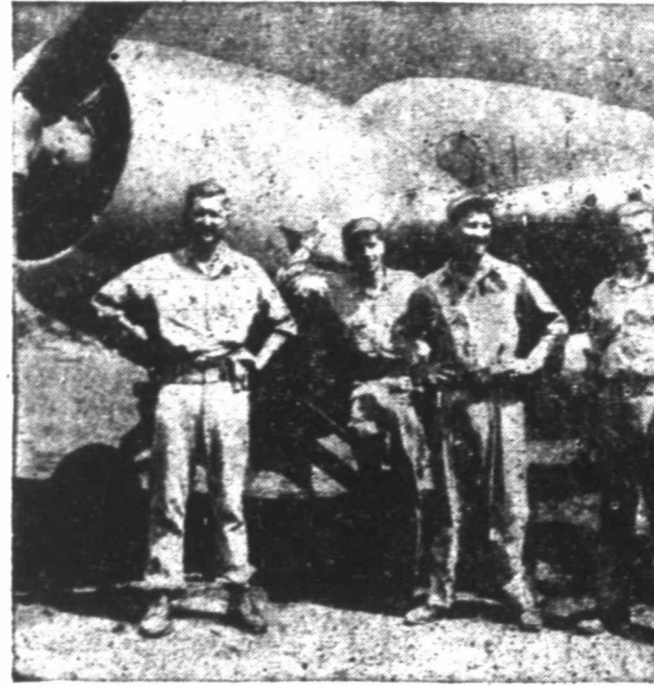

Ransacking Davy Jones' Locker Off North Africa

He is shown at right surveying Oran harbor, where American and Royal navy divers have already begun the task of raising battered ships, sunk mostly by Allied bombs. Left: When General Grant tanks were being unloaded at Algiers one fell into the water. A crewman who went down with his tank is shown being brought to the surface by a French diver. The crewman recovered.

Five Marine Fighters Bring Down 110 Jap Planes

Jungle Hikes Precede Action in Buna-Gona

After being down across New Guinea to the Buna-Gona area, U. S. troops hiked six days through the jungles before getting into action with the Japs. Here they found plenty of action, with the Japs coming out second best. Photo shows a group of American troops as they were gathered around an exhausted Jap as he was lying on the ground.

Best Fighter Plane

Maj. Thomas Hitchcock, who recently returned to the United States from England, is shown in front of a P-51 Mustang, in Inglewood, Calif. On his return from abroad Hitchcock said: "Current opinion in England, among both American and British fliers, is that the P-51 with the Merlin engine will be the best fighter plane in the world in 1943." While in England Maj. Hitchcock served as assistant military attaché for air.

It's the Same Old War!

By Capt. Richard J. Kennedy

It's the same old war! The basic principles never change—only the methods change. . . . The same battle order which which Hannibal won the battle of Cannae won the second battle of the Marne for Marshal Foch. . . . Vegetius, Roman columnist of his day, after a careful study of all the great battles up to and including the 4th century, decided that there were but seven systems of battle. . . . A study of Vegetius' selections shows that four of them were innovations of the other three, therefore there were and are but three basic orders of battle, as follows: (1) The parallel order; (2) The oblique order; (3) The enveloping order. . . . However, 900 years before Vegetius was doing his stuff on the Roman Daily Mirror, Sun Tzu, famous Chinese generalissimo, had prescribed the basic rules of warfare. . . . These basic rules are the same as prescribed for our armed forces today and will probably win the Tunisian affair for General Eisenhower.

Mechanized cavalry isn't new, by a long shot. . . . Ramesses II introduced it in Egypt when he invented the chariot. . . . And tanks—Chims used armored carts as far back as 1200 B. C. . . . The ancient Persians introduced the elephant tank, elephants protected by armor with large scythe-like weapons attached to their trunks for mowing down enemy troops, equipped with turrets on their backs from which archers could fire. . . . And the large scaling towers of the Romans were built on wheels and rolled, like tanks, to their objectives. . . . Chemical warfare was practiced by the Greeks in 360 B. C. . . . They mixed incense, sulphur, pitch and faggots in a pot, ignited same and threw them into the ranks of the enemy. These were the first known incendiary bombs. . . . History shows that Genghis Khan used smoke screens extensively to cover his maneuvers.

WALTER WINCHELL is on a tour of duty outside Continental U. S. During his absence, contributors will substitute.

Hand Grenades were used by the Egyptians as far back as 490 B. C. They consisted of boxes in which vipers were secreted. These were thrown into the enemy lines. . . . And the Romans invented the granddaddy of the Molotov cocktail, consisting of crude oil in a bottle. The Roman doughboys would ignite the oil, then heave the grenade against the enemy's weak point. The smashing of the bottle would scatter liquid fire in all directions. . . . We hear a great deal about war decorations of a public presentation of a decoration for bravery occurred in the first century, when the emperor of China decorated one of his subjects "for bravery above and beyond the call of duty."

"Hash-marks" came into vogue in the Continental army in the form of a strip of white cloth sewn to the shoulder of the uniform. Each strip of cloth represented three years of service. . . . We get the word chevron from the French "chevre," meaning a goat—probably because the inverted chevron of the French troops resembled goats' horns. . . . Our word "column" is derived from the Latin "colonna," meaning a column and indicating the colonel was commander of a column. . . . The corporals' chevrons date back to the Middle Ages when the artisans who worked on the construction of a castle were permitted to wear two inverted Vs (representing the castle roof) as a distinction.

Rifle Grenades were used at the siege of Stettin in 1677 and the men assigned to firing the grenades were known as grenadiers. . . . Camille Vitelli, an Italian, was experimenting with pistols "way back in 1540" and the first bomb was invented by another Italian named Biondo in 1588. . . . A form of shrapnel was used by the British at the battle of Crecy and the forerunner of our present rifle sight was a part of each cross-bow.

Chaplains are not new in the army. . . . Each Christian knight during the Crusades brought along his own private chaplain. . . . Oliver Cromwell recruited a regiment of cavalry known as the "Old Ironsides," most members of which were clergymen. . . . Bishop Leonidas Polk, an outstanding Southern clergyman, rose to the rank of general in the Confederate army.

As regards the Signal Corps. . . . Caesar sent back to Rome via carrier pigeon the reports of all his Gallic campaigns. . . . And we all know the story of the runner who reported the battle of Marathon in 490 B. C., then dropped dead. . . . True, there were no planes before the 20th century, but the ancient Persians had an air "blitz" all their own. They trained falcons which would swoop down and scratch out the eyes of the enemy troops. . . . The Greeks, Persians, Egyptians and Chaldeans all used military maps.

BRIGHT blue is the color keynote in this bathroom. Blue is used for towels and bath mat stripes and for a painted box cornice. The curtains are of coarse white muslin tufted with old-fashioned candlewicking in bright blue. It is difficult to find appropriate curtains that will stand steam and moisture so you may want to copy these in your favorite color.

Cut the curtains the length and width desired with ample allowance for shrinkage and baste the hems in. Next place the material flat on a table and mark diagonal lines on the goods with a yardstick and pencil, spacing the lines four inches apart to form the plaid pattern. Now, thread a tufting needle with four strands of candlewick yarn, and work along these ruled lines using the thread double, as at the upper right. Also, sew the hem in this manner; then clip the stitches, as shown at lower right and dip in water. Spread out smooth to dry but do not iron. Finish the tops with a rod casing.

NOTE: It is easy to give your windows a professional finish with box corners; and they prevent light from showing at the top, in a blackout. Pattern gives directions for making corners will be mailed for 10 cents. Address:

School in General

It certainly was pard to start back to school Monday week after Christmas holidays and all the good things everyone had to eat. All the nice presents sparkled around the campus and there were happy faces to show them. Last Monday morning Mr. Cook had the new schedule completed. There were a few conflicts, but it works to suit everyone now. The schedule is arranged so that those interested in basketball will have a chance to play.

There was no school news last week, as the News office was having some repairs made. But the news this week is supposed to make up for both news.

The school has a contest starting Monday, January 4 and running two weeks. The band is electing their "Sweetheart" for this year. Each room has selected one from their group that is in the band and is running her. The votes are a penny each Friday afternoon Mr. Martin really gave the band a treat. The band gathered in the regular room and played two or three pieces; then Mr. Martin told us to all go to his home and enjoy punch and cookies. The band wishes to thank Mr. Martin for his kindness on New Years and his kindness at all times. We just hope he enjoys being band director as much as the band enjoys having him direct us.

The basketball season is now going full swing. December 30th the boys played Roscoe here. Then January 1, 1943 the boys went to Roscoe and played. Monday night Dunn's boys and girls team played Lorraine here. Lorraine is to return the games in the near future.

The school is losing several students that are moving to another school district. We regret losing them but hope they will have a great success in their new school.

Seniors Must Win

Here we are back with the Seniors' chatter for three weeks inclusive. As you all know we have had two weeks leave from the paper, so news has just stacked up.

The latest and most important news of the week is that the band is having a sweetheart contest, and we Seniors have our candidate right in there. I think our campaign managers have a word to say. "Yes, we had a special meeting last week in which we chose none other than Doris Butler. We all think she will make a "dandy" sweetheart. The votes are one cent each. We would appreciate your votes very much, because the Seniors must win, so come on and help us. Here is a special note to the Seniors—Come on Seniors! we let that Halloween contest go by without winning when we could have won if we had worked harder. This will be our last contest to compete in, so come on Seniors let's win.

All the Seniors are mourning this week. We are losing one of our most faithful classmates, Jimmie Coffey. He has been with us ever since we started in the first grade, and we think it a shame that he has to move when we lack only a half of a semester of finishing our high school together. Jimmie, the Senior Class want to say, "We hate to see you move, but we wish you luck and hope you find as many friends in Snyder as you have here. Remember us."

Although Charley Math, who is leaving for the Marines soon is not a Senior, he was in several of our classes. We want to say that we will miss him too "Make a good Marine, Charley."

All of us want to offer our sympathy to our faithful classmate, Hugh Elliott, in the loss of his home by fire.

That is about all for this week but look for the Senior Nonsense next week, because we are going to try to have something special. In the meantime vote for our Senior candidate and keep buying annuals.

Introducing the Seniors

Lena Faye Burrow, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burrow, was born September 1, 1921 at Anson, Texas. She remained there for a year, then she moved to Sylvester, Texas, where she began her school career. After attending there a few years, she started to Highland, and now she's going to dear old L. H. S. Lena Faye is 5 feet, 3 1/2 inches tall, and weighs 118 pounds. She has dark brown hair, brown eyes and a very affectionate personality that attracts everyone's attention.

Some of Lena's favorites are as follows: anything good to eat; actress and actor, Joan Fontaine and Tyrone Power; movie, Gone With the Wind. If you should see anyone picking up cigarette packs, don't think anything about it, because it's just Lena Faye's hobby. Her ideal boy friend could be a private of the Air Corps.

Lena's ambition, after completing her high school education is to start training for nurse.

Band Notes

I guess everyone had noticed that the band has been swinging out on two new tunes—"By the Light of the Silver Moon" and "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition." Well, by common consent, we have decided to let our theme song for the next two weeks be "Praise the Lord and Pass the Votes." As yet, that doesn't make sense, but let us explain.

Each year about this time, we have a Band Sweetheart contest. Each class in High School is permitted to nominate a candidate, which runs up to be four candidates in the contest. We charge a penny a vote, and you vote as many times as you wish. We would like to have just a fair popular vote, but the Band needs a new Bartone Horn, and this seems to be our one and only chance of raising the proper amount of money. The contest started January 4, 1943 and will end with a special crowning ceremony in the gymnasium on January 15, 1943. So everyone has a chance to work and see who can win.

Each class wants its candidate to win. It will be a pretty close race, because every candidate is a cute little blond. Here they are in their respective places: Senior candidate, Doris Butler; Junior candidate, Laticia Bassham; Sophomore candidate, Ramona Hock; Freshman, Dorothy Jean Hallmark. Each class is having a dog fight so as to speak. The Seniors want their candidate to win, because it is their last year, and so it goes—every class has a good reason. Your old reporter doesn't know who to vote for, so we decided to let each candidate have their campaign manager speak. See who you think should win.

Note—Sorry the campaign addresses were crowded out. Ed.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rankin and family spent Christmas in Big Spring visiting their daughter and family.

Miss Betty Burrow left Thursday for Rotan after receiving a message of the serious illness of her sister there.

Supt. Foster Cook left Wednesday for Austin where he is attending a state meeting of Superintendents.

Freshman News

Did you have a Merry Christmas? and a Happy New Year? I'm sure all of the Freshmen did. It's been two weeks since you've heard from us, so there is so much to say now that we may forget part of it.

The Freshmen have selected their candidate for Band Sweetheart. She is Dorothy Jean Hallmark. We all think Dorothy Jean deserves to win, because she is such a good clarinet player, and such a faithful member of the band. So you can readily see that she ought to be the Lorraine High Band's next Sweetheart.

Next week will be term tests. (My, how time flies.) All over the campus you hear, "Oh, I don't have all of my poetry in yet!" "I've got to study math, or I'll be taking it again next year!" "Do you have your project finished?" "I know I'll never be able to finish mine."

Soph News

The Sophs have settled down to some real studying for our mid-term exams. After those history reviews we think it's about time.

We are sorry to say we are about to lose one of our class members, Hattie Mae Wiggins. We have enjoyed having you Hattie Mae, and here's hoping she has all the good luck and good times possible.

Nineteen Forty-three has been very much enjoyed so far. Some of the Sophs made new year's resolutions and have really been living up to them (I hope).

We selected our band sweetheart, none other than that blond glamour girl, Ramona Hock. We know that she can't be beaten for looks, and personality. So all of you donate your pennies to the Soph sweetheart—please

Junior News

Say, did you miss us much during these past two weeks? Since we had our holidays on, then didn't have a paper last week, we just had to let you know that we are still in school. We don't have much news, as we are so busy studying for mid-term exams that start next Thursday and Friday. Since the gadding about has stopped, we should all have better grades because we stay at home more.

If any of you see lots of pretty bracelets, lockets, watches, rings, and do-dads, you will just know that little boy or girl was good, and Santa visited them. Well, we will just study some more for the time being.

Sports News

The basketball boys have played two games since you have heard from us. We played Roscoe last Wednesday. The score, 28-20 in favor of Roscoe. We went to Roscoe Friday night. They defeated us by 28-15. No one stands out in either game.

The Dunn boys and girls came here one night for a game. We hope to beat them.

We are having a little trouble getting ways to go out of town to play. If anyone that reads this paper is a basketball fan and would like to help us out, let us know and we would appreciate it very much.

That's about all for now. See you next week with more sports news.

Your Income Tax

WHAT IS INCOME TAX?

The federal income tax is, as the name implies a tax levied upon incomes, and it is payable in relation to the amount of income. Income, for Federal income tax purposes, means in general any compensation for one's services, whether the compensation be in money or in goods or other services; it includes also the net value received for the product of one's labor, as farm produce in the case of a farmer; income from investments, profits from business operations; and other gains from sales and exchanges of goods and property. Certain limited categories of income are, however, tax exempt, and to the extent of such exemption are excluded in computing the tax.

Because of exemptions from the tax given to persons having less than certain stated amounts of income, as well as because of various deductions and credits allowable, only a small proportion of the number of persons receiving income have until recently been subject to the tax. Thus, of the estimated 55 million persons in this country who received income in one form or another during the calendar year 1941, only some 26 million persons were required to file Federal income tax returns for that year, while of these same 26 million, more than 9 million were not taxable due to credits and deductions allowable.

As a result of the lowering of exemptions, many more persons are now subject to the Federal income tax than before, and for the calendar year 1942 it is estimated that more than 35 million persons will file Federal income tax returns. To the large number of persons now subject to the Federal income tax, who have never reported income before for Federal tax purposes, an understanding of the law and applicable regulations is of prime importance.

An income tax return is a declaration on the part of the taxpayer of his total taxable income for the year, together with the various deductions, exemptions, and credits to which he is entitled. It is in reliance upon voluntary disclosure, and the integrity of taxpayers generally, that the cost of administration of the income tax can be kept at a minimum. Though the return is a voluntary statement, any person who willfully makes a return which he does not believe to be true, and correct in every material matter is subject to the penalties provided by law.

The first requirement of the law is the filing of an appropriate return. For individuals generally, this must be done by March 15 following the end of the calendar year. The return must be filed with the appropriate Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which is located the legal residence or principal place of business of the person making the return.

Under the present law every single person, and every married person not living with husband or wife, having a total income (earnings, together with other income) of $500 or more, and married persons living with husband or wife throughout the taxable year, who have an aggregate income (total earnings of both husband and wife, together with other income) of $1200 or more, regardless of the amount of net income, must file a return

The house may be a bit on the cool side this winter, but modern, lightweight, cotton corduroy will keep this little lady warm and snug. This blue corduroy princess dress, trimmed with organdy and lace and hexagonal pearl buttons not only is doll-like in its daintiness, but is tubbable, too. It will emerge from each washing with a soft, clean finish.

KIDS WILL BE KIDS
With so much to see and read these days they're apt to strain their eyes more than ever. Here's some practical advice for protecting your children's eyesight...

1. WATCH THEIR LIGHTING!
Even if there were a reading lamp in this picture, the bulb would be too far away from the floor to give Johnny the light he needs. When your children read or study, see that they're near a good reading lamp—in some other position than this!

2. HAVE THEIR EYES EXAMINED regularly by a competent eyesight specialist. One out of five children in school, two out of five in college, have poor eyesight. And, remember, if your child wears glasses, that defective eyes need good light, even more than normal eyes.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: Alvin W. Johnson, Greeting: You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 22nd day of February, A. D. 1943, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Mitchell County, at the Court House in Colorado City, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 4th day of January 1943. The file number of said suit being No. 6105.

The names of the parties in said suit are: Juanita Cook Johnson, as Plaintiff, and Alvin W. Johnson, as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows to wit: Suit for divorce, the plaintiff alleging:

That on or about the 3rd day of March, 1934, plaintiff was duly and legally married to defendant at Las Cruces, New Mexico, and continued to live with him as his wife until on or about the 5th day of April, 1937.

That plaintiff is, and has been for more than twelve months being exhibited this petition, an actual bona fide inhabitant of the State of Texas, and has resided in the said county of Mitchell, where this suit is filed, for a period of six months next preceding the filing thereof.

That at all times, while married to defendant, plaintiff has conducted herself with propriety, doing her duty as a wife, has at all times treated defendant with kindness and forbearance, and has been guilty of no act bringing about or causing the hereinafter described acts, omissions and conditions on defendant's part.

That, on or about the 5th day of April, 1938, defendant, with out any cause or provocation whatever, voluntarily left and abandoned this petitioner, with the intention of finally separating and living apart from her, and has continued to do so up to the filing of this petition, since which time the defendant has not communicated with plaintiff, nor contributed anything to the support of herself and their child.

That, during the marriage of plaintiff and defendant, they have had born to them as the issue of such marriage, one child, a boy, Franklin Hannibal Johnson, now 8 years of age. That plaintiff is able to bring up and educate such child, as she has done ever since defendant abandoned her, is the owner of real estate in her separate estate and has a suitable home for herself and said child. That the defendant is not able, and is not a suitable person to bring up and educate such child properly.

That there is no community property owned by plaintiff and defendant.

Wherefore, plaintiff prays that the defendant be cited to appear and answer this petition, and that, on final hearing hereon, she do have judgment of divorce dissolving the marriage of plaintiff and the defendant; that plaintiff be awarded the care, custody and education of the said child born of said marriage, and for such other and further relief, general and special as the court shall deem proper to grant, with all costs of suit.

Issued this 4th day of January, 1943. Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Colorado City, Texas, this 4th day of January, A. D. 1943.

H. A. Pond, Clerk District Court, Mitchell County, Texas.

Several have called about the money for the Home. No, it is not too late to get your contribution in. Leave it with the pastor, Mrs. Otis Muns or at J. E. Mahon's store.

Since we do not have any local Church Publication we are imposing on the local news and general public with personal datum. Our Upper Rooms were here will arrive by next Sunday. Our Church Calendar, January 3rd, was to be Covenant Sunday but materials did not arrive. Week of Prayer, January 3-10. Laymen's Week, February 21-23. Week of Dedication, February 28-March 7. Lent. Due to conditions locally we shall not strive for all these but some are to be observed if we can at all.

After the war comes some sort of peace, and due to the magnitude of the peace conditions it is well that our leaders are talking some factors in the possible peace to be made. Peace cannot be made the next day after the machines of destruction stop. It was too quickly pushed aside before. And as expensive as the war has been, is, and may be, the peace may cost us a lot more than the war has, not in dollars and human life of course but in character, adjustment, larger considerations for certain classes and their conditions. It might be well now to talk war less and think more of peace. Those reading our Church papers are getting some valuable thoughts on this. In the Christian Advocate of December 24, the Advocate Interviewer with Mr. Wallace quotes this from Mr. Wallace: "And I would emphasize the fact that whereas the possibility of bringing the Kingdom of heaven on earth once seemed a fantasy, it is so great now that an inspired leadership in the church preaching the Gospel in modern terms throughout the whole world, can make it come to pass." Let all skeptics, doubters, and those who give a doubtful view of a realistic interpretation of the New Testament take notice to what this layman said. Hold this up before your mind's eye and look at it, pour it into your mental test tube and experiment with it; take it into your laboratory of interpretation and dissect it. This is driving at some of the cost of the peace we mentioned.

We as churches are going to have a duty to perform that we have never faced before, and only "inspired leaders" should be given any place of direction. "The saint can see much farther from his knees than can the worldling from the astronomer's lab."

We shall look for a good attendance on time next Sunday at all services. Church School at 10:15 and the evening services at the usual hour.

ATTENTION CAR OWNERS. You Must Have Your Tires Inspected BEFORE JANUARY 31 TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHT TO DRIVE. Deadline. COMMERCIAL VEHICLES JANUARY 15. PASSENGER CARS JANUARY 31. Are YOU risking your right to drive—to get tires, even gasoline? Many local car owners are—by delaying having their tires inspected. You MUST have your tires inspected no later than January 31st. Many will put it off until the last minute—there will be a big rush at the deadline. To keep your car operating, your government is trying to make it possible for you to get tires, whether you have an A, B or C check. But you must take proper care of your tires, and inspection helps you to do this by immediately showing whether your tires need repairing, or whether you need replacing or new tires. OFFICIAL TIRE INSPECTION ONLY 25c PER CAR. Walker Motor Co.

IF YOU KNOW KEEP IT TO YOURSELF. If you know what ship a sailor is on, or what company or regiment a soldier is with overseas then you know a military "secret", the Office of Censorship in Washington warns.

This secret ought not to be published. This is why: A general needs to know the strength of his opponent; how many men, guns, ships, planes there are in each theatre of war.

The Nazis and the Japs want to know these things about our forces. Their agents assemble the information like this: from one paper, an item reveals the 600th Infantry is in Australia; another that the U. S. S. Wisconsin is in the Mediterranean; another, that the 206th Tank Battalion is in North Africa.

Add hundreds of these bits of information together, and our enemies have a too-accurate estimate of American military strength.

These are our soldiers—Americans all—whom we endanger by these "little slips."

This is not a "blackout" on the news about our soldiers. Considerable latitude in reporting personal experiences gives the enemy little military information, if the troop units, the ship names are kept secret. But in articles about soldiers and sailors and in the addresses for them: don't give away their fighting units.

Bombs That Demolish

Demolition bombs weighing 4,000 and 8,000 pounds each are rarely used today in Europe because the 2,000 pounder has sufficient destructive power for almost any kind of job. Released from a plane flying at 300 miles an hour at an altitude of 20,000 feet, this bomb, upon explosion, produces enough force to lift one ton six miles in the air.

Improved SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for January 10

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education...

JESUS INSTRUCTS A GREAT TEACHER

LESSON TEXT—John 3:1-16. GOLDEN TEXT—For God so loved the world...

Nicodemus came to our Lord when He was in Jerusalem for the Passover. Jesus had chosen six of His disciples...

In high and holy indignation He had driven the money changers out of the temple. The Pharisees who looked for the coming of the Messiah...

In answering his questions Jesus reveals the necessity, the nature, and the method of regeneration...

Men seek to enter the household of God by almost any other means—culture, reform, character building...

Jesus was not unduly impressed by the dignity and high station of his visitor, nor by the visitor's courteous acknowledgment...

God is no respecter of persons. This "doctor of divinity" must be born again, just as was the illiterate fisherman...

The surprising thing is that this teacher of theology could be so ignorant of the one essential element of a real spiritual experience...

Two reasons are given by our Lord for the "must" of verse 7: (1) The kingdom of God is a spiritual kingdom...

The next door was already fastened. He wasted no time at all on it—those doors at the Hacienda Estrada...

He burst into the kitchen and halted there, briefly triumphant, while he could hear the staccato tapping of her racing feet...

It was upon such an arresting scene that Cal Roundtree, coming at a dead run, burst, gun in hand, Cole Cody, hand lifted, gazed at him frowningly...

"You get out!" she cried in an anger that made her beautiful for any man, not likewise angry, to gaze upon...

"Some other time," said Cody, very brittle with her. Behind Ann Lee, Aunt Jenifer appeared. She wasn't laughing; she wasn't even exactly smiling...

Ann Lee, close to her wits' end, remembered the recent visit of the amiable Mr. Calhoun Roundtree, remembered in a flash the gift he had made her...

Nicodemus came to Jesus by night—but he came. Have you come? Will you come now?

ACE IN THE HOLE by JACKSON GREGORY

THE STORY SO FAR: Ann Lee and Cole Cody, beneficiaries under two identical wills made by Early Bill Cole...

CHAPTER VIII If Ann Lee had not been such a precipitate, hair-trigger sort of creature, a lovely little package of all sorts of unmanageable impulses...

"Good morning, Mr. Cody," said Aunt Jenifer, smiling friendliness. "Lovely morning, ain't it?"

"You're right!" he told her enthusiastically. "Take this morning just as it is, you couldn't beat it with a ten foot pole..."

"Just a minute there!" Cody called after them. "Me, too, I'm coming in!"

"I don't think you have any business here, Mr. Cody," Ann said crisply. "You are not invited and you are not coming in..."

"Can you get it through your head," said a very rude William Cole Cody, "that you and I, far apart as the poles in everything else, agree right up to the hilt on one thing?"

"Like fun you are!" Ann cried angrily. And, stepping swiftly backward, she slammed the door in his face.

He set his hand to the latch just in time to hear her drop the oaken bar into place. He swore gently under his breath, scratched his head, jerked his hat forward...

Then, when she began to feel entirely mistress of the situation, thinking that he meant to draw back and go his way, he leaped forward, taking half the room in one pounce...

"You little tiger pup!" he called her. There was a convenient chair. He dropped down into it and pulled her down across his knees...

"You get out!" she said again. "I mean it. You get out or I'll kill you." a long, poison-tipped, altogether venomous lance.

"Me, I'm Cole Cody. William Cole Cody. Just Cody for short. Now what? Want to do anything about it?"

Cal Roundtree stood rubbing his bruised jaw. "Yes, I do," he said, having duly meditated. "Two things. I want to get your shirt off, see how bad you're hurt and mend you up again..."

"Shake, Cody," he said. "Old Early Bill says so. You're welcome; like the old Spanish used to say, the race is yours."

So Cal got young Cody as far along as a chair in the living room—the same old chair in which Early Bill had sat just before he lunged up, to die standing up—and yanked up his shirt tail and sought his wound.

Household Hints

- A little salt added to the last rinse water will prevent clothes from freezing on the line. To oil a door lock, dip key into oil and turn several times in lock. A few cranberries added to apple sauce when cooking will give it a delightfully new and interesting flavor. If a fruit pie runs out in the oven, sprinkle salt over the spilled juice and the oven will not become filled with smoke. When liquid glue has hardened so as to be unfit for use, try softening it with a bit of hot vinegar, just a little at a time.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

The average car owner drove 9,000 miles in 1941, ticked off at the rate of about 6,700 miles a year in 1942 before gasoline rationing was nationalized. Essential driving is now pegged at an average of 5,000 miles annually and the "A" rationing book allows for 2,850 miles of driving a year. Don't always be content with an "on the wheel" inspection. Have your tires removed from the wheel, spread and closely checked. You'll be surprised what this inspection sometimes shows in the way of internal carcass injuries. Catch them in time and save mileage. In 1941 a total new supply of rubber amounting to 1,447,000 tons, 310,000 or 21% consisted of reclaimed rubber.

Baptist Church Notes

The new year was started off with a good Sunday school and church attendance. Also the goal of $1000 worth of bonds was reached by the gift of a bond from Mr. and Mrs. Bert Shepard and Mrs. Dan Butler's Sunday School class. Someone has said "Success is getting what you want; happiness is wanting what you get." A goal was set and reached, success and happiness have been attained but a new year is ahead; will we be able to make these same statements at the close of this year.

The W. M. U. announces a check for $157 has been sent to their state treasurer for the "Lottie Moon" Christmas offering. This is an increase of $1.00 over last year's offering.

"The feast of the sermon is always followed by spiritual indignation unless followed by religious exercise." Let us receive more spiritual exercise this year by attending at the church services. Sunday School begins at 11 A. M.; morning worship at 11 A. M.; W. M. S., Brotherhood and Training Unions at 7:15 P. M.; and evening worship at 8 P. M.

WPB ASKS FARMERS TO BRING IN SCRAP

Nelson Telegram Points Out
Need For Heavy Farm Metal

WASHINGTON — The Nation's farmers will take the pole position in the scratch drive for heavy iron and steel scrap during the closing weeks of 1942, according to a telegram from WPB Chairman Donald Nelson to the editors of more than 10,000 weekly newspapers and farm publications.

Emphasizing the need for heavy scrap to strengthen the greater abundance of lighter household scrap, which flooded the country's scrap yards as a result of the recent newspaper campaign, Mr. Rosenwald called attention to the fact that, next to industry, the agricultural areas are the best source of heavy scrap.

Already in the spotlight because of his extra efforts to increase crop production in the face of serious wartime shortages of manpower and machinery, the farmer thus assumes the added burden of supplying war materials needed in the production of ships, tanks, guns, aircraft and all kinds of mechanized equipment.

Despite the difficulties of crop production, however, farmers have taken an active part in scrap collection from the beginning, and have already made a good showing. Now that their harvests have been completed and they are free to devote a large share of their time to other activities, the Government is asking them to make an all-out effort to collect and turn in every pound of idle scrap still remaining on almost every farm, during the next few weeks.

All of the manpower and transportation facilities of local salvage committees in the rural areas will be thrown into this year-end effort of 1942, Mr. Rosenwald said. The press has been asked to give widespread publicity to the drive and to use their influence to coordinate the activities of all cooperating groups, such as the American Farm Bureau, the National Grange, the Farmer's Union, the Four-H Clubs, the Future Farmers of America, the Boy Scouts, the RRA Cooperative, the WPA, State and County Highway Departments, the Farm Implements Dealers, the Automobile Service Stations, and the local civic groups.

U.S.D.A. War Bond Chairman, County Agents, and Community Leaders, who have been among the most active in farm scrap collection in the past, are in a position to give important aid, and will be called upon to take a leading part.

Conservation Department officials point out that in many sections of the country this drive will be a race against the weather, and that the time should be lost in getting started. Winter weather will be a handicap, but unless transportation is completely paralyzed, the work of collection, it is believed will be prosecuted with the utmost vigor. "Snow, ice, rain and mud, will not stop our men on the fighting front," said Eric K. Marks, Chief of the Farm Scrap Section, "and we know it will not stop the army of farmers and volunteer workers in this drive for heavy farm scrap."

Reports coming in from every section of the country indicate that the amount of iron and steel scrap still remaining on American farms far exceeds the tonnage so far burned up. In fact, it is evident that the surface has hardly been scratched, and it is for this reason that great hopes are held out for a smashing success in the current effort.

A word of caution is voiced by the Department of Agriculture to all who participate in this drive, not to overlook the fact that usable parts should be removed from old machines and salvaged for future use. This is because farm machinery is now being rationed, and all existing farm machines must be kept in operating condition. Save the usable parts; repair every machine that can be used; scrap the rest.

Already there are signs that this will prove to be one of the most popular of civilian war efforts. Farmers know of the records set up in city drives for household scrap, and they do not intend to be beaten by their city cousins. They know that more farm scrap will help to win the war.
