Local boards must fill their January call with men 20 years or older if they have them. If necessary to reach its quota, a board may send men under 20 for induction. Eighty-three out of every 100 men inducted in October were 20 years or older.

Perryton's downtown business district was decorated for Christmas this week, with brightly colored aluminum foil garlands being strung across the streets.

Colored lights, bells and stars complete the decorations. The installation work was done by employees of the Community Public Service Co. and the City of Perryton. It took two full working days by employees of the company and city to put up the decorations.

About half of the decorations are new, having been shipped to the Chamber of Commerce free of charge by the Valley Decorating Co. of Fresno, Calif., to replace decorations damaged by wind during the Christmas season last year.

County Gets Cotton Quota

The Ochiltree county cotton allotment for 1954 is 178 acres.

But it is unlikely that any will be planted next spring. In 1951, there were 1,133 acres planted to cotton more as an experiment than anything else. While the yields were fair, the distances producers had to haul the cotton to gins made the crop net less than expected and no cotton was grown in the county for the next two years.

County "cotton farmers" will not be allowed to vote in the Dec. 15 referendum on acreage controls and price supports since there was no cotton acreage in the county in 1953.

County's Share Of F-M Paving Set at $40,000

Ochiltree county's share of the four miles of farm-to-market road south of Farnsworth will be $40,000, according to the agreement signed last week with the State Highway Department.

This newest addition to the county's paved farm-to-market road network will extend east four miles from the end of FM 376 nine miles south of Farnsworth.

Estimated cost of the four miles is $46,900 and the state will pay the $6,900 in addition to furnishing engineering services and other necessary details.

Some person correctly identifying the farm will receive a free Herald subscription and the owner of the farm will receive a mounted photograph of their farm by calling at the Herald office for it. Member Officers Elected Mail Ballot

Members will be mailed this year by the Chamber of Commerce to elect six new directors for the organization for 1954. The outgoing directors are Lawrence Gilmer LaMaster, Audie Virgil Castle, Harlan Alton Witt.

Men have been nominated for the six vacancies. They are: George Owens, Harold Ma-kin Koehn, J. D. Johnson, Jackson, Coke Harlow, Lon-ador, Paul Hardy, Bob Jack M. Allen, Gene Bar-laster Baumann.

Other directors of the year are C. E. Whippo, Har-ison, F. L. Gerard, Percy and Roy Stinson.

Active plans have been for the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet in January, depending upon the availability of speakers. Bill Bird, South-manager of the U. S. Cham-ber of Commerce, has been con- sidered but has not yet accepted making engagement.

Stockmen Apply for Feed Aid, One Received

Twenty-nine applications for government aid in securing livestock feed were received last week after Ochiltree county was placed back in the disaster area, reports Elliott Lee, county ASC secretary.

Of these 29 applications, six were disapproved. To date, none of the feed has been received under the new program.

The emergency feed program consists of government assistance in buying either hay or feed, with local dealers handling the feed. The assistance in buying hay consists of state and federal payments of the cost of the hay.

In purchasing mixed feeds, the stockman buys feed from a local feed mixer, getting the feed at a reduced price if he has an approved application from the USDA drought committee. The government then replaces the raw materials to the feed mixer from CCC stocks, which allows the mixer a margin for handling and allows the stockman to buy feed at considerably less than regular market price.

TURKEY FOR TWELVE—Members of the family of Mrs. Clara Margerum, a widow with 11 children, gathered for Thanksgiving dinner at the home of a friend, Mrs. J. R. Packwood of Urdandale near Dallas, Tex. Four of the children were adopted by Mrs. Margerum, 35, and her husband before he died a year ago. Mrs. Margerum was unable to keep the family together on her earnings as a practical nurse and had to send them to Buckner Orphan Home in Dallas. They returned to the home after eating the 35-pound turkey. (L.P. Photo)

A Bird in the Hand

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—Bert Cooper, director of the state department of Business and Administration, did a double take.

He was happy when the legislature last spring enacted a law hiking his pay $1,000 a year. But belatedly and sorrowfully he discovered the legislature had neglected to provide the money for the increase.

Don Dietrich, a Texas Tech student at Lubbock, was a visitor in the home of his parents, the Geo. M. Dietrichs, from Wednesday until Sunday of last week.

Social Security Rates Go Up On January 1

The social security tax rate for persons whose work counts toward old-age and survivors insurance is scheduled to increase on the first of January, John R. Sanderson, manager of the Amarillo Social Security Office, reminded employers, employees, self-employed people today.

This scheduled increase in tax contribution is in accordance with the 1950 amendments to the social security law, and was enacted by Congress in anticipation of future obligations of the program.

Employees in jobs covered by the law will have 2 percent instead of the present 1½ percent deducted from their pay beginning with the first of January up to earnings of $3600 a year; their employers will contribute an equal amount. The new rates will apply to all taxable wages paid after December 31, 1953, regardless of when earned.

The social security tax for the self-employed is scheduled to increase from the present 2½ percent to 3 percent, for the period commencing January 1, 1954. Since the self-employed whose work is covered by the law pay their tax just once yearly at the time of filing their Federal income tax return, they will pay the present 2½ percent social security tax on their 1953 income that counts toward social security. This will be due not later than March 15, 1954. Their first payments at the increased rate of 3 percent will be due March 15, 1955, for the calendar year 1954.

In the meantime the Internal Revenue Service reports that employers will be furnished late this year with income tax withholding tables and Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) tables reflecting rates applicable next year.

The next scheduled increase, six years from now, in 1960, will be to 2½ percent each for employer and employee, and to 3½ percent for the self-employed.

Prodigal Steer

SUNBURY, Pa. (AP)—It took one white-nosed Hereford steer belonging to George Ward, several weeks to decide that the grass grows greener at home, after all.

Runaway Car Smashes House

A rather "freak" accident was investigated by city policemen Arlie C. Binlon and Wayne Gyger last Tuesday night.

A car driven by Josephine Cobb, 15, smashed into the side of the home of Mrs. W. F. Taylor, 501 S. Baylor, doing considerable damage to the house and some to the 1941 Ford which hit the house.

Miss Cobb told the officers that she was with a group of young people parked across the street by the First Baptist church and that she got into the car, accidentally turned on the ignition switch and hit the starter button at about the same time.

The car, which was in reverse, started backward at a fairly good rate of speed. Miss Cobb, who doesn't know how to drive, pushed at the brake and hit the throttle, zooming the car backwards across the street, through a tree row and into the side of the Taylor house before it stalled.

Witnesses were Harry Wysong of Hardesty and Billie Black of Perryton, neither of whom were in the car when it had the accident. The car was owned by Bob Black of Perryton and damage was estimated at $90.

Big Crowd Sees New Studebaker

Approximately 500 persons visited the Collingsworth Motor Co. Friday and Saturday to view the new 1954 Studebaker automobiles. Free coffee and doughnuts were served to the visitors and there were favors for all.

A number of valuable door prizes were given away during the two days. Mrs. B. F. Hance won a $100 certificate on a new Studebaker, as did Mrs. Jim Hargrave and Amos Morris. J. R. Russell won the deep fry and Roy Doerrle of Booker won the toaster.

A CAR HIT IT—The home of Mrs. W. F. Taylor, 501 S. Baylor, looked like this after being by an automobile last Tuesday night. The car, driven by Josephine Cobb, 15-year-old daughter and Mrs. Joe Cobb, was started by accident when parked across the street at the First Baptist and roared in reverse across the street into the Taylor yard and smashed into the rear of the house.

Proper Care Adds Life to Farm Equipment

COLLEGE STATION — Most farmers would jump at the opportunity to increase the life of their farm machinery 15 to 35 percent.

Every experienced farm operator knows the importance of proper machine servicing, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, but many are guilty of leaving their equipment outside, exposed to the sabotage of winter's rain and snow.

Proper winter protection will substantially prolong the life of a machine—up to 35 per cent, Ulich says. Machinery should be kept under shelter when not in use. Weathering is poison to equipment, the engineer points out. Keep the machine shed doors closed and windows screened to prevent poultry and birds from roosting on equipment.

Exposed metal parts should be painted to help prevent corrosion, he says. Keep cultivator shovels, plow molds boards, jointers and rolling cutters clean and greased. These parts are bare steel and have no coating of protection against rust.

Inspect all equipment before it goes back into service. This can be done during the winter, Ulich says, when machinery is idle. Repair bent sprockets, sickle blades, lever arms, combine sieves, manure spreader fingers and torn canvases. Machinery should be inspected for corroded bolts.

Not only will winter protection increase equipment life, he concludes, but inspection and correction of minor irregularities will avoid a costly break down during next year's harvest.

Lt. Harlin W. Parsons, who was in the States October 30, is stationed at Fort Lyautey, French Morocco, N. Africa. Mrs. Parsons, daughters, Brenda and Mary, will leave soon and expect to join him by Christmas. Mrs. Parsons is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Bert Manning. The Parsons will be in Africa for a couple of years.

Word received here from Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lust of Woodlake, Calif., former Boyd residents, states that they are doing fine. Their son, Verl, is a senior in high school at Woodlake. Mrs. Lust's brother, Dean Dowers, works at Underwood, Wash. Another brother Lloyd and his family live at Modesto, Calif. and Mr. and Mrs. Burley Dowers live in Woodlake. Mrs. Lust's mother, who will be remembered here as Mrs. Myza Dowers, now Mrs. Burley Melson of Woodlake is enjoying good health.

More Philippine Rice

MANILA (AP)—The Philippines 1952-53 rice production exceeds by several million bushels the island's pre-war record harvest, the Department of Agriculture and Natural Resources reports. The department said the harvest for 1952-53 was more than 147 million bushels.

The report gave credit to the U. S. Mutual Security Agency and its Philippines counterpart for the increase.

Melon Mystery

DUNCAN, Okla. (AP)—Here's a switch on watermelon stealing stories:

Clifford Green called police to report a melon raid—someone had left his front yard "covered with watermelons." Police hurried to the scene but could find no clue to the identity of Green's benefactor.

Green told the officers to forget the matter, he was happy with his free watermelon patch.

Is It A Sin — Or A Blessing?

One of the most precious possessions of America is its freedom of expression.

So long as our people want this cherished freedom they shall have it. But if it is taken away, by one devious method or another, we will have lost the very thing our forefathers fought and died for. Our predecessors created this new world of ours because they wanted freedom of expression, the right to think and write and pray as each individual wished.

That is why we have America today. That's why the public should become more than a little concerned when governmental bodies, boards and bureaus try to take it away.

Today there is an all-out effort on the part of the leaders of several groups to stifle the thought and the action of others within their own organization. It is done under the guise of ethics or professional codes. It is done with the pretense of PROTECTING the public.

It is the thinking of these individuals that if we can keep the public from patronizing our competitors we will do the public a great favor. Few business and professional men ever consider their competitors fit to do business with. Few think that the competitor's product is as good as their own. Very few can see why people trudge to the competitor's door. That's natural, for few people like their enemies, especially if it affects their purse.

But people like to be invited places. That's why they patronize the other fellow. Mostly it is because the competitor advertised — and invited them in.

The public likes clean offices, neat and courteous clerks. Any good advertiser knows that it is foolish to invite the public to his place of business until and unless his office, or store is in tip-top condition. He knows too that the surest way to lose that customer, once he has him is to sell faulty merchandise.

So the advertising merchant has to sell a product or service that is as good or better than the non-advertiser's. He has to keep his store in A-1 condition. He has to hire the best educated and best trained personnel. He has too much at stake to do otherwise.

The result is — he gets the business. Well, that makes the non-advertiser mad. He wants to do something about it. Something that is, besides advertising. So, if he belongs to a trade or "professional" organization he goes to that group and complains. Finally he gets enough brethren solid on the idea that by preventing these competitors from advertising they can get back some of this business they lost through neglect and perhaps even drive the competition out of existence. At least they can jack up the price of their products.

So they seek the aid of their organization, the legislature, a governmental board—all the help they can get to regulate these competitors out of business.

They would prefer to stifle the right to advertise—the freedom to speak, if you please—rather than to meet competition and competitor's prices fairly and squarely.

Is it a sin to advertise? No sir, my friend, it's a blessing. A blessing to the people. Advertising has taken the cat out of the cracker barrel, cleaned up offices and stores, improved products, and through volume sales, reduced prices to the consumer.

The man who advertises wants you to come into his place of business. He wants to be of service to you. And in 99 out of 100 cases he offers you a product or a service of superior quality at a price often much lower than any non-advertising competitor. Try him and see!

Oversized Trunk

MECHANICSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. A. V. MacQuarrie have arrived in Mechanicburg with their three children and a 670-cubic-foot box of home belongings.

The family, which came to the United States recently from the Isle of Man near England, said they had managed to squeeze a living room suite, three bedroom suites and "some odds and ends" into the huge box. It took three men 30 hours each to pack, MacQuarrie explained.

From the SIDELINE

with HAROLD HUDSON

We watched the Phillips-Olton bi-district football game in Amarillo last Friday and now we know the secret defense against the Blackhawk attack. Get some tough linemen, knock down the Phillips line and keep them down. This is the strategy Olton employed during the last half when they forged ahead, 20-13, only to have the game tied up 20-20 on a desperation pass by Phillips. Had Olton played as hard the first half as the last, we think they would have won going away.

Lubbock was selected as the site for the Phillips-Stamford game this week, and if you wonder how a town swings this sort of thing, you might be interested in knowing what Lubbock offered. They furnish the tickets, officials, ticket sellers, revenue from concessions, dormitory space for the teams and free use of Jones stadium. No other town offered as much.

The county PMA office in the courthouse is no more. It is now the ASC office, meaning Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation. Duties of the office are the same as before. This makes the fourth time the initials have changed since we've been with the Herald. First it was the AAA office, then ACA, then PMA and now ASC. Elliott Lee is still the office manager or secretary or whatever you want to call him.

Now the unions are organizing Santa Claus. In San Francisco the AFL American Guild of Variety Artists, to which most department store Santa Clauses belong, announced a new wage schedule. Last year, Santa got $100 for a 5-day, 27½ hour week, or $3.65 per hour. This year the scale will be $125 a week, or $4.54 an hour.

About the only thing in a modern house that doesn't have a button on it is a husband's shirt.

The way to tell the difference between an automobile and a family car is to look in the back seat, according to Homer Steen of the Floydada Hesperian. In an automobile, this section is reserved for—and kept in condition to receive—passengers. In a family car it can, in emergency, be used for this purpose, but only after one or more of the following objects have been picked up, moved over, dumped out in the driveway, or otherwise disposed of:

A carton of empty pop bottles and one free-rolling extra; a bicycle part on its way to the repair shop; a car seat for junior and a few add toys to keep him amused on the road; a box of old clothes; two orange peels and a cracker; a six-week layer of dust.

Speaking of children, we have learned something since becoming a father with two small boys around the house. Before learning about parenthood, we always supposed that this traditional afternoon nap was for the benefit of the youngsters—it gave them needed rest or something. Now we know better—the afternoon nap is for the benefit of mama. If there were no siesta for the small fry during which mama can calm her nerves and rest up a bit—she'd be in far worse shape than the kids would after missing this little bit of sleep.

Jack Payne, the Herald Linotype operator and horse racer, has a new remedy for eradicating bindweed—fertilize it to death. He read about this treatment in a horse magazine and is now trying it. All you do is cover the bindweed patch with a thick layer of fresh manure. In his case it is horse manure, of which he seems to have plenty. The bindweed is burned up, killed out, and in the spring instead of having a dead patch of ground, as is the case when using salt or boracue, the ground is fertile and ready to grow something worth while. More about this treatment next spring during bindweed time.

It's about time for Santa Claus letters again, and we are reminded of a little boy's letter a number of years ago to the Herald which caused his parents some embarrassment. It was Jack Morris Allen, now the county attorney and Jaycee president, who wrote his Santa letter, making it brief and to the point. "Dear Santa," he said, "I want a bowl of oatmeal." That was all.

Judge and Mrs. Jack Allen were accused of not feeding the boy, which of course was not true. It just happened that Jack Morris liked oatmeal better than anything and never did get enough of it, apparently.

Next year is election year, which reminds us that we haven't yet paid our poll tax—have you? There will be a drive for poll tax payments in January, and it shouldn't be difficult to sell poll tax receipts in the election year. Our local and state officials will be elected in 1954 and there should be some interesting races, especially on the state level.

Strange paradox: Those who have the time and money to be sinful, can't afford to get caught at it.

Trouble On The Lawn

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A taxpayer telephoned police and said he wanted written permission to mow his lawn in his underwear. Sorry, said Desk Sgt. Vincent Kwapich, you'd better wear a swimming suit. No, answered the nature lover. It's a free country and it's shorts for me.

The sergeant's phone rang again. The man was wearing his abbreviated and the neighbors didn't like it.

Puts Bee On Neighbors

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Neighbors complained about the bees Otto Swenson kept in his yard and had him arrested. He quickly brushed up on the law. The judge dropped the case.

Swenson had learned that the law says that neighbors or no neighbors, all he had to do to keep bees legally is get a permit from the town clerk. The permit cost him twenty-five cents.

Wolf Creek Philosopher Colleges End Johnson Grass

(Ed. note: The Wolf Creek Philosopher is riled up this week, his letter reveals. He'll get over it, we're sure.)

Dear editor:

I generally take a calm attitude toward most things, from high taxes to atom bombs, from trustee elections to Presidential elections, but this week I don't mind sayin I'm up in arms and frowthin at the mouth.

I was out here yesterday enjoyin the afternoon sunshine and watchin my cows graze as peacefully as though there never would be another nother when I decided to look over a copy of the Dallas News which I got home with from town because some shoes I'd had half-soled was wrapped up in it.

I was readin along as peacefully as my cows was grazin when I ran into a statement by no less a man than the Mayor of Dallas. It ruined my day.

Accordin to this statement, Dallas is raisin some money to help finance Southern Methodist University and the Mayor was urgin the folks to shell out.

"What would Dallas be like without SMU?" the Mayor asked. "Why it would set our city back more than half a century," he answered. "The culture and atmosphere derived from the university are what we need to build the great Southwestern city we are trying to build."

Well, up to there, what he said suited me all right. I'm in favor of all institutions of higher learning. There's a period in lots of young people's lives and most professors' when college is about the only handy place for em at the time.

But the Dallas Mayor kept on talkin. "When you wonder about how much to give in this drive," he continued, "just envision a pasture of Johnson grass. That's what was out there before they built SMU."

That's what burns me up. What's wrong with Johnson grass? And further more, that's the first time I ever heard of anybody recommendin supportin a university because it got rid of Johnson grass. There ought to be some other reason for supportin a university, and some other way of gettin rid of Johnson grass.

In fact, if the Mayor is gonna set out to eradicate Johnson grass by buildin universities on it, he's gonna wind up with more universities on his hands than he knows what to do with. Up to now, there ain't been a university anywhere with the brains to figure out an easy way to get rid of Johnson grass, outside I guess of smotherin it to death with buildings.

I wish to inform the Dallas Mayor I got lots of Johnson grass out here on my farm, but it never occurred to me to attack it with a university.

The Mayor has gone too far. There's room in Texas for SMU and Johnson grass too. I hope Dallas puts its SMU drive over, but I can tell em now it's one of the most impractical ways I know to get rid of Johnson grass. Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Veterans Forum

Q. Is there any deadline for starting under the Korean GI Bill?

A. Yes. Veterans who left service before August 20, 1952, must start before August 20, 1954. Veterans separated after August 20, 1952 have two years from their separation date in which to begin.

Q. I am a disabled veteran, and I recently completed Public Law 16 training and was declared rehabilitated. But now I find I'm not able to work at the job I trained for, since my disability has become worse. Would it be possible for me to get additional training under the law?

A. Yes, it is possible for you to re-enter training, so long as your need for vocational rehabilitation is reestablished.

Q. May I get a GI loan to buy an apartment building, if I intend to live in one of the apartments?

A. Yes, so long as the total number of separate units is not more than four, if you're buying the apartment yourself. If more than one veteran buys, one additional unit may be added to the basic four for each veteran participating.

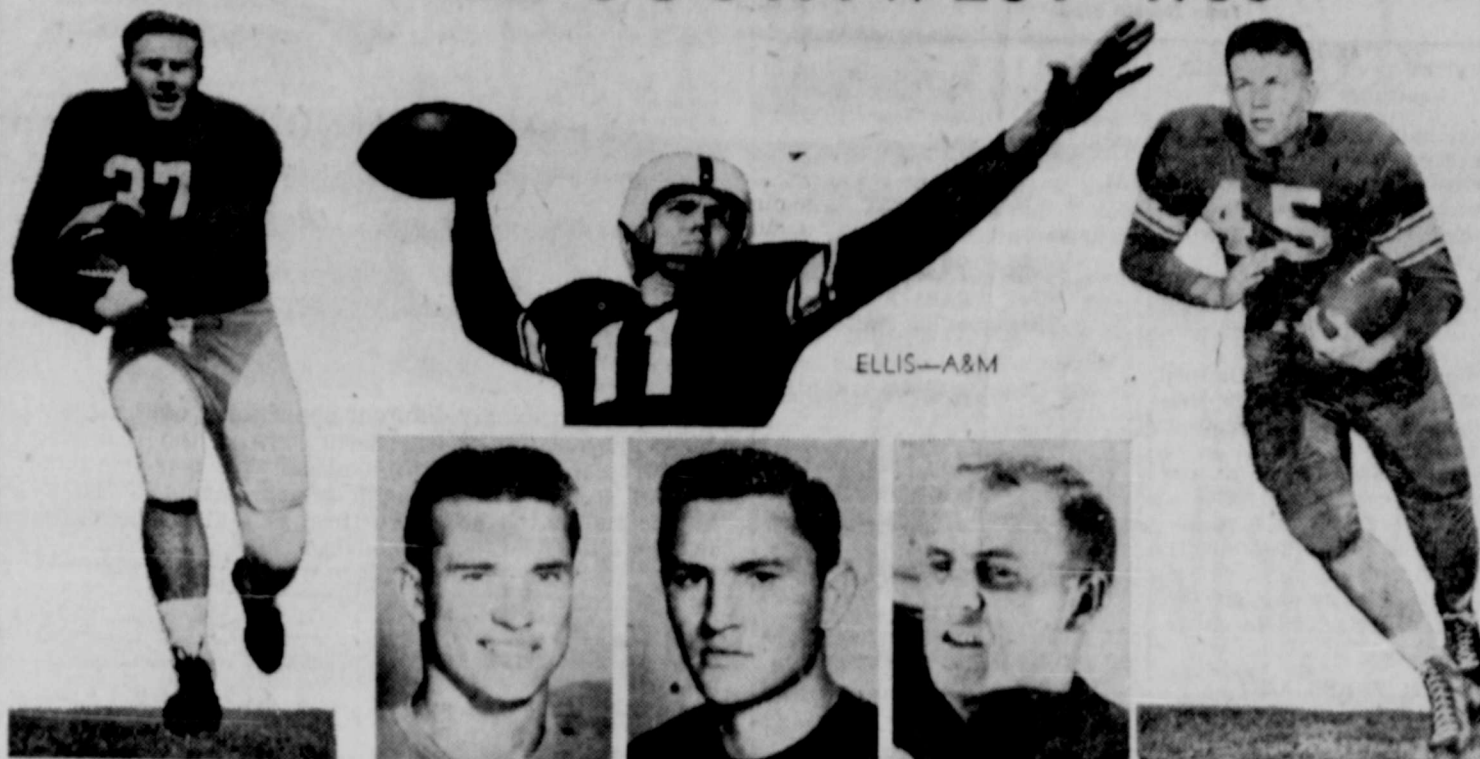

Q. I applied for disability compensation from VA, and I feel that the VA's rating should be higher than it is. Can I appeal?

A. Yes, you may appeal within one year from the date an official determination was made in your case.

Joy For Governor

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—"Joy," the wire haired errier at the executive residence, presented four bundles of joy to Gov. John Lodge's family—two males and two females.

The Lodges named the males "Ike" and the females "Mamie." "But," complained Mrs. Lodge, "it didn't seem to do much good. If you call either 'Mamie' or 'Ike'—they all come running."

Booker HD Club President Gives Year's Activities

BOOKER—Mrs. Ed Lehman, president of the Booker home demonstration club, reported on the year's activities to members at the meeting last week.

Mrs. Lehman pointed out that club members had attended a short course in record keeping which aided them in maintaining records of the contents of their homes in case of fire.

Health was studied during the year, with such things as a simple way to figure calories for diets, physical indications of drug addition, advice on polio being learned by members.

Eleven women learned to etch glass under the instruction of Eva Conley and Kate Blau who attended a training school on the subject.

Agent Roberta Pugh taught members on clothing methods, how to make clothing and study fabrics.

Stay stitching, buttonholes, zippers and pockets were studied with Willene Lee and Edna Bowdle teaching members after attending a clothing construction training school.

Facings, interfacing, sleeves, hems, collars, belts and belt buckles concluded the six meetings in clothing construction and there were 33 women brought up to date with the newest methods of sewing.

Edna Bowdle, Bessie Robertson, Eva Conley, Roberta Pugh, Estelle Lehman, Willene Lee and Erma Weinett attended the district HD meeting in Dumas in April.

Mrs. L. A. Morris reviewed the life of Ovetta Culp Hobby at the May meeting.

"The coffee's terrible but it's the only restaurant in town"

Muddy coffee. Soggy toast. Indigestible food. Bad luck for the hungry salesman who stops in that town for a bite to eat. The missing ingredient is "competition."

Funny how that word has a way of stirring up activity.

People who manufacture things, for example, prickly all over when they think about competition. They sit up evenings fretting about it, and spend millions to improve their products. The result, of course, is high quality at lowest possible cost. And the winner of a contest like that has to be the public.

People are tempted sometimes to wonder what life would be like without competition. For a clue, they might note the shabby fall in living standards in countries where clumsy fingers of state monopoly have strangled competition.

Over 3,000 manufacturing firms in America share in the electrical business. We can name offhand 20 sizable firms that compete at giving the public better refrigerators. There are more than 200 rivals in the making of electric motors. At least 37 in electric irons; 53 in home freezers; 25 turn out vacuum cleaners. And so on down the list.

Some companies competing with General Electric today actually sprang up from the seeds of General Electric research. New products have invited new companies. In certain cases, whole new industries. And more will come.

The competitive race just never ends. That sounds tiring for the contestants, but in fact it is healthy exercise. Healthy for the country, too. At General Electric we wouldn't have it any other way.

Whisnand of Gainesville takes a close look at his .44 caliber revolver with which he fired a single shot to kill Henry Perry Denson, 36-year-old Fort Worth Negro accused in the rape of a white Fort Worth housewife. Ancient House MAXWELLTON, W. Va. (AP)—Local residents think that the Halfway House, a two-story log structure here, is the oldest continually inhabited home west of the Allegheny Mountains.

Now occupied by a school teacher and her family, it is known to be over 200 years old. In times past it was part of a school, a grocery store and a place where travelers could get their horses shod.

No one knows by whom it was built. Its name comes from its location, halfway between Frankford and Lewisburg, W. Va.

Mild Epidemic Of Measles Noted In Texas

AUSTIN, Texas — Measles in Texas is reaching a mild epidemic stage at present, with outbreaks following closely the main lines of travel across the State, according to information made public today by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The number of cases reported to the State Health Department last week are much above the average.

"The peculiar pattern of this spread of measles re-emphasizes the fact that it is a contagious disease, passed on from one person to another," Dr. Cox said. "Guard against exposure by avoiding contact with measles patients."

Dr. Cox said that measles alone is not necessarily a dangerous disease, but dangerous complications, such as streptococcal infections, mastoiditis, and pneumonia which may follow, make it a disease to be carefully nursed, with close attention from a doctor.

"Unskilled treatment of a plain case of measles can result in dangerous complications," Dr. Cox warned, "and it is not to be regarded lightly as simply another childhood disease."

Dr. Cox urged parents to carefully watch children exposed, and at the first sign of temperature, flushed face, sniffles, or watering eyes, advised that the child be put to bed immediately and placed under a doctor's care.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Glaspie of Monte Vista, Colo. and Viola Glaspie of Dumas were guests of their mother, Mrs. Fred Furnish, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

You can own this V-8 for less money than most sixes

FORD IS AMERICA'S LOWEST-PRICED V-8. In fact, it's priced hundreds of dollars under most sixes, too. Yet it's the same type of engine America's costliest cars offer.

FORD IS THE ONLY V-8 IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD. No other car maker has been able to offer a V-8 in the low-price field. Yet Ford has been building V-8's for over twenty-one years!

FORD'S BUILT OVER 13 MILLION V-8'S. Four out of every five V-8's are Ford V-8's. No other maker has had so much experience building so many V-8's.

ONLY FORD'S V-8 HAS THE GAS SAVINGS OF THE AUTOMATIC POWER PILOT. In fact, both Ford's V-8 and Six have the Automatic Power Pilot for more "go" per gallon ... and on "regular" at that!

Ford and Ford alone in the low-price field offers you ... a choice of a completely automatic drive (Fordomatic), Overdrive or Conventional ... and Full-Circle Visibility (most in Ford's field). And Ford hangs onto its value better than any other car regardless of price.

STRAIT is the GATE

"Enter Ye In
at the strait gate . . .
because strait is the gate . . . which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it." Matt
7:13-14.

Strait means narrow, compressed, limited. Americans don't like that. We want the abundant. We like it high, wide and handsome. But God doesn't run the universe just to suit popular nations. The Bible warns us that God doesn't think as we do.

The gate is narrow because there is only one Cross, only one Savior. Jesus said, "I am the way
... no one cometh unto the Father but by me."

The gate is wide because whosoever will may pass through it. God welcomes one and all, and promised not to cast out those who come.

Just inside the strait gate stands the church . . . the fostering mother of all other channels of human well-being.
Have you entered the "strait gate?" Have you discovered the church?

SECOND CHANCE

Trio of Big Name Stars Star In Thrill Picture

Robert Mitchum, Linda Darnell and Jack Palance make their initial co-starring appearance in "Second Chance," which comes to the Ellis Theatre on Tuesday, Thursday, Dec. 8-10.

Linda Darnell appears as an American gangster's ex-sweetheart who flees to South America for personal rehabilitation and to escape his wrath. When she meets American prizefighter Robert Mitchum, who has accidentally killed a man in the ring and has sought to find himself in another country, their paths lead to romance. It also leads them toward danger and death when professional killer Jack Palance arrives on the scene to make sure that she does not return to America to testify against her former boy-friend before a Senate Crime Commission.

The climax is a real thriller and takes place on a funicular railway cable car as the occupants are about to be hurled to the earth several thousand feet below when its cable begins to part.

Tense Action In Boxing Picture

A story about the prizefight ring and the people who live by the merits of the two-fisted guys in the glare of the squared circle comes to the Ellis Theatre on Friday and Saturday.

"Champ for a Day" stars Alex Nicol and Audrey Totter. It has romance, humor and drama in the story about the fight game in a small mid-western city, over-run by racketeers.

Nicol arrives to fill a fight date and the manager he was supposed to meet fails to show. This puts him in the ring with a new manager, mixed up with the racketeers.

How he works his way out of his difficulties and wins the girl is a thrilling sequence of fights, romances and narrow escapes.
